Chapter 1421 Lotus Sun's Passive Skill

It wasn't surprising that Sun Ying 'ER had such a strange way of thinking.

Because when sword spirits and sword spirits looked at each other and wanted to give birth to new sword spirits, they could enter the primal chaos, and there was no two-person movement in the human world.

So in theory, two sword spirits of the same gender could also give birth to new sword spirits.

In fact, although there was a gender difference in the image of the sword spirit.

In the world of Sword Kings, the gender of the sword spirit was only based on appearance.

But in essence, all sword spirits were asexual, and there was no real gender difference.

In the face of Sun Ying 'ER's unintentional offense, endless and old man didn't care too much.

After all, Leng Ming's appearance was very sudden.

It was obvious that Lotus Sun and the others probably didn't know of Leng Ming's existence.

"Miss Sun, there's something you don't know. This child is called Leng Ming. He's a little sword spirit newly born in the Sword King Realm. He wasn't born between the two of us..."endless laughed, when he thought of what Lotus Sun had said just now, that iconic Sissy's face flushed a little.

Old Man rolled his eyes at the side.

You're blushing like a teapot!

"So it's a newly-born little sword spirit. So cute!"Lotus sun squatted down and gently touched Leng Ming's face. Leng Ming was a little embarrassed, so he shyly hid behind endless.

At the same time that she touched Leng Ming's soft face.

Ao hai activated his passive ability, "Silent and smooth".

The wisps of invisible sword qi seeped into Leng Ming's body. Lotus Sun felt her vision blur for a moment, and she saw Leng Ming's appearance clearly in an instant.

This was the first time that ao hai had used this passive skill of "Moistening objects silently". It mainly used a specific type of sword qi for identification, and this type of sword Qi had the power to remove falsehood, preserve truth, and see through illusions.

But it wasn't invincible, and not all illusions could be seen through.

Wang Tong also had this kind of power, but in comparison, the "Moistening objects silently sword qi" was still too far off.

And now this power, under the effect of the passive version of "Man and sword as one," was being fed back to the girl at the same time.

This gave Lotus Sun the ability to "Moisten things silently."

It could be said that the current OHAI and Lotus Sun were practically indistinguishable from each other.

Lotus Sun also had all the passive abilities that Ohai had.

"This little guy is actually formed from a blade of Grass?" Lotus Sun rubbed her eyes, convinced that she hadn't seen wrongly.

"Leng Ming may look small, but he has a bright future. When he grows up, even a grass can cut down the sun, the Moon, and the Stars."

Endless touched Leng Ming's little head and said, "Oh, by the way, Miss Sun, you still don't know that Lord Jingke has agreed to take Leng Ming as his disciple, right?"

“He has already accepted Leng Ming as his disciple?” Lotus sun was astonished.

“Yes.” Old Man nodded. “In fact, this is sword King’s protection for him; otherwise, who knows how many evil people would have targeted this little guy. Nowadays, there are as many perverts as there are cows. Whether it’s a boy or a girl, they all have to take care of themselves.”

“That’s right.”

Loopy toad nodded and couldn’t agree anymore.

Then it glanced at Lotus Sun. “You actually don’t know? I remember sending you a message.”

“AH... Sorry, maybe I wasn’t paying attention.”

Lotus Sun facepalmed. “Don’t worry, I know this is another price, and I’ll settle it with you.”

She had been too focused on dealing with Jiang Yingying these past two days, and had been distracted.

“Boss?” Endless and old man looked puzzled at the same time.

After not seeing each other for a few days, they felt that the relationship between Lotus Sun and loopy toad had suddenly become complicated.

“She’s my boss now, and I’m in charge of gathering intelligence and reporting for my boss,” loopy toad replied.

“Then Ling Zhenren?”

“Your Lord is naturally my boss as well. Your Lord is my spiritual boss. Miss Sun is my material boss.” Loopy Toad’s answer could be said to be filled with the desire to live.

“Got it.”

Endless and old man instantly understood. “One boss, one lady boss. is that what you mean?”

“More or less.” Loopy toad nodded.

“Don’t talk nonsense!” Lotus Sun was helpless.

After going around in a big circle just to tease her, there was no one else..

Everyone waited for about five or six minutes in Lotus Sun’s heaven-ranked room before they saw a sexy woman with a graceful figure in leather tights walk in with a crystal magic ball in her hand.

It was Carter.

“The bronze group’s group competition is about to begin. I’ll take Leng Ming there.”

Carter said, placing the crystal ball in her hand on the table. “This ball can be used for live broadcast. Everyone can see the situation in the sword battle arena from the room.”

“Thank you, Senior Carter.” Lotus Sun smiled.

“Miss Sun, you’re welcome. Please do your best in today’s competition. According to the competition schedule, the King Group’s battle is the last group.”

After Carter finished his introduction, he took Leng Ming’s hand and left. He looked very nervous, and Lotus Sun could see the cold sweat on Leng Ming’s forehead when they left the room.

“Is this little guy really okay... he looks even more nervous than I am.” Lotus Sun was a little worried.

“This is the first time we’re having a free-for-all, so it’s inevitable that he’ll be nervous,” endless said.

“Speaking of which, is there really no problem in terms of combat strength? I remember that this child only has a relatively high talent value. In the free-for-all phase, it’s still a test of actual combat strength,”loopy toad asked.

“It’s said that Lord Jingke and Lord Bai Qiao gave Leng Ming special training before the grand swordplay competition. It shouldn’t be a problem for him to take first place in the group in the bronze group,”endless said after a moment of silence.

“It’s only been less than two days...”loopy toad was astonished.

“You’re underestimating Leng Ming’s talent. For a genius, he might learn more in two hours than some people learn in 200 days,”endless replied.

”...”loopy toad couldn’t refute this, because it was true.

Another ten minutes passed.

The image of the magic ball was projected onto the grand ancient sword city sword battle arena. Countless sword spirits were seated in the audience area, and it was a dazzling sight. Every corner seemed to be filled up like sardines!

In less than two days, the Sword Dao Conference had actually been expanded to such a scale.

On one hand, nine remoteness and the others were indeed very good at organizing, and on the other hand, the allure of the sword God alloy was indeed very high!

The Sword Dao competition was about to begin!

At the same time, in room number two, next to Lotus Sun.

Wang Ling was also watching the competition.

Like a projector, his king’s pupils directly projected the images he saw on the screen into the air.

On the table in the room were various flavors of crispy noodle snacks.

Jingke silently sighed. “Sword Master, why don’t you go next door and say Hello?”

Wang Ling shook his head.

He hadn’t come here for Lotus Sun in the first place.

He just wanted to see Leng Ming’s performance.

Then, he would help lotus sun check if there were any suspicious people who might have prevented her from taking first place.

That’s right.

It was just a side trip..

Chapter 1422 Leng Ming’s First Battle

Although Jingke had already accepted Leng Ming as a disciple, Wang Ling still needed to judge whether Wang Nuan’s spirit sword was indeed Leng Ming through this actual battle.

He needed to know how much Leng Ming could grow after two days of special combat training.

And this Sword Dao Conference was a good opportunity to test Leng Ming’s learning efficiency.

For Wang Ling, learning ability was the key.

After all, to find a spirit sword that could be used as a nanny for the warm girl, he had to be proficient in everything, and Leng Ming still had a lot to learn.

The competition for the bronze division was about to begin.

At the very front of the audience seats in the old sword field was a spectator seat made entirely of crystal. This was a spectator seat for the judges.

Jiu you, Yu Ling, Mo Yu, and Qian.

The four judges of the swordsmanship competition were all seated in this crystal room.

“The bronze division’s competition is about to begin. I wonder how the Little Guy’s performance is?” Yu Ling said.

She crossed her slender legs, and her pink qipao fell to the ground along her long legs, attracting the attention of many sword spirits in the spectator stands.

“White!”

“Idiot! Those are safety pants!”

“You’re the idiots! How can you disrespect Lord Spirit Tamer? Quickly move your filthy eyes away!”

..

In the Sword King Realm, Spirit Tamer’s popularity had always been very high. This was to be expected.

Mo Yu also had many fans, but because it was too good to be true, she often appeared in front of outsiders. Compared to Spirit Tamer, she seemed to lack a bit of mystery.

Ignoring the discussions of the surrounding spectators, Jiu you was also looking forward to the match of the bronze group. “It’s said that Lord Jingke personally gave Leng Ming special training.”

“What Kind of special training?” Mo Yu asked curiously. The jade flower crown on her head gave off a beautiful glow.

“It seems to be a mixed doubles. Lord Jingke and Lord Bai Qiao will fight together,” jiu you replied.

“F * CK, isn’t this domestic violence...”Mo Yu immediately felt that Leng Ming was a little pitiful.

“It was repaired after the fight. Moreover, in order to prevent leaving a psychological scar on this child Leng Ming, it’s said that Lord Bai Qiao erased all of his memories during the special training.”

“All of them? What’s the use of that...”

“That’s because there’s no need to use his brain’s memories anymore. Later, during the battle, what Leng Ming displayed might be muscle reaction memories.”

”...”Spirit Tamer and Mo Yu were shocked.

How many mixed doubles had they gone through before they could form muscle memory? !

Soon, there was the sound of gongs and drums in the sword battle arena.

The 200 sword spirits of the bronze team entered the arena.

The four entrances of the sword battle arena were opened at the same time. Each entrance had 50 sword spirits who were led into the arena by the royal sword guards in an orderly manner. They lined up in four rows and formed a square formation.

Leng Ming was in the team that came out from the east entrance. He was extremely small, but he stood at the first place. He looked like a little guy.

In the audience stands, many sword spirits were discussing about this.

“This is the Sword Master’s new disciple? He looks very ordinary to me!”

“With his extremely high talent score, he reached the top in the Sword Monument Test. But after all, he has only been nurtured for a few days. How strong can his actual combat strength be?”

Although the matter of Leng Ming being taken in as Jingke's disciple had already spread throughout the entire sword king world, doubts were inevitable.

No one would doubt Leng Ming's talent.

After all, the value on the sword stele would not be fake.

However, there were in fact less than two days before Leng Ming was taken in as Jingke's disciple and the start of the grand swordsmanship competition.

If you rounded the hours, it wouldn't even be two days..

In such a short period of time, many people would wonder how much a newly born little sword spirit could grow.

Faced with the Sea of people surrounding the sword fighting arena, they listened to the doubts in the air.

In the heaven-class room, Lotus Sun frowned slightly. She was worried about Leng Ming.

She had wanted to use this sword contest to find a sword spirit for Wang Nuan during the competition, but the atmosphere was too tense now! She couldn't help but feel her heart skip a beat!

"After all, it's such a grand sword contest. Just looking at it makes people feel overwhelmed. It's normal for Miss Sun to feel emotional fluctuations,"endless comforted her from the side.

"Rong Rong's nervous reaction is so cute."

Sun Ying 'er giggled. "Do you feel like you're waiting for the child's report card to come out?"

"..."Lotus Sun was startled.

Sun Ying 'er had really hit the nail on the head.

It would have been better if she hadn't said it..

There was indeed a point to it.

It was clearly her first time seeing Leng Ming, and Lotus Sun didn't know why she felt so worried for him.

Perhaps it was because he was Jingke's disciple..

Since he could be taken in as Jingke's disciple, did student Wang Ling also have high expectations for Leng Ming?

"Little Guy, you must work hard!" Lotus Sun clenched her fists and silently cheered Leng Ming on in her heart.

"Keke!" Sun Ying 'er smiled meaningfully from the side.

She didn't pay too much attention to the competition. Her entire gaze never stopped on Lotus Sun from the beginning to the end. In comparison, the girl's interesting reaction was much more exciting than the competition.

Imagine, after more than ten years, her Rong Rong would bring her child..

Then she would bring her own child to attend the parent-teacher conference and wait for the final report card. Perhaps she would be very nervous, too?

At this point, Sun Ying 'er quickly shook her head.

She felt that she was thinking too much..

What Child? !

How could she be thinking about a child..

And even if she had a child, it would still be a problem with whom.

Wang Ying?

That hateful gorilla?

Even if she jumped down from here, she would starve to death! She would never agree to be with this guy!

..

Boom!

At this moment, a scene was transmitted from the magic ball. Accompanied by a fiery explosion, a huge explosion occurred in the center of the entire sword battle arena!

Just as Sun Ying 'er was letting her imagination run wild, the chaotic Battle of the bronze group had already begun.

And to everyone's surprise, everyone originally thought that this chaotic battle was a chaotic battle of mutual strife.

In the end, at the moment when the ninth underworld announced the start of the competition.

Except for Leng Ming.

All the spirit swords of the bronze group turned into sword lights and soared into the sky..

Their movements were in unison, and their targets were shockingly synchronized!

A total of 199 sword lights of different colors rushed toward Leng Ming!

When these sword lights collided, a big explosion was created!

In the thick smoke, two spirit swords, one ice and one fire, broke out from the encirclement. They were the famous ice and Fire Brothers of the bronze group. According to their ranking, they were both selected into the bronze group's free-for-all battle.

They were ranked second and third on the bronze group's sword stele list respectively.

Only after Leng Ming.

After Leng Ming's sword stele results came out, the two brothers had planned to find an opportunity to teach Leng Ming a lesson.

However, when the match started, they couldn't hold it in anymore.

What the two brothers didn't expect was that.

The other sword spirits in this match had the same thought as the two of them. They all attacked Leng Ming at the start of the match.

"With such an attack, even if you are Lord Jingke's disciple, what can you do?"The ice and fire brothers sneered in their hearts.

At this moment, a green sword light soared into the sky.

The powerful sword Qi tore through the thick smoke.

A boy wearing a rattan armor expressionlessly dusted off the dust and slowly walked out from the torn thick smoke.

He was unharmed, and there was not even the slightest bit of dust on his face.

This was the effect of the special training after receiving Jingke and Bai Qiao's mixed doubles.

Although Leng Ming was only a blade of grass.

But now, this blade of grass is very hard.

Chapter 1423 Heavenly Tomb

The scale of this year's swordsmanship conference could be said to be unprecedented. Even the competition of the bronze group was also interesting.

Leng Ming was besieged at the beginning of the competition, and there were many cheers from the venue. However, unexpectedly, when the thick smoke dispersed, the boy wearing the rattan armor walked out unscathed.

His whole body was emitting a sparkling green light and the aura of the natural law. Leng Ming could not remember the memories of his special training. He only knew that during the special training, he was beaten up by his master and his wife, the sword body was repaired after countless cracks.

It must be because of the special training..

At this moment, Leng Ming thought.

Because when the attacks of these bronze team members landed on his body, he did not feel any pain, just like a mosquito bite.

Because Leng Ming was besieged in the beginning, all the sword spirits attacked him. 199 sword qis gathered at one point and formed a big explosion, although Leng Ming did not feel any pain or itchiness.

This explosion had already caused quite a number of sword spirits to be affected.

More than half of the people were eliminated in an instant.

Therefore, including Leng Ming, there were less than 100 sword spirits left on the stage, and most of them were injured.

The Sword Qi of the bronze group exploded, and its power was also extremely fierce.

This was the terrifying thing about sword spirits born in the Sword King World. Even the sword spirits of the bronze group would be able to do great things if they went to Earth.

After the first round of testing, everyone on the scene was very clear that the final opponent that this little grass was facing was the ice and fire brothers in the void.

The combat strength of the two brothers was very strong. If they joined forces, they would have the strength to fight against the sword spirit of the silver group.

Twin Sword Spirits were very rare in the sword king world to begin with. The ice and fire brothers had not been nurtured in the sword king world for too long. In time, they might be able to rank in the diamond group.

“A little blade of grass is actually so hard? But that’s it. That was just a test...”in the void, the ice and fire brothers crossed their arms and looked down at Leng Ming.

The two of them had expected that Leng Ming would receive special training from the sword king before the start of the competition, so he would not be defeated so easily.

But in fact, this was exactly what they wanted.

It would be meaningless if he was defeated too easily.

The current Leng Ming had been personally trained by the sword king.

If they could defeat Leng Ming under such circumstances, the two of them would definitely become famous through this battle!

They might even be favored and appreciated by Lord Sword King

At that moment, Leng Ming looked up into the sky. The pressure from the ice and Fire Brothers wasn’t as great as he had imagined.

In fact, most of the pressure on him came from Wang Ling, Jingke, and Bai Qiao.

Leng Ming knew very well that these three people were also watching his battle.

It was precisely because of this that he didn't want to lose face.

Just as he thought of this, the nearby injured sword spirits that had not been eliminated suddenly shot up into the sky again.

They tacitly understood and actually formed a sword array on the spot.

“Heavenly Sun Sword Array! Get Rid of him first!”Someone shouted.

They formed a circle in the air and emitted light like the Sun.

At the center of this Heavenly Sun Sword Array, sword qi interweaved together and continuously fused. Then, it produced a combined sword Qi that surged with powerful energy.

It only took a few seconds.

A beam of golden light, like a giant sword falling from the sky, shone down from above and hit Leng Ming's face.

This combined sword Qi was very strong. If Leng Ming had not undergone special training, he would have fallen on the spot.

But now, things were different from before.

The combined sword qi shone on Leng Ming's rattan armor, causing it to smoke.

“Don't get in the way.”

Leng Ming didn't even bother to raise his head.

He didn't care at all. With a light flick, a wisp of emerald-green sword qi flowed out from between his fingers.

This wisp of emerald-green sword Qi was very calm and didn't contain the slightest killing intent. However, when the combined sword Qi entered the air, it suddenly exploded with a loud bang.

Along with the mushroom cloud that rose up from the air, the sword spirits that formed the sword formation were instantly blasted into pieces, scurrying around the entire sword battle arena like jumping eggs.

After dealing with these sword spirits, Leng Ming began to face the two opponents in front of him with a serious expression.

The Ice and fire brothers were also observing the battle situation. They were surprised at the results of Leng Ming's special training.

This increase in battle strength was indeed too rapid and violent.

"Brother..." at this moment, ice sword turned his gaze to the fire man on the side.

"It seems that we can only cripple him."

"Mm."

Fire Sword's thoughts coincided with ice sword's.

They wanted to gain Jingke's favor through this battle, but Leng Ming's rapid improvement made them feel a sense of pressure.

Even if they beat Leng Ming, Leng Ming's talent was still there. As long as his talent was still there, it was only a matter of time before he surpassed them.

But if they crippled the child in front of them in the grand meeting now, then Lord Sword King probably had no other choice.

In the judge's seat, inside the Crystal House, Spirit Tamer frowned slightly. She could feel that the ice and fire brothers were already accumulating energy.

Moreover..

"A very strong killing intent. It seems that these brothers already have the intention to kill Leng Ming." Not only Spirit Tamer, Mo Yu also felt it.

"The sword king is also watching this battle. This move is to attract the attention of the sword king," said Jiu you.

It could only be said that he was indeed worthy of being the caretaker of the sword King Realm. He had instantly seen through the thoughts of the two brothers.

"The two brothers seem to have a certain killing combination machine. What is it called?" At this moment, Mo Yu lowered her head and pondered.

"It's the ice and fire sword blade," Little Qian replied. "Under the situation where the sword Qi in the whole body is condensed, they use a high movement speed to collide with the opponent from the left and the right. One of them uses the left leg and the other uses the right leg. The two legs spin and pincer attack, thus using the strength of the legs to crush the head."

"Sigh, can the little guy handle it?" Mo Yu was worried. The jade crown on her head changed color at the same time, turning into a dark blue color.

This color-changing Jade Crown could reflect Mo Yu's current mood. If there was no fluctuation, it would be white.

"I don't think there's a need to worry too much," Jiu you said with a smile.

Although he did not know what the content of the two days of special training was.

However, judging from Leng Ming's reaction to the "Heavenly Sun Sword Formation" just now, it was likely that during these two days, Jingke and Bai Qiao were in the mixed doubles mode, it was likely that they had already displayed all their combination skills in front of Leng Ming.

In the next moment, the ice and fire brothers' combined skill, "Ice and fire sword blade", had already attacked.

He was certain that the ice and fire brothers' next attack would definitely form a concentrated fire attack on him.

Although Leng Ming couldn't remember this scene, he felt like he had seen it somewhere before.

His body couldn't help but react to the muscle memory.

When the two brothers' Ice Hammer and Hammer were close to his head, one of his hands grabbed one side and grabbed the two brothers' ankles.

Leng Ming's body was light and lithe, forming a spiral on the ground. It was like a dance, toying with the ice and Fire Brothers.

It was a kind of power that used softness to counter hardness. After spinning for a few seconds, the ice and fire brothers were thrown out.

When everyone came back to their senses, a tai chi disc formed under Leng Ming's feet.

This was a technique that used the strength of the two brothers to borrow strength to fight. Leng Ming did not know how he activated it, but his body could not help but move.

When the counterattack was over, the ice and fire brothers were seen huddled together in the sword battle arena, their clothes tattered and their faces bruised.

Their eyes were filled with fear as they kept stepping back. They were even mumbling in panic, "Who... who practiced Taiji fist..."

The entire sword battle arena was silent for a few seconds before a burst of fiery cheers erupted!

The audience had always been a fence-sitter. This was true.

And this was the scary thing about the champion fans.

Leng Ming heaved a long sigh of relief.

He felt that he had not embarrassed his master.

..

At this moment, in the depths of the endless Milky Way, this was a layer beyond the Milky Way.

Through the endless stars, a pair of evil eyes filled with turbid darkness opened at this moment.
“Found... the most suitable sacrifice...”

“Sir, you finally can’t hold it in anymore?” After a moment, a young voice sounded.

This voice came from a young man surrounded by stars. His figure was blurry, and one could only see a faint outline wrapped in starlight.

As he spoke, the planets around them collided and exploded.

The two used the universe as a chessboard and used the planets in their hands as Chess Pieces to play chess.

“I’ve been waiting for the heavenly tomb grass to take shape for a long time... and now, the time is ripe.”

The owner of the turbid eye said calmly, “When the old Rubik’s Cube is assembled, it will be the time for those people to die... people have to pay the price for their ignorance...”

“But that young man is not easy to deal with. Even I can’t see his origin clearly.” The young man surrounded by stars frowned slightly.

“I’ll fully understand him before the battle. I already have a chess piece in the sword King Realm.”

At this moment, the owner of the turbid eye said coldly.

Chapter 1424 Gao Neng

Leng Ming’s victory in this battle was to be expected.

The next battle was for the King Group.

Because it was the finale, there were also silver, gold, and diamond duels in the middle.

In addition, there was also the time to clean up the venue. Sun Ying ‘ER estimated that Lotus Sun would be on stage for at least two to three hours.

Since she was bored, she naturally needed to have some fun.

Sun Ying ‘ER’s eyes darted around as she thought of a good way to tease Lotus Sun.

“Rong Rong, I don’t know if you’ve noticed,”she said carefully as she blew into Lotus Sun’s ear.

Lotus Sun’s face turned hot from the blow, and Goosebumps rose all over her body. “Ying ‘er... What are you doing...”

“Eh? Haven’t you noticed?”Sun Ying ‘er whispered in her ear. “Ling Zhenren is in the Heaven No. 2 room next door.”

In fact, Sun Ying ‘er hadn’t sensed Wang Ling’s aura at all.

But..

She could sense Wang Ying.

It wasn’t that Wang Ying had leaked his aura.

It was just that after being trained by Wang Ying for a long time, Sun Ying 'er would develop a habitual muscle reflex.

This was because Wang Ying, the gorilla, often grabbed her wrist by the wall.

This caused Sun Ying 'ER's wrist to be like a radar device that could detect Wang Ying. As long as it was close to Wang Ying, her wrist would feel as if it was being held by someone

And the closer it was, the stronger the feeling of being held by someone.

During the duel in the Bronze Group, Sun Ying 'er moved around the room tentatively and finally found the source of the signal.

She confirmed that Wang Ying was next door.

Since Wang Ying was next door, it was obvious that Wang Ling had come as well.

“Classmate Wang Ling, you’re here too?”

When Lotus Sun heard this news, she looked pleasantly surprised.

Although she knew very well that given Wang Ling's personality, there was a high chance that he would choose to watch her match at home.

But he had actually come to watch the match live.

For Lotus Sun, this was definitely an additional surprise.

For some reason, the young girl suddenly felt in a very good mood. Her previous nervousness was instantly swept away, and she didn't feel the slightest bit nervous.

Wang Ling's existence.

She felt very at ease.

“Lotus, aren’t you going next door to say Hello?”Sun Ying ‘er chuckled and began to encourage the young girl to take active action.

“I... I haven’t thought of what to say yet...”Lotus Sun’s face turned red, she started to burn up again. “Moreover, classmate Wang Ling is clearly next door. If he doesn’t come over, he doesn’t want to interfere with my competition, right? If I go, Will I disturb him?”

“It’s okay, just tell me what you want to say! I can pass on a message for you! You Don’t have to go over!”Sun Ying ‘ER’s expression looked a little treacherous.

—— HMPH! Ying ‘ER’s human-flesh microphone, activate!

“Is this okay...”after Lotus Sun finished speaking, she glanced at endless and old man next to her. They were watching the match in Lotus Sun’s heaven-ranked room.

They weren’t deliberately staying here.

In fact, it was Netherworld who had asked them to stay.

On one hand, they could give Lotus Sun a better explanation for the match, and on the other hand, they could be Lotus Sun’s guards.

It had to be said that both endless and old man were sensible people.

When they heard Lotus Sun’s words, they consciously reached out and covered their ears..

Don’t listen to indecent things.

They wouldn’t get involved in the matter of the couple.

And knowing too much wasn’t good for them either.

Apart from that, endless and old man also felt that this was the best way to prevent the explosive attack of dog food.

Lotus Sun hesitated for a moment, then turned to Sun Ying 'er and said, "Then... can you help me say Hello?"

"No! This is too easy! Don't you have anything special you want to ask?" Sun Ying 'er touched her chin, "Like the Rubik's Cube Mission? Didn't you say before that you were worried? You always felt that the collection process was too smooth and that something bad would happen."

"That's right... but I can't tell what's wrong, it's just my sixth sense..."

The girl looked troubled. "And if you ask too many questions at once, student Wang Ling won't be comfortable with it, right?"

"Then ask a simple question. For example, talk about your thoughts on Jiang Yingying. It's best if you can write an essay with at least eight hundred words."

"What are you thinking, ying-er..."

Lotus Sun smiled bitterly. "Student Wang Ling probably only knows how to click six dots on his essay."

"That's true." Sun ying-er nodded.

"How about this, help me say Hello First, then help me ask student Wang Ling... I want to invite him to ancient street this weekend and ask if he's free." Lotus Sun mustered up her courage and said to Sun ying-er.

Sometimes, an opportunity was in her own hands!

She had to take the initiative!

"Sure!" Sun Ying 'er nodded.

Lotus sun added, "Tell classmate Wang Ling that it'll be just the two of us... It Won't be like the last time we went to the Xiao family compound, with a bunch of people following us."

The main thing was that Lotus Sun didn't need to worry about safety at the moment.

If she could run into an assassin organization like shadow stream, which had been hired by Huaguo Water Curtain Group's competitors, she would be able to handle them all by herself.

"No Problem!"Sun Ying 'er then turned into a shadow and slipped out.

But in reality, she didn't dare really go into Wang Ling's room.

She just pretended to wander around at the door and then made up an answer herself..

Very soon, Sun Ying 'er returned to Lotus Sun's side. "Ah! I got it! Ling Zhenren said he can go! He's free!"

"Really?"Lotus Sun's eyes lit up.

Sun Ying 'ER had never seen a young girl so happy, and for a moment, she felt a little guilty. "Really... really..."

"No, Ying 'er! Did you not ask at all?"Fortunately, Lotus Sun quickly noticed that something was wrong with Sun Ying 'ER's face.

This wasn't the first time this girl had been naughty.

Based on her understanding of sun ying-er, she probably felt that sun ying-er had made up this answer herself.

If she had really asked, how could she have come back so quickly..

Lotus Sun stroked Sun Ying-er's head, and her expression was very gentle. "Ying-er, since you've asked, ask nicely. I Don't blame you."

Sun Ying-er was silent for a while, then pursed her lips and said weakly, "Then... I really went. If I was rejected, don't blame me!"

"Yes, I Won't blame you." Lotus sun nodded.

"Okay!"

Sun Ying 'er realized that she had only wanted to tease lotus sun, but now it seemed that she had fallen into the trap.

She had dug this trap herself, and even if she had tears in her eyes, she would still jump into it.

She was so nervous that she paced back and forth at the gate of Heavenly No. 2. The feeling of being bound on her wrist grew stronger.

After hesitating for a few minutes, Sun Ying 'er gritted her teeth. "Forget it! For the sake of Rong Rong's happiness, I'll Go All Out!"

She was just about to turn into a shadow and dash into the room.

The next moment, she was lifted up by a force.

When Sun Ying 'er came back to her senses, she saw Wang Ying grab her wrist and push her against the wooden wall of the inn.

"What do you want to do now?"

Wang Ying looked at her with a slightly playful gaze. "Your Lord is watching the competition. No one is allowed to disturb him."

Sun Ying 'ER's eyes were filled with tears. "I... I just want to ask..."

“No.”

Wang Ying coldly said two words.

Sun Ying ‘er was annoyed. “Why are you always controlling me everywhere you go! If I had to, why would I have to ask!”

“I said, I won’t allow it.”Wang Ying still maintained his attitude.

“Then I’ll Shout! Ling Zhenren will definitely hear it!”Sun Ying ‘ER’s fighting spirit rose again.

“You can try.”Wang Ying sneered.

“I’ll try!”

Sun Ying ‘er snorted.

She was just about to open her mouth.

But in the next moment...

She suddenly felt Wang Ying’s aura suddenly approach her, and he quickly covered her mouth with two domineering lips..

Chapter 1425 Enemies From The Outer Galaxy

Wang Ling was very satisfied with Leng Ming’s performance in the first battle.

Although his learning ability couldn’t catch up with his, he had already reached the passing line overall.

If he were to calculate the full score of 100, the normal passing line would be 60 points.

However, in Wang Ling’s heart, 95 points was a pass.

96 -- 98 was average.

99 -- 100 was excellent.

Wang Ling's initial assessment of Leng Ming's learning ability was 95.

This was already enough.

Because Leng Ming was still young, there was still room for him to grow.

At that moment, Wang Ying turned into a black shadow and sneaked in through the crack in the door.

Then, visible to the naked eye, the Black Shadow gradually took human form, condensing into Wang Ying's smug face.

He whistled and had a satisfied expression on his face.

If he had another cigarette at this time, it would be even more perfect.

Wang Ling sighed in his heart. Shadow Dao was really a magical thing... it was clearly a power that had been nurtured from his body, but its personality was too different from his own.

When Wang Ling saw Wang Ying Blocking Sun Ying 'ER's mouth at the door just now, his mind instantly went blank.

The first reaction in his mind was: Wasn't Wang Ying afraid that he would suck Sun Ying 'ER's tongue out?

But no matter what, the scene in front of him was still beyond Wang Ling's comprehension.

A shadow actually didn't have an actual age..

In theory, they weren't human either.

But his shadow and Lotus Sun's shadow could be together first.

This was something Wang Ling hadn't expected.

"Don't worry, Master Ling, I've already planted a seed in him," Wang Ying said at that moment.

"..." Wang Ling knew what this "Seed" meant.

But for some reason, when Wang Ying said this, it felt like something had changed..

This was a kind of defensive seed that could be triggered in times of crisis.

It was also something Wang Ling had ordered Wang Ying to set up.

Generally speaking, all they needed to do was to engrave the defensive seed's seal on their palm and then gently pat it like a stamp.

Who knew that Wang Ying would actually choose to gag.

This method could also be called ingenious..

"The Sword Master is here. What are you worried about?" To be honest, Jingke was also very surprised that Wang Ling was personally overseeing the sword king world this time.

There was naturally a reason for Wang Ling to be there in person.

Wang Ling had predicted that there would be an unforeseen event at this Sword Dao Conference yesterday.

"There's an enemy attack."

Wang Ying answered Jingke's question. "Furthermore, the enemy came from outside the Milky Way."

The infinite Milky Way?

Jingke instantly thought of this mysterious space in the universe.

The infinite Milky Way was so vast that it was far beyond the reach of the Milky Way.

Back then, Immortal Zhenyuan had roamed the Milky Way in outer space for a thousand years in search of drought star, but he hadn't completed the journey.

If he went to the boundless Milky Way, he might not be able to complete it even if he walked for a billion years at the venerated immortal realm.

"What's Your Purpose?" Jingke asked again.

This was the first time in history that an enemy from the boundless Milky Way had come here.

It was precisely because he didn't know the enemy that Wang Ling felt uneasy.

Boundless Milky Way. If it hadn't been for the power of deduction that had let him know of this new term, Wang Ling really wouldn't have known that there was actually another layer beyond the Milky Way.

Was It really a cosmic doll?

He didn't know much about the boundless Milky Way, and didn't know what level the enemy from that side was at.

What if the enemy was more powerful than him?

Although Wang Ling knew that he was very strong,.

He had always known that there was a mountain beyond the mountain.

It was also because of this that he had always been very modest.

“They might turn the six Great Heavenly Dao into gems and insert them into their gloves to snap their fingers, and the universe would be destroyed!” Wang Ying said with a terrifying expression.

“This...” Jingke’s eyes were filled with horror, and he almost took it seriously.

Just as he was about to ask a question, Wang Ying continued, “There’s a high chance that he’s here for Leng Ming.”

“Leng Ming, huh?” Jingke nodded to himself.

This answer was more reasonable.

Leng Ming was the embodiment of the heavenly tomb grass.

And what was the heavenly tomb?

According to rumors, it was a universal tomb that Daofather Wang had built for himself.

And in this tomb was buried all the treasures that Daofather Wang had accumulated throughout his life.

He was clearly not dead, but he wanted to build a tomb for himself first. This was the standard thinking of a big shot..

It was said that Daofather Wang had built the heavenly tomb when he was middle-aged.

He had thought that his time was coming, which was why he had built this tomb in advance.

In the end, even Daofather Wang himself hadn't expected that he could reincarnate.

This had led to the fact that the heavenly tomb he had built had yet to be moved in.

"The location of the heavenly tomb is very vague. We don't know its exact location yet. It could be in the outer reaches of the Milky Way, or it could be in the infinite Milky Way."

Wang Ying said, "Leng Ming was formed from the heavenly tomb grass. It was a withered grass that stuck to the soles of Daofather King's feet when he came to the sword King Realm. "I didn't expect that after the baptism of time, the withered grass would come back to life and eventually successfully give birth to Leng Ming in the Sword King Realm..."

Actually, at this point, Jingke already had a general understanding.

The ultimate goal of this enemy from the infinite Milky Way in searching for Leng Ming was the heavenly tomb.

In order to obtain dao ancestor Wang's treasure..

"So, Your Highness, you personally came here for..."

"You're right."

Wang Ying knew what Jingke was thinking, his face also revealed a solemn expression. "Your Highness and I share the same thoughts on this point. We have never come into contact with an enemy from the infinite Milky Way. If we underestimate them too much, it might cause an unimaginable disaster."

"..."

"The first battle was Leng Ming's battle. The people from the infinite Milky Way have never made a move. Your Highness feels that the other party will most likely appear when Miss Sun goes on stage, which is why you asked me to lay down a defensive seed in advance."

"..."

“In other words, this time, Lord Ling and I will go all out to deal with this enemy from outer space,”Wang Ying said.

”...”Jingke was silent for three times.

Looking at this situation, he felt that he might be able to witness history..

If they went all out, wouldn't that mean that the seal on the talisman seal would be completely removed?

Of course, Jingke thought at the same time.

Wang Ling and Wang Ying.

Thought too much..

Although his understanding of the infinite galaxy was limited,.

Jingke believed that he still had some understanding of Wang Ling.

Regardless of the background of the enemy of the infinite galaxy..

Even if he didn't remove the talisman seal, the other side would still die!

Wang Ling.

But the man he had taken a liking to at first sight.

Jingke felt that he had a good eye.

..

On the other side, in Lotus Sun's heaven-ranked room, just as Wang Ying had expected, Sun Ying 'er had completely fallen into a closed-door mode.

"Don't Cry, Ying 'er... President Ying probably didn't do it on purpose," Lotus Sun tried to comfort her.

"You... you're still defending him..." Sun Ying 'er cried even more sadly. She touched her belly and was trying to vent the anger in her belly. "So what if he kissed me! Why are you still blowing air into my mouth!"

"..."

Lotus Sun stared at Sun Ying 'ER's big belly and really didn't know what to say.

President Ying actually kissed her..

For some reason, Lotus Sun felt that her mouth was a little sore.

Chapter 1426 Unknown Opponent

In the world of Sword Kings, while the grand swordplay conference was being held, the core members of the true venerated Great Hall of the warring sect were also watching the grand competition through long-distance observation.

The monk was meditating at the front.

He used the swastika to infiltrate his ocular power into the sword storm of the world of Sword Kings and saw the battle happening inside.

Then, the image was returned through his ocular power.

The ring scar on the monk's head was projected, forming a projection in the air.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal marveled at this scene in his heart. "Senior golden lamp is indeed worthy of his reputation. Apart from being able to smoke and boil hot pot, this ring scar actually has such a function..."

“It’s just some insignificant tricks.”The monk smiled, as modest as ever.

He was also paying special attention to this sword dao conference, but Lotus Sun wasn’t the center of attention.

Sword Dao Conference.

In the monk’s eyes, it was already a foregone conclusion that the young girl would win the championship.

The key point was still the unknown opponent from the infinite galaxy.

When Wang Ling had predicted this last night, all the core members of the battle sect had already known about it.

Of course, Lotus Sun didn’t know.

This was the monk’s suggestion, so that she could put her mind at ease and focus on the match in front of her.

As for the matter of protecting Earth, he would leave it to this group of old men to handle it.

Now that Wang Ling was in the Sword King World, the monk was the last line of defense on earth..

Although the ultimate goal of the unknown opponent from infinite Milky Way was the sword king world, they had to be on guard.

“What kind of opponent is infinite Milky Way?”Grenade-throwing senior immortal asked.

Ever since he had met Wang Ling, he had realized that the cultivation knowledge he had accumulated was completely useless.

Because of Wang Ling, he had gotten to know more almighty seniors who were hidden among cultivators.

Because of Wang Ling, his understanding of the “Map view” had also been completely expanded..

Grenade-throwing senior immortal suddenly realized that there were many blind spots in his knowledge.

Wang Ling, on the other hand, played the role of constantly breaking through his blind spots..

Not only had he come into contact with higher level knowledge, but he had also been able to push his current understanding of cultivation knowledge to the ground and rub it against it.

“This penniless monk doesn’t go to the infinite Milky Way many times because it’s too far away. Every time before I go, I have to gather a large amount of resources in advance in case I need them on the way,” the monk said.

He calculated with his fingers that if he were to travel to the boundless Milky Way from another galaxy, it would probably take about half a year.

Apart from Wang Ling, given his realm, it would take half a year. It would be impossible for anyone else to get there without external help.

“There’s a rumor that the heavenly tomb built by Dao ancestor Wang is in the boundless Milky Way. This penniless monk has gone there more than 76,000 times.”

”...”the corners of everyone’s mouths twitched when they heard this.

He had visited it more than 76,000 times... and yet, the monk actually called it that. Wasn’t that a lot?

However, given that the monk had experienced nearly 4,000 cycles of reincarnation...

Perhaps the number of times he had visited the infinite galaxy wasn’t that strange after all.

“The infinite galaxy is too vast. Even a small piece of space there is larger than the outer reaches of the Milky Way.”

The monk sighed. “Although this penniless monk’s liver has been explored many times, the exploration rate of the infinite Milky Way is less than 0.1% .”

“Senior didn’t find any signs of life?”

“At least in the many times I’ve explored, I didn’t find anything.”

The monk said, “It’s precisely because of this that Ling Zhenren suddenly said that there was an unknown opponent from the infinite Milky Way this time, which made this penniless monk very surprised.”

“So now we can only wait?”

“Ling Zhenren and I had originally deduced that their target was Leng Ming. But Leng Ming’s battle has already ended, and the other side has yet to make a move.”

“They’re coming for Miss Lotus Sun?”

“Or to put it another way, Leng Ming and Miss Sun are both targets.”

Monk lowered his eyes and said thoughtfully, “Let’s see them make a move. After the fight, we’ll know their true combat strength.”

As he spoke, everyone turned their attention back to the grand swordsmanship competition.

The King Division’s competition was about to begin.

Lotus Sun, the number one foundation establishment cultivator on Earth, was about to enter the arena.

When she walked into the outer ring of the sword arena, the noise of the crowd was already lingering in the girl's ears.

The girl's expression, however, was much calmer than she had imagined.

The sword qi flowing in all directions in the arena was all testing her cultivation.

Many sword spirits had question marks on their faces.

"Human?"

"How can a foundation establishment human participate in the Grand Assembly of the way of the sword?"

"Haven't you noticed? This human and his sword have become one."

A sword spirit with excellent eyesight explained.

Lotus Sun's passive version of becoming one with the sword made herself and the spirit sword indistinguishable from each other.

Although she was still in the foundation establishment realm, the overall increase in her battle strength was very considerable.

"Fifty people from the East Gate, please line up in an orderly fashion. We're ready to enter!" A royal sword guard said from the front of the line.

Lotus Sun was at the bottom of the line at the East Gate.

In the past, Lotus Sun was definitely the first to be in the limelight.

But now, she had indeed changed a lot.

On the other hand, this was also what Lotus Sun thought.

After all, the Sword King realm was the world of Sword Spirits. It didn't seem very logical for a human like her to come here and participate in the grand swordplay conference.

Long before the tournament began, everyone had been complaining about the human's participation in the grand swordplay conference.

Although ao Hai's ranking on the sword rankings was high, many sword spirits didn't like it because of its hybrid quality.

This time, Lotus Sun chose to participate in the grand swordsmanship meet in order to win the sword God alloy and choose a suitable sword spirit for Nuan.

And on the other hand, she was actually doing it for Ao Hai's sake.

The Sword King realm was Ao Hai's hometown.

Lotus Sun didn't want Ao Hai to be treated coldly and discriminated against after he returned to his hometown.

She wanted to bring ao hai along and tell all the sword spirits in the Sword King realm that Ao Hai wasn't a useless spirit sword! Even if she didn't come from a good family background, she could still successfully defeat the King Group!

So what if it was luck?

Luck itself was also a part of strength.

When the East Gate slowly opened.

Lotus Sun was wearing a dark blue magic dress and holding ao hai in her hand, her head held high and her chest puffed out.

This magic dress was the + 0 world-defying magic dress that Miss Ah Juan had given her last time. Now, it had become the girl's battle uniform.

She followed at the back of the team and walked out in the light.

As the only human girl appeared, the Sword Battle Arena was once again in an uproar. Although there were many sword spirits watching, not many people had actually seen Lotus Sun.

Under everyone's watchful eyes, the girl received all kinds of heated gazes from the crowd. She could begin to feel the pressure Leng Ming had been carrying before the start of the competition.

"Interesting. A human girl actually brought her miscellaneous sword to participate in the competition. She really has the guts to come."

"She's quite cute. She's my type."

"But does anyone know why her miscellaneous sword is ranked seventh on the Sword Board?"

"Who knows? Maybe it's just because her skin looks better?"

Lotus Sun's participation in the competition had never stopped in the sword King World.

In fact, even the ninth Netherworld hadn't expected that the sword spirit of the Sword King World would be so exclusive.

"Miss, aren't you going to release your sword Qi? Let us see how powerful this random sword ranked seventh on the sword list is!" A busybody sword spirit shouted loudly in the spectator stands, it immediately caused another storm.

Lotus Sun closed her eyes slightly, took a deep breath, and tried her best to calm herself down

Then, she used her slender and fair fingers to caress the scabbard. Facing the clamor around her, she pulled the sword out inch by inch.

“As you said.”

In the next moment, the girl opened her beautiful eyes.

But after pulling out less than three centimeters of the sword, ao Hai’s raging sea-like sword Qi surged out from the gap like a tsunami, sweeping across the scene!

All the sword spirits in the field were shocked!

This powerful sword Qi was rolling in all directions in the field, and it actually caused illusions to appear in their eyes!

The sword battle field in front of them suddenly turned into an ocean!

And in the ocean.

It was all water..

Chapter 1427 A Competent Actress

Lotus Sun’s current strength was no longer what it was in the past.

When this aura was released.

The hem of her dress rolled and surged along with the Sword Qi.

The blue hem of her dress blew up like a wave.

The surrounding sword spirits in the stands were all shocked by this powerful sword qi. They found it hard to imagine that a random spirit sword could explode with such power.

Most people were frightened by this sword qi.

But in such an occasion, some old gentlemen would inevitably appear.

“Go Higher! A little higher! Yes, we’re almost there!”Some sword spirits stared at the girl’s blue skirt, wanting to see the scenery below.

They had deliberately gone with the crowd to provoke Lotus Sun in the beginning.

The purpose was to provoke the human girl’s anger.

Because sword qi basically came from the bottom up.

Once it erupted, it was easy to get exposed.

However, the result greatly disappointed these “Old gentlemen”among the sword spirits.

Because just as the hem of the skirt was about to be blown up, Lotus Sun’s magic skirt’s “Anti-gravity mode”was instantly activated!

It could only be said that this was the skirt that Ah Juan had given her.

The anti-gravity mode was very practical for every girl.

On the field, the anti-gravity blue magic dress swayed wildly but wasn’t blown up.

Lotus sun slowly pulled the body of Ohai’s sword out of its scabbard.

With every inch she pulled out, the raging sword energy on the field surged.

When the body of the sword was completely pulled out.

The passive version of “Man and sword as one”was fully activated.

After a series of light and shadow changes, Lotus Sun and Ao Hai’s figures were completely merged into one.

The girl's blue eyes were deeper than before. They were like Starlight, emitting a beautiful and moving luster.

Ao Hai's dark blue evening gown was also perfectly integrated with it. There were many ripples that symbolized the sea on the hem of the dress, which looked more magnificent than before.

Even the color of her hair had changed. After becoming one with the sword, it was dyed ao Hai's silver-gray color.

Of course, none of these were the key points.

The key point was!

The girl found that her chest seemed to have become a lot heavier..

Because the monk had warned her that she needed to be extra careful when using Ao Hai on Earth, she didn't need to unsheathe it unless it was absolutely necessary.

And after fusing with the three Heavenly Dao Rubik's cubes, the newly upgraded passive version of "Man and sword as one" needed to be completely unsheathed before it could display such a fusion mode.

So this was Lotus Sun's first time experiencing such a fusion change.

In the heaven-branded guest room.

Sun Ying 'er was so excited that she was incoherent. "Rongrong, you've grown! It's really, it's great! If Rongrong can grow, so can I! In the future, I'll be able to realize the airbag cushion plan!"

"..."loopy toad opened its mouth but didn't say anything in the end.

It didn't know where an old driver like Sun Ying 'ER had inherited the label.

She could really drive any kind of broken road..

..

On the other side, in the sword battle arena, endless and old man, who had also participated in this competition, were also deeply impressed by the sword qi emitted by profound sea.

“As expected of Miss Lotus Sun,”the two sighed in their hearts.

Of course, they didn’t participate in the competition to win the championship, but to escort Lotus Sun.

Therefore, when they entered the arena, endless and old man were also thinking about how to show off their outstanding acting skills.

To everyone’s surprise, when the King Group’s competition began, no sword spirit took the initiative to attack the other sword spirits.

This was the difference in tactical thinking between the King Group’s sword spirits and the bronze group’s sword spirits.

This was also one of the reasons why the bronze group was not as good as the King Group..

Especially in this chaotic battle, the side that took the initiative to attack was definitely at a disadvantage. A large-scale attack would only result in more intense focus fire and be eliminated first.

Therefore, the sword spirit of the King Group had the same idea before the start of the match.

That was to form an alliance first!

With allies as the unit, the others would be eliminated first!

As for how to choose allies, for the sword spirit of the King Group, this was something that didn’t require much consideration.

According to the material of the sword itself, or the type of sword itself, it was easy to separate the factions.

Therefore, when the king group competition began, the entire sword battle arena was filled with a mysterious silence. Lotus Sun could feel the sword Qi that was overflowing in all directions converging in the air.

The sword spirits of the king group were dispersing their sword qi and using it to establish a special spiritual communication to search for their own kind.

Then, all kinds of sounds of cliques surged in the sword battle arena.

“Big Sword Gang! Follow me! If you don’t come, you’ll be a Lackey!”

“If the heavens don’t give birth to my long sword, it’ll be like the Eternal Night! where is the long sword gang?”?

..

Many sword spirits watching the match were puzzled. They didn’t understand why the sword spirits of the King Group hadn’t started fighting yet.

Because their cultivation was too low, they couldn’t hear the sword spirits of the king group using sword Qi to communicate.

In the judges’seats..., the spirit slightly frowned: “This kind of alliance is actually disadvantageous to miss sun.”. The sword spirit of the king group formed small teams in this way, and their attacks were more organized and disciplined. In addition, they were all hostile towards Miss Sun’s existence, so it might be a bit difficult.”

“Not Necessarily.”

Jiu you shook his head and said: “Miss Sun is Lord Bai Qiao’s disciple, you have also seen the sword Qi that was revealed during the process of man-sword unity.”

“There’s something very strange. I don’t know why I can feel the power of the Heavenly Dao from the sword Qi of this Ao Hai.” Spirit-controlling frowned slightly. She didn’t know that Ao Hai had fused with the Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cube.

Jiuyou smiled and said, “The current ao hai has four cores. There are four Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cubes in its body.”

“Four Heavenly Dao Rubik’s Cubes!” Spirit-controlling almost cried out in surprise. After realizing that she had lost her composure, spirit-controlling’s little face turned red. “Why did you fuse so many...”

“She’s Lord Bai Qiao’s disciple, so of course she gets preferential treatment. Now that the new Rubik’s Cube has replaced the old Rubik’s Cube, and the old Rubik’s Cube has been recycled in such a form, it’s pretty good,” jiu you said.

Not knowing whether to be envious or jealous, Yu Ling lightly snorted. “HMPH, so much for that (lemon) ...”

..

At this time, a full three minutes had passed since the start of the match.

There was no movement from the sword spirits of the King Group. They were using their sword qi to quickly communicate with each other, and the voices of the team members were incessant.

At this moment, in the spiritual space created by the sword qi, someone suddenly shouted, “Lotus Sun, Lotus Sun, I love you! I’m Greatsword! I’ll always support Lotus Sun!”

“Miss Sun! I’m on your side! No one can stop me. The short sword gang will always love Lotus Sun!”

After these two shouts, the sword spirits of the group of kings, who were originally in the middle of forming a team, all revealed furious expressions.

“F * ck! who shouted that? What an odd tone! A traitor has appeared in our team of Sword Spirits!”

“No! Not just one, there seem to be many of them!”

In the sword energy communication channel, endless and old man changed their various voices to sow discord at the scene, in order to stop the alliance plan of these sword spirits of the group of kings.

Soon, their plan took effect.

When the sword spirits who had been looking for an organization heard this, they were all furious. Everyone looked like a traitor.

The scene quickly became chaotic.

Lotus Sun's eyes became vigilant.

At this moment, a female sword spirit with short white hair and a pair of leather shorts suddenly charged at Lotus Sun. “The day the Broken Sword is reforged, the day the Knight Returns!”

” ... ”

“It's all because of you, human woman. Eat My Sword First! I'm going to cut you from Mount Qomolangma into a flat top!”

” ... ”

Chapter 1428 Lotus Sun's Realm Reappeared

The female sword spirit, who had short white hair, wore a tank top with exposed navel skin, and sexy leather shorts, brandished her green greatsword and made a face as she slashed at Lotus Sun.

The female sword spirit's name was cool wind, and just like her name suggested, she was dressed in cool wind.

The “Ghost face sword technique” with the “Taunt effect” was one of her killer moves.

This sword technique had the effect of a facial illusion. If one looked into its eyes, they would be triggered to anger.

And in the course of a battle, being provoked was actually a big taboo.

Because anger could affect a person's normal judgment and lead to mistakes.

But Ohai's sword Qi was very strong. In the face of such an illusion, the ability to "Moisten things silently" was activated.

When the sword aura was released, all the illusions were seen through.

Cool Breeze's ghostly face sword technique was completely useless in front of Lotus Sun. It was as if a fist had hit cotton.

Looking at the female sword spirit who was making a ghostly face at her while slashing at her, Lotus Sun fell into a short silence.

Under normal circumstances, if she saw this ghostly face, she would definitely be angry.

But because the grimace sword technique had failed, Lotus Sun's Grimace made by cool breeze looked more like an act of cuteness... very cute! She felt like pinching her face!

Then, it was at this moment that Lotus Sun suddenly came to a realization.

Could This be the legendary... Lightspeed Qa! ?

Faced with Cool Breeze's attack, Lotus Sun quickly drew her sword to block. The profundity of Ohai's Sword Qi was beyond cool breeze's imagination.

The moment the blades collided, she felt as if all her strength had been swallowed by Ohai's boundless angry sea sword energy.

Then, a strong backlash came and sent cool breeze flying.

“Be careful!”

Although the girl had said some harsh words to her at first, she didn’t take it to heart. Instead, she was worried about cool breeze’s comfort.

The moment cool breeze was sent flying backward.

She felt that the sword Qi from the backlash of the ocean of Ao was like a high-speed earth-turning tractor that crashed into her head-on.

Just as cool breeze thought that she was going to be seriously injured and eliminated...

The incomparably fierce sword Qi instantly disintegrated halfway through, turning into a gentle force that held her waist and placed her firmly on the ground.

“I’m sorry, I was too strong,” Lotus Sun said.

She felt that she hadn’t been able to control ao Hai’s strength well. The competition was still a competition, but the girl didn’t want to seriously injure the sword spirit here.

“Returning kindness to evil? As expected of Miss Lotus Sun, but this is a competition... swords and sabers have no eyes.” In the judging panel, Netherworld shook his head. He felt that the girl was a little too naive.

But at that moment, a shocking scene happened.

Just as Lotus Sun was speaking, another stream of sword qi sneaked up from behind her.

Seeing this, cool breeze hurriedly rushed over and pushed lotus sun away, clashing with the owner of that stream of Sword Qi.

“Bang!” After the sound of the blades clashing, the two figures that had collided in the air quickly separated.

“Sneak attack from the back, what the hell!” The irascible cool breeze cursed. She didn’t look like a girl at all.

“You clearly didn’t have to save me just now.” Lotus Sun looked at cool breeze’s back and smiled.

Cool Breeze turned his head, his face slightly red. “Humph! Who Wants to save you! I just don’t want to give my prey to someone else!”

As soon as he finished speaking, cool breeze collided with another sword energy that was attacking Lotus Sun.

“I’m so annoyed, so annoyed! Why are you always staring at my prey!”

At this moment, cool breeze held his greatsword and roared angrily, “Then I’ll kill all of you! Then I’ll Kill My Prey!”

Well..

The roar was very loud, but Lotus Sun could clearly feel that the hostility on cool breeze had completely disappeared.

“Holy shit! He actually defeated a sword spirit just like that...”

In the judges’ seats, Mo Yu couldn’t help cursing as she began to sense the difference in this “Miss Sun” in front of her.

“This is... Lotus Sun’s domain...” in the heaven-class room, loopy toad looked at this familiar scene and felt as if it had recalled a lot of things.

The essence of Lotus Sun's domain was a kind of power that came with its own strategy and could capture People's hearts. This kind of power usually only worked on passers-by, but the effect would weaken over time.

Now, with the augmentation of the power of the sword Qi of Ao Hai, loopy toad was surprised to find that this kind of Lotus Sun's domain seemed to have leveled up, and could automatically increase the favorability of people around it and guide them!

It had only been one move, but the young girl had already taken down a sword spirit, which left loopy toad dumbstruck.

In loopy Toad's opinion, Lotus Sun already had an incredible power..

"Unfortunately, the power of the domain is still too weak. At least for Little Lord Ling, it's far from enough." At this moment, loopy toad was lost in thought as it looked at the image transmitted from the screen.

On the Sword Battle Arena, Lotus Sun's domain had the effect of increasing her favorability.

It seemed that Lotus Sun really had quite a number of allies on her side.

At first, the sword spirits of the king group had been clamoring to form an alliance to eliminate Lotus Sun, but in the end, they had ended up forming an alliance to protect Lotus Sun..

Of course, the two actors, endless and old man, had played a big part in making things go so smoothly.

They followed Lotus Sun's example and used the same trick they had used on cool breeze.

They pretended to attack Lotus Sun from behind and then lured the sword spirits who had been protected by the girl to help.

"Ah! Sorry, I didn't do it on purpose! The Sword Qi was a bit stronger, isn't it very painful?"

"Be careful! Isn't it shameless to attack from behind!"

“Who’s going to help you! I just don’t like them playing dirty tricks!”

..

“I’m sorry, I almost hurt you badly.”

“Hey! There’s someone sneaking up on you from behind, get out of the way! Let Me Do It!”

“Don’t get me wrong, I’m not trying to help you, I’m just a Righteous Spirit Sword!”

..

On the Sword Battle Arena, this magical guide had been repeated more than a few times.

Then, more and more sword spirits inexplicably joined Lotus Sun’s alliance..

“What the hell is going on? ! Why are so many people helping this human girl? !”On the spectator stands, many sword spirits were stomping their feet in anger.

Most of them had staked their fortunes on the sword spirits formed by the other kings, and had paid a huge price.

Some of them had even gone bankrupt, and had invested all their money into the gamble of the upcoming grand swordplay meet.

In the end, they hadn’t expected that in less than ten minutes after the start of the competition, one-third of the sword spirits of the group of kings had already been conquered, and had automatically joined Lotus Sun’s protection camp.

Endless and old man looked at the exasperated Sword Spirits in the spectator stands, and sneered in their hearts.

Heh!

Gambling dogs would die a horrible death!

In the end, 70% of the King Group's spirit swords had already been conquered by the young girl.

This match looked as if there was no suspense.

However, in room number two.

Wang Ling's expression never relaxed.

He could feel that the people from infinite galaxy were about to make a move..

Chapter 1429 Poker Sword Elder K

After using the upgraded version of Lotus Sun's domain to obtain an overwhelming advantage in all aspects of the grand swordplay conference.

It seemed to be a foregone conclusion as to who would be the champion.

In order to protect the young girl, those sword spirits that had been conquered fought fiercely with the remaining sword spirits, resulting in heavy losses on both sides.

In the end, there were less than a dozen sword spirits left on the field.

The last five sword spirits, led by "Old K", would rather die than surrender.

All of them stared angrily at Lotus Sun and the dog-licking sword spirits following behind the girl.

At this moment, old K stood at the front in a thick golden armor. His beard fluttered in the wind, making him look like a saint warrior.

"Heh! I, old K, am not the lackey behind you."

"Lackey?"

“It means Lackey + Lackey!”

” ...”

The sword spirit named Old K was surrounded by golden sword qi

His nickname was the sword of the king, and he was the sword spirit ranked 12th. His original body was a “Poker card, King.”.

It was said that he was left behind by Daofather King when he was in seclusion in the sword King realm. He was too bored and fought with his clone. He didn’t expect that even his poker card had become a sword spirit.

“Old K, what’s done is done. I think it’s better for you to give up. “You can’t imagine Miss Sun’s charm. We’ve decided to push Miss Sun to win! “If you don’t vote, we’ll launch a collective attack and perish together with you!”

Endless said, he earnestly analyzed the situation for old K. “Now, excluding Miss Sun, we still have six people left. One more than you, and old man’s “Five-second real man”hasn’t been used yet. If we fight in the end, you’ll definitely lose.”

“Ha, that might not be the case.”

Old K snorted. As a man with the title of the Sword of the king, he certainly wouldn’t give up so easily.

Crack! There was a clang!

He stabbed his giant golden sword into the ground. At that moment, three sword qis of completely different colors appeared all over his body, gushing out of the giant golden sword.

“It’s the sword gambling technique...”endless frowned.

“What’s the sword gambling technique?” Lotus Sun couldn’t help her curiosity even though she knew that this might not be the right time for her question.

“Miss Sun, did you see it? The three sword qis of gold, blue, and red on this giant golden sword...” endless explained.

The Three Sword Qis were the foundation of old K’s sword gambling technique.

The golden sword Qi could paralyze those who were injured by the sword qi as if they had been drugged.

The Blue Sword Qi could quickly recover the injuries of those who had been injured.

The Red Sword Qi could produce a suicidal attack that would cause a huge explosion in the arena.

The group competition of the King Division had reached its end, and almost everyone had been injured to varying degrees.

Under the situation where the number of people was at a disadvantage, old K choosing to gamble on the sword at this time might indeed be a wise choice.

When old K pulled the huge sword out of the ground again, the three-colored sword Qi that was originally emitting would go berserk, causing old K’s huge golden sword to change color.

And at that time, the huge sword would randomly choose a streak of Sword Qi from the three-colored sword qi and convert it into its own power!

Endless never expected that old K would go all out.

This was because this “Sword gambling technique” was a secret technique that would cost one’s cultivation base.

Although it was old k’s ultimate skill, very few people had seen old K actually use it.

“You actually thought of gambling...”endless frowned slightly.

“What’s the point of saying so much? Since he wants to gamble, then let him Gamble!”On the side, cool breeze said. She wanted to rush out and block the release of this move.

However, she was stopped by endless on the spot. “If you don’t want to be cursed, then stay there!”

“Cursed?”Cool Breeze’s face was filled with confusion.

“Once the formation of the sword-gambling Grand Magic is formed, we can only gamble with him. According to legend, the formation of the sword-gambling grand magic contains the curse of the DAOFATHER. If we interfere with the formation, we will definitely be cursed by Daofather King!”Endless said.

When he said this., old K, who was dressed in heavy golden armor in front of him, couldn’t help but laugh. “It seems like you understand my situation very well... not bad! Everything You Said is right! Interfering with the formation will indeed cause something very terrifying to happen!”

Perhaps it was because he had expected that no sword spirit would dare to cross the boundary at this moment and forcefully interrupt the formation of the sword-wager grand magic. Old K’s expression was exceptionally excited and confident.

But for old K, there were still variables in the Sword Wager Grand Magic.

Although the sword spirit would indeed be cursed, if it was a human... in fact, he hadn’t done the corresponding experiment.

Therefore, Lotus Sun became the only worry in old K’s mind after he implemented the Sword Wager Grand Magic.

Perhaps it was because he was afraid that the girl didn’t know the rules and would ruin his big plan.

After old K calmed down, he turned his gaze to the only human girl in the arena. “Miss, I’m asking you, do you dare to make a bet with me?”

“Senior is determined to go his own way, so of course I can’t stop him. I just hope that you won’t hurt yourself. Also, gambling isn’t right in itself,” Lotus Sun advised patiently, but she was certain that the sword spirit of the poker sword in front of her wouldn’t listen to her words.

“Good! You’re indeed a heroine among women! But I won’t trouble you with gambling, Miss!”

Old K suddenly laughed. “If I draw a red card, I’ll give up this match no matter what the result is!”

In the current situation, if the giant sword was pulled out later, both the golden sword qi and the blue sword Qi would be beneficial to their side.

But if they drew the red sword qi, then the situation would really be hopeless..

It was almost 33% probability.

The total probability of old k drawing the sharp sword Qi was 66% .

He felt that he wouldn’t be so unlucky.

“Miss Sun, don’t be afraid. If he draws the red self-destructing sword qi, he’ll be done for.”

At this time, old man also said, “When the time comes, I’ll add the power of the “Five-second true man” to your body, making you completely immune to this damage.”

“Actually, I can...”

“There’s no need to say more, Miss Sun. The purpose of our participation in the competition is to help you win the championship,” old man said telepathically. “You don’t have to worry about anything else. “I know miss ao hai is very strong, but you have to give us a chance to show off...”

Lotus Sun didn’t know whether to laugh or cry in the face of old man’s enthusiasm.

She calculated that the sword gambling grand magic was about to be completed.

Old K stepped forward and held the hilt of the huge sword.

What was the result? The moment he pulled it out, everything would be revealed..

Then.

There was a whoosh!

As old K pulled out the huge golden sword, a red light that looked like an erupting volcano instantly surged out of the sword!

“It’s the Red Sword Qi!”

The remaining sword spirits in the field watched this scene and used their last bit of strength to fuse the sword Qi together to build a defensive array!

However, the explosion of the red suicidal sword Qi was too fast and violent.

Boom!

A huge mushroom cloud rose up from the ground!

The five sword spirits on old K’s side were instantly sent flying backward like scarecrows..

In the arena, heat waves assaulted the nostrils.

In the judging panel, Netherworld, Spirit Tamer, Mo Yu, and Little Qian had gathered the strength of four people to build an unbreakable barrier, protecting all the sword spirits in the spectator stands.

“What happened?” Spirit Tamer was curious. She couldn’t wait to see through the thick smoke on the field.

Then she saw.

The seven people on Lotus Sun's side were unharmed. Old Man's protection and Ao Hai's Blue Sword Qi had tightly protected them.

Even if a sword spirit was injured, it was repaired by Ao Hai's gentle sword qi.

Old K, on the other hand, seemed to be in a worse situation.

Apart from old k, everyone else in the giant sword camp was seriously injured.

At this moment, old K stood up and looked at Lotus Sun. "Now, according to the agreement, I forfeit this match!"

In the judging panel, old K faced her.

Mo Yu frowned slightly. "He really forfeited? The stakes are that good?"

"Not Necessarily."

Netherworld smiled meaningfully. "He predicted this."

"Predicted it?"

"He predicted it. He must have drawn the red suicide sword Qi."

Netherworld said, "The evidence is that old K's giant sword gang was heavily injured, but old K himself was unscathed. "This means that he has already prepared to prevent self-destruction. "In addition..."

Yu Ling continued Jiu you's words and said, "In addition, all the casinos in the world of Sword Kings are operated by old K. Therefore, the biggest owner of the bet of the King Group in this Sword Dao Conference is probably old K himself."

“You mean...” Mo Yu was frightened by old K’s scheming, and her face turned pale.

“What you mean is that before the match, old K may have bet all the plates on Miss Sun,” said the spirit.

Chapter 1430 The Game Of Chess In The Infinite Milky Way

The grand and unprecedented grand swordsmanship competition finally came to an end with Lotus Sun’s victory.

For the four judges, nine serenity, spirit control, Mo Yu, and Little Qian, this result wasn’t surprising at all, because it was a predetermined result.

However, for the sword spirits who were watching from the sidelines, this result obviously surprised them.

And most importantly, at the end of the match, old K’s sword gambling technique had actually added an extra layer of authenticity to this king’s group competition.

That was because the game itself had its own uncertainties.

What if old K really drew a blue or a golden sword qi, then he might be able to turn the tables against the wind?

Before the King’s group competition ended, Cool Breeze gave Lotus Sun a fierce look, the anger in his eyes seemed to be irreconcilable. “Humph! I only gave up because I was seriously injured and needed to go on stage for treatment. It wasn’t because I had a good impression of you, so I deliberately went easy on you!”

“So, do you still feel any pain?” Lotus Sun couldn’t help laughing. As early as in the match, Cool Breeze’s injuries had already been mostly healed by Ohai’s sword aura. In fact, they weren’t very serious.

“I’ll make you a widow!” With a red face, cool breeze rolled her eyes and left in a hurry.

She was ranked 16th on the sword rankings, and she also cared about her face!

Until this moment.

No one would have thought that a chaotic situation was about to begin..

Lotus Sun watched cool breeze leave through the passage.

This female sword spirit was unforgettable to her.

Although she said she didn't want it, her body was very honest.

This was Lotus Sun's evaluation of cool breeze.

Her extremely proud personality also made Lotus Sun feel very cute.

She watched cool breeze walk to the entrance of the passage, and watched cool breeze's figure gradually disappear into the passage. At this time, a shocking tremor suddenly came from the ground.

"This is... an earthquake?"

Lotus sun frowned.

She sensed that something was wrong.

It was an oppressive force coming from the sky!

Caught off guard, Lotus Sun looked up and suddenly felt as if there was an incomparably evil force seeping through the endless and deep universe.

This force was like a knife, mercilessly cutting through the sword storm of the Sword King Realm, and then falling from the sky in dense numbers!

Countless sword spirits were shocked by this sudden and overwhelming force.

Bang!

The defensive sword barrier formed by nine serenities and the others was shattered easily like glass under this overwhelming pressure!

“What... is going on...”the spirit guardian frowned deeply. This pressure was too shocking.

Even with her top three battle strength, it was still difficult for her to endure. She felt that something was strangling her throat, and even breathing became extremely difficult.

“What is it...”Mo Yu was shocked by this pressure. The jade crown on her head changed color along with her emotions, turning into a terrified purple color.

On the side, Jiu you and Little Qian’s expressions also changed abruptly.

This sudden and inexplicable power made them at a loss. The entire old sword city and the entire sword King Realm’s sword spirit began to Panic!

An invisible creature descended from the sky like rain. They could not tell what it was at all, but under the illumination of the light, their entire bodies turned into seven-colored colors.

Their original bodies were transparent, like glass. After they landed on the ground, they began to squirm rhythmically.

“What on Earth is that?”

“It looks like a kind of bug!”

“Where did the bugs come from...”

Nine remoteness and the others discussed.

Their first reaction when they had split out sword Qi was to kill these bugs!

But when their sword qi swept past these colorful bugs, they had actually absorbed all of it!

Then, they began to grow, from the size of a grain of rice to the size of a child.

In the inn, Wang Ling watched this scene.

His heart was as still as an ancient well.

The person from the infinite Milky Way had finally made his move..

“What on Earth is this?”Loopy toad felt uncomfortable all over as this aura was indescribably dangerous.

Its dog hair stood on end, and it quickly came to Wang Ling’s side from Lotus Sun’s room.

“It can’t be wrong. This is a strange creature born from the chaos, and it came from the infinite Milky Way,”Wang Ying said.

Such a creature from the chaos had never been seen in the galaxy beyond the universe.

It was a seven-colored bug. When it was young, it was only the size of a grain of rice, but when it grew up, it was the size of a child in the first stage.

At the beginning of the first stage, it had the ability to ‘hug’the face, and it would exhaust the spiritual energy in the body of the face-hugging target until it was completely exhausted.

They used energy as their foster system and could swallow spiritual energy. As long as they contained spiritual energy, they would be devoured in an instant, just like the mermaids in the tropical rivers who would swarm at meat.

“It looks like the other party’s goal isn’t just to target Leng Ming and Miss Sun, but to destroy the sword King World.”Wang Ying frowned slightly.

Lotus Sun was no longer an enemy she could deal with.

They had to “Switch hands” now.

Fortunately, Wang Ling had already made arrangements.

In the sword battle arena, when these chaotic face-hugging bugs transformed from the size of a grain of rice into adult bugs after absorbing sword qi.

A snow-colored figure also arrived immediately.

“Go Back!”

A youth wearing a snow-white fur coat arrived here and withstood all the pressure on his own.

The brown sword aura swept across the place. Although the face-hugging bugs absorbed spiritual energy, their stomachs were limited when they were not fully developed. One after another, they exploded on the ground.

The seven-colored liquid flowed all over the ground like eyeballs that had been stomped on.

“It’s Lord Jingbai! Lord Jingke and Lord Bai Qiao have merged!”

Some of the sword spirits exclaimed in excitement.

They rarely even saw Jingke.

Seeing Jingbai at this moment...

It felt like a dream!

“My Lord!”

The pressure dissipated, and nine remoteness and the others stepped forward and bowed.

“On my command, all the sword spirits in the top ten thousand of the Sword Roll, move out! Eliminate the enemies! There was no need to hold back, and they were going all out! When they reached the first stage of growth, they still could not swallow so much energy! The rest of the sword spirits retracted their sword qi, and don’t let them become nutrients for these face-hugging bugs!”Jing Bai ordered.

“Yes! My Lord!”Jiu you agreed.

This matter had to call on the sword King Realm to unite, and the crux of the battle was that they absolutely could not let these bugs develop into adult bugs..

The first and second stages of the larval stage could be dealt with, but if they developed into the third stage, it would be very difficult.

..

When Lotus Sun opened her eyes again, she found herself in a brand new place.

“A school under the night sky?”

The girl looked at the scene in front of her in surprise, and was surprised to find that this seemed to be the No. 60 high school she was familiar with.

She released ao Hai’s sword qi, only to discover that the world she was in was vast and boundless, with no end in sight.

This was a world shrouded in darkness..

At this moment, Wang Ying’s figure appeared here. “The defensive seed I planted on ying-er’s body worked. Once there’s danger, all of you will be sent here together.”

“So this is...”

“You still don’t know where you are?”Wang Ying said with a smile.

What a silly girl.

“It looks like a place similar to the core world...”Lotus Sun said.

“It’s not similar. This is the core world.”

Wang Ying nodded and looked at Lotus Sun. “Right now, you’re in Lord Ling’s own core world...”

Lotus sun: “This Is... Student Wang Ling’s core world! ?”

At this moment, he looked at the young girl’s astonished little face.

Wang Ying suddenly felt a little rueful.

Before he knew it, he had already become his world.

And now, all he had to do was wait for this sealed twilight to be broken by the light..
