Chapter 1811 1,807, The Third Unimagined Path (1/91)

Defecting to the enemy midway was definitely an unimagined path for Levi. He did not know if he was doing the right thing, but he could make a practical analysis based on the current situation.

Under the circumstances where macassi, Lavin, and the church that had wanted to split him up from the start could not be trusted, cooperating with Huaguo Water Curtain Group, warlord, and others seemed to be the only correct path.

As for framing No. 60 high school, Levi felt that he did not have the ability to do everything, and he also did not have the ability to make the already dead pope fall back into that “Suspended animation” state.

If he did that, battle ancestor’s side would be filled with experts, and he would definitely be able to find some clues.

Moreover, if he were to blame the Pope’s matter on No. 60 high school, it might directly lead to a war between the two cultivation countries... this was also one of the paths that Levi had never imagined.

Although he had previously bribed the truck driver to pin the death of his subordinate, Melly, on the head of the eldest daughter of the Huaguo Water Curtain Group, in the end, it was still a small matter.

If one Melly fell, thousands of Melly would rise again. However, the Pope was still different. This was the backbone of the belief of the vast cultivation nation, mixiu nation. Once it collapsed, the consequences would be hard to predict.

In short, starting a war was not what Li Weisi wanted to see. His original intention was only to suppress the Huaguo Water Curtain Group and the war sect and restrict their development. He did not really want to kill them with one blow.

Because from the perspective of a businessman, money still had to be earned.

With material conditions, the body would always be more honest than words.

Once the war broke out, the people who would suffer would always be the people between the two major cultivation countries. Without a stable living environment, how could they make money?

After quickly packing up the pope's body, Levis used a huge refrigerator to put the pope's body inside. Then, he used a storage bag to put the refrigerator into his own space.

By the time everything was settled, it was already early in the morning.

Now, he could only go talk to Lotus Sun, so he had to go to the Hotel No. 60 high school was in, and he had to take advantage of the night.

Otherwise, moving a body on the road would be too conspicuous.

Leves sat in the car, but he had just driven it out of his villa. Through the rearview mirror, he saw that someone was actually chasing him at an extremely high speed!

"Who sent this person?" Li Weisi instantly became nervous.

A very dense killing intent!

It directly spread to the back of his neck! It made him have a feeling of goosebumps!

At the same time, he fiercely stepped on the accelerator and directly increased the horsepower to the maximum. At the same time, he pressed the flying wing button on the car and directly rushed into the air!

The person chasing him was not going to let him go. He directly took out his spirit sword and followed behind.

It was only at this moment that Li Weisi realized that there was more than one person chasing him!

From all directions, these black-clothed people who were chasing him formed a kind of encirclement, as if they had long planned it.

What exactly were these people trying to do?

Could it be that they had already discovered that he had killed the Pope?

But this was too coincidental.

How could it be that he had just killed the pope when he was directly targeted by a group of people.

While he was fleeing at the speed of life and death, Levis operated his brain at the same time. The only possibility he could think of was that this could really be a trap!

A trap that wanted to kill him..

“Damn it!” He controlled the steering wheel and operated all kinds of extreme maneuvers in the air.

Behind him, more than ten black-clothed men stood on spirit swords and followed closely like meteors

This speed was almost as fast as the speed of a car. It was extremely exaggerated!

At this moment, Li Weisi had a feeling that he was being targeted by a pack of wolves. Moreover, it was a pack of hungry wolves that had been starving for several days. They charged forward without caring about anything else. It was as if they would not stop until they caught up with him.

Li Weisi gritted his teeth. When the car reached the fairy lake in Greo city, he directly plunged into the lake.

Under the water, no matter how high one’s cultivation level was, one’s movements would be restricted to a certain extent.

However, what made Li Weisi extremely shocked was that.

There were already people waiting for him at the bottom of the lake!

Just like the men in black who were chasing behind him, when they saw Li Weisi at the bottom of the lake, they immediately waved the spirit swords in their hands. Golden light blades instantly streaked across the bottom of the lake, forming a splitting force, they surrounded his car from all directions and instantly split it into several pieces!

Then, under the lake, Li Weisi's car exploded. This was the explosion caused by the spirit stones in the car after being ignited by the energy, causing a huge water column to rush up on the lake surface.

Li Weisi was blasted to the point that his entire body was covered in blood. He used all the strength in his body to escape from the lake and crawled to the shore in an extremely miserable manner.

At this moment, the men in black who had been chasing after him all this time also instantly surrounded him.

It was only at this moment that Leves could clearly see the slightly familiar markings on these black-clothed men, as well as the black and red spirit swords that they were all equipped with.

Almost every city in Michaux had a group of dark wing enforcers who only lived under the cover of night. They maintained the stability of the city under the cover of night, effectively reducing the crime rate under the cover of night.

However, these dark wing enforcers also belonged to the army, and were under the jurisdiction of macaxi.

Leves knew that there was such a group of people in Greo City, but it was the first time he actually saw these people in person.

"You Are... Macaxi's people..."in his blurry vision, Leves saw the background of this group of men in black.

"Mr. Leves, because you are suspected to be related to the disappearance of the Pope, we are here to arrest you under the orders of General Macaxi. We hope that you will cooperate."A leader of the men in black stood out.

"I see..."

In an instant, Leves understood everything.

All of these arrangements were revealed in his mind as macaxi revealed his transparent identity.

He moved his body forward and tried his best to escape, but the dark wings behind him did not give him any chance at all.

Bang! Bang!

Two consecutive gunshots were fired directly from the black and Red Special Spirit Sword, hitting his two calves.

Levis knew that there was no escape for him.

He closed his eyes and sighed in his heart. At the same time, he was thinking about why he had fallen to this state.

At this moment.

In the air that was already dead silent, he suddenly heard a few sounds of falling to the ground. Beside him, a few dark wings suddenly fell and fell beside him.

It was a youth with snow-white hair. He suddenly appeared here like a ghost, like the incarnation of a shadow.

Under the bright moonlight, his white hair danced with the wind and gave off a faint luster. At this moment, it was even more eye-catching.

Li Weisi's eyes were blurry. In addition to the serious injuries on his body, his mind was in a mess. "You are... five..."

The youth: "..."

Five My * SS!

He was Wang Ying!

Chapter 1812 1,808, The Fourth Unimagined Path (1/91)

At the critical moment, Wang Ying appeared at the shore of Fairy Lake. He protected Li Weisi, who was surrounded by dark wing.

In the face of the white-haired youth who suddenly appeared, the group of Shadows were all stunned. They wiped their smart law enforcement mirrors. The technological means in front of Wang Ying were completely ineffective, they could not see Wang Ying's face clearly at all, only feeling a mass of nothingness.

Someone had taken off the smart law enforcement mirror, wanting to use his own spirit energy to test it out. In the end, he let out a blood-curdling scream in front of everyone, his eyes seeping blood as he knelt on the ground.

An existence that could not be seen..

This was something that only a high-level almighty could do!

In an instant, these dark wing members' eyes went blank, and their nerves tensed up. who exactly was this person... and why had he appeared here?

"Captain, what should we do now?" Seeing this, the dark wing members communicated with each other through team telepathy. Indeed, they did not know what to do. Wang Ying was too powerful. If they were to clash head-on, the only outcome would be death.

However, on the other hand, they had come under the orders of mccarthy. Military orders were like mountains, and they had to bring Li Weisi back. If they failed the mission, they would probably be punished as well.

If they returned unscathed, they would probably end up dead as well.

After thinking about it for a while, the leader of the Dark Wing team took a deep breath. He took off his smart law enforcement mirror, took out a cigarette in front of Wang Ying, lit it, and put it in his mouth, he stared at Wang Ying and said, "Senior, we are here under the orders of General McCarthy. I hope you won't make things difficult for us. Otherwise, we will be in a difficult situation."

Wang Ying narrowed his eyes and smiled. He did not answer these people directly. He only smiled and said, "I will give you ten numbers to run away. If you don't leave this place after my countdown, you will all die."

He stared at Dark Wing in the air, completely fearless.

"Then, please forgive us for offending you, Senior."

Captain Dark Wing took a step forward. Using his hand gesture as a signal, he instantly connected the surrounding team members to form a sword array. At this moment, ripples surged in the fairy lake that was covered by the moonlight. The spiritual light emitted by the combined sword array was projected down from the sky, it was reflected on the surface of the lake, forming a clear disk of spiritual patterns.

He did not believe that Wang Ying would really make a move against them. This was the modern cultivation city in Greo city, which had strict discipline and a cultivation law!

Publicly killing law enforcers in such a place was something that even mighty figures could not do. If they were to be traced later, wouldn't the other party's faction be afraid of becoming the target of public criticism?

Hence, Captain Dark Wing was taking a gamble.

He was betting that Wang Ying would not dare to kill them. Hence, he ordered the formation of a sword formation in an attempt to contend with Wang Ying.

At this moment, Wang Ying lifted Levis up and carried him on his shoulder. Facing the thousands of sword shadows on the surface of the lake with a strong killing intent, he kept his promise.

Ten... nine... eight..

He maintained a smile from the beginning to the end. It was a casual and relaxed attitude. At the same time, there was an extremely terrifying pressure. Every time he counted a number., dark Wing could feel a terrifying killing intent that surged like a sea of blood flowing on his back.

Seven..

Six..

Five..

Wang Ying was still counting down. Following the countdown that sounded like the death god's bell, everyone was stunned. Clearly, Wang Ying did not move at the moment. However, under the countdown., they seemed to have seen the illusory image of a black-robed death god behind the youth.

It was a human-shaped skeleton creature, tall and awe-inspiring, as white as jade. Its eyes were filled with arrogance and indifference, and it had the power to look down on everything.

This was the spirit of Wang Ying's Dharma Idol, which was completely different from Wang Ling's universal wisdom and extreme reading and gentleness. It was a war machine worthy of its name! Killing! Terrifying! Merciless! It was a synonym for the spirit of Wang Ying's Dharma Idol.

For a moment, the Fairy Lake was completely silent. This was because following the appearance of this avatar spirit, Wang Ying did not even move. Cracks immediately appeared on the newly constructed sword array in the air.

"This..."

This was directly shattered by this aura. It was so shocking that dark wing could not speak.

"Quick! Run!"

Just as Wang Ying was about to count down to the last three digits, that dark wing captain seemed to have woken up from a nightmare and instantly roared.

He realized that this was definitely not an existence that they could contend against. It was a type of dimensional energy that surpassed their understanding..

This resolute killing intent caused the dark wing captain to have no choice but to make the decision to retreat after Wang Ying counted down to the final three.

He would rather shoulder this responsibility himself than watch his young team members die like that with him.

“How boring.”

Wang Ying secretly sneered.

He had thought that these people were tough, but he had still scared them away.

But in fact, even if they really attacked, he would still be careful and not take their lives. Even if they were beaten to death by him, he would still think of a way to save them.

Seeing that everyone had completely retreated, Wang Ying used the blink technique to move and instantly brought them to a safe place.

Then, he patted Li Weisi's butt and said, “You, wake up. Stop pretending.”

Li Weisi immediately opened his eyes.”...”

Wang Ying threw Li Weisi down. Only then did Li Weisi realize that he was on the top of the star tower.

“Thank you for saving me, Senior...”he bowed and said to Wang Ying. During the confrontation between Wang Ying and the dark wings, Li Weisi realized that all his wounds had healed. Wang Ying had used a healing spell to heal him, this kind of healing speed was faster than going to the hospital for treatment. It required a huge amount of spirit energy to be released in a short period of time.

However, it was obvious that this spirit energy was just a drop in the bucket for Wang Ying. It was not worth mentioning at all.

Li Weisi immediately determined that the person who saved him was probably the immemorial that was mentioned in the intelligence report. According to the information in the intelligence report, there were more than a dozen immemorial in the war sect.

However, Li Weisi did not know which one Wang Ying was.

“Senior... is it the Eternal One?” Li Weisi asked.

Wang Ying smiled. “You know quite a lot?”

In fact, Wang Ying was extremely disdainful.

He did not put any eternal ones in his eyes. In Wang Ying’s view, most of the eternal ones were stinky fish and rotten shrimps. They were not worthy to be compared to him.

“I only heard about it from the intelligence I received before.” Li Weisi smiled bitterly and said, “To be honest, I never thought that Macaxi would do something so extreme... he deliberately led the pope into my courtyard, let me kill the Pope by mistake, and then chased me under the name of law enforcement.”

“So now, you have nowhere to go.”

Wang Ying said, “If you want to live, you have to listen to our arrangements.”

“That’s for sure, senior,” Li Weisi said submissively.

“Where’s the Pope’s corpse?” Wang Ying asked.

“It’s here. I’ve always brought it with me.” Li Weisi took out his storage bag and took out the refrigerator.

Wang Ying moved his finger and instantly opened the refrigerator door. Then, he took out the pope's corpse from the refrigerator. Then, he raised his sword and seemed to be grabbing something.

Levi rubbed his eyes and was shocked to find that the shadow of the Pope was actually extracted by this battle ancestor who had saved him.

Wang Ying sneered and without saying anything else, he directly injected the shadow of the pope into Levi's body.

This was the "Shadow membrane assimilation spell". It could use the power of the shadow to attach to another person's body, causing the original number one shadow to be covered by the designated number two shadow membrane, in a short period of time, it could obtain the exact same memories and abilities as the original number two shadow's original owner..

Even its appearance would change into its original owner's.

This was a secret technique that originated from shadow path.

In the universe, apart from the Wang siblings, there was currently no other way to tell the difference between real and fake.

At the same time, this was also part of Wang Ling's plan.

Right now, he wanted to protect Levi.

The best way was to turn him into the pope... and reappear in front of the people who had truly killed the pope.

Chapter 1813 1,809, The Fifth Unimagined Path (1/91)

Everything was in Wang Ling's plan. With the identity of the Pope, Levi was no different from a wolf in a werewolf's kill. Even if Macassi and Pelosi knew clearly that the Pope was already dead.., the person in front of him might be a fake pope, but he wouldn't act rashly.

He would only secretly plan to verify the pope's true identity.

Unfortunately, with the current methods on Earth, there was no way to see through Wang Nuan's disguise under the "Shadow membrane assimilation" spell. Right now, Li Weisi's shadow was already surrounded by the Pope's shadow, he had obtained all of the Pope's memories, and he himself was the pope himself.

The blood, fingerprints, and DNA data would all fit perfectly with the pope, and there would be no mistakes at all.

"Do you know what to do now?" Wang Ying asked as he looked at Li Weisi.

This kind of disguise had already exceeded Li Weisi's expectations. He looked at the completely changed body covered by the "Shadow membrane assimilation technique" and the memories that surged into his mind.

Levi's face revealed a look of shock at first, then all his emotions turned into a strange anger.

He had inherited the will of the Pope, and he had also obtained all of the Pope's original thoughts and thoughts. Not only did he know that the church was planning to cut open the flower and fruit water curtain group and the war ancestor, but he also knew that the church was planning to cut open the war ancestor, he knew even more clearly how the Pope treated him.

Now, Levi knew everything.

He knew that the church had indeed planned to abandon him from the very beginning.

Moreover, because of Lavin's lobbying, they had changed their initial strategy of treating him.

To the church, he was now just a useless chess piece, and he was also a chess piece that knew too many things. After he used it, he had to destroy it in order to get rid of it once and for all.

According to the original plan of the church, they planned to take advantage of Lavin's relaxation to get rid of him after Lavin took over the Crimson Orchid Association.

"That woman... so she knew from the beginning that the pope was still going to kill me. To think that she would say something about sincere cooperation..." Levi smiled bitterly, he felt a deep sense of disgust from being deceived, which made his stomach churn and made him retch.

He thought that his relationship with the church was unbreakable, but he never expected that the white knights that Lavin had secretly built up over the years would have an unimaginable connection with the church.

It was this connection and deeper cooperation that caused the church to completely abandon him.

In the past, Levis was completely in the dark. It could be said that he did not know anything about this. However, now that he was the pope, the fog in front of him suddenly became clear and bright.

He began to feel disgusted with the church. He hated the pope, Lavin, macaxi, and the Heavenly Dao Union who only knew how to make peace..

Of course! What made him feel even more disgusted was the heavenly dog who had been scheming behind the scenes.

Even the pope was one of the members of the heavenly dog... The infiltration of this organization and the influence it would bring in the future were incalculable existences.

At this moment, Li Weisi looked at Wang Ying. Although he couldn't see Wang Ying's face clearly, he knew that this senior was the last straw that he could grasp, "Senior, don't worry. I will cooperate with you in the next operation. Play the role of the Pope well and infiltrate the heavenly dog sect at the same time..."

"Very good."Wang Ying nodded.

Li Weisi was still considered a smart person, which made him very satisfied. As the saying goes, you can't judge a book by its cover. This shadow membrane assimilation technique allowed Li Weisi to completely understand what role the church was playing, it completely cut off the last shred of Li Weisi's trust in the church.

At this moment, Wang Ying threw a phone to Li Weisi. The phone downloaded the exclusive app of the Grey Cult. Moreover, this was an app that had been enchanted. It would only appear when it passed through Li Weisi's hand.

If an outsider picked up Li Weisi's phone or looked at the contents of the phone, the app would automatically hide and delete all the messages inside.

Information-based cultivation spells were also one of the hottest topics this year.

Along with the development of cultivation modernization, the development of information-based cultivation spells would also become a key link in the future.

"I understand, senior."

Levis took the phone and nodded.

"In addition, you are now given a new ability," Wang Ying said. "To ensure the smooth development of this intelligence mission, you can now read the thoughts of others as long as you come into contact with their shadows."

"Come into contact with shadows?"

"For example, during the conversation, look for the angle of the light and let your shadow come into contact with the shadow of the person you want to probe. You will know most of the information in his mind."

"It can be like this..." Levis was completely stunned.

Meanwhile, the people from No. 60 high school were still trying to understand the rules of this variety show challenge. Variety shows were all about fun and parody. Under normal circumstances, they wouldn't really do anything to the guests participating in the challenge, much less make things worse.

But after hearing Lotus Sun's rules, the people from No. 60 high school suddenly had a bad feeling.

For example, in the first round of the escape, two out of six people would be locked in separate rooms. The remaining Wang Muyu would also be locked in an independent space in another central area, waiting to be rescued.

According to the rules, the team that first broke free of the shackles and found three different keys for the three rooms would win if they rescued the “Little friend” in the central area..

Wang Ling understood the logic, but for some reason, the more he listened to it, the more it sounded like a variety show’s modified version of “Chainsaw Horror”..

Was it true that they had to lock people up and escape?

Did they have to cut off their arms and legs?

Wang Ling felt that this was a little too exaggerated.

However, in the current situation where they had to participate in the variety challenge, how they were going to split up was a problem.

“How about this, I’ll split up with old Guo. Fang Xing and Li You Yue will split up. Your son will split up with Boss Sun.” At this moment, Super Chen suggested.

In his opinion, this was a flawless grouping plan. Their original purpose in coming to Greo city was to assist in the attack.

Thus, they didn’t forget about this mission from the beginning.

Lotus Sun hadn’t expected Super Chen to be so awesome, and she was so moved that tears welled up in her eyes.

Super Chen gave Lotus Sun a thumbs up in return, then patted himself on the chest. What he meant was to tell Lotus Sun that he hadn’t forgotten his original intention..

Wang Ling had seen all the simple body language, and knew exactly what it meant..

However, this sort of grouping was still a little unstable for Wang Ling.

After all, this way...

It was the same as grouping the most powerful people into one group.

Lotus sun and he were both very strong.

Fang Xing would take care of Li You Yue, so she naturally didn't have to worry about escaping.

It was only Super Chen and hero Guo.

One had an open mouth, and the other had many uncles... who knew what would happen if these two were together?

Chapter 1814 1,810: Wang Ling And Lotus Sun Were Locked Up Together (1/91)

A mysterious senior had saved Li Weisi, and the Dark Wing Brigade had all been seriously injured..

This was the latest news that Macassi had received at dawn.

Macassi had carefully selected the dark wing brigade that he had originally assigned to capture Li Weisi, and they were all talented people. In the end, a mysterious senior had intervened and prevented the entire dark wing brigade from taking action.

On the other side, Wang Ying was also feeling wronged because he really did not make a move. If he really did make a move, none of these members of the dark wing unit would be able to return alive.

Unfortunately, even if he did not make a move, the dark wing unit would still be injured. Furthermore, each and every one of their faces were bruised and swollen. As for the person with the most serious injuries, it was still the captain of the dark wing unit who was lying on the stretcher with several of his ribs broken.

"General... General... It's your subordinate... I wasn't able to do my job well..."he said weakly, his face pale. Macassi could tell that this was definitely not an act, but that he was seriously injured.

“There’s no need to speak.”Macassi held his hand back. In his heart, he was still a little touched by the actions of these dark wing members who were willing to put their lives on the line. He could guess that the person who saved Levis was sent by the war sect, and it was very likely that he was an eternal warrior.

Faced with a battle that was impossible to win, this dark wing captain still took the lead and led his brothers to charge forward together..

Although macassi did not see the scene at that time, he was extremely moved by the scene in his mind.

Faced with this group of warriors, he naturally could not criticize them.

“You guys can rest in peace and recuperate. I already know the situation,”macassi said. Although he was usually strict, he had a compassionate heart towards his subordinates. As long as he did his best, he would not make things difficult for them.

However, he did not know that after Wang Ying left with Li Weisi, this group of dark wing troops had tried their best to beat each other up and cripple him..

If not for this, the captain of the dark wing troops felt that he might not have survived this ordeal.

After sending the dark wing troops away, macassi’s expression sank into a long, solemn expression.

Looking at the current situation, it was very likely that Li Weisi had been rescued by people sent by the war sect. He also did not know Li Weisi’s exact location.

However, if he could not find Levis, he was very worried that his plan to frame Levis would be exposed.

“Reporting to the General!”At the entrance of the West Wind Castle, an army soldier suddenly ran over from afar.

“What’s the matter?”

“The Pope wants to see the general,”the soldier said.

“The Pope? ? ?”

Macassi was stunned and fell into a blank space on the spot.

He thought he had heard wrong.

But after carefully recalling and confirming that it was the pope, he came back to his senses in shock.

That Old Man..

Had clearly been..

How could he suddenly come back to life?

Macassi thought about it and came up with a possibility.

It was that this pope might not be the real pope.

How could a dead person be resurrected.

“Levis...”macassi thought about the name carefully and smirked.

He had made a judgment about this matter.

But it was good.

It saved him from looking for Levis in fear.

Pretending to be the pope was a capital offense..

How could this mafia boss dare to... how could he have the courage to pretend to be the Grand Venerate's master?

Macassi smiled.

He knew very well.

The rest, as long as the fake identity of Levis was exposed, everything would be solved.

Once Levis died, then all the blame could be pushed to levis..

..

On the other side, the person who was anxious at the same time was naturally the team leader of the Heavenly Dao Union, Pelosi, who was the source of the whole framing incident, he originally thought that his action of pushing the blame of the Pope's death onto mccarthy was perfect.

In the end, the situation was still unexpected because he had also received an invitation from the church... saying that the Pope wanted to discuss it with him.

But the Pope was clearly dead..

What on Earth was going on?

"Darling, what should we do now?" Pelosi's wife was very anxious and helpless. Her hair had turned much whiter overnight, and she had not expected this situation to occur.

"I suspect that macaxi might have guessed that this was a frame-up... that's why he set this up." Pelosi frowned and said, "How can a person who has already died come back to life..."

"Then, now we..."

"It's better to stay put for now."

Pelosi said, "If my guess is correct, this pope should be a fake pope. It's very likely that Macaxi found someone to disguise himself. He wants to test our reaction. "If I show too many shocked expressions when I see the Pope, I'll definitely be exposed. "But now, I have to go."

"Everything will be fine, right?"

"Yes, everything will be fine."

Pelosi sighed endlessly in his heart, he tried to comfort his wife. "Don't worry, I won't reveal any flaws. As long as you firmly believe that the fake pope is the real pope, there won't be a problem. Of course, if this matter doesn't end well in the end... There's only one last step left."

He didn't continue.

Because that was a very crazy and terrible idea.

In order to protect his family from being affected.

As a last resort.

He could only think of a way to make this fake pope and MCASSI perish together..

At the same time, the people of No. 60 High School also received new information at the same time. The sources of the new information were mcassi's daughter, Mikeabei, and Pelosi's son, Little Yuan Pei.

The two of them didn't provide any substantial information of value, but simply described the atmosphere in the house. Because of the Pope's matter, the atmosphere on both sides seemed quite grave.

And Wang Ling had almost calculated all of this.

Lotus sun covered her small mouth slightly in the room, and was stunned. She thought that she already knew the youngster very well, but after this incident, she felt that she had once again refreshed her understanding of Wang Ling.

It wasn't excessive for Wang Ling to call him director Wang Tonight.

Now, the forces in Greo City that had wanted to deal with them in one go were starting to suspect each other and bite each other's heads off. Although they didn't know what the final outcome would be, given that the other side couldn't take care of themselves..., it would be too difficult for them to divert their attention to deal with Huaguo Water Curtain Group and battle ancestor.

Even if they were forced to come up with a plan, it would definitely be full of loopholes.

In fact, even Wang Ling himself hadn't expected that he had only arranged a few waves, but had already completely disrupted the other side's rhythm.

So compared to these extremely weak forces, what gave Wang Ling even more of a headache was the upcoming variety challenge.

After all, in the first segment.

He and Lotus Sun.

Would be... locked together.

Chapter 1815 1811 On Wang Ling's Side Was A Little Exciting (1/91)

That morning, Lavin had sent a group message to mccarthy, Pelosi, Levi and the others in the wechat group, ready to give a brief account of today's arrangements. In the end, the two of them seemed to have disappeared, she didn't reply to her a single word.

But the plan still had to continue. Not replying to her letter for the time being didn't mean that Lavin would end the rest of the plan. Every segment she had set up for this year's variety challenge was filled with a test of humanity, she wanted to expose the ugliness of No. 60 high school's people and, more importantly, the ugliness of the eldest daughter of Huaguo water curtain group to the public.

She did not know what had happened to Mark Ashe, Pelosi, and Levis, but early in the morning, another representative of the Heavenly Dao Union., the second group's long cloud, who had played the role of an elementary school student in this year's variety challenge, appeared in front of Madam Lavin on time, accompanied by a group of white warriors.

Long Yun was not very tall. It was said that it was because he had cultivated a special technique that his body had stopped growing. He looked like a child, but in fact, he was already an old monster.

When he stood up, he was about the same height as Wang Muyu. He was wearing a black one-piece work outfit and had light golden long hair. There were ear ornaments on his ears, and his eyes were bright. From Afar, he looked like a little girl.

"Lord Jiuyun, I've been waiting for you for a long time."Madam Lavin stood up and took the initiative to shake hands with him warmly.

Jiuyun looked at Madam Lavin's hand with a lack of interest. In the end, he only stretched out one index finger and touched her symbolically. It was quite a personality.

"When do we start?"Jiuyun didn't say much and asked directly.

"Very soon, Lord Jiuyun. But before that, your image needs to be changed again. To be honest, you don't look like a child at all."

Lawen smiled and said, "This time, Lord Jiuyun's character is a primary school student, so his overall temperament should be more suitable for primary school students.". "I've already prepared the props and uniforms for Lord Jiuyun. I hope Lord Jiuyun will take off the accessories on his body and hide the tattoo.". "Hair..."

"Hair, you mustn't touch it."Jiuyun looked at Lawen and said firmly.

"Okay... Don't touch the hair."

Lawen had no choice but to agree, "What else do you want me to do, master Jiu Yun?"

Jiu Yun lowered his head and thought for a while, then looked up at lawen, "If I can't control myself in the challenge and kill him, you will deal with it later, right?"

“This... of course...”lawen nodded, “But I hope that master Jiu Yun can control himself as much as possible and injure him, but don’t kill him.”

“I can only try my best,”Jiuyun said. “I’m acting as a primary school student, but I’m not a real primary school student. “That Kid from No. 60 High is a serious primary school student. I Hate Naughty Kids the most. If this naughty kid attacks me, I think I really won’t be able to hold myself back.”

Before he came, Jiuyun had already gone through the information of the people from No. 60 high in detail. They were just a few foundation establishment stage students. There didn’t seem to be anything worth paying attention to.

In Jiu Yun’s opinion, Wang Muyu was simply a burden to the people from No. 60 high school, especially since he had brought a six-year-old child with him to participate in the competition.

Apart from Miss Sun, there wasn’t anything else in the information that needed to be noticed... Jiu Yun didn’t know why so many experts had died at No. 60 high school.

..

It was Wang Ling’s first time participating in a variety show recording, and early in the morning, they smoothly arrived at the agreed filming location under Wicked Navigation’s arrangements. This was Greo City’s large-scale sports center, which would only be used when a large-scale national cultivation-level sports event was held. It had previously been used by Greo city’s local cultivation troops as a military demonstration training center.

But now, Lavin could actually requisition this vast land as the location for the recording of variety shows, and even modified the internal environment. One couldn’t help but sigh at Lavin’s strength and means.

This large-scale sports center was built in a desolate suburb of Greo city. Originally, this place was a ten thousand feet tall mountain. The entire stadium was built along the mountain, and the mountain inside was directly hollowed out, this way, they could make room for it.

The key was that the external structure of the mountain had also been preserved as a whole under the technical excavation. The spirit vein underneath the mountain hadn't been damaged, and there wasn't even a need to draw a spirit gathering array; this was a good place to cultivate in seclusion.

For the recording of this variety show, Lavin had spent a huge sum of money to renovate the internal structure of the sports center once again.

When Wang Ling and the others arrived, they could see a large number of program staff and people gathered together. The photography team was testing whether the camera balls they were shooting were working properly by remote control, and there was a huge lineup, wang Ling felt a little uncomfortable watching this.

Even though he could wear a mask the entire time this variety show was being recorded and he didn't have to show his face, in the face of so many people, Wang Ling still felt that his social phobia was faintly acting up.

He didn't know if there were other people like him, but whenever he came across an especially crowded situation, his mind would involuntarily start to empty, and he didn't know what he should do or say next, he felt as if he was cut off from the world and out of place.

Fortunately, this process didn't last long, and when he walked into the studio, Wang Ling's symptoms eased up a lot.

The staff were mainly concentrated in the temporary shed outside. When they entered the renovated studio, there weren't as many of them who had participated in the recording, and they were surrounded by flying camera balls, from a 360-degree angle, they recorded what was happening inside.

After waiting on the spot for a few minutes, Wang Ling saw his opponent from another entrance.

There were also six people, and they brought a primary school student about the same height as Wang Muyu directly into the studio. Everyone wore turbine-shaped masks on their faces.

"These are the six prodigies from Greo City?" Under the logo of No. 60 high, Super Chen looked a little surprised.

“Whirlpool Emperor Middle School is the number one high school in Greo City. All the six prodigies this time are from here.”As an old intelligence expert, hero Guo had already gotten information about these six prodigies. “They are grade one students like us, but they have already entered jindan stage ahead of time.”

“All of them are jindan stage? This is too unfair...”

“It’s just that they have the advantage in realm. There are almost no substantive battles in the preparation segment of the program. It’s better to test the cooperation of their respective teams,”hero Guo said.

In fact, he himself was not very confident,

after the two shook hands.

Everyone was put on a mask by the staff, and divided into two different black and white zones with the school as the unit.

The black and white zones each had three secret rooms.

According to the previous distribution of teams, everyone was arranged into secret rooms in pairs.

Looking down from the sky, the place they were standing on was a taiji plate.

Wang Muyu and Jiuyun were taken to a special cage in the middle of the taiji plate, where the “Yin in yang”and “Yang in Yin”were located.

On Wang Ling’s side, it was a little more exciting.

When he clearly heard the sound of the thick stone door of the secret chamber being closed, the only sounds left in the room were his and Lotus Sun’s breathing, which had been drowned out in the darkness..

In this quiet environment, even their breathing was particularly distinct.

It was too distinct.

Wang Ling could even clearly count her heartbeat.

Chapter 1816 1812: Sharing A Dark Secret Room With Lotus Sun (1/91)

Wang Ling and Lotus Sun were locked in a square secret room that was eight feet long and eight feet wide. Super Chen and hero Guo were in the same group, while Li Youyue and Fang Xing were in the same group.

At this moment, everyone was facing the same problem.

Wang Ling found that both his hands and Lotus Sun's hands were shackled with specially made shackles. It would be very difficult to break them apart at the normal foundation establishment stage.

He was shackled with the same shackles as Lotus Sun, one end connected to him, and the other end connected to Lotus Sun's hands after bypassing the giant stone lock at the very front of the secret room.

The key to opening the shackles was behind the stone lock.

That was a very extreme position.

If one person approached the key, the shackles would contract in the other person's direction, and eventually hit the soft needles on the back wall, which contained paralyzing venom, once they were hit, it meant that they would lose at least one member in the next two or three segments.

It might even be a breakthrough.

Of course, it wasn't that there was no way to ensure the survival of all of them. There was a small iron saw within reach of the two of them, but it was impossible to cut through the chain with just a small iron saw, unless one of them was sacrificed and their hands were directly cut off.

Wang Ling could tell that this was the plot of "Chainsaw Horror"... Indeed, the trick behind modern people's thinking about variety shows was always to pay homage to the classics.

He sighed silently in his heart and was seriously thinking of a countermeasure, but the situation at hand didn't seem to stop there. Lotus Sun's heartbeat was too fast, and it was especially obvious in such a quiet environment.

Bang, Bang, Bang, bang..

It continuously stimulated Wang Ling's eardrums.

”...”

He had already strengthened Lotus Sun a lot, and the girl had also experienced a lot of big scenes in recent days. Logically speaking, it was impossible for her to be that afraid.

In the end, she was a girl who was afraid of the dark.

After thinking for a long time, this was the only answer that came to Wang Ling's mind.

He didn't know how to comfort Lotus Sun, but in the end, he only said clumsily, “Don't be afraid.”

Lotus Sun's heart beat even faster when she heard this, and her face was so red that she directly buried her face in her knees.

Even with the mask covering her face, she was still worried that Wang Ling would notice her expression.

After gaining strength, how could she be afraid of the layout of this little secret room?

It was all because she was locked up with this idiot..

However, it was normal for the wood in front of her to not understand her feelings.

Lotus Sun had long since gotten used to it.

So the challenge to her was no longer limited to this small secret chamber and the task of challenging variety shows. It was easy for her to break through the secret chamber, but more importantly, she had to make this wood understand her feelings!

In such a dark environment, she could use the reason of being afraid of the dark to act a little more afraid than before... Perhaps this piece of wood would come to a realization and protect her, in this way, she would be able to further deepen her relationship with Wang Ling!

Thus, for now, for Lotus Sun.

She had only one mission, and that was to absolutely not let Wang Ling know that she was actually not afraid of the dark at all..

As for the other side.

For Wang Ling, his challenge wasn't limited to this small secret room and the task of challenging variety shows. Breaking the secret room was easy for him, but more importantly, he had to keep a low profile.

Even in such a dark environment, with so many camera balls surrounding them from all angles, even with masks, the variety show would still be broadcast after it was finished, this was only the first segment; if he performed too well at this time, the audience would definitely remember him.

Participating in the variety show was already against old Wang's low-key strategy, so Wang Ling only had one thought now -- he would try his best to be low-key and useless, and leave everything to Lotus Sun.

But the problem was that he hadn't expected Lotus Sun to be afraid of the dark at all..

There was nothing he could do.

Under these circumstances, Wang Ling didn't want to do it himself, but now that he and Lotus Sun were in the same boat, someone had to come out and show it.

So in his haste, Wang Ling suddenly thought of a solution, which was that he could use his fear of the dark as an excuse to hide in a corner and wait for Lotus Sun to make a move... according to scientific research, under extreme circumstances, people could stimulate their adrenaline and need a breakthrough.

Being afraid of the dark was only a small problem, and Wang Ling believed that with Lotus Sun's personality, she would definitely be able to overcome it in a short time!

So for now, Wang Ling only had one task.

And that was to absolutely not let Lotus Sun know that he was actually not afraid of the dark at all..

..

Lotus Sun buried her face in her knees for a long time. She had thought that Wang Ling would think of a way to comfort her, but she hadn't expected that this youngster who had just told her "Don't be afraid" would actually bury her face in her knees as well.

She was shocked.

So Wang Ling was also afraid of the Dark?

"..."

This was something Lotus Sun had never expected.

Although... But..

Wang Ling, who had buried his face in her knees, was really very cute!

Lotus Sun used the corner of her eyes to look at the youngster, who was in the same position as her, and her thoughts ran wild.

She suddenly felt that.

In such a dark environment.

It didn't seem too bad to stay like this with Wang Ling..

It was impossible to struggle.

She was Wang Ling chained to a chain right now.

Perhaps her warmth and feelings could be transmitted directly to the youngster's heart through this chain.

..

At the same time, in the temporary recording studio outside the Sports Center, Madam Lavin and the photographers who used remote controls to control the photography ball stared dumbfoundedly at the scene in front of them.

This variety show had just started, and the most interesting person, Miss Sun, was in a secret room. The two of them buried their faces in their knees at the first moment, not moving at all.

"Teacher Ma, what happened? Why is the camera ball still?" Madam Lavin asked a photographer named Ma.

"Madam, this is not a still scene. It's that the two people really didn't move at all."

"? ? ?"

"Maybe... They're afraid of the Dark?"

The photographer smiled bitterly. "In theory, this is also a tacit understanding... but there's nothing we can do in this situation, so we can only let them seek a breakthrough on their own."

"..."

Earlier, Madam Lavin had suspected that there was a hidden expert among No. 60 high school's people.

She had thought that through this segment, she would be able to find out who the hidden expert was, and she would focus her attention on Lotus Sun and Wang Ling.

A woman's intuition told her that these two people were the most likely, but Madam Lavin had never expected that they would actually be afraid of the dark..

The show had just started, and they were already burying their faces in their knees like ostriches..

I invited you here to perform, not to act cute! How could I fix it!

"Hurry up and think of a way. We can't let them be like this forever. Think of a way to stimulate them,"madam Lavin said.

She didn't believe that the two of them would remain indifferent after she increased her efforts.

Chapter 1817 1,813, Living In A Dark Secret Room With Lotus Sun (2)(1/91)

Because it was a variety show challenge, all the dramatic changes were under Lavin's control. Before the variety show was edited out, in order to make the elements more abundant, the guests would often be stimulated to give unexpected feedback, and finally, the program would be more interesting and exciting through editing.

Sometimes, in order to create a topic, they might even use some malicious editing methods... these were the unspoken rules of the industry.

Compared to No. 60 high school, which was indifferent, the six prodigies of Vortex Emperor performed extremely brilliantly. They were also trapped in groups of two in a secret room, but these people used different methods to break free from the chains in front of their eyes.

"As expected of the six top geniuses among the new generation representatives of the Vortex Emperor. They can actually rely on their spiritual roots to match each other and extract trace elements from the air using their spiritual roots as the basis to synthesize simple talisman production materials."

Cinnabar, yellow talisman, spirit water, brush.

In No. 60 High School's first talisman production class, it had actually been mentioned that these were the four basic ingredients for talisman production. However, sometimes, it was impossible to have such a complete set of ingredients under extreme circumstances, they could only find other alternatives.

Using the powder-like elemental crystals condensed from the trace elements extracted from the air, it was a perfect substitute for cinnabar.

And in the absence of yellow talismans, they could also tear the clothes on their bodies into strips of cloth to replace them, high-level mighty figures could even directly bite through their fingertips and directly write talismans on the rough ground or even in the air.

Because the spirit energy in their bodies was strong enough, the spirit energy in their blood was strong enough to replace a specific type of spirit water. As for their fingers, they were ready-made materials to replace the writing brush.

Of course, there were also some people who would pull out their own hair and use it to write.

And the methods used by the six people in the vortex emperor were almost the same. All of them used the method of writing talismans to help themselves get out of trouble.

The two people in the Vortex Emperor's No. 1 secret room were both water spirit root users. They created a corrosive fog talisman that was harmless to the human body but had a strong corrosive effect on metal in the secret room, they deepened the concentration of the fog bit by bit, causing the chains to be eroded by the corrosive fog.

This method was very slow, but it was effective enough. The program's producers estimated that it would take another two hours for the two people to completely escape.

The people imprisoned in the second secret room were those with gold and fire spirit roots, and the methods they used were even more amazing.

They directly created a weapon strengthening talisman and enhanced the metal saw beside them!

“They even mastered such a complicated strengthening method.” Many program’s producers were stunned when they saw the images on the camera.

As long as the metal saw was strengthened to + 6, they could easily cut the chain... however, this strengthening technique depended on one’s appearance. If they failed in the middle, they would have to start from the beginning.

Therefore, the two people took off their coats and cut them into countless strips of cloth, as if they were ready to go all out.

If everything went smoothly, the program team had a feeling that these two people would be the fastest to escape.

As for the last two prodigies in the vortex emperor, they were people with earth and wood spiritual roots. These two combined their actual conditions and used the simple talismans they drew to actually begin to transform their own arms.

This was a method of assimilating a part of the body with nature. Although the shackles restricted the human body, as long as the arms were turned into things like soil and branches, they could easily break free from the shackles.

If there was light, their assimilation speed would be greatly increased. It was a pity that the dark environment restricted their assimilation speed. Otherwise, this group of people would definitely be the first to escape.

With the comparison of the six people from the Vortex Emperor, the people from No. 60 high school were obviously more salted fish... such a comparison could be said to be very obvious.

“It can’t be... They can’t really be salted fish, right?” Madam Lavin sucked in a breath of cold air and revealed an incredulous expression. According to the information she had received, there was at least a hidden expert among the people from No. 60 high school. It was impossible for them to be indifferent salted fish.

However, considering the current situation, the people from No. 60 high school didn’t even have the slightest reaction.

Could it be that the information was wrong?

Madam Lavin frowned. She took out a remote control device that she had prepared beforehand. It was... the senior standing behind her, who had given her a probing device in order to cooperate with this variety show challenge.

It was also known as the expert appraisal remote control!

As long as she pressed the button, the three secret rooms in No. 60 high would enter the “Increase the intensity” mode. At that time, something even more dangerous would happen. In a crisis situation..., people often had to react to the impending danger, so they would definitely be able to see some clues.

But if she increased the strength of the three secret rooms at the same time, innocent people would definitely be affected. Although the test itself was Lawen’s goal, her original intention was only to uncover the hidden expert.

Thus, after some thought, Madam Lawen made a decision. She would first test the secret room that she suspected the most -- Wang Ling and Lotus Sun’s

With a kind expression, she secretly pressed the independent button on the expert appraisal remote control in her pocket.

..

When Madam Lavin pressed the button on the expert appraisal remote control in the eight-foot-wide dark square secret chamber, Wang Ling was the first to notice the abnormal changes in the secret chamber.

Although he and Lotus Sun were still burying their faces in their knees, pretending to be afraid of the darkness, when this inexplicable pressure from beyond the heavens arrived, Wang Ling suddenly opened his eyes in the darkness.

This was the aura of the immemorial... it was the same as the recluse sea demon whom Lotus Sun had met earlier. When he had faced the extraterrestrial envoy back then, he had called him the holy senior. And behind that holy senior stood an even bigger umbrella, which was the legendary Holy King.

Thus, in that instant, Wang Ling immediately realized that this immemorial who had joined forces with Lawen at the moment to test them was very likely also on the Holy King's side.

Wang Ling sighed deeply.

He hadn't wanted to make a move at first.

But this expert appraisal was really a little difficult to handle.

And most importantly, this immemorial was much stronger than the sea demon recluse who had been sent to deal with Lotus Sun earlier. If he were to let Lotus Sun handle this, it would probably be a little over the top.

What kind of immemorial was this?

It was a snow-white skeleton in a black cloak. Its eyes were hollow and deep, as if it could suck people into an era of exile. It was much stronger than Li Xian and Zhang Zichu!

This was an immemorial with an immortal body... Wang Ling judged that this immemorial wasn't human in the first place, but a rare race that had once appeared in the universe, a member of the immortal clan.

Judging from the Aura released by this snow-white skeleton, it was very likely that this person was a king left behind by the immortal clan.

Thus, in the darkness, when this brand-new immemorial appeared in front of Wang Ling.

Wang Ling snapped his fingers almost immediately.

All the time in the universe froze at the same time.

Only he and this immortal king could still move..

Then, he patted the dust off his butt, stood up from the ground, and stood in front of Lotus Sun.

“It’s You?” Obviously, this immortal king was a little surprised; he hadn’t expected that Wang Ling was the person who had been hiding all this time..

Chapter 1818 1,814 -- Wang Ling Versus The Immortal Race (1/91)

The immortal race was said to be immortal, but they weren’t. They were born with a very long lifespan and could live for a very long time without any cultivation.

Previously, Wang Ling had taken Lotus Sun to the immortal star, which was actually a part of the immortal star where the immortal race lived.

Wang Ling knew very little about the immortal clan. He had only heard that the immortal clan had died because of a disaster caused by their immortality. In order to give him more time, the foreign gods had, they had forcibly captured these snow-white skeletons as food in an attempt to break down the natural genes of the immortal clan and increase their time in the world.

Therefore, in theory, the undead were eaten up.

Wang Ling looked at the snow-white skeletons in black cloaks in front of him, and red light flowed in his king’s eyes. This was a fully developed undead who was much more powerful than the average eternal ones, in the eyes of many eternal ones, it was even so powerful that it was simply inconceivable.

But most of the undead wouldn’t live to this age before they were dissolved in the stomachs of the other races.

Sometimes, it was also very troublesome to have too long a development cycle, because as they grew up, they could be targeted by villains at any time and become food for others.

“I’ve never seen an Earthling like you.” Perhaps it hadn’t expected that Wang Ling was the hidden immemorial that the holy king behind him had been looking for all this time, but after staring at him for a long time, the snow-white skeleton spoke slowly, “Wang Ling,” it said unhurriedly.

In fact, it had used its own method to repeatedly investigate Wang Ling’s true identity, but when it found out that the young man in front of it was really just a standard earthling.., that strange feeling that hadn’t stirred for thousands of years instantly stirred up ripples in the calm lake in its heart.

Not only was he an earthling, but he was also a terrifying earthling.

The characteristics of the immortal clan were not only that they were born with extremely long lifespans, but they also had a pair of deeply sunken skull eye sockets. Even if they did not use pupil skills., this pair of eye sockets seemed to have been sucked into an eternal star, yet it still had a terrifying ability that seemed to be able to see through everything.

If an ordinary cultivator were to look into his eyes for a long time, they would definitely be deeply immersed in the world of eye power in his eye sockets, unable to extricate themselves. There would be an illusion that their soul would fly up and be sucked into the universe.

At that time, it would be time for the immortal clan to reap the harvest.

But at that moment, Wang Ling was standing in front of him, looking at him with those red eyes that he couldn't see through at all.

At first glance, the young man's eyes looked ordinary and there was nothing strange about them. However, after this skeleton prince of the immortal clan observed them for a while, he suddenly felt his body become lighter.

Then, the space around him was no longer in the secret chamber. Instead, he was sucked into a vast sea of stars.

"I've been devoured?"

The skeleton prince had never seen such a situation. He, a king of the immortal clan, had actually lost when facing an earthling!

Instead, his soul had entered someone else's eye-power world!

What was even more terrifying was that this youth's eye-power world was infinitely vast... he was at most within the range of a solar system, but this youth's eye-power World was a universe of its own, infinitely vast!

How could an earthling be so powerful..

The skeleton prince of the undead race could not figure it out.

And he seriously suspected that he had been tricked.

That wasn't what the Holy Senior Under His Highness the Holy King had said when he had found him.

He had said that it was very likely that there was a hidden immemorial in No. 60 high school's team, and that he had to test it out.

But this situation wasn't a test!

He was going to lose his life!

This was his first instinct as an undead prince, and he immediately sensed that Wang Ling was a very dangerous existence!

However, as the Prince of the immortal clan, he still had that last bit of stubborn dignity, and even though he knew that he couldn't win, he still had to resist..

As Li Xian and Zhang Zicao had said before, there had been a lot of forces and races in the universe during the eternal era, but most of them actually looked down on the eternal human race.

Over time, a chain of contempt had formed.

Like the immortal race, they had been despised by the old rulers, and had even been reduced to food for the foreign gods. In the ancient era, they had launched a "Noble Immortal Race" campaign every day, shouting slogans to protest against discrimination and suppression.

In the end, they had turned around and used the old rulers' disrespectful behavior on the other races.

It was said that time was a cycle.

Wang Ling felt that this was very reasonable.

Because this phenomenon still existed in the modern cultivation world.

“Earthling... Don’t come over. Although I’ve entered your eye power world, I’m not afraid of you. If I self-destruct here, you’ll lose at least one eye!”

The Skeleton Prince threatened Wang Ling and tried to negotiate with him. At the same time, Wang Ling could sense that the other party’s undying heart, which was hidden under the black cloak, was stirring.

It was an azure flame that symbolized the Undying Race’s heart, which was extremely bright.

He secretly channeled his spirit energy while watching Wang Ling warily. A few seconds later, a rosary made of several small skeletons suddenly flew out from under his black cloak.

In an instant, the skeleton rosary’s divine might burst forth, and spirit energy surged and swallowed up the starlight that filled the sky. Its powerful spirit energy was like a greedy snake that had suddenly entered this world, drawing countless stars into its body.

“Boom!”

The moment the skeleton rosary exploded, it produced an extremely terrifying power of disillusionment, opening up an immortal small world that was like a small island isolated from the world in Wang Ling’s Eye Power Universe.

Wang Ling nodded to himself. It was already very impressive to be able to open up another world in his eye power world to resist external pressure.

This world had been opened up by the skeleton prince with the prayer beads in his hand. In the current environment, it was like a submarine entrenched in the depths of the sea, which was at risk of being crushed by the water at any time.

Wang Ling didn’t use any strength; he just waited naturally to see when the skeleton prince’s isolated island would collapse.

After counting silently for about eight seconds.

Sure enough.

There was another loud “Boom”.

The newly formed island collapsed in an extremely short amount of time.

Wang Ling didn't wait any longer. With a light beam twining between his fingers, he gently squeezed it, causing the entire island to collapse in front of him.

At the same time, he gently hooked his index finger, and the skeleton prince's rosary bead betrayed him in public and directly flew into Wang Ling's palm.

“Give it back to me!” At that moment, the skeleton prince was furious.

Although this rosary bead wasn't his most powerful magic treasure, it had an extraordinary meaning!

Because each string of skeletons on the rosary beads was formed from the skulls of each of his blood relatives, and was a very powerful growth-type magic treasure!

But he had never expected that this rosary bead, which had been created by his blood relatives as a foundation, would actually be unable to resist Wang Ling's finger and fall directly into his hand..

He couldn't help vomiting blood in public at the feeling of being deserted by his relatives.

Chapter 1819 1,815: My Shield Is Endless (1/91)

At this point, the skeleton prince clearly knew that it was impossible for him to have any chance of winning against the youth before him. This youth from Earth was too strange... he had the strangeness that he had never seen before..., it made people feel an indescribable strangeness. They did not know what he had eaten to be able to be so powerful.

He thought of a very strange ancient who was also a divine genius who had once controlled the power of the universe. Unfortunately, this genius had overestimated his own strength before he had matured, he had tried to challenge the Outer God Palace, but in the end, he had been devoured by the palace and never returned.

Now that he was facing Wang Ling, the Skeleton Prince had reason to believe that Wang Ling was the reincarnation of the legendary genius from back then.

“The king of all forms... Li Luo.” At this moment, he stared at Wang Ling and asked tentatively.

“Li Luo?”

Wang Ling frowned slightly and quickly thought of this person... according to the list of corpse maps compiled by Zhang Zicao and Li Xian, there was indeed a skeleton called Li Luo in the supreme corpse map in his hands.

Back then, Daofather Wang had barged into the outer god palace and narrowly escaped death. When he had been rescued, Li Luo had only been left with an incomplete skeleton, he was also one of the few people in the current picture of the corpse who had been mutilated for eternity.

Wang Ling wasn't sure why the skeleton prince would equate him with this person who had once been known as the king of all forms, but judging from the other party's misunderstanding expression..., it wasn't hard to guess that this snow-white skeleton in front of him must have misunderstood him.

“I know that I won't be able to fight you head-on, but I still have other ways to deal with you,” the skeleton prince said at that moment.

He used his last bit of strength to condense a large amount of spirit energy to distort the surrounding void. At this moment, the white bone of his finger was disassembled with a “Kacha” sound and then suddenly shot forward with a whoosh.

This was a human bullet created by his finger bone. It was extremely fast, and spirit light surged as it rolled up huge waves of spirit ripples in the void and shot straight into the clouds.

Wang Ling didn't move, because he could tell that this human bullet wasn't aimed at him; the skeleton Prince's target wasn't him, but..

“I know that using this method in a duel is very despicable. But now, as long as you can win, it doesn’t matter even if it’s a little despicable. If you want to ensure the safety of the girl next to you, I advise you not to put up any resistance.”

The skeleton prince spoke in a cold tone, but the finger bone he shot out was aimed at Lotus Sun.

At this moment, Lotus Sun was still because of the time freeze effect.

In fact, the moment the skeleton prince appeared, he had already set up a plan in advance. He had secretly set up a space channel in the narrow secret chamber that was directly aimed at Lotus Sun.

Even if he was later dragged into another space, he could use this space tunnel to directly use Lotus Sun as a hostage to blackmail Wang Ling.

In the Skeleton Prince’s eyes, this idea was perfect.

But in fact, the skeleton prince hadn’t expected that the moment he had set up the space tunnel, Wang Ling had already thought of a countermeasure to protect Lotus Sun.

So at that moment, he didn’t listen to the Skeleton Prince’s orders at all and walked toward the skeleton prince step by step.

“Don’t come over... Don’t get hurt by me!”

The skeleton prince yelled, but when he saw that the youngster still had no intention of stopping, he panicked on the spot, he looked at Wang Ling in disbelief. “You really don’t care about this girl’s life or death! ? Forget it... Let’s just kill this woman first! Even if I die, I’ll drag her down with me!”

At that moment, with a thought, the finger bone he had shot out earlier suddenly pierced through the space passage and stabbed forward.

However, this incomparably sharp shackle that surpassed the range of understanding of cultivators on earth was blocked by a layer of glowing red light shield that matched Wang Ling’s eyes.

The skeleton prince controlled the finger bone from a distance and exerted a bit of force at first, but in the end, he didn't pass through the shield that Wang Ling had added to Lotus Sun's body.

Seeing that Wang Ling was still slowly approaching him, the skeleton prince became anxious on the spot. "You... If you have the guts, stand still and let this king break your shield first! This king doesn't believe that this king can't Even Break Your Shield!"

"It's useless."

Wang Ling thought to himself.

He sighed softly and stopped to watch the skeleton prince's performance.

At the same time, he felt that the skeleton prince was silly and cute. He knew that he was no match for him, yet he still wanted to use such a threatening method to deal with him.

At this moment, the skeleton prince's expression of using all his strength to pierce through the shield on his snow-white bones was laughable. Even the color of his bones was covered in a layer of red.

This was a strike that he had held back for a long time, and in the end, his fingertips spun directly on the shield like a drill bit at an extremely high speed!

This rotational speed was very astonishing! It reached a trillion times in one second! He focused all his damage on the shield and tried to use the extreme pressure to shatter Wang Ling's spirit energy shield!

Finally, after about five minutes of effort..

The skeleton prince saw the light!

He finally saw it!

He had poked a small hole in the shield, and it quickly cracked like a spiderweb in all directions.

“It’s broken! It’s finally broken!”

The skeleton prince was so excited that he was crying. His fingertips had been ground flat, and he had used all of his strength to finally see the shattered shield!

But at the same time, a new sense of despair came over him.

Because he realized that there was actually another layer of shield behind this shield..

“So it’s a multi-layered doll-like shield...”the skeleton prince scratched his head. He didn’t fight with Wang Ling, but directly clashed with the shield, unable to extricate himself from the broken shield.

He looked fiercely at Wang Ling. “If this king doesn’t break your shield today, this king... won’t have the face to continue living in this cultivation world!”

Wang Ling opened his mouth in an attempt to persuade the skeleton prince.

“You don’t have to persuade me! This king has made up his mind! You Don’t have to worry that this king will get in the way. Later, this king will make the finger bones invisible... those earth cultivators’ magic power and monitoring equipment won’t be able to see this king’s existence at all. When this king breaks all of the shields, I’ll Fight You Again!”The skeleton prince said to Wang Ling solemnly.

”...”

At this moment, Wang Ling sighed endlessly in his heart.

He really didn’t know what to say as he looked at the stubborn skeleton prince.

Normally, a multi-layered spirit energy shield would only have dozens of layers at most. Because of the structure, the spirit energy needed to form the outer layer of the spirit energy shield would also need to be greater, which was a proportional consumption.

A multi-layered shield often required multiple cultivators to combine their spirit energy to form it.

However, Wang Ling's spirit energy was boundless.

In addition, he had always had a steady personality.

So when he had set up the shield in the first place,.

Lotus Sun had been directly covered in 100 million layers..

And it was clear that the skeleton prince didn't realize the seriousness of the problem at the moment.

Chapter 1820 1,816: The Skeleton Prince's Thoughts (1/91)

In the universe space inside the King's eye, Wang Ling couldn't bear to attack this idiotic prince for a moment as he watched the skeleton prince bury his head in hard work while trying to drill into the shield

Although there was no flesh on his face and no expression on his face, his posture could really be said to be focused and undistracted, so serious that he was just like Wang Ling when he was reviewing his homework.

This seriousness wasn't fake. Wang Ling could tell that the skeleton prince was really planning to break through his one hundred million layers of shield..

But breaking through the shield was easier said than done.

Wang Ling's style had always been steady, and when he had set up the first layer of shield, he had even cast a refresh spell.

In other words, even if the skeleton prince really did break through to the last layer, if he didn't have a way to break through his refresh spell first and chose to break through directly...

Then..

The shields that he had broken earlier...

Would be refreshed.

He couldn't bear to disturb this idiotic prince who was focused on breaking the shield, so he withdrew from the king's eye and let the skeleton prince continue to complete his "Grand hegemony".

On the other side, the skeleton prince in the broken shield heaved a sigh of relief when he saw Wang Ling leave.

In fact, the moment Wang Ling took away his prayer beads, he had already clearly sensed the difference in combat strength between him and Wang Ling.

Going head-to-head with Wang Ling at this time was tantamount to a dead end.

He was the last descendant of the immortal clan, so he had to first ensure his own survival.

And as the last descendant, he was also a royal.

So it was impossible for him to surrender. There was no way he would be the subject of the online craze for milk magic today, so the skeleton prince, the last descendant of the immortal clan, had stubbornly tried to divert his attention by breaking the shield.

Now that Wang Ling had left, the pressure on him had been greatly reduced, but he also knew very well that he couldn't stop working on this broken shield. If he could drill a little longer, it would save his life.

After returning to the cramped and damp dark secret room, Wang Ling found that the finger bone that the skeleton prince had used to drill lotus sun was really invisible, but in fact, he could still see that the finger bone was still working very hard through his eye power.

After curling his body back into the corner, Wang Ling buried his head in his knees again, and with a "PA", he secretly snapped his fingers to restore the flow of time.

He and the skeleton prince had a "Big battle" in the King's eye space.

In fact, it hadn't taken up much time in reality.

Madam Lavin looked at the No. 1 Secret Room of No. 60 High School, which still hadn't made any progress, and was dumbfounded as she sat in front of the monitor.

She clearly pressed the button just now..

Why was there no movement at all?

Was this button fake?

At this moment, Madam Lavin secretly gritted her teeth. When that senior handed the button to her, he clearly said that this button only had three chances to test it.

And every time he pressed it, he would specifically summon a powerful eternal being to help him.

But she had clearly pressed it just now, so why hadn't there been any reaction?

With a puzzled attitude, Lawen continued to press the button for the second time in Lotus Sun and Wang Ling's secret room.

Sensing that the second immemorial was about to arrive, Wang Ling's familiar snapping of fingers rang out again.

..

The second immemorial was a lion-headed orc, which was also one of the declining races of the immemorial era. After seeing Wang Ling, this lion-headed HALF-ORC's eyes were clearly filled with surprise.

He looked at Wang Ling with an attitude of looking down on the world. "Although our bloodline has declined, I can still reproduce the glory of the immemorial lion emperor in front of you."

The immemorial lion clan valued the power of the bloodline, so the moment this lion-headed man appeared, he sensed Wang Ling's bloodline aura as an earthling.

Ordinary, mediocre, plain, low-level..

These words instantly flashed across the lion-headed man's mind.

But at the same time, he also couldn't figure out how a young earthling could still stand firm and fight head-on with him under his spiritual pressure?

And before him..

There should have been other immemorial beings here, right?

He remembered that the undead clan's skeleton prince had clearly been summoned away.

But why hadn't there been any aura left at the scene?

Looking at the lion-headed man in front of him, Wang Ling sighed silently. Without saying anything else, he directly activated the king's eye space and "Invited" the lion-headed man in.

"Damn it... how could this earthling have such a trick?"

By the time the lion-headed man realized that he had been sucked into the King's eye space, it was already too late.

He had an expression of disbelief on his face.

Because in the king's eye space, he saw the undead skeleton prince who had entered before him.

"What are you doing..." at this point, the lion-headed man was shocked.

Because this skeleton prince seemed to be trying very hard to drill something in this king's eye space..

“Hahaha, you're here... Brother Lion! I'm breaking the shield! You Don't understand! This shield is hard to break! This king must break it today!”The skeleton prince laughed.

“I think you're cowardly! You're a royal descendant of the immortal clan! He's just an Earthling, why are you so afraid?”The lion-headed man snorted, his tone indifferent.

Chi!

In the next moment, the golden mane around his neck suddenly emitted a dazzling light like the sun. The hardness of the golden mane was strengthened, turning into a peerless sword, it shot out in all directions!

This was the most powerful power derived from his golden mane. In a short period of time, it crisscrossed the Void Sword Qi in the universe and was so sharp that it couldn't be stopped. Countless stars were cut into powder by the sword qi, at the same time, an endless aura of chaos was released from the Mane that turned into sword light.

In the end, the mane that flew out gathered in the sky and condensed into a golden nine-headed lion that suddenly pounced toward Wang Ling.

It was a very terrifying sight, and the golden nine-headed lion displayed a kingly posture in the air.

Wang Ling could see that this was the ability of the “Avatar armament”, which only extremely powerful immemorial cultivators could use.

Avatar armament.

As the name implied, after summoning one's own avatar, the avatar would be strengthened through powerful means, such as putting on a layer of armor. At this moment, the nine-headed lion's avatar was.., was covered in golden mane, armed to the teeth.

The Golden Mane turned into an incomparably tough and excellent sword, which stabbed into the nine-headed lion's body one by one, completely covering it like a hedgehog.

When Wang Ling saw this scene, he instantly understood.

Since it was a sword..

Then it would be easy.

“Sword, come --”

At that moment, he thought of something.

He directly summoned Jingke.

He slashed forward!

In a single move, the sword fell from a thousand feathers, and the nine-headed golden lion collapsed on the spot..
