Chapter 1731 Strengthening After The Baptism Of Moonlight (1/92)

It was clear that Shouchong, as someone who had been there before, had some special fetishes in the process of falling in love, but that didn't mean that other people would have special fetishes in love.

Moreover, Wang Ling didn't think he could fall in love at all, let alone have any fetishes.

He simply couldn't imagine himself in love.

If he were to write a romance novel based on him, even if it was just a kiss with a girl., the description would have to go from "Ah! It turns out that a kiss tastes like sweet strawberry or blueberry!" to "Ah! It turns out that a kiss tastes like salty pepper..."

This kind of scene was a little too exciting for Wang Ling, and coupled with a slight social phobia, the more he thought about it, the more frightened he became

A drop of cold sweat slid down Wang Ling's forehead at this moment. He didn't say a word, but just stared at Shouchong through the spatial wall in Lotus Sun's sword spirit space.

On the other side, Shouchong seemed to have noticed it as well. For some reason, he suddenly felt a chill run down his spine... it was as if he was being targeted by some dangerous creature.

He shrunk his neck and immediately realized that he might have said something wrong.

After all, Lotus Sun was only a girl in her first year of high school. A little girl might not be able to understand the fiery feeling of being stuck together when a relationship developed to the final home run stage. It was indeed too early to say this., it was indeed too early to say this.

He was very tactful, and just smiled awkwardly before continuing to work with Wang Ming.

"You're in too much of a hurry. When it comes to assisting someone, you have to do it step by step. When we get out, there'll be plenty of time," Wang Ming said.

“Mm... I’m a little impatient.”

Shouchong nodded. “Then, can I ask you one last question, Mr. Ming?”

“What question?” Wang Ming was curious.

Shouchong scratched his messy hair. “What exactly is the relationship between Miss Lotus Sun and that girl called nine temples Liangzi?”

“What relationship can there be between women? Of course it’s not a rival in love, but a bestie.” Wang Ming couldn’t help laughing.

“So that’s how it is...”

Shouchong suddenly understood and quickly thanked him. “I understand, thank you, Mr. Ming.”

Sure enough, everything was as he had guessed!

As expected, the relationship between these three people was the asura arena!

”...”

Wang Ming looked at Shouchong’s somewhat annoying expression and for some reason, had a bad feeling.

But right now, most of his attention was still on the giant mecha in his hand, and he wasn’t distracted by too many other things. Although Shouchong’s expression was annoying, he really didn’t think too much about it.

No Way..

No one really thought that Lotus Sun and Liangzi Jiugong were love rivals, right?

..

At the same time, after Jingze and Yanyan retreated from the Wang family's small villa, they quickly returned to the Baobao group's floating boat due to Jingze's injuries.

SCB-L001 was injured.

As the first dragon descendant to be successfully nurtured, Jingze's injuries received a lot of attention. From the moment he was born, he had almost never experienced the feeling of being injured.

This was also the first time Jingze had been injured. All in all, it gave him a strange feeling.

"So, this is the feeling of pain..."

In the core world that was enveloped by the Golden Lightning, he gripped his dragon claws and bathed in the lightning.

The dragon descendant could use the power of the natural elements that matched his attributes to speed up the recovery of his injuries.

However, to Jingze's surprise, Wang Nuan's two punches had the effect of inflicting heavy injuries on him, slowing down his recovery rate.

D * mn, how annoying..

"Why did you run away just now? If you join hands with me, you might be able to defeat him." Yan Lang held an ice cream cone and stayed by Jingze's side.

"That child is very dangerous. Now is the crucial moment for the revival of the Dragon Clan... I can't make any mistakes and do things that I'm not confident in," Jingze sighed and explained.

He didn't want to run away like a mouse. As a descendant of a dragon who had inherited the power of a giant dragon, it was a shame for the dragon clan to run away like this.

Dragon Warriors should die for the battle! Not surrender because of the battle!

He sorted out his thoughts, jing ze rubbed the space between his eyebrows. “Don’t Forget Yan Li, we have a labor contract. We just follow the employee system here. If we’re not sure, we can choose to leave according to the mission rules...”

“Okay.”Yan ‘er pursed her red lips. “But that little guy is really interesting. Even if he wants to leave, he should have let me try just now.”

“If there is still a chance, I will let you try.”

Jing ze endured the pain and revealed a smile.

Yan ‘er criticized him mercilessly, “Your smile is so ugly.”

“Is that so...”

Jing Ze’s face was filled with embarrassment.

He realized that after he met Yan Yan, his personality had unknowingly changed a little. In the past, he had never smiled at someone like this before.

But now, Yan Yan had appeared.

No matter how much he did not want to admit it, the fact was that he had just decided to retreat. A large part of it was still because of Yan Yan. He did not want anything to happen to Yan Yan under his hands.

The injury this time made him realize many things.

He began to gradually feel some unknown emotions forming in his body.

At the same time, because of this defeat, a fighting spirit was aroused.

That Wang family..

They must not let this family survive in this world.

Otherwise, when the Dragon Clan revives in the future, this family will be the future great enemy of the Dragon Clan!

Weng!

At this moment, under the continuous rumbling of the Thunder in the core world of the Pure Pool's exclusive dragon descendant, a beam of bright moonlight seemed to pierce through the universe, breaking through the horizon and sprinkling down with a kind of holy radiance.

The starlight speckled with a kind of immortal dragon's might. The pure pool and Yan Yan raised their heads almost at the same time, their eyes filled with astonishment.

"Moon Dragon Lord..."

Jing ze and Yan Yan both sensed the aura of the moonlight!

It was the scent of the Moonlight Dragon, one of the three great leaders of the Dragon Clan!

After the bright moonlight fell, it quickly focused and slowly gathered on Jing Ze's body. In almost an instant, his injured body was healed, and the power of the moonlight surged into his body inch by inch, it seeped into every cell in his body... and actually made Jingze feel that the psionic power in his body was unprecedentedly full!

"Your aura seems to have become stronger!" Yan Li revealed a shocked expression.

"That's right. This is the Moon Dragon Lord's Eternal Moon Star Radiance. It can quickly recover from injuries, and within the limited time, it can obtain power that surpasses its own combat strength."

Jingze shook his hand. He felt that he had been strengthened.

At the same time, his heart could not help but become even more excited.

Bai Zhe's 'Eternal Moon Star Radiance' had directly given him a boost of five times greater dragon strength than before!

If it was this kind of strength..

He was confident that he could completely defeat that baby girl from before!

Or even capture her alive in public!

Chapter 1732 1728: Brothers Working Together (1/92)

With Lotus Sun sneaking in to help, Wang Ming and Shouchong's production progress was undoubtedly much faster. Ao Hai's sword Qi was tyrannical, but it could accurately cut out every part according to the blueprints in Wang Ming's mind, even a screw the size of a melon seed wouldn't be a problem.

This scene was just like the last time Wang Ming had fought ghost head blade in a battle of wits and courage. Perhaps even in his wildest dreams, forefather heartless would never have imagined that while he was controlling Wang Ming's body, he would be in this spiritual space, on this exiled ghost ship... someone was actually building a giant mecha and trying to fight him.

This sort of "Ultraman fighting monsters" at sea was called an expert in the movie "Pacific Rim."

When all the parts were completed one by one, Wang Ming let out a long sigh of relief because there was only one last step left. With just one command from him, all the assembled parts on the ship could be immediately assembled, it would turn into a complete giant mecha.

"I didn't expect it to really work!" Shouchong was incomparably excited. As the lone wolf of scientists, he had always relied on the power of words to wholeheartedly research products, and the assistants in the lab were all hired to do chores, he had practically done all the core tasks himself.

And now, for some reason, the joy and excitement of working with others had become especially intense at this moment.

"There are two seats, the master seat and the co-pilot seat. I'll go take the master seat. Don't get excited, there's only one more step left." Wang Ming's expression was solemn, then, the two of them each wore separate cores for the master seat and the co-pilot seat. Accompanied by a burst of electromagnetic waves, their bodies actually floated in the air on this ghost ship until they were almost eighty meters in the air before they stopped.

On the ghost ship and on the surface of the sea, all the assembled parts of the giant mecha were inspired by the core at this moment. They moved at the same time, and a giant Wang Ling mecha was successfully assembled on this abandoned sea, bursting with power and energy.

The giant Wang Ling mecha was even stronger than Wang Ming had imagined, and because Lotus Sun had helped with the assembly process, almost every part had an arcane sea sword mark added to it.

This sword mark was similar to an enchantment effect, and could greatly increase the overall combat strength of the mecha on top of its original foundation!

Sitting in the main pilot seat, Wang Ming couldn't help laughing as he felt the power of this giant Wang Ling mecha.

This giant Wang Ling Mecha!

It had the sword mark of a nine-core spirit sword!

He had never fought such a battle of wealth in his eight lifetimes!

"It's too strong... we can really regain sovereignty!" Shouchong trembled as he stretched out his hands and gripped the control stick in the co-pilot's seat, excitement written all over his face.

At that moment, he and Wang Ming were both inside this giant Wang Ling Mecha, feeling the powerful spirit energy emanating from it. They were filled with confidence for the next battle.

"It's all thanks to the strawberries that Rongrong planted on this giant Wang Ling," Wang Ming said. He really hadn't expected things to go so smoothly.

"That's a sword mark... it's not planting strawberries..." Lotus Sun quickly retorted.

“It’s all the same. If you don’t plant them today, you’ll plant them in the future.”Wang Ming smiled faintly.

Wang Ling:”...”

Lotus Sun:”...”

After a short flirtation, Wang Ming finally decided to challenge the giant aircraft carrier that had been snatched away by patriarch heartless in this sea area after trying out the agility of the giant Wang Ling Mecha!

“Brother Shouchong, it’s time for our performance next.”

The corners of Wang Ming’s lips curled up. After counting down three times, he and Shouchong pushed the joystick in front of him at the same time.

Weng!

At that moment, sword imprints interweaved on this giant mecha. The nine-core sword imprints overlapped from all parts of the mecha’s body, giving it an astonishing aura! The grayish-black mecha’s body actually took on a jade-blue color at that moment, like a sea dragon soaring to the sky.

Then! Whoosh!

The giant mecha, which was eighty meters tall, didn’t look clumsy at all. It transformed into a streak of light and moved horizontally on the surface of the sea. Wherever it passed, the waves were divided into two water walls, one on the left and the other on the right, which actually split the sea apart.

Wang Ming’s speed was simply too fast. The streak of light transformed by the giant mecha rapidly approached the aircraft carrier where forefather heartless was, making it impossible for forefather heartless to react in a short period of time.

It wasn’t until they were about to collide that forefather heartless received a warning from within.

His reaction was extremely fast. Although his divine brain hadn't fully recovered, Wang Ming's operation was within his expectations.

However, he was extremely confident and didn't Dodge at all, planning to meet the attack head-on.

Although the giant aircraft carrier he was holding out now was built by Wang Ming, the person at the helm of the aircraft carrier was himself. Moreover, after fusing with the divine brain, the combat strength of the giant aircraft carrier was already on a different level from before.

As an earthling who wasn't a cultivator, it was indeed unexpected for old ancestor heartless to be able to develop his brain to this extent, but this level of brain.., he didn't even think much of it.

"Heh, do you want to regain your position? You're Dreaming... Since You've Fallen, don't dance anymore."He snorted as the aircraft carrier's radar quickly tracked Wang Ming's giant mecha.

However, the speed at which it moved surprised him.

If he hadn't guessed correctly, Wang Ming should have used the scrap on the Sea of scrap to assemble this thing in a short time, but those things were all scrap! They were scrap! How could the performance of this assembly be so superior?

"You're courting death!"

He gripped the rudder with one hand and pressed the red button in front of him with the other.

In an instant, tens of thousands of gun turrets moved simultaneously on the giant aircraft carrier, and countless missiles were aimed at Wang Ming's giant mecha at this moment.

These missiles were like flying rain, shooting rapidly from the horizon. Cannon light and smoke screens connected, and each missile was surrounded by runes and had immense spiritual energy.

Wang Ming was astonished. He hadn't expected that after forefather heartless had taken over his giant aircraft carrier, his overall combat strength had actually risen to this level.

If it hadn't been for Lotus Sun's help this time, even if they had built this mecha, their chances of victory would have been uncertain.

Faced with these flying missiles, Wang Ming's goal was also very clear.

He had come to destroy this giant aircraft carrier, so he was going straight for its back door!

This was the backup plan he had left behind when he had built the aircraft carrier. If he struck it, the huge aircraft carrier would directly disintegrate!

Thus, he had no intention of dodging these missiles at all. Instead, he charged forward in the face of the hail of bullets. This reckless stance stunned patriarch heartless.

At the same time, what shocked patriarch heartless even more was that after Wang Ming maneuvered this huge mecha to get closer and closer, he could finally see the appearance of this huge mecha clearly!

When Wang Ling's pair of dead fish eyes, which were the symbol of life, appeared on the giant mecha and looked directly into Patriarch Heartless's eyes, a fear that came from the depths of his heart was instantly outlined.

Although these dead fish eyes looked harmless, they were extremely lethal..

Why was it you again!

Patriarch heartless was so terrified that his mind instantly went blank.

At that moment, in Lotus Sun's sword spirit space, Wang Ling opened his eyes at the same time and gently waved his hand.

In the air, the tens of thousands of missile warheads aimed at Wang Ming actually changed directions at the same time and followed Wang Ming to smash at the huge aircraft carrier.

Chapter 1733 1,729. Wang Ling Laughed When He Found Out (1/92)

The moment Wang Ming hit the back door of the aircraft carrier and caused it to disintegrate, thousands of missiles fell in unison, covering almost every inch of the aircraft carrier. Like firecrackers, the flames blazed brightly and continued to cause big explosions on the surface of the sea.

For a moment, the air billowed into the sky, and the endless sea water was constantly evaporated by the flames.

Wang Ling had been lurking in Lotus Sun's sword spirit space until the last moment when he was close to the hull of the aircraft carrier.

In addition to changing the direction of the missile warhead, he also unilaterally suppressed all living things on the aircraft carrier to ensure that the thinking plague's parent body wouldn't run away.

And this move was one of the branches of the "Great Suppression Spell" in heavenly dao, "We're all wooden people!"!

Once this spell was activated, everyone in a fixed area would be trapped in a state of confinement, unable to move in the slightest, unable to use magic treasures normally, and even their souls would be trapped in a state of confinement, unable to be transferred.

This move was the best way to deal with the Mind Pestilence's parent body.

Thus, when the rear door of the huge aircraft carrier was shattered by a punch from the huge Wang Ling Mecha, the Mind Pestilence's parent body was instantly engulfed by flames as the missile exploded, in the old days, spirit invasion was the main method used by the Dominators, but in reality, their physical bodies were the weakest!

Once they were targeted, which meant that they couldn't transfer their souls or expose their physical bodies, even soul formation cultivators could easily crush them to death..

..

After the giant aircraft carrier was destroyed, Wang Ming could clearly feel that this spirit space had returned to his control.

He set the huge Wang Ling mecha he was piloting as a new base, and at the same time, he directly controlled the mecha to lie flat on the surface of the sea, transforming it into a huge ship.

On the other side, patriarch heartless was also arrested at the same time. He had been taken away by Lotus Sun the moment the aircraft carrier disintegrated, and was now bound by the sword intent of Ao Hai's Ao Hai.

It was a very skilled turtle shell binding, and there was no lack of coquettishness in its graceful posture.

"You didn't expect me to actually come back, did you?" Wang Ming crouched down and couldn't help laughing.

"HMPH..." forefather heartless turned his face; it was clear that he didn't accept this outcome. "If my divine brain hadn't fully recovered, how could you two mere juniors be my match..."

"Even if you don't want to admit it, your defeat is already a fact. "Although I didn't know what agreement you had with that Bai Zhe, now that I've regained sovereignty, I do know a lot of things," Wang Ming said, a thoughtful expression appeared on his face.

After regaining control of the spirit space, all of forefather heartless's memories of contacting Bai Zhe's side were synced to Wang Ming's mind.

At present, it was certain that the other party was indeed planning to revive the Dragon Clan by excavating a large number of giant dragon skeletons in the dragon graveyard, piecing them together, extracting their genes, and then using a supreme spell to revive them.

Wang Ming captured the memories and then shared them with Wang Ling, Lotus Sun, and the others.

"That guy actually became one of the three great leaders of the Dragon Clan, the Moonlight Dragon? Hahaha, this guy really doesn't leave us alone." This time, Wang Ming really couldn't help laughing.

Bai Zhe..

A man who had been repeatedly beaten to death by his younger brother, Wang Ling, had actually imagined himself as one of the three great leaders of the Dragon Clan, the Moonlight Dragon..

In terms of combat strength, this should be Bai Zhe's strongest combat strength to date.

Who knew how many slaps he could take from Wang Ling..

He didn't have much of a concept of the dragon clan; he only knew from rumors that this clan was very strong, and at its peak, it was even above the old rulers.

As one of the three leaders of the Dragon Clan, Wang Ming had also learned from the memories of forefather heartless about a special ability called "Eternal Moon Star Radiance".

In fact, this was the Dragon Breath of the Moonlight Dragon.

It wrapped around the Moonlight Dragon's entire body and had a very strong healing effect!

And the most important thing was that eternal moon star radiance could ignore serious injuries!

Previously, Wang Ling's slaps had had a self-inflicted serious injury effect, which hindered the healing ability of all those who had been passively beaten.

Now that there was the "Eternal Moon Star Radiance".

Could it really fight Wang Ling for ten rounds?

But clearly, the key factor now wasn't here, but what exactly was the purpose of reviving so many dragon descendants?

Ordinary Dragon descendants were no match for Wang Ling.

Even the three great leaders of the Dragon Clan would have to weigh their own weight to deal with Wang Ling.

As Wang Ling's old rival, Bai Zhe should be very clear on this point.

In the past, Bai Zhe had become used to being blindly confident. This time, although he had become a moonlight dragon and had the strongest combat strength in history, he wouldn't go so far as to repeat the same mistake and continue to be blindly confident before being overthrown in public.

"Wait, I think I found something, but I don't know what it means for the time being," Wang Ming suddenly said at that moment.

Through forefather heartless's memories, he had seen a strange symbol that forefather heartless had used his body to see in the Dragon Graveyard.

It was a strange symbol made of holes, as if it had been smashed by something. Based on his memories, Wang Ming recorded this strange symbol and drew it on the ground, then fell into a daze.

"Does anyone know what this is?" Wang Ming stared at the diamond-shaped symbol and asked. From its shape, it looked a bit like a diamond.

Heavenly Dao of death pondered for a moment, then suddenly looked horrified. "Ah, this..."

"Senior Heavenly Dao of death, what did you think of?" Lotus Sun asked.

"I keep feeling that... it's a bit like the cosmic punishment seal!"

Heavenly axiom of death stroked his chin and said, "Back then, there was actually a saying that the immemorial dragon race was annihilated overnight... it was said that the dragon race was too powerful, so the universe was forced to activate the balance mechanism and wipe out the existence of the dragon race. And this kind of punishment that was formed because of the universe's balance ability was called cosmic punishment. So I thought, could this be the legendary mark of universal punishment..."

"Mark of universal punishment?"

Wang Ying smiled. "If that's the case, then Bai Zhe's goal in reviving the dragon descendants is not just to revive the dragon race, but to restart universal punishment, and then lead this disaster to Earth, using the power of universal punishment to destroy the owner?"

“That’s very possible!”

The Heavenly Dao of death couldn’t help breaking out in cold sweat. “Now that Miss Lotus Sun’s spirit sword has fused with the Nine Old Heavenly Dao Rubik’s cubes... and has been living on Earth, it’s very likely that the universe will mistakenly think that Earth is the center of the universe. In addition, with Ling Zhenren and Lord Ying on Earth, once a large number of the immemorial dragon clan resurrects on Earth, the universal punishment that was triggered in the immemorial era really might reappear!”

” ... ”

The corners of Wang Ling’s mouth twitched when he heard this.

The Heavenly Dao of death was puzzled. “I don’t know why Ling Zhenren doesn’t look nervous at all?”

At that moment, Wang Ying shook his head. “Because even if Bai Zhe really intends to activate the universe’s checks and balances mechanism based on the above reasoning, it’s useless.”

The Heavenly Dao of death said, “Why?”

Wang Ying folded his arms and sighed. “Because right now, the authority to punish the universe is in your hands.”

The Heavenly Dao of Death:”?”

“Bai Zhe’s current arrangement is equivalent to handing in a letter of complaint to the universe, attempting to use the universe’s checks and balances to suppress the Lord.”

When Wang Ying said this, he couldn’t help but laugh. “But have you ever seen anyone accept complaints about themselves?”

Everyone:”...”

Chapter 1734 1,730, Bone Snatching (1/92)

It wasn't that Wang Ling hadn't anticipated Bai Zhe's ultimate goal after taking such a big detour before, but he had a variety of answers in his heart, but he felt that the least likely answer was that Bai Zhe was trying to use the universe's checks and balances to kill him.

No one would really think it would be useful to "Complain" to the universe, right?

Wang Ling originally thought that no one was that stupid, but this time, he had learned a lot.

After Wang Ming had regained control of his body and learned and analyzed heartless patriarch's memories, these deductions could now be said to be solid evidence.

Wang Ling suddenly remembered that when he had gone to watch movies and TV dramas back then, that official in an ancient uniform had been sitting in the courtroom, and he had slapped the wood in the hall and loudly reprimanded, "Who in the hall dares to sue me?"

It was said that material came from life, but Wang Ling had never thought that this would happen to him one day.

Now that the mother of the thought plague had been eliminated, the source of the mother had been cut off, and no new thought plague would be born. Furthermore, the thought plague that had already invaded the human body would gradually wither away because they couldn't sense the mother.

Wang Ling could be considered to have turned the tables on this big game of chess, but it was clearly not the time to relax.

"Wang Ling, what should we do now?" Lotus Sun asked. Seeing the youngster's serious and thoughtful expression, she desperately hoped that she could help him.

By showing off like this, she also wanted to get closer to Wang Ling.

Sometimes, she felt that she was clearly very close to Wang Ling, and at one point, she thought that she was about to succeed, but suddenly the distance between them started to become distant again.

So now Lotus Sun felt that what Sun Ying 'er had said to her earlier wasn't completely unreasonable.

She should have been more proactive.

Wang Ling still didn't speak. He crossed his arms and sat cross-legged on the spot, and Wang Ying simultaneously conveyed his thoughts.

"The situation is very clear now. Bai Zhe has already become a moonlight dragon. If he wants to activate the universe's checks and balances mechanism, he'll have to revive the other two dragon clan leaders," Wang Ying said.

"The other two dragon clan leaders?" Lotus sun blinked.

"Among the three dragon clan leaders of the immemorial dragon clan, other than the Moonlight Dragon, there are the dark devouring dragon and the Cangyuan Dragon. The Dark Devouring Dragon has the power of darkness, and the Cangyuan Dragon... as the name suggests, is actually a water dragon," said Wang Ying.

In fact, at this point, the rest of the people immediately understood.

As everyone knew, after Ao hai condensed the nine Heaven's path Rubik's cubes, his ability was also to control seawater.

It was similar to the Cangyuan Dragon's ability.

But in fact, Ao Hai's ability still had limitations, because the object that ao hai could control could only be seawater. The Cangyuan Dragon's configuration was even more advanced than Ao Hai's. What it could control was 10,000 waters, it wasn't just limited to seawater.

"Cangyuan Dragon can control ten thousand waters, but its range of control is limited. With itself as the center, it can only cover one hundred thousand galaxies in the surrounding area. But Olympian sea can now cover one billion. In terms of range, Olympian sea has a wider range. But in terms of maneuverability, Cangyuan dragon is stronger," Wang Ying explained.

Thus, in summary, the two had their pros and cons.

So Wang Ling's idea was very simple now.

He felt that if he could get ahold of the Cangyuan Dragon's bone and pour its dragon power into Ao Hai's body... then ao hai wouldn't just be the Sea King in the future, but a veritable "Queen of ten thousand waters"!

In Wang Ling's opinion, this was killing two birds with one stone.

Because the stronger ao hai was, the stronger Lotus Sun's crisis handling ability would be. If anything happened, he would have the ability to solve it, and he wouldn't need to worry about it at all.

Wang Ling felt that as long as Lotus Sun was given enough self-protection, the girl wouldn't bother him in the future.

But he had never imagined that his plan would have the opposite effect.

"Invisible flirting is the deadliest." At that moment, Wang Ying sighed helplessly in his heart.

As the shadow of a genuine old stainless steel wood, he felt that this old stainless steel wood had a long way to go in the future.

How Long would it take for him to get an epiphany?

Next year?

Or the year after that?

..

Inside the floating boat in the sky of the Baobai Group, when Wang Ming opened his eyes again, he suddenly heard someone calling out to him.

“Lord Wuxin?” The person calling out to him was an employee of the BAOBAI group. He was wearing a thick protective suit and asked cautiously.

Wang Ming glanced at him. At that moment, he was standing beside a huge pit in the dragon graveyard.

This was one of the excavations sites for the giant dragon bone.

Because he had regained control of his body, there would be a mental window when he took over the body again. On the surface, it looked like he was in a daze, and no one would react to his shouts.

Fortunately, this window wasn't very long, only a dozen seconds or so.

Wang Ming laughed in his heart.

Now, these people in the Dragon Graveyard would never have thought that he had already taken back his body.

“Mm... how's the excavation?” He didn't give himself away and continued to use the tone of a heartless old ancestor to communicate with the employees of the treasure group.

“Jackpot!” “Lord Heartless!” The employee of the treasure group said excitedly. “We've already detected that there's a huge amount of energy hidden underground in this pit L1289! It is very likely that the imperial family's parts are buried inside!”

The imperial family's three families.

This was the BAOBAI Group's shorthand name for the three leaders of the dragon race, namely the Moonlight Dragon, the Dark Devouring Dragon, and the Cangyuan Dragon.

At present, other than the Moonlight Dragon's bones, most of the Dark Devouring Dragon's and the Cangyuan Dragon's bones had not been collected yet, and there were still many missing parts.

Therefore, once there was a new discovery related to the imperial family, the Baobao White Group employees who were responsible for the detection were extremely excited! Because if the detection was detected, there would be an additional bonus!

Moreover, this bonus was enough for every employee to enjoy a lifetime of huge bonuses!

Under such an incentive system, all the Baobao White Group employees worked as if they were on steroids. If they took off their protective clothing, the dark circles under their eyes could be clearly seen.

Hence, the employees of baobai group also jokingly called themselves Panda people.

“Well done.”

Wang Ming praised them, then looked at the employee. “Where are the parts from the three imperial families that were collected previously?”

“They’re already under strict protection in the cemetery’s encryption lab. No one is allowed to enter,”the employee of Baobai Group replied.

Wang Ming looked at the employee number and said, “Number 10021.”

“Yes, I’m Here!”The person immediately saluted and replied.

“Actually, I just suddenly thought of something. I think we might be able to use other methods to find the remaining three imperial dragon bones. For example, the mutual sensing between the Dragon Bones?”

Wang Ming said, “I know that you guys have done sensing experiments before, but the sensing experiment I’m proposing is brand new. But to ensure the feasibility of the experiment, I need to go to the place where the dragonbones are stored and take a look.”

“But this... you have to apply and go through the process,”10021 replied.

“If it’s the application process, everyone in the company will know about my method by then. Right now, you’re the only one who knows.”

Wang Ming smiled. “10021, if you get my method by then, you’ll be able to smoothly dig out all of the imperial family’s dragonbones. You should be able to imagine how much money you and the people in your survey team will get, right? That will be an inexhaustible amount of wealth.”

Hearing this, 10021 couldn’t help clenching his teeth. “I don’t know the location of the encryption lab myself, but I know someone... he might know. That was my previous boss, and it was also my boss who had planned to capture that woman.”

“What woman?”

“That female special forces soldier named Zhai,” number 10021 said.

“Mm, I remember now... very good... that woman was captured really beautifully!”

Wang Ming pretended to be enlightened, and a smile appeared on his face, but it was actually a dagger hidden in his smile.

“So, Lord Wuxin, are you really just going to take a look?”

“Yes. You just need to use my brainwaves to scan it. You should know how strong my brainwaves are.”

Wang Ming nodded and continued to smile innocently. “So, you just need to get that former boss to take me there. Don’t worry, I’m just going to take a look. I Won’t go in.”

Heh..

When I go in..

I’ll directly tear down your base!

Chapter 1735 1,731, Encryption Laboratory (1/92)

The encryption laboratory in the Dragon Graveyard was divided into different locations in the graveyard. Some were in the air, some were underground, and they would change their positions at any time according to the encryption mechanism.

The encryption laboratory was divided into four levels: Heaven, Earth, Mystic, and yellow. The heaven-grade was the highest level of the encryption laboratory, and it was the only one in the entire dragon graveyard, all of the imperial family bones that had been found were stored in this one and only heaven-level laboratory.

This was the highest-level laboratory, and even though forefather heartless and Bai Zhe had joined forces, Bai Zhe was still wary of him and didn't give him full access.

The eight-legged mechanical crab was a conventional means of transportation in the Dragon Graveyard. Wang Ming and No. 10021 moved like the wind on this reddish-brown graveyard.

The eight-legged crab looked heavy, but it was extremely fast and didn't lack flexibility. The two quickly found the boss who had taken No. 10021 abroad, whose code name was Wasp.

Wang Ming glanced at Wasp's work number plate, which had the words "291" written on it.

The three-digit identification plate was enough to prove that the other party was a group of employees who were already at the senior level of Baobai Group. In baobai group, these panda people could determine each other's seniority based on their work number plate, the earlier the number, the lower the rank and the higher the right of speech.

Therefore, the length of this number, sometimes also a symbol of status, three-digit number plate like a five-digit QQ number, in the BAOBAI group has been a legendary level of existence.

Because of this, wasps are very proud of the way they conduct themselves.

Even though old ancestor heartless was already a top-tier scientist in the BAOBAI group, and ordinary panda people would call him "Sir" when they saw him, as a three-digit employee, when Wasp saw Wang Ming appear, there was not much change in the expression on his face.

"I know who you are. A new scientist, and a first-class entry."

The wasp smiled, "But I don't care who you are," he said. "There are three hundred and sixty-two zones in the Dragon Graveyard. As long as you are not the commander-in-chief of the on-site excavations, then you and I are equals."

"I understand," Wang Ming said with a smile.

"No, you don't understand. "I heard about your request from No. 10021, before you officially cooperate with us. "In order to ensure that nothing unpleasant happens, I still hope to clarify this relationship with you."

Wasp said, "First of all, not every division commander knows the location of the heaven-grade laboratory. If you feel that someone else is more reliable and can bring you more convenience, then you can leave this division as soon as possible and go to their division."

"The time flow in the dragon graveyard is very slow. According to the time here, ten minutes have passed in the outside world. Perhaps only a month has passed here."

"Using the time here, this year is the fifth year of Baobai's establishment. I gave the remaining Baobai employees three years, and I capped it in the second year. In these three years, have any of their achievements surpassed mine?"

"Now that I've become the divisional commander, I'm also one of the top dark horses competing for the position of chief commander among all the divisional commanders. Accepting your proposal to cooperate with you is completely giving you face. After all, there aren't many scientists in the first tier."

"So, we have an equal relationship, not a superior-subordinate relationship. Do you understand now?"

"I really do understand now." Wang Ming smiled bitterly in his heart and feigned civility.

At this point, wasp nodded his head in satisfaction.

He looked at Wang Ming and confirmed, "Number 10021 said that you only need to use your brain waves to probe outside the heaven-grade encryption laboratory, right? How long will it take? is one second enough?"

“One second?”

“This is the highest-level encryption lab, and its position can change at any time. It can stay at a coordinate point for no more than five seconds, and if you’re lucky enough, you can have five seconds. But if you’re unlucky, you only have one second.”

Wasp said, “In addition, I can only help you once. After all, I also have a certain risk in detecting top-secret information.”

“Alright then, one second is enough,” Wang Ming said.

Whether it was one second or one-hundredth of a second, as long as this heaven-grade laboratory appeared, it definitely wouldn’t run away in front of him.

Wang Ming smiled at the lack of people in his heart.

Right now, the most powerful people on Earth lived in his body.

“How did you calculate the location of the heaven-grade laboratory?” Wang Ming asked.

“I didn’t do it by calculation, but by sensing it.” Wasp smiled. “There are three hundred and sixty-two sections of the Dragon Graveyard, and the heaven-grade laboratory will always pass by the area under my jurisdiction a few times. I’ve already planted a sensing device in the section under my feet.”

”...”

Wang Ming didn’t know why, but he felt that wasp seemed to be very familiar with this set of operations, as if he wasn’t the first person to ask about the location of the heaven-grade laboratory.

He felt that wasp had already turned this matter into a business.

At that moment, WASP held a data panel in its hand and stared intently at the data above it. The few of them sat on the mechanical crab and constantly moved their positions until, at a certain point, wasp finally commanded the mechanical crab to stop.

“It’s coming! Get Ready! The heaven-grade laboratory will soon pass by US. The coordinates aren’t more than two kilometers away from us,”he said.

This wasn’t precise location information, but it was enough for Wang Ming. It was just a few kilometers, but his brainwave radiation range was still within reach.

He focused his mental energy and spread his brainwave in one go, like an inescapable net that covered the ground in all directions. In the end, it was in mid-air, wang Ming suddenly felt that he had caught a huge object.

Buzz!

Suddenly, the huge object hidden in the air appeared, and under the influence of Wang Ming’s brainwaves, even the invisible barrier around it was affected, it directly revealed its true appearance in front of everyone’s eyes.

It was a huge object that looked like a steel silkworm chrysalis. No one had expected that such a monster-like thing was actually a building, and it was even a legendary heaven-grade laboratory!

Wasp’s mouth gradually grew wide. He couldn’t believe that Wang Ming’s brainwaves were so terrifying that even the invisibility mechanism of the heaven-grade laboratory had been rendered ineffective! Not only that, the heaven-grade laboratory was also frozen in place, not moving in the slightest!

“Are you crazy? ! You made such a big deal out of this!”Wasp screamed in alarm.

..

“Big Deal?”

Wang Ming crossed his arms, the corners of his lips curling up as he stared at Wasp, his eyes cold and sinister. “When you brought my girlfriend here, you didn’t seem to think about making a big deal out of this, did you?”

Wasp instantly sensed that something wasn’t right. “You... You Are...”

At that moment, Wasp felt an invisible force strangle his throat, and his entire body actually levitated under a powerful fluctuation.

He was controlled, and under the immense mental pressure, he peed his pants on the spot.

Then, Wang Ming walked up and touched Wasp’s head. In his right hand, he used the “Temporary enlightenment spell” that Wang Ling had prepared to strengthen WASP’s head.

Then, he used his brain waves to control wasp, pointing his head directly at the steel silkworm chrysalis in front of him.

Whoosh!

A humanoid self-propelled missile was accurately launched under Wang Ming’s control, blowing up a huge hole in the heaven-grade laboratory in front of him

Chapter 1736 1732, New Talisman Seal? Wang Ling: Then I Won’t Be Sleepy! (1/92)

When this steel silkworm chrysalis-like heaven-grade laboratory appeared in the air, even though the commanders in the laboratory had already realized that the laboratory had been exposed, they didn’t completely fall into disarray.

After all, this wasn’t the first time that invisibility had failed. It was like when a celebrity on Weibo had suddenly come up with some juicy news that attracted a large number of onlookers and directly crashed the app, the invisibility mechanism had failed in the same way. What was needed was for the internal program apes in charge of the lab’s protection to quickly fix the problem.

As the mother nest that housed the royal three dragonbones, the heaven-grade laboratory had the most number of program apes. Under normal circumstances, the invisibility mechanism would only fail for a few seconds to be fixed.

But this time... these shiny program apes discovered to their surprise that the mother nest was completely out of their control.

Hundreds of bald program apes were frantically typing on their keyboards to repair the defense mechanism of the heaven-grade laboratory. However, after typing in the array code, there was no response at all!

Why did the invisibility BUG fail for such a long time this time?

It was over, the year-end bonus was completely gone!

Their Hearts were on the verge of collapse.

“Oh no! It’s not a Bug! We were invaded by a powerful brainwave! It caused the invisibility array and teleportation array used for encryption and defense to fail!” A program ape slapped its bald head and cried out in alarm as if it had realized something.

When the radar in the lab scanned the source of the abnormal brainwave, the camera immediately focused on Wang Ming.

“Lord Heartless?”

Long ago, the Baobao White Group had already reported that the control of this young man in front of them, Wang Ming, had completely fallen into the hands of a senior called “Forefather heartless.”.

So when Wang Ming appeared to attack the heaven-grade lab with his brainwave, many people here didn’t react for a moment, feeling that it wasn’t real.

“What’s Going On... Why is Lord Heartless attacking us? We’re on the same side!”

“Idiot! How is this Lord Heartless! Lord heartless must have gone cold; this young man has regained control of his body!”

“F * * K, isn’t he just an ordinary person? Lord heartless is an immemorial!”

For a moment, many people began to discuss.

They didn't understand what kind of situation this backlash was in.

At this moment, Wang Ming stood on the reddish-brown ground of the cemetery.

The horn for the counterattack had officially begun.

After regaining control of his body, he felt that his mental energy and brainwaves were even greater than before!

“Is it because of... The Divine Brain?”

Now that he had countered forefather heartless, the damaged divine brain that had invaded his mental space was still in his body.

In other words, Wang Ming, who had now successfully regained control of his body, had also become the new owner of this damaged divine brain.

And in time, as the divine brain gradually recovered!

His brain would be even more powerful than before!

Thus, just as Wang Ming had used the strengthened brain of the Wasp to smash open a gap in the heaven-grade laboratory, countless old-fashioned creatures appeared in the heaven-grade laboratory and began to guard it!

These old-fashioned creatures had never been seen before; they were more like synthetic creatures, with evil eyes full of tentacles and dragon descendants and tails on their backs. They were actually a combination of the dragon race and old-fashioned creatures.

They flapped their dragon wings as they poured out of the hole and surrounded the laboratory. At the same time, they also formed a torrent that attacked Wang Ming.

..

..

At that moment, Wang Ming stood on the spot with his arms crossed and rubbed his chin.

His brainwaves were now even more powerful, so he naturally wasn't afraid. On the other hand, it was mainly because his body had formed a connection with the dolls.

Because Lotus Sun and Ao Hai were still inside his spirit space, and in Lotus Sun's sword spirit space were Wang Ying, Heavenly Dao of death, and his most powerful younger brother, Wang Ling..

There were so many big shots inside his body like dolls, so of course he had nothing to be afraid of.

"Lotus, we have to think of a way to get in. And it's best if we don't destroy this mother nest first. I have a feeling that besides the dragon bone, there might be some information I'm interested in."

Wang Ming said, "Mm, maybe this information will help me study the new talisman seal."

New Talisman Seal?

Originally, Wang Ling's interest in the bone snatching was actually just so-so.

He had wanted to directly snatch the dragon bone and then raze the entire dragon graveyard to the ground.

But now, since Wang Ming had said that this heaven-grade laboratory had information on the development of new talisman seals, the situation had clearly reversed.

When Wang Ling heard this, he wasn't sleepy at all.

After saying this, a spring water immediately appeared at Wang Ming's feet, and Lotus Sun directly appeared.

“Why did you come out?”

“It wasn’t me who wanted to come out, it was classmate Wang Ling...” Lotus Sun said.

“I see, it was my younger brother who wanted to come out of your body.”

”...”

Lotus Sun felt that there was something wrong with these words, but now was clearly not the time to refute them. “Let me escort brother Ming inside. Classmate Wang Ling just said that he would take care of this.”

“Understood.”

Wang Ming nodded.

With Wang Ling at the back, he was naturally very relieved; he didn’t need to think too much and just charged forward.

“Whoosh! ~” a cloud of azure mist rose from under Wang Ming’s feet and actually formed into a cloud of azure blue. Lotus Sun and Wang Ming turned into a azure-blue motorcycle in front of them!

Wang Ming hadn’t reacted yet.

Lotus Sun had already sat in the driver’s seat and put on her helmet.

This was a azure motorcycle made of spiritual energy from Ao Hai.

Wang Ming had never thought that a girl could actually have such a dashing side!

“Brother Ming, get in the car!” At this time, Lotus Sun’s clothes had also smoothly transformed into a motorcycle bodysuit, accentuating her good figure to the fullest.

Wang Ming's Adam's apple bobbed.

He was extremely self-aware, so he put on the helmet that had split off from Ao Hai and sat in the back seat.

He didn't wrap his arms around Lotus Sun's waist. Instead, he folded his arms and put on a very aloof posture.

As a man who was already in a relationship...

Wang Ming felt that he should be more self-disciplined.

"Brother Ming, sit tight. We're leaving now!" Lotus Sun didn't think too much about it. She pushed off the bike frame and directly turned the accelerator to a stop.

Boom!

When a long dragon-like roar came from the engine, a shocking dragon-shaped water column instantly gushed out from the rear of the motorcycle!

It was aimed directly at the huge hole that had been smashed open in the heaven-grade laboratory, and was aimed straight at the yellow dragon!

At the same time, Wang Ling stood solemnly behind.

He watched as Lotus Sun rode away on her handsome motorcycle, and watched as she instantly turned into a small black dot, putting a great distance between them.

Then, he summoned Jingke at the same time.

"Sword, master," Jingke said with a bow.

Wang Ling didn't say much. He just looked at the synthetic creatures in the sky and said indifferently, "Clear the area, leave no one alive."

Chapter 1737 1,733: Finding An Excuse For Merging (1/92)

Finally, it was Jingke's turn. When he appeared in front of Wang Ling, he felt as if he had been sealed in dust for a long time.

He hadn't been idle these past few days, and because of Bai Qiao, his hands had gotten a lot of calluses.

Mm..

He had played games with Bai Qiao.

On one hand, he couldn't refuse Bai Qiao's invitation, and on the other hand, he wanted to use the game to strengthen his relationship with Bai Qiao.

There were so many fusion creatures in front of him that they covered the entire sky.

When Lotus Sun rode into the mother nest on the motorcycle transformed from Ao Hai, Jingke also exerted force at the same time to open a path for Lotus Sun and Wang Ming.

Buzz!

A strand of brown sword Qi appeared. At first, it was only the size of a leaf and floated in Jingke's palm. Then, as he struck out with his palm, it instantly shot up into the sky, forming a beam of light that shot out fiercely.

This sword Qi came with great momentum, and the surrounding synthetic creatures didn't even have time to react when they touched the sword Qi before they were reduced to ashes.

The dragon race and the old-fashioned dual-bloodline synthetic creatures couldn't be compared to ordinary spirit beasts on Earth. These synthetic creatures were very lethal; if it had been one or two months ago..., jingke felt that his battle strength wasn't enough to contend with these synthetic creatures.

But now, everything was different.

Ever since Bai Qiao had returned and Wang Ling had been teaching him cultivation, his battle strength had greatly improved.

Sometimes, he could even comprehend some new abilities while teaching Leng Ming, perfectly explaining what it meant to “Learn from teaching.”.

After using the sword Qi to successfully escort Lotus Sun and Wang Ming into the lab, Jingke immediately flicked his finger and completely sealed the hole in the lab with the Sword Qi.

In an instant, the synthetic creatures in the air howled furiously.

These dragon-beard monsters had a certain level of intelligence. They knew that if they wanted to organize further destruction in the laboratory, they had to defeat the sword spirit in front of them.

Very soon!

The spiritual pressure of these dragon-beard monsters gathered at one point and pressed on Jingke’s shoulder.

Jingke’s body did not move. His small body withstood the pressure of thousands of synthesized creatures. He was still as calm as ever, but it caused his body to sink slightly in the reddish-brown land.

“Hehehe”in the sky, these synthetic creatures let out strange laughter.

Then, the tentacles on their bodies began to extend, and thick green mucus overflowed from the suction cup and connected with each other..

“They can actually be synthesized? Is this a game, synthesizing a big watermelon?”This scene stunned the Heavenly Dao of death.

As expected, the creatures of the old school gave people this extremely mysterious feeling.

He saw the tentacles that extended out intertwining with each other and merging into one amidst the sizzling sound of green mucus. He couldn't help but feel disgusted.

Then, the scattered creatures quickly gathered and condensed into a huge dragon-shaped creature!

The synthesized giant dragon-whisker monster was hundreds of meters tall. It flapped its dragon wings, which were made up of tentacles, and its claws and tail were made up of huge tentacles.

With a casual breath, it spat out a mouthful of green old phlegm, which was extremely corrosive. Like a waterfall, it enveloped Wang Ling and the others in all directions, leaving them no room to dodge at all.

Jingke's gaze was extremely calm. He raised his sword finger and flicked his sleeve as he streaked across the air.

"Do you want to use sword Qi to cut it open? Heh Heh..."the giant dragon-whiskered monster made a sound directly in Jingke's mind, which was transmitted through some kind of mysterious spiritual power.

It seemed to have anticipated that Jingke would use sword Qi to defend himself, and the moment Jingke made his move, it let out a mocking laugh at the same time that its plan had succeeded.

As the product of the combination of the old elemental creatures and the dragon race creatures, its ability was naturally full of mystery and tyranny. It could not be compared to the ordinary cultivation spells on earth.

The special substance contained in this green pus could be transformed by the sword qi. Not only would it not be cut off and evaporated by the sword qi, but it would also instantly form hundreds of millions of dense pus beads that covered the area like acid rain.

The more the sword Qi was used to separate the pus beads, the denser the density of the pus beads would be!

There was simply no way to avoid it!

The giant dragon-whiskered monster thought that its plan had succeeded. As it laughed sinisterly, it saw that the appearance of the sword spirit in front of it seemed to have undergone some changes.

Its small body had become a little taller, and even its hair had become a little longer. It had transformed from a small sword spirit that looked like a child into a cold and stern youth that had yet to shed his childishness but did not look easy to provoke.

“You want to dance in front of this king with this bit of strength?” Jingbai opened his eyes and sneered, staring at the dragon-whiskered monster that was hundreds of meters tall in the air.

He flicked his sleeve again, and the powerful brown sword Qi actually contained a hint of green!

As the Master of the Sword King realm, he could freely manipulate the sword qi of any spirit sword in the sword King realm for his own use!

And this hint of green sword Qi was formed by the combination of “Premeditation” and “Cold nether” sword qi! It had a powerful purifying power!

When this strand of Sword Qi collided with the green pus, even though the pus split into more pus beads at the same time, the corrosive substance inside was also cleansed, and it was instantly filtered into incomparably clean rainwater!

“A small trick, and you want to embarrass yourself in front of this king?”

Jingbai chuckled. “Do you think you’re the only one who can synthesize it?”

” ... ”

Wang Ling, Wang Ying, and Heavenly Dao of death were silent when they heard this.

They had completely seen through it without saying anything.

In fact, with Jingke’s current strength, it wouldn’t be a problem for him to deal with this giant dragon-whisker monster.

But Wang Ling realized that Jingke had a problem now.

It was that every time it tried to find an excuse for its “Fusion”..

Including before, there had been several times!

Jingke could clearly defeat him in his form, but he had to pretend that he couldn't, and then choose to fuse with Bai Qiao..

It could only be said that he had changed.

At least in Wang Ling's eyes, he had changed..

Ever since he had found Bai Qiao, he had a feeling that if he didn't fuse with Bai Qiao, he would feel uncomfortable all over.

Wang Ling didn't know if it was just his imagination.

He kept feeling that Jingke was in disguise... showing off their affection?

Moreover, it seemed to be reminding him in secret that even the sword spirit had a partner, so why didn't he have one?

Good heavens..

It turned out that Jingke was waiting for him here..

At this moment, the corners of Wang Ling's mouth twitched, but he quickly regained his composure.

It was impossible to fall in love.

It was impossible for him to fall in love in his lifetime..

And even if he did fall in love one day...

He would never fall in love with Lotus Sun.

A rabbit wouldn't eat grass near its nest!

..

On the other side, Lotus Sun, who had already successfully infiltrated the lab, suddenly sneezed fiercely.

“Are you okay? Do you have a cold? But you shouldn't have a cold right now,” Wang Ming asked.

“It's okay, brother Ming. Maybe someone's scolding me?”

“Heh, that's not necessarily true. Maybe they miss you...”

Chapter 1738 1,734, Synthesised Little Dragon Man (1/92)

To Wang Ming's surprise, Lotus Sun's expression seemed exceptionally calm. Not only did her expression look like an ancient well, but not only did she not turn into a steam maid, she also seemed to have a hidden smile on her face.

Was it because she had been teased so many times that she had become numb?

At that moment, Wang Ming secretly thought that he had miscalculated. He felt that he had indeed used too much strength and hadn't controlled the rhythm of teasing a person properly.

“I noticed that you've become calm, Lotus Sun.” Wang Ming couldn't help laughing as he sized up Lotus Sun.

“I've been teased so many times by you guys, Brother Ming. I can always get used to it.” Lotus sun sighed helplessly.

“Then it looks like I'll have to arrange for a bigger surprise to scare you.”

Wang Ming chuckled, and his face looked very much like Odd Zhuo's when he was smiling. "Speaking of which, I've developed lotus root people baby-rearing products in my lab. Do you want to give it a try?"

"Lotus... Lotus root people?"

"It's an experimental product developed by parents who are still pregnant or who are preparing to have a child. It can give them a taste of life with a baby in advance."

Wang Ming said, "Use the body created by the Lotus Root, then use big data analysis to analyze the personalities of both men and women, and finally form a virtual personality that can be injected into the lotus root dolls'bodies. So, do you want to get one too?"

Lotus sun sucked in a breath of cold air when she heard this. "I don't want to!"

She flatly refused.

She couldn't imagine what an immortal lotus doll would look like if it really existed... Moreover, this immortal lotus doll's virtual personality had to be created by two people.

She... who would she create it with?

With Wang Ling?

Thinking of this, Lotus Sun suddenly felt that she had fallen into a trap again.

She glared at Wang Ming for the first time and pretended to be very angry. "Brother Ming... Don't joke around, I'll really get angry. We're on a mission now!"

"Alright, I was a little too much. I apologize."Wang Ming raised his hands and made a surrender gesture, but his face was cheeky and didn't look like he was apologizing at all.

Lotus sun sighed and decided not to argue with Wang Ming anymore.

At that moment, the two of them went deep into the lab and found that many of the researchers in the lab were maintaining a posture and expression, like frozen wax figures, motionless.

“What happened to them?” Lotus Sun walked up to a researcher in a white lab coat and gently poked him in the face.

“Mm, I used brain waves to cover the entire lab and freeze their movements,” Wang Ming said. “Something like mental suppression? I don’t know how to explain it either.”

“Can brother Ming still do this now?”

“Yeah, I definitely couldn’t do it before. But now that I have my body back, I feel like I can do a lot of things that I couldn’t do before.”

“Is it because of the divine brain?”

“Maybe,” Wang Ming said. “Hahaha!” After all, this was something that belonged to the ancients, and I felt like I had picked up a piece of trash this time. “And this thing can help me enlighten my mind. Maybe it can help me successfully develop a new talisman.”

Wang Ming really had a different feeling from before. The blessing of the divine brain was equivalent to planting a motherboard into his brain, allowing him to directly perform higher-density data calculations in his mind, it wouldn’t be an exaggeration to call him the human-shaped self-walking calculator.

“Then brother Ming, where are we going now?” Lotus Sun asked.

She knew that if Wang Ming had already used his brain waves to freeze all the researchers in the lab, then he must have figured out the entire map of this heaven-grade lab.

“This way.”

Wang Ming nodded and then showed Lotus Sun the way. He directly used his brain waves to synchronize the map in Lotus Sun’s mind and mark their current coordinates.

Lotus Sun rode the motorcycle along the map in Wang Ming's mind and quickly arrived at a secret location. It was a place sealed by three layers of intelligent doors and magic arrays, it was a place where dragon bones were stored.

"AOHAI." Seeing this, Lotus Sun called out softly. Then, Wang Ming saw that behind the motorcycle, an Aohai Sword Qi missile had been launched, it directly pierced a huge hole in the triple door.

It could actually do this?

Wang Ming was stunned.

He felt that Lotus Sun's control over Ao Hai was getting better and better.

After entering the laboratory, a huge oval-shaped egg-shell-shaped crystal container immediately appeared in front of Wang Ming and Lotus Sun. Outside the egg-shaped container were hundreds of tubes, they were connected to the crystal display walls inside the laboratory.

"This is..." at this moment, Lotus Sun's pupils constricted slightly, and she was shocked by what she saw.

Because behind these display walls were dragon bones from different parts!

"The Dark Devouring Dragon, the Cangyuan Dragon, part of the Moonlight Dragon's bones, and the rest of the Dragon Clan's bones... They all seem to be here." Wang Ming's gaze focused, and his expression quickly turned serious.

He and Lotus Sun quickly got out of the car and came to the egg-shaped container. There was only one researcher in this large laboratory, and he was also frozen in place, holding a secret order card in his hand, it seemed that he was planning to use the secret order card to start some sort of program.

Wang Ming went up and took the secret order card off, then directly swiped it at the instrument in front of him.

Lotus Sun soon saw a line of words appear on the screen.

Lotus Sun took a step forward, frowned, and read after him. “What does your favorite person look like? What does this mean, brother Ming? Is it a password?”

“Maybe.” Wang Ming nodded, smiling, she said, “Hehe, because people who do research work are under a lot of pressure, they often add their own bad taste to the process of setting up a password. This is the same as when I saw the news about a foreign doctor. It’s said that because of the pressure, the foreign doctor carved the letters s and B on his liver when he operated on his patient.”

Lotus Sun:”...”

Then, Lotus Sun saw Wang Ming place his hand on the researcher’s head. “It’s fine. Let me see what the password is in his head...”

But what was very strange was that just as Wang Ming put his hand on the researcher’s head, the electronic screen in front of him suddenly jumped. “Mind reading complete. The data on the facial features of the person you like has been successfully read.”

”? ? ?”

Lotus Sun and Wang Ming were stunned at the same time.

Heaven knew that this wasn’t a password at all, but a mind-reading question..

What shocked Lotus Sun and Wang Ming even more was this.

After this electronic sound, all the tubes connected to the dragon bones in the entire laboratory instantly erupted with a brilliant light. Waves of energy flowed through the tubes and were absorbed by the egg-shaped container in front of them, they were all injected into the egg-shaped container!

Buzz!

An astonishing amount of spirit energy appeared!

An extremely powerful shockwave erupted from the egg-shaped container, and cracks gradually appeared on the egg-shaped container.

“This... Brother Ming... what is this...” Lotus Sun was stupefied.

Because in the egg-shaped container in front of her, a six-year-old child had appeared, and he actually looked like Wang Ling... although it was only a child’s face, Lotus Sun could tell at a glance, it was Wang Ling’s childhood appearance!

That question just now had read Lotus Sun’s mind.

A bright light flashed for a long time, and this child, who looked almost identical to Wang Ling and was filled with the aura of the Dragon Clan, finally opened his eyes.

His facial features were so similar to Wang Ling’s that Lotus Sun was a little dazed for a moment. The only difference was the two seven-colored glazed dragon horns on his head and the nimble seven-colored glazed dragon tail on his tailbone.

Then, something even more surprising happened.

The child in front of them opened his eyes and looked at Lotus Sun as he said in a soft and pitiful voice, “Mom...”

Lotus Sun: “? ? ?”

Chapter 1739 1,735, The Sudden Appearance Of Tuan Zi (1/92)

Lotus Sun was stunned as she stared at the six-year-old child in front of her who kept calling her mother. She was deeply shocked. “Brother Ming... did you arrange... The Lotus Root People?”

“What are you thinking, Lotus? I didn’t arrange this. “Although I did have this idea, I can assure you that I didn’t create this little guy.” Wang Ming facepalmed. “I just looked at the research data in this lab. They should be conducting an experiment to synthesize the dragon bone gene...”

“In other words, this child is also a dragon descendant?”

“That’s right, and he has all the abilities of a dragon descendant. “It’s just that their data shows that this experiment has already failed 1,624,600 times... who knows if this little guy hatched right after we invaded this place,”Wang Ming said, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

Lotus Sun:”...”

To be honest, she was a little at a loss as to what to do in this situation. Even Lotus Sun hadn’t expected that she would be the one to become a mother.

“Mommy, Mommy...”

The little guy in front of her was still incessantly calling out to her and even opening his small hands for her to hug him.

Looking at this face that looked so much like Wang Ling’s, Lotus Sun hesitated in her heart for a moment, but in the end, she still carried him in her arms.

A child needed to be coaxed, so she decided to try to explain as gently as possible that she wasn’t his mother. “Little guy, Listen, I’m not actually...”

But before she could finish, the little guy said directly, “My name is Wang Muyu, my father is Wang Ling, and my mother is Lotus Sun!”

”?”

Lotus Sun was instantly stunned.

She wasn’t stupid; she immediately knew that this was definitely the system that had simultaneously entered a part of her memory while forming the facial data just now, this caused the little guy to start imagining his own background.

Things were getting troublesome..

Lotus sun frowned, mixed feelings welling up in her heart. At the same time, she looked suspiciously at Wang Ming. “Brother Ming, why isn’t Wang Ling’s great shielding spell working on him?”

“Ling Ling’s great shielding spell can restrict the prying eyes of most humans and upper-level cultivators, but this little guy is an omnipotent dragon created by combining the power of all dragons... if we want to restrict him, I’m afraid we’ll have to raise his level by a few more levels,” Wang Ming said.

“Mommy, Mommy... who is this person?”

Wang Muyu seemed particularly sensitive when he heard Wang Ming say things like “Restrict him.” At the same time, he stared at Wang Ming and began to look a little wary, showing a guarded attitude, then he asked Wang Ming very seriously, “Are you... a mistress? !”

Wang Ming:”...”

Lotus Sun:”...”

This little guy wasn’t very old, but he knew quite a lot!

They cursed in their hearts at the same time, wondering why the system had filled his memories with so many strange things!

Because of Wang Ming’s momentary silence, the little guy’s mood suddenly changed, and his seven-colored dragon horns and dragon tail instantly turned fiery red, he said in his soft, child-like mandarin, “You... Lover Boy! You stole my mother! I’ll beat you to death!”

Buzz!

A powerful spirit energy burst out of his body and instantly filled the entire laboratory like a flood.

Lotus sun was extremely surprised. She could only feel Wang Muyu’s body temperature rising in a straight line, and then suddenly felt a wave of heat, so she had no choice but to let go of him.

The little guy who had been let go was even fiercer, and his eyes turned fiery red, just like Wang Ling's. His small face, which was serious and unsmiling, had a striking resemblance at that moment.

In that instant, even Wang Ming felt a sense of absent-mindedness.

He had watched Wang Ling grow up, and if it hadn't been for the dragon horns on his head and the dragon tail on his back, he would really have thought that this was Wang Ling when he was six years old.

“Rong Rong! Protect Me!”

Wang Ming was so shocked that his face turned pale. This little fellow was so terrifyingly powerful that even if he had fused with the divine brain, he wouldn't be able to restrain it.

As he probed out his mental energy, it was actually disintegrated by an invisible magnetic barrier.

Wang Muyu had genes that combined the power of various dragons, and the magnetic shield dragon was just one of them. During battle, the magnetic field on his body would open at the same time, forming a barrier that could block all mental energy attacks.

“Ao Hai! Protect brother Ming!”

Lotus Sun reacted quickly. With a thought, a pool of seawater immediately surrounded Wang Ming and formed a magic ball that wrapped him up.

But soon, she suddenly felt a huge force organizing her, trying to break this magic ball apart.

This was... the power of the Cangyuan Dragon?

Lotus Sun was secretly surprised. This little guy had actually fused with the genes of the Cangyuan Dragon, one of the three leaders of the Dragon Clan, and was trying to use the power of the Cangyuan Dragon to destroy her magic ball.

“Brother Ming, we can't keep fighting like this...”

“I don’t know either, Lotus. Why Don’t you recognize him?”

“I’m only sixteen... how can I just admit to something like this!”

She was a little anxious, not because she couldn’t handle it. She had sent out all the power of the nine-core arcane sea, so it would be easy for her to deal with this little kid.

But if she attacked with all her might here, she was worried that the entire laboratory would be destroyed, and then a lot of information might be destroyed.

After all, they hadn’t come to the heaven-grade laboratory for the sake of the dragon bone, but also to search for some information on the research of new talismans.

On the other hand, she still had good intentions and didn’t want to hurt the innocent little guy in front of her.

Even though Wang Muyu had been created by these people with good intentions, he was also an innocent party.

There was nothing she could do..

At that moment, Lotus Sun frowned and stared at Wang Muyu. “You... you don’t even listen to your mother! I said Stop!”

” ...”

Wang Ming was moved beyond words.

He felt that Lotus Sun had sacrificed too much..

This stern rebuke had an extraordinary effect.

His mother's dignity was still there, and there was an effect of imposing herself without being angry. Immediately, Wang Muyu's fiery red dragon horns and tail faded and turned back into seven colors.

"Mommy..."he called out softly, and no one could get angry at his voice.

Lotus Sun picked him up again and reprimanded him. "This man isn't some male mistress you're talking about... He's your uncle Wang Ming!"

"Oh, so that's how it is. What About My Father?"

Wang Muyu asked relentlessly.

At that moment, Lotus Sun's heart was filled with despair.

But she didn't want to provoke the little dragon man too much, she could only use one lie to cover up another. "Your father is waiting outside. We need to find some information now. After we find the information, we can go out and meet him..."

"Yes, yes! I understand!"

Wang Muyu nodded, then pointed in a direction. "There's a core secret room here. I'll Take You There!"

"Core Secret Room?"

"Yeah, that's where all the information is stored."

As he spoke, he stretched out his small hand and gently pressed it on Wang Ming's shoulder.

Whoosh!

Wang Muyu used his ability to move through space to directly take Lotus Sun and Wang Ming into the most secret area of the entire heaven-grade laboratory..

..

At the same time, Wang Ling was waiting anxiously outside the heaven-grade laboratory.

Although that huge dragon-whiskered monster had already been whitened to the point where not even a speck of dust remained, he didn't know why he had a bad feeling about this

Chapter 1740 1,736, The Battle For The Group (1/92)

With Wang Muyu's help, Lotus Sun and Wang Ming drove straight into the core of the heaven-grade laboratory without any hindrance.

Wang Ming saw a huge experimental instrument with countless spirit card slots on it. It was like a brain connected to countless crystal conduits that extended in all directions at the same time.

"It really is the core." Wang Ming looked pleasantly surprised.

"How do you copy the data?"

"Just use your brain." As he said this, Wang Ming turned over his little finger and pulled out a wire that was used to connect to the data.

Lotus sun stared blankly. "As expected of brother Ming, has this been modified..."

"Hehe, it's just normal operation. This universal reading device was originally in my index finger, but after I met your big sister Yinzi, it wasn't convenient for me to do things, so I transferred it to my little finger."

"?"

Lotus Sun didn't know why, but she felt that there was something hidden behind these words.

After connecting to the universal reading device, Wang Ming's brain quickly operated. He felt as if he had absorbed countless amounts of data and stored them in his brain.

Under normal circumstances, such a huge influx of data would definitely overload Wang Ming's brain and cause it to go into overheat mode, but now Wang Ming no longer had such worries.

The reading time wasn't too long, and it only took Wang Ming a minute or so to gather all the data in the entire heaven-grade laboratory.

Just as he pulled out the catheter, he didn't forget to thank Wang Muyu, who was glued to Lotus Sun's body. "Thank you, Little Dragon Man."

"Uncle Ming, quickly take me to see... Father!"

This little guy was actually a little shy, and even buried his head in Lotus Sun's shoulder as he spoke.

"TSK, this little guy is still embarrassed." Wang Ming couldn't help laughing.

"Wang Ling... was he like this when he was young?" Lotus Sun couldn't help being a little curious.

"Not at all..."

Wang Ming shook his head. "He's been expressionless since he was young, and this character should be his original personality. He's quite an interesting little guy."

"Mm... But..."

Lotus sun frowned and wanted to say something, but hesitated.

To be honest, Wang Muyu's sudden appearance made her rather hesitant and at a loss.

"Since we've come, let's just take things as they come. It's better for the little guy to be in our hands than in Bai Zhe's hands."

These words couldn't be said to Wang Muyu, thus, Wang Ming said to Lotus Sun via brainwave telepathy, "Looking at the current situation, Bai Zhe's research on the omnipotent dragon was essentially intended to let the omnipotent dragon serve him. He had failed so many times in his experiment, and the only time he succeeded was when we actually intercepted him, so it's very likely that the situation we'll encounter next will be..."

"Will he send someone to snatch him away?" Lotus Sun quickly reacted.

"Yes. He will definitely send someone to snatch him away." Wang Ming nodded. "So we definitely can't let this little guy fall into the hands of that kind of person. This little guy is very capable, but he looks very simple-minded. As long as we guide him properly, there won't be any big problems."

Wang Ming analyzed this very seriously.

At the same time, he had the same concerns and concerns as Lotus Sun.

The main thing was that he didn't know how to explain this to Wang Ling when they really went out later, and he was very curious as to how Wang Ling would react when he saw this child..

After all, the feeling of suddenly becoming a father was definitely more of a shock than a pleasant surprise to a normal person.

Although Wang Muyu in front of him actually had no genetic relationship with Wang Ling at all, it was only because his facial features had been created and he had come to read Lotus Sun's deep memories.

But the problem was..

They really looked alike!

They were perfect replicas!

Even the dead fish's eyes and pupils were the same!

When Wang Ming saw them, he couldn't help imagining what he had looked like when he had faced the six-year-old Wang Ling back then..

He had always liked to bully Wang Ling when he had been young.

Just as he was about to take Wang Muyu away, the ground in the heaven-grade laboratory started to shake like an earthquake.

Wang Ming frowned and felt that things weren't looking good. "Someone's coming! And they're so powerful that they directly invaded this place!"

Inside the heaven-grade laboratory, a few secret teleportation channels were opened.

Because the outside of the laboratory was sealed by the shocking white sword qi, they couldn't directly enter, so they could only use spatial positioning to precisely invade.

At the same time, countless black marks appeared on the map in Wang Ming's mind. Black holes suddenly appeared one after another, and creatures with powerful auras invaded the heaven-grade laboratory.

Wang Muyu seemed to sense it as well, and a hostile look appeared in his eyes.

Zigzag?

He could also use this spatial ability.

Thus, he had already sensed who this person was.

If his judgment was correct, this person should be a dragon descendant with the power of a spatial dragon.

Accompanied by a burst of disillusioned purple spirit light, a long-haired woman with a graceful figure wearing a black qipao and red high heels appeared in front of them.

Scb-l007: Spirit Leap..

Wang Ming had just learned about this person's specific information from the data he had just received.

Clearly, Spirit Leap was the leader of this operation.

The remaining intruders also had the aura of the Space Dragon's giant dragon power. These people should be spirit leap's substitutes who had used the space splitting spell, it was the same as transferring oneself from another space to another space for battle deployment, which was also the ability of the space dragon.

Therefore, she alone.

Was an army.

"Little guy, I've finally found you..."as soon as Ling Yue appeared, she revealed her graceful posture and gently licked her lips, there was an indescribable sense of enchantment. "I didn't expect you to look so good, little guy. Come to me, I can take you to Daddy."

Wang Muyu frowned and thought for a moment, then looked at Lotus Sun and asked, "Mommy, Mommy, why did this auntie say that she was big sister?"

Lotus Sun and Wang Ming:"..."

Big..

Auntie..

The veins on Ling Yue's forehead twitched violently when he heard this, and he felt a sudden blow to his heart as millions of grass mud horses galloped past.

"Little Brat! Am I that Old? !"She tried to refute Wang Muyu.

But as a Little Dragon Man, Wang Muyugui was honest, so how could he have any bad intentions.

The little guy stuck out his little tongue, and after saying the cutest “Lulu,” he even pulled his eyelids at Ling Yue, he made a funny face. “Big-titted jar! You’re drooping, and you still say you’re not an aunt... look at me, mother, this is what a young girl should be like!”

“Mu Yu... This is too rude, a child can’t say that...” even though it was a child’s unrestrained speech, Lotus Sun’s face was red from hearing it, and she tried her best to teach it, it really felt like she was teaching her child.

On the other side, Ling Yue couldn’t take it anymore.

No woman could accept the fact that she was being called an aunt.

This was a provocation on the surface, and she couldn’t tolerate it!

“You Little Brat... And you!” Ling Yue glared at Lotus Sun fiercely, his eyes filled with ferocity. The next moment, her figure flashed and she disappeared.

This was a space jump, and it was extremely fast. She appeared behind Lotus Sun in an instant and aimed at the back of her head. The slender leg in the red high-heeled shoes lashed out like a whip.

Lotus Sun didn’t Dodge. She had the protection of Ao Hai’s sword aura, so she didn’t need to worry about this.

However, Wang Muyu’s reaction was very fast. The little guy shouted, “Mommy, be careful!”

Then, Wang Muyu twisted his body and stretched out his two small arms. He aimed at the leg that Ling Yue had lashed out and used his bare hands to receive the white blade. He used his two arms to firmly clamp down on Ling Yue’s leg..

Ling Yue was shocked. She did not expect Wang Muyu’s strength to be so great. Her leg was clamped on the spot and she could not move at all..
