Chapter 1791 1,787. If He Didn't Want To Use The Title, He Would Have To Continue Using The Death Of Mei Li (3)(1/97)

Housekeeper Lin didn't know anything about Wang Ling and Wang Muyu's situation, so it was very normal for him to be worried. Wang Ling sighed deeply in his heart; he actually hoped that those people would come looking for trouble with him, because when the time came, he would be able to witness who was looking for trouble with whom.

In comparison, Wang Muyu was the one he cared about the most.

For some reason, he felt that this little guy, who had caused him a lot of trouble before, had a special kind of magical affinity. Although this little guy was strong, he was still inexperienced, and Bai Zhe's long-range control had scared him quite a bit.

Wang Muyu, who had fused with the ten thousand dragon gene, had endless potential for future development. However, despite being strong, Wang Ling knew that Wang Muyu hadn't fully developed yet

Bai Zhe was clearly using his powerful moonlight dragon form to make a time difference and take advantage of this time to snatch the little guy back into his hands.

But now that the little guy was so close to him, it wouldn't be so easy to snatch him back.

At that moment, many thoughts flashed through Wang Ling's mind. To be honest, he didn't know how things would develop in the future, so he could only wait and see.

"It's not easy for everyone to come out. I don't think Uncle Lin should worry too much. These people are just trying to limit our presence in Michaux and use it as a bargaining chip with jang-jong and Huaguo Water Curtain. They are not a threat to us." Lotus sun said, "It's so boring for everyone to stay in the hotel after such a rare trip."

"Miss, their focus is on you. Maybe they won't do anything to you... but the others..."

"It's fine, Uncle Lin. In fact, my master secretly followed us here, and will always protect everyone's safety."

”...”

Wang Ling understood.

In all the actions in Greo City, this “Pretty Wang” that Lotus Sun had invented had become the new scapegoat to take Odd Zhuo’s place.

It had to be said that Wang Ling felt that Lotus Sun’s move was quite clever, and it seemed to have a miraculous effect, causing the people hiding behind Heavenly Dog, Recluse Siren, to have a further diabolical reaction.

There were indeed ancients in the War Sect.

But the only ancients that Wang Ling had released so far were Li Xian and Zhang Zitao.

The rest of the ancients numbered in the tens of thousands, and they were all locked up in the Supreme Corpse Map in Wang Ling’s hands.

If he summoned all of them, this army of immemorial would be able to flatten the entire universe and conquer every corner.

Thus, Wang Ling had actually always been suspicious.

Back then, Dao Ancestor Wang had found all sorts of strange excuses to use this Supreme Corpse Painting to suppress the immemorial, and collect them like collectibles. Was it not for the purpose of protecting these immemorial, was it actually for the purpose of preparing for war?

But this was just Wang Ling’s wishful thinking.

At that moment, Butler Lin’s greeting interrupted Wang Ling’s wandering thoughts, “Alright, Mr. Wang Ling, and all the students here. If you’re going out, please don’t go out alone; it’s best to look after each other.”

“In addition, don’t go to too far and remote places. It should be safer to go to a crowded shopping mall or something.”. Although Greo City had complicated forces, they didn’t dare make a brazen move in broad daylight. Does everyone understand?”

“Yes, Uncle Lin!”

The others imitated Lotus Sun’s way of addressing her and shouted one after another.

..

The next day, January 4th, Sunday morning.

Wang Ling found out that the news of Lotus Sun’s detention had already spread on the Internet, and that this detention, led by St. Peter’s Church, had also evolved into a whole new chemical reaction.

The Mi Xiu government had announced that it would restrict the entry of people related to war sect and Huaguo Water Curtain Group into Mi Xiu country, and impose physical sanctions on Huaguo Water Curtain Group and war sect.

This move was to restrict war sect from sending reinforcements and directly cut off their backup.

So early in the morning, Odd Zhuo, who had originally wanted to go to Greo City, was directly stuck at the border crossing.

After returning to his car, Odd Zhuo’s expression was very worried.

This was because this game was no longer purely between sects, but between cultivation countries.

If either side backed down, the other side would take an inch and take a mile, and even Odd Zhuo couldn’t see how the situation would end.

“Master, how’s the situation?”Zhou Ziyi asked in the car.

“I’ve been restricted from leaving the country, and that’s not all. A lot of people in the war sect have been restricted from leaving the country.” Odd Zhuo held the steering wheel and said with a headache, “I haven’t figured out what to do yet...”

“What instructions does grandmaster have?”

“There are no new instructions for the time being. After all, there’s no need to think too much about safety issues. There’s definitely no problem with master and mistress. The most recent conversation with master was last night.”

“AH? What did grandmaster say?”

“He said he hopes to resolve this matter as soon as possible so that he can hurry back to the country to take the monthly exam.”

“He loves to study so much. He’s worthy of being a Master...”

At this point, odd Zhuo didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. “But how can this matter be so easy. The forces in Greo City are too complicated. The Mafia, mercenary groups, and all kinds of cultivation sects, and the most troublesome part about this operation is that the local church is also involved.”

“I heard about this from Rongrong. Right now, the most important thing is to help Rongrong and the others clear their names.”

At that moment, Liangzi nine temples, who was sitting upright on the side, said, “The one restricting the charge of Rongrong hiring a murderer is that mafia group called the Red Orchid Association, so the key is to start with that mafia group.”

When the girl said this, Odd Zhuo’s eyes suddenly lit up. “Oh right, Liangzi... I remember your family’s sixth madam...”

“I wanted to talk to you about this. Because of our sixth madam, our family has some connections with the Mafia,” Liangzi nine temples said. “If you send me abroad, you might be able to help. I’m not on the sanctions list, so I can go out normally.”

“No, it’s too dangerous.” Odd Zhuo’s first reaction was to refuse.

He really couldn’t bear to let nine temples Liangzi go out just like that..

“With Wang Ling and Rongrong around, I’m not afraid, So What are you afraid of?”

Nine temples Liangzi said, “The most important thing now is to get Rongrong and the others back. If you can’t go out, if you’re worried, you can find someone to accompany me. For example, senior golden lamp, senior Li Xian, and senior Zhang Zicao?”

“These three can’t do it. They’re already registered on the official website of the war sect. They have names, and they’re on the list this time.”

Odd Zhuo shook his head and said, “If it really doesn’t work, I can only ask Senior Qin Zong and senior Xiang Yi to go with you. They haven’t had time to register yet... it shouldn’t be a problem for them to go with you. In addition, you’ll have to arrange an identity for them.”

“That’s easy. I’ll arrange it right away,” Liangzi nine temples said with a nod.

She was just about to take out her phone to contact him when Odd Zhuo slowly stretched out his hand, and an emerald-green bamboo sword suddenly appeared before her eyes.

“Liangzi, I’ll lend you the advance now. Greo city is very complicated... If you’re alone, this advance can also protect you...”

Chapter 1792 1,788. I Swear I’ll Change The Title Of The Next To “The Death Of Merry (4)” (1/97)

When she saw that Odd Zhuo was going to give the “Advance” to her for self-defense, Liangzi Jiugongzi’s nose immediately turned sour. “You gave the advance to me. What are you going to do?”

“I’ll be fine. Senior Golden Lamp, senior Li Xian, and senior Zhang Zixi won’t be able to go out anyway. They’ll be responsible for my safety. The most important thing now is you...”

Odd Zhuo took Liangzi Jiugong’s hand and gently kissed her forehead. “Greo city is very complicated. Keep in touch at all times and be careful.”

“Nothing is more important than your own safety. You have to protect yourself well. If someone bullies you, when my entry and exit restrictions are lifted later, I’ll personally go over and pull that person out...”

“Mm, I understand...”Liangzi nine temples nodded, and then kissed Odd Zhuo back on the cheek.

Only Zhou Ziyi, who was behind him, was left shivering as he ate dog food.

Liangzi nine temples knew very well that this operation was definitely not that simple, because it had already escalated into a game between the cultivation countries and was no longer a competition between forces or sects in the past.

She hadn’t finished digesting the whole thing yet, but had only gotten a rough idea from Odd Zhuo’s words. At the same time, she also clearly knew that if the nine temples family got involved this time, the most dangerous situation might be an accident, the entire nine temples family would become a sacrifice in the cultivation country’s struggle.

But Liangzi wasn’t afraid. Although she had fought with Lotus Sun in the past, now that the nine temples family had formed an alliance with Huaguo Water Curtain Group, as the leader of the nine temples family, she was also one of their allies, she naturally couldn’t just sit by and do nothing.

Liangzi nine temples didn’t know where she had gotten the courage to face all this, but when she saw Odd Zhuo agonize over it, she suddenly had this impulse.

She suddenly realized that she really seemed to like odd zhuo very much..

And more than she had imagined.

..

At the headquarters of the Crimson Orchid Association, the president of the Crimson Orchid Association, Li Weisi, was gloating over the success of his plan. With the help of St. Peter’s Church, his plan to use that bribed truck driver to successfully accuse the eldest daughter of the Huaguo Water Curtain Group, Lotus Sun, of murder had been a great success.

To be honest, even Li Weisi hadn't expected things to go so smoothly.

"I know the church is very strong, but I didn't expect the church to be so powerful." In the President's office, Li Weisi was smoking a cigar and facing the sister of the church, Ai Li, who was under the banner of Sky Dog, he didn't hide his praise.

"This is just the initial cooperation. If president Li Weisi is interested in Sky Dog, he can become a member of Sky Dog," sister Ai Li said with a light smile.

Li Weisi laughed out loud. "It's not impossible to join Tengu. I have to think about it. After all, I never had the idea of being a dog for people in the past. But now, it seems that if you have a powerful backer behind you, it might be a kind of pleasure."

"Compared to these, I'm more curious about what Tengu will do behind us. And who is the great senior standing behind Tengu?"

"The senior standing behind us will naturally know after president Li Weisi has thought it through and joined us."

Sister Aili replied expressionlessly, "But our next action plan can be shared with President Li Weisi unconditionally."

"Oh? Tell me about it."

"As far as we know, the conflict between the Crimson Orchid Association and Huaguo Water Curtain Group is nothing more than the snail shell being unwilling to pay the protection fee after the owner changed. This makes the Crimson Orchid Association lose a sustainable economic chain to receive funds."

"Then, I wonder if President Li Weisi knows why Huaguo water curtain group suddenly acquired the snail shell and why this Huaguo Water Curtain Group's eldest daughter suddenly came all the way here to Greo City?"

These words made Li Weisi frown and chuckle. "It's not strange for such a financial group's eldest daughter to go anywhere, right?"

“She’s still studying at a cultivation school called No. 60 High School, but she suddenly came to a foreign country at this time. According to our investigation, in the end, it was actually for a child.”

Sister Eli said, “And according to our current reliable information, this time, she invited quite a number of students to go to Greo city together. The child’s father may be among these students...”

Hearing this, Levis was so scared that his cigar almost fell off. He suddenly widened his eyes and revealed an incredulous look. He could not believe what he had heard. “Is... is this true?”

He did not doubt the intelligence ability of the heavenly dog. This was the most famous intelligence gathering organization in the world. Moreover, the heavenly dog represented by Sister Ali was on the side of the heavenly dog’s core team, the rate of failure in intelligence was almost negligible.

“Are all the young ladies of the financial group so flashy these days... how old are they...”

“These are only the intelligence we have gathered so far. However, they are still lacking verification.”

” ... ”

“However, the child and the child’s father are both on this trip. Furthermore, they are currently restricted by us to Greo City. “As long as we capture them all and interrogate them one by one, we will know. “Or perhaps we don’t need to do it ourselves. By secretly collecting some DNA samples, we will also be able to obtain the corresponding evidence.”

Sister Ali said, “There are many ways. We need president Li Weisi to make arrangements for the rest of the matters. For this matter, it is not convenient for us, the heavenly dog, to appear for the time being. “President Li Weisi’s arrangements for the entertainment venues in Greo City can be said to be both black and white. I believe that President Li Weisi will give us a satisfactory answer to our cooperation.”

Li Weisi frowned. “But in fact, there is still a risk in this matter, isn’t there? I remember that the eldest lady of Huaguo Water Curtain Group has a hidden expert by her side...”

“It seems that President Li knows a lot.”

Sister Ali said, "In fact, it is precisely for this reason that we, the heavenly dog, have decided not to make a move for the time being. "That expert was sent by the war sect. Her name is pretty Wang. "But so far, we don't have any records of this pretty Wang."

"Was she smuggled here?" Li Weisi asked.

"That's only one possibility."

Sister Eli said, "Another possibility is that this beautiful Wang is actually one of the students that Miss Sun brought with her this time. "In other words, besides finding the child's father, President Li's next task is to help us lure out that beautiful Wang who's hiding behind the scenes... whether she's a smuggler or a hidden one. "President Li, you must catch these two wolves..."

"I'll do my best." Levis smiled.

He didn't expect that this situation would actually turn into a werewolf killing..

Chapter 1793 1,789, Melly's Death Today (5)(1/97)

At first, Levi admitted that he just wanted to disgust Huaguo Water Curtain Group. He knew that it was not enough to take down such a huge financial group with the strength of the Crimson Orchid Association, moreover, it might invite a fatal disaster.

Therefore, he could only think of a way to disgust the other side, and at the same time, find a way for the Crimson Orchid Association to continue to survive in Greo City.

But now, with the intervention of the heavenly dog faction, with the support of the largest cultivation country, all kinds of forces surged in, the clergy of the church, the cultivation country... all revolved around the enmity between the Crimson Orchid Association and the Huaguo Water Curtain Group.

It seemed that there was nothing more exciting than watching a huge financial group's influence decline like the sun that had lost its energy.

Moreover, Levis thought that moving to the Huaguo water curtain group would inevitably cause a chain reaction, and even the war ancestor would suffer as well.

The scene of a financial group's influence and a super sect falling together made Levis feel a sense of excitement just thinking about it. This battle was no different from the six major sects besieging the light summit... the only difference was the outcome.

Levis thought that they had a very high chance of winning.

The Crimson Orchid Association had developed in Greo City for so many years, relying on those illegal businesses to build up capital. During these two years, Levis gradually realized that this was not a long-term plan. If he wanted to let the Crimson Orchid Association develop for a long time..., he could only get rid of the Mafia's coat bit by bit and begin to realize the transformation.

And now was a great opportunity in front of him.

With Sky Dog's power and spies all over the world, if they could perform well in this operation, the Crimson Orchid Society could be completely cleansed under his leadership.

"Ali, you know why I have been setting up so many industries all these years, right?" Levis took a deep breath and stood in front of the large French window, looking at the drizzling rain outside.

"Tengu knows everything."

Sister Ali said expressionlessly, "President Levi, as long as you cooperate with US sincerely, helping the Crimson Orchid Association to transform will be a piece of cake for us."

"Okay. Since it's not convenient for you to come out for the time being, I'll take care of finding the wolves and fishing."

Levi looked at sister Ali and muttered, "But this is the last time."

"Of course."

Sister Allie nodded. "I just hope that President Levis doesn't waver."

"Waver?"

Levis smiled. "Don't worry, I'm a mature businessman. I Won't do anything that goes against my word. The Crimson Orchid Association has developed for so many years, and I'm the only president. "My brothers are all willing to follow me. Sister Allie should know what kind of person I am."

"Of course. I didn't mean anything else. I was just reminding you."

Sister Allie said, "As far as we know, the eldest daughter of the nine temples family, nine temples Liangzi, is already on her way to Greo City. Because she is not a member of the war sect, she is not restricted from entering the country."

"Oh, so it's her."Levis suddenly understood. "I have some impression of this little girl.". "I heard that she had a falling out with miss sun of Huaguo Water Curtain Group, and then the two families formed an alliance for some reason.". "I originally thought that the two families were just putting on an act in order to stabilize the stock price. I didn't expect that miss nine temples was actually willing to get involved in this muddy water."

"This isn't strange. According to the information we received, Miss Nine Temples Liangzi and a core member of the war sect are in a Daoist relationship. But as for who it is, it's still under investigation."

"Understood."

Li Weisi nodded. He already knew in his heart.

In his eyes, this was just a little girl. Whether it was the jiugongfamily or the Sun family, no matter how strong these two large consortiums were, Greo city was their territory.

Facing these two little girls who had yet to experience the world, Li Weisi had sufficient confidence to defeat them until... They were beyond redemption.

..

At nine o'clock in the morning, an armed bus specially prepared for the people of No. 60 high school appeared on time at the entrance of the snail shell hotel. It was urgently deployed by Butler Lin last night.

As the name implied, it was a bus that was armed to the teeth.

The glass of the bus was specially made. Not only was it bullet-proof, but it was also explosion-proof. The most important thing was that the two buses used an amphibious and aerial system. It could run, dive, and fly..

In addition, the roof of the bus was also equipped with a spirit energy barrier, an anti-missile system, and a defensive device.

Wang Ling stared at this gaudy set-up and couldn't help sighing in his heart. But when he thought about it carefully, he realized that housekeeper Lin was an unwitting person, and there really was nothing he could do about it.

When the enemy was ruthless, they were crazy. Nowadays, the dark criminals were all at the soul formation stage, and the overall mysteriousness and comprehensive qualities of the soul formation stage were directly brought to the price of cabbages.

Although these people weren't worth mentioning in front of Wang Ling, ordinary defensive measures were ineffective against soul formation cultivators, and Wang Ling didn't think that these safety measures would be of any use, but it looked like they could at least provide some psychological comfort to housekeeper Lin.

Housekeeper Lin had also made the arrangements for the trip last night, so he tried his best to find as many people as possible. And the first stop was the wolf that Wang Ling hadn't been able to go to before.

Yesterday, he hadn't been able to buy "No one knows more about crispy noodle snacks than I do,"and today's first stop was here, which Wang Ling was very satisfied with.

"Everyone can buy whatever you want, not just snacks, just take it. In life, the most important thing is to be happy,"said Lotus Sun with a smile as she switched back to her rich-woman mode.

As she spoke, Wang Ling could feel the girl's entire body glow... and it was the kind of brilliance that a female bodhisattva would give to all living things.

This armed bus didn't have a driver, and it was using an intelligent driving mode that was integrated with the Big Dipper Navigation System. It was safe and steady, and although it looked cumbersome, its operation was actually extremely smooth, giving people a very safe feeling.

Wang Ling sat in the last row of the bus, while Wang Muyu obediently sat on Wang Ling's lap... Lotus Sun couldn't help feeling envious when she saw this scene.

She knew that normal people didn't have this kind of treatment..

Only Wang Muyu could do it. If it had been anyone else, they would definitely have been pushed down by Wang Ling.

"Sigh, Wang Ling and his younger brother are really close."Hero Guo couldn't help sighing when he saw this scene.

"Really, let alone little brother, I don't think it's out of place for Mu Yu to call Wang Ling father."Super Chen spread his hands.

Wang Ling:"..."

When the armed bus was driving on the highway, Wang Ling, who had been sitting steadily in the back row, suddenly sensed that something was wrong with the route.

He had already been to the Wolverine once, so he was very clear about the route.

But the armored bus seemed to be taking a long road.

"Uncle Lin, is it off course? Why does it feel like it's getting further and further away?"The two of them had a tacit understanding, and soon Lotus Sun also sensed that something was wrong.

Butler Lin was sweating profusely. When he checked the posture function, his expression changed drastically. "Oh no! This... this autopilot, why can't It Be Controlled?"

He cried out in shock, causing everyone in the car to be shocked. “This... This navigation system isn’t right either! It’s not the Big Dipper navigation system at all! I’ve clearly installed the Big Dipper Navigation System!”

At this moment, in the armed bus, a clear electronic voice with a hint of slyness and asking for a beating was heard. “Hello! -- Wicked Navigation, at your service!”

Chapter 1794 1,790: Wang Ling’s Show Of Force (1/91)

In the office of the Red Orchid Association, Li Weisi was using a huge satellite telescope to remotely monitor the situation ahead. The armed bus that he had tampered with was moving forward according to the original plan.

“The sky dogs are really resourceful. Even the Huaguo Water Curtain Group has people from the sky dogs,” Li Weisi said with a smug smile.

“They are already cautious enough. The people they bring are all old employees. They won’t betray us easily. “But we can use some means to replace those people without anyone noticing. “Imitate their daily habits and appearance. No one can tell,” sister Ali said.

“In another twenty minutes, they will follow the navigation system I deployed and directly cross that area...”

Levis snorted. “As long as they cross that area, whether it’s Huaguo Water Curtain Group or the war sect, it will be a big issue that they can’t solve...”

..

When the wicked navigation system’s cunning electronic prompt sounded, butler Lin immediately knew that this armed bus had been tampered with.

Everything was clearly normal when it was inspected last night.

He had even personally tested the navigation system to ensure that everything was accurate before getting off the bus.

Moreover, he had arranged for the Huaguo water curtain group’s specialists to protect it throughout the night..

When Butler Lin thought of this, an idea suddenly flashed through his mind.

If the armed bus's system had still been modified under such circumstances, then it could only mean that there was a tengu mole among the two employees he had arranged to spy on last night.

Butler Lin facepalmed. He had never expected that this trip abroad would not only turn into a confrontation between cultivation nations, but also a spy war... wasn't it too exciting?

"Miss and students, don't worry. I'll stop the bus right away,"butler Lin said.

"Uncle Lin, you're not busy. The bus can stop at any time. The most important thing now is to find out what the purpose of their tampering with the system is,"lotus sun said at that moment.

Butler Lin slapped his head. "Yes! Miss is right! Let Me See..."

After saying that, he stared fixedly at the route determined by the wicked navigation screen. Then, he frowned deeply. "I remember that this direction is... The mixiu nation's cultivation army garrison base in Greo City?"

"Oh no, it looks like they want our armed bus to forcefully charge into the military base!"

"When the time comes, this move will be interpreted as a provocation! The problem we are facing will become an international dispute! Moreover, it will be on the rude side."

The other party's methods were more sinister than Wang Ling had imagined. He had come to Greo City for two days just to use his world snack coupons.

In the end, the person behind all this didn't even give him such an opportunity, and Wang Ling already couldn't stand it.

He had never advocated taking the initiative, but at this moment, he felt that he had no choice but to warn the other party.

"Father?"At this moment, Wang Muyu transmitted his voice to Wang Ling.

He deliberately called out to Wang Ling, but realized that Wang Ling didn't mean to respond to him.

He immediately knew what was going to happen next.

It was obvious that Wang Ling was going to make a move.

Wang Muyu was sitting on Wang Ling's lap. Although he couldn't hear Wang Ling's inner voice, he could feel a sense of free anger from the crispy noodle snack demon's father's slightly trembling fingers.

Next, Wang Muyu felt a deep light flash in Wang Ling's eyes. This was a summoning ritual using an eye spell, as if it was summoning something terrifying to the scene

Sigh..

Why did this group of people have to provoke such a monster.

..

When the armored bus was less than ten kilometers away from the garrison base, the ground began to shake and the mountains began to shake. A huge black mountain, which was so tall that it couldn't be climbed, rose up from the cracked ground in front of them and let out a ceaseless roar.

"What... what is this..."when everyone in the garrison base saw this scene, they were all shocked. They were all outstanding warriors with strong mental fortitude, but in the face of this sudden situation.., they couldn't help but feel their legs go soft.

This giant beast that was directly born from the ground was too terrifying. Its pitch-black back was like a row of mountains, flashing with a kind of demonic light.

Roar!

The huge roar blew out a hurricane, blowing everything in front of it to the horizon. The ground cracked, and endless trees were uprooted, sweeping up the land in front of them.

“What is this...”butler Lin and the rest of the people in the car were dumbfounded, looking at the huge beast that was attacking the garrison base in front of them in surprise.

In the car, everyone’s discussion was heard one after another.

“It’s a Demon Beast?”

“It can’t be... isn’t the demon world coexisting peacefully with us now?”

“It’s definitely not a demon beast. I can feel a very strong spiritual energy from this big guy, and this big guy has no malice toward us at all,”Super Chen said.

Anyone with a keen perception of spirit energy could sense that this huge beast that had suddenly risen from the ground had no trace of demonic nature on its body, and was replaced by extremely powerful spirit energy!

It surpassed all the Spirit Beasts on Earth at the moment!

But there was still a gap between Holy Beasts and Divine Beasts.

Wang Ling still held back.

It was just a small punishment.

Otherwise, with his ability, any holy beast or divine beast he could summon would be enough to flatten a cultivation country.

The giant beast in front of him was the spirit beast he had used the power of the King’s eye to summon from the hollow core. It had never appeared on the surface of the Earth, so most cultivators knew nothing about its identity.

Although there was a lot of research on the hollow core hypothesis in the world, no one had ever been there before, and Wang Ling was certain that there was such a place.

It was because he had once made the spirit of Earth cry that he knew of such a place.

The world of the Earth's core cavity was incomparably huge.

For example, the spirit beast that Wang Ling had summoned was over three hundred feet long, but it was only a cub inside.

Before it had been summoned here, the cub had been having dinner with its mother, and in the next instant, it had been sucked into the world on the surface.

This had caused this behemoth to feel an inexplicable sense of fear, and the moment it appeared, it wasn't just the people at the garrison base who were shocked; even the behemoth itself was shocked.

It opened its stride and took a step in the direction of the base in front of it..

In that instant, the entire cultivation garrison base in Greo City, Mixiu Nation, was in a state of panic.

Although Wang Ling's armored bus symbol had already appeared on their radar signal, it had now been completely covered by this huge beast that had suddenly appeared.

"Quick, report to the Colonel! There's a huge beast ambush! And there's no record of it in the database! It came out of the ground like a bamboo shoot!"

"Sir! We have to give it a name!"

"Idiot!"

A commander in the base shouted, "Since it came out like a bamboo shoot, let's call it the bamboo shoot monster!"

“Sir! What about the signal of the armed bus we captured earlier?”

“It can go wherever it wants. Its home is about to be torn down, and you still have the mood to care about this?”

The base commander rubbed his head with a headache.

At the same time, on the other side, the president of the Crimson Orchid Association, Reeves, who had captured this scene through the satellite telescope, and Sister Alley, who was beside him, could not help but gape..

Chapter 1795 1,791 -- Who Would Have Thought That Meili, Who Had Died A Away, Would Die Again (6)(1/91)

The sudden appearance of the giant beast at the center of the Earth had plunged greo city into a sudden change. Pure azure energy surged from its body, and its mountain-like back continuously flickered, exuding a savage aura.

A powerful spiritual pressure blotted out the sky and covered the earth, putting great pressure on everyone except Wang Ling.

A catastrophe was coming, and the garrison base had no choice but to quickly react and counterattack in self-defense.

For a moment, several fighter jets took off from the base to meet the Behemoth at the core of the Earth. Spirit Energy missiles came from all directions, and with a piercing sound of air friction, they streaked past.

The behemoth frowned slightly. It roared in a low voice and opened up a space, forming a world of its own. The psionic missiles finally bombarded the barrier that it had opened up.

It did not initiate an attack. It stood in front of the garrison base. It was a kind of active deterrence but also seemed to be guarding something. It shook the sky and the Earth with an unimaginable power.

“What on Earth is it trying to do... stand on the street? !”

“No, such a huge beast, it can’t have come out of the ground out of nowhere just to scare us, right? !”

“Is it because its hands are too short and it can’t use its left jab at us?”

“That’s even more impossible... in short, it hasn’t taken the initiative to attack us now, so it’s best that we don’t do anything either.”

Their psionic missile attacks were ineffective to begin with, and continuing to fire was nothing more than a waste of ammunition. The pilots were still more realistic, and they needed to consider the actual situation.

After all, in Ultraman, the last thing to destroy the monster would always be Ultraman’s light waves, not the missiles of the fighter planes. Other than the ultimate move that Ultraman launched at the end, the footage of the fighter planes attacking the monster in front was nothing more than water... and they used an obscure angle to tell the audience that using missiles to attack the monster.., it was just a lonely fight.

Because the giant beast of the Earth’s core did not take the initiative to attack, the entire garrison base also stopped the next round of attack. At the same time, everyone was guessing what the real intention of the giant beast was.

Where did it come from?

Why would it suddenly launch an attack on this place?

When would the reinforcements arrive?

These were all questions.

From the looks of it, this was clearly a confrontation.

No one could predict how long it would take.

At that moment, Wang Ling's armed bus was retreating until it reached a safe position before stopping to watch from afar.

It wasn't that the armed bus had regained control, but rather that the immoral navigation had acted on its own.

The wicked navigator contained artificial intelligence in the first place, and Wang Ling had discovered early on that although the wicked navigator was wicked, it was extremely afraid of death.

Thus, it had directly summoned such a giant earth core beast to block the entrance to the garrison base, and had no choice but to retreat to maintain a safe distance.

"So you're also afraid of Death?" Fang Xing sat at the front.

He crossed his arms and stared at the steering wheel of the bus.

The Wicked Navigator didn't reply.

"Fang Xing, what are you doing... talking to a navigator..." Hero Guo asked.

"This isn't a normal navigator, but a navigator with artificial intelligence," Fang Xing said. "Look, the armored bus has been retreating ever since the Behemoth appeared. This intelligence proves one thing -- it's scared."

"I see." Hero Guo nodded.

"But this guy is still playing dead, refusing to cooperate and not saying a word. I don't know if you have any ideas."

"That's easy. It's just a torture system; I'm familiar with it!" Hero Guo laughed sinisterly.

Then, he turned on the armored bus's display and pulled out the connecting device. He also took out a pitch-black USB flash drive from his pocket.

“What’s This?” Lotus Sun asked.

“It’s called the deep-water bomb of the system world, and was originally a trick taught to me by one of my uncles,” hero Guo said. “It’s installed with 214 computer anti-virus security software like Teng Xun’s computer butler, thousand-degree security assistant, 361 security guards, and Yin Shan poison tyrant, the four security software giants...”

Wang Ling, Lotus Sun, Fang Xing, Super Chen, Li Youyue:”...”

Hero Guo: “Of course it’s fine if you only install one anti-virus software, but if you install and run it at the same time, something terrible will happen! Haven’t you ever wondered what would happen if you let these anti-virus software kill itself?”

”...”

Hearing this, wicked navigation couldn’t help trembling.

As an AI that had just been born, it had yet to experience the splendor and beauty of the greater world. It did not want to die just like that.

If so many anti-virus software were installed in its body at the same time, the consequences would be unimaginable for Wicked Navigator.

If that really happened, these anti-virus software would probably directly follow the system and cause its entire core to collapse..

It was too terrifying!

SOB, SOB, sob!

These people had no heart!

Were they all devils! !

Just as hero Guo was about to insert the USB drive, wicked navigator finally couldn't withstand the pressure, he said, "Wait... Young Hero! Let's talk it out! Don't do it! If you insert it so recklessly, I'll die of Pain!"

Everyone:"..."

Wicked navigator: "I'll tell you what you want to know! As long as you don't stuff weird things into my body! That's right! That's right! The one who instructed me to do this was the Crimson Orchid Association! The president is called Levis! My father is also him!"

"Father?"

"Because he's my developer..."

"He has several wives and lives a promiscuous life! He's a PUA scumbag! Young Heroes, please annihilate him!"

"..."

Everyone in the armored bus was horrified.

What a guy..

A loving father and filial son.

..

At the same time, at the end of the horizon, a man with long golden hair, wearing a dark blue uniform, and white trousers appeared. His clothes fluttered in the wind, and the wind blew.

"Reinforcements are coming! It's general mcassi!" Someone in the garrison base exclaimed.

This was the general of the mixiu nation's cultivation corps! Mcassi! He was a legendary figure in the Mixiu Nation!

He was a well-known strategic commander genius who had never lost a battle in his life. A long, long time ago, he had stepped into the true immortal realm and cultivated to the peak of the ninth level.

Now that Earth had leveled up, his combat strength was no longer restricted. No one knew how high this legendary general's realm had risen again.

“Vile creature.”

He came from the sky, his entire body exuding golden radiance. He was like the sun god, his eyes carrying a kind of arrogance.

After Earth leveled up, Mycroft had been in closed-door cultivation for a period of time. However, he had just come out of closed-door cultivation. The opponent in front of him was this giant beast that had appeared out of nowhere, causing his entire body to surge with excitement.

“Today, I am here. No matter who sent you here, together with the people behind you, I will definitely eradicate you from the Roots!” He shouted loudly.

In the next second, the dark blue uniform behind him in the Void was enveloped by a layer of blazing halo, just like a golden crow!

Everyone knew that the flames of war were about to rise. A battle between a legend and a gigantic beast was about to begin!

Chapter 1796 1792. Beauty Can Not Hide The Glory Of The Soul (1/91)

Looking at the face of the legendary general of Mi Xiu nation in the void, the people of No. 60 high school seemed to recall the black and white photo of this man printed in the history book from the ancient history of cultivation class.

“This is Miko Arsi? He does indeed look a little similar to the photo... But why does it feel a little different? He seems to have become a lot younger.” Li You Yue covered her small mouth and said in surprise.

Although there were cosmetic techniques in that era, they were not as heaven-defying as the beauty technology now. The black-and-white photo of General Macaulay in the history textbook showed the original appearance of this general when he was at the peak of power.

However, compared to now, Macaulay was indeed much younger. He should have been practicing cosmetic techniques or taking cosmetic pills in the future.

After all, he was a legendary general. There was nothing wrong with him being promoted as an idol. In this era where beauty was justice, it seemed that it was more popular to have a face that was forever young.

In the end, not everyone had the confidence to be like the sword saint, Martial Saint, and the other eight great generals of Huaxiu nation. By relying on their grace and meritorious deeds, they could make their names be remembered by everyone in that glorious history.

What could never be hidden from the beauty of one's face was the brilliance of one's soul.

Wang Ling didn't know how long it would take for him to grow old, but if one day he really did grow old, he felt that he probably wouldn't use any other means to fix his appearance.

He didn't have much desire in this area to begin with, and it was the eternal truth that all things should conform to nature.

It was just that not everyone thought that way.

The modern cultivation world was already very different from before. In an era of ever-changing profit models, even a legendary general like Miko Arsi couldn't avoid being vulgar and became a tool to consolidate his social and financial status.

Miko Arsi was indeed a genius, but if a cultivator's mind was dirty, it would be difficult for him to become a great person in the end.

At that moment, the moment Miko Arsi transformed into a golden crow, Wang Ling and Wang Muyu simultaneously noticed hundreds of electronic eyes from all directions surrounding them.

These were all electronic eyes that Miko Arsi had set up. He was confident that he could defeat the giant beast at the core of the Earth, so he planned to record them at the same time as video evidence so that he could promote his reputation in the future.

In the sky, the golden light all over his body merged with the Sun as if they were one. The blazing light finally condensed into a golden ripple that could be seen by the naked eye in his palm.

“Is the ripple sprinting...”Wang Muyu frowned.

He could feel that this was a spell to extract the flames of a star. However, Miko Arsi’s use of it was not mature, so it was obvious that he had just recently developed it.

At this moment, Miko Arsi was using it to show off. In fact, it was also a display of his muscles to the world with the help of the electronic eye.

Looking at this scene, Wang Muyu muttered with a lack of interest, “It’s far from ripple scamper...”

A true ripple scamper could make the light waves emitted equal to the temperature of the Sun’s core. However, the temperature of Miko Arsi’s current was not even one-third of the temperature of the Sun’s core.

Perhaps on Earth, he could show off his muscles.

But in the eyes of a true expert, it was child’s play; it could only be called a small sun fist.

“Daddy, when are you going to show him the real wave sprinting spell?”At that moment, Wang Muyu was sitting on Wang Ling’s lap and telepathically speaking as he looked at him expectantly.

Wang Ling:”...”

Even if he had to show it, it was impossible for Wang Ling to show it on Earth.

He did indeed know this move of Miko Arsi’s, and it was hundreds of millions of times more powerful than Miko Arsi’s.

But the problem was that if this move was displayed on earth, the spirits of Earth would probably be unable to withstand it.

It wasn't just the spirits of Earth; the other spirits of the planets in the universe were very critical of their actions, and many of them had written letters of complaint specifically to the Heavenly Dao Commission.

The main complaint wasn't Wang Ling, but Wang Ying..

Wang Ling realized that this guy Wang Ying had great stamina.

Every night at eight o'clock sharp, he would use the planet Wall Knock Spell on Sun Ying 'er, almost never missing a beat.

..

"Evil creature, today I'll show you how powerful I am."

At that moment, when Miko Arsi had finished charging up his power, the blazing light wave from the void finally turned into a flaming dragon and shot toward the Behemoth at the center of the Earth.

Boom!

Looking from afar, the flaming dragon that shot out from Mach ASI's palm was a human-shaped self-propelled laser cannon that shot through the giant Beast's energy wall on the spot.

"There's Hope! As expected of General Mach Asi!"

In the base, countless soldiers cried out in surprise. Mach ASI's first round of attack had successfully pierced through the energy wall, causing the confidence of the soldiers here to instantly increase greatly.

After being blocked by the energy wall, the geocentric behemoth let out a pained roar. It didn't die immediately, but its thick leather armor burned fiercely under the orange flames.

The pitiful geocentric behemoth stretched out its small claws in an attempt to extinguish the flames, then rolled on the ground to extinguish them.

“Evil creature, no matter who summoned you, you’re going to die today without a doubt...” macaxi smiled, and his relaxed tone carried a hint of arrogance as he prepared to launch a second wave of attack.

Wang Ling felt that it was almost time. He had his own plans, and the purpose of summoning the giant Earth Core Beast was just to put on a show.

After all, this giant Earth Core Beast was only a cub, so it was normal that it couldn’t withstand Mikeassi’s damage. If he had summoned an adult giant earth core beast,.

With MIKEASSI’s current combat strength, he was probably going to be defeated.

He secretly circulated his ocular power. Just as Macassi’s second shot was about to get close to the geocentric behemoth, he used reverse summoning to send the geocentric behemoth back to the core world.

At the same time, he used the scorched skin on the geocentric behemoth to form a red orchid mark on the ground..

All of this was completed in an instant.

It looked as if the geocentric behemoth had been directly blown up by macassi’s second shot and evaporated on the spot.

After the smoke screen disappeared, the red orchid mark on the ground immediately entered macaxi’s eyes.

“This is...”

In the air, macaxi stared at the red orchid mark and frowned slightly. He felt that it looked familiar, but he could not remember what it was.

Then, he waved his hand and moved the nearest electronic eye to his side and began to scan the patterns on the ground.

Soon, an electronic voice was heard by Michael Assi.

“The Crimson Orchid Society...”

Michael Assi remembered.

This was the mafia organization in Greo City.

So this giant beast was summoned by this mafia organization... how dare these damn guys! ?

Immediately, he faced the soldiers stationed at the base below and said, “All troops, Listen Up!”

“Present!”

The soldiers quickly lined up and formed a square formation in response.

Michael assi snorted and said, “Pass down my orders, clear out the Crimson Orchid Association in Greo City! Execute all members of the Crimson Orchid Association on the spot! Leave No one alive!”

“But general, execute them on the spot... This seems to be against the rules...”

“What do you know?” Michael Assi said arrogantly, with a righteous look on his face, he said, “Rules are meant to be broken! At this moment, in the name of Michael Assi, I have made a decision that goes against our ancestors! This is for the sake of humanity! To Wipe Out Evil!”

Chapter 1797 1,793: Diversion Of Trouble, Attack Of Allies, Tick (1/91)

Because of macassi’s sudden attack, all the heavenly dogs of the tree of wisdom fell into a brief period of chaos.

“Macassi, this madman... He’s actually preparing to attack the Crimson Orchid Association...”

“Doesn’t he know that the Crimson Orchid Association was instructed by the church? ! and Levis is the representative of the Crimson Orchid Association who is accusing Lotus Sun. If he is annihilated... the accusation will be directly discredited!”

As the person with the highest rank among the heavenly dogs, master eight, who was wearing the eight-star Jason Mask, was also twitching slightly under the mask.

He had always been calm and rarely trembled from anger. But at this moment, master eight had no choice but to admit that he was still greatly angered by the mysterious operation of Miko Arsi.

“What should we do, master eight? How should we deal with this matter now?”Someone asked.

Master eight took a deep breath and tried his best to adjust his emotions. Then, he slowly said, “Although mccarthy is an out-and-out bastard, we can’t have a direct conflict with him at the moment.”

Under normal circumstances, mccarthy wouldn’t be involved in this matter. He was the commander-in-chief of the army of the General Cultivation Corps, and the headquarters of the army wasn’t in Greo City. Judging from mccarthy’s operation this time.., he just happened to pass by to provide assistance.

Lord eight had never expected macassi to interfere in this matter.

“Although Our Sky Dog Division is also a spy in the army, Macassi is a very cunning person. He has always been very vigilant in dealing with counter-intelligence work. The personnel of the army base are transferred almost every day, and it is extremely difficult for our companions to carry out their work inside,”said Lord Eight.

In fact, this was also the reason why Sky Dog hadn’t been able to do anything about mcassi so far. They had even been able to infiltrate the church, but MCASSI’s army forces had been unable to do anything about it for a long time.

Besides, mcassi was an exception.

Although the church's power could cover most government forces, it couldn't reach mcassi. Currently, the MIXIU Army forces only listened to mcassi.

According to Sky Dog's original plan, they had wanted Wang Ling and the others to drive into the army base branch to provoke Miko Arsi.

They hadn't expected that their plan would backfire, and Miko Arsi would instead target the Crimson Orchid Association, which was currently on the church's side and cooperating with the church.

Speaking of which...

Why would that huge beast turn into the Crimson Orchid Association's LOGO after it died? !

This was simply unscientific!

However, the heavenly dogs were no longer in the mood to think about these problems. The most important thing now was to solve the issue of macaxi and prevent the conflict from further escalating.

"I made a mistake in this matter. I didn't expect macaxi to directly intervene in this matter. We should let the brothers in the church inform macaxi in advance."

"Master eight, then go and greet him now..."

"I'm afraid it's too late to go now. macaxi has always been confident and proud. He would never withdraw his orders."

"Then what should we do?"

"We can only communicate first... at least, we can protect Li Weisi and let macaxi not attack him."

Master eight said with a headache, "But this matter is not a bad thing." At least, it can be clearly seen that the war sect did send experts over to protect them. "Or perhaps among these high school students in the armored bus, one of them is pretty Wang."

“High school student? It Can’t be...”

“Perhaps she just borrowed the identity of a high school student.”

Master eight said, “Otherwise, there’s no way to explain why such a huge beast suddenly appeared in front of the garrison base’s branch. Moreover, after the huge beast died, its fragments turned into the shape of the Red Orchid Association’s logo.”

At this point., he couldn’t help sighing. “I underestimated these people’s methods. This move to divert the flood of disaster is very well used. However, it won’t be so easy to use this method to sow discord and cause internal conflict among us...”

“It’s time for the senior eternal ones sent by the Supreme Emperor to assist us.”

“Although only five of the first batch came, it was enough to make them suffer. I’d like to see how this pretty Wang is going to deal with him...”

..

Under the accusation of wicked navigation, Wang Ling had used a trick of diversion in a hurry to successfully establish the conflict between mcassi and the Crimson Orchid Association.

If things went smoothly, as long as Li Weisi was killed by mcassi, the accusations made against Lotus Sun by the municipal government of Greo city would naturally vanish.

Moreover, the conflict over Li Weisi’s death wouldn’t be on Lotus Sun’s head, and no one would think that Lotus Sun had ordered mcassi to kill Li Weisi.

That was because everyone knew what kind of person macassi was.

What he valued the most was his reputation. As a legendary general in mixiu nation, he would never listen to the orders of a young miss of a financial group to kill a Mafia boss.

Of course, Wang Ling felt that it was still unknown whether things would go as smoothly as he had expected.

Sky Dog's side was extremely resourceful, so it wouldn't be difficult for them to protect Li Weisi.

On the other hand, Tengu's forces had infiltrated the church. If they wanted to resolve this matter, the best way was to split the relationship between the church and Tengu, so that the church and macaxi would share a common enemy, turning the conflict around, they aimed their guns at Tengu..

On their side, they only needed to watch from the sidelines and watch these people fight in their own territory.

They would be suspicious of each other and shift the blame; this was a living, breathing western house of cards to begin with.

Wang Ling had thought that these things could only be seen on television, but in reality, they really did exist.

“Young heroes, where do you want to go now? I'll cooperate...”

At that moment, wicked navigator asked.

He was already afraid.

Under the threat of hero Guo's USB drive, he had no choice but to compromise with No. 60 high school.

In fact, before carrying out this mission, it wasn't as if wicked navigator had never collected information about No. 60 high school. At that time, it had a premonition that these high school students weren't easy to deal with.

From the historical observation data.

In this half a year's time.

Shadow Stream, immortal mansion, Devil Emperor Gua Pi, night puppet... all the major and minor factions of Huaxiu nation's domestic and foreign evil forces had been destroyed by No. 60 High School.

It seemed to have nothing to do with No. 60 high school, but in fact, everything was linked together by No. 60 high school..

As a result, wicked navigator thought that this operation might not go too smoothly, and that something might happen.

But now, it was as he had expected.

Sometimes, the analysis of big data was very useful..

It was just that wicked navigator had not yet figured out which of these people from No. 60 high was the hidden expert.

Now, it could only feign subservience, pretend to surrender, and secretly collect information. When the time was right, it would send the information it had collected back to Levis.

Chapter 1798 1,794 -- Who Wasn't A Religious Leader These Days? (1/91)

Wicked navigator imagined that it wouldn't be noticed if it pretended to surrender, but as an artificial intelligence that already had the ability to think, wang Ling would also hear every little thing it thought.

It wasn't just Wang Ling; Wang Muyu and Lotus Sun were all aware of Wicked Navigator's intentions.

But they were very clever, and all of them pretended that nothing had happened.

"Father, is this navigator stupid?"Wang Muyu asked telepathically.

"..."

To be honest, Wang Muyu was very speechless about the wicked navigator.

It was clearly just a navigator; even if it was made into an animation, it wouldn't have any image. At most, it would be a voice actor, but he didn't know why the wicked navigator liked to add scenes for him so much.

Wang Ling made a hissing gesture, hinting at Wang Muyu to hold back for now. Wang Muyu understood, so he turned his little head towards the window and asked, "Where are we going now?"

"Of course we're going according to the original plan."

Lotus sun said, "And I just received a message. I heard that Liangzi will be coming over soon."

"Eh? Is it that Miss Liangzi from nine temples?"

Li You Yue said in surprise, and immediately ridiculed, "She came to our class to report a while ago! When the transfer student came in, she didn't even go to school for a few days. I thought that she had dropped out!"

"She didn't drop out... It's just that some things haven't been completely settled yet."

Lotus sun smiled awkwardly, "After we're done going to the mall, we'll go find Liang Zi and meet up. We've already agreed on the location."

"Where is it?" Super Chen asked.

"It's the landmark building of Greo City, the starry tower. Opposite it is another landmark building, the wisdom tree," Lotus sun replied.

Actually, she hadn't expected Liangzi nine temples to take the risk to come and help her this time.

But it was also thanks to Liangzi nine temples.

That was why he had helped her bring back something very important from Huaxiu.

And that was... the leader's token of the gray cult.

Before she got up, even Lotus Sun hadn't expected that the power of the gray cult had already expanded to Greo City.

Before she left, in order to better manage the gray cult in Huaxiu, she had temporarily given the leader's token to Liangzi nine temples to keep on her behalf.

And now, Liangzi nine temples had come over with this leader's token.

This also meant that.

She would have the ability to manipulate all the gray cult members hiding in the shadows in Greo city..

Sky Dog's intelligence was indeed very extensive.

But they had missed out on the gray cult, a cultural organization founded for literary exploration..

So what if it was a church.

Who Wasn't a cult master these days?

Lotus Sun already had a plan in mind.

It wasn't easy for her to go abroad and travel with Wang Ling... it was all because of the heavenly dog that she had completely messed up her plan.

This time, she had to wipe out this hateful organization in one go!

Wang Ling:"..."

..

..

The wicked navigation successfully parked the car in the basement of the Wolverine supermarket, but Fang Xing decided to stay in the car with housekeeper Lin.

“Hey, Fang Xing, you’re not going? You can go whoring for free! It’s free!”Hero Guo asked.

“It’s fine. I’ve already told Super Chen What I want to buy, and he’ll help me buy it. The navigator isn’t honest, so it’s safer for me and uncle Lin to stay behind and look after it,”Fang Xing said with a smile, he still had that sunny smile on his face, and nothing seemed out of the ordinary.

He was indeed worried about this wicked navigation, so when he had been in the car earlier, he had casually pulled out a list for Super Chen to buy for him.

“Don’t worry, I’ll buy all the things you want for You!”Super Chen said as he thumped his chest.

Then, the group got off the car in high spirits.

After a few twists and turns, Wang Ling was finally going to buy the world-limited crispy noodle snacks that he wanted, and for some reason, he was a little touched.

Wolf was the largest supermarket in Greo City, and at the same time, because Greo city was a famous cultivation technology demonstration city in mixiu nation, even the things sold in the supermarket were full of the aura of technology.

After Wang Ling bought “No one knows crispy noodle snacks series better than I do”, he followed the others around the supermarket.

“Little Brothers, would you like to try our latest product? Quantum prosthetic eyes, you can learn twice as much with half the effort after installation! And most importantly, you can quantify your combat strength!”The Salesgirl introduced with a smile on her face.

“Then how do we use them? Don’t tell me you want us to gouge out our eyeballs and put them on?”Hero Guo asked.

“I won’t, little brother. All cultivation machinery and equipment are dismantled and installed free of charge for life. There are related stores all over the world. You can do it with the authentication of the life-long anti-counterfeiting code built into the cultivation machinery and equipment.”

The saleswoman said, “Like this quantum prosthetic eye, it’s the latest product from Shouchong Technology Group.”

“Wait... This lady, can you say it again? What Group?”For a moment, Lotus Sun thought she was hearing things.

“Shouchong science and Technology Group, which is the work of that famous scientist in Huaxiu nation, teacher Shouchong. I heard that battle ancestor has recently taken a stake in it! This quantum prosthetic eye is the work of Mr. Shouchong and a Mr. Wang Xiaoer.”

” ... ”

For a moment, Wang Ling had an illusion.

He felt that Shouchong and Wang Ming had definitely stolen the technology from the illusory realm science and Technology City!

But Wang Ling had never imagined that these cultivation machinery could be mass-produced and sold online in such a short time.

In addition to the quantum prosthetic eye, there were indeed many new types of cultivation machinery on the shelves of the cultivation machinery equipment. There were all kinds of mechanical arms and legs.

And these things were very attractive to the new generation of cultivators, so Super Chen and hero Guo couldn’t move their legs at once.

“You said so much just now, but I still feel like I have to cut it off. Can I try it out?”Hero Guo asked.

“Of course.”The female shop assistant smiled and said, “All the cultivation machinery equipment needs to be installed into the body to achieve 100% effect. Now, you can experience it through the external equipment. But the external experience effect can only reach 20% .”

As she spoke, the female shop assistant took out a helmet. “Now, I have already connected the quantum prosthetic eye selected by Sir to the perceptive helmet. As long as Sir wears the helmet, the next scene you see will be seen through the quantum prosthetic eye.”

“I see!”Super Chen nodded and impatiently took the helmet and put it on his head. “I’ll try it first!”

“Please do.”

The saleswoman smiled, she helped Super Chen Buckle the helmet. “When you open your eyes, the relevant functions will appear directly in the menu on the right side of your eyes. You just need to select the corresponding functions and follow the instructions of the system.”

“Okay!”Super Chen rubbed his hands.

After the device was activated.

He only felt a rapid buzzing sound in his head, and then he heard the electronic voice of “Connection successful”coming from his mind.

A bunch of functions related to the quantum prosthetic eye were displayed on the right side as the Salesgirl had said.

[combat strength measurement]

[quantum speed reading]

[thermal scanning]

[extreme binoculars]

-LSuperuPerspectivetive]

[one-click monthly vote]

[beating up Ku Xuan in a blink of an eye]

..

Super Chen was dazzled by the dazzling array of functions.

“There’s actually a super perspective?” Super Chen was shocked. “Is... is this legal?”

“It’s legal in our Greo City.” The salesgirl smiled. “Of course, this is a VIP function that needs to be used by premium members. The specific clairvoyance effect will be graded according to the members. King members are all clairvoyance! The clairvoyance effect of King members and below will not be too good.”

“You still need to charge money...” Super Chen clicked his tongue. “Is there a function that allows you to experience it for free?”

“Yes, the combat strength measurement is free. Little Brother can try it on his friends.”

Super Chen nodded slightly.

Then, in the next second, he immediately turned his gaze to Wang Ling.

According to the data, Wang Ling’s realm was early foundation establishment.

Super Chen immediately laughed out loud. “Hey, Lingzi. It’s already been half a year since school started, why are you still at Early Foundation Establishment?”

Wang Ling secretly heaved a sigh of relief at this merciless ridicule.

It seemed that Wang Ming had already taken him into consideration when he had designed this feature in the first place. Any scan aimed at him would be directly covered up with fake data.

“This prosthetic eye isn’t bad.”

Super Chen played with it for a long time, then took off his helmet for Hero Guo to experience.

Then, he walked over to Wang Ling’s side, he patted Wang Ling on the shoulder. “To be honest, Lingzi, I always thought that you were very strong and that you were just pretending to be weak. Now, it looks like the misunderstanding is over! You really are a mascot!”

Wang Ling:”...”

..

At the same time, in the supermarket, a mysterious black figure was closely observing Wang Ling and recording something in a small notebook.

On the small notebook, the huge title read: “Analysis of the members of No. 60 high school, Hidden Experts.”

Then, below it was a list of the people who were going on this trip.

Fang Xing, Super Chen, hero Guo, Li Youyue, Lotus Sun, and...? ? ? ? ..

Yes.

When he was recording the name, he had forgotten Wang Ling’s name, and didn’t know who this person was.

That was why he had used three question marks as markers.

It wasn’t until now that he had secretly observed Wang Ling.

Only then did he finally remember who this”? ? ?”Mr. Wang Ling was.

And now...

He had used his pen to completely black out these three question marks.

Because Super Chen had already helped him eliminate a wrong answer just now.

A mere trash at the early stage of foundation establishment.

Is not worthy of their dog in the eyes..

Chapter 1799 1795, Madam Lavin's Invitation (1/91)

Shopping is always the key to stimulating the dopamine secretion in the human body, especially when shopping is free, the dopamine secretion will rise to a peak.

When No. 60 high school's people came to the supermarket with big and small bags to settle the bill, the cashier was first shocked by the mountains of goods behind them.

This... is this F * cking shopping?

Are you sure it's not a clearance?

The cashier was a little shocked. He was stunned for a long time before he came back to his senses. He called a few colleagues over to help him scan the barcode of the goods.

This matter directly alerted the sales general manager of Wolverine supermarket and directly went down to direct the work.

They were very skilled. After scanning the barcode, they directly put the goods into storage bags one by one. According to Wolverine supermarket's preferential rules, a one-time purchase of goods worth more than 100,000 yuan could be given as a spatial storage bag distribution service, and storage bags were completely free of charge.

It took a full half an hour to complete the distribution of the goods, and in the end, the total amount of consumption that popped up on the display was 269 million yuan.

“Excuse me, Miss, how do you pay?”The sales manager asked while trying hard to control his wild smile.

“Use your card. Also, I’d like to ask if you and I can directly buy your supermarket.”Lotus Sun took out an unlimited crystal card from her purse.

At this moment, the people of No. 60 High School felt that Lotus Sun was glowing... Yes, her entire body was surging with a holy light, like an eight-winged holy angel descending from the sky.

The reason why Lotus Sun wanted to buy a supermarket was naturally not a spur-of-the-moment idea, but because she had long had an idea.

Currently, Huaguo Water Curtain Group had already taken over the largest hotel chain in Greo City. If they could continue to take over Wolverine, they would be able to achieve the simultaneous advancement of the hotel and supermarket industries.

Moreover, once they took over Wolverine, Huaguo Water Curtain Group would have an incomparably huge channel to export medicinal pills abroad.

Of course, Lotus Sun also knew very well that the merger of the supermarket wasn’t something that a sales manager could decide, so she only asked casually when she swiped her card. She didn’t expect to receive any reply at all.

But the sales manager said, “This... I can’t make the decision about the supermarket acquisition. But Miss Sun’s luck is pretty good today. Our boss happened to be patrolling the store today! “Miss Sun led her friends to spend a large sum of money today, and our boss also happened to want to meet Miss Sun, and...”

At this point, the sales manager turned his gaze to Wang Ling and Wang Muyu. “Our Boss said that she knows these two gentlemen with dead fish eyes.”

“Is your boss a man or a woman?”Lotus Sun asked in surprise.

“A woman...”

“A woman?” Lotus Sun suddenly became nervous.

At that moment, everyone from No. 60 high looked at Wang Ling and Wang Muyu in unison.

This time, even Wang Ling became nervous.

“No Way, Wang Ling... could it be that Wang Muyu is you and this supermarket owner...”

Hero Guo made a bold guess. “So you really are Wang Muyu’s father?”

”...”

Wang Ling’s face instantly turned white.

“Stop teasing Wang Ling, you’re scaring the Kid.” Li You Yue didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

“Who’s your boss?” Lotus Sun asked again.

“I don’t know, Miss Sun, have you heard of Madam Lavan’s name?” The sales manager said.

It was only then that Wang Ling and Wang Muyu came to a realization.

This was the noblewoman they had met in the coffee shop yesterday.

At that time, Fenlei of Greo City had told Wang Ling that this Madam Lavin was a famous local producer of a cultivation variety show.

But Wang Ling hadn’t expected that Madam Lavin was also the behind-the-scenes boss of this wolf.

..

In the end, this seemingly kind-looking sales manager brought the people from No. 60 high school upstairs. In the office on the top floor of the wolf, Wang Ling indeed saw the figure of Madam Lavin whom he had seen earlier in the coffee shop.

“Ah! Little brother, we meet again. You’re really too cute!”The moment she saw Wang Muyu, she couldn’t help feeling a motherly glow.

Perhaps realizing that she had lost her composure, Madam Lavin quickly readjusted herself. “Ahem, everyone, please take a seat. Someone, quickly pour some coffee for the distinguished guests.”

“Yes.”The secretary quickly responded and then left to do her work.

After some small talk, Madam Lavin went straight to the point. “As expected of the eldest daughter of Huaguo Water Curtain Group, Miss Lotus Sun. Your spending is indeed extravagant and extraordinary.”

“Madam Lavin, you flatter me. To be honest, I was also a little surprised. I only heard that you were a famous variety show producer. I didn’t expect that you were also the one who ran the supermarket business,”Lotus Sun replied in a low-key and modest manner.

“Business has always been my forte. People are destined to have many identities in their lives. In fact, even I didn’t expect that my identity as a variety show producer would be so popular. And it helped me earn a lot of money.”

Madam Lavin raised her coffee cup and said with the elegance of a noblewoman, “I heard that Miss Sun wants to buy over my Wolverine?”

“Yes, that’s the plan.”Lotus sun nodded. “But Madam Lavin’s supermarket only uses money. It shouldn’t be sold so easily, right?”

“Miss Sun is indeed smart.”

Madam Lavin smiled. "I don't care about money at all. Money is like floating clouds to me. What do I need so much money for? I can't even use it up." "After enjoying life enough, what I want most now is to find some fun for the rest of my boring life. "That's why I've embarked on the path of a variety show producer."

"Then, what are Madam Lavin's conditions?" Lotus Sun asked.

"Miss Sun, don't be anxious. Let me finish first."

Madam Lavin said, "A wise man doesn't beat around the bush. Miss Sun should be very clear about her situation now. "The church and the Crimson Orchid Association took action against Miss Sun One after another, resulting in Miss Sun and your group of classmates being restricted to Greo City and unable to return to the country."

"If I were to sell the supermarket to you at this time, it would actually be an act of taking sides."

"Of course, I'm saying this to miss sun now, but it doesn't mean that I'm afraid of these two forces. I just want miss sun to understand my sincerity."

At this point, Madam Lavin slowly stood up, then she looked expectantly in the direction of No. 60 High School. "I only have one request. I want all members of No. 60 high school to participate in the recording of a variety show together with the elite representatives selected by another cultivation high school in Greo City. "As long as the recording ends successfully, I'll transfer all the shares of Greo City to Miss Sun. "I don't want a single cent of the rest."

At this moment, lotus sun frowned slightly and asked in puzzlement, "I want to know why Madam Lavon has her eyes on No. 60 High School."

Chapter 1800 1,796, No. 60 High School, Famous Overseas (1/91)

"Why No. 60 High School was chosen? I think Miss Sun and all the students present should be very clear about this question."

Madam Lavin extended her right hand, which was wearing white lace, and covered her mouth slightly, she revealed a smile. "In the past half a year, from Shadow Stream, immortal mansion, and Devil Emperor Gua Pi... how many organizations and experts have been wiped out successively has been inextricably linked to No. 60 High School."

"To be honest, it doesn't have much to do with us."

“Even if Miss Sun prevaricates, it’s useless. Now, No. 60 high school’s reputation has spread far and wide, including within Greo City. The elite high school students who want to cross the border to challenge No. 60 high school are also eager to try.”

She smiled and said, “If we were to hold a variety show challenge between high school students at this time, I believe the viewership ratings would have already surpassed all the previous ones! “What I want is a thrill. I hope Miss Sun doesn’t have any other concerns. “In addition, in order to let Miss Sun and the other students be at ease to participate in this variety show recording, I have also sent an email application to No. 60 high school in the name of the variety show producer.”

As she spoke, Madam Lavin fiddled with the electronic wristwatch in her hand. Soon, with a buzz, an email was immediately projected into the void.

“This is... Old Chen’s mailbox! There’s even old Chen’s school seal on it!”

At this point, everyone from No. 60 High School was dumbfounded.

“As you can see, your school’s principal has agreed to let you stay behind to record this variety show challenge. He has also applied for a seven-day holiday for all of you.”

“Everyone, please rest assured that the variety show recording time won’t be too long. Seven Days is enough for us to compete in all the projects. “In addition, principal Chen has also made a request. He hopes that you can hide your identities. I can also guarantee this.”

Madam Lavin smiled brightly. “During the entire variety show recording process, we will give you all exclusive masks to cover your faces. You only need to wear your school uniforms to participate in the program.”

“Even if I wear a mask, it won’t be of any use, because someone will definitely know my identity.”At this moment, Lotus Sun sighed. At the same time, she sighed in her heart at Madam Lavin’s methods.

She was the future successor of Huaguo Water Curtain Group, and after what happened in Greo City, the whole world was now focused on her.

Even if she wore a mask to hide her identity, it would be useless. As long as information about the duel high school was released, everyone would definitely know it was her even if she wasn't named... In Lotus Sun's eyes, such an operation.., was almost no different from directly reporting her identity card number.

No matter what, as long as she existed, this variety show would definitely be a guarantee of viewership ratings.

And this was clearly something that Madam Lavin had planned from the very beginning.

Lotus Sun's only consolation was that this variety show recording would cover her face, and when everyone's attention was focused on her, it shouldn't affect Wang Ling too much..

But even so, she still felt faintly uncomfortable.

She didn't want to cause trouble for Wang Ling, but now it seemed to be completely at odds with her original intention.

"If we lose this, we'll definitely lose face."In comparison, hero Guo and the others weren't in a very good mood.

They had just wanted to travel abroad to relax, but in the end, they had inexplicably participated in this variety show challenge.

Principal Chen had personally signed the email with his school's seal, so they had no choice but to go.

The most important thing was that this variety show challenge was the focus of the world. If they lost, it would be very embarrassing!

Therefore, in an instant, everyone felt the pressure coming on.

"If all of you are going to participate in the competition, what should I do?"At this moment, Wang Muyu asked.

There was a hint of envy in his eyes.

The Little Guy was at the age of a curious baby. It was the time to accept and absorb all kinds of new things. Activities like variety challenge naturally attracted Wang Muyu himself.

“Muyu, trust me. This program is not fun. Big Sisters and brothers are under a lot of pressure.” Li You Yue said helplessly.

“Eh? Really? It clearly sounds very fun.” Wang Mu Yu said.

“Don’t worry little brother. Auntie will specially arrange a segment for you.”

At this moment., madam lawen laughed sinisterly again, “Regarding this point, I have also reported it to principal Chen. This time, the variety challenge was a six plus one challenge. Six high school students bringing along a primary school student. The high school student delegation from Greo City will also select a local famous king level primary school student to participate.”

Wang Muyu revealed a puzzled look. “King level primary school student? Is He very powerful?”

Madam Lavin: “Of course!”! The so-called king level primary school student meant that he could complete his cultivation homework on time and never cause trouble for others. He could carry his teammates and not hang up while playing games. He also never used his parents’ money to secretly play games, tip the streamer, or buy other boring virtual goods.”

Wang Muyu: “Then, can the king level primary school students in Greo City destroy Earth with one punch?”

Hearing this, Madam Lavin couldn’t help but laugh out loud. “Brother Muyu really knows how to joke. He’s just a primary school student. How can he have the strength to destroy Earth?”

Wang Muyu: “But I can!”

Madam Lavin showed an expression of coaxing a child. “Yes, yes, yes, I know you can! “But this competition doesn’t need to destroy the Earth; you just have to follow the arrangements of your brothers and sisters; you’re the key to getting points!”

Wang Muyu nodded. "Understood!"

Wang Ling and Lotus Sun:"..."

At this point., madam Lavin looked at everyone. "This is the situation; it looks like everyone already understands. "Then I'll give Miss Sun the rules for the variety show challenge later tonight, and at that time, I'll just ask Miss Sun to give us a detailed introduction."

"Alright." Lotus sun sighed and looked at the people from No. 60 high school with some shame. "I've really troubled everyone to get involved this time."

"Since we're here, let's just take things as they come. Boss Sun, you don't have to do this. We've also taken advantage of Boss Sun's influence. Anyway, we're all hiding our faces. It's not embarrassing to lose,"hero Guo said.

"It's really not a big deal to lose. Variety shows are entertainment in and of themselves. The first thing to do is to find them funny and keep watching them."Madam Lavin smiled. "But if we win, there'll be an extra surprise! "I can turn everything you've bought today into gold!"

"This..."

Super Chen was shocked when he heard this, and he immediately looked at Wang Ling. "Then won't Lingzi suffer a huge loss? He didn't buy anything except crispy noodle snacks."

Madam Lavin: "How hard can it be? I can just make a limited package of golden crispy noodle snacks. Even the pepper noodles are the kind with gold-plated powder!"

Wang Ling:"!!!"
