Chapter 1491 Understanding King Of The Nine Temples Family

This world was really small..

Odd Zhuo sighed with emotion from the bottom of his heart.

When Liangzi nine temples had said the key word “War ancestor”, he had vaguely felt that some acquaintance of his might have been involved.

He had just never thought that this acquaintance would actually be senior golden lamp.

After all, he was a monk who had lived for so many reincarnations and had done all kinds of professions... even the production of the nine temples family’s “Ghost Book” was related to him; he was a “Full-time expert”!

“It looks like you know this senior?” Liangzi nine temples blinked at Odd Zhuo as if he was looking forward to something.

Odd Zhuo suddenly smiled in his heart.

This wasn’t just a relationship of knowing each other..

Ever since he had been “Convinced” by Wang Ling, senior Golden Lamp had already become one of them. Although he didn’t appear to be on the war sect’s entry list, he was actually one of the core members of the war sect.

Furthermore, because he knew that he was Wang Ling’s disciple, golden lamp actually took care of Odd Zhuo quite well. Basically, as long as Odd Zhuo dared ask, golden lamp would never refuse his request.

Of course, Odd Zhuo wouldn’t especially ask golden lamp for help when he had nothing to do.

He knew very well that the reason golden lamp was willing to help him was largely because of his master.

And he might not even be able to take a liking to a senior like this, so in the end, he might even cause trouble for his master.

But now..

For the sake of Liangzi Jiugong's words, Odd Zhuo felt that he had to be bold this time.

It wasn't really a request; he had just been instructed to help Yoshiko nine temples set up a meeting with the golden lamp monk.

"I roughly know where senior golden lamp is, but it's hard to say whether we'll meet or not." Odd Zhuo deliberately kept her guessing. "How about this, I'll take Yoshiko to take a look today."

"I'll go too! I can send someone else to keep an eye on him!" Junko said.

"You can't. You have to stay and watch them."

Odd Zhuo looked at the female bodyguard. "Monk Jin Deng isn't used to being disturbed. He won't be happy if too many people go."

"But..."

"Do as Odd Zhuo says, Junko. Keeping an eye on Wayne and the other two is your top priority," Liangzi nine temples said.

"I understand, Miss! Is there really something between you and this odd Zhuo..." Junko felt like she had discovered an incredible secret. To send her away so obviously meant that they wanted to spend some time alone!

"If you keep spouting nonsense, I'll deduct all your wages."

Liangzi nine temples blushed, he snorted. "The reason I chose you to keep an eye on them is because... you're the only one I can choose! Now that Wayne and the others are being protected, everyone else thinks they're dead. "Such an important secret must be guarded by someone I trust the most!"

"I'm the lady, the most trusted person..."

"Of course!"

The female bodyguard named Junko had no choice. Yoshiko Nine Palace's words touched her. Since they had already said it, she could only follow the order. "I understand, Lady. Junko won't let you down."

Then, she obeyed Yoshiko's instructions and obediently went to the front desk to re-register her identity.

Odd Zhuo glanced at the female bodyguard's temporary identity card and passport from afar. The names on them were: Chuncao Chongchun.

From the start, Odd Zhuo had felt that there was something wrong with this female bodyguard, but he couldn't say what.

After all, she was someone whom Liangzi nine temples trusted so much, and Odd Zhuo actually didn't want to doubt Chuncao Chongchun's loyalty to Liangzi.

But it was still for the sake of caution..

He decided to investigate Chuncao in private.

"What are you thinking? Can We Go Now?"

At that moment, Liangzi nine temples looked eagerly at Odd Zhuo and said.

"Nothing, I'm just thinking about the name Chuncao Chongchun," Odd Zhuo said.

"What's wrong with this name?"

“Isn’t the word ‘Cao’ and ‘Chongchun’ a combination of Dong? and Miss Junzi’s catchphrase seems to be: I get it.” Odd Zhuo smiled. “So, Miss Junzi is the king of your nine temples family?”

” ...”

The corners of nine temples Liangzi’s mouth twitched when he heard this, and he felt as if he had heard a cold joke. “Do you think you’re very humorous...”

“Are you cold? Sorry.” Odd Zhuo smiled apologetically.

“If you had this time, I’m afraid you would have found senior golden lamp a long time ago,” Liangzi said with a sigh.

“You’re in such a hurry to find Senior’s goal, don’t you want to know why the remake of the “Ghost Book” is rebelling?” Odd Zhuo asked.

“Yes.”

Liangzi said honestly, “There has never been a problem with the remake in my hands before. But after what happened yesterday, it’s like a time bomb in my hands now.”

“Don’t worry. We’ll definitely find it.” Odd Zhuo comforted the anxious-looking girl and composed himself. “And are you sure we should leave now?”

“Yes! The sooner the better, of course!”

“But haven’t we changed back into our clothes yet?”

Odd Zhuo smiled. “Of course, if you don’t mind, I certainly won’t mind wearing this matching Han costume with Liangzi.”

“Hooligan...”

Liangzi Jiugong's face turned red, and he immediately stomped on Odd Zhuo in exasperation before running upstairs to change his clothes.

Odd Zhuo followed behind him with a sour expression on his face.

This stomp made him feel comfortable..

Odd Zhuo felt that it would be quite interesting to stomp on him a few times while wearing black silk.

..

After Liangzi Jiugong and Odd Zhuo left, Chuncao Chongchun officially took over the task of keeping an eye on Wayne and the other two.

She could notice the slightest movement in the room diagonally across from them.

According to the rules of the witness protection program, Wayne and the other two weren't allowed to leave the room without a special request.

In the three-person suite they were in, the signal in the room was blocked, and there was no communication magic treasure signal that could be sent out.

Junko would be in charge of the three's meals, delivering meals on a regular basis, and watching as they finished eating would take away all the trash.

Of course, in order to make sure that Wayne and the other two didn't go crazy in the room, the TV in the room could be turned on as usual. There was also a game console installed, so they could play some single-player games that didn't need to be online to pass the time.

This was originally a very simple job. It was even a bit boring and boring, but the advantage was that it was generally more leisurely.

By right, Chuncao Chongchun should be happy, but she didn't feel relaxed at all.

Previously, she wanted to go with Yoshiko Jiugong to see Golden Lamp because she had her own little plan..

At this time, it was absolutely right not to stay in the hotel.

Because Wayne and the other two were very important to Yoshiko..

But now she was forced to stay, and even Chuncao Chongchun didn't know what would happen next.

She hugged her knees and sat on the bed. Her thoughts were very complicated.

At this moment, the phone vibrated.

The "Unknown call" that was the same as before instantly made Chuncao Chongchun's heart jump.

"What's going on? It seems like you haven't reported the situation for two days in a row..." although the voice on the other end of the phone had undergone voice modification, it could still be heard that this was a person with a rough voice.

Haruko knew who the person on the other end of the line was, so she immediately fell silent. After a long while, she said, "I'm sorry... I took leave yesterday to go to the hospital... so..."

"Don't make excuses."

The person on the other end of the line didn't even bother to listen to her explanation. "Ms. Junzi, I hope you understand your situation and stand. Don't play any tricks."

"I know..."

"Very good. Now, let me ask you... is Masanori Inoue still alive?"

On the other end of the phone, the person spoke with a tone of complete control as he sneered, "Ms. Sumiko, I hope you can answer truthfully..."

Chapter 1492 Child Star Yoshiko Kyoko

Yoshiko Kyoko changed into a light white sweatshirt.

In fact, it was Chuncao Chongchun's clothes.

Considering that there were more "Field" sessions later, it seemed easier to move around in a sweatshirt.

She tied her hair up and put on a white cap to hold it down, looking like a very good-looking boy from a distance.

Of course, the main reason why she looked like a boy wasn't because of her sports clothes, her coiled hair, or even the cap, but because her chest wasn't too high up.

Odd Zhuo personally drove her to the spot where the golden lamp was currently resting. On the way, he would glance out of the corner of his eye at the girl sitting next to him in the passenger seat with her arms crossed and her eyes slightly closed.

Halfway there, nine temples Liangzi finally couldn't take it anymore. "Have you seen enough?"

"Shouldn't I be the one asking this?" Odd Zhuo gripped the steering wheel without the slightest bit of panic.

"What do you mean?" Nine temples Liangzi frowned.

"If you don't look at me, how do you know I'm Looking at you?"

"..." nine temples Liangzi was stunned on the spot by this question.

This was Odd Zhuo's usual hooligan-like sophistry; she knew that as a foreigner, if she continued to bicker with Odd Zhuo, she would most likely fall behind.

So she simply snorted and turned away.

“If you want to look, then look more generously. Isn’t it a little too petty to look at me through the reflection in the glass window?” Odd Zhuo laughed.

“You... are talking nonsense!” Perhaps Odd Zhuo was right, but the girl’s face turned hot.

“As long as you know what you’re talking about.”

“Haven’t you been looking at me out of the corner of your eye...”

“I’m driving, so I have to look at the road. There’s nothing I can do, so I can only look at you out of the corner of my eye.”

” ... ”

She was glad that the car was now driving through a tunnel, and the environment inside was relatively dim, so she couldn’t see the change in her expression. Otherwise, it would have been too embarrassing.

Liangzi nine temples was a person who adjusted his emotions very quickly, which even lotus sun couldn’t compare to.

The moment the car drove out of the tunnel, the girl’s expression had already returned to normal, and her face had turned back into that ice-cold poker face.

Unfortunately..

Odd Zhuo sighed in his heart; he never denied that he liked teasing Liangzi nine temples.

The main reason was that he had deeply felt the girl’s cute side, but the problem was that Liangzi nine temples’ emotions fluctuated and adjusted quickly, so odd Zhuo really couldn’t tell what the girl was thinking sometimes.

“How did you do it?” Finally, Odd Zhuo couldn’t help asking.

“What?”

“Your emotional control skills.”

Yoshiko’s face turned red. “When I was young, I was a child star for a period of time.”

“Oh, so you dabbled in the entertainment industry?” Odd Zhuo was surprised. “That’s not right, but it doesn’t seem to be on your resume. which movie or TV series did you shoot?”

“It’s just a commercial.” Liangzi nine temples frowned slightly as if he didn’t want to face this part of his past.

“Then why didn’t you consider continuing? You’re not crippled; you’ve become cute instead.”

When Odd Zhuo said this, Liangzi nine temples quickly raised his hand to press down on his hat and tried his best to hide his expression.

“This wasn’t something I wanted to do in the first place... It was my mother’s wishful thinking,” Liangzi explained.

It was also for this reason that she had never been willing to mention the fact that she had once acted in an advertisement as a “Child star.”.

In Liangzi’s eyes, this was actually a “Dark history.”.

Of course, Junko, the female bodyguard, knew about this, but because she knew that this was a “Minefield,” Chuncao Chongchun had never mentioned it.

And now Liangzi nine temples had actually taken the initiative to bring it up, and in front of Odd Zhuo.

This made her feel a little incredulous.

For a very long time, the car fell silent.

It wasn't easy for Odd Zhuo to find a chance to be alone with the girl, so of course he wouldn't miss out on this kind of flirting between the two of them.

He knew that Liangzi nine temples had always paid attention to his image. In a situation like this where there were no outsiders, it didn't matter even if he had joked a little, because no one else had heard him.

"What commercials have you done?" Odd Zhuo asked.

"..."the corners of Liangzi Jiugong's mouth twitched.

She thought that the topic had already been moved on.

As expected, she had underestimated odd zhuo.

This old liar was obviously doing it on purpose..

"It's none of Your Business..."she clenched her little fists, her expression changing like an energy indicator on Ultraman's chest.

"It can't be a frivolous advertisement, right?" Odd Zhuo was deliberately trying to trick her.

"Of course it's a frivolous advertisement! It's a lifestyle advertisement! It's something every family uses!" Yoshiko Kyushu was excited and quickly realized that she had let slip.

"Lifestyle advertisement?"

Odd Zhuo thought for a moment. "Toilet paper? Roll of paper?"

He was the first to think of this answer.

After all, these two things were essential for a single man.

In the middle of every lonely night... there was always toilet paper, which was also the romance of a man living alone.

Seeing that the girl's expression didn't change much, Odd Zhuo knew that he had probably guessed wrong, so he quickly changed his words. "It can't be a birth control product, right..."

"I was so cute when I was young! Anyone who saw it would want to have more! How could I endorse a birth control product..." when Liangzi Jiugong finished speaking, he realized that Odd Zhuo had tricked him again.

This was an interrogation skill odd zhuo had learned from old Liang at Songhai first prison.

Odd Zhuo himself hadn't thought that it could actually be useful in love.

As he was driving, Odd Zhuo suddenly smiled as he held the steering wheel. "I know... The advertisement you're endorsing won't be a diaper or something like that, right..."

After all, this was an advertisement that Liangzi Jiugong had viewed as a dark history.

This was the only type odd zhuo could think of.

What was an advertisement for a baby's diapers?

An ignorant baby who didn't know anything. The image of a naked baby crawling around on a soft cushion while being made to laugh by a staff member... just thinking about it gave him a sense of shame.

This time, Liangzi Jiugong completely buried her head in her knees, looking like she was on her own.

Hearing Odd Zhuo try his best to hold back his laughter, she suddenly raised her head and looked at him with a very gloomy expression. "If you dare search me... I'll never speak to You Again!"

"Don't worry, I won't," Odd Zhuo comforted her.

In fact, he had the same idea in mind..

A few minutes later, he drove up a hill.

“What is this place?”

“I’ve already contacted Senior Golden Lamp, who has been meditating in the mountains these past few days.”

Halfway up the hill, there was no longer any road for vehicles to climb. This was an abandoned observation deck, and no one had come here for a long time, because there had been countless accidents here, the road had long been closed.

Odd Zhuo had no choice but to park his car on the side and choose to walk up the mountain with Liangzi Jiugong.

“Is senior golden lamp really in this kind of place...”

“This is wind and thunder mountain. Because of its special geographical environment, Thunderclouds cover the top of the mountain from time to time. But for cultivators, it’s a good place to temper their bodies, because there’s a certain probability of being struck by lightning.”

” ... ”

Half-convinced, Liangzi nine temples followed Odd Zhuo up the mountain path.

The golden lamp Monk’s voice could already be heard even though he wasn’t there.

The young girl was instantly stunned.

It sounded like a chant for exorcising demons and devils: “Mighty Heavenly Dragon, Venerable Ksitigarbha, Great Luo spell, Prajna Buddha, Prajna Boa Boa Boa Boa Boa Boa! Flying Dragon in the sky! -- Go!”

After the chant, Odd Zhuo and nine temples Liangzi saw a ten-thousand-foot-long thunder dragon scuttling towards the clouds from the top of the mountain..

Chapter 1493 Mighty Heavenly Dragon!

This lightning dragon struck out from the golden lamp monk's palm, stirring up the dark clouds in the sky and twisting them together like twigs. In an instant, the Thunder in the sky was accompanied by the Dragon's roar.

By the time Odd Zhuo and Jiugongliangzi reached the top, the mountain peak, which had been covered by the dark clouds, had already turned into a dazzling scene of clouds dispersing and the sun shining brightly.

This palm strike of the golden lamp monk had completely consumed all the thunderclouds that had accumulated in this area.

However, the environment of wind and Thunder Mountain was special, so the sun shining brightly here was a strange phenomenon. The bright and magnificent scene in front of them was temporary, and in less than half an hour, this place would once again be covered by a large number of dark clouds.

Ordinary people didn't dare easily enter such a dangerous area covered by heavenly lightning, so the golden lamp monk naturally didn't care.

He could even withstand the lightning of chaos, let alone this trifling nature.

The reason he chose wind and thunder mountain was because the monk was practicing his brand-new palm technique, the Mighty Heavenly Dragon.

It was a palm technique that could condense the power of nature and convert the natural energy into psionic energy, thus causing explosive damage. The golden lamp monk had tried many condensation of the power of nature, in the end, he found that the power of the palm technique was greatly enhanced by the lightning of nature.

Of course, compared to Monk's other palm techniques that were more destructive, the might of the heavenly dragon was still far from it. According to monk Golden Lamp's judgment, this palm technique could only be considered as his basic palm technique, however, there was indeed a need to study it.

The main reason was that monk golden lamp found that his palm technique was too powerful. Although the character of the Palm Saint Monk was very handsome, there was a small chance that he would make a mistake if he were to face a mission to capture him alive..

He had clearly wanted to capture him alive, but he had ended up crossing over with one palm, which was very awkward.

Mighty Heavenly Dragon was a new spell that golden lamp monk had developed based on his current situation. Apart from adjusting its power, more importantly... This spell could allow the monk to capture any ghost on Earth 100% alive.

“You are, senior golden lamp...”Liangzi nine temples didn’t expect that Odd Zhuo would actually not lie to her this time!

He had successfully led her to this legendary great senior who had developed the “Ghost Book”..

There was clearly a hint of excitement on her face. She had wanted to kneel down to pay her respects, but the moment her knees bent, golden lamp helped her up. “Miss, you don’t have to be so polite.”

Monk golden lamp smiled. His bright and clean head reflected the sunlight.

Nine temples Liangzi was stunned. He suddenly felt that monk golden lamp was much more amiable than he had imagined. Moreover... his appearance was much younger than she had imagined.

“Senior knows me?”Nine temples Liangzi asked.

“Of course. You are a child of the nine temples family.”

Golden lamp said, “The old patriarch of the nine temples family was once an old friend of mine. The ‘Ghost Book’That I gave him back then was actually a witness of our friendship.”

“Then senior must also know about me?”

“Of course. Mr. Zhuo and I are also good friends. I knew you were coming to find me before he told me.”

A few short sentences shocked Liangzi nine temples greatly. Monk golden lamp was like a god, even more so than she had imagined.

What shocked the young girl the most was that such a great senior who had been so kind to their nine temples family actually seemed to have a deep friendship with Odd Zhuo.

So now, Liangzi nine temples felt completely confused.

She felt that the odd Zhuo she knew and the old swindler who was widely rumored to be in the nine temples family weren't the same person at all..

“This penniless monk already knows the real reason behind the riot in Miss Liangzi's copy of the ghost book.”

At that moment, the monk narrowed his eyes. “Someone used the main book of the ghost book to forcefully open the escape passage of the duplicate and release those ghosts.”

“Using the main manual...”

Liangzi Jiugong frowned deeply.

The main manual of the ‘Ghost Manual’ was sealed in the Jiugong family... in other words, the real reason for the riot of the duplicate ‘Ghost Manual’ in her hands was indeed related to the internal members of the Jiugong family on Sun Island.

Liangzi Jiugong: “But who...”

Hearing this, the monk was silent, he said indifferently, “This matter is not yet revealed by this penniless monk. Because it concerns the fate of Miss Liangzi and the Jiugong family. Therefore, this penniless monk can only say so much. The rest of the matter needs to be investigated by Miss Liangzi herself.”

“I understand. Thank you for your guidance, senior.”

Jiugong Liangzi’s pupils contracted slightly.

At the same time, she already had a brand-new plan in her heart.

To resist the foreign forces, she had to first settle the internal affairs of the nine temples family. It was urgent.

But if she went back to investigate personally now, she would definitely encounter an even more dangerous situation.

So now, there seemed to be only one way left.

This was the plan that Yoshiko had “Suspended” previously.

But now, it seemed that this plan was the best choice..

..

And so..

That night, Liangzi Jiugong went to meet someone.

After deciding to restart the “Put on hold” plan, it took her several hours to make up her mind to come over.

For Liangzi Jiugong, this was the first time in her short life of more than ten years that she had made such a special visit.

As the person that Liangzi Jiugong had asked for help from, even Lotus Sun was surprised.
“Liangzi, what are you...”

In the living room of Lotus Sun's villa, there were all sorts of gifts that Liangzi Jiugong had brought.

There were perfumes, high-end cosmetics, skincare products, and many local specialties that were exclusive to Sun Island.

"I know you don't lack anything, so if you want these things, then take them. If you don't want them, then forget it. I'll just leave them here anyway, so it doesn't matter even if you throw them away." Liangzi Jiugong snorted.

"Liangzi, thank you for your concern. Since they're gifts from Liangzi, of course I'll cherish them." Lotus Sun laughed.

After understanding Liangzi nine temples' personality, she was no longer surprised by the girl's somewhat "Harsh" and "Disrespectful" words.

Because these words needed to be heard in reverse.

"Since you've accepted my gift, does that mean... you're willing to help me?" Liangzi nine temples looked hopeful.

"I need to hear what it is first."

Lotus Sun smiled. "If Liangzi is here for breast enhancement, there's nothing I can do..."

"You make it sound like you're very big!" Liangzi nine temples scoffed.

"I'm older than you, Liangzi." Lotus Sun smiled.

She was deliberately testing Liangzi nine temples' sincerity.

To Lotus Sun's surprise, the girl in front of her didn't get angry at her words. It looked like she really needed help.

“I didn’t come to you... for this kind of thing!”

Liangzi nine temples composed himself and looked at Lotus Sun. She hesitated for a moment, then slowly said, “I want to ask Student Lotus Sun to pretend to be me and return to the nine temples family.”

“Why do you want to ask me?” Lotus Sun was surprised at this request.

At that moment, Liangzi nine temples looked at Lotus Sun with a straight face. “Because only you are qualified to pretend to be Liangzi nine temples!”

“Is that so?”

Suddenly, Lotus Sun smiled. “Was it really not senior odd Zhuo’s suggestion?”

In fact, it had been half an hour ago.

Lotus Sun had received a text message from Odd Zhuo explaining Liangzi Jiugong’s plan in detail.

And at the beginning of the message, the first line was: Mistress! I beg you..

Chapter 1494 Wang Ling Was Going Abroad?

Lotus Sun would pretend to be herself and return to Sun Island to resolve the family’s internal problems.

Whether Lotus Sun would agree to this or not, Liangzi Jiugong really didn’t have much confidence.

While everyone in the Jiugong family thought that she was still studying in Huaxiu, the sudden appearance of the fake Jiugong, who was playing her, in the family would definitely cause chaos among those who were plotting something in the dark.

And this “Transformation Plan” was something that Yoshiko nine temples had thought of from the very beginning.

She had already known that someone in the family was trying to attack her, so she had planned ahead of time.

This plan was easy to lure the snake out of its hole.

It was just that Yoshiko nine temples had never thought that those people in the family would be so eager to attack her, so the entire plan had to be carried out ahead of time.

According to the original plan, Liangzi intended to let Junko play her role, but unfortunately, the plan couldn't keep up with the changes..

It was obvious that Liangzi wasn't willing to see things develop to this extent.

Human Nature was complex, more complex than the ghosts recorded in the "Ghost Book."

"I see."

After listening to Liangzi tell her everything, Lotus Sun nodded slightly. "So, Liangzi, you've already noticed that there's something wrong with that female bodyguard named Chuncao Chongchun, right?"

"Yes." Liangzi nine temples' expression was slightly melancholic. "But I only found out the exact information after I came to Huaxiu. "So I had Junko disguise herself as me and go back to the nine temples family's plan to lure the snake out of its hole. Now, I can only choose another person."

"Why did she betray you?"

"It's possible that she was threatened. What I know is that Junko has a sister who isn't related by blood."

Liangzi jiugong said, "It should be her sister who was kidnapped." "Judging from the method, it looks like the sixth Madam's method. The sixth Madam's family is a famous underworld family on Sun Island. "But there's no concrete evidence yet."

"Do you need help?"

“No, in fact, Junko’s sister has already been successfully rescued by us in secret,”Liangzi Jiugong said.

“Since you knew that Miss Junko had a problem, why did you send her to the hotel to keep an eye on her?”Lotus Sun asked.

Hearing this.., yoshiko nine temples frowned slightly. “Junko watched me grow up, just like my sister. And indeed, she’s the person I trust the most. “If she really wanted to kill me, she actually had a lot of chances, but sister Junko never did...”

“So, you still believe her?”

“Whether or not the witness protection plan will be leaked, this is the final test.”

Liangzi nine temples said, “The other party is still hiding the fact that Junzi’s sister has been rescued, and intends to continue to threaten Junzi with this.”

“Won’t be discovered?”

“We just need to use those pre-recorded videos. If we slightly change the time, Junzi will still be kept in the dark unless we reveal the truth...”

“One last question.”

At this moment, lotus sun sighed slightly and said, “According to the original plan, Junko disguised herself as you, so Junko is gone. To avoid suspicion, do you still need to find someone to disguise herself as Junko?”

“That’s right, there are actually people who can disguise themselves as Junko, but Odd Zhuo just suggested that I change people...”

“Change people? Change Who?”

“Senior golden lamp... Odd Zhuo told me that you know this senior as well.”

Lotus Sun:”...”

“He said that senior golden lamp is more experienced in acting as a woman in order to experience the sufferings of the mortal world. Furthermore, with senior golden lamp accompanying you, your safety can also be guaranteed.”

In fact, when Liangzi nine temples learned that the monk had been a “Cross-dressing boss,”her young heart had also crumbled.

Senior Golden Lamp... This was one of the great seniors she had looked up to the most in her life!

Who would have thought that such a tall and imposing image would actually collapse with a single sentence from Odd Zhuo..

Lotus Sun didn’t know whether the nine temples’ plan would be carried out smoothly or not.

But the image of the monk pretending to be Sumiko and staying by her side was very “Beautiful” just by thinking about it.

Lotus Sun wasn’t afraid of the nine temples at all since she had the support of Ao Hai.

But now, she was even more afraid of laughing at herself..

At this moment, Lotus Sun couldn’t help sighing in her heart.

Senior Golden Lamp was too loyal!

He had sacrificed himself to such an extent for the sake of the descendants of the nine temples family’s old friends.

As expected of the Most Holy Buddhist monk who had seen through the mortal world, the most powerful Holy Monk on earth..

For such a great senior to do this.

Then, what reason did she have to reject him?

..

In fact, Lotus Sun had already figured out why she had agreed to nine temples Liangzi's request long ago when Odd Zhuo had sent a text message to ask her for help.

Because from the overall assessment, nine temples Liangzi was someone who could be developed.

If she could rope him in, she wouldn't have to worry about her investigating Wang Ling in the future.

By helping Liangzi Jiugong, not only would she be able to resolve student Wang Ling's worries, but she would also be able to resolve her own concerns about Liangzi Jiugong.

This was the best of both worlds, and Lotus Sun felt that there was no reason for her not to agree.

According to Liangzi Jiugong's plan.

Now, she would pretend to be "Liangzi Jiugong" and the golden lamp monk would pretend to be a female bodyguard, "Chuncao Chongchun."

But this was far from enough.

This was because they didn't have to pretend from the start, but had to act according to the circumstances after they landed on the island.

If they had directly pretended to land on the island from the start, their motives would have been too obvious.

Thus, they needed a reason to act as a cover..

Odd Zhuo had already thought this through for Liangzi Jiugong.

On the night that Liangzi Jiugong visited Lotus Sun's villa.

Almost at the same time, Odd Zhuo also paid a visit to the Wang family's small villa.

Wang Ling had just welcomed odd zhuo into the bedroom when the door closed.

Odd Zhuo immediately knelt down and used the momentum of inertia to "Drift" toward Wang Ling.

Then, he hugged Wang Ling's thigh tightly. "Master! This disciple is begging you... you must go to the Sun Island student exchange program! This disciple's happiness for the rest of my life is in your hands, Master!"

Wang Ling:"..."

Sun Island's exchange student program had a total of three spots.

In fact, this was a special cover operation that Odd Zhuo had set up for the nine temples' "Metamorphosis Project" to proceed smoothly.

Since it was essentially an investigation, this exchange student spot could only be decided internally this time.

In other words, as a participant in the "Metamorphosis project," the monk would be the "Lead teacher" of the new teacher, huuding.

And "Lotus Sun" will also occupy an exchange student quota as a cover.

There are no places for accompanying teachers, so there are two remaining places for the actual exchange program.

"..." at that moment, Wang Ling stroked his chin thoughtfully.

Even if I agree to Odd Zhuo's request.

So who does odd zhuo intend to give this extra spot to internally?

"Don't worry about the remaining spots, Shifu, as long as Shifu agrees..."

Odd Zhuo said, "Mr. Wang Ming said he wants to go."

Wang Ling was stunned. "..."

He understood the logic, but the problem was that Wang Ming didn't seem to be a student at No. 60 high school either... This seemed a little too much!

Odd Zhuo seemed to have already considered Wang Ling's problem. "Don't worry about this Shifu, because Mr. Ming used his identity as Wang Xiaoer to participate in the six schools' military training drill, so his student status information is actually still at No. 60 high, but he's suspended from school. It can be activated at any time."

Wang Ling:"

Chapter 1495 Compatibility Between Wang Ming And Zhai Yin

Wang Ling suddenly felt that Odd Zhuo had been a little bold lately, but he had indeed never seen odd zhuo beg him like this for a person.

For a moment, a chord in Wang Ling's heart was touched, but he couldn't say what kind of emotion it was.

He felt that he should be able to understand. However, every time this happened, Wang Ling felt as if his heart was being tightly gripped by a large invisible hand.

That invisible hand was like a cage, shattering all his emotions that were about to rise and fall into the turbulent but hidden undercurrent in his heart..

So, Wang Ling often felt that he didn't understand.

However, it was as if Odd Zhuo's request for nine temples Liangzi had touched him again, and he couldn't refuse Odd Zhuo's request.

Forget it, I'll just take it as a show of affection between master and disciple..

Wang Ling's heart was actually very complicated, but he still found a reason to agree to Odd Zhuo's request.

This kind of giving up all his strength for the person he liked... Wang Ling somehow felt that this scene was somewhat familiar.

During last semester's joint drill of the six schools' military training, the old devil had knelt down before general yi in front of everyone for his wife.

Even today, Wang Ling still remembered that scene.

It was as if that scene had been etched into his mind, and he couldn't forget it.

Perhaps he still needed a lot of time before he could truly understand that move... but he still had a long way to go, and who knew when he would be able to understand it?

Maybe ten years? Maybe twenty years? Or maybe, forever..

Wang Ling smiled bitterly in his heart.

He reached out to stroke Odd Zhuo's curly hair on his forehead, and Odd Zhuo felt a warm current rush into his head from between his eyebrows.

Wang Ling seemed to have given him the strength to fill up the reservoir of "Thirty-three little daos of vital qi" in his body.

At the same time, he gave Odd Zhuo some instructions, hoping that Odd Zhuo would be more attentive while he was away from the country.

“Master, you agreed?” Odd Zhuo was overjoyed, and tears of excitement flowed down his face.

In fact, he hadn’t thought that Wang Ling would definitely agree to his request in the first place.

After all, his request had conflicted with the peaceful life that his master had always been passionate about.

Going abroad to be an exchange student was really too eye-catching..

But Odd Zhuo had actually already thought of a way to remedy it.

This operation was a two-way communication between No. 60 High and Sun Island, and it wouldn’t involve other schools, so odd Zhuo could still temporarily block the news.

After Odd Zhuo left, Wang Ling waited in the bedroom for that man to appear..

When the long-distance holographic projection appeared in the bedroom, Wang Ming’s two-faced smile appeared in front of Wang Ling.

The young man looked into Wang Ling’s eyes and couldn’t help laughing. “I really didn’t follow you on purpose this time, but I really have something important to do.”

He looked at Wang Ling and said, “Do you remember the group of silver-horned man DNA that we investigated earlier?”

“Teacher Guo Ping is now an expert in this field? Although we can’t find any DNA comparison data in the big database, he’s still able to determine that this silver-horned man might be related to some aliens on Sun Island who have illegally stayed on Earth.”

“His judgment is the same as the result I got from secretly hacking into a private database. This matter should have been handed over to teacher Guo Ping, but he couldn’t get away...”

”...” Wang Ling looked at Wang Ming suspiciously.

He knew this man too well... even if he didn't have to read Wang Ming's mind to know that there must be some other reason behind it.

"Alright, I admit that there aren't many opportunities for this kind of government-sponsored travel. I've been cooped up in the country for too long, so I wanted to find an opportunity to go out and play."

"What about Zhai Yin?" Wang Ling asked telepathically.

"She definitely can't get rid of her... She'll buy another plane ticket and follow," Wang Ming said.

At that moment, loopy toad, which had been lying on the ground in silence for a long time, lazily lifted its eyelids and chuckled. "I think this girl should like you."

"Be more confident and get rid of her. She just likes me," Wang Ming said.

Wang Ling and loopy toad: "..."

Loopy toad rolled its eyes. "You already know that, but you're still hanging on to someone else?"

"I'm doing this for her own good... and I think it's probably impossible for me and factor to be together..."

Wang Ming sighed. "I used the brain deduction spell to calculate our compatibility; the compatibility is really too low. There's a very small chance that we'll end up together perfectly."

As he said this, Wang Ming raised a finger.

"There's only a 10% chance?" Loopy toad asked.

Wang Ming shook his head. "No, 0.10%."

Wang Ling and loopy toad: "..."

Wang Ming's smile gradually disappeared. "Maybe I really am not the one he's destined to be with... Factor, if you're with someone else, you might live a happier life."

..

..

On the other side, the Sun Island exchange student plan was simultaneously transmitted to the Jiugong family. This was the internal communication between Jiugong Liangzi and the Jiugong family, which had been released in advance. This was also the plan that Jiugong Liangzi and Odd Zhuo had come up with after discussing it.

"No. 60 High School is sending three students over, Liangzi?" The person on the phone with Jiugong Liangzi was the Jiugong family's exclusive foreign affairs liaison officer, Ying Xianhe Ming.

It was an old man with silver-white back hair. He was very tall, with white hair and a childlike face. There was not a single wrinkle on his face.

"Yes, Uncle Ying. I will send you the information of the three people and the leading teacher later," said Liangzi Jiugong.

"No problem. Leave it to me. Don't worry, Ms. Liangzi. I will definitely contact the best school closest to the Jiugong family to give the distinguished guests from afar the best experience."

Ying Xian and Ming smiled. "Speaking of which, Miss Liangzi, don't you want to take the opportunity to go home and take a look? The patriarch, the old master, and the First Lady All Miss You."

These words sounded like probing. Jiugong Liangzi was silent for a moment, then replied with a smile, "I haven't completely established my footing in huaxiu, so I can't come back for the time being. Please don't worry, grandfather and parents."

"And I should be able to find out the whereabouts of that dead fish-eyed youth very soon."

"Dead fish-eyed youth? You mean the one who was seen by the sun-treading ghost back then..."

“That’s right,” said nine temples Liangzi. “I invested a huge amount of money into master shouchong’s research institute. I believe that he’ll soon be able to develop a tool that can successfully find that youth.”

The girl on the phone was no longer reporting her safety to her family. She also told them about her various plans. But she didn’t mention that she had been hit by the “Dead fish eye potion all over the world”..

After the announcement was over, Liangzi nine temples hung up the phone. She patted her flat chest and let out a long sigh of relief. “It’s all settled at last...”

At that moment, she was still in Lotus Sun’s bedroom.

“You’re still looking for that dead fish-eyed teenager?” Lotus Sun asked with a stifled smile after hearing Liangzi nine temples’ words.

“That’s right! If it weren’t for your medicine, which caused me to see everyone else as dead fish-eyed... I might have found him long ago...”

Lotus sun: “I think you shouldn’t be too obsessed with this; you might not be able to find him...”

Liangzi Jiugong said, “No! When you and classmate Wang Ling go abroad, I’ll definitely find him!”

Lotus Sun: “...”

Chapter 1496 Liangzi Nine Temples’ Nightmare

“Lotus Sun, this time... thank you very much.”

After receiving a definite answer, Liangzi nine temples finally felt a little relieved.

“You’re welcome, classmate nine temples.” Lotus Sun smiled, and her smile was very generous, and very sincere. “I know Liangzi has always regarded me as an opponent. In fact, I’ve always been deeply honored to be chosen as an opponent by classmate nine temples.”

Liangzi Jiugong's face immediately turned red when he heard this.

It had to be said that Lotus Sun's "Mind attack" was indeed superb, and the so-called "Lotus Sun's domain" was actually an enhanced passive version of the "Mind attack."

As the future successor of Huaguo Water Curtain Group, grandfather Sun had been very thorough in nurturing Lotus Sun from a young age.

Observing People's expressions and observing their minds to attack tactics was actually a commercial tactic.

Ever since Lotus Sun had determined that Liangzi nine temples was different from Jiang Yingying and that she didn't really like Wang Ling, she had changed her strategy towards Liangzi nine temples.

From the initial counter-attack to the win-win cooperation now, everything had been in order to help Odd Zhuo take down the "Beautiful girl from the plains" in front of him as soon as possible.

And as it turned out, Lotus Sun's move was indeed very effective.

"Don't misunderstand, student Lotus Sun... this time, it's just a temporary cooperation! You'll always be my opponent!" Liangzi nine temples blushed.

She tried to disguise herself as "Super Fierce," but she didn't realize that when her big eyes opened wide, she actually looked very silly and cute.

"There's no need to thank me, Liangzi. If you want to thank me, thank Senior Odd Zhuo. He arranged everything. I've never seen senior Odd Zhuo beg anyone before," Lotus Sun said.

Liangzi Jiugong crossed his arms and pursed his lips. "Seriously... asking him to mind his own business..."

Although he said that, Lotus Sun really felt that this was more like a Coquettish Act.

"Also, I want to know if the two people who are in the same class as Lotus Sun are reliable?"

“Don’t worry, Liangzi, these two people are on the same side. One of them is student Wang Ling, you’ve already met him, and the other student is Wang Xiaoer, who’s suspended from school.”

“Student Wang Ling, I know... is that dead fish eye with delicate features?” Nine temples Liangzi shrugged. She didn’t care too much about Wang Ling, because she was still under the effects of the medicine, and everyone she saw was dead fish eyes.

In contrast, she actually cared more about Wang Ming. “By the way, who is this Wang Xiaoer? What do you mean by saying that they’re all on the same side?”

“Didn’t Senior Odd Zhuo tell you?”

Suddenly, Lotus Sun smiled. “Student Wang Ling and student Wang Xiaoer are actually his disciples. It’s just that this matter hasn’t been made public yet, so I hope student Liangzi can keep it a secret.”

“He actually has a disciple?”

“Yes,” Lotus Sun said. “Senior Odd Zhuo is so amazing, of course he has to choose the right person to inherit his mantle.”

“I see...”

When he heard this, Liangzi nine temples had a look of sudden realization as he repeatedly nodded like a chicken pecking at rice.

“By the way, is student Liangzi still suspecting senior Odd Zhuo? He’s a man of true talent,” Lotus Sun deliberately asked at this moment.

“I just feel that it’s necessary to investigate...”

“Senior Odd Zhuo is a good man. And you shouldn’t be a problem with his age,” Lotus Sun said deliberately.

“I’m a minor!”Liangzi nine temples emphasized.

“Oh, right, I almost forgot. Liangzi is the same age as me.”

”...”perhaps it was her own misconception, but Liangzi nine temples suddenly realized that lotus sun seemed to always have a hidden meaning behind her words.

The girl in front of him was much scarier than she had imagined..

..

In fact, the nine temples family had been the ones who had proposed the Sun Island Exchange Plan from the very beginning. It could be said that Liangzi had planned it in advance in order to prevent any internal changes in the family.

In fact, the plan had always been in the flow. Liangzi could activate it at any time at his command.

No one had expected that she would be so meticulous at such a young age, and she had never expected that her plan would come in handy so quickly.

If it was possible.

She hoped that she would never use this plan in her entire life.

That night, she closed her eyes and tossed and turned in bed, thinking about a lot of things. She didn’t know how much time had passed before she fell asleep.

In her dream, she found herself walking on a frozen lake.

The snowstorm blocked her vision.

For a moment, Yoshiko found that she couldn’t see the road in front of her clearly.

The faces under her feet were smiling at her at first, then they suddenly turned into ghosts and jumped out of the frozen lake, turning into all kinds of ferocious appearances and pouncing on her.

“Is it this dream again...”

This was not the first time that Yoshiko Kyushu dreamed of such a nightmarish scene.

She silently stood in the snowstorm and watched as the ghost faces attacked her body, allowing them to turn into masks that were difficult to tear off and layer upon layer on her white, jade-like cheeks, she did not know when it began, but she began to find that her family was becoming more and more complicated.

When she was young, the big family that was so warm in her heart that it could melt everything started to be covered by all kinds of dark shadows..

She didn't know when it started, but Yoshiko Kyoya found that her smile was becoming less and less.

She started to learn how to disguise herself, to fake a smile, to put on the cold face of society, and to deal with all the difficulties in front of her.

She seemed to have become the person she hated the most.

Everything that had changed, everything that she could do nothing about, made Yoshiko nine temples look like a frightened bird.

She lived cautiously, as if she was treading on thin ice..

And in this apocalyptic scene, Yoshiko nine temples walked for a long time.

“It should be almost over...”she estimated the time of this nightmare in her heart, and felt that she was about to wake up.

However, what the girl didn't expect was that.

This was the first time that her doomsday nightmare had a follow-up..

At this moment, she was walking alone on the ice surface, receiving the impact of the snowstorm and the ghostly faces.

A Ray of light suddenly pierced through the scene in front of her.

In an instant, the snowstorm dispersed and there were no clouds in the sky. Under the sunlight, the frozen lake surface and those annoying ghostly faces were all evaporated and completely disappeared.

“Student Liangzi!”

The familiar voice instantly made Liangzi nine temples look in the direction of the voice.

At the end of the voice was a man standing on the riverbank waving at him and smiling at him..

At that moment, Liangzi nine temples felt as if something had struck him in the heart.

The masks on his face were like dead skin that had been peeled off layer by layer and then turned into fine powder..

“Odd Zhuo...”

She looked at the person in front of her in disbelief and was about to step forward when the dream suddenly contracted.

When Liangzi nine temples woke up, it was already the next morning.

After waking up, the young girl hugged her knees like a frightened little hedgehog and cowered in fear on the bed for a long time.

She had actually dreamt of Odd Zhuo..

He was really crazy!

Chapter 1497 Super Chen's Mouth Grew Stronger Again

On Monday, December 14th, two people from class three, grade one of No. 60 high school, were absent.

One was Wang Ling, and the other was Lotus Sun.

The people from No. 60 high school who knew that Wang Ling and Lotus Sun were about to go abroad were actually Gu Shunzhi, Wang Zhen, and the others. They were now core members of the war sect, so they could still get this information.

According to the official account provided by teacher Pan, Wang Ling and Lotus Sun were sick and needed to rest at home for a period of time..

If others were to disappear, there was a high chance that not many people would pay attention to them, but the fact that these two had disappeared together made people's imaginations run wild.

Sick Together? and also applying to rest at home at the same time?

The others in the class might believe this, but Super Chen and hero Guo wouldn't believe it so easily.

"It can't be... it's really done?" The two living treasures looked at each other, their expressions extremely interesting.

On the Cultivation Culture Street, they had left ahead of time, deliberately leaving the space open. They had thought that the two of them would make some progress this time, but they did not expect that the progress would be so fast.

In two days, they had already gotten into the hospital.

Abortion..

They immediately thought of the scenes that often appeared in TV dramas.

In the “Ling Rong Assistant Discussion Group”, which was formed by Hero Guo, Li You Yue, and Super Chen.

They were discussing the situation enthusiastically.

“You guys are too dirty! You Go wherever you want... who says that going to the hospital means an abortion? Moreover, how can it be so fast! !”Li You Yue said snappily.

“Then if it’s not, is it possible that it’s because Wang Ling couldn’t control his impulses and wanted to be a beast for once, and then someone found out and broke his leg?”In fact, even hero Guo himself didn’t quite believe it when he said this.

The probability of this cold-hearted blockhead being a beast was almost zero.

If he had been a beast, he would have been a beast a long time ago..

Back then, when they were in the Xiao family’s courtyard, they had had plenty of opportunities to be alone.

“I don’t think your son is a man who would do something like that.”

At this moment, super Chen suddenly typed, “But it’s really interesting that the two of them disappeared at the same time and called in sick.”

“Mm, I think there’s probably something else going on behind the scenes,”Li You Yue said.

The main thing was that the three of them had sent Wang Ling or Lotus Sun private messages asking about the situation, but hadn’t received any reply.

This situation was indeed a little inconceivable.

But they also knew Old Pan well.

As a meticulous gold-medal teacher, old Pan basically wouldn't help them lie.

It looked like someone even more senior than old Pan must have planned something and then called Wang Ling and Lotus Sun out..

"Could it be that they're going abroad to study?" At that moment.., Super Chen suddenly said, "I remember that in the past, when foreign students came to our school, it seemed that they had plans to exchange students. This time, isn't there going to be another student from our class?"

"It's possible!" When Hero Guo and Li You Yue saw Super Chen type this, they immediately nodded like chicks pecking at rice.

"In other words... they're actually going abroad for their honeymoon?" The corners of Li You Yue's mouth twitched.

At this moment, Hero Guo couldn't help laughing. "Honeymoon is an exaggeration. How can a cultured person be called a honeymoon? That's called learning!"

Li You Yue: "Right, right, right! Learning! hehehe!"

Super Chen echoed, "Hehehe!"

..

After a round of discussion, Super Chen and the others seemed to have an answer. They were Wang Ling's best brothers, and even if they knew something, it would only rot in their stomachs and wouldn't be revealed.

However, Super Chen and the others weren't the only ones who were suspicious of this matter.

On this day, Jiang Yingying wasn't in a good mood either. She couldn't wait to see Wang Ling and Lotus Sun's empty seats, and felt that something was most likely going on between the two of them.

When school was about to end, Jiang Yingying used the same trick again and blocked Super Chen and hero Guo at the school gate.

“Student Jiang... Please let me go, I really don’t know where Ling Zi Went.”

Hero Guo made a gesture of surrender, while Super Chen stepped forward to block little fatty Guo behind him.

“I know you have a good impression of Ling Zi, student Jiang, but sometimes, you really can’t force it. As Wang Ling’s best brother, your behavior will not only trouble us, but also student Wang Ling.”

Super Chen said this very seriously, and Jiang Yingying listened in a daze.

The young girl lowered her head, her face flushed red. She was probably embarrassed by what he had said and was reflecting on herself.

Super Chen saw Jiang Yingying’s nose twitch as if tears were about to fall in the next second, and he hurriedly relaxed his breath a little, in the gentlest tone possible, he said, “Actually... Student Jiang Yingying, I’ve always wanted to ask, do you really like student Wang Ling?”

Jiang Yingying’s mind instantly went blank. “I... Of course I...”

“No, what I want to ask is, does student Jiang like Ling Zi’s literary talent or like him?”

Super Chen laughed. “Although I’ve been single for a long time myself, I know a little about relationships. At our age, it’s actually very easy to mistake good feelings, friendship, admiration, and the like for liking. “You just read one of your son’s essays and said you liked him, so I think student Jiang Yingying should have thought it through.”

“I...”Jiang Yingying was instantly speechless. For a moment, she didn’t know how to refute Super Chen’s words.

“It’s okay, student Jiang. You actually don’t have to answer me now. These questions of mine are just some questions I asked you because I’m your brother. They’re just immature little questions,”Super Chen said.

In fact, Super Chen himself didn't know why, but his mouth seemed to be getting better and better at speaking..

Especially since the beginning of the semester, his ability to organize his language seemed to have been strengthened.

If the time frame was more precise, it should have been after he had attended the math class of the new vice principal, teacher "Huuding"..

A series of questions left Jiang Yingying powerless to answer. She stopped asking about Wang Ling and walked toward the station with a slightly dejected expression on her face.

"Isn't that a little too much?"Super Chen frowned, a little worried.

"Let's follow behind and send classmate Jiang Yingying back first. Her condition is really worrying,"hero Guo said.

Just like that, the two of them thought it over and secretly followed behind.

..

At that moment, Wang Ling and Lotus Sun were in the same place going through the relevant procedures for going abroad.

Because he needed to be there in person, Wang Ling had no choice but to personally take part in this matter.

In fact, this wasn't his first time going abroad.

It was mainly his first time going abroad according to the formal procedures..

Because of his habitual use of teleportation, Wang Ling had, in theory, already entered other countries illegally several times, and he was the type to jump around repeatedly without anyone being able to do anything to him.

Huaxiu nation's cultivation entry and exit administration.

At this moment, Wang Ling, who was taking passport and passport photos, encountered a new problem..

"Student Wang Ling, can you smile a little?"

The female police officer who had taken the photo asked Wang Ling as she held up her SLR camera.

Wang Ling grinned, and the female police officer didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "Why are you smiling like you're Crying?"

Wang Ling:"..."

The female police officer: "Come, imitate me: Isn't Handsome Ku Xuan?"

Wang Ling:"..."

The female police officer: "Don't be quiet, just imitate me, I'll take the photo."

Wang Ling: "But I can't lie..."

Female police officer:"..."

Chapter 1498 How Scary It Was To Be Jealous Of A Young Girl

Almost all of Wang Ling's ID photos had a dead look on them, and his expression had always been that of someone who had no hope of living and hadn't woken up. He lacked a bit of the temperament of a bright young man, which could be a problem that was very difficult for Wang Ling to change.

This directly caused Wang Ling to be labeled as a “Melancholy-type young man” since he was young, which wasn’t the same as the feeling of abstinence... perhaps it was because of his dead fish eyes.., this directly caused Wang Ling to look a little “Empty”.

In junior high school, Wang Ling remembered that he had been given a very outrageous nickname, which was “Kidney empty young master”..

He didn’t know where this nickname had come from.

But Wang Ling couldn’t be bothered with the behavior of such a child.

In essence, giving people nicknames in school was actually a violent act.

But in fact, the nicknames incident in junior high didn’t last long.

At that time, many people really felt that Wang Ling was very weak, so they deliberately ran over to pick on him.

For example, when Wang Ling went to the bathroom, they would jump out of the back cubicle and violently slap him..

It was fine if they didn’t slap him, but after the photo was taken, these senior bullies in junior high were all dumbstruck.

This guy... could he really be called kidney deficiency Childe?

Which kind of kidney deficiency Childe could grow an empty seat underneath..

..

After another ten minutes or so, the female police officer, like those photographers who were keen on taking photos of smiling faces and ID cards, finally gave up resisting completely.

Such a good-looking young man was actually an autistic teenager... what a pity!

She stared at Wang Ling's face-numbing ID photo and sighed in her heart.

In fact, not all police officers who took id photos had this kind of patience.

On one hand, it was because they had a lot of free time today, and on the other hand, Wang Ling was actually quite popular with this female police officer.

The overabundance of maternal instinct was probably a common problem for women. Seeing Wang Ling made this female police officer feel as if she was seeing her own son, and the two of them were about the same age.

"I think the photo is pretty good!"

Lotus sun was overjoyed on the side; on the contrary, she felt that Wang Ling was quite cute,

"Pretty Good?"

The female police officer chuckled.

As expected, beauty was in the eye of the beholder..

Lotus Sun was next in line for the photo shoot.

In fact, Lotus Sun had already had her passport a long time ago.

This time, in addition to taking the latest passport photo, she was also here to apply for an extension.

"Sorry to trouble you, Sister Police Officer."Facing the camera, the young girl's expression was very generous and natural. Her smile wasn't stiff at all, just like those celebrity models who were used to taking photos.

This photo was taken fluently, far more smoothly than Wang Ling's.

The young girl's skin was so good that even the female police officer was envious. She hadn't fixed the photo, but it was as if a beauty filter had been turned on.

While helping Lotus Sun make a new passport, the female police officer glanced at Lotus Sun's original old photo.

Then, she was shocked by the dazzling array of signatures from various countries on the passport. "Wow, you've been to so many places?"

After all, she was the eldest daughter of Huaguo Water Curtain Group, so she had indeed seen a lot of the world..

The female police officer sighed again in her heart.

Money really limited people's imagination to a large extent..

Most people probably would never be able to experience what it was like to be rich in their entire lives.

During this process, Wang Ling saw the photo on Lotus Sun's old passport.

Lotus sun was still a cute little girl on this passport.

"You already had a passport when you were in elementary school..."Wang Ling was startled.

No Wonder Lotus Sun had specially come over today to replace the photo. The changes in primary school and high school weren't trivial.

And for some reason, when Wang Ling stared at this picture of Lotus Sun as a primary school student, he felt a sense of familiarity in his mind.

It was as if he and Lotus Sun had unintentionally met for a very long time..

But that memory had already become fuzzy.

Wang Ling judged that it might have been an accidental encounter.

As a result, he and Lotus Sun hadn't noticed each other.

By the time everything was ready, it was already close to evening.

The boarding time was on Tuesday, December 15th, which was eight o'clock the next morning.

As soon as he stepped out of the door, he saw Odd Zhuo waiting at the door in his car with an obedient look on his face.

This was Odd Zhuo's personal car, and it could already be considered a relatively low-key one.

Today, Odd Zhuo had actually taken Wang Ling and Lotus Sun to run all day and gone through all sorts of formalities.

The passport was already the last step.

Logically speaking, the passport wasn't issued that quickly, but with Odd Zhuo's official involvement, they had gone through the green channel.

It was the same with visas.

Odd Zhuo, No. 60 high school, and the Jiugong family on Sun Island all greeted each other, and the visas wouldn't be much of a hindrance.

It could be said that everything was ready now.

As Wang Ling and Lotus Sun approached the car, Wang Ling suddenly saw the dainty-looking Jiugong Liangzi sitting in the passenger seat through the car window.

The young girl had changed into that very familiar Gothic dark-style outfit, her arms crossed and her brows tightly knitted. It was unknown what she was thinking about.

“Come, disciple, quickly get in the car!” With a smile on his face, Odd Zhuo warmly greeted Wang Ling.

” ... ”

Wang Ling silently sighed.

He wasn’t angry.

In any case, he was just putting on an act right now..

Odd Zhuo had helped him take the blame for so many times, and Wang Ling felt that it wasn’t really a loss to be called his disciple.

Moreover, he also hoped that Odd Zhuo and Liangzi Jiugong would really succeed.

This girl Jiugong wasn’t easy to deal with; if she became an enemy, it would be very troublesome.

Opening the car door, Wang Ling stood obediently on one side and politely let Lotus Sun take a seat first.

Then, he went up from the other side.

Liangzi Jiugong glanced at Wang Ling through the rearview mirror and seemed faintly displeased with this “Disciple” of his. “You, as a disciple, are so rude? Why didn’t you say hello to Master?”

Odd Zhuo was holding the steering wheel when he heard Liangzi Jiugong’s question, and his feet suddenly trembled. Halfway through, he suddenly stepped on the brakes, causing Liangzi Jiugong’s head to knock forward on the spot.

“Aiya.”Liangzi Jiugong had been hit, but because she had been wearing a seatbelt, she hadn’t been hit that much. She had only been a little frightened. “Can you do it... If you can’t, I’ll Drive!”

She felt wronged.

Every time this happened, Liangzi Jiugong would think of her disappointing plain.

If it was big enough, it would be like two airbags! It would be good to cushion the blow!

“You’re driving? Are you an adult?”

Odd Zhuo chuckled. This sounded like a casual remark, but it was actually a secret.

Behind the scenes, Wang Ling and Lotus Sun had actually faintly heard it.

They all knew what Liangzi nine temples’secret was.

Odd Zhuo didn’t say this on purpose; he just felt that Liangzi nine temples was a little hostile toward Wang Ling, so he had thought of something to make Liangzi nine temples care.

And sure enough, the girl in the passenger seat became much more obedient after he said this.

She just turned her face away and looked out the window; on the surface, it looked like she was sulking.

In fact, she was also conflicted in her heart about whether Odd Zhuo had discovered her secret.

“But I probably didn’t mean to say what I said just now...”Liangzi Jiugong comforted herself on the way.

“Junior Sister Lotus Sun, you’ll be leaving first thing in the morning. Tonight, it’s my treat. What do you guys want to eat?”Seeing that the atmosphere had turned awkward, odd zhuo asked after being immersed in the car for a few dozen seconds.

“Wang Ling and I can do it,” Lotus Sun replied with a smile.

She knew that Wang Ling wasn't a Picky Eater, and she didn't have to worry about eating.

In any case, Wang Ling's physique was really hard to get fat from eating; even if he did get fat from eating, he could still rub it off..

“Okay, I know a good barbecue restaurant.” Odd Zhuo nodded, then turned to look at the young girl who was still sulking beside him. “What about Jiugong? Can you accept it?”

“Who wants to eat barbecue... You'll get fat...” Yoshiko Jiugong muttered.

“Classmate Nine Temples is already so thin, why are you still afraid of getting fat? I don't think it's a big deal for a girl to get fat, as long as she gets fat where it needs to go,” Odd Zhuo said with a smile.

Liangzi Nine Temples' eyes instantly lit up when he heard this, and then quickly calmed down.

The girl snorted and turned her head to look out the window. “As you wish...”

The atmosphere should have been saved..

Seeing this scene, Odd Zhuo heaved a long sigh of relief in his heart and couldn't help sighing at his own difficulties.

His master and mistress were in the back seat, and his future wife was by his side.

The pressure was indeed great..

After all, he and Nine Temples would really be together in the future.

In front of him, apart from that father-in-law who was always lenient, there were a total of six mother-in-laws..

..

..

The four of them arrived at the barbecue shop without a hitch.

In public, Odd Zhuo didn't really want to expose his identity, so he wore sunglasses and a cap that would definitely press down his hair.

The comical outfit made Liangzi Jiugong laugh in his heart.

After they sat down, Liangzi Jiugong suddenly realized a problem. "Eh? That classmate Wang Xiaor and senior golden lamp... aren't they coming?"

"They'll meet at the international boat yard in Songhai city tomorrow morning. Don't worry about them," Odd Zhuo said.

Actually, the main reason was that Wang Ming's approval to go abroad was more troublesome.

Although Odd Zhuo was already doing his best to coordinate, it still depended on the old secretary and President Qi to nod their heads in the end whether Wang Ming could go abroad.

After all, Wang Ming's work this time was nominally to "Investigate aliens," and even if he didn't have to do it, he could do it.

There were so many experts and scholars in the Academy of Magic Treasure who studied aliens, so it didn't really matter who they sent.

The officials were still more worried about what would happen if Wang Ming's true identity was leaked and he was abroad, and they found an excuse to forcibly detain him.

Although the probability of that was relatively small, it was also a potential risk that needed to be assessed.

Wang Ling himself was quite calm about this matter.

With the “Great Luck Spell” around, it was obvious that Wang Ming wouldn’t be in trouble if he passed the trial.

During the ordering segment, a waitress walked over gracefully from a distance with a tray in her hand. She placed the ice lemon water on the tray in front of everyone’s eyes.

“My Name Is Aya, and this is a complimentary ice lemon water. If you need it, you can call me for a refill at any time.”

The waitress called “Aya” smiled.

She then looked at Odd Zhuo. “Sir, you look a little familiar?”

“Is that so...” odd zhuo pushed up his sunglasses and smiled awkwardly.

Odd Zhuo glanced at Liangzi Jiugongzi indifferently and found that the girl’s eyes were filled with tiny thorns.

“Excuse me, are you... Mr. Odd Zhuo...”

In fact, when the waitress saw the untucked curl on Odd Zhuo’s forehead, she had already confirmed his identity.

As if on purpose, Aya had pressed her upper body very low, and even with his sunglasses, Odd Zhuo could see the two white patches on the waitress’s chest.

The barbecue shop Odd Zhuo had found was a place he frequented.

Although he usually hid it, most of the waiters in the shop knew it was him, and under normal circumstances, there wouldn’t be such a fuss.

This Aya was obviously new, and for a moment Odd Zhuo felt a little helpless.

Since she had already been recognized, he could only admit it.

So Odd Zhuo took off his sunglasses and made a silent gesture at Aya. “You’re right, but I hope you keep your voice down...”

“I understand!”The waitress looked excited.

It wasn’t until this moment that Liangzi nine temples realized that he seemed to have underestimated odd zhuo’s popularity.

To be recognized in public under disguise was really like being a celebrity!

And usually, this type of person who could be recognized was most likely a “True love fan”who had been following him for a long time..

Aya didn’t stand on ceremony. She took out her phone on the spot, turned it on to selfie mode, and then turned her beauty level to the highest level.

“Um... Mr. Odd Zhuo, can I take a photo with you?”She was obedient and didn’t disturb the other diners. She lowered her voice very low, and there was a tinge of numbness in her shyness, then, she pretended to pull up the collar of her uniform.

” ...”

This scene instantly made Wang Ling turn his face away obediently.

Lotus Sun watched this scene from the side as if she were watching a play, and at the same time, she was very satisfied with Wang Ling’s “Don’t look at indecent things.”.

In fact, Wang Ling didn’t know why he had turned his face away.

Perhaps it was his instinctive reaction as a straight man, but he felt that he should turn away..

“Sorry, it’s not convenient for me to take a picture with you.” Odd Zhuo smiled at the waitress and refused.

Actually, he had never refused this kind of thing before.

It was a pity that the alliance election was coming up, and he needed to be extra careful.

After all, Odd Zhuo was still well-known across the country at the moment. Taking a picture with him wasn’t a big deal, but he was afraid that people with ulterior motives would use it to do bad things.

For example, a little over a year ago, Odd Zhuo’s group photo had been promoted by the owner of a restaurant, saying that Odd Zhuo was his relative or something like that... in order to attract business.

Since that incident, Odd Zhuo had actually been careful and rarely took pictures with others.

“Can’t I...” The waitress called Aya looked disappointed when her request was rejected.

She gently rubbed her foot against Odd Zhuo’s leg.

“If you don’t mind, I can sign it instead.”

The corners of Odd Zhuo’s lips curled up slightly. He actually knew what this Aya was up to.

However, she could withstand the temptation.

This was also a test for cadres.

Odd Zhuo thought of himself as a person with very strong self-control.

It wasn’t that he hadn’t experienced such a scene before.

And it was actually very easy to get rid of this waitress.

But that wasn't what he was paying attention to.

He was more curious about nine temples' attitude and reaction.

In fact, at this moment, Liangzi nine temples' face was already very ugly.

The girl's face was covered in dark clouds, and when paired with her gothic black gown, she looked like a hexenbiest in an ancient castle.

Even if she didn't say anything, Lotus Sun could sense that Liangzi nine temples wanted to eat this waitress alive.

"Brother Odd Zhuo, I've always been your fan. Please... just one! Okay? I promise not to tell anyone!"

But this waitress seemed to be wasting her time with Odd Zhuo. She spoke in a proud yet delicate voice and didn't take Liangzi nine temples seriously at all.

At this moment, actually, Odd Zhuo himself couldn't take it anymore.

He was just about to respond to this matter with a serious attitude.

But at this moment, to Odd Zhuo's surprise, Liangzi Jiu Gong actually couldn't take it anymore.

The girl's Back was straight and she was clearly sitting, but there was an air of condescension about her. "Mr. Zhuo said it's not convenient to take a group photo. Is it fun for you to waste your time?"

"I just want to take a picture together, can't I? It doesn't matter so much..." after being questioned, Aya put on an aggrieved expression instead.

The good son of nine temples was sitting upright, there was a look of contempt on his face. “We’re here to eat. If this young lady wants to show off, she can go somewhere else. After all, eating dirty things can affect your appetite.”

These words were too blunt.

Odd Zhuo was stupefied.

Lotus Sun secretly exclaimed how wonderful it was.

Wang Ling, on the other hand, fixed his gaze on the previous position of “Don’t look when you’re indecent.”.

In this world, there was only one kind of war that Wang Ling might never be able to participate in.

And that was a war between women..

For some reason, the aura of Liangzi Jiugong seemed to instantly magnify.

He was clearly only in the foundation establishment realm, but he was as bold as a semi-god realm warrior!

“What do you mean...”Aya seemed to have been poked in a sore spot, and the expression on her face was also very ugly.

“I don’t mean anything else. What I mean is that you should move to another place and clean up the Dirty Things.”Yoshiko nine temples pretended to smile, and his gaze pretended to be light as he glanced at the female attendant’s lower body.

This was..

In an instant, the female attendant felt that something was wrong with her situation.

Because at that moment, she actually had her period!

The situation reversed, and Aya instantly ran away in a panic with her legs crossed.

“That’s it?”Yoshiko nine temples snorted as she watched the female attendant leave in a sorry state.

“Yoshiko... What did you do?”Lotus Sun couldn’t help laughing.

“Nothing.”

Liangzi nine temples shook her head and said.

She couldn’t be bothered to continue arguing with this coquettish woman in front of her, because it would attract even more attention.

So fortunately, she had used the power of the duplicate copy of “The book of Ghosts.”.

Because the reason for the riot hadn’t really been revealed yet, Liangzi nine temples knew that there was a certain risk in doing so.

But she hadn’t been able to hold herself back just now..

So she summoned a little ghost called “Excavator”and did something.

This little thing wasn’t fatal; it was just a little blood warning, and it was like it was on its period.

“Excavator...”

Wang Ling didn’t mean to read her mind; he had just happened to hear it.

He instantly broke out in cold sweat and once again felt how terrifying girls were..

..

Because Aya had gone to deal with her personal hygiene, a male waiter had come over to serve them.

They didn't need to cook the meat themselves; the waiters were professionally trained, and they knew exactly how long it would take to cook the meat in different parts.

When he saw that it was a male waiter named "Little Light" who had come over, he instantly felt much more at ease.

She didn't regret what she had done just now.

If that Aya hadn't left and had been showing off to odd zhao while grilling the meat, she would have felt a little nauseous just thinking about it.

In comparison, the male waiter was much better.

The waiter just buried his head in grilling the meat and then divided it evenly among everyone's plates, remaining silent the whole time.

There was no harm in doing so without a foil. Liangzi nine temples was so satisfied with the waiter that he wanted to tip him himself.

While lotus sun and Odd Zhao were chatting and laughing, Liangzi nine temples suddenly realized that this male waiter was barbecuing a cow's tail.

His movements were extremely skillful, and it was unknown how many times he had to be barbecued before he had this kind of experience.

After applying a special sauce, the cow's tail was roasted until it smelled delicious.

Liangzi Kyoko blinked her eyes in anticipation of the waiter cutting and separating the ox tail after it was cooked.

In the end, the waiter directly picked up the entire ox tail and placed it directly on Odd Zhuo's plate. "Mr. Zhuo, Try This. This is our signature roast ox tail. It's a special gift."

Odd Zhuo was puzzled. "A special gift?"

The waiter named "Little Light" blushed endlessly. "Actually... I'm also a fan of Mr. Zhuo. I've been paying attention to him for a long time... I've always, always liked you very, very much..."

The male waiter rubbed his head and smiled foolishly.

Was This... a confession?

Or was it from a boy?

Wang Ling was so scared that his chopsticks fell off..

"Student Wang Ling, don't move... I'll help you pick it up..." Lotus Sun was also very scared.

When she bent down to help Wang Ling pick up the chopsticks, she found that under the table, Liangzi Jiugong was skillfully flipping through the duplicate copy of the "Ghost Manual" again.

She instantly had a premonition of the male waiter's ending.

As expected..

This male waiter called Little Light quickly ran off to deal with his personal problems.

"Even a man can do it?" Lotus Sun was completely shocked.

"It's the same, one is on his period and the other is on his period," Liangzi Jiugong said indifferently.

In her heart, she cursed odd zhuo for finding this lousy shop... it really had all kinds of demons and monsters!

Wang Ling and Odd Zhuo: "..."

After that, there was no after that.

After experiencing "Aya" and "Little Light," Liangzi Jiugong started to be extremely vigilant against those waiters who wanted to get close to their table. It looked like everyone was here to confess.

As long as anyone approached their table and their eyes lingered on Odd Zhuo for more than ten seconds, Liangzi nine temples would take care of their personal problems..

Liangzi nine temples wasn't in the mood to eat; his eyes were like searchlights as he looked around.

She had thought that no waiters would dare come over, but now she saw a smiling old man walking towards them from afar.

The young girl looked at Odd Zhuo in astonishment.

She hadn't expected that Odd Zhuo would even attract an old man..

Smiling wasn't a good thing..

Forget it, forget it, let's send him off together!

"Student Liangzi, wait!"

At this moment, Odd Zhuo, who had already seen through the young girl's little tricks, suddenly spoke up to stop her.

Liangzi nine temples: "??"

Odd Zhuo: "This person is the store manager, I knew him before..."

Liangzi Jiugong: “No Way... but I’ve already...”

At this point, the old store manager walked over to them. “I’m sorry, Mr. Zhuo, I don’t know what’s going on in my store. It seems that everyone has some problems today.”

Wang Ling, Lotus Sun, Odd Zhuo and Liangzi Jiugong:”...”

“In our store, that new Aya and Little Light who came to serve you before are actually boyfriend and girlfriend.”

“I knew you were coming, so I arranged for this young couple who are all your fans to serve you. I didn’t expect that young people nowadays are all weak and sickly.”

Speaking up to this point, the store manager’s expression suddenly changed.

Odd Zhuo had an ominous premonition. “What’s Wrong?”

The store manager: “Sorry... I also have to go and deal with my personal problems...”

Odd Zhuo:”...”

Chapter 1499 Plan Of Kidnapping

Wang Ling found that there seemed to be quite a lot of strange ghosts in “Ghost Book”.

After all, this “Ghost Book”was the century-old foundation of the entire nine temples family.

The ghost named “Excavator”.

In fact, it was a collection of vengeful spirits.

The main composition was from those countless lonely nights, the “Billions of descendants”who were wrapped in toilet paper and thrown into the toilet to be flushed down..

Only a few became small vengeful spirits, which was nothing to be afraid of.

But at some point in time, the accumulation became more and more.

It became such an extremely terrifying ghost.

In the urban legends of the world, there were sometimes people who went to the toilet and defecated blood or urinated blood for unknown reasons.

The reason for this was that this collective Wraith was causing trouble.

Decades ago, the Jiugong family had captured this thing and had given the collective Wraith a code name: Excavator.

And this was the origin of this wraith.

After dinner, Odd Zhuo left some cash at the front desk.

The main reason was that almost everyone in the shop had gone to deal with their personal problems, and even the person who had collected the money had disappeared.

He had deliberately given some more as an apology on behalf of Yoshiko nine temples.

It was only right for him to give the store manager a hint when his future daughter-in-law made a mistake.

In fact, although Yoshiko nine temples didn't say it out loud, she was actually deeply sorry for her rash behavior.

She had even felt that she was a little neurotic.

This had never happened before.

But now that Liangzi nine temples had found out...

Whenever Odd Zhuo was involved, she would gradually lose her mind and lose her calm judgment.

She thought of Odd Zhuo, who had stood on the other side of the frozen lake after the snowstorm in her dream last night, waving at her with a radiant face.

The girl's face couldn't help heating up again.

She sent Wang Ling and Lotus Sun back to their respective seats.

In the passenger seat, the girl, who looked like she was taking a nap with her eyes closed, suddenly let out a gurgling sound from her stomach.

The scene was a little awkward for a time..

Tonight's dinner had been too noisy, and Liangzi nine temples hadn't eaten properly to begin with.

Moreover, because she had driven the "Ghost" too much, the girl's consumption had increased, and she was even hungrier than before she hadn't eaten.

Liangzi Jiugong had wanted to stay up for a bit longer and order supper when he returned home.

In the end, his stomach unexpectedly cried out at this moment.

"Hungry?"

Odd Zhuo raised his eyebrows and asked, "Do you want to have supper with me?"

Liangzi Jiugong knew that Odd Zhuo must have seen that he was pretending to be asleep.

After some thought, he opened his eyes. "Street stalls aren't clean."

"Who said I wanted to take you to eat street stalls?"

Odd Zhuo said, "I can cook them for you myself."

Liangzi nine temples was surprised to hear this. "You know how to Cook?"

"Of course. When I was in the basic unit, I worked in the kitchen for a period of time."

Odd Zhuo smiled confidently, "Of course, it's a little late now. If you want to go back and rest, I'll send you back now. If you want to have supper, come with me to the cadre's apartment. But after this supper, it's probably already midnight. It doesn't seem to be good for a minor's development."

"..."

These words made nine temples Liangzi fall silent.

She swallowed the saliva in her mouth.

She didn't know if she was looking forward to Odd Zhuo's cooking or if she was really hungry, but she was a little conflicted.

"You've always been a straightforward person. Is it that difficult to make a decision?"

Odd Zhuo held the steering wheel and averted his gaze, deliberately not looking at Liangzi nine temples' blushing face.

"Or did you think of something else because you heard that you were going to my apartment?"

"..."

Liangzi nine temples' eyes went blank when he heard this.

Odd Zhuo had already said this; if she didn't go now, she seemed to feel a little guilty.

Thus, she crossed her arms, rolled her eyes at Odd Zhuo, and looked at him with her eyebrows furrowed.

“Fine, I’ll go, who’s Afraid of Who!”

“Okay.”

As a planner, Odd Zhuo was naturally overjoyed to see that his fishing scheme had succeeded.

In fact, after Liangzi nine temples had agreed, he realized that he had been tricked by Odd Zhuo again.

For some reason, Odd Zhuo always seemed to be able to stimulate that string in her heart.

But she still refused to admit it verbally.

Even though she already seemed to have the answer in her heart.

But between her and Odd Zhuo... at most, they could only be best friends, and there was absolutely no possibility for them to go any further..

Whenever she thought of this, she felt like a tangled mess of cotton thread.

The pressure of her family behind her might have long since cut the distance between her and Odd Zhuo.

When she followed Odd Zhuo to the cadre’s apartment, she was actually shocked by the place where Odd Zhuo lived.

It wasn’t that it was gorgeous, but... everything was too clean!

The air was fragrant from the spotless wooden floor, and all the smooth surfaces were so bright that they reflected light as if they had just been wiped.

What surprised Yoshiko the most was odd zhuo's "Obsessive-compulsive disorder" of the house.

Not only were the books on the bookshelves, the pendants on the walls, the knickknacks on the counter, everything was in the same uniform color, and even the placement was clearly on the same level.

It was simply cleaner and prettier than her villa..

As a man's bedroom, Liangzi Jiugong felt that this was a little ridiculous.

There was a saying: clean and tidy without any strange smell; if you didn't say that you were a fake, you were gay..

"Do you live alone?"Liangzi Jiugong asked.

"Of course."Odd Zhuo nodded and couldn't help smiling. "I'd like to find a wife to accompany me, but someone has to be willing to marry me."

Odd Zhuo was pouring lemonade for Liangzi Jiugongzi as he said this.

He deliberately didn't look at the girl's expression, because it was obvious that the little girl must be blushing from embarrassment.

"You cleaned the house by yourself? Didn't you call for a cleaner or something?"Liangzi Jiugongzi took the cup from Odd Zhuo and didn't dare look directly into his eyes.

"You know what I do. Sometimes, I might bring some information back for work reasons, so it's not safe to call it a cleaner. There's a risk of it being leaked."Odd Zhuo smiled, "I'm just cleaning it up. It's not like I don't have limbs."

There were actually a lot of cleaning talismans on the market now, and with these talismans, Odd Zhuo wouldn't be too tired even if he cleaned it by himself.

Actually, Odd Zhuo's family background wasn't bad to begin with, and a clean, organized and ritualistic life was what he had always pursued.

It wasn't that Odd Zhuo was doing very well himself, but he was a little more particular than many boys.

But there was a saying: a nest of gold and silver wasn't as good as his own doghouse.

No matter how messy or clean his home was, as long as he lived happily, outsiders naturally had no right to interfere with it.

It was already tiring enough for the "New wave" who were still struggling to get a better life to wake up early and work hard every day.

As for whether he should keep his home spotless like himself, Odd Zhuo felt that this was purely his choice.

He couldn't use a single standard to restrict everyone; after all, everyone's conditions were different.

There were many ways to live.

As long as he could enjoy himself, he didn't need to care about what others thought.

"What are you going to cook for me for your supper?"

"I'll Cook for you next."

"?"

Liangzi nine temples pretended he didn't understand. "You're not talking about instant noodles, are you?"

"Why don't you come and see for yourself?"

Odd Zhuo smiled. Liangzi had already heard the clanking of pots and pans in the kitchen.

When she walked into the kitchen with curiosity, she saw odd zhuo rolling noodles.

-- the midnight snack was actually hand-made!

The thick and big rolling pin rolled back and forth on the dough, and after it was rolled into a thin slice, Liangzi saw a familiar emerald-green spirit light flash.

In the blink of an eye, the dough was cut into strips of noodles of the same thickness and length.

It had to be said that this knife work was really too exquisite, as if it had been processed from a machine. The key was that the edges of the cut were actually dyed with a faint layer of emerald bamboo.

Odd Zhuo said at this moment, "This is hand-rolled bamboo noodles; I just figured it out recently. Even my disciple hasn't eaten it."

In this regard, Liangzi Jiugong had his doubts. "Bamboo noodles... so that emerald-green spirit light just now couldn't be..."

"That's right, it's my spirit sword: Precut."

"You used a spirit sword to cut noodles? ? ?"

"Actually, my knife skills aren't bad either; they're about the same as precut. But aren't you hungry? It's actually more convenient to use precut."

Odd Zhuo smiled warmly. "Moreover, the pre-cut dough has a fresh and elegant bamboo fragrance, and it also has the effect of scraping oil and resisting sugar. It has a higher sugar content, which is a big taboo for weight loss. But with this treatment, you don't have to worry about getting fat no matter how much you eat."

Liangzi nine temples instantly understood.

Odd Zhuo had actually done all this for his own sake.

He wouldn't get fat if he could fill his stomach.

As far as supper was concerned, this "Bamboo noodles" was simply perfect.

In order to dispel Liangzi Jiugong's doubts about his knife skills, Odd Zhuo had missed a trick when it came to cutting the ingredients for the hand-rolled noodles.

He held the kitchen knife in his hand, and the shadow-like blade light on the chopping board moved rhythmically. In a short while, the cucumber and radish shreds had already been cut and put together, and the alluring color greatly increased one's appetite.

After that, Odd Zhuo took advantage of the time it took to cook noodles to set up a new pot, ready to go with the bamboo noodles' specially made minced meat sauce.

Odd Zhuo's hand movements were astonishingly skilled. If it hadn't been for the fact that Liangzi nine temples had seen it with her own eyes today, she wouldn't have been able to believe that Odd Zhuo had such a side to him.

In modern cultivation society, a man who could cook and know how to Cook was a bonus.

She felt odd Zhuo, who was meticulously cooking bamboo noodles, glow from head to toe.

"You actually know how to Cook..."

"Like I said, I used to work in the basic cooking class for a period of time." Odd Zhuo smiled.

There was really no need for him to lie in this regard. The experiences he had gained from training in the basic unit back then were actually much richer than Liangzi Jiugong had imagined.

The military had iron-like discipline, strict military management, and all kinds of training, whether it was spirit sword training, long-range magic tool training, physical training, or cookery... These were things that he would never forget for the rest of his life.

Experience points were always effective.

For Odd Zhuo, those experiences back then had been the best training ground for him to go from a boy to a man.

It was also because of those experiences.

When loopy toad had suddenly descended into the human world six years ago, Odd Zhuo had still rushed to the front line despite knowing the difference in combat strength.

He knew that he might die.

But he had still rushed forward without hesitation.

Now that Odd Zhuo thought about it carefully, he felt that perhaps Wang Ling had agreed to take him as a disciple back then, which had probably been one of the extra points..

After the vegetables and minced meat sauces were ready, odd zhuo poured all the ingredients into the pot and began the final mixing of the noodles. After stirring it thoroughly for two minutes, he brought it to the dining table with the pot.

“So much... are you feeding the pigs?”Liangzi nine temples was startled.

“I’ll eat with you. Of course, I’m mainly afraid that you won’t have enough to eat,”Odd Zhuo said with a smile.

“TSK, I still don’t know what it tastes like, what a waste.”Liangzi Jiugong gave Odd Zhuo a disdainful look.

Then, she took the chopsticks Odd Zhuo handed over, picked up a noodle, covered her mouth, and slowly sucked it into her mouth like a lady.

“How does it taste?”

Odd Zhuo looked forward to Liangzi Jiugong’s evaluation.

He saw the light flash across the young girl's face, and he already knew what it was.

It was a pity that this wasn't an anime.

If it had been "Little Master of China", there would have been a group of little girls in cheongsam fanning themselves.

If it had been "Spirit of the halberd", perhaps there would have been some clothes..

"HMPH, barely passable. They're probably half as good as my chef."

After taking the first bite, Liangzi Jiugong said this.

Then she ate up the entire pot of noodles.

Odd Zhuo said they were eating together, but in fact he had only eaten a small bowl, mainly to taste the saltiness.

When he was cleaning up the table, Odd Zhuo showed off the empty pot to Liangzi Jiugong. "I said, I won't waste it."

"Don't be too pleased with yourself. I just think it's shameful to waste it. It's not because your noodles are so delicious." Liangzi Jiugong snorted.

She touched her stomach and felt that she had indeed eaten a little too much, but the amazing thing was that she really didn't feel bloated at all.

Although it was her first time eating odd Zhuo's bamboo noodles, she had to admit that there was indeed an endless aftertaste.

Odd Zhuo secretly looked at the satisfied young girl, and while he was secretly happy, he couldn't help feeling a little disappointed.

After eating the noodles, Jiugong's stomach did indeed look a little bigger, but it still hadn't grown anywhere..

What a pity!

After washing the pot, Odd Zhuo saw the young girl sitting on the sofa with a heavy heart.

"What are you thinking about?" Odd Zhuo realized a problem.

People said that one would feel the warmth of a full stomach, but Jiugong Liangzi, on the other hand, started to let his imagination run wild when he was full..

"I'm wondering if student Lotus Sun's decision to go to the nine temples family was the right one..." nine temples Liangzi was very worried.

Only nine temples Liangzi himself knew how dangerous the nine temples family was.

Not counting the forces on the surface, there were also undercurrents surging behind them. Once they were involved, it would probably be difficult for them to escape.

"It's fine, I'm watching."

Odd Zhuo's calm gaze gave Liangzi nine temples some comfort at this time.

He glanced at the time and found that it was already one o'clock in the morning, so he took the initiative to ask, "Do you want me to send you back? Or do you want to stay here with me?"

"Who wants to stay here with you..."

Liangzi nine temples fiercely patted odd zhuo on the shoulder and immediately got up.

As soon as she got up, Odd Zhuo grabbed her wrist and fiercely pulled her into his arms.

She felt like a yo-yo, and before she could react, she was already in Odd Zhuo's arms.

"What are you doing..."in the face of such a rude move, she was both embarrassed and angry, but strangely, her body didn't reject Odd Zhuo's approach.

"It's nothing, I just want to Hug You."

Odd Zhuo's voice was very low, as if he was acting coquettishly, which made her heart tremble.

"Let go of me... I really have to go back."Liangzi nine temples fiercely pinched odd Zhuo's thigh, and with a blush, he broke free from Odd Zhuo's embrace.

"Sorry, classmate nine temples, I was rude."Odd Zhuo smiled and raised his hands in a gesture of surrender.

"I don't believe you, my ass..."Liangzi nine temples snorted.

She had discovered it long ago.

To apologize humbly, and to dare do it again next time... This was Odd Zhuo's true attitude of admitting his mistake.

After a brief silence, Liangzi nine temples felt her mood calm down a little, and her face suddenly sank back to its icy cold look. "I'm leaving."

"Shall I send you off?"Odd Zhuo asked.

"You don't have to."

Yoshiko nine temples's voice was cold and the corners of her lips twitched slightly.

The Better Odd Zhuo treated her, the more sober she felt.

It was like a reflection after a hangover; Yoshiko nine temples was reflecting on the invisible future between Odd Zhuo and herself.

When she reached the door, her figure seemed to be in decline, and Odd Zhuo felt his heart ache for her. He had the urge to go up and hug her again.

But he felt that this might arouse the young girl's dislike, so he resisted himself and didn't rush up.

He didn't know why, but he suddenly felt that nine temples Liangzi seemed to have a lot on his mind.

Before leaving Odd Zhuo's apartment, she left him with one last word. "Don't do this in the future... It's better for us to be friends."

Then, she swiftly unscrewed the handle and stepped out without hesitation.

"Am I being rejected?"

Odd Zhuo's heart pounded fiercely, and he couldn't help smiling bitterly in his heart.

He knew that it wouldn't be so easy for nine temples Liangzi to open his heart.

This was what he had expected.

Because he was worried about the young girl going home alone.

After nine temples Liangzi left, odd zhuo immediately sent out "Preparations" to follow him in secret.

"Classmate Jiugong, it won't be that easy for you to get rid of me..."

At that moment, Odd Zhuo stood by the window and looked lovingly in the direction of Jiugong Liangzi's villa with a faint smile.

No matter what Jiugong Liangzi said or thought.

He had already decided.

The girl in front of him was the happiness of his life.

..

No one was going to sleep tonight. Whether it was odd zhuo or Jiugong Liangzi, they were destined to have a sleepless night.

On the other side, in the elegant mansion deep in the inner courtyard of the Jiugong family on Sun Island, the sixth lady of the Jiugong family was also unable to sleep.

Shinghui Akino was the name of the sixth lady before she married into the Jiugong family.

Now, the sixth lady had changed her name to Shinghui Jiugong.

As the youngest, the youngest and the most beautiful of all the wives of Jiugong's father, she was also the one with the strongest family background.

Back when the sixth wife married into the nine temples family, she had once caused quite a stir.

She was the only daughter of the famous "Star-picking group" of the Underworld on Sun Island. Many people had been eager to marry into the star-picking group, but in the end, she had unexpectedly chosen the nine temples family.

On a quiet night, the nine temples' starlight was sitting by the stove in her elegant cottage, waiting for the news from Huaxiu Nation.

She was wearing a black fur coat, and there was a profound look in her eyes.

"Sixth madam."

A slightly old but still magnetic voice sounded. It was immortal harmony.

This was the nine temples' foreign affairs liaison officer who had spoken to Liangzi of the nine temples on the phone. He was here to inform her about the exchange program.

The sixth madam in front of him was the last one.

Because the sixth madam did not have the habit of using modern technology or communications magical equipment, a lot of things required oral notification.

And ever since the sixth Madam married into the Jiugong family, she rarely went out with the rest of the Jiugong family.

Apart from going out, the area of activity was this elegant house and the small garden around it.

Ying Xianhe Ming always had a feeling.

He felt that sixth madam was a dangerous woman who had seen through everything.

"Is it the news from Liangzi's side?" Sixth Madam asked.

"Yes, Madam. Miss Liangzi said that a batch of exchange students from No. 60 high school will be coming soon. This time, our nine temples family will be in charge of hosting them," Ying Xianhe Ming said.

"Of course. These are all distinguished guests who have come from afar. We should pay attention to them." Sixth Madam opened her flirtatious eyes and smiled. "Has the school in charge of the exchange been arranged properly?"

"It's Jiugong family and high school," Ying Xianhe Ming answered truthfully.

This was a school funded by the Jiugong family. It was also very close to the Jiugong family residence in Dongfu City of Sun Island.

Before Jiugong Liangzi transferred to another school, she had been studying in this Jiugong and high school.

Therefore, when she heard this name, this sixth madam already had an idea in her mind. She had a thoughtful expression on her face.

After a moment of silence, she asked again, "What about the food and accommodation arrangements? Do you want to stay in the school or in the Jiugong family's residence?"

"Rooms have been prepared on both sides. Look at No. 60 high school's side. The choice of the lead teacher and the children. They can go back and forth freely."

"Understood." Sixth Madam nodded. "Thank you for your hard work, Ying Xian."

"You're welcome, Madam."

"Also, help me prepare. I'm going out."

"What does sixth madam want to Do?"

"I'm just going to the Buddhist temple to pray for blessings. There are guests coming from afar. This is also a small token of my appreciation."

"Yes."

..

At the same time, on the other side of the nine temples residence, nine temples Xiushi was also having a secret discussion with the one-eyed warrior beside him in his own residence.

"I feel that this exchange program is aimed at me." Jiugong Xiushi frowned.

He and the one-eyed Warrior had planned the remake of the "Ghost Book" riot. They had wanted to kill Jiugong Liangzi, but for some unknown reason.

The powerful ghosts that had been released had all been eradicated, while Jiugong Liangzi had successfully escaped without suffering any injuries.

“The riot plan can not be used a second time in a short period of time, and it’s very difficult to have evidence. “I dealt with it very cleanly, young master.”The one-eyed warrior stood to the side and said, “Moreover, our eyes and ears have confirmed that Miss Liangzi is still in Huaxiu nation. “There’s no need to panic. I thought this was just an ordinary exchange student plan.”

“But I heard that Lady Sun of Huaguo Water Curtain Group is coming...”

“It’s precisely because of this that I feel at ease.”

The one-eyed warrior smiled and said, “Lady Liangzi and Lady Sun have a grudge. Moreover, I heard that on the first day that Lady Liangzi went to No. 60 high school, she fell for Lady Sun’s trap. She was drugged with a non-lethal hallucinogen. It made Miss Liangzi feel embarrassed for a while.”

“Such a thing actually happened.”Jiugong Xiushi was surprised.

“That’s right.”The one-eyed warrior continued, “Since the two of them are not on good terms, then I think our chance has come.”

“What do you mean?”

He looked at the one-eyed Warrior.

The one-eyed warrior said, “If we can take advantage of Miss Sun’s participation in this exchange meeting to get on good terms with her, perhaps we won’t even need to deal with Miss Liangzi. This is a tactic in the art of war, a plan to kill someone by borrowing someone else’s knife...”

Jiugong Xiushi suddenly smiled. “Using someone else to kill someone else? That’s easy for you to say.”

Jiugong Xiushi had long heard of Lotus Sun.

It was almost impossible to rope in such a young lady. Moreover, Huaguo Water Curtain Group was essentially a competitor of the Jiugong family.

Jiugong Xiushi racked his brain, but he didn't think that Lotus Sun would easily join the Jiugong family's dispute.

If this matter was exposed, it would probably have some impact on Huaguo Water Curtain Group.

It was foolish to casually join the internal war of other families.

"Miss Lotus Sun doesn't lack anything. Whether it's money or material goods, we can't satisfy her. So, we can only find another way." At this time, a cold smile hung on the one-eyed warrior's fierce face, making people shiver.

Jiugong Xiushi was curious. "You have a way?"

"I have another piece of information. It says that Miss Lotus Sun had an affair with a classmate surnamed Wang," the one-eyed warrior said. "And among the people accompanying her this time, the other two exchange students are both boys surnamed Wang... It's just that I don't know which one of them."

When the one-eyed Warrior said this, Jiugong Xiushi suddenly revealed an expression of understanding. "I understand! You're thinking of..."

He knew his one-eyed warrior's style too well.

"That's right. Since we can't rope in Miss Sun from money and material things, then we might as well start with the boy that Miss Lotus Sun likes. There's still a chance."

The one-eyed warrior said, "But because we're not sure which Wang Boy she likes in the entourage, we can only tie up the two boys."

"Will this work..."

Jiugong Xiushi suddenly felt that this plan was not reliable.

“They’re just two foundation establishment boys. They can’t resist at all.”The one-eyed warrior said confidently, “Even if there’s a teacher guarding them, we just need to lure the teacher away.”

“It won’t turn into a diplomatic incident, right?”Jiugong Xiushi was still worried.

“These two boys come from ordinary families. It might be difficult for such an ordinary existence to stir up trouble. I still hope that young master can think it through. Because this is the best opportunity in front of you.”

The one-eyed warrior felt that he had considered this matter very thoroughly.

Although he had the intention of threatening miss sun on the surface, after all, this operation was not aimed at Miss Sun. It would be too exaggerated to escalate it to a diplomatic issue.

Moreover, he would not really kill the two boys, and he did not have to use the form of kidnapping. He just had to give them what they wanted and put them under surveillance for a period of time.

The overall risk of the operation was very low. Moreover, once he succeeded in getting the support of Miss Sun, one-eyed even felt that he could retire.

With the financial resources of Miss Sun, there was no need to worry that Jiugong Xiushi would not be able to take the position of the head of the family.

However, whether or not this matter would succeed in the end would still depend on Jiugong Xiushi’s opinion.

One-eyed was only responsible for military strength, running errands, and being a strategist. He could not overstep his authority at the crucial moment.

This was also out of his respect for his deceased old master, who was also Jiugong Xiushi’s birth mother.

After Jiugong Xiushi heard one-eyed's opinion, he sat in his wheelchair as if he was in a daze and pondered for a long time.

There wasn't much time left for him.

This time, the remake of the "Spectrum of ghosts" had failed, even though it didn't directly kill Hideki nine temples. But it also made Hideki nine temples notice the power of the sixth madam.

The sixth madam represented the most famous underworld organization on Sun Island, the "Star Seizer Group"!

In other words, the "Star Seizer Group" also wanted to interfere in the future family head election..

This was something that Xiushi Jiugong had not expected.

If they wanted to compete with the star Seizer Group in the future, it was simply not enough to rely on the little chips they had.

They needed a stronger external aid to help them.

Thinking of this, Xiushi Jiugong could not help but take a deep breath. "Planning depends on the person, success depends on the heavens!"

"Then, Young Master's answer is?" The one-eyed warrior asked.

Jiugong Xiushi gritted his teeth. "F * * K!"

..

On Monday, December 14th, on this morning.

Wang Ling and Lotus Sun arrived at Songhai City's international ferry terminal on time. Separated by the airport's huge glass and bright sunshine, Wang Ling saw huge immortal boats docked on the platform.

Wang Ling himself hadn't slept last night either.

It wasn't for any other reason, but because he was liquidating the pocket money he had saved.

Compared to Lotus Sun, his pocket money was obviously not enough; he probably didn't even have small change.

After years of Lucky Money, as well as the pocket money father Wang had given him, Wang Ling had transferred all the cash into his mobile phone wallet. Total: 8,720.3..

Including the 5,000 yuan that mother Wang had single-handedly supported before he went abroad this time.

Wang Ling only had around 13,000 yuan on him.

In one word: poor.

It had taken him 16 years to save this much; it was indeed not enough in Wang Ling's eyes.

Of course, there were various reasons for this. For example, the limited edition crispy noodle snacks that he had spent money on, and the pocket money that Father Wang had deducted for no reason... these were all reasons that caused Wang Ling's wallet to shrink year by year.

The key was that he couldn't use his ability to make money yet.

This was a big headache.

He estimated that his younger sister, Ah Nuan, would be born soon, and he wanted to take advantage of this trip abroad to buy some interesting gifts for her -- small clothes, small shoes, small pants, whatever..

However, with Wang Ling's small amount of money, it would probably be very difficult for him to display his skills abroad.

Nowadays, infant products were expensive, and the same brand of clothes didn't have much fabric on them, but in the end, the prices were the same.

So, should he take advantage of this time to work on Sun Island? Earn more money?

Last night, Wang Ling had been seriously considering the issue of funding.

He couldn't trouble Lotus Sun with buying a gift for AH Nuan. If he took someone else's money, his own feelings would completely turn sour.

Although he knew that if he asked, given that young Miss's temper, she would probably buy out the entire mall for him to choose from.

But it was really too high-profile, and there was no need for that.

So it wasn't really a problem for him to earn more money by doing odd jobs.

The nine temples family was an aristocratic family on Sun Island, and they didn't have to worry about not having a case in this area.

When the time came, Wang Ling reckoned that as long as he asked around for information, it shouldn't be a problem for him to deal with some demons and ghosts.

For Wang Ling, killing demons and Devils wasn't really using his ability..

Because he actually didn't need to use it at all.

As long as he stood there for a moment, those ghosts would be scared out of their wits.

Thus, in order to make it easier for him to take on missions,.

Wang Ling spent some time studying the local language on Sun Island.

It had to be said that learning a language was very difficult. Each country's language was different, and their pronunciation was also very exquisite.

It took Wang Ling about three minutes to learn the local language of Sun Island.

It was indeed very difficult for Wang Ling.

It didn't seem to take him as long to learn Divine Dao and fate dao as it had when he had first learned them..

After taking the lead in passing through the Green Visa Channel with Lotus Sun, she noticed the solemn look on Wang Ling's face and looked a little introverted.

She pulled Odd Zhuo, who had come with her to send him off, to one side and quietly asked, "Senior Odd Zhuo, do you know what's going on with classmate Wang Ling?"

If she hadn't known Wang Ling's true strength, Lotus Sun would definitely have thought that he hadn't slept well or was sick in his current state.

But now it was clear that something was on his mind.

This slow-witted blockhead always liked to keep things bottled up in his heart, and Lotus Sun always had a feeling that she didn't know what to do.

The girl had no other choice but to ask Odd Zhuo.

"This... I'm not too sure either." Odd Zhuo scratched his face awkwardly. "But looking at Shifu's expression, there are only two possibilities. One: There's no limited edition crispy noodle snacks on Sun Island."

"..."

Okay, this was very Wang Ling..

“What about the second possibility?”

“Maybe your pocket money has been deducted again,”odd Zhuo said.

This actually reminded Lotus Sun of something.

What she was most worried about when she went abroad was naturally a lack of money..

If this was the case, the young girl felt that this was a possibility, and she felt that she should have thought of it long ago, because Ah Nuan’s day of breaking the shell was approaching.

Right now, Wang Ling was probably feeling vexed over the present for the day of breaking the shell.

Money was never a problem for Lotus Sun.

But in fact, she also knew very well what this gift for shell-breaking day meant, and that was why Wang Ling had kept it to himself.

If he hadn’t used his pocket money to buy a gift for his sister, it probably wouldn’t have made any sense at all, right?

She wanted to support Wang Ling in her heart, but given this Blockhead’s character, she definitely wouldn’t accept money directly.

Thus, as they walked, Lotus Sun also went into seclusion with Wang Ling..

Odd Zhuo facepalmed and smiled wryly helplessly as he comforted her in a low voice. “Take advantage of this time abroad to properly communicate with Shifu.”

“I will.”Lotus sun nodded.

Then, Odd Zhuo brought the two autistic teenagers to the VIP lounge before they set off.

All the formalities had been completed.

All they had to do was wait for the immortal boat's Landing Gate to open.

Wang Ling went into seclusion in the lounge for a while.

A few minutes later, the sound of a take-off announcement came from nearby.

At that moment, a tall and slender young man who had wrapped himself up in an incomparable disguise walked over to them with his long legs.

As soon as he got close, he reached out to rub Wang Ling's head. "Sorry, Ling Ling! I'm Late!"

It was Wang Ming's voice.

Wang Ling looked up and saw that not only had Wang Ming put on an external disguise, but in fact, his appearance had also changed. He was completely different from Wang Ming's original appearance.

It looked like he had used pills like face-pinching pills to reshape his facial features.

Wang Ming's disguise wasn't good-looking, but it wasn't ugly either. He was the kind of public face that would easily be forgotten in the vast sea of people.

And this was exactly what the authorities wanted Wang Ming to achieve.

After spending a lot of time and effort, it wasn't easy for him to meet up with Wang Ling and Lotus Sun Here, and Wang Ming was extremely excited.

He sat down on the sofa and put an arm around Wang Ling's neck with a wicked smile on his face, it was hard to hide his idiotic personality. "I didn't get the approval process done until midnight. Sigh, I just want to go abroad with my brother and sister-in-law. Is it easy for me?"

Wang Ling:"..."

Lotus Sun's face immediately turned red when she heard this. "Brother Ming, don't joke with me..."

"It doesn't matter if you call me that now, but when you get out, you must remember to call me second brother,"Wang Ming reminded her.

"Okay, second brother."

"Also, I have to tell you that when we get there, we'll have to wait for factor and senior golden lamp at the Immortal Boat Farm on Sun Island.". The two of them were busy with my work last night, and their approval process hasn't finished yet. So we'll have to take Hou Yi class,"Wang Ming said telepathically.

This wasn't telepathy, but Wang Ming directly used his brainwaves to communicate telepathically.

To be able to develop brainwaves like this from an ordinary person... Wang Ming was indeed the only person in the world who could do it.

So it was no wonder that the authorities had been so cautious in approving Wang Ming.

It was at this moment that Wang Ming suddenly frowned.

He couldn't help looking alert as he continued to use his brainwaves to secretly communicate with Wang Ling and Lotus Sun. "Did you guys feel anything?"

"Mm."Wang Ling and Lotus Sun nodded.

Someone was staring at them.

Furthermore, this person was a passenger on the same flight as them. He was wearing a woolen hat, sunglasses, and a black down jacket.

“How’s the situation?” At that moment, a voice came from a miniature earpiece in the man’s ear.

“Don’t worry, everything is going well...”

“Be careful, don’t get discovered.”

“Don’t worry, it’s just three foundation establishment students. If I can’t even complete this task, how can I Face Young Master?”

Although he had been using his sunglasses and pretending to read the newspaper as a demonstration,.

This person obviously didn’t expect that from the moment he started harboring evil intentions.

He had already been targeted by his surveillance targets.

He also didn’t expect that.

He is monitoring three objects.

One is the Earth’s strongest brain.

One is the Earth’s strongest foundation.

And the last, is the Earth’s father..

Chapter 1500 The Mysterious Sixth Lady

This Morning, the sixth lady of the Jiugong family got up very early.

After briefly combing her hair, the charming sixth lady left the Jiugong family’s back door quietly with only two accompanying maids and no makeup.

It was necessary to be sincere in paying respects to Buddha, and it was actually a form of respect to meet Buddha without any makeup.

The back door is on the way to the temple where the sixth madam is going, and it won't disturb anyone else.

So every time she pays respects to Buddha, the sixth madam must start from the back door.

Ying Xianhe Ming has already arranged everything.

He arranged for a black car from the nine temples family to park at the back door.

When they officially arrived at the "Tian Xuan Buddhist temple", it was already two hours later.

The scene in front of the temple surprised the two maids behind the sixth madam.

The riveted door of the temple was open, and the stone lion's head on top of it kowtowed along with the surrounding stone walls, showing the mottled taste of time together.

The murals on the stone walls had been weathered by wind and rain all year round. Although the color had long dimmed, it had a rustic feeling and a sense of the times.

Tianxuan Buddhist temple was the most famous Buddhist temple in the East Mansion. Usually, even in the early morning, the visitors who came to visit had already broken through the threshold.

Xinghui of the nine temples arrived here at seven o'clock with two maids.

Under the preparation of He Ming of the immortal realm, the nine temples and the star-picking group jointly cleared the area and blocked off all the roads leading to the Buddhist temple.

They set aside an hour of dedicated Buddhist time for this sixth madam.

Along the stone walls of the temple, every three meters stood a member from the “Star picking group”.

These people were dressed in a uniform light blue monk’s coarse cloth, and each of them was equipped with Buddhist beads. They were in charge of the security and order work during the sixth Madam’s Buddhist ceremony.

There were hundreds of people in total.

This kind of lineup was the basic operation of the sixth Madam’s Buddhist ceremony every time she went out.

The other visitors could not enter. Although they had complaints in their hearts, they did not dare to express anything verbally.

They had to give face to the nine temples family and the star harvesters..

In a sense, when these two families joined forces, their face might be even greater than the Buddha in the Buddhist temple.

Some people became Buddhists to console themselves.

But if they wanted to live, they still had to be social people.

They had just been recruited by the sixth madam, and their foundations were very clean. The nine temples’starlight wanted to nurture the two of them.

“I brought you out today to let you get used to it.”

Before formally bowing to Buddha, the nine temples’starlight glanced at the two of them and said, “When you work under me, don’t make a fuss about anything. Don’t show that you haven’t seen the world, understand?”

“Yes, Madam.”

The two maids followed behind and nodded obediently.

“The two of you don’t have to follow me. I’ll leave the rest of the temple to you except for this hall in front of you. You must light three sticks in front of each Buddha statue.”

After passing through the door, the nine temples’ starlight took out the incense sticks that she had prepared beforehand.

She handed two sticks to the maids in her hands and instructed them.

The two maids nodded and took their own bundles of incense sticks. They began to worship from the side hall.

The sixth madam saw the two of them leave from the corner of her eye. Immediately, a flame rose from her fingertips and ignited the incense sticks.

She slowly walked towards the main hall.

In the end, the figure disappeared through the main hall’s door..

..

“The sixth madam went to the Tian Xuan temple again?”

On the other side, Jiugong Xiushi, who was enjoying breakfast in the cherry blossom garden, heard the news from the one-eyed man.

If an ordinary person went to pay respects to Buddha, Jiugong Xiushi wouldn’t care so much.

However, the sixth madam was always imposing when she paid her respects to Buddha, which had long made Jiugong Xiushi unhappy.

However, the star picking team’s actions on Sun Island had always been high-profile, and this kind of overbearing style was actually their usual style.

The actions of the star seizer group seemed to be in line with the family style of the star Seizer Group. However, as their opponent on the surface, Xiushi Jiugong had actually been suspicious of this matter since a long time ago.

He felt that the sixth Madam's actions every time she went to the Buddhist temple to pay respects to Buddha.

Seemed a little... unusual.

“Do you still remember a burglary that happened in the house before the sixth Madam married here?”

At this moment, Jiugong Xiushi frowned and said to the one-eyed warrior.

“Of course I remember.”The one-eyed warrior nodded.

Before he was transferred to be Jiugong Xiushi's personal guard, he also worked as a guard of the Jiugong family.

The burglary that happened in such a heavily guarded Jiugong family was really fresh in people's memories.

“Although at that time, the Jiugong family did not find anything stolen after checking, they only found a few signs that the door locks had been broken...”

At this point, the one-eyed man's eyes darkened and he continued, “But these broken door locks all point to the underground sealed area of the main book of the ‘Ghost Book’!”

“That's right! Although my father also suspected that it was a coincidence at first, these broken locks are really too coincidental.”

Nine temples Xiushi sat on the wheelchair, he said with a reminiscing look, “Our nine temples family has an area of about ten university campuses. The internal route is complicated. This was specially calculated by the array master. “There are a total of 132 mansions and more than 10,000 keyholes

“And to open this passage to the underground seal, you must open a specific 49 keyholes on the same day and use this to open it

“The keyholes change every day. Only the father who holds the clan head token knows the password. “On the day of the theft, there were 68 keyholes with pry marks, and 42 of them were the designated keyholes on that day.”

Upon saying this, Jiugong Xiushi suddenly smiled.

How could there be such a coincidence in this world.

There were 49 locks that changed their positions every day, and on the day of the theft, 42 of them actually hit.

Although a total of 68 locks had been pried open, it was obvious that this was probably a method that the thief was trying to cover up.

“Young master, you mean that the sixth madam might be related to this attempted burglary?”

“I don’t have direct evidence yet, but I have reason to suspect that the purpose of that woman marrying into our family is very likely to be for the main branch of the ‘Ghost Book’. “That’s why I’ve been asking you to investigate the matter of her going to the Buddhist temple to pray to Buddha.”

After saying that, Jiugong Xiushi pondered for a moment before continuing.

“Although ever since she married into the family, the sixth madam indeed appeared to be a woman who abided by the rules of womanhood and remained aloof from worldly affairs.”

“In fact, I still think that she went to the Buddhist temple. On the surface, she went to worship, but in the dark, she may have been plotting with the higher-ups of the star-seizer group

“Unfortunately, until now, there has been no trace of these things.”The one-eyed warrior sighed.

He had investigated the sixth madam many times, but every time, there was no particularly reliable result.

From the attempted burglary in the beginning, to the sixth Madam’s marriage to the nine temples, and then to the sixth Madam’s frequent visits to the Buddhist temple to worship..

Although the clues in the middle were broken, in terms of timing and coincidence.

The sixth Madam’s motives were impure. Nine temples Xiushi had seen through it long ago.

On the wheelchair, nine temples Xiushi frowned deeply.

“Moreover, she has been plotting against our Jiugong family for a long time. If an outsider were to come at this time, it might disrupt her original rhythm.”

“So, young master’s purpose of sending people to monitor No. 60 high school was actually to protect them?”

“Of course!”

Jiugong Xiushi nodded. “Since we’re going to carry out the kidnapping plan, then we must at least ensure their safety before they land on Sun Island. Otherwise, our plan to win over Miss Sun will be completely foiled...”

Although he was obsessed with the fight for the position of the family head, he had once been ruthless enough to set up a plan to kill Jiugong Liangzi.

But now Jiugong Xiushi discovered that perhaps his attitude toward sixth madam was the same as Jiugong Liangzi’s.

This woman was very dangerous.

Perhaps she was even more terrifying than Jiugong Liangzi.

A ferocious poisonous snake was not scary. What was scary was the silent poisonous snake lurking in the dark.

Usually, it would just sit there.

It looked like it was asleep.

However, no one knew when the poisonous snake would raise its head and bite.

The one-eyed warrior felt that things had become interesting. “Young Master Xiushi, do you think that the sixth madam will make a move on the plane?”

“Based on the sixth Madam’s personality, it is very likely.”

Jiugong Xiushi smiled bitterly and said, “However, this little mother of mine has always been patient. I just don’t know if she will take the bait this time.”

“Maybe.”

The one-eyed warrior frowned, “If we can make it look like an accident, if we do it well, we can indeed die without any evidence.”

“An accident... This seems to be the work of the star-seizer Group.”

Jiugong xiushi frowned, “So, are the people we sent reliable or not?”

“This is my capable subordinate, a nascent soul stage cultivator. He has received systematic training in the army and is very experienced. I think there won’t be any problems.”

“Mm, call him later and ask him about the situation. There’s not much time left before we board the Immortal Boat.”

“Yes.”

..

After successfully boarding the immortal boat, Wang Ling and the others were seated in the business class seats at the very front.

The seats in the business class were very spacious and comfortable.

Each person had a leather sofa with full-body massage and the ability to freely adjust the angle of their reclining position.

Massage... Wang Ling actually didn't really need it.

His body was too dense.

Although he had used a light body technique to reduce his weight, his body was still as hard as iron.

Even a slight vibration of an alloy massage head on Wang Ling's body could cause resonance and shatter.

The man who had been watching them in the lounge had just boarded the boat when he realized that Wang Ling and the others were all sitting in business class, and he instantly looked a little embarrassed.

“Miss... Can we upgrade? I want to upgrade business class.”

Thus, the man gritted his teeth and applied to the stewardess on the immortal boat.

“I'm very sorry, sir, but business class has already been booked,”the beautiful stewardess replied patiently.

“None left?”

“Yes, sir,” the stewardess replied.

Business class tickets on the immortal boat were very expensive, ten times that of economy class.

There were also very limited seats, only ten in total.

Although there were only Wang Ling, Wang Ming, and Lotus Sun in the business class right now.

But Lotus Sun obviously didn't want their space to be disturbed by outsiders.

She knew that Wang Ling liked peace and quiet, and wouldn't be used to strangers sitting next to him.

So the girl used what she thought wasn't much pocket money to take over all the seats.

“Are there any first-class seats left?”

“Yes, sir.”

“Okay! Help me upgrade to a first-class seat!”

The Man didn't give up. If he couldn't get into the business class, he tried to get into the first-class cabin.

This was the cabin closest to the business class, and the key was that if he wanted to go through the business class, he had to go through the first-class cabin.

He was sent by Xiushi Jiugong. If there was a suspicious person, he would be able to detect it at a glance.

This was the last resort, but it was also a last resort.

Although there was no one else in the business class,.

For safety reasons, Wang Ming directly used the magnetic shield that Wang Ling No. 3 had brought with him to completely cover this area.

This was to ensure that no one else would be listening in on the conversation in the business class.

“Where did that person come from? He’s so sneaky, but he doesn’t seem to have any killing intent.”

Lotus Sun asked with relief.

This was the most intuitive feeling she had when using sword qi.

If the person was malicious, then ao hai would immediately detect his killing intent and issue a warning to Lotus Sun.

“If I’m not mistaken, it should be someone from the nine temples family.”

Wang Ming said, “I secretly took a photo of him in the lounge earlier, and then used the face screening system, which has access to international big data, to scan him. I found out that this person’s name is Wild Ling Mu, in the nascent soul stage. He used to be a member of the Sun Island self-defense force. After he retired, he’s now working for the nine temples family.”

“The second brother is amazing. You can even take a picture of him when he’s so well-hidden?” Lotus Sun smiled.

“It’s actually very easy to use the associative scanning mechanism. “Wearing sunglasses is actually not very useful. The scanning light from my photo can directly penetrate the sunglasses and shine on his eyes. “As long as we take one or two facial features and combine them with his actual body size, we can easily get facial data.”

As Wang Ming spoke, he stretched out his arm and rested his head on it, looking relaxed. “This person probably doesn’t plan to attack us.”

“In other words, he won’t attack us on the immortal boat.”

“If it’s an official member of the nine temples family in charge of protecting us, he should have communicated with us in advance.”

“From the way he looks, combined with his identity, he looks like someone from the nine temples family sent him here to protect us.”

Wang Ling:”...”

Lotus sun almost laughed out loud after hearing this.

With their current lineup, they didn’t lack protection at all!

Even without Wang Ling, it would be very difficult for ordinary cultivators to defeat Wang Ming with his current combat strength.

Moreover, because Wang Ming was traveling with them abroad this time, Huaxiu Alliance actually attached great importance to security.

In addition to Zhai Yin, who had come with them on the immortal boat behind them, they had also applied for special protection from battle sect.

In other words, it seemed that only four of them had participated in the exchange of students.

But in fact, there were thousands of soldiers and horses behind them.
