Chapter 1691 1,687: Milk Powder For Your Sister (1/92)

The most important and unique ability of the rudder of chaos was that it could instantly attach a special invisible “Antenna” to all attacks, allowing it to control the attacks remotely.

Whether it was heavenly dao spells, ordinary spells, magic tools, or spiritual swords, all of them could be controlled by the rudder of chaos.

However, when he had used the rudder to change the original trajectory of the palm to attack Wang Nuan, the man who had suddenly appeared had actually just exhaled and changed the trajectory he had set once again.

Furthermore, he had doubled the power of his attack by 1,000% . At that moment, it was a little out of elder heartless’s understanding.

This person didn’t have a rudder in his hand..

How could he change the trajectory of a spell?

For a moment, forefather heartless was a little dazed. He once again used the rudder to change the trajectory that Wang Ling had returned to. In the end, after this tathagata divine palm had passed through twice.., it was a thousand times more powerful than before as it rumbled into the distance.

In the distance, a huge mushroom cloud rose from the ground and lit up the entire supreme world. The sky was blasted open by this palm, and countless galaxies hung down from the holes, scattering multicolored light with terrifying chaotic power.

These rays of light were extremely soft and beautiful, but anyone below the ancestor realm who touched them easily would immediately be burned to ashes.

Everyone here couldn’t help feeling awe in the face of this scene.

Only Wang Ling and Wang Nuan were unmoved.

Wang Ling wasn’t afraid of these things to begin with.

Moreover, the scene in front of him wasn't that big of a scene.

Although patriarch heartless was a very powerful eternal warrior, in fact, in Wang Ling's opinion, his combat strength might not be as strong as that of the tomb god.

When he picked Wang Nuan up, the only thing he felt was that she was hungry.

No matter how poor she was, she couldn't be educated, and she couldn't be hungry, little sister. When Nuan was still growing, she definitely had to keep up with her nutrition.

Thus, how to fill her stomach became Wang Ling's first problem.

Compared to the tomb god from last time, there weren't that many tentacle monsters here that could be used as ingredients to roast squid, and this patriarch heartless was a mechanized cultivator, other than motor oil and gears in his body, he couldn't feed these things to his own sister.

Fortunately, Wang Ling was a quick-witted kid, and his reaction was very quick.

He immediately set his eyes on the stars in the distance, which contained the power of chaos flowing out from the crack where the tathagata divine palm had broken the space

Ordinary people couldn't touch these lights.

But they could.

It was also an excellent material for making "Milk powder".

It contained a huge amount of chaotic energy, which was definitely enough to replenish Nuan Nuan's physical strength.

At that moment, the whole place was completely silent; it could be said that no one was around.

Everyone's eyes were fixed on Wang Ling's movements, and they didn't know what he was going to do next.

After all, a normal person would never have thought that this kind of chaotic light could actually be used to make milk powder and make milk for Wang Nuan.

In the next second, Wang Ling opened his king's eye and absorbed all the light into it.

"Ling Zhenren... What is he doing? Using his king's eye to collect chaotic light?" Xiang Yi asked.

"He's probably holding back a big move. After all, it's Little Master Ling, and his thinking isn't something we can understand," loopy toad said.

"Is it possible that he has other uses?" Qin Zong asked at this moment.

At this moment, everyone in the battle sect was discussing what Wang Ling's move meant.

They also couldn't understand the meaning of keeping the chaotic light in the King's eye.

After all, if the King's eye was the one to initiate the shockwave, the destructive power of being turned into ashes would be much more terrifying than the chaotic light!

Thus, there was no need to rely on this method of accumulating power to increase the power of the King's eye.

"Could it be that master has developed some new spell?" Odd Zhuo was full of anticipation.

The opponents now were different from the past in the end. All the previous opponents were limited to Earth and could be dealt with with a single palm.

But now, these opponents were all universe-level figures, either born from the primal chaos or extraordinary immortals.

One slap was already beyond repair, but the fancy beating could still be continued.

Odd Zhuo felt that Wang Ling's moves had basically never been repeated since he had met a universe-level opponent.

Every time someone faced Wang Ling head-on, they would have different new discoveries and experiences.

Then, with these new discoveries and experiences, they would either stop thinking forever or turn into dust in the universe.

“Ya!”

Lying on Wang Ling's shoulder, the warm girl looked so hungry that her chest was pressed against her back like a soft pastry.

“It'll be ready soon,” Wang Ling softly comforted her through voice transmission.

There was still not much expression on his face, but Lotus Sun's eyes were deeply moved by the tenderness that he naturally exuded when he treated his sister.

At that moment, even though Lotus Sun was clearly in the core world, she felt a faint jealousy in her heart.

She clearly knew that this behavior was very childish, but she still couldn't help it.

Wang Ling had killed her too much..

Sometimes, Lotus Sun couldn't tell whether this piece of wood was real or fake.

He would always inadvertently reveal unexpected actions that were completely different from his usual style, and these actions were very natural, especially when he was with the girl Nuan.

Thus, she began to reflect in her core world.

She felt that perhaps there was something about the Nuan girl that Wang Ling liked?

Earlier, Lotus Sun had heard father and mother Wang say that the Nuan Girl would go to No. 60 high school in the future.

In other words...

She could actually be considered the Nuan Girl's senior sister.

At this moment, Lotus Sun felt that it was very necessary for her to personally visit the Wang family's small villa as a senior sister in the future and learn from her, so as to enhance the relationship between her and the Nuan Girl.

Although it seemed shameful to pin her life's happiness on a little girl, Lotus Sun couldn't care less about it now; as long as it was useful.

..

Just as Lotus Sun was letting her imagination run wild.

On the other side, Wang Ling frowned and started to focus his gaze on the rudder of the chaotic ship in Patriarch Heartless's hands.

Mixing milk powder was one thing.

But after all, it was a milk powder made from chaotic multicolored light, and a bottle that could hold this milk powder might have to meet certain standards.

Even if an ordinary bottle had been self-enchanted, its strength wasn't strong enough, and it might even crack when the little girl drank it.

It wouldn't be good if the little girl was scalded.

Wang Ling felt that he had never been so considerate before; he had actually been thinking hard about preparing milk powder for his sister.

As expected, mother Wang wasn't deceiving him.

Preparing milk powder was really a profound knowledge!

So now, all his attention was focused on that chaos rudder.

Because...

This was an excellent material for making milk bottles..

Chapter 1692 1,688, The Six Eternal Heroes (1/92)

When he saw Wang Ling's eyes, a smile finally appeared on Patriarch Heartless' emotionless face. "You know your stuff, Kid. My chaotic rudder can attack when you advance and defend when you retreat. No matter how strong you are, you won't be able to match the might of my rudder. "Stop as soon as possible. You and your sister still have a chance."

Clearly, unintentional had yet to understand what kind of contestants he was facing.

After all, most of the Ancients had made it their mission to surpass 'Daofather King' in the past. Now, forefather unintentional had successfully used a method to revive himself and activate his divine brain to 100% , he could transfer his consciousness at any time, which was equivalent to having an eternal life ability.

In addition to the various magic treasures he had amassed over the eons, as well as the rudder which now contained 60% of the power of chaos, in terms of strength on paper, Patriarch Heartless's current strength didn't just surpass Dao ancestor Wang, he had already reached the same level as Dao ancestor Wang.

As someone who had targeted Dao ancestor Wang in the past, the ancients who had reached this level of combat strength naturally saw themselves as "Invincible."

Thus, he was incomparably arrogant and completely looked down on Wang Ling and Wang Nuan.

Although he could sense that the young man and the baby girl standing in front of him weren't ordinary people and possessed many great dao abilities, they were even more talented than the prodigies he had seen back then.

However, because of the accumulation of resources during the eternal period, he didn't believe that the two hotheads in front of him, who added up to less than half a hundred, would be able to contend with the ancient resources behind him.

"I need to show you what a gap is." Facing Wang Ling, at that moment, forefather heartless willed a strange golden dragon scale to appear in his hand.

As he muttered to himself, the dragon scale jumped in his palm, and then quickly spread out like fish scales on his body, turning into armor. In an instant, his entire body erupted with dazzling light, it was so dazzling that it was blinding.

"Dragon Emperor Holy Armor?" The golden lamp monk's expression instantly changed when he saw it. Although this armor didn't come from the chaos, it was obvious that it had been processed and baptized by the chaos.

In theory, all spiritual artifacts could go through the baptism of chaos and obtain more power than before.

However, this baptism process was risky. Once the baptism failed, all efforts would be wasted. Even spiritual artifacts could be damaged and could never return to the hands.

However, the golden lamp monk could see that this dragon emperor holy armor had been baptized more than once!

The Dragon Emperor Holy Armor, which possessed nearly 40% of the power of chaos, had at least undergone more than 20 baptisms..

Therefore, the golden lamp monk's face instantly turned cold. He was truly surprised at forefather heartless' luck, and even more surprised at the appearance of this Dragon Emperor Holy Armor.

This was Daoist Long's natal magic treasure, which was known as the dragon demon back then! One of the six eternal heroes!

During the eternal era, it was publicly acknowledged that their combat strength was below that of Daofather king, and they were on par with each other in all aspects. There was no way to determine who was the victor!

They were known as the “Six eternal heroes”.

However, no one had mentioned this epic of the six eternal heroes ever since they hid in the universe.

There had always been rumors that the six eternal heroes had gone into the vortex of chaos to search for the true meaning of chaos and never returned..

The auras and messages of the six people had also completely disappeared, as if they had disappeared into the universe.

In other words, the Dragon Emperor Holy Armor, which had originally belonged to Daoist Long’s natal magic treasure, should have been a legendary item that had disappeared into the universe. Now, it had reappeared, and it was even taken out by patriarch heartless.

This made the Golden Lamp, who was also an immemorial being, feel somewhat incredulous.

Why did heartless have the items of the six immemorial heroes?

Could it be that he had seen the six immemorial heroes after they disappeared?

Filled with doubt.., patriarch heartless sneered again. “Monk, you seem to be very surprised that I took out this holy armor? “That’s right... After all, this Dragon Emperor holy armor originally belonged to Daoist long, one of the six immemorial heroes. “But unfortunately, such a good thing can only belong to me now, and I still have a lot of it.”

He smiled arrogantly. The Dragon Emperor holy armor on his body was sparkling like flint, exuding a kind of cosmic red flame. It carried a kind of extraordinary and shocking power, bursting out with a shocking light.

Under such a strong pressure, the members of the Zhan Zong sect were almost in a state of defeat. Just setting up a barrier to defend was already very difficult.

This Dragon Emperor holy armor was indeed extraordinary, and it gave off an oppressive feeling. Moreover, when it was worn, it also gave off a chaotic flame.

It was a purple-gold cosmic flame that could burn anything it wanted to get close to.

Wang Ling used the power of his king's eye to inspect it, but his expression didn't change much. This dragon armor was indeed much stronger than an ordinary toy, but he didn't want to use it to defend against his attack; it was still too immature.

At that moment, Wuxin saw the right opportunity, and a murderous look appeared on his face. His palm and finger descended, and with the power to crush the Sun, the Moon, and the stars, they flew toward the siblings.

Wang Ling's heart was as still as an ancient well, but his gaze now inadvertently revealed a knife-like gaze.

He didn't mind if Wuxin attacked him, but he couldn't attack Ah Nuan.

Nuan was just a newborn child, but in the face of such a baby, the other party was actually so unscrupulous and merciless. This had already crossed Wang Ling's bottom line a little.

Even if Wang Ling no longer had any emotions or didn't know what anger was, this sudden discomfort already gave him enough reason to attack without the heart.

According to the old Wang family's latest family motto:.

A brother should unconditionally protect his younger sister.

He should try his best to put an end to anything that might injure his younger sister.

If he was attacked by gangsters or other outlaws, he could use all his strength to resist them when necessary... regardless of the price and consequences!

“This person actually dares to offend Ling Zhenren Like That! He’s really courting death!”

In the distance, Qin Zong said angrily when he saw unintentional attack the Wang siblings. In fact, his respect for Wang Ling wasn’t any lower than Odd Zhuo’s. After all, he was the man whom he worshiped like a god on the table.

Boom!

Wuxin’s palm descended from the sky and turned into a huge phantom that stretched for thousands of miles, making it impossible to see its trajectory clearly.

At this moment, Wang Ling raised his hand and used a counter-attack to strike wuxin with his palm as well.

At this moment, a powerful palm power overflowed from the surface of this supreme world, and the explosive destructive power formed a magic ring that spread out in all directions with Wang Ling as the Center Point!

Buzz!

The entire supreme world’s ground actually sank hundreds of feet under Wang Ling’s palm power!

“Bang!”

Finally, Patriarch Heartless, who had attacked Wang Ling and his sister, had a puzzled expression on his face. Faced with the counterattack, he flew around like a kite that had lost its string, it took him a long time to regain his balance.

He spat out large mouthfuls of blood.

A look of disbelief appeared on Patriarch Heartless’s face.

His Dragon Emperor holy armor had actually been shattered by Wang Ling’s Palm!

But if it hadn't been for the Dragon Emperor Holy Armor's protection just now, the power of that palm had probably crushed him into powder!

Chapter 1693 1,689, With An Outrageous Capitalization (1/92)

At this critical moment, the Dragon Emperor Holy Armor had saved his life.

If it hadn't been for the Holy Armor's protection, Patriarch Heartless knew that he would have died a long time ago. In the end, he had underestimated the power of Wang Ling's palm strike.

Who would have thought that the power of this palm strike would actually cause the entire ground of his supreme world to sink by hundreds of feet!

This terrifying and violent explosive force instantly formed a force that could crush anything in its path, making him completely powerless to resist and sent him flying on the spot.

By the time he came back to his senses, the Dragon Emperor holy armor, which had undergone dozens of chaotic baptisms, had already been reduced to dust, and there was no longer any possibility of it being repaired..

In the distance, the people from the battle sect were all exclaiming in their hearts. Although this was already a predictable outcome for those who were familiar with Wang Ling, when they actually saw it with their own eyes, they couldn't help feeling shocked and pale.

If there was anyone whose mind was blank at this moment, it was none other than nine temples Liangzi.

This was no longer a question of whether you had a lot of question marks, little friend.

It was a question of whether you had a lot of friends, little question mark..

The expression of shock on nine temples Liangzi's face couldn't be described with words. His appearance was so good that it resembled those exaggerated manga. If she hadn't seen it with her own eyes, she wouldn't have been able to imagine just how strong Wang Ling was.

"Is... is this still the student Wang Ling I Know?"

She covered her slightly open mouth in astonishment as she watched Wang Ling Crush the Dragon Emperor Holy Armor with one palm strike through the golden lamp Monk's vision in the core world, he had beaten patriarch heartless to the point of vomiting blood.

What surprised her even more was what happened next.

Because Wang Ling didn't seem to have any intention of holding back at all.

He was no longer as hesitant as he had been at the beginning, and instead took the initiative to launch a new round of attacks.

Whoosh!

Wang Ling exhaled a breath. This was the essence of the origin, a substance that had been condensed from the origin true qi. At that moment, not only had Wang Ling condensed it and sprayed it out of his body, but it was also mixed with a type of chaotic qi, it gave off an incomparably holy feeling.

In an instant, the aura of the Great Dao filled the entire area, and an incomprehensible and shocking universal divine sound came out of Wang Ling's body.

"This is impossible! How could this be!" At this moment, patriarch heartless felt as if his worldview had been shattered; he couldn't believe that such a sound was actually coming out of Wang Ling's body.

And it was the sound of many Great Dao!

This voice, which could only be heard in the universe, was actually coming from a young man's body..

What did this mean?

This meant..

That this young man's body was perhaps the embodiment of the universe.

Of course, this was just patriarch heartless's own guess; he simply couldn't imagine that such a ridiculous thing would happen in front of his eyes.

It really was ridiculous!

This was a very astonishing sight. When Wang Ling spat out the essence of the origin mixed with the power of chaos onto this supreme world, er, the Earth, a Great Dao lotus flower actually appeared out of thin air!

Heavenly Dao, Life Dao, Shadow Dao, Divine Dao... all kinds of great dao turned into lotus petals that propped up this great dao lotus from the ground, and it wasn't until this moment that.., it wasn't until now that the people from Zhan Zong realized that Wang Ling actually had more Great Dao than these!

This was because this lotus of Great Dao had a total of twenty-eight petals!

When the Lotus of Great Dao directly rose from the ground, Wang Ling's eyelids twitched, because he hadn't expected himself to actually have twenty-eight great dao..

Could it be that his major great dao was so powerful that he had suppressed the other Great Dao, so he hadn't noticed it at all on a normal day?

Although Wang Ling's expression was as calm as an ancient well, he was also extremely shocked in his heart.

He clearly remembered that when he had forced back the demon world's attack six years ago, his Lotus of Great Dao had only had two petals. He hadn't expected that six years later, it would already have twenty-eight petals.

Wang Ling couldn't help sighing in his heart at such a wild growth.

But even he hadn't expected that when he had used the Great Dao Lotus again, the Lotus had already grown to such an extent. For others, this kind of shocking effect was naturally even more spectacular.

When the lotus bud bloomed, a graceful crystal fairy emerged from the heart of the Lotus. Her entire body was crystal clear, and her face couldn't be seen. Her extremely beautiful body was wrapped in a light veil, she was peerlessly beautiful.

She was clearly no more than three inches in size, but at this moment, she was blooming with astonishing spirit energy. When she opened her eyes, Boundless Spirit Light was released, accompanied by a terrifying light that swept in all directions, illuminating this supreme world.

"Don't be impudent in my territory..." patriarch heartless couldn't take it any longer.

He clearly knew how powerful Wang Ling was, but he couldn't just watch Wang Ling Act wantonly here.

This was clearly his world, and he was the ruler and God here. Yet, a hothead had turned the tables on him here. Did he not care about face?

"Today, I will kill you at all costs!" At that moment, unintentional's state of mind had changed. At first, he had wanted to make Wang Ling and Wang Nuan into specimens for collection, but now, he couldn't care less, and only wanted to use all means to kill the two of them.

This lotus of Great Dao was indeed extraordinary, but Wang Ling didn't cultivate Great Dao in most of the Great Dao, so unintentional thought that it might not be as powerful as he had imagined.

He maximized the fluctuations of the divine brain in an attempt to form a spiritual connection with the entire supreme world. Then, under the indoctrination of the vast world's will, a terrifying creature broke out of the ground.

It was forcefully summoned by him with the power of the divine brain and the world will!

It was also a terrifying monster that unintentionally created through continuous research.

This burly creature had countless faces, and the most obvious one was actually a dragon head with tentacles.

The long dragon neck stretched out from the bloated body, spewing chaos flames! Arms and claws were on all sides, and it looked like a combination of all kinds of ultimate creatures, giving off a strong sense of oppression.

Just like the Lotus of Great Dao, this strange, multi-faced creature also had the power of Great Dao in its body.

“Eh? What’s This?” Grenade-throwing senior immortal asked.

“I didn’t expect that he could even take down Daoist Long’s dharma idol spirit... Moreover, he captured many unknown creatures from the Great Dao sect and fused them together.” Monk Golden Lamp was equally horrified.

But when he saw Wang Ling’s calm expression on the battlefield in the blink of an eye, he was completely relieved.

Indeed, finding creatures with different great dao abilities and combining them together would indeed achieve the same effect as the Great Dao Lotus under Wang Ling’s hand.

But the difference was that these Great Dao didn’t belong to patriarch heartless himself after all.

This person still didn’t know anything about power.

“Ya Ya Ya Ya Ya!” At this moment, Wang Nuan, who had been lying on Wang Ling’s shoulder the whole time, also jumped up and raised her hands to give a command.

This was to the fairy who had evolved from the Great Dao Lotus; it looked like she was giving some sort of command.

“What is Daoist Nuan talking about?” Most people in the battle sect didn’t understand.

Loopy toad was the only one who understood. “Nuan Wench, tell that Fairy Daolian to activate battle mode...”

Everyone: “...”

Chapter 1694 1,690, Battle Mode (1/92)

The Aura released by the Lotus of the Great Dao was extremely shocking, beyond the imagination of ordinary people.

Compared to the dragon-headed stitched monster before them, although it was similar to the composition of Fairy Dao Lian, the difference in aura was still obvious.

Especially after Fairy Dao Lian entered “Battle mode” under Wang Nuan’s orders.

As the fairy, who was only a few inches tall, waved her lotus dress, a powerful aura of Great Dao instantly spread out, shaking the entire world and affecting the laws of this supreme world.

The Aura under the lotus dress was boundless and contained a power that could move everything. The chaotic energy that permeated the air shuttled through the void, causing time and space to revolve. It seemed to contain a kind of chaotic power.

Boom!

The dragon head sewn creature summoned by patriarch heartless made its move at that moment. A Dragon Claw in its body was like a tentacle, extending endlessly from its body as it clawed at Fairy Dao Lotus.

The Claw turned the world upside down. It was incomparably violent, and it enveloped Fairy Dao Lotus within it.

Fairy Dao Lotus did not say a word. She closed her eyes slightly, and an aura that was unmatched in the generations came from her. She only used her body that was less than a few inches long to stretch out her slender little finger.

In an instant, everyone seemed to see a divine moon appear behind Fairy Dao Lotus.

Cold, bright, and unexcelled, there was a mythical aura spreading out.

“Buzz!”

She pointed her finger at the Dragon Claw. In the eyes of the people from the battle sect, Fairy Dao Lotus' finger was so small that in front of the huge Dragon Claw, it was as small as a sesame seed.

However, when this sesame seed-sized finger collided with the Dragon Claw, it actually exploded the dragon claw into pieces on the spot! It directly shattered it!

The power of just one finger had easily shattered the dragon claw, which had been stitched together like a strange mountain.

Although Dao Lotus Fairy, which Wang Ling had summoned, was small, her power was indeed unparalleled.

After the Dragon Claw was shattered, the pain of the backlash quickly returned to patriarch heartless. His brain started to hurt, and he would have spurted out a mouthful of blood, but when the blood reached his mouth, he swallowed it back down.

As an immortal, he didn't want to lose his composure in this kind of situation and look disheveled.

However, Wang Ling's strength was still far beyond his imagination.

He even began to feel a sense of despair.

He couldn't figure out why such a person could survive in this world. He wasn't even twenty years old, but he had many great daos in his body.

Although he had no intention of hiding his expression, his eyes were clearly filled with fear.

Although this gaze was fleeting, Wang Ling quickly caught it.

The confrontation between experts was a battle of imposing manner.

Once such a gaze was shown...

It meant that...

The defeat had already been decided.

In order to better protect Wang Nuan, Wang Ling didn't personally take action. Instead, he summoned this lotus of Great Dao and let Fairy Dao Lotus take care of it for him.

He clearly knew Fairy Dao Lotus' combat strength, so he wasn't worried about the outcome of this battle.

Boom!

Perhaps because she had caught the hint of fear in heartless' eyes, Fairy Dao Lotus decisively attacked again.

She still didn't say a word and directly left the remaining lotus of Great Dao. She turned into the most dazzling meteor and rose into the air. From the bottom up, she used her slender legs to ruthlessly lash out at the dragon-headed stitching monster, creating a huge explosion, everyone was shocked.

No one doubted the power of this whip kick. It was incomparably fierce and carried the power to break everything. It swept across the entire scene!

The dragon-headed suturing monster suffered a painful blow. Countless faces on its entire body began to distort. Endless wails came from all directions.

Fairy Dao Lotus's kick caused the huge body of the dragon-headed suturing monster to cave in. On its huge body, the dozens of faces in that area seemed to have been twisted into a ball by something.

Woo!

Forefather heartless finally could not endure the pain of the backlash from such a huge force. The blood that he had just swallowed surged out of his body again and he spat it out on the spot. At the same time, he felt an intense pain in his divine brain, it was as if it was about to split open on the spot.

On the other side, Fairy Dao Lotus, who had activated her battle mode, was not heartless. As her small body moved rhythmically, she began to split into several phantoms and attacked the dragon-head suturing monster from all directions.

With each kick, patriarch heartless would spit out a mouthful of blood, and with each kick, he would fall from the sky to the ground like a meteor that had lost its light, kneeling on the ground.

His originally delicate and handsome face was no longer delicate and handsome, but had become old.

Fairy Dao Lotus's every kick was so powerful that it could shatter stars and at the same time, break a person's time.

It wasn't until this moment that Wuxin realized that among the twenty-eight great dao that Wang Ling had, there was actually... the legendary great dao of time!

Although it wasn't a Major Dao, it was a dao that could control eternal life!

It was a DAO that he had always dreamed of mastering..

This young man had clearly comprehended this great dao, but he didn't view it as a Major Dao, and instead put it aside?

This made patriarch heartless find it hard to believe.

Thus, each of Fairy Dao Lotus's kicks carried the power of time. One after another, she kicked patriarch heartless from his delicate and handsome appearance into an old and frail side dish.

He could not even stand properly. He knelt on one knee and trembled. The wrinkles on his face were especially obvious. In an instant, he had lost all his dignity.

As an eternal warrior, it was extremely unfortunate and humiliating to be heartless!

"I haven't lost yet... i..."

Fairy Dao Lotus didn't say any nonsense. Even though heartless had already turned into such a miserable state, she still didn't show any mercy. After activating battle mode, she would only complete her mission according to Wang Ling's orders.

Bang!

She flicked her finger again and used "Hong Meng Finger" to tap the dragon head stitching monster's expression.

In an instant, the entire Supreme World Split Open. It was as if a cake had been cut into tiny squares, densely packed together, and cut into extremely uniform pieces one by one.

Huge amounts of energy directly seeped in, instantly disintegrating the stitching monster and splitting it into pieces. Countless pieces of flesh exploded, and then, as the power of chaos seeped in, they turned into fine powder bit by bit.

"PFFT!" Patriarch heartless spat out blood again. Unable to resist, he fell to the ground.

There was basically no suspense in such a battle; it had already been decided from the Moment Dao Lotus Fairy attacked.

From the moment Wang Ling decided to kill heartless no matter the cost, he had already taken the initiative.

Without any strength left to resist, the battle sect's people were dumbstruck by the brutal beating throughout.

After confirming that patriarch heartless had been thoroughly beaten to the ground and couldn't get up again, Dao Lotus Fairy returned to the Great Dao Lotus.

Then, the petals of the lotus closed up again and turned into a bolt of lightning, which was sucked back into Wang Ling's King's eye.

"That's it?" Everyone in the battle sect was suspicious.

Of course not.

This was just a performance by Dao Lotus Fairy earlier.

It wasn't Wang Ling's turn yet

Although patriarch heartless was already a dying dog, Wang Ling had no intention of showing any sacred heart this time.

Bang!

Bang!

Two loud bangs rang out again!

Wang Ling took Wang Nuan with him.

One of the siblings gave patriarch heartless another slap.

This eternal warrior who had previously threatened to turn them into specimens.

Finally, at this moment, along with the disintegration of the supreme world, turned into a meat paste and stopped breathing forever.

Chapter 1695 1,691: Wang Ming's Memory Crystal Card (1/92)

The death of patriarch heartless couldn't be described as anything but tragic. When Wang Ling and Wang Nuan moved their palms away, his body was already completely dehumanized.

Because this supreme world was in a different space and not on earth, it was a perfectly safe "Lawless land", so Wang Ling didn't have much to worry about when he attacked.

On Earth, according to the current cultivation law, he might have been sentenced to "Excessive defense"..

Furthermore, he and Wang Nuan each had a palm strike.

The destructive power of this brother-sister combination palm technique was simply too strong, and there was no way to end it later.

“The supreme world has collapsed. It looks like patriarch heartless is really dead,”said Xiang Yi after sensing the fluctuations of the aura in the space.

“After all, it was Ling Zhenren and Nuan Zhenren’s palm strike. The two of them were like young men whose confessions had been rejected,”golden lamp said at this moment.

“Young Men’s hearts?”

“Yeah, these young men’s hearts are like a crushed plastic bottle. This kind of injury can never be repaired.”

“Not necessarily,”loopy toad added at this moment.

“Why does little friend Zhuo say that?”Golden lamp didn’t understand.

“Isn’t it just a broken plastic bottle? Just blow on it.”

Everyone:”...”

Among the people present, only lotus sun and Liangzi nine temples were confused and didn’t know what to say.

On the other side, in the Emperor City of the illusory realm, the last group of people in Emperor City who were still dealing with unnamable creatures quickly received a good report as they died unintentionally.

Li Xian and Zhang Zicao had been sent to use the special little corpse map to take in those creatures, and they had now successfully completed their mission and returned victorious.

They moved extremely quickly and acted completely according to Wang Ling's instructions and without any hesitation.

Who would have thought that just as they were about to report back to Wang Ming, Patriarch Wu Xin had also stopped at the same time.

The confrontation between experts was so plain and boring.

As expected of Ling Zhenren.

Although Li Xian and Zhang Zicao had long expected how the winner and loser of this battle would be decided, they hadn't expected that patriarch heartless, who was said to have activated 100% of his divine brain and was invincible, would actually die so quickly.

"I'll have to trouble the two seniors to bring the little corpse-wrapping diagram to Ling Ling." Wang Ming had been in Jia Bugui's body for some time, and after the brainwave fusion earlier, his expression now looked a little strange.

"How is Mr. Ming? I feel like you're very uncomfortable?"

"It's within my expectations. "After all, my brainwave in this body is only a small part of my original body, and it won't last long," Wang Ming said. "In order to completely hide me, I even fused my will with the original owner of this body, but as time passes, the original owner's will will return. "I'll be kicked out."

"Then what do we do now?"

"In this illusory realm and in this vast emperor city, I've discovered something interesting. It's helpful for my own personal research." Speaking up to this point, Wang Ming took out a blue crystal card from his clothes.

This was a copy of the crystal card he had made while Li Xian and Zhang Zi were on a mission. It was able to copy his current state of brain waves and transfer it to the card.

“How about this, you guys take this crystal card with you later. The crystal card contains some information that I have obtained in the illusory realm. When you go back, just hand it over to my main body,” Wang Ming said.

Li Xian and Zhang Zixi looked at each other for a moment, then raised their hands and bowed. “Yes, Mr. Ming.”

Wang Ming’s current state was actually equivalent to a small clone technique. After the mission was completed, the clone would disappear, and his brainwaves would disappear as well. This was a very normal thing.

..

With heartless patriarch taken care of, this illusory realm and the entire Emperor City were unmanaged, and the jurisdiction naturally fell to the war sect.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal wanted to stabilize the situation in Emperor City before handing it over to Huaxiu Alliance.

If Huaxiu Alliance didn’t want it, then they could directly use their geographical location to open a war sect branch or something.

Wang Ling snapped his fingers and moved everyone back into Emperor City.

Immortal Toya had been waiting here for a long time.

Although the mission this time was relatively successful, there were still people who were injured, so after receiving the notification from Li Xian and Zhang Zicao’s doppelgangers, he quickly entered Emperor City with the two of them leading the way.

Now that Emperor City was in chaos and order had yet to be established, the gate to the passage to Emperor City was wide open, and countless wealthy people in the core area drove their carriages to the slums, they began to compete with the poor people over there for a safe place.

Of course, these problems would be solved after war ancestor took over the city and helped the technology city restore peace as soon as possible.

At the same time, the chaos rudder was also brought back.

After seeing its master, forefather heartless, being killed so miserably, the chaos rudder was not stupid. It knew that it would be useless if it tried to resist.

Thus, for the first time, the artifact spirit of the chaos rudder made a sound, and its voice was full of fear. “Don’t... Don’t turn me into a milk bottle...”

Loopy toad rolled its eyes. “I’m just turning you into a milk bottle, I’m not going to kill you. I was just a toad back then, and it’s actually pretty good to change my appearance.”

“This... but I still don’t want to be made into a milk bottle...”

“My master is kind and kind, and making you into a milk bottle is a chance for redemption. Otherwise, tell me, what use do you have?”

“But there are many materials in this world that can be used to make milk bottles...”

“But they’re not as strong as yours.”

Loopy toad continued to persuade him earnestly. “My master took a fancy to you because you gave him face. As for the other materials you mentioned, they’re nothing more than those pure paper straws in the milk tea shop. They can’t be inserted, Can’t be sucked, and will soften halfway through.”

Everyone:”...”

Lotus Sun and Liangzi Jiugong were the only ones in the audience who were confused and didn’t know what to say.

“So I advise you to give up resisting,”loopy toad said.

The rudder of the chaotic ship was very desperate. Its purpose was to change the trajectory of everything, and if it turned into a milk bottle... perhaps its own function would also change with its appearance.

“Ya Ya Ya Ya!” At this moment, Wang Nuan suddenly said again.

As a level ten expert in “Infant language,” Loopy toad quickly translated what Wang Nuan meant. “Our Immortal Nuan said that we won’t change your function. Even if it’s a milk bottle, it can still look like the rudder. As long as your body is hollowed out...”

“Hollowed out...”

“That’s right, hollowed out to look like a container and then added a pacifier on top. When you drink it, I can drink it with you, so it’ll be more stable.”

” ... ”

Chaos rudder sighed in its heart.

It knew that at this point, it was already doomed

It was 100% certain that it would be turned into a milk bottle and wouldn’t be able to escape.

Furthermore, it had no room to struggle or resist.

As for the rest of the battle sect, most of them just wanted to watch the show.

Of course, there was one person who was thinking about something else at this time.

Lotus Sun’s mind was filled with thoughts about Wang Ling’s birthday present.

It was just that she hadn’t figured out what to give him yet.

If it was possible..

She really wanted to gift-wrap herself!

Chapter 1696 1692, Knowledge Of Gift-Giving (1/92)

In the past, she had never worried about a gift, because there were simply too many gifts in this world that could be bought with money. But when she faced Wang Ling, she still wanted to give him something special, at the very least, it had to be a gift that reflected her sincerity and sincerity.

After all, a gift that could be bought with money wasn't called sincerity.

When she was very young, Sun Yiyuan had taught her that gift-giving was actually a very delicate thing for Huaxiu's cultivators. Gifts also contained great knowledge, it was not unreasonable for the traditional culture of reciprocity to last for thousands of years.

Reasonable reciprocity was an important course in interpersonal relationships, and was different from direct gift-giving in the simple sense.

And gifts were not necessarily better the more expensive they were. The key was their "Suitability".

Nowadays, more and more people misinterpreted the meaning of "Giving gifts". It often changed the meaning of giving gifts.

She did not believe in this excuse in the past. It was only now that she realized the profundity of this knowledge..

It turned out..

When you like someone, you will really become very conflicted about the choice of gifts!

The more you cared about them, the more you liked them.

And the more you liked them, the more you would feel hesitant.

..

After about twenty minutes, Wang Ling had already transformed the rudder of the chaos boat into a rudder-shaped milk bottle. At the same time, he had also made milk powder out of the multicolored light that he had stored earlier.

The nutritional chaos milk that he had brewed was very beautiful in color, and it was actually seven-colored with specks of Starlight. The warm girl held the milk bottle and gobbled it down, her soft little face filled with happiness.

“It looks very delicious...” nine temples Liangzi propped up his knees and looked at Wang Nuan sucking the milk. No girl wouldn’t feel motherly at such a sight.

She felt that Wang Nuan was too cute.

She even had the dangerous thought of having a child with Odd Zhuo..

“As expected of Daoist Nuan. Only Ling Zhenren and Daoist Nuan’s physiques can withstand this milk.” Monk Jin Deng smiled with curved eyes.

The milk powder made from the chaotic light didn’t seem like much to Wang Ling and Wang Nuan, but this kind of milk actually had a very strong after-effect and was very easy to get into.

If anyone else drank it, even just one mouthful would feel like they had been poured a strong drink. If their physiques were slightly weaker and they drank more, it was very easy for their bodies to overflow with energy and explode.

“So senior golden lamp means that his body will explode?”

Hearing this, grenade-throwing senior immortal’s interest was piqued. “This can also be considered as unlocking a new method of death, which is very helpful in improving my death-courting Daoist scripture.”

“As expected of senior immortal...”

When the rest of the battle sect heard this, they all exclaimed in admiration.

This great death-courting senior was already on the path of unlocking a new method of death, unable to extricate himself..

Since ancient times, it had also been unheard of for people to repeatedly die to increase the intensity of their cultivation.

Although they would be resurrected.

The pain of death could still be felt!

There were all kinds of death methods..

Some even had to die in extreme pain.

According to the brain circuits of normal people, no matter how strong the death-courting Daoist scripture was, it was impossible for them to learn such a method to increase their cultivation.

As for Wang Ling and grenade-throwing Senior Immortal, one dared teach and the other dared learn..

Of course, if grenade-throwing senior immortal learned something in the end, the increase in his battle strength would be unparalleled! At the later stage, as long as he unlocked a new way of dying, the increase in his battle strength would be much greater than the experience the monk had gained from his reincarnation!

At that time, for grenade-throwing senior immortal, his death would be equivalent to his reincarnation!

And the monk still needed to go through his current life's experience before he could enter the next reincarnation.

Just the growth rate alone was different.

“After dealing with senior immortal, Qin Zong and I have already set up the battle sect’s teleportation array as you instructed. It connects directly from the Battle Sect’s true supreme hall to this Emperor City’s castle hall.” Xiang Yi said with a black sniper rifle case on his back.

He and Qin Zong had worked together to successfully build this green passage.

The rest of the work was to wait for the battle sect to completely take over the current situation in the science and Technology City.

But for now, it was a bit of a pity.

After this matter with the illusory realm was over, he and Qin Zong wouldn’t be able to stay here for long.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal was used to observing people’s expressions, and he could still tell what Qin Zong and Xiang Yi were thinking, he immediately said, “After this ordeal, the two of you are already guest elders of our war sect. If you don’t mind, why don’t you stay here for a few more days? In any case, if you go back, Brother Ling will be able to send you back to the previous world line, and you can even specify a time node. It Won’t affect the two of you.”

“Is... really okay?”

Hearing this, their eyes immediately flickered.

They looked at Wang Ling, who shrugged nonchalantly.

If it had been an ordinary person, Wang Ling naturally wouldn’t have agreed.

But Qin Zong and Xiang Yi...

Could be exceptions.

“Thank you so much, Ling Zhenren and Senior Immortal!”

The two of them immediately bowed and nodded.

It wasn't every day that they could learn by Wang Ling's side!

..

Although the green transmission channel had already been built, the internal structure of the channel was very complicated due to the twists and turns of the space, so a third-party medium was needed to carry out the transmission.

Wang Ling directly reorganized the Rubik's cubes that had been sealed to hold the creatures, forming something like a space elevator. The internal space was extremely large, with a maximum bearing capacity of 10 trillion tons.

Battle sect's side was split into two groups. One group stayed behind to dock, while the other went back to share information about the science and technology city.

Because he had to take care of Little Nuan and take care of her, Wang Ling didn't go back right away.

To Wang Ling's surprise, Lotus Sun actually didn't think of any way to get on the same class as him this time. She directly took Liangzi Jiugong's hand and entered the elevator, looking like she was on her way back.

"Wang Ling... I'll see you on Earth!" Before she left, she was still full of smiles as she gracefully greeted him.

As soon as the elevator door closed, she immediately dialed Sun Yiyuan's number.

Liangzi Jiugong was shocked. "There's even a signal here?"

Odd Zhuo smiled. "Senior golden lamp has already turned on Shifu's phone, so it won't be a problem for the signal to cross over. She can even make calls from the third dimension to the second dimension."

“In other words, she can talk to those fictional anime characters?”

“In theory, she can,” Odd Zhuo said. “If my master enlightens her, she might even be able to bring those fictional anime characters out.”

”...”Zhou Ziyi was also extremely shocked when he heard this.

He knew that Odd Zhuo had planned all of this so that he could smoothly acknowledge Wang Shigong as his master and gain the approval of that Wang Shigong outside..

After this incident, Zhou Ziyi’s worldview could be said to have been completely refreshed.

His master was too strong..

So strong that he had once wondered if he was a human..

Chapter 1697 1,693, The Old Avengers Formed By The Victims (1/92)

Chaos, darkness, and the fear of drowning..

This pain was a side effect of anyone who had fought with Wang Ling.

Just a second before he had been killed, patriarch heartless had used his last bit of strength to separate his brain waves and become a wandering thing in the universe.

He had wanted to silently attach himself to the battle sect members’ minds on the battlefield and patiently wait for a counterattack, but in the end, the moment he had separated himself.

This wandering brainwave had been captured by an inexplicable force, and it was as if it had been wrapped up in a heavenly net, airtight and airtight.

“Who are you...”it was hard for heartless to believe that he would be caught.

“Like you, we are Avengers waiting for an opportunity.”The voice laughed, coming directly from the depths of his mind. However, he was too weak at the moment, and was simply unable to let go of this voice.

“The most important thing now is to recover your divine brain.”

The voice continued, “But your body is no longer there...”

“Do you have a way?” Unintentionally asked.

Based on his intuition, he could actually tell that the person who had captured him was definitely not on Wang Ling’s side.

And for some reason, he had a strong intuition.

He felt that the person he was talking to had also been “Persecuted” by Wang Ling before.

This was an exchange between victims. Although they weren’t familiar with each other, they had a wonderful telepathic connection.

“It’s not difficult to solve the problem in the body. I have time cells. I can let you use the power of time memory to return to your original appearance after the recovery of the Divine Brain.” At this moment, another voice came from his mind.

“Who are you?” Unintentional did not understand.

“Both of us are victims. You only need to know that we will help you.”

“But the God’s brain is already broken. What I have here is only a portion of the separated brain waves. It’s easier said than done to restore it.”

“Actually, it’s not that difficult. We just need to find a suitable match.”

The tomb god said, “And this match is actually on earth... how long can the current you stay in a person’s body for?”

“Less than an hour at most.”

“That’s enough.”

Bai Zhe nodded and echoed with the tomb god, “Next, we will help you transfer this memory to a person silently.”

“Who?”

“This is a citizen of your city and a wealthy merchant in the core area. His name is... Jia Bugui.”

“Jia Bugui?”He seemed to have some impression of this person.

But he couldn’t figure out why it was him.

“It looks like you still don’t know that your world has long been invaded by brainwaves.”

Bai Zhe laughed. “This person’s name is Wang Ming, and he’s also one of our future opponents...”

“So What’s the plan now?”

“This person is very compatible with you, so as long as you cooperate with us to complete this plan of changing the crown prince without anyone noticing, your brainwaves will quietly enter his body and then take over his body.”

Bai Zhe said, “Of course, it’s not impossible to fulfill all of these conditions.”

“Then... tell me about the conditions.”Unintentional knew that in reality, she had no other choice in her current situation.

“Join us.”

Bai Zhe and the tomb god said in unison, “We are called the old Avengers...”

..

On the way to the space elevator, Lotus Sun picked up the call from Sun Yiyuan, the head of the Sun family. There was a sense of urgency in her words. "Grandfather, I want to ask you..."

She hadn't wanted to trouble old master sun, but the situation was urgent now, and it was almost Wang Ling's birthday. She was flustered and didn't know what to give him to express her feelings.

"You said you wanted to give classmate Wang Ling a gift, but you don't know what to give him, right?" This question also stumped Sun Yiyuan.

He knew Wang Ling's personality; it wasn't good to be too outstanding and high-profile.

"How about an aircraft carrier?" Sun Yiyuan thought for a moment and said seriously.

"An aircraft carrier..."

Lotus Sun felt as if she had instantly choked on her words. "Grandpa... isn't this aircraft carrier too high-profile?"

"How can it be high-profile? It's just a yacht... I didn't send a spaceship or anything like that..."

"..."

Lotus Sun was speechless.

It seemed that her grandfather seemed to have some misunderstanding about keeping a low profile.

However, with the Sun family's wealth, an aircraft carrier was indeed like a yacht. Just the port where Huaguo Water Curtain Group worked together had no less than 60 ships parked there.

"But Grandpa, even if this isn't high-profile to you, a gift that can be bought with money isn't considered sincere," said Lotus Sun.

After saying this, Sun Yiyuan nodded meaningfully. “Oh... That’s true. How about a few words of local flavor?”

“Local... local flavor?” Lotus Sun looked puzzled.

“For example, Lotus Sun, what’s your favorite wine?” Sun Yiyuan asked.

“Grandpa, I’m still a student...”

“I know.”. “So, this is just an analogy,” Sun Yiyuan said. “If these words are from you to student Wang Ling, then you’ll know what to say.”. Student Wang Ling certainly doesn’t know how to answer, and then you’ll be able to act accordingly.”

“What should I say next?” Lotus Sun asked.

Loopy toad sighed. “With you, of course.”

Lotus Sun, the rest of the crowd:”...”

Sun Yiyuan: “For another example, you can tell classmate Wang Ling that you are Ling ‘er and he is Ding ‘dong.”

Loopy toad: “Because Ling ‘er wants (ring) Ding Dong.”

Lotus Sun and the others:”...”

Loopy toad: “Oh, that’s right, I know one more thing about this idiotic love story. You can say that you’re the legend of the sword and Fairy, and he’s the legend of the Knight of the sword and Fairy.”

Lotus Sun and the others:”?”

Although Lotus Sun didn't quite understand it, she had a feeling that something wasn't quite right with loopy toad..

After asking several times and failing to get the answer she wanted, lotus sun hung up the phone in disappointment.

The main thing was that she felt that if they continued chatting, her mind would collapse even more.

Liangzi jiugong suggested, “Seriously, Lotus, do you want to send yourself out to give Wang Ling a surprise?”

”...”

Lotus Sun's face instantly turned red. “Is... is this really okay?”

To be honest, this was what she had been thinking before, but she didn't know if it was possible..

“I think it's possible.”

Liangzi Jiugong continued with his strategy. “Look, when the time comes, you can find an excuse to say that student Wang Ling's crispy noodle snacks have won the lottery. In addition to giving him a limited edition crispy noodle snacks, there's also a big gift box with a beautifully wrapped package, but you're hidden inside the big gift box...”

Chapter 1698 1,694: Send Me Out (1/92)

“Is... This really going to work?” Lotus sun was skeptical about nine temples Liangzi's plan.

Putting aside whether this method was feasible or not, even if she hid herself well, Wang Ling would probably be able to see through her at a glance.

In the past, she might have been able to try this when she didn't know how strong Wang Ling was, but now that she knew Wang Ling's true strength, wouldn't trying this method just make her feel uncomfortable.

“Not necessarily, there might be a chance.” Monk Jin Deng knew exactly what Lotus Sun was worried about, he couldn’t help smiling. “Miss Rong is still worried that she’ll be seen through, but if we take a multi-pronged approach, we might be able to deceive the world.”

When the monk said this, in fact, he wasn’t really helping Lotus Sun in his heart, but wanted to try and see if there really was a way to deceive Wang Ling.

Challenging Wang Ling was golden lamp’s daily routine.

Even if he couldn’t beat him in terms of physical strength, the monk still wanted to challenge him in other areas on a daily basis.

Although monks shouldn’t be competitive, the monk never felt that he was competitive; he was clearly motivated to challenge others.

But the key to whether he had the right to challenge Lotus Sun or not was actually Lotus Sun.

On the side, Odd Zhuo, Zhou Ziyi, and loopy toad faintly felt that no matter how they heard it, it was impossible to stop Lotus Sun’s birthday surprise.

What happened next was that one dared to say it, and the other dared to listen.

“Then, senior... What Should I do?” Lotus Sun asked.

“If we want to keep this a secret, we need to do three things at once,” the golden lamp monk suggested. “First, we need to divert our attention. Just as Miss Liangzi said, we need to deliver enough crispy noodle snacks so that Ling Zhenren’s attention won’t be on the Big Gift Box Miss Rong is in.”

“That makes sense! Senior, Keep Talking!” Lotus Sun believed him.

“Second, we need to do something about the packaging. At that time, this penniless monk will personally help Miss Rong. Miss Rong only needs to use the golden talismans this penniless monk has opened to cover her entire body. Although she probably won’t be able to fool Ling Zhenren, she can at least resist for a while.”

The golden lamp monk came up with a plan. “And then... the most important point is that Ling Zhenren’s King’s eye has the ability to remove the false and preserve the true. Any disguise is useless. Therefore, brother Odd Zhuo will need to help with this.”

“Me?”

Odd Zhuo pointed at himself, and the expression on his face gradually became savage. “Hahaha! Sure! How can I help? !”

As a disciple, this wasn’t the first time he had done something like setting master up.

In any case, it was to promote the relationship between Lotus Sun and Wang Ling, so of course he had to do it.

“I remember that brother Odd Zhuo has a king’s eye sharing mechanism, so can you use the king’s eye sharing ability to temporarily turn off the passive ability of the king’s eye the moment Ling Zhenren receives the gift. To prevent the passive ability from removing the fake and preserving the real.”

The monk said, “Of course, you don’t need to resist for too long; a few minutes will be enough.”

“This...”

Odd Zhuo rubbed his chin, frowned, and said immediately, “I’ve never tried this before... I don’t know if it’ll work. Besides, isn’t this cheating the master and destroying the ancestor...”

“Brother Odd Zhuo is overthinking it. How is this cheating the master and destroying the ancestor? It’s clearly a beautiful talk about marriage.”

“I see...” Odd Zhuo nodded. “Alright, I’ll try.”

” ...”

Seeing the group of people discussing the plan so seriously, Liangzi nine temples started to regret her earlier suggestion.

She had only said so much about the gift..

But who knew that Lotus Sun was completely desperate and really believed her!

For some reason, she had a bad feeling about this.

..

That night, after returning to the cadre's apartment, Odd Zhuo immediately drew up a "Plan of acceptance" for the war sect's official acceptance of the science and technology city in the illusory realm.

His position in the war sect was quite special. In addition to his position as a guest elder, he was also one of the war sect's ministers. The war sect was now divided into eight sections, the eighth section he was in mainly carried out the following three duties: supervising the sect's overall discipline, coordinating the sect's future direction, and planning its current development plans.

To put it bluntly, the Internet could also be summed up as: Dog Management + dog planning..

This time, the fact that the war sect had attacked the technology city in advance without approval was in fact a violation of the rules, so Odd Zhuo had to emphasize this in his plan, the danger of this technology city... after making that part an "Emergency escape," he would report it to Huaxiu Alliance.

There were only two outcomes. One was that after the war sect had completed the docking, Huaxiu Alliance would take over the technology city.

First, the war sect would take over the entire city and smoothly expand its branches.

Of course, one more technology city was still one less technology city, which wasn't important to the current war sect. The war sect was now the number one sect with strong troops and powerful forces.

What they needed to do wasn't to blindly become stronger, but to find a way to stabilize their current position.

Thus, as the head of the eight divisions of the war sect, Odd Zhuo naturally had to ensure that there wouldn't be any mistakes.

Of course..

Apart from this "Acceptance proposal," Odd Zhuo also had another proposal, which was regarding Zhou Ziyi's plan to take him in as a disciple..

After this incident, he felt that Zhou Ziyi was already fully qualified to become his disciple with his outstanding performance.

And now, all that was missing was a nod from Wang Ling.

..

Among the first batch of people to return, Li Xian and Zhang Zicao were also among them.

They had also heard about Wang Ling's birthday, but they weren't very concerned about Lotus Sun's plans; they were more concerned about what they should give him.

In this regard, the two of them had a tacit understanding that no one had more say than the person they were going to meet next.

In Wang Ming's private research institute, the two of them had given the memory chip to him according to Wang Ming's Brainwave Doppelganger's instructions in Science City.

The moment he saw the chip, Wang Ming knew what had happened. He couldn't help smiling as he held the chip. "So that's how it is. Did you copy your memories in Science City? That's very similar to my doppelganger's style."

“Mr. Ming from the science and Technology City said that there will be important research materials here.”

“After all, my opponent is the legendary immemorial, the man who mastered the core technology in the immemorial era. It will naturally be helpful to my research,” Wang Ming said, he couldn’t help sighing. “It’s just that there’s still a pity about this...”

Li Xian looked at Wang Ming. “Mr. Ming, are you referring to that Shouchong?”

“Mm.” Wang Ming nodded. “It’s said that after he was captured, he was split apart and let the scent of forefather heartless’s disciple fuse into his brain.”

“That’s right.” Zhang Zi nodded. “It’s a pity that brother Li Xian and I were too late. Otherwise, we might have been able to save him.”

“It’s all fate.”

Wang Ming sighed, then inserted the chip in his hand into a helmet-shaped disintegrator, he then put the helmet on his head. “Now, let’s see what useful information I brought over there...”

Chapter 1699 1,695: Wang Ling’s Overall Defense (1/92)

All along, Wang Ling had actually had a faint intuition that some of the major events that had happened recently might have come to an end, but perhaps they hadn’t really been resolved.

The dark forces behind the scenes might be planning a counterattack and might form a hemp rope to deal with him.

It sounded a little scary.

It even made Wang Ling a little flustered.

But this Fluster wasn’t for him; it was for his family.

He was indeed very strong. In the end, father and mother Wang were just ordinary little cultivators who hadn’t even reached the foundation establishment stage. As for his younger sister, Wang Nuan, she hadn’t even officially matured yet.

Although it was important to accumulate combat experience, she was still in the stage of growth and development, and it wouldn't be good if the Nuan Girl fought too many times.

According to teacher Luo Xiang, if the Nuan Girl continued to fight, it might constitute the crime of "Employing child laborers to engage in dangerous labor."

Wang Ling felt that he couldn't bear this crime.

Therefore, he felt that it was necessary to make various preparations.

It wasn't for himself, but for his family.

It was clearly not enough just to transform into a spiritual monster. If father and mother Wang were to go out, they might run into other dangers.

It was also because of this that Wang Ling didn't cancel the Kylin arm that he had transformed into for Father Wang last time.

As everyone knew, this pair of Kylin Arms had transformed into a kylin maid.

One was called Kato.

The other was called Eagle.

He was already an intelligent controller now, and his learning ability was very strong. After watching the martial arts videos in the movies and learning from all aspects of battle experience, Wang Ling heard that Father Wang's Inch Punch had been very powerful recently, his punches hit flesh, and his hand speed was extremely fast. He was almost no different from the martial arts star in the movies, and even had the momentum to surpass him at one point.

Of course, this was an effect that could only be achieved when the Kylin arm was activated.

Under normal circumstances, the Kylin arm was invisible.

On one hand, it was to prevent the Kylin maid incarnation of the Kylin arm from destroying the harmonious relationship between husband and wife.

On the other hand, it was also to prevent father Wang from accidentally breaking the keyboard while he was typing.

So now, the Kylin arm would only be automatically activated and activated in life-threatening situations.

All in all, compared to mother Wang, father Wang still had a certain degree of self-defense ability.

But overall, it wasn't enough.

The enemies they were facing now were no longer the arrogant bugs in the corners of Earth.

They were all universe-level bigwigs, creatures from the old factions, the immemorial ones..

When they encountered these people, they had to be well-protected in all aspects.

When Wang Nuan had been born, the tomb God had wanted to attack mother Wang, and this had actually given Wang Ling a very important revelation.

He felt that it was time to pay attention to his parents.

On Friday, December 26th, Wang Ling took a day off for the first time and didn't go to school.

It was clearly his birthday, but he was worried about the safety of his father and mother and the comprehensive defense of the Wang family's small villa.

Father and mother Wang were very touched.

It was Wang Ling's birthday, and he had actually thought of giving them presents.

Although the presents were long johns..

To be honest, Wang Ling had gotten the inspiration from Zhou Ziyi.

During this trip to science and Technology City, Odd Zhuo had given Zhou Ziyi layers after layers of long johns to avoid danger.

He directly turned Zhou Ziyi into a “Michelin tire.”.

But the results were surprisingly good.

For the defenseless father and mother Wang, Long Johns were indeed the best choice.

Of course, Wang Ling made a whole new improvement to the long johns he had given him this time!

He directly upgraded them to version 5.0!

The updates were as follows:

Version 1:5.0 Long Johns had the defensive power of ten ordinary Long Johns.

2: there was no need to worry about being restricted. With one set on the body, it could lock onto all parts of the body for thorough protection.

3: in case of emergency, it could activate the body double attack mode. At that time, the long Johns would summon powerful body double bodyguards to protect you in all directions..

..

Furthermore, it was the backyard and front yard of the Wang family’s small villa.

After returning from the science and Technology City, Wang Ling had also brought back 096, which had previously recognized a Nuan as its master, and was currently being raised in the backyard.

096 was originally a human-shaped rabbit-eared creature, and Wang Ling had taught 096 a transformation technique so that it could transform into a cute rabbit on its own.

It was only the size of a teacup, snow-white, and looked harmless. However, it could still be seen from the way it covered its face that it was 096.

In other words, loopy toad was now in the Wang family's front yard and 096 was in the backyard.

It was unheard of for a dog and a rabbit to act as security guards.

“What about the feed?” Loopy toad asked at this moment.

Compared to 096, loopy Toad's private chat was provided by dopey Guo on a regular basis. Now that it had become a divine beast, in addition to ordinary private chats, it could also absorb the power of chaos to replenish itself.

But 096 was different. Although in theory, this type of host creature was also a product of chaos, in the eyes of chaos, it was an error that had been born from chaos.

Thus, their own attributes were actually a little strange, and they weren't compatible with chaos, and the power of chaos couldn't provide 096 with normal energy support.

But Wang Ling had already thought of this long ago.

He took out a grass seed from his pocket and directly sowed it in the backyard.

This grass seed shocked 096 and loopy toad at the same time.

“It's actually a heaven tomb grass...” loopy toad was completely stunned.

“Mm.” Wang Ling nodded.

The grass seed of this heavenly tomb grass had been given to it by Leng Ming, and since it was a heavenly tomb grass itself, it naturally had some grass seeds as well.

The principle was similar to how a monkey would pluck its hair and turn it into a monkey grandson..

The key was that the heavenly tomb grass was different from ordinary grass. It was a type of grass that wasn't a product of chaos, but could endlessly grow by absorbing all kinds of energy, such as chaos, spirit energy, Primordial Qi, and so on.

As long as the energy was replenished, it was a perpetual motion machine that could continuously grow higher.

It would definitely be enough to feed 096.

As for growth, Wang Ling had also prepared a "Chaos shower" that would connect the space inside to the universe and periodically absorb the chaotic energy of the universe.

Since 096 couldn't absorb the chaotic energy to replenish its own energy, it could use this chaos shower to water the heaven tomb grass first, and then harvest it as feed once it was fertilized.

Of course, apart from loopy toad and 096 guarding the exterior of the Wang family's small villa, the defenses were obviously not enough.

So Wang Ling also took out a pair of red matching paintings from his "King's treasure pants" and pasted them in the backyard and front yard.

On the painting was a pair of bearded old men who looked a little like the old K in poker, a common type of defensive magic treasure. Under normal circumstances, these creatures sealed in the painting looked a little like "Ghosts." It was just that these "Ghosts" had been artificially purified and tamed, making them docile and obedient.

Take Wang Ling's painting for example.

This magic treasure was called “Unparalleled scholar”.

The old man in the painting, one carrying a missile launcher and the other holding a Gatling gun, looked very mighty and Majestic.

The most important thing was that besides the painting, there was actually a couplet on it.

It said:

“Guns swept demons from all directions and crippled them.”

“Artillery bombarded Linglong Lake in all directions and took off.”

Chapter 1700 1,696, Birthday Surprise And New Year’s Surprise (1/92)

Wang Ling let out a long sigh of relief after the external fortifications had been built. This way, he could ensure that father and mother Wang would be safe as long as they stayed in the house when the enemy attacked.

The Wang family’s small villa was now like a cannon, and the word “Tyrannical” was used to describe it.

No matter who came, they would be able to beat him up like a tiger and send him flying a thousand miles.

Throughout the whole process, Nuan obediently lay on Wang Ling’s shoulder and watched. This little girl liked to stick to him, and this was the first time that Wang Ling felt a different kind of emotion when he touched Wang Nuan.

He actually didn’t reject her, which was the most incredible thing.

But in fact, it didn’t take long for Wang Ling to figure it out in his own way.

Because the warm girl was his blood-related sister and one of his most important people, he wouldn’t reject her.

The most important person..

At this point in his thinking, Wang Ling felt as if he had a whole new perspective on this year's birthday.

For a long time, he had never thought about other people's matters.

But now, when he realized how important these people around him were, he suddenly felt the need to protect all of them..

These people shouldn't just be referring to his relatives.

He admitted that he was in a bit of a dilemma right now.

Because according to his usual logic, it was as if only these people didn't exist so that he could enjoy that kind of peaceful, peaceful and peaceful life that he yearned for.

But that kind of life now seemed to be getting farther and farther away from him.

And he also became more and more used to it..

..

As evening approached, a dozen or so familiar figures approached the Wang family's small villa. These people were divided into two groups: one was led by Super Chen, and the other was led by Odd Zhuo.

As Wang Ling's best brother at No. 60 High School, there was no reason for a brother not to give a gift on his birthday.

For this reason, whether it was Super Chen, hero Guo or little peanut, all of them had already prepared their own gifts.

Earlier, the class had also issued a list of gifts for Wang Ling, which Super Chen had asked one by one in private. Then, he would put them all together and give them to Wang Ling.

Usually, because Wang Ling was a man of few words, not many people actually had a good relationship with him. Logically speaking, Wang Ling shouldn't have received too many gifts.

But this time, the list of gifts was unexpectedly generous..

“Why are there so many people?”

When Hero Guo saw this full list, he was a little dumbfounded.

“Because a lot of people heard that Wang Ling is a mascot... to give a mascot a gift is, in a sense, a tribute that can improve one's European Qi,”little peanut said.

“That's true, but the truth is that the situation is a little more complicated than we thought.”

“Complicated?”

“Didn't you see that there are a lot of outsiders on the gift list? They usually don't have much interaction with Wang Ling, so how could they give gifts for no reason?”

“Right! That's So Strange!”

“It's not strange at all. I think these people have most likely joined the gray cult.”Super Chen spread his hands.

Hero Guo and little peanut nodded almost at the same time.

They might not have believed what the others had said, but Super Chen's mouth wasn't just for show.

They had to believe it.

Of course, although there were many people who gave gifts, the gifts themselves weren't that expensive.

Everyone was a high school student, so what they gave was just a token of their appreciation. Not everyone could treat an aircraft carrier as a gift like Lotus Sun's family.

Thus, after school that day, Super Chen, hero Guo, and little peanut were the representatives who directly delivered the gifts to the Wang family's small villa.

They had thought that Lotus Sun would come over, but unexpectedly, she had actually rejected this invitation, and as soon as school was over, she directly disappeared.

Super Chen felt that it wasn't that Lotus Sun didn't want to give Wang Ling a gift; she clearly had her own ideas!

It was just that he didn't know what Lotus Sun wanted to do..

With Huaguo Water Curtain Group's financial strength, there was nothing in this world that couldn't be bought with money.

But Super Chen felt that lotus sun definitely didn't want to give Wang Ling such a insincere gift either.

Hero Guo: "What do you think Lotus Sun will give Wang Ling? She Won't give him a house directly, right? If she gives him a house directly, then I'll give him a good one... good one, how many years will it take me to work for this?"

"It shouldn't be a house. This gift is too expensive, and Wang Ling might not accept it."

Little peanut said, "And this kind of gift is very tacky. To rich people, a house isn't a house at all; it's just a poker card.". When I went to No. 59 High School for the exchange event earlier, I personally saw three girls fight the landlord with their property certificates. "Have you seen a straight flush from the first ring to the ninth ring?"

"..."

Super Chen and hero Guo turned pale with shock when they heard this.

They had no idea there was such a thing.

After a few minutes of silence, Super Chen said, “I also think Lotus Sun won’t give away the house. It’s too ridiculous. She’s not getting married. Even if she gives away the house, she has to think of a way to give herself away first!”

”...”

Hero Guo and little peanut understood once again.

So..

Lotus Sun wanted to give herself away!

..

On the other side, another group of people led by Odd Zhuo approached the Wang family’s small villa from different directions. Lotus Sun was very nervous on the way; it had taken her a lot of time just to order a special crispy noodle snack last night, it wasn’t easy for her to catch up.

Of course, the most important thing was actually the gift box she had given her, and Lotus Sun had also chosen the type of gift box for a very long time.

She had arranged with the delivery man to meet her at this time in front of the Wang family’s small villa, and everything else had already been taken care of.

“Mistress, there’s no need to be so nervous. You need to relax a little, so that I can relax a little,”odd zhuo consoled her. “When I deliver your gift box along with those crispy noodle snacks later, I’ll do my best to cut off the king’s eye’s ability to distinguish between fake and real.”

He was really nervous.

After all, this kind of behavior was indeed a bit of “Deceiving the master and destroying the ancestors”..

“Who’s your mistress...” Lotus Sun’s face turned red as she hurriedly cast a cooling spell on herself.

After she calmed down a little, she frowned slightly again.

Because the person who had given her the gift box hadn’t arrived yet.

She herself had been prepared.

Just as she had planned, the golden lamp monk had prepared a lot of glowing golden talismans for her. All she had to do was slip into the gift box and stick them all over her body.

In order to customize the gift box, Odd Zhuo knew that Lotus Sun had put a lot of effort into it.

After all, there had to be a person inside the gift box.

But when she went shopping yesterday, most of the surprise gift boxes that contained people looked like coffins for some reason..

So in the end, Lotus Sun had no choice but to take the custom-made route.

Odd Zhuo heard that Lotus Sun had a skilled craftsman tailor-made this gift box. It didn’t look like a coffin at all, and it was very artistic!

“Is that young man in the Red Hat?”

At that moment, Odd Zhuo saw a delivery young man in the distance.

He was dragging a big box and slowly riding a small electric tricycle from afar..

Through his king's eye, Odd Zhuo could easily see inside the box what this custom-made gift box looked like.

He immediately sucked in a breath of cold air. "Hiss..."

This gift box..

Was quite unique.

It was made of metal and had perfect curves, and indeed didn't look like a coffin at all; it was completely custom-made for Lotus Sun.

But the problem was..

This gift box was freaking in the shape of a human!
