Chapter 1701 1,697, Implanted Consciousness (1/92)

Wang Ming had wanted to give Wang Ling a detailed first edition of the concept of the new talisman on his birthday. He had planned to name it the “Talisman of Eternity,” and had secretly thought that this was the best gift he could give so far.

Compared with all the fancy things that could be bought with money, only the design and development of the talisman of Eternity could bring Wang Ling eternal happiness.

Many people had different definitions of happiness.

So what exactly was happiness for Wang Ling?

As a brother, Wang Ming felt that he had thought this through very thoroughly.

For Wang Ling, happiness was simple and plain.

He especially hoped that one day he could personally tell Wang Ling, “Congratulations, Lingzi... you can finally live a normal life.”

But it seemed that there was still a long way to go before he could realize this vision.

After analyzing the memory chip he had brought from the illusory realm with a special analysis helmet, Wang Ming suddenly felt that his brain and body had fallen into a long-lost fatigue.

Logically speaking, with his brain’s capacity, it shouldn’t be a problem for him to process this part of his short-term memory, but now he actually felt like he was in a trance, which made Wang Ming feel a little uncomfortable.

When he got up, his body swayed and he almost knocked over the coffee on the table. Zhai Yin strode forward and steadily held him up. “Don’t force yourself.”

“I’m not...” Wang Ming’s face was pale as he said weakly.

He was a little uncomfortable, but he didn't know what was causing it. He was just analyzing the data. How could he be so tired?

Could it be... a problem with the crystal card?

Wang Ming vaguely sensed that something wasn't right, and he hurriedly grabbed Li Xian's hand. "Senior Li Xian, let me ask you... who else has touched this crystal card?"

"Mr. Ming gave us the crystal card; no one has touched it," Li Xian replied.

"Then who saw it during the making of this crystal card?"

"During the making of this crystal card, Brother Zicao and I used the small corpse-wrapping diagram given by Ling Zhenren to seal the remaining living creatures. We didn't see how this crystal card was made," Li Xian replied truthfully.

After saying this, Wang Ming suddenly had a bad feeling.

If no one was there to witness the making of this crystal card, then the situation would be very intriguing..

At that moment, Wang Ming's thoughts were in a mess. Bearing the headache, he folded Zhai Yin, Li Xian, and Zhang Zicao's hands together, then, he shook them. "There's also senior Li Xian and senior Zhang Zicao... What I'm about to say is very important. Please keep calm after you hear what I have to say..."

"It's fine if you say it, Mr. Ming. We'll listen to Mr. Ming's arrangements."

"It's like this. I suspect that my brain has been implanted with a body of consciousness. To put it simply, you can also understand this body of consciousness as a virus in a computer program."

"Body of consciousness? What will happen to Mr. Ming?"

"The result is hard to say. This body of consciousness is very strong. I've already tried to use my own power to clean it up, but it's ineffective."

Wang Ming said, “And now it looks like the worst case scenario is that I might completely turn into another person.”

“Then what do you want us to do?” At this moment, Zhai Yin composed herself and looked at Wang Ming.

Wang Ming instantly smiled wryly. “Why don’t You Cry? I’m already like this... besides, if I become another person, I might not be able to change back.”

“What’s the use of crying... I believe you have a solution! Besides, you have to change back!”

At that moment, Zhai Yin held Wang Ming’s head. “Wang Ming! You have to always remember! If you can’t change back, there’s a high chance that you’ll be arranged to appear in the legendary Tauren storyline!”

Wang Ming:”...”

Zhai Yin’s words were too terrifying, and Wang Ming was instantly enlightened.

As it turned out, this obsession to avoid being turned into a Tauren had played a huge role in the subsequent developments..

On the other side, Odd Zhuo and Lotus Sun were still at a loss for what to do with this shocking human-shaped gift box in front of them.

The delivery man in charge of delivering the gift box was provided by the merchant, and in the face of the customer’s dissatisfaction, this young man was also a little helpless. “Miss Sun, this gift box was completely customized according to your request. The key is that it really doesn’t look like a coffin at all, and it looks very exquisite at first glance! The workmanship is adequate!”

”...”

“And our boss knows that Miss Sun is using it to give her boyfriend a surprise.”

“No... he is not...”

“Hehe, he will be in the future. Our gift box is the best one that our boss spent a night to make. After opening the gift box, there is a mezzanine and a crib attached.”The delivery guy rubbed his hands.

In fact, their boss had already calculated this step. Any girl could not stop the idea of falling in love with the person she liked for a lifetime and then having a baby.

Often, it only needed a few design elements related to babies to raise the maternal instinct of these girls.

This was the general trend.

And it was precisely because of this that there were more and more mommy fans these days.

Sure enough, Lotus Sun couldn't hold it in any longer after hearing these words, and immediately made up her mind. “No need to say it, I'll buy it!”

Odd Zhuo:”...”

Thus, about ten minutes later, when Odd Zhuo delivered a truckload of limited crispy noodle snacks and a human-shaped gift box to the Wang family's small villa.

Mother Wang, who had come out to help sign for them, was instantly stunned. “Little Zhuo, these are...”

“These are gifts for Shifu, but they're not from me; I'm just in charge of escorting them,”said Odd Zhuo as he wiped his sweat.

“Hey, just come, what's there to give... you're too polite.”After exchanging a few pleasantries, mother Wang focused all her attention on the distinctive human-shaped gift box on the side.

Odd Zhuo immediately became nervous. “This... Don’t worry, let me explain...”

“There’s no need to explain, Little Zhuozi.” After a moment’s pause, mother Wang shook her head. “The child has grown up after all... It’s easy to suffocate when he’s growing up, so it’s normal for him to vent his anger.”

“I know. Ling Ling’s situation is special, and normal people definitely can’t take it, so this must be specially made, right? Special materials don’t break so easily.”

“...” Odd Zhuo facepalmed, feeling that he couldn’t explain this at all. “This really isn’t...”

“I understand, Little Zhuozi. Thank you for being so thoughtful.”

“No, Auntie, this really isn’t an inflatable bag...”

“Inflatable sandbag? That material is too poor.”

“Oh, so Auntie was talking about sandbags... then it’s fine...”

Chapter 1702 1698, Waiting For Each Other To Grow Up (1/92)

After the box was successfully sent out, the seemingly harmless courier quickly left the Wang family’s small villa on his tricycle. He drove the car to a remote corner and made a call.

The person on the other end of the phone said something to him, and the courier quickly replied, “Yes, boss. The custom-made gift box has been delivered.”

“Oh... that means I have to find another body, right? Then this body will be directly abandoned?”

“I see, you want me to make it look like a car accident, right? Boss, don’t worry, I will definitely do it properly.”

After hanging up the phone, the young man’s pupils quickly dimmed, and then split into a tentacle-like pattern.

He stepped on the small tricycle to the nearest road, magnified his senses, and after a few minutes of searching, finally fixed his target on a Tesla power-generating and psionic hybrid car that was driving from a distance automatically.

In the car, a family of three was sitting happily in the back seat. He accelerated on the tricycle.

Bang!

The car collided with a big explosion.

He jumped onto the car with his body burned by the flames. He lifted the roof of the car and saw a man and woman who had been hit beyond recognition hugging the unconscious girl tightly.

Everything was as he had expected.

The kinship between humans would play a crucial role at this moment.

This ten-year-old girl was immediately protected by her parents after being hit by the car. She did not die.

And this was the result that he wanted to see.

“Mission accomplished.”

He could not help but smile. Then, an invisible golden light separated from his body and attached to the little girl's body.

In the next moment...

He was no longer him.

Her name was Chen Xiaomu.

She was the only survivor of a car accident with the delivery boy.

At the same time, she was also the old dominator who had constantly attached herself to human consciousness on Earth.

Just like the ultimate hunter among the old Dominators.

This group also had a unique code name. It was called the Mind Plague.

..

On the other side, Wang Ling had received a lot of birthday presents. Super Chen, hero Guo and little peanut had actually arrived first. After handing the presents to Wang Ling, the three of them sneaked into the house, it was as if they had a secret to tell Wang Ling.

Wang Ling was stunned at Super Chen's words. "You know what, Wang Ling... I think Lotus Sun wants to give herself to you!"

"..."

It was one thing for others to say this, but when Super Chen said this, a drop of sweat immediately oozed out of Wang Ling's forehead.

She wanted to give him her?

There was no need for that..

How could he possibly accept a living person as a gift? Most importantly, he felt that Lotus Sun was useless and that crispy noodle snacks weren't as delicious.

In addition, Wang Ling had no intention of falling in love at all. If he accepted this "Gift," what would happen if he was misunderstood?

These were all questions that Wang Ling had to consider.

As the saying went, a rabbit wouldn't eat grass near its nest. Wang Ling had never been reliable in his high school relationship, and he felt that Lotus Sun had still been hot-headed for a moment... in addition to his attitude toward her, it was just pure friendship; at this stage, it was impossible to think about long-term development.

No..

Not just at this stage, but in the future as well.

"Wang Ling, since you're already here, you should take things as they come. She's already so obvious, so why don't you just accept her?" Hero Guo said, "Don't worry, our brothers will definitely support you with all their strength..."

"But isn't it a little too much to fall in love now? Old Pan will be unhappy if he knows," little peanut said.

"She's just a pedantic old Fogey," hero Guo retorted. "Besides, how can this be called falling in love? It's clearly called enhancing friendship. Wang Ling and Lotus Sun are waiting for each other to grow up while enhancing their friendship."

Wang Ling:"..."

God F * * King waited for each other to grow up!

"Ling Ling, Miss Rong is here to give you a birthday present. You have to thank her properly later! Let's go out for dinner or something!"

At that moment, mother Wang brought Lotus Sun's birthday present in front of Wang Ling. He was very satisfied with a pile of custom-made crispy noodle snacks in a huge gift box.

Next to this gift box was a human-shaped gift box, which made Wang Ling want to return it a little “Ah, ah, ah! The weather is pretty good today, Wang Ling! Happy Birthday to you! We’ll be leaving now!” Super Chen was already grinning from ear to ear in his heart, he hurriedly patted Guo and little peanut on the shoulders and practically chased them out of Wang Ling’s room before quickly disappearing.

It couldn’t be said that his eyesight wasn’t very good. Wang Ling felt that if he really liked Lotus Sun, Super Chen’s move would definitely be his strongest assist.

To be honest, Wang Ling had originally planned to directly send Lotus Sun back, but when he saw this human-shaped gift box, he still felt that something wasn’t right.

“Don’t bother. The secondary pupil’s counter-control ability is ineffective,” Wang Ling said telepathically to Odd Zhuo, who was lying in wait outside the villa.

He had been waiting for an opportunity outside the Wang family’s small villa, but he hadn’t expected to sense the dead fish eyes staring at him from the second floor before he had even exerted his strength.

For a moment, Odd Zhuo suddenly felt a little disappointed.

As expected of Shifu, he had exceptional insight..

But he had heard a hint of solemnity in Wang Ling’s tone just now.

Could it be that there was something wrong with the gift box?

If he had already known that the gift box contained Shifu’s wife, under normal circumstances, given master’s temper, he would definitely have sent her back without even opening the box.

But now, Wang Ling didn’t do that.

The writing made Odd Zhuo realize what the problem was.

He immediately went upstairs and saw Lord Ma and loopy toad sitting around the human-shaped gift box to examine it.

“What’s going on?”Odd Zhuo asked.

“There’s something wrong with the gift box; Miss Rong won’t be able to come out,”loopy toad said.

Odd Zhuo: “How is that possible?”

Loopy toad: “Someone tampered with this gift box. If you open it, it will explode, and the force of the explosion isn’t small; I’m afraid many innocent people will be affected. In addition, the explosion may bring about cosmic energy radiation and cause irreversible damage. From the current methods, it should be the methods of the old rulers.”

“Tomb God?”

“It could be him or his followers,”loopy toad said. “Of course, this is what little master Ling told me.”

“You can’t force it open?”

“If you forcefully dismantle it, Miss Rong might be unable to bear the pain. Even if she could be resurrected, she wouldn’t be able to ensure that her soul would be intact under the intense pain,”loopy toad said. “Of course, in addition to that, there’s also crispy noodle snacks in this gift box, which are custom-made out-of-print flavors... it would be a pity if it exploded.”

Odd Zhuo:”...”

It seemed that this was the main reason why they hadn’t forced the box to be opened..

“Then what do we do now?”Odd Zhuo asked.

Loopy toad: “We can only let Lord Ma try first to see if he can use all his tricks to teleport Miss Rong out of the box alone...”

Chapter 1703 1699, Infection Of Consciousness (1/92)

Lord Ma was currently feeling extremely complicated and nervous as he used the teleportation technique to locate the location. As a man in love, he actually had a feeling..

That the man next to him said that he wanted to save crispy noodle snacks and showed an extremely “Exemplary” side, but in fact, he really wanted to save Lotus Sun.

It was only because of his personality that he didn’t say it out loud.

He didn’t know if his intuition was accurate, but saving Lotus Sun had already become his first mission. And it was obvious that he could only succeed... he couldn’t fail.

If he couldn’t save her, he felt that his own would probably be cold.

As a toilet bowl that had been used by the men of the Wang family in turns, and the only man who had seen the buttocks of the men of the Wang family, the strongest among the enlightened spiritual monsters, and the only spiritual monster who had an evil relationship with the Cosmic God Tree and was in a relationship.., for the first time, Lord Ma had a strict attitude as if he was undergoing surgery, and was teleporting certain people.

In the next second, with a flash of light, Lord Ma, who was drenched in cold sweat next to Wang Ling, instantly disappeared, and was replaced by a soft body covered in talismans.

Because she had been in the human-shaped gift box for too long, and also because she had been a little nervous after hearing their conversation outside, Lotus Sun had felt a little oxygen-deprived inside.

Now that she had been rescued by Lord Ma, her legs immediately went weak. She had originally been leaning toward Odd Zhuo, but he had no intention of supporting her at all.

Instead, he had secretly used a gravitational spell to turn lotus sun around and pounce on Wang Ling.

Lotus Sun:”...”

Wang Ling:”...”

The two of them looked at each other, but Lotus Sun's face was hot, and she hurriedly let go of her hand.

At this moment, Odd Zhuo walked over with a natural expression as if nothing had happened. "That's great, Miss Lotus is fine. But this matter doesn't seem to have been resolved yet."

It was true that Lord Ma had saved Lotus Sun.

But in fact, this wasn't really a rescue.

Because Lord Ma had taken advantage of the gift box's inattention to replace himself.

He had ensured that there was always a person lying inside the human-shaped gift box so that it wouldn't explode.

Of course, this was also Lord Ma's best way after comprehensive consideration to ensure that Lotus Sun would be rescued and that the risk would be passed on to him.

He was just a toilet; even if the gift box exploded in the end, he wouldn't feel any pain.

Wang Ling was fully convinced of Lord Ma's performance.

Wang Ling was the one who had given the enlightened spiritual monsters their souls, and they were different from ordinary human cultivators.

Thus, Lord Ma had swapped him for the crown prince, which made things much easier.

Wang Ying cooperated well.

He had been watching from the side for a long time, and he knew what Wang Ling was thinking at the moment. Immediately, he took this human-shaped gift box and shrunk it to an inch away from Earth and to other corners of the universe.

This was where Wang Ying and Sun Ying 'er often played the planet wall knock spell.

He didn't know how many planet spirits had been harmed by him.

Therefore, this was the most suitable place to detonate.

After all, these planet spirits would be repaired by him later.

Bang!

A few seconds later, a huge explosion came from the depths of the universe.

A huge mushroom cloud that rose out of thin air, accompanied by a powerful explosion ring, extended for a few light years, blowing everything in the surroundings into pieces.

Cultivators below Dao God level couldn't hear this alarm.

Wang Ling moved his ears and looked in a certain direction in the air. Following his line of sight, he saw the location of the explosion.

The scale of the explosion was even greater than what Wang Ling had actually predicted.

Because the explosion also caused the spirit of the planet to explode, creating a series of explosions that were like a toppling Domino, instantly raising the scope and power of the explosion to a higher level.

It was hard to imagine what kind of destructive force would be created if such a scale were to happen on Earth. It was likely that the entire solar system would disappear.

And those who could set up such a method were definitely not ordinary people.

Following that, Wang Ying brought Lord Ma, who had been instantly repaired, back. Lord Ma had become the person who had personally experienced the explosion. Although he was the most experienced among the spiritual monsters, the state of his face was clearly not very good.

He slowly shivered, still feeling a little apprehensive. He himself had never experienced an explosion of this scale.

If it hadn't been for the special nature of the enlightened spiritual monsters, he probably wouldn't have been able to survive.

"Teacher Ma, what exactly happened?" Odd Zhuo imitated the tone of one of the popular ghost videos recently, and Wang Ling rolled his eyes at him in the end.

"Don't blame me, master... I just wanted to liven up the atmosphere..." Odd Zhuo smiled awkwardly.

"I'm sorry, Lord Ma, it's all because of me..." Lotus Sun blamed herself.

"This has nothing to do with Miss Rong. Even if someone else was lying in this gift box, they would have done the same thing. It's just that Miss Rong just happened to be used."

Lord Ma thought for a moment and said, "Moreover, this kind of method isn't something an ordinary person can do." "Today, master took a leave of absence and specially built a defensive structure at home in order to prepare for a rainy day and defend against foreign enemies. Who would have thought that these people would actually move so quickly."

"Which people?" Lotus Sun asked.

"The ones we've dealt with before. They're at least universe-level characters," Lord Ma replied.

"But haven't those people already been killed by Wang Ling..."

"Since they're universe-level characters, there's always a way to resurrect them, and it won't be so easy to completely destroy them. Even if only a speck of dust is left behind, it might be the key to their revival."

"Then their strength must have suffered a great loss," Lotus Sun said.

"That's right. "But if these defeated people twist into a rope and plan to deal with them together, it'll be a little troublesome." Lord Ma sighed and said, "When you find a pile of cockroaches crawling all over the floor in the kitchen, there will always be some who slip through the net. “But if you blow up the kitchen, I’m afraid you might harm yourself or even your neighbors.”

Lotus sun nodded slightly when she heard this. She knew that it wasn’t easy to deal with this sort of thing, especially for Wang Ling, who had to be cautious in all aspects.

“Then what can I do to help now?” Lotus Sun asked.

“It’s very simple.” At that moment, loopy toad jumped onto the table, it looked at lotus sun and said, “You just need to protect yourself. From all the signs right now, they’ve already set their eyes on you, so it’s best to upgrade your six-core arcane sea.”

“Upgrade... Nine-core arcane sea?” Lotus Sun looked surprised.

“Nine-core arcane sea is enough with this battle strength.” Lord Ma also nodded. “But in the explosion just now, I also sensed something strange.”

At that moment, Lord Ma opened his mouth and a transparent ball of light shot out. “If your eye power isn’t strong enough, you shouldn’t be able to see it. I caught this thing in the explosion, and it seems to have the ability to control your consciousness.”

Wang Ling’s eyes instantly froze.

Because he saw a squirming transparent insect in this transparent ball of light, and it smelled like an old dominator..

“As expected, this has something to do with the tomb god.” Odd Zhuo frowned.

“It’s very likely that the other party has already infiltrated our side,” Lord Ma said. “Since this insect can control our consciousness, it can also silently infect human cultivators. From the information they have on us, I’m afraid that there are already important people around you who have been infected.”

Chapter 1704 1,700: How To Prove That He Hadn’t Been Parasitized (1/92)

Lord Ma’s reasoning was completely logical. With the infected already by his side, he had to be on guard.

Wang Ling closed his eyes and used his search ability to communicate with the book of Sage immortal remotely. Although he had already sent the book of Sage immortal out of this universe, he would still occasionally use it as a remote search engine.

After it was sent out, the noise of the book of Sage Immortal had indeed lessened a lot, and it was also a lot easier for Wang Ling to look up the book of Sage Immortal. Because of the telepathic communication, this annoying ipad wouldn't be so angry, it would only give him the answer he wanted.

Of course, Wang Ling felt that this could also be a sign of weakness on the part of the book of Sage Immortal, and that it was probably trying to make up for something.

“Mind Plague.”

Wang Ling silently chewed on the name he had gotten from the book of Sage Immortal.

This was one of the dirtiest characters among the old Dominators. By invading their minds and controlling them silently, not just human cultivators, but any living creature with a life and soul would be manipulated by the other party.

And most importantly...

The mind pestilence users would constantly change the bodies they had invaded so as not to leave any traces behind

The final outcome of those abandoned bodies would also be clearly arranged, disguised as various suicides or accidental deaths, which would make it impossible to investigate at all.

But in any case, the seriousness of this matter was enough for Wang Ling to take it seriously.

Based on what he knew so far, the mind pestilence was extremely contagious, especially after the body was changed. Even if the used body became a corpse, it could also become a new source of infection.

It meant that they would leave their own “Seeds” in the corpse, thus making those who came into contact with the seeds new infected ones.

Thus, if this matter wasn’t taken seriously, it would probably spread widely among human cultivators.

As the ancient ruler of the universe, there was currently no way to distinguish between the true bodies of these creatures with the current cultivation methods on Earth. Once they were parasitized, it meant that they would be 100% controlled.

So the question before Wang Ling now had three things to investigate first.

The first was the source of the thought plague.

The second was who had assigned these thought plague victims.

And the third was who had been infected and how to prevent it.

“This is the basic situation that Shifu is talking about.”

After summarizing Wang Ling’s voice transmission, Odd Zhuo used a simple and clear way to verbally relay the incident to the others here.

Now, as a disciple, he wasn’t just being used as a “Scapegoat”; he was also being used for various other purposes.

As he said this, Odd Zhuo’s mind was filled with scenes from a movie. In the dark, windy, and rainy streets, Wang Ling appeared in front of him dressed like a mafia boss and asked him: translate.., what the hell was a surprise.

“In other words, now we need to prove our innocence?” Lord Ma said.

“You don’t have to, Lord Ma. After all, you’re a shapeshifting monster; master can tell at a glance. As for the others, none of them can escape.” Odd Zhuo smiled and said, “How about this? One by one, we’ll ask each other questions to prove our innocence.”

There was no one else here except for Odd Zhuo, Lotus Sun and loopy toad.

Wang Ling didn't want to prove his innocence, but Odd Zhuo had his own ideas..

Wang Ling didn't stop him; he just wanted to watch the show.

When Odd Zhuo said this, he saw Lotus Sun's face turn red, as if she would burn up at any moment.

"How about this, I'll start. You ask me first," Odd Zhuo looked at loopy toad and asked.

Loopy toad reacted quickly. "Do you like Highlands or Flatlands?"

Odd Zhuo: "Flatlands."

Odd Zhuo: "Then what's your favorite thing to eat? Bone sticks and big meat flies."

Loopy toad: "Bone sticks sandwiched between big meat flies, of course!"

..

"Very good! The proof is complete!"

The Man and the dog worked well together, and after asking each other questions, they gave each other a high five.

Lotus sun: "That... That's it?"

Odd Zhuo nodded. "Of course. Then do you want to give it a try, Miss Lotus?"

Lotus sun: "I'll give it a try..."

She thought she might ask some tricky questions, so she was a bit worried, but that question just now didn't seem particularly special.

Thus, Odd Zhuo looked at her and suddenly asked, "If a youngster who looks even better than Shifu appeared in front of you, would you fall in love with him?"

Lotus Sun was a little surprised by this question, but she still shook her head with a firm gaze. "Of course not."

She had always been very sure in her heart.

The reason she liked Wang Ling wasn't because she liked his face.

There were so many good-looking young men, and she could summon as many as she wanted with her identity as the eldest daughter of the Sun family, but Wang Ling was the only one who was special to her.

Hearing her answer, Odd Zhuo looked as if his scheme had succeeded, and hurriedly asked, "Why? Is it because you like my master?"

Lotus Sun knew immediately that she had been set up by Odd Zhuo again!

This bad guy... he only knew how to set her up all day long.

He was actually asking her questions!

Moreover, it was one thing to ask her questions, but he was still asking her these kinds of questions... how was she supposed to answer in front of Wang Ling again!

She struggled in her heart, then gritted her teeth and braced herself to deny it. "Of course... of course not!"

Odd Zhuo was shocked. “No? So You’re the fake Miss Rong. Brother Toad, Let’s Go!”

Lotus Sun instantly panicked and looked at odd zhuo with an expression of admitting defeat. “Yes... yes... I like Wang Ling! That’s Enough!”

She looked annoyed. The shame of being forced to confess in front of Wang Ling made her want to find a hole to hide in.

When Wang Ling heard this, his expression didn’t change much.

The main thing was that Lotus Sun had already confessed a few times before, so he was probably a little used to it.

He knew that Odd Zhuo’s love for trouble was actually an act of support.

But as he said it, Wang Ling felt that it was useless.

Because he wouldn’t fall in love with Lotus Sun.

It was said that there was no pure friendship between a man and a woman, which Wang Ling felt was completely wrong.

He had always felt that he and Lotus Sun were this kind of pure friendship.

That was right.

It was just friendship.

Wang Ling turned his head and looked at Lord Ma, who seemed to be telling him something telepathically.

Lord ma immediately understood, and immediately turned to Lotus Sun and bowed respectfully. “Then, please follow me, Miss Rong.”

“Where to?” Lotus Sun asked.

Lord ma: “To level up Ao Hai, of course. Your Lord has already made an appointment with senior golden lamp. Miss Rong just needs to follow me to bring ao hai there.”. After upgrading to a nine-core spirit sword, Miss Rong would also have a certain degree of self-protection ability. There’s no need to worry about being threatened by this mind plague. Under the protection of such sword Qi, it’s very difficult for them to invade Miss Rong.”

Chapter 1705 1,701, Mountain Of Backtracking (1/92)

Lotus Sun felt as if she had returned to her old place as she followed the golden lamp monk into the mountain of backtracking. The last time she had upgraded her Olympian Sea Here, she had also helped loopy toad resolve the high-intensity chaos catastrophe caused by the elevation from Holy Beast to Divine Beast.

This time, she had entered again to complete the upgrade of the nine-core Olympian Sea. This time, her mood was much calmer than the last time.

She was just a little worried about whether she would be able to control the arcane sea after it had really been upgraded to nine cores.

“Miss Rong doesn’t have to be nervous. Let’s upgrade the nine-core arcane sea. The success rate is 100% because it has already been fused several times, so the subsequent fusion won’t be that difficult,” said monk golden lamp. “As for Ling Zhenren’s decision to let this penniless monk bring Miss Rong here, it’s mainly to guard against the problem of energy surging after the arcane sea has been upgraded to nine-core spirit sword.”

“It’s definitely very strong. I’m worried that I can’t control it...” lotus sun frowned slightly. Her strength had always been stuck at the peak of Late Foundation establishment stage, just a hair’s breadth away from Jindan stage, although her own combat strength was far more than that under the augmentation of Ao Hai, she couldn’t advance in the basic realm, so it was always a problem to control ao hai.

Just like the equipment in the game, there was an upper limit to the level of the equipment. If a character’s level wasn’t high enough, they wouldn’t be able to afford the attribute augmentation provided by the powerful equipment.

If they didn’t control it properly, not only would they be in danger, but they would also be a threat to the people around them.

This wasn't the situation Lotus Sun wanted to see.

Her mind was running wild with wild thoughts, at this time, the monk suddenly laughed. "Miss Rong is thinking too much. Although this penniless monk said before that I want Miss Rong to carefully use the power of Ao Hai, you don't have to worry about controlling ao hai."

"But under normal circumstances..."

"Under normal circumstances, this is indeed the case. The spirit swords, magical artifacts, and even some high-grade talismans in the cultivation world all have a realm limit. If the realm is not enough, then it can not be smoothly driven. This is because the cultivation realm is too low and the spiritual power is insufficient. Driving these high-grade magical treasures requires a large amount of spiritual power. They simply can not afford it."

Monk Jin Deng said, "It looks like a restriction, but the main reason is the lack of spirit energy."

"What About Me?" Lotus Sun asked.

"Miss Rong already has six cores of the Ao Hai in her hand. After using it for so long, haven't you realized it yet? That's because Miss Rong doesn't need to consider the problem of spirit energy consumption at all."

Monk Jin Deng said, "When the human-sword unity mechanism is activated, the power of the Ao Hai will be Miss Rong's power. With such a passive ability, the problem of insufficient spirit energy can be directly ignored."

"I see." Lotus sun nodded.

At that moment, Sun Ying 'er also appeared to comfort her. "I told you, Lotus, you're thinking too much. It's impossible for you to lose control. Even if you lose control, there's still me. And this time, I feel that you and Ling Zhenren have made great progress!"

Lotus Sun was startled. "No... No..."

Sun Ying 'er: "It's really great! Look, this mind epidemic is so dangerous. There are so many people in the war sect, but the first thing he thinks of is to help you increase your strength!"

Sun Ying 'er wasn't deliberately making fun of Lotus Sun like she usually was, but she genuinely felt that there had been a lot of progress between the two of them this time.

Although she didn't say anything, in fact, Lotus Sun was very happy inside.

On the other side, Odd Zhuo, who had been secretly assisting Lotus Sun, was also very touched by this matter.

After Lord Ma brought Lotus Sun and monk Jin Deng to meet up and leave the Wang family's small villa.

Staring at Wang Ling, who was eagerly unwrapping the custom-made crispy noodle snack plastic bag, he asked, "Master, do you have any thoughts on Miss Lotus?"

"?"

Wang Ling didn't reject the big question mark.

He had indeed had some thoughts.

But this was mainly because Lotus Sun had been forced to confess to him after the question-and-answer session just now.

It would be awkward for both of them to keep Lotus Sun here.

Rather than that, it would be better to think of a way to get Lotus Sun to leave..

Besides, Lotus Sun had been in his room the whole time, and he didn't like crispy noodle snacks!

Wang Ling never had the habit of being stared at while eating..

He usually ate in a corner in the school cafeteria.

The basic process was to.

He would try his best to avoid familiar people and force himself to eat with him.

He would choose a corner.

He would snap his fingers.

Time would stop.

Then, he would quickly finish the food on his plate..

He would snap his fingers again and restore the flow of time back to the classroom.

This way, Wang Ling wouldn't feel uncomfortable being stared at while eating, and eating would never waste time.

The time freeze, it works.

Sometimes when you're lazy, you don't feel like doing your homework at night.

You can also take your homework to school in the morning and write it down with a time stop.

Not Just for me, but for Father Wang.

Sometimes, father Wang really couldn't keep up with the updates, and would ask Wang Ling to use a time freeze to temporarily freeze time.

This was also one of the main reasons why father Wang had been able to update without any hindrance for so many years.

You never knew what was behind an online writer who could continuously update.

Perhaps it was a case of anti-baldness hair growth fluid.

Or perhaps it was a son who knew time freeze..

Lotus sun was being strengthened, but Wang Ling actually didn't think it was very reliable to cross-examine her to determine her identity.

In the end, external forces still needed to intervene.

The modern cultivation world couldn't do anything about it, but King's treasure pants had a corresponding magic treasure.

He took out a bronze mirror called "Eternal Beauty Mirror," which was a natal chaotic magic treasure held by a great empress in the eternal era.

It was called a beauty mirror, but in fact, it didn't make people look beautiful. Instead, it directly reflected their bare faces.

Wang Ling looked in the mirror and found that there wasn't much difference between himself and his original appearance. He pointed the mirror at loopy toad again and found that its dog fur was still as green as before

Loopy toad: "I understand, so I'll just give the people from the battle sect a try with the mirror now. But there are too few beauty mirrors, so I'm afraid it'll be troublesome to detect them. Furthermore, if the commotion is too big, it'll easily alert the enemy."

"Mm." Wang Ling nodded.

This was indeed a problem.

So in the first round, he decided to first conduct a preliminary test on the core members of the battle sect to ensure that there were no problems with the higher-ups.

As for the fact that there were so few beauty mirrors, it was even easier to deal with.

Wang Ling opened his king's eye.

After selecting the beauty mirror in his hand, loopy toad saw that Ctrl + C appeared in his left eye and Ctrl + V appeared in his right eye.

Then, a new beauty mirror was successfully copied..

”...”

Loopy toad was stunned for a moment, and then swallowed the copied bag of beauty mirrors as if it wasn't surprised. “For the test, I need to find a few helpers.”

Wang Ling spread his hands, indicating that loopy toad could choose at will.

Loopy Toad's train of thought was very clear.

It almost immediately set its eyes on Xiang Yi and Qin Zong.

These two young men were perfect for assisting.

Chapter 1706 1702, Investigation Group On Epidemic Personalization (1/92)

Loopy toad naturally had its own reasons for choosing Qin Zong and Xiang Yi. It felt that these two clowns were very useful, and their identities weren't simple. Now that they had become guest elders of the war sect, they were on the same side.

Since the two of them had come to learn from Wang Ling, loopy Toad felt that it was a good opportunity to get close to him.

In the end, it was now an old man in the war sect, so it was reasonable for an old man to bring along a new person.

Although the guest elder was an honorary position in the war sect, it was on the same level as an elder, so Loopy Toad couldn't act like an old man in front of the two of them, it still had to be as polite as possible.

At eight o'clock that night, in front of the war sect's guest elder branch.

Loopy Toad had a meeting with Qin Zong and Xiang Yi. When it found them, the two of them were playing chess in the courtyard, acting like great generals. They didn't give in to each other and racked their brains.

Of course, playing chess was also a matter of luck. In order to ensure fairness, Qin Zong would spread his luck evenly when playing chess, which would fully guarantee the fun of playing chess.

Otherwise, winning all kinds of games would be inexplicable, and there wouldn't even be any game experience.

Loopy Toad didn't disturb the two of them, but quietly waited for the two of them to finish playing chess. After watching for a long time, it realized that Qin Zong and Xiang Yi both looked indescribably handsome, their fair and clear skin and sharp edges gave off the feeling of the protagonist's face no matter how one looked at it.

It wasn't that Loopy Toad hadn't inquired about the two of them before it planned to make this in-depth contact, and it had roughly understood the situation with Qin Zong and Xiang Yi.

The two of them had almost reached the peak of their world, but unexpectedly, when they had arrived at Wang Ling's world line, they had been hit by a wave of forced dimensional reduction.

Even the universe-level experts they had encountered weren't on the same level.

It was only after they had coincidentally bumped into Forefather Heartless this time that the two of them realized the principle of endless learning.

They had to add in passing.

In order to ensure that he was serious enough about learning, Xiang Yi's real body had switched back to his shadow after meeting his wife.

Right now, the real Xiang Yi was in front of loopy toad.

“Sigh, I lost again.”Xiang Yi scratched his head in frustration.

Loopy toad waited for a few minutes, and the two of them had already decided who would win.

Without relying on luck, Qin Zong had achieved a complete victory.

His chess skills weren’t too weak to begin with; even without luck, he was almost flawless. The only person Qin Zong had ever lost to in chess was Gu Shunzhi.

To be honest, after coming to Wang Ling’s world, he had actually wanted to meet Gu Shunzhi, but had never been able to find the right opportunity.

At this time, Gu Shunzhi’s timeline hadn’t been sent to his universe to become his cultivation manager before his current achievements.

In other words, he wasn’t as strong as he had been back then..

“Gentlemen, I have a mission here,”loopy toad said as it succinctly told them about the thought plague.

Qin Zong and Xiang Yi immediately understood.

“In other words, the mission elder Toad has received now is to find those who have been invaded by the thought plague, right?”Qin Zong and Xiang Yi nodded their heads after hearing this.

“That’s right, this is a direct order from your Lord,”loopy Toad said. “Right now, the focus is still on finding the source.”

“The source, huh...”

Qin Zong cupped his chin and thought carefully. “When we were in the science and technology city earlier, senior Li Xian and senior Zhang Zicao didn’t act with us. Could it be that they were invaded, or that they came out of the science and technology city with something that could achieve a large-scale invasion?”

Loopy toad and Xiang Yi were stunned when they heard this.

Because as far as they knew, the only thing that Li Xian and Zhang Zicao had brought out of the science and Technology City was the chip that Wang Ming had designated after he had used his brainwaves to invade the science and technology city’s wealthy merchant Bu Gui.

No Way..

Was It really that coincidental?

Although Qin Zong didn’t have Super Chen’s open mouth, it was because of his unparalleled luck attribute that sometimes it wasn’t a problem to hit the nail on the head.

This instantly alerted loopy toad and Xiang Yi. If the source of the infection really was Wang Ming... when the mind eater invaded Wang Ming’s body, with Wang Ming’s powerful brainwave power.., he might be able to instantly invade a large area.

And the serious consequences of this invasion would probably be immeasurable..

“Then where do we start now?”Xiang Yi asked.

“Why don’t we go find senior Gu?”Qin Zong suggested at this moment.

” ...”

Xiang Yi and loopy toad were silent for a while.

It was fine if Qin Zong didn’t mention it, but now that he did... it was possible that the first person they were looking for on this trip, Gu Shunzhi, had already been invaded.

..

After loopy toad left, Wang Ling noticed a piece of breaking news.

It was a car accident that had happened near the Wang family's small villa. A small three-wheeled delivery man had crashed into a self-driving car.

The delivery man and a couple had died together.

Before they died, the couple had used their bodies to protect their daughter, resulting in three deaths and one injury.

Car accidents happened every day, so it wasn't surprising.

But it just so happened that this delivery guy was the same guy who had given Lotus Sun the human-shaped gift box earlier.

That Coffin... No, the human-shaped gift box was already problematic, so there was an eighty to ninety percent chance that the delivery guy had already been hacked.

Even though the delivery guy and the poor couple had been burned to a crisp in the big explosion from the car accident, it was almost impossible to tell what they looked like.

But Wang Ling had the king's eye.

He could still use his eye power to directly restore their original appearances.

Judging from the explosion at the scene, it was a miracle that the little girl had survived.

But not only had the little girl survived, she didn't have many injuries on her body; there were only a few burn marks, which made Wang Ling start to wonder if this little girl was really a little girl.

Wang Ling first found the courier number of the little brother who had given him the human-shaped gift box. From the courier number, he could directly find the little brother's work number, and through the human customer service, he could make a complaint and get the little brother's accurate personal information.

Then, he remotely activated the book of Sage Immortal and found the girl's name: Chen Xiaomu.

Then, he followed this information to find information about Chen Xiaomu's parents.

After obtaining information on the three of them, he teleported directly to the hospital's morgue.

Outside the morgue of the ninth Cultivation People's Hospital, several family members were crying together. Wang Ling could hear their heart-wrenching cries through the thick iron gate.

He sighed in his heart.

It was against the Heavenly Dao to directly resurrect these three people.

But after all, the source of death for these three people was that ancient creature, and it wasn't an ordinary accident.

Thus, Wang Ling felt that resurrecting these three people was actually not a big deal.

Of course, even if he was a user of the Heavenly Dao White list, the process didn't seem to be in line with the rules.

Thus, when Wang Ling teleported to this hospital morgue, he also called the Heavenly Dao of death, who was currently working as a guard at No. 60 high school's entrance.

In this way...

People were all resurrected by the Heavenly Dao of death.

What did this have to do with Wang Ling.

Chapter 1707 1,703, Cultivation Enterprises With Air-To-Air Offices (1/92)

When Heavenly Dao of death had been summoned by Wang Ling, he had still been wearing the uniform of No. 60 High School's captain of the guards. Old Man Li, the former captain of the guards, had already reached the age of retirement, and had given this position to Heavenly Dao of death.

As soon as Heavenly Dao of death was moved, he added two hundred years to Old Man Li's life in the life and death book, which was simply a bloody profit.

No one would have thought that the colleague who worked with them every day was a man who could freely control the life and death of others..

However, in reality, even if the Heavenly Dao of death were to carry out the task of resurrecting others, it would be a little against the rules.

Back then, when Daofather Wang established the Heavenly Dao Committee, the rule was that for those who had no choice but to be resurrected, they had to first go through the higher-ups for the record, that was to say, after the Heavenly Dao Committee had set up a file, it had to be approved by the six heavenly daos before it could be executed by the twin brothers of life and death.

And the two brothers actually had a division of labor for the entire resurrection process.

For example, his brother, the Heavenly Dao of life, was mainly responsible for resurrecting the type of subjective death. Then what was subjective death?

For example, death due to illness, near death, or even suicide were all considered subjective deaths.

On the other hand, Death Tiandao dealt with more like accidental deaths.

However, the situation of the courier in front of him was a little complicated.

Although it was true that he was attacked by the thought plague and had a car accident in advance, in fact, at the same time as the car accident,.

The illness caused by long-term overtime work was manifested at that moment.

Almost at the moment of his death, the Courier had a myocardial infarction at the same time, causing his heart to stop and he suffocated.

Not only that, because he had been riding on a tricycle for a long time, the courier also suffered from severe rheumatic inflammation. At the moment of the violent impact, all the bones in his body were split open.

At the moment of the impact, the poor delivery boy had died suddenly due to multiple reasons. Moreover, every death happened at the same time, and they were all fatal injuries.

Obviously, the mind plague that had invaded his body did not notice this. It was still controlling his body. In the end, he was directly burned into charcoal by the big explosion, completely disfigured..

“It’s too tragic.”The Heavenly Dao of death sighed as he explained the cause of death of this courier little brother.

“Cut the crap. Just tell me, Can I be resurrected?”Wang Ying’s expression was grim.

Wang Ling and Wang Ying were holding the Heavenly Dao of death in their hands. The Heavenly Dao of death himself was extremely afraid, and his pupils constricted slightly, he said timidly, “Yes... Ling Zhenren and Ying Zhenren have spoken, so how could I not comply?”

In essence, it was a serious violation of the rules to urge people to come back to life. However, with Wang Ling and Wang Ying standing behind him, the Heavenly Dao of death had some confidence.

“Dao ancestor Wang set the rules back then. If I bring these humans back to life and receive any punishment, my lords, you must help me...”the Heavenly Dao of death cupped his hands in front of his chest.

You might not believe it, but as one of the six Main Heavenly Dao, the Heavenly Dao of death was also very afraid of death.

“Cut the crap. Do It now.”Wang Ying said concisely.

“Yes.”

The Heavenly Dao of death stopped evading. He took a step back and released a pitch-black spiritual flame from his fingertip. Then, he pointed his sword at the head of the burnt corpse.

The burnt corpse, whose human form could not be seen clearly, was recovering at a visible speed.

“Good for him. This is a brand new body,” the heavenly axiom of death said with his arms crossed.

After resurrecting a person, the resurrected person would also get a completely healthy body. No matter what kind of pain and illness they had suffered before, the body would be completely healthy after death.

However, according to the bad habits of modern human cultivators, which could not be changed, they would eventually develop into a sub-healthy state.

For this point, it was really a pity.

As if he had experienced a long dream, the courier woke up from the sterile bed in the morgue and rubbed his eyes.

He remembered that he was walking on a narrow golden bridge, and there was a floating golden man beside the Golden Bridge scooping a bowl of golden soup for everyone standing on the Golden Bridge.

The Meng Po soup and this kind of golden soup were actually the same thing.

This was a prop used by the heavenly axiom to block the memories of the previous life of the soul.

However, just as the courier was about to drink it, a black flame lit up the bowl of golden soup in his hand with a whoosh, scaring him so much that he knocked the bowl over.

At the scene of the Golden Bridge, he was sucked away by the cracks created by the black flame in the mess..

When he woke up, he saw the three men in front of him hugging their arms and surrounding his bed.

“You guys...”he was frightened, but this jolt reminded him of something.

During the period when he was invaded by the mind pestilence, although his body was completely out of his control, he still remembered what he had done.

The Mind Plague would never think that the person who had been destroyed by him would be resurrected under such circumstances, and he even had all the memories of being manipulated by it.

“You only need to know that you had a car accident and that we saved you. Now, don’t ask any questions. You only need to tell us everything you did during the period of being manipulated,”Wang Ying said coldly.

“Baobai!”

The young courier said as if he had been enlightened.

“Baobai?”

“Yes... During the period when my body was being controlled, I went to a company that I’ve never seen before. I’ve never seen a company that can move...”

“A company that can move?”Heavenly Dao of death was also stunned when he heard this. “Could it be that this company is in some kind of aircraft?”

Nowadays, it was indeed very popular to have floating offices with no fixed location. Floating offices were now the mainstream trend of future companies in the cultivation world. Although the position of the company would constantly change, it could use this advantage to easily recruit talents from all over the country, and through the establishment of an air office, it could attract talents from all over the country.

The biggest advantage of this floating type of office was that the floating boat would float across every designated city according to its own fixed cycle. Thus, many migrant workers from other places could take the company’s SF car to visit home often.

However, there were still very few enterprises that could master this cutting-edge technology. Unless it was a large financial group that was as rich as a country, only they had the material and financial resources to operate it.

However, the “BAOBAI company” that the courier little brother had mentioned seemed to be a new term among the limited number of air companies. Before this, those famous air companies had been advertised all over the place, but Wang Ling had never heard of this Baobai Company.

And for some reason, he felt that the name of this company had a familiar feel to it..

Chapter 1708 1,704, Cemetery In The Sky (1/92)

Whether it was Wang Ling or Wang Ying, they had never heard of this company before; it was as if it had appeared out of thin air.

Wang Ling used his phone to search the Internet for business information about this company, but when he found that there was no such enterprise, he instantly had an idea.

It turned out that this was a hidden air company.

Moreover, from the internal scale described by this courier young man, this treasure white company seemed to have already reached a certain scale. It hadn't been set up in a hurry recently, and there were many employees inside, all of them were wearing thick white chemical suits, and from the description, they looked a little like a cultivation chemical company.

The Courier Young Man tried his best to reply to that memory. “I saw... a huge cemetery...”

“A ranch? An aerial farm?” Wang Ying and Wang Ling were both stunned.

“No, it's a cemetery! Behind an encrypted iron gate in the core area of this company's floating boat, there's a huge cemetery in the air, as if they were digging for something.”

“Right! That's right, I remember now! There's a huge skeleton in the center area. It looks like a very big creature, but I can't tell what it is! “The tail alone is dozens of feet tall, and the nameplate on it is engraved with the words ‘SCB Special Faction’...”

Was it a host?

Wang Ling was a little surprised by this answer.

Because in the little corpse painting, he had already had Li Xian and Zhang Zicao lock up all the host creatures that patriarch heartless had hidden in the universe.

The strongest of them, aside from 096, who had become Wang Ling's rabbit to look after the backyard, were still in the king's eye, unable to move, and very obedient.

"Go to sleep."

After the interrogation was almost over, the Heavenly Dao of death snapped his fingers to make the delivery boy forget everything. At the same time, he set the two sentences about the poor couple to be automatically resurrected after half an hour.

Of course, if news of the dead being resurrected got out, it would definitely cause a huge uproar, and the Heavenly Dao of death had already ordered a few little golden men to deal with the aftermath.

They had to "Knock on the door" everyone who knew about this so that they could physically forget all their memories of this matter.

In addition, Heavenly Dao of death had also ordered the heavenly court to temporarily know the memory of the poor couple having a daughter after the little girl had been invaded by the thought plague in this car accident.

When the little girl returned, they would automatically remember it.

After everything was set up, Heavenly Dao of death looked at Wang Ling and Wang Ying, he said worriedly, "Ling Zhenren, Ying Zhenren, I don't think this is that simple. It's really a little strange that the old factions and the Great Dao faction are now under Ling Zhenren's control and that a new host has appeared."

"What do you think?" Wang Ying asked.

The Heavenly Dao of death took a deep breath and said, "From the way this whole thing is handled, there are at least three people involved. One is that immortal cockroach, Bai Zhe. The second is the tomb god, and the third is patriarch heartless. He shouldn't have died completely. There are too many ways for such an ancient figure to survive. As long as patriarch heartless separates out a trace of his brainwaves before he dies, there's a certain chance of survival."

"So you're saying this is the Avenger Alliance? Interesting." The corners of Wang Ying's lips curled up.

He thought about how these cockroaches, who had already been slapped to death before, had regrouped to discuss their plan to deal with Wang Ling. That ugly look was truly amusing.

"Although we don't know what the purpose of these three is yet, if they decide to join forces, I don't think they can be underestimated. Don't underestimate them," said Heavenly Dao of death.

"No matter how many people there are, what's the point? I can deal with them alone. Killing them is like killing ants." Wang Ying laughed coldly. He didn't put such an allied army in his eyes at all. The main thing was that he was very confident in his own methods. There wasn't much difference between his combat strength and Wang Ling's; he just lacked Wang Tong.

In his opinion, it was enough to kill these three weak clowns.

"That's true, but we still have to figure out their ultimate goal."

Heavenly Death analyzed this rationally. "First, what exactly is this Baobai group doing. From the description of this delivery guy, this company is very large and has many employees. It Won't be completed in a short period of time. It's also a question of what the other side is excavating in the cemetery behind the Iron Gate in the core area

"Secondly, I think the key is to find out what kind of creatures this special faction is taking in."

The Heavenly Dao of Death's analysis was sound, and Wang Ling naturally agreed with these questions, but one thing that surprised Wang Ling was the Heavenly Dao of death's analysis of these "Avengers" behind the scenes.

That Bai Zhe..

He had erased all the world lines, but he still existed.

Wang Ling had previously thought that he was the only one who was a monster.

But now he realized that, in a sense, this Bai Zhe who was haunting him was also a monster.

If they were to meet again this time...

He would definitely think of a way to completely wipe him out for good.

For Wang Ling, his current train of thought was already very clear -- he had to find the little girl who had been invaded by the thought plague, Chen Xiaomu.

At the same time, on the other side of the treasure white group's floating boat, a secret plan was also quietly underway.

Wang Ming had appeared here, but at that moment, he was no longer Wang Ming. His eyes were cloudy, and his pupils were scattered in the shape of tentacles; he had shockingly become a puppet of the thought plague.

He stood in the huge cemetery, where countless white-clothed people in thick protective clothing were using their digging shovels, flowing gold brushes, and all sorts of sophisticated scanning equipment to explore and excavate the site.

"SCB0.1598, a new special living creature skeleton has been discovered. Please prepare the sealing team! The aura of the skeleton is very strong. Please also prepare the explosion-proof team! Set up a barrier! Everyone, move quickly!"

"Yes!"

In an instant, dozens of Bai Bao group employees replied in unison.

“People of Bai Bao, you will soon witness a great history that will be remembered by the world!”

The Flames enveloped Wang Ming’s face, causing his cheeks to turn bright red. His face was filled with a strong desire for revenge as he spoke excitedly.

Wang Ming had miscalculated.

He had never thought that his body would be controlled by him. Even with the help of the tomb god and Bai Zhe, he had obtained a new body and possessed a brain with great potential.

All he had to do was inject that wisp of brainwave from the divine brain into it, and in time, he would obtain a brain even more powerful than the divine brain!

Although it wasn’t his style to live under someone else’s roof, patriarch heartless knew very well that if they didn’t join forces at this moment, they probably wouldn’t be able to deal with that terrifying man on Earth.

“The three of you wouldn’t have thought of this, would you? You pretended to be friendly with me in an attempt to enter Baobao Bai. But I’ve already calculated this step.”Heartless took Wang Ming’s body and stared in front of him, the three people on the stake were Li Xian, Zhang Zichu, and Zhai Yin..

Li Xian and Zhang Zichu were seriously injured. Although they didn’t feel much pain, they wouldn’t have thought that their plan to enter Baobao White would be directly defeated.

At the same time, what was even more unexpected was that.

In this sky cemetery, the target of these baobao white employees was..

A special kind of eternal life in the beginning of chaos.

And they also had a loud and domineering name in the long history.

They called it... Dragon!

Chapter 1709 1,705: The Man In The Khaki Windbreaker (1/92)

In the early days when Chaos gave birth to the Order of the universe, there was indeed a huge race that had been overlooked.

At that time, there wasn't even the concept of taking in creatures. The Dragon Race of the powerful universe was equal to the former rulers, and together they controlled the deep, dark, chaotic, and twisted universe.

Until one day, a big explosion happened overnight in the Dragon Tribe's base, Ten Thousand Dragon Mountain, for some inexplicable reason. The leader of the Dragon Tribe, Ten Thousand Dragon King, was killed on the spot.

Thus, the balance of power began to become unbalanced. Ten Thousand Dragon Mountain was leaderless and suffered a devastating blow. Most of them were buried here..

A small number of dragons who were lucky enough to survive were treated as living creatures by the former rulers. They were forced to be enslaved for a long time, until the last dragon committed suicide because it could not accept such coercion.

Li Xian and Zhang Zicao were tied to the stake, and a drop of cold sweat dripped down their faces. They hadn't expected things to develop like this.

According to Wang Ming's original plan, they would follow the will of the controlled Wang Ming and go deep into the hinterland. Then, they would act according to the circumstances and wait for Wang Ming to break free from the shackles of the "Mind Pestilence." They would wreak havoc here and tear everything down.

However, the agreed time was up. Li Xian and Zhang Zicao hadn't waited for the moment when the real Wang Ming would take over the body again.

Thus, in that instant, both of them had the same feeling that the situation wasn't good.

They were fine with it. After all, they were all skeletons that had come out of the supreme-being corpse painting, and their bodies were all phantoms formed by the King's eye. They wouldn't feel any pain, but it was different when Zhai Yin had been captured together.

If the land beneath their feet was really the ten thousand dragons mountain from back then, it would now be known as the “Dragon Graveyard.”.

There would definitely be a large number of dragon bones buried here. Although these dragons were already dead, their dragon breath still remained after they died. With Zhai Yin’s physique, it was impossible for her to stay here for long.

Thus, they had to think of a way to get out.

But if they left..

Before they could take over Wang Ming’s body again, he would become an isolated and helpless target.

This was a dilemma.

Although they weren’t in a good condition, both of them believed that if they worked together, it wouldn’t be a problem for them to escape with Zhai Yin and Wang Ming.

But now, the situation had developed far beyond their expectations.

The people of Baobao White Group were digging up the bones under the tomb of the dragon... although it was not clear what their purpose was, this matter was too important to be solved by the two of them.

At the moment, every second that they stayed here, Zhai Yin would be in more danger.

Li Xian and Zhang Zicao were tied to the stake. They knew that they could not wait like this anymore.

After the two of them looked at each other.

The next second!

In the distance, a huge meteorite was falling from the sky, shining with a bright flame! The shadow that covered the sky and the sun instantly covered the ground in front of them.

With such a familiar operation, those who were familiar with it would know that it must have been done by Li Xian.

There was a burst of panic at the scene.

“There’s a huge meteorite approaching!”

“Missile team! Prepare to intercept!”

On the command platform, the command team members gave the order. A few ballistic missiles were instantly shot out from the BAOBAI Group’s Dragon Graveyard Command Post, charging towards the huge meteorite magical artifact in the sky.

The huge explosion sound was accompanied by a powerful firelight, instantly turning the entire sky red.

Li Xian couldn’t help but smile. It was simply nonsense for such an explosive power to want to grind his meteorite into pieces. The meteorite he chose wasn’t randomly transported here. For example, this meteorite was made of heavy metal from the universe, and it was indestructible.

If the explosion power of the missile wasn’t at a certain level, it would be impossible to destroy his meteorite.

“Sir, it’s very dangerous here! Please leave as soon as possible!” At this moment, a Bao Bai employee came forward and urged heartless to leave.

There was no need for him to say anything. If this meteorite fell, the impact it would cause would be so strong that even wuxin could tell with his calculations.

However, his expression was calm as he stared at the meteorite that was about to fall to the ground. His face did not show the slightest bit of emotion. Then, he could not help but laugh. “Star traveller, Li Xian. As expected, he has lived up to his name.”

He knew that this was all Li Xian’s doing, but he did not completely have no countermeasures.

In the next second, a man holding a black umbrella, wearing a khaki windbreaker, and wearing sunglasses appeared behind Wuxin. His appearance was very sudden, like a flash of lightning. There was a terrifying electric current all over his body.

The man’s deep voice sounded. “Sir, what do you want me to do...”

“Destroy it. But be careful not to damage the ground,” heartless said coldly.

Hearing Heartless’s words, the man behind him immediately nodded, “Yes.”

In the Dragon Graveyard, the bright flames from the sky were still accompanied by the rapidly falling meteorites, emitting a terrifying power.

Faced with the impending impact, all the BAOBAI employees below were terrified.

Except for unintentional..

There was also the man who suddenly appeared behind him, wearing a khaki windbreaker.

The man lifted his foot and slowly walked forward. His unhurried posture made people anxious, he put the black umbrella in his hand on his back and took out a diamond glove from his windbreaker. The moment the glove appeared, Li Xian and Zhang Zicao’s eyes were attracted by the pocket watch at the same time, then, they looked incredulous.

A strong power of chaos seeped out from the diamond glove, telling Li Xian and Zhang Zicao that this diamond glove was definitely not an ordinary item!

The concentration of chaos was at least over 80% !

The rudder of the chaos ship taken out by the unintentional forefather was already terrifying enough. Now, another glove with the concentration of chaos at least over 80% appeared!

Were these highly concentrated chaos objects so worthless now?

Their gazes were fixed on the man in the khaki windbreaker in front of them. The man wore the diamond glove on his right hand unhurriedly, pretending to show off his appreciation for a while.

To be able to control such a highly concentrated chaos object, the man's own combat strength spoke for itself!

Chaos object was powerful, far exceeding world-defying level magical artifacts. And every 10% increase in the concentration of chaos object, the backlash against the user's body would be stronger!

Therefore, unless one's combat strength had reached a certain level, otherwise, let alone wearing this chaos object with 80% of the concentration of chaos on one's hand, one's body might be turned into ashes just by taking it out and pinching it for a while!

The Man in the khaki windbreaker looked calm.

At this moment, he finally turned his gaze to the huge meteorite that Li Xian had summoned in the sky, and extended his right hand that was wearing a diamond glove.

Pa..

He snapped his fingers..

Chapter 1710 1706, Dragon Descendant (1/92)

At that moment, the immense power of the Diamond Glove was astonishing!

The man snapped his fingers for the first time!

The meteorite that was about to fall from the sky instantly exploded with a loud bang. It was actually blasted apart on the spot, with cracks appearing on it!

However, the destructive power of the diamond glove was far more than that. The man snapped his fingers again for the second time, and the power increased layer by layer compared to before!

After the second snap, the interior of the meteorite instantly disintegrated, as if it had been annihilated by a powerful energy. At the moment it was about to fall, its size gradually decreased, turning into ashes..

Li Xian and Zhang Zicao didn't react for a moment.

Chaos item: Indestructible Diamond Glove..

Sequence Level 3: Annihilation!

They didn't expect to see a Chaos artifact with a concentration of more than 60% here, and it was classified as a "Super God" sequence.

When the concentration of a chaotic device exceeded 60% , the universe's chaos would automatically assign this type of chaotic device to its sequence, which was equivalent to adding a layer of laws!

Take forefather heartless's chaotic rudder as an example, which had already reached rank one: transcendent.

Wang Ling's Great Universe's Chaos Millstone, for example, had a rank three: annihilation.

Only chaotic devices with a concentration of more than 60% would be assigned to such a sequence.

Sequence Level 1: transcendent

Sequence Level 2: transcendent

Sequence Level 3: Oblivion

Sequence Level 4: Light

Sequence Level 5: Creation

After being assigned to a sequence, it didn't have much to do with the specific chaos concentration. The existence of sequence levels was a symbol of the potential of chaos machines! At the same time, it was a symbol of a special ability!

It was rumored that when a chaotic device reached the "Annihilation" level, the concentration of chaos would probably exceed 100% saturation in the future! It would move toward a higher and more terrifying concentration!

It could lock onto the thing it wanted to annihilate and actively track it down. It could open a chaotic hole from the inside and completely annihilate it from the inside out!

"A chaotic device of the annihilation sequence..." Li Xian and Zhang Zitao were both stunned.

Although the chaos concentration in this diamond glove wasn't as dense as Wang Ling's cosmic millstone, they could clearly sense from their intuition that this was an "Annihilation quality" chaos weapon, it was a level three chaos weapon!

"This person isn't an ordinary person either. He's able to withstand the backlash of this chaos weapon and still act so nonchalantly." Li Xian's heart was shaken; this was what he was most afraid of.

The Man in the khaki windbreaker wore gloves and snapped his fingers expressionlessly. It was as if he did not put anything in his eyes.

After dealing with Li Xian's meteorite, the next second, he focused his gaze on Li Xian and Zhang Zicao and reached out his hand.

When the thumb and middle finger of the diamond glove on his right hand merged, a slight friction was created. The crisp snapping sound followed again.

PA!

This time, his target was Li Xian.

The strong chaotic energy wave was directed at Li Xian's body. He felt that there was a hole in his body, and endless chaotic energy was born from it, and then there was a bang!

His chest immediately exploded, and along with the bright red blood, countless organs flew out from the hole, and then were gradually devoured by the chaotic energy..

If this kind of damage was only applied to the body, Li Xian and Zhang Zicao's bodies were the real illusion of the King's eye. No matter how badly damaged they were, they would not feel any pain, however, the power of destruction brought by this snap of the finger was applied to the soul at the same time.

In an instant, Li Xian vomited a large mouthful of blood.

"Let's go, Brother Zicao... Take Miss Zhai and leave this place..."

"If you want to leave, let's go together!"

Zhang Zicao did not expect this man in the khaki windbreaker to be so brave. With a snap of his fingers, he almost took Li Xian's life.

Li Xian's soul was severely damaged, and he probably could not withstand the second snap of his fingers.

At this moment, another meteorite flew over from behind the two of them!

This was a soft meteorite that was like a sponge. It did not carry any lethality. It was summoned by Li Xian with the last of his strength. It flew across the sky from behind at an extremely fast speed and swept the three of them away.

Zhang Zi grasped the reality and immediately opened a space tunnel.

In just a moment, the three of them were taken away by the soft meteorite and disappeared without a trace.

“They can’t run away...”

At this moment, the man in the khaki windbreaker took off his diamond gloves and put them back into his windbreaker. His short hair was flowing elegantly, and yellow electric sparks were sizzling. Then, two Golden Dragon Horns appeared on the left and right of his forehead, two Golden Dragon Horns appeared.

“Jingze, wait for a moment. They’re just like a spent arrow, there’s no need to chase after them anymore.”Unintentional called out his name and stopped him.

SCBX-L001: Jingze

Dragon descendant age: 1 year old

Dragon Power: Lightning Dragon

Dragon Breath attribute: electricity

Current actual Combat Power Conversion Realm: Earth ancestor intermediate stage

Dragon power synchronization data: stable..

Dragon Breath Purity Data: stable..

..

He checked the man’s physical condition and found that it was as stable as usual. Only then did he let out a long sigh of relief. At the same time, he sighed in his heart.

When he first saw what Bai Zhe and the tomb God had planned behind the scenes, he felt that these two people were people he could rely on and join forces with.

To have the Dragon clan that had disappeared resurrect in such a form and become a human-shaped dragon descendant with the power of a dragon, and to be able to completely listen to their orders, this matter seemed inconceivable to him.

However, Bai Zhe and the tomb God had managed to do it with their own strength.

This floating dragon graveyard would excavate more complete dragon bones in the future and use the dragon breath left behind by these dragon bones to extract genes, to nurture more dragon descendants of the same level as this man called “Jingze” in front of them!

That dead fish-eyed youth on Earth was too strong..

Choosing to revive the Dragon Race of the past to fight against him was indeed the best choice at the moment.

Currently, Baobao White Corporation had a total of eight dragon descendants in the process of synthesis, and four were successfully synthesized.

There were two people who could be put into battle.

And Jingze was the person who had been synthesized the longest and the most stable person.

One year old for a dragon descendant was equivalent to 1,000 years old for a human cultivator.

There were also many places to nurture a dragon descendant. After the hatching process was completed, it was mainly done in a specially tailored space through the internal and external time difference.

“Jingze, you have to remember that you are the first dragon descendant in this universe. As No. 001, you are responsible for leading the dragon descendants behind you to realize the revival of the Dragon Clan, do you understand?” Heartless said through Wang Ming’s body.

“Yes.”Jingze nodded.

“Very good. Next, it’s time to introduce you to SCBX-L002.”

Heartless said.

He had just received instructions from Bai Zhe’s side to find Jingze a partner.

“SCBX-L002?”Jingze tilted his head. “I don’t think I want a partner.”

“Heh, when I see you, I won’t say that.”

Forefather heartless smiled and said, “This is a girl who obtained the power of the fiery dragon. “The combination of electricity and fire will increase the lethality by several times. “If you work well together, no one in this world can defeat you...”

“Then, I’ll give you a task to develop a tacit understanding and kill someone.”

“Please tell me, who do you want to kill?”Jingze asked obediently.

“A monk.”

Unintentional curved his lips and replied, “His dharma name is golden lamp.”
