Chapter 1611 1,608: Wang Ling's Fierce Rabbit Ears (Five In One, 1/93)

Father and mother Wang's idea wasn't just for show..

It was for real.

When Wang Ling realized that Nuan would really go to school with him tomorrow...

He couldn't help feeling a little flustered.

Of course..

Nuan didn't go with Wang Ling in her original form. Instead, just like when she had fought alongside Wang Ling in the Supreme World, she had split into a shadow and lay on Wang Ling's shoulder.

What the shadow had heard, what it had learned, as well as all sorts of senses and perceptions, could be simultaneously transmitted back to the original form during this process.

Furthermore, cultivators of a lower realm.

That was the students and alumni of No. 60 High School.

Couldn't see a Nuan's existence.

"Ling Ling, don't worry. Your father and I will watch over a Nuan's original form. Don't worry about a Nuan peeing on you." Before going to bed, mother Wang introduced the situation to Wang Ling with a straight face.

Wang Ling was stunned.

What he was worried about..

Wasn't about his sister taking a dump or peeing!

It was true that he had a talisman on him, but the problem was that Nuan didn't have one yet! Even if it was a shadow, it was still very scary!

Who the hell would carry a "Nuclear bomb" to school!

Wang Ling facepalmed.

He had a headache.

But father and mother Wang were unusually firm on this matter, and he himself felt extremely helpless.

So he could only ask Wang Ming for help.

Wang Ming had already returned to his lab. He remembered that there were actually copies of the seal talisman in the lab, which were stronger than one-time seals.

But Wang Ling actually couldn't guarantee their compatibility.

Although he and Nuan were biological siblings, they were different models.

Wang Ling also didn't know whether the talisman seal on Nuan was effective or not.

Wang Ming seemed particularly curious about this.

"That's right! This reminds me of something, Lingzi. I thought we should do a talisman experiment on Nuan earlier. Why don't we take this opportunity to test it out? It'll also help me push forward with the research on the new talisman seal in the future. "It can be considered a reference."

Wang Ming said excitedly.

When he had returned to China earlier, he had remembered what he hadn't done, but now that Wang Ling had asked him about it, he suddenly remembered.

“Oh, that's right. There are two experiments this time. Why don't we do them together?”

At that moment, Wang Ming said again.

“After I returned to the lab, I extracted a substance from that mysterious black rock and diluted it into a black spirit liquid

“This spirit liquid has a very strong restraining effect. Dripping it on a magic artifact can make it seal for a short period of time.”

“Unfortunately, I just dropped over a dozen holy artifacts here...”

”...”Wang Ling.

Wang Ming said, “Haven't you already enchanted the Golden Pacifier you wanted to give Nuan? I don't think it will be damaged by this black spirit liquid.”

“Why don't you ask Nuan to cooperate and do the experiment on this black spirit liquid while you're at it? I want to see just how much it can be suppressed.”

”...”Wang Ling.

“Safe... of course it's safe! Don't you believe in your brother's invention? !”Wang Ming crossed his arms, he said seriously, “The worst case scenario is that the Earth explodes. At worst, you can just call it back after the explosion...”

”...”Wang Ling.

..

After all, Wang Ling wasn't a demon; he couldn't really use his own sister as a guinea pig.

The stability of the black spirit liquid extracted from the black rock was still unknown. If the effect was too strong, it might trigger an uncomfortable reaction, which would be counterproductive.

For example, when Wang Ling first wore the SEAL Talisman, the original version gave him a very uncomfortable feeling. As a result, the spirit energy in Wang Ling's body accumulated and directly tore the seal apart, this had caused massive power outages around the world as well as electrical damage in the core area.

At that time, Wang Ling had still been young... Fortunately, it had only been a power outage and some electrical damage.

So the most heartbreaking thing was still those program apes who were pulling their hair in front of the computer screen.

They had painstakingly created a program for a very long time, but in the end, the screen in front of them turned black and everything was gone.

So Wang Ling decided that he would try this black spirit liquid first.

If there were no adverse reactions, he would help Nuan drip on that Golden Pacifier.

This pacifier was a gift that Wang Ling had chosen for Nuan on Sun Island.

It wasn't originally golden in color, but pink gold.

Its market value was 980,000 Sun Island dollars.

Wang Ling bought it without even thinking about it.

But what Wang Ling hadn't expected was that after being enlightened by him, this pink gold pacifier would turn golden in color. It didn't look foreign at all, and even had the feeling of a nouveau riche.

He had thought that Nuan would hate it.

In the end, the little girl didn't dislike it at all.

Early Tuesday morning, December 21st.

A drone stopped at Wang Ling's window, and Wang Ming delivered the spare talisman seal in the lab and the black spirit liquid to him.

This bottle of liquid was only five milliliters.

It was contained in a special bottle and looked only a little.

Touching it through the bottle, Wang Ling didn't feel anything special about this black spirit liquid.

He took out a drop and dripped it on No. 60 High School's School uniform that he had enchanted.

In an instant, a circle of special black energy spread out from the school uniform like ripples. This energy turned into silk threads that actually completely penetrated the school uniform that he had called.

Wang Ling and Wang Nuan quietly watched the whole process.

Wang Nuan Bit on the golden pacifier that Wang Ling had given her and lay on Wang Ling's shoulder with a thoughtful expression. It seemed that she was a little confused by the situation in front of her.

After a while, Wang Ling reached out to touch his school uniform jacket.

He felt as if he had been electrocuted by static electricity, and his fingertips were numb, but he didn't feel any pain.

Without hesitation, he took his coat and put it on as usual.

After a few seconds, some changes started to happen to Wang Ling's body.

A pair of rabbit ears actually grew above his head and drooped down.

Wang Nuan, who had been lying on his shoulder, was also startled by this. But after she calmed down, the little girl very quickly bravely reached out to touch the pair of rabbits that had grown out of Wang Ling's head... and found that their ears were soft..., they could actually touch bones!

Was this... A side effect of the black spirit liquid?

Wang Ling was puzzled.

But he quickly dismissed this thought..

What side effect was the growth of an animal's ears!

It was 100% Wang Ming's doing!

Just as he was about to send a text message to Wang Ming to question him, Wang Ming seemed to have predicted it and directly sent him a message first. "Oh, right, Ling Ling, I'm researching a [animal reagent] that can make a part of an animal's structure grow out of a human body and thus act cute. I've been looking for you to experiment with it before. So I mixed the reagent with the black spirit liquid."

" ... "

"Don't take off your coat! It's very important to ensure that the experiment data is accurate. If you take off your coat, I'll have to experiment again next time."

"..."when Wang Ling saw the message, he couldn't help inhaling a mouthful of cold air.

What was a devil..

This was a real devil.

He had actually taken advantage of the fact that he had developed a new talisman!

Wang Ling felt that he had to write this down in a small notebook so that he could fight back one day.

After returning from Sun Island, Wang Ling had felt that he had become more and more important, and now he had a rabbit's ear... if he went to school, he would be laughed at to death.

The point was that his sister was lying on her shoulders watching him make a fool of himself!

With a hint of resentment in his heart, Wang Ling went to the bathroom and looked in the mirror.

In the end, he was surprised to find that the pair of drooping rabbit ears on his head was quite cute..

Moreover, they didn't look out of place with him; they looked more like hairpins for a cosplay animal ear.

But why were they rabbit ears?

Was it because he often wore rabbit pajamas?

At that moment, Wang Ling was extremely nervous.

Especially when he appeared at the school gate like this, he was even more nervous.

Today, the person in charge of standing at the school gate for the school inspection was precisely the meticulous teacher pan.

After more than a semester of contact with teacher Pan, Wang Ling was well aware of this person's personality.

Old Pan had always been an old-fashioned conservative, and didn't like students doing fancy things.

For example, the boys' hairstyles were either flat or the same as Super Chen's. Even if they did have bangs, they couldn't have long hair, and what stood out was the word "Refreshing."

On the girls' side, old pan preferred short hair that reached her ears. It wasn't impossible for her to have long hair, but her request was that it should at least not be loose, and a ponytail would be best.

Now that he had grown a rabbit, he came to school

He wouldn't be able to take off his ears for a while, and Wang Ling felt that there was an eighty to ninety percent chance that he would be criticized by old pan.

He silently bowed at the school gate, and lowered his head as he walked forward, ready to take his little sister, Meng Meng, who was lying on his shoulder, with him.

But at that moment, Old Pan's solemn voice suddenly came from behind him. "Wang Ling, Wait!"

"..."

Wang Ling immediately stopped in his tracks.

If the eternal expert in the corpse painting had seen this scene, he would definitely have sighed endlessly in his heart.

Big Boss Immortal King, who had just beaten up the tomb god, who had inherited the bloodline of the outer god Sotos, to the point of looking for teeth, had actually stopped because of the voice of his form teacher.

As expected... the strongest humans in the universe were still the teachers in school!

"Wang Ling, why do I feel like you have a little high and low shoulders?"

Wang Ling and Wang Nuan:"..."

It was normal to have high and low shoulders..

Because Nuan was lying on his right shoulder!

Even though it was only a shadow, it was abnormally heavy!

Although the shadow shared half of Nuan's body weight, it was still more than 40,000 pounds..

Seeing teacher pan call out to them at this moment,.

Wang Ling and Wang Nuan were both startled.

At this moment, teacher pan stretched out her hand.

Nuan instantly became even more vigilant.

In the end, teacher pan just walked over and gently tapped Wang Ling on the back. "Don't hunch over. Boys need to stand up straight to look energetic."

"Mm..."Wang Ling nodded in agreement.

Just as he was about to leave, teacher Pan suddenly stopped him. "Wait! What's with that thing on your head?"

As soon as he said this, Wang Ling immediately knew that everything was over.

Being called off so shamefully at the school gate would definitely become No. 60 High's focus today.

Unexpectedly, the usually serious old pan actually laughed out loud in the next second. "Wang Ling, can you do it! Rabbit ears! Fierce Man Rabbit!"

Wang Ling:"..."

She reached out to Pet Wang Ling's rabbit, and when she found out that it was a real ear, she didn't blame him. "Is it a temporary aftereffect from practicing some spell in private?"

Old Pan actually wouldn't blame him if it was a real animal organ.

But Wang Ling hadn't expected old pan to actually think so.

He thought that he had secretly practiced some other spell, which had caused this aftereffect.

"Don't be nervous. This temporary ear will disappear in a few hours." Old Pan couldn't help smiling.

As the pioneer of teaching at No. 60 High School, in fact, many similar things had happened in the school in the past year.

Many body techniques and spiritual spells that were developed with spiritual beasts as their inspirations would cause cultivators to suffer from intermittent sequelae if they didn't practice them properly or if they practiced them too deeply.

In other words, they would grow an animal organ.

Old Pan had seen many examples of this in No. 60 high school, including students and teachers.

In a modern cultivation academy, there was nothing strange about it.

There were many aftereffects of magic.

The aftereffects of such animalization were, in fact, sometimes embellishments of cultivation study and life.

It was much better than the rulers of some cultivation countries going around without masks and getting infected with a new epidemic virus (funny) . As for the aftereffects of the new epidemic virus, it was unknown.

It might be a debilitating blow, and they would then inject disinfectant and bleach into their arms..

Nowadays, even elementary school students knew that this was something they couldn't do, and yet someone actually tried it.

This was the most ridiculous thing!

Back to business.

In Old Pan's eyes, the aftereffects of animalization were actually nothing.

As long as he didn't deliberately wear that kind of costume headdress, old pan would never say a word.

Of course..

Seeing Wang Ling grow a pair of rabbit ears now, old pan even felt that it wouldn't be too bad if Wang Ling could keep them on forever.

In this semester or so, she could see through Wang Ling's reticent and taciturn personality.

There was an indescribable contrast between Wang Ling and such cute rabbit ears.

"It's pretty good."

Before letting Wang Ling leave, Old Pan had commented on Wang Ling's rabbit with a smile on his face, which made Wang Ling feel a little guilty.

Looking at Wang Ling's back as he left, old pan couldn't help sighing in his heart.

As expected, Wang Ling didn't disappoint him.

Under normal circumstances, most students who would take time out to study magic in private would pursue something in their studies.

During his days as class teacher, Wang Ling's grades had always been average.

From now on, Old Pan was a little suspicious..

Was this guy deliberately trying to push down his grades.

How could a person who worked so hard get average grades every time? It was too unrealistic.

..

For an entire week, Wang Ling and Lotus Sun had been studying as exchange students on Sun Island, they didn't have to do homework, didn't have to make up for it, stayed in the best room there, enjoyed the best beauty, and even won over a large number of gray believers.

They even received extra scholarships from the school when they came back... for some of the poor student parties who were still making up for their homework during the National Day holiday, Wang Ling and his group's exchange activities were definitely a rallying point.

After not seeing each other for a long time, it naturally became a new focus after they returned to school.

Lotus Sun had also taken this into account.

He was worried that Wang Ling would be surrounded by a group of people as soon as he arrived at school, and might not be used to it, so he came to school early to answer many people's concerns.

"Classmate Lotus Sun, I heard that there are already people who have cultivated to the golden egg level in the first year of high school on Sun Island?"

"Is it serious to be xenophobic? Are they friendly to us? I want to go on a trip next year!"

“Is the food in the nine paths and the cafeteria delicious? How does it compare to No. 60 High School?”

..

Lotus Sun answered every question in great detail.

As long as she answered them clearly, many people who had gotten their answers would naturally not harass Wang Ling anymore.

Of course, among the questions above, there was also some gossip that Lotus Sun didn't know how to answer..

“Classmate Lotus Sun! Are there real octopuses in the Octopus Balls on Sun Island? !”

“Classmate Lotus Sun! Is Rimi Ishihara really married? ! Do I still have a chance? !”

” ...”

Lotus Sun could only smile at these questions.

She herself didn't pay much attention to these idol celebrities.

After all, with Huaguo Water Curtain Group's financial resources, there was no idol celebrity that couldn't be invited. This wasn't a surprise to Lotus Sun at all... After all, her monthly allowance was as much as one billion, as long as she was willing, it wouldn't be a problem for a celebrity to come to the school every day to broadcast the noon broadcast.

After answering everyone's questions with as much ease as possible, Lotus Sun felt relieved.

There wouldn't be so many people harassing Wang Ling next!

But what she had never expected was that.

When she turned to look at the back table, Wang Ling was actually surrounded by a large group of people!

The point was that this group of people weren't here to ask questions, but to watch Wang Ling's rabbit ears!

"This..."lotus sun watched this scene from afar. She didn't know what exactly was going on with Wang Ling's rabbit ears, but her face and ears were still red from watching! She felt as if she was about to be carried away by the current Wang Ling!

She couldn't help roaring in her heart.

In an instant, that restless young girl's heart overflowed.

This was... too cute! ! !

The group of people surrounding Wang Ling also cried out in surprise from time to time.

"Ah! AWSL! So cute! It's real rabbit ears!"

"F * * K, Wang Ling, these rabbit ears aren't an ordinary match for you! Is it really a side effect of cultivating magic? Are you sure you didn't use some kind of medicine? You did it on purpose, didn't you? !"Super Chen couldn't help reaching out to pull, that furry feeling made him feel relaxed and happy.

"They're really cute,"hero Guo praised.

He felt that his family's spirit pet shop should have more rabbit spirit beasts of different types.

At first, he wasn't interested in rabbit spirit beasts.

But after seeing Wang Ling, he suddenly felt that rabbits were very cute!

Little Rabbits could also be raised!

They couldn't just be placed on the dining table!

At that moment, everyone was actually thinking the same thing.

It was said that young pig-headed teenagers didn't dream of Bunny Girls..

They suddenly felt that it wouldn't be too bad if Wang Ling could keep his rabbit ears!

..

Wang Ling had thought that his first day back at school would be completely flooded with people, but in fact, this kind of crowd didn't even last for the first class.

This was because the first class was for Monk Jin Deng, who was disguised as teacher Huo Ding.

As soon as Jin Deng came out, he gave everyone a set of animate spells.

Since everyone was animate, Wang Ling's rabbit ears naturally weren't unusual.

This could be considered as Jin Deng trying to smooth things over for him.

But in fact, Lotus Sun was also the one who had suggested this class for Jin Deng.

On one hand, the young girl felt that it wasn't good for Wang Ling to be constantly surrounded.

On the other hand, when she saw some girls touching Wang Ling's rabbit ears, she felt a strong sense of resistance in her heart!

So what if they were just watching!

How could they have gotten used to it?

Each and every one of them... hadn't they seen rabbits in the zoo before!

It was just a pair of rabbit ears..

Ah!

I really want to touch them too!

With this thought in mind, Lotus Sun was completely driven mad.

In order to stop those girls from attacking Wang Ling again,.

Her mind immediately whirred, and she entrusted the golden lamp monk with this course.

Thus, after the tutorial on "Animal Transformation Magic," grade one, class three had completely turned into a zoo.

Super Chen had grown a pair of ox horns and a cow tail, which was very in line with this person's style.

It was as if hero Guo had completely merged with his dopey parrot, and the hair on his head had turned the color of a parrot.

Lotus Sun's change was the biggest.

Not only did she grow a pair of furry snow-white Fox Ears on top of her head, but she also had nine furry tails behind her.

"Oh my God! It's a nine-tailed Fox! So cute!"

"As expected of the President of our student union! Even animals that turn into animals are different from other people!"

Many boys and girls were instantly attracted to Lotus Sun.

Under normal circumstances, she wouldn't turn into the legendary nine-tailed fox.

But Lotus Sun still didn't want Wang Ling to be noticed too much, which made her animalized image even more amazing.

When everyone's eyes were on her, no one would naturally notice Wang Ling anymore.

And so.

After the morning classes were over, Lotus Sun received another piece of Wang Ling's grateful milk candy in her pencil bag.

It was the same big white rabbit.

But the packaging of this grateful milk candy was slightly different from the previous one.

There was a small line of words on the packaging: "Double the sugar!"

Thinking about how Wei Zhi's chest had instantly become an inflatable balloon after eating the milk candy, Lotus Sun couldn't help blushing.

Ah, this..

If she ate it, it wouldn't be even more exaggerated, right!

It was already very exaggerated when Wei Zhi had eaten it last time!

After putting the candy away properly, Lotus Sun took the initiative to use a "Cooling spell" to calm herself down.

..

At lunchtime, Lotus Sun sat at her desk in the Student Union office with her chin cupped in her hand, her mind was filled with thoughts about Wang Ling's rabbit ears.

She really wanted to... touch them!

"Ying 'er?" Lotus sun called out, wanting to ask Sun Ying 'er what she thought, but Sun Ying 'er didn't reply.

She realized that the usually noisy Sun Ying 'er had become especially obedient today.

There wasn't even the slightest sound!

"What's wrong with You, Ying 'er? Why aren't you saying anything? Did President Ying Persecute You Again?" Lotus Sun asked with a smile.

Sun Ying 'er obediently maintained her shadow image, not even daring to reveal her human form. She told Lotus Sun mysteriously, "It's not about that person! He's much scarier than him!"

As the Master of Shadow Dao, the warm girl lay on Wang Ling's shoulder.

Although Lotus Sun couldn't see it.

She could indeed see it..

For the entire morning of class, Sun Ying 'er felt a pair of terrifying eyes staring at her from behind, causing her hair to stand on end.

She always felt as if her parents were staring at her while she was doing her homework.

She hadn't expected Wang Nuan to actually split up and come to school..

And it looked like the siblings hadn't decided to tell anyone about this yet.

Sun Ying 'er naturally didn't have the guts to tell anyone about Wang Nuan's existence.

"You're not normal... You're acting weird today," Lotus Sun muttered.

Of course, she didn't have time to think about why Sun Ying 'er was so well-behaved today; she was thinking about Wang Ling's rabbit ears.

"We're already an old married couple. If you want to touch them, go ahead and touch them. Just do it," Sun Ying 'er suggested quietly.

"What old married couple... you're talking nonsense again." Lotus Sun was blushing again.

It wasn't that she hadn't thought about what would happen if she directly touched him..

But if she did that, she felt that it was disrespectful to Wang Ling.

He was no different from those uneducated girls!

Just as Lotus Sun was in a dilemma, there was a knock on the student union office door.

"Please come in," Lotus Sun said as she quickly came back to her senses and cupped her chin with her fingers.

As the figure wearing No. 60 high school's uniform pushed the door open and entered, Lotus Sun saw a rather surprised person.

"Liangzi Jiugong... Why are you here?"

"I didn't come here to thank you!" Liangzi Jiugong snorted with his arms crossed.

”...”

What she said was a little too obvious..

Lotus Sun couldn't help laughing. “Then please take a seat...”

Actually, she felt that she was the one who should be thankful.

Lotus Sun hadn't actually helped much with the nine temples family; Li Xian had done most of the work, and she had only provided some bargaining chips for their cooperation.

This time, she was going abroad with Wang Ling.

This was the first time in Lotus Sun's life that she was going out with Wang Ling. Although many things had happened on the trip, she had also learned a lot from Zhai Yin about love... and more importantly, she felt that the distance between her and Wang Ling had become closer.

It wasn't the previously untouchable feeling.

At least now Wang Ling could already understand her feelings and thank her.

When he was free, he would even put a milk candy in her pencil bag..

Whenever she thought of this, the corners of Lotus Sun's lips couldn't help curling up into a smile.

She felt that she was really a person who could be easily satisfied.

When Liangzi Jiugong came in, Lotus Sun very politely poured her a cup of hot tea.

Normal people didn't receive the treatment of Lotus Sun personally making tea.

On one hand, Lotus Sun was grateful in her heart.

On the other hand, after she knew how Liangzi Jiugong and Odd Zhuo were currently progressing, she completely knew that this person wasn't a threat at all.

For example, before the first class in the morning, many girls had run over to touch Wang Ling's rabbit ears.

Only Liangzi Jiugong was looking down at his book, completely unconcerned about such things.

"Why are you looking for me, Liangzi?" Lotus sun put down the hot tea.

Liangzi Jiugong took the teacup and thought for a moment, then looked up at Lotus Sun. "Do you have anything that you particularly don't Hate?"

Something that I especially don't hate..

Lotus Sun felt that she should be asking about something that I especially liked..

As expected..

Something about being arrogant.

It was troublesome and cute.

"Didn't senior Odd Zhuo tell you anything?" Lotus Sun smiled.

"I wasn't sure, so I wanted to ask you face-to-face!" Liangzi nine temples snorted, her cheeks flushing.

As the eldest daughter of the nine temples family, she had never stooped to someone else's office to ask for their opinion in order to buy a gift.

But Liangzi nine temples had never expected that.

Her first time.

She had actually handed it over to Lotus Sun.

And most importantly, Lotus Sun was the woman she had always regarded as her opponent!

She was clearly her opponent..

But when they were facing each other, it was also very strange that they were suddenly united.

Liangzi nine temples felt that this might be the “Mysterious power from the east,” or rather... a power that only belonged to No. 60 high school.

Compared to the current size of nine paths, No. 60 high school was still not enough. The average standard of its students wasn't particularly high, but it still felt like a big family.

It was as if it could bring everyone together closely.

This was actually very well reflected in Wang Ling and Lotus Sun.

No. 60 high school had only sent out a delegation of exchange students, but in the end, they had taken in nine paths and high school, which had always had a clear hierarchy!

Thus, nine temples Liangzi had now officially decided to settle down in Huaxiu nation for a long time, as well as to complete his studies at No. 60 High School in the future.

When she heard this, Lotus Sun congratulated her profusely. “Congratulations, classmate nine temples. Senior Odd Zhuo must be very happy to know that.”

“What's there to congratulate...” Liangzi nine temples pouted. She said it inexplicably, but in fact, she couldn't deny Lotus Sun's words.

The reason she had stayed behind was indeed that she hadn't completely taken a fancy to No. 60 high school's teaching style.

The main reason was that she and Odd Zhuo had already established a relationship..

Long-distance relationships were too difficult.

She hoped that she and Odd Zhuo could have a normal relationship.

"I don't think I hate anything... it should already be very obvious. Classmate Liangzi is happy now, but look at me, I'm still alone." Lotus sun sighed and sat down next to Liangzi nine temples.

It wasn't until then that Liangzi nine temples reacted. "What? You and classmate Wang Ling aren't together yet..."

"Who said I'm with him?" Lotus Sun's face instantly turned red. "Classmate Wang Ling is a blockhead..."

"Ah, I'm sorry. I thought you guys had a showdown after going abroad together. I didn't think it wouldn't be settled yet." Liangzi nine temples was surprised.

It wasn't that she hadn't heard Odd Zhuo mention the story between Wang Ling and Lotus Sun before.

Furthermore, Odd Zhuo had hinted to her before that she could assist in the attack.

Now that the topic was out of the way, Liangzi nine temples instantly felt as if he understood everything.

"I see." At this moment, Liangzi nine temples cupped his chin and looked like a military counselor. "As long as I help you win student Wang Ling over, the debt of gratitude between US will be written off, right?"

"Uh... mm..." Lotus sun nodded.

She hadn't actually expected Liangzi Jiugong to be so arrogant and direct.

"This guy isn't easy to deal with."

Very soon, with his many years of experience "Seeing countless men," Liangzi Jiugong had come up with a definition of the relationship between Lotus Sun and Wang Ling.

She said, "Although it's like a veil between a woman and a man, student Wang Ling's personality is too ascetic. If this continues, there might not be any results."

Hearing this, Lotus Sun couldn't help sighing.

Although this wasn't the first time she had heard someone analyze this matter, she still felt a little tired.

"You don't have to be so disappointed." Liangzi Jiugong immediately comforted her. "Then... What do you want me to do? I can cooperate with you! Of course, let's be clear first! I'm just returning a favor! It's not because I've changed my opinion of you and want to be on the same side as you..."

"I know." Lotus Sun smiled.

At that moment, she thought of Wang Ling's drooping rabbit ears again, and her heart itched.

"That... classmate Liangzi... I want to ask you what you can do..."

At that moment, the girl stretched out two index fingers and curled them together to gently touch them. She was shy and conflicted. "I want to ask you if there's a more natural way..."

"What Way?"

"It's... It's Wang Ling's rabbit ears! I want to touch them!"

“You want to touch the ears, don’t you?”Liangzi Jiugong understood.

After all, he was a young man who adored Wang Ling, so there was nothing special about touching a rabbit’s ears.

“Mm...”

“Is it okay to eat the ears?”

“Huh?”

“I heard that these animal organs don’t have pain nerves. If it really doesn’t work, I’ll find someone to cut off the rabbit’s ears for you. Then, I’ll make a spicy rabbit ear!”

“How can that work! Rabbits are so cute... how can you eat them!”

“I was joking, I didn’t expect you to be so serious...”Liangzi nine temples couldn’t help laughing.

Lotus Sun:”...”

At first, she had thought that Lotus Sun’s feelings for Wang Ling were just for fun, but now she realized that she really liked him.

If she didn’t really like someone, she wouldn’t have thought so much about it..

And the girls who had directly gone up to touch their ears in the morning weren’t well-educated; this was the true expression of liking someone in the future.

Every word and action wasn’t to satisfy his own selfish desires, but to wholeheartedly consider the person he liked.

Of course..

Liangzi Jiugong didn't really understand.

What was so good about Wang Ling that he could infatuate Lotus Sun with him like this.

When school was about to end, Liangzi Jiugong suggested that they ride on Lotus Sun's shoulders. The two of them wore a huge cloak, and they looked as if they were walking together.

The hand under the cloak was Lotus Sun's hand.

Liangzi Jiugong, who was sitting on top, wore a Jason mask. From Afar, he looked like an abnormally tall man.

The two women were fully armed and disguised themselves very well as they stood by the roadside, waiting for Wang Ling to pass by.

Lotus Sun didn't think that this disguise would work on Wang Ling.

With the youngster's eyesight, he could definitely tell that the two of them were inside the cloak!

However, Liangzi nine temples didn't know Wang Ling's true strength at the moment, so he felt that this method would work.

"Is it really possible... classmate Liangzi..."

"Don't worry. Leave the talking to me. When the time comes, all you have to do is take your hand out from under the cloak and touch it." Liangzi nine temples was full of confidence.

Lotus Sun held her forehead under the cloak; she suddenly felt a little regretful.

Given the asymmetric information, she shouldn't have rashly asked Liangzi nine temples to take part in the operation.

“I’m Coming, I’m Coming, pay attention!” At this moment, Liangzi nine temples coughed lightly, hinting that Lotus Sun was about to pass by.

This was the first time Liangzi nine temples had ridden on Lotus Sun’s shoulder like this.

In fact, Liangzi nine temples was also a little regretful that she had come up with this idea.

The main reason was that she hadn’t thought about it before carrying it out. After carrying it out, Liangzi nine temples really wanted to slap herself to death..

Because when she was riding on Lotus Sun’s shoulder, her calf had just grazed the soft part of the girl.

Damn it..

She was clearly four years younger than her! Why did she develop so well!

Liangzi nine temples was on the verge of a mental breakdown.

Although Lotus Sun wasn’t particularly outrageous at the moment, it was clear that there was a lot of room for her to grow! She was only 16 years old and already had this much room! If she were a little older, that would be amazing!

If she were to grow to the age of a wife... she would probably be even more terrifying!

“Hello, Classmate!” When she saw Wang Ling pass by, Liangzi Jiugong used a voice-changing spell to stop him.

” ... ”

Wang Ling stopped in his tracks, and together with Wang Nuan, they looked at Liangzi Jiugong, who was wearing a Jason mask, as well as Lotus Sun, who was currently covered by a cloak “Classmate... we’re in the middle of a blessing event! As long as you touch the top of your head for us, we’ll give you a small snack pack,”Liangzi Jiugong, who was wearing a Jason Mask, said in a rough voice.

At the same time, Lotus Sun, who was under the cloak, very cooperatively took out a bag of golden-colored crispy noodle snacks.

This was a winter limited edition.

It was a sweet-ice-flavored crispy noodle snack! The whole bag of crispy noodle snacks was sweet! It was different from the previous versions of peppered noodles!

Looking at the previous scene, Wang Ling was stunned.

This bag of crispy noodle snacks was indeed limited.

But in fact, Wang Ling had already eaten it a long time ago.

His heart was as still as an ancient well, and there wasn’t even much to be surprised about. On the other hand, Nuan, who was sitting on his shoulder, bit her finger as if she wanted to eat it.

“Do you want to eat?”Wang Ling poked Nuan’s tender little face.

Nuan nodded solemnly.

Thus, without a word, Wang Ling walked over to Lotus Sun and the good son of nine temples, who were disguising themselves under the cloak.

When the familiar aura of the youngster approached, Lotus Sun could clearly feel her heart beating so fast that it was about to burst out.

Bang, Bang, Bang, bang..

She had never thought that she would actually be so nervous.

Then, in front of Liangzi nine temples and Lotus Sun, Wang Ling half-bent down and revealed his head.

The young girl's face was red as she slowly stretched out her hand. Wang Ling recognized Lotus Sun's hand at a glance. She was trembling nervously, her fingers trembling..

At that moment, Wang Ling silently sighed.

He took another step forward and took the initiative to walk up to her.

“Ah!”

“I touched it!”

Lotus sun cried out in excitement in her heart.

The moment her fingertip touched the rabbit's ear, a huge stream of steam shot out from under the cloak..

Liangzi nine temples jumped in fright.

As she sat on Lotus Sun's shoulder, she suddenly felt a huge propulsion force beneath her.

By the time she regained her senses.

The powerful propulsion force generated by the terrifying steam engine beneath her had already lifted the two of them more than ten meters off the ground..

Chapter 1612 1,609, Animal Transformation (1/93)

After returning home that night, Wang Ling sorted out the data for today's experiment.

The first was about the black spirit liquid. For the time being, Wang Ling didn't find any other abnormalities or side effects.

It was more accurate to say that after putting on his school uniform jacket that had been dripped with the black spirit liquid, he felt that the original seal talisman seal on his body seemed to have reduced a lot of pressure.

As for the “Animal reagent” that Wang Ming had developed...

Until now, this rabbit’s ear was still on Wang Ling’s head..

He felt that this time was a little too long, and when he returned home, he would manually expel the reagent from his body.

Animal reagents were inhalation-type reagents, which meant that as long as the components of the reagent in his body were expelled, it would be fine.

Under normal circumstances, Wang Ling could use his sword fingers together and then, like the “Duan Yu” in wuxia movies who used his fingertips to expel alcohol after drinking, expel the air from his body.

But because he was at home, Wang Ling was worried that the process of expelling the air would easily trigger a big explosion

So he chose a very honest method.

That was to drink water and urinate, which would then circulate through his body to expel the poison.

The Immortal King’s kidney function was so powerful.

No matter what poison it was.

There was nothing that couldn’t be solved with just a piss.

If it didn’t work...

Then he would take another piss..

Throughout the entire toilet, Wang Ling had been thinking about the village chief of Holy Water Village back then..

He didn't know how things were developing there.

Perhaps the next time he went there,.

The whole village would turn into an animal village, right?

That was because the temporary sealing effect of the black spirit liquid on the school uniform jacket was still ongoing.

That night was the first time Wang Ling had been able to sleep soundly for a while.

He directly slept in his school uniform jacket, and didn't have to think too much about it, nor did he have to worry that his careless snoring would blow up the Earth.

It gave him a very comfortable feeling.

But Wang Ling also knew very well that this kind of comfort wouldn't last for long.

That was because Wang Ming was still unable to prove whether the black spirit liquid extracted from the black stone would make him resistant.

After all, Wang Ling was now using a sealing talisman which was becoming more and more resistant, causing its duration and effectiveness to be much shorter than before.

Black Stone and black spirit liquid were substances that had a completely new inhibitory effect on Wang Ling. Although Wang Ming had to carry out a few experiments on his side, he had to ensure that they were used in a planned way.

This was to prevent Wang Ling from suddenly developing a strange antibody one day..

..

Although Wang Ling was sleeping peacefully, Lotus Sun's situation wasn't very good.

The main thing was that after touching Wang Ling's rabbit ears, the irritation was simply too great... up until now, she could still feel the soft and warm sensation lingering in her hands.

Tonight, she couldn't bear to wash her hands.

"You say... Student Wang Ling clearly knew that I was the person in the cloak, but he didn't avoid me and still stuck his head close to me. Does this mean that he likes me?"

"..."Sun Ying 'er was silent for a moment on this question.

She didn't dare say that Wang Ling had taken the initiative to exchange his head for the crispy noodle snack because his sister was too hungry.

Of course, the main reason was also because of Wang Nuan.

She was too afraid that Wang Nuan would get angry and shut down her privileges again..

If she shut down her privileges again, she would be bullied by that Wang Ying for nothing.

Although the number of times she used the planet wall technique had decreased recently, her sister couldn't help but feel pain in her waist when she thought about it... This world was too unfriendly to delicate and beautiful girls!

"Hey, Ying Er, why aren't you saying anything... You're acting weird today..."

"No... I'm not..."

Sun Ying Er didn't dare to reveal her true form. She was usually carefree, but now she looked a little timid.

In fact, she was afraid that once she revealed her true form, she would put all her expressions on her face.

She had never been able to hide her expression.

“Sigh, when... it'll be good if we can always hold hands...”at night, Lotus Sun lay on the pillow, deep in thought.

She fantasized that one day she would be able to go on a trip alone with Wang Ling without bringing anyone with her.

It would just be Wang Ling and herself.

The two of them took a slow-moving vehicle and enjoyed the beautiful scenery along the way, holding hands as they felt the wind on the lakeside..

It was as if that scene could only be found in a girl's comic, and Lotus Sun longed for it.

But the distance between reality and fantasy was very far.

Lotus Sun knew very well that as long as there was a peanut..

She wouldn't let her imagination run wild.

..

The next morning, Wang Ling woke up from a very solid sleep.

When he woke up, he saw loopy toad standing next to him naked in human form..

And he was actually being hugged by the bed immortal he had enlightened.

Wang Ling got up and glanced at loopy toad in surprise.

Although this wasn't the first time he knew that loopy toad was green all over, it still felt a little strange in human form.

Loopy toad covered its vital parts with an abnormally helpless expression on its face. "This... You Can't blame me for this!"

It explained to Wang Ling what had happened.

"It can't change back?" When Wang Ling heard this, he was extremely surprised that it couldn't change back into its human form... the point was that loopy toad was still reaching out with one hand; logically speaking, this shouldn't have happened.

Wang Ling felt that the world today seemed to have become a little strange.

He opened the door to the bathroom in his bedroom.

Then, he was surprised to find that the originally empty bathroom actually had a room full of people..

The spiritual monsters that he had enlightened were actually unable to change back into their human forms.

The sink, the toothbrush and the cup.

Lord Ma looked at Wang Ling with an awkward expression. "My Lord, do you need to go to the bathroom... if you don't mind... i..." As he said this, Lord Ma opened his mouth.

Wang Ling was shocked by this scene, and silently closed the bathroom door.

Mm..

He felt that there was something wrong with the way he opened the door..

But even Wang Ling himself wasn't too clear about the current situation.

The "Great Enlightenment spell" was already relatively mature, unlike the "Bachelor curse", which always had a "Bug". This shouldn't be the case.

Wang Ling opened the door to look for father and mother Wang.

In the end, he was surprised to find two cute maids in maid attire with Kylin horns on their heads standing on both sides of Father Wang in the living room.

One was called Kato.

The other was called Ying.

This was the left and right hand that Wang Ling had enlightened father Wang in order to deal with the tomb God the last time.

He hadn't expected that he would grow from a kylin arm to a kylin maid at this moment.

"Ling Ling... did you do this?" Father Wang's expression was indescribably complicated, and he didn't know whether to be happy or sad.

Wang Ling shook his head and immediately denied it.

He had become like this the moment he woke up; who knew what had happened..

At that moment, the maid on the left named "Kato" fork out a piece of fruit and brought it to father Wang's mouth. When father Wang opened his mouth, it immediately turned into a huge eagle beak.

Thinking that he had seen wrong, Wang Ling stretched out his hand to touch it, and found that Father Wang had really turned into an eagle.

An eagle without wings.

Because his left and right hands had already turned into maids..

“There’s nothing particularly uncomfortable about it.”At that moment, father Wang said in all seriousness, “I don’t have any hands anymore, so I can ask my book friends for leave and say that I can’t write anymore.”

Wang Ling:”...”

As he said this, he looked at the qilin maid on his left and right with a red face. “And I think this is pretty good...”

Just as he said this...

There was an “Awoo”sound from behind the sofa.

A huge white tiger appeared and immediately bit father Wang’s Eagle Head..

Wang Ling sucked in a cold breath.

Mother Wang had actually turned into a white tiger..

Chapter 1613 1610 Cultivators Who “Evolved”(1/93)

The phenomenon of cultivators on earth turning into animals came very suddenly.

Wang Ling sat cross-legged at home for a long time, and asked Nuan to investigate similar events around the world.

By using the power of Shadow Dao to trace the shadows of everyone on Earth, it was easy to know the whole situation.

Wang Ling didn’t need to make any big movements; he just needed to gently stroke the little girl’s little head to get the information simultaneously.

An unexpected result emerged.

Wang Ling and Wang Nuan saw that all cultivators below the nascent soul stage had suffered.

Moreover, each person had been “Animalized” to a different degree.

Some had turned into an entire animal or even a spirit beast.

And some had only taken part of the animal or spirit Beast’s organs with them, just like Wang Ling had done yesterday.

As for the Wang family’s small Villa’s enchanted monsters and loopy Toad’s inability to self-recover after taking human form, this was a bit like an abnormal feedback before a major earthquake.

Could it be a sign that the people who would be affected in the future would spread to a higher realm..

Wang Ling was at a loss.

The people around him could use magic power to repair and restore themselves, but if they were cultivators who had been irradiated all over the world, there was actually a risk.

Even if there was only a one-in-a-billion chance that someone had intentionally traced the source of magic power, Wang Ling didn’t really want to take this risk.

After using magic power to restore father Wang, mother Wang, loopy toad, and the humanoid monsters back to their original appearances, father Wang’s expression was especially regretful.

“Ling Ling, this is your fault! It’s not easy for your father to write normally... it’s not easy for him to have two maids...”after saying this, father Wang let out a painful scream.

The reason was that mother Wang had ruthlessly pinched his thigh, which was still the most tender part of the internal test. The pain made father Wang kneel on the spot.

Mother Wang turned on the television and found that it was also reporting on this matter.

The morning news anchorwoman had also suffered a “Phenomenon of animalization.”.

Her skin had changed into a leopard print..

“We are now reporting a breaking news. Cultivators below the nascent soul stage all over the world have suddenly shown signs of animals or spirit beasts. The next event will be the [animalization event] . Relevant experts say that this event will be a great turning point for Earth’s human cultivators as they move toward the future and advance to the next level...”

The overall development of the incident was extremely fast.

Because it was so strange, Wang Ling could only judge it from experience.

He felt that there were a few possibilities.

One was that Wang Ming’s animal chemical reagent had been leaked, and because it was inhaled and floated in the air, it could easily cause accidental injury.

But the strange thing now was that even if the inhalation animal chemical reagent had been leaked, it couldn’t have drifted that far!

On a global scale..

How could Wang Ming’s laboratory’s small jars of experimental items have been able to reach such a large area.

There were still a few other possibilities. Wang Ling felt that this was probably someone with ulterior motives, and that it had to be at least a true immortal or above who had activated a global taboo array.

Wang Ling made a phone call to Wang Ming, and especially used a video call... the main reason was to see what kind of animal Wang Ming had become.

Unexpectedly, when Wang Ming agreed to the call, the scene in front of him actually looked normal.

He was wearing a special thick protective suit to block the radiation from the process of studying the black rock.

Wang Ling had specially enchanted the protective suit, so it was extremely safe.

“It’s probably because of that black rock,”Wang Ming said.

The mysterious black stone in the laboratory had the effect of shielding it from spirit energy.

If a powerful person had set up a large-scale magic array, the power of the array wouldn’t have been able to cover the laboratory, and Wang Ming had also successfully escaped being turned into an animal.

He looked at Wang Ling, and a Sly smile appeared on his closed glass helmet. “Why did you want to video chat with me today? Or do you want to see what kind of animal I’ve become?”

As he said this, he switched the image to the computer screen in his lab.

The image on the screen was exactly the image of Wang Ling growing the pair of rabbit ears yesterday.

During class, the scene of him lying on his desk with his eyes closed and resting was actually taken!

”...”

“Hey, do you know how much I spent to buy this picture? And it took me a lot of effort to use technical means to restore the mosaic on it.”

”...”

Wang Ling took a deep breath.

It looked like Wang Ming had won yesterday's game in all respects.

It was just a photo, and moreover, it was a photo that hadn't been taken in the face, so Wang Ling felt that he should just take it..

After all, the man in front of him was still working hard to develop a new talisman for him, so it didn't matter if he got a bonus once in a while.

On the contrary, Wang Ling was more curious.

How much had Wang Ming spent on this photo yesterday..

And who had sold it to him.

In short, Wang Ling had already written down the matter of the animal chemical reagent and the photo in his little notebook.

Speaking of which, the habit of keeping a little notebook...

Wang Ling suddenly realized that he seemed to have learned it from Lotus Sun..

..

After the call was cut off, Wang Ling had already figured out the general sequence of the animalization incident.

If the reagents in Wang Ming's laboratory hadn't been leaked, then someone else had been playing tricks behind his back.

After breakfast, Wang Ling was about to go out when mother Wang suddenly called out to him.
"Ling Ling! You Can't go out like this!"

Wang Ling:”?”

Mother Wang: “Now that all cultivators below the nascent soul stage have turned into animals, most of your classmates will do the same. If you’re normal now, wouldn’t it be very strange?”

”...”

It had to be said that mother Wang’s words were indeed very reasonable.

Mm.

After thinking it over, Wang Ling could only raise his hand and change the rabbit ears from yesterday back.

It was just that this time, the rabbit ears weren’t produced with a reagent.

Instead, they were a “Real illusion,” a type of illusion created using the King’s eye. Just like the rabbit ears from yesterday, they had a touch, temperature, and could be touched.

After the rabbit ears grew back, mother Wang couldn’t help taking a few pictures in a row, she even shouted, “Ahhh! My Son is so cute! Speaking of which, Ling Ling, do you still want a younger brother? It would be good if you had a litter of rabbits!”

As soon as he said this, father Wang and Wang Ling sucked in a breath of cold air.

Father and son both felt a motherly glow from mother Wang..

A moment later, mother Wang smiled with a flushed face. “I’m just kidding! It’s more important to raise Nuan first.”

Have a litter..

At this moment, father Wang let out a long sigh of relief.

A son with long rabbit ears was cute.

But giving birth to a litter was a little too outrageous... who knew if it was a son or a nuclear bomb!

..

On this day, when Wang Ling arrived in class.

Many people in the class had taken leave.

Hero Guo hadn't come either.

According to Super Chen, it was said that dopey parrot, who had taken human form, had tied him up at home..

"It's probably over now."

At that moment, Super Chen put on a "Cigarette after the event" pose and sighed at Wang Ling.

Wang Ling:"..."

Chapter 1614 1611, Entrusted By The Grey Cult (1/93)

The matter between hero Guo and Dopey wasn't actually a secret in grade one, class three..

Dopey parrot's ability to transform into human form was due to the blood in its body.

Earlier, Wang Ling had used the "Great blood source spell" to track it down.

However, if Dopey wanted to transform into a human, it needed to condense the spirit Qi of heaven and earth and under certain conditions to transform into a human. It was a bit like the reaction of a werewolf when it saw the moon.

As for continuing to transform into a human, it was basically impossible.

The animalization event led to a polar reversal between cultivators, Spirit Beasts, and animals.

When Animals and spirit beasts transformed into human forms, cultivators instead obtained some of the characteristics of animals or spirit beasts, as well as direct animalization.

This matter sounded too inconceivable.

But now, one thing was certain.

Hero Guo was definitely comfortable..

Because Dopey's human form was already like a big sister.

The most important thing was..

It wasn't any smaller than Jiang Liuying's.

It was definitely the type that would make Liangzi Jiu Gongzi cry out in envy.

There weren't many people in the class to begin with.

This animalization incident directly reduced the number of people in the class by more than half.

Except for people like hero Guo who had been trapped at home by Dopey and couldn't come, the others were in a more serious situation. They had directly turned into animals or spirit beasts, so they couldn't come out.

Take Jiang Yingying for example.

It was said that Jiang Yingying's situation was very serious.

When she woke up, she had directly turned into a carp..

When Marshal Jiang found her, the Poor Jiang Yingying was lying on her bed, and her life was almost in danger.

This made Wang Ling feel uneasy.

After all, the monthly test was coming up soon.

If things didn't go back to normal before the monthly test,

He was afraid that it would affect the rhythm of his scoring.

"I didn't expect you to still have rabbit ears, Wang Ling, just like yesterday," Super Chen said as he pinched Wang Ling's ear.

When he saw this scene, he started to wonder if the phenomenon of animal transformation had actually started in small numbers since yesterday.

In comparison to Wang Ling, Super Chen hadn't changed that much since yesterday.

Apart from his horns and tail, Super Chen's nose had also changed a little.

"As expected, Wang Ling. I wasn't wrong about you."

At this moment, Super Chen said again.

Wang Ling:"?"

Super Chen: "Everyone says that this phenomenon only happens to cultivators below the nascent soul stage this time, and the lower the realm, the more likely it is that the phenomenon of animal transformation will become serious. I actually suspected before that you were hiding some strength. Now it looks like I was thinking too much."

Wang Ling:"..."

On the side, Gu Shunzhi, Zhenyuan, and the others were sweating profusely.

Then, they quickly stepped in to smooth things over for Wang Ling.

“Student Wang Ling is just a mascot; of course, he can’t be above the nascent soul stage.”

“That’s right. Look at student Wang Ling’s rabbit ears; they’re too cute. They don’t look like senior experts at all.”

“Have you seen any experts who like crispy noodle snacks?”

Super Chen was instantly rendered speechless by these few words.

It couldn’t be helped; the entire first grade, class three, was now filled with spies sent by the war sect... This was one of the intangible benefits.

The animalization incident had no effect on Gu Shunzhi, Zhenyuan, Wang Zhen, Liu Qingyi, Fang Xing, and the others at No. 60 High School; they had more or less disguised themselves before coming to school, that was why they hadn’t made themselves seem too strange.

Lotus Sun had also managed to avoid a calamity because of the protective aura of the AOHAI Sword Qi.

But in order to come to school, she had still disguised herself and come to school.

Just like yesterday, she had a snow-white and furry nine-tailed fox tail behind her.

It was just that today, the number of people surrounding Lotus Sun had obviously decreased.

The animalization incident had come too suddenly, causing many people to fall into a panic.

For example, today, Lotus Sun had received dozens of messages asking for help from the followers of the grey religion.

Because of the animalization, they had already felt troubled.

Some followers had also become marine creatures like Jiang Yingying, trapped in their homes and unable to move, so they had to call for help through the voice function to connect to the internet.

Now, although the scale of the grey religion had grown a lot at home and abroad.

But Lotus Sun felt that everyone had misunderstood something..

In the end, the gray cult was only a literary exchange society!

But the slogan of Unity and friendship was the principle of the gray cult. Since the believers needed help, there was no way for Lotus Sun to refuse.

As the cult master, she had been working with Sun Ying 'er since early in the morning when the animal transformation incident had started to ferment. They had gone door-to-door to find the believers who needed help..

Which leads directly to when you come into class in the morning.

Lotus Sun looked a little tired.

Wang Ling's "Double sugar" butterscotch was still in the pencil case.

But even in this case, she still did not bear to eat.

And now, on her cell phone, those messages for help are still coming in..

This scene made Wang Ling frown slightly.

The essence of the grey cult was to provide him with cover.

To put it bluntly, it had the same functions as Odd Zhuo, just different in nature.

Odd Zhuo could be his scapegoat for dealing with vicious incidents.

And the existence of the grey cult could provide some cover for him to participate in large-scale competitions with many people in the future.

If all the people in a competition were his own people, Wang Ling's performance would be a bit of a limelight, and as long as there was no internal noise, there wouldn't be too much of a stir.

Now that the grey cult had grown in size.

As the leader and organizer, Lotus Sun had worked hard and made great contributions.

No matter how wooden Wang Ling was, he could still see it in his eyes.

The double sugar cream he had given her yesterday was originally a reward, and was originally meant to relieve fatigue... earlier, he had given her an extra big sack.

But how could Wang Ling have known that Lotus Sun wouldn't eat it at all.

Not only would she not eat it, but she also had insurance..

Wang Ling couldn't figure it out no matter how much he thought about it.

There was no other way.

In order to ease the pressure on Lotus Sun at work, Wang Ling still decided to resolve the matter in front of him as soon as possible.

At first...

He hadn't wanted to do it himself.

..

At noon, Wang Ling found an opportunity to go to the rooftop of the school again.

This was originally the first scene where the shadow stream killer had been turned into scum by the backlash..

Ever since the Shadow Stream invasion of No. 60 high last time, it had now become a famous scenic spot in No. 60 high school, and there were usually a lot of people coming to the rooftop to eat together.

Wang Ling basically didn't come up.

Today, he had asked Golden Lamp to use his vice principal's authority to issue a ban before he dared go upstairs.

At that moment, Wang Ling gazed at the sky.

He poured spirit energy into his king's eye and unleashed his divine power, shooting an invisible ray of light into the clouds.

Soon, it began to rain cats and dogs all over the world.

This heavy rain, combined with Wang Ling's "Great Purification Spell" magic power, could directly eliminate this abnormal event.

As the rain poured down, the magic power would spread along with the flow of the air, thus taking care of everyone affected by this event.

At this point, the matter was over..

But Wang Ling's expression didn't relax.

He had a feeling.

It felt as if this was just the beginning.

..

And the moment this cleansing rain fell...

In a secret underground laboratory in Songhai City, a middle-aged man with disheveled hair was suddenly awakened by a loud explosion in the laboratory.

Just now, his dashboard exploded!

“I’ve finally found it!” At this moment, the middle-aged man said excitedly.

Chapter 1615 1,612, Looking For A Counterbalance (1/93)

Today was actually the third anniversary of Shouchong’s “Big plan for unlimited energy.”

It all started when he picked up that black meteorite the size of a grain of sand..

On that day, Shouchong named that small meteorite “Eternity.”

And now, all his efforts were for the sake of developing unlimited energy and becoming the greatest scientist in the history of cultivation! And even the greatest scientist in the history of cultivation!

Since Lotus Sun and Liangzi Jiugongzi had raised 20 billion in research and development funds for him because of their rivalry, Shouchong had updated the equipment in his underground laboratory and was even more determined in his goal.

But now, he had encountered a bottleneck in his research and development.

The most important part of the “Infinite Energy Grand Plan” was to find a container that could provide perpetual motion.

Therefore, Shouchong set his eyes on an infinite mystic realm.

According to the records in the ancient books, this mysterious infinite mystic realm contained the materials for him to make perpetual motion containers.

However, it was not easy to open the mystic realm.

He had hired a team of 100 Soul Formation stage cultivators at a huge cost to create a spiritual energy-condensing array in the depths of the desert.

Unfortunately, the strength of these 100 people was far from enough. It was beyond Shouchong's imagination that it would be difficult to tear open the crack of the infinite mystic realm.

So now, there was the "Cultivator animalization plan" that he had just launched a few days ago.

According to Shouchong's personality calculation, the big shots in the cultivation world seemed to like to pretend to be ordinary ordinary people and live a low-key life in the hidden world..

If his calculation was correct, once the collective lives of human cultivators were shaken.

These big shots who had their lives disrupted would definitely not sit idly by.

Of course..

These were just Shouchong's wishful conjectures.

Even he didn't expect the entire plan to go so smoothly.

In the laboratory, several assistants hired by Shouchong began to use their private satellites to locate the spiritual signal just now.

The results of their private satellites showed that No. 60 high school..

"What a familiar high school name." An assistant frowned.

“It’s that legendary high school! The legendary Odd Zhuo! I saw his exclusive interview a while ago. He said that he had recently fallen in love with a washboard, and everyone was still discussing what he meant,” another assistant said, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

Because of Odd Zhuo’s words, the price of washboards on the market had skyrocketed.

Many cultivators thought that washboards could help with cultivation, so after Odd Zhuo’s interview was broadcast, they were all snapped up in supermarkets and online stores.

Now, basically everyone was studying how washboards could be used for cultivation.

In the information-advanced internet age, every move that had a bit of fame would have such a huge impact.

For Wang Ling, Odd Zhuo’s public appearance was actually a good thing.

After all, it was his own tool..

Mm..

That wasn’t right.

It was his disciple.

When his disciple shone brightly outside and all eyes were on him, it naturally had a hidden effect on him.

For example, now.

When Shouchong found out that the energy he had been tracking originated from No. 60 High School,.

He immediately held a short meeting with the assistants in the laboratory.

“What do you guys think about this?” Shouchong asked.

“I think we should discuss it according to the situation. Although the energy source came from No. 60 high school, we can’t rule out the possibility that a big shot is passing by,” one of the assistants said.

“It’s unlikely that he’s passing by. I think he’s from No. 60 High School.”

Another assistant took out the satellite map that he had captured. When he zoomed in on the image, he happened to capture the image of No. 60 high school’s rooftop.

In the end, the image actually had traces of it being encoded!

Moreover, this mosaic couldn’t be fully analyzed with Shouchong’s current technology alone. He didn’t know what this mosaic was originally.

“If it was just a passing almighty, he probably wouldn’t have dealt with it this way. In any case, he didn’t know anyone, so why would he deliberately mosaic himself. Usually, he wouldn’t wear a mask or something like that? “For example, the Yuzhi wave band?” The assistant said.

“What the hell is the Yuzhi wave band... if it’s not the Yuzhi wave band, what’s The Point?”

” ... ”

The two assistants discussed.

This kind of behavior was indeed a bit like covering one’s ears and stealing a bell.

Shouchong rubbed his chin. From a behavioral point of view, if this person was from No. 60 high school, and he just didn’t want others to know who he really was.

Now, Shouchong had his first suspect.

“Do you think this person is odd Zhuo?” Shouchong asked.

“It can’t be... that Odd Zhuo is in the prime of his life right now, and who knows how many eyes are watching him.”

“If it wasn’t for him, how could he explain his frequent battles over the years and the many major incidents that couldn’t be solved with his realm?”

“The outside world has been saying that he has a master...”

“I don’t think he does.”

Shouchong shook his head, he said, “I’m afraid that his display of sharpness outside is actually a kind of reverse thinking. It makes people think that he has a powerful master behind him, which is why he’s so fearless. “But what if he’s that Master?”

“Teacher, are you saying that Odd Zhuo and the rumored master behind him are the same person?”

“I don’t think we can rule out this possibility.”

Relying on detective Conan’s theatre version and the powerful deductive abilities he had developed from various domestically produced deductive dramas,

Shouchong was almost certain in his heart that this legendary master was a smokescreen that Odd Zhuo had deliberately released.

And Odd Zhuo himself was actually a powerful almighty with great power!

More powerful than a true immortal! And even more powerful than that sect master true venerate of the war sect!

But if the above reasoning was completely accurate, then what Shouchong had to think about next was how to establish a connection with Odd Zhuo.

“Is there any useful information about this odd zhao recently?” Shouchong asked at this moment.

“Information... I do have a lot of gossip magazines here...” the assistant pulled out some gossip magazines from the drawer.

“Magazines are fine too.” Shouchong nodded.

There were many times when the news in gossip magazines wasn't necessarily fake.

The important thing was how to distinguish the truth from the falsehood.

Shouchong cupped his chin and read a few magazines on his desk in succession.

Finally, he found an interesting piece of information.

This was gossip about Odd Zhao's late-night tryst with a mysterious young woman.

Unfortunately, this gossip reporter didn't get a good shot of this woman's face.

But Shouchong frowned; the more he looked at this young woman, the more familiar she seemed..

This chest..

Mm..

There was almost no measure to it..

It was as if he had seen her before, as if he had seen her somewhere before.

A moment later, Shouchong smacked his head fiercely. “Yoshiko Jiugong? It's her?”

That's right.

Just based on this part of her personality.

And her sensitivity as an otaku who had been single for many years.

Shouchong recognized Yoshiko Kyoko..

This was easy.

Shouchong couldn't help but cover his mouth and laugh.

He immediately took out his phone and prepared to use text messages to get information from Yoshiko Kyoko to confirm the authenticity.

In his contact list, Shouchong's note to Yoshiko Kyoko was: Princess Taiping.

Chapter 1616 1,613, Two Against The Wall (1/93)

After the Jiugongjia incident was resolved, all the pressure and uneasiness on Chuncao Chongchun's back was completely discharged for a time.

She doesn't want to betray Yoshiko, but because her only family is threatened, she's being used by the Yakuza.

In the Nine Palace Liangzi found clues, Chuncao Chongchun once wanted to commit suicide to bid farewell to the world.

But for Yoshiko Kagamiya, Chuncao Chongchun's meaning was different.

She wasn't just her female bodyguard.

She was also a friend and relative who had grown up with her.

After a period of adjustment after the attempted suicide, Chuncao Chongchun returned to the right track.

Although Shouchong's phone call was marked "Princess Taiping," in reality, it was only a work machine number. Chuncao Chongchun would recheck all work calls, he would only send a message after confirming that it wasn't a scam.

"It's a call from Master Shouchong. He says that the magic treasure that can trace back to the dead fish-eyed youth has been developed. I hope Miss Liangzi can meet in private," said Chunjun in Liangzi nine temples' Villa, standing respectfully beside the luxurious leather sofa, Chuncao said this.

It was a rare day for Liangzi nine temples to go home. After all, he usually stayed at Odd Zhuo's place.

This time, she was mainly going home to pack up some clothes and daily necessities.

Liangzi nine temples had already decided to move in with Odd Zhuo.

She was in a good mood, and then she heard Junzi say this.

She had just remembered that she had indeed invested five billion yuan in Shouchong's research.

But now, it didn't seem important to Liangzi nine temples whether she could find that dead fish-eyed teenager.

Back then, she had wanted to find that dead fish-eyed youth to prove that Odd Zhuo was a swindler.

But now, there was no longer a need.

"That's no longer important. Junko, go tell Master Shouchong that it's been hard on him," Junko nine temples replied after careful thought as she smoothed her long, silky hair.

Chuncao Chongchun was stunned. "That five billion..."

"Give it to him."

”...”

“People have to pay for their capriciousness.” After Liangzi Jiugong said this, a red glow appeared on his face.

”...” Chuncao Chongchun was speechless.

Was this the so-called “Inhumanity of the rich”... he didn’t want it when he said he didn’t want it.

However, with the strong financial resources of the Jiugong family and the successful cooperation with Huaguo Water Curtain Group, even though this news hadn’t been made public yet, a mere five billion was indeed nothing at the moment, it could be considered as funding the development of human cultivators’ technology.

In fact, every year, the Jiugong family would allocate a large sum of money to those talented scientists in the cultivation world for research.

Some of the research was successful, but most of it was still a failure.

If they only acted with the intention of giving back to society, this amount of money was nothing to Jiugong Liangzi.

At this moment, Chuncao Zhongchun let go of the phone and smiled apologetically. “Then... Master Shouchong, did you hear that?”

Shouchong: “No, Miss Junzi, that’s five billion in research and development funding... five billion! Are you really not going to accept it?”

Chuncao Zhongchun: “I’m sorry, Master Shouchong, this is Miss’ decision. “If you’re worried that our Jiugong family will go back on our word, Miss Jiugong said that we can draft another research termination and donation agreement. “It will also be stated that the termination is for her personal reasons and will not affect your reputation.”

”...”

At this point, the call was cut off.

Shouchong sat in his chair, feeling lost. He could not calm down for a long time.

He didn't want the five billion... this was something Shouchong had never expected.

"Teacher, the Jiugong family is too generous... what should we do now?" After the plan was disrupted, the assistants in the lab looked at each other at a loss.

One of the assistants suddenly thought of something and said, "Should we try to exchange information?"

"Exchange information?" Shouchong was puzzled.

"Isn't the heiress of the nine temples family, Yoshiko nine temples, not on good terms with the heiress of Huaguo Water Curtain Group. I think we might as well use this piece of gossip to make a deal with that heiress Sun. Then we'll have Miss Sun come forward and give us a chance to meet Mr. Odd Zhuo alone," the assistant said. "That legend Zhuo is her senior to begin with."

"That's a way..." Shouchong nodded.

He felt that this assistant's words made a lot of sense.

It had to be known that Lotus Sun had invested 15 billion yuan in order to oppose Jiugong Liangzi back then!

Shouchong had heard that even the core members of the group had noticed it back then, and had even signed a bet that Lotus Sun would give up her right to inherit the magic treasure if it lost money in research and development.

Compared to Liangzi Jiugongzi, Lotus Sun actually had no other way out, and it was impossible for her to give up the money directly.

Shouchong felt that this might be an opportunity.

So he quickly took out his phone and pulled out Lotus Sun's phone number from his contact list.

Name: Lotus Sun's father.

"Master Shouchong's magic treasure has already been developed, hasn't it? That's Great." Lotus Sun's dignified laughter came from the other end of the phone.

Through the screen, Shouchong could already picture the girl sitting on the sofa, sipping tea and talking to him.

"Yes, Miss Sun. My research is very reliable. It can perfectly counter the magic treasure that Miss Jiugong requested for the development of the Dead Fish's eye. This is a projection magic treasure with radiation function. It's called a shapeshifter."

Shouchong explained, "You need to wear an earring as a receiver. With the Magic Treasure in my hand, you can change your face to what you want. You can even customize a celebrity's face. "My experimental team has upgraded the core chip. Ordinary shapeshifter detection equipment can not detect a face that has been disguised by a shapeshifter."

"That's not bad. It sounds very practical," Lotus Sun said with a nod.

In this era where beauty cameras and all kinds of magical make-up techniques were frequently used, the emergence of such a shape-shifter was definitely a blessing to society.

Lotus Sun's original intention for Shouchong to develop a magic treasure was indeed to target Liangzi nine temples.

But Lotus Sun hadn't expected that the item Shouchong had developed this time would unexpectedly have a selling point.

"Miss, you flatter me. This is what we should do."

Shouchong smiled, and then moved on to the next topic. "It's like this, Miss Lotus Sun. I'm Looking for you this time, and there's another matter..."

“What is it?”

“I have a bit of information about the eldest Miss Jiugong. I wonder if Miss Lotus Sun is interested? Of course, in exchange for the information, we have certain conditions.”

“You mean the information about Liangzi nine temples?”

“Yes.”

“Oh... Then I’m not interested.” Lotus Sun smiled. “And Liangzi is a good person. The information is basically not that useful.”

”? ? ?” Shouchong was stunned.

Weren’t the two of You Freaking at odds?

Chapter 1617 1,614 Finding A BUG (1/92)

It turns out that women’s minds are far from normal. Shouchong may be obsessed with his own lab and all kinds of weird inventions.

However, in order to earn research funds and successfully sell his inventions, shouchong’s status in the rich woman’s circle is also there.

Long, long ago, he was once called “The woman killer”.

If he hadn’t gotten too old, he wouldn’t have been able to withstand the destructive power of the steel ball.

Shouchong felt that he could still fight for another 500 years.

So he became an internet celebrity and created virtual economic value by making online videos to spread his inventions.

This was Shouchong’s last resort.

His research fees had gone from those middle-aged women in the beginning to rich young ladies like Yoshiko Kyamiya and Lotus Sun.

It was true that the young ladies were rich.

But it was the teenage girls' hearts.

Shouchong found that he still couldn't figure it out.

Of course, it was also possible that he had once been obsessed with women's relationships.

That had led to his current mindset.

Instead, he couldn't figure out what these young ladies were thinking..

After ending the call with Lotus Sun, Shouchong was also complaining about how strange this matter was

What the hell was going on? He had clearly been scheming and scheming in secret a while ago, but wasn't it a little too soon to reconcile?

Now, his plan to connect with Lotus Sun and contact Odd Zhuo had also failed.

There were variables in this matter with Lotus Sun and Liangzi nine temples, and Shouchong felt that his actions had indeed been a little too rash.

After contacting both sides just now, Shouchong began to have a faint intuition.

He felt that these two young ladies might be in the same boat now.

If that was the case, it would be very dangerous to exchange information on Liangzi nine temples for a chance to meet Odd Zhuo.

It was impossible for him to contend with the two young ladies of the corporate world by himself.

“It looks like there’s only one other way.”

Shouchong sighed silently.

The assistants in the lab all had shocked and pale expressions on their faces.

“Could it be that teacher wants to...”

“We can only take out our most precious treasure. As long as we can establish a connection with No. 60 high, finding Odd Zhuo will be a matter of minutes.”

Shouchong lit a cigarette and put it in his mouth, then said, “In this way, we can also kill two birds with one stone and check whether there are any students from No. 60 high who are hiding very deeply...”

..

On Wednesday, December 23rd, the day after the cultivators’ animalization incident ended.

In general, Wang Ling’s study life had returned to normal.

Although there were still some people who hadn’t come to school, it wasn’t a big deal.

It was said that No. 60 high had specially sent several teams of psychology teachers to give psychological counselling to those students who had completely turned into animals.

Super Chen was extremely envious. “Ah! Teacher Yang Hanyin, the head teacher of the psychological treatment room, is so beautiful! Old Guo is really lucky!”

He had heard that teacher Yang was going to pay a home visit to hero Guo’s house, and from the morning self-study, he had started to hype up this matter in class.

It was clear that hero Guo was the most comfortable person in the case of animal transformation.

Playing whips and candles at home with Dopey in human form, he was so happy that he didn't want to go to school; it wasn't because of the psychological trauma!

Super Chen crossed his arms in indignation as he spoke loudly in class.

Wang Ling kept wiping his sweat on the side.

If it had been anyone else, Wang Ling might not have believed it.

But if it had come from Super Chen's mouth, the result would have been different.

For the first time, Old Pan didn't ask to write down the talisman formula as soon as he entered the classroom for this morning's class.

Instead, he asked little peanut to help hand out a stack of notices.

"Notice for the National Cultivation Academy Ranking System Update." The gray notice was covered with a black steel seal that had been copied by the school in large quantities, and the huge title immediately caught everyone's eye.

"As you can see, all the Cultivation Academy ranking systems across the country are about to receive a new update."

Standing on the podium, old pan said to everyone, "The five dimensions of consciousness, strength, speed, knowledge, and Qi and blood will be tested. After a comprehensive evaluation, the test results will be made public on the list. Everyone will be able to see their real-time rankings."

"..." Wang Ling stared at this notice.

He felt that the contents of these dimensional tests seemed a little familiar..

After all, he had only recently tested them in the external God Palace.

And their numbers were all positive infinity.

If No. 60 high school were to conduct this test now, Wang Ling instantly felt that something wasn't right.

At that moment, someone raised his hand. "Teacher, are our rankings on the same list as those of golden core university students?"

"High school rankings and university rankings are independent, but it's also a reference for further studies. It will definitely be easier for students with high rankings to advance, so I hope everyone can take this seriously."

Teacher Pan said, "However, this system hasn't been updated so quickly and is still in the internal testing phase. The Alliance of ten thousand schools is inviting bids for a suitable test system for science enterprises nationwide. It needs to be tested by multiple universities before it can be launched nationwide."

"So that's how it is." Everyone nodded.

Looking at the notice in his hand, Wang Ling finally understood what it meant.

It looked like the Alliance of ten thousand schools had already received contributions from several technology companies.

And No. 60 high school seemed to be going through a test activity for one of the test systems to see if the entire test system could work properly.

Of course.

What caught Wang Ling's attention the most wasn't the test system itself.

It was the person who had developed it..

“Everyone, have you seen the notice? The system our school has been assigned to is a masterpiece developed by that very popular scientist on the Internet, Master Shouchong.” Old Pan said that, however, she was actually calm in her heart. If you listened carefully, you would even feel that her words were a little strange.

She had never paid attention to those internet celebrities, and she was even less interested in Shouchong.

As for the title of master, it was just a polite title..

What no one knew was that Old Pan actually had a very disgusted feeling towards Shouchong.

It wasn't because of Shouchong's strange inventions.

It was because Shouchong had used those inventions to deceive several of her best friends in the Women's circle..

So this time, Shouchong's test system was placed in No. 60 high school.

So, Old Pan felt that if she caught the one who would take revenge, she would.

At this moment, she stood on the podium, indignant and indignant, she said, “Students! I hope that everyone will cooperate and participate in the test this time! Who can discover the BUG in this system! You have the right not to participate in the writing later! You can also add a mysterious big gift bag for the form teacher! The guarantee is worth it! It will definitely make every student here want it!”

“Big Gift Bag? It can't be homework, right...” someone couldn't help but laugh.

“I guarantee with my personality and all the students that it's not homework.” Teacher Pan smiled and said, “And the gift bag also contains a lot of gift certificates.”

“Gift certificates?”

“For example, it’s not called a parent’s certificate. As long as it’s not an unpardonable principle mistake, you can use this certificate to avoid calling parents to school.”

“For example, a discount certificate for No. 60 High School’s snack bar! With this certificate, you can enjoy a super value discount of 198 yuan from the 200 yuan discount at the school’s Snack Bar! Student Wang Ling, your favorite crispy noodle snack! You can use this certificate to fight for it.”

” ...”

To be honest, Wang Ling hadn’t intended to cooperate in finding a bug.

But this coupon was really too much..

Chapter 1618 1,615: Jiang Yingying’s Challenge (1/92)

Finding Bugs wasn’t Wang Ling’s specialty. Since Shouchong was confident that he could bring this system to No. 60 high school for testing, there shouldn’t be any special problems with this test system.

Although this system was currently only being tested internally for No. 60 high school.

But if it was to be used nationwide in the future,.

The system’s carrying capacity and endurance would both have to be taken into consideration.

To put it bluntly, it needed to be stable.

So as long as this system wasn’t stable,.

The Alliance of ten thousand schools wouldn’t consider this system developed by Shouchong.

In other words, Wang Ling actually didn’t need to look for Bugs at all.

He just needed to make this system appear unstable.

As a delicate teenager who had always been called “The mascot,”.

Until now, many people had thought that Wang Ling had been lucky in the first year of high school.

That was why there had been a bug in the test results.

Although he had been assigned to the elite class in the end,.

This represented the elite class winning glory for the school and going out to war for the better part of a year.

However, it was still difficult to dispel some people’s dissatisfaction with Wang Ling.

So Wang Ling’s test scores.

A lot of people at No. 60 don’t believe it.

Even if he does a little better, it doesn’t seem to matter.

And with the help of the Ashkenazi, the overall risk is very small.

That’s right.

The idea in Wang Ling’s head right now is not to find a BUG at all.

He decided to “Break” Shouchong’s test system, and that was it.

It was No. 60 High’s internal test, and he had everyone to cover for him.

Even if he performed beyond his level,.

He would eventually attribute the problem to the instability of the test system and good luck..

In essence, this was also related to some people's psychological weaknesses.

They would rather believe that it was good luck than that it was someone else's strength.

It was really very difficult for these people.

To admit that a person was outstanding.

Teacher Pan didn't like Shouchong because of his dark history of bluffing and cheating.

No one else knew about this.

But Wang Ling was well aware of it.

It wasn't that he had deliberately eavesdropped on old Pan's thoughts.

It was that old pan had been nagging endlessly in his heart when he had sent out the notice.

It seemed that there was indeed a deep hatred.

Of course, there were people who hated him, and naturally, there were also supporters.

As a current Internet celebrity, Shouchong had quite a number of fans in No. 60 high school.

There were fans among the students and teachers.

These people were collectively known as "Shouchui."

When they heard that shouchong had developed this test system, shouchui naturally wouldn't let go of this opportunity.

They started to spread the news of Shouchong's sand sculpture inventions on the school's forum groups and Tieba.

In comparison, Wang Ling appeared especially calm.

He wasn't interested in internet celebrities.

Moreover, he was also very bored with Shouchong's inventions.

After all, there was a man by his side who was much stronger than Shouchong.

In fact, even Shouchong himself hadn't expected it.

Wang Ming had already been monitoring him when he had just returned from Sun Island.

For example, Wang Ling had now seen Wang Ming send him a series of messages.

"No. 60 High School, did he really think that he was a test site for No. 60 High School, which he had drawn out of his connections?"

"Of course it was specially arranged by me."

"Moreover, he was the mastermind behind the animal transformation incident. That's absolutely right. I calculated according to the coordinates and finally located it in his underground laboratory."

"I also calculated that the reason why he did this was probably related to his next experiment."

"Of course, the reason why I know so much information is not only because of the investigation here."

"It's mainly because."

“There are people from the grey cult on his team.”

” ...”

Wang Ling was instantly stunned when he saw Wang Ming’s last message.

The scale of his grey cult..

Had already expanded to this extent.

It was indeed a little ridiculous.

If Shouchong had people from the grey cult on his side...

And he also knew so much information...

Then it was very likely that he was a level one assistant to Shouchong.

But Wang Ming’s words reassured Wang Ling.

Because things had progressed to this stage, it was already easy to rope Shouchong in.

All he had to do now was wait for Shouchong to fall into the hole he had dug.

..

In addition to Wang Ling, he also informed Lotus Sun of Wang Ming’s subsequent plans to deal with Shouchong.

The girl was meticulous and thorough, so Wang Ming was actually more at ease with Lotus Sun handling everything.

“Brother Ming, don’t worry. Ling Ling’s matter is my matter.”In the Student Union office, Lotus Sun Hung up the phone.

In order to prevent their calls from being monitored, Wang Ming had specially used a landline when he had contacted Lotus Sun, which could be connected remotely via Brainwave.

With Wang Ming’s current brainwave radiation, it wasn’t too difficult to cover a city.

If coupled with a helmet that increased the range of the radiation, Wang Ming’s brainwave could be spread to every corner of the world.

But the disadvantages were also very obvious.

Wang Ming couldn’t sustain it for too long at the moment.

It wouldn’t take more than five minutes for him to find a way to cool his brain with this global radiation.

Otherwise, Zhai Yin would definitely use it to fry a steak.

“Then it’s been hard on you, Little Rong.”Wang Ming grinned and immediately cut off his brainwaves.

The moment Lotus Sun put down the phone, a beautiful figure broke through the door of the Student Union office.

“Student Jiang... the president is on the phone. You Can’t go in.”The student union’s assistant manager tried to stop her, but in the end, he couldn’t Stop Jiang Yingying.

“It’s okay, just let her in. Close the door.”Lotus Sun sat upright on the chair of the Student Union’s president with a smile on her face. Her graceful posture was a sharp contrast to Jiang Yingying’s.

After the student union's door was completely closed, she crossed her fingers, she looked at Jiang Yingying with her chin in her hand. "Student Jiang, it's better not to be too angry. You just changed back from a carp. If your emotions are unstable and you change back, it'll be difficult to handle."

Jiang Yingying was obviously frightened by Lotus Sun

She didn't know that this matter had anything to do with emotions.

After taking a few deep breaths, she suddenly gritted her teeth and looked at Lotus Sun. "Don't scare me..."

"I'm not scaring you." Lotus sun spread out her hands, showing an expression of whether she wanted to believe it or not.

One should never visit the temple of the three treasures for no reason.

In fact, Lotus Sun could roughly guess why Jiang Yingying had come to find her.

In the end, she felt that she had somewhat underestimated Jiang Yingying.

She hadn't expected her to be so persistent with Wang Ling.

"Lotus Sun, I think it's a good opportunity for the school to introduce the test system this time!" At that moment, Jiang Yingying propped her hands on the table and looked at Lotus Sun as she said this.

"What opportunity?"

"Don't play dumb... you clearly know!"

Jiang Yingying said, "Let's have a match! If I'm better than you in the test, then give me Wang Ling's seat next to him!"

Lotus SUN's expression was as still as an ancient well, but she found Jiang Yingying rather cute. "What If you lose? I have to get something, right?"

"If I lose... I'll... I'll..."

Jiang Yingying thought for a moment. She felt that she didn't have anything to bet on for Lotus Sun.

Money..

The girl definitely didn't care.

Magic treasures..

Lotus Sun didn't lack them either.

She raised her arms and gave a shout. She could buy whatever she wanted.

So, Jiang Yingying gritted her teeth. "If I lose, I'll go back to my old high school! I'll disappear in front of your eyes!"

Chapter 1619 1,616, The Mysterious Transformers (1/92)

Lotus Sun actually thought that this gamble was meaningless. From all aspects, Jiang Yingying wouldn't have any chance of winning.

Although Jiang Yingying's way of doing things looked very reckless, she had been influenced by Marshal Jiang since she was a child, so she wouldn't fight a battle with no chance of winning.

Therefore, when Lotus Sun saw Jiang Yingying rush into her office in a majestic manner and announce that she was going to make a bet with her.

Her first reaction was that she was afraid that someone was backing her up again.

Lotus sun first ruled out Jiang Xiaoche.

Jiang Xiaoche had been very honest recently.

And Lotus Sun knew that her grandfather had actually just warned him that he wouldn't directly support Jiang Yingying in such a matter that was against her.

If Jiang Xiaoche was excluded, the second most suspicious person would have been Liangzi Jiugongzi.

But Liangzi Jiugongzi was already on the same side, so Lotus Sun also excluded him.

So who was the person most likely to help Jiang Yingying?

Lotus Sun felt that she should investigate Jiang Yingying's whereabouts before the test officially began.

Originally, she would have asked Jiang Xiaoche or one of the core members of the war sect to cooperate with the internal intelligence network to deal with this matter.

But now, the gray cult was flourishing.

Those fanatical members of the gray cult were simply "Control guards" of human flesh.

There was simply too much information that could be provided to Lotus Sun.

All she needed to do was to use the "Cult master's order" to send a message to the core members' group.

It would immediately attract the corresponding response from the management of the branch of the Gray cult, and then the entire gray cult would be mobilized to gather the information power of the people to get the information they wanted at the first possible moment.

Of course, considering that Jiang Yingying herself was also a member of the Gray cult, and she was one of the earliest members of the gray cult.

When Lotus Sun issued the Order of the hierarchy, she had even made a special note to tell the members of the branch to avoid the gray cult group where Jiang Yingying was.

“Order of the leader! The leader has issued an order! We need the whereabouts of Miss Jiang Yingying in the recent days!”

“Order of the leader! Target: all the whereabouts of Miss Jiang Yingying within a week! Those who provide clues will be rewarded with 2,000 yuan! The amount is unlimited!”

..

In the Student Union office, Lotus Sun looked at the balance in her phone wallet that was constantly being deducted, her heart as still as an ancient well.

Based on the figure in her wallet, even if it was deducted every thirty seconds, it wouldn't be deducted until next year.

For Wang Ling.

She didn't care about money and possessions in the first place.

About an hour later, Lotus Sun found what she wanted from the pile of video files in her hands.

This was a surveillance file provided by a disciple of the grey religion who worked in a tea restaurant.

In the surveillance, Jiang Yingying was having dinner with a handsome young man with long flowing hair and dressed in a dark purple Taoist robe.

The young man's skin was whiter than snow, and he had a star-like temperament. He was well-behaved, and he was chatting and laughing with Jiang Yingying in front of the tea restaurant.

Lotus Sun had never seen this person before, but she vaguely felt that judging from his temperament, he seemed to have a sense of déjà vu.

Logically speaking, such a person should have been the center of attention if he had appeared in the downtown area, but in the end, many people around him turned a blind eye to him.

Had he used a spell similar to the “Big screen spell” to reduce his presence?

Lotus sun was puzzled by this.

If this person had taken the low-key route...

Then why had he allowed the surveillance cameras to capture him?

Were they not afraid that their identities would be discovered?

The investigation had come to this point.

The person had already been captured, and there was also a complete HD image.

But Lotus Sun was still unable to find out who it was.

Then, she used her family’s intelligent AI system to compare it with Huaguo water curtain group’s huge customer database.

The result was still nothing.

There was nothing she could do.

Sitting in her seat, Lotus Sun Sighed. She hadn’t wanted to ask the seniors in the war sect to cause trouble for everyone.

But now, just taking a photo of this person didn’t seem to be of much use.

She had to find out who he was.

“Seniors, I’m sorry! I’ve been doing my best to investigate. Although I’ve got a video of the person I want to investigate, I don’t know this person. I wonder if seniors can come and recognize him?” As she spoke, Lotus Sun sent screenshots of the surveillance footage to the core members of the warlord clan.

Immortal Toya: “Eh? He looks a little similar to master Grenade-throwing. Could it be true Monarch himself? or true Monarch actually has a younger brother...”

“I don’t have a brother... Don’t spread rumors!”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal wiped his sweat. “Strange, I’ve never seen this person before either. He looks very unfamiliar. And how does he look like me? ! Logically speaking, all the brothers and sisters present here should know that I have a wide circle of friends, and almost all of them have a photographic memory. I can clearly remember each person’s face and name just by looking at them once. If I had seen this person before, I definitely wouldn’t have forgotten him.”

Lightning Dharmaraja said, “By the way, judging from this person’s looks, he should be Cailian Zhenren’s type, right?”

Cailian Zhenren: “From his facial features, he does indeed have the potential to be a handsome guy, but unfortunately, I don’t like guys who are too fat.”

“Fat? This person isn’t fat?” Lotus Sun asked in puzzlement.

The person she had seen on the surveillance camera was a very standard handsome guy.

Of course... in comparison, she still liked Wang Ling more.

“Isn’t he fat? He looks like the sect master of Half Moon sect, Mu Gu.” Cailian Zhenren was also particularly surprised by this. She rubbed her eyes to make sure that she wasn’t mistaken. The person in this screenshot was indeed fat.

“Definitely not fat. She’s obviously a short-haired beauty with big breasts!”

“Nonsense... isn’t she a fair-skinned gigolo? I just don’t know why she has a pair of beast ears. Isn’t the animal transformation incident over? Could it be the human body of a Spirit Beast?”

“What are you guys talking about? Why are all the half-orcs here? The guy in the screenshot is obviously a long-legged guy, and his hair looks like a dead horse.”

”...”Lotus Sun was horrified.

It was just a screenshot of a video, but everyone saw that the person who was chatting and laughing with Jiang Yingying was actually different!

“If everyone saw a different person, then this person must have cast a spell.”

Then, Immortal Toya sighed, he directly sent a voice analysis in the group. “Moreover, this person’s realm isn’t low. He can actually deceive so many of our core members. If everyone sees a different person, then his strength probably far surpasses true immortal level combat strength.”

“It looks like things have become interesting.”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal said, “Miss Sun, let’s not investigate this for now. Just hand it over to us. Once we have the results, I’ll let you know right away. I’ll definitely find out about this mysterious transformer.”

“Senior grenade-throwing, is this person very powerful?”Lotus Sun asked.

“He’s most likely a big shot, so we don’t want Miss Sun to get hurt,”grenade-throwing senior immortal said.

“Mm.”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal nodded. “Although we don’t know what this person’s goal is, he’s usually a 100% almighty. Look at Brother Ling...”

Hearing this, everyone nodded in agreement.

This was the only thing that everyone agreed on, but no one had any reason to refute it.

Because it made so much sense.

Chapter 1620 1617, The Daily Life Of An Eternal Boss (1/92)

The investigation of the Transformers caused quite a stir among the core members of the war sect.

In the world of cultivators, there were many such thousand-face transfiguration spells. Most of the time, they were used to explore secret realms and solo cultivators in groups.

The unfamiliar cultivators did not know each other, so it was common for them to use their identities for safety reasons.

There was once someone who used a thousand faces to explore secret realms with different people. After the story was spread, the term “Thousand-faced man” became very popular in the world of cultivators.

But thousand-faced man had a thousand faces. No matter what he looked like, everyone would see the same face at the same time.

Unless there was a powerful spell that was more powerful than the thousand-faced man, it was impossible for everyone to see different things.

For the core members of the battle sect, this was a little over the top.

Fortunately, they had recently welcomed two new eternal level advisors.

One was star traveller Li Xian, who would summon meteorites at any time.

The other was Zhang Zichu, who was known as the father of Guevara.

These two were the first eternal level experts that Wang Ling had released from the Supreme Corpse Painting, and they had accomplished the task that Wang Ling had assigned them the moment they came out.

Now, they had officially settled down in Songhai City and were starting to learn and adapt to the life of modern cultivators bit by bit.

Odd Zhuo had arranged the place to stay.

It was still Wei Zhi's cadre apartment.

After Liu Qingyi and Wang Zhen had moved out earlier, the originally lively atmosphere had instantly become much quieter, and Wei Zhi would occasionally feel lonely.

He wasn't used to living under the same roof as strangers.

But now, he was gradually getting used to it.

The main reason was that he had too many pets to raise.

He was short of money.

And battle sect had given him too much..

It was just a few more people living together in the living area. Not only could they cover all of his breeding expenses, they were also very rich.

This was a very good deal for Wei Zhi.

The only flaw was that Wei Zhi found that the two new uncles seemed to have just moved into the city, and they often did strange things.

"Senior, this thing is called a refrigerator... there's no need to snow at home. Look at my coo COO chicken, it's so cold that it even has a blue comb," Wei Zhi said with shame.

"Okay, I'm sorry, Mr. Landlord." Li Xian scratched his head and sincerely apologized

Now, in the use of electrical appliances in cultivation life, he and Zhang Zicao were destined to have a long time to learn.

Wei Zhi actually didn't really care about the good attitude of admitting his mistake.

It was just that he didn't think about asking about their background until Li Xian and Zhang Zicao moved in.

It was because Battle Grandmaster had given him too much money.

And the money made Wei Zhi temporarily lose his mind, and he agreed without thinking.

"That, brother Odd Zhuo... What's the background of these two uncles?" Wei Zhi asked over the phone at lunchtime.

He had just saved the world once again.

Because he had a heavenly durian at home, Li Xian and Zhang Zixi were very curious.

When Wei Zhi found out that the two of them were using meteorites to smash open the durian, he hurriedly went up to explain what exactly a durian was.

Just like that.

The poor spirit of earth had once again dodged a disaster..

"Oh, so it's brother Wei Zhi. are the two uncles you're talking about senior Li Xian and senior Zhang Zicao?" Odd Zhuo said with a smile.

"Yeah. I feel that they're very strange..."

A few days ago, he had heard the two of them discussing dao in the room.

They had actually said something he didn't understand.

“Dao can be said, but it’s very true. Brother Zitao is a little too persistent, too persistent. Letting go of your persistence... is the right way.”

“Existence comes before essence. Let Me Ask You, what is the essence of Dao?”

“Then how do you define existence?”

..

Wei Zhi was a little dazed after hearing these few words.

Even now, he still felt a little dizzy.

On the other end of the phone, Odd Zhuo couldn’t help laughing when he heard Wei Zhi’s ridicule.

“It’s my fault. I forgot to tell you. Senior Li Xian and senior Zhang Zicao had gone into seclusion for a long time, so they weren’t very familiar with modern cultivation life. “I arranged for them to stay with you because I wanted you to find time to give them more guidance.”

Odd Zhuo said, “Why? Did I give you any trouble?”

“It’s not too much trouble.”

“During the period when the two seniors stay, the war sect will double the compensation for any losses they cause to you. Don’t worry.”

“The rent has already been paid a lot...”Wei Zhi facepalmed and gave a bitter smile.

He wasn’t actually that calculative.

He just wanted to get to know Li Xian and Zhang Zicao better.

After all, they would still have to live together for a long time.

If he could understand their tempers, he could avoid many unnecessary conflicts.

On the other end of the phone, Odd Zhuo thought for a moment and said, “It’s been hard on you these two days, brother Wei Zhi. I’ll get loopy toad to visit you in a few days. You haven’t seen it in a while, right?”

These words directly reassured Wei Zhi.

“Ah! Dog Two!” Wei Zhi cried out loudly.

It had indeed been a long time since he had seen loopy toad. When he had gone to look for it, he had heard that it had been in closed-door cultivation.

Of course, loopy toad hadn’t come to look for Wei Zhi these past few days, and it wasn’t because it had been in closed-door cultivation.

It had long been promoted to a divine beast.

It was just that mother Wang had recently given birth to Wang Nuan and needed to be taken care of.

As a mature dog, loopy toad had also started to learn how to wash clothes, cook, and help Nuan change diapers..

“Then it’s a deal, brother Odd Zhuo!”

Now that he heard that loopy toad was coming, Wei Zhi was instantly delighted.

He felt even happier than when he had received the rent.

After ending the call, he was planning to go out to the spirit beast market to buy some cattle bone sticks and big meat flies to come back and make loopy toad special dog food.

This was a food that Wei Zhi had specially invented for loopy toad.

He used the “Bone Shredder hand” to shatter the bone marrow inside the bone, then inserted a vacuum straw on one side of the cow bone to suck out the bone marrow and mix it with the big meat fly, then put it into the juicer to break it up, after mixing it one by one, he sprinkled it with a nutritional powder bag.

Finally, he poured it back into the intact cow bone stick and baked it.

Only when loopy toad came to visit could it enjoy such royal treatment.

As one of loopy Toad’s few friends in the human world, Wei Zhi was indeed very kind.

While he was changing his shoes at the door, Wei Zhi suddenly saw Zhang Zi steal over. “Mr. Landlord, if it’s possible, can you take this old man with you?”

“Where’s senior Li Xian?”

“He was planning to go out with me, but he just received a call from sect leader grenade-throwing. He’s busy right now.”

“That’s fine. Senior, just follow me. If you encounter anything you don’t understand, don’t be in a hurry to act...” Wei Zhi said.

“I understand.” Zhang Zi snickered and confidently agreed.

..

The two of them took the bus from the cadre’s apartment to the spirit beast market.

On the bus, everything was very harmonious.

Wei Zhi also let out a slight sigh of relief.

But when they got off the bus, Wei Zhi suddenly realized that something was wrong.

That was because he found that there was an extra sack in Zhang Zicao's hand, which was actually filled with coins..

“Senior, you...”

“Sorry, I couldn't hold it in for a while.”

Zhang Zicao rubbed the back of his head awkwardly. “By the way, how do I return this sack?”
