Chapter 1401 Lotus Sun's

The sword capital had a strong cultural and historical atmosphere.

It was just like the ancient towns on Earth that had been left behind in the past, which still retained the rustic style of the old era.

With the progress of modernization, the number of ancient buildings left behind by the predecessors was decreasing year by year. The buildings made of steel and cement that needed to be demolished and rebuilt were gradually replacing history.

Therefore, Songhai city, where Wang Ling, Lotus Sun, and the others lived, was quite special.

In a first-tier city like this, the architectural style was indeed a rare mix of ancient and modern.

Thus, the young girl didn't feel the slightest bit uncomfortable when she came to the ancient streets of Jiandu.

There were quite a few ancient streets like this in Songhai city, and Lotus Sun had always wanted to find a time to invite Wang Ling to take a look.

Lotus sun hummed the melody of a pop song. Although she didn't sing it, Bai Qiao could guess the name of the song in an instant.

Li Ronghao's "Old Street".

Walking on such a street, a BGM like this was indeed very fitting.

"Back then, the Sword King World was in chaos, and there was no such civilization and order. Although the Sword Spirit was born from the universe, it was only a "Spirit" in the beginning. It was daofather king who had brought the human civilization here and named this place the "Sword King Realm.". And then, the "Spirit" had become the "Sword Spirit." On the way to the Sword Capital Palace., the Endless Stream of information.

“So the reason why the sword spirit is in human form is largely because Daofather king brought the human civilization here?” Lotus Sun asked.

“That’s right. But not all sword spirits are in human form. There are also a small number of alien sword spirits that have all sorts of strange appearances. Animals, plants, and some even look like extraterrestrial creatures.”

Endless said, “But these appearances aren’t fixed. As long as one has enough cultivation base, the sword spirit can freely decide what to look like.”

At that moment, old man smiled. “Take Carter for example. She looked like a garlic bastard at the beginning.”

“Garlic bastard...”

“That’s the seed of a wonderful frog.”

”...”

“If it weren’t for her loyalty to Lord Bai Qiao, she probably wouldn’t have changed into a human form.”

After old man finished speaking, Lotus Sun glanced at Carter and saw that the woman in front of her had no expression at all when she heard endless talk about this dark history. She didn’t take what old man had said to heart at all.

This was a “Three-without-a-daughter”.

In a sense, she was a little similar to Wang Ling, but Lotus Sun felt an inexplicable sense of familiarity?

The inner world of facial paralysis was probably similar.

So more communication with facial paralysis would help her gain more experience in communicating with other types of facial paralysis.

When she passed by a sword dojo, Lotus Sun suddenly thought of a question. “By the way, Can We Buy swords in the Sword King World?”

This question was actually one of Lotus Sun’s thoughts. Nuan had put in a lot of effort to deal with that Groundhog, and the girl had always been grateful for that.

This was a huge favor, and Lotus Sun had been thinking of ways to repay it.

Now that she had finally arrived at the world of Sword Kings, she wondered if she could also help Nuan, who had yet to be born, choose a suitable spirit sword.

Lotus Sun calculated the time.

It would be December 30th in half a month’s time.

The due date was approaching. If she could help Nuan find a suitable spirit sword, she could pay any price.

Endless: “Miss Sun, what you see is a sword school for hire in the Sword King World. Generally, they can openly hire sword spirits to protect their personal safety. The employers include cultivators as well as other sword spirits in the sword King World.”

“Sword Spirits Hire Sword Spirits?”

“Yes, the world of Sword Kings is rich in mineral resources. If you can get rare ores, you can upgrade the sword body and increase the success rate of breaking through the blade storm.”

At this point., endless frowned. “As for buying swords... the currency of the human world is not worth much in the world of Sword Kings, so the best way is to use the equivalent exchange of items. As long as an agreement is reached, there will be a sword spirit willing to sign the contract.”

After endless said that, Bai Qiao added, “There are very few cultivators who have the ability to enter the sword King World, and the signing of a sword spirit contract is usually based on the agreement of both parties.”

“Of course, if they really see eye to eye, we can’t rule out the possibility of signing an agreement for free.”

“To put it simply, although your mother’s younger sister has yet to be born, I’m sure you’ve seen her strength. If she were to come to the sword king world when she grows up, there will definitely be sword spirits who are willing to follow her without taking money.”

“Right now, after all, she’s not that famous yet. If you want to find a spirit sword for her in advance, I’m afraid the price will be too high.”

The price Bai Qiao was referring to was the price Lotus Sun had to pay for not relying on “Wang Ling’s face.”.

Otherwise, with her and Jingke’s status in the sword king world, countless sword spirits would be willing to come for an interview and become Wang Nuan’s spirit sword with just a shout on the street.

But this would be meaningless.

She could tell that the young girl wanted to rely on her own strength to choose a spiritual sword for Wang Nuan.

Unfortunately, this wasn’t earth. With the currency not circulating, the condition of “Buying a sword”wasn’t valid at all.

Even if she used the item as a deduction, the only valuable item that Lotus Sun could take out was probably the ao hai in her hand..

She couldn’t possibly sell the ao hai to exchange for Wang Nuan’s sword.

Therefore, Bai Qiao’s words made Lotus Sun fall into a short period of contemplation.

"I remember... The grand swordplay conference is in two days. If we can win the competition, will we be rewarded with a piece of sword god Alloy? "If there's an alloy as a bargaining chip, I think most sword spirits in the sword King Realm would want to come for an interview."

At this moment, old man opened his mouth and pointed out a bright path for the girl who was at her wit's end.

However, as soon as he said this, endless was first stunned, and then he patted his head. "Oh, right! I remember, it seems like there's such a thing... the grand swordplay conference, I'll also attend it!"

With that, endless hurriedly nudged Carter with his elbow.

After a moment of silence, Carter nodded and said, "Yes, there is one, the grand swordplay conference..."

"There is such a thing, isn't there? I think this is a good opportunity, Miss Sun!"

Old Man quickly followed Carter's words and continued, "If you can get this sword God alloy, you can choose a sword for Zhenren Nuan! By then, those sword spirits who come for the interview will probably line up from swords to the Sea of Swords."

"I'll participate! ! !" Lotus sun said seriously, "But how do I sign up?"

"Hahaha, we'll do the registration for Miss Sun," old man said, patting his chest.

"Then thank you very much, seniors!" Lotus Sun said with a smile.

"..."hearing this, Bai Qiao finally couldn't help twitching his lips.

She felt that the three of them were acting a little too much..

The F * CKING Grand Swordplay Conference!

If there really was such a grand swordplay conference, how could she not know about it? !

In order to curry favor with the young girl, she directly held a grand swordplay conference in the void, but it was still alright..

However, Bai Qiao wasn't in a hurry to expose it.

She wanted to see how the three of them would end up..

Chapter 1402 Information On Love Rivals

The third Rubik's Cube of Heaven's path was sealed under the palace of the sword capital and was heavily guarded by the forces of nine remoteness.

Lotus Sun had just met nine remoteness and felt that he was a very capable person, mature and experienced in his work.

Nine remoteness had a head of long dark gray hair that was casually draped over his shoulders and hung down to his waist. He was dressed in a black tight-fitting suit, and the red thunder-patterned waistband perfectly complemented his slender waist and long legs.

He had always narrowed his eyes, as mysterious as his name.

Lotus Sun had heard from Bai Qiao that for the time being, Jiuyou wasn't one of them, so she told him the same thing about the new Rubik's Cube. "This new Rubik's Cube was created by Bai Qiao, and Lotus Sun is Bai Qiao's disciple."

On the way, Lotus Sun spoke to Jiuyou very carefully to prevent herself from spilling the beans.

"Lord Netherworld!"

"Greetings... Lord Bai Qiao..."

As they passed by the underground palace, the guards at the entrance kneeled on the spot when they saw Netherworld and Bai Qiao behind him.

The ones in charge of guarding the third cube were all sword spirits carefully selected by Netherworld.

They were all ranked below 50 on the sword list.

The leader was a girl named Little Qian.

This was a toothpick sword, only the size of a toothpick, but it hid a huge amount of spirit energy!

It was currently ranked sixth.

“Lord Bai Qiao, this is the old Rubik’s Cube.”

At that moment, Netherworld’s gaze was on the glowing object at the end of the corridor in the underground palace, which was imprisoned by several leg-like chains of light.

This Heavenly Dao light chain had been left behind when Daofather Wang had set up the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube back then, and was used to stabilize it.

Lotus Sun took out the third new Rubik’s cube that Wang Ling had casually taken out.

After sensing the aura of the old Rubik’s Cube in front of them, the new Rubik’s Cube floated over on its own, and then everyone heard a “PA” sound, it felt like two runners in a long-distance race were completing a relay.

The old Rubik’s Cube was directly replaced by the new Rubik’s Cube, and it finally fell into Lotus Sun’s hands.

“Success!” The replacement of the third Rubik’s Cube was smoother than Lotus Sun had imagined. Because the Rubik’s Cube itself didn’t have any riots, it didn’t need to be dragged into the secret chamber of the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube like it had been on Divine Dao Star.

Thus, the replacement of the new Rubik’s Cube was successfully completed.

But at the same time, Netherworld also noticed the changes in front of them.

He was a bit puzzled. “Lord Bai Qiao, it seems that Daofather Wang’s Heavenly Dao light chain has disappeared... is it really okay?”

“Heh, my new Rubik’s Cube is very intelligent. It automatically completes the replacement, and it’s very obedient. It’s many times more reliable than the old Rubik’s Cube.” Bai Qiao snorted. “Alright, since the replacement has been completed, then Miss Sun and I will take our leave. You need to pay more attention to the matter of the Grand Assembly of the Sword.”

“Yes...” Netherworld bowed towards Bai Qiao.

About three minutes ago, he received a message that the grand swordplay conference would be held.

Moreover, this conference had to be held within two days.

This undoubtedly posed a huge problem for Jiuyou.

In order to hold an unprecedented grand swordplay conference, in addition to the “God of sword alloy,” it was important to find contestants, judges, and title sponsors..

Netherworld didn’t know if it was too late, but he could only try his best and try his best to complete it.

“Is it all for Miss Sun?” At this moment, Netherworld looked at Lotus Sun and couldn’t help feeling a little sour in his heart.

A human girl in the foundation establishment stage could take Lord Bai Qiao as her master. What a good life!

..

Lotus Sun returned home and looked at the time.

Since the replacement and recovery process was going smoothly, she only took less than three hours to get back.

There was still an hour before midnight on the second day.

For Lotus Sun, there were only two important matters at hand.

The first was to meet that girl called Jiang Yingying.

The second was the Sword Dao Conference in the world of Sword Kings.

Now, OHAI had successfully reached three cores, but there was still no change in the ranking on the sword list.

Those spirit swords ranked in the top few were indeed frighteningly strong.

But with three cores ohai in hand, as long as there was no strong opponent, Lotus Sun felt that she still had a chance to take down that God of sword alloy!

But these were all things to come.

They would only find out in two days'time at the Sword Dao Conference.

So now, the only important thing in front of the young girl was..

“What do you plan to do?”Loopy toad asked.

It had come back with Lotus Sun, and hadn't chosen to go directly to the Wang family's small villa because the big show in front of it was so exciting that loopy toad was a little reluctant to leave, and all it wanted to do was stay and watch the follow-up developments of the event.

“I still have to understand what the other party is up to.”The girl stared at the love letter in her hand and fell into deep thought.

Although her real name, address, and phone number had been left on it, it was definitely not a wise decision to act rashly.

Lotus Sun turned on her computer and logged into the background of the group's platform in an attempt to activate the "Wukong system."

Seeing how serious Lotus Sun was, Sun Ying 'er was also very excited. "What is lotus doing?"

"I'm going to see if this girl left any purchase records with her cell phone number," lotus sun replied.

"Why do I have the feeling that you're looking for evidence of infidelity..."

As a qualified thunder-treading expert, lotus sun almost choked on her words.

"Ying 'er, you're spouting nonsense again..." Lotus Sun's face was a little hot, but she still pretended to be calm as she stared at the computer to search for relevant information.

As a result, she had indeed found some clues!

"There really are." Lotus Sun looked in surprise at the customer consumption records recorded behind the platform. "Cakes, doughnuts, milk tea, brown sugar..."

Loopy toad was surprised when it heard this. "Don't your family sell elixirs?"

"Grandpa has a lot of sideline businesses. They're all insignificant small businesses," lotus sun replied, not surprised at all. "Basically, Grandpa dabbles in every industry you can think of. Our family also has investments in dog food."

"..." loopy toad.

"This girl likes sweet food very much. Generally speaking, girls who like sweet food shouldn't be too difficult to deal with," lotus sun analyzed as she touched her chin.

She combined the address provided in the love letter and realized that Jiang Yingying actually didn't buy from the same address as the one in the love letter.

“232 Northwest Road,” Lotus Sun said. “This is the receipt address found on the computer, and her latest purchase record was the day before yesterday. It’s also not the same address as the one in the love letter.”

“Northwest Road?”

Loopy toad chewed on this address carefully; it felt a little familiar.

Soon, it hurriedly stood up and moved its dog head closer. “So it’s Here!”

“You know this place?” Lotus Sun asked.

“This is the cadre apartment where Wei Zhi Lives!”

Loopy toad said, “Moreover, Marshal Jiang lives there too... so could this girl be Marshal Jiang’s granddaughter or something?”

“The granddaughter of the ten generals?” Lotus Sun smiled faintly.

If that was really the case...

That would be an interesting opponent.

Chapter 1403 So It Turned Out That Getting Beaten Up In 1402 Was Also A Foreshadowing!

It didn’t seem too certain whether she was Marshal Jiang’s granddaughter or not based on the current situation.

There were many people in this world with the same surname, so it couldn’t rule out the possibility of an accident.

But loopy toad had already felt that the name Jiang Yingying was very familiar before... now, combined with the exact address of northwest road, it had almost come to a conclusion in its heart.

Even if this Jiang Yingying is not marshal Jiang’s biological granddaughter, it must also be related.

Previously, there was a time when he stayed at Wei Zhi's house and played video games with Wei Zhi. Marshal Jiang often went upstairs to visit him. The old marshal and Wei Zhi had always had a good relationship, and during this visit, loopy toad thought it had heard the two of them mention the name.

Anyway, with or without the old marshal,.

Lotus Sun felt that she still needed to know why Jiang Yingying liked Wang Ling.

All emotions can not be generated for no reason. She read the love letter in her hand several times. Jiang Yingying did not directly explain how she knew Wang Ling.

This is a girl from another school..

Could it be that she was a fangirl who had been attracted to student Wang Ling at the exchange meeting between No. 60 High School and a foreign school?

For a moment, Lotus Sun's mind was filled with a lot of answers.

"Aren't you going to directly ask her on wechat?" Loopy toad chuckled. Like everyone else, it was the type of person who wouldn't mind watching a show.

"Girls generally don't easily add strangers on wechat, so you have to get to know her first and then think of a way to get close to her," Lotus Sun replied.

The girl looked at the phone number on the love letter. After confirming that she could add Jiang Yingying's wechat directly through the phone number, she decided to hold it in for the time being. She resisted the urge to add her friend and find out what was going on.

The more this happened, the calmer she needed to be..

There was a saying that went, "Things go wrong when you're busy." Now that she only had one opponent, she couldn't afford to be flustered.

In any case, as long as it was something in the school circle, it would be easy to handle.

When she went to school tomorrow, Lotus Sun decided to use her personal connections in the student council.

This way, she would be able to get more information about Jiang Yingying.

“Let’s end the investigation here for today. I’ll send sister Qingyi a message and then take a break.” Lotus sun stretched lazily.

“What message did you send to Liu Qingyi?” Loopy toad was stunned.

Lotus sun first turned her gaze to the pile of remaining love letters, and then revealed an incomparably benevolent smile. “Of course it’s to report about brother Wang Zhen!”

..

..

For the past two days, Wang Zhen and Liu Qingyi had been looking for a place to rent, choosing a room type, renovating it, and buying furniture -- these were all jobs.

At this time, they were staying at a high-end couple’s hotel.

The hotel had all the amenities. The luxury suites were equipped with wine and drinks, fruit racks for all seasons, beauty parlors, a full set of smart massage equipment, and even a built-in swimming pool.

The couple had just confirmed their relationship, and it was time to stick together.

Wang Zhen also worked very hard and almost finished all the dirty and tiring work in front of them.

Liu Qingyi was wearing a swimsuit and applying a facial mask on a recliner.

Her originally relaxed mood was broken by a sudden text message.

This message came from... Wang Ling.

The content of the text message was very simple. It was a pile of love letters on the ground.

And a very short sentence: Wang Zhen, who was lovey-dovey everywhere.

Wang Tong's camera function had captured the pictures very clearly.

And it also came with a 360 degree omnidirectional analysis ability with no blind spots..

In other words, as long as Liu Qingyi clicked on any letter in this picture, she would be able to see the contents of the letter.

Wang Tong's analysis ability was so strong that even the pictures in the blind spots could be completely analyzed.

He could even reconstruct the parts of the letter that had been erased.

For example, Wang Zhen had erased the word "Zhen" from "Classmate Wang Zhen." Now that Wang Tong had done it, he could reconstruct it as well.

Liu Qingyi opened a few of the letters, and she felt terrible..

The mask on her face fell to the ground with a clatter.

"Do you want to have a sleep meeting?" Wang Zhen took the initiative to walk over, half-squatting and wrapping his arms around Liu Qingyi's neck from behind.

However, when he did this, he suddenly felt that the atmosphere was a little off..

Something wasn't right! What the hell was going on?

He didn't seem to have done anything wrong today..

Ding!

At that moment, Liu Qingyi received a second text message.

This was from Lotus Sun..

It perfectly matched the content of Wang Ling's previous text message.

"Aren't you going to explain these love letters to me?" Liu Qingyi took a deep breath. Her body was already trembling wildly, but she still tried hard to remain calm.

"..."

Wang Zhen felt as if the word "Danger" was hanging high above his head at that moment.

He tried to quibble. "This love letter is all written by classmate Wang... maybe it's written to Ling Zhenren."

"You want to frame Ling Zhenren for this little trick?"

Liu Qingyi smiled and opened the photo that Wang Tong had analyzed in all directions. Wang Zhen was instantly dumbfounded.

At the same time, Wang Zhen was roaring in his heart.

F * * K! was there a need for that? !

It was just some love letters!

He had even used Wang Tong's ability..

Wang Zhen cried.

The point was that he wasn't the real culprit!

This idea was clearly Fang Xing's idea!

Why should he be the one to take the blame..

"First of all, Ling Zhenren couldn't have lied. Second, my disciple's text also verified Ling Zhenren's story. What the hell are you doing?" Liu Qingyi looked at Wang Zhen, with a snort, she said, "You wanted to destroy the love letters, so you went all out and framed Ling Zhenren? How dare you, Wang Zhen!"

"These love letters were actually written by someone before we established our relationship... Sigh, I'm too popular, you can't blame me for this..." Wang Zhen said in a low voice, feeling very wronged.

At the same time, he felt that he couldn't explain himself; he was afraid that he wouldn't be able to clear his name even if he jumped into the Yellow River.

"I can't explain this clearly... but I admit it! You can punish me however you want..." Wang Zhen sighed.

As he spoke, he took the initiative to walk over to the fruit rack and take a durian.

"Oh? Is this a trick to make yourself suffer? Don't think that my heart will ache! If you have the ability, then kneel down."

Liu Qingyi raised her hand and cast the metal hardening spell, directly transforming the durian in Wang Zhen's hand into an iron durian. Its hardness had increased by several levels.

However, Wang Zhen's face didn't change in the slightest in the face of this change.

He directly knelt down towards the durian.

With a crack, the entire durian was instantly torn apart... and Wang Zhen's knees were completely unaffected!

"You... why are you so skilled!" Liu Qingyi was stunned.

"Didn't I often get beaten up by my parents when I was young? I also knelt on a durian made of diamonds..."

Just as Wang Zhen finished speaking.

At that moment, Lord Ma's golden teleportation light landed accurately on the side of the pool.

A heavenly dao durian that Wang Ling had personally enchanted appeared in front of Liu Qingyi and Wang Zhen..

Chapter 1404 Matched Wang Nuan's Spirit Sword

After giving away the Heavenly Dao Durian, Wang Ling felt much better.

Whether Wang Zhen's knee broke or not, it had nothing to do with him anymore... this was the so-called tit for tat, and he would have to pay it back sooner or later.

On the other hand, Lotus Sun wanted to find a spirit sword for Nuan.

Wang Ling already had some understanding through his superb and familiar screen-peeping skills.

In fact, his and Lotus Sun's thoughts could be said to coincide.

Giving a sword at birth had always been a tradition in the Wang family.

Even if Lotus Sun didn't prepare it, Wang Ling would find a way to get his own sister a handy spirit sword.

Wang Ling didn't have very high requirements for a spirit sword.

On one hand, he had to be obedient and obedient to his sister's wishes.

On the other hand, he had to be flexible.

This was an additional condition based on the first point.

The main meaning was that he hoped that she wouldn't be blindly loyal.

If Nuan did anything wrong, he had to stop her in time.

So, to sum it up, Wang Ling's requirements were actually very simple.

As long as this sword could accompany his sister as she grew up, help her with her homework when she encountered difficulties in her studies, give her a massage to relieve her stress when she was tired, come out to protect her as soon as she was bullied, and help her fly when she needed someone to play games with..

All these conditions were neatly listed in his notebook.

In his opinion, it was the least he could do to deserve his sister's spirit sword!

"Sword Master, apart from my strong combat strength, I seem to have other..."jingke stared at the conditions listed in the notebook from beginning to end and suddenly felt that he was a little useless.

Wang Ling Ruffled Jingke's white hair again to appease him.

For Wang Ling, Jingke's companionship since he was young was destined to be a part of his memories that he would never be able to part with.

And his attitude toward Jingke was like that of an "Old father"?

As long as Jingke could always accompany him to retire..

As for learning, gaming, and combat strength, he was already strong enough, so jingke only needed to act cute on the side.

Jingke sighed.

It was said that he was looking for a spiritual sword, but he still felt like he was looking for a sister-in-law..

Nowadays, it was really too difficult to be a spiritual sword.

Not only did you have strong battle prowess, but you also had to develop your morals, intelligence, body, beauty, and labor.

You could go to the hall, you could go to the kitchen, and most importantly, you also had to learn how to do functions..

And in a sense, functions were also a compulsory course for modern spiritual swords. For example, when a spiritual sword launched a long-distance attack, you had to calculate the parabola!

Lotus Sun had actually given Wang Nuan a job in finding a spirit sword for him, and girls might be more sensitive than him.

Wang Ling felt that it was better to take advantage of the situation and directly use this impromptu dao of the sword conference to find a spirit sword.

“Sword God alloy, this thing isn’t actually worth much to you, is it?”

At that moment, loopy Toad’s voice sounded behind Wang Ling, and Lord Ma had already teleported it back.

Loopy toad felt that it hadn’t been easy running back and forth between the two villas

“The competition over there is a temporary one. Bai Qiao said that the sword God alloy is in zero stock in the sword King World... I’m afraid it’s too late to re-mine and refine it, so I wanted to ask if you have any ideas,”loopy toad said, right now, it was just an errand boy.

Wang Ling actually had the sword God alloy in his treasure vault.

It was one of the rarest metals in the universe, and there was a very limited amount in the entire sword king world. Because it was extremely difficult to refine, it was very rare.

And because it was rare, it was precious.

An alloy the size of a dice was enough to strengthen and upgrade the spirit sword.

And it was this rare sword God alloy that was as big as a small hill in Wang Ling’s “King’s treasure pants”. Furthermore, it was 100% pure and had no impurities in it at all.

Using the “Great cutting spell”, Wang Ling casually cut out a piece the size of a basketball and handed it over to loopy toad.

”...”loopy toad was shocked.

This die-sized alloy was already enough to complete a strengthening upgrade.

To directly give a piece the size of a basketball... it was enough for those spirit swords to smash themselves into pieces and redo them!

..

Thus, when Bai Qiao and loopy toad brought the basketball-sized sword God alloy back to nine remoteness, he was completely dumbfounded. “This... this big lump?”

What happened to the rarest metal in the universe..

Why would such a big lump appear here! And it was the one with the highest purity!

Nine remoteness stretched out his hand and sensed the purity of this sword god alloy. He felt as if he had been struck by lightning once again. “100% purity... where did Lord Bai Qiao get this thing? !”

His voice trembled.

Even as the current caretaker of the Sword King World, nine remoteness couldn't hide the excitement in his heart.

“Can I participate in this Sword Dao Conference...”Jiu You's heart itched. With such a large piece of sword god alloy as a reward, the entire sword king world would probably riot, countless spirit swords would fight over this piece of sword god Alloy!

“This is my exclusive collection. You naturally don't know about it. Moreover, this kind of alloy is completely useless to me.”Bai Qiao shrugged.

She and Jing Ke were both made of Peach Wood. It was a burden for them to re-integrate metal elements into their bodies.

And nine remoteness also found something very magical.

He found that the few spirit swords that were ranked near the top didn't seem to be made of metal.

Jing Ke and Bai Qiao were made of Peach Wood.

They were made of bamboo.

And the third spirit-controlling sword was an amber sword.

None of the swords in the top three were made of metal, which instantly made nine remoteness feel like he had been reincarnated in the wrong place.

“As long as you pay more attention to this competition, you’ll get an extra reward after it’s done. I still have the sword god Alloy.”

Bai Qiao glanced at Nine Remoteness, she said, “As for Carter, Endless, and Old Man, they should be busy preparing for the competition now, so you’ll have to inform them on their behalf. Do a good job and you’ll get a reward.”

This was actually also what Wang Ling meant.

Otherwise, Bai Qiao wouldn’t dare make the decision on her own.

There were always benefits to having people work overtime on the spur of the moment.

There was a saying: As long as you gave them enough overtime pay, it didn’t matter if they worked like cattle or horses..

With such a reward, Wang Ling believed that this Sword Dao Conference would definitely go very smoothly.

“Lord Bai Qiao, don’t worry! We’ll definitely do our best!” Nine Depths bowed deeply to Bai Qiao.

He himself had become full of confidence in the preparations for this competition.

It was only to be blamed that the charm of the sword God Alloy was simply too great.

Humans had cats and sword spirits had magnets!

As long as it was a sword spirit, it wouldn’t be able to resist taking a sip of the sword god Alloy!

“It smells so good!” Nine Remoteness held the basketball-sized sword God Alloy in his hands and looked intoxicated.

“Is it that exaggerated?” Loopy Toad didn’t understand.

“Give me an example.”

Bai Qiao said to loopy toad telepathically, “Your Lord has the same expression when he smells crispy noodle snack’s pepper flavor.”

Loopy toad: “I understand...”

Chapter 1405 Sword Spirit Selection

With the reward promised by Bai Qiao, Jiu you was naturally full of energy. Although this grand swordsmanship competition was a spur-of-the-moment idea, it definitely couldn’t be done as a spur-of-the-moment event. The ostentation had to be big enough, only in this way could the human girl have a real experience.

Secondly, the participating sword spirits should not be too strong.

At the very least, the spirit swords that were ranked before ao hai could not participate.

These spirit swords would be directly placed in the ranks of the judges.

In a quiet room in the sword King Realm Palace, Jiu you led Carter, endless, and old man into a meeting.

“Although time is tight, I still feel that it is necessary to have a selection to raise the overall quality of our participants.”

Nine serenities laid on his desk. Throughout the whole process, his hand never stopped, he kept taking notes of the meeting in his notebook. “This competition is actually a good opportunity. Because the ranking data of the sword list is automatically generated by the sword list, and the ranking changes in real time according to the situation of the spirit sword, there have been many sword spirits who have doubts about the ranking of the sword list.”

“Lord Netherworld, you mean that we can use this opportunity to determine Miss Sun’s victory internally, and also let the sword spirits verify the authenticity of the sword list?” Old Man stroked his beard and said.

“Although old man, what you said is right, you must remember... you can’t be so Frank outside.” Netherworld smiled bitterly.

This swordsmanship meet was indeed specially held for Lotus Sun, and as expected, Lotus Sun was the chosen champion.

Who asked this girl to be Lord Bai Qiao's disciple!

But this matter could only be understood and not spoken of... it had to be kept strictly confidential.

This was the so-called routine of a variety show, and it wasn't uncommon for a chosen champion to be chosen.

If the power of capital wanted to promote an artist, apart from giving them enough topic resources, it was also the least they could do.

"Currently, the ranking of the sword rankings is only counted up to the top 100,000. I don't think there is a need to participate in the competition for the nameless sword spirits after the top 100,000," Jiu You said. "However, there are still too many sword spirits on the list at the moment. The ideal state for our competition this time is to have 1,000 sword spirits. Therefore, we still have to go through the auditions."

"What is Lord Jiu You's idea?"

"In order to ensure that sword spirits can participate in each stage, my current idea is to divide the sword spirits into five small ancestors: bronze, silver, gold, Diamond, and King. Then, each group will decide on 200 winners," said Jiu You.

The others immediately understood what Jiu You meant. Among the sword spirits that were ranked on the list of 100,000.

According to this division, among the 100,000 sword spirits, No. 1 and No. 19,999 were the King Group.

The Diamond Group from No. 20,000 to No. 39,999..

And so on, the 100,000 sword spirits were divided. Then, each group would select 200 winners through a certain selection mode.

In this way, sword spirits from all levels would be guaranteed to be selected, and they would all be sword spirits with higher overall qualities.

Of course, this was the correct way to divide the groups.

Whether or not they would participate in the competition was up to the sword spirits themselves. If they did not sign up, it would be considered as an automatic forfeit.

Therefore, in reality, each group might not have 20,000 people when it came to the audition stage.

For example, the King Group would lose many strong competitors.

After all, those ranked ahead of Ao Hai would be the judges..

Therefore, it was just a hypothesis for now. If each group was full, how would the groups and auditions be conducted.

“What about Miss Sun in the auditions?”

“Miss Sun doesn’t have to participate in the auditions. Anyway, there are so many people, and we won’t be able to see her. When the time comes, we can directly advance.”

“Mm... The last one is, will each group decide on 200 people?”? This was a pretty good idea. But I still feel that it’s not fair, right? “The person ranked last in the King Group can also beat bronze, right?”Endless raised a question.

“My idea is that it’s better to decide on a few more champions. After each group’s 200 sword spirits are divided, then the 200 sword spirits will fight in a melee until the first place is decided. and the first place in each group will be rewarded.”

Jiu you was very thoughtful. “This way, we can avoid some gossip. However, the reward for the first place in each group is not the sword God alloy, but a chance to use the royal palace’s Great Protector Sword.”

“Royal Palace... Great Protector Sword...”the corners of endless and old man’s mouths twitched.

“It’s just a full-body recuperation for the sword body. Little Qian and I will apply the lubricating oil on it!”

“So perverted...”even Carter could not stand it any longer.

“Sigh, you guys have underestimated the allure of the Grand Protector Sword of the palace. With just this item, who knows how many sword spirits will fight over it.”Jiu you sighed, he gestured with his hand to apply the lubricating oil. He did look very professional.

According to Jiu You’s current thinking.

After the first place of each of the five groups was born, each of the first place winners would receive a chance to use the royal palace’s Great Protector Sword. This was the basic reward.

And the real prize, which was the “God of swords alloy,”would be born after the five groups’first place scuffle.

As expected, this alloy would definitely be won by Lotus Sun and Ohai.

But now, the question before everyone’s eyes was:.

What kind of selection method should be used to reduce each group from 20,000 to 200 people in the preliminary selection.

First of all, a free-for-all competition was definitely not realistic.

When there were too many sword spirits, it was simply difficult to control the situation.

At that time, each of the 20,000 sword spirits would turn into a streak of sword light and fly around in the sky, like fireworks... just looking at it made one dizzy!

“Should we launch a voting zone for sword spirits to perform their talents? Let all sword spirits vote publicly, and the sword spirits of Netherworld on the sword list can cast two votes!”Endless suggested.

This proposal was directly rejected by Netherworld. “We are not ‘idol sword trainee’. Why would a sword spirit perform their talents? Moreover, the public voting system is not conducive to miss sun.”

“That’s true...”endless nodded.

Carter originally wanted to raise his hand to propose the proposal. She had the idea of creating 202, but after seeing that endless was rejected, she also silently put down her hand.

“It seems that everyone seems to be frowning. Now, there’s only one way left...”

Netherworld stopped taking notes and crossed her fingers to support her chin.

In fact, this method was very old, but it was very suitable under such circumstances.

“The method you mentioned, could it be...”endless saw Jiu you’s slightly old-fashioned action, and he already had an idea.

“It seems that this is indeed the only method. This is the least chaotic, and it also seems to be the fairest method.”Old Man also thought of it.

“So what is it?”Carter still didn’t understand.

“Carter, your reaction is too slow.”

Jiu you gave a deep smile. Then, he instructed Little Qian who was outside the door, “Go and announce to the whole world that the sword spirits who are interested in participating in the competition should gather at the god of Sword Plaza.”

God of Sword Plaza..

Until then, Carter finally understood.

So this ancient method was to use the ancient sword stele in the god of Sword Plaza to test the combat strength of the Sword Qi!

“It seems that you’ve finally thought of it, Carter.”

Old Man snorted and laughed. “The older generation of sword spirits have all been tested by the sword stele. Back then, when I used my sword, I was already at stage nine of Sword Strength!”

Chapter 1406 Amber Sword Spirit Control

Because of the Sword Dao Conference, all the sword spirits in the sword King Realm were mobilized.

This was a grand conference that was rarely seen in a hundred years, and the most important thing was that the reward was still that big lump of “Sword god alloy”!

This made all the sword spirits rub their hands together. There was a saying that the most important thing was to participate, so it would definitely not be a loss to participate.

In this regard, the reward mechanism of nine serenities was actually quite good.

The final prize was the “God of swords alloy”. The first place in each group had a chance to “Protect the sword of the palace”, and all the shortlisted participants were given an additional piece of low-purity god of swords alloy.

This was a very small piece that nine serenities had cut from the large god of swords alloy. After another thousand cuts, each piece was only the size of a BB bullet, and the purity was condensed to 5% ..

5% meant that the success rate of the fusion was about 5% .

Therefore, the low-purity sword God alloy was also nicknamed the “European Emperor’s Stone” by many sword spirits. For the European emperor, even if the success rate was only 5% , it was no different from 100% .

Therefore, even such a small piece of low-purity alloy was enough to make the sword spirits fight over it.

That night, there was a long line in front of the god of Swords Square, and countless sword spirits rushed here as soon as they received the notice.

Carter and Qian-chan were the on-site supervisors and the statisticians.

Old Man and endless were responsible for maintaining order on the scene.

In addition to controlling the field, the two men would also participate in this group competition. It wasn’t to compete with Lotus Sun, but to ensure that she could advance.

They would try to eliminate as many people as possible during the 200-person free-for-all, and then lose to Lotus Sun in the end, directly sending the girl to the first place in the group.

That’s right, this competition was so “Social” and “Dark”(funny) .

Anyway, their ranking was below Olympian Sea, so it wouldn’t be unreasonable for them to be eliminated.

As for Jiu you.

He went to look for the remaining judges.

Knowing that Bai Qiao, Jingke, and Xu won’t be participating in the judges, there were a total of the confirmed judges as follows.

Ranked fifth: himself (Jiu You)

Ranked sixth: Little Qian (Toothpick Sword)

However, just the two of them as judges was not enough.

Therefore, Jiu You's job now was to pull in the Spirit Tamer, who was ranked third, and Mo Yu, who was ranked fourth.

Jiu you knew the whereabouts of these two girls.

Originally, Jiu you had planned to look for suifeng, who was ranked seventh.

However, it was a pity that Suifeng was just like his name, floating with the wind... one would never know where he was.

Suifeng was a feathered sword. It was covered in feathers and looked light. When it was waved, it could emit a burning phoenix flame.

However, this Phoenix Flame had a healing ability, so it also had a powerful healing effect. Even damaged organs could be repaired by the Phoenix Flame.

It could bring a feeling of "Pain and pleasure" to the healed object..

..

In the sword God Forest of the Sword King Realm, in front of a huge ten-thousand-meter waterfall.

A girl with a bun on her head was sitting quietly under the waterfall. She was wearing a pink cheongsam, and the slit on the side was very high. She had a pair of white slender legs and was sitting cross-legged.

There was a layer of pale pink invisible sword barrier around the girl. The waterfall above her head flowed backward and landed on the sword barrier. It was cut off by the sword Qi, and the water bounced and splashed in all directions.

This was the bone-burying waterfall in the sword God Forest. It was a good place to cultivate, but ordinary sword spirits did not dare to approach it.

Just like the name of the waterfall, if the sword Qi was not enough to support it, it would probably be crushed by the enormous water pressure of the waterfall on the spot.

“Spirit, I knew you were here.” Jiu you stood on the rippling lake in front of the waterfall, and his voice reached the girl’s eyes through the rumbling sound of the waterfall.

Spirit Tamer opened his eyes, revealing his pink gem-like eyes. “The swordsmanship competition was your idea?”

“It seems that you are well-informed.” Jiu you smiled with his hands behind his back.

“Mo Yu was with me at first, but she left immediately after hearing it.”

“She is more enthusiastic than I thought.”

“Ha, it is clearly a jade sword, but it is not gentle at all. It is frivolous.” Spirit Tamer lowered his eyes slightly. “However, the matter of the judges is not suitable for me. You have found the wrong person. Isn’t there Suifeng?”

“I don’t know where he is.” Jiuyou shook his head.

Actually, if they really wanted to find him, they could always find him.

However, they were pressed for time right now, and there wasn’t much time left until the start of the Sword Dao Conference.

If they went to look for Suifeng now, it was already too late.

“It seems that he’s still sensing his sword master.” Royal Spirit raised his head and looked at the distant starry sky.

Finding a suitable sword master was actually the long-cherished wish of every sword spirit. In fact, the sword spirits ranked in the top 50 on the sword board all had the strength to travel through the blade storm alone.

They could have left long ago, but because they could not find a suitable master, they had been hiding themselves in the sword King Realm, waiting for the right opportunity.

It was just like hiding in the mountains as a tactician.

“I’m afraid it won’t be easy for Suifeng to find his sword master.” Jiu you smiled bitterly.

“His Phoenix Fire has a healing effect. The person who is burned is in pain and joy. In the end, even if we can find the sword master, he will be a masochist,” said the spirit.

“Maybe.”

Jiu you smiled, he continued the previous topic, “Are you sure you don’t want to be a Judge?”? Among the participants this time, the human girl was Lord Bai Qiao’s disciple. In order to avoid suspicion, Lord Bai Qiao would not participate in the selection. “Moreover, she named you to be a judge.”

In fact, Bai Qiao did not say such a thing.

She only gave jiu you the right to “Do as he pleases.”.

As long as he could facilitate the smooth progress of the sword competition this time, Jiu you could use Bai Qiao’s name at will and use Bai Qiao’s name to do things.

At this moment, the royal spirit finally raised his head. His originally solemn little face revealed a pleasantly surprised expression as if he had been fed a piece of candy. “She really asked me to go?”

“Yes.” Jiu you nodded his head affirmatively.

As the number one fan of Bai Qiao’s Hidden Place, Jiu you was certain that the royal spirit would be pleasantly surprised when he heard this news.

However, he did not expect that the young girl seemed to be even more excited than he had imagined.

“Then, what about Lord Jingke...”the Spirit Tamer asked. His voice was as pleasant as spring water.

“Lord Jingke isn’t coming back, but Lord Bai Qiao said that they would quietly observe this battle from afar,”said nine remoteness.

“Good! I’ll be the Judge!”The Spirit Tamer immediately agreed.

Nine remoteness looked pleased.

The girls nowadays were really easy to fool..

However, the titles of Lord Bai Qiao and Lord Jingke were indeed useful.

..

Meanwhile, on the other side of the Sword Plaza, the interview for the Sword Monument continued.

“Sword Spirit Ku Xuan, fourth stage sword strength, total value: 404, failed.”

Carter lowered his head to make a record. “Next!”

When he raised his head again, a boy with a buzz cut suddenly appeared in front of Carter.

The boy revealed a hint of childishness. He was only slightly taller than the desk used for registration. He wore a rattan armor and looked at Carter expressionlessly. “My name is Leng Ming.”

“Where did the little sword spirit come from?”Little Qian frowned.

It looked like a sword spirit that had just been born. She stared at the little boy in front of her and felt that the psionic power on his body was pitifully low.

“It’s actually a sword formed from a blade of grass.”Carter saw through the true face of the little sword spirit.

She carefully flipped through the information on the sword rankings.

In the end, she was surprised to find that the little sword spirit named “Leng Ming”was just stuck at the last place on the sword rankings, the position of 20,000.

“What do we do now?”Little Qian asked.

“Let him try it out. His name is on the sword rankings. Although he’s young, he can still participate in the competition,”Carter said.

Chapter 1407 A Blade Of Grass

“Thank you,”Leng Ming replied politely.

There was a smile on his face, but he seemed to be very nervous.

“Don’t be nervous. Perform well. Just wait behind the yellow-haired brother in front,”Qian said softly while taking notes. Then, she gave the number plate to Leng Ming.

Carter and qian-chan were both very patient. After all, they were just newborn little sword spirits. As seniors, they had to take care of them.

The key point was that the child in front of them looked likable and was a cute little guy.

Although they were not optimistic about Leng Ming’s final test results, Leng Ming had just been born not long ago, and he had already entered the sword rankings. In the future, Leng Ming would definitely be a person worth looking forward to.

Was he transformed from a blade of grass?

Interesting..

Carter and Little Qian were expectant as they waited for Leng Ming to appear.

At the same time, Carter's imagination ran wild.

A blade of grass transformed from a blade of grass... what kind of grass could be awakened in such a way? Could it be that Ling Zhenren had peed on it by accident?

At this moment, many sword spirits were discussing Leng Ming's appearance in the god of Swords Square.

They had originally thought that he was a child of some great sword spirit clan, but they hadn't expected him to be born independently of the Sword King World. In fact, he had come to register as well.

"He was born at the bottom of the sword rankings. He's quite lucky. I wonder how much combat power he'll be able to unleash."

"The sword stele was personally established by Daofather King back in the day. It can test a person's combat power, talent, and potential in all aspects. Thus, overall combat power is only a part of it." "The ranking of the sword list is also based on combat power. "Comparatively speaking, the overall evaluation of the sword stele is more objective."

A sword spirit said as he looked at the enormous sword stele in front of him.

This sword stele was at least ten thousand feet tall, but its entire body was broken.

Such a break had only happened once in the history of the sword list.

That was when Jingke had just been born.

As soon as Jingke was born, he sliced off half of the sword stele with a single sword. A large chunk of the original 20,000 feet sword stele was cut off alive by the sword qi and turned into fine powder on the spot.

Back then, Jingke was unrivalled in the world. Whether it was in terms of combat strength, talent, or potential, he was number one.

He had shocked the entire sword King realm.

However, if one thought about such a miracle, it would probably not happen again.

The sword rankings were based on combat power, so Leng Ming's combat power wasn't too high. This was already a done deal, a miracle where the sword stele broke would never happen again.

So the key now was how his talent and potential were.

At this moment, everyone in the square was paying attention.

The sword stele stood in front of them, and all kinds of sword spirits were surrounding it. Some were queuing up, and some came to watch the show.

Most of the sword spirits were in human form, with different physiques. There were also beast-shaped sword spirits.

After Leng Ming got the number, he confirmed that he was standing behind a yellow-haired young man. The young man glanced at Leng Ming with disdain and said, "Little Sword Spirit, watch your Big Brother perform for You!"

As he said that, he walked toward the sword stele. His whole body was emitting electric light, and a powerful sword Qi was released from his body!

"I remember him! His name is lightning roar! 100,000 volts of lightning roar!"

"So it's him... I remember him!"

Many sword spirits began to whisper among themselves.

The moment they saw the electric light burst out, they realized that this yellow-haired man was actually lightning roar, and the young man's lightning was his true form!

Right now, lightning roar was ranked 286th in the battle prowess rankings! He was one of the experts in the King Group!

He had the habit of reading books, and there were many small sword spirits in the sword king world who sold their words to earn money to buy materials to upgrade their sword bodies.

In order to speed up the update, lightning frequently went up to those unscrupulous authors who delayed the update and stopped the update..

Hence, he had such a fearsome reputation.

Dian Ming was very confident in his test results. He released his sword aura and slashed forward!

Boom! In an instant, golden lightning shot out in all directions. The sound of lightning and thunder rumbled. That surging sword aura rushed forward and turned into a lightning tiger that pounced towards the sword monument!

Then, the entire lightning tiger that was formed from the Lightning Sword Aura merged into the Sword Monument and quickly disappeared into it.

Dian Ming was very confident in his attack. He had used all of his strength. He believed that his result would not be too bad. At least he would be able to get into the top 200 from the 20,000 people in the King Group.

As long as his overall score was higher than the others, he would be stable.

“How is it, little brother? How was Big Brother's move just now?”Dian Ming finished the test and glanced at Leng Ming beside him. He revealed a smug smile.

Soon, a string of ancient characters appeared on the Sword Monument.

Carter glanced at it and reported the results while registering, "Lightning roar, 216 segments of sword aura, total value: 21,600, qualified. Current King Group Ranking: 162nd."

This result was not surprising.

With Lightning Roar's level, the probability of being selected was extremely high. After all, the Sword Monument's evaluation was not based solely on combat strength data.

However, electric current was actually still somewhat dissatisfied with the current ranking.

He thought that he could enter at least the 120th place.

But now it seemed that... This sword stele's ranking was slightly lower because there were still many other king group sword spirits who hadn't participated in the test. If he were to meet experts in the following rounds, he would definitely take a pill.

But even so, in the eyes of lightning roar, at least in the eyes of the others, he wasn't considered to be a loose cannon.

Especially in front of this little sword spirit..

"Little brother, it's your turn."

Lightning roar swept a glance at Leng Ming, who was stunned at the side, and then retreated to the side.

Leng Ming stepped forward. Facing the sword stele, his face was flushed red from holding back, and in the end, he used his little fist to hammer it over.

The sword stele did not respond at all..

Everyone burst into laughter.

“Little brother, it’s useless for you to draw straight A’s! You have to be like that older brother from before and use your sword aura to slash at the sword stele!” A kind-hearted person reminded him.

Carter held his forehead and patiently stepped forward. She pressed on the bottom of Leng Ming’s belly button. “You have to get lucky from here, understand? When the sword aura comes up, release it from your fingers with all your strength.”

“Okay...”

Leng Ming’s face was flushed red. He was anxious and shy. He didn’t expect to make a fool of himself the moment he stepped onto the stage.

He composed himself and followed Carter’s instructions. Finally, a small flame-like green sword aura was formed in his palm..

“This sword aura... does it really have combat strength?” Many people stared at the scene in front of them, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

Such a weak sword Qi could only be used to light a cigarette?

Indeed, in terms of combat power, Leng Ming still couldn’t do it.

At this moment, the boy carefully protected the small wisp of Sword Qi that he had nurtured.

As soon as that wisp of green sword Qi touched the sword monument, it instantly sank into it.

The sword monument was still unperturbed.

” ... ”

Many people were originally looking forward to Leng Ming’s performance, but now it seemed that Leng Ming had somewhat disappointed them.

“As expected, he still can’t do it?”

“Sigh, what can a newly born little sword spirit do? To be able to squeeze into the last place on the sword roll, it’s really just good luck, right?”

However, just as these people finished speaking, a few seconds later...

The entire sword stele actually began to tremble!

In an instant, a streak of golden light rushed out from the sword stele. It was dazzling to the heavens and resonated with the entire sword King realm. The Sword Qi that was originally like a spark instantly formed a prairie-like sword pressure, drowning the entire god of Sword Plaza.

Such a phenomenon shocked the entire scene..

“What exactly happened?”

Almost all the sword spirits in the sword king realm, regardless of whether they were in the god of Sword Plaza or not, raised their heads to look at the sky and sensed the power that was transmitted from the sword stele.

When the sword spirits in the god of Sword Plaza saw the number displayed on the sword stele, they all revealed shocked expressions.

“Oh my God! 100,000 points!”

“First place in the bronze group!”

“It’s not just the bronze group! This number is invincible in the King Group!”

..

“Not bad.”

At that moment, in the Wang family's small villa on Earth, Jingke felt the intense fluctuations coming from the god of Sword Square.

He was a good seedling.

Wang Ling nodded.

He also felt it.

There were a lot of sword spirits gathered in the god of Sword Square now, which had aroused Wang Ling's curiosity a long time ago.

Thus, he familiarly started "God's view" to spy on them.

"By the way, how many did you fight back then?" Loopy toad looked curiously at Jingke at this moment.

"Not many."

Jingke shook his head and said humbly, "Just... One Billion."

"One billion... and you broke the Sword Monument?" Loopy Toad's dog mouth twitched.

"It was just a scratch."

Jingke said, "I didn't expect it to be so big."

Loopy toad:"..."

Chapter 1408 A Blade Of Grass

"It's really very good."

Wang Ling gazed at the unprecedented glory of the Sword King World and couldn't help muttering.

It was hard to imagine that this man would actually open his mouth for a little sword spirit who had just been born.

“So, sword master wants to give him to Ah Nuan?”Jingke asked.

To be honest, it wasn’t that Wang Ling didn’t have this idea.

The little sword spirit was a potential stock, and it was definitely a talent that could be nurtured well.

Furthermore, Nuan had just been born, and there were still a few years before she went to school. Although the little sword spirit was a blank sheet of paper, with enough potential and talent, it would take a few years to nurture him.

This was only a conservative estimate from Wang Ling.

Given Leng Ming’s overall aptitude, it wouldn’t take him a few years at all, or rather... it wouldn’t take him a year at all. Perhaps he would be able to learn all the knowledge of the human world before Nuan went to university in a few months, and he would be able to cultivate him into an excellent battle-type sword spirit.

As the saying went, better safe than sorry.

Leng Ming was the one he had chosen. He was currently a blank sheet of paper, and could be kept as a “Spare tire”to slowly train.

At the swordsmanship conference, Lotus Sun could still rely on her own ideas to find another one.

What if Leng Ming’s talent was only focused on fighting, and he couldn’t learn well?

So, it was better to find a spirit sword that knew how to learn and loved to learn.

No one stipulated that a person could only have one spirit sword.

In the world of martial arts, more swords didn't weigh one down.

It wasn't illegal to bind more than one spirit sword at the same time!

Thus, after making up his mind, Wang Ling stared at Jingke and said telepathically, "Take him in."

Jingke: "Me?"

"You don't have a disciple yet, do you?"

Wang Ling looked at Jingke and asked telepathically.

Jingke: "..."

To be honest, he had indeed never thought of taking in a disciple.

But since this was Wang Ling's intention,.

As a sword spirit, he would naturally follow his master's wishes.

He was very confident that he could teach Leng Ming well in battle.

But he was afraid that he wouldn't be so good at studying..

The main thing was that Jingke himself hadn't studied much either.

He hadn't taken any formal classes either.

He would usually learn everything from watching Wang Ling do his homework.

If Wang Ling gave it his all and scored 100 points...

He would probably only get 90 points?

There was still a big gap.

“That’s enough.”Wang Ling looked at jingke.

He knew exactly what Jingke was thinking.

It was his first time as a sword student’s master, and Wang Ling had appointed him as his master. Jingke couldn’t help feeling a little nervous. “Really, is that okay?”

“You’re my sword, there’s no problem,”Wang Ling said with a straight face as he stroked Jingke’s white hair.

Jingke was encouraged, and he took a deep breath before agreeing. “Okay! I’ll take him in!”

..

..

At the same time, everyone in the vicinity of God of Sword Square cried out in surprise.

They were indescribably shocked as they stared in astonishment at the numbers displayed on the sword stele in front of them.

Those sword spirits who had not had the time to join in the fun and were rushing towards the direction of the god of Sword Plaza in the distance also stopped in their tracks at this moment.

They saw the dazzling immortal light over there, and the strange movement of the sword stele caused the entire sky of the sword king realm to be dyed in seven-colored colors. These people had not seen what was happening at the scene, but they were just shocked.

“Which sword spirit is it? How come I’ve never felt this sword Qi before?”

“It’s said to be a newly born little sword spirit, but a little sword spirit can actually cause the sword stele to resonate so much?”

Many sword spirits felt their eyes sting. The light in the sword God Square ahead was too dazzling and blazing, and it was hard to imagine.

When they got closer, they saw Leng Ming standing in front of the sword stele, who was also in a daze, and they were all even more dumbfounded.

“A small blade of Grass?”

Many sword spirits were shocked and smiled bitterly at the same time.

Each of these non-metallic swords was more powerful than the other..

There was really no way for the metallic sword to survive! ! !

In just an instant, Carter could feel a strong sour smell in the air. Many people here seemed to have turned into lemon people.

She could subconsciously sense that many of the sword spirits surrounding the scene had turned their jealousy into hostility toward Leng Ming.

Carter didn’t even think about it and immediately rushed forward to protect Leng Ming. She grabbed Leng Ming’s hand and brought him away from the scene without saying a word.

“Quiet!”

“Keep quiet!” Endless and old man cooperated well and immediately maintained order.

In the Sword King realm, it was a common practice to bully a newly born little sword spirit..

Whether it was a human or a sword spirit, both of them would be jealous. Leng Ming's aptitude was displayed here, and it had already caused many sword spirits to be filled with killing intent.

If they captured Leng Ming and used an evil magic formation to forcefully devour Leng Ming, it would also be a way for sword spirits to improve themselves.

However, such a method was regarded as an evil path and was not recognized by the Sword King World.

However, Leng Ming's results in this test were too dazzling.

One must be wary of others. There would definitely be sword spirits who were willing to do so.

"If you protect him now, don't tell me you can protect him for the rest of his life?" Someone was unconvinced and stood up.

To many people, Leng Ming was just a small sword spirit and a nameless grass! But now, this small grass was emitting light, which made many sword spirits feel jealous and almost collapse.

They clearly didn't have enough battle strength, but in this sword stele test, they were ranked first in bronze!

This test result even surpassed many people in the king group.

"Impossible... how could this be... it must be a mistake on the sword stele!" Dian Ming felt like he had been slapped hard on the face.

Previously, he had put on a show in front of Leng Ming and everyone had taken notice of him. Now that the Sword Monument's results had been beaten by Leng Ming, Dian Ming felt as if she could not keep up her face.

"Whoever wants to make a move, feel free to try," Carter replied coldly. Her lotus of death was already itching to make a move.

Her gaze intimidated many sword spirits.

At the same time, a pure white sword light descended from the sky. The person who came was Mo Yu who had rushed over after receiving the news. She was one of the spirits' best friends.

Mo Yu wore a short white dress and had long black hair. She wore a jade corolla on top of her head. She was beautiful and moving, her entire body was emitting a sweet fragrance. "Within the Imperial City of the Sword Capital, you are not allowed to make a move. Whoever makes a move will bear the consequences."

The young girl saw everything from afar. After landing on the ground, she was also carrying out her deterrence work.

The judges of the competition were the most interesting!

"You can't even attack the sword, but there will always be times when you can't protect him."

At this moment, Dian Ming snorted. He vented all the anger that he had lost face on Leng Ming. "Kid, you can't fight well. These people will never be able to protect you! Just you wait!"

As soon as he finished his words.

A brown sword Qi came from the sky..

Like a meteorite, it pierced through the sword storm of the sword King realm and stabbed toward the god of Sword Square!

It was just a trace of sword qi, but its power was unimaginable. In an instant, it turned into a god's punishment-like existence and accurately poured into Dian Ming's body.

Dian Ming was shocked by the sword pressure brought by the sword qi and spat out blood. He sank deep into the ground, leaving only his head exposed.

"This is..."

Everyone was shocked!

Such an invincible and powerful sword qi..

There was only one person in the sword King realm who could do it!

“It’s Lord Jingke!”

“It’s the sword master who made a move. This matter actually alarmed the sword master...”

..

“Leng Ming, it’s me, Disciple.”

Very soon, Jingke’s otherworldly voice resounded throughout the entire sword King realm, causing all the sword spirits to be shaken. “Whoever becomes the enemy will bear the consequences...”

Chapter 1409 Miss Sun Had Insomnia!

The king of Sword Spirits had come down personally! It had shocked the entire sword King realm!

This was something that all sword spirits would not have thought of.

“A newly born little sword spirit was actually chosen by the sword king to become his disciple...”

Countless sword spirits in the god of Swords Square were dumbstruck.

Their emotions were fluctuating, and they knew that they might be witnessing history!

“Has the sword king ever taken in a disciple?”

“No... this little sword spirit called Leng Ming is the first!”

“He actually took in a disciple in public, my youth is over!”

Many sword spirits exclaimed on the spot. As a newly born little sword spirit, Leng Ming was chosen by the Sword Spirit King with extremely high aptitude and was taken in as a disciple..

Perhaps electric roar was right. Carter, endless, and the others were unable to protect Leng Ming's safety.

There would come a time when they would not be by Leng Ming's side.

But now, the leader of the entire sword King Realm had appeared and publicly took in this young sword spirit as his disciple.

If anyone dared to provoke him again, they would be smacked into the ground by the sword pressure, and the electric roar that was bleeding from their seven orifices would be their end.

This was both a deterrent and a warning.

In an instant, the sword spirits in the sword Saint Square, who were originally jealous and hostile toward Leng Ming, withdrew their thoughts.

The starting point of this little sword spirit was different..

The Sword Spirit King was often absent from the sword King World, and the sword spirits had never found an opportunity to curry favor with Jingke.

Now that Leng Ming had become Jingke's disciple, he naturally became the one who got the Moon first.

The Sword Spirit Square instantly became lively. Many famous sword spirits in the Sword King World stood out and began to offer benefits to Leng Ming.

"Little brother, I'm the founder of the Royal Sword Spirit Bathing Center. Come here and take a bath. Tell me my name, Qiao Shan! No Charge!"

"Little Brother Leng Ming, my family runs a medical center! Chen Cang Medical Center! If you're not feeling well, uncle will come to check on you!"

“All of you, go away. Don’t lead the children astray... come! Little Leng Ming, my sister runs a tutoring organization. If you need a teacher, you can look for my sister anytime!”

For a moment, because of Leng Ming’s little interlude, the situation went out of control.

Fortunately, Jingke’s fate gave Carter, endless, and old man clear instructions. Now, they were even more clear about their attitude toward Leng Ming.

The chaotic scene lasted for more than ten minutes.

Only when Jiuyou and spirit-controlling flew across the sky did the noisy square regain its peace.

A man and a woman fell from the sky like a couple.

“It’s Lord Jiuyou and Lord spirit-controlling! They’re here too!”

“I heard that Lord Jiuyou specially went to find Lord spirit-controlling to be the judge this time.”

All along, many people had mistakenly thought that there was a relationship between Jiuyou and Spirit Tamer.

Regarding this, Jiuyou was also very helpless.

He wanted to..

But as for Spirit Tamer, he only had Jingke and Bai Qiao in his mind.

For example, this time, when he heard that Bai Qiao had invited him to be the judge, he came without a second thought.

After all, he was the sword spirit ranked third on the sword rankings. There was no need to give him face as he was ranked fifth..

Sigh, the ranking was one level higher than him!

On the way to the square, Jiu you smiled bitterly in her heart.

Royal spirits rarely appeared in crowded places. Facing the unprecedented grand scene in the god of Sword Square, she was even a little uncomfortable.

However, it could be seen that she was still trying her best to adjust her emotions.

Royal Spirit waved her hand and held her waist with one hand. Her posture was graceful, showing her perfect curves. “Everyone, please take care of me. I am also one of the judges in this grand swordsmanship competition.”

His sweet voice swept across the entire god of Swords Square, causing many male sword spirits to have their imaginations run wild.

Just listening to his voice was unbearable!

“Lord Yu Ling is so beautiful! She looks like a fairy that walked out of a painting!”

“That’s right! Lord Yu Ling’s voice is as beautiful as Lord Mo Yu’s voice! The contestants this time are blessed!”

“AWSL! With Lord Yu Ling joining us, I believe that the competition will definitely be fair and just!”

..

And with the appearance of Spirit Tamer.

At this point, the lineup of judges for the grand swordsmanship competition had also been decided.

They were the ones ranked 3456th on the sword rankings.

According to the Order of the sword rankings, they were: Spirit Tamer, Mo Yu, Jiu you, and Little Qian.

“Everyone, be quiet. Sword God Plaza, no noise!”

At this moment, Jiu you let out a low snort, and it immediately took effect.

Although he was only the caretaker, Jiu you still had the dignity of a caretaker.

Then, under the suppression of Jiu you and the others, order was restored to the scene.

Everything was proceeding in an orderly manner.

Jiu you estimated that the five groups with a total of 1,000 people who were shortlisted for the auditions would all be settled tomorrow.

Then, they would just have to wait for the young girl to participate in the competition the day after tomorrow.

It could be said that everything was ready except for the east wind.

..

Tuesday, December 8th.

Lotus Sun didn't sleep at all.

Girls were always worried about their skin, so even Lotus Sun had a habit of going to bed early.

But the girl had thoroughly experienced the pain of tossing and turning last night.

Her mind was filled with the matter of Jiang Yingying.

At the same time, she was constantly guessing the girl's background, personality, hobbies, and so on..

Because of Lotus Sun's naturally large imagination and ability to imagine things, while she was thinking about Jiang Yingying.., she directly created a female romance novel with more than 100,000 words in her mind from the perspective of Jiang Yingying... the more she thought about it, the more complicated and bizarre the story became, which directly made her lose sleep.

When she woke up, Lotus Sun looked in the mirror. When she found that she didn't have dark circles under her eyes, she let out a long sigh of relief.

"Wow, cultivators are like that. Some of them are fine even if they don't sleep for a few years. Didn't Rongrong not sleep for one night? There won't be dark circles under her eyes!" Sun Ying 'er comforted her from the side.

She had witnessed the girl create a brand-new roll record on the bed last night.

She rolled back and forth on the large bed that was dozens of meters long. In the morning, she felt like she had just finished a marathon.

The girl was worried that she didn't look well, so she looked at herself in the mirror as soon as she woke up.

However, as a shadow, Sun Ying 'ER's focus wasn't on the girl's face at all. She only looked at the girl's chest in front of the mirror with a worried expression..

"Rongrong, if you can't sleep in the future, try not to roll on the bed," Sun Ying 'er suggested earnestly.

Lotus Sun: "???"

Sun Ying 'er: "It's not big to begin with, what if it gets worn down?"

"..."

Lotus Sun clenched her fists in embarrassment, wishing she could sew Sun Ying 'ER's mouth shut..

..

That morning, Wang Ling walked straight in from the school gate.

He didn't dare sit on the convenient teleportation array anymore, mainly because he was afraid that he would blow it up again.

When he arrived at the classroom, Wang Ling found that hero Guo and Super Chen were already sitting inside.

It was most likely that these two jokers had gotten up early in the morning to copy each other's homework..

"Wang Ling, have you heard? Something happened to Wang Zhen next door!" Hero Guo took the initiative to strike up a conversation with Wang Ling.

"HM?" Wang Ling pretended to be calm.

"It seems to be related to that group of strange people who appeared at the door earlier... They said they were actors, but I think they're triads..." hero Guo said very mysteriously. "I heard that Wang Zhen's knees were shattered by those triads!"

"..."

Hearing this, Wang Ling couldn't help sighing.

That was why sometimes people couldn't be too confident in their knees..

Just how hard was the Heavenly Dao durian that he had enlightened.

Whoever knelt would know!

Chapter 1410 Lotus Sun's Great Crisis!

Wang Zhen looked like he was out of luck.

But in fact, it was Wang Zhen who had carefully considered the matter of kneeling on the durian.

Of course, he knew that this “Heavenly Dao Durian” was extraordinary; it was an existence that Wang Ling had enlightened; it was impossible for it to be shattered by his knees like an ordinary durian.

If he knelt down, his kneecaps would probably shatter..

Therefore, before kneeling down on the heavenly dao durian, Wang Zhen had a very clear understanding of the situation.

But in the end, he still chose to kneel down.

Because Wang Zhen also knew very well.

Once his kneecaps shattered, Wang Ling's anger would also dissipate.

“Offending Wang Ling” was far scarier than Wang Zhen had imagined.

So, if he had to kneel, so be it..

In any case, cultivation medical technology was so advanced nowadays that even if it was shattered, it could be repaired without leaving any side effects.

As long as Wang Ling could calm down, everything would be worth it.

As it turned out, Wang Zhen's decision was completely correct.

As for the fact that his knee had been beaten up by the underworld..

This was a complete fabrication.

He didn't know how it had spread.

Logically speaking, only Liu Qingyi knew that he had been injured.

And Liu Qingyi had actually kept this a secret, so no one else should know about it.

Unless it was a slip of the tongue that leaked the news..

But even if it had been leaked, it wouldn't have spread so far!

Wang Zhen couldn't help but sigh.

That was how the internet was these days.

People who followed the trend followed the crowd, and sometimes overlooked the truth of the matter itself.

Because what the onlookers really cared about wasn't the truth, but what they firmly believed in.

Nowadays, it was really scary not to have the ability to think independently..

..

On the other side, Lotus Sun had specially convened a student union meeting to discuss the vicious incident of Wang Zhen being suspected of being attacked by the Triads at the school gate.

Liu Qingyi and Lotus Sun had indeed accidentally spilled the beans about Wang Zhen during their conversation.

Then, Miss Sun acted as the mastermind behind the scenes and made up the whole story..

She wanted to get the student union to hold a meeting to look for more information about Jiang Yingying.

And since they were going to have a meeting, there had to be a reason.

Wang Zhen's incident was actually a perfect excuse for the meeting.

Who asked Wang Zhen to be so Naughty!

But after all, she had used Wang Zhen.

Lotus Sun still prepared some supplements for the couple's hotel where Wang Zhen was currently staying.

There were all kinds of supplements for treating bones and kidney deficiency..

At 12:30 in the afternoon, it was supposed to be the lunch break for each class.

At this point, Lotus Sun had called a student union meeting.

The student union couldn't sanction the so-called "Triad Society."

But as an organization that provided services to students, they could suggest to the school authorities to increase the security at the school gate during school hours.

Yes..

Before all the participants started the meeting.

Everyone thought that this would be a serious and serious meeting.

But in the meeting, when Lotus Sun suddenly asked for a person's name, everyone was confused.

“Do you all know this girl, Jiang Yingying?” Lotus sun smiled, her expression calm.

Everyone was stunned.

Wait..

Weren't they talking about strengthening the security at the school gate today?

Why did the topic suddenly change to a girl? !

All the representatives of No. 60 High's elite class were stunned.

“President, is this girl related to this incident?” Someone asked.

“No, we're not sure yet.”

Lotus sun said, “We've only heard some rumors, so we'd like to ask if you all know this girl so that I can gather information to verify her authenticity.”

The girl's expression was serious, and she spoke as if she were telling the truth. All the innocent members of the student council immediately believed her.

“As expected of the President! As expected of student Lotus Sun. She's so serious and meticulous in her work!” Someone couldn't help but praise her on the spot.

At the meeting venue, many people were whispering and discussing animatedly.

Basically, those who were willing to participate in the student council were all socialites active in the various campus circles. They had more or less grasped the connections of other schools.

After Lotus Sun's question was asked, these people immediately took out their phones to ask their familiar friends.

Under such a sea of people tactic, someone really did ask about Jiang Yingying.

“I got it!”

A girl with short hair raised her hand. “Jiang Yingying, a girl from God of Sword Academy! She also participated in the nine dragons mountain national physical skills competition before, but she was rejected long ago!”

“God of Sword Academy?”

Lotus sun frowned slightly.

Everyone knew that God of Sword Academy was a school that sword Saint General Yi had invested in, and his foster son, Yi Zhiyang, was studying there.

Loopy toad had previously guessed that Jiang Yingying might have some connection with martial Saint Marshal Jiang.

If Jiang Yingying was also studying here... then this could almost be called a solid hammer.

So she was a student of the divinity of Sword Academy?

Lotus sun was pleasantly surprised by this new discovery.

In this way, the clues to the incident and the relationship between the characters were all connected..

Lotus Sun was almost certain that this was the Jiang Yingying she was looking for.

“Do you have a photo?” Lotus Sun asked.

“Yes.” The short-haired girl pulled out Jiang Yingying’s photo, which had just been sent to her by someone else.

The person who sent her the information was a male student from the Divine Sword Academy, and this male student was also from the student union.

“This person seems to be similar to you, President!”The girl swiped with her hand, and the photo in her phone was projected into the void of the conference room.

When everyone saw Jiang Yingying’s appearance clearly, they couldn’t help but gasp..

“This...”

“I can’t say that it’s particularly similar. It’s just that at first glance, it looks a bit like her.”

“That’s a bit too much! I still think that our president looks good!”

..

Lotus sun stared at the face that seemed very similar to hers, and at the same time, she was thinking of countermeasures.

Based on the information she had received so far, Jiang Yingying wasn’t much different from what she had guessed.

Basically, the fact that she had been able to participate in the nine Dragon Mountain National Physical Skills Competition was enough to prove that Jiang Yingying’s results at sword God Academy weren’t bad!

It was just that she had been unlucky in participating in the competition and had been eliminated early on, which was why Lotus Sun hadn’t noticed this person.

“So, was it also during the nine Dragon Mountain National Physical Skills Competition that I became infatuated with student Wang Ling?”Lotus Sun was deep in thought.

After the student union ended, Lotus Sun spent the whole afternoon thinking about how to approach Jiang Yingying.

If she came to her door very suddenly, it would seem very unnatural.

However, the young girl had never expected that something unexpected would happen again just as school was about to end that day..

Lotus Sun was called to Principal Chen's office. "Student Lotus Sun, you're the President of the student union, and there will be a new batch of transfer students in our school soon. I hope you'll take the lead and let these students assimilate into our school's environment as soon as possible!"

"Yes, president, I will work hard!" Lotus sun nodded.

"Yes, student sun is very capable. There won't be any problems!" President Chen smiled as he handed over a booklet. "This is the name list. Take a look."

Lotus Sun opened the booklet.

The name of the first person on the name list immediately entered her line of sight.

This person was none other than.

It was none other than Jiang Yingying from the divinity of Swords Academy..

For a moment, a sense of crisis welled up in Lotus Sun's heart.
