Chapter 1521 The Blackened Sparrow

Wang Ming had originally wanted to use the sparrow's worship of him to use it in reverse to settle Wang Ling's matter.

But what Wang Ming had never expected was that the sparrow was actually a black-bone chicken in its bones..

Because of his lack of understanding of the sparrow as a whole, Wang Ming seemed to have made a serious mistake in his judgment this time.

More importantly, Wang Ming didn't realize how serious the problem was going to be.

Wednesday, December 16.

In the early hours of the morning at Jiudao and high school, Sparrow didn't sleep at all.

As the vice president of the Student Union, she had issued a curfew so that the students surrounding Wang Ling could quickly withdraw.

Meanwhile, she herself had been busy all night in the Student Union office, preparing a plan to completely "Hide" Wang Ling.

In a vice president's work manual.

Sparrow had written down in detail the plan she was about to implement, which was to kill and dispose of the body.

Now, there was no longer anything around Hou Langsang.

As long as she acted according to her plan, she would definitely be able to kill Hou Langsang..

This wasn't the first time anyway.

When she wrote down the part about disposing of the body, sparrow frowned.

A normal-weight foundation establishment cultivator could quickly dissolve a corpse with 50 grams of basic corpse dissolving powder.

Considering the possibility that Hou Langsang might have hidden his strength,.

Sparrow took out the high-level corpse dissolving powder he had stored in his bag.

This kind of high-level corpse dissolving powder could be quickly dissolved even by a golden core cultivator.

However, the corpse dissolving powder had a prerequisite, which was to ensure that the object used was already dead..

Otherwise, it would fall on a living person.

The effect of corpse powder was not much different from baby powder.

Secondly, if corpse powder was used, how to clean up the remaining traces was a problem.

There were many ways to examine a corpse now.

Even if the corpse was cleaned up, if traces of corpse powder were found, it was also possible to leave evidence.

For this reason, Sparrow further prepared a 'full-effect cleaning reagent'.

This was something she had previously obtained from a scumbag forensic doctor who had tried to kill her.

In the world of cultivators' forensic expertise work, after each autopsy, the autopsy room had to carry out a further cleansing of the autopsy room.

And the ‘full-effect cleaning reagent’ was a must for forensic doctors.

Just to be on the safe side.

After the corpse dissolving powder had completely dissolved the body, one drop would be enough to completely clean up the scene.

All the plans had been prepared.

Sparrow closed the work manual in satisfaction, a sinister smile on his face. “Senior K, I’ll be able to complete the task very soon...”

At the same time, in the dormitory, Wang Ming, who was leaning against Zhai Yin’s bed, suddenly couldn’t help trembling.

“Behave yourself, why are you shaking... you’ve been rubbing against me for a long time just now, you rascal...” the dorm bed wasn’t big, and Zhai Yin was squeezed in by Wang Ming, half of her body pressed against the wall.

Although she said that she was disgusted, she didn’t push the man behind her away.

“We’re already an old married couple, why are you so shy?” Wang Ming smiled.

Immediately after, his body trembled again. “I’m sorry, Yin. I don’t know what’s going on, but I feel like something’s wrong.”

Zhai Yin sat up. “Did you make a wrong decision? In the past, when you did experiments, you would shiver like this when you felt that the results weren’t right.”

“It’s possible.” Wang Ming was like a wolf dog as he fiercely encircled Zhai Yin. “My mistake might have been that I didn’t do it on the spot.”

” ...”

Zhai Yin took a deep breath and glared at Wang Ming unhappily.

Heh..

Men were indeed creatures that would take an inch and take a mile!

“I’m telling you, be honest. If you’re not honest, don’t even think about touching me in the future.”

Zhai Yin’s face was red as she wrapped the blanket around her like an egg roll, leaving no gap for Wang Ming.

Wang Ming smiled and directly wrapped the blanket around Zhai Yin. “Yinyin, I suddenly remembered... When you said that just now, I suddenly felt that that Sparrow seemed a little strange.”

“You mean that vice president of the Student Union?”

Zhai Yin thought for a moment and said, “Rong Rong just texted me saying that this girl is very sinister and full of evil ideas.”

“I’m worried that she’ll Harm Ling Ling...”

“You, I think you’re just worrying blindly. Brother Ling has soul formation, what’s there to worry about?”

”...”

Actually, Wang Ming was mainly worried that something would happen to the sparrow.

Before he had attacked Wang Ling, it had still been a living sparrow, but after that, it might not have been so..

Shadow stream still had a lot of good fortune ahead of them.

It had to be known that the three brothers' corpses weren't even cold yet..

But then again, when Wang Ming heard that Zhai Yin had thought that Wang Ling was only at the soul formation stage, he couldn't help laughing, "Yin... actually, Ling Ling is even stronger than you think... He's not just at the soul formation stage..."

"What did you say?"

Zhai Yin thought her ears had misheard and said in astonishment, "Sixteen years old... Itinerant Immortal?"

"I don't want to lie to You, factor. You can be a little more daring," Wang Ming said.

"This, this, this..."

Zhai Yin was instantly so shocked that her words were incoherent. "He can't be a true immortal, right?"

"Yes... and No. Just take it as it is."

Wang Ming thought for a moment.

Actually, it wasn't easy for Zhai Yin to come up with such a conclusion.

After all, the strongest upper limit known on Earth right now was a true immortal.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal was only an exception.

A sixteen-year-old true immortal was already something that many people thought was impossible.

But in the future, the upper limit of the highest realm of Earth's cultivators would undergo a completely new change.

After all, earth had already completed its upgrade, so there was no need to worry about the lack of spirit qi.

As long as it developed for a few thousand years, it would definitely be a number two divine realm.

“From your expression... My Brother’s strength can’t be at a Realm I don’t know about, right?”

“Yes.” Wang Ming nodded.

Zhai Yin looked at this serious expression and her heart sank into shock once again.

From the looks of it, she knew that he wasn’t lying to her..

She was still very curious. “So how strong is he?”

“From a data point of view, the combined strength of all the cultivators on this earth isn’t enough for him to fight alone,” Wang Ming said.

This was still a conservative way of saying it.

He was well aware of his younger brother’s strength.

It wasn’t just earth... it was the same if you counted the universe.

But the concept of the universe was too broad, and he felt that Zhai Yin might not be able to digest it for a while.

Wang Ming hugged Zhai Yin, who was so shocked that her mouth was wide open. “Yinyin, now you know why I’m so obsessed with the research on sealing talismans, don’t you?”

“I know...”

Zhai Yin shivered in his arms. “You’re sealing a nuclear bomb.”

..

At the same time, at midnight, Sparrow carried a toolbox and entered the male dormitory.

When the dormitory manager Auntie on duty saw that it was sparrow.., she quickly greeted him warmly. “Little Sparrow! It’s all thanks to you this time! The group of students from earlier suddenly rushed over and almost broke the door! It’s all thanks to you students who know how to speak!”

“Aunty, you’ve worked hard.”Sparrow smiled. He immediately took out a very beautiful package from his bag and placed it on the table in the on-duty room. “This is the first-class lamb soup. Aunty, you’ve worked hard on your shift. I hope Aunty will accept it.”

The housekeeping aunty immediately smiled. “Then I won’t stand on ceremony! Our little sparrow is the most sensible!”

She saw Sparrow looking around and quickly asked, “What are you looking for?”

“The registration manual,”sparrow said, “I have to register when I enter the male dormitory, right?”

“Oh, Little Sparrow, you’re too polite. You must be here to visit your boyfriend, right? Don’t be polite with me, I understand. Just go in.”The housemother smiled, her hands were already busy unwrapping the sheep soup and eating it.

“Okay, thank you, Aunty.”Sparrow smiled politely.

When she turned around.

Her smile quickly dimmed.

If this aunty had let her register just now,.

She would have considered “Hiding” this housekeeping aunty as well.

At this moment, Sparrow turned her gaze to the elevator at the end of the first floor.

And now, the youth she needed to “Hide” was upstairs..

Chapter 1522 The Second Wave Mulberry Is Mine

Room 704, boys’ dormitory building, district nine and s.

This was Wang Ling’s current location.

Wang Ming went to sleep with Zhai Yin at night, leaving Wang Ling alone in the Empty Room..

Actually, to Wang Ling, being alone wasn’t a big deal.

He had long since gotten used to it.

In fact...

The moment Sparrow entered the corridor, Wang Ling had already noticed its existence.

There was no doubt that this girl was a ruthless person who had actually understood wang Ming’s “Concealment” as meaning to kill him.

This hard-core underworld style had the style of the star Seizer Group.

It was just that Wang Ling wasn’t sure whether Sparrow and the star seizer group were actually related.

He really couldn’t stop tonight.

Wang Ling sighed silently.

He turned his gaze to the door.

He listened to sparrow.

And...

The footsteps of another group of people who were plotting against him..

..

When sparrow boarded the elevator, he had already sensed that something wasn't right.

Although the elevator seemed empty,.

Sparrow was sure that there were two other people in this space.

They must have used some kind of invisible magic treasure or spell.

Sneakily appearing in the elevator of the male dormitory at night... who was this person?

Was there still a crazy girl who stole male underwear in this day and age?

Sparrow pretended to be calm.

The moment she knew there was someone else in the elevator, she quickly pressed the elevator button on the third floor.

When the elevator door reached the third floor, it opened.

Sparrow stepped out.

Then she quickly connected a suction cup head to the elevator button using a stethoscope cable and used her phone to implant a hacker search plugin.

Finally, Sparrow detected.

About 10 seconds ago, before she entered the elevator, someone pressed the elevator button that led to the seventh floor.

She probably realized that she was about to enter the elevator, so she immediately hid herself and canceled the button.

And this could be well verified by the elevator that was still rising.

The elevator was empty, but the elevator still rose.

Logically speaking, no one else should be using the elevator at this time.

And the most important thing was..

This group of people actually chose to go to the seventh floor?

Wasn't that the dormitory where Hou Lang sang was?

Could it be that the rainbow seven tribesmen sneaked in here?

Sparrow felt that it wasn't impossible.

After using a few seconds to check the elevator buttons, sparrow implanted a "Turtle speed up" plug-in into the elevator.

Then, she quickly set off.

She used the student union's command card to unlock the doors of the stairway that led to the seventh floor.

This was a curfew rule unique to nine paths and high schools. Once the curfew started, all the stairways would be closed to prevent students from visiting each other through the stairway.

However, for Sparrow who had a permission card, she could come and go as she pleased.

Now that she thought about it carefully, Sparrow felt that this was probably the reason why these two people chose to take the elevator.

This was because forcefully breaking through the restriction of the corridor might trigger an alarm.

In comparison, the elevator might be safer.

Even if there was a floor lock, as long as one knew a little about the operation of this thing, they could easily unlock it.

However, to Sparrow, who had the access card, she could come and go as she pleased.

The "Slow ascent" plug-in was extremely useful.

It bought Sparrow a lot of time for her next move.

When Sparrow went up the stairs to the seventh floor, the elevator was still hovering on the fifth floor.

Inside the public toilet cubicle on the seventh floor, Sparrow applied an invisibility potion to herself.

Then, she quickly attached a tiny eavesdropping device the size of a grain of rice to the secret position of each door handle on the seventh floor.

Although Sparrow had a premonition in his heart, he wasn't sure if this group of people had come for Wang Ling.

Thus, it was relatively stable to attach a small eavesdropping device to each door handle.

Everything was ready.

As soon as the two of them stepped out of the elevator, sparrow in the toilet cubicle heard a clear exchange.

"Why is the elevator suddenly moving so slowly?"

"Who knows."

"Speaking of which, do you think there's something wrong with that girl just now?"

"Impossible. She's only in the foundation establishment stage, so how could she see anything wrong?"

"That's true. But I'm afraid that this girl isn't a proper girl. which proper girl would go to the male dormitory in the middle of the night?"

"Hiss... young girls nowadays are indeed bold."

Because every handle was glued with a listening device.

As the two walked over, all the conversations were clearly heard by the sparrow.

The pace was approaching.

The sparrow heard that the two people finally stopped in front of room 704.

“As expected, they are here for Hou Lang sang.” At this moment, the expression on the sparrow’s face was extremely cold.

Judging from their voices.

These two people were about middle-aged and definitely not students from Jiudao and high school. Their tone carried the aura of a socialite.

Sparrow was sure that he did not mishear.

Why were these two socialites who did not belong to the school here?

Just as Sparrow was puzzled.

Their next round of conversation once again attracted Sparrow’s attention.

“704, this is the place, right?”

“That’s right, young master Jiugong wants us to kidnap these two students surnamed Wang. This is the best opportunity.”

“That’s not right. There seems to be only one person’s aura in this dormitory...”

“What should we do? Should we evacuate? If we take action now and only kidnap one person, the other person will definitely arouse vigilance.”

“No, we must carry out the operation tonight.”. “We don’t have any time left.”. “We have to take a gamble!”! “What if the boy surnamed Wang is the one miss sun likes?”? “We just have to take a gamble and turn the bicycle into a motorcycle.”

..

“So that’s how it is. They want to kidnap him?”.

“And it seems to be related to the Jiugong family.”.

In the toilet cubicle, the sparrow’s expression was particularly gloomy at this moment.

After she received this information.

Her mind was also quickly sorting out her logical thoughts.

1: these two people were sent by the nine temples family, and it was obvious that they wanted to target Hou Lang sang and Xiao Er sang.

2: Old V gave her the task of hiding Hou Lang sang. And obviously, kidnapping could not completely hide Hou Lang sang.

3: although these two people had the same goal of attacking Houlang sang, their motives were completely different from hers.

Conclusion: these two people would ruin things! They would definitely interfere with the task that senior V had given her.

At this thought, Sparrow couldn’t hold it in any longer and walked out of the cubicle directly with a fierce look in her eyes.

..

At the same time, the two people sent by Jiugong Xiushi were still working on the lock at the door of Wang Ling’s dormitory.

Their movements were very light, as if they were afraid of disturbing Wang Ling inside.

However, something unexpected happened.

Just as they were fully focused on the lock-picking, a ghostly figure suddenly appeared behind them.

It was that strange girl in the elevator earlier!

The Sparrow's eyes revealed the expression of an eagle staring at its prey.

She curled the corners of her lips and smiled sinisterly. "Hou Lang sang, it's mine..."

As soon as she finished speaking, the knives in the girl's hands instantly stabbed into their bodies.

"Jindan upper..."

At this moment, the two people revealed an incredulous and terrified expression.

Chapter 1523 In A Moment Of Thought

White knife in, Red Knife Out..

Sparrows always paid attention to clean and neat actions, being sloppy was definitely not her style, and because she had enough experience in killing people.

Sparrows moved like ghosts. When she finished circling around, these two jianghu idlers hired by Jiugong Xiushi were stabbed in the waist by one person on the spot.

Both of them were shocked.

It was said that the students of the nine paths and high school developed very early. Some of them had reached the golden core stage before they graduated.

However, the appearance of the Sparrow had opened their eyes..

The strength of the upper echelon of the golden core stage was beyond their imagination. It was not an exaggeration to say that it was shocking.

"This lady... Let's talk it out!"

However, the Sparrow's attack was not fatal.

Both of them were jianghu people and quickly reacted. They endured the pain and quickly pulled away.

At the same time, they quickly consumed two pills. One was used to stop the bleeding and the other was used to detoxify.

This was to prevent the knife from being smeared with poison and narcotic-type hallucinogens.

The Sparrow did not speak. Her face was gloomy. She was even scarier than some female ghosts.

She held the dagger in her hands. Blood dripped from the tip of the dagger and dripped onto the ground bit by bit. Then, it bloomed like a blood flower.

"Retreat!" One of the two men, who looked a bit older, said.

It could be seen from the volume that this person was the commander of this operation.

When the order to retreat was given, the two men moved quickly. They directly opened the window on the seventh floor and planned to jump down from it.

It was only the distance of the seventh floor. The golden core stage cultivators would not die because of this small floor.

Just as they were about to jump down, the sparrow slashed again and firmly stabbed into their calves. The tip of the knife pierced through the flesh of their calves and stabbed into the wall, pinning them firmly to the windowsill like nails.

The two of them instinctively wanted to scream in pain. However, when they thought that their screams might cause a commotion in the entire building, they gritted their teeth and endured it with all their might.

Behind them, a devil-like girl was approaching. The two of them did not have time to think and quickly pulled out the daggers on their legs.

They jumped down from the seventh floor as if they were fleeing.

It was as if they had just experienced a terrifying game.

Who would have thought that a male dormitory building would actually have such a crazy girl..

“Gan! I knew that this girl was abnormal!”The Mediterranean man who was the leader gritted his teeth in pain.

“She just ran away? What about the mission?”

“You’re still thinking about the mission at a time like this? Of course, survival is more important! That Little Madwoman just now clearly had the chance to kill us, but the two slashes didn’t Pierce through our vitals... this is clearly intentional...”

The Mediterranean man was terrified. “The other party is probably trying to torture us to death bit by bit...”

..

In fact, this was not wrong.

Torture to death, but the Sparrow had the same intention.

By the Windowsill, the sparrow stared at the dripping blood on the ground and by the windowsill. She could not help but stick out her tongue to lick the blood that splattered on the corner of her lips.

Unfortunately, these two people ran too fast. She originally wanted to drill a few holes in their calves with the dagger..

She was the real hunter.

After all, she was the real hunter.

And after all, she had to take care of her own life..

This was a mission given to her by her most respected senior, old V!

No one could stop her!

All those who snatched the mission had to die..

“Run? Can You Run Away?”

Seeing the two people running away in a hurry, Sparrow sneered.

It was just as the two of them had expected.

She had tampered with the dagger.

But the paint...

Wasn't poison.

..

After being attacked by Sparrow, the two kidnappers who had been sent by Hideki Jiugong to hire Wang Ling immediately chose to retreat.

Their retreat route had been set beforehand, so they ran very quickly.

In the wee hours of the morning, the two of them quickly boarded a black van at the corner a few streets away from Jiugong High School.

“Did the mission fail?” At this moment, a voice came from the driver’s seat.

There was another accomplice in the van.

“Jiudao and high school are too scary. A little crazy girl has been chasing us and cutting us down...” the two of them said with lingering fear.

They took out their first aid kits and were cleaning and bandaging the wounds on their bodies.

“Young master, you’ll be very angry, won’t you?”

“Of course! The plan was to kidnap that Wang Guy to threaten Lotus Sun! Now that the plan has failed, he’ll definitely be angry.”

The Mediterranean man was treating his wounds.

At this point, he suddenly felt that there was something wrong with the driver today.

Just as he was feeling suspicious.

At this time, the driver in the driver’s seat spoke again. “Don’t you think that I spoke a little too much today?”

“That’s right, Old Chai, you don’t usually talk that much.”

“Don’t you feel that your head is a little dizzy right now?”

“If you say so, it does seem a little...” the Mediterranean man frowned.

At this moment, he looked at the accomplice who was working with him and suddenly realized that this person had already fainted while foaming at the mouth.

“When my knife was stabbed in, it was indeed not smeared with poison. However, the medicine on the knife would clash with the medicinal properties of the pill that has the effect of stopping bleeding, thus turning into a hallucinogen.”

As the driver’s words fell, the Mediterranean middle-aged man finally came to a realization.

At this moment, a strong smell of blood came. He followed the smell and looked at the back of the van.

The Mediterranean man realized that their real driver had actually fallen in the back of the van.

He was covered in blood and had completely fallen into a pool of blood..

“You... You Are...”at this moment, the middle-aged man suddenly came to a realization.

Along with the sound of blood dripping, the driver on the driver’s seat suddenly turned around and took off his mask. His mouth suddenly cracked open. “Did the person who stabbed you earlier look like this?”

The middle-aged man could no longer resist the effects of the hallucinogen. With a face full of fear, he fainted with a pale face.

“Triple kill, complete...”

The sparrow closed its eyes, and as she smelled the bloody smell in the van, she suddenly felt at ease.

..

At the same time, Wang Ling opened his eyes in dorm 704.

After his earlier observation, he was now certain that this vice president of the nine paths and the student union of high school, like the Miss of the star Seizer Group, was a combination of a ghost and a human.

Moreover, the degree of integration was very high. Apart from revealing the aura of a ghost at specific times, there was no doubt that the smell of sparrows in daily life was that of humans.

It was already known that the star picking group and the silver-skinned man had jointly developed the technology to combine a ghost and a human cultivator.

Wang Ling thought that perhaps the reason why sparrows had become what they were now was also inextricably linked to the star picking group's research.

The nine palaces of Starlight was the daughter of the Wild Scarlet Tiger, and the wild scarlet tiger wouldn't easily use this technique to combine a ghost with its own daughter without absolute certainty.

For this, he needed a large number of test subjects..

And the Sparrow was one of them.

All of the above.

In fact, Wang Ling wasn't just making a one-sided guess.

Because now, the three people sitting cross-legged in front of him, who had been saved from the sparrow, were in perfect condition. At the same time, they told him everything they knew.

"Senior! These are all the things we know!" At that moment, the three people kowtowed to Wang Ling; they couldn't see his face clearly.

But Wang Ling's powerful aura made the three of them feel fear.

In fact, the moment the sparrow stabbed him for the first time..

Wang Ling had already activated the power of his king's eye.

He had used the power of his eye to distort the boundary between reality and illusion.

Everything that had happened just now was “Reality” in the eyes of the sparrow, and in the eyes of the middle-aged Mediterranean trio, it was a “Dream”..

In this world.

There was something and there was nothing.

Everything was real or fake.

It was all in Wang Ling’s mind..

Chapter 1524 Which Level Are You On In This Wave?

Wang Ling had actually only used the eight-character pupil technique, which was a trick of “There are and there aren’t, the real and the fake are born together”, a very limited number of times.

In his memory, he hadn’t used this “Eight-character pupil technique” more than three times in total, and the first two times had been a prank he had unintentionally pulled after that.

The power of the eight-character pupil technique was self-evident; it could turn reality into an illusion.

And then turn an illusion into reality.

This ability was too terrifying.

The slightest carelessness might trigger a series of butterfly effects.

And the reason why he was using it on a sparrow now was.

It was because the difference in battle strength between him and the sparrow was large enough that the sparrow wouldn’t pose a real threat even if it had a butterfly effect.

However, if he used it to deal with someone on Peng Xiren’s level..

Wang Ling would have to weigh the pros and cons.

Wang Ling felt that it would be more reliable to kill someone like Peng Xiren in one move.

In that case, there would be no possibility of complications.

And the reason why he had kept Peng Xiren alive now was.

There was no other reason.

It was only because of that black rock.

It was such a big black rock, and it was in Peng Xiren's hands.

Wang Ling couldn't resist watching it.

But now, Peng Xiren seemed to be borrowing the power of the Black Rock to hide and deal with him behind his back.

Wang Ling wanted to see... how long this Peng Xiren could hide for.

As long as he dared show his face.

That mysterious black rock.

Wang Ling was determined to get it.

At this moment.

The two people who had been sent by nine temples Xiushi to kidnap Wang Ling, along with the driver who had been keeping watch on the streets... in total, the three of them were so thoroughly shocked by Wang Ling's methods that they prostrated themselves on the ground.

They didn't even dare raise their heads, and there was naturally a sense of awe in their hearts.

This saved Wang Ling a lot of worry.

The leader of the group was like a clear mirror in the Mediterranean.

A big shot like this, who didn't care about the world and chose to hide his identity as a high school student, would definitely not want anyone to see his face... it was better not to know things that shouldn't be known.

Otherwise, even if he had ten lives, it wouldn't be enough.

According to his self-introduction just now,.

This bald man was called one-chuang.

The lackeys who followed him on the side, as well as the drivers who were waiting on the street, were called two-chuang and three-chuang.

They didn't have names.

They were all vagrants that Nine Palace Xiushi had found on the street and had a certain potential for cultivation.

They had no parents and were homeless, but they had a good foundation and were suitable for cultivation.

Nine Palace Xiushi had specially asked the one-eyed warrior beside him to search for such a group of people and cultivate them into his subordinates.

The three people in front of him were the three most senior people that Nine Palace Xiushi had found.

“Senior... Young Master Xiushi, I actually didn’t mean to offend you... If senior really wants to blame us, you can take our lives... Don’t hurt Young Master Xiushi,”said the person in the lead, whose code name was Yi Zhou.

After all, with their background, if it hadn’t been for Nine Palace Xiushi’s help, they would probably still be idle members of society.

No matter how evil Jiugong Xiushi was...

He was still their benefactor.

Wang Ling was actually a little touched when he heard Yizhou’s words.

Yizhou was a man.

He was willing to give up his life for Jiugong Xiushi.

In a sense, Jiugong Xiushi had a good eye for discerning people.

At the same time, Wang Ling sighed helplessly in his heart.

He actually...

Didn’t have any intention of taking anyone’s life..

For some reason, a lot of people would think of a strong person.

As a devil who would take a person’s life at any time.

Although he was very strong, he wasn’t a devil at all.

He was just an ordinary high school student, whose studies were very ordinary and who looked very ordinary..

Wang Ling always felt that he was the type of person who would be drowned in the Sea of people.

But for some reason, there seemed to be an invisible vortex around him, which would always attract all kinds of trouble, and he didn't want to meddle in other people's business at all, so he took the initiative to come to his side.

And that was exactly what was happening with the sparrow.

After confirming that there was some kind of hidden ghost on the sparrow,.

In order to further confirm his guess, Wang Ling needed to find someone to investigate it.

He wasn't familiar with Sun Island.

So in this situation, one cylinder, two cylinders, and three cylinders were a very good choice.

He summoned his Chatterbox clone, which he had named "Back wave". He began to further communicate with the three of them.

Wang Ling wasn't good with words.

So it was actually very important to have a chatterbox clone, and in order to rescue those students who had been forcibly turned into ghosts tonight,.

Wang Ling even had the urge to use a "Chatterbox doppelganger" in place of himself to express his opinion.

The summoned Queen Lang also looked a little different from Wang Ling; this wasn't a real doppelganger. She was a level lower than crispy noodles dao monarch, and was set to be a cheerful and friendly type.

"Hello, the three of you! My Master wants you to investigate the sparrow. I don't know, is there a problem?" Queen Lang said at this moment.

“Senior, are you talking about that Little Madwoman?” To be honest, one circle still had lingering fear in his heart.

“This isn’t considered making things difficult for you, right? I just want you to investigate it, and it’s not considered betraying your young master.” Queen Lang said.

“This... can but can...” one circle said somewhat embarrassedly, “But senior also saw that that little madwoman is an upper level jindan. The three of us are no match for her.”

“You can rest assured about this. I planted the eight character mantra on you myself. The effect is the same as what you have seen before.”

Queen Lang said with a smile, “Once you suffer a fatal danger, it will immediately become an illusion. Thus, you will be able to get rid of the danger.”

“I see.” The three people looked at each other and nodded.

“But my master’s time is limited. He will give you 12 hours at most. We need all the information about that Sparrow Student.”

“Understood.”

At that moment, Yi Zhou stood up.

He patted his chest confidently and said, “Senior, don’t worry, leave it to us!”

After that, the three of them quickly left the dormitory, and Wang Ling heaved a sigh of relief. At the same time, the doppelganger by his side, Wang Houlang, also disappeared.

What Wang Ling hadn’t expected was that Wang Ying was actually a little unhappy.

He directly appeared before Wang Ling’s New Year. “Why don’t you just let me know if you need anything? Isn’t it unnecessary to create a chatterbox clone?”

In fact, Wang Ling had always felt that Wang Ying wasn't suitable for this kind of persuasion. Although he also had the chatterbox nature of a queen, the Queen's obviously negotiating tone made it easier for him to get things done.

Wang Ying, on the other hand, was different

Thinking about this, Wang Ling wiped his sweat. Why didn't he use Wang Ying... In the end, Wang Ying himself actually didn't have the slightest idea.

Just look at Sun Ying 'er.

He was already so "Cruel" to a girl, let alone someone else?

There was no such thing as a good conversation; Wang Ying's personality was definitely the type that wouldn't speak if he could fight.

And on this point...

Wang Ling felt that Wang Ying would have to suffer sooner or later.

If he didn't rein in his temper...

Something big would happen between him and Sun Ying 'er.

Something big would happen later.

After giving one tube the task, this messy night finally had a moment of peace for Wang Ling.

Lotus Sun looked at each other from a distance from the windowsill in the girls' dormitory in Kudao and s district.

She had been thinking about Wang Ling the whole time, worried that something might go wrong there.

Tonight's weather was gradually getting colder, and that sense of loneliness welled up in Lotus Sun's heart. She had thought that she would go and talk to Zhai Yin tonight.

But now, Zhai Yin and Wang Ming were having an intimate time.

It was really inappropriate for her to just go over like that.

The last consolation seemed to be Sun Ying 'ER. "Lotus, rest early! Don't think about it anymore!"

The young girl's voice rang in Lotus Sun's ear as she said softly.

Lotus Sun was startled, and her eyes were a little absent-minded.

She leaned against the window for a while, and suddenly felt a warmth on her shoulder.

Someone had covered her with a blanket.

"Ying 'er, I'm not cold," Lotus Sun said with a smile.

She suddenly felt that Sun Ying 'er was a little more considerate than she had imagined.

"This... It wasn't me who covered her!" Sun Ying 'er was stunned.

"It wasn't you?" Lotus Sun was stunned.

"Yes! It was this blanket that was spooked and flew over on its own..." Sun Ying 'er said in panic at first, but then she quickly reacted. "I got it! It Must Be Ling Zhenren!"

"Classmate Wang Ling..."

A warm current instantly surged from her body to the girl's face.

It was indeed a lonely night.

But it was also..

A very beautiful night.

It was clearly just an ordinary blanket.

But the smell on it seemed to have a special sweetness to it.

Sometimes, Lotus Sun felt that Wang Ling was very gentle and cruel.

The youth could always leave her unwittingly gentle.

But it seemed..

Forget it.

Lotus Sun shook her head.

She didn't plan on thinking about it any further.

It was okay to spend some more time, right?

She had already made ample preparations, hadn't she?

No matter how many years it took.

She could afford it.

And she wouldn't give up.

..

It was still the morning of the 16th of December.

At around 6 o'clock, the sparrow changed into a fresh set of clothes and returned to the school buildings of the nine paths and the high school.

No one knew that just a few hours ago, this nine paths and the vice president of the high school student union had "Killed three people"..

It was very troublesome to deal with the Three Corpses.

Sparrow drove to the back of the mountain and found an empty spot. Using the air explosion spell, he blew up a small pit and buried the corpses.

Then, he used the corpse dissolving powder to dissolve the Three Corpses.

This corpse dissolving powder had originally been used to deal with Wang Ling.

Sparrow didn't have that much on him to begin with, but it was far from enough to dissolve three golden cores at the moment... at most, he could only disintegrate the bodies.

In other words, there would still be some of the remains of the three people left.

Helpless, Sparrow could only drag them to the ninth road and the back of the mountain behind the high school to deal with the three people in one go.

The sparrow dug the hole very deep, unless it encountered some large-scale mudslide or landslide.

No one would know that three corpses were buried here.

Of course, just in case.

The sparrow still took precautions.

She happened to be a wood-elemental spiritual root cultivator.

It wasn't too difficult to use tree planting to make the vegetation grow rapidly.

As long as a few trees were planted at the burial site, the remains might be prevented from being discovered.

Moreover, when the tree roots were growing, the sparrow could also set them in the shape it wanted to, using a "Claw" posture to hold the remains.

After doing all this, it was already morning when she returned to the student union.

She sat in her vice-president's seat and let out a long sigh of relief.

Then, she took a spirit-boosting pill to prevent herself from looking lazy.

She had never been a person who liked to be lazy.

When Sasaki Chiono returned to the Student Union office, he looked like he was in the prime of his life.

The sparrow couldn't help but feel a little happy. "Last night, did it work?"

Seeing the look on Sasaki Chiono's face, she thought that he had completely taken care of Lotus Sun.

Leek Sasaki smiled as happily as a pig-headed teenager in his adolescence.

Rubbing his head, he said, “No! After student sparrow drew all of your firepower to student Wang Ling’s side yesterday, I actually hesitated for a long time. Should I send a message to student Lotus Sun and just dismantle the Roses in her room... send... not send? “And then, just like that, I dismantled the rose petals all over the floor.”

The corners of Sparrow’s mouth twitched.”...”I worked so hard all night and even killed three people in passing, and you’re still wondering whether to send a message or not?

“In the end, did you send it or not?”Sparrow stared at Sasaki Leek and felt like his brain was bleeding.

“No! After I finished dismantling the Roses, Lotus Sun came to me of her own accord and said that she wanted to talk to me.”

After saying this, the sparrow spat out a mouthful of blood..

So after unwrapping the roses for the whole night, she still hadn’t sent them out!

She could only say, as expected of her family’s president?

As expected, there was no hope..

All this time, the sparrow had thought that Sasaki chive was just a fool.

At least he was the type to act like a fool.

But now, the Sparrow had no choice but to withdraw her thoughts.

There was no normal person among the adolescent girls who were in love!

And the most ridiculous thing was that Sasaki actually felt very powerful and felt very good about himself.

He stared at Sparrow and said with a smile, “Ah, I didn’t expect Lotus Sun to actually take the initiative to ask me out. Do you think she’s interested in me as well? I feel that my rank isn’t low either. I actually have the constitution to automatically attract beautiful girls?”

”...”

Sparrow was silent for a moment, and then she rubbed her eyes and temples with a headache... she felt that she had to do a set of eye exercises to calm herself down.

Otherwise, she would very likely be angered to death by Sasaki Chive.

“You’re lucky if you don’t get the good guy card,”sparrow reminded expressionlessly after a few minutes of calm.

“How can that be? I’m so outstanding. I’m many times better than Houlang sang.”Chive Sasaki laughed.

Sparrow chuckled.

Chive Sasaki said, “But this time, no matter what, I have to thank you for your help, Little Sparrow. Without You, I might not even have the courage to dismantle a rose. But looking at the situation now, I think it’s developing in a positive direction. which floor do you think I’m on this time?”

Sparrow fell silent again.

Based on her understanding of girls,.

It was definitely a done deal that Chive Sasaki would be given the good guy card.

This wave..

Was clearly in the eighteenth level of hell!

Chapter 1525 Reasons For Rejection

There was nothing wrong with being a little confident, but being overly confident was stupid.

However, there was a saying that all teenagers in love were mentally retarded. This saying was thought to be extremely well reflected by Sasaki Chive.

However, it was actually quite normal for a steel-like straight man like Sasaki chive to be unable to understand the meaning of a girl.

When a girl who didn't have a good impression of you suddenly asked you out for a heart-to-heart talk... It wasn't that the girl was mentally ill, it was more likely that she was giving out the good guy card!

Sparrow seemed to have heard Lotus Sun's smile as she said seriously to Sasaki, "You're a good person."

But seeing Sasaki's smile, which was the same as the tyrant Flower's, Sparrow felt that Sasaki was clearly not aware of the seriousness of the problem.

"Do you really, really like that young miss that much?" At that moment, in the student's office, Sparrow asked.

Leek Sasaki didn't know that his answer was actually a choice for sparrow to take the next step.

Leek Sasaki's face was red, and the rapidly rising temperature was accompanied by the steam from the steam, so much so that his neat bangs were blowing backwards.

"Of... of course..." chive Sasaki said.

He felt that he liked lotus sun even more than he had imagined..

He had cultivated so hard for so many years all for the sake of Lotus Sun.

After Sparrow's last guidance, he instantly understood that his feelings for lotus sun weren't "Hate."

It was a kind of worship, love, and love..

He had worked so hard in his cultivation just so that he could catch up to the goddess in his heart.

As for Sparrow's question, Sasaki's answer was very honest.

Even from his expression, one could see his true feelings for Lotus Sun.

"I understand."

At this moment, Sparrow replied with a low face.

"Why are you asking this, student sparrow?"

"Nothing. I just wish you all the best in life," Sparrow said.

At that moment, Leek Sasaki didn't know that she was organizing the plan in the notebook in her hand. "..."

It was a complete plan to kill Lotus Sun..

She felt that Leek Sasaki would be given a good-guy card anyway.

He would definitely feel pain when the time came, so it would be better for her to end all of this herself.

What Leek Sasaki couldn't get.

Then she would completely destroy it..

..

..

After lunch that day, Lotus Sun hurriedly went to a coffee shop outside the school.

During the lunch break of nine paths peace, the students here were free to go out.

When Lotus Sun pushed her way into the private room of the coffee shop, Leek Sasaki was already waiting there.

He ordered the coffee shop's special desserts and steaming hot hand-ground coffee, his face full of anticipation as he waited for Lotus Sun to arrive.

But what Lotus Sun and Chive Sasaki didn't know was that the people next to them in the private room were Wang Ming, Zhai Yin and Wang Ling..

Of course, it wasn't Wang Ling who had asked to come on his own initiative, but Wang Ming and Zhai Yin had sensed that something wasn't right and had forcefully dragged Wang Ling over.

Wang Ling sucked on the coffee from crispy noodle snacks and stared expressionlessly at the two chattering people in front of him.

"Little brother! Why Don't you know how to be anxious..."

Wang Ming frowned. "Miss Rong is already having coffee with another man! Do you think this chive Sasaki has any good intentions? This isn't as simple as pouring a cappuccino for the old aunt... he's clearly interested in Miss Rong!"

Wang Ling:"..."

Wang Ming's mouth was like a machine gun.

In fact, he obviously knew very well what Lotus Sun was here for.

The reason he had pulled Wang Ling over was purely to see his younger brother's reaction.

In the end, it turned out that.

Wang Ling didn't feel any nervousness at all..

As expected.

Wang Ming couldn't help sighing in his heart.

It seemed that the thing he was most worried about had still happened.

Was it because the talisman seal had been suppressed for too long?

It had caused Wang Ling to become a person who had completely lost his emotions.

Although the talisman seal had a certain function in sealing emotions, Wang Ming had always overlooked a very important point.

If emotions were sealed for too long,.

It was very likely that they would form a kind of "Habitual thinking" power in his mind and heart.

And the worst case scenario was that they would form a kind of cage-like seal in his heart..

Wang Ming frowned.

He increasingly felt the importance of developing a new type of talisman.

For the safety of the Earth and the safety of the universe, and at the same time... for his brother's happiness.

Wang Ling lowered his head as he stirred the crispy noodle snack coffee in his hand with the coffee spoon in his hand. The waiters outside would glance in their direction from time to time.

This coffee shop had a DIY coffee service, and the waiters had mostly never seen this type of drinking method before, so they were very surprised.

When drinking coffee, he had seen celestial grass as a base, taro circles as a base, aloe jelly as a base... but he had never seen crispy noodle snacks as a base.

Could This thing really drink? ? ?

On the other side, in the private room.

Leek Sasaki looked at Lotus Sun excitedly, his face full of happiness and satisfaction. “I don’t know. Why did Lotus Sun come to see me today? Don’t tell me she wants to say that I’m a good person...”

Lotus sun almost choked when she heard this, but after a moment of surprise, she smiled and said, “How did you know, Leek Sasaki?”

Leek Sasaki’s heart suddenly felt as if it had been struck by lightning.

“You’re so straightforward, Rongra...”Leek Sasaki smiled wryly.

“I have something more straightforward,”lotus sun said with a smile. “But actually, I don’t want to hurt you. Because you’re a really good person, and you work hard and make progress. But the two of us aren’t suited for each other.”

Lotus Sun had come this time with the intention of breaking everything into pieces and opening it up.

At the same time, she was afraid that she would hurt Leek Sasaki’s self-esteem.

So while opening up, she tried her best to take into account Leek Sasaki’s own feelings.

“Although I’m very disappointed, I’m still very touched that Lotus Sun could tell me so frankly.”

Leek Sasaki smiled. “Then, can we still be friends in the future?”

“We’re friends now,” Lotus Sun said with a smile.

That gentle yet generous personality made Leek Sasaki’s heart itch.

He felt that a boy that Lotus Sun liked had definitely saved the Milky Way galaxy or the universe in his previous life.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t have been able to find such a good girl..

“Since we’re friends, then you can call me leek from now on. Calling me leek sasaki-san is too much of a stranger.”

“Okay, leek-ge.” Lotus Sun smiled.

She knew that Leek Sasaki was older than her.

In order to build a closer relationship, it wasn’t too much to call him brother.

“Rongjiang, can I ask you one more question?” At this moment, Leek Sasaki sighed slightly and asked.

“Of course!”

“I want to know what’s wrong with me. Even if I die, I have to die to understand!” Leek Sasaki didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

“Well...”

Lotus Sun was startled, but her face quickly turned red.

She stared at Leek Sasaki and said seriously, “That’s because I already have someone I like... and I want to be with him for the rest of my life!”

Chapter 1526 The Real Technique Of Houlang Sang

The girl’s voice wasn’t particularly loud as she spoke, but her serious expression still shook Sasaki Chive.

“It’s great that Rongjiang has found someone she really likes.”He was genuinely happy for Lotus Sun.

Perhaps this was a form of relief after being rejected.

In his impression, Lotus Sun didn’t collapse after being rejected. On the contrary, her image was more three-dimensional than before.

A girl who was brave enough to ask out other people who liked her for someone she really liked, and then send her a “Good guy card”... wasn’t such a girl worth cherishing?

In terms of emotions, Sasaki Chive had never been forced.

He felt that in terms of emotions, it was the best way to express his true feelings.

If he liked her, he liked her.

If he didn’t like her, then he should have said it earlier.

He didn’t want people to misunderstand him.

Many boys and girls were hesitant and didn’t know how to express their positions, so they left behind many spare tires... this was a very impolite behavior of a scumbag man and woman.

Because of their personalities, some of these people might not have done it on purpose, while others simply wanted to keep a few more wallets to absorb nutrients for themselves.

“No matter what, I still have to thank you this time, Rongjiang,” Leek Sasaki thanked her from the bottom of his heart.

“Why are you thanking me, Brother Leek?” Lotus Sun roughly knew what Leek Sasaki was thinking, but she still asked out of politeness.

He laughed. “I remember that I had a buddy who liked a girl. That girl never directly rejected him. Instead, she sent him messages for no reason, asking him to buy this, buy that... just like that, my buddy pursued her with all his heart, until one day, when he was having dinner in a restaurant, he found this girl with another boy.”

“This is too much. How can you keep others hanging around like this?” Lotus Sun said.

“I know.”

Leek Sasaki sighed. “Later, my buddy felt cheated. He went up on the spot and questioned her. When he checked the girl’s phone contact list, he found that besides herself, this girl was also chatting with 78 boys as boyfriend and girlfriend.”

“Seventy-eight...”

Lotus Sun’s eyes twitched when she heard this.

Sasaki leek smiled. “So I’m actually very happy that Rongjiang took the initiative to talk things over with me. Besides, we can still continue to be friends, right?”

“Of course.” Lotus Sun smiled.

The meeting at the coffee shop went more smoothly than she had imagined.

At this moment, a shop assistant suddenly rushed into their private room. “Hello, Miss, Here’s a refill of your crispy noodle snacks coffee...”

The shop assistant had just pushed open the door and entered. Seeing that the people inside were different from the one he had served just now, he realized that he had come to the wrong place.

He quickly apologized. “Ah, sorry, I’ve come to the wrong place... Sorry to disturb you two, I’m really sorry!”

After leaving, Lotus Sun realized something. “Wait, who ordered this coffee?”

“I’m sorry, Miss... We can’t divulge our customers’ privacy.” The clerk smiled.

He quickly pushed out of the private room, only to see Lotus Sun follow.

The Clerk:”...”

“You gave it to you. I was just passing by.” Lotus Sun smiled.

The clerk had no choice but to go to Wang Ming’s private room and deliver the coffee inside.

When he entered, the clerk was stunned for a moment, because he realized that the youngster who had previously invented this new way of drinking coffee had actually disappeared.

“Little Brother Two, big sister Yinzi, what a coincidence!” Lotus Sun smiled knowingly.

When the eavesdropping incident was exposed, Wang Ming and Zhai Yin hurriedly facepalmed.

In fact, it had been a bit of a pity just now, because Wang Ling hadn’t heard the end of it. After drinking the coffee in his hand, it had instantly disappeared, as if something urgent had happened..

But given Wang Ling’s temper, even if he had heard it, there probably wouldn’t have been any reaction.

..

Wang Ling had indeed run away halfway, and there was indeed something going on.

But it wasn't Wang Ming who had said it; something urgent had happened

Because he had received a message from Sun Island's Mahjong Trio.

Wang Ling himself hadn't expected that the three of them would immediately start a series of investigations and already have some clues about what had happened.

Near Hefeng Park, which was the closest to Jiudao High School, Wang Ling and one of the three representatives, the middle-aged Mediterranean Man, had successfully completed the meeting.

In front of an ice cream shop, one tube was holding an ice cream cone sprinkled with crispy noodle snacks, waiting for Wang Ling to arrive.

In the blink of an eye, Wang Ling had already appeared in front of one tube.

For safety reasons, Wang Ling had turned on the "Big screen spell" to its maximum effect.

In other words, even if someone had seen him now, he would forget all about it as long as he was gone for a while.

"Second Wave Sang... our investigation has made a brand new progress."

One cone handed the ice cream cone to Wang Ling, and then explained the clues he had so far with a serious look on his face.

"It's like this. After we received the task in the early morning, we immediately conducted an investigation into student Sparrow's residence."

One cone said, "Our investigation found that student Sparrow's residence, in addition to the school's student union officials' single-room dormitory in Area S, is actually in Dongfu City on Sun Island, and has an additional villa. The name belongs to student sparrow."

Speaking up to this point, one circle showed a photo of the property certificate of this villa.

This had been taken through special means, and it could be seen that they had been in a hurry to gather information, but the key information was all there, and the photo was very clear.

It was only now that Wang Ling saw Sparrow's real full name: six-eyed Scarlet Hezi.

At first glance, it looked very familiar.

Especially the word "Red" in the middle.

That was because this red was the red of the scarlet ye family.

And the Scarlet Ye family was the one that currently controlled the star picking group, the largest underworld organization on Sun Island.

Even without deducing, Wang Ling had a vague feeling.

He felt that Sparrow was related to the scarlet ye family.

And as it turned out, the results were indeed true.

"With that Crazy Lady's financial strength, it's impossible for her to own her own villa in an area like Dongfu City. So, we conducted an in-depth investigation into that Lady's identity."

"In the end, we discovered that this lady was the current leader of the star Seizer Group, the illegitimate daughter of the Akino Chief Tiger. And this villa was also bought for her by the Akino Chief Tiger."

Currently, all the information had crucial photos as evidence.

"In order to confirm this, we specially extracted the girl's DNA," one circle said.

They were unable to collect the wild red tiger tribe's DNA, but they still had the DNA information of starlight of the nine temples.

Xiushi of the nine temples had always been wary of their sixth mistress.

Therefore, he had already made plans to extract the DNA data.

The method was very simple.

All he needed to do was to collect the used cutlery of starlight of the nine temples.

From the saliva on it, he could obtain the DNA data of the Red Wild family.

As for the Sparrow's DNA data, it was more difficult to obtain it in one bucket.

First of all, the Sparrow was a cautious and clean person.

Whether it was the residence or the villa, it was the same.

It was spotless.

Not even a strand of hair.

But unfortunately..

One container of their luck was very good.

Because just this morning.

They found that the Sparrow had his period.

This was a physiological phenomenon that every girl could not avoid.

And after the sparrow left the female toilet.

He directly rushed into the school's female toilet.

He snatched the blood-stained tampon from the trash can..

..

It could only be said that he was worthy of being groomed by Xiushi Jiugong since he was young, and that he had been by his side for a very long time. He was comparable to the elder-level Sun Island Mahjong Trio.

This was indeed a neat and efficient way of doing things.

Moreover, he wasn't afraid of danger..

With this information about the sparrow,.

The story line in Wang Ling's mind gradually became clearer and clearer.

Everything was just as he had thought.

The sparrow was related to the star picking team.

And the star picking team had been experimenting with the "Human-ghost combination technique,"and the Sparrow was the first experimental subject of the Red Wild Chieftain Tiger.

After all, starlight of the nine palaces was the daughter of his first wife, and the importance they attached to him was completely different... The red wild chieftain Tiger took his illegitimate daughter, the sparrow, as the first experimental subject.

A tiger wouldn't eat its own child.

Such evil deeds made people shudder in fear.

But now, Wang Ling finally realized why the Sparrow had become so crazy.

The source of all this and the crime.

Had all started with the Wild Red Tiger of the star Seizer Group.

At the thought of this, Wang Ling already knew what had happened.

Last night, after he had sent his little clone to wreak havoc in Golden City of the star Seizer Group, the auras of the Wild Red Tiger and the silver-skinned king had disappeared.

Wang Ling judged that the other party should have received Peng Xiren's protection.

The three of them were probably now hiding in the space covered by the black rock's power, "Fight the landlord"..

The current situation seemed to have calmed down again.

But Wang Ling felt that it wouldn't last for long.

Peng Xiren wouldn't have the patience to wait for too long either.

This was a fierce viper entrenched in the dark.

Once the other party found an opportunity to strike, they wouldn't miss it.

What Wang Ling needed to do now was.

Wait.

And.

Create an opportunity for them to think that they could strike and that they would definitely win..

However, there was only one chance to lure the snake out of its hole.

Because the next time he used the same method to deceive them, it wouldn't be so easy.

At that moment.

Wang Ling already had a sure-win plan in mind.

This time.

Once Peng Xiren showed his face.

He would definitely catch him along with that mysterious black stone.

One person.

One Stone.

He wanted them all.

..

Time: December 16th, Wednesday, 1:30 p.m.

After parting with one stone, Wang Ling returned to the nine paths and high school.

Before he left, he had warned one cylinder to restore nature. Even if Jiugong Xiushi wanted him to make a move on him, he shouldn't disobey Jiugong Xiushi.

Wang Ling would turn everything into an accident, and even if Jiugong Xiushi blamed him, he wouldn't be able to blame one cylinder and a few others.

This meant that one cylinder, two cylinders, and three cylinders were the three people closest to Jiugong Xiushi.

Now, they were all pawns that Wang Ling could use.

This would play a crucial role in Lotus Sun's plan to disguise as Nine Palace Liangzi in the future.

He returned to Class S.

Wang Ling found that Class S seemed to have become much more "Harmonious" today.

"Houlang sang, if there's anything you don't understand, you can ask me."

"..."

"Houlang sang? Are you thirsty? I'll treat you and your drinks. You can have whatever you want."

"..."

"Ah! Houlang sang, you were able to come with Rongjiang when you went abroad this time. Is it because you have a very good relationship with her?"

"..."

"Houlang sang, Rongjiang said that you're stronger than her? Rongjiang must be joking, right? You're so soft and cute, just like a slime. Are you really that strong?"

"..."

Perhaps it was because Lotus Sun and Chive Sasaki had come to terms with each other.

Many people saw that Lotus Sun and Chive Sasaki's relationship had become better, and the originally tense atmosphere instantly changed.

And there were always people who kept asking Wang Ling strange questions..

Wang Ling secretly called it true.

At the same time, he also paid some attention to that Sparrow student.

Just like before, the Sparrow still looked as if it had nothing to do with him.

After school that day, the president of the Student Union, Zuo Mu Leek, officially announced a news.

He said that he was going to hold a closed-door cultivation martial arts tournament between the nine paths and the high school.

The reason he had chosen to stay behind closed doors was actually the result of Zuo Mu Leek's suggestion and Lotus Sun's suggestion.

Because the Sun Island High School Ranking Board had been hacked last night.

The data hadn't been restored yet.

The IDS of everyone on the ranking board were all called "Later waves"..

So all the high school students on Sun Island had decided to hold their own closed-door martial arts competitions in their own high schools.

The five strongest representatives would be chosen.

And the five-member delegation would directly represent the school and participate in the group competition.

They would be selected from the inner ranks of the 100 high schools, and would be ranked according to the overall scores in the competition.

Similarly, all the processes would be closed.

Apart from the participants, the entire competition would be closed to the public, and filming and live broadcasting would be prohibited.

And almost all the high schools had unanimously expressed their support for this “Closed to the public” type of competition

This made Wang Ling feel incredulous.

It had to be known that most young people nowadays were the type who liked to show off..

After learning about it later.

Only then did Wang Ling know.

It turned out that Sun Island was going to hold an even bigger world-wide open competition for high school cultivators..

Many universities had all agreed to this closed-door challenge in order to conceal their tactics in advance.

In any case, it wouldn't be made public, and video recording would be banned the entire time.

Even if they used tactics in advance, it wouldn't be spread out for people to study.

And the key thing was that it wouldn't be too embarrassing to lose..

There were benefits to being closed-door.

At least in terms of psychological pressure, it wouldn't be that great.

After school, Leek Sasaki placed an invitation on Wang Ling's desk.

Wang Ling looked up at Leek Sasaki with a puzzled expression.

Leek Sasaki smiled. "Even if it's temporary, Houlang sang is now a member of our nine paths harmony! I sincerely hope that Houlang sang will also participate in this event! "Although we don't spend much time together, I have a feeling that we can become very good friends, right?"

"..."

"Moreover, everyone is very interested in Houlang sang, and I hope that he can use this closed-door competition to show everyone his true skills."

Wang Ling was silent for a moment.

In the end.

He still accepted this invitation.

Since it was a closed-door competition..

It wouldn't hurt to participate.

As for whether or not he should display his true skills..

Wang Ling felt that it was better not to.

Chapter 1527 Nine Paths And Closed-Door Competition

In Wang Ling's dormitory building in Area S.

Wang Ming, Zhai Yin, Lotus Sun, and Wang Ling.

The four of them sat facing each other on the edge of the bed.

They were discussing Wang Ling's participation in the closed-door competition.

Wang Ming's brows were tightly furrowed, but he still felt that this was too risky. "No, I still don't agree to let you participate in the closed-door competition. Even if it's a closed-door competition, the situation is very dangerous now."

"As long as we let student Wang Ling paddle, it'll be fine, right? If we don't participate now, it'll look very suspicious. Besides, we might not be able to complete the task Liangzi gave us very well..." Lotus Sun said.

She had her own considerations as well.

"I completely understand what Miss Rong means, but now is really not the time."

Wang Ming sighed. "The talisman seal's effectiveness has always weakened over time. It's been almost half a year since I changed a new talisman seal for Ling Ling at the Spirit Sword Exchange meet. "And from the strength of the talisman seal now, it's clearly much weaker than it was in the past

"A new talisman seal can normally last for two to three years. I'm afraid it'll have to be changed once a year now. If you participate in a competition, even a closed-door meeting like this will cause a lot of wear and tear on the talisman seal."

There was clearly helplessness in Wang Ming's tone.

There was nothing he could do.

He was also thinking for the entire Earth and the entire universe.

This young man in front of him, his dearest younger brother... if he completely lost control, the energy that would erupt from his body might be no less than that of the Big Bang.

How could he let this happen?

“There should be another way...” Lotus Sun’s gaze was a little hopeful.

“There is, but...”

Wang Ming wasn’t good at lying, especially when he saw his “Younger sister” looking at him like that. He couldn’t use lies to face the girl directly.

“Do you have any other way to not hide? We’re all in a hurry right now.” Zhai Yin nudged Wang Ming with her elbow.

In an instant.

Wang Ming felt his status plummet.

None of them were listening to him!

He frowned. “Unless... we stick another talisman... since the power of the talisman has already weakened, sticking another one is the best way.”

“Then what are you waiting for? Hurry up and do it!” Zhai Yin looked at Wang Ming.

“No, Factor... making a talisman isn’t laying eggs. How is it possible to do it just like that?”

Wang Ming didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. “I’ll develop the latest version of the [complete body] seal talisman seal myself, and it’ll Take Me a week to make one. The technical content is very high, and an ordinary person won’t be able to do it at all. “Moreover... this method is risky.”

“What kind of risk?”

“The talisman seal on Ling Ling’s body is like a type of suppressive medicine. If you use it too much, you’ll develop resistance to it. This is also the reason why the effectiveness of the talisman seal has been decreasing year by year even after the upgrade.”

Wang Ming said, “The substances in the talisman seal that can produce sealing effects are already a little lacking for Ling Ling. He has to find a stronger substitute.”

“So in principle, it’s better to save as much as possible in his current state before a stronger talisman seal is developed. It’s safer not to abuse it.”

This was what Wang Ming was most worried about.

Right now, it would take him a week to develop a [complete body] sealed talisman.

In other words, if Wang Ling’s resistance reached the point where he had to change a talisman within a week... then he might not have time to make it at all.

On the other side, Wang Ming was in a dilemma.

At that moment, Wang Ling looked up at him with incomparable calmness and said, “Before graduation, is that okay?”

This was the promise Wang Ming had made at the Jiugong family mansion.

He still remembered it.

This man had solemnly promised him that he would definitely find a perfect solution before graduation.

“That being said...”Wang Ming reached out and scratched his cheek.

“I’ve always believed in you.”

Wang Ling transmitted his voice.

The voice directly rang out in Wang Ming’s mind.

It instantly gave him great encouragement.

It was a feeling of being trusted.

As a scientist who was dedicated to researching new cultivation technologies,.

Wang Ming suddenly felt that the moment he was trusted by his younger brother was the proudest moment of his life.

He immediately smiled helplessly. “Alright, I really can’t do anything about you...”

“But is it too late to make talismans now? Didn’t you say that it would take a week?” At that moment, Zhai Yin asked a crucial question.

“It’s true that it takes a week to seal the talismans with [complete body] , but if it’s [incomplete body] , then it won’t take that long... At this time, you can do as much as you want.”

Wang Ming made a simple calculation.

The closed-door competition for nine paths harmony would start at noon the next day.

Before noon, he would probably be able to finish about 100 incomplete body talismans.

And the effect of 100 Talismans was about one-seventh of the complete body.

The key was that they were still very crisp..

Perhaps when Wang Ling competed, the incomplete body talismans on him would be like firecrackers..

But the seal still had some effect.

It could make Wang Ling's current strength state more stable.

"There's no other way now. It's better than nothing, so let's do our best..." at that moment, Wang Ming sighed.

He stared at Wang Ling, his eyes filled with helplessness and love.

Wang Ming himself had actually not expected that Wang Ling would choose to participate in the competition this time.

Although No. 60 High wasn't a famous school,.

Ever since he had joined No. 60 high, Wang Ming had discovered that Wang Ling's sullen personality was gradually opening up.

He was far from being as introverted as he had been in the past.

Now, Wang Ling was going to propose to participate.

As his older brother, what could he do?

He hoped that Wang Ling could live a more comfortable and happy life.

But from Wang Ling's expression..

Perhaps he himself didn't understand why his body had gone out of control at that time and reached out to take Sasaki's invitation to the closed-door competition?

Perhaps this was a secret desire deep in his heart.

It had prompted his body to respond honestly..

But because of the existence of the talisman seal,.

Wang Ling had been deprived of his emotions since he was young, and he should have been able to face all sorts of things.

While Wang Ming's heart ached for Wang Ling..

He saw the back page of the invitation letter on the table..

There was actually a back page?

Wang Ming raised his eyebrows.

When he found out that the reward for the nine lanes and closed-door competition this time was a snack gift bag, and that the snack gift bag contained the reward for the crispy noodle snacks limited by Sun Island..

Wang Ming suddenly felt as if he had understood something.

As expected..

Or was he too naive?

..

Thursday, December 17th.

Before the closed-door competition between the nine paths and high school at noon, Wang Ling was in his dorm room sticking up incomplete versions of the seal talismans that Wang Ming had made.

In order to make it easy to stick them up, the talismans were currently designed like band-aids, so he could tear off the plastic paper and directly press it on his body.

Looking at himself in the mirror, Wang Ling fell into deep thought as he looked at the dog skin plaster all over his body.

Then, he put on No. 60 high school's uniform.

The uniform was very spacious, enough to hide these talismans completely without leaving a trace.

Oh, that's right..

Before sticking the talismans on, Wang Ling had used the "Hair removal spell" to remove all the hair on his body, which wasn't much to begin with.

Perhaps a lot of people had experienced this before.

If he didn't remove the hair, he would just rip off the "Dog skin plaster" on his body, and when the time came, he would rip off the hair along with it. That feeling was really too sour and refreshing.

Thus, it was actually very necessary to use the "Hair removal spell".

When these 99 "Incomplete seal talismans" were stuck on his body...

Wang Ling really felt that the sealing effect had been strengthened, and he felt that he could now use more force with greater ease. He didn't have to worry about blowing up these foundation establishment students with a light breath.

When he arrived at class in the morning, Wang Ling heard Leek Sasaki warmly greet him.
"Morning, Houlang sang!"

"Mm..." Wang Ling replied gently and nodded as a sign of courtesy.

"Eh? The match is today. Did Houlang sang not rest well last night?" Leek Sasaki frowned.

Wang Ling: "?"

“Because I can clearly sense that Houlang sang’s aura seems to be much weaker than yesterday.”

At this point.., leek Sasaki sighed. “It’s all my fault. I should have warned Hou Lang sang earlier that he should have restrained himself before the match... There’s a saying that goes, a young man doesn’t know how expensive XX is, but when he’s old, he won’t have any cannon to cry about.”

Wang Ling:”? ? ?”

These words made Wang Ling fall silent.

Before he could fully react, Leek Sasaki’s words started to play out.

The students in Class S began to show a new round of concern for him.

“Houlang sang! I heard that you didn’t have a good rest last night. Do you need sixty-six Rehmannia pills and Rehmannia pills?”

”...”

“Houlang sang, actually, it doesn’t matter. It doesn’t matter even if you lose the match. As girls, we just need to quietly cheer on from the side! Oh No, you don’t seem like a girl, but look at how good your skin is. It’s even better than a girl’s!”

”...”

“Does Houlang sang want a bed? I’ll move one over for you now.”

”?”

Wang Ling suddenly realized that the wind in Class S was getting more and more off.

In the corridor, Leek Sasaki couldn’t help nodding his head in satisfaction as he watched his classmates enthusiastically communicate with Wang Ling.

He had started to notice Wang Ling after Lotus Sun had laid her cards on the table with him.

This seemingly ordinary youth was known as the mascot of No. 60 High School.

Under his harmless appearance, there was actually something very unusual in Leek Sasaki's eyes.

Although Lotus Sun hadn't told him explicitly, Leek Sasaki could actually sense it.

Whether it was the path in the cafeteria or the first class in class S... Lotus Sun had done it all for this youth in front of her.

After-wave mulberry..

What was it about you that attracted Miss Rong so deeply?

With this curiosity, Sasaki Leek began to put down all his arrogance and prejudice, but to understand this point.

And gradually, he really discovered what was different about Wang Ling.

He was a youngster who didn't care about the world and seemed particularly low-key.

If he were to describe him as a flower...

He felt that Wang Ling was like a begonia flower.

Simple, generous, beautiful but not ostentatious..

Suddenly, Sasaki Leek realized what he had been lacking all this time.

He felt that he could learn more from Wang Ling and make himself better.

And with this curiosity...

Sasaki Leek started to get to know Wang Ling in depth through the internet..

Until I saw the composition Wang Ling wrote at the Kowloon Mountain Physical Education Conference.

“The time of a grain of ash... ..”Leek Sasaki read the composition of the paragraph of the golden sentence.

In an instant, he was deeply attracted by Wang Ling’s talent.

And so, until today, just before the start of the race,.

Sasaki chive made an important decision!

He’s going to join the grey cult!

He wanted to be Wang Ling’s number one fan overseas!

..

On the other side, in the infinite Milky Way, there was a mysterious celestial body that looked like a black hole.

It was a new celestial body formed by the Black Rock’s power swallowing the black hole, and Peng xiren called it “Star Devouring.”.

At that moment, Peng Xiren’s battle strength was suppressed in Star Devouring, and he was unable to unleash his full power.

But he could still use the power of the stars in the universe to monitor external things.

To Peng xiren, each star was like a satellite, and it could help him send a special signal to earth from a distance.

Thus, he could monitor Wang Ling.

Ever since they had been tricked by Wang Ling, which had led to the explosion of the boundless Milky Way seal, Peng Xiren had taken the tomb god, the owner of that evil eye, to hide here to recuperate.

His injuries had mostly recovered.

But now was still not the best time to make a move.

Peng Xiren cast his gaze into the distance.

At that moment, he had also brought the Red Wild Chief Tiger and the silver-skinned man King into the devouring star.

The two of them were in a deep sleep, and were using medicine to recuperate to speed up their recovery.

“This isn’t even as good as when I was at my peak... We have to plan ahead for the heavenly tomb.”In the darkness, the tomb God opened his eyes.

“I know.”

Peng Xiren nodded. “But now isn’t the best time...”

Peng Xiren already had control over the heavenly tomb’s location.

However, based on Peng Xiren’s understanding of his master, the heavenly tomb was bound to be filled with traps.

Without sufficient confidence, they definitely wouldn't set foot there.

The reason why the tomb god was called the tomb god was because Daofather Wang had been shocked by its power and split the tomb god in half.

Half of it was in the sealed land.

The other half was in the heavenly tomb.

Before the tomb God had fused with the other half of the Heavenly Tomb's power, it already had ninety percent of its combat strength at its peak.

If it had fused with all of it, one could imagine its combat strength.

At that time, even Wang Ling probably wouldn't be able to stop it, right?

Just as Peng Xi was deep in thought...

At that moment, his eyebrows suddenly moved. "No... how could it be..."

The tomb god: "HM? What's going on?"

Peng xiren laughed loudly. "It can't be wrong! It Can't be wrong! ! ! I kept saying earlier that the time wasn't right! But just now, I realized that the time was right!"

The tomb god: "What on Earth is going on?"

"As expected, there's no one in this world who can stay strong all the time."

Peng Xiren sneered. "Although I don't know exactly what happened, now I realize that Wang Ling's Aura has dropped a lot! Maybe he's in a weakened state? I think it's time for us to take action..."

Chapter 1528 Take Advantage Of His Illness! Take His Life!

Wang Ling's aura weakened.

For Peng Xiren and the tomb God inside, this was an excellent opportunity to strike.

As Dao ancestor Wang's first true disciple, he had received dao ancestor Wang's teachings and learned the most orthodox cultivation knowledge in the universe.

Years of learning had taught him that everything in the world had a law of conservation.

No one would be powerful for no reason.

Furthermore, they could stay strong forever..

Thus, Peng Xiren felt that he had seized this unique opportunity.

Take advantage of his illness! Take his life!

Was there anything more wonderful and wonderful in this world than this?

As long as Wang Ling died...

Peng Xiren was sure that there was probably no one else in this world who could organize him..

"So, is it time to make a move?"

At that moment, the tomb god opened his eyes slightly.

"Yes. The opportunity is already in front of him. Although we don't know the exact reason, he has indeed become weaker than before."

Peng xiren nodded and said, "Previously, his ordinary punch could unleash the power of a hundred cores, but now he's only left with ten cores."

“Core” was short for “Core.”.

This was a measure of battle strength after the ancestor realm.

The power of one core could easily destroy a planet and kill anyone below the ancestor realm.

Dao gods were nothing more than ants.

Peng Xiren was currently an expert at the ancestor realm and had the strength of a dao ancestor.

The battle strength of an ordinary blow was around 50 to 60 cores.

When he had exchanged blows with Wang Ling last time, he had judged that Wang Ling had the power of 100 cores.

Such a gap terrified Peng Xiren.

But now..

Wang Ling's Aura had weakened, and Peng Xiren was no longer afraid.

In fact, he hadn't expected it at all.

Not only had Wang Ling not taken his punch seriously, but it had also been delivered in a sealed state.

Thus, he had seriously underestimated Wang Ling's true combat strength.

This was a type of unequal information..

But it was all the same to Wang Ling.

The reason why Wang Ling had chosen to participate in the closed-door competition this time wasn't just for crispy noodle snacks, but also for the prize money of the competition.

At the same time, he had also calculated that if he insisted on participating in the competition,.

Wang Ming would have stuck many sealing talismans on him to suppress his overall combat strength.

Under the effect of so many incomplete sealing talismans, Wang Ling's aura had weakened, which was actually one of the effects of the sealing talismans.

And after his aura weakened..

Wang Ling judged that Peng xiren would definitely take action.

That was right.

Everything had actually been in Wang Ling's calculations.

This time, it looked like Wang Ling was on the first floor.

He was actually operating on the second floor.

But the real core..

Was actually on the first thousand floors.

..

Before noon, the dojo of Kudao and the high school had become the main venue for this closed-door meeting.

The dojo wasn't very big; it was about the size of two basketball courts.

There were seats for spectators nearby.

This time, all the spectators were high-quality ones that had been strictly screened by Kudao and the high school student union. They were all kudao and internal students.

All of them had to go through a series of checks before entering the arena.

They had to make sure that no one was carrying modern technology and magic weapons that could record video and sound.

Since it was a closed-door meeting, they had to do zero dissemination.

At every stage, Leek Sasaki would personally participate and strictly supervise.

Everything was in order to better fulfill the requirements Lotus Sun had set for him.

“Everything is ready. Are You Satisfied, Rongjiang?” Before the closed-door competition began, Leek Sasaki stood in the Martial Arts Hall’s central control room and said as he looked at the surveillance footage in front of him.

Lotus Sun and Wang Ming were next to Leek Sasaki.

Wang Ming was here to provide technical support.

If there were any people on the scene who had slipped through the net with their equipment, Wang Ming could easily capture them with his own means.

“Thanks for everything, Brother Leek.” Lotus sun smiled politely.

“You’re welcome.” Leek Sasaki rubbed his head in embarrassment. “But are you sure Rongjiang won’t participate? Actually, we’re all looking forward to seeing Rongjiang’s heroism.”

“It’s fine as long as classmate Wang Ling is participating,” Lotus Sun said with a smile.

Lotus Sun had her own considerations for not participating in the competition.

In fact, she didn't want to face Wang Ling in the following competitions.

Secondly, there was no need for her to participate in the competition in the first place.

Lotus Sun knew very well that Wang Ling was participating in the competition partly for the prize money.

That was for buying a present for Nuan.

Thus, the young girl naturally could only support him.

Wang Ling was a good brother.

He was able to think of his sister before she was even born.

Sometimes, when Lotus Sun thought about it carefully, she suddenly realized that she was quite jealous of Wang Nuan.

But she also knew that this kind of jealousy was actually very childish.

Wasn't it only right for a brother to be good to his sister?

Perhaps everyone had once fantasized that they could have a brother who was extremely good to them.

The topic of "Guo owes brother" was also trending almost every year, causing a heated discussion.

Lotus Sun had also thought about it.

It wouldn't be bad if she could acknowledge Wang Ling as her brother..

But now...

She had already completely thrown this idea to the back of her mind.

Because she realized that her “Ambition” was even greater than she had imagined.

Just last night.

She had also dreamed of a little story about going camping with Wang Ling in the wild.

In the dream, she was sleeping in her sleeping bag. In order to see her sleeping face clearly, the young man kept turning her body like a pot sticker and pointing his sleeping face in the direction of the young man.

It was an indescribably beautiful dream.

Lotus Sun could even feel the young man’s breath in close proximity, as well as that pair of clear eyes..

She reached out from her sleeping bag, wanting to touch the youth’s face.

But before she could touch it...

He had already woken up.

“I don’t know what exactly is on Lotus Sauce’s mind, but it’s still not too late to sign up for the competition now.” At that moment, Sasaki Chiao smiled and said.

These words made the girl’s train of thought go away.

Lotus sun nodded with a slight blush. “Mm...”

..

In a few minutes, the closed-door competition was about to begin.

This time, almost all the students from Class S, plus some students from Class A, had come for the closed-door competition. There were a total of 62 people.

In the waiting room for the contestants, Wang Ling sat on a reclining chair and rested, looking in good condition.

Lotus Sun, Leek Sasaki, and Wang Ming watched everything from the monitoring room.

They had a god's view.

They could see the whole picture very clearly.

At that moment, Wang Ling was waiting for the match to start when a group of girls suddenly surrounded him.

“You Must Be Houlang sang! You’ve been in President Leek Sasaki’s class the whole time! Every time class ends, the person disappears, and I can’t find you! I’ve finally found you in person!”

“Ah! Houlang sang is even cuter than I thought. I’m too embarrassed to fight him. What if I draw him?”

..

As expected, Sasaki couldn’t help laughing. “Sure enough, the second wave sang is very popular.”

He was just about to see Lotus Sun’s reaction when he realized that the girl who had been standing next to him had disappeared.

By the time he came back to his senses, a girl’s figure had reappeared in the contestant’s waiting room..

Under everyone's stunned gazes.

Quite a few people in the waiting room cried out in surprise.

This..

Wasn't this Yoshiko nine temples?

Wasn't she supposed to be studying abroad in Huaxiu?

Why did she suddenly come back?

Chapter 1529 The Empress Of The Palace

The disguise plan wasn't supposed to be carried out at this time, but Lotus Sun had to admit it.

When she saw the group of girls surrounding Wang Ling, she couldn't help it.

They had originally agreed not to participate in the competition... Now, she had no choice but to do so..

In any case, she wasn't using her real identity.

It shouldn't be a problem if she participated, right?

If she lost the competition in the end, it wouldn't be too awkward.

Because the loser was Liangzi nine temples. What did it have to do with Lotus Sun?

Lotus Sun thought to herself.

She felt that this should be considered as an additional payment from Liangzi nine temples.

And in itself, there was a verbal agreement between her and Liangzi nine temples... if there was an emergency, she could act according to circumstances without damaging Liangzi nine temples' reputation.

Then the question arose.

What kind of place would she have to get in this closed-door competition so that her reputation wouldn't be damaged?

Lotus Sun felt that it should be enough to get into the top four.

Liangzi nine temples wasn't even at the golden core stage yet.

It might even be difficult to get into the top eight.

Getting into the top four was an extraordinary performance!

Lotus Sun felt that Liangzi nine temples should be thanking her.

And when she saw Lotus Sun directly charge forward, she didn't hesitate.

In the monitoring room, Wang Ming, who had instantly recognized Lotus Sun, was also facepalming.

He had known this would happen..

So what was this?

A deterrent from his sister-in-law, the "Empress of the palace"?

Wang Ming smiled wryly in his heart.

He was just thinking about how to explain what was happening to the stupefied Sasaki chive.

In the end, Leek Sasaki was stunned for a moment, he seemed to have come to his senses. “Why do I feel that student Jiugong is a little strange? He doesn’t look like student jiugong... from his temperament, he does look a little like Rong Jiang.”

Wang Ming burst out laughing. “You really are a sensible person, student leek.”

“My Name Is Leek Sasaki! Only those who are familiar with me can call me leek!” Leek Sasaki frowned, seeming to mind a little.

“Alright, Student Leek Sasaki.” Wang Ming shrugged nonchalantly.

He had actually thought it over carefully before deciding to tell Leek Sasaki.

Because according to his judgment...

Leek Sasaki was a good person.

He wouldn’t pose a real threat.

Moreover, with Leek Sasaki, who was related to the nine temples family and the star Seizer Group, there was no need to worry.

The subsequent disguise plan might be even smoother.

“Why did Rongjiang pretend to be Yoshiko nine temples?” At that moment, Leek Sasaki stared at the screen, his brows furrowed in confusion.

It was a long story.

Because it would take a long time to explain, Wang Ming decided to use his brain waves to directly teleport with Leek Sasaki.

After understanding what had happened, the expression on Leek Sasaki's face gradually changed from confusion to astonishment. "What! An internal clan war in the nine temples family?"

"Shout Louder, the whole world will hear you," Wang Ming said with a smile.

Fortunately, he had already predicted this and used the magnetic shield to cover up the central control room.

At this moment, Chiao Zuo Mu's face was complicated and conflicted.

He had actually never thought that this "Mr. Wang Xiaoer" would tell him so many things..

Moreover, he had never thought that after his aunt, Red Wild Starlight, married into the nine temples family, she would actually try to do something harmful to the nine temples family.

"I'm sorry..." Leek Sasaki took the initiative to bow to Wang Ming.

"Why are you apologizing?"

"I just feel that aunt's actions have caused you trouble."

"No, classmate Leek."

Wang Ming smiled. "Perhaps your aunt isn't a bad person herself, but she's possessed by a ghost and has lost her mind. She's just like the Vice President Sparrow beside you. They're just chess pieces for the Wild Red Chief Tiger."

He was calling for Leek.

But this time, Leek Sasaki didn't reject it.

Because now, Leek Sasaki already knew that the relationship between Wang Ming and Lotus Sun was extraordinary..

Otherwise, he wouldn't have known so much.

And now, Leek Sasaki also realized.

It turned out that the people from No. 60 high school had been carefully selected to come to Sun Island this time!

"Why are you telling me this?" Leek Sasaki asked at this moment.

"I just feel that you're a reasonable person, Leek. Since Rong Rong treats you as a friend, I can't possibly treat you as an outsider. "Moreover, we don't have many friends on Sun Island to begin with." Wang Ming's words sounded light, but in reality, they were attacking his heart.

Leek Sasaki was actually a very emotional person.

When he heard this, he was so moved that his nose turned sour on the spot. "So, what is your relationship with Rongrong?"

"She's my future relative."

Wang Ming said sternly, "She's also my forever younger sister."

"So that's how it is. That's great..."

When he heard this, Leek Sasaki instantly heaved a sigh of relief.

Wang Ming smiled. "Don't tell me you think that I'm the one that Rongrong likes?"

"Yeah! After all, you know so much about Rongrong!"

Leek Sasaki didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "I almost thought I understood it wrong! I heard before that Rongrong likes a classmate with the surname Wang. In the end, you and your prodigal son both believe in Wang, so... hahahaha!"

”...”

Wang Ming felt that Leek Sasaki’s imagination was pretty good.

“So, what do you need me to do?”Leek Sasaki asked.

“There’s no need to do anything unnecessary. You just need to cooperate with US and confirm Rongrong’s current fake identity,”Wang Ming said.

“Understood.”Leek Sasaki quickly nodded.

In the contestant waiting room, many people’s faces were filled with horror as Lotus Sun’s masquerading Liangzi Jiugong suddenly appeared.

For some reason, especially the girls present, they all felt a chill behind their backs.

In an instant, the waiting room was completely silent.

Lotus sun imitated the way nine temples Liangzi walked and walked step by step in Wang Ling’s direction.

This kind of black swan-like gait was the essence of nine temples Liangzi and Lotus Sun’s performance.

If Wang Ling didn’t know very well who this person was, he would probably have been fooled by the girl’s superb acting skills.

He had actually sensed it a long time ago.

Lotus Sun actually had a talent for acting.

And that face would definitely be very popular in the entertainment industry, wouldn't it?

In addition, the girl's previous personality of being in the limelight... the entertainment industry seemed to be a trial ground specially designed for young girls.

But Wang Ling didn't know why.

Not only had Lotus Sun recently become much more low-key, but she was also being considerate of him everywhere.

"Classmate Liangzi? Why are you..." the girls surrounding Wang Ling shivered.

Lotus Sun imitated Liangzi Jiugong as she walked over, looking down on the world with the eyes of a Missy, she looked at them as if she was warning them. "All of you, please stay away from Houlang Sang, because... he belongs to me, Liangzi Jiugong!"

"..."

When Wang Ling heard this, he was so scared that he dropped his phone.

Chapter 1530 Hou Lang Sang's Strength

The overbearing declaration of sovereignty made many of the girls here tremble in fear.

Although Jiugongliangzi's realm wasn't even in the Golden Core realm, he was still hindered by the Jiugongfamily's astonishing power on Sun Island.

Even though these girls were displeased by his overbearing words, they dared not voice their anger.

They held back their anger and could only disperse.

In the end, there was only one girl left standing next to Wang Ling.

It was obvious at a glance that she was a tough nut to crack.

“Classmate Jiugong, don’t you think this is too overbearing?”The Girl in Sword Dao uniform asked. She was barefoot and had a boxing bandage on her hand. She looked like a tough nut to crack.

The fighting style.

Lotus Sun smiled in her heart, but the expression on her face didn’t show.

Because she was now Yoshiko nine temples, all the details had to be imitated properly.

As for physical skills, Lotus Sun herself didn’t have any fear.

The girl in front of her looked strong.

But even without the power of Ohai, Lotus Sun’s own physical skills weren’t weak either.

“Humph! Let’s see how it goes during the competition, Galaxy Matsushita,”lotus sun imitated Yoshiko Nine Palace’s tone and said.

That Humph seemed to perfectly prove that this person was Yoshiko Nine Palace himself.

“Then we’ll see.”Galaxy Matsushita was so angry that her chest heaved up and down.

She had wanted to curse Yoshiko Nine Palace, this poor girl.

But thinking that this was in public, and that Hou Lang sang was still by her side, it was really ungentlemanly of her to curse like that.

In fact, even Chive Sasaki, who was in the surveillance room, was very surprised by this.

Chive Sasaki: “That’s strange. I remember that Rongjiang’s should be a little bigger than student Jiugong’s... Student Jiugong is a complete airport, but now Rongjiang, who is disguised as student jiugong, is also...”

“This is because she used the spray I developed,”Wang Ming said.

“Spray?”

“Its full name: it’s so cute that it must be a blue child spray. For short: this can be blue spray.”

Wang Ming said, “After using it, you can temporarily slim down your chest and shrink it.”

“I see.”Chive Sasaki nodded his head without realizing it.

And he suddenly felt that this Mr. “Wang Xiaoer”in front of him was indeed a genius.

He seemed to know everything..

“It looks like the disguise plan this time is really well-prepared.”At this moment, Leek Sasaki sighed.

However, he still had a faint feeling that there was a small problem.

For example, in the room at this time, someone’s gaze was fixed on Lotus Sun, who was disguised as Liangzi Jiugong.

“It looks like student sparrow didn’t have it easy...”Leek Sasaki said worriedly.

“Don’t worry about that.”

Wang Ming chuckled. “The moment I saw Rong Rong disguise herself as Liangzi, I already had all the information. Liangzi Jiugongzi’s entry and exit information, as well as his student status information, have all been temporarily relocated back.”

“But student sparrow is very dangerous now, and she clearly saw through it but deliberately didn’t expose it. I’m afraid there’s a back-up plan behind this.”

“Don’t worry, Leek. It’s fine. She can’t beat Rong Rong.”

“Isn’t Rong Jiang only at the foundation establishment stage? Even if she can unleash the battle strength of the Golden Core Stage...”

“Yes, she’s only at the foundation establishment stage. But...”

Wang Ming smiled and kept her guessing. “You’ll find out later.”

Sparrow thought she was only dealing with a foundation establishment stage cultivator whose battle strength was comparable to the golden core stage.

But in fact..

The woman she was facing was the strongest foundation establishment stage cultivator on earth who could even cut down a Dao god with a single sword stroke.

..

The competition was based on a lottery system.

The competition would be divided into two groups and the AI system would give a comprehensive score based on the actual situation of the competition.

However, due to Lotus Sun’s sudden addition, the number of participants had become odd.

In the absence of a two-by-two grouping system,.

62 of the 63 participants would be given priority to be divided into two groups to compete.

The winners would be directly selected for the next round.

The eliminated participants would automatically enter the losers’ group.

Finally, according to the system's overall score, the person ranked first in the losers' group would be given the right to resurrect once and fight against the last 63 participants.

In other words.

The first round competition system.

It was a 31 + 1 competition system, and 32 people would be selected to advance to the second round.

After 31 people advanced first, the person with the highest score would be selected from the remaining 31 people in the loser group to compete with the last person.

As for who would compete first and who would compete later.

This was also decided by the system's automatic drawing of lots.

In theory, the person competing later had a natural advantage.

That was because the competition was held in one day.

Although the first person in the loser group had the privilege of being resurrected, it still consumed a certain amount of physical energy.

In other words, the only person who drew the "Delayed lots" would gain a certain degree of advantage.

When Wang Ling heard about the competition system, he had a bad premonition..

The drawing of lots.

On the public screen in the candidate room, the system randomly divided the 63 participants into groups.

Soon, a tree-shaped map of the duel was clearly displayed in front of everyone.

And at the end of the tree-shaped map.

Everyone saw the name of the person who drew the delayed lots..

Queen Lang.

“Is that really the case?”

“As expected of No. 60 High’s mascot! Queen Lang sang is so lucky!”

Many participants felt envious.

Although this was only the first round, those who delayed the draw had an advantage.

It was almost impossible for them to be eliminated in the first round.

There was an 80% chance of winning.

“An 80% chance of winning?” At this moment, in the waiting room, someone looked at the battle list and suddenly laughed.

It was a blue-haired youth. He was very short, but his aura was not ordinary.

He was the leader of the Rainbow Seven Children’s Association, Blue Mist Road.

The person he had drawn was no other.

It was the peacock man who had been following beside Sasaki Chive and Sparrow.

Don't look at the peacock man like this.

But his strength was not ordinary. If the two of them fought, both of them would definitely suffer heavy losses in the end.

If that was the case, it would actually be very disadvantageous to enter the next round.

Hence, Lan Lan Lu thought of an idea.

He took the initiative to pull peacock man to the side to discuss countermeasures.

In a small corner, Peacock was a little surprised by Lan Lan Lu's thoughts. "You Mean, you want to work together with me?"

"Yes. As a condition, I can let you pass the first round smoothly. However, you have to let me earn enough points."

"If the fake match is discovered, you will be eliminated."Peacock frowned.

"Who said you have to fight a fake match? We are just trying to earn points,"Lan Lan Lu said.
"Later, you can just fire fireballs at me from afar. I remember that dodging is also a calculation of points."

"Human body drawing master..."

Peacock instantly understood, but he was still a little puzzled. "But why did you do that?"

"If the two of US fight to the death for the first round, the risk of entering the second round will be very high."

Lan Lan Lu said, "In that case, why don't we put on a show and you advance smoothly? I can also go deal with that mascot who isn't that risky..."

Peacock was stunned.

He hadn't expected that the president of the Beauty Association would actually choose this path in order to advance smoothly.

But since he had already made up his mind to go this way...

Did this mean that Lan Lan Lu had subconsciously labeled Hou Lang Sang as "Very weak"?

Although Houlang sang did indeed have the title of mascot in No. 60 High School.

But Peacock still felt that Wang Ling might not be as weak as he had imagined.

"Don't worry, Peacock. I heard that Houlang sang didn't rest well last night, and his aura is very weak today. I have enough confidence to win against him."

At that moment, Blue Mist Road smiled confidently. "As long as you help me, it'll be fine. In this way, both of us will be able to save up enough strength for the next round, Won't we?"

Peacock thought for a moment.

In the end, he nodded.

Because this matter was not too bad for him.

After all, he could guarantee himself to enter the next round.

But regarding Lan Lan Lu's decision to choose such a roundabout way to enter the next round,

He still felt puzzled.

This was obviously a decision made because he was confident that he could defeat Hou Lang Sang.

But what if... He lost?

Although the stadium wasn't big, the match would be over by today.

There were two stadiums and two arenas, and an artificial intelligence referee ball suspended in the air was monitoring and evaluating the match from all angles.

The referee ball was also the one who had scored the final system points.

At the same time, the images of the match would be simultaneously projected into the waiting room during the match.

So far, Wang Ling hadn't fought with any foreign students.

The teaching styles of cultivators from different countries were very different, so many of them had their own characteristics and even had their own unique ideas when it came to fighting.

For example, the cultivators on Sun Island, who had been teaching since they were young, would often implant some ideas from the ACG industry into their spells

They would turn some of the things they saw in anime into real spells.

This was also an eye-opener for Wang Ling.

For example, on the public screen in the candidate room, the two sides were fighting fiercely.

Wang Ling always felt like he was watching anime.

He felt a sense of déjà vu for the fast punches, the waves, and all kinds of gorgeous and familiar fighting skills.

In the first round of the competition, although Lotus Sun hadn't drawn the same group as Panasonic Galaxy, the boy who had been challenging her earlier had been beaten up badly.

Because the moment the match started, Panasonic Galaxy had entered three-tail mode!

He had actually used a ponytail to increase his combat strength!

In fact, this was a method to stimulate scalp acupuncture points!

When tying a ponytail, if it was tied tightly enough, it could cause the tightly bound hair roots to have the effect of piercing acupuncture points with golden needles.

It would speed up the blood flow in the body, thus allowing the spiritual power to circulate faster than before.

However, to practice this move, one needed to undergo strict training on the scalp from a young age.

This was because the act of tying a ponytail was actually very damaging to the scalp.

If the scalp wasn't firm enough, it would often go bald after practice.

"It's not over yet! Get Up!" Panasonic Galaxy grabbed the boy by the collar and went all out, making people feel intimidated.

She was still angry at Lotus Sun's attitude toward her earlier.

Wasn't she just a young miss? What was so great about her!

What right did she have to say that Houlang sang was hers!

Wang Ling didn't understand this kind of behavior, but Wang Ming and Sasaki in the monitoring room understood it very well.

This was a war between women..

An angry girl was often very scary.

In order to ensure the safety of the boy in the match,.

In the end, Panasonic Galaxy's match was forced to stop.

On the other side, Lotus Sun's match went relatively smoothly.

Looking at the girl who had been sent flying like a scarecrow, Lotus Sun had wanted to go forward and help her.

But then she suddenly remembered that the person she was playing now was Yoshiko Jiugong..

If it had been Yoshiko Jiugong, he probably wouldn't have walked over to help her up.

She was trying to figure out Yoshiko Jiugong's thoughts.

After thinking it over, she cautiously took a step forward and finally reached out her hand to the girl. "HMPH! I'm not here to help you! I'm just passing by!"

In the waiting room, Wang Ling couldn't help clapping his hands lightly.

This performance was too realistic..

..

The match for Group 31 lasted about ten hours in total.

Everything was as Blue Mist Road had expected. By working with Peacock to repeatedly farm evasive points, Blue Mist Road's overall score had become number one in the loser group.

When the words blue mist road versus Queen Lang were displayed on the public screen,.

Wang Ling realized that it was time for him to take the stage.

“Come on, Queen’s Wave! You have an 80% chance of winning! Don’t let us down!”

“You can do it, Queen’s Wave! Defeat Blue Hair! Because the hair dye animation can’t be shown, you have to defeat him!”

“President! You have to hold on for the sake of our Lan Yan Association!”

The cheers on the scene were endless.

There were members of the Bluesky Society who cheered for Wang Ling and especially for Blue Mist Road.

Because his body was covered with sealing talismans, this was the first time Wang Ling felt at ease.

He finally didn’t have to worry about accidentally blowing someone’s head off when he was fighting alone..

But in fact, Wang Ling hadn’t completely relaxed.

After all, the incomplete version of the talisman seal on his body might explode at any time, and smoke would come out like firecrackers..

He lazily glanced at Lan Lan Lu in front of him, and felt that his opponent’s aura was pitifully weak.

But seeing how confident Lan Lan Lu was, Wang Ling didn’t want to say anything to discourage him.

This was the first round, and the last match.

Wang Ling and Lan Lan Lu were standing on the fighting ring.

Blue hair was smiling at him. “You’re really lucky to have drawn a delay lot. Unfortunately, your opponent is me, so you’re going to lose this match for sure.”

Wang Ling shrugged and put his hands in his trouser pockets, completely ignoring Lan Lan Lu’s nonsense.

Blue hair continued to smile. “Look at how relaxed you are, and you even have your hands in your trouser pockets. You’re actually so nervous that your palms are sweating, aren’t you?”

” ...”

“In fact, whether we win or lose, it’s already very brave of me for the latter to be able to participate in the competition.”

” ...”

“Wouldn’t it be too shameful for a foreign student like you to take the top spot on our country’s ranking list of college students?”

”...”Wang Ling remained silent.

Lan Lan Lu’s incessant chatter didn’t provoke Wang Ling.

He had said it a long time ago.

Overconfidence was folly.

But people like Lan Lan Lu were narrow-minded and narrow-minded because of the limitations of their realms..

Perhaps in the eyes of others.

Lan Lan Lu was a very strong young genius at the golden core stage.

But in Wang Ling's eyes, Lan Lan Lu was essentially a mortal.

As a mortal... of course, you couldn't expect him to understand things that surpassed his own strength.

What was the saying?

Don't look at how happy you are now,

wang Ling and you are on the list.

In fact, Wang Ling himself didn't have any desire to win or lose.

If it hadn't been for his plan to lure out Peng Xiren, get the prize money, and kill three birds with one stone, crispy noodles,.

He wouldn't have participated in this competition at all.

"Is the second wave sang ready?"

At that moment, blue hair smiled kindly as he looked at Wang Ling.

In Blue Mist Road's eyes, this was just a vegetable abuse match.

Since it was a vegetable abuse match, or even an entertainment match, there was naturally no need to be so nervous.

After a polite inquiry...

Next to welcome Wang Ling was a move from blue mist road, "Hair Lotus Flower.".

This was an extremely difficult physical technique.

The main point was to quickly dash over and circle behind the enemy, then abruptly pick him up and use his astonishing jumping ability to take him up into the sky. Then, he would use his rapidly growing hair to wrap around him!

Finally, he would form a high-speed death spiral in the air and smash him to the ground!

This move was the most skilled of all of Blue Mist Road's physical skills.

In his opinion, it was more than enough to deal with Wang Ling.

This No. 60 high school mascot definitely wouldn't be able to take the spinning impact in the air and faint!

He was extremely fast.

In the blink of an eye, he had already circled behind Wang Ling!

"Ha!" Blue Mist Road roared and used a strong man's lock to grab Wang Ling's shoulder, attempting to use his jumping ability to lift him off the ground!

That's right!

The most important thing about lotus flower was that he had to take his opponent off the ground!

But now, Blue Mist Road realized that he was facing some technical difficulties..

There was no way he could lift Wang Ling up at all!

"F * * K!" Lan Lan Lu's face was red from holding it in, and he couldn't help cursing in his heart!

This queen Lang clearly looked extremely weak! She was so thin! How could she be so heavy!

Many people in the waiting room also cried out in surprise.

“How could it be? Student Lan Lan Lu couldn’t lift Houlang sang at all! Did he fail before he even activated hair lotus flower?”

“I knew Houlang sang wasn’t ordinary! He must have seen through this move long ago, which is why he used the Thousand Jin pendant!”

“That’s not right! Even if it’s the Thousand Jin pendant, Houlang sang is only at the foundation establishment stage after all, so how could Lan Lan Lu not be able to lift him?”

..

This was a very strange scene.

Everyone looked at the scene in front of them, their expressions at a loss.

At the same time, Lan Lan Lu himself was also at a loss.

He couldn’t lift Wang Ling..

This was something he hadn’t expected.

When he thought about how there were still so many people staring at him in the waiting room.

Now that his actions would be especially awkward, Lan Lan Lu instantly felt his face burn.

In the end, he could only give up on this move, “Hair lotus flower,”and use Wang Ling’s unshakable body as a stepping stone. He suddenly kicked Wang Ling’s back and jumped on the spot in a handsome posture, this was to cover up his embarrassment.

Unfortunately, what Blue Mist Road didn't expect was that.

In the next second, Wang Ling's backlash had already arrived..

Crack! Blue Hair's right foot, which had just been kicked, was fractured on the spot.

"..."Wang Ling was glad.

Fortunately, Wang Ming had added a lot of sealing talismans to it.

Otherwise, with the strength of that kick just now, Blue Hair's lower body would probably have been shattered like shit.

After landing on the ground, Lan Lan Lu realized that his right foot had been fractured, and he felt extremely aggrieved.

The key was that he was still holding it in and didn't directly scream.

This was the last match between him and Wang Ling.

There were so many eyes watching in the waiting room, so how could he dare scream because of the pain!

"Houlang Sang... you forced me to do this..."Lan Lan Lu took a deep breath.

His chest heaved up and down, and he was a little angry.

In Wang Ling's eyes, this was more like an ineffectual rage.

Because he had lost one of his legs, Lan Lan Lu had to find a new way of attacking as soon as possible.

Then, under everyone's astonished gazes,.

Lan Lan Lu suddenly stood on his head and roared, “Activate! Super Transformation!”

In the next moment, he used his hands to replace his feet and charged back at Wang Ling.

He used his right foot to continuously twist his ankle in the air, and began to condense a ball of high-density spirit energy.

Such a spirit energy pill was originally made by rubbing his hands together.

But now that his hands had taken the place of his feet, blue mist road had no choice but to use this method.

As an outstanding wind-attribute spirit root cultivator with a special spirit root...

Even under such circumstances, he was actually able to use his spirit root attribute to think of using his ankles instead of his wrists to quickly rotate and create such a spirit energy pill with tremendous lethality and destructive power..

Wang Ling was secretly surprised by this battle mentality.

However, Lan Lan Lu’s speed was really too slow.

Wang Ling focused his energy and dodged to the side, dodging Lan Lan Lu’s attack.

It wasn’t because he was afraid of pain.

It was mainly because he was afraid that the backlash from his body would cripple Lan Lan Lu’s other foot.

Lan Lan Lu had only kicked him with his right foot just now, and even though he had sealed it layer by layer, it was still broken.

And if this spirit energy ball had hit him,.

Lan Lan Lu would probably have to spend the rest of his life in a wheelchair..

In the end, it was just the first round of the nine paths and the internal group competition.

Wang Ling really didn't think it was necessary to spend the rest of his life in this situation.

However, the moment Wang Ling dodged it...

He could also feel the traces of the "Incomplete seal talisman seal"breaking on his body.

Wisps of smoke started to rise from Wang Ling's body.

Even when Wang Ling hadn't done anything...

A talisman was still broken..

What was this? !

At that moment, Lan Lan Lu looked at the smoking Wang Ling with an incredulous expression.
"Second... Second Gear?"

"This... This is impossible! Impossible!"

He was practically shouting out loud, and his face was completely red from the intense roiling of his Qi and blood.

This young man in front of him..

Wasn't as weak as he had imagined.

This young man was like a very complicated math problem.

Now that Blue Mist Road had finally discovered it..

This problem was a little out of his league.

Wang Ling:”?”

He had clearly...

Not done anything.

F * * King second gear..
