Chapter 1511 Lotus Sun's Protection

The autistic girl who was regarded by starlight of the nine temples and the demon spirit as a “Potential stock” of ghosts.

She was a registered student of the nine temples and high school, Dayi Noko.

The Sun Island wasn't very big to begin with, and it would be impossible for them to gather their own “100,000 ghost soldiers” on the island just by using ordinary methods to catch ghosts.

Therefore, after working with the demon spirit,.

Starlight of the nine temples would also look for “Potential stocks” among many humans like this.

Many people might be forced by circumstances, or because of family or work reasons..

After they weren't cared for, ostracized, and subjected to all kinds of mental violence, they gradually formed a “Sociopathic personality” in their hearts.

And such a personality was exactly what the nine palaces' starlight and demon spirits needed.

Because humans with this kind of personality tended to be more prone to blackening.

And because of their own powerful resentment, they formed an extremely strong “Revenge mentality” after death.

But there were many different factors that formed ghosts. It was not necessarily that a strong resentment could become a ghost.

A strong grudge would only cause one's soul to stay in the human world for a little longer after death.

It was precisely because of this that the nine temples starlight and the Devil Spirit came up with the artificial ghost plan.

They also possessed this ability.

They would turn these “Chosen children” into ghosts that they wanted.

Then, they would be driven by them.

As for the method of transformation, there were two ways.

One was to wait for these “Potential stocks” to die before harvesting them.

The other was to forcibly turn them into ghosts while they were still in human form.

In comparison, the strength of the ghosts formed by the second method was actually not as strong as the first.

But now, in order to test Wang Ling,.

Starlight in the nine temples felt it was very necessary to do so.

The “Potential stocks” under her care were all over Sun Island.

Daybreak Yezi wasn’t the only one.

“Are You Ready?” At that moment, nine stars Starlight closed her eyes.

After skillfully switching bodies, nine stars Starlight handed over control of her body back to the demon spirit.

As its mysterious pink pupils were gradually dyed,.

A strand of hair in starlight of the nine palaces' coiled hair seemed to be imbued with life as it shot up into the sky..

Forcibly transforming ghosts.

It could also use the demon spirit's ultra-long range to achieve long-range operations.

..

December 15th, Tuesday, 10:00 a.m.

Wang Ling and the others officially enrolled in Class S of the nine paths and high school.

This was the internal division system of nine paths and high school, which was similar to No. 60 High's regular and elite classes, and was also known as the elite class.

It was characterized by a small number of students, but the quality of the students was very high, and even teachers were specially hired.

Apart from these students in Class S, they wouldn't spare any effort to teach other classes.

This was also different from No. 60 high.

For example, old pan, although he was the class teacher of the elite class, would also teach other classes.

The essence of class grading was to better integrate students at all stages.

It was not for special treatment or differentiation.

If students at the same level attended classes and took exams together, the pressure would not be too great.

In a relaxed environment, students could absorb knowledge better.

The way nine paths and high school were doing this was like giving preferential treatment to a group of noble students..

Although there weren't many people, Wang Ling still felt a little uncomfortable.

He didn't know when, but he had already gotten used to No. 60 high school's teaching.

The most important thing was actually the recognition of principal Chen's educational philosophy.

In Wang Ling's opinion, it wasn't advisable for him to have a "Strength-oriented grading system in the classroom" like Jiu Dao and this kind of environment, which was also the most prone to violence on campus.

In order to let the new students adapt to the school environment as soon as possible.

Under the Golden Light's communication, Jiu Dao and the seat arranged for Wang Ling over there were the same as No. 60 high school's.

The second-to-last row by the window.

Wang Ling was bored to death as he listened to nine paths and high school's cultivation course.

This course was about "Spirit energy output."

This wasn't anything new to Wang Ling.

He didn't know if nine paths and he had deliberately arranged this course, but during this class session, they were also given an energy ball with a numerical test of spirit energy output.

There were a total of fifteen students, including Wang Ling and the others.

When the energy ball was sent to everyone's hands...

Almost immediately, the eyes of the nine paths and local students in the class shifted to Wang Ling and the others.

"Houlang sang, I heard that you're all excellent students from No. 60 High School?"

Sitting in front of Wang Ling was a student with an elite look. He was thin and always liked to poke his glasses with his middle finger. He turned his head to look at Wang Ling, the corners of his lips curling up slightly.

He was wearing a special suit with nine stripes on it, and his whole body exuded the aura of a noble.

Compared to No. 60 high school's blue "Jing" sportswear, he seemed particularly gorgeous.

In Wang Ling's eyes, the boy in front of him was like a gorgeous and noble peacock with an insufferably arrogant attitude.

Wang Ling:"..."

Wang Ling carefully held the energy ball in his hands. It was like a hot potato in his hands, and Wang Ling was a little at a loss.

If he accidentally crushed it, he would probably have to pay for it, right?

He would also have to give Ah Nuan money to buy a gift..

But if he wasn't careful and increased the output, it would probably explode on the spot..

And this energy ball was made of a special type of crystal.

If it exploded here, the crystal dregs that flew out would hurt innocent people again..

Thus, Wang Ling stared at the energy ball in his hand and was in a dilemma.

But at that moment, the peacock man in front of him smiled again. “Houlang sang, you look very nervous?”

Wang Ling:”...”

“There’s no need to be so nervous. Coming here is like coming to your own home. Oh, right, I forgot. After speaking for so long, do you not understand our local language at all?”The peacock man’s words seemed to be comforting, in fact, he was being sarcastic.

He was about to switch to Mandarin mode to communicate with Wang Ling.

On the side, Lotus Sun couldn’t stand it any longer. “I didn’t expect the local education on Sun Island to be at this level. How disappointing.”

It was a very standard Sun Island language.

It immediately caught the attention of everyone in Class S.

“What do you mean?”The Peacock Man wasn’t convinced, and was shocked by Lotus Sun’s fluency in Mandarin.

“But I heard that Houlang sang is just a mascot in your school.”

The peacock man spread his hands and looked at Lotus Sun with a smile. “You have to know that anyone in class S has the ability to shatter this energy ball in front of them with their own spirit energy.”

“Is that so?”

Lotus sun smiled, but it was actually a smile that hid a knife. “Then, I... Can Do it alone.”

As she spoke, she reached out and gently tapped the energy ball in front of the table.

Buzz!

A blue ripple spread out from the tip of her finger.

Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang..

A series of glass-shattering sounds rang out in class s.

Jiu Dao and the local students in high school were all dumbstruck.

They had never imagined that the young girl would be so powerful that she could shatter all the energy balls by herself!

Wang Ming crossed his arms and watched the show from behind.

He was actually a little touched.

There really weren't many girls these days who could be so considerate..

Chapter 1512 Simple And Unpretentious Little Romance

The average strength of the nine paths and high school S class was at the peak of the Late Foundation establishment stage.

Excluding Wang Ling's group of twelve students, three of them had already stepped into the golden core stage in the first year of high school.

This overall combat strength was indeed above No. 60 high school's standard.

Of course, this was actually above the “Standard” that excluded Wang Ling, Lotus Sun, Zhenyuan, Gu Shunzhi, Fang Xing, Wang Zhen, Liu Qingyi, and other core members of the war sect.

If these core members of the war sect who had infiltrated No. 60 high were included,.

No. 60 High’s grade one class would probably be ranked first in the world.

Even if all the high schools in the world went around the world three times in a row, they might not be able to match the combat strength of one-billionth of the elite class that Wang Ling was in.

It sounded a little exaggerated.

But this was the truth.

Wang Ling himself hadn’t actually expected Lotus Sun to make a move at this time when he was so conflicted.

Although her words seemed to draw some hatred,.

They had indeed solved his urgent problem.

In the first row of the first row of the classroom, Sasaki Chiye looked at the energy ball fragment in his hand and couldn’t calm down for a long time.

It was very clear that if she had been an ordinary foundation establishment cultivator,.

She definitely wouldn’t have been able to shatter the entire class’s energy ball with the spirit energy fluctuations she had released.

Even Sasaki himself couldn’t do that.

As expected... this terrifying woman was still as difficult to deal with as she had been in the past!

As for the “Late-stage Foundation establishment stage” shown in the school records, it was probably an illusion..

He judged that Lotus Sun’s combat strength was at least at the late-stage golden core stage.

A high school freshman.

She was actually at the late-stage golden core stage..

Sasaki chive was both afraid and terrified.

Fortunately, he had listened to his aunt’s words and didn’t directly attack this young lady.

This woman was indeed scary.

He thought that after all these years of hard work and hard cultivation, he could finally get rid of this scary woman.

But it turned out that no matter what kind of effort he put in,.

It was still hard for him to catch up.

In fact, regardless of combat strength,.

Lotus Sun’s combat strength was no weaker than Sasaki’s.

Although the girl’s strength was still at the peak of the late foundation establishment stage, this was actually the result of Lotus Sun forcibly suppressing her realm with many “Cleansing agents.”.

In order for cultivators to improve their realm, the concentration of their spiritual roots had to reach a certain level before they could break through.

And the so-called “Cleansing agents” were actually a kind of concentration diluent.

It could develop a person's potential to the greatest extent.

If she could level up when her potential was fully developed, she would be able to go even further in the future.

Therefore, based on her normal cultivation progress, Lotus Sun would have broken through to the golden core a long time ago.

Thus, from the very beginning, the young girl hadn't taken this group of arrogant and conceited people like Jiu Daohe seriously.

Her gaze had always been cautious and cautious.

She was afraid that these people would deliberately look for trouble with Wang Ling.

It wasn't because she was afraid of what would happen to Wang Ling..

It was mainly because she was afraid that the lives of those people who looked for trouble might be in danger.

How convenient it would be to look for trouble.

If they looked for trouble and lost their lives, wouldn't that be a loss of blood?

..

At lunchtime, Wang Ling and the others followed them to nine paths harmony's canteen.

Just like the classroom, nine paths harmony's canteen also had a grading system.

And the class division was very clear.

The lowest class was Class D, and the dining area was a cold wooden seat that looked a little hard.

Class C received better treatment, and there was also a soft cushion made of silicone on the wooden seat.

Class B's leather chair, Class A's boss chair... of course, the best treatment was Class S's fully automatic massage sofa seat.

Wang Ling was secretly surprised by this distinction.

It was a good thing that Lotus Sun was leading the charge.

At that moment, Wang Ling felt that the young girl was like a valkyrie protecting her calf, walking on the strongest side with an astonishing aura.

For a moment, many people didn't dare approach her..

Wang Ming and Wang Ling both noticed.

This seemed to be another type of "Lotus Sun's domain."

"It actually has the ability to adapt to local conditions?" Wang Ming smiled in his heart.

He could see that the girl's "Lotus Sun's domain" power had this ability.

It would change into different modes depending on the environment.

For example, in a low-risk area like No. 59 high school, the "Lotus Sun's domain" took a pro-people approach, slowly turning the people in the vicinity into "Fans"..

After all, No. 59 High School was still in China.

It was true that the students of No. 59 High School didn't usually study together, but once they reached the competition segment, they would always bump into each other.

So, "Lotus Sun's domain", which took the pro-people approach, was in fact also an act of paving the way for itself.

But the situation of nine paths and No. 59 high school was different.

This was a foreign country, and since they were exchange students, it would probably be very difficult for them to meet in the future.

So there was no need to take the "People-friendly" path at all.

Of course, Lotus Sun felt that from the moment Wang Ling entered nine paths and high school, the girls of nine paths and high school had been sneaking glances at him..

This made the girl instinctively unhappy.

She immediately saw nine paths as a "Hostile and dangerous area."

Since it was a dangerous area, Lotus Sun's "Civilian-friendly route" was instantly switched to "Aura suppression route"..

She held a tray and stood at the front, all of them looking at her with obvious fear in their eyes.

"A beautiful teenage girl is really scary..." Wang Ming couldn't help smiling bitterly in his heart as he muttered.

This was also the first time he had seen Lotus SUN's expression as if someone owed her hundreds of millions.

Wasn't it a little too obvious that she was protecting her son..

But it didn't matter.

Because when he saw the expression on Wang Ling's face, it was much calmer than he had imagined.

Wang Ming knew it all too well.

His little brother, Wang Ling, was already feeling all sorts of discomfort in this completely foreign environment.

This was a kind of "Social phobia" that had accumulated since he was a child.

Every time he came to a new environment, his face would turn pale for a long time before he could come back to his senses.

Wang Ming remembered that the most painful time had been in junior high school.

Because he had changed to a new environment, Wang Ling's face had turned pale..

It had actually caused quite a number of high-grade girls in junior high school to take a fancy to him.

It was said that among the new batch of students, there was a cute little junior whose face was as white as jade..

Holy Sh * t, his face was as white as jade!

Look at how frightened the children were by that group of people who were like wolves and tigers..

It wasn't until Wang Ling entered No. 60 high school that this "Social phobia" had eased up quite a bit.

Now, Wang Ling wasn't as serious as before.

But sometimes, there were too many strangers around him, so he wasn't used to it.

Thus, when it came to Wang Minglan...

It was all thanks to Lotus Sun that Wang Ling was so calm now.

Under Lotus Sun's lead, the three of them found a seat close to a corner, and Wang Ling directly sat on the sofa in the innermost corner.

Wang Ming, on the other hand, directly sat next to Wang Ling.

Zhai Yin had a tacit understanding and directly sat opposite Wang Ming.

Mm..

The two of them had sat there on purpose.

Because in this way,.

Lotus Sun could only sit opposite Wang Ling..

It was also a simple and simple romance for teenagers to eat together face-to-face..

Chapter 1513 Why Did You Provoke Him!

Thus, during the meal, Lotus Sun felt as if she had been arranged to do so.

In a secret corner, she was surrounded by familiar people, and this sense of security undoubtedly lessened Wang Ling's "Social phobia" by quite a bit.

The food in nine paths and high school was excellent, and all of them were cultivators' food.

In order to ensure the nutrition of every student, in nine paths and high school, everyone was the same only when it came to food.

There was no question of differential treatment.

The main ingredient for lunch today was gelatinous beef. It was said that this beef was a spirit cow raised in the pastures behind nine paths and high school.

It had been fed with special concentrate and grew up with delicious meat.

Wang Ling had never seen a school specially set up several farms to provide him with food for his lunch..

As expected of one of the most famous schools on Sun Island!

Wang Ling drank the fish soup and sighed with emotion in his heart.

He didn't know that his current position was actually a special seat for Chive Sasaki.

Unfortunately..

Because the nine stars in advance and Chive Saomu said hello, let him do not act rashly relationship.

Chive Sasaki also had to hold back a belly of anger to sit on the other side, face aggrieved to chew the mouth of beef.

It's like eating Wang Ling's meat.

He knows he's not in the right frame of mind.

It was reasonable to say that a visitor from afar was a guest, since the group of people from No. 60 high school were only staying for a few days... he really did not need to be angry.

As the president of the Student Union, he should show his tolerance and magnanimity.

But he didn't know why.

When Leek Sasaki noticed that Lotus Sun's gaze had been fixed on that pretty boy named Queen Lang the whole time.

The Breath in his heart was like an old blood scab that had clogged up his heart and blood vessels, making it even more difficult for Leek Sasaki to breathe.

"Brother Leek, if you really like Rongjiang that much, then hurry up and find an opportunity to confess. It's only a few more days anyway," the peacock man who had targeted Wang Ling earlier in class suddenly said.

Leek Sasaki was instantly at a loss for words. "Who... who likes her? ! How could I possibly... like that... Scary Woman..."

He said that, but the expression on his face had completely betrayed him.

His burning face was like a piece of medium-rare beef that was turning over on the dinner plate, emitting a fresh red color.

"It's too obvious, president."

At this time, the short-haired student council vice president, codenamed "Sparrow", spoke up.

Chive Sasaki:"..."

She expressionlessly enjoyed the delicious food on the dinner plate and faintly said, "Since you like it so much, then you have to seize the opportunity to make a move. Do you want me to prepare the knockout powder and the room card?"

"Your idea is very dangerous... I'm a Gentleman!" The corner of Chive Sasaki's mouth twitched.

He had always thought that the vice-president "Sparrow" beside him was a black-bellied woman.

This guy was always able to calmly say something very scary..

He was probably the type of person who was rumored to be black when cut open.

But to be honest, between the words of the peacock man and Sparrow, Chive Sasaki had indeed expressed his true distress.

He had thought that his attitude toward Lotus Sun should be “Fear.”.

It was precisely because of this “Fear” that he had worked so hard.

Cultivating day and night, learning all kinds of cultivation theories and knowledge..

All so that he could appear in front of the girl in a better position the next time they met.

But what Leek Sasaki didn’t expect was that the “Fear” he understood was actually “Like.”.

“So, this is the feeling of liking...”

Leek Sasaki’s face turned slightly red as he sighed in his heart.

Looking in Lotus Sun’s direction, he cupped his face while fiddling with the dice-like pieces of beef on the plate with the knife and fork in his hand.

Only now did he realize why he didn’t like that “Queen Lang” classmate so much.

It turned out that it was all because of jealousy.

“Can you guys do me a Favor?”

At this moment, Leek Sasaki looked at Peacock Man and Sparrow beside him and asked.

“Have you finally made up your mind, President?”

Sparrow sneered. "I still have a lot of medicine there."

"I told you, I'm not asking you to drug me. Can you think normally and not be so dark..."Leek Sasaki was speechless.

"If you're not drugging me, then what else could it be?"Sparrow sighed.

"Speaking of which, where did you get so many drugs?"This time, even peacock was a little curious.

"It was all in the past. Someone drugged me. They wanted to sleep with me. Then, I found the bottle and confiscated it."

Sparrow said calmly, "So I received a lot of strange and strange drugs. There were all kinds of them."

"Sleep with you..."Sasaki chive and the peacock man were both shocked.

They were familiar with the sparrow, so they didn't have such thoughts.

But in fact, the Sparrow's facial features were indeed exquisite. The freckles on its face were actually not that big of a deal. It only needed simple makeup to cover it up, and it would be a standard beauty.

Simply put, the Sparrow after makeup was indeed the kind of small and cute.

If it wasn't for the fact that the sparrow was black when cut open, it would have looked very cute, but it was extremely black-bellied.

Leek Sasaki and the peacock couldn't guarantee that they wouldn't have such evil thoughts.

"Is it very strange? I'm quite cute, right?"The sparrow chuckled.

“En...”Leek Sasaki was noncommittal. “Then, what happened to the people who wanted to sleep with you?”

The Sparrow Thought for a moment and concluded, “I slept with the good-looking ones. I tied the bad-looking ones.”

” ... ”

When Leek Sasaki and the peacock man heard this, they instantly felt like they were in bad shape.

The conversation ended.

Leek Sasaki quickly put forward his request. “Can you guys think of a way to get rid of that B * stard? I want to have dinner with Miss Lotus Sun...”

He really didn’t have any ill intentions.

He just wanted to have dinner with Lotus Sun.

Although he was a little unfriendly toward Wang Ling out of jealousy.

But Leek Sasaki didn’t actually have any intention of hurting anyone.

On one hand, he had now figured out his feelings and attitude toward Lotus Sun.

On the other hand, it was also because of the previous communication between him and the star radiance of nine palaces that Leek Sasaki wouldn’t act rashly.

“Send them away?”The peacock man frowned. “It won’t be easy to send them away from that position. There are people blocking the way outside. I think it’s better to drug them. I think the laxative will do.”

Sparrow thought for a moment and said, “Isn’t the laxative too light? Won’t it just cause food poisoning? Let them lie in the hospital for a few days.”

Leek Sasaki's heart skipped a beat when he heard this. He wiped the sweat off his face. "By the way, can you use a more normal method?"

A more normal method..

This person was so troublesome.

Sparrow thought to himself and couldn't help but sigh. "Then, we'll have to use that..."

The peacock man immediately understood Sparrow's words. "You mean that?"

SPARROW: "Yes, that's the one."

Chive Sasaki:"? ? ?"

So which one was it? !

SPARROW: "President, do you still remember that our school's principal summoned an Internet celebrity scientist a while ago?"

"Oh... you mean that master shouchong..."Sasaki chive remembered.

"That's right."Sparrow nodded. "Actually, before Master Shouchong left, he specially arranged a gift for our student union. He modified all the electric massage sofas in the cafeteria."

"Why didn't I know..."Sasaki Chive was astonished.

"The president is busy with official business. Is there a need to know about this?"

Sparrow sneered. "But I haven't found a suitable opportunity to experiment on Master Shouchong's gift until now."

“It can’t be very dangerous...”

“It can’t be,” Sparrow said calmly. “It’s said that the modified massage sofa has the ability to defend against bullies.”

”...”

“Don’t worry, president. It’s just a modification of the massage head and the power adjustment function. “Later, the massage machine on the sofa will automatically start. Hou Lang sang is only in the foundation establishment stage, so he definitely won’t be able to withstand that kind of power... as long as he gets up, won’t the President’s opportunity come?”

At first glance, this method didn’t seem to have any problems.

At least it was much more reliable than one-sided poisoning.

But because they hadn’t actually gone through a specific experiment to modify the massage chair before, they didn’t know exactly how effective it would be.

No one could say for sure.

In that case, they might as well give it a try.

Thus, Chive Sasaki nodded and agreed to the plan put forward by Sparrow.

..

On the other side, Wang Ling was sitting in his seat resting when he suddenly felt the massage sofa under him suddenly start to move.

Without any warning, the massage sofa started to fall back.

Wang Ming vaguely heard the sound of an electric drill coming from inside the massage sofa.

But this sound was very subtle.

If they were a little further away, it would actually be very difficult to hear it clearly.

“Did someone do something?” Wang Ming instantly guessed what was going on.

He used his brain waves to search the entire cafeteria.

By capturing the subtle expressions on everyone’s faces, Wang Ming could easily determine who had done this.

Very quickly, he directly locked onto the Leek Sasaki Trio.

Although their gazes didn’t directly meet here...

It was still difficult for them to escape Wang Ming’s gaze.

“They actually dared to make a move on Lingzi. These three little things sure have guts.” The corners of Wang Ming’s lips curled up slightly.

A high school student was still a high school student, after all. Wang Ming actually seemed a little naive to use such underhanded methods.

And from a technical point of view...

Wang Ming judged that these modified sofa massage chairs shouldn’t have been created by Sasaki Chive and the other two.

After scanning the massage chairs with the mechanical eye of “Wang Ling No. 3”...

From the internal configuration of the massage chairs and their design ideas...

Wang Ming felt that it was a little like the work of that popular online scientist, “Shouchong.”.

His analysis was as fierce as a tiger, and Wang Ming had wanted to fight back, but he didn't feel any discomfort, so he wasn't in a hurry to attack.

"How is it, Ling Ling? Is there anything you don't lose to?" Wang Ming asked softly.

"No." Wang Ling closed his eyes and said telepathically.

Regarding the massage sofa that had suddenly come into operation.

Although Wang Ling was inwardly surprised, his expression was still very calm.

The special massage sofa that had been modified by Master Shouchong had been designed in the form of an electric drill.

Furthermore, the intensity of the massage had also been greatly increased from the original foundation.

There were very few people under the nascent soul stage who could lie on this modified massage sofa for more than ten seconds.

On the other side, Sasaki Leek was even ready for Wang Ling to take the initiative to get up.

But he didn't know why.

He watched this scene from a distance.

He had a feeling that Wang Ling was enjoying himself..

"Is this really okay? Why do I feel that Hou Lang sang has a comfortable expression on his face?" The corners of Leek Sasaki's eyes twitched.

The sparrow also didn't quite understand this situation. "It shouldn't be like this... It's already using its full strength. According to Master Shouchong, a foundation establishment cultivator won't be able to last more than a few seconds under such strength."

Wang Ling was indeed enjoying himself.

Although the effect of this massage sofa actually looked ordinary to Wang Ling, it wasn't too bad..

After all, there weren't many massage sofas that could make Wang Ling feel anything these days.

Because Wang Ling was having a hard time, he could hardly feel any ordinary mechanical massage equipment.

On the other hand, this one from Shouchong made Wang Ling feel a little bit of the presence of a massage head.

It was very weak, but at least it could relax his muscles..

Wang Ling knew that someone was attacking him.

But this was still considered polite.

So he wasn't unhappy.

He closed his eyes and lay down on the massage sofa to take a nap.

Half an hour later, he saw No. 60 high school's group leave.

Sasaki leek immediately looked like he was scratching his ears and cheeks. "How could this be! Didn't you say that this massage chair is very strong? !"

"I don't know either, but Master Shouchong did say that."

Sparrow was very innocent. “If you don’t believe me, you can try it.”

“If you want to try, then go ahead!”

Chive Sasaki walked over in exasperation and lay down where Wang Ling had just been lying.

Three seconds later, a scream rang out..

“Ahhh...”

Chive Sasaki bounced up from the massage sofa with a pained expression.

Then, he faced the ground.

His entire body fell heavily to the ground with a thud.

The moment the massage head touched his body.

That kind of intense pain was already difficult to describe with words..

It was like there were 100,000 electric drills on his back, crazily using the electric poison dragon drill to urge that shameless operator called Ku Xuan to write..

Later, Sasaki Leek was carried into the infirmary by the Sparrow and peacock man with his buttocks out.

The preliminary examination results were: a sprain of the waist muscles and a slight fracture of the bone..

For cultivators, it wasn’t a particularly serious injury, but if they were to lie on it for a few more seconds, Leek Sasaki felt that he was going to die.

“So it was so painful. That houlang sang actually endured it. It’s really incredible.” Sparrow sighed. “It looks like this massage sofa is indeed very strong. By the way, Peacock, do you want to try it too?”

“No, no...” Peacock Man’s heart was still filled with fear.

With Leek Sasaki’s method of testing himself,.

He understood just how strong that modified massage sofa was.

This was probably the legendary one.

If he tried, he would die..

Even an early golden core cultivator like Leek Sasaki would be like this. If he directly laid down at the foundation establishment stage, it would be like an orange blossom blooming all over the mountain.

..

That night, Wang Ling and the others had originally planned to return to the residence arranged by the nine temples family.

However, Jiudao and the high school had organized a welcome party, and under the strong suggestion of Ying Xianhe Ming, they had settled down in the school building arranged by Jiudao and the high school.

It wasn’t a suitable occasion for Wang Ling to attend a welcome party, so he chose to stay in the dormitory alone.

In any case, there were three of them, and as long as Lotus Sun and Wang Ming were there as representatives, it would be fine.

Wang Ling was already free to go and not go.

“Don’t worry, student Wang Ling, just leave this matter to me and the waiter. Remember to close the doors and windows, and let me know if there are any other girls harassing you!”Before leaving, Lotus Sun greeted him.

Wang Ming watched from afar and held back his laughter.

No matter how he looked at it, it felt like a couple saying goodbye..

But the question of whether Wang Ling would be disturbed by other girls.

Actually, Lotus Sun has already made arrangements.

Because in the opposite female dormitory building position, Zhai Yin’s dormitory window is facing Wang Ling’s dormitory door position.

If a girl sneaks past Wang Ling’s door,.

Zhai will be the first to notice.

But to be honest, she thought Lotus Sun was overthinking things.

Even if a girl came to look for Wang Ling..

Given Wang Ling’s willpower, he would never make such a mistake.

For a straight man with a cold nature who was ascetic, he wanted to play tricks on this.

The success rate was 0% ..

Around seven o’clock in the evening, when Wang Ling opened his eyes, he saw a figure appear in front of him.

It was none other than monk Jin Deng.

He didn't enter through the front door, but directly appeared in front of Wang Ling using the "Shrinking the earth into an inch" method.

"Greetings, Ling Zhenren."

Monk Jin Deng put his palms together. Dressed in No. 60 high school's School uniform, he still looked as comical as before. "I'm sure Zhenren has also noticed that there are half-ghosts in this school..."

"Mm." Wang Ling nodded.

The "Half-ghost" that the monk had mentioned was actually a technical term.

It meant that a "Ghost" that wasn't a complete entity hadn't completely turned into a ghost, but had the possibility of turning into one.

From the moment they had entered the nine paths and high school.

Wang Ling and golden lamp monk had keenly sensed that there was something unusual about this nine paths and high school..

Because they had already tested the relationship between the "Nine stars of the nine palaces".

Wang Ling already had a rough idea of how the nine stars of the nine palaces and the devil spirit in its body operated.

The other party used hair to manipulate ghosts from afar.

This ability was very terrifying.

And almost every hair was bound to a ghost.

But where did such a large number of ghosts come from?

At that time, Wang Ling had also been thinking about this question.

Now, he had found the answer.

It would be very easy to raise ghosts through these half-ghosts..

In the entire nine paths and high schools, there were many students whose minds had been twisted due to intense xenophobia, pressure on their studies, and school violence.

Some of these students had already become “Half ghosts,” while others were on the verge of becoming “Half ghosts”..

These were all potential stocks to become ghosts.

Thus, for the Nine Palace Star Radiance and the Devil Spirit.

The entire nine paths and high school was their “Ghost breeding ground.”.

After discovering this secret.

The first thing golden lamp monk did was to come to Wang Ling for a discussion.

He didn’t act rashly.

“I originally wanted to directly use ‘righteous path Buddhist Light’ to save those students who hadn’t become ghosts. But doing so might alert the enemy,” golden lamp Monk said.

By doing so, they could indeed save many students.

But in fact, they were also helping the Nine Palace Starlight destroy the evidence.

Wang Ling had the ability to make nine stars Shine's plan fall through.

But such an evil person who was against humanity...

If he wasn't exposed in the end and accepted everyone's spit and punishment..

Wang Ling had always felt uncomfortable about this.

Of course..

For such an evil person, even if Wang Ling crushed her to death like an ant, no one would feel sorry for her.

But if it was possible, Wang Ling still hoped that the evil deeds of the nine palaces star brilliance and the star seizer group behind them could be exposed to the world.

Instead of using his boundless and enormous energy to choose to suppress them..

Because in that case...

People would never learn to reflect, and in the end, they could only take a step back.

There were many ways to be a hero.

Six years ago, Odd Zhuo was a warrior who knew that he was no match for the demon king, but still raised his sword and charged at him like a god of war..

And like Odd Zhuo, he charged at the most powerful "Retrograde people" without hesitation. He still existed in this world, but there were many of them.

In this current situation, Wang Ling felt that it was more important to collect evidence of the nine palaces' starlight crime.

This was actually not difficult.

He just needed to wait for the right time to reverse engineer it.

There were so many “Half-ghosts” in the nine paths and high school.

Since the nine temples’ starlight used this place as their own “Ghost Farm,” there had to be a way to forcibly turn these half-ghosts into real ghosts.

So what Wang Ling had to do was very simple.

Since he had turned a person into a ghost, then wouldn’t it be enough for him to turn them back?

For Wang Ling.

This process was like math.

The Great Dao was the simplest, and in the end, it was nothing more than mathematical formulas.

Since it was a formula, then it could be reversed.

After a short exchange through voice transmission, the monk completely understood Wang Ling’s thoughts. “I fully support Ling Zhenren’s decision.”

It was always right for the monk to follow Wang Ling.

From the moment he had entered the island, the monk had always had the idea of spreading the “Light of the righteous path” across Sun Island..

It could only be said that the matter of the nine temples starlight recruiting “One hundred thousand ghost soldiers” was still too exaggerated.

As an eminent monk who had attained the DAO, he was an existence on the level of the most holy of Buddhists.

As soon as Golden Lamp entered Sun Island, he felt that the island was full of ghosts and shadows..

If it hadn't been for the fact that he had become more restrained now, he wouldn't have been able to make a move.

Buddhists were obsessed with cleanliness, and the most taboo thing to do was to see this kind of dirty thing floating in front of their eyes.

On the other hand, Wang Ling was so calm.

Golden lamp instantly felt the difference between his and Wang Ling's calmness.

"As expected of Ling Zhenren, you're really calm..."

After the exchange, the monk sighed with emotion. He felt that he still had a lot to learn from Wang Ling.

Since he didn't need to do anything now,.

Then he would just follow Wang Ling's instructions and do nothing.

The monk didn't have anything else to do.

He could only shrink back and return to the staff quarters that the nine paths and high school had arranged for him. He hid himself and silently started to do function questions..

Knowledge was power.

How could ordinary people understand the charm of functions?

..

Forced transformation of ghosts..

Thinking back to what he had just discussed with the golden lamp monk,.

Wang Ling felt a little amused.

He roughly knew what that nine-temple starlight was capable of.

There were a lot of “Half-ghosts”here.

He judged that the nine-temple starlight was using hair to remotely manipulate these potential “Half-ghosts”to force them into ghosts..

This was mainly determined by the “Negative energy”emitted by the “Half-ghosts.”.

Then..

What would happen if he absorbed all the negative energy here?

He admitted that this seemed a little fishy.

But as long as it worked.

Then, Wang Ling closed his eyes slightly.

For a moment, countless voices filled with resentment welled up in his mind.

“Ah! This question is so difficult! I don’t know how to do it!”

“Damn it, why is there so much homework today? Why do I feel like I can’t finish it? Looks like I’ll have to get up early tomorrow to copy my homework! But if I copy my homework, what should I do for the exam? !”

“No... I can’t watch anymore... This is definitely the last one. If I continue watching, my kidneys will be weak at such a young age...”

“I’m not bullying her because I like Noko... she’s clearly such a person, I don’t want to apologize to her...”

“The Little Slut next door is flirting with other people again. She clearly has a boyfriend, but she’s still dressed so ostentatiously.”

“Sigh, I failed again. I’m still two points short of full marks. If I don’t get full marks, my life will be ruined.”

“This damned Ku Xuan, he updates so slowly every day, and he’s still wet. Doesn’t he have any self-awareness at all? ! He’s clearly a solo author of a mother’s womb, what kind of love story is he writing? ! Go Fight for me! I want to see Wang Ling show off!”

” ... ”

There were many, many more such voices..

Nowadays, teenagers were under a lot of pressure to study, and it was very common for them to lose their mental balance in all sorts of ways.

Especially before the college entrance exam, the last straw that could crush a teenager might just be a paper, a paragraph that didn’t sound important, or just a hurtful word..

So almost every school had a psychological teacher in charge of psychological counseling, ready to deal with the children’s psychological problems at any time.

He condensed the resentment of the teenagers in the air around him.

Filled with negative energy, he turned it into a black ball the size of a basketball and coiled it in Wang Ling's palm.

Wang Ling used the collected negative energy as bait.

After waiting for a while, he suddenly heard the sound of something breaking through the air behind him..

“As expected, it's here.”

Wang Ling was calm in his heart.

He swiftly crushed the ball of negative energy in his hand, and then quickly grabbed the strand of hair that was trying to reach his head..

..

On the other side, when Wang Ling once again grabbed the hair of the nine temples of Starlight.

That familiar feeling came back..

The devil spirit and the nine temples starlight were terrified at the same time.

This!

This familiar aura..

This familiar technique..

In an instant, that suffocating feeling was once again transmitted over.

While the nine temples starlight was terrified, she couldn't help taking a deep breath.

She didn't believe that Wang Houlang was that ghost called "Houlang."

But now, faced with Wang Ling's direct showdown, the nine temples of Starlight was at a loss.

The nine temples of starlight: "Why did you provoke him for no reason? !"

The demon spirit felt very wronged. "My initial target was only a wild child in broad daylight... it was just that I suddenly felt a huge amount of negative energy condensing inside the nine paths of light, and my hair was automatically drawn over."

It was very obvious that this was a trap.

But out of the horror of having her hair pulled out one after another this morning, it was a good thing that the demon spirit had been prepared this time.

She reacted very quickly.

After determining that her hair had been pulled, she immediately used the "Gecko's tail" technique and automatically gave up on that strand of hair.

HM?

Was she afraid just like that.

Wang Ling found it a little funny.

He carried the strand of hair on his finger that was gradually turning white like dust.

The demon spirit thought that he had successfully escaped.

But in fact, the moment Wang Ling had grabbed that strand of hair just now,

He had already locked onto the frequency of the demon spirit's spirit energy signal.

He had used this fishing technique just now to lock onto the demon spirit.

And now...

As long as he was within the range of the nine paths and high school, no matter how the Devil Spirit changed its spirit energy frequency or concealed itself, it would be ineffective against Wang Ling.

Wang Ling sat cross-legged in his dorm.

He closed his eyes.

Countless streams of Qi split off from Wang Ling's body, forming clones that ordinary people couldn't see, and then suddenly spread out in all directions.

From what had happened just now, Wang Ling could already sense that some of the students in the nine paths had already been forcibly turned into "Ghosts" by the Devil Spirit.

While controlling the devil spirit's movements, he was also thinking about saving these students.

And now..

The counterattack.

It had officially begun.

..

In the female dormitory building in Area C of the nine paths and high school.

A girl named Dayi Yezi had just taken a nap, and when she woke up, she found that her appearance had changed tremendously.

Cat..

Cat-eared lady?

She stared at herself in the mirror and felt that the world had become abnormal.

The Cat Ears on her head and the whiskers on her cheeks seemed to be telling her everything.

She was “Cat-like”.

And this was definitely not a dream.

If it was just a pair of cat ears on her head, perhaps Dayi Noko would be able to accept it.

But now, she realized that her face had gradually turned into the appearance of a cat. Other than the cat whiskers, there was also a layer of light fur.

Even though she liked cats, she still could not accept the fact that she had turned into a cat-eared lady..

The main thing was that this cat-eared lady’s form was too ugly!

It was not a two-dimensional one at all!

Not only was her skin long and hairy, but it was also wrinkled.

The Ugly Dayi Noko was on the verge of tears.

In the year that she had just entered the school, Dayi Noko was still a student in Class S.

She loved animals, especially kittens.

She often used her pocket money to buy cat food to feed the little guys on campus.

And this behavior seemed to have angered the hidden “Perverts” in Class S.

They were all twisted cat abusers who often took some cat abuse videos and sold them on the Internet.

Dayuko’s behavior of feeding stray cats angered these cat abusers.

Then, a two-year-long school violence began..

Every day during class, there were all kinds of humiliating words, the eraser in the water bottle, and all kinds of additives. Even the homework that was handed in would be erased by someone, the scariest thing was that those cat abusers blamed all the cat abuse incidents on Daisako..

Daisako’s grades plummeted.

She dropped from Class S to Class C.

She began to become autistic and unwilling to communicate with others.

Once, she also tried to ask the teacher for help.

The teacher told her.

Those people in Class S were all powerful people. If she could endure it, she would endure it.

She had also tried to ask her parents for help.

Her parents told her that.

Kudao Kazuo was a famous school. Since she was studying here, she had to learn to blend in with the environment and not do things that didn’t fit in..

No one really understood her.

They really understood her thoughts..

Even the people closest to her didn't bring her any relief.

After a long time.

Dayi Noko's spirit completely collapsed.

She felt like she was living like a wandering soul.

If it weren't for the kittens in Kudao Kazuhiro who needed to be taken care of, Dayi Noko would have already chosen to end her life.

As for tonight's orientation party, Dayi Noko naturally didn't dare to attend.

She was very clear.

If she went over, it would just be another kind of humiliation.

At this time, Dayi Yezi, who did not know that she had been forced to become a "Ghost," stood in front of the mirror and stared blankly at the changes that had happened to her body.

Her claws seemed to have become sharper than before, and the shiny sharp blades were like blades.

Her scarlet eyes and the cat's tail with barbs were like whips. With just a gentle wave of her hand, the wall behind her collapsed under the powerful blow of her tail..

"Did... did I really turn into a monster?" Dayi Noko didn't know what had happened to her body.

And in the next moment, she felt that her head was in pain.

Countless voices were swirling in her mind.

Those voices were encouraging her..

They wanted her to take revenge for everything that she had experienced in the past..

They wanted to take revenge on those who had bullied her!

In a trance, many pitiful kittens that she had seen flashed through Dayi Noko's mind.

These kittens were captured by the cat abusers and tortured to death with a box cutter. Their fur was pulled out, their fur was burned, and they were electrocuted... those cat abusers used their tyranny on these weak lives to show off their strength.

Gradually, an inexplicable anger rose in Dayi Yezi's heart.

Just as she felt as if she was about to be devoured by hatred...

A strange figure suddenly appeared in front of her.

This person was none other than Wang Ling's clone.

"Don't be afraid, I'm here to help you," said Wang Ling's clone.

These clones had been sent by Wang Ling to influence these students who had already become "Ghosts."

The clones represented Wang Ling's will, but their personalities were actually different from Wang Ling's.

Wang Ling's clones had an extremely high-level AI mechanism.

They could automatically judge the situation in front of them and adjust themselves to what these students who needed to be influenced wanted to see the most.

And so.

When Dazhou Yezi saw Wang Ling's clones...

She felt that the youngster in front of her was glowing like a small sun.

"You Are..."Daqiunoko said hesitantly.

"My name is houlang, and I'm here to help you recover your human body,"Wang Ling's clone said.

According to the clone's AI mechanism,.

Since Daqiunoko had entered the nine paths and high school, no one had ever spoken to her so gently.

So using the gentle route was the best way to break through.

"Can I really turn back now..."Dazhou Yezi shed tears.

"Actually, you've been restraining yourself all this time, haven't you?"

Wang Ling's clone smiled very naturally.

But it was almost impossible to see such a smile on his real body.

"Just like when you're talking to Me Now, your tears can not help falling down. This proves that you actually don't want to turn into a ghost..."

"You're a kind girl. This isn't your problem. You saved those stray cats, which also proves that you have a kind heart."

“So in the future, please continue to be kind... all kind people deserve to be treated kindly.”

“I. . .”Dayi Noko’s tears could no longer be stopped.

Suddenly, she felt a trace of warm psionic energy seep into her body from her forehead.

Then, all of the “Ghost-like” characteristics on her body quickly disappeared as it was visible to the naked eye.

“He actually did it...”Dayi Yezi looked at what was happening on her body in disbelief.

Wang Ling retracted his hand. “Alright, I’ve accomplished my mission. See You Again...”

“Houlang sang!”

Before Wang Ling’s clone disappeared, Dazhou Yezi suddenly mustered up his courage to call out to him. “How... How Can I repay you? !”

“There’s no need to repay me.”

Wang Ling’s clone replied, “Continue to exercise your kindness; this is the best way to repay you.”

After all, the original Wang Ling had done many good things in the past.

And he had never left his name behind.

Dazhou Yezi’s face was flushed red.

Because he had never been treated so gently before, Dazhou Yezi couldn’t tell whether he was moved or in love.

Looking at the back of Wang Ling's clone, she mustered up her last bit of courage. "Houlang sang!"

HM?

When Wang Ling's clone came back to his senses, he saw a huge shadow pouncing at him.

Fortunately, the clone's reaction was very quick, and it directly stretched out its hand to block Dazhou Yezi's body.

"I'm sorry, I'm not used to being too close to people."

"I'm sorry, Houlang Sang... I was rude..." Dazhou Yezi's face was clearly a little disappointed. "Then, can you give me a light hug? Just a hug..."

"No."

This was a matter of principle.

The clone's rejection was also very decisive.

He didn't want to leave any illusions for these teenagers or girls.

So it wasn't just for "Dazhou Yezi" alone; Wang Ling's clone also did the same for the rest of them.

It was just that everyone's situation was different.

Wang Ling's clone's rejection method was also different.

In the face of Dayi Yezi, Wang Ling's doppelganger rejected him more decisively.

..

After the incident, Dayi Yezi and many other students who had been influenced by Wang Ling's doppelganger that night couldn't remember what Wang Ling looked like for the time being.

They only remembered.

That youngster called himself "Hou Lang".

He was like a god descending to earth, full of sunshine.

He appeared in front of them at the moment they needed him the most.

He melted their wounded hearts with the gentlest words in the world.

It was like a dream.

Or rather, it was a dream!

Was there any boy in this world who was more handsome and understanding than Hou Lang sang!

They regarded this memory as the most precious secret of their lives.

And they would carry this secret with them.

With all their goodness and kindness, they would continue to strive to live on..

Small Theater (unrelated to the main storyline and the extras) :

Lotus Sun: Student Wang Ling, can you give me a gentle hug? Just a hug..

Wang Ling: No! This is another price!

Chapter 1514 Run? Can You Run Away...

The problem of the nine paths and all the high school students who had been forcibly transformed into “Ghosts” had finally been solved.

Wang Ling retracted his clones and opened his eyes.

For the students he had helped, the appearance of these clones was indeed like a dream.

The reality was somewhat illusory.

By the time he/she came back to their senses, the young man named “Houlang” in their memories had already left.

Then, they forgot the appearance of “Houlang”, and also forgot the horrifying appearance of them after they turned into ghosts.

The only thing they remembered in their minds was the illusory image of the young man named “Houlang” leaving with the light of an angel descending..

Like a young Radiant Angel from heaven, shaking its feathers, not leaving behind a cloud..

Then, Wang Ling carved the memories of his clones into “Dreams” on his hand.

The content of the “Dreams” was exactly what the students who had become “Ghosts” felt when their bodies mutated.

It was the most direct impact.

Wang Ling felt that it wouldn’t be a bad idea to portray these spiritual impacts as a dream and then return them to the organizers of the school bullying.

The same goes for the same person.

As the saying goes, every debt has its debtor. The reason why these low-level students from the nine paths and high schools had become ghosts today... among these students who had participated in the school violence in the upper echelons, not a single snowflake was innocent.

In that case, Wang Ling decided to be a good person to the end.

He decided to apply these painful memories to those “Campus bullies”.

Of course... it wasn't to turn them into ghosts.

Wang Ling wasn't that cruel.

He was simply making them have nightmares.

Before those bullies completely realized their mistake and turned over a new leaf, they would experience the same mental shock that these students who had been turned into ghosts experienced every night..

After this was done, the whole thing came to an end for Wang Ling.

But the temporary victory was only temporary.

It was still the nine palaces of starlight who had been the real mastermind behind the scenes.

Wang Ling actually hadn't expected that the other party would actually have the guts to test him.

Since they had already attacked him first..

Then Wang Ling felt that the second round of warnings could probably begin.

He hadn't pulled out much hair last time, and it was still a long night.

Wang Tong had already locked onto the nine palaces' starlight through the hair just now.

In other words, no matter what methods the nine palaces' starlight and the Devil Spirit used, it would be useless.

It didn't matter if it was a "Golden cicada shedding its shell" or a "Gecko cutting off its tail".

Or if it was a lot of distracting ghosts..

In front of Wang Ling, these were all useless.

You could escape as you pleased.

You could escape to the ends of the Earth.

So what if I gave you a few hundred million light years to run first..

Five-fingered mountain was five-fingered mountain.

..

At the same time, Starlight of the nine palaces started her escape plan in a panic.

Neither she nor the devil spirit had expected that the person called "Queen Lang" was actually the ghost that had reached out to pull out its hair from the mirror earlier!

To be precise..

It wasn't actually a ghost.

It was a genuine cultivator, a person!

Their previous understanding of Wang Ling as a ghost was just wishful thinking on their part.

Damn it..

How could a human cultivator, not to mention the mascot of No. 60 high school, have such terrifying strength!

When starlight of the nine temples made a deal with the devil spirit..

She was actually greedy for the powerful strength of ghosts.

She thought that if she signed a contract with ghosts and merged with them, her combat strength would greatly increase, even reaching a height that normal earth self-cultivators couldn't compare to!

But now, starlight of the nine temples realized that she was wrong.

There were actually monsters on earth that were beyond her comprehension..

The demonic spirit in her body was not an ordinary ghost.

It was a top-tier vengeful spirit that had lived for a thousand years.

Even the demonic spirit did not expect that after a human was forcibly transformed into a ghost, he could actually change back through manipulation..

This was not a freaking math problem!

It could even be reversed!

Thus, the demonic spirit was dumbfounded, and so was the nine temples' Starlight.

As they felt the students being corrected one by one, their expressions were so lifeless that words simply couldn't describe them.

Under such an intense spiritual shock.

The Nine Palace Star Radiance and the demon spirit could both feel it.

Their worldviews were being reshaped, and their perceptions were being refreshed..

Then, when they came back to their senses...

One word came to mind simultaneously in the minds of the man and the Demon: Escape!

They could sense the huge gap between them and Wang Ling.

And this kind of power gap was clearly not something that could be filled with the main book of the “Ghost Book”.

There was always hope for the future.

The most important thing now was to run.

Nine Temples Starlight had wanted to test Wang Ling.

In the end, he hadn’t expected that he would almost lose his life.

“We definitely can’t just run like this. We have to plan our route and then release some interference to delay the enemy’s progress,” nine temples’ starlight suggested.

“I know.” The demon spirit nodded. “I just released 10,000 ghosts. These ghosts are scattered all over Sun Island and will cause large-scale chaos. I think it should be enough to buy us some time.”

“So you’ve already released them...”

Nine Temples Starlight was stunned.

At that moment, she stroked her hair.

It was just a casual grab.

A large tuft of hair fell from the top of her head..

This was the effect of the demon spirit unlocking the ghosts to rest.

Although the nine temples Starlight's heart was bleeding from the loss of this large tuft of hair,.

But it was an extraordinary time and an extraordinary method.

Furthermore, the nine temples starlight was also thinking whether these ten thousand ghosts could really slow Wang Ling down.

“Are you sure this isn't a big deal? Why do I Feel Like It's not reliable?”The nine temples starlight questioned this.

“These are ten thousand ghosts! Moreover, the ghosts under us are all carefully selected top-notch goods... they won't be so easy to deal with!”

The demon spirit said confidently, “Even if we release 10,000 pigs and let that Queen Lang catch them on Sun Island, it will still take a lot of time, right? Let alone ghosts?”

“Let's Hope so,”the nine temples'starlight said with a frown.

Her next step was actually to escape from Earth.

Back then, her family, which was now the Akino family that represented the star seizer group, had actually been dealing with a kind of alien creature with a silver horn on its head a long time ago.

Now, the star harvesters and the silver-horned creature were interdependent and inseparable.

The star harvesters had always been prepared for the plan to escape from the alien planet.

They just didn't expect the plan to be carried out today.

"Let's go, there's not much time left."

After calculating the final time, the nine temples' Starlight hid himself inside a small rice-sized magic artifact and used it as a container to hide. He turned into a firefly-like ball of light and quickly left the nine temples' residence.

At the same time, the nine temples' starlight was also paying close attention to the large pile of hair that had fallen off his head earlier.

The color of his hair now still looked very healthy..

This meant that the ten thousand ghosts released by the Demon Spirit were still in a state of operation. If they were eliminated, the hair on their hands would instantly become dry and gray, losing all its nutrients.

According to the Demon Spirit's estimation.

It was not easy to clear these 10,000 ghosts.

It would at least take the other party a few days..

However, the next moment, the slap to the face came too suddenly.

Not long after nine temples' starlight escaped from the nine temples family.

The black hair on his hand instantly dried up and turned into nothingness..

"This! !" Nine temples' Starlight and the demon spirit's faces were twisted and their expressions were beautiful.

They had only released 10,000 ghosts..

But in the blink of an eye, they were all cleared!

Chapter 1515 Damage = Two Chinese Characters

Wang Ling had previously used his hair to lock on to the original body of the nine temples starlight and the Devil Spirit, and his goal wasn't just the end.

It was also to properly set up the "One-click cleanup" spell trap.

He had calculated that the nine temples starlight and the Devil Spirit would probably plan to escape.

Since they were going to escape, they would definitely release a certain level of interference.

Thus, it wasn't too strange for them to voluntarily release the ghost they were bound to.

Thus, the moment starlight of the nine temples was locked onto by Wang Ling, she had already lost.

It was also at that moment that Wang Ling had set up the "One-click cleaning" spell trap for all her hair, and it was a chain-link mechanism.

If one ghost was killed at the same time, the other ghosts would also receive the same amount of damage.

It was indeed very troublesome for Wang Ling to capture ten thousand ghosts wandering around Sun Island at the same time. The main reason was that he was worried that he would make too big a commotion and hurt the innocent.

But it was different now.

With this "Chain-link" mechanism,.

Wang Ling only needed to crush one ghost, and the rest would explode together.

And so.

The moment the ten thousand ghosts disappeared at the same time, both the nine palaces' Starlight and the Devil Spirit were extremely shocked.

This..

Was this even a freaking person?

The nine palaces' Starlight's face twitched, and he couldn't help gulping down a mouthful of terrified saliva.

“He's actually hiding in that rice-shaped magic artifact?”

Wang Ling used his king's eye to track him down and quickly locked onto the magic artifact that the other party had used to escape.

It looked like a rice grain, but Wang Ling didn't think it was a magic artifact from Earth.

He held back and didn't immediately take the next step to suppress nine Palace Starlight.

Instead, he wanted to see where Nine Palace Starlight wanted to escape to next.

To be able to take in so many ghosts and merge them into one, it was obvious that with the Nine Palace Starlight's individual strength, it was actually very difficult to do so without a backer behind the scenes.

Moreover, Wang Ling had a feeling.

He felt that the aura of the Nine Palace Starlight was strange.

Even though there was a devil spirit in her body,.

Wang Ling could clearly distinguish between the aura of a person and a ghost.

The reason why he found it strange was because.

He could sense a third aura flowing through the nine stars of the nine palaces..

What exactly was that?

He followed the nine stars of the nine palaces all the way to the edge of a golden beach on Sun Island.

Then, a magic artifact the size of a grain of rice suddenly plunged into the beach..

The entire process was so fast that it was almost undetectable to the naked eye.

Wang Ling hadn't expected that the core of the star picking group was actually hidden under the Golden Beach on Sun Island.

After following it in depth, Wang Ling was surprised to find that.

It turned out that there was actually another underground city-like structure hidden under the Golden Beach..

If Sun Island was compared to a poached egg...

Then the city under the golden beach was the egg yolk of this poached egg!

It was tightly wrapped and buried very deeply!

Wang Ling used his king's eye to track it all the way and found some alien characters that he had never seen before.

This made Wang Ling even more astonished.

Wang Ming's purpose in coming to the island this time was actually to track down the DNA strand of the alien silver-horned man who had attacked Wei Zhi and Jiang Yingying.

How could this star picking group... be related to an alien civilization?

No Way?

It couldn't be such a coincidence, right?

Just as Wang Ling was lamenting how small the world was...

In the Golden City of the star picking group, which was connected to the bottom of the Golden Beach, a tunnel leading to the depths of the sea caught Wang Ling's attention.

He used his king's eye to track it remotely.

Just now, he had discovered that there was something fishy hidden in the depths of the sea..

It was actually a well-built underwater base.

It was just like the Ultraman base in those special photos that Wang Ling had seen when he was young.

It was just that it was completely built under the deep sea.

There were strong defensive barriers and barriers with alien characters densely written on them. With the current technology of human cultivators, it would probably be very difficult to crack this level of alien barriers.

Of course, no matter how high-end this barrier was, it would only be a snap of the fingers for Wang Ling.

But after thinking about it, he decided not to make a move first.

This was a very important discovery.

Because this underwater base looked very much like a secret alien military base.

It was really too terrifying.

Such a huge thing could actually be built silently under the nose of a country.

This was absolutely not allowed to happen to any government agency in any country.

The Star Harvesters' establishment of China was a huge danger; it was probably a premeditated plan.

If this matter was exposed...

It would be the biggest scandal the entire Sun Island would face.

After switching Wang Tong's "Free exploration" perspective back to "Star radiance of the nine palaces",.

Wang Ling saw that star radiance of the nine palaces and the Devil Spirit had already piloted their magic artifacts into the star picking group's core base in Golden City.

Everything was as Wang Ling had expected.

As expected, the star picking group had colluded with an alien civilization..

In addition to human cultivators, there was also a silver-skinned creature with antennae on its head in the star picking group's core base.

But now, Wang Ling finally understood.

The silver-horned man they had seen earlier was actually an evolved version of this silver-skinned alien creature!

The silver-skinned man had appeared on Earth a long time ago, and they had a very powerful disguise that could make their skin transform like a chameleon.

All they had to do was provide a photo.

Wang Ling personally saw a silver-skinned person stare at a photo of a human for a few seconds, and then his body changed like a kaleidoscope.

He had completely transformed into the human in the photo.

In the core base, a place called the Human Learning Institute had attracted Wang Ling's special attention.

After these silver-skinned people used the photo to transform into the person in the photo, they would also learn the culture of human cultivators so that they could better integrate into society.

They learned languages, the languages of various countries, played games, watched anime and manga, and even learned how to live-stream goods and double-row girls..

Although this mobile game technology was very rudimentary at first, the silver-skinned people learned very quickly.

They were also growing at a rapid pace.

Take the MOBA mobile game "Alliance of Kings" as an example. On average, it would only take a week for a silver-skinned person to crazily send their head to the top.

Wang Ling couldn't help feeling rueful..

It turned out that sometimes, the teammates who looked like jerks in the game weren't necessarily "Elementary school students"!

It was also possible that these aliens were mingling in human society and trying to adapt to human life..

..

In the Human Learning Institute, the silver-skinned people needed to go through systematic learning before they could enter human society.

The people who offered these courses were all real humans, and all of them were members of the star picking group.

Wang Ling judged that there might be some sort of deal between the Star Picking Group on Sun Island and the silver-skinned people.

What was interesting was that the silver-skinned people had learned even such a small thing as food and drink under the guidance of the members of the star picking group.

“Everyone! Today, we will be learning the correct drinking method of beverages!” A man with a strong build stood in front of the podium, in the classroom, a total of thirty silver-skinned men sat in front of their desks. On their desks was a can of soda.

“This thing is commonly known as fat otaku happy water. When you drink it, just like me, gently pull open the clasp of the soda can and drink tons of it like this!” After the man finished drinking it, the air that had evaporated after the carbonated drink had washed through his stomach and intestines caused the man to burp.

He laughed loudly. “It’s normal for people to Burp after drinking it like this. There’s no need to be overly alarmed. Besides carbonated drinks, there’s also beer.”

“However, the alcohol lesson is more complicated. Since the students in the other classes have already experienced the phenomenon of promiscuity after drinking, we will be teaching alcohol in separate classes.”

” ...”

Wang Ling suddenly felt that these silver-skinned people were actually quite interesting.

In order to integrate into human society, they had specially learned human knowledge.

In today's "Knowledge is power" society, even if aliens came to Earth, they would still have to learn..

But in Wang Ling's opinion, these silver-skinned people still had a long way to go.

When they came into contact with human mathematics, Chinese language, physics, chemistry, and so on, they might collapse even more..

But the silver-skinned people grew very quickly, and they also had the ability to draw inferences from one example.

This made Wang Ling feel that he had to be on guard against these extraterrestrial creatures.

After all, the undersea military base that was connected to the underground golden city of the star picking group was the handiwork of these silver-skinned people.

They combined the inherent knowledge in their minds, then studied the laws on Earth, and repeatedly deliberated through the collision of knowledge and knowledge.

In the end, it was possible to obtain knowledge that could break modern attempts and unlock unknown fields of technology..

Now Wang Ling seemed to understand why Peng xiren had chosen the silver-skinned people as the target of evolution.

The growth rate of these silver-skinned people was indeed frighteningly fast.

If they could evolve into silver-horned people...

Their growth rate would probably be even more astonishing.

“We have to go!”

At that moment, starlight of the nine temples left his rice grain escape magic artifact and appeared in the core base.

In the core base, the leader of the star harvesters appeared.

He had a white beard with bulging muscles, and his body was as sturdy as a small mountain.

His name was Red Wild Chieftain Tiger. He was the current leader of the star harvesters and also the father of the nine temples’ Starlight.

“Starlight... What Happened? Why are you so flustered?” Red Wild Chieftain Tiger was puzzled.

The first time a human body and a ghost had merged into one was red wild chieftain Tiger’s idea.

He had obtained very good experimental results from his daughter, Red Wild Starlight.

And moving into the nine temples clan was actually Scarlet Wild Chief Tiger’s own plan.

Right now, on Sun Island, scarlet wild chief tiger judged that the nine temples clan was the one who had the ability to pose a real threat to the star Seizer Group.

If he could successfully use his daughter to annex the nine temples clan, then... it would be just a matter of time before he could dominate Sun Island.

The remaining thing was to use the ability of the hair devil spirit on the body of the nine temples starlight to control 100,000 yin soldiers and gradually conquer the entire world!

The Red Wild Chief Tiger had such ambitions.

And to sustain such ambitions, it had to be supported by formidable strength.

Wang Ling observed the Red Wild Chief Tiger's combat strength.

It was actually not very strong.

About one-half of grenade-throwing senior immortal's combat strength.

If grenade-throwing senior immortal's combat strength could be described as "Passable" on the level of a human cultivator...

Then the Red Wild Chieftain Tiger was passable.

But what was worth Wang Ling's attention was this.

Although the Red Wild Chieftain Tiger wasn't strong, the silver-skinned man standing next to it was an expert.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal was already a true venerated... and was about to step into the venerated immortal realm.

And this silver-skinned man actually had the combat strength of ten grenade-throwing senior immortal!

A whole ten grenade-throwing senior immortal!

Wang Ling clicked his tongue in his heart.

"Father, look..." at that moment, starlight of the nine palaces put down his hair, revealing two pitiful-looking bald spots on the top of his head.

"This is..." the Red Wild Chief Tiger was stunned.

He knew very well that his daughter's situation was different from the others.

The others had become stronger even though they were bald.

But her daughter's situation was the opposite... bald meant the loss of ghosts.

Judging from the area of damage on the top of her head, his daughter had lost at least ten thousand ghosts.

The Wild Red Tiger was in disbelief. "What on Earth is going on? Why did they lose so many ghosts!"

"It's the Queen's Wave!"

The nine palaces' Starlight said.

For a while, she felt that it was actually difficult for her to explain to her father about the terrifying "Queen's wave".

Now, her and the demon spirit's thoughts were all at the same time.

Other than running..

There were no other thoughts.

Escaping Earth and then going to another planet to start a brand new life. This was what the nine temples' Starlight was thinking about.

"Starlight! Calm down! Our grand plan is being carried out steadily! Soon, we'll be able to unify the entire earth! As your father, I won't allow you to think of such useless things!" The Red Wild Chief Tiger felt that.., it must have been because the pressure on the nine temples starlight was too great recently.

Perhaps it was just a hallucination.

When a person was in a state of high mental stress, wasn't it normal for them to lose their hair?

For example, the author Ku Xuan, who had been criticized for plagiarizing a while ago... it was said that his hair was about to fall off!

The Crimson Wild Chieftain had long investigated the overall standards of the cultivators on Earth. Where could such a strong person exist..

"Father! What I said... is true!" Starlight of the nine temples felt like he couldn't defend himself.

The Wild Red Chief Tiger still shook his head. "I don't believe you, unless that Queen Queen Lang of yours shows up in front of me right now."

At that moment, Wang Ling, who was observing everything through his king's eye, tilted his neck.

He had never heard such a strange request.

But because of the difference in strength, Wang Ling didn't directly reveal his true form. Instead, he used his king's eye to summon a small clone from afar.

The face of the small clone couldn't be seen clearly; it was just an indistinct outline.

But the moment this outline appeared, Starlight from the nine temples, who had already been tortured twice, recognized it at a glance.

He was scared out of his wits on the spot. "It's him! He's Wang Houlang!"

"Don't be afraid, daughter! Father is here!"

The wild red chief tiger sneered.

Then, facing Wang Ling's virtual body, he exerted strength from his feet and waist at the same time and struck out a palm from afar!

The air cannon-like palm made an explosive sound as it rushed towards Wang Ling's little clone and landed accurately on Wang Ling's body.

Then, the little clone wasn't harmed in the slightest.

"..."

For a moment.

Wang Ling suddenly thought of a very popular term recently.

That was: scraping.

Chapter 1516 Little Doppelganger

The little doppelganger in front of him possessed about one-billionth of Wang Ling's strength.

Wang Ling was mainly worried that he wouldn't be able to control his own strength well.

He would directly beat him into a tofu pudding.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have used this method to test him.

Little Doppelganger.

It was just a little doppelganger.

In Wang Ling's eyes, its attributes were relatively weak.

According to the level of the clone,.

A real clone was like "Crispy noodles dao monarch.".

The level was the highest among the clones that Wang Ling had split up so far.

And after “Real Clone,” the Order of clones.

Was: Ordinary Clone, Big Clone, and the last small clone.

Depending on the level of the clone,.

There was also a huge difference in the actual combat strength of each clone.

It was true that the little doppelganger was the weakest.

But Wang Ling hadn’t expected that even the weakest.

The damage the other party had done to the little doppelganger was actually just scraping.

And this little bit of damage...

With the little doppelganger’s self-healing ability, it could be repaired in the blink of an eye.

So this level of spirit energy was completely negligible in Wang Ling’s eyes.

When the attack failed, the Red Wild Chieftiger’s first reaction was also a bit of disbelief.

After a short moment of Daze, he immediately condensed the metal in the nearby space.

The fish-scale-like armor condensed in front of his eyes and whizzed toward Wang Ling’s little clone!

It had to be said that the red wild chieftiger was a rather outstanding cultivator with a gold spirit root.

This was a method of extracting rare metal in the nearby space and then launching an attack.

If it was not for the fact that he had cultivated this type of spell to perfection, it would actually be very difficult to achieve.

The pieces of condensed golden fish scales sliced through the air, emitting piercing screeches.

Boom!

The moment he crashed into the little clone, smoke rose up in front of him.

“Success!”

The wild red chief tiger retracted the fierce light hidden in his eyes.

This was the original move of the “Golden scale meat grinder”.

The main inspiration came from those web novel authors who liked to drag out the update.

The moment the move was launched, the metal elements in the surrounding space would be rapidly condensed by him, turning into sharp blades that were like fish scales..

A total of hundreds of thousands of fish scales were cutting the selected target together.

Under such a blade storm, it would not last for more than a few seconds.

The body would turn into a lump of minced meat used to wrap dumplings.

” ... ”

In the smoke screen, Wang Ling’s little clone patted the dust off his body.

The so-called “Smoke without damage” principle was once again very well reflected at this moment.

The Wild Red Tiger was an expert, but it was still nothing compared to Wang Ling's little clone.

The little clone wasn't as tall as its original body, and it looked like it was only the size of a ten-year-old child, but the deterrent force it exuded was astonishing enough.

The little clone raised its hand, and the smoke in the field was completely swept away.

The "Golden scale meat grinder" from earlier had no effect at all on the little clone.

Step by step, he walked toward the Red Wild Chief Tiger.

There wasn't the slightest sound in his footsteps.

However, everyone's hearts felt as if they had been struck by a Great Dao Bell.

The nine palaces' Starlight, the Red Wild Chief Tiger, and the silver-skinned king, who had ten grenade-throwing senior immortal's combat strength, were all so frightened that their hearts trembled in fear.

"Monster! What kind of monster is this? !"

The Red Wild Chieftiger cried out in alarm.

His unique skill was completely ineffective.

This was something the Red Wild Chieftiger had never expected.

At that moment, in the main hall of the core of Golden City, the Red Wild Chieftiger, nine palaces' Starlight, and the silver-skinned king, who had ten lightning combat strength.

Under the little clone's footsteps, they quickly retreated.

The tremors were too intense.

The little clone hadn't even made a move yet, and the suppression of his aura had already caused the three of them to lose their souls.

He had only taken a light step forward.

The feeling of blood boiling in the three of their chests had already overflowed, and they all suffered internal injuries from the shock.

With a "Wah", they all spat out blood in unison.

No... they had to resist!

They had to run!

If they didn't run now, they would die!

At the same time, the three of them thought of running.

"Hundred ghosts nocturnal travel!"

At this moment, the nine temples'starlight shouted.

Helpless, the nine temples'starlight could only pull out another lock of his hair.

With a light blow, the hall immediately rang with the screams of many ghosts.

Hundred ghosts nocturnal travel.

In a short period of time, hundreds of powerful ghosts were used to control them.

It was a little similar to how Gao Tianming of demon capturer one had controlled hundreds of puppets.

It was just that the “Hundred ghosts nocturnal art” wasn’t that complicated, and the type of spell was instantaneous, so it was quite distracting.

It was probably very difficult for other cultivators to deal with it.

But now.

Standing there was Wang Ling’s little clone.

The little clone didn’t care at all about such a method.

The little clone gently raised its hand, which was clearly very languid and slow, but it directly grabbed one of the ghosts that was running around in space.

Then, with a bang, it crushed the haunted house’s head on the spot.

The spell trap set by the main body also benefited the doppelganger.

The “One-click clean” effect was triggered, and hundreds of wandering ghosts were instantly turned into ashes.

The nine temples starlight seemed to have expected this outcome.

She actually didn’t know how the little monster in front of her did it.

But when she saw it with her own eyes.

The scalp of the nine temples starlight, which was already bald, appeared to be a little numb.

When the nine temples’ starlight calmed down.

She was shocked to find that her father and the silver-skinned king, who had been standing beside her, had already run away!

On the ground, the wild scarlet chief tiger used his own method to leave the last words to the nine temples'starlight, "Daughter, Daddy will always love you..."

Love my ass!

Instantly abandoned by her biological father, the nine temples'starlight felt despair all over her face. She even wondered if she was the wild scarlet chief Tiger's biological daughter.

"Is it alright for us to leave just like this?"The silver-skinned man King held the scepter in his hand and asked worriedly.

This was a space-type magic artifact, the "Winding jump battle".

It had the ability to teleport for short distances.

With a light tap of the scepter, they would be able to escape from a dangerous situation.

"That person won't kill Starlight. If he really wanted her life, he would have done it long ago."

The Wild Scarlet Chief Tiger took out a disc spiritual artifact and brought up the scene in the core hall.

This scene was projected into the void.

He originally wanted to see the situation of the nine temples of Starlight.

In the end, the scene showed that the nine temples of Starlight had fallen face-first onto the ground.

It looked like it had completely fainted.

As for the little monster whose silhouette could only be seen clearly, it slowly stood up from the ground and suddenly looked in the direction of the surveillance. It seemed to be having a “Deep gaze” with the Wild Scarlet Chief Tiger.

At the next moment.

Regardless of whether it was the wild crimson chief tiger or the silver-skinned king, their smiles completely disappeared.

Because in the void scene.

The little monster directly extended its hand towards them.

Its small palm directly penetrated through the scene and pinched his head..

Chapter 1517 Wang Ling Was Injured

“Are... are you a human or a ghost...”

The instant the little clone’s hand touched the head of the Red Wild Chieftain Tiger, the hair on its back instantly stood on end.

It subconsciously shrunk its neck and tried to break free.

However, the little clone was too strong, and its small hand was like a suction cup, gripping the tiger’s entire head like a bowling ball.

Then, he lifted it up.

The little clone wasn’t a complete body, and didn’t have the intelligence of crispy noodles dao monarch.

It was just a small portion of Wang Ling’s strength.

Thus, the little clone didn’t answer any of the red wild chieftain Tiger’s questions.

He was an emotionless existence.

The strength in his small hand gradually increased.

The Red Wild Chieftain Tiger felt the pain of a cut on the top of his head.

“Don’t... Don’t use so much strength. It hurts...”the Wild Scarlet Chieftiger panted in pain.

His entire body was twitching. That kind of struggle before death made him feel powerless in the face of everything.

At the same time, he also realized.

This “Little Monster”in front of him was serious!

The other party really wanted to kill him..

“Save me quickly!”

The wild scarlet chief tiger cried out weakly.

As an outstanding metal attribute spirit root cultivator, he had already completely metalized his head and increased the strength of his body.

At this moment, the Wild Scarlet Chief Tiger’s entire body was plated with a layer of metal color.

However, this level of physical strength was still not enough in front of the little clone’s strength.

The little clone was emotionless and expressionless. The wild scarlet chief tiger could not even see what the little clone looked like.

It only gave him a terrifying outline that touched the depths of his soul.

In front of the little clone that floated in front of him like a child and like a devil.

The wild scarlet chief tiger suddenly felt that the cultivation path that he had been pursuing for thousands of years had been completely overturned at this moment..

Its worldview had collapsed along with it.

And just as the little clone was about to crush the red wild chieftain Tiger's head like a watermelon...

The silver-skinned king on the side finally couldn't hold it in any longer.

He stretched out his hands and took out a very small magic artifact.

Wang Ling used the little clone's point of view to look over and was stunned to discover that it was actually a pitch-black top the size of a ping-pong ball.

What was this?

There was confusion in his eyes as he felt that this pitch-black top looked a little familiar.

It was at this moment that Wang Ling suddenly felt his little clone's perspective turn blurry.

The instant the pitch-black top spun, countless rays of light that couldn't be seen by the naked eye were released.

In Wang Ling's eyes, it was an extremely distorted pitch-black ray that directly formed a vortex, as if it could absorb a person's mind.

Before Wang Ling could react.

Bang.

The little clone was affected by the gyroscope's Ray, and because of the imbalance in space, it was actually forced to disappear.

HM?

Was this the power of the Black Rock?

Although Wang Ling was surprised by this result,.

He was sure that the ray released by the pitch-black gyroscope was 100% from the black rock that Peng Xiren had used back then.

It was just that the special energy released by the top was far less powerful than the black stone.

It wasn't surprising that the little clone would disappear if sent over.

If it had been crispy noodles dao monarch's highest-level "Real clone,"it wouldn't have been affected in this way.

When dealing with the red wild chieftain Tiger.

Wang Ling controlled the little clone's will.

This made the little clone's movements seem slow and unhurried.

In fact, he just wanted to see if the Red Wild Chief Tiger and the silver-skinned king had any other trump cards up their sleeves.

Wang Ling was pleasantly surprised by what he had found.

He had been searching for black rock.

After Peng Xiren disappeared, Black Rock had lost all clues.

He hadn't expected that on this trip abroad, he would find the "Vine" he had always wanted to catch.

..

On the other side, the silver-skinned king and the Red Wild Chieftiger used the pitch-black top to force back Wang Ling's little clone.

Their expressions were abnormally unsightly.

The power of the black rock had been fused into the top, and the radiation was too strong.

When Peng Xiren had held the black rock back then, he had suffered huge injuries every second, let alone the Red Wild Chieftiger and the silver-skinned king?

The time he had just taken out was only a few seconds.

The two of them actually collapsed the moment their little clones disappeared. Their faces were pale, and they vomited blood wildly.

The silver-skinned king used the last of his strength to put the two life-threatening pills into the wild crimson chieftain Tiger's mouth and feed them to himself.

After using it for a while, the medicinal efficacy dissolved in their bodies, and the two of them regained their mobility.

In less than two seconds, the two of them lost an average of more than 500 years of cultivation..

"Are you crazy... to use such a thing?"

"I had no choice. You were almost crushed to death by that little monster just now."

The silver-skinned man king said, “Senior Peng said that this top is risky, but I had to do it to save my life.”

“This is 500 years of cultivation...”

The silver-skinned king said, “If this black top repels the doppelganger of that monster, the main body of that monster will definitely be severely injured! We won’t be the only ones injured!”

“That’s true.”The wild red chief tiger nodded. “Then, what should we do now?”

“We can only ask senior Peng for help first,”the silver-skinned king said. “In addition, I suggest that we temporarily move the command center to the space where senior Peng is now...”

“That place?”The Savage Chieftiger frowned. “But once we enter that place, we will lose all our abilities.”

“It’s the same. Senior Peng doesn’t have any abilities now, right?”

The silver-skinned king smiled bitterly.

He had no choice.

After all, they still had to avoid that monster’s follow-up actions..

To be safe, it was better to hide and give orders first.

..

In the dormitory, Wang Ling once again locked onto the location of the Wild Red Tiger and the silver-skinned king.

He didn't continue.

Instead, he planned to use a long line to catch a big fish and see what they would do next.

As for the injury that the silver-skinned king had mentioned...

It was actually not an exaggeration.

Wang Ling was indeed injured.

After all, that black rock could emit a strange ray that restricted his power.

If he stayed too long, Wang Ling would naturally have it.

And just now...

In two seconds, because of that pitch-black top that contained the black rock's power...

Actually shook off half a centimeter of Wang Ling's hair..

Wang Ling was stunned.

So this was what it felt like to be hurt..

Actually, Wang Ling was a little touched.

After all, there weren't many people in this universe who could really hurt him.

He was sighing in his heart.

Wang Ling suddenly received a notification from Zhai Yin.

It was already close to midnight.

At this time, the orientation party had already ended. Wang Ling frowned slightly at this text message from Zhai Yin.

Wang Ling summarized Zhai Yin's message.

It said that a few girls were walking toward his dorm after the orientation party..

Chapter 1518 The Winner Takes All

Time went back to about two hours ago.

Wang Ling was in the middle of a battle of wits and courage with Xinghui Jiugong and the others.

The New Year's Eve party at Jiudao and high school had just begun.

Students in the country couldn't drink alcohol, but there were still some low-alcohol concoctions and drinks at Jiudao and high school's New Year's Eve party.

Many people had evil intentions and took turns toasting in an attempt to get Lotus Sun and Wang Ming drunk.

"Welcome, you two! On behalf of the Red Flame Society of Jiudao he, I'd like to extend a warm welcome to you two! Let's drink to our deep feelings! I'll drink to You First!" Said an officer who called himself Jiudao and Red Flame Society.

It was only at this time that Lotus Sun realized that the internal structure of Jiudao and Red Flame Society was actually quite complicated.

Although there was a student union in the country, the student union was an officially recognized organization.

It was strictly forbidden for students to secretly form cliques.

But in the nine paths and high schools on Sun Island, this was actually allowed.

It was said that it was to foster the sense of sect competition between students and students.

Only with competition could there be progress.

And the student union was actually on the same level as the gang formed by these students.

If a gang's overall score exceeded the student union's every year, then the student union president would change hands.

So in a sense, the current student union president of Kudao and high school was the one with two birds (Peacock Boy and Sparrow Girl) , Sasaki Akai.

He was actually quite a capable person.

In the past few years, the student union's comprehensive evaluation scores were very high, which was more than the total scores of the small student gangs under him.

Some people said that before Sasaki Akiya graduated, his position as the president of the student union was 100% stable.

Although the seven largest gangs in Kudao and high school, known as the Rainbow Seven Gang: The Red Flame Gang, the orange light gang, the yellow photo gang, the green hair gang, the green hair gang, the blue face gang, and the Purple Maple Gang.

Each of them had the impulse to bring down the student union.

But because of the huge influence of the student union.

They were also afraid that if their student union used too much force.

It might actually benefit the other gangs instead.

Thus, the rainbow seven gang formed a magical balance.

At the moment, the current Kudao and student union led by Sasaki Leek, as well as the Rainbow Seven Gang, which had reached a magical balance.

The students of nine paths also called it a miracle generation..

“Sister-in-law, don’t you think that these nine paths and high school are very interesting?”Wang Ming picked up a goblet and smiled.

This was the most expensive cocktail here.

Wang Ming was an adult to begin with, and he could actually hold his liquor very well.

Every time he encountered a bottleneck in his research, he would actually secretly drink Erguotou to find inspiration.

“Brother Xiao Er is making fun of me again...”Lotus Sun’s face was red beyond recognition.

“I can call you Miss Rong, but every time I call you Miss Rong, I’ll call you sister-in-law in my heart.”

Wang Ming said, “I’ve completely figured it out now. You and Ling Ling being together seems to be beneficial to me too! I Won’t have to worry about my research funding in the future!”

Lotus Sun:”...”

It could only mean that brother Ming was still brother Ming, and with just a few words, lotus sun was rendered speechless.

Sighing silently, the girl could only blush and quickly change the topic. “That Sasaki Chive is a little more capable than I thought.”

“Indeed.”

Wang Ming nodded. "It's indeed not easy to be able to firmly establish a foothold under the nine paths and such a mechanism. Speaking of which... has Miss Rong ever thought about getting a vasectomy after marrying Ling Ling in the future... Of course, the main point isn't the vasectomy, but the marriage."

"..."

Lotus Sun's face was still red as she pretended not to have heard anything and said to herself, "Little second brother, have you noticed that the alcohol here is quite delicious?"

"Indeed."

Wang Ming nodded. "Speaking of drinking... how many tables do you have to set for your wedding with Ling Ling?"

"..."

After chatting with Wang Ming for a while, quite a few gang students from nine paths of peace came over to offer a toast.

In fact, this little amount of alcohol couldn't do anything to Wang Ming or Lotus Sun at all.

As long as Wang Ming wanted to, he could use his brain waves to send alcohol out of his body through his pores at any time.

Second, it was even easier for Lotus Sun. She had the sword Qi of ao hai protecting her body, and as soon as the alcohol entered her heart, the protective effect of the sword Qi would dilute the alcohol from her blood vessels.

No matter how strong the alcohol was, it would still be like beer mixed with water in a KTV when it entered Lotus Sun's body, and she wouldn't be able to detect the smell of alcohol at all..

It was almost eleven o'clock, but Lotus Sun and Wang Ming were still on high alert.

The two of them had a feeling that this new year's Eve party didn't seem to be that simple.

And as expected, just as the party was about to end, Sparrow, the vice president of the Student Union, suddenly took the initiative to speak to Lotus Sun.

At that moment, the entire venue instantly fell silent.

Except for the light and melodious dance music.

Everyone seemed to have come to an agreement, and there was absolute silence as they waited for Sparrow and Lotus Sun to confront each other.

“Hello, Rongjiang. Actually, I’ve been wanting to ask. I wonder why Houlang sang didn’t come?”

“He’s not feeling well, and is resting,”lotus sun said warily.

“Oh, is that so? That’s too bad. I heard that Houlang sang is a famous mascot in your school. No. 60 High School has won several grand prizes, and they’re all closely related to Houlang sang.”

“That’s the result of everyone’s hard work.”

“Whoever gets the Houlang sang gets the world... that can’t be a lie, right?”The sparrow laughed. “The comprehensive strength ranking of all the high school students in Jiudaohe, Houlang sang is very high!”

“What, what ranking is this?”

At that moment, Lotus Sun’s eyes darkened, and she suddenly felt as if she had been set up.

Although the girl in front of her had the nickname “Sparrow,”it was clear that she was a man-eating sparrow.

..

Earlier, Wang Ling had been focused on dealing with starlight of the nine palaces.

He had never expected that at the end of the orientation party, a group of unfamiliar girls would suddenly come looking for him.

Zhai Yin was watching from the other side of the door, and by the time she realized that something was wrong, it was already too late.

Because there were so many girls looking for Wang Ling, not just girls, but also a lot of... boys.

It was impossible for her to stop him alone.

The point was that she couldn't attack him directly!

Zhai Yin knew very well that she was now No. 60 High's assistant teacher, which represented No. 60 High's image.

If she rushed out like that, wouldn't that ruin their image..

In the distance, Sparrow, who felt that her scheme had succeeded, sneered. "Have you seen the 'Wolf Fang Board'?"

"Of course. Isn't this the ancient power-planning drama in Huaxiu Nation? My parents have been watching it,"said Chive Sasaki.

"Don't you think that my current method is similar to this drama?"

"You mean the Kirin scholar Mei Short Su from the TV drama?"

"That's right."Sparrow nodded. "I've already released the news that whoever gets the queen of the waves wins the world. This way, there will be many people, men and women, looking for that queen of the waves to work together."

" ... "

“If that’s the case, won’t there be a chance for the president and Miss Sun to go on a date?”

“As expected of Sparrow Jam. But I still don’t understand. What’s going on with that university student rankings? Why would the name of the Queen of the waves appear on it?”

“Oh, that.” Sparrow chuckled. “Of course it was added by my own black gold system. You actually think that Houlang sang is very strong? No Way, no way, right?”

Chapter 1519 You Will Finally Live Like Wang Ling

The internal structure of nine paths and high school was far more complicated than Lotus Sun had imagined.

Looking at the members of the Rainbow Seven Sons gang swarming in the direction of Wang Ling’s dormitory,.

Lotus Sun instantly regretted that she hadn’t investigated the matter earlier.

It was clear that this was a conspiracy.

Chive Sasaki had been able to secure the position of president of the Student Union.

In addition to his own hard work and strength, the vice president under him, codenamed Sparrow, was the real deal.

This man-eating sparrow had attracted all of Wang Ling’s attention.

And his real goal was probably her.

Recalling the grudge between her and Chive Sasaki back then, Lotus Sun couldn’t help letting out a long sigh in her heart.

It looked like..

It was time to find an opportunity to talk to Leek Sasaki.

“Are you going to find that Leek Sasaki?” It was as if Wang Ming had already predicted that Lotus Sun would make this decision.

“How did brother Xiaoer know?” Lotus Sun was surprised.

“I can’t read minds.”

Wang Ming smiled and pointed to his brain. “It’s just a mental deduction method.”

“After I input your temper, personality, and various measurements.”

“In an instant, many lines appeared in my mind, listing clearly the possible decisions you could make, and then ranking them according to probability.”

“And among these rankings, the first one is: go talk to Sasaki Chive.”

” ...”

Lotus Sun took a deep breath. “I understand the logic, but... why do we still need measurements...”

“Of course the more the better, the more accurate the better. Don’t worry, Miss Lotus, your data isn’t bad. It’s just the right size.”

As he spoke, Wang Ming reached out and grabbed a grapefruit from the fruit plate. “No... This is a little too big.”

He threw the grapefruit away, then grabbed another citrus. “No, this is too small.”

In the end, he picked up a peach. “That’s about it.”

Lotus Sun:” ...”

Realizing that he seemed to be a little rude in front of his sister-in-law, Wang Ming hurriedly put down the fruit and coughed. "I was just making an analogy. Miss Rong, don't mind me... What I actually meant was that Miss Rong is very outstanding. Having big breasts is actually useless. Look at that Master of Shadow Stream. What happened to him?"

Lotus Sun still felt that something wasn't quite right. "But in Immortal King anime, she's very strong!"

Wang Ming spread his hands. "That's an immortal king's daily life anime. What does it have to do with my daily life novels?"

Lotus Sun: "..."

"It's always a pity that there's no perfect piece of work. Just make more progress next time."

Wang Ming smiled wryly. "We're going too far... speaking of which, what are you going to do about that Sasaki Chive? Do you need my help?"

"No need, little brother ER, I can handle it myself. I'm still a little worried right now, student Wang Ling..." Lotus Sun frowned slightly.

She released Ao Hai's sword Qi, which was like a radar that captured the students who were swarming in Wang Ling's direction after the New Year's Eve party.

It was because of a single word from Sparrow.

The rainbow seven triad students had all sent beautiful representatives to try and recruit Wang Ling.

The young girl wasn't worried that Wang Ling would fall into their trap.

She just felt a little uncomfortable.

She held her forehead.

She suddenly felt that she was a little hopeless.

Student Wang Ling had yet to respond to her.

Everything was just her one-sided love... In the end, she was actually jealous over something like this!

Sometimes, Lotus Sun found herself quite selfish.

But when it came to relationships, she felt that there was nothing wrong with being selfish.

Because this was a one-way street to begin with.

“Don’t worry, sister-in-law, leave it to me.” The corners of Wang Ming’s lips curled up.

Because he knew Lotus Sun very well, the accuracy of the brain deduction technique was actually very high.

He could almost immediately deduce what Lotus Sun was thinking right now.

“Brother Little Two, you can call me Lotus...”

“Okay, sister-in-law.”

”...” Lotus Sun’s face was burning hot, and she had already somewhat given up resisting.

Wang Ming folded his arms and smiled at Lotus Sun. “Actually, calling me sister-in-law makes a lot of sense.”

Lotus Sun:”...”

Wang Ming: “Have you noticed, sister-in-law? You’re gradually becoming Wang Ling.”

” ...”

At first, Lotus Sun didn't quite react.

But soon, she instantly understood..

At that moment, the young girl couldn't help laughing.

Some people would eventually become the person they hated the most.

And some people were just like her..

If they really lived up to the appearance of the person they liked, it wouldn't be too bad either!

..

In the dormitory, Wang Ling quickly figured out what was going on with his fingers as he faced the menacing nine paths and high school students from outside.

The school's system was different, and the internal environment of nine paths and a foreign school was even more complicated.

Wang Ling sighed in his heart.

Although competition was indeed a good thing.

Under such a clique-building system, the students' competitive mentality was aggravated.

This back and forth had become the source of violence on campus.

And now, one of the main reasons for this group of people's unwavering faith in the "Late bloomers" was.

It was still the “National ranking of college students.”.

Wang Ling didn’t know about it in other countries.

But on Sun Island, high school students seemed to particularly believe in this thing.

This was a gang with comprehensive strength; it was a bit like the sword King World’s sword ranking, which converted each student’s data into comprehensive values before finally showing them on the list.

Sparrow had tampered with Wang Ling.

On his way back to help Wang Ling out of the predicament, Wang Ming had already begun to do so.

Wang Ling’s data had been revised.

Wang Ling’s data had returned to his normal ranking, but in fact, his ranking was still very high..

This was because Wang Ling had indeed represented No. 60 high school in many important competitions, and the key thing was that No. 60 high school had, coincidentally or otherwise, gotten an excellent ranking.

This had directly caused Wang Ling’s “Luck value”to pull in a large amount of data for his overall results.

The situation was even more difficult than Wang Ming had imagined.

But this wasn’t a problem for Wang Ming.

He knew that keeping a low profile had always been his younger brother’s rule.

So in this situation..

The best way Wang Ming could think of was to play along.

“A late wave, huh?”

Wang Ming smiled.

The culture of China was vast and profound, and he actually didn't know much about the students on Sun Island, such as Sparrow and Leek Sasaki.

He had merely moved his eyes.

Wang Ming immediately sent out terminal data through his brain waves and instantly hacked into the entire rankings.

In an instant.

The hundreds of thousands of high school students on Sun Island's national student rankings had all had their ids changed by Wang Ming to “Hou Lang sang.”

Moreover, when everyone opened the rankings...

A pop-up window would also be forced to play a video of a middle-aged man with a magnetic voice giving a speech

Chapter 1520 Old Hacker V

“Those who claim that they are still in the building foundation stage after cultivating for half a day should look at you, just like me...”

“I look at you with envy.”

“Cultivators have accumulated wealth for thousands of years. All the spells, magical equipment, knowledge, and movements seem to be gifts specially prepared for you.”

“The fruits of the cultivation civilization are opened layer by layer, and you can enjoy them to your heart's content

“You are free to learn a spell, learn a routine, join a sect, and cultivate in a faraway place

“Many of you have been reborn in the foreign world of cultivation since the beginning

“Many of you entered the age of 40 when you were children.”

“What exactly is the enemy doing?”

“How big is the gap between levels?”

“The gap between realms has been broken.”

“You can compete in the same world or in different worlds just by relying on the same routine. You have the power we once dreamed of, the power of the main character...”

“Surge forward!”

..

A video that Wang Ming had created using a technique similar to that of a virtual live streamer.

The middle-aged uncle in the video and the sexy subwoofer were all created by Wang Ming using technical means.

Even so, the video of the speech still shocked the students of Kudao and high school who were watching it.

After the New Year’s Eve party in the Student Union office.

Peacock Man and Sparrow had arrived.

From the angle of the student union office, they could just see the location of the dormitory building.

The two of them were about to enjoy the spectacle of the rainbow seven sons gang besieging Wang Ling, but unexpectedly, after Peacock Man entered the rankings, he was also forced to send a video of “Cultivator: the back wave”.

“What is this...”

After watching it, peacock was so scared that his phone was about to fall off.

He had a stunned expression on his face. “Senior sister sparrow, something’s not right. All the names on this ranking list have become the wave behind...”

“How can that be?” Sparrow frowned.

She was extremely confident in her hacking skills.

And what she had done just now made her feel even more invulnerable.

She had never thought that her tricks would be so easily broken in such a short time.

In order to stabilize Wang Ling’s revised ranking, Sparrow had added many defensive walls after hacking into the system..

In the end, she hadn’t expected that the code she had typed would actually be as crisp as paper.

When Sparrow took the phone from Peacock’s hand and saw the changes on the rankings, she had an incredulous expression on her face.

She quickly connected Peacock Man’s phone to her computer using a data cable.

After crazily manipulating the keyboard, Sparrow’s expression started to change from incredulous to terrified. “It can’t be like this...”

In front of the screen, a virtual animated character wearing the same mask as the “V”Vendetta team occupied her entire computer screen.

As one of the top experts in the hacking industry, Sparrow recognized this person at a glance.

This was the number one hacker on the global ranking list... Old V!

He was also a senior in the industry whom Sparrow had always admired.

On the screen, Old V was holding an offering table with both hands, and on the offering table was a small incense burner with three legs made of red sandalwood.

Old V did not speak. He only used the scrolling code below to communicate with Sparrow in secret.

If it was translated into words..

It would form the following few sentences.

“Your information has already been completely grasped by me.”

“I advise you to stop.”

“This is the final warning.”

“Otherwise.”

“I can only offer incense to you.”

This was a language that only experienced hackers could understand.

Sparrow looked at the code, his face pale.

“I understand, senior! I Won’t make a move against Houlang sang anymore!”

Sparrow quickly admitted defeat.

She could offend anyone, or even dig out anyone’s heart.

But she didn’t want to offend this old v..

He was a top expert in the hacker circle.

He was like Zhao Zilong, who freely entered and exited the security networks of other countries, but was able to escape unscathed.

Almost every country’s security network had traces left behind by Old V.

Yet no one could do anything to this arrogant hacker..

All these years, she had worked hard to learn technology so that she could be closer to her idol.

Thus, Sparrow was completely excited.

She tried to use the code to communicate. “Senior old V! I... I’ve liked you for a long time!”

On the other side, Wang Ming didn’t expect Sparrow to actually be his fan.

He smiled wryly.

Old V was a codename he had picked up when he was young and insensible.

He was full of idiocy.

It was just like the “Wechat account” that many people had taken when they were young and insensible.

If it hadn’t been for the chance that wechat had given everyone a chance to revise it a while ago, there would probably still be people who still couldn’t come up with anything.

Hearing Sparrow say that he liked him...

Wang Ming suddenly felt that this matter was easy to handle.

Since he was a fan..

Wang Ming naturally had his own way of dealing with fans.

“Why? Do you want to become a disciple?”

Wang Ming used his brain waves to release the code and replied.

“Can... can I? !” Sparrow was extremely excited.

“You can, but I want to test you.”

“Then what does senior want me to do?”

“I want you to completely hide Hou Lang sang before he leaves.”

“Hide Him?”

“Yes, he’s the younger brother of a good friend of mine, and he doesn’t like to be disturbed.”

Wang Ming said, “Your behavior is actually giving me trouble.”

“I’m sorry, senior, I didn’t know that he had anything to do with you...”sparrow sincerely apologized.

She really liked Old V.

Not just in the way she worshipped him.

Sparrow felt that she could even give up everything, even her life, for Old V.

It was tempting to be his disciple.

But what she hoped for more was that she could become old V’s lover.

“Senior! Can I be your girlfriend? !”

At that moment, Sparrow once again mustered up her courage and said, “Senior doesn’t need to answer me right now... I know that we can develop step by step, and we can also start from the master-disciple relationship.”

Wang Ming facepalmed.

He was glad that he was using code to communicate with the sparrow.

Zhai Yin couldn’t understand these things.

Otherwise, he would definitely be skinned alive..

Although pretending to agree seemed to be a good way to use the sparrow.

But Wang Ming didn’t think too much about it.

This method was too despicable.

It was the behavior of a scumbag.

He was deeply in love with the sparrow.

Thus, he didn't plan on hiding the fact that he had a girlfriend.

Wang Ming immediately replied, "Sorry, I already have someone I like."

For a long time, Sparrow didn't reply.

After a few minutes, sparrow said, "It's okay, senior. Then... Let Me Be Your disciple first."

"Mm," Wang Ming said.

"I need to confirm the mission senior gave me again. I just need to hide Houlang sang, right..."

"Yes."

"Okay."

After confirming, Sparrow shut down the internet.

Hide Houlang sang.

In Sparrow's opinion, this wasn't too difficult.

No matter how deep the internet was hidden,.

It was better to just do it.

Just kill him..
