

Daily Life 1631

Chapter 1631 1,627, Thunder Is Coming! (1/92)

The sirens of the ambulance sounded one after another. When Jiang Xiaoche woke up, he was already on the way to the hospital.

His injuries were quite serious.

When the Slime Man's flying leg hit him, he could clearly hear the sound of his ribs breaking.

This damn thing... he had never been hit by his mother since he was young!

Damn it! May you have no children!

When Jiang Xiaoche gradually regained consciousness, this was the first thing that came to his mind.

Then he suddenly opened his eyes as if he had been awakened. "Miss Lotus Sun... Miss Lotus Sun was taken away by them!"

"Mr. Jiang, please don't be agitated. The police are already handling it," said a female nurse.

"This section of the road is so remote, how did you find me?" Jiang Xiaoche asked suspiciously.

"Someone called the police."

"Who?"

"I'm not sure, but it sounded like a teenager's voice."

"Teenager?" Jiang Xiaoche was lost in thought.

..

On the other side, in the study of the Wang family's small villa, Wang Ling was finishing his homework for the day.

He had actually sensed Lotus Sun when she had been kidnapped.

With her current strength and Sun Ying 'er by her side, he didn't need to worry about the girl's safety.

But in the end, he still called the police.

Lotus Sun had already gone into hiding.

His call to the police could be said to have affected the whole body.

Once the authorities got involved, they would surround Liu Renfeng's underground research team.

This was the first reason Wang Ling had called the police.

The second reason was that he was going to help the mahjong trio at Songhai first prison find new inmates.

It had been a long time since one of the four had been needed.

Wang Ling felt that it was time to arrange for the new inmates to take their bags and move in.

As for Jiang Xiaoche...

Wang Ling had merely saved him in passing.

He didn't like this person.

But after all, Jiang Xiaoche was now working for Lotus Sun, and the driver's life was also his life.

Now, Wang Ling actually didn't need to care about anything else at all.

He didn't think Lotus Sun would have any problems.

It was just a mere Liu Renfeng; it wasn't enough for him to make a move.

So he calmed his mind down and decided to seriously complete this set of exercises. It was almost time for the monthly exam, and it was time for the monthly points and pressure points segment.

However, Wang Ling realized that he had only written a few words when his thoughts started to wander.

It wasn't that he was irritated, depressed, or uneasy; he just felt that this feeling was a little inexplicable.

Because of the talisman, he had become an emotionless block in everyone's eyes.

Even now, Wang Ling still didn't have any emotions.

It was just that his mind would inexplicably go blank.

It was as if something was suppressing him.

The pen in his hand stopped, and Wang Ling felt that for some reason, he was a little down in the dumps for his homework today.

On the bed, Wang Ying rested one hand on his head and quietly opened his left eye a little, sizing Wang Ling up. "I'm really worried, so I'll go take a look myself."

Hearing this, Wang Ling muttered in his heart and couldn't help thinking, why don't you go yourself.

Wang Ling didn't say this out loud, mainly because Wang Ying's brain was connected to his. He could hear it anyway.

The man on the bed leisurely crossed his legs, he had a carefree expression on his face. "Have you ever seen a wife castrate her husband? She actually wants to castrate me... who gave her the guts? I'm thinking of how to torture her at night. I Can't be bothered to go before I figure it out."

Wang Ling:"..."

As expected, Wang Yingquan knew.

This wasn't strange.

Although Sun Ying 'ER's Shadow Dao ability could still be used normally for the time being.

But in the end, Wang Ying was the one who had the advantage.

Especially since loopy toad had started to change Wang Nuan's diapers at home recently, Wang Ying had also started to coax the warm girl.

This time, they had become familiar with each other, so the warm girl naturally had a good impression of Wang Ying.

In that case, Wang Ying's access to Shadow Dao was naturally one level higher than Sun Ying 'ER's.

This was probably what the so-called "One level higher than a person" meant..

In fact, Wang Ling didn't see at all that Wang Ying was the type of person who would be patient and take care of children.

He called this early adaptation.

He said that if he and Sun Ying 'ER had a child in the future, he wouldn't have to put in so much effort to study and would be able to directly get the hang of it.

When he said this, Wang Ling was dumbfounded on the spot.

It had to be said that this guy Wang Ying was indeed well-prepared..

Before the lady had even agreed, even his wife had started to cry out.

At this moment, Wang Ling sighed in his heart.

He was clearly such a low-key person, so how could the shadow he had created be so Shameless?

..

Wang Ling had helped call the police when Lotus Sun had been arrested.

Soon, this incident had alarmed Huaxiu Alliance.

This was clearly not an ordinary kidnapping case, and the local cultivation police station would probably have a hard time dealing with it, so when grandfather Sun heard about this, he immediately called Zhan Zong.

In fact, Zhan Zong had already taken action before Old Master Sun had called.

However, this process was actually against the rules, so Huaxiu Alliance still had to report what they had to report.

“Senior Immortal! I only have one biological granddaughter... she absolutely can't be harmed.”It was the first time grenade-throwing senior immortal had heard Sun Yiyuan's sobbing on the phone.

He sighed in his heart.

It was a pity that the old man didn't know anything about his precious granddaughter's strength at the moment.

Otherwise, he wouldn't be in such a hurry.

Once Lotus Sun's strength was exposed, it would directly affect Wang Ling.

Thus, this was a top secret among the core members of the war sect, and even the old man wasn't able to tell him directly at the moment.

Because even if he did, he might not believe it.

Who would have thought that a girl at the foundation establishment stage could reach the level of a dao god in just a few days..

In order to appease grandfather Sun, grenade-throwing senior immortal could only say over the phone, "Brother Sun, don't worry. Miss Lotus Sun's matter is my matter. Our war sect will definitely gather the entire sect's strength to rescue Miss Lotus Sun. At the same time, to prevent accidents, we have a medical team on our side. I promise brother Sun that we will definitely bring Miss Lotus Sun back safely with not a single hair missing."

"Thank you for your trouble..."Old Man Sun's voice trembled as he pressed the phone button.

"It's really urgent,"grenade-throwing senior immortal said.

"Sect master, what do we do now?"Odd Zhuo asked at this moment.

"Even if Miss Lotus Sun has battle strength, if we don't move, we might still arouse suspicion. So we can only make a move,"grenade-throwing senior immortal said. "And the bigger the sound, the better."

"Gather the entire sect's strength?"

"No."

Grenade-throwing senior immortal shook his head.

The current battle sect was no longer the same as before, and the entire world was filled with allies in the cultivation world.

This was grenade-throwing senior immortal's initial plan for the Grand Alliance of cultivators.

When the world's War sect's network of allies and various resources were linked together.

No matter how deeply Liu Renfeng's team hid themselves, they would be exposed in broad daylight in an instant..

"It's not gathering the power of the entire sect."

At that moment, grenade-throwing senior immortal said seriously, "It's gathering the power of the whole world."

"The power of the world..."Odd Zhuo's eyes were filled with shock.

"Yes, the power of the world,"grenade-throwing senior immortal said. "I think that's why brother Ling called the police. To make the situation bigger after the authorities intervened. What we want is for this wave of momentum to completely scare off those lawless elements who are plotting against Miss Sun behind her back, and thus serve as a warning to the others."

"So that's what master means!"Odd Zhuo came to a sudden realization and hurriedly cupped his fists. "As expected of senior immortal, Odd Zhuo has learned his lesson!"

"Sure, sure."

In front of Zhenzun Hall, grenade-throwing senior immortal confidently flicked his sleeve. "Come! Send out the sect master's Order!"

..

In the distance, Wang Ling was stunned by grenade-throwing Senior Immortal's big move.

All he had done was call the police..

Chapter 1632 1,628: Support From All Sides (1/92)

"Sect leader's order! All sect! Disciples above the aurous core stage quickly gather at the Northern Square!"

"Sect leader! All sect! Disciples below the aurous core stage immediately prepare for battle deployment! Please command the elders to take their positions!"

Clang! Clang! Clang! ..

When the sound of the battle sect gathering rang out from within the sect, tens of thousands of disciples from the battle sect quickly returned to their respective positions according to the command center's original instructions.

However, this time, it wasn't a drill.

It was a serious battle!

Today, the battle sect, which was publicly acknowledged as the number one sect in the world, was actually going to take the initiative to attack and start a war!

This matter caused the disciples of the entire sect to be in a momentary daze.

When the disciples of the battle sect came back to their senses, what replaced it was a strong sense of excitement.

Although the war sect had not been established for a long time, all the disciples who joined the war sect knew that their sect had a strong foundation.

This was definitely a battle for wealth!

A battle for wealth that they might not be able to wait for even in eight lifetimes!

It must be known that in peacetime, the cultivation sects that were under the jurisdiction of the government must be approved to prepare for such a large-scale war!

The relationship between the war sect and Huaxiu Alliance was inseparable.

It was impossible for this large-scale operation to not be reported.

If other sects were to start a war, perhaps there would be voices of doubt in society.

But the war sect was different.

This was a sect that had joined Huaxiu Alliance, and it represented Huaxiu Alliance's intention.

Then the question came, which faction was the person challenging the war sect?

In less than a quarter of an hour since the sect master had given the order, all the disciples of the sect had been summoned to work according to the original plan.

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch and Ke'ao en were in charge of the command center.

Since all the disciples above the golden core stage had been transferred out, it was naturally impossible for the sect to be leaderless. Grenade-throwing senior immortal was naturally very at ease with these two people making the scene.

Wang Ming had personally designed the Battle Sect's underground command center, which was full of high-tech visual effects.

A golden magic ball floated in the center of the command center. This magic ball was positioned at every inch of the Earth's coordinates and connected to the battle sect's exclusive satellite, so the error was extremely small.

Most importantly, through this command magic ball, they could see everything they wanted to see from a thousand miles away.

“Sect master, do you have any requests?” Keorn asked.

He hadn’t been in the war sect for long, but grenade-throwing senior immortal liked him very much.

He was a practical and capable person, and most importantly, Keorn had a doctorate in war science and cultivation weapons science; this kind of knowledge wasn’t something an ordinary person could have.

Moreover, he never asked about anything else and only cared about completing the tasks grenade-throwing senior immortal and Odd Zhuo had given him.

This was something that made Keorn highly praised.

“It would be best if we could capture them all alive,” crispy noodles said.

“Capture them all alive?” Keorn frowned slightly.

“I know it’s difficult,” crispy noodles dao monarch said.

“Keep the enemy casualty rate below 1% . Of course, we’ll have to destroy all of their bases.”

“Understood.” Keorn nodded solemnly.

At the moment, he could only do his best.

He knew that the higher-ups wanted to capture him alive mainly because they wanted to know what exactly Liu Renfeng was up to.

But to be honest, even if the casualty rate was below 1% , it seemed very difficult.

Because according to the information Keorn had learned so far,.

The people in charge of the battle were not just their war ancestors..

Such a large-scale operation could be said to affect the whole body.

He didn't know Liu Renfeng, and it could be said that he had never heard of her.

This young lady Phoenix seemed to have some reputation in the Cultivation Academy of Science, but in Keron's eyes, Liu Renfeng was an unlucky bastard.

..

In less than ten minutes after the war sect's sect master order was issued, it was further amplified by the spread of information on the modern internet.

There were many sects that received the order to assist in battle, and among them was the "Tianming Alliance" that had previously tried to unite, but in reality, it was like hitting a rock with an egg (previously, see Chapter 819) .

Before the war sect was established, the 17 heaven-ranked sects in the alliance protected each other, blocking the path of advancement for the later sects.

On the day of the war sect's opening, the president of the Alliance, Lu youming, had originally tried to make things difficult under great pressure, but in the end, all of them failed.

Especially after he found out that the faction behind the war sect was Huaxiu Alliance, Lu youming almost had the urge to stab himself to death.

Because the existence of the war sect had broken the long-standing balance of order between Huaxiu nation's sects, the alliance's current existence had long since ceased to exist in name only. On the surface, they were still one family, in fact, there were more or less problems with the operation of each sect.

A few days ago, many sect leaders couldn't stand the pressure and wanted Lu youming to represent them to discuss the cooperation.

But after all, he had done such a shameful thing, and Lu youming himself was also in a dilemma.

But what Lu youming didn't expect was that.

Today, the alliance actually received a "Reinforcement invitation" from the battle sect.

This made Lu youming feel flattered, and he immediately gathered all the sky rank sect leaders of the alliance.

"Everyone... What do you think about this?" Lu youming asked.

"With the power and foundation of the Battle Sect, why do we need to help them? This is obviously to create momentum. I'm afraid it's for others to see," the sect master of the Flying Leap sect analyzed.

"Since the rise of the battle sect, everyone's sects have more or less been affected. To be honest, if it were in the past, I definitely wouldn't have gone. But for the sake of my livelihood, I think I can give it a try..."

The sect master of the Luo King Sect, sun hanzhe, said, "I heard from others in the circle that the sect master of grenade-throwing sect has always been a righteous person. Now that he has reached the peak of the true venerate, he doesn't seem to be a petty person. "I will definitely accept this olive branch. Even if you all object, I will go."

"Brother Sun, why are you in such a hurry to express your stance? We didn't say that we wouldn't go."

"Then what do you all mean?"

"Go! Go Now!"

At this point, all the sect leaders opened their mouths one after another and said excitedly.

When Lu youming saw this, he already knew in his heart, “Then it seems that all the sect leaders present here have no objections. Now, start counting the number of disciples above the aurous core stage in all 17 heaven rank sects of Our Alliance.”

“Currently, we have gathered 17 heaven rank sects, and the number of disciples above the aurous core stage is 36,000.”

“According to the Battle Sect’s invitation for reinforcements, all sect leaders are invited to lead their disciples above the aurous core stage to the Northern Suburbs at 10 o’clock Tonight!”

After Lu youming finished speaking, the remaining 16 sect leaders stood up and cupped their hands in front of their foreheads as they said in unison.

“We... will obey the Order!”

“Send reinforcements to the battle sect!”

..

The scale of this group battle was so huge that it left people dumbstruck.

Lu youming originally thought that the battle sect + 17 sky rank sects was already the limit..

However, after Lu youming accepted the mission of sending reinforcements, he joined the group chat of the temporary command group of the battle sect 1225.

Only at this moment did he realize that things were not as simple as he had imagined.

Because, in this temporary command group..

More than half of his friends in the cultivation world had already joined!

These people were all sect leaders from all over the world, both at home and abroad!

At this time, the number of people in the group was still soaring!

By the time Lu youming joined the 1225 command group five minutes later, this group had already gathered 270 sect leaders of Earth rank and above.

Chapter 1633 1,629, The Encirclement And Suppression Of Young Phoenix (1/92)

Meanwhile, on Sun Island.

The nine temples family.

Since the successful completion of the exchange program between No. 60 high school and the nine paths and high school on Sun Island,.

The current nine temples family had annexed the largest underworld group on Sun Island, the “Star-picking group,” and had the Huaguo water curtain group behind them to carry out in-depth strategic cooperation. It could be said that the situation was truly at its peak.

In the main hall of the nine temples family, the news that Lotus Sun had been taken away by young Phoenix also reached here at the same time.

The head of the nine temples family, Akagi, flew into a rage. “What? Miss Lotus Sun has been taken away? This is outrageous! What is the background of that Madam Young Phoenix? She must have eaten a bear’s heart and a leopard’s gall.”

“Father, please calm down.”

Nine temples xiushi said, “According to the information that our nine temples family has gathered from the ash cult branch on Sun Island, this Madam Young Phoenix is an underground scientist who has been targeted by the International Union of cultivators for a long time. “She is very famous in the underground scientific world for her inhumane and immoral scientific experiments.”

Hearing this, Jiugong Chimu slightly frowned. He always felt that he had heard of this matter somewhere before.

“Father, Huaxiu Union has already sent people from the war sect. This matter... I think that even if we don’t make a move...”

“But we can’t not do anything.”

Jiugong Xiushi said, “Our Jiugong family has a close cooperation with the Sun family. Although our Jiugong family didn’t receive the war sect’s invitation this time, how do you know that this isn’t a test?”

Jiugong Xiushi suddenly understood. “Father, you mean that the war sect deliberately didn’t send us an invitation?”

“It’s very possible.” Jiugong chimu nodded and said, “Based on the relationship between the war sect and the Sun family, they should know that our nine temples family has already established a cooperation with the Huaguo Water Curtain Group. “So this time, it seems to be testing our attitude.”

When he said this, Jiugong Chimu couldn’t help but laugh.

Actually, even if he didn’t test them, he would still make a move..

It must be known that he, the patriarch of the nine temples family, had already joined the gray cult.

Now that the patriarch was in trouble.

He was a disciple.

How could he not save him?

However, if he sent people over from Sun Island now, it would probably be too late.

If he arrived too late, it would be too late to show his loyalty.

“Immortal Kazuming.” Akagi Jiugong called out the name of the head butler of the nine temples family.

When Immortal Kazuming heard this, he immediately stepped forward. “Your subordinate is here.”

“Pass the message. Use all the connections that our Jiugong family currently has in Huaxiu Nation,” Akagi Jiugong said.

In order to expand the Jiugong family’s business in Huaxiu nation, the Jiugong family had already been set up in Huaxiu nation for many years.

As the head butler, Immortal Kazuming naturally knew this.

However, he was worried that this small scale might not be enough.

“I know what you’re thinking. Are you worried that the connections we can find are limited?”

Jiugong Chimu sat cross-legged on the tatami mat, he said, “When that senior Li Xian came to visit us earlier, he said that he was also entrusted by that Mr. Golden Lamp to update the main book of our Jiugong family’s “Ghost Book”, re-strengthen the seal, and bestow a talisman on the outside. “As long as you hold this talisman, you can freely control all the evil ghosts recorded in the “Ghost Book”.”

“There’s such a Thing?”

Ying Xianhe Ming and Jiugong Xiushi looked at each other in dismay. They were completely unaware of this matter.

At this time, Jiugong Chimu suddenly laughed. “Who said that only cultivators can help? Now we can freely control the ghosts recorded in the “Ghost Book”.”

“Master, you mean...” Kazuko Yingxian was stunned.

“Let Liangzi go over and set an example for our Jiugong family,” Akagi Jiugong said.

When No. 60 High School and the others left the island.

He had entrusted Li Xian to pass this ghost talisman to Liangzi Jiugong.

Indeed.

Because of the transnational relationship, the Jiugong family had limited connections in Huaxiu.

Especially in such a large-scale battle, it might be just a drop in the ocean.

But if they could mobilize the dead, it would be completely different..

Madam Phoenix would never have thought that.

The people who came to encircle him this time.

Not only were there living cultivators gathered by various forces.

There were also 100,000 ghost soldiers sent by the nine temples family.

They sent out 100,000 ghost soldiers..

..

To be honest, when Keorn joined the 1225 temporary command group, he was also shocked by the large number of people in the group.

He hadn't expected that so many heaven and earth level sect leaders would come to his aid in such a short time, and he was actually going to command these people to fight.

"It looks like quite a lot of people have gathered. Senior Immortal's reputation in the circle is indeed very high." Crispy Noodles Dao monarch looked at this scene with an indifferent expression and smiled. "How is it, Mr. Keoen? Can you handle it?"

At that moment, Keoen stood in front of the command post, his whole body trembling. It wasn't because he was afraid, but because he felt excited... it had been a long time since he had felt his blood boil.

War was an art!

As the commander of this battle, grenade-throwing senior immortal had full trust in him, and he naturally had to do his best.

After a long while.

After taking a deep breath, Keorn finally let out a vigorous voice, which was accurately transmitted to everyone's minds through the battle sect's core voice output system.

Everyone participating in this "Phoenix Chick encirclement and suppression battle" could hear Keorn's voice.

"Everyone! I Am Keoen, the commander-in-chief of this Phoenix Chick encirclement battle. It is my honor to be able to fight alongside you this time!"

"The target of this encirclement battle is that long-wanted underground scientist, Madam Phoenix Chick."

"Huaxiu Alliance has long been eyeing her, but this time, because Lotus Sun was captured, they had no choice but to pull in the net ahead of time."

"Your mission in this encirclement is to rescue Miss Lotus Sun!" "Capture all the people in Young Phoenix's laboratory alive, including Madam Feng!" "In addition, we need to do our best to help collect evidence of Madam Feng's crimes!"

"This time, there will be no feints in this encirclement! All the sect masters participating in this operation will be the main attackers!"

"Please, sect masters, when you arrive at the agreed location, Act according to Our Command!"

“I wish everyone a prosperous immortal fortune!”

..

At the same time, loopy toad temporarily returned to the top of the demon world’s holy pillar through Lord Ma’s power.

Saint Messenger Shen Wuyue seemed to have guessed that loopy toad would come, and after waiting here for a long time, the corners of his lips curled up. “Now That You’re a Divine Beast, why do you need our help?”

“Ahem, even if you’re a divine beast, we still have to keep a low profile. Moreover, even if this king is promoted to a divine beast, I’m still concerned about the construction of my hometown,”loopy Toad said. “What, you don’t want to help?”

“No, second generation demon saint and I are naturally willing to help.”Shen Wuyue shook his head, he said, “Right now, the demon world and the human world have turned hostility into amity. In the future, we’ll seek development cooperation together. This is indeed a heaven-sent opportunity to show our attitude. Of course, the key is still for Ling Zhenren’s sake.”

“Interesting.”

Loopy toad said, “Then, how many people can the demon world send?”

“As many as you want.”

At this moment, Shen Wuyue held the magic ball in his hand and tossed it into the air.

Just like that, a gorgeous map of the demon world appeared in front of loopy toad.

He looked at loopy toad and said, “The demon world, ninety-six outer domains, eight great middle domains, and four great inner domains. All the demons in the one hundred and eight domains are ready and awaiting your orders.”

“So Big?”Loopy toad was surprised.

“Don’t you like Big Ones?” Shen Wuyue smiled. “Oh, that’s right, I’ll tell you one more thing.”

Loopy toad:”?”

Shen Wuyue: “I’ve already joined the Grey Cult.”

Loopy toad:”? ? ?”

Chapter 1634 1,630, Crazy Phoenix Chick (1/92)

Lotus Sun was currently focusing on gathering evidence of this Lady Phoenix Chick’s crimes. She hadn’t expected that a huge earthquake had already erupted outside Songhai city.

With the war sect as the command center, all the gathered cultivators had formed an alliance army and were on their way to outflank Phoenix Chick’s laboratory in the northern suburbs.

It was naturally impossible for such a large-scale operation to be completely covert. At most, they could only control public opinion at the beginning, in the end, it would definitely erupt completely on the internet in an uncontrollable manner.

As one of the core teams in Phoenix Lab, the mission of the intelligence department was naturally to keep an eye on any movement on the internet.

The head of the Intelligence Department, Hang Chuan, also received the news from his earpiece at once and immediately reported to Liu Renfeng, “Madam, there seems to be a lot of strange news on the Internet today.”

“Oh? Tell me about it.”

“Someone saw a lot of sect cultivators walking through the downtown area in neat rows on swords.”

“Interesting.” Liu Renfeng cupped his chin and thought for a moment. “Did you find out what they are doing?”

“I heard that the war sect is organizing the Alliance army for a drill.”

“A drill?”

“Yes, but this information is just hearsay. There is no concrete evidence. We are still trying to understand the situation. Before that, for safety reasons, Madam, do you want to...”

“No need. It’s just a drill.”Liu Renfeng’s expression turned crazy. “I’ve waited for this day for too long. I don’t want to waste another second.”

“But madam, there’s still a risk...”

“No need to say more.”Liu Renfeng waved her hand. “If the Alliance Army of the war sect really came for my base in the northern suburbs, they definitely wouldn’t be so ostentatious. “Moreover, it’s just for a little girl. It’s too much to look down on me, Liu Renfeng.”

After saying that, the crazy woman glanced at Sun Ying ‘er, who was pretending to be Jiang Yingying. “Girl, you can be at ease. Even if this group of people really came to save you, it’s useless. No one can save you now.”

Liu Renfeng smiled and walked to a door full of technology. “Hang Chuan, come with Zhang San. Follow Him.”

“Madam... That’s a restricted area... you never let us in...”the head of the intelligence department was flattered. He quickly lowered his head and looked at a loss.

“It’s okay. Everything will be over soon. The Intelligence Department is my confidant. You work under me, so you must know something.”

She said meaningfully, then she glanced at Sun Ying ‘er. “Little Jiang, when this is over, perhaps you should thank me. Because in this world, only I, Little Phoenix, can help you get out of your pain.”

Lotus Sun and Sun Ying ‘er didn’t understand what she meant.

But from the moment they had entered this underground base, and from the information gathered so far, Lotus Sun could basically conclude that Jiang Yingying wasn't as simple as she had imagined.

Although she was the adopted daughter of Marshal Jiang, her background seemed to be extraordinary. She wasn't an ordinary orphan, but a special existence..

Liu Renfeng led the way in front of them. The four of them were passing through a long glass tunnel. The glass display cabinets at the side were filled with all kinds of spirit beast organ specimens, which looked rather creepy under the dim light.

"You crazy woman, what exactly do you mean?" Sun Ying 'er tried to use Jiang Yingying's tone to try to coax her.

"Haven't you noticed that your body is getting worse and worse?" Liu Renfeng didn't directly answer Sun Ying 'ER's question, but asked her like this instead.

"It seems like it's a little..." Sun Ying 'er answered.

Her body was indeed getting worse and worse, but the main reason was because of Wang Ying.

The after-effect of the planet wall knock technique was that her back hurt.

There was nothing she could do about it.

"That's right," Liu Renfeng said. "Because your body isn't compatible with the original artificial spirit root."

"Artificial spirit root?"

Lotus Sun and Sun Ying 'er were stunned at the same time.

It wasn't that Lotus Sun didn't know about artificial spirit roots.

In today's universal cultivation world system, the strength of a spirit root represented future talent.

A long, long time ago, in order to give birth to children with outstanding spirit roots, some cultivators would often go to the extreme, that is, by consuming a large number of tonics during pregnancy, their children would be born, their spirit roots would reach a high quality level.

However, the effects of the tonics were actually very limited.

Therefore, just a few decades ago, the topic of artificial spiritual roots once became a hot topic at that time.

If a child who was not born with outstanding spiritual roots could reach the level of an outstanding cultivator through artificial spiritual roots, then this technology would become a ready-made money printing machine, whether it was the current market or the future market, there would be a big pattern!

At the beginning, scientific research teams from all over the world conducted experiments on Spirit Beasts by studying the spirit roots in their bodies.

However, in order to find a breakthrough as soon as possible, some scientists began to provide their own laboratories with white mice through the black market by buying slaves.

The progress made by thousands of experiments on spirit beasts might not be as much as the progress made by one experiment on real cultivators.

When this matter was exposed back then, it caused a worldwide uproar.

Lotus Sun hadn't expected that this was what Madam Phoenix had been studying all this time..

And now that the "Artificial spirit root" experiment had been proven to be unethical, it had long been strictly prohibited.

The more she listened, the more she felt that there was something wrong with Liu Renfeng's words..

Wait a minute!

The spirit root in Jiang Yingying's body was a man-made spirit root! ?

Lotus Sun was stunned by this.

“Back then, in order to create this man-made spirit root, I used many different materials from different mystical realms to synthesize the spirit root. I used different materials and formulas. Then, I implanted these spirit roots made from different materials into the bodies of some of the chosen babies. “And you were one of those children.”

The crazy woman paced with her hands behind her back, while talking to herself, she said, “Later, I ordered people to scatter those children and seek adoption from cultivator families. I wanted to see how long those children could live.”

At this point, Liu Renfeng stopped walking.

She turned around and looked at Sun Ying 'er. She reached out her evil hand and pinched her chin, saying, “There were 462 children in that batch. And you... were the only one who survived.”

Madam Feng did not feel guilty about what she had done back then. On the contrary, she was full of pride.

She looked at Sun Ying 'er, she continued, “Cultivation science is always accompanied by sacrifice. “Now, the spirit root in your body is the correct formula for man-made spirit root. “Moreover, when you use the materials to make your spirit root, a small part of it is from the mystical realm

“As long as you take out the spirit root in your body and re-analyze it, you can easily decipher the backdoor code to open that mystical realm...”

“Do you know what this means?”

“This means that I can take out all the materials used to create artificial spirit roots from that mystical realm and become the first person in history in this field...”

Hearing this, Lotus Sun couldn't help but clench her small fists.

This wasn't some crazy woman..

It was simply a female devil!

She continued like a devil, "Jiang Yingying, when I saw you back then,. You were only the size of a cabbage. You were weak and sickly, so you wouldn't have lived to this age. It was my artificial spirit root that saved you."

"And now is the time for you to repay me... isn't it?"

Chapter 1635 1,631, The Hidden Big Boss (1/92)

The large-scale rescue operation was very grand. Other than the Alliance army made up of cultivators who had gathered all the forces, there were also some big boss level cultivators who were hiding behind the scenes.

For example, Li Xian and Zhang Zicao.

To put it bluntly, Li Xian and Zhang Zicao felt that they were at least a little bit guilty about this matter.

If they had handled it more decisively, they might have been able to directly find Madam Phoenix's lair and flatten this crazy woman's base.

There was no need to trouble Miss Lotus Sun to do it herself.

Li Xian and Zhang Zicao were deeply aware of the relationship between Lotus Sun and Wang Ling, so they were deeply ashamed.

From all the evidence now, the thousand-faced person they were tracking was definitely related to Madam Phoenix.

In other words, Madam Phoenix was far from being as simple as she looked.

Even the faces they had seen were different from the thousand-faced alien's methods, so the person behind it must have been extremely powerful.

Then, if this was the basis of their reasoning, there were two results in front of them now.

First, there was an ancient powerhouse working under Madam Feng.

Second, the person with the thousand-face ability was madam Feng herself.

“This Liu Renfeng is just an earth cultivator. which ancient cultivator would take a fancy to him? Unless he was hit by a meteorite and lost his memory, he would never be controlled by an ordinary earth cultivator like her.” In the Rybak coffee shop, Zhang Zichu said while sucking on his ice latte.

The ancient people he mentioned were short for ancient level powerhouses.

It was also a term that Zhang Zichu had recently learned from the Internet.

Nowadays, young people seemed to be very popular to summarize a type of person as “XX people.”.

For example, Zu'an people, people who delayed the update, people who didn't scold Ku Xuan about the Death Star people..

Zhang Zichu thought it was very interesting, so he learned something along the way.

In the end, he found it quite easy to recite it, and Li Xian was also successfully led astray.

“Although I also think that the Ancients wouldn't go so far as to work under an earth cultivator like Liu Renfeng, the problem is, isn't Ling Zhenren also an earth cultivator...” after Li Xian said this, Zhang Zizi opened his mouth, he suddenly felt speechless for a moment.

That's right..

Wang Ling was very strong.

So strong that they couldn't imagine and estimate it.

However, Wang Ling was indeed a genuine earthling.

Moreover, he had been born from two Earthlings who hadn't even reached the foundation establishment stage.

They hadn't really believed this to begin with.

It wasn't until Wang Nuan was born that Li Xian and Zhang Zicao completely accepted this fact.

Who would have thought that a newborn girl from Earth would be as strong as a monster and be able to beat up the two ancestral level masters.

"In that case, even if the probability is low, it's not completely impossible?" Zhang Zicao said.

In comparison, the result of Liu Renfeng and the thousand-faced man being the same person had weakened a lot after the two of them discussed it.

"If she, Liu Renfeng, was from the ancient times, she would never have taken a fancy to the mystery realm on Earth. Even if Earth has been upgraded, it's impossible."

Zhang Zicao said, "There are many factors in the formation of the mystery realm. Simply put, it's like a jar of old wine. "The older it is, the more valuable the mystery realm is. "In the infinite Milky Way, there are countless mystery realms that have been unexplored for a long time. How could they take a fancy to the mystery realm on Earth Now?"

"I agree with this view." Li Xian nodded. "She, Liu Renfeng, only explored the secret realms for money. Her vision is still a bit inferior to the ancients."

"In the end, it's just a difference in realm. Back then, I also wanted money, but I had a reason." At this time, Zhang Zichu said.

"Why do you say that, Brother Zichu?"

“Money is sin. I just took these sins in my own hands and silently endured them.”Zhang Zichu sighed. “If I don’t go to Hell, who will?”

Li Xian:”...”

After about two minutes, Zhang Zi finished the last sip of coffee in his hand and immediately stood up. “Let’s go, brother Li Xian. Let’s Go and end this.”

“Okay.”Li Xian said seriously, “But, how do we go in? This time, the Alliance Army has a unified command and the mark of an ally. We don’t have anything. Isn’t it inappropriate to just go in?”

“There’s nothing inappropriate about it.”Zhang Zichu suddenly laughed. “Aren’t the two of US just passing by? Aren’t we just warm-hearted citizens?”

So that was the case.

At this moment, Li Xian suddenly understood.

..

..

When Li Xian and Zhang Zichu were preparing to leave, in Songhai first prison, the mahjong three-man action team led by General Bai also started a new round of operations.

This was an opportunity to earn points for free prostitution.

As long as one joined the Alliance army, they would earn points.

Of course, if they could contribute to this operation, the points would be additional.

The three of them were sentenced to more than a thousand years of imprisonment. Such an opportunity to earn points to offset the punishment would naturally not be missed.

“Is that Miss Sun captured?”

After general Bai told them the whole story, all three of them felt incredulous.

They had only heard about this matter from the prison guards and knew that there was a large-scale coalition operation in Songhai City.

They thought it was just a drill, but now that they were in general Bai’s car, they finally understood why there was such a large-scale coalition..

To be honest, the three members of the Mahjong group were a little surprised.

“Do the three of you have any impression of Liu Renfeng?”General Bai asked at this moment.

After all, the three people sitting in the car were enjoying the top-notch nursing facilities in Songhai first prison. Most importantly, the three of them were also the leaders of the underworld, they were very familiar with the dark net and the intelligence of those underground organizations.

“Are you talking about Liu Fengdi?”The Old Devil said.

“It’s her.”General Bai asked, “Why? Are you very familiar with her?”

“I don’t have any business dealings with her. I just saw her in the former underground human trafficking market,”the old devil said. “I still remember that she and another person are fellow disciples. The other person has a nickname called Wolong. “However, this wolong is much more low-key than the others.”

“You said that they have a Master?”

“There is one. However, I don’t really know who that master is.”

General Bai cupped his chin and pondered for a moment.

At present, the underground laboratory of Phoenix Chick in the Northern Suburbs was already under the control of the Alliance army, and the encirclement had already been formed.

Liu Renfeng could not escape now.

The orders given to them by the higher-ups were to capture them alive and collect as much evidence as possible.

Now that they were a step too late to set off, they would not be able to gain any advantage by intervening directly.

Therefore, when General Bai heard this, he suddenly felt that he might be able to change his train of thought with the Mahjong Trio.

“Do you know where this underground human trafficking market is?” At this moment, he raised his head and asked.

“These people are all cunning people. Even if I told them the address, they might have already changed the location of the transaction,” the old devil said. “If there’s no one there at that time, wouldn’t it be a wasted trip?”

“There’s always a clue,” general Bai said. “Consider it a meritorious service.”

The old devil immediately replied, “In winter city.”

“Winter City?” The Master of Immortal Mansion, Cheng Yu, was stunned.

Back then, the entrance to immortal mansion had been in winter city.

Come to think of it, that was the place where his dream had begun..

Chapter 1636 1,632. Young People Do Not Speak Of Martial Virtue (1)(1/92)

Now, people from all sides set out in different directions. They surrounded, created momentum, and collected evidence of crimes. There were actually quite a number of “Enthusiastic citizens” groups like Zhang Zicao and Li Xian.

They did not seek fame, but only for the “Light of the righteous path”. They only wanted to contribute the light and heat in their hearts.

Of course, the vast majority of them were followers of the grey religion. This was because their leader had been kidnapped!

How could they not save him?

Of course, most of the followers of the grey religion were actually still students in school. They did not have the ability to stop the rescue, but it was still possible to stop a large-scale public opinion attack on the Internet.

For a time, a lot of dirt about Liu Renfeng was exposed on the internet.

There had been a lot of rumors about this Lady Phoenix on the Internet, but a lot of things on the internet were half-true and half-false. No one would really believe it, but sometimes, as long as the pace of public opinion was concentrated, whether it was true or not, it seemed to become true.

The attribute labels on the passersby were “Old fence-sitters.”As long as seven out of ten people said it was true, then no matter what the truth was later on, they would all believe what they believed.

This was also why in the current Internet environment, for some uncertain gossip..

You would find that the people who scolded at the beginning were the same as the people who apologized later on.

The people who apologized were still considered good, but more people chose to remain silent after the situation turned around.

The internet was like a mask. When the real face was covered by the mask, all the ferocious and ugly expressions would be covered by the mask.

Logically speaking, the internet had caused such a huge uproar this time. If Liu Renfeng had been a little bit more careful, she might have realized that she had caught the wrong person.

Unfortunately, Madam Feng was still too anxious. She firmly believed that the person she had caught was Jiang Yingying herself.

She took Lotus Sun, Sun Ying 'er, and the head of the Intelligence Department into the Forbidden Laboratory without stopping.

This was a secret experimental space specially created by Liu Renfeng, and only she had the highest authority.

As soon as the head of the Intelligence Department, Hang Chuan, entered, he realized that his earpiece signal had been blocked.

What he didn't know was that the intelligence department inside the laboratory was in a mess..

Without Hang Chuan around, the intelligence department was leaderless, and they couldn't directly break into the Forbidden Laboratory and tell Liu Renfeng the truth.

"The Internet said that we arrested the wrong person?"

"Arrested the wrong person? No Way... Zhang San has never failed before, so how could Jiang Yingying and Lotus Sun not know the difference?"

"Look at the news on the Internet, I don't think it's fake at all."

"Ah, this... We have to tell Madam quickly! Where is Madam Now!"

"Restricted area laboratory! Madam has entered the restricted area laboratory!"

"Urgh! It's over..."

..

..

Inside the restricted area laboratory, Liu Renfeng pointed at a bed in front of her.

“Come, student Jiang, lie down.” The expression on the crazy woman’s face was calm. “I advise you to be more obedient. I’m always quick to act. Moreover, the dosage of the anesthetic is sufficient. I will definitely let you leave this world without any pain.”

Sun Ying ‘er did not expect that she, the Master of the Void, would actually lie down on the operating table one day.

“The blade of your surgery is not sharp. What if it doesn’t Open?” Sun Ying ‘er sighed. She was surprisingly cooperative. Without any unnecessary struggle or resistance, she directly laid down on the operating table.

Liu Renfeng suddenly felt a little surprised by how obedient she was. “I thought you would struggle, but I didn’t expect you to be so cooperative. You’re a good and obedient child. You Didn’t waste my efforts to save you back then.”

“Heh, there’s no need to say these beautiful words. “You killed so many innocent people in order to develop the artificial spirit root. You just happened to be lucky enough to get the thing in my body. Do you really think you have any technical skills?” Sun Ying ‘er replied with a deep understanding of the game.

“Luck is also a part of strength.”

At this moment, Liu Renfeng opened the mechanism in the forbidden area laboratory, he took out a small surgical knife that was emitting a faint blue spiritual light. “Say it. What other unfulfilled wishes do you have? As long as I can do it, I can help you complete it.”

“Can I really mention it?” Sun Ying ‘ER’s expression gradually became excited.

“Yes.” Liu Renfeng nodded and smiled. “If I open the arcane realm and empty out the materials in the infinite arcane realm, I’ll be the richest person on Earth. As long as there’s money, there’s nothing I can’t do.”

“Then you’ll help me... Kill Someone?” Sun Ying ‘er said.

This request made Madam Fengying suddenly freeze.

She had never thought that “Jiang Yingying”’s wish would be this.

However, such a simple and straightforward wish was exactly what she wanted.

She, Feng Ying, had killed countless people. It was too easy for her to kill a person.

Moreover, Jiang Yingying was only a 16-year-old girl. How could a 16-year-old high school student know such an important person?

“Don’t tell me you want me to kill your grandfather? Martial Saint Jiang?”

Liu Renfeng held the scalpel and suddenly smiled sinisterly. “It’s not impossible. Although it’s difficult, I can still do it.”

“No, no, no. Why would I Kill My Grandfather? The person I want to kill is someone who once bullied me!”Sun Ying ‘er said.

“Oh? Not Martial Saint Jiang? That’s too bad. But since it’s your wish, I’ll definitely do it for you. It can also be considered as fulfilling the fate between us.”

Liu Renfeng blinked his eyes, and the expression on his face was extremely terrifying. “Tell me, what’s that person’s name and where does he live?”

“His name is Wang Ying! The son of a B * Tch! The Shadow of the Shadow! He lives in a villa on East Huang Road!”Sun Ying ‘er casually gave the address of the Wang family’s small villa.

“I understand.”Liu Renfeng nodded and smiled. “After I take out your spirit root, I’ll take out your brain tissue and keep it.”

“Why take out your brain tissue?”

“Of course, after I bring him to you... Don’t you want to witness his death with your own eyes? “As long as I connect your brain tissue to the visual sensor, you’ll be able to see it with your own eyes. “At that time, he’ll kneel in front of you like a dying dog and beg for mercy...”

Lotus Sun and Sun Ying ‘er:’...”

At that moment, Liu Renfeng smiled eerily. “The scene at that time will definitely be very interesting.”

Lotus Sun and Sun Ying ‘er:’...”

Sun Ying ‘er couldn’t help shivering when she heard this.

As expected, the crazy woman in front of her was a serious pervert..

Perhaps when Liu Renfeng said this...

She hadn’t realized that danger had already arrived..

To be honest, Wang Ying really didn’t want to come.

Lying on Wang Ling’s bed, he had his eyes closed and had been watching the situation here.

He had wanted to see Sun Ying ‘at the mercy of others’.

He hadn’t expected to hear Liu Renfeng’s arrogant words.

Considering that so many people had already taken action, he had decided not to take action.

The young man still had to speak of martial virtue.

But now, he had changed his mind.

Liu Renfeng!

He had to die!

Young man, what martial virtue!

Just as Liu Renfeng was about to cut down, a hand suddenly pressed on this madam Feng's shoulder.

From Sun Ying 'ER's point of view.

She could not see the young man standing behind Liu Renfeng at this moment. His face was filled with killing intent.

But she recognized the hand at a glance.

It was Wang Ying's..

Chapter 1637 1633, Young People Don't Talk About Martial Virtue (2)(1/92)

A very powerful aura.

The moment Wang Ying's palm came down, cold sweat dripped down Liu Renfeng's forehead.

"Who are you..."the head of the intelligence department behind him was shocked. Wang Ying's appearance was too sudden, like a ghost. He had the thought of fighting back, trying to protect Liu Renfeng, but his body was frozen.

This was not Wang Ying using some kind of immobilization spell, but a trembling that came from the depths of his soul. The huge gap in combat power caused hang chuan to feel as if his blood was frozen in this short moment.

Then, his body began to tremble, and he gradually stopped thinking.

Wang Ying, this little underling, didn't even bother to pay attention to him. He only wanted to take revenge on Liu Renfeng. He pinched her shoulder like he was pinching a chicken. "Old Woman, how do you want to Die?"

"How did you get in..."Liu Renfeng's face turned pale.

She had the highest authority in the forbidden area of the laboratory, and there were barriers everywhere. Ordinary cultivators couldn't get in, whether it was through walls, shrinking the ground, or teleportation. Wang Ying's sudden appearance made her feel even more terrified.

What she didn't know was that the shadow and the shadow had a chain ability. Wang Ying had already planted a mark on Sun Ying 'er, so Wang Ying knew exactly where she was going.

"How did you get in? Don't I get in whenever I want to?"Wang Ying snorted.

Without any unnecessary words, he reached out and grabbed Liu Renfeng's head in the next moment.

Crack!

Liu Renfeng's head was crushed in an instant, like a rotten orange that had exploded.

"AH, President Shadow, how did you kill her..."lotus sun was also sweating profusely. She hadn't expected the battle to end before it had even begun.

Meanwhile, the others in Little Phoenix's laboratory hadn't expected it either.

The allied army hadn't surrounded them yet, but Wang Ying had actually charged in and set the crystal on fire.

Young Man!

He really didn't care about martial virtue!

“This old hag deserves to die,” Wang Ying snorted. “Besides, this person is very cunning. I didn’t kill her. This should be a false body.”

“False body?” Lotus Sun was puzzled.

“But the degree of realism is indeed not much different from the real body.” As he spoke, Wang Ying reached out and tore off one of Liu Renfeng’s right leg on the spot.

Lotus Sun hurriedly covered her eyes, but to her surprise, the result was.

After the seemingly violent leg removal, not a single drop of blood spurted out. There was only the sound of various gears falling to the ground.

Wang Ying tore the right leg apart, and the connecting catheter was instantly torn apart, and orange-yellow mucus dripped out.

“This is...” Lotus Sun was suspicious.

“It’s a cyborg,” Wang Ying said, cupping his chin.

He examined Liu Renfeng’s torn leg, and the words 010 were written on it.

It was also his first time seeing a cyborg. To be honest, Liu Renfeng’s technical methods also shocked Wang Ying.

If he hadn’t stretched out his hand to touch Liu Renfeng’s body, he wouldn’t have thought that Liu Renfeng was a fake at all.

This was because based on his aura alone, this No. 010 Liu Renfeng was no different from an ordinary human.

This was still different from the head of State 001 humanoid combat robot that Wang Ming had developed.

The combat robot was filled with all kinds of parts and was purely a mechanical type of magic treasure. No matter how lifelike its appearance was, it could still be seen at a glance.

However, Liu Renfeng's cyborg technology had the technical ability to make them look real.

Sun Ying 'er got up from the operating table timidly. She did not care about the situation at hand, but she was afraid of Wang Ying..

The conversation between her and Liu Renfeng just now was actually a way to "Borrow someone else's knife to kill them".

Initially, she just wanted to test whether Wang Ying was spying on their side.

But she hadn't expected that after this test, this man would actually appear.

"Don't... Don't hit me..."Sun Ying 'er shrank back in fear.

The corners of Wang Ying's lips curled up. He strode forward and pinched the girl's cheek with one hand. "Heh, I'll deal with you later."

With that, he suddenly lowered his head and quickly pressed a kiss on the girl's soft lips.

Sun Ying 'ER's mind went blank on the spot from this kiss.

At the same time, Lotus Sun went blank with Sun Ying 'ER.

She felt as if her head had been struck by an earth-shattering blow, and she suddenly felt as if she had been struck by an explosive blow..

Young people nowadays didn't just talk about martial virtue.

They also didn't talk about kissing virtue!

When she quickly came back to her senses, her cheeks were flushed.

It was mainly because Sun Ying 'er and Wang Ying themselves were very similar to her and Wang Ling.

Wang Ying's domineering kiss gave Lotus Sun the illusion that Wang Ling was kissing her for a brief moment.

Her cheeks flushed, and she felt as if a fire had been lit on her face, which instantly burned to her ears.

"This Liu Renfeng is fake.

"And right now, our first task is to find out who he really is."

It was still Wang Ying who broke the silence first.

He looked at Lotus Sun's burning face and couldn't help laughing. "Hey, Miss Sun, don't think so much. It's better to act than wait. You Can't wait. Why Don't you take the initiative and go kiss him directly?"

"Ah, this won't do..." Lotus Sun's face turned even redder.

"Do you need someone's permission to like someone?" Wang Ying said with a smile. "Think about it yourself."

Lotus Sun: "..."

To be honest, it wasn't that Lotus Sun hadn't thought about taking the initiative to go to the prince, but she always felt that it was too difficult.

Kissing was about the atmosphere.

When the atmosphere was right, it would come naturally.

If she simply pounced on him and bit him, she would definitely be labeled as a “Crazy Girl”!

In fact, Lotus Sun was mainly worried that she would be hated by Wang Ling.

It hadn't been easy for her to get closer to Wang Ling now, and she didn't want to alienate her relationship with the youngster again because of her excessive and unnecessary actions.

A Kiss..

Especially a kiss with Wang Ling.

This was, of course, what she had been looking forward to all this time.

But sometimes, what was important was that everything came naturally.

In particular, Jin Deng had reminded her that she needed to be patient when dealing with Wang Ling.

She didn't know what the consequences would be if she became anxious.

Lotus Sun didn't even dare think about the consequences.

Because she knew that she simply couldn't afford it.

She liked that person, but didn't expect that she wouldn't even be able to be his friend in the end.

..

At that moment, a piercing alarm suddenly rang out in the entire forbidden area laboratory.

Wang Ying judged that this was the alarm response after no. 010, Liu Renfeng, had been crushed.

Just 10 seconds after the alarm sounded, all the hidden mechanisms in the forbidden laboratory were opened.

A bunch of new Liu Renfeng was pushed out of the mechanism capsule..

Chapter 1638 1,634, Young People Don't Talk About Martial Virtues (3)(1/92)

A large number of cyborgs, Liu Renfeng, gushed out from every corner of the Forbidden Laboratory. As if they had been prepared beforehand, they appeared in every corridor and filled every corridor like sardines, it was like the subway during morning rush hour.

Wang Ying raised his arm and grabbed Liu Renfeng's throat across space. Then, he gently made a gesture of squeezing his hand.

In an instant, these cyborgs' heads fell to the ground like watermelons..

Then, these dead cyborgs were quickly replaced by new cyborgs. They had the same face as Liu Renfeng, but there was no emotion in them.

When they saw their companions fall to the ground, the surviving cyborgs around them would pick up the broken parts and throw them into the recycling channel of the Forbidden Zone's laboratory.

Wang Ying didn't know how many fake bodies the real Liu Renfeng had created for him, but judging from the wave after wave, the number was definitely in the tens of thousands..

Sun Ying 'er: "How many did this crazy woman make for herself when she fell to the ground..."

Wang Ying: "It seems that this woman still has a contingency plan. It's possible that she wants to break through the door of the infinite mystic realm from the front."

"But I heard that it's not easy to open the entrance to this mystic realm. It requires a lot of spirit energy," Lotus Sun said.

"Indeed, not many people have the ability to open the entrance to this mystic realm by themselves."

At this moment.., wang Ying thought of something. “But it would be different if there were a lot of people. “I think it’s better to report this matter to the war sect as soon as possible. “We don’t need to interfere in what happens next. We just need to wait for things to end smoothly.”

He was Wang Ling’s shadow, and they were telepathically linked.

Before he said this, he also knew.

That man was finally ready to take action..

..

..

Wang Ying’s appearance was a huge surprise to Liu Renfeng.

She did not expect that when she was about to open the infinite mystic realm, she would be stopped by a youth who suddenly appeared.

Fortunately, she still had contingency plans.

As long as she did not find her main body, then she had not lost this battle.

In Shouchong’s private laboratory, a few cyborgs, Liu Renfeng, had completely controlled this place.

“Ha... junior brother Wolong, long time no see.”Liu Renfeng used the will of her main body to connect to the brain tissue of one of the cyborgs to achieve temporary control.

When this batch of cyborgs rushed in, Shouchong already realized that the situation was not good.

There was an emergency escape button in his laboratory. Just as he was about to pounce on it and press it, one of the cyborgs kicked him in the stomach and shattered his dream on the spot..

“Senior sister, you can’t make mistakes again and again...”

“Now You’re willing to call me senior sister?”

Liu Renfeng could not help but laugh out loud. “Artificial spirit root is my lifelong dream. And I’ve already obtained this core technology. Now, I just need to find the materials in the mystical realm.”

According to Liu Renfeng’s plan, she had originally planned to use Jiang Yingying to analyze the secret key of the infinite mystical realm and enter through the back door.

But this plan had just been broken because of Wang Ying’s relationship.

Now, Liu Renfeng had no choice but to activate the Emergency Plan.

That was to break through the arcane realm through Shouchong’s method.

She had been secretly observing shouchong’s private laboratory for a long time, and she also knew the plan that Shouchong had developed to break through the arcane realm from the front.

However, it was not easy to open the door of the infinite arcane realm from the front.

This required a one-time injection of spiritual energy that far exceeded the current level of Earth’s cultivators..

Even the senior standing behind her couldn’t provide such explosive spiritual energy output in a short period of time.

“Senior sister, you should know that you’re already surrounded, right? You have nowhere to retreat to.”

Shouchong said, “Battle sect! And those sky-level sect masters have already surrounded your laboratory!”

“Do you think I don’t know anything about the outside world?”

At this time..., Liu Renfeng laughed again. "As long as my main body hasn't been found, I haven't lost yet. "Moreover, do you think I didn't expect such a situation? "Huaxiu Alliance has been watching me for a long time... surrounding my laboratory in the northern suburbs can be said to be within expectations. "Of course, if we're talking about mistakes, then I really didn't expect so many people to come."

That was what she said.

But in reality, she was still holding back a lot of anger.

Because of what had happened outside, including the fact that the intelligence department had mistakenly captured Lotus Sun.

She had only found out about it after her spiritual connection with No. 010 Liu Renfeng had been cut off because of Wang Ying.

If it weren't for Wang Ying, she might still be in the dark.

She didn't know what the idiots in the intelligence department were doing either.

They could even catch the wrong girl!

As for the fact that the alliance army of cultivators had surrounded the northern suburbs, it was indeed beyond Liu Renfeng's expectations.

However, she didn't panic at all. Instead, her face showed the excitement that made Shouchong extremely uneasy. "It doesn't matter if there are more people. The more people there are, the better it will be for me."

In Liu Renfeng's second-hand plan, she wanted to use the spiritual energy of the cultivators to break through the entrance of the infinite secret plane through Huaxiu Alliance's encirclement and suppression.

However, the second plan actually had risks.

If Huaxiu Alliance didn't send enough people, even if she had a way to drain the spiritual energy of the cultivators, she was afraid that she wouldn't be able to break open the door of the infinite secret plane with the spiritual energy alone.

But now, she felt that the situation was different.

There were hundreds of thousands of alliance cultivators surrounding his Phoenix Lab in the northern suburbs.

The lowest realm of the ordinary cultivators who came to support him was the golden core stage.

Not to mention the sect masters of the sky-level sects in the circle..

"Senior sister, are you trying to..." Shouchong's expression changed drastically at this moment. He finally knew what Liu Renfeng was trying to do.

"Hehehe." Liu Renfeng continued to cover her mouth and chuckle through the Cyborg. "The heavens are really helping me.". In order to rescue Lotus Sun, they had actually sent so many people over at once. If the final result was that they failed to steal the chicken, they would lose the rice. I think this Huaxiu Alliance will definitely lose its prestige."

..

At that moment, in the Battle Ancestor Command Center, all the members of the Alliance Army who had participated in this time's battle turned into dense red dots on the satellite map on the huge screen.

From the point of view of a commander, this wealthy battle had never been led by Keorn in his eight lifetimes.

However, such a large number of alliance army members had been handed over to him alone, which was quite a test of his ability to withstand pressure and command.

He looked at the blinking cursor of the Alliance army on the map, he frowned slightly. “Lord Daoist, I feel that something isn’t right. Our Alliance Army has already formed a circle like dumplings. However, Liu Renfeng’s side didn’t resist at all. I keep feeling that there’s a conspiracy behind this.”

“As expected of the person chosen by the true monarch,”crispy noodles daolord said with a smile, looking relaxed and at ease.

“This... has daolord already discovered it?”Keorn was at a loss for words.

“In the end, this aunt Liu just wanted to enter the mystic realm to steal materials. Now that her actual body is missing and a large number of cyborgs have poured out of the Forbidden Zone’s laboratory, capturing those cyborgs is meaningless.”

Crispy noodles dao monarch said, “There’s a saying that goes, ‘when you close a door, you hit a dog.’If you use a more cultured term, it’s like catching a turtle in a jar.”

Keron: “What Dao monarch means is...”

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch smiled. “Just let the Alliance Army play along.”

Because at this moment...

A pretty boy had already entered the infinite arcane realm ahead of time.

He was waiting at the entrance for Liu Renfeng’s real body to enter by itself..

Of course, in order not to delay his homework.

This pretty boy even moved his desk over, writing while waiting..

Chapter 1639 1635: Young People Don’t Speak Of Martial Virtue (4)(1/92)

Wang Ling hadn’t expected that even though he had said that he didn’t want to get involved in this matter, he would still get involved in the end.

He really hadn't been thinking about this; his mind was filled with homework, exercises, and the upcoming monthly exam.

But he didn't know why.

His body couldn't help but move like this.

He knew that Liu Renfeng was coming for the infinite mystic realm, so waiting for her was the most convenient way to find her real body.

It wasn't easy to open the mystic realm, and her real body would definitely show up at that time to take a look.

In addition, there was another advantage to this. Besides him, there was no one else at the entrance of the mystic realm. This just happened to provide him with a cover of hidden merits and fame.

It seemed a little too high-profile and troublesome to go with the main force to capture Liu Renfeng's real body.

It would be better to wait for this crazy grandmother to walk right into the trap.

So Wang Ling immediately decided to enter the infinite secret realm.

But he had heard that it wasn't easy to open the infinite secret realm, and that a huge amount of spirit energy was needed to open the door.

For this reason, Shouchong and Liu Renfeng racked their brains and racked their brains to find a way to open the infinite secret realm.

Wang Ling believed them.

He used his king's eye to lock onto the entrance to the secret realm's coordinates.

Then, a magnificent door to the infinite secret realm appeared in front of Wang Ling.

The ancient door frame was densely covered with profound and difficult-to-understand runes, all of which Wang Ling had never seen before.

There were countless secret realms in the universe.

After all, Wang Ling was just a child; he hadn't been to all the secret realms.

In order to explore the secret realms and obtain immortal destiny to increase their cultivation level, ordinary cultivators were all determined to charge in, afraid that if they were a step too late, all the heavenly and earthly treasures in the secret realms would be snatched away by others.

But Wang Ling was different; he wasn't interested in the secret realms because he had everything in his king's treasure pants.

Thus, Wang Ling didn't know much about the infinite secret realm.

He had heard from Shouchong and Liu Renfeng that it required a huge amount of spirit energy to enter.

When he saw the door to the infinite secret realm appear at this moment, a serious expression appeared on his face.

Then, he rolled up his sleeves and abruptly pushed the door in.

Boom!

Wang Ling saw the door to the infinite secret realm collapse behind him.

Not only that, even the door frame had cracked.

”...”

Sure enough, he had been thinking too much.

He had clearly only used a little strength..

Who knew that the door to the mystic realm would be so vulnerable to pressure.

So before moving the desk into the entrance to the mystic realm, Wang Ling had even used the great repair spell to repair the door that had been torn down, making everything look so natural..

..

In the battle sect command center, Wang Ling's "Catch a turtle in a jar" had been fully deployed under Keorn's encrypted command.

His face was flushed red, and there was a hint of nervousness in his excitement.

Large-scale command was an extreme test of command ability. This alliance army operation seemed to have been organized to rescue Lotus Sun, but Huaxiu Alliance actually had other considerations as well.

From the perspective of thousand layer cake, the second layer of Huaxiu Alliance naturally wanted to capture Liu Renfeng, and specifically wanted to capture her alive.

If this crazy grandmother used her creativity on the right path, she would indeed be a promising talent.

The third layer, which was Huaxiu Alliance, wanted to use the war sect as a medium to see the scale and combat ability of the Alliance army that would eventually be formed.

This was purely from the perspective of cultivation strategy deployment.

The Huaxiu Alliance had always advocated loving peace. Every year, the profits they generated were used to build cultivation infrastructure. Only a small portion was invested in military defense.

Currently, the mainstream view in the cultivation world was that military defense could actually be replaced in another way.

For example, the private sects of the people could be united and become a family.

Just like the current alliance army.

However, to organize such a large-scale alliance army, it would be a little too formal if Huaxiu Alliance mobilized it in the name of the people.

Thus, the need for the existence of the war sect was reflected at this time.

Back then, when grenade-throwing senior immortal had gone to attract investment, Huaxiu alliance had decided to invest because of this consideration.

Those sky-level sects had joined forces to block the development of earth-level and black-level sects.

This kind of behavior was very detrimental to the development of civilian sects.

Therefore, at this time, a super sect that could surpass the sky-level was needed to set an example and form an unshakable force in all aspects.

In the end, it would become a hemp rope that tightly linked the other sects together.

Therefore, it was also a knowledge for the sects in the cultivation world to coordinate and plan.

Of course, it was impossible for the sects to develop with only funds. They also needed a certain amount of talent reserves.

For example, this time, the Alliance army, Keorn and crispy noodles, received a secret mission to dig out the talents that could be used in the cultivation world through this small-scale alliance army battle.

Most of the talents were still buried, and their value was only to be discovered by Bole.

Once Keorn and crispy noodles dao monarch locked onto a candidate, they would only record it down first.

The next thing to do was to wait for the Department of Commerce of the sect to communicate and negotiate the transfer of disciples between the sect and the sect.

The current war sect was very wealthy. In theory, as long as they gave enough money, there was no one that couldn't be negotiated.

“Mr. Keorn, have you found some excellent seedlings?” At this moment, in front of the command platform, crispy noodles dao monarch looked at the screen in front of him and asked.

“No, not for the time being...” Keorn shook his head.

From the few scenes that were switched, it seemed that he did not have anyone that he would like at first glance. The cultivators in the Alliance army were generally relatively young, and the average realm was at the golden core stage.

In fact, there wasn't much to see in the aurous core stage..

Most importantly, even though they had surrounded the laboratory in the northern suburbs, the order to attack hadn't been given yet.

Without a battle, it was difficult to distinguish the value of these cultivators.

“May I know what you think, Crispy Noodles Daolord?” At this moment, Keorn asked.

“I did find one.” Crispy Noodles Dao monarch pointed at a young cultivator on the screen. Immediately after, the system's intelligent tracking system accurately scanned this person.

Soon, the young cultivator's name appeared on the screen on the right: [ Heavenly Spring sect, Li Huayu ]

“Heavenly Spring Sect?” Keorn frowned.

This sect’s ranking was pretty low.

Because this was just a black grade sect.

“The delay in issuing the attack command has a huge impact on one’s state of mind. Look at this person, he’s neither arrogant nor impatient, and his face is always calm. This state of mind is already hard to come by,” crispy noodles dao monarch said.

Of course, his words were pure nonsense.

With his eyesight, he could see most of these cultivators’ states with a glance.

As Wang Ling’s “Real clone,” crispy noodles had a natural ability to recognize people.

But this ability couldn’t be explained clearly.

So he had to find a reason to explain it.

In the cultivation world, the most illusory reason was the “State of mind.”

At first glance, it sounded very mysterious, but it also seemed to make some sense.

It was just like those constellation and psychological tests on the market.

And that’s what’s called the Barnum effect.

Chapter 1640 1,636, What Do You Think You’re Provoking Him For? (1)(1/92)

The strategic reserve of talents was something every sect would do, and the key was whether the two parties involved in the transaction paid enough attention to talents.

It was also common for some small sects to let go of the big fish for the sake of immediate benefits.

Li Huayu was a talent personally selected by crispy noodles dao sovereign, so Keorn naturally would not worry about his various qualities.

But compared to other sects, it wasn't easy for the battle sect to poach him.

How could a super sect take a fancy to a disciple of a black grade sect?

If they were too brazen in poaching him, it would only alert the enemy and tell them that Li Huayu was a rare talent. The battle sect would definitely take him!

In this way, Li Huayu's value would be rapidly inflated in a short period of time. In the end, it would put the battle sect in a passive position.

"Supreme, have you thought about poaching him? I don't think it's going to be easy," said Kroen as he stared at Li Huayu on the screen.

"Little silver," crispy noodles dao monarch said bluntly.

"Little silver? That team leader silver?" Kroen didn't really know much about little silver. He hadn't been in the war sect for long, and many sect elders and disciples hadn't recognized him yet.

But he did know this "Team leader silver."

He was a member of the core team of the war sect, and was also in charge of the Spirit Beast Group.

Moreover, he knew that before the war sect was founded and had its own spirit Beast Peak, this team leader silver had always lived in grenade-throwing senior immortal's home.

Even now, after the Spirit Beast Peak was built, it was said that this mysterious team leader silver still liked to live in his old place.

"Team leader Silver, is he good? He seems very cold and aloof..." Keorn didn't understand little silver, and crispy noodles couldn't help laughing when he heard this.

Little Silver... cold and aloof?

Of course, that didn't exist..

In the entire war sect, apart from Ling Zhenren, could there be anyone more lively and cute than little silver?

Crispy Noodles Dao monarch didn't think so.

The innate affinity of holy beasts was the key to Little Silver's negotiations.

Moreover, as the leader of the Spirit Beast Group, most of the people who went to other sects were there for the spirit beast trade, so it was hard to think that they were there to poach people..

"Well, of course true monarch has his own considerations. Just watch the show," crispy noodles dao monarch said.

He counted with his fingers and stared at the screen in front of him.

It should be about time.

Liu Renfeng's side was probably getting ready to be tempted..

..

..

The underground tunnels of Little Phoenix's laboratory were in all directions. The purpose of Liu Renfeng's design in the beginning was to build an encrypted tunnel into the underground, and on the other hand, it was also to consider the layout of plan number two.

These underground tunnels stretched out for a very long distance.

At this moment, all the cyborgs, Liu Renfeng, came out in full force. All of them were carrying a spirit stone and a formation flag on their backs.

Li Xian and Zhang Zicao cast an invisibility spell on themselves respectively. The two of them looked down from the sky.

They could clearly see the layout of the cyborgs, Liu Renfeng, after they had taken their positions through the secret tunnels.

The outermost layer of the secret passage was a standard circle. It was obvious that it was an array disk.

However, it was impossible for Liu Renfeng to make such a large-scale array with his own strength.

“All things bright vital energy array?” Li Xian carefully observed the layout and details of the array and quickly thought of the origin of this array.

This was a spirit gathering array that could absorb the spiritual energy of all the self-cultivators in the array. It was divided into two types, active contribution and forced extraction.

If the self-cultivators standing in the array actively contributed, they only needed to raise their hands above their heads.

But Liu Renfeng obviously wouldn't do that.

In order to open the infinite mystery realm, she could only force extraction.

“It seems that this is a real hammer.”

Zhang Zizi said, “There is indeed a brother behind Liu Renfeng. I just don't know who this brother is. “I remember that the all-illuminating vital qi array was developed by patriarch heartless. It is said that it is only passed to his own disciple...”

“But patriarch heartless himself is now locked in the corpse-binding diagram.” The corner of Li Xian's mouth twitched, he looked rather helpless as he said, “In addition, that fellow used to say that he wanted to take in disciples every day, but until now, I've never heard of who his disciples really are."

Speaking of patriarch heartless, he had been an expert who had commanded the world during the eons.

Unfortunately, Patriarch Heartless had a small problem: he was very stingy.

There had been a banquet where patriarch heartless had invited everyone, including Daofather Wang, to a banquet. In order to save money, he bought a lot of fake wine from a wine merchant and only gave Dao ancestor Wang real wine.

In the end, Dao ancestor Wang's wine gourd was somehow swapped out during the banquet..

Then, with five "Tons of tons", the entire gourd of fake wine was finished by Dao ancestor Wang.

And then, there was nothing else..

After drinking the fake wine, Daofather Wang immediately put patriarch heartless and the wine merchants into the corpse painting.

Now, looking back on that period of history,.

Li Xian couldn't help but sigh.

What do you think you're provoking him for?

At this moment.

On the battlefield in the northern suburbs, which had been silent for a long time, there was suddenly a burst of exclamations.

"What is this..."

Some cultivators noticed that something was wrong, and the sky-level sect masters all looked terrified.

“It’s a big array! A big array that can cover the northern suburbs!”

“What? How could this Liu Renfeng have the ability to set up such a big array?”

They all looked panicked, and Keoen, who was in the command center, was also confused.

Because this was all within the scope of the plan..

Unexpectedly, these sky-level sect leaders and their disciples were all acting experts. Each of them had contributed their outstanding acting skills to the extreme at this moment..

“Uh, my spiritual energy, my spiritual energy has been taken away...”

“No, I can feel my life slipping away...”

The cultivators trapped in the array cried out in alarm one after another, looking as if they were about to die.

In fact, their spirit energy hadn’t been sucked out.

The Spirit Energy Liu Renfeng had absorbed had all been provided by Wang Ling.

At that moment, he was squatting at the entrance to the secret realm.

As he read the exercises in front of him, he raised his hands and transferred his spirit energy over.

“It’s Done!”In shouchong lab, Liu Renfeng showed a surprised expression through the cyborg.

The spiritual power absorbed through the array formation was too huge! It was far beyond his imagination!

“Hahahahaha!”She couldn’t help but let out a rampant laugh. “I didn’t expect that I, Liu Renfeng, would actually succeed! The world of self-cultivation will soon usher in a new year of the Phoenix Chick! That will be the beginning of a new era for Liu Renfeng!”

As soon as she finished speaking, the controlled cyborg quickly returned to silence.

It seemed that Liu Renfeng had already pulled back the spiritual link of her main body and was ready to act on her own.

Shouchong was pinned to the ground by a few cyborgs, unable to move. At this moment, he was completely disheartened. He only felt that the momentum was gone..

Buzz!

When the entrance to the arcane realm was opened at the location that Liu Renfeng had set in advance, this crazy woman rubbed her hands together and stepped in excitedly.

She had thought that when she opened the door, she would see a dazzling new world.

In the end, she saw a young man doing his homework at his desk.

Liu Renfeng smiled. “I didn’t expect there to be a doorman in this infinite secret realm?”

At that moment, Wang Ling raised his head to look at her. After confirming that this was Liu Renfeng’s real body, he used a single glance to firmly block the door to the secret realm behind Liu Renfeng.

A terrifying pressure instantly extinguished all the excitement in Liu Renfeng’s body

Wait a minute..

This situation didn’t seem right?
