Chapter 1481 Jiang Yingying! Danger!

The Tattooed Man's situation was even more tragic than everyone had imagined. The Dragon Horn was a little too long, causing the tattooed man's butt to be directly pierced through.

Furthermore, the angle of the dragon horn was too tricky.

Everyone couldn't help but sigh in their hearts. This was probably the legendary "Egg ball round break"..

The Dragon's head, which had already been rubbed bald, suddenly grew two pairs of horns and reprimanded this scumbag in front of everyone.

This kind of scene couldn't be said to be unsatisfying to the people.

And such a magical phenomenon also alarmed many people present.

Many materialists didn't believe in making a wish at first, but now that they saw this scene with their own eyes, they also threw their coins at long quan one after another and sincerely made a wish.

Thus, the second wish-making ceremony began.

There was complete silence as everyone put their hands together, faced long quan, and closed their eyes in prayer.

But no one called an ambulance..

The tattooed man lay on the ground with his butt sticking out. His face was pale from the pain, but he didn't have any strength left to speak.

As for the girl he had forced to become his girlfriend, she had already left the scene.

The tattooed man's buttocks had been pierced by a dragon horn.

Although Wang Ling had cast this spell for a reason, it was indeed not something he had planned ahead of time; it had been a pure accident.

The wicked will be tortured by the wicked, and sooner or later, Karma would come..

So sometimes, one couldn't be too reckless.

..

On the other side, the resentment of Liangzi Jiugong had already begun to spread..

As it turned out, a woman's sixth sense was really terrifying

Moreover, Liangzi Jiugong's sixth sense was naturally extremely accurate.

At the same time, this was the label that Odd Zhuo had been ignoring all along..

An inexplicable anger welled up in Liangzi Jiugong's heart.

As expected, a leopard can't change its spots.

Old Liar or old liar..

What happened to going to the toilet? !

Why did they come to this place?

And they were even holding the hand of lotus sun, whom she had always regarded as an opponent!

Liangzi nine temples tried hard to calm down, because if she appeared angry now, it meant that she actually cared.

She didn't want to show an expression of menstrual disorder in front of this old liar.

So, the young girl's gaze focused slightly. She used the fan in her hand as cover while secretly following behind.

As the saying goes, when you catch someone dirty, you catch an adulterer..

No, strictly speaking, this didn't seem like catching an adulterer.

Mm..

This time, it was just to find evidence that Odd Zhuo had left his post without permission.

As a bodyguard, he had actually used the excuse of going to the toilet to cheat on her... this was really too much!

Odd Zhuo held Lotus Sun's hand the whole way, and it wasn't until she had left the crowd that Odd Zhuo let go of her.

There were too many people, and it was actually a gentlemanly act to bring a girl forward.

The main thing was that Lotus Sun and Odd Zhuo were already very familiar with each other, so they didn't have any strange thoughts or thoughts.

Of course, if it was Wang Ling who was holding Lotus Sun's hand at this time...

It would be different..

Just a dozen meters away from the crowd was enough for Lotus Sun to come up with a hundred thousand words romance novel.

"Senior Odd Zhuo, don't you think it's a little cold?" As they walked, Lotus Sun suddenly felt that something wasn't right.

“I really didn’t expect there to be so many people today. It should be because we left the crowd...”Odd Zhuo said.

It was indeed a little stuffy to be huddled together, mainly because they had been watching the fountain show earlier.

“Come with me; Shifu is still there,”Odd Zhuo said.

He wasn’t distracted at the moment; he just wanted to bring his “Shifu”over as soon as possible and then quickly return to Liangzi nine temples.

The direction they were heading to now was actually in the direction of the toilet.

Odd Zhuo had calculated the time to go back and forth.

It was a pity that the small incident with the tattooed man had delayed them for a while.

Otherwise, he would have brought the young girl here long ago.

The two of them walked forward while Liangzi nine temples stealthily followed behind them.

She knew that Odd Zhuo could sense her aura, so she didn’t dare get too close and only observed the movements ahead from a distance.

Halfway through, Lotus Sun suddenly stopped in her tracks. “Senior Odd Zhuo, did you hear anything? I think I heard someone talking about me...”

“No Way.”

Odd Zhuo’s footsteps immediately stopped as well.

“It’s a sound coming from the southeast.”Lotus sun frowned slightly.

He carefully identified the sound and finally confirmed the direction of the sound -- it came from Cultivation Culture Street's Second Street.

And it was very obvious that the sound was coming from a phone.

It was a person communicating with the person on the phone.

"When can we send a ransom letter?"

"There's no rush. Miss Sun is a valuable meat ticket. Keep an eye on her. We'll be there soon. I wonder how much Huaguo Water Curtain Group is willing to pay to ransom her. Hehe."

"What about the kid who was caught together?"

"Do you see your faces?"

"Yes."

At that moment, the voice of the person on the other end of the phone suddenly turned gloomy.
"There's nothing we can do. Find someone to take him to a place where there's no one and kill him. Make sure he's dealt with cleanly."

"Understood..."

At this point, the call ended.

..

"I... I was caught?"

Lotus sun and Odd Zhuo were completely confused.

Those kidnappers of unknown origin hadn't expected that Lotus Sun, who was standing a few hundred meters away from them, would be able to hear their call clearly.

It was actually a very uncomfortable thing to magnify and listen to, because all kinds of voices would enter her ears.

In fact, it was a kind of instinctive reflex.

The young girl had heard the title "Miss Sun" many times, so she naturally had a reaction.

At first, she thought that someone was talking about her, so she magnified her hearing out of curiosity.

In the end, after this probing, Lotus Sun realized that she seemed to have learned something extraordinary.

Odd Zhuo frowned and suddenly thought of something. "I think they might have caught the wrong person..."

"That's right! It's student Jiang!"

Lotus Sun quickly understood. "Student Jiang is indeed somewhat similar to me..."

"Then there can't be a mistake."

At that moment, Odd Zhuo opened his eyes. "I know that student Jiang brought brother Wei Zhi here today, but their auras have already disappeared. They should be locked up somewhere by these kidnappers."

"Then what do we do now..." Lotus Sun was a little anxious.

"There's no other way. Junior Sister Lotus Sun, hurry up and meet up with Shifu. Leave this matter to me," Odd Zhuo said at that moment.

The situation was critical, and just as he was about to leave, the girl pulled him back. “Senior, Wait!”

“You have something to tell me?”

“I think I should take care of this matter,” Lotus Sun said.

Although she didn’t really like this girl because Jiang Yingying kept getting closer to Wang Ling.

But if her relationship with Wang Ling put her in danger...

Lotus Sun didn’t want to see that happen either.

Since these kidnappers had come for her from the start, they might give up on hurting Jiang Yingying and Wei Zhi as long as she went over.

In any case, these kidnappers probably wouldn’t be able to hurt her..

Odd Zhuo was silent for a few seconds, but in the end, he still respected the girl’s opinion. “Alright, then junior sister, be careful. I’ll leave the matter of classmate Jiang Yingying to you! I’ll explain the situation to Shifu.”

“I’ll be back soon!” Lotus sun nodded, and then quickly ran in the direction she had heard earlier.

Her Han clothing, which was as bright as the Moon, fluttered gently. When Odd Zhuo came back to his senses, only the beautiful figure of a young girl was left in front of him..

But at that moment, Odd Zhuo noticed that the air around him seemed to have become colder.

Behind him, Liangzi nine temples was secretly squinting at him from a distance.

The hidden bitterness emanating from him was so cold that no one dared to approach him.

Yoshiko Kyushu didn't know if there were a lot of question marks on this child.

But right now...

There were indeed a lot of question marks.

She wanted to know who exactly Jiang Yingying was..

From Odd Zhuo's tone, he kept saying that she was a classmate, so she should be a girl studying at No. 60 High School as well?

Heh, a liar or a liar after all..

In the time it took to watch the fountain show, he had actually hooked up with three juniors in a row... Shameless!

"Big Liar!" At this moment, Liangzi nine temples finally couldn't take it anymore and shouted angrily at Odd Zhuo's back in the distance.

Chapter 1482 Odd Zhuo's Worst Decision In His Life

This roar shocked countless gazes on the ancient street to look at Liangzi Jiugong.

The young girl was so angry that she was being bullied, even though she didn't have heaving breasts..

Odd Zhuo had never seen Liangzi Jiugong so angry before; he must have used all his strength to roar, perhaps Liangzi nine temples thought that the lethality of this roar was as shocking as a "Battlefield roar".

But Odd Zhuo wasn't afraid at all. Liangzi was too cute, and he even liked the way he roared.

But Odd Zhuo had miscalculated when Liangzi nine temples had caught up.

He had been too focused on helping his master out of trouble and guiding his mistress to meet up with his master, and had been so careless that he hadn't even been noticed.

Although he wasn't afraid of the girl's roar, when Odd Zhuo saw the tears in the corner of Liangzi's eyes from afar, his expression instantly turned serious.

It looked like the problem was a little serious.

This little girl was really angry..

Sighing silently in his heart, Liangzi nine temples turned around and ran in the opposite direction.

Seeing this, Odd Zhuo shot forward and chased after him.

"Classmate nine temples!" He shouted as he ran, not because he was afraid of anything else, but because he was worried that the girl would hurt him if she ran in a hurry in the crowd.

While chasing after the girl, Odd Zhuo didn't know why, but he suddenly had a sense of familiarity with the routines of movies and television dramas..

It seemed that many youth movies had this kind of chase scene.

It was just that Odd Zhuo hadn't expected that his youth had already expired, and now he had to chase a girl in front of so many people.

Thus, in the next 20 minutes..

As Odd Zhuo chased, Liangzi Jiugong ran. He could catch up to Liangzi Jiugong, but he was afraid that if he chased too hard, the girl would get hurt.

After chasing for eight whole streets, the girl in front only stopped when they reached the Tenth Street area from the Second Street.

This was because Liangzi Jiugong suddenly realized a problem.

Odd Zhuo's realm was higher than his, so there was still a big gap between their physical abilities.

In other words, if she continued to run, she would be exhausted... and Odd Zhuo would catch up with her sooner or later.

Who knew if this old swindler would do something strange when his physical strength was damaged!

In fact, after running for so long, Liangzi nine temples had already calmed down quite a bit.

Because in essence, she and Odd Zhuo were just employees.

Even if this old swindler's private life was chaotic, what did it have to do with her..

As an employer, she could at most morally condemn this kind of behavior.

"Student nine temples, aren't you running anymore?" Odd Zhuo asked with a smile.

They chased them all the way to Tenth Street, and there were obviously fewer people around.

The closest witness was a fruit stall owner who was chewing on a watermelon.

To be honest, Odd Zhuo hadn't expected that a girl with such flat breasts could actually run so fast... from a fluid mechanics point of view, the streamline of a flat chest wasn't outstanding, so it should have increased the air resistance.

But after thinking about it, odd zhuo instantly understood.

It was probably because it was too flat that the weight had been reduced..

Under normal circumstances, Odd Zhuo would definitely use it as a joke to shake his wits, but now was clearly not the time.

The girl in front of him didn't seem so angry anymore, but Odd Zhuo still felt a "Hateful gaze" from Liangzi Jiugong, just like when the girl had come to the principal's office a few days ago to question him.

Liangzi nine temples crossed his arms, and his voice returned to that icy young lady's tone. "Junior Sister Sun, junior sister Jiang... how many other junior sisters do you have?"

When Odd Zhuo heard this, he actually wanted to laugh a little.

It was because the jealousy was too strong.

But the girl in front of him didn't seem to be aware of it.

Sigh, why did this girl make him like her so much..

"I think student nine temples must have misunderstood something," Odd Zhuo said. "I used the excuse of going to the toilet to look for junior sister Lotus Sun. That's right. But at the time, junior sister Lotus Sun was squeezed between a couple, and she seemed very troubled. That was why she had asked me to do her a small favor and bring her out. Everyone around them was kissing, and the girl was shy, so she didn't want to disturb them."

"Is this also to return a favor? For the election?" Liangzi nine temples snorted.

"Yes, it's true that I'm returning a favor, but I'm actually returning a favor from classmate nine temples," Odd Zhuo said.

As an excellent planner, after learning that his master's wife and Liangzi nine temples didn't have a good relationship, he was naturally looking for ways to get along with them.

In fact, while he had been running, Odd Zhuo had indeed thought of a brilliant plan.

"I owe her a favor? Are you kidding me..." Liangzi Jiu had a look of disbelief on his face.

"Ah Wei and the other two's rooms, including the Witness Protection Plan, were actually all things I asked Junior Sister Lotus Sun to use her family's power to do," Odd Zhuo said.

Of course, this explanation was different from the actual situation, but there was nothing wrong with it after careful consideration.

This hotel was originally a property of Huaguo water curtain group, so the implementation of the Witness Protection Plan was inextricably linked to Huaguo Water Curtain Group.

This was an unassailable reason, and even if Liangzi Jiugong went to investigate later, the conclusion would still be the same.

While chasing the girl, Odd Zhuo had already edited a text message for Lotus Sun, and was prepared in advance to make a confession in case she was exposed..

Although she was skeptical of this answer, Liangzi Jiugong felt much better. “HMPH! Did I say I wanted her help?”

Odd Zhuo looked at her firmly and said, “So I’ll do it for you. I’ve been begging her for a long time... For You.”

Liangzi Jiugong’s face turned red. “HMPH! Spineless!”

“You can investigate what I’ve said afterwards. Are you satisfied now? It’s getting late, go back and rest early,” Odd Zhuo said.

“Wait! There’s something you haven’t told me about another junior sister! Who On Earth is that Jiang Yingying...”

“So there’s something that classmate Jiugong doesn’t know?”

Odd Zhuo said, “According to the clues I just got, classmate Jiang Yingying has been kidnapped. But in fact, this group of people is here for junior sister Lotus Sun...”

“How can this be a mistake?”

“At first glance, classmate Jiang Yingying and junior sister Lotus Sun do look a little alike. Right now, junior sister Lotus Sun is using her family’s power to negotiate with the kidnappers,” Odd Zhuo said.

He found that the word “Family’s power” was really useful and could perfectly explain many things.

“So that’s how it is...”

Liangzi nine temples frowned and looked very concerned. “Then how is Lotus Sun?”

“You... are worried?”

“Who needs to worry about her! I just... want to return the favor!”

With the matter already out in the open, Liangzi nine temples’ emotions had already returned to normal.

She snorted like an arrogant black swan and strolled in the direction of the hotel. “Then go back. As your employer, I’ll give you special permission tonight to pay more attention to the kidnappers.”

“Yes.” Odd Zhuo held back his laughter.

Before he left, he glanced at the fruit stand by the roadside. “Do you want to buy some fruit?”

Liangzi Jiugong glanced at the fruits on the stand and said disinterestedly, “You’ve decided.”

She actually had an idea in her heart.

She mainly wanted to see if the fruits Odd Zhuo liked were the same as hers.

“Then durian it is.”

Odd Zhuo cupped his chin and thought seriously for a moment before saying.

He didn't know that this might be the worst decision he had ever made in his life..

Chapter 1483 Kidnappers! Danger!

When he heard the word "Durian,"Liangzi nine temples' expression clearly lit up.

"Ah! You... also like to eat durians?"

To be honest, the girl was a little touched in her heart. After all, many people around her felt that durians were very smelly, and when she usually ate them, even the servants would stay far away.

She hadn't expected odd zhuo to actually think the same as her -- he also liked to eat durians.

"Isn't durian the most fragrant fruit in the world?"

At this moment, he looked at the girl with a smile and said.

Liangzi Jiugong's eyes instantly lit up.

Although it had only been for a moment.

It was already rare to see such a rare expression on Liangzi Jiugong's face.

"How much is this durian?"Odd Zhuo asked the melon-eating stall owner while half-squatting.

At the same time, he looked around and carefully selected.

He found that not only was this fruit stall very down-to-earth, but there were also a lot of varieties, and even durian had several different varieties.

"Strange, can you set up a stall in your country?"The young girl asked curiously.

The stall owner put his hands on his waist and wiped the watermelon juice on his mouth with a towel, he smiled honestly. "Little girl, you don't understand. This is called a stall economy.

“They’re all supporting it now. It’s very helpful to the development of people’s livelihood. “But you also have to pay attention to the cleanliness of the stall. You must take away the garbage when you leave.”

“I see.”Liangzi nine temples nodded.

The differences between cultures weren’t actually scary; what was more important was respect and understanding.

Liangzi nine temples had yearned for Huaxiu nation, which had a long history and culture.

Comparing a person’s life to a nation’s long history was just a drop in the ocean.

Huaxiu nation’s rich cultivation culture had always been one of the reasons why cultivators from all over the world had come to visit and study.

“I know this is an ordinary durian. What’s that Red Durian?”Odd Zhuo suddenly asked at this moment.

“It’s a new product. Its full name is flame durian, and it tastes a little sweet and spicy when you eat it.”

“Sweet and spicy... can it taste good...”

“I don’t know if it’s good or not, but it does sell very well.”

The melon-eating stall owner looked at Odd Zhuo and took the initiative to tell him the truth.

“Actually, a lot of people buy this flame durian to kneel down for the men at home. If they break the skin of their knees while kneeling, the heat of the fiery durian will directly seep into their skin...”

“I see.”

Odd Zhuo smiled. “Then it’s fine. I haven’t eaten this new product either, so I’ll have a normal one and this new one. Boss, just pick the biggest and freshest one for me.”

“Okay.”

With a shout, the stall owner skillfully packed the items and brought them back to Odd Zhuo.

On the way back, Liangzi nine temples suddenly thought of something. She looked at odd zhuo and asked, “This... you should be able to split a durian with your bare hands, right?”

“Of course.”

Odd Zhuo smiled. Furthermore, he was now doing it in front of Liangzi nine temples, which made him look a little light-headed. “With my current combat strength, I can do more than just split it with my bare hands. When I go back, I’ll kneel down for you.”

“You can even smash a durian to pieces?” Liangzi nine temples raised his eyebrows slightly.

“Of course.” Odd Zhuo was very proud.

He didn’t know that this might be the second wrong decision he had made in his life..

..

On the other side, Lotus Sun, dressed in a blue and white Han costume, quickly approached their destination. The Bright Moon made the girl look even more brilliant under the faint moonlight.

She was like Liu Li under the night sky, her whole body exuding a kind of moving spirituality. Anyone who saw her couldn’t help looking at her twice.

It was a pity that Wang Ling wasn’t by her side now.

The girl could only be beautiful by herself.

She was a little anxious in her heart. If she couldn't solve Jiang Yingying's matter for a moment, she couldn't meet Wang Ling for a moment.

It had clearly taken her a lot of effort to find a chance to be alone..

At that moment, the difficulties and bitterness in her heart had converged into one.

It was too difficult for her..

But she was the one who had caused this, so Lotus Sun felt that she had to show a sense of responsibility.

This was a responsibility that every teenager should have.

"This is it..."

This was a dark alley on Second Street. It was very narrow, with only a ten-centimeter-wide gap.

It was impossible to get out of here using normal methods, but the location of the sound just now was indeed from here.

The Girl released sword energy and used the magnified view to probe.

Sure enough, traces of magic were found on the left and right walls of the crack.

"The art of Paper Man..."

Lotus Sun frowned slightly.

This was actually a type of "Bone shrinking technique," but it was more difficult to actually use than "Bone shrinking technique."

The creative inspiration for the spell came from the two-dimensional paper man's husband, wife, and so on, which were now widely loved by many otaku men and otaku women on the market..

And so, the "Paper man spell" was born.

Although Lotus Sun's combat strength was strong, she was still lacking in the practical application of many spells.

She didn't know how to use the "Paper man spell," she just had some understanding of it.

"Ying 'er, I'll leave it to you," the girl said at this moment.

She needed to directly pass through the gap to take a look.

There was a flight ban in the sky above the ancient street. It was not allowed to directly jump over with a sword. Not only would she be fined, it would also be easy for the bandits to notice her.

Sun Ying 'ER's reaction was quick. Her shadow could easily pass through the gap.

After she jumped over, she quickly switched positions with her main body and completed a magnificent 'Great Cosmic Shift'.

"It looks like I'll have to study hard in the future."

The transformation was completed successfully, but the girl's heart was much heavier now.

Although her combat strength was indeed very strong now, most of it had originated from Ohai.

There were still areas where she should be lacking, and she couldn't be so arrogant and complacent.

There was no end to learning, and she was indeed far from it.

After successfully passing through the narrow gap, Lotus Sun discovered that the world outside the gap was actually an empty, abandoned factory.

The air was filled with a mottled smell of rust and the unpleasant smell of chemical reagents. These smells intertwined together and stimulated her throat and nose.

Lotus Sun quickly reacted.

She had been tricked..

From the very beginning, this seemed to be a trap.

The other party had set it up meticulously, deliberately letting her hear the news of Jiang Yingying's kidnapping, and then knowing that she would definitely find her way over.

They had set up a teleportation channel behind the narrow gap that could quickly replace space, allowing Lotus Sun to instantly arrive at another place.

Such a method wasn't something an ordinary kidnapper could do.

At this moment, Lotus Sun's brows were tightly knitted, and she couldn't help but raise her guard.

It seemed that these kidnappers were stronger than she had imagined..

At that moment, a slightly hollow voice sounded. "As expected, everything is as that senior predicted. You will definitely fall into the trap and come here, Miss Sun..."

In the darkness, a muscular man about three meters tall, wearing a black windbreaker, slowly walked out.

He held a large knife in his hand, and the unconscious Jiang Yingying in his other hand was held in his hand like a chicken.

Lotus sun sensed the strong kidnapper's aura and felt that the kidnapper's scent was a little strange. "You don't seem to be human..."

The strong man laughed. "I underestimated you, Miss Sun. I didn't expect you to know this."

At this moment, Lotus Sun let out a slight sigh of relief.

If he wasn't human, she was indeed relieved.

Because killing aliens wasn't illegal..

Chapter 1484 The Magical Uses Of The Big White Rabbit Milk Candy

After realizing that his identity had been exposed, the three-meter-tall burly man finally took off his human skin coat.

It was a specially made painted skin, which allowed its true body to be hidden inside without being discovered.

The six heavenly axioms in the Heavenly Court had the same thing. The "Human skin coat" worn by the heavenly axiom of death as No. 60 high school's Guard in the lower realm was probably the same model as the one worn by the alien.

It was a very powerful camouflage technique that ordinary cultivators would find difficult to distinguish. If it weren't for the connection with Ao Hai, Lotus Sun might not have noticed the abnormality.

The moment the human skin coat was torn off, two huge silver horns shot out from the scalp of the three-meter-tall monster. The silver horns were densely covered with spiral patterns and emitted a strange luster, curling backward.

It was a humanoid alien creature with a single silver horn and a sharp chin. Its pupils were a strange dark yellow color.

Its entire body was covered in scales that had a metallic luster.

Its two-meter-long tail was covered with sharp hooks.

The girl looked at the humanoid creature that revealed its true form and could not help but be stunned.

That was because the part of the creature's chest was actually transparent, and there was something shining like a crystal inside.

“What exactly is this...”even Sun Ying ‘er had never seen such a creature before.

It must be known that her mind had recorded all the information about the entire void!

The history of the Void was incomparably long. Logically speaking, Sun Ying ‘er herself knew most of the alien creatures, but she had never seen such... Alien Iron Man.

That's right. The more she looked at it, the more she felt that the transparent chest area of the alien creature and the ball of light inside it were glowing.

It was just like Iron Man's energy reactor..

“Doesn't this body look very powerful and domineering?”

The silver-horned man spoke. In fact, he didn't care too much about Lotus Sun's opinion. “This is earth. The Earth's aesthetic standards are basically at the average level of the universe.”

Lotus Sun:”...”

This was the girl's first time fighting an alien.

Since she didn't know what exactly the other party was up to, the expression on the girl's face was especially cautious.

But from the other party's understanding of her, lotus sun could roughly guess that the “Senior”this alien was talking about might be Peng Xiren from a while ago..

Lotus Sun remembered that she had already witnessed everything the last time she had hidden in Wang Ling's core world.

And it was still vivid in her mind.

That young man who had suddenly jumped out to cause trouble had been almost beaten to death by Wang Ling.

Later, he had thought that he had successfully taken the old Rubik's Cube from Earth and returned to the infinite galaxy.

Then, she had heard that there seemed to have been a big explosion in the depths of the infinite galaxy.

Perhaps Peng Xiren and that sealed creature had both died.

But judging from the current situation, not only was the other party safe and sound.

They had even sent narcissistic aliens from the infinite Milky Way..

"Let's just get rid of them." At this time, Lotus Sun closed her eyes slightly, already prepared to summon ao hai.

Although she really wanted to know what the connection was between the silver-horned alien in front of her and Peng Xiren... but in the current situation, human lives were still at stake, so it wasn't realistic to consider capturing them alive.

That was because she didn't understand the silver-horned alien at all.

The safety of Jiang Yingying and Wei Zhi was the first priority.

And the simplest and most brutal way to rescue the two was to completely kill the alien.

“Miss Sun, I like your eyes and your courage... You’re only at the foundation establishment stage, but in my hometown, your realm isn’t even as high as a speck of dust,” said the silver-horned creature.

“Cut the crap.” Lotus sun frowned.

“Then, you don’t even care about your friend’s life?”

The silver-horned creature laughed coldly. He didn’t care about the girl in front of him at all. “I promise you, if you make a move, you’ll definitely regret your foolish actions later...”

The silver-horned creature was very confident, because he knew very well who the person standing behind him was.

She was Daofather Wang’s only true disciple.

And it was precisely because of Peng Xiren that this alien race, which had been declining, had collectively completed its evolution and become a higher-level life form.

Peng Xiren’s request to him was that it would be best if he could capture Lotus Sun alive.

But because the difference in power was too obvious, the silver-horned creature was worried that if he made a move, this earth girl, who was only at the foundation establishment stage, might directly turn into ashes and die.

In that case, using her good friends to threaten her might be the safest and most reliable method to capture her alive.

“Follow me out of here, I guarantee that I won’t hurt you. Moreover, you can also save the lives of your two friends.”

The silver-horned man smiled. “But if you resist, you know the consequences... with your low realm, I will crush this little girl’s head the moment you make a move. You see if you are faster or I am faster.”

“Then, can I ask you another question?”

“Of course. If you have any other questions, just follow me and I’ll answer them,”the silver-horned man said politely.

“You probably have accomplices, right? are those accomplices also aliens?”Lotus Sun asked.

“That’s right.”

The silver-horned man said, “In fact, there are still many aliens who have come to Earth. They wear human skin coats and perfectly hide among humans to carry out their activities... for example, the Saiya people, the Chou Ke people, the square root nine-bodies people, and so on.”

”...”

“Our race has been dormant on Earth for a long time, but their forms are still in their old forms. I promised them that after this mission is completed, I will help them achieve evolution together...”

”...”hearing this, Lotus Sun Sighed silently in her heart.

She actually didn’t want to know so much, and she didn’t know if it was because she was overly confident in herself and was showing off.

Sometimes, those who thought they were strong liked to spout nonsense before a battle and blurt out some information for no reason.

Perhaps these people really felt that the opponent they were facing wasn’t a threat at all?

So it wouldn’t hurt to say more.

“Alright, thank you for your information. and welcome to Earth.”

At this moment, Lotus Sun gazed at the silver-horned man in front of her and smiled.

Human lives were at stake, and there was no time to delay.

The silver-horned man had thought that the girl in front of him had completely given up resisting. He was relieved to see that the girl had suddenly summoned an azure-colored spirit sword.

“Ten percent city-toppling sword and...”

She didn’t pull out the sword directly. Instead, she flicked the sheath with her thumb, revealing a crack.

Buzz!

In an instant, a trace of Ao Hai’s sword qi seeped out from the crack!

The power of city-toppling beauty’s sword was too great. This was the sword Qi the girl had used in combination with the actual situation. It should be enough to deal with the silver-horned man in front of her.

“You’re courting death!”

The silver-horned man didn’t expect the little girl in front of him to be so stubborn.

He flew into a rage out of humiliation, his yellow one-eye emitting murderous intent.

At the same time, he was also channeling his power.

As long as Lotus Sun dared to make a move, he would immediately crush Miss Jiang’s head in his hands!

The silver-horned man meant what he said!

But at that moment, a thin, gossamer-like blue sword qi pierced through his chest.

The silver-horned man looked at this scene in disbelief.

His chest had been pierced through by Ao Hai's Blue Sword Qi, and along his chest, his entire body was rapidly freezing.

"10% city-toppling strike" and "Absolute zero."

This was something Ohai had recently learned, a powerful control-type ability. It was to ensure that even if the condensed version of the Sword Qi failed to deliver a fatal blow, it could also be used as a second layer of insurance.

If he was hit by Ohai's "Absolute zero" sword qi, he would be instantly frozen like this.

"Cut!"

A boundless aura of the sea emanated from Lotus Sun's body.

She still didn't unsheathe herself. She quickly stepped forward and easily cut off the silver-horned man's right arm that was holding Jiang Yingying with only the sheath.

Then she cut off the silver-horned man's head.

She didn't make any unnecessary movements, but the girl who stepped forward in Han Chinese clothing was still the most brilliant piece of glass fireworks that night..

..

It was finally over.

Afterwards, Lotus Sun released Jiang Yingying from the silver-horned man's broken right hand and checked her vital signs.

Her heartbeat was stable, and her pulse was normal, except that there was some knockout drug in her blood.

And judging from the setting that Jiang Yingying had been caught here wearing only a nightgown... she must have been drugged and brought here by those aliens when she was preparing for an essential oil massage at the hotel.

“But I’m fine.” Lotus sun secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

Then she went to look for Wei Zhi.

Unfortunately, Wei Zhi’s condition wasn’t good.

The girl had found Wei Zhi in a corner of this abandoned factory.

His face was pale and his entire body was stiff. He had been dead for at least two hours..

Lotus Sun hadn’t expected that Wei Zhi had already been killed.

“How could this be...”she immediately split out ao Hai’s healing sword Qi to heal him.

But unfortunately, all of this was useless.

“Sigh, there’s nothing we can do if he’s dead. No matter how strong Ao Hai’s healing sword qi is, it can’t save a person who’s been dead for two hours.”

Sun Ying ‘er consoled him from the side. “Unless there’s a more powerful method than Ao Hai’s healing sword Qi, probably only Ling Zhenren can do it.”

“Student Wang Ling...”

At that moment, Lotus Sun suddenly thought of something. “That’s right! I still have this! If I only have this! I can definitely...”

Sun Ying ‘er saw Lotus Sun fumble around in Ao Hai’s sword spirit space with her eyes closed.

When she finally opened her hand, a big white rabbit milk candy appeared in the girl's hand.

“Aren't you insured?” Sun Ying 'er was stunned.

“When you were taken away by director Ying to be trained and not by my side, classmate Wang Ling gave me another one...” Lotus Sun said.

Without the slightest hesitation, she directly peeled off the candy wrapper and stuffed it into Wei Zhi's mouth.

Buzz..

A warm golden light surged up from Wei Zhi's body.

In less than five seconds, Lotus Sun felt that Wei Zhi's aura had already returned.

“It's effective!” At this point, Lotus Sun felt the weight in her heart instantly lift.

If Wei Zhi died because of her, she would definitely feel guilty for the rest of her life..

Classmate Wang Ling, I owe you one more favor!

The girl smiled.

At this moment, Wei Zhi also opened his eyes smoothly. “UH...”

He felt as if he had had a nightmare. A group of aliens had kidnapped him and then tortured him continuously..

And now, he was finally awake.

Wei Zhi sat up straight and immediately saw Lotus Sun. “Miss Lotus Sun, why are you here...”

“Don’t say anything, brother Wei Zhi. How Do You Feel Now? Do you feel uncomfortable anywhere?” Lotus Sun asked with concern.

“Uncomfortable...” Wei Zhi frowned. “I don’t feel particularly uncomfortable anywhere. I just feel that my chest is a little heavy.”

“Chest... heavy?” Lotus Sun was stunned.

Then she saw Wei Zhi furrow his brows as he touched his chest. The expression on his face was completely shocked. “What... What is this! Why do I have two airbags!”

Lotus sun: “Brother Wei Zhi, calm down...”

“No! It must be because I haven’t woken up from my nightmare yet.”

” ...”

“Miss Lotus Sun, please don’t Wake me up again! I need to... sleep for a while more...”

With that, Wei Zhi’s eyes darkened and he fainted again.

“Ying-er, what should we do...” Lotus Sun didn’t know what to do.

“It’s really big.” Sun ying-er sighed. “Let’s bring it back first. After all, it’s really hard to accept the idea of waking up as a transvestite.”

Chapter 1485 Odd Zhuo’s Judgment

If news of the martial saint’s granddaughter being kidnapped got out, it would probably shake the whole country.

Fortunately, Lotus Sun handled the situation very well and didn’t escalate the situation any further. Not only did she destroy that blind alien in time, she also obtained a lot of intelligence and saved Jiang Yingying and Wei Zhi’s lives.

But for now, she was still more worried about Wei Zhi's situation.

Although Wei Zhi had been saved, the situation was indeed a little unexpected.

The main thing was that those two things were really too big... Lotus Sun felt that it was even more exaggerated than the master of Shadow Stream who had been arrested back then.

But it wasn't realistic to send him to the hospital in this situation.

Afterwards, Lotus Sun settled Jiang Yingying in the hotel and transferred a female private doctor she trusted to take care of her.

She then brought Wei Zhi back to his room and immediately contacted Odd Zhuo to check on the situation.

When they met, Lotus Sun smelled the scent of durian on Odd Zhuo's body. "Senior Odd Zhuo, have you eaten durian?"

"Ah, I'm sorry, don't you like the smell? I came in too much of a hurry and didn't rinse my mouth."

"It's okay, I like durian very much too." Lotus Sun smiled, and Odd Zhuo felt that the girl's face was clearly tired.

Although the passive version of man and sword as one could indeed increase the girl's combat strength, if she continued to be tense, the exhaustion would increase.

In the end, it wasn't that she was physically weak, but rather that she would feel mentally tired, which didn't have any side effects... it was just very easy to get sleepy, and she would be fine once she woke up.

On the contrary, if she had been more relaxed throughout the battle, there wouldn't have been any problems.

Odd Zhuo had relied on the girl to call for help earlier, so he already had a rough understanding of the entire battle.

Wei Zhi had almost died..

This was probably one of the main reasons for his mental tension.

Mistress still lacked a bit of battle experience.

Odd Zhuo smiled wryly in his heart.

In fact, he had missed a very important point..

In fact, the main reason why the young girl was nervous was because during the battle, she had always wanted to reunite with Wang Ling as soon as possible.

After all, she had fought the old God back then.

Who was the old God?

Daofather Wang's first love, the leader of the creation world in the god world.

In that battle, the young girl had never shown any fear in the face of the old God.

What more when faced with an alien whose combat strength was far inferior to Old God's?

"It's better to resolve this matter as soon as possible..."odd zhuo muttered to himself.

He felt that the girl really needed to rest now, and that kind of tiredness could actually be seen from her expression.

It was probably her sense of responsibility that supported the girl and prevented her from falling down.

Walking over to Wei Zhi's large bed, odd zhuo rubbed his eyes, thinking that he had seen wrongly. "Why are there two basketballs on brother Wei Zhi's body?"

"I also want to know..."

Lotus Sun didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "That's why I asked senior to help take a look."

"This is what you meant when you said on the phone that something big had happened?"

Odd Zhuo couldn't help laughing. "After eating the big white rabbit milk candy that Shifu gave you, brother Wei Zhi was resurrected, and these two basketballs appeared, right?"

"Yes!" Lotus sun nodded.

Odd Zhuo stared at Wei Zhi, who was very "Bloated" on the bed. He hesitated for a moment, then gritted his teeth and touched him with a red face. "Brother Wei Zhi, I'm sorry..."

Lotus sun turned her face slightly and also felt her face burn.

She didn't know why, but she felt that Odd Zhuo looked very skilled..

"Junior Sister Lotus Sun, you think I'm very skilled, don't you?"

"..."

"When I was a grass-roots soldier in the army, I used to help the Army raise cows. That's how I trained."

"..."

After pinching for about ten seconds, Odd Zhuo finally let go and couldn't help smiling. "I roughly know what's going on."

“Senior Odd Zhuo knows how to solve this?”

“The milk candy given by Shifu has the effect of rapidly increasing spirit energy. From a biological point of view, the chest is made up of muscle fibers and fat. The reason for brother Wei Zhi’s swelling is another.”

Odd Zhuo cupped his chin and analyzed, “After brother Wei Zhi dies, a large number of cells in his body die, and at the same time, his blood loses its power due to cardiac arrest and can not flow. The proteins in his blood will decay and eventually evaporate with the evaporation of water...”

“At first, brother Wei Zhi really couldn’t do anything, but it was a good thing that junior sister Lotus Sun was able to save him in time. “The milk candy given by master also provides different types of spiritual energy. Apart from assisting in cultivation, it also has the function of restoring the body’s functions. “It can be divided into spiritual energy molecules for cultivation and spiritual energy molecules for restoration

“The spiritual energy molecules for cultivation are released slowly and continuously, so there won’t be any backlog. But the spiritual energy molecules for restoration are different. “But because brother Wei Zhi is already dead, all of the spirit energy molecules activated by this milk candy are those used for repair.”

Speaking up to this point, Lotus Sun felt that she had already somewhat understood.

Odd Zhuo: “When a large amount of spirit energy formed in brother Wei Zhi’s body, this spirit energy began to repair his cells and eventually brought brother Wei Zhi back to life.”

“So that’s how it is!” Lotus sun came to a sudden realization. “So Brother Wei Zhi is now...”

“That’s right. In fact, what brother Wei Zhi’s basketball now stores are these spirit energy molecules that are used for repair, and generally don’t need special treatment. After a period of time, the swelling will go down on its own.”

Odd Zhuo said, “When brother Wei Zhi wakes up later, you can directly tell him that it’s a temporary side effect caused by the body-healing pill and tell him not to worry too much.”

“In other words, this milk candy didn’t have the effect of breast enlargement in the first place?”

At that moment, Sun Ying 'er's voice suddenly rang out.

"Shifu is a decent person, so of course he doesn't have it..."

"Sigh." Sun Ying 'er sighed in disappointment. "It looks like Ling Zhenren still doesn't understand Lotus' feelings; she really lacks development!"

"You're the one who lacks development... it's clearly you who wants to..." Lotus Sun blushed. It was unclear whether she was shy or a little angry at Sun Ying 'ER's rambling words.

"Last question, why are these repaired spirit energy molecules stored in your chest?" Sun Ying 'er asked again at this moment.

"Because this was originally a special female-only model specially made by Shifu. It was designed in accordance with female ergonomics. I just didn't expect brother Wei Zhi to eat it."

"There's a male one?"

"There is."

Odd Zhuo nodded. "But for a male, the swelling is in another place, which is the bladder."

"..."

At this moment, Odd Zhuo looked at the time. "It's too late, and brother Wei Zhi is fine. He'll be fine in two or three days. Junior Sister Lotus Sun worked hard today, so I think she should rest early. You look very tired."

"No... I'm fine..."

After confirming that Wei Zhi was safe and sound, Lotus Sun indeed felt as if a huge stone had been removed from her body, and she felt much more relaxed.

“Student Wang Ling, you’re still... Waiting for me...”

She turned around, her mind still thinking about Wang Ling, but her eyelids couldn’t help fighting.

After taking a few steps toward the door, her vision went dark and she fell headfirst.

Odd Zhuo strode forward and helped the young girl steady herself.

Sure enough..

She couldn’t hold on any longer.

He knew this would happen..

He could only settle mistress in the hotel first.

At that moment, Odd Zhuo thought to himself.

He asked Sun Ying ‘er to help Lotus Sun stay in Wei Zhi’s room for a while while he ran to the front desk to get a presidential suite.

But just as he was checking in, the front desk manager said, “Mr. Zhuo, a young man came here just now. He said that he had already booked a room for Miss Sun.”

“Is it a dead fish’s eye with delicate features?”

“Yes.”

Then the front desk manager took out a room card. “This is the annual card of the Presidential Suite left by that young man, as well as some sweets.”

“Where is he?”

“He should have gone home...”

” ...”

Although he wasn't surprised by this result, Odd Zhuo still sighed in his heart.

If it hadn't been for this little episode with the alien, perhaps Shifu and Shifu would have been together tonight..

“Where are the candy?”Odd Zhuo asked after taking the room card from the front desk manager.

The front desk manager smiled slightly, then quickly took out a lump of stuff from under the table and put it on the table. “This sack is full.”

Odd Zhuo:”...”

Chapter 1486 Wang Ming's Data Analysis

A whole sack of big white rabbit milk candies; this was already Wang Ling's last remaining stock.

But these candies were nothing more than lip service to Wang Ling at times, and perhaps Lotus Sun could be of more use now.

He had previously acted in that Big Show with the Golden Lamp, deliberately making Peng Xiren think that he had successfully retrieved dao ancestor Wang's Heavenly Dao Rubik's Cube.

Later, there had been a huge explosion in the sealed land in the infinite Milky Way, and the entire sealed land had been destroyed.

The terrifying creatures and Peng Xiren sealed inside had completely disappeared without a trace.

Wang Ling had thought that they wouldn't die so easily and had been waiting for Peng Xiren's next move, but he hadn't expected it to be as he had expected.

As for why they could avoid his visit...

Wang Ling felt that it was very likely related to that mysterious black ancient stone.

The ancient Stone's radiation was very strong, and even in the universe, which Peng Xiren considered his home ground, he still found it difficult to persevere under the healing light of the stars.

But even so, as long as he could properly use the ancient stone's ability, it wouldn't be a problem for Peng Xiren to use it as a signal jammer with his intelligence.

But Wang Ling felt that this was probably a self-defeating act.

This Peng Xiren might have indeed used the power of the black ancient stone to create a "Shielding space" and magically disappeared from the universe.

But the problem was that as long as peng xiren stayed in this "Shielding space" for one more day, all of his abilities would be directly blocked by the black ancient stone

Of course, this was just Wang Ling's guess.

But it shouldn't be too far off..

Before returning to the Wang family's small villa, Wang Ling went to Wang Ming's research institute on the way.

He needed Wang Ming's help, so Wang Ming took the opportunity to collect the latest data on Wang Ling.

Still wearing his white coat, Wang Ming took out a syringe and handed it to Wang Ling, just as he was preparing to take a blood sample, he said, "This syringe is specially made, but it's still the same as before. You do it yourself. My skin is rough and my flesh is thick, i definitely won't be able to pierce it."

"..."Wang Ling obediently took the syringe.

Recently, Wang Ming had been working on developing and improving the “Wang Ling No. 3 intelligent humanoid integrated mecha.”.

This was the latest third generation Mecha, and its performance had already been greatly improved compared to the previous two generations, and it had integrated the space teleportation function.

Wang Ming would place this third-generation mecha in a container with a teleportation function. If necessary, it could be directly sent and received via satellite positioning, allowing it to be used at will.

Most importantly, the third-generation mecha didn’t need to be worn by itself at all. Through the latest space compression technology, Wang Ming had implanted a chip into his pores.

When the third-generation mecha landed on the ground, its various parts would be like a jigsaw puzzle that would automatically wrap around his body.

The whole process from summoning to fully arming didn’t even take five seconds.

Knowledge changed power, and technology could also counter cultivation... Wang Ling truly felt that he had learned a lot.

After the blood sample was collected, Wang Ling handed the syringe back. There was no need for sterile cotton to stop the pressure.

Almost the moment the needle was pulled out, the eye of the needle disappeared at the same time, and the healing speed was extremely astonishing.

“So, that punk surnamed Peng’s new move is to find a lame alien to deal with you?”Wang Ming asked as he put the blood sample into the container.

“It’s Lotus Sun,”Wang Ling said.

“Isn’t dealing with Miss Rong the same as dealing with you?”Wang Ming smiled evilly.

“It’s not the same,”Wang Ling replied.

“You’re anxious.”Wang Ming refused to give up.

“No.”Wang Ling’s expression was as calm as an old well.

“You didn’t, and yet you still talk to me so much.”Wang Ming chuckled.

” ...”

Without another word, Wang Ling directly got up and prepared to wake Zhai Yin up in the sleeping cabin next door.

Seeing this, Wang Ming pulled him back. “Don’t do it, brother! I’m just joking... you probably don’t want to wake up your sister Zhai Yin and Cook Supper for you, do you?”

” ...”

Wang Ling thought carefully for a moment, and finally sat down obediently.

“That’s right.”Wang Ming bared his teeth and smiled. His smile was still as warm as the spring breeze, and there was a hint of foolishness in the sunlight.

Wang Ling felt that probably only Wang Ming had this kind of temperament.

There was a saying: “Extremely smart.”Wang Ming’s brain was so strong, but his hair was still thick, which made Wang Ling extremely amazed.

It was 100% that he had already had a hair transplant..

With Wang Ming’s methods, he could even create something as powerful as a third-generation mecha. Wouldn’t it be like sprinkling water if he had an automatic hair transplant?

Wang Ling remembered that Wang Ying had taken the initiative to separate from him earlier, and because he had used a forbidden spell, Wang Ying’s hair had fallen off irreversibly.

Now that Wang Ying had returned and the shadow had rebound with him, his hair had grown back.

If Wang Ying wanted to cut off all ties with him one day, the hair would still fall off... at that time, Wang Ming's help would probably be unavoidable.

Wang Ling's cost analysis of blood samples had always been very complicated.

In the past, he had to wait for a few days before he could get a complete result.

But after accumulating endless experience, Wang Ming was now using a machine to analyze Wang Ling's blood sample data and using another program that he had created himself.

Now, he only needed less than half an hour to analyze the data.

"Just wait, while you're at it, I'll take a look at the other thing you brought."

Then, Wang Ming took a sealed test tube made of a special material from the table.

Inside was the ashes of the silver-horned man that Wang Ling had collected earlier.

"Her bones have already been crushed and scattered? This Miss Rong is really powerful now; even this alien can't defeat her." Wang Ming was surprised at Lotus Sun's current growth.

There was only a small amount of ashes, and it had taken Wang Ling a lot of effort to refine them in the air after Lotus Sun had left that abandoned factory.

"She looks like a silver-horned person, right? The two silver horns on her head are curled back like cattle, and she also has a tail." Wang Ming searched his memory, it didn't seem like there was such an alien creature in his memory.

Since Guo Ping of the Research Institute was now an international diplomat who had established diplomatic relations with aliens, and since the cooperation between Divine Dao Star and Earth, all aspects of alien data had basically been collected.

All the data was shared in the big database of the international cultivator alliance.

With the big database, it shouldn't be difficult to find out what the silver-horned person looked like before it evolved, as long as they did a DNA comparison.

"This search is even faster than your blood sample analysis. We'll know in ten minutes."

At this moment, Wang Ming cupped his chin and was also looking forward to seeing what this silver-horned man was..

..

At the same time, on the other side.

Old Master Sun was on the phone with Jiang Xiaoche.

At the same time, he planned to report some information..

Chapter 1487 Grandpa Sun's Moved

On the Night Lotus Sun went to the Ancient Street, Grandpa Sun didn't fall asleep until late at night.

To be honest, he was a little nervous..

Although he had always firmly believed that the youth he had decided on.

Wouldn't do anything out of the ordinary to his granddaughter.

But Jiang Xiaoche's words inevitably made grandfather Sun worry again.

It was not unheard of for an upright adolescent to make a mistake in the heat of the moment..

Sun Yi believed himself to be an open-minded person. It was normal for young people to develop feelings for each other and then release their feelings.

Therefore, the old man did not reject the love behavior of his precious granddaughter, because true love was a virtuous circle that could make each other better people.

Even if they did not end up together, they could still gain a lot of growth and unforgettable experiences.

And these things were all valuable treasures that could not be erased in the journey of life.

Sunday, December 13th.

In the wee hours of the morning, a call from Jiang Xiaoche woke up Old Man Sun who was deep in thought.

“How was it?” Old Man Sun asked, pretending to be calm.

He wanted to know what Wang Ling would do when he received the room card he had drawn

“Old Man, I want to ask you a question first,” Jiang Xiaoche said on the other end of the phone.

“Go ahead.”

“If a person did something to an unconscious girl...”

“That’s an animal behavior!” Grandpa frowned.

“What if he didn’t do anything...” Jiang Xiaoche continued to ask.

“Is this girl beautiful?” Grandpa Sun was suspicious.

“Of course she’s beautiful! The kind that looks like a fairy!” Jiang Xiaoche said.

“Worse than a beast!” Said grandfather Sun.

After getting a definite answer., Jiang Xiaoche was instantly delighted. “Alright, let me give you the latest situation. Miss seems to have played all day today and is too tired. She didn’t return to her villa at night and directly stayed at the Holiday Inn on Ancient Street.”

“No Wonder Aunt Qiu told me that Rong Rong didn’t come back tonight. This child is the same, she should at least send a message to tell me.”

“That’s not the point.”

At that moment, Jiang Xiaoche smiled. “The point is that Wang Ling used the room card he drew to get a room for Miss!”

“There’s actually such a thing?”

Old Master Sun’s pupils trembled. “Then where is classmate Wang Ling now...”

“He went back. After he checked in, he handed the room card to the front desk and actually went home to stay.”

Jiang Xiaoche smiled. “That’s the situation at the moment. Does the old man have anything to say?”

According to the logic of the first few questions, leaving the beautiful girl behind to go back home was clearly an act of “Being worse than a beast.”.

Jiang Xiaoche was looking forward to the old man’s reply when he heard Sun Yiyuan on the other end of the phone let out a long sigh of relief, then, his voice became loud and clear. “Good! I knew it! Student Wang Ling won’t let me down...”

Jiang Xiaoche: “Ah?”

“What are you talking about?”

Grandfather Sun said, “The annual card for this presidential suite is priceless. Even if student Wang Ling doesn’t have to keep it for resale, he can still make a lot of money. But he didn’t do that, which proves that student Wang Ling is a very money-minded person.”

”...”

“Student Wang Ling could have obviously sold her room, but when his classmate was tired, he took the initiative to take out his room card and get Rong Rong a room so that she could rest as soon as possible. “This proves once again that student Wang Ling is actually a very generous person.”

”...”

“After getting a room, student Wang Ling chose to leave on his own initiative and go home to rest. He didn’t take advantage of the situation to do something that deviated from the norm. This shows that student Wang Ling is an upright and kind child! As expected of Rong Rong... she really has good taste...”

As he spoke, tears began to well up in Old Man Sun’s eyes.

He was almost moved by his own words.

”? ? ?”

Jiang Xiaocheng remembered that old man Sun had clearly not said that just now!

..

On the other side, the DNA analysis report for the silver-horned people had already been published in Wang Ming’s lab.

After comparing the data in the database, it showed that none of the DNA genes in the current big database matched the current data.

In other words, the match had completely failed.

This was the big database shared by the international cultivators' Alliance. After the recruitment of Divine Dao Star, the alien data here was as thick as an encyclopedia.

However, after comparison, Wang Ming found that none of the DNA matches were successful, which was something he hadn't expected.

Although Guo Ping was currently mainly responsible for connecting with extraterrestrial civilizations, many of these extraterrestrial civilizations only knew about Earth through Divine Dao Planet.

But in fact, human cultivators had never stopped searching for extraterrestrial civilizations.

Thus, the fact that there were aliens lurking in the human cultivation world wasn't groundless.

If the aliens related to the silver-horned people had come to earth long ago and used human skin to mingle in the human cultivation community, then it wouldn't be surprising.

It wasn't surprising that there was a lack of information in the big database.

They had mingled in the human community for many years, and had long since established themselves under human skin... They might even be in the upper echelons of humanity.

It might be easy for them to find a way to conceal their traces.

So just to be on the safe side, Wang Ming used his own technical means to re-check the alliance's large database.

In the end, he sighed. "As expected, there are no traces of unusual erasure."

There was only one way now, which was to start with the private archives of various countries and perhaps find new discoveries.

The Alliance's large database was all public information.

None of this was a secret.

But as a human being, selfishness was actually the norm... there might be additional secrets between countries that hadn't been made public that were kept in special top-secret archives.

But stealing this file was extraordinarily difficult.

Even if Wang Ming could do it, he still had to consider many problems.

Because if he failed, not only would his personal information be exposed, he would also implicate his own country.

Looking at Wang Ming's serious expression as he thought about it,.

Wang Ling suddenly thought of a famous line: "My Lover is this country."

He felt that this line was also very appropriate for Wang Ming.

Although Wang Xiaer was indeed stupid sometimes, once he got serious and entered his field of expertise to explore academic issues, this man seemed to have completely changed.

"Give me three days, and I'll try my best. However, for safety reasons, once I'm in danger of being exposed, I can only retreat. Whether or not I can get the data depends on luck,"Wang Ming said.

"Okay."Wang Ling nodded.

Then, he casually shot a golden light at Wang Ming.

"What is this..."

"The great fortune spell,"Wang Ling said.

“Oh, it’s the spell that you used before that can greatly increase your fate, right?”Wang Ming said.
“In other words, I’m now the Emperor of Europe?”

“Mm.”Wang Ling nodded.

“But little brother, do you know that the Emperor of Europe now has another meaning?”

”?”

“In the language of Sun Island, the word ‘europe’also means ‘European faction.’then, combined with the concept of ‘emperor,’it means a person with large breasts.”

Chapter 1488 Wang Ming! Danger!

That night, Wang Ling’s blood analysis report was already out, and Wang Ming couldn’t help frowning as he stared at the arrows behind each line of data on the sample.

This expression wasn’t rare. When the middle-aged people in the hospital who were three tall and had fatty liver received the report, the expression on their faces was almost exactly the same as Wang Ming’s now.

This kind of “Furrowed brows”expression was actually seen on many different occasions.

For example, when a parent received your report card

Or when you saw an author who was a eunuch

Or when a teacher found out that you hadn’t done your homework and went to read the Immortal King’s daily life

Or when you saw the author of a book who had written so many sentences starting with “For example,”perhaps you were also frowning and wondering if this short and small author wasn’t just writing in water..

Back to the main topic.

Under normal circumstances, when an ordinary person received a blood sample analysis report, their first reaction would definitely be to look at the arrow that followed the indicator.

The normal range of cholesterol was 2.8 to 5.17 mmol/L, and the test data was 6.17 mmol/L.

Although it was a little over the limit, it could still be saved..

However, if there was an arrow in Wang Ling's blood sample, it often meant that it was dangerous.

“As I thought, the concentration of Ling energy is indeed on the rise, and it's increasing even faster than before.”Wang Ming carefully looked at the data in the analysis report, and his face turned a little ugly.

The original purpose of analyzing Wang Ling's blood sample data was to create a fourth-generation mecha device.

In the end, Wang Ling's body index was extremely high, which was far beyond Wang Ming's expectations.

According to the initial data of the seal talisman, it could basically help Wang Ling maintain it for a few years.

This allowed the data in Wang Ling's body, which Wang Ming called the “Ling Energy Concentration,”to reach a level of equilibrium.

Although the duration of the seal suppression was decreasing year by year as Wang Ling continued to grow.

But because the seal talisman itself was constantly being upgraded, Wang Ming estimated that there shouldn't be any problems with the new generation of talismans for at least two years.

But now he finds out he miscalculated.

Wang Ling's growth has been faster than he thought.

The talisman seal on Wang Ling's body had been specially sent to No. 59 high school back then, and he had thought that it would help Wang Ling smoothly through his high school stage.

But now it is found that although the seal still looks very new and there are no signs of cracking.

It still seemed a little difficult to suppress the concentration of data in Wang Ling's body to a balanced level.

Thus, it was almost urgent to find a new material that could be used to suppress Wang Ling.

"Earlier, you said that you found a mysterious black stone that even the king's eye couldn't see through in your sealed state, right?"

At that moment, Wang Ming suddenly said, "If it's possible, I hope you can get your hands on this black stone as soon as possible."

Wang Ming felt that this ancient black stone that Wang Ling had mentioned earlier might be the key to everything.

Of course, developing a new talisman was definitely not that simple.

But the sooner this thing was done, the better.

"Then what should we do now?" At that moment, Wang Ying finally couldn't help asking.

"Are you very concerned about my brother?"

"We're one. If he can't control his energy and explodes in the end, I'll be finished," Wang Ying replied.

To be honest, Wang Ming had never seen Wang Ying before, but he knew that such a thing existed.

Now that he heard the shadow behind Wang Ling suddenly speak, Wang Ming was slightly taken aback. “That’s interesting. My Little Brother is autistic, but you’re actually not, and you seem to be a Chatterbox?”

“Heh, the shadow and the main body are opposites, so of course I’m not autistic.” Wang Ying smiled. “Besides, I’ve already tasted girls.”

As he said this, Wang Ying licked his lips.

He thought back to when he had forcefully kissed Sun Ying ‘er earlier, and even now, he still felt like he hadn’t had enough.

These past few days, Wang Ying had actually been trying to find an excuse to do it again.

However, he didn’t know what kind of wind had blown over Sun Ying ‘er these past few days, but she seemed exceptionally quiet and didn’t deliberately speak ill of him, without breaking any “Family rules.”.

Wang Ying simply couldn’t find any reason to “Punish” her.

It was really too much of a pity..

“Does it taste like a girl?”

Wang Ming smiled as well. “So you’re saying that my brother is a virgin who hasn’t even tasted a Girl?”

“Isn’t he?”

”...” Wang Ling was silent and speechless.

“But as far as I know, it seems that you’re the same, right?” Wang Ying suddenly said at this moment.

The corners of Wang Ming's mouth twitched. He realized that compared to Wang Ying, Wang Ling was indeed much cuter!

This shadow was too f * * King Annoying! Was there something he knew in his heart that didn't smell good? He had to say it out loud to make people feel awkward..

And most importantly, there was nothing he could do about Wang Ying!

But for the sake of an adult man, Wang Ming still said stubbornly, "I haven't been one for a long time!"

"Oh? Is That So?"Wang Ying smiled.

Wang Ming's face was slightly red, but he still made things up. "When I was my brother's age, I didn't want too many female partners. Some of them were already pregnant with my child, and it's said that they can do functions as soon as they're born."

"..."

At that moment, Wang Ling actually saw a faint black aura of death looming between Wang Ming's eyebrows.

He knew roughly what had happened.

He was hesitating whether or not to tell Wang Ming.

But this idiot older brother sometimes liked to talk big and brag without even thinking about it.

There was no tax on bragging anyway.

Sometimes he couldn't stop at all when he started talking.

“You don’t believe me? Let me tell you, I know all kinds of postures. If you don’t know them in the future, you can come and ask me for more advice. Since You’re my brother’s shadow, I don’t think it’s too much to call me brother Ming, right?”

“You really have the nerve to say that.”Wang Ying chuckled.

“What’s there to be embarrassed about? Your Brother Ming has a lot of experience. Not only have he seen countless movies, but he also has a lot of actual combat experience. Do you know my ‘Brain Deduction technique’?”

“Oh, you mean the ability to simulate countless situations in the brain, and then rank the results according to the probability from top to bottom, so as to get the best solution?”

“That’s right.”

Wang Ming nodded. “You said you kissed a girl once. But I’m different. I have this ability. When I Kiss a girl, my brain simulates thousands of kissing methods. These can actually help me stack up my experience.”

Wang Ling was startled.”...”

Shouldn’t they be discussing his “Ling can concentration”now? ?

Why had they suddenly changed the subject and started to discuss such a strange topic? !

And most importantly, Wang Ling realized that he couldn’t get a word in edgewise.

First of all, he really didn’t have any experience. Second, he didn’t know how to Brag, and his life was really too humble..

At that moment, Wang Ling was at a loss.

A familiar figure suddenly appeared at the door of Wang Ming’s laboratory, and Zhai Yin had awoken from her slumber.

She had just heard what Wang Ming had said..

Wang Ming!

Danger!

Chapter 1489 The Atmosphere Became Strange

As Wang Ming's personal bodyguard, like most cultivators, Zhai Yin didn't need to rest at all under normal circumstances.

Her mission was to protect Wang Ming and assist him in some of his experiments.

In addition, if she found out that Wang Ming was conducting relatively dangerous experiments, Zhai Yin would consider reporting the matter to the higher-ups.

Wang Ming actually didn't hate Zhai Yin, but sometimes Zhai Yin was too rigid in her work, and the key was that there were many things he couldn't explain to Zhai Yin, which caused some communication problems.

Then, Wang Ming thought of a way.

He had specially invented a cultivation magic treasure with a slightly black-tech attribute like the "Sleeping cabin."

Although cultivators could stay awake for a long time, their bodies were constantly working, so it was inevitable that their attention would be distracted. Over time, it might even have some effect on their spirit roots.

There weren't too many side effects; it was nothing more than overdrawing the body in advance, causing problems such as decreased mental concentration and rough skin.

Wang Ming's sleeping pod was a tool specially used for this kind of situation.

Sleeping in the sleeping pod for five minutes was equivalent to sleeping for 24 hours, allowing cultivators to quickly recharge their batteries.

At present, the sleeping chamber invented by Wang Ming could be divided into home-type and capsule-type.

The capsule-type sleeping chamber had already been put into military use.

As long as the capsule was still on the ground, it would automatically expand when it was shaken, and then turn into a sleeping chamber the size of a person.

When it was recycled, it was also operated with a single button, and a specific button was pressed to compress the capsule back into its original shape.

Wang Ming had already successfully applied for a patent for the sleeping chamber.

After officially announcing that it would be put into military use, there were a lot of orders from the military factory, which was also the source of Wang Ming's experimental funds.

Just counting the orders from Huaxiu Nation's previous warehouse alone, there were already several billion.

If he ran out of money, he could just get some small gadgets and make a little money... that was all.

As the most powerful brain, it was never difficult for Wang Ming to develop new products.

Of course, on the surface, he had invented the sleeping pod to serve the military, but in fact, the reason he had invented the sleeping pod in the first place was to restrict Zhai Yin..

Because of the danger involved in many experiments, Zhai Yin wouldn't let him do them, so in this case, as long as he could lock Zhai Yin in the sleeping pod, it would be fine.

Although Zhai Yin was a tough girl, she was still a beauty-loving girl.

Wang Ming didn't need to say much to know that not sleeping for a long time was bad for her skin.

Thus, after the sleep pod was invented, Zhai Yin was almost habitually using it. Wang Ming also found out how Zhai Yin used it, and took advantage of her rest time to carry out many secret experiments.

So Zhai Yin should still be inside at this moment..

That slightly murderous gaze instantly gave Wang Ming a jolt.

“I didn’t expect you to be an expert in love. How come I’ve never heard you mention it before?”Zhai Yin’s face was clouded, and all her attention was on Wang Ming’s words.

She didn’t care who Wang Ming was talking to about “Feelings.”.

When she woke up, she heard Wang Ying’s voice outside. She only knew that it was clearly not Wang Ling’s. It was probably Wang Ming on speakerphone with one of her friends?

She didn’t care who he was talking to.

But as an official magic treasure researcher, Wang Ming was indeed an academician, but he was also a special magic treasure consultant for the military!

He was a figure in the establishment!

Since he was already aware of it, Zhai Yin felt that it was necessary for her to be concerned about the issue of her lifestyle.

“Listen to me, yinyin... things aren’t what you think...”beads of sweat had already formed on Wang Ming’s forehead. He didn’t know why he was in such a hurry to explain these problems to Zhai Yin.

He just felt that if he didn’t explain, the consequences might be very serious.

That was because he realized that whenever Zhai Yin was in a bad mood, she would cook to vent her emotions.

And he was the white mouse of “Yinyin’s cooking.”.

As for how terrifying Zhai Yin’s cooking was, Wang Ming felt that he didn’t need to explain it to her.

That thing wasn’t just poisonous... it was a whole “Corpse dissolving powder”!

Wang Ming felt that after eating it, his whole body would be melted by the “Deadly poison”.

Thus, combined with the concept of mathematics, Wang Ming called it factorization..

That night, seeing that a great battle was inevitable, Wang Ling was too lazy to make do with it, so he hurriedly left the laboratory and left the space for Wang Ming.

He wasn’t worried that Wang Ming would die.

In any case, Wang Ming had the blessing of the “Great fortune spell”, so even if Zhai Yin used force, there was a high chance that Wang Ming would continuously “Miss”her..

However, the effect of the “Great fortune spell”could only last for a week.

After this week, Wang Ming’s life would presumably become extremely exciting.

..

It was still Sunday, December 13th.

At eight o’clock that morning, Wang Ling first sent Wang Ming a message to confirm whether he was still alive.

Wang Ming couldn’t stop praising his “Great fortune spell”. “Little brother, this move of yours is too strong. After you left yesterday, Yinzi was so flustered that she used a set of Wing Chun Fists on me, but in the end, not a single punch hit me!”

He knew it would be like this..

Wang Ling wasn't surprised by the expected outcome.

He replied to Wang Ming with a few short messages.

The general meaning was to tell Wang Ming to take it easy and not be too cheap.

Because the duration of the spell was limited..

If he was too stupid this time, Wang Ming would be the one who would feel uncomfortable after the time limit expired.

Wang ling usually disdained using the "Great luck spell"on himself, because life would become very boring this way.

And he didn't plan to use this spell easily on others unless there was a special need for it.

For ordinary people, the ability of the "Great fortune spell"might be very effective for a while, but once they got used to it, they would become dependent.

In fact, it wasn't just dependence.

Apart from Wang Ling himself, when others used this spell, the effect of the increase in their luck would also continue to decline... the more frequently they used it, the faster it would decline.

Wang Ming was a powerful person.

With the blessing of the great luck spell, it was like adding wings to a tiger and icing on the cake.

But there was no need to use it frequently.

On the other side, Lotus Sun had slept for a long time.

When she woke up, she found herself lying on a large bed in the hotel's presidential suite, with Sun Ying 'er taking care of her. "Lotus, you're Awake?"

"I'm... What's wrong..."the young girl stood up and looked at the bathrobe she was wearing. She couldn't help feeling puzzled. "Who helped me change?"

"Ling Zhenren, of course."Sun Ying 'er smiled evilly. "You were too tired yesterday, so you fainted. Ling Zhenren brought you here, took a shower, and changed your clothes..."

"Classmate Wang Ling! ? This, this, this, this, how is this possible!"Lotus sun covered her small mouth slightly, her beautiful face pale.

"I was just joking, of course it was all me!"

Sun Ying 'er looked aggrieved. "You know, Lotus, my waist isn't very good to begin with..."

"..."

"But then again, are you expecting something?"

Lotus Sun's face burned to her ears. "I'm not..."

..

Although she hadn't been able to successfully spend time alone with Wang Ling yesterday, when she saw the sack of milk candies that Wang Ling had left for her, she was still shocked.

Although she felt regret in her heart, she was more happy and joyful.

After taking the sack of milk candies, lotus sun was in a great mood.

It was close to noon, and the young girl was about to check out at the front desk on the first floor when the elevator suddenly stopped when it reached the third floor.

When she opened the door, Lotus Sun saw Liangzi Jiugong and Odd Zhuo standing at the elevator door in the same Han Chinese clothing.

The expression on Lotus Sun's face was one of astonishment and excitement.

As expected of senior Odd Zhuo..

This was too fast!

However, the current atmosphere seemed a little stiff.

It wasn't until the elevator reached the first floor and heard the sound of the door opening with a Ding that Lotus Sun mustered up the courage to look tentatively at Liangzi nine temples and ask, "Classmate nine temples, can I ask you a question?"

"Go ahead."Liangzi nine temples snorted.

"Classmate nine temples, you... have you already been conquered by Senior Odd Zhuo?"

Then, Lotus Sun saw Liangzi nine temples'originally calm face gradually change color..

Chapter 1490 Creator Of The Ghost Score

Hearing such a straightforward question, the expression on Liangzi Jiugong's face instantly became extremely interesting. The main reason she and Odd Zhuo had come downstairs was to hand over the task to that female bodyguard called Junko.

Next, Viagra and the other two would act as important "Dirty witnesses"with Junko in full charge. Originally, it was just a normal handover of work, but Liangzi didn't expect to run into Lotus Sun when she went downstairs.

And she had been asked such a strange question..

Strategy?

What kind of joke was this..

She wasn't going to be taken in by this flowery old liar.

Liangzi's face was red. In fact, she hadn't replied directly, but only snorted. "Don't think that you can spout nonsense just because you helped me. Odd Zhuo and I only have a very normal working relationship."

She crossed her arms and looked a little impatient as she waited for the elevator door to open before sneaking out.

Lotus Sun looked at the girl's back; underneath her calm appearance, there was actually a faint sense of panic.

"Senior Odd Zhuo, you really picked up a treasure." Lotus Sun had a smile on her face, and in her heart, she also felt that nine temples Liangzi was much cuter than she had imagined.

Originally, she and Liangzi nine temples were like fire and water, mainly because Lotus Sun was worried that Liangzi nine temples would harm that youngster in her heart.

Moreover, he might also come up with some sort of "Seduction" plan to deal with student Wang Ling.

This absolutely couldn't happen.

But from the inquiry just now, Lotus Sun felt that Liangzi nine temples might not have realized that she had already fallen for him..

She might not have liked odd zhao yet, but she definitely had a good impression of him.

After all, Liangzi was a person who liked to say what he didn't mean.

"Junior Sister Lotus Sun, you must be joking." Odd Zhuo gave a wry smile.

The two of them followed closely out of the elevator door, walking very slowly with tacit understanding.

“I see that senior Odd Zhuo has no psychological burden at all in pursuing Liangzi. It looks like he already knows, right?” Lotus Sun’s probing question stunned odd Zhuo in an instant.

“Junior sister Lotus Sun is referring to the six mother-in-law I’ll be facing in the future?” Odd Zhuo rolled his eyes and pretended not to know.

“Senior Odd Zhuo, you’re underestimating me a little too much. I can still find out about this.”

Lotus sun sighed and smiled demurely. “But don’t worry, senior. I Won’t tell anyone about classmate Liangzi’s secret.”

“That’s good.”

Odd Zhuo heaved a sigh of relief. “Actually, I’m also waiting...”

He was waiting for the day when Liangzi Jiugong would personally confess his secret to him.

And Odd Zhuo was deeply convinced that that day wouldn’t come too late.

When she came to the front desk to check out, lotus sun sensed the hostility of the female bodyguard called Junzi.

Lotus Sun didn’t remember where she had offended her, but she had a rough idea of the hostility in her eyes. After all, the female bodyguard had the impression that she had always been an enemy of the nine temples family.

“Junzi, don’t be so rude.”

Yoshiko nine temples noticed Junzi’s strange behavior and hurriedly reminded her in a soft voice.

Although the female bodyguard didn't understand what had happened between her young miss and that young Miss Sun, she still restrained the sharpness in her eyes.

"The most important thing now is what I told you last night. Someone in the family is trying to use me to study abroad, and it's not good for me,"Yoshiko nine temples said.

The one who had been confirmed was the "Wayne Trio"under the command of the sixth mistress.

As for the "Ghost Book"riot, Yoshiko nine temples thought that it was another group of people plotting in the dark.

In other words, there were at least two groups of people who wanted to deal with her.

Moreover, these two groups of people were now on the surface... as for whether there were any other forces in the family who wanted to make a move against her, nine temples Liangzi didn't know.

She had come to Huaxiu nation to deal with the "External threat". She had originally thought that after successfully exposing odd Zhuo's matter, the nine temples family would be able to enter Huaxiu nation's market more deeply.

But nine temples Liangzi hadn't expected that before this "External threat"was resolved, the "Internal worries"in his family would actually erupt ahead of time.

And last night, nine temples Liangzi had thought about it for a long time.

She felt that it might be more crucial to settle the internal affairs of the nine temples family first.

If the nine temples family were to fight endlessly within itself, it would be useless even if she managed to win over Huaxiu Nation's market in the end. If there wasn't unity within the family, it would all be for naught in the end.

What's more..

The new evidence now actually showed that what happened to odd zhuo back then might have been a misunderstanding between the nine temples family.

True combat strength didn't lie.

Odd Zhuo was indeed very strong, and Liangzi nine temples had already experienced this firsthand.

After giving out the basic tasks, liangzi nine temples said to the female bodyguard in front of her, "Junzi, while you're watching Wayne and the other two, my newly hired bodyguard will be in charge of my safety for the time being."

Yoshiko Kyoko originally wanted to hide this matter, but since Junko was one of them, she felt it was better to be honest.

"Bodyguard? Who Is It?" Junko was stunned.

She had actually heard the rumors about the new bodyguard last night, and was very curious about who the new bodyguard was.

"It's me. I've been standing in front of you for half a day." Odd Zhuo pointed at himself with a bright smile on his face.

"You? ? ?" Junko was shocked.

Wasn't this guy... the subject of their investigation? !

But soon, she regained her composure..

Junko had her own understanding of why her miss had hired Odd Zhuo as her bodyguard.

She must have arranged this scene so that she could get closer to Odd Zhuo and find evidence of his "Imposter"?

She understood!

In fact, Junko herself was also very angry at these imposters.

The main thing was that there had been more and more news about imposters these days, such as impersonating others to get into university..

Although her education had been revoked later, this kind of behavior had already interfered with other people's lives.

These people, who had used their power and money to change their fates, had no idea at all how much effort the imposter had put in to change their fates.

It was usually very difficult to find direct evidence against this kind of powerful imposter because of the long time span.

That was why Miss Liangzi had thought of hiring odd zhao as her bodyguard to tie this guy up by her side so that she could better collect evidence..

As expected of Miss Liangzi!

Seeing the female bodyguard's furrowed brows, Liangzi was speechless.

She had never doubted Junko's ability to imagine things..

But in the face of Odd Zhao and her current situation, she indeed felt that it would be difficult to completely explain this complicated relationship with just a few words.

So she just sighed in her heart and temporarily ignored what the female bodyguard was thinking.

"In addition, have you found the senior I asked you to help me find?" At this moment, she suddenly asked.

"Senior changed his address, and it took us quite a while to find his trace," the female bodyguard said. "Judging from Senior's current whereabouts, he seems to have been frequenting the war sect recently."

“Frequenting the war sect?”

Liangzi nine temples glanced at odd zhuo at this time; she felt that Odd Zhuo could help.

“There are a lot of people who go to the war sect... So who is this senior?” Odd Zhuo asked as he rubbed the back of his head.

“This is the original creator of the ghost book.”

Liangzi Jiugongzi looked at odd zhuo and said, “I can’t tell you anything else, but this senior’s name is golden lamp.”

Odd Zhuo:”...”
