Chapter 1851 The Bond Of Fate (1/92)

Lotus Sun and You Yueqing discussed for more than an hour how they could better cover for Wang Ling. The friendship between girls was sometimes so wonderful that once they had a common goal.., both of them felt that the distance between them seemed to have shortened quite a bit.

Lotus Sun also felt that you Yueqing wasn't as dangerous as she had seen before.

However, she still hadn't completely let down her guard.

After they chatted, you Yueqing even started to use that camera to show Lotus Sun the video of the two of them having a birthday together when they were young, which made lotus sun extremely envious.

Although it wasn't that she hadn't seen Wang Ling's childhood appearance at Wang Ling's house before, Little Wang Ling could move in the video! Lotus Sun was ecstatic.

Little Wang Ling was really too cute. When Little You Yueqing held his arm with that stern little face of his, it was filled with helplessness. Just by looking at his expression, Lotus Sun could tell what Wang Ling was thinking at the time.

It could only be said that little Wang Ling was too easy to understand. Even if there was no expression on his face, what bad intentions could a child have... his thoughts were often directly displayed on his face.

You Yueqing skillfully switched between the videos as she played them. This display wasn't for showing off, but simply for sharing.

Seeing Lotus Sun's unwavering gaze, she immediately said, "Do you want me to make a copy for you later? You can use the AI to change your face. Why Don't you just change my appearance to Yours When You Were Young?"

"Eh? Is that okay?"

Lotus sun was pleasantly surprised. At the same time, she hadn't expected you Yueqing to say that.

"What's wrong with that? It's all in the past anyway. We're competing fairly now." You Yueqing smiled very generously, at the same time, she said meaningfully, "Oh right, I remember that I filmed a video of Wang Ling almost destroying the Earth!"

"Destroying... The Earth?"

"Yeah, he almost fell when he was young. Fortunately, uncle and aunt reacted quickly and immediately pulled him up."

"..."

"Let me look at this video; I remember it's in my camera too."

You Yueqing frowned slightly and started to look for relevant videos. She played with the Switch Key, and suddenly the video was switched back to the ones she had taken when she had just entered Li Xuan's apartment.

"Wait!" At that moment, Lotus Sun suddenly reached out and pressed the pause button.

"HM? Is there a problem?"

"Look, there's a white wall. There seem to be words on it," Lotus Sun said.

"Are there?" You Yueqing frowned and stared at the camera for a long time. As expected, she vaguely noticed that on the white wall captured by the camera, there were a few characters that faintly emitted white light.

However, because these characters were the same color as the wall, they weren't very obvious and were very dim. If you didn't look closely, you wouldn't be able to see them at all.

"What's This?"

Lotus sun asked in puzzlement, “This is the character that Wang Ling hid from US earlier, right? He thinks that these characters might be dangerous.”

“That should be it.”

You Yueqing nodded and said, “But I keep feeling that these characters look a little familiar, as if I’ve seen them somewhere before.”

“You’ve seen them before?” Lotus sun was even more puzzled.

“I remember that the manor head seemed to have written similar characters before, but I’m not sure if they’re the same type,” said you Yueqing.

This was a new clue.

Lotus Sun and You Yueqing had already decided not to get involved in this matter, but this accidental discovery immediately aroused their intense desire to investigate.

What was even more unexpected to Lotus Sun was that the mysterious characters on the white wall were actually related to the manor head of the wind and Thunder Manor, which meant that this old manor head.., was it possible that he was also one of the people involved in this video blogger Li Xuan’s sudden disappearance?

This accidental discovery made Lotus Sun and You Yueqing feel the complexity behind the incident, as if a pair of invisible hands were pushing the development of the entire incident.

“We have to go and ask the Manor Head.” You Yueqing immediately made a decision.

“This is unstable,” Lotus Sun said. “We should be more conservative. It’s too unstable for just the two of us to go. “How about this? I know a few seniors. If we call them together, we can ensure our safety.”

“Seniors?” You Yueqing looked doubtful.

Then, Lotus Sun immediately took out her phone and sent private messages to the people in the core management group.

Odd Zhuo, monk Jin Deng, Li Xian, Zhang Zicao, Qin Zong, Xiang Yi, Gu Shunzhi, Wang Zhen, and Liu Qingyi..

In a short instant, Lotus Sun had sent all the messages.

..

On the other side, Wang Ling was still experiencing the eternal past in the “Diary of the Eastern Emperor.”.

His body’s actions and conversations were all automatic. Although he was already inside his body and could control it, he didn’t act rashly.

If the events recorded in the diary were true, it meant that the diary itself represented a true past from the past, wang Ling felt that if he did anything unusual or did anything that went against the normal behavior in the diary, it might change history.

Under the leadership of the white-robed steward, Ye Ren, Wang Ling finally saw the envoy sent by the Great Emperor of the West in the main hall of the Emperor’s palace. The envoy was dressed in a pitch-black robe, his long white beard hung down like a waterfall, down to his toes.

Even in the face of the Great Emperor of the east, the envoy still didn’t show any fear. He didn’t take the Emperor’s Imperial Majesty seriously at all.

Under such circumstances, he extended his hand from the black robe and revealed a silver dagger with the mark of the nine-headed demon snake on it. It was the symbol of the emperor of the west, indicating that he had come on behalf of the Emperor of the west.

Without a doubt, this was an abnormally rude and provocative action.

Ye Ren was just about to flare up when the Emperor of the East gave him a look and pressed him on the spot.

But it was clear that even the east emperor had never seen such an arrogant envoy before.

Then, he continued to sit on the golden and wide Vermillion Bird throne as the emperor, receiving the worship of the West Emperor's envoy.

“Foreign envoy Yan Sanyang pays his respects to the East Emperor, and May the East Emperor be blessed to the heavens.”

A voice that wasn't very loud reverberated in the empty palace. In addition to the white-robed steward ye Ren and a few old officials, the imperial palace, which originally had more than a hundred officials, seemed extremely empty under the echo of this shout.

Based on the sequence of events now, Wang Ling could roughly determine that the East Emperor Palace had launched a coup not long ago.

Most of the officials in the East Emperor Camp had defected, and now only the few in the palace were left to negotiate.

Hiding in the East Emperor's body, Wang Ling patiently waited for the plot to develop.

Then, he heard what the emissary from Emperor West, Yan Sanyang, had said.

Yan sanyang: “In addition to the compensation and the division of the Star Field, our western Lord has additional requests. If Emperor East agrees, we will release all the prisoners of war and immediately withdraw from the star field.”

Emperor East was silent for a moment when he heard this. Then, he said in a deep and dignified voice, “Let's hear it.”

“I heard that Emperor East found a lost Outer God Palace on Planet leisurely. “It is said that there is a piece of a top-tier Outer God's heart inside,”Yan Sanyang said. “My Western Emperor requests that Emperor East hand over the thing he found in this outer God Palace...”

Wang Ling immediately took these words seriously.

A piece of a top-tier Outer God's heart?

Was it the mysterious object later known as "Destiny"?

The thing that Daozu Wang had tried so hard to seal after discovering it?

Chapter 1852 1,848: The Collapse Of The Negotiations (1/92)

Yan Sanyang's words seemed respectful, but in fact, there was a hint of disdain in them. He did not take this eastern emperor seriously at all. He was very confident, and it was clear that he had come prepared.

Because he was not the only one who was going to the eastern region this time. At this moment, outside the Eastern Emperor's palace, the envoy group formed by the Western Emperor's side was waiting in an orderly manner. The dozens of elders were all elites among the elites.

Each of them had boundless potential and were top-notch geniuses among the eternal ones. If they could obtain enough resources, they would definitely become a mighty figure in the future, they could even form a clan to compete for the position of Emperor.

This terrifying pressure was like a dark cloud that covered the entire outer perimeter of the emperor's palace. It was as if it would pour in at any moment.

Wang Ling had already sensed this danger when he had been on the palace walls earlier, and he was just watching the show. He didn't know how this emperor Dong would respond, nor did he know if he had already sensed the danger outside.

This was a group of terrifying ancients. Each of them had the power to casually destroy a tribe, and they had already become a symbol of the divide in power between the eastern and western regions.

Within the Imperial Palace of the Eastern Region, on the highest Vermilion Bird throne, the Eastern Emperor did not move at all. It was as if he had already expected this scene to happen.

His eyes were filled with steadiness and confidence as he swept his gaze across the body of the emissary from the Western Region, Yan Sanyang. There was a vermilion bird flame lingering around his body. His gaze was scorching and gave off a powerful sense of deterrence.

However, Yan Sanyang knew that there was still a bunch of backup behind him. Even though he was being stared at, he still felt terrified, however, he still braced himself and said, "I hope that the Emperor of the east clearly knows how important this truce agreement is to the eastern region. With this agreement, we can at least maintain good relations between the two regions for a hundred years and not disturb each other. It will also give the eastern region a chance to rest and reorganize."

"If the emperor of the East refuses to accept my favor, then it would be best for the Emperor of the east to be fully prepared for the consequences that will happen in the future."

With his hands behind his back, he spoke in a domineering manner. In the end, he lost all his patience in the Imperial Palace Hall and revealed a ferocious look.

"Yan Sanyang, are you threatening my king?" The white-robed steward Ye Ren berated. He could not hold back either. The laws on his body surged and spiritual light surged. He had the urge to kill Yan Sanyang and then kill him.

At this moment, the atmosphere in the imperial palace suddenly turned cold. The two sides were at Daggers Drawn and ready to fight at any moment.

However, at this moment, the emperor of the East suddenly smiled. "Ye Ren, don't be impatient."

Then, he stood up from the supreme throne and looked at Yan Sanyang condescendingly. "Is the emperor of the West that interested in the lost outer god palace that I found?"

"Of course."

Yan Sanyang snorted and said.

"If I say that I found a mysterious item in this outer god palace that can directly destroy an entire region, would the western region still dare to touch me?" The Eastern Emperor narrowed his eyes and a ruthless expression flashed across his face.

This expression immediately made Yan Sanyang sweat.

This was because this was what the western emperor was most worried about..

The Outer God Palace was an item formed by a top-tier outer god among the rulers of the past. It gathered all the power of an outer god. Although it was known as the tomb of an outer god, in reality, it was the soul essence of an outer god, if they could successfully explore it, they would definitely be able to reap unimaginable benefits..

However, there was probably no one else who dared to barge into the outer god palace, other than a few kings and kings and Dao ancestors.

The most important reason why the Great Emperor of the West wanted to take down the outer god palace was because he was worried that the great emperor of the east might really obtain something that could not be dealt with.

The power of the outer gods was so strong that even if they were dead, the items in the palace would still be extremely powerful.

Therefore, the Great Emperor of the East was not joking when he said that he would destroy an entire region. The most likely outcome would be... mutual destruction.

In just a few short sentences, Yan Sanyang was choked to the point that he could speak.

But soon, he tried his best to regain his composure.

Ever since the war between the eastern and western regions began, the Eastern Emperor had been personally directing the battle ahead. Logically speaking, there should have been no chance for him to enter the outer god palace to explore the secret.

Even if he did enter, the inner part of the Outer God palace was too dangerous. Even if an emperor-level character entered without sufficient preparation, he would most likely die in there. He would not be able to come out for a moment.

Such a short period of time... This was an impossible mission. In addition, the eastern emperor seemed to be unscathed. This made Yan Sanyang even more convinced that the Eastern Emperor was lying to him.

“Eastern Emperor, if you have the ability, then you should have brought it out earlier.” In the Great Hall, Yan Sanyang could not help but laugh out loud after he understood everything.

In front of the Sovereign Vermillion Bird throne, the Great Eastern Emperor’s eyes grew colder and colder when he saw this scene. His aura suddenly increased and directly pressed down on Yan Sanyang, “You’re just an emissary. You Don’t have the right to make such a ruckus with me.”

The sound wave was like the cry of a Vermillion Bird, bringing with it an extremely ear-piercing sound that shook the entire great hall. All the people on the Great Eastern Emperor’s side had calm expressions, but this cry of a Phoenix Shook Yan Sanyang to the point that blood flowed out of his seven orifices.

That ear-piercing memory continued to reverberate in his mind, causing his brain to churn. He fell to his knees in the hall on the spot.

Boom

The Eastern Emperor’s body did not move. He merely raised a hand and pressed it forward. A Vermilion Bird Phantom whizzed out from his sleeve, shaking everyone in the hall.

Under the deafening chirping of the Vermilion Bird, the people outside the Eastern Emperor’s palace were all alarmed. They instantly knew that the negotiations had collapsed.

“Charge in! Save Emissary Yan! The western Emperor has ordered that those who take the head of the Eastern Emperor can establish a new emperor!” The emissaries who were stationed outside had already met with this foolishly, it was as if they had already expected this scene. They were all prepared. Once the negotiations collapsed, they all charged into the great hall.

However, the strength of an emperor was extremely shocking. When they approached the Great Hall, the emissary sent by the Western Emperor, Yan Sanyang, had already died tragically. His face was charred black, and he had been directly roasted into a charred corpse by the Vermilion Bird Fire. His posture was strange, he had died in extreme pain.

Everything had happened too quickly. They had not been able to protect Yan Sanyang at all.

At this moment, looking at the dozens of elders of the emissary delegation that had suddenly barged into the emperor of the East's palace, the Emperor of the East remained unmoved. He looked down at the heroes and fixed his gaze on the vast crowd with the Hydra symbol in front of him.

When the white-robed steward, Ye Ren, saw these people, he instantly felt that the situation was not good. These people... were carefully selected experts of the western regions. Moreover, each of them had the royal bloodline. They were powerful competitors for the Emperor in the future.

In fact, even ye Ren did not expect that the usually calm emperor Dong would directly kill Yan Sanyang. Although it was Yan Sanyang who provoked him first, the death of the external envoy meant that the negotiation had collapsed.

At the same time, it also provided the elders sent by the western regions with a perfect excuse to start a new round of war.

At this moment, in the few Emperor East's imperial palace, a few old ministers, led by Ye Ren, were all waiting solemnly. Even in the face of this irreparable situation, each of them looked as if they were ready to face death.

Wang Ling was a little moved by this scene. He had never personally witnessed the battle between the ancients, but he had never thought that he would be able to see it clearly today.

It was like watching an epic war drama between the royal family. All the battles in front of him were a game of power for these ancient cultivators in the ancient times.

Chapter 1853 1,849, Divine Possession (1/92)

Wang Ling had never seen what a real emperor looked like. Now that the East Emperor was so domineering, Majestic, and unyielding in the face of an enemy who had come to attack him, it was almost perfectly in line with what Wang Ling was thinking.

He was high and mighty, and wasn't afraid even in the face of a group of eternal emperors who had royal blood in their veins. The Vermilion Bird in his eyes flickered, and there was a powerful chaotic Qi circulating with a mysterious power all over his body.

This was emperor origin Qi, which was actually the same type of substance as the origin true Qi in Wang Ling's body. Usually, only people on the emperor's throne would have it.

However, most of the origin qi, including the emperor origin Qi, had already taken shape and had an upper limit. Wang Ling's origin true Qi was heaven-defying, and there was no upper limit at all.

Wang Ling had never felt this kind of power from any eternal warriors, including the skeleton prince, the lion-headed man, and Meng Liuli... putting these three aside.., even the golden lamp monk and Dao ancestor Wang's true disciple, Peng Xiren, didn't have this kind of power.

It could only be said that the emperor level was indeed worthy of being called the emperor level; it was truly extraordinary.

“Who Dares Act Rashly...”

At that moment, Emperor East muttered to himself as the Vermilion Bird Flames enveloped him. This was an unintentional and automatic defensive ability; any flying object that got close to Emperor East would be incinerated by the Vermilion Bird Flames, this included long-range spells and hidden weapons. All of them would be incinerated by the Vermilion Bird's flames the moment they approached.

Then, he stared at the few women in front of him, he muttered to himself, “I didn't expect you to come as well. Blazing Sun... you originally came from the same source as me, but now you've switched sides with me in the enemy's formation. You've forgotten your ancestors several times. How laughable.”

Everyone below was stunned. Blazing sun goddess... this was the first time everyone had heard that the most famous blazing saint fairy, whom the West Emperor had spent a lot of money to win over, actually came from the same source as the East Emperor.

Blazing sun goddess had a calm expression. She did not show any anger after hearing the Eastern Emperor's words. She maintained her graceful and charming posture as she took off her hood and stepped forward, her posture made the heroes around her dim.

Without a doubt, blazing sun goddess was a strong contender for the Eastern Emperor's position. She was the woman who had the highest chance of directly taking the Eastern Emperor's head.

She and the East Emperor came from the same origin, so she naturally knew what kind of weakness the East Emperor had. Even an emperor-level expert could not be completely invincible. They also had a fatal weakness, it was just that most people did not know.

“A good bird chooses a tree to roost in. The words of the imperial emperor are a little like a moral kidnapping. I did not grow up in the eastern region since I was a child. I drifted around everywhere. Other than some dispensable bloodlines, there is nothing else between us.”

She laughed and stared at the Eastern Emperor. “As an emperor, you allowed your fellow clansmen to wander about without a home. Have you ever thought about how many people have looked down on me? Now, all you can do is talk.”

“Your father rebelled a long time ago. This is a felony. Out of kindness, I only punished your father and exiled your clansmen...”the eastern emperor spoke, his expression pale. It was clear that., the blazing sun goddess’ words had actually touched some of his pain.

The past was unbearable to recall. That was all in the past. Even the eastern emperor himself had never thought that his benevolence would ignite the flames of revenge.

“We have gathered today. With so many royal descendants gathered here, you should know that you have no chance of winning today.”

The blazing sun goddess’ expression did not change at all when she heard the old story. She remained calm as she looked at Yan Sanyang, who had turned into a charred corpse on the ground, her eyes were cold. “The Emperor in the West gave you one last chance. Unfortunately, you did not cherish it.”

“Humph! How can you challenge the authority of an Emperor?”

The East Emperor’s voice was cold. He could not help but laugh out loud. “Since all of you have barged into my hall today, I can only annihilate all of you!”

Boom

In the next moment, everyone in the palace understood what was going on, and they moved at the same time. Powerful psionic power collided in the air, forming a high pressure that immediately sent the dome of the entire palace flying.

“Attack!”

Someone shouted. The battle had already begun, so everyone had no scruples. Although some people knew that the blazing sun goddess had a great chance of winning, the battle for the head was all based on one's own ability. If there was a chance to pick up a loophole in the back., the first person to get the head of the East Emperor would also be able to ascend to the throne.

At the same time, because of the blazing sun goddess, they had no fear when facing the East Emperor. This was their main source of power, and they only needed to interfere from the side.

There were many ways to win. The East Emperor had ascended to the throne for many years, and his imperial aura had dried up. He had already entered his twilight years, and no one thought that the current east emperor could still be arrogant.

Countless magical artifacts streaked across the sky, illuminating the imperial palace in a dazzling light. All the attacks were focused on the east emperor.

At this moment, the world was silent. All kinds of chaotic auras interweaved, bringing with them a deathly stillness. The white-robed chief steward, Ye Ren, tried his best to protect the emperor, but was pushed away by the blazing sun goddess with a palm strike.

“Nine-tailed Vermillion Bird?” Ye Ren was shocked.

He had seen a nine-tailed vermilion bird rush out from the blazing sun goddess' palm with that palm just now, and his face turned pale with shock. If not for the Eastern Emperor's timely use of palm force to push him away from a distance, he would have died directly from that palm strike just now, he would have died.

He could not believe that the blazing sun goddess had refined a nine-tailed vermilion bird dharma idol... This was the highest level of the Vermillion Bird technique. Even the Eastern Emperor had not comprehended it, and it was only at the level of an eight-tailed Vermillion Bird.

“That's not a nine-tailed vermilion bird! It's a pseudo nine-tailed Vermilion Bird!” An old official of the Eastern Emperor Palace who was in the middle of a battle was surrounded by a few people. He spat out a mouthful of blood, but he could clearly see what had just happened.

He was very sure that there was something wrong with the nine-tailed vermilion bird, because the tail on the back of the Vermilion Bird was not a vermilion bird plume, but a nine-headed snake!

It was very obvious that before coming here, the western Emperor had lent his power to the blazing sun goddess!

She had cultivated the six-tailed Vermilion Bird to begin with, and now that she had the support of Emperor West, it was no wonder that she dared to attack the Eastern Emperor Palace directly.

At this moment, the blazing sun goddess did not hold back and once again displayed her nine-headed Vermilion Bird Dharma Idol. It brought with it an extremely powerful aura that swept across the entire area. When that dharma idol was unleashed, it shocked the world and brought with it an extremely powerful aura, it caused quite a number of people in the air to stagger and fall to the ground.

This pressure was too powerful. It was so close to the blazing sun goddess that she could not even stabilize her figure that was flying in the air..

“You’ve tarnished the Vermilion Bird Bloodline... How dare you do this!” An old official of the Eastern Emperor Palace was half-kneeling on the ground. He was shaken by this power that caused blood to flow out of his seven orifices. He was so angry that his entire body was trembling.

“This is the power that the imperial emperors of the West gave me. Power is only a tool. It’s enough as long as I can win.”

The blazing sun goddess’ expression was still as calm as an ancient well as she stared fixedly at East Emperor. Once the nine-headed Snake Vermillion Bird was unleashed, the impact and pressure of that power was the most intuitive to east emperor.

In an instant, he felt his qi and blood churn all over his body, and even the Vermillion Bird Flame protection on his body was ineffective.

But what made Wang Ling feel very strange was that even in the face of this deadly situation, East Emperor still showed no fear.

Could it be that East Emperor still had other tricks up his sleeve?

Hiding inside East Emperor’s body, he was very puzzled.

The situation should be similar to what he had deduced..

After all, there was a relatively complete battle record in “East Emperor’s diary.” If East Emperor had died here, he probably wouldn’t have completed this diary.

While Wang Ling was in deep thought, East Emperor suddenly laughed loudly at Blazing Sun Goddess in front of him. “Blazing Sun... may I ask, are you inviting a god to possess you?”

“No, I’m just borrowing some power.” Blazing Sun Goddess shook her head with inexplicable confidence, she stared at East Emperor with a vicious gaze. “As long as I can kill you, I won’t complain even if the Western Emperor wants my body. But this is the worst step... I’d rather kill you myself.”

“Haha...”

To everyone’s surprise, East Emperor actually laughed again when he heard this. “Do you think you’re the only one who would invite a God to possess you?”

When he said this, his mind moved.

Immediately after, a voice rang out in Wang Ling’s mind. “Great God! What are you still standing there for? Quickly possess me!”

Wang Ling: “? ? ?”

Chapter 1854 1,850, The History Of Being Schemed Against (1/92)

Wang Ling realized that he was still a little younger than the Emperor of the Ancients, and the young man’s innocence had been thoroughly destroyed by the Emperor’s craftiness at this moment

He had never thought that he would be schemed against by the East Emperor, and even less so that the history of this “East Emperor’s diary” was actually a history that he himself had been schemed against.

At first, Wang Ling had been worried that his rash actions would change the course of history, but now it seemed that the East Emperor had clearly planned this as well.

This made Wang Ling feel extremely strange. He had used his No. 16 eye to enter the world of eternal cultivators in which the “East Emperor’s diary” had been written. This was his unique secret skill, and it could be said to be a flawless heaven-defying method.

But the East Emperor had been able to directly peer into the future to this extent..

It was definitely very difficult for the east emperor to peer into the distant future with his own strength alone, so Wang Ling suspected that the East Emperor must have done something before he possessed the body, which was why he had predicted his arrival.

This kind of calculation made Wang Ling uncomfortable, but in order not to change the course of history, he had no choice but to act on his behalf.

After the battle, he would definitely ask the great emperor for an explanation.

This way, he could peer into the future for tens of thousands of years; even an emperor-level figure wouldn’t be able to do it on his own.

At that moment, the body of the Great Emperor was officially under Wang Ling’s control. If you looked closely, you could see that the expression in his eyes had clearly changed, and he was above the messy imperial palace, a powerful aura was released from the emperor’s body.

At this point, the invading elders of the western Emperor faction, including the blazing sun goddess, could clearly feel a chill coming from behind their backs.

After the emperor said, “Do you think you’re the only one who would invite a God into your body?” Everything had changed. That inexplicable and powerful power that had suddenly appeared crushed the entire scene, and it was as if a deity had descended from the heavens.

Everyone who had spoken arrogantly earlier couldn’t help backing off, and a great sense of fear welled up in their hearts.

It was difficult to describe this feeling in words. It was an extreme oppression that made people feel suffocated.

This was the first time Wang Ling had fought against so many ancient people who had royal blood in their veins, especially this blazing sun goddess, who had been bestowed a portion of her power by Emperor West and had condensed the nine-headed snake vermilion bird.

The other party's strength was already at the pseudo-emperor level, and if it hadn't been for the fact that the great emperor of the east had sensed the danger in the situation, he probably wouldn't have been able to directly "Invite God to possess you."

"Great Emperor of the east, what are you bluffing about? ! You? Invite God to possess you?" An elder from the great emperor of the West said.

"Whether it's true or not, you'll know when you try." The Great Emperor of the east gave a contemptuous smile.

This wasn't a reply from Wang Ling, but in the process of Wang Ling controlling his body, East Emperor was snatching the microphone.

Wang Ling was fuming with anger at this kind of behavior, but there was no way he couldn't make a move now.

Because according to the course of history, all the intruders who had broken into the imperial palace in "East Emperor's diary" had ended up in a terrible state... but it was very obvious that East Emperor had omitted some things in his diary.

For example, he had only used a few words to lightly mention the matter of "Inviting a god to possess you." Even Wang Ling wouldn't have thought that the invited God would be himself.

"It's useless for you to do anything. With me, the nine-headed Snake Vermilion Bird, here, you'll definitely die today." At that moment, the blazing sun goddess spoke, her calm expression still revealing her confidence, although she had noticed that emperor east was completely different from before, she thought that this was just a show of bravado.

How could he really invite a god to possess him?

And in such a short period of time..

Which God would so casually possess someone else's body.

“Hahaha, today we will witness history! A new emperor has ascended to the throne! And it's a great Empress!” Among the forces under Emperor West, the elder who had been clamoring earlier joined in the laughter once again.

“Boom!”

Without another word, Wang Ling directly attacked, and with a powerful aura, he grabbed at the elder as if he was killing a chicken to warn the monkeys. This palm strike was like an inescapable net, causing a huge earthquake in the land beneath his feet.

“In that case, I'll take you down first...” at this critical moment, Emperor East once again began to sing a double act with Wang Ling. Wang Ling was in charge of attacking, and Emperor East was in charge of speaking. Although the two of them didn't talk much, at this moment, the division of labor was undoubtedly clear.

“With me here, don't even think about getting away with it.”

The blazing sun goddess spoke softly, and a golden light flashed in her eyes as her whole body erupted with a blazing light.

She knew very well that Emperor East's action was to kill a chicken as a warning to the monkeys, and to eliminate a hooting person.

However, if Emperor East succeeded in this way in front of her, her face would definitely be ruined.

Buzz!

In an instant, the nine-headed Snake Vermilion Bird Dharma Idol released a black light in the air, and a law of darkness and light interweaved to form a hemp rope that finally wove into a dark vermilion bird cage, it completely enveloped the elders of the western emperor under its feet.

Wang Ling looked at this scene indifferently, his expression as calm as an ancient well. He didn't put the blazing sun goddess's methods in his eyes at all, and continued to attack that place.

When his palm approached the Dark Vermilion Bird Cage, the blazing sun goddess unexpectedly completely covered it!

At that moment, the world was silent. The blazing sun goddess hadn't expected that this emperor Dong would actually dare to directly grab the Dark Vermilion Bird Cage with his bare hands!

For a moment, the air was dead silent.

A moment later, a powerful spirit energy gushed out from Wang Ling's palm, and the most powerful Vermilion Bird Dharma Idol behind Emperor Dong appeared. The bright and boundless vermilion bird fire directly burned the Dark Vermilion Bird Cage to Ashes!

At the same time, powerful ripples surged, and the elder who had been clamoring was burned to ashes on the spot, leaving nothing behind.

"How is this possible..."the blazing sun goddess'face turned pale. She had never thought that Emperor East's Vermilion Bird Dharma Idol would actually become stronger!

It had clearly been an eight-tailed vermilion bird earlier! It had one less feather than her!

At that moment, everyone's faces turned pale with shock!

No one had expected that the Vermillion Bird Dharma Idol in the sky now had eighty-one feathers on its tail!

It was like a peacock with its tail open!

"This is no longer a Vermillion Bird... it's the Supreme Radiant Peacock Ming King! It's the ultimate form above the nine-tailed Vermillion Bird!"Ye Ren cried out in alarm, he and the blood-soaked Eastern Emperor Cheng were all horrified. Each of their mouths were wide open, so wide that they could fit a goose egg inside.

In fact, even Wang Ling hadn't expected that the spirit of his Dharma Idol, which was also the spirit of the universe, would actually possess another person's dharma idol, which would directly evolve the other person's Dharma Idol into its ultimate form.

The Supreme Radiant Peacock King swept across the sky, unleashing its supreme law of light to unleash endless destruction in the sky above the eastern region. At this moment, all the various magic artifacts of the western Emperor's forces exploded with precision!

Wang Ling knew very well that at this point, there was no chance of survival for these intruders. He didn't take action anymore, and instead returned the sovereignty of his body to the Eastern Emperor.

Once this battle was over, he would disintegrate the spirit of the universe.

At the same time, the elders who had been shouting that they wanted to seize the throne were all extremely pale. In a short period of time, they had been turned into dried corpses by the peacock King's light, and then turned into ashes.

This was a shocking scene that happened in a split second.

At this moment, all the elders of the East Emperor's forces were moved. All the tribes and people in the entire imperial region were shouting loudly.

"East emperor immemorial..."

The huge eastern region was now filled with people chanting the words "East emperor immemorial".

The appearance of the Supreme Radiant Peacock King gave everyone great encouragement.

To the invaders, this was definitely a disaster. Such a Dharma Idol was simply too terrifying!

In order to protect the tribes and people of the eastern region, the eastern emperor was extremely decisive when he made his move after receiving the boost from the power of the divine possession.

Boom

In the next moment, he once again displayed the Peacock King's Law of light for a short period of time. Like a great sun, he released countless beams of light. The cries of Phoenixes rose in the sky and earth, opening a path for these beams of light of punishment.

Buzz!

Under the illumination of the light, dozens of people were killed by the East Emperor's Peacock King Avatar. Then, he controlled the peacock king and tore off the tail on the back of the nine-headed vermilion bird avatar of the blazing sun goddess.

With the avatar destroyed, the blazing sun goddess' face turned pale. The pain of her body being torn apart was transmitted simultaneously, causing her to cough out a large mouthful of blood.

Chapter 1855 1,851, Wrath Of The Goddess (1/92)

The Peacock King of Supreme Light flew across the sky. The feathers on its back were all spread out like the sun, shining in all directions, dispelling the darkness and bringing endless light.

When the light pierced through the layers of clouds and haze and shone on the ground, the invisible pressure made the few survivors tremble.

The Eastern Emperor did not kill them all. Instead, he left a few of the weakest survivors alive. He needed someone to witness this history so that all those who coveted the throne of the eastern region would have a warning.

At the same time, the Eastern Emperor did not expect the effect of this "Divine possession" to be so good... he did not know who he had invited to directly upgrade his eight-tailed Vermillion Bird to the peacock clear king.

Such strength was clearly above the monarch level..

The Four Emperors of the east, west, south, and north could only be considered as little brothers in the face of such strength.

"Why is it like this..."

“I didn’t expect the eastern emperor to still have this trick up his sleeve. Clear Peacock King... is so terrifying...”

The few surviving elders of the western region turned pale.

Although they did not die, they were also suffering from internal injuries and their cultivations had regressed by hundreds of years.

Even if they had royal blood in their bodies, this was still a sign that their vitality had been greatly damaged. This meant that they had lost the qualifications to compete for the throne.

For the Eastern Emperor, this was definitely a glorious battle. This was because the appearance of the Peacock King was not only a deterrent to external enemies, but also strengthened the hearts of the people, proving that the Emperor’s fate in the Eastern Region was immortal.

At the same time, the invaders from the western region, including the blazing sun goddess, would not have thought that the usually benevolent eastern emperor would actually have a decisive side to him.

At this moment, the blazing sun goddess took a few golden cores and attacked the emperor of the east once again. She did not give up on resisting.

That was the ultimate secret medicine given to her by the Emperor of the west. It could ignore pain for a short period of time, recover her injuries, and stimulate the potential in her body.

At this moment, the damaged tail of the nine-headed Vermilion Bird Dharma Idol also quickly recovered under the effects of the secret medicine. The severed heads of the snakes grew back in a wild manner. There were still nine of them, but the shape of their heads had already changed, they had become thicker and sturdier than before.

In the end, these snake heads actually grew dragon horns. Dragon roars rose and fell, hissing in the sky. Under the support of the secret medicine, the blazing sun goddess went into a berserk state. She actually went berserk together with her dharma idol!

“Dragon-snake Romance! This is the nine-headed Vermilion Bird!”

In the distance, someone cried out in surprise. In the face of the transformation of the blazing sun goddess, they all revealed an incredulous expression.

At the same time, the blazing sun goddess was wantonly roaring. Her ear-piercing cry was accompanied by a dragon's cry. It erupted from her graceful and petite body, appearing somewhat out of place.

It could be seen that the blazing sun goddess was in great pain. Because of the secret medicine, her potential had been forced out. Although her battle prowess had greatly increased, the powerful medicinal effects in her body also greatly tested her body's endurance.

She had to endure the pain of her body being torn apart while fighting.

The cultivators from the eastern and western regions were shocked. A few secret medicines could actually cause a change in the dharma idol. This secret medicine definitely contained the blood of the Eternal Dragon!

There were once people who saw Emperor West evolve his Dharma Idol by taking secret medicines. This was because he did not suffer as much as the blazing sun goddess.

At that time, the Great Emperor of the West's secret medicine containing Dragon Blood became a legend that had been circulating for a long time..

Many people could not believe that it was true.

Only the power of dragon blood could make the Hydra resonate like this.

Compared to before, the blazing sun goddess' aura had improved a lot in a short period of time.

The great emperor of the east frowned. Now that he had the peacock king's Dharma Idol, he was no longer afraid of anything.

Out of a kinship, he saw that the blazing sun goddess was trying her best to adapt to the effects of the secret medicine. She did not attack directly, but waited for a while.

The Eastern Emperor had no choice but to punish the father of the blazing sun goddess who tried to rebel. He did not expect that in the days to come, the blazing sun goddess would be targeted by the emperor of the Western Region, she had become a tool for revenge.

At this moment, his heart was filled with emotions, but he had no choice but to take action.

After waiting for a moment, the blazing sun goddess had clearly adapted to the pain. Her originally ferocious face had become the most beautiful face. She used to be like the rising sun, but now, her body was emitting..., the embers of the setting sun.

Her snow-white and sparkling body was covered with traces left behind by the impact of the secret medicine on her bloodline, forming faint golden patterns that followed her long and white neck all the way down to her ankles like a flower print.

At this moment, the blazing sun goddess had a powerful aura of twilight. She was exuding an aura that could incinerate everything, accompanied by the roars of the dragons around her.

In the blink of an eye, her body moved. She was as fast as a beautiful dragon, and she appeared in front of the Eastern Emperor in an instant. She whipped her leg toward the Eastern Emperor's head.

Chi

The Eastern Emperor reacted quickly. He raised his left arm and grabbed the snow-white ankle of the blazing sun goddess. The eyes of the woman in front of him were obviously filled with intense anger and hatred.

She was calm, even when her ankle was grabbed.

In the blink of an eye, a fire burst out of the blazing sun goddess' beautiful eyes. She actually damaged her own body and burned off her own ankle.

That snow-white foot turned into ashes in the Eastern Emperor's palm on the spot..

After that, her broken foot began to regenerate, returning to its original appearance at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“Dragon Qi to protect the body... even if the head is broken, it can still be restored!”The old officials of the Great Eastern region were all terrified as they watched. They had never expected that the battle would develop to such a stage.

In the next moment, the blazing sun goddess attacked again. The nine dragons vermilion bird behind her spat out flames.

Under the cover of the burning and dazzling fire mist, the nine dragons at the end extended their long bodies. They used their supreme strength to sweep through an army. They actually used their bodies to form a body magic array and burrowed into the land of the imperial palace, they were deeply rooted in it.

This was drawing out the emperor’s fate beneath the eastern great region. Even the underground spirit veins were absorbed by the nine dragons magic array, becoming the endless nourishment of the blazing sun goddess.

Then, the blazing sun goddess’aura clearly became even stronger.

Everyone’s faces turned pale with shock. Just what kind of terrifying power was this?

Everyone from the eastern and western regions were all dumbfounded.

Without a doubt, the continuous absorption of the underground spirit veins and the fate of the Empire was an act of harming the enemy. Once the body could not withstand such pressure, there was a danger of it exploding.

The eastern emperor suddenly understood what the blazing sun goddess was doing.

He sighed.

It turned out that from the very beginning, the blazing sun goddess had no intention of surviving..

She was going to die together with him.

Originally, the Emperor of the East was merciful and did not want to kill the blazing sun goddess.

But now, for the sake of his people, he had to do it..

He wanted to use the supreme-being, the radiant Peacock King, to eat the nine dragons like earthworms.

Chapter 1856 1852, Who's Summoning (1/92)

The nine dragons Vermilion Bird had nine gigantic dragon heads that were deeply rooted in the ground. They were like pillars from the heavens, wantonly plundering the fate of the empire and the underground spiritual veins.

An unceasing flow of energy was absorbed by the blazing sun goddess, causing the energy density of her petite body to continuously increase.

Everyone present felt a heavy sense of danger. Without a doubt, this was a method of mutual destruction.

“This woman has gone mad...”the surviving Royals from the western region were all dumbfounded. However, at this moment, they no longer had the strength to escape. Because their bodies were injured, even if they tried to escape now, they wouldn't be able to get far.

Once the blazing sun goddess'body exploded, the area of impact would cover the entire eastern region of the universe. Not only the land under their feet, within this area, all the planets would be destroyed.

Under the pressure of the blazing sun goddess, the eastern emperor's expression gradually turned cold. He did not want to see a situation where he was fighting against his own kind.

However, since he was the emperor, he had to do what he was supposed to do.

He was not afraid at all. With the protection of the Supreme Radiance Peacock King, he had enough confidence to deal with the current situation.

At this moment, the East Emperor exuded an aura of majesty. He ignored the pressure of the nine dragons and stood proudly in the sky. His every move was in harmony with the Heaven and earth.

Buzz!

In an instant, an intense light surged from his body. It was an endless stream of light that came from his body and the supreme radiance Peacock King Dharma Idol.

“It’s the Emperor’s secret power!” Everyone present was shocked.

The reason why the Eastern Emperor was circulating such power was to compete with the blazing sun goddess for the fate and power of the spirit veins of the empire under his feet. With his status as an emperor, he was able to circulate the emperor’s secret power, there was no need for the blazing sun goddess to perform such a complicated operation.

He was the ruler of the eastern region. As long as he stood there, he would be able to create an impact and form a long-distance struggle.

If one were to use modern terms to describe it, the blazing sun goddess was connected to the internet while the eastern emperor was connected to Wifi... the two of them were competing for internet speed.

No one would have thought that the eastern emperor’s long-distance struggle speed was extremely shocking. He stood proudly in the sky and snatched food from the dragon’s mouth. It was as if he was commanding the entire world.

Chi Chi Chi Chi..

Along with the sound of countless feathers falling, the supreme radiance Peacock Ming King Fa Xiang launched a counterattack at the same time. While helping Emperor East fight, he stabbed the feathers into the nine dragons’ spine.

Underground, the nine dragons let out a painful dragon’s cry and caused a huge earthquake on the spot.

Emperor East seized the opportunity and clenched his fist. Stepping on light, he punched toward the blazing sun goddess.

A blazing light erupted from his fist. It went straight through the ages and smashed into the blazing sun goddess'body, sending her flying in an instant.

The force of his punch was unimaginably heavy. The blazing sun goddess did not expect that the Eastern Emperor, who had fought so hard for the fate and spirit veins of the empire, would be able to divert his attention to attack her.

Everyone was shocked.

Everyone felt that they had underestimated the strength of the Supreme Radiant Peacock King.

The people of the eastern and western regions had forgotten about each other. They were discussing the battle situation below, and they were all dumbfounded.

“This dharma idol is too heaven-defying... it suppressed the nine dragons vermilion bird. Even if the blazing sun goddess swallowed the secret medicine of the Western Emperor to level it up, it would be useless! This supreme radiant peacock king can be said to be invincible!”

“This is really strange. How did the dharma idol of the eastern emperor suddenly level up... and without consuming the secret medicine? Could it be that he really invited a god to possess him?”

“Where did this god come from... above the great emperor is the King Dao ancestor, but how could the king Dao ancestor so easily attack?”

“But with this supreme radiant Peacock King around, the eastern emperor might be able to become the successor of the King Dao Ancestor...”

The old ministers and the royal family of the two regions were currently conversing with each other. They had forgotten about their previous hostile state. On one hand, they were attracted by the battle in the sky, and on the other hand, they could not fight anymore.

In such a battle, the rest of the battles were completely meaningless.

With the Emperor of the East's current means, he could destroy them with a snap of his fingers.

A fist of light shook the blazing sun goddess off the sky, and Emperor East seized the opportunity to immediately control the Peacock King's avatar to launch a counterattack.

In just a few seconds, the nine dragons had devoured the Empire's fate and the power of the spirit vein.

Not only that, even the nine dragons' own energy had been plundered by the Peacock King in the opposite direction!

Wang Ling watched the battle with Emperor East's body. From Afar, he could see that the nine-headed dragon, which was rooted in the ground, was rapidly shrinking, and in a short period of time, it was like an earthworm.

The Supreme Bright Peacock Ming King Dharmic projection that he had strengthened for Emperor East was simply too powerful..

This was a cheat; there was no need for emperor east to take action himself to clean up the situation in front of him.

The nine-headed Vermilion Bird was directly devoured..

This outcome was unbelievable.

She had clearly used the power given to her by Emperor West, but the blazing sun goddess was still defeated. Her pure white body was bleeding like a pure white flower.

“Buzz!”

The Great Emperor of the East slowly walked up to the blazing sun goddess. Without any hesitation, he raised his hand, and an infinitely bright palm print shot out toward the blazing sun girl.

In front of everyone's eyes, the blazing sun goddess finally disappeared completely, disappearing into the infinite light without leaving a trace

"It's all over." The Great Emperor of the east sighed in his heart, and thanked Wang Ling at the same time. "Thank you, Great God, for your help."

"Are you sure?" Wang Ling replied concisely.

"This battle is a nation-building battle. West Emperor has always been cautious, and once he knows that my dharma idol has been promoted to the Supreme Radiant Peacock King, he won't easily attack our eastern region again."

East emperor slowly said to Wang Ling, "This battle has won at least 2,000 years of peace for the people of our eastern region. At least during my tenure, the other forces won't dare to attack our Eastern Region again."

With that, he waved his sleeve, he turned his gaze to the white-robed steward. "Ye Ren, I'll leave the rest to you. Send away all those who have invaded. From now on, don't let them set foot in the eastern region again."

"Yes." Ye Ren bowed.

Before he left, his fingertips flashed with light as he healed the wounds on all the old officials of the eastern region who had participated in the battle at lightning speed.

After doing all this, he stepped into the back garden of the Emperor Palace.

At this point, Wang Ling saw what the Imperial Garden of the eastern region was like. It was originally a large field of spirit herbs, but many of them had been destroyed during the battle, which made the emperor feel that it was a pity.

However, Wang Ling didn't care about these spirit herbs. Any one of the ones he had in his king's treasure pants would be more outstanding than these.

Emperor East's purpose in coming to the imperial garden wasn't to show Wang Ling around the ruins, but to directly enter the secret passage leading to the underground palace.

That was the location of Emperor East's underground scripture depository.

According to the records in "Emperor East's diary,".

After the war, Emperor East had stayed alone in the scripture depository for six hours.

After entering the underground scripture depository, Emperor East sat on a futon and sighed. "I know that the Great God must have a lot of questions for me, so he deliberately left time for him to ask them..."

Chapter 1857 1,853, Soul Exchange Across The Ages (1/92)

About an hour ago, when they had returned to the real world.

On the other side, Lotus Sun immediately took you Yueqing to grenade-throwing senior immortal's Wenxian garden after informing everyone, where they chose to gather.

The two of them arrived late, and by the time they arrived, the nine people they had notified were already sitting neatly and chatting in the villa. Little Silver, on the other hand, was dressed in a black suit and served tea like a deacon.

He had even put on his leather shoes and was no longer barefoot.

It looked like grenade-throwing senior immortal had taught him well recently.

You Yueqing didn't know most of the people here, and even looked dumbfounded when they met, but there was one person she couldn't possibly not know.

"You're that! Odd Zhuo! ?" You Yueqing was extremely surprised; she hadn't expected to see Odd Zhuo here.

She had just heard Lotus Sun calling and shaking someone, and had thought that it was someone with the same name and surname, but she hadn't expected that the person who had called over was actually Odd Zhuo himself... the man who had knocked down a level five demon king seven years ago!

“It’s me.” Odd Zhuo smiled, as amiable as ever.

He took the initiative to shake hands with You Yueqing without putting on any airs.

On the way over, Lotus Sun told Odd Zhuo about you Yueqing, including how you Yueqing had guessed Wang Ling’s extraordinary ability based on her own ability.

It was still necessary to give notice of this in advance, but it was just to let everyone know about you Yueqing in advance. It wasn’t that they had to be on their guard against her.

They were childhood sweethearts; what bad intentions could they possibly have.

After a simple handshake, odd zhuo said, “I’ve also heard of Daoist Priest You’s reputation. In My Department, there were quite a few subordinates who went to the Wind and Thunder Manor to ask for divination.”

“Right, someone from the general administration of 100 schools came.” You Yueqing immediately smiled. “But how did Director Zhuo meet classmate Lotus Sun?”

“She’s my junior. I’m also from No. 60 High.”

“I see!”

You Yueqing nodded in realization.

“Do you need me to introduce the others to Daoist Priest You?”

“No need, General Administration Zhuo. Classmate Lotus Sun already introduced them to me on the way here. I’m not face-blind, and my memory is very good. All the seniors’ faces match up, so don’t worry.”

“Alright, then let’s get down to business.”

Odd Zhuo nodded in satisfaction, and then turned his gaze to Monk Jin Deng.

Monk Jin Deng unhurriedly took out a copy of “Wind and Thunder Manor’s manor Lord’s words”.

Lotus Sun’s eyes were wide open. “How did senior Jin Deng Get It..”

Monk Jin Deng didn’t smile. “Before I came, this penniless monk personally went to wind and thunder manor and took out this copy of “Wind and Thunder Manor’s manor Lord’s words”, which was suspected of recording mysterious characters.”

You Yueqing was also stunned. “Then, the Manor Head gave it to you just like that?”

The golden lamp monk nodded. “The manor head has heard of this penniless monk’s name. This penniless monk only said that he was passing by this place for cultivation and that he could open up an item for the manor head for free. I didn’t expect the manor head of the wind and Thunder Manor to give this to me without a second thought. “However, it takes time to open up the book properly, so the manor head of the wind and thunder manor allowed this penniless monk to bring the book back first...”

“Then what if the master doesn’t have this quotation...”

“It can’t be.”

The monk smiled. “Because I’m taking little friend Qin Zong with me. Little friend Xiang Yi and Zhang Zitao are also with me.”

Lotus Sun was shocked. “So if we can’t borrow it, senior is asking senior Xiang Yi and senior Zhang to steal it...”

“That’s not true.”

Zhang Zi crossed his arms and snorted arrogantly. “We’re all cultured people. It’s not like we’re not returning the quote. At most, we’re just borrowing it.”

Lotus Sun and You Yueqing:”...”

Although it still felt a little strange, at least the seniors working together could be considered efficient.

Lotus Sun remembered that Xiang Yi and Zhang Zicao had previously made a private agreement, saying that they would compare who was the “Strongest lock-picking king” under legal and legal conditions.

The two had originally agreed to look for residents who couldn’t enter their homes and needed to find a locksmith in their designated areas, and to provide free lock-picking services. In the same amount of time, whoever helped the most people.., would receive the title of “The strongest lock-picking king.”.

Unfortunately, because of the time, the two hadn’t finished their competition until now.

Lotus Sun didn’t know what the meaning of winning this title was, but to be honest... sometimes a man’s happiness was such a simple thing.

Just as Lotus Sun was in a daze, a familiar voice entered her ears.

“The video that priest you sent earlier did indeed have a faint mysterious text on it. And we also compared it with this quote. The font of the two is almost the same.”

Gu Shunzhi rubbed the space between his eyebrows and said,

“But at the moment, we are not sure that this mysterious text was written by the Master of wind and Thunder Manor.”

“Why do you think so?” Lotus Sun asked.

“Because the book used to record the words of the Master of wind and Thunder Manor is an antique, very thick. It looks like a dictionary. The overall material of the quotation is also very special. Even if another 10,000 years have passed, the handwriting on it can still be clearly seen. The paper is as clean as new, without a single wrinkle.”

The corners of Gu Shunzhi’s mouth curled up, he said, “That’s why we now suspect that this quote was used a second time by the Manor Head of wind and Thunder Manor. The first half of the book records those mysterious writings, while the second half records the words written by the manor head of wind and Thunder Manor himself.”

“Then, seniors, have you found a way to decipher the quote?” You Yueqing sat upright and asked. She took a sip of the tea little silver had poured for her and felt that the tea was rich and refreshing, which instantly cheered her up a lot.

This was a peerless tea, almost on par with the tea leaves she had drunk at Lotus Sun’s house. However, given Odd Zhuo’s current status, you Yueqing didn’t think it was strange that he could come up with such tea leaves.

She had always thought that Wenxian garden villa was Odd Zhuo’s home, but if she knew that this was grenade-throwing senior immortal’s home, she was afraid that you Yueqing would be even more astonished by Lotus Sun’s connections.

“We took turns to look at it earlier. This mysterious text is indeed very mysterious, and no ordinary person can decipher it,” Li Xian said as he and the others looked at each other, in the end, he didn’t directly tell you Yueqing about the eternal one.

Liu Qingyi held Wang Zhen’s arm and said, “So the most likely way to succeed now is to let senior golden lamp try it out.”

At this point, Lotus Sun also remembered that golden lamp had the swastika, and he also had the past, present, and future Buddhist flames protecting his body. Even if the swastika was damaged from deciphering the mysterious text.., it could still be repaired through the Buddhist flames.

However, this kind of probing also made the golden lamp monk worried. After all, from what Lotus Sun had said earlier, Wang Ling didn’t want anyone to get involved in this matter.

So the monk was still in a dilemma.

Of course, the most important thing was these mysterious texts..

The golden lamp monk hadn’t expected that after living for so many lifetimes, there would still be texts that he hadn’t seen before.

He was worried that after using the swastika, he would sink too deep and might directly enter the prearranged scene of the mysterious text to form a soul interaction.

If he went too deep, he might be trapped in the world constructed by the mysterious text and could not come out..

Chapter 1858 1,854, Soul Exchange Across The Ages (2)(1/92)

Monk Jin Deng's concerns weren't without reason. After all, even Wang Ling had warned him not to let others get involved in too many things.

But the person who understood the ancients the best was still the ancients in the end. Although Wang Ling was invincible in the universe, some historical secrets and the complexity of the ancients were still very difficult to clear up in a short period of time.

The eternal was like a big, complicated problem. Even if there were thousands of ways to solve it, there was often only one path to the truth.

After calming himself down, monk Jin Deng finally slowly closed his eyes. A few seconds later, when his eyelids opened again, two bright swastikas suddenly appeared in his pupils.

"Let this penniless monk take a look at the secret inside," golden lamp said in a calm voice.

This was an ancient mystical text that he had never seen before. There was a certain risk in peeping at it. Perhaps he had anticipated that his direct probing might cause damage to his eyeballs.., he directly wrapped the two balls of Buddha Flames of the past around the swastika eye and penetrated it with his ocular power.

No one knew what would happen after the golden lamp Monk's test. Everyone stared at the monk intently. Li Xian, Zhang Zicao, Qin Zong, and Xiang Yi sat in a circle around the golden lamp monk, these were the four strongest people here. They formed a human-flesh spirit array to protect the monk.

"Will there be any danger?"The atmosphere at the scene was far more tense than lotus sun had imagined. In the end, even her breathing clearly became hurried.

"I... I'll do the divination."You Yueqing was also very nervous. She hurriedly took out the small turtle shell, half-closed her eyes, and then entered a meditative state.

When the ancient money inside the turtle shell made a crisp sound of collision, the ancient money fell from the crack at the bottom of the turtle shell.

And then.

It stood steadily on the floor.

“It’s an unknown divination, and the danger is unknown.” You Yueqing immediately showed a surprised look.

She had never encountered such a situation where the ancient money stood upright on the floor after falling out of the turtle shell. The probability of such a situation was extremely small.

In other words, she had no way of predicting anything related to the golden lamp monk.

“How could this be?” You Yueqing frowned and fell into deep thought.

In order to eliminate the possibility of a coincidence, she stuffed the ancient money back into the turtle shell and entered an ethereal and calm state once again, attempting to perform another divination.

“Ding...”

The second time, the ancient coin fell out of the little turtle shell. After a few rounds of shaking, it ended up standing upright on the floor again.

“It’s standing up again...”

Lotus Sun also looked at the iron-like ancient coin and fell into deep thought at the same time.

The first time was a coincidence, and the second time was standing on the floor. The probability was too low..

Lotus Sun couldn't help sweating. The waters were too deep. Perhaps they really couldn't grasp it by themselves!

This kind of divination had never been seen before. Even You Yueqing hadn't expected it to happen twice in a row.

But then again, what kind of divination was the scariest?

If it was those vicious divinations, you Yueqing wouldn't feel so bad.

Therefore, it was always those divinatory signs filled with the unknown that were the most terrifying.

“Buzz!”

At the same time, in Wenxian Garden's villa, with golden lamp monk at the center, a powerful fluctuation emerged from the monk's body, setting off powerful spirit energy waves. At the same time, the monk's swastika was also seeping blood, blood and tears kept flowing down from the corners of his eyes.

It was clear that the swastika was already in a high-load state during the process of seeping into the mysterious text, and it was already showing signs of being difficult to resist.

Odd Zhuo, Gu Shunzhi, Wang Zhen, and Liu Qingyi reacted quickly. The remaining four immediately surrounded Lotus Sun and You Yueqing and formed another formation to protect them first.

Little Silver, on the other hand, held a kitchen knife in his hand and looked like he was ready to sacrifice his blood at any moment... like loopy toad, he had already stepped into the ranks of divine beasts, and in addition to that, he had the unique healing ability of the silver horned horse clan, little Silver's blood was almost a natural holy medicine for healing.

The reaction of this spirit energy fluctuation was too high, making everyone here think that grenade-throwing senior immortal's villa might have a big explosion.

At that moment, blue veins popped up on golden lamp's temple. He pressed his palms together and, after an angry shout, actually forcibly suppressed this spirit energy fluctuation.

Lotus sun: "Is it suppressed?"

Odd Zhuo: "It looks like it's already been controlled, but I keep having the feeling that something isn't right."

The rest of the people went forward to take a look. They saw that Monk Jin Deng, Zhang Zicao, Li Xian, Xiang Yi, and Qin Zong, who had been protecting monk Jin Deng, all seemed to have lost their connection. Their heads were lowered and their eyes were closed, although they could feel their even breathing, no matter how much odd Zhuo shouted, there wasn't the slightest reaction.

"The situation isn't good. They might be trapped in this world of mystical texts," Gu Shunzhi shouted in a deep voice, almost immediately expressing his thoughts.

"They can immerse themselves in this?"

"After all, this is a mystical text that even senior golden lamp has never seen before, so it's not strange for them to have this kind of power."

Gu Shunzhi frowned. "In this state, it's very difficult to wake them up using normal methods. Moreover, they've entered an unknown world."

"We're not sure if they've entered a soul piercing state. If they've entered a soul piercing state, they'll probably be severely injured if they're in danger in that world."

"On the other hand, if they don't follow the script written in the mysterious text, they might change the trajectory of the current world!"

After analyzing the situation, Lotus Sun immediately knew that something big was about to happen. She was extremely regretful that she hadn't listened to Wang Ling and had forcefully intervened in this matter.

They had been immersed in the situation for more than ten seconds, and the remaining people didn't know how to deal with the situation in front of them.

“Are you really not going to wake me up? Do you want to give me a Slap?” Wang Zhen didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. In fact, he wasn’t sure if what he was doing would work, but it seemed that he couldn’t think of any other way at the moment.

Without another word, he went up and directly chose Zhang Zitao.

“Senior Zhang, have you sinned against brother Wang Zhen?” Lotus Sun asked weakly.

“Not really. I just heard that he had a dark history of cheating in the past, so I’m a little unhappy,” Wang Zhen answered truthfully.

”...”the rest of the people.

“There’s no other way. I’ll try my best.” Wang Zhen was a skilled and bold person, but as soon as his slap landed on Zhang Zitao’s face, his whole body instantly twitched as if he had been electrocuted.

“Wang Zhen! Be careful!”

Liu Qingyi looked anxious and hurriedly rushed over.

“Don’t go, it’s dangerous!”

You Yueqing was quick-witted and immediately pulled Liu Qingyi back.

“Sister Qingyi! Daoist priest you!”

Lotus Sun reacted very quickly as well. She immediately released ao Hai’s sword Qi in an attempt to make it look like a long whip to lure her back.

“Mistress, it’s dangerous!”

Odd Zhuo knew that things weren’t going well, so he also rushed to save her.

But in the end, he was still a step too late, and with his last heart-wrenching cry,.

The remaining four people, in the form of the gourd baby saving Grandpa, connected to Zhang Zisi's body and entered the world outlined in the mysterious text..

Chapter 1859 1,855, Soul Exchange Across The Ages (3)(1/92)

In her stupor, Lotus Sun woke up. Her mind was clear, and she could still remember what had just happened.

That's right..

In order to save her, they connected to Zhang Zicao's body like the gourd baby had saved her grandfather.

Then, in the blink of an eye, her body began to twitch as if she had been electrocuted. Under the rolling of a mysterious force, her soul was squeezed out of her body and sucked into a mysterious whirlpool.

At that moment, when Lotus Sun woke up, she felt that her body was wrapped in bandages, and she was lying in a place that was filled with light.

Boundless light shone in from the huge French windows around her and sprinkled down on the bedside. The vermilion gauze curtain moved with the wind, and there was a vermilion bird mark on it.

Lotus sun immediately realized that she had entered an unknown place. Just as monk Golden Lamp had said in the beginning, they had probably fallen into the world outlined in the mysterious text together..

“What should we do?”

Lotus Sun stood up, and soon realized that this body wasn't hers.

She could clearly feel that her chest had become much heavier. This wasn't something she should have at her age.

So even without looking in the mirror, Lotus Sun knew very clearly that she wasn't herself.

Only her soul was hers.

"Ying-er... Ying-er... Are You There?"

A strong sense of strangeness made Lotus Sun feel a little uncomfortable. She tried to call out to Sun Ying-er, but found that Sun Ying-er didn't respond at all.

Could it be that this body didn't belong to her, so the shadow didn't belong to her? So she couldn't resonate with Sun Ying-er?

Or could it be that Sun Ying 'ER had also entered the world constructed by the mysterious runes and played a role?

For a moment, Lotus Sun didn't know what to do.

Fortunately, she could feel that the resonance between herself and Ohai was still there, in a state of readiness.

As long as Lotus Sun was willing, Ohai could still be summoned at any time for self-defense.

But now Lotus Sun didn't dare to act rashly.

"If the world here is like those seniors said, a world of the past sketched out by the ancients

"Then everything I do here that goes against the course of history may change the future."

Lotus Sun closed her eyes and lay on the bed, calming her thoughts and analyzing the situation in front of her.

The most important thing now was to know who her role in this world was.

“You’re awake, so stop pretending. The emperor spared your life, but that doesn’t mean the rest of us have forgiven you.” At this moment, a magnetic young voice came from the side.

Ye Ren, the white-robed steward beside the east emperor, slowly walked over from the side door. His footsteps were very soft, and his clothes were slightly disheveled. It was obvious that he had just finished dealing with some important matters and had come here again, travel-worn.

“Where is the Emperor?” Lotus Sun asked. She was just going along with the conversation, mainly to find out her identity.

“Jiaoyang, you don’t have the right to take the initiative to see the Emperor,” ye Ren said seriously.

Jiaoyang?

So, that was her name?

And judging from the current situation, Lotus Sun felt that this Jiaoyang must have made some mistake, or else he wouldn’t have been beaten up like this.

The most likely outcome was a fight with the imperial emperor mentioned by the white-robed steward, and at the critical moment of life and death, this person called the Imperial Emperor Let Blazing Sun Live.

And after she woke up, she entered the body of this lady called “Blazing Sun.”

But entering the body was obviously not the key.

The key issue now was how she was going to return to the real world..

“I’m sorry, I don’t remember anything.”

Lotus Sun had no choice but to pretend to be a snake. It was impossible to pretend in such a situation. On the contrary, it would give people clues.

Therefore, amnesia was always a very effective excuse

Since it was amnesia, it wouldn't be too strange if her behavior was different from before.

“You've committed a heinous crime. Do you want to cover up all this with a sentence of Amnesia?”

Ye Ren smiled. He put his hands behind his back and stared at her. “You should be able to move now, right? Get Up and follow me to a place. The emperor wants to see you in a while.”

Lotus Sun had no choice but to comply. After all, she couldn't do anything that went against the course of history.

At the moment, her body was wrapped in layers of bandages, like a walking mummy. Ye Ren threw a robe at her, and after putting it on, she became even more indiscernible.

Lotus Sun was slightly startled.

She looked at ye Ren blankly. “Senior, did I commit a capital crime?”

“Haha, I actually became the senior of your goddess of the blazing sun. It seems that you really don't remember anything.”

A meaningful smile appeared in ye Ren's eyes. “In the past, you were so arrogant and would never be so polite to others. Blazing Sun, compared to the current you, I admire your unruly appearance more.”

“You haven't answered my question,” Lotus Sun said seriously.

Ye Ren nodded slightly, looking at her, he said, “Since you don't remember anything, then I'll tell you. You colluded with Emperor XI and tried to rebel with a group of the royal family of the Western Region. After this debt is settled, it's enough for you to die tens of millions of times.”

As he spoke, Ye Ren led Lotus Sun through the long palace corridor. All the guards had been removed, and Lotus Sun saw that the surroundings were in a mess, with broken walls and rubble everywhere, obviously, this was the result of the battle just now.

The room had clearly been decorated in a modern style, but now that they were outside, it was in the style of an ancient palace. This made Lotus Sun even more surprised by the world of this mysterious text.

Since this mysterious text had been written by the Ancients, Lotus Sun deduced that she might have been trapped in the world of the Ancients.

While luring Lotus Sun, Ye Ren said, "I'm the only one who knows that the emperor chose to spare your life in the end. I hope you won't do anything disobedient, or even Daofather King won't be able to save you."

"You saw the emperor's supreme emperor, the radiant Peacock King. He's an invincible existence..."

"So I'm already dead in the eyes of the others?"

"You were burned to ashes by the Peacock King's light. Everyone in the eastern region saw this. Otherwise, it wouldn't have been enough for the commoners to be angry," Ye Ren said.

After traveling for about ten minutes, the two finally came to a locked palace. It was a relatively well-preserved building in the East Emperor's palace after the war.

Lotus Sun thought Ye Ren would come to the door to unlock it, but he didn't take out the key. Instead, he grabbed the spirit lock and began to study it.

In the end, he slowly took out an iron wire from his sleeve..

"? ? ?"

Lotus Sun was stunned.

Ye Ren was obviously the Emperor's man, so why did he need to use iron wire to unlock his own palace?

Almost at that moment, Lotus Sun came to a sudden realization.

She stared at Ye Ren's back and asked tentatively, "Um... are you senior Xiang Yi or senior Zhang Zicao?"

As soon as she finished speaking, Ye Ren's back clearly froze.

Then, she turned to look at Lotus Sun with a horrified expression. "I'm Zhang Zicao. Could it be that you're... Miss Lotus Sun?"

Chapter 1860 1,856, Soul Exchange Across The Ages (4)(1/92)

After confirming her eyes, she met the right person.

Lotus Sun had never thought that she would meet Zhang Zicao so soon.

And most importantly, Zhang Zicao had disguised himself very well.

If it weren't for the habit of taking out iron wires to betray him, Lotus Sun might not have realized that it was Zhang Zicao himself.

Lotus Sun judged that Zhang Zichu was able to disguise himself so well mainly because Zhang Zichu was also an immemorial.

So since he was an immemorial, he must have some understanding of this history.

Of course, there was another situation where Zhang Zichu's memory synchronization with this body was better than hers.

Lotus Sun felt that maybe the blazing sun goddess really had lost her memory, which was why she hadn't received any memories of the blazing sun goddess.

“I didn’t expect you to actually enter the blazing sun goddess’s body, Miss Sun...”

This time, even Zhang Zichu was shocked. But fortunately, he had finally met someone he was familiar with, which made Zhang Zichu sigh in relief at the same time.

However, this greeting made Lotus Sun seem a little nervous. “Hey, if you don’t follow the lines... is that okay?”

“Miss Sun, you don’t have to worry too much. As long as you follow the historical track within the prescribed time, it won’t affect the future.”

After Zhang Zizi finished speaking, he couldn’t help but sigh. “The key now is how to find the others and how to get out of this old world of the mystical text.”

“As long as you complete the history recorded in the mystical text and complete the process as it is, that should be enough, right?”

“In theory, yes.”

Zhang Zi nodded. “But I always feel that this is a scheme set up by someone behind the scenes. And this scheme has been planned for many years. I’m afraid the purpose behind it is not that simple.”

“This is a big method to cross the timeline and space line. Even that guy, Golden Lamp, couldn’t withstand the pressure.”

“And the number of people who have the ability to do this can be counted on one hand in the entire history.”

“Is it Daofather King?”

“It’s possible, but there’s no evidence.”

Zhang Zi nodded. “Other than Daofather King, there’s also the possibility of the four eternal emperors.”

As he spoke, he used the wire to test the keyhole. After a while, he opened the sealed palace door and led Lotus Sun in.

“I remember that the person I’m going to meet later is an emperor?” Lotus sun followed behind and asked.

“It’s the East Emperor,” Zhang Zichu replied, and then a look of suspicion appeared on his face. “Strange, Miss Sun, you haven’t synchronized any of your memories?”

“Not at all. I can only tell from this injured body that a great battle has just occurred, and the original memories of this body haven’t entered my mind at all.”

“That’s strange. After I entered this white-robed steward’s body, his memories were synchronized with mine.”

“Sigh, that’s not all. I found that Ying ‘er is gone too.” Lotus sun sighed.

“Sun Ying ‘er? The Master of the Void? Your Shadow?”

“Yes.”

“I’m afraid... It’s not going to be easy...”

Zhang Zi frowned, suddenly feeling the complexity of the problem.

“What do you mean?”

“There’s a very low, but very scary possibility.”

Zhang zi whispered, “Could it be that this blazing sun goddess’ physical body and spiritual consciousness are synchronized separately...”

“Senior Zhang, you mean that Ying ‘er inherited that memory, and I only inherited this physical body?”

“That’s what I mean.”Zhang Zi nodded. “If that’s really the case, it will be particularly troublesome... This means that before we leave this world, we must find Ying ‘er, or else it will be considered a change in the course of history.”

“According to historical records, the blazing sun goddess was burned to ashes by the Eastern Emperor and the Supreme Radiant Peacock King in front of everyone in the eastern region. “There will be no more historical records, but the truth is that the blazing sun goddess is still alive

“And she will be imprisoned in the Eastern Emperor’s imperial palace for a very long period of time. She will never be able to leave

“But even so, her soul and body have never been separated... If we leave her alone, I’m afraid that it will cause other variables in the future.”

Lotus SUN’s expression became increasingly solemn as she listened to Zhang Zicao’s analysis.

She hadn’t wanted to cause trouble for Wang Ling, but she hadn’t expected that her momentary willfulness would actually lead to this situation.

“This is inevitable in history, Miss Sun, so you don’t have to be too self-critical and nervous. We still have one last trump card, don’t we?”

At this moment, Zhang Zichu comforted her.

Back in the day, this godly thief had once been a lovelorn saint. All the young girls and young women who had retained their charm throughout the ages had more or less been “Persecuted”by Zhang Zichu.

Let alone a little girl like Lotus Sun.

Even with a bandage on her face, Zhang Zicao could tell from her eyes.

It was too easy to understand.

“Could it be that the trump card senior Zhang mentioned is classmate Wang Ling...”

“Who else could it be but Ling Zhenren?”

Zhang Zicao smiled wryly. “Earlier, Miss Sun and that Daoist priest you discovered the mysterious text on that white wall, and Ling Zhenren told you not to get too involved.

“If Ling Zhenren investigated this mysterious text, I think there’s a high chance that he entered this world and played a certain role

“So the key now is to find Ling Zhenren

“But Ling Zhenren doesn’t talk much. It’s too difficult to tell which one is Ling Zhenren.”

Zhang Zichu had a headache.

For example, in the werewolf kill game, there were always newbies who were clumsy with their words, but didn’t know how to analyze the situation after getting their identity cards, so they kept quiet throughout the game. In the end, they held their identity cards and were hit by the Mark Wolf.

Ever since he had entered the modern cultivation world, Zhang Zicao had also been fascinated by werewolf kill, and it was often the most frustrating to encounter silent teammates in a werewolf kill game..

“Let’s go in first. We can only think of another way now.”

Zhang Zicao sighed secretly, feeling that the difficulty of this game had skyrocketed.

He brought Lotus Sun to the interior of this palace. It was originally the East Emperor’s spare heart-nourishing palace, which had been locked down on a daily basis. Only ye Ren had the key.

So Zhang Zicao actually had a key with him, but for Zhang Zicao himself, it didn’t matter whether he had a key or not.

Because no matter what kind of lock it was, his wire could open it.

To Zhang Zicao, the wire was like a master key.

This was a secret meeting.

Zhang Zicao brought Lotus Sun to the designated spot, and then put down the gauze curtain on the side.

Behind the gauze curtain, Lotus Sun's figure appeared hazy and blurry, as if the emperor of the east had summoned some concubine.

No one would have thought that the goddess of the blazing sun, who had turned into ashes under everyone's watchful eyes, was sitting behind the gauze curtain.

At this moment, Zhang Zitaο rang the bell. From outside the hall, a palace maid came in with a tray, on which was placed an exquisite jade porcelain pot.

However, this palace maid's walking posture was very strange, as if she was very uncomfortable with the quality of her chest. She was limping as she walked..
