Chapter 1391 The People Supporting Each Other

One strike of the city-toppling sword caught Old God off guard.

She had almost been pulled out of the core world.

And the power of ten consecutive strikes of the city-toppling sword was unstoppable..

Moreover, these ten strikes were not just one.

Ao Hai had fired ten consecutive ten-shots, which was ten-shots!

Under this kind of attack, which sounded like a doll, cracks had already appeared in the old God's core world. The whole world was shaking, and all the space walls in the surroundings were shattering.

Under such circumstances, the old God seemed to be unable to resist.

Sun Ying 'er put her hands on her hips, and a proud expression appeared on her face. "So what if you're the old God? My Rong Rong is the woman under Ling Zhenren's protection!"

"Ling Zhenren?"The old God searched through his memories.

He realized that there was no such person in his mind.

Logically speaking, if it was someone ah Juan knew, after she had swallowed his soul, she should have also obtained Ah Juan's memories.

In the end, the old God's mind was blank with this name. It was as if she knew it, but also as if she didn't.

This was the effect of the "Great Shield spell".

After all, the old God had never seen Wang Ling before, so even if he devoured ah Juan's soul and obtained his memories, it would be useless.

If she had known earlier what kind of "Contestant" was standing behind the person she was facing, it was obvious that with the old God's wisdom, he would never have dared to act so ostentatiously and court death.

So sometimes, being stupid was one thing.

Not having a clear understanding of one's own abilities was another.

In front of him, a hundred city-toppling swords really made the old God feel powerless to reverse the situation.

Her body continued to grow fat, and her already bald head was cut open by the sword qi, causing blood to flow out.

At this most critical moment, the old God took out his other Magic Treasure.

It was a golden holy shield. Although it was golden, it was made of Divine Wood!

A Golden Sacred Spirit Shield!

It was one of the old God's most valuable world-defying magic treasures!

Furthermore, this sacred spirit shield was one of the gifts that Daofather King had given her back then. It was a + 2 world-defying magic treasure! It contained 20% of the power of Chaos!

"Boom!"

A total of 100 city-toppling swords, when stacked together, actually emitted the aura of a divine sea!

The void in front of them was engulfed by Azure Light. Before anyone could see clearly, the billowing sword Qi had already arrived before them.

“Heh! You’re all women! Don’t think that you’re the only one with backing! The person standing behind me is Daofather Wang!”The old God raised the shield of the Holy Spirit. As she took out this magic artifact, her confidence seemed to have increased by quite a bit.

Although the old God had lost the initiative and had become very passive, the existence of the shield of the Holy Spirit seemed to have given the entire situation a new album.

Rumble!

The shield of the Holy Spirit burst out with a dazzling golden light, illuminating the eight barrens and burning the nine heavens. An extremely powerful aura of the Great Dao was emitted!

For a moment, the entire world was filled with countless dharma idols, and all sorts of phantoms of living beings appeared.

Light images, light pythons, light lions, Light Leopards, light pikachu..

Each of these phantom images was as big as a mountain. They ran forward to block the sword for the old God, and blocked all the hundreds of city-toppling swords.

The Sword Qi emitted by Ao Hai collided with the Golden Light and Phantom images of living beings released by the shield of Holy Spirit. The Sky exploded with rolling fog, and the dense fog covered everything.

Lotus Sun slashed the mist in front of her in half, but the old god was holding the shield of the Holy Spirit in front of her with a smug smile on his face.

“With Daofather King’s shield of the Holy Spirit here, can you still split this shield of the Holy Spirit in half?”The old God smiled. This was a + 2 world-defying magic artifact that had fused with 20% of the power of chaos. It was rare in this world!

And most importantly, Daofather King had given her more than just this shield of the Holy Spirit.

She hadn't had the chance to use any other magical artifacts, which were also extremely useful.

But the old God hadn't expected that the first time he had used the shield of the Holy Spirit since his debut was just to deal with a foundation establishment young woman.

Lotus sun pursed her lips in the air. She didn't want to argue with the old God.

It was meaningless and fruitless.

And in front of her, the old God seemed more like a woman who had fallen out of favor.

Because only when she had fallen out of favor would she have such a strong competitive mentality.

Lotus sun disdained to compare herself with the old God, because there was no need for that.

But the old God didn't think so.

"I don't care who's backing you up. No matter how strong that person is, how can he be stronger than the Daofather? The daofather doted on me all those years ago. He gave me a lot of treasures!"

The old God sneered. "I admit that I've underestimated you. For a foundation establishment cultivator like you to force me to use the shield of the Holy Spirit is already unprecedented."

In the face of the overbearing old god, Lotus sun still maintained the dignified posture of a well-bred young lady.

Even though the old God had said provocative words, the girl's expression hadn't wavered in the slightest.

Because the girl knew very well... that Sun Ying 'er would definitely say those words that she didn't want to say no matter what!

Who knows she a well-bred person, the shadow is a talker..

Sure enough, Sun Ying 'er couldn't stand it any longer and put her hands on her hips, on the old God is a meal output: "Slightly slightly!"! You Old Woman! Mouth said that men are not good things, this side also used Wang Daozu to give you things, waste Wang Daozu on Your Infatuation, you? "In this case, you're like green tea to him! "Do gods have green tea too? !"

Gods shouldn't be angry.

But now, the old God had actually lost his mind.

Women and women couldn't be compared.

The girl in front of him was clearly only at the foundation establishment stage, but she had actually gained the battle strength to contend with her. This was enough to prove how much effort the person backing her had put into her..

Mm..

Wang Ling had actually only helped Lotus Sun raise her battle strength in passing, and it wasn't really that much effort.

But there was nothing he could do; the old God had thought so.

Now that Dao ancestor Wang's whereabouts were unknown, the old God really felt like an old woman who had lost her favor.

Lotus Sun's existence made her jealous.

And her jealousy would turn into anger toward Lotus Sun.

"If you want to kill me, Break My Shield of the Holy Spirit First."At this moment, in the void, the old God narrowed his eyes and said softly.

She sat cross-legged on a divine cloud, holding the shield of the Holy Spirit in her hand.

All kinds of golden light creatures surged out from all directions, surrounding her tightly.

“This shield of the Holy Spirit is hard to deal with. Even One Hundred Sword Qis of the city-toppling sword were blocked. In a situation where its strength is insufficient, it’s a good idea to replace it with quantity. Unfortunately, with the strength of Ao Hai’s sword spirit alone, this speed isn’t enough even with ten simultaneous strikes!”

Loopy Toad’s heart clenched as it watched. In its full energy form, the power of ten consecutive strikes of Ao Hai wasn’t enough to knock the old God down.

It looked at Wang Ying and hinted at him to make a move.

But Wang Ying still didn’t move.

Although this was just a mere old God, in Wang Ying’s eyes, this was someone who could be killed with a flip of his hand.

There was no need for the Lord to make a move personally.

He could do it as a shadow.

But if he made a move at such a rare opportunity to gain experience, the battle would end immediately, and it would be disadvantageous to Lotus Sun and Ying ‘er.

Both girls lacked battle experience, and at the same time, they lacked a tacit understanding of each other.

Thus, this was an excellent opportunity to improve.

Fighting an expert was undoubtedly a huge experience boost.

Fighting a cultivator of the same realm for hundreds or thousands of rounds might not necessarily have the same effect.

It was true that old God wasn't an expert in Wang Ling and Wang Ying's eyes..

"Perhaps Miss Sun can think of a way," Wang Ying said.

In the case of battle strength, they knew how to use the moves in their hands flexibly and re-engage in battle.

This was one of the skills and experiences of a high-level battle.

"Ying-er! Can your splitting ability split other things?"

"It can! As long as I add my splitting law into it! But now my power is restricted by the King Shadow Gorilla!" Sun Ying-er's voice had just faded away when.., she suddenly revealed a surprised expression. "Eh? Why do I suddenly feel like my power has returned..."

She was extremely astonished.

Because after she had finished complaining, the power restricted by Wang Ying had unexpectedly returned in an instant..

Sun Ying 'er was horrified.

"Good! Now you cooperate with me, and we'll break her shield!"

Splitting ao hai from the outside!

This was Lotus Sun's battle plan!

The golden lamp monk had set up split-type laws inside the sword spirit space mainly to allow ao hai to gain the ability to charge through the split body!

And now, the charge inside had already been resolved with the rechargeable treasure provided by Wang Ling.

So long as the split outside was completed, OHAI, which was full of energy, would keep splitting and duplicating!

In theory, it would be able to produce a high amount of sword Qi in a very short period of time!

One Ohai could do ten consecutive strikes in one go.

Then ten OHAI!

That would be a thousand strikes!

A Hundred Ao Hai, that would be ten thousand strikes!

Even if the old God had the shield of the Holy Spirit.

With ten thousand strikes, it would be difficult for him to block!

Lotus sun frowned and became more serious. Behind her, the boundless sea was surging with an extremely strong power of the lunar finger!

The two women communicated in secret.

Sun Ying 'ER also began to exert force.

She slapped the "Splitting law" onto the aftershock of the arcane sea.

For a moment, the countless energy-saturated arcane seas began to split apart.

One gave birth to two, two gave birth to four, four gave birth to eight... more and more arcane seas appeared behind Lotus Sun like an army!

"You want to play this game with me?"

It could only be said that the old god was worthy of being called an old god.

She immediately sensed Lotus Sun's strategy.

She waved her hand and took out a jade horsetail whisk.

This was the "Ten thousand realms horsetail whisk". It was also a gift given to her by Daofather King. It could condense the dust of heaven and earth, making each grain of dust as heavy as a mountain!

It was the most suitable to limit the splitting of the Ao Hai in front of her.

However, just as she was about to wave her horsetail whisk...

Countless Sun Ying 'er turned into black shadows in front of her, trying to block her action!

"Get out of the way!" The old God shouted. He had no choice but to wave his horsetail whisk to chase away the clones of Sun Ying 'ER.

"With me here, you can forget about stopping Rong Rong!" Sun Ying 'er snorted. The countless clones attacked the old god from all directions like missiles.

The moment these clones got close to the old God, they immediately exploded. It was a standard suicide attack.

The old God had no choice but to wave his horsetail whisk to drive away the split bodies.

This was a diversionary tactic.

By the time the old God reacted, it was too late to stop the splitting of the Ao Hai!

The splitting of the Ao Hai had become a general trend. It was no longer a situation that she could solve with her horsetail whisk alone.

There were a total of a thousand ao Hai.

The powerful boundless Qi of the sea erupted.

When these auras overlapped, they formed the Phantom image of a divine sea whale in the void!

“Its power is actually so great that it has already formed the phantom image of a whale falling down...”loopy toad was shocked.

This was a phenomenon formed when the power of the water-type spirit sword was sufficiently great!

The power of a whale falling down was the symbol of the sea feeding and accommodating all things!

At that moment, Lotus Sun stood in front of the thousand energy-saturated forms of the arcane seas.

The giant whale of the divine sea was crouching under her feet. The whale swayed its tail and the tsunami rolled, releasing terrifying ripples.

At that moment, she was like a female general. The azure dress that Ah Juan had given her was like armor. The strong wind howled, and the sound of Sword Qi and wind interweaved, playing a battle song of the female heroes.

“Ao Hai, Listen Up!”Lotus sun shouted.

“Sword Master, I’m Here!”The thousand ao Hai replied in unison.

“Kill!”

In the next moment, the girl pointed to the sky, and then waved the spirit sword in her hand.

Chi!

She faced the old God and slashed forward!

Ten Thousand Sword Qi shot out at the same time, slashing forward!

“Oh no!”The old God knew something was wrong.

These ten thousand sword Qi were too fierce!

Before they could get close, the powerful sword wind that could cut through space had already made her face contort!

This sword Qi was too powerful, it could be said to be unprecedented..

Ten thousand city-toppling sword Qi stacked together. The Sword Qi had an armor-piercing effect and directly penetrated her Holy Spirit Shield. Not only did it instantly break the golden light beasts around her, it also shook her until she coughed out blood.

The Old God’s blood fell from the corner of his mouth and mixed with the red clothes on his body. He could not tell the color at all.

He realized that the situation wasn’t good, but the old God still decided to escape!

“I have to retreat...”

Without a doubt, for a god, this was an extremely humiliating choice.

She was actually beaten into a corner by a foundation establishment stage cultivator.

But now, for the old God, there was no other way.

She had already decided that when she successfully retreated, she would detonate the entire Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube and blow up the entire Divine Dao Star!

This lotus sun couldn't be left alive!

Even if she had to pay the price of the entire Divine Dao Star, she would be completely destroyed.

However, just as the old God was about to abandon his core world and escape...

An incomparably dazzling golden light descended from the sky!

“What is this? !”The Old God was stupefied.

She was covered by this golden light and couldn't move at all!

“This is little Lord Ling's standing straight and taking a beating!”Loopy toad could tell the origin of this spell; it was a branch of the great immobilization spell.

Those who were struck by the spell would be frozen in place and unable to move, and would receive the attack head-on!

“Even if you sent me here, Lord Ling still couldn't help making a move; this man is indeed spying on everything.”Wang Ying smiled bitterly.

It was all over.

In the sky, the old God was completely trapped by the standing upright and taking a beating spell, unable to move.

She had to face Lotus Sun's ten thousand sword qi head-on.

The scene in front of her was like the end of the universe. The ten thousand streams of sword Qi shattered her core world. Space holes and storms were everywhere.

“I'm Daofather Wang's Woman! How Dare You Touch Me?”

The Old God's face was full of terror. "If you kill me, Juan will die too!"

"Don't you understand?"

At this moment, Sun Ying 'er chuckled. "The man behind my Rong Rong is Omnipotent!"

Boom!

The Sword Qi collided with the old God. Everything there was exploding and falling apart. Then, the entire core world began to collapse.

The chaotic power of the universe seeped through the cracks and mixed with the sword qi. Everything in the world was wailing.

Sun Ying 'ER's words.

It was also the last thing the old God heard before he was cut into pieces by the sword qi..

Chapter 1392 Sun Ying 'ER's Nickname: Sun Anserenity

The old God disappeared, and her signature red dress disappeared along with the pair of golden wings.

Even the ten-thousand-winged divine ring on her head fell off.

The core world was destroyed, and Lotus Sun and the others reappeared in the ancient temple. She picked up the ten-thousand-winged divine ring that had fallen to the ground.

All of a sudden, the secret chambers of the Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube seemed to have been stimulated, and began to shake. The space walls on all four sides began to compress along the center, and were about to shrink into a ball.

Loopy toad could clearly feel a powerful resentment. "It's the Old God! This woman used her remnant will to activate the Rubik's Cube, and intends to blow us all up in the Rubik's Cube!"

“Ah! Then what should we do? !”

Sun Ying ‘ER had no idea what to do, and had no choice but to cry with Lotus Sun. “SOB, SOB, sob! Rong Rong! I hope I can still be your shadow in My Next Life!”

“Silly Ying ‘er, don’t say your last words so early...”

Lotus sun was very calm as she looked at loopy toad. “If President Shadow is here, there will be a way, right?”

Wang Ying had been in loopy Toad’s shadow for a long time, and at this moment, he finally popped his head out and asked with a smile, “When did you find me?”

“When ying-er’s power returned, I was already sure that you were by our side,” Lotus Sun said as she looked at Wang Ying. “You can take us out, right?”

“Of course.”

Wang Ying said confidently, and then looked at Sun ying-er. “Unfortunately, you won’t be able to be Miss Sun’s shadow in her next life. Besides, I heard all the bad things you said about me earlier. I’ll get even with you after we get out.”

Sun Ying ‘er:”...”

Wang Ying was already prepared for the escape tunnel; this was the reason why Wang Ling had sent him here.

So there was no need to find the exit to the secret chamber at all; a mere secret chamber of Heavenly Dao wouldn’t be able to trap Wang Ling and Wang Ying.

Then, a pitch-black tunnel opened in front of everyone.

“It’s a pity that the secret chamber of Heavenly Dao has been compressed, and all the good stuff in it has been destroyed,” loopy toad said regretfully.

“How can this be considered good things?” Wang Ying couldn’t help laughing.

To be exact, he felt that these things might be good things in Old God’s eyes.

But in Wang Ling’s eyes as well as his own, these things were worthless.

It was indeed terrifying when a woman was ruthless.

He had actually thought of using the Heavenly Dao secret room, which he had meticulously transformed to commemorate his past relationship with Dao ancestor Wang, to bury another woman he was jealous of.

It could only be said that daofather king had misjudged her.

And that the old God still didn’t have a clear understanding of her.

If the old God knew that Lotus Sun was safe and sound, he would probably die in peace?

After leaving the secret chamber of Heavenly Dao’s Rubik’s Cube, Lotus Sun stood beside the sinkhole on Divine Dao Star and stared at the Abyss below. A shimmering Rubik’s cube floated up from the bottom of the abyss.

To Lotus Sun’s surprise, the Rubik’s Cube actually took the initiative to fuse with the arcane sea in her hand.

“Congratulations, Miss Sun. Your Arcane Sea is already a dual-core spirit sword.”

“Isn’t there still an upgrade ceremony to be held?” Lotus Sun was surprised.

She had heard the monk mention that a dual-core arcane sea could unleash the power of a “World-toppling sword”!

The power of one sword was equivalent to a hundred city-toppling sword strikes!

“The Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube will attract and resonate with each other. The upgrade ceremony only needs to be carried out once to fuse the arcane sea with the first piece of the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube,”Wang Ying replied.

He gazed at the dual-core arcane sea in Lotus Sun’s hand and felt the powerful combat power emanating from it.

The power of Lotus Sun’s sword could fight against a dao god.

No one below Dao God could withstand such sword power.

“I took another Rubik’s Cube. What should I do with the hole in the Rubik’s Cube?”Lotus Sun was worried.

“Of course, I have a way.”After Wang Ying said that, he took out a brand new Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube from his sleeve. The Rubik’s Cube was golden in color! It was the same color as the fresh crispy noodle snack.

“You just need to replace it with a new one,”said Wang Ying.

“This... was prepared from the beginning?”

“No. It was freshly baked. Your Excellency just made it.”

” ... ”

Wang Ying said, “Monk Golden Lamp is responsible for the collection of materials. It takes him one day to gather the materials to make two Rubik’s cubes.”. After the owner received the materials, he immediately pinched two of them. “One was used to fill the hole in the unspeakable land. Now, this one is used to repair Divine Dao Star.”

After saying that, he threw the Golden Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube into the pit below.

In an instant, under the abyss that was buried by endless darkness, brilliant light shone. Streams of bright restoration light gushed out from the bottom of the abyss like a spring, repairing the hole in the heavenly pit.

The heavenly pit was rapidly filling up at a speed visible to the naked eye, and in less than a few dozen seconds, it had been repaired.

Even the buildings that had been swallowed by the heavenly pit earlier had been completely restored.

“In this way, will the abnormal phenomenon of the imbalance of the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube be stopped?” Loopy toad asked at this moment.

“It’s just that there won’t be any abnormal movements for the time being. With the current nine Heavenly Dao Rubik’s cubes, it won’t be a problem for them to balance each other. But the new Rubik’s Cube’s energy is too strong, so it’s definitely not a long-term solution. “So if we want to replace it, we have to replace the remaining seven at the same time.”

Wang Ying said, he looked at Lotus Sun. “From today onwards, Miss Sun’s work every night will be to replace the Rubik’s Cube. Your current dual-core arcane sea has greatly increased your battle prowess. “With Ying ‘er protecting you, it’s also good to use this opportunity to go out and gain experience.”

“Mm! I’ll do my best!” Lotus Sun said.

Wang Ying noticed that the girl’s expression didn’t seem as happy as he had imagined. “Is Miss Sun worried about Ah Juan?”

“Her soul has been devoured by the old God. can student Wang Ling Do Anything?”

“Actually, there’s no need for Master Ling to do anything at all.” Wang Ying shook his head and smiled.

The Green Tong Cat in the Forsaken Land of the gods was already one of them.

It wasn’t difficult at all to say hello and hold on to Ah Juan’s soul.

As for the soul devoured by the old God, it wasn't actually ah Juan's complete soul; the Green Tong cat had deliberately divided it up and given it to the old God.

After Scroll's original soul had been divided, the Green Tong cat quickly used magic power to repair the soul.

Repairing the soul was also one of the abilities of the pillar spirit.

At that moment, Lotus Sun suddenly felt the ten-thousand-winged divine ring in her hand tremble slightly, the curly-haired girl was like a kitten that had popped out of a coffee cup. She suddenly poked her head out of the divine ring. "Na Na Na! I'm Back!"

"Ah Juan!" Lotus Sun said in surprise.

"I think I'm stuck..."

"Wait for Ah Juan." Lotus sun cupped ah Juan's face and handed the divine ring to Sun Ying 'ER. "Ying 'ER, help me! Let's Pull Ah Juan out together!"

Two!

Harder!

The two girls worked together. With a sizzling sound, the curly-haired girl was pulled out of the narrow divine ring.

"Old God's divine ring, the size is too small." Ah Juan rubbed his chest. This was the place where he had just been stuck. Forcefully pulling it out made her chest hurt.

Sun Ying 'er smiled evilly. "I didn't expect Ah Juan to look so small, but he's still quite capable. I heard from Old God that you're still not old and won't grow old for the rest of your life. Aren't you the legendary Legal Loli?"

“Sigh, an immortal soul isn’t as good as I thought. I don’t know why the old God is so obsessed with this.” Ah Juan Sighed.

With that, she faced the crowd and bowed deeply. “Thank you all for your help this time!”

“Ah Juan, you’re too kind. The person you should really thank is classmate Wang Ling,” Lotus Sun said with a smile.

“Ah Juan will never forget Ling Zhenren’s kindness. I’ll definitely repay you!”

With that, Ah Juan raised his head to look at Lotus Sun. “And don’t worry, Lotus, I definitely don’t mean repay it with my body or anything like that.”

“It’s none of my business...” Lotus Sun’s face started to heat up again.

Although she had been teased repeatedly these days, she still couldn’t seem to get used to such teasing.

Sigh..

It was really too difficult to fall in love with a piece of wood!

At this moment, ah Juan said to Wang Ying. Her eyes sparkled and she looked adorable. “Lord Wang Ying, you and immortal toad can go back first! I have something here that I want to give to Rongrong!”

“Okay. It’s getting late. Tomorrow is No. 60 High School’s return day. I hope Miss Sun will come back soon,” said Wang Ying.

“I know!” Lotus sun nodded.

Wang Ying had deliberately reminded her of the time for a purpose.

The time now was more than five o'clock in the afternoon on Sunday..

There were less than three hours left until the eight o'clock reduction every night.

As long as Lotus Sun returned to Earth, according to the agreement, ying-er would report to him immediately.

Ha..

He actually called him a gorilla?

Then this guy would see how big a gorilla's chest was!

Before he left, Wang Ying Glanced at Sun Ying 'er.

Sun Ying 'er was shivering, and there was a feeling of impending death between her brows.

In a quiet room in the divine palace.

Ah Juan brought Lotus Sun and Sun Ying 'ER to show them some of the things he had treasured for many years. There were magic treasures, pills, and some beautiful clothes. These things were like treasures, and every one of them was shining with light.

Some were rare treasures that Ah Juan had gained through experience, and some were inherited from the old God.

Now that the old God had died, ah Juan still felt a little upset when he saw these things that he had inherited from the old God.

"Ah Juan is still thinking about the old God?" Lotus Sun asked.

She could actually feel that the relationship between Ah Juan and the old God was very close.

But she couldn't do anything right now.

She could only go up and gently put her hand on Ah Juan's shoulder to comfort the young girl.

"The old God may have done something very overboard to me, but I've always treated her like a mother," Ah Juan Sighed.

She opened a box, and a golden feather appeared in front of the three women. This feather was like a white flame, shining like the Sun.

After Ah Juan poured his divine power into it, the entire feather seemed to burn up, shining with mysterious runes.

It looked like a burning feather, but it was emitting a cold fire that wasn't hot to the touch. This cold fire had the power to freeze everything.

"Golden Divine Feather."

Ah Juan said, "The treasure that the old God found in order to freeze her appearance. She tried to use the golden divine feather to freeze her appearance, but unfortunately, she was unable to reverse her aging body."

"These things mean a lot to you, don't They?" Lotus Sun asked.

"Nah... They used to! But now! I think I should move on!"

Ah Juan smiled, his face flushed red and so cute that it made people want to kiss him. "Rong Rong and Ying 'er can pick any of these things!"

"AH? Is that okay?"

"Why not! As long as you like what I have in this room, it's okay! "Of course, compared to what Ling Zhenren gave you, these items may not be worth much, but they're at least a token of my appreciation! "Each of you should at least pick one!"

Lotus Sun was a little hesitant. After all, she wasn't a person who liked to take advantage of others.

But since Ah Juan had said so, she still had to give face to the realm king of the immortal realm.

It was just that the dazzling array of items in front of her dazzled Lotus Sun, and she didn't know what she should choose.

Or she could choose something that didn't look that valuable..

"What's This?" Lotus Sun pointed at an ugly little rock and asked.

"Na Na! Lotus Sun has a good eye! This is a Holy Moon Stone! It can allow a spirit beast to instantly complete the next stage of evolution! Fourth Grade to third grade! Third grade to second grade!"

Ah Juan continued to explain, "If it's a first grade spirit beast, it can be upgraded to a holy beast! Holy Beasts have been extinct for a long time, and there are less than three holy moon stones in the entire universe now. This is one of them!"

"I... I'll change it!" Lotus Sun was stupefied; she hadn't expected this stone to be so valuable.

Her gaze cautiously scanned the surroundings.

After all, she was the daughter of Huaguo Water Curtain Group, and Lotus Sun was practically born with this ability to recognize objects... her eyes were always on valuable things wherever they went!

This was actually one of the reasons why the old man had a good impression of Wang Ling.

Because with her granddaughter's eyes, if she really took a fancy to a boy, that boy would definitely have great potential!

So even if Wang Ling's information clearly stated that he was only at the "Foundation establishment stage," the old man didn't care at all.

So what if he was at the Foundation Establishment Stage?

As long as it was a boy that his granddaughter took a fancy to, he would definitely become a true immortal in the future!

After observing for a long time, Lotus Sun finally found something that she was very familiar with.

“This is a youth-retaining pill, right?” She pointed at a pink pill and asked.

This pill was placed in an ordinary-looking jar, almost identical to the youth-retaining pill refined by Huaguo Water Curtain Group. It wasn’t strange for a girl to have a youth-retaining pill in her room.

“No! This is an immortal pill! It’s refined with my immortal soul power! After eating it, you won’t grow old for the rest of your life!” Ah Juan said.

“You won’t grow old for the rest of your life?”

“Yes, I Won’t grow old for the rest of my life.”

Ah Juan nodded with certainty. “But unfortunately, this immortal pill can not fulfill the old God’s wish. Rong Rong is from Earth. The Immortal Pill is suitable for you. “The old God’s divine body can not be turned around by relying on the Immortal Pill.”

“I see.” Lotus sun nodded.

But she still put the jar in her hand back to its original position.

“Well, doesn’t Rong Rong want to freeze her youthful appearance for the rest of her life?” Ah Juan asked.

She actually didn’t quite understand Lotus Sun’s behavior.

For a girl, appearance might always be the number one thing.

“I think it’s a very happy thing to grow old with the person you like.” Lotus Sun shook her head and smiled.

In any case, with student Wang Ling’s strength..

If he didn’t want to grow old, he probably wouldn’t?

“Ah Juan! What is This!”

On the other side, Sun Ying ‘er spent a long time looking around the room, and finally found an emerald-green stick from a box under Ah Juan’s bed.

The stick had evenly distributed bumps on it, making it look a little ugly and wretched.

“I remember now. This is the old God’s thing!” Ah Juan stared at the emerald-green stick for a long time and said, “This seems to be the old God’s favorite thing when he was alive. It’s said to be used for massage?”

Ah Juan didn’t really understand the purpose of the emerald-green stick.

The main thing was that this stick was thick and short, and didn’t look like the legendary emerald stick used to beat a dog.

So, ah Juan carefully hid the stick. He didn’t think that Sun Ying ‘er would discover it now.

“Ying ‘er... your taste is too bad. Why are you always looking for strange things?” Lotus Sun facepalmed.

It could only be said that it was indeed her shadow.

“Alright! I know that Lotus doesn’t lack sticks,” said Sun Ying ‘ER.

“What nonsense are you talking about again...”

“Doesn’t Grandpa Sun have a stick passed down from his ancestors? It will definitely be passed down to you in the future!” Said Sun Ying ‘ER.

”...”realizing that she had “Defiled” Sun Ying ‘ER’s words, Lotus Sun’s face couldn’t help but heat up again.

Sun Ying ‘er chuckled and casually threw the stick on the bed.

Humph! How could she not know what she meant?

It was the highest level of flirting to have predicted that the other party would think that she had “Defiled” her words in advance!

“Ah Juan, you don’t say. Your old man really does have a lot of strange and magical things.”

Sun Ying ‘er found herself somewhat addicted to flipping under the bed.

“What’s This?” Sun Ying ‘er pointed at a black pill sealed in a medicine box.

“Lengthening pill,” Ah Juan replied.

“Ying ‘er, put it down...” Lotus Sun shouted.

“What’s That?” Sun Ying ‘ER had an incredulous expression on her face.

“When the old master and the Daofather are in love, sometimes they feel lonely, so they go to some romance novels. This lengthening pill is for those short authors. After eating it, the things they write will become very long,” Ah Juan explained.

After explaining, Lotus Sun’s face turned even redder.

..

On the way back to Earth, the temperature on Lotus Sun's face never stopped..

She suspected that Sun Ying 'er was doing it on purpose, specifically picking out some strange things to ask!

After returning to Lotus Sun's bedroom, Sun Ying 'er was still snickering with ill intentions. Her favorite thing to watch was her Rong Rong's various shy reactions!

The strange things left behind by the old gods in Ah Juan's room were secondary, but the most important thing was Rong Rong's cute reaction!

"Ying 'er! What are you snickering about?" Lotus Sun felt that after Sun Ying 'er returned, the corners of her mouth had started to curve up crazily, almost never stopping.

"Ai, it's nothing. I just thought that the black shorts just now were pretty good. Those are Daofather Wang's underpants!" Sun Ying 'er said with a face full of pity.

"Why would I want Daofather's underwear! ! !" Lotus Sun said in embarrassment.

In fact, neither Sun Ying 'er nor Lotus Sun had expected that the old God would actually collect even Daofather's underwear..

According to Ah Juan, Daofather Wang's underwear could make people feel calm and at ease after wearing it, calming the desires in their hearts.

And so.

Daofather Wang's underwear also had a nickname: Wang Taichong.

The scene was once awkward.

In the end, Lotus Sun and Sun Ying 'er couldn't choose anything, so Lotus Sun hurriedly pushed Sun Ying 'er back.

If this girl continued to rummage around, she might dig up something strange.

Ah Juan also realized that the room was a bit messy, so he agreed to leave the right to choose things for the next time and send them back to Earth First.

In the bedroom, Sun Ying 'er and Ge you were lying on the sofa, with a face full of pity, she said, "Hey, Rong Rong! I still want that pair of underwear! Really! Look at that Gorilla Wang Ying. If he had this thing on him, would he not have gone so overboard with me!"

As soon as she finished speaking, she was once again swept away by a black shadow..

This time, Lotus Sun didn't even have time to reply.

Everything had happened too suddenly!

Lotus Sun felt that Sun Ying 'er could change her nickname to Sun anserenity.

..

Monday, December 7th.

It was the day No. 60 High School returned to school. Everyone who came to No. 60 high school was shocked by the towering teaching building and the wide school gate!

The entire No. 60 high school had been completely renovated from the inside out! It was really brand new, and was now different from its old appearance!

Take the faded old stone sculpture at the school's main entrance as an example. After going through countless storms, the old stone sculpture had finally retired and was placed by Principal Chen in the school history exhibition hall.

Now, the one who greeted the students at the school gate every day was a golden statue of Odd Zhuo! It was the design of a flying sword! It really gave people the feeling of a hero coming and bravely advancing forward!

It made people's blood boil from afar!

"I heard that senior Odd Zhuo's statue was built a long time ago. It was originally made of gold sand. Now that our school has money, it's made of pure gold."

"Made of gold sand? Isn't that a sand sculpture?"

At the school gate, many people in No. 60 high school uniforms were discussing.

It was No. 60 High's return to school day, and quite a few parents had come to personally send their children to school. In fact, they mainly wanted to see what kind of changes had taken place in the school environment.

Such a rich and imposing change made all the parents feel at ease!

With money in the school, this pleasant learning environment naturally gave people a sense of comfort. On the other hand, the faculty would certainly be a step up from before!

A black business car drove past the school gate. Jiang Xiaoche sat in the driver's seat and was about to unfasten his seatbelt and get out of the car to open the door for Lotus Sun.

But the girl rejected him on the spot. "Brother Xiaoche, there's no need. I can do it myself. You Don't have to get out of the car to help me in the future!"

Jiang Xiaoche frowned. "But this is against the rules..."

"Rules are made by humans! I now feel that there's no harm in keeping a low profile." Lotus Sun smiled. She opened the door and got out of the car, entering the campus with the people around her.

Jiang Xiaoche gnashed his teeth at this scene.

He held the steering wheel tightly and watched the girl enter the school surrounded by a group of people before driving away.

At the corner, Jiang Xiaoche took out his phone and began to plan the battle. "Is everything ready?"

A low male voice came from the other side of the phone. "Everything is ready. On the way home from school today, everything will be done according to brother Jiang's instructions!"

"Okay!" Jiang Xiaoche nodded.

Chapter 1393 A Love Letter To Wang Ling

On the first day of No. 60 High School's return to school, this meant that Wang Ling didn't have to go to online classes, record study videos at home, or receive old Pan's online roll call every morning and publicly execute anyone who hadn't handed in their homework.

He thought that his life had finally returned to normal.

But it turned out that the trouble wasn't just that..

One night before returning to school, Wang Ling's eyelids began to Twitch regularly.

Although the level wasn't particularly high. This was clearly a bad warning.

Now that Wang Ling's eyelid warning had experienced many events, his awareness of the level of trouble had also improved, and ordinary little troubles wouldn't easily trigger the warning.

Unless something relatively explosive happened next..

Was there a big problem on the first day of school?

As expected of myself!

Wang Ling muttered to himself.

At No. 60 High School's entrance.

Wang Ling saw No. 60 High's new look, and it was indeed much more luxurious than he had imagined..

The statue of Odd Zhuo standing on a flying sword in front of the door gave Wang Ling a shock. It was nothing else, but its posture was too sand-like.

Wang Ling remembered that Odd Zhuo had proudly explained to him the black technology of this statue last night.

It was said that the pendulum clock on No. 60 High School's teaching building had merged with Odd Zhuo's statue.

Odd Zhuo was standing on a flying sword. The tip of the sword was aimed at current affairs, while his right hand was the second hand and minute hand, so the posture of the entire statue would constantly change over time.

Of course, the most sand-like places were at noon and midnight.

A hole would automatically open in the crotch of Odd Zhuo's statue, and a golden swinging hammer would descend from inside and swing between its thighs..

Wang Ling walked along the school square toward the school building, and saw that there were quite a few students lining up on both sides of the square.

Super Chen and hero Guo, these two clowns, were shockingly in the line, and just happened to be at the end of it.

"Wang Ling! !"Hero Guo greeted him from afar.

Fatty Guo had obviously been neglecting his exercise at home during this period, and Wang Ling felt that hero Guo seemed to have gained a lot more weight than before.

In fact, Wang Ling himself had also gained weight. Fortunately, he had already used the "Big fat spell"to rub off his fat, which was now stored in his king's eye space in case he needed it.

Wang Ling didn't know what the two of them were doing in line, so he went over to take a look.

He wasn't a busybody.

However, he couldn't resist Super Chen and hero Guo's warm greetings, and it seemed a little impolite not to respond.

"Why do I feel like you have dark circles under your eyes, Wang Ling? You look like you haven't woken up yet. If you didn't know better, you'd think you were saving the world at home!" Super Chen put his arm around Wang Ling's shoulder.

Wang Ling sighed in his heart. "..."

He knew that Super Chen was joking.

In this day and age, how could he dare show dark circles under his eyes when his reputation had been ruined.

It was true that he hadn't slept well, and it wasn't because he hadn't slept enough that his mental state hadn't been good. On one hand, it was because of his dead fish eyes, which always gave people the feeling that he hadn't slept enough.

On the other hand, the sudden eyelid warning yesterday had frightened Wang Ling..

But it was clear that the eyelid warning didn't refer to what was happening in front of him.

"Our school is really rich; there's even a teleportation array in the school square!"

Hero Guo introduced it to Wang Ling. "This is specially designed for students who are late. It opens 24 hours a day, and all the information has been entered into the school's array control system backstage. As long as you enter the School Square, you can directly step into the teleportation array and be teleported to your classroom door. You can teleport up to ten people at a time."

"Mm..." Wang Ling nodded.

He finally understood... This was the legendary benefit of being lazy.

However, this kind of array was actually completely useless in their classroom on the first floor, and they could walk there much faster than they could queue up to be teleported.

“It’s our first time, so let’s try it out. The main thing is that our school’s facilities are big now, and the teaching building is a few times wider. Some people won’t be able to figure out the classroom’s location for a while,” Super Chen said.

Soon, it was their turn.

Hero Guo hooked his arm around Wang Ling and Super Chen’s shoulders as they walked in together.

“Wait for me! !”

At that moment, little peanut hurriedly rushed over and caught the last bus. Before he was teleported, he was still bowing and apologizing to the people behind him. “Sorry! We’re in the same class!”

The alumni who were still in line didn’t really mind.

Buzz!

Wang Ling and the others appeared at the entrance of grade one, class three.

In a classroom on the far right of teaching building No. 1.

And then, there was nothing else..

Green smoke started to rise from the school square.

The teleportation array that Wang Ling had just used was broken on the spot!

Hero Guo: “What’s Going On? It broke right after we used it?”

Super Chen: “It must have been used too frequently, because this array was meant for people who were about to be late. We can only send up to ten at a time, and only four of US went up. It’s not overloaded! Unless someone weighs more than 1,000 pounds!”

Wang Ling:”...”

After successfully returning to the classroom, little peanut started to collect homework. Since it was done online, this time, he only collected USB drives.

So far, apart from what had happened with the teleportation array outside, nothing special seemed to have happened..

But Wang Ling still remained extremely vigilant.

Little Peanut said after coming to collect Wang Ling’s USB drive, “Wang Ling, there seems to be something in your storage box. Of all the storage boxes, yours is the only one that’s bright.”

“Storage box?”Wang Ling was startled.

“Everyone has one of the school’s newly added facilities. It seems that every New Year and festival, the school’s benefits are all distributed to the storage boxes, so everyone can pick them up themselves. “The place where our class picks up items is next door, and it’s merged with class two.”Little Peanut pointed in their direction.

“It’s so early in the morning, who would stuff stuff stuff in your storage box?”

Hero Guo was curious and snorted. “Could it be...”

“A love letter? I don’t think it’s very likely.”Super Chen raised his eyebrows, his tone couldn’t help turning sour. “Last semester, Wang Ling didn’t receive a single love letter! It’s most likely someone’s prank.”

Wang Ling was silent.”...”

It now looked like the things in the storage box were undoubtedly the prank love letters sent by someone.

Fortunately, he had the habit of arriving at school early.

Since there weren't many people around, he had to quickly take them out.

Wang Ling hurriedly got up and went to the storage room next door to look for the boxes.

As Su Xiao had said, he was the only one with a red light and could find all the storage boxes at a glance.

Hero Guo and Super Chen followed behind to join in the fun.

“The default password is four zeros. Wang Ling, hurry up and open it.”

Hero Guo looked like he wouldn't mind watching the fun.

Wang Ling entered the password.

Ding!

A pile of envelopes sealed with care stickers fell out of the boxes with a crash and instantly reached Wang Ling's knees..

Lotus Sun, who was passing by, happened to see this scene.

Chapter 1394 The Storm Of Love Letters

There were hundreds of love letters in total.

Hero Guo, Super Chen and a few others followed behind to help Wang Ling clean up. When he was cleaning up, a few of the letters weren't stuck, and the letter paper inside fell out, giving hero Guo the chance to gossip.

For a moment, everyone in the storage room behind them was a bystander.

“Dear classmate Wang...”

Hero Guo raised his head as he read a letter, and was shocked.

Damn! Was It really written to Wang Ling?

He continued reading. “Classmate Wang, I’ve admired you for a long time. When I think of your strong physique, I can’t sleep at night. Do you remember that you once looked back at me and smiled...”

Wang Ling:”...”

“Looked back and smiled?”

Super Chen was dumbfounded from laughing. “It really is a prank! How could Wang Ling Look Back and smile at someone? !”

“It might not be a prank. There are so many of them, and the handwriting is different.”

Hero Guo casually opened the other letters and started reading. “Student Wang! I really like you! Can I be your girlfriend? I’m very cute...”

“Classmate Wang, even if we’re not in the same school, I still believe what some cartoon says: missing will cross time and space and bring me to your side.”

“Classmate Wang, I don’t know what style you like, but I can change my style for you! I’ve been eating papaya every day recently.”

“Classmate Wang! I heard that you like girls with fair skin, and I have to use a cucumber mask every day for you. Many girls in our class are trying to follow suit, and the price of cucumbers in the market has gone up because of you!”

Wang Ling, Hero Guo, and Super Chen:”...”

Hero Guo was so scared that he dropped his letter paper on the spot.

In these letters.

Lolis, big sister Yu, sweet and salty girls of all kinds... there were all kinds of girls.

Inside the school, outside the school, in the hospital, in the internet cafe, and in all kinds of units.

“There are even outside the school... and some are actually female college students who have already gone to work!”Before hero Guo could scream at the top of his lungs, Super Chen and little peanut covered his mouth.

“Are you crazy! You’re shouting so loudly!”Super Chen used his gaze to indicate the location of the door.

There was no one there, but the three of them knew very well that Lotus Sun was right next to them..

Because there were too many letters, they didn’t know whether these letters were true or false.

There was definitely some mischief in them, but if there was a true confession letter, it would be a disaster if they didn’t handle it properly.

“In any case, what we can confirm now is that there definitely isn’t one in our class. I know the handwriting of all the girls in our class,”Su Xiao said.

He was the study commissary, and was in touch with almost every student’s homework every day, so he was very confident in the matter of handwriting recognition.

It wasn’t that there weren’t other girls in the class who liked Wang Ling..

It was mainly because Lotus Sun was there.

Moreover, Lotus Sun had publicly confessed to Wang Ling a long time ago, and no one was willing to go against the Missy's bad luck.

"There are too many letters, and Wang Ling is probably in a very difficult position himself. I think I'll take care of this." At this moment, Super Chen took the initiative to step forward and volunteer himself.

Wang Ling was startled, thinking that he had misheard.

"These letters might be half-true and half-false. If you throw them all away, you'll definitely be criticized if you're found out. If you take them, there might be girls who will misunderstand that you're interested in them. So Wang Ling, just pretend you don't know about this," Super Chen said.

As a man who had received love letters in Junior High School, Super Chen seemed to be very experienced in dealing with such matters.

He reached out and patted Wang Ling on the shoulder. "We're Good Brothers! Leave this to me!"

His resolute eyes revealed his strong conviction.

Overall, Wang Ling felt that Super Chen was a reliable man.

Moreover, he had never thought that Super Chen would actually choose to stand up for him at this time.

Good brother!

Wang Ling looked back at him with gratitude.

At last, he hadn't raised his classmates for nothing!

But Wang Ling felt that this matter wasn't that simple..

..

On the other side, Jiang Xiaoche had received a message just before school was over.

According to the original plan, he had hired a group of thugs from society.

The highest level was a nascent soul cultivator, nicknamed Old Grey.

Old Gray had brought about a dozen golden core cultivators with him as he planned to surround Wang Ling and Lotus Sun on the way home from school.

It had cost Jiang Xiaoche a lot to hire such a large group of people, and his two-year salary had been reduced to ashes overnight.

But his heart didn't ache.

All of this was so that he could capture lotus sun and tie the young girl to his belt forever.

In the end, just before school ended, Old Gray received a piece of information about "Love letters."

"What? You're saying that Wang Ling received a large number of love letters? is the information reliable?"Jiang Xiaoche asked.

"It's very reliable, brother Jiang. I also spent money to find students to spy on them, and I heard that Miss Sun was depressed for the whole day."

Old Grey replied, "Of course, I heard that there are also pranks in love letters, but the number is too large, so there are always a few that are true. Moreover, the people who write them are also a variety of girls, both inside and outside the school."

"Then what about these love letters now? !"Jiang Xiaoche's interest was piqued.

These love letters were the key!

If Wang Ling hadn't been lovey-dovey and philandering everywhere, how could he have gotten so many love letters!

Since these love letters were crucial evidence, you had to get them! If you were to show them to Old Master Sun, Old Master Sun would have to believe it!

"Now these love letters seem to be in the possession of a person called Super Chen, who has a good relationship with Wang Ling. It seems that he intends to get rid of them on Wang Ling's behalf," Old Grey said.

Jiang Xiaoche nodded. "Then after school, send another group of people to snatch these love letters back."

"Understood."

In a van by the street, old grey nodded and hung up the phone.

He sat in the front passenger seat and then greeted the people behind him. "Brothers, did you hear what brother Jiang said? Since you heard it, let's Go!"

"Yes!" The people behind replied.

The whole van was full of people.

They had invisibility talismans on their bodies, and they held steel pipes, big knives, and other dangerous weapons. One after another, they jumped out of the van.

These weapons looked very dangerous, but they had also been specially treated.

They just looked scary.

Jiang Xiaoche might have caused a ruckus, but he was still afraid of hurting Lotus Sun. So these weapons were special props used during filming. They looked dangerous, but in fact, when they were actually hit, they didn't feel any pain at all.

Thus, on this day, the following magical scene happened after school at No. 60 High School.

Super Chen was about to leave school to deal with the love letters when he was immediately targeted by Old Gray's group.

Lotus Sun saw Old Gray's group again.

And behind Lotus Sun were Wang Zhen and Fang Xing.

And then Wang Ling..

This was at the back of everyone.

In fact, he had already guessed in the morning who had been behind the prank.

And now, these two werewolves had jumped out!

Wang Ling was puzzled; he didn't understand why Wang Zhen and Fang Xing had done this.

Could it really be that they were so bored that they wanted to observe Lotus Sun's reaction?

In any case, Wang Ling already knew.

These love letters were originally written to Wang Zhen.

Then, what kind of magical chemical reaction would happen if he intercepted the love letters and gave them to Liu Qingyi..

Kneeling on a durian was definitely unavoidable!

Chapter 1395 The Mantis Stalks The Cicada And The Oriole Follows Behind

As soon as she left the school gate, Lotus Sun noticed a group of suspicious-looking people following behind Super Chen.

These people had sneakily stuck invisibility talismans on them, but this level of invisibility was completely exposed to Ao Hai's sword energy.

Like a radar, Ao Hai's sword energy could easily scan any invisibility unit.

At first, she didn't know that these people were also after the love letters that Super Chen was carrying.

It wasn't until Ohai used his sword energy to draw into her ears the secret conversations of the stalkers in front of her that Lotus Sun confirmed their intentions.

"Be careful, there are still a lot of people on the side. Don't attack now. There's a dark alley ahead. That's an opportunity. Our group's mission is only to get the love letters!"

"Understood. Just grab the love letters and knock them out, right?"

"Yes."

"..."lotus sun was completely shocked when she heard these words.

It was one thing to have a man who would steal a man from a woman these days.

But there was also a man who would steal a love letter from a woman..

Had he been single for so long that he was able to read the love letters with delicate features?

Lotus Sun felt that the whole love letter incident was exuding a strange feeling.

She knew that among the hundreds of love letters, someone must have been playing a prank behind her back, but what if some of them were true?

So after struggling for an entire day, Lotus Sun decided to divert her attention to investigate.

In addition, the girl had also keenly caught on to one thing from the conversation just now.

That was the “Mission for our group” that one of them had mentioned. Did that mean that there was actually a second group and a third group plotting something else?

It seemed like this was a premeditated action!

This group of people’s goal might not just be love letters!

At this moment, an extremely terrifying thing suddenly appeared in the girl’s mind.

Could it be that someone had hidden some important information in these love letters?

She thought of the commonly used scenes in movies and television dramas.

A group of extremely vicious criminals, in order to ensure that they did not leave behind any evidence of crime, used primitive methods to transmit information, communicate with code words, and then plot a terrorist attack!

Today was the first day of No. 60 High School’s return to school!

There must be something wrong with this suspicious group of people choosing to appear at this time!

And this morning, a teleportation array in the school square had broken down.

That was a newly built array!

Who knew if it was this group of people who had done it! ?

“No, we have to stop this group of people.” Lotus Sun had originally been going after Super Chen’s love letter.

But now, after following them all the way, she had sensed this group of suspicious-looking fellows!

Lotus Sun felt that if she didn't do anything, the situation would probably take a more serious turn.

Wasn't the purpose of student Wang Ling upgrading her spirit sword so that she could protect herself, protect her friends and friends, and uphold justice in a timely manner?

Wang Ling:"..."

Behind Lotus Sun.

Fang Xing, Wang Zhen, and Wang Ling, who was at the back, couldn't help gaping.

After listening to the girl's thoughts using the art of "Heart to heart", their expressions and actions were almost identical, and they all looked stunned.

It could only be said that lotus sun was indeed Lotus Sun..

They had only walked less than 100 meters out of the school gate, but they had already imagined the script to this extent!

At that moment, Wang Ling lowered his head and put his hands in his pockets as he walked forward, pretending to be fine.

Lotus Sun had said that the other group was actually behind Wang Ling. They were also wearing invisibility talismans and were moving stealthily, but the person in the lead was very cautious.

Old Grey followed behind with another group of people. Although they had already confirmed the positions of Wang Ling and Lotus Sun in front of them, they still hadn't found a suitable opportunity to strike.

He looked around vigilantly, sweat dripping down his forehead. "This bunch of idiots! Do they think they're safe just because they've put on an invisibility charm? They don't even know they've been discovered!"

It could only be said that old grey was, after all, an expert at the nascent soul stage, and he had long since noticed that their movements had been exposed.

“They’ve been exposed? That can’t be! Aren’t the enemies we’re dealing with at the foundation establishment stage? The invisibility charm brother Jiang gave us is high-grade stuff; even those below the nascent soul stage can’t Tell!” Said one of his underlings.

For this operation, Jiang Xiaoche had even spent a huge amount of money to prepare the props.

As the Chief Secretary of Huaguo Water Curtain Group and the personal figure of Grandpa Sun, how could he possibly use the street goods to support the operation.

“I also don’t know what’s going on...” Old Gray was also very puzzled.

Who knew how a foundation establishment stage could have such a strong ability to distinguish!

On the contrary, it made the core formation stage and nascent soul stage fighters like street vendors!

They had also cultivated step by step!

At this time, Old Gray was very depressed.

They were all people who had made mistakes when they were young and had criminal records. Therefore, no company dared to hire them even if they were in the advanced stage.

Nowadays, they even had to have criminal records when they moved bricks on the construction sites..

Therefore, Old Gray could only take the lead to start such a business and join the loyalty group.

It sounded like a triad, but in fact, it was a social emotional organization that specialized in testing the emotions between men and women..

Although they were called “Thugs,” in fact, they had never really hit people after they were promoted. They only played the role of “Thugs.”.

“What should we do? Miss Sun has already noticed them. Should we cancel the operation?” Someone asked.

Old Gray was also conflicted about this question.

Ever since they joined the loyalty group, they had never failed a mission.

There were even fewer scumbags and scumbags who had fully exposed their humanity under their intentional intimidation.

Although there were couples who chose to protect each other and face danger together when they faced danger, according to the cases that Old Gray had participated in when their lives were in danger.., most people would choose to push the people around them out of the way and run away on their own..

According to Jiang Xiaocheng’s original plan, Old Gray and the others had planned to record Wang Ling’s reaction after making a move on Lotus Sun.

And the group that had gone to snatch the love letter had already been exposed.

It seemed that the mission could no longer be continued.

But Old Gray felt that this might be a good opportunity.

Because snatching a love letter was not the main objective of the operation..

“Now that Miss Sun’s attention is focused on the group of people in front, I think it’s the right time to take action.” At this moment, old gray gritted his teeth and took out a tube of purple reagent from his universe bag.

“What is this thing?” His underling beside him asked.

This was not supposed to be used as a tool for mobility this time, but in order to ensure the success of the operation..., old Gray decided to put his precious collection on the table. “This is the ‘Water of fear’. After falling to the ground, the fear gas inside will quickly evaporate. Within a 500-meter radius, the weaker party will have a deeper fear of the stronger party. “This is the best weapon to test those scumbags! “The greater the gap between realms, the stronger the fear effect will be. In severe cases, the person will go into shock!”

“So effective?”

“But the effect only lasts for three minutes, so we have to end this quickly!”

PA!

As soon as he said this, Old Grey, who was behind Wang Ling, immediately threw the reagent on the ground.

As the gas continued to evaporate,.

Old Grey and his underlings suddenly felt a heart attack as they watched Wang Ling’s back..

Chapter 1396 The Wheels Of The Car Rolled Down On His Face

A strong sense of discomfort spread to old grey and the hearts of the underlings behind him. Their faces quickly turned pale, and they began to find it difficult to breathe.

Old Grey didn’t know what had happened, nor did he know why a foundation establishment youngster’s back looked so terrifying!

In Old Gray’s and the others’ eyes, Wang Ling was now like a savage beast baring its fangs and brandishing its claws!

Was this the legendary back kill..

In a flash, the dozen or so invisible units behind Wang Ling, led by Old Gray, all fell to the ground.

Old Gray struggled on the ground, then completely lost consciousness and fell into a temporary state of shock.

The battle hadn't even begun, and it was already over.

The gas emitted by the water of fear was colorless and tasteless, and it wasn't easy to detect.

But in fact, even old gray himself wouldn't have thought that.

In addition to the "Terrifying back view," this contestant in front of him was also a walking air purifier.

Before the gas emitted by the "Water of fear" could completely spread out through the air, it had already been absorbed into Wang Ling's body and then completely purified.

Wang Ling's ability to purify the human body was unimaginable.

Otherwise, with the power of this water of fear, who knew how many people in a five-hundred-meter radius would faint..

..

Wang Zhen and Fang Xing followed behind Lotus Sun. They were sure that she had already detected the invisible unit in front of her.

"Dual-core arcane sea is indeed powerful... I feel like I might not even be her match now." Wang Zhen gulped.

He could already feel the terror of profound sea's sword qi from a few bodies away.

This was just normal sword qi flowing out; it was like a bottle of perfume that was still in place, giving off a fragrance to the surroundings. Lotus Sun didn't let profound sea's sword qi out at all; her aura was already very terrifying.

"Is this the strongest foundation establishment cultivator? She's indeed very strong."

Fang Xing rubbed his chin and said meaningfully, "Let's retreat."

Now that Lotus Sun's combat strength had increased, if they continued to follow her, they might be exposed.

"Didn't you want to observe student Sun's reaction?" Wang Zhen asked telepathically.

"That's enough. It looks like she cares quite a bit. Otherwise, she wouldn't have followed Super Chen right after school," Fang Xing said.

They had chosen to follow Lotus Sun previously because, on one hand, they wanted to see her reaction, and on the other hand, they had noticed a group of suspicious-looking people with invisibility talismans attached to them.

As core members of the war sect, Lotus Sun was like a little sister to Wang Zhen and Fang Xing.

They had been worried that there might be an accident, so they had been following her.

But now, after truly feeling the terrifying sword qi emanating from Ao Hai, Fang Xing felt that there was no longer a need.

In a classic movie line, Lotus Sun could now put her hands on her hips and shout, "I want to fight ten of them!"

But according to the actual situation,

With such combat strength, it would be useless even if there were hundreds of millions of golden core cultivators..

Sure enough, Wang Zhen and Fang Xing had only taken a few steps along the other path.

There was movement in the Dark Alley.

Lotus Sun stepped into the Dark Alley and released a powerful sword Qi.

Boom!

A huge pressure descended from the sky, instantly shaking the members of the loyalty group out of their wits. One by one, they fell to the ground, foaming at the mouth.

“Lotus Sun? Why are you here...” Super Chen was shocked. He had no idea what had happened.

All he could hear was the sound of someone falling to the ground behind him.

When he turned around, he saw Lotus Sun standing behind him.

“Super Chen, I’m sorry...”

Super Chen had no idea what had happened, so he was quickly knocked out by Lotus Sun’s hand knife.

Lotus Sun had held back, and her palm was covered with a sliver of Ohai’s sword energy. It was enough to knock Super Chen out.

The girl’s actions were neat and decisive, without the slightest hesitation.

In almost the blink of an eye, these people with invisibility talismans were all knocked out by Lotus Sun’s sword energy.

She collected all the love letters, then helped Super Chen, who had fainted, to the side, and began to call Jiang Xiaoche.

Jiang Xiaoche received Lotus Sun’s message and thought that his plan had succeeded. He was overjoyed. “What’s wrong, Miss? Did you run into some trouble?”

“Yes! It’s very troublesome!”

Lotus Sun Thought for a moment and nodded. “The main thing is that there are a lot of people who have fainted...”

“What?” Jiang Xiaoche was stunned.

“There’s a group of golden core gangsters following my classmates all the way. I don’t know what happened, but they seem to have fainted. “Brother Xiaoche, hurry up and deal with them before they wake up!” “Also, my classmate’s name is Super Chen. He’s also fainted. Remember to send him home!” Lotus Sun said.

”? ? ?”

After hanging up, many question marks appeared in Jiang Xiaoche’s mind.

..

So, on the first day of No. 60 High School’s return to school, No. 60 High School appeared on the news..

It wasn’t because of the renovation of No. 60 High School.

The content of the news broadcast was mainly related to a car accident that had happened in front of No. 60 high school.

When Wang Ling watched the news, he felt that the female broadcaster was trying hard not to laugh as she reported the incident.

The female broadcaster: “There was an accident in front of No. 60 high school in Peiyuan district of Songhai city. Fourteen men with Invisible Talismans and special props in their hands were lying neatly on the road in front of No. 60 high school, so much so that the parents who were driving their children couldn’t wait to run over them. Now, please watch the detailed interview news...”

On the television, a female reporter handed the microphone to Old Gray. “May I ask who you are? Why did you appear at the school gate with an invisibility rune?”

“We... We are members of the film crew. On the way home after filming, we forgot to open it, and then we fainted on the ground due to fatigue...”old gray explained in a panic.

His face and body were covered in wheel marks.

There were no less than a dozen cars that ran over his body.

If it weren't for the foundation of the realm, he would have already become minced meat..

As for the golden core cultivators behind him, they weren't so lucky.

They were also like old gray, forced to suffer the repeated experience of being run over by cars.

However, they were not as unscathed as Lao Hui. Other than the wheel marks on their bodies, most of them had broken bones.

They had joined the loyalty group for many years after they were promoted. Although Lao Hui had the experience of chatting and joking with the members of the group and having sex jokes from time to time.

However, he did not expect that there would really be a day when a wheel would run over his face!

-- this is really a wheel crushing his face!

He was so F * * King unlucky!

..

At the same time, in the top-floor office of Huaguo Water Curtain Group, Sun Yiyuan received a report from Jiang Xiaoche.

“HM? Rong Rong was attacked by a group of people with invisible talismans on her way home from school, and then this group of people inexplicably fainted?”Sun Yiyuan put down the newspaper with a serious look on his face.

“Yes.” Jiang Xiaoche nodded. “Although miss wasn’t in any danger, student Wang Ling actually just watched from behind the whole time! He didn’t do anything at all! This is really too much!”

“Xiaoche, it’s not that I want to criticize you, but your hostility toward student Wang seems a little obvious.”

Grandfather Sun rolled his eyes and said, “You already said that these people are wearing invisibility talismans. He’s only at the foundation establishment stage; how could he possibly know that someone is planning to attack Rongrong? !”

” ... ”

His logic was clear and logical, and Jiang Xiaoche instantly felt that he couldn’t refute it.

After Grandpa Sun finished speaking, he even smiled. “It’s true that classmate Wang is a mascot. Look, Rongrong was supposed to be in danger. But Wang Ling happened to be behind her, and indirectly helped Rongrong turn the situation around? I didn’t expect classmate Wang to have a good wife Constitution.”

”? ? ?” Jiang Xiaoche was stunned.

God damn good wife..

However, he was still unconvinced. “But I heard that he received a lot of love letters today...”

“How many?”

“More than a hundred.”

“You have my style from back in the day. I wasn’t as surprised as you were when I received a few thousand.”

” ... ”

“Receiving a lot means you’re charming. It indirectly proves that Rongrong’s taste is indeed good.”

” ...”

..

In the bedroom, Lotus Sun poured all her love letters onto her bed.

Sun Ying ‘er was shocked. “So many love letters! Can you read them all, Lotus? You have a task tonight to retrieve the Rubik’s Cube...”

Lotus Sun crossed her arms as she sat upright on the bed. She took a deep breath and said resolutely, “Check! Loopy toad will be here in half an hour. Read as many as you can.”

Chapter 1397 The Serious Miss Sun

Jiang Xiaoche had discovered a very serious problem.

All this time, everything he had done to Wang Ling seemed to have been an assist..

Of course, he felt that this wasn’t entirely his fault.

The main thing was that grandfather Sun’s fan filter was too strong, to the point that he could even conjure up something as magical as a “Happy wife”.

What the hell was this!

After returning home, Jiang Xiaoche opened a bottle of champagne and poured it into a goblet to relieve the pressure. He had originally planned to drown his sorrows with alcohol, but the more he thought about it, the more sullen he became.

Crack!

He suddenly exerted force, and the goblet in his hand was unexpectedly crushed by him. “You have guts, Wang Ling! I, Jiang Xiaoche, am willing to call you number one in picking up girls!”

As a man with dignity, he wouldn't give up on chasing Lotus Sun.

At the same time, as a big pig trotter, he also needed to relieve his stress.

He hadn't been able to date Jiang Yingying, who looked very similar to Lotus Sun, the last time, and Jiang Xiaoche had always been obsessed with that girl.

Since he had nothing else to do now, he turned his attention back to Jiang Yingying.

"Miss, Let's Go!"

Jiang Xiaoche changed his wechat account and tried to add her as a friend.

A few seconds later, he heard the sound of his cell phone being smashed..

He had been blacklisted by Jiang Yingying again!

It was a standard ending!

..

On the other side, Jiang Xiaoche was very depressed.

On the other side, Lotus Sun was also very depressed in her room.

The two girls sat on the bed and checked the letters one by one. Sun Ying 'er summoned a few splitters to help check the letters. After reading less than twenty letters, Sun Ying 'er felt a sense of weariness.

Yesterday on the Moon, Wang Ying had just taught her a lesson, but she still hadn't recovered.

And because Lotus Sun had to go on a mission to retrieve the Rubik's Cube in the evening, her training schedule had been changed at the last minute.

It turned out that she had to report to the Moon every night at eight o'clock sharp.

Now it had been changed to two hours of random training every day..

She remembered that she still owed her daily review and hadn't written it yet.

At this moment, she still had to divert her attention to help her Rongrong check the love letters. Sun Ying 'er felt like the heroine of a tragic novel. It was so miserable!

More than a hundred love letters had been preliminarily selected according to the criteria set by Lotus Sun, and Lotus Sun had already removed more than 60% of them.

Some of them looked like pranks, while others had been directly removed from her list of "Competitors" based on the handwriting alone.

"I think this letter's expression is quite sincere. Why did Lotus just remove them based on the handwriting alone?" Sun Ying 'er couldn't help asking with a deep frown.

"The content is indeed good. The language is full and full, and the wording is gorgeous and touching, but unfortunately, the font is slightly round, so this girl probably doesn't manage her weight very well. I don't think student Wang Ling would like this kind of fat girl."

Lotus Sun buried her head in the letter, with a serious expression, she said, "In addition, this girl writes too heavily, which proves that she's usually hot-tempered. But the words she expresses are full of delicacy, which can be described in four words: she's not what she appears to be."

Sun Ying 'er gulped.

A serious woman was too aggressive. Although there wasn't a single swear word in her words, Sun Ying 'er still felt a sense of danger.

From the moment she checked the letter, this was the girl's expression.

It was as if she had changed into a different person, and had no intention of relaxing at all.

Sun Ying 'ER had originally wanted to tease Lotus Sun, but in the end, she found that Lotus Sun seemed to have entered a state of immunity!

When Lotus Sun got serious, it was really scary!

"Lotus Sun, what are you going to do with these girls? Are you going to take them to sink the river?" Sun Ying 'er asked, trembling.

"It's a society ruled by law now. How could I possibly do this kind of underworld business?"

Hearing this, Lotus Sun fell into deep thought. After a long silence, she said seriously, "It depends on the situation."

"Like what?"

"Introduce them to new boyfriends, or give them enough money to send them abroad. At their age, they're just looking for something new," Lotus Sun said.

"You're not looking for something new?" Asked Sun Ying 'er.

This question made Lotus Sun raise her head and look at her firmly. "I'm not."

"I . . . I know, Lotus Sun..."

Sun Ying 'er had only casually mentioned it to begin with; she hadn't expected Lotus Sun to answer her so seriously.

Within half an hour, with the help of Sun Ying 'er and the splitter, Lotus Sun had successfully sifted through all the letters.

In the end, there were only nine love letters left.

“Should I ask the old man to check them?” Sun Ying ‘er asked.

“No need. Grandfather will laugh at me if I do that.” Lotus Sun shook her head.

At that moment, loopy Toad’s voice came from the door to Lotus Sun’s bedroom. “I wonder if I’ve stopped you from doing the census?”

It had been directly teleported over by Lord Ma and landed right in front of Lotus Sun’s door.

“Come in...”

Lotus Sun had just thought of loopy toad when loopy toad appeared.

She looked puzzled. “How do you know what I’m doing?”

“The fly at No. 60 High School told me. This king is very well-informed now,” loopy Toad said with a smile.

The Demon World in the human world was far less satisfying to eat than the big flesh flies in the demon world. Since it was tasteless, it was better to turn it around and make use of it. This was loopy toad’s “Human World Fly Acquisition Plan.”

“You actually control a fly intelligence network...” Lotus Sun felt that this was an eye-opener.

“It’s no big deal,” loopy Toad said with a chuckle as it looked at Sun Ying ‘er. “Don’t forget that you still owe me 20 sacks of big meat flies.”

Sun Ying ‘ER:”...”

She had almost forgotten that there was actually such an assignment!

This was the promise she had made with loopy toad in private in the secret room of the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube.

She had to fulfill her promise with tears in her eyes!

“So, what do you want me to do?” Loopy toad already knew what Lotus Sun wanted to do. It stared at the nine love letters in the girl’s hand. “Find these girls and directly swallow them?”

“No! You just have to help me find them. Leave the rest to me,” Lotus Sun said.

“Impressive. You want to personally kill them?” Loopy toad teased.

“Who said I want to kill them... It’s just a reasonable and emotional conversation.”

Lotus Sun got out of bed and bowed to loopy toad. “Please, loopy toad!”

“Mm, you have a good attitude. It’s no problem for me to help you. It’s also very easy for me to find these girls.”

Loopy toad walked over and took a whiff of the scents on these letters, and it already had an idea.

“Go and retrieve the Rubik’s Cube first. I’ll take you to identify it when I come back.”

Speaking up to this point, loopy toad frowned. “But it’s very strange. I can smell an acquaintance on these letters, including the pile of letters you sent out on your bed.”

“The smell of an acquaintance?”

“Mm. I’m sure there’s no mistake. After becoming a divine beast, my sense of smell has improved greatly. Wang Zhen’s scent is all on these letters.”

“Wang Zhen?”

Lotus Sun was shocked. “You’re saying... Wang Zhen disguised himself as hundreds of girls and wrote love letters to Wang Ling?”

Because the scenario in her mind was too shocking, Lotus Sun couldn't recover for a long time.

If Wang Zhen had written all these letters, then Lotus Sun couldn't help asking... why was there such a bored person in this world? !

"I didn't say that."

Loopy toad was embarrassed. It stared at Lotus Sun and said, "Have you ever thought of another situation? Maybe these letters were written to Wang Zhen in the first place."

Chapter 1398 The World Of The Secret Sword King

After loopy Toad's Reminder, Lotus Sun finally found a blind spot when she checked the letters.

All the letters here seemed to have the words "Classmate Wang" written on their heads.

And what was very strange was that there was a strange gap between the words "Classmate" and "Wang" in many of the letters.

If these letters hadn't been written to Wang Ling in the first place, then everything seemed to make sense now.

"Brother Wang Zhen's letter... But why did he do this?" Lotus Sun was full of doubts, but after knowing the whole story, her mood had indeed eased up a lot.

"It's probably just a simple prank; I want to see your reaction," loopy toad hit the nail on the head.

"My... reaction?" Lotus Sun sighed in her heart.

It was too difficult for her; it had already been difficult enough to pursue Wang Ling.

And she still had to be "Teased" one by one by these seniors in the cultivation world.

"So does sister Qingyi know about this?" Lotus Sun asked.

“I don’t think so,”loopy toad said.

Lotus Sun’s expression was calm as she smiled kindly. “Then I think she needs to know.”

Loopy toad:”...”

Lotus sun: “Then There’s only one person left now.”

Loopy toad was puzzled. “What one person?”

Lotus sun: “Now That I know that the letters I wrote to classmate Wang were all addressed to brother Wang Zhen, I can already rule them out. Then there’s only one letter left.”

“There’s actually a real love letter?”

Loopy toad and Sun Ying ‘er were both stunned when they heard this.

“Mm, student Wang Ling is the one who raised his head. And this is the focus of my nine letters to begin with,”Lotus Sun said as she pulled the pink envelope out of the nine letters.

“Do you need me to help you find it?”

“No need. This girl has even written her address and signature.”

Lotus sun frowned slightly. “Her name is Jiang Yingying.”

“Jiang Yingying?”

Loopy toad felt that this girl’s name was a little familiar, as if it had heard it somewhere before.

It felt that this matter had become a little more complicated..

“Let’s collect the Rubik’s Cube first. There’s only one opponent anyway; I’ll go meet her myself when I come back,” Lotus Sun said with a smile.

The change from nine “Opponents” to one “Opponent” had indeed relieved a lot of the burden in the girl’s heart.

“Then where is the location of the third Rubik’s Cube?” Sun Ying ‘er asked.

“Sword King World.”

Loopy toad raised its dog head and looked at Lotus Sun. “It’s said that this is where Lord Jingke was born.”

Back then, in order to collect the ancient sword king pillars, the monk had repeatedly barged into the sword King World. It was a very dangerous secret realm in the universe! It was located in the eastern region of the Milky Way!

There was a blade storm outside the sword King realm, and it was accompanied by a strong gravitational force. If one’s cultivation was insufficient, they would be immediately sucked into it and turned into mincemeat.

Therefore, overall, the difficulty of the mission this time was not any easier than the last time.

It was even much more dangerous than Divine Dao Star.

However, the main danger was focused on breaking through from the outside. As long as one could successfully break through the blade storm, it would be much more convenient to move around in the sword King Realm.

At the same time, in order to ensure that the operation went smoothly, another core member of the battle sect had helped them this time.

“Lord Bai Qiao, you can come out now,” loopy toad shouted as it looked out the window.

As a brown sword light flashed through the window, a white-furred otaku girl with headphones around her neck appeared in front of everyone. It was still the signature one-piece pyjamas of the fire-breathing Dragon.

“Senior Bai Qiao!” Lotus Sun greeted.

Bai Qiao’s face was a little red. “Hurry up and do your work! I’ve specially taken some time out to help you. I hope you can be more efficient in taking back the Rubik’s Cube and don’t clumsily waste time! HMPH!”

Not only was Lotus Sun not angry at this venomous tongue, she even found the girl in front of her a little cute.

Bai Qiao’s character was like this to begin with. Lotus sun remembered Odd Zhuo telling her about his past experience in finding Bai Qiao. At that time, Bai Qiao had used her tongue to beat everyone up, and even Wang Ling hadn’t been spared.

So as long as she understood Bai Qiao’s words in reverse, it wouldn’t be a problem.

“Lord Ma hasn’t been inside the sword king world, so he can only teleport us to the outer perimeter. Breaking through the Sword Blade Storm is a difficult task, but I think Lord Bai Qiao should have already thought of a way, right?” Loopy toad wagged its tail, it tried its best to talk to Bai Qiao in a pleasant manner.

It actually didn’t like Bai Qiao’s personality very much, but loopy toad still had to give him some face for Jingke’s sake.

“A bunch of trash.”

Bai Qiao snorted, then transformed itself into the shape of a scabbard.

After a burst of light, the small scabbard gradually enlarged, and then turned into a small immortal ship the size of a sports car.

It was a good thing that Lotus Sun’s bedroom was spacious enough. Even if there was an extra small immortal ship, it wouldn’t make people feel crowded.

“It can actually do this?”

This was the first time loopy toad had seen such a scabbard form, and it was instantly amazed.

“This is the skin transformation spell,” Bai Qiao said.

It was just a game. Sometimes, it didn’t matter if the skill wasn’t good, but the skin had to look good.

As a veteran otaku, Bai Qiao had done a lot of research on her scabbard skin, so she would often develop the inspiration she gathered in the game into a “Skin transformation spell” to make her appearance more gorgeous.

Although Bai Qiao now looked like a small immortal ship, she was actually still a scabbard. There was a socket at the end of the immortal ship, so she could insert her sword into it.

This “Milky Way demon armor” skin was also the inspiration Bai Qiao had gotten from playing chess recently. Even Bai Qiao herself didn’t expect it to come in handy so soon.

Sitting on the immortal ship, Lotus Sun felt very comfortable on the leather sofa inside. “Senior Bai Qiao is so awesome!”

“Do I need you to tell me that?” Bai Qiao sounded a little proud. “Then, let’s Go Now!”

As soon as she said this, Lord Ma’s golden teleportation light descended from the sky on time, and everyone was teleported to the outer Milky Way East region, outside the universe secret realm of the Sword King Realm

..

In the Wang family’s small villa, Wang Ling felt loopy toad, Lotus Sun, and Bai Qiao’s auras disappear from Earth, and immediately knew that they had already begun the retrieval mission.

“Sword Master, Bai Qiao, Really?” Jingke couldn’t help asking from the side.

Wang Ling stretched out his hand and ruffled Jingke's soft white hair. He could actually sense Jingke's worry.

Although the sword King World was indeed his hometown, it was really too chaotic. Since ancient times, countless spirit swords that had been born in the sword king world had been trying to escape that place ever since they had been born.

The spirit swords, which numbered in the trillions, had been constantly struggling for thousands of years. They had tried to break out of the encirclement, but in the end, they had failed and turned into sword tombs in the sword king world.

Jingke remembered that it took him quite a long time to break out of the Sword King Realm back then?

About a week?

He used his sword Qi to grind out a gap and successfully escaped from the sword blade storm.

And following closely behind him was the "Premonition"..

Chapter 1399 Friends From The Sword King World

The number of naturally formed universe secret realms was not much.

In the outer region of the Milky Way, the total number of universe secret realms was less than 40.

The factors that formed the universe secret realms were extremely complicated. The ten great families of the god domain had once invested a large amount of resources to explore the universe secret realms and study the reason for its formation. Up till now, they still had not completely understood it.

Currently, they only knew that the formation of the universe secret region was related to the chaos.

Strictly speaking, this research didn't make much of a difference... but in order to ensure their position as the leader of the ten great families of the god domain, they still had to do research. And since there was research.., then there had to be research funds.

As for where the money went, only the people of the ten great families knew.

The purpose of studying the essence of the universe's secret realm was to deepen their understanding of the secret realm and thus make it easier for them to obtain precious resources from it.

To put it bluntly, in the end, it was for the sake of eating.

Take the sword king world for example. If they could ignore the blade storm and freely enter and leave the Sword King World, bring in and out spirit swords that were naturally born there, and then buy and sell them, they would be rich.

Wang Ling had the ability to do so.

But father and mother Wang had taught him since he was young that he wasn't allowed to use his ability to make money.

So in fact, if Wang Ling could use his ability, he could absolutely become an existence whose wealth could rival that of a country... not to mention the world of Sword King, as long as he sold all the death substitution talismans he had drawn, it would be enough.

Bai Qiao used his "Milky Way magic armor" skin to safely lead everyone through the blade storm. These blades with high spirit power were actually as fine as dust.

Imagine what it would feel like if every grain of sand on the beach was a blade?

Cultivators who were caught in the storm would never return unless they reached an extremely high realm.

Even if they could resist it for a while, the storm of blades was too thick. One mistake could lead to their death.

Even if they could pass through it in the end, they still had to consider the problem of returning.

Although Bai Qiao's body was made of mahogany, it was harder than a metal sword. During the process of passing through, the metal-colored skin of the mech was like a bright gold star.

In the end, Bai Qiao led the group and successfully landed on a barren mountain near the coast.

This was the famous Broken Sword Mountain in the Sword King Realm.

Rather than calling it a mountain, it was actually a huge broken sword that was hundreds of feet tall.

It was rumored that this was originally a huge sword with a very thick body. It had been born thousands of years ago in the Sword King Realm.

When it was born, it was as big as a mountain. Many sword spirits felt that the huge sword was a rare genius who might be able to challenge and break out of the blade storm.

After that, there was no after.

The sword spirit of the huge sword failed to break out.

Its body was split into two.

Half of it fell into the sea of swords in front of it, while the other half turned into a broken sword that was stuck on the shore forever, becoming the Broken Sword Mountain.

Then, it became a great scenic spot in the Sword King realm forever.

Over the past thousand years, countless newly-born sword spirits had "Come here to visit" and carved their own views on the story of the Great Sword Spirit's assault on the blade storm.

"If you don't seek death, you won't die."

"So, what's the use of being big? Isn't it just a fat otaku great sword?"

“Fortunately, I’m not a great sword!”

“It’s better to stay in the sword King Realm. Charging at the blade storm at will is courting death!”

..

Lotus Sun could see the words carved on the mountain wall of Broken Sword Mountain everywhere.

Needless to say, these words came from other sword spirits.

“These trash complain about heaven and Earth.” Bai Qiao rolled her eyes when she saw the words on the mountain wall.

She had heard about this big sword before.

In the former sword King Realm, after all the sword spirits were born, their first thought was to attack the blade storm, even if they didn’t succeed in the end and had to pay with their lives.

This was regarded as a kind of glory in the past.

But now, what was once regarded as glory was now interpreted as “Overestimating oneself” by more and more sword spirits as a warning to the subsequent sword spirits not to challenge the blade storm without sufficient confidence.

As a result, there were more and more sword spirits in the Sword King realm now.

And the new sword spirits were influenced by the new concept and became more and more cowardly.

Later on, sword spirits like Jingke and Xiangyu, who had successfully escaped from the Sword King Realm, became legends in the stories of these new sword spirits.

It had once been considered impossible.

“Senior Bai Qiao, have you ever returned here?” Lotus Sun asked curiously.

“If you want to come back, come back. If you want to go out, go out. It’s nothing difficult.” Bai Qiao shrugged and sighed. “It’s a pity that the new generation of sword spirits aren’t as good as the new generation. They’re getting worse with each generation.”

In comparison, her family’s Jingke was much more outstanding.

It only took her a week to successfully break through the blade storm and become the acknowledged number one sword spirit among sword spirits.

But there was a saying that a wise man should not talk about his past bravery. Bai Qiao felt that there was no need to show off what had happened in the past.

Without further ADO, Lotus Sun immediately released ao Hai’s sword Qi, trying to sense the location of the Third Heaven’s Path Rubik’s Cube.

But this time, the sensing was not as smooth as it had been on Divine Dao Star.

There were too many sword spirits in the sword King Realm. The Sword Qi all intersected into a ball, forming a natural shield that prevented ao hai’s sword qi sensing from spreading out smoothly.

“This is why your Lord asked me to bring you here. Although your combat strength is strong, it’s mainly focused on Ao Hai. Don’t think of yourself as too invincible. You still have to ask for help. It’s not right to be too arrogant and complacent,” Bai Qiao reminded.

This was actually the opinion of the other members of the war sect, but considering that they wouldn’t say it out loud so easily because of their pride, Bai Qiao volunteered to be the bad guy.

Hearing this, Lotus Sun didn’t say anything else. She just accepted the advice with a smile on her face. “Senior Bai Qiao is right. I’ll definitely keep it in mind.”

“Okay.”

Bai Qiao nodded in satisfaction. “Just wait. I have a few friends in the sword King World. This time, they’ll lead us to change the Rubik’s Cube.”

“Friends?” Lotus Sun raised an eyebrow.

In less than three minutes, Lotus Sun could sense three people approaching them at the speed of light from a hundred meters in front of her with her sword qi.

There were one woman and two men, and the female sword spirit in the lead was wearing a tight black leather armor that perfectly outlined her voluptuous and sexy figure.

“Very strong sword Qi,” loopy toad said after sensing it a little.

Soon, the three sword spirits turned into flowing lights and appeared in front of them at top speed. Then they knelt down on one knee and greeted Bai Qiao. “Lord Bai Qiao! We were late to welcome you! Please forgive us!”

“Forget it, get up.”

Bai Qiao wanted to blame them, but she felt that if they continued to argue, it would only delay her time to finish her mission and go back to play the game.

So she gave up.

“This is Carter.”

Bai Qiao pointed at the female sword spirit in front of her and introduced her to Lotus Sun and loopy toad. “Carter’s main body is a short sword, and his unique skill is the lotus of death. He can split himself into thousands of swords and form a tornado.”

Lotus Sun:”...”

Then she turned her gaze to the remaining two male sword spirits.

One of them had a face as white as snow. In modern terms, he looked like a sissy and had the potential to be an idol star. He was the kind of boy that girls liked very much.

The other one had a full beard and was dressed like a Spartan warrior.

“This one has very white skin and is called endless. His ultimate skill is a one-hit kill. He’s the sword spirit of choice for cultivators who like to use explosive sword techniques.”

Bai Qiao introduced them one by one. “This bearded man can be called Old Man. A five-second real man among sword spirits can be temporarily invincible in five seconds, and can even block Jingke’s world-destroying sword. After five seconds, he’ll be an iron fool, and his cooldown is very long.”

Lotus sun: “Then student Wang Ling...”

Bai Qiao: “Oh, Ling ‘ER is an exception. Even if you give him fifty seconds of invincibility, it’s useless; he’ll still be crushed.”

Hearing this, the three sword spirits sighed in their hearts.

Actually, they didn’t have that name at all..

But Bai Qiao forced them to change their names.

He said that their ultimate skill was very similar to the mechanism in a certain game, so it was easier to call them that..

Chapter 1400 Three Unlucky Fellows

After Bai Qiao finished introducing the basic situation, Lotus Sun had a general understanding of the three sword spirits in front of her. “Greetings, seniors!”

Carter, endless, and old man felt their bodies tremble when they heard her address them as seniors. They felt a little ashamed of themselves.

“Miss Sun, you can just call us by our names. There’s no need to call us seniors... We were born in the universe, and it was only by chance that we were older than Miss Sun. In terms of combat strength, we should call you senior,”endless said politely.

“Senior knows me?”Lotus Sun was surprised.

Because Bai Qiao hadn’t introduced her.

“Miss Sun is too famous now. At least in the circle of sword spirits who follow Lord Jingke and Lord Bai Qiao, everyone knows Miss Sun’s name,”endless answered truthfully.

Actually, Lotus Sun’s name was so famous because it had something to do with Ao Hai.

Just as endless had said, sword spirits were all born from the universe.

It was the same for Ao Hai.

“All the swords in the world return to their roots, and all come out of the sword King World. This sentence means that the sword king world is the origin of all sword spirits. This sentence is correct. But strictly speaking, not all sword spirits are born in the sword King World,”endless explained to Lotus Sun about the origin of sword spirits.

He gave an example.

For example, Ao Hai was actually a local sword spirit born on Earth.

Sword spirits like this, which weren’t born in the sword King World, were actually the descendants of spirit swords that had fled from the sword king world

As for Wang Ling and jingke, they resonated with each other.

After Jingke had fled the sword king world, he had been in a deep sleep for a long time and hadn’t chosen his master.

Because no one was worthy of him.

Until Wang Ling was born.

“Sword spirits and sword spirits can also give birth to each other, but through the mechanism of asexual reproduction. After the two sword spirits look at each other, they can enter the primal chaos, and then the universe will give birth to a new sword spirit.”

Endless patiently explained, “Of course, like Lord Jingke and Lord Bai Qiao, it’s clearly a sword, but the sword body and scabbard give birth to a “Spirit” at the same time. There’s no other sword in the entire sword King World.”

At this point, he couldn’t help but smile bitterly.

For a sword like this that was born with a wife, it wasn’t an exaggeration to say that it had amazing bones.

A new sword spirit that was born between a sword spirit and a sword spirit wouldn’t appear in the sword King realm at birth.

Instead, it would choose its own sword master within the universe based on its own characteristics.

Therefore, many so-called sword spirits that were born on earth didn’t come from the Sword King Realm.

It was just that their parents belonged to the sword King World.

Since they weren’t born in the Sword King World, the quality of the sword spirits would naturally be different.

The quality of the sword spirits born in the sword king world was beyond imagination.

That was why there was news that many upper-level cultivators had come to the sword King World in search of swords and died in the outer sword storm..

“If they’re all sword spirits from the Sword King World, from a genetic perspective, the quality of the new sword spirits that these sword spirits give birth to shouldn’t be too bad.” Loopy toad frowned, it felt like it had discovered something extraordinary.

“Sword spirits and sword spirits also have to be of equal status. If they’re mixed together, the quality naturally won’t be too high. For example, it’s obviously a big sword, but they found a short dagger or something like that...” endless said.

“I see.” Loopy toad nodded.

It was also for this reason that most of the sword King World’s local sword spirits actually looked down on non-purebred hybrids from other places.

“Now, Miss Sun, do you know why you and Miss Ao Hai are so famous now?”

Endless said with a wry smile.

At this moment, Lotus Sun came to a sudden realization.

Her Ao Hai wasn’t a local spirit sword from the Sword King World, but now that it had fused with two pieces of the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube, its Combat Power had soared!

It had directly ranked eighth on the Sword King World’s sword list!

For a sword spirit that wasn’t a purebred to be able to do this, it was undoubtedly a heavy blow to the sword spirit of the Sword King World itself!

Sun Ying ‘er smiled. “I really want to know who the three unlucky people who were washed off the list are.”

Bai Qiao looked at Sun Ying ‘er expressionlessly. “It’s those three.”

Lotus Sun:”...”

Sun Ying ‘er:’...”

Loopy toad:”...”

Before ao hai had leveled up, Carter, endless, and old man had been ranked eighth, ninth, and tenth respectively.

Now that Ao Hai had come, Carter’s position had been replaced and he had become ninth.

Endless had become the tenth.

And the most unlucky person was old man..

He had been directly knocked out of the top ten list, and was now struggling to get to the eleventh place.

..

Then, Carter led Lotus Sun and the others through the intricate array formations of the sword King Realm.

After about ten minutes, they finally arrived at the sword capital, which was located at the center of the Sword King Realm.

The third Rubik’s Cube was located in the sword capital.

This was the largest capital city in the entire sword King realm. The tall metal city walls exuded an ancient charm.

According to the endless introduction, all the buildings in the sword King Realm were made from the sword spirits that failed to attack the sword storm.

After those sword spirits failed to attack, they would forever change into their original forms and lose their luster. This indicated that the sword spirit in the sword body had died, and the sword body had become a material that could be reused.

“Why didn’t you recycle that Broken Sword by the sword sea?”Sun Ying ‘er asked curiously.

“Now that it has become a scenic spot, you’ll have a problem if you recycle it at will. Moreover, this sword is too big, so it’s not easy to recycle it,”said endless.

When they passed by the city gate, the sword spirits stationed in front of the city gate bowed to endless and Carter. “Lord Endless! Lord Carter!”

Then they saw Bai Qiao following behind endless. They were so scared that they broke out in cold sweat and knelt down on the spot. “Lord... Lord Bai Qiao...”

“Get up.”Bai Qiao nodded as if she was used to it.

A group of people passed by the city gate.

Then, Sun Ying ‘ER’s words pierced through old man’s heart on the spot. “By the way, why didn’t they call you?”

“I... I’m not worthy...”Old Man’s heart was bleeding, and the expression on his face looked like he was in extreme pain.

When a tree falls, the monkeys scatter, and when a wall falls, everyone pushes it away. This was no different in the sword king world.

Old Man, what a pitiful man.

“Is the Rubik’s Cube still stable?”Lotus Sun asked on the way.

“Miss Sun, the Rubik’s Cube’s condition is still very stable. Because the Rubik’s Cube is not missing, the probability of a riot has been greatly reduced. “However, it’s still safer to replace it with a new Rubik’s Cube as soon as possible,”endless replied.

The group of people walked on the Central Street, attracting the attention of many sword spirits around them. However, no one dared to discuss it on the street because Bai Qiao's aura was too strong.

"By the way, who is the manager of the Sword Capital Now?" Bai Qiao asked.

She hadn't been back for a while, so she didn't know what was going on.

"It's ninth underworld," Carter replied.

"Oh, so it's that kid." Bai Qiao instantly knew.

"Who's ninth underworld?" Lotus Sun asked.

"A serrated sword, currently ranked fifth on the sword rankings, the caretaker of the sword capital."

"As expected, it's the caretaker..."

"Of course it's the caretaker!"

When Bai Qiao said this, the expression on her face suddenly became a little proud. "Heh, in this world of the sword capital, it's all decided by the first on the sword rankings!"
