Chapter 1881 The Plot That Gradually Deviated From The Script (1/92)

On the trading center star, King of Heaven Earth was actually amazing. Just his power alone had caused the black clouds above the temple to press down on the city. There was a mysterious force that completely covered the entire sky above the temple, preventing any light from entering.

Meanwhile, the two snake girls who had followed him earlier were separated by a very long distance, as if they were afraid that they would be implicated. Not only did they hide far away, but they also covered themselves with several layers of spiritual shields.

They did not participate in the battle, they just kept urging King of Heaven and earth to make a move. "Lord, come on! Get Rid of the villain in Room 1! Get Back the book of the Nine Realms! There is a statue of the great emperor of the West in the temple, and he is watching!"

The Snake Girl No. 2 heard this and immediately urged, "Lord, quickly go! These people are average in strength, so they will definitely not be able to beat you! You are experienced in the battlefield, so how can you be afraid of these people?"

King tiankun sneered after hearing that. He stood proudly in the air with a vigorous aura, as if he did not care about the people below.

At this time, the believers in the temple had fled. King tiankun watched as these people fled in all directions and did not stop them.

His target was very obvious. He was here for the Eastern Emperor's group. As for the other believers in the temple, they were not his target, so he had no interest in them.

However, this was on the central star of the trade. From the past until now, very few people dared to directly make a move here.

There was a strange movement in the ancient city. As the central star system of the Alliance Army, the ancient city guards could not ignore it. Immediately, dozens of guards stepped on spirit swords and densely appeared on the other side of the sky like meteors.

When they saw that the person standing there was King Tiandi, the expressions on everyone's faces changed. This was the representative of the Western Emperor. His combat strength was outstanding. Now that he had chosen to make a move here, the ancient city guards instantly appeared very passive.

"Your Highness, this is not the place to make a move."

One of the captains of the ancient city guards stood out. He braced himself and talked to King tiankun with a head full of cold sweat. He was under a lot of pressure, and his heart trembled. This king Tiankun was indeed worthy of being the representative of the Great Emperor of the west, an important figure who had been on the battlefield for a long time, just by standing in front of him, one could feel the terrifying pressure.

Seeing that King Tiankun was silent, his Adam's apple could not help but roll. Then he said, "If your highness can use the core world to fight, we will leave immediately."

This was the current method of the ancient city guards to retreat in order to advance. It was their duty to mediate the conflicts and wars in the central galaxy.

However, the person in front of them was king tiankun, a very troublesome figure. The ancient city guards knew that they were powerless to stop him, so they could only take a step back and hope that King tiankun could use the core world to fight.

But King of Heaven Earth could not care about these things, he did not put these ancient city guards in his eyes at all. "Then wouldn't my core world be a mess? This king will fight here! Please rest assured that I will not cause you any trouble. This king will act with propriety and will not cause any major damage to this place."

Hearing this, the ancient city guards could not help but look at each other. They wanted to say something, but they hesitated. Even with King of Heaven Earth's guarantee, most of them still appeared to be very hesitant.

A battle between deity transformation tier warriors was a city destroyer, not to mention an ancestor tier warrior like King Tian Kun. If an ancestor tier warrior attacked him, it would not only destroy the world, but also a serious planetary war!

"It's fine, everyone. Since King Tian Kun wants to compete with me, I naturally have no reason to refuse. Don't worry, everyone. I will not let King Tian Kun wreak havoc here."

At this moment, the eastern emperor smiled amiably and said, "If you destroy it, with the divine elephant of the Great Emperor of the west here, you can ask the Great Emperor of the west for this maintenance fee. I believe that the Great Emperor of the west is wise and divine, and will never go back on his word."

At this moment, a powerful psionic power surged out like flames from the Eastern Emperor's body. This was merely the most ordinary fire-type spell, and it was not the Vermillion Bird spell divine ability, but it was already so terrifying.

This was because the east emperor did not want to directly reveal his true identity and deliberately hid it. He was currently playing the role of a member of the royal family from the eastern region, so the fire-type spell on his body would not make people feel awkward or strange.

King Tiandi had long noticed that the guest in Room 1 was not an ordinary person, but the intensity of this psionic power still made his eyes jump slightly.

The clash of their auras at this moment immediately made the situation impossible to resolve. The ancient city guards in the sky could not withstand such a clash of auras at all, and being caught in the middle made them feel extremely awkward, they had no choice but to fall from the sky and be responsible for dispersing the crowd around them to construct a barrier.

"Madam Yamanabe, it's very dangerous here!" An ancient city guard came in front of Madam Yamanabe and tried to take her away.

However, Madam Shanxiu only smiled faintly. "It's okay, I'm right here."

She then looked at Sun Fu, Chen Ren, and Guo Jie next to her. "These three juniors are also under my protection, so there won't be any accidents. You Guys Go and chase away the other itinerant cultivators first; their safety is more important."

Madam Shanxiu's expression was calm and composed, which was unexpected. Lotus Sun, Zhang Zicao, and Wang Zhen were all a little stunned.

They were sure that Madam Shan Xiu had definitely not come from the modern world, but this calm and composed attitude, as if she already knew Wang Ling's identity, made them feel very puzzled at the same time.

Boom!

King Tian Kun pressed his palm forward, and immediately, the Great Dao rumbled. His attack was extremely fast, like a flood dragon exploring the sea. It brought with it a brilliant light that shattered the surrounding space, and the dark purple lightning was extremely terrifying

This was the western region's "Dragon-snake romance" divine ability. King tiankun had already cultivated it to the tenth level. It was just one palm, and it was accompanied by a terrifying speed that brought about different changes. It was like a snake, a dragon, and a flood dragon.., it was like the world was being turned upside down as it intertwined with the blazing fire that emperor Dong was emitting. It formed a brilliant yin-yang pattern.

One was Yin and the other was Yang; one was like a demon god descending into the world, while the other was like a golden crow dancing in the wind.

Hiding in Emperor Dong's body, Wang Ling was secretly observing everything. He had never directly assisted Emperor Dong, and everything he was seeing now was all due to Emperor Dong's own power.

It could only be said that he was indeed an expert with the bearing of an emperor; he just stood there with his hands behind his back and was unusually steady

Just as the Eastern Emperor had said before, he was only facing a king. How could a mere king make an emperor feel fear.

Therefore, he stood where he was and wrapped his palm with flames. Then, he clenched his fist and threw it at King Tian Kun in front of him!

Boom!

A huge and blazing flame erupted from the Eastern Emperor's fist. It was like a fire dragon charging straight at King Tian Kun's body. This attack of the eastern emperor could be said to be effortless, an astonishing power erupted from his fist and shot towards the sky, forming an astonishing pillar of fire that could not be seen by the naked eye.

What happened next was something that everyone present had not expected. Even Emperor East himself felt extremely astonished.

Because Emperor East had never expected.

That punch of his...

Had actually killed King Tian Kun..

And this, is in the diary did not write at all!

Chapter 1882 1,878: Self-Destruction Of Identity (1/92)

It had only been one punch, and King Tian Kun had been directly reduced to ashes. East emperor immediately felt a strong sense of astonishment.

This wasn't what he had hoped to see, because it wasn't in the diary's script at all!

According to the plot in the diary, he had only been able to severely injure King Tian Kun, and it wasn't enough for him to be directly reduced to ashes.

"What happened? How did he directly kill him?" Wang Ying asked, but his expression was as calm as Wang Ling's, and the two of them felt that things had become interesting.

Wang Ling had originally felt that since this trip to the eternal world had been planned, something must have gone wrong in the middle, and it was impossible for him to smoothly follow the plot in the diary.

At first, he had thought that Emperor East was in cahoots with the person who had guided him in writing the diary, which was why he had concealed the truth and refused to reveal his identity.

But judging from the results now, it was clear that Emperor East also knew nothing about the change in the diary's trajectory, and was even a little dazed.

"No, I didn't want to kill him at all... Senior Wang didn't help me at all, and the strength of my punch just now wasn't enough to kill him at all." In the group voice spell, Emperor East was also very incredulous about this.

“Now it seems that we were set up together,” Lotus Sun added at this time.

According to the original trajectory of the diary, King of Heaven Earth had only been seriously injured, and even the great emperor of the West had only suffered a loss.

After all, this was a place with strict order in the central galaxy. King of Heaven Earth had directly used the method of killing people and stealing goods, and then had been severely injured by the Great Emperor of the East's counterattack. No matter where he went, the Great Emperor of the East was in the right.

However, now that King Tien Kun died, it was not just an ordinary conflict. Instead, it was a diplomatic issue between the two regions.

The person who died was King Tien Kun, the most famous king in the Western Region! He was the general who guarded the western region at the same time! The person who was named as the representative of the Western Emperor was second only to the western emperor in terms of overall strength!

Such a person was killed with one punch..

This was something that no one had expected.

At this point, the streets of the ancient city began to ring with sounds of chaos.

This was because the Heaven Earth King had suddenly disappeared under this punch. No one could react to the fact that the Heaven Earth King had been killed. They felt that this lord had used some sort of method to escape.

For a time, many people were discussing. Only the great emperor of the East clearly knew that the Heaven Earth King had died completely. His body had been completely destroyed, and not even a trace of his ashes was left behind.

Just as they were at a loss, the two snake-maidens who had been following King Tian Kun earlier suddenly walked over with their graceful bodies.

The two snake-maidens acted as if they were facing a great enemy, one of the snake-maidens stared straight at the East Emperor. “You bastard! You actually used such a despicable method. If it wasn’t for my Lord’s quick escape, I’m afraid he would have been severely injured by you!”

The Eastern Emperor:”...”

Snake Girl No. 2 saw this and quickly echoed, “That’s right, just you wait! My lord will definitely look for you to take revenge after he restores his strength!”

The two of them cursed loudly as if they were afraid that the people around them would not hear them.

It was only at this moment that the people around them understood the “Truth” of the matter.

Oh, so it was this king of Heaven and earth who had slipped away! He even said that he was the representative of the Great Emperor of the West! He had instigated the fight, but he had run away. This was too cowardly!

For a moment, many people on the streets began to discuss.

The vicinity of the temple became very chaotic for a moment. The people had no choice but to find a place to hold a meeting before making a long-term plan. Now, the historical track in the diary had been disrupted.

King tiankun’s death was a crucial plot point, and no one knew what would happen next.

As for the two snake girls who sang and sang like crosstalk, Wang Ling was already pretty sure that these two snake girls were on their side.

Otherwise, they definitely wouldn’t have incited king tiankun to start a war with great Emperor East..

The other crucial point was that they had actually helped great Emperor East smooth things over for the time being.

If it hadn't been for these two snake girls, everyone would probably have known that something had happened to King Tian Kun.

However, both Wang Ling and the East Emperor knew very well that this was just a temporary measure. After all, the battle had taken place in front of the temple, and in front of the other three emperors and elephants.

If this matter was over sooner or later, it would be impossible to keep it a secret. It was only a matter of time before it was discovered.

Madam Shan Xiu had mentioned Chunlan restaurant earlier, so the East Emperor had immediately asked Zhang Zicao to pay for the entire Chunlan restaurant.

The East Emperor (Wang Ling, Wang Ying) , the Saintess of the holy stone sect (Wang Zhen) , and the goddess of the blazing sun (Lotus Sun) , who had changed her name to Xia Zinian, sat in a private room.

On the other side, Li Ren (Zhang Zicao) and the eternal trio, Chen Ren, Guo Jie, Sun Fu, and Madam Shan Xiu, sat in another private room.

As for Mei Yunhai, he was used as a tool to guard the door of the restaurant.

Wang Ling waited for a while, and with his powerful spiritual perception, he soon caught wind of the snake girls under King Tian Kun.

He had already greeted Mei Yunhai, so when the two snake girls arrived, Mei Yunhai didn't stop them and directly let them pass.

After entering the door, the two of them immediately walked over to the East Emperor's room.

Their expressions were very nervous and apprehensive, as if they had mustered up a lot of courage to come here.

“Excuse me... You Are...” one of the snake girls said, and without saying anything else, directly started to confirm her identity.

It was very obvious that the two snake girls had received Wang Ling’s signal in the auction house when he had auctioned off that fake divine beast hair.

But before Snake Girl No. 1 could say anything, Wang Ying immediately interjected, “That’s right, I’m Wang Ying.”

After saying this, the two snake girls looked at each other. They were very clever, and when they saw Wang Ying interjecting directly, they immediately understood that Wang Ling should be in the same body as Wang Ying, and he was definitely still hiding his identity, they didn’t want to be exposed, which was why they had asked Wang Ying to come forward.

“It really is you, senior Wang.” After snake girl No. 1 understood everything, she immediately sighed and then began to reveal her identity. “I’m Liu Qingyi.”

Because she had already completely deviated from the track of history, there was no harm in directly revealing her identity even if they didn’t use a team voice transmission spell.

Then, she turned her gaze to Xia Zinian, and a gentle look appeared in her eyes. “This should be my good disciple, Rongrong, right?”

Hearing this, Lotus Sun immediately burst out laughing. “Eh? Master, how did you know?”

“I was your cheap master, after all. Your little eyes are too easy to catch.”

As she spoke, Liu Qingyi, who played the role of Snake Girl No. 1, turned her gaze to the Saintess of the Holy Stone sect.

Just when everyone thought that Liu Qingyi would be able to guess Wang Zhen’s identity, unexpectedly, Liu Qingyi actually raised her hand and slapped him.

Slap!

The crisp sound of the slap made Wang Zhen a little dazed. “What are you doing...”

Liu Qingyi’s eyes were filled with tears as she instantly went over and hugged him. “Idiot! Do you know how worried I was about you? !”

Wang Zhen was stunned. Just as he was about to hug Liu Qingyi, blood started to seep out from the corner of his mouth.

Liu Qingyi jumped in fright. “What’s going on? I only slapped him lightly...”

The emperor swallowed the dog food in his mouth and wiped the sweat off his face. “Brother Wang Zhen’s attached body is already pregnant. Miss Liu’s slap should have affected his fetus.”

Liu Qingyi:”? ? ?”

Chapter 1883 1,879, Usurper Of The Throne (1/92)

Facing the womanized version of Wang Zhen who was pregnant with Tuan Zi, Liu Qingyi’s expression was extremely complicated. Although she had planned to have a child after her relationship with Wang Zhen, she hadn’t expected it to happen so much earlier!

Moreover, the person who was pregnant wasn’t her, but Wang Zhen himself!

“Right now, the most important thing is to think of a way to go back... otherwise, if we continue to drag this on for all eternity, I’m really going to give birth.” Wang Zhen didn’t know whether to laugh or cry as he said this. He took a few deep breaths and had already steadied the baby’s movements, however, the mask of pain on his face was still very obvious.

He had a feeling that something would happen to this child soon. If that really happened, this wouldn’t be a joke... as a man, he would really have to experience the pain of childbirth, this was something Wang Zhen couldn’t imagine.

According to the original diary’s trajectory, as long as the Four Emperors meeting could be successfully completed, they would be able to return directly to the modern world.

But now that the diary’s trajectory had been disrupted, it meant that the original outcome of the Four Emperors meeting would also change, and there would even be many other complicated trajectories.

At that time, even if the four emperors' gathering could go on smoothly, it would become a problem whether they could return after completing their mission.

It was precisely because of this child that Wang Zhen had been so focused on it these days that he had no time to care about anything else.

No matter how beautiful the Saintess of holy stone sect was, Wang Zhen had no mood to admire her at all, nor did he have any lewd thoughts about this body.

Of course, this was all thanks to Liu Qingyi's strict discipline in the past. Although the two of them had entered different bodies, they still knew each other's personalities very well.

At the same time, Liu Qingyi had full trust in Wang Zhen, and felt that he would never do anything to let her down.

"Hey, that's Great." Lotus sun was extremely envious, even though she knew very well in her heart that this wasn't the time to be envious of others.

Just as Wang Ling had expected, these two snake girls were on their side, and they had all transmigrated from the modern world.

As Snake Girl Number One, Liu Qingyi had already exposed her identity, but at this moment, snake girl number two suddenly smiled at Lotus Sun. "Since you've guessed sister Qingyi's identity, can you guess my identity?"

Lotus sun smiled and replied, "You're Daoist Priest You Yueqing, right?"

Seeing that her identity had been exposed, you Yueqing looked as if she was asking for trouble. "Hey, I've only known you for a short time. How Do You Know Me So Well? You can guess me instantly."

Lotus Sun smiled. "Priest you has an elegant temperament. Even if you enter this snake girl's body, you won't change that easily, right? "Of course, the most important thing is... priest you, can you put down the feather duster in your hand..."

You Yueqing smiled awkwardly. She did not expect that the feather duster in her hand would betray her.

When she was thinking about things, she actually had the habit of throwing dust. This was an occupational disease that she had developed over the years as a monk.

However, in order to not expose her identity as the snake girl, she had to endure these days. However, now that the script's trajectory was completely messy, she could release her nature.

It was just that she couldn't find a suitable floating dust for the time being, so she could only use the feather duster she found in the restaurant to replace it.

It was this habitual action that allowed Lotus Sun to sense something was amiss.

Immediately after, Wang Ying used voice transmission to quickly summarize the current situation to Liu Qingyi and You Yueqing.

At this point, everyone once again fell into deep thought.

Back to the main topic, the current emperor Dong Sighed. "I didn't expect things to turn out like this. According to the previous script's settings, King Tiandi shouldn't have been beaten to death by me."

"There's clearly a third party involved."

Liu Qingyi analyzed and looked at the eastern emperor, "And I think that if senior really didn't hide anything from us, there's only one situation left."

"At this point, I really have nothing to hide. Senior Wang is in my body, and he witnessed everything. I was hoping that senior Wang would stand out for me at the Four Emperors gathering. "Who would have thought that such a thing would happen?" The eastern emperor was very anxious, it seemed that he was not hiding anything at all.

"Then this matter is actually very obvious. Even a third party knows about this diary and intends to deliberately destroy the diary's trajectory to achieve their own unspeakable goal."

At this moment, Liu Qingyi stared straight at the eastern emperor and said, “Senior, I’ll ask you again. Are you sure that you’re not lying? You really know nothing about this mysterious senior?”

Looking at the eastern emperor with such a gaze, he felt a little relieved. She was clearly a girl whose realm was much lower than his, but for some reason, the eastern emperor felt as if he was a level lower than Liu Qingyi.

This was a powerful gaze interrogation technique, and Wang Zhen had the most say in this.

Ever since Wang Zhen and Liu Qingyi got together, Liu Qingyi had been especially strict with Wang Zhen’s interactions with other members of the opposite sex. She would often use this gaze to interrogate him.

Therefore, under Liu Qingyi’s gaze, it was useless to lie. As long as there was anything wrong, Liu Qingyi would be able to detect it.

Thus, after Liu Qingyi stared into emperor Dong’s eyes for a few minutes, she suddenly looked away, she rubbed her chin in puzzlement. “Mm... from what I can see, Emperor Dong isn’t lying. He really doesn’t know anything about the unexpected situation that has happened, or about this mysterious senior wen.”

“So first, we have to figure out what the third party is planning by disrupting the original trajectory of the diary.” At this moment, Wang Ying’s voice was heard.

He snapped his fingers using the eastern emperor’s body, and a circle of light suddenly appeared in the void in front of him. Inside it was the scene of Zhang Zicao and Mrs. Shan Xiu talking in another room.

At this time, after Zhang Zicao and Mrs. Shan Xiu were testing each other, they happened to ask about the key topic of the book of the Nine Realms.

“Mrs. Shan Xiu said before that as a reward for my master, Mrs. Shan Xiu would tell a secret about the book of the Nine Realms. I wonder if it’s true?” Zhang Zicao asked.

“Of course it’s true when I say it.”Mrs. Shan Xiu smiled kindly. As she spoke, she gave Sun Fu a look. “Fu’er, take out the thing.”

“Yes, Madam.”Sun Fu nodded obediently. Then, she took out a familiar scroll from a storage ring.

“This is...”

Zhang Zishou and everyone else in the other room were instantly stunned.

“As you can see.”

Madam Shanxiu narrowed her eyes and said mysteriously, “This is another book, the book of the Nine Realms. And indeed, it’s the real one from Daofather Wang.”

“Then the one we obtained...”

“That is also a true copy,”Madam Hillgrace said. “There were two original copies of the book of the Nine Realms. One was a Yang Scroll, the other a Yin scroll...”

Chapter 1884 1,880, The Long-Planned Usurper (2)(1/92)

There were actually two books of the nine realms in this cultivation world at the same time..

Whether it was Zhang Zicao who was watching them directly at the moment, or Wang Ling who was peeping from the screen in the next room, everyone was slightly stunned.

“Daofather Wang... designed two books from the start?”Zhang Zicao asked.

“There was only one at the beginning.”Madam Shan Xiu frowned, she said, “Do you still remember the bowl of all creation that was sold at the beginning of the auction? It’s a chaos magic treasure that can duplicate any object.”

“So it’s that bowl... that’s not right. That Bowl isn’t that strong. It’s fine if it duplicates pills and talismans, but how could it duplicate the book of the Nine Realms?”Zhang Zi was puzzled.

“It’s a magic treasure that has the same function as that bowl. And this magic treasure, according to what I know, should be an object from the Outer God’s palace, and it’s related to the Old World.” These words once again shocked everyone present.

Perhaps not many modern cultivators knew about the old world, but this was a common topic among the eternal cultivators.

Humans were curious creatures, and would never stop tracing and discussing past civilizations.

It was a never-ending cycle.

If it had been in the heyday of the Old World, these old rulers, led by foreign gods, would certainly have traced the origin of the universe.

Although they had been a magnificent race in the history of the universe, Wang Ling was sure that they were definitely not the origin of the universe.

In the vast universe, there were all kinds of mysterious species emerging in an endless stream. The Old World, the Dragon World, and the world of cultivators now constructed by humans were just a drop in the ocean in the vast universe.

“Then is the book of the Nine Realms in Madam’s hand a yin volume or a Yang Volume?” Zhang Zicao was already a little confused as he opened his eyes and asked.

“It’s a yin volume,” Madam Shanxiu said. “If you use your spiritual sense to sense it carefully, you should be able to sense that it’s surrounded by some extraordinary energy that doesn’t belong to cultivators.”

“But I still can’t figure out why that person would attack King Tiandi.” Zhang Zi frowned.

“Because the Yin Scroll of the book of the Nine Realms originally belonged to King Tiandi.”

“Ah?”

“Besides, King Tiandi entrusted the godly thief named Zhang Zichu to give it to me.”

“AH? ? ?”

“What’s wrong with this brother? Why do I feel that you’re so surprised?”

” ...”

Zhang Zi wiped off his cold sweat and tried his best to regain his composure. At the same time, he began to recall the ancient past that spanned a long time.

He vaguely remembered that there was such a thing, but if Mrs. Shan Xiu had not mentioned it at this moment, he would not have remembered it for the rest of his life.

“Do you still remember that Zhang Zi stole the mixed celestial stone in front of everyone at the auction? The commission from King Tian Kun started at that time.”

Madam Shan Xiu said, “Therefore, the mixed immortal stone was just a bait. King Tian Kun had intended to hand it over from the beginning. This was originally the reward paid to Zhang Zichu. “And the real purpose was indeed to transfer the Yin Scroll of the book of the Nine Realms to me.”

When the topic came to this point, everyone around was stunned.

No one would have thought that the truth would be like this..

On the surface, King of Heaven and Earth attended the auction with dignity, guarded the mixed celestial stone, and threatened to capture Zhang Zi for stealing... everything behind the scenes was actually to transfer the Yin Scroll of the book of the Nine Realms out.

At this time, Chen Ren could not help but speak with his chin cupped in his hand. “So, King of Heaven and Earth’s real purpose is actually to ask Madam to protect the Yin Scroll of the book of the Nine Realms, and he also knows that he has been targeted from the beginning?”

Madam Shanxiu seemed to be surprised by Chen Ren’s accurate guess. After being stunned for a moment, she nodded and said, “Brother Chen Ren is right...”

“But what is his purpose of snatching the Yang Scroll from the gentleman in Room 1 at the auction?” Sun Fu asked.

“Because under normal circumstances, the duplicated item can not exceed the original. “But because this yin scroll has the power of the Old World, it’s surrounded by a mysterious force. “In this way, the situation is different from what we imagined.”

Madam Shanxiu explained, “Compared to the Yang Scroll, the Yin scroll has more terrifying power. “Not only can it inherit the orthodoxy of Daofather king, but it will also receive the power from the Old World... as far as I know, this duplicated Yin scroll has no restrictions. Whoever opens it will be able to see the words inside.”

“Could this be... the revival plan from the Old World?” Zhang Zi boldly hypothesized.

“That’s right. This revival plan is extremely dangerous. King Tiandi had obviously guessed this as well, which was why he began to set up this plan.”

Madam Shanxiu said, “This yin scroll is just a replica after all. As long as king Tiandi can successfully obtain the Yang Scroll, he’ll be able to cancel out a portion of the Yin Scroll’s power, and then gather his power to destroy it... but unfortunately, he didn’t bid for your master.”

“So he had no choice but to change his plan and could only forcefully take the Yang Scroll. He didn’t expect to be ambushed by a third party during the battle.”

“So, his death really has nothing to do with my master?”

“It’s not completely unrelated... but this matter really can’t be blamed on all of you. After all, it seems that King Tian Kun intended to digest this matter on his own. “And I only came to some conclusions based on some clues and evidence that I currently have.”

Madam Shanxiu sighed and said, “The moment King of Heaven Earth was destroyed, not a single thing was left behind. Don’t you think it’s Strange?”

“It is indeed very strange.” Zhang Zi nodded. “If a normal cultivator died, it wouldn’t be so clean. King of Heaven Earth evaporated in an instant and disappeared in an instant. Such a method... is very heaven-defying.”

“That’s because the moment the third party eliminated him, they also took away all the magic treasures that could be stored in his body. From the very beginning, they had come for this yin volume of the book of the Nine Realms.”

After listening to the whole reasoning, everyone couldn’t help feeling a little conflicted.

Although Madam Shan Xiu had come to this conclusion based on the clues they had so far, given her status in the cultivation world today, the credibility of her words was very high.

This deduction was also a very reasonable one, and it also explained a lot of things that Wang Ling hadn’t figured out before.

Now, the question was, who exactly was this third party..

In fact, at this very moment, Wang Ling vaguely had an answer in his heart.

“Since Madam has said so much, you should know something about this third party, right?” At this moment, Zhang Zicao asked seriously.

Madam Shan Xiu shook her head slightly, “This person’s power is spread throughout the central region and the four major regions. He’s a new force that has flourished in the past hundred years. He also made a lot of money through the conflict between the eastern and western regions. His foundation is very strong...”

“Could it be...” Zhang Zitao suddenly thought of something.

“Yes, this force has a surname: Peng.”

Chapter 1885 1,881, Long-Planned Usurper (3)(1/92)

Madam Shanxiu’s words could be said to explain a lot of things that Wang Ling hadn’t been able to understand before.

For example, given dao ancestor Wang's prestigious status in the cultivation world, why had he chosen a rebellious and rebellious person like Peng Xiren as his disciple.

After all, talent wasn't the only thing that mattered when it came to choosing a disciple, and moral character was also very important.

But now, all in all, Peng Xiren was nothing more than a usurper who claimed to be the disciple of Daofather King.

Because of the promise he had made, Daofather King had no choice but to accept her and transmit his own orthodoxy to her.

"I didn't expect things to turn out like this..."

Even the East Emperor was surprised by this outcome. It wasn't that the Four Emperors hadn't noticed the newly risen Peng family in the last hundred years, but they hadn't expected the Peng family to have such an idea.

"Seniors, I suddenly thought of a possibility," Lotus Sun suddenly said, her expression extremely grave.

"Please speak, Miss Sun." The east emperor nodded, as if he was all ears.

"I'm thinking... If the death of King Tian Kun, and the subsequent fight for the book of the Nine Realms by this Peng Xi Ren, are all within the historical trajectory?"

It had to be said that Lotus Sun had come up with a very bold idea, which shocked everyone present, and they all looked at each other in dismay.

Emperor east asked, "This... you mean, it's still within the historical trajectory?"

Lotus Sun nodded obediently, then she analyzed at a leisurely pace, "I think so. The progress of the diary, including Emperor East himself, is actually our first experience. "Although the things that will happen in the future were written on it, and it didn't develop according to what was written in the diary, it seems to have deviated from the historical trajectory. "But if all of this was planned by the senior who wrote the diary, then it's a different story

“Since that senior has the ability to write this diary that transcends the timeline, then he must have the power to influence the development of the trajectory. And if he has already calculated the death of King Tian Kun. And the fact that Peng Xiren will seize the book of the Nine Realms, then everything else is actually logical.”

“And as for what I said above, there is actually evidence to support it. After all, when Peng Xiren was in the modern cultivation society, he did indeed inherit the orthodoxy of Daofather Wang. “And this orthodoxy is very pure. Clearly, it wasn’t given to him by the Yin Scroll of the book of the Nine Realms.”

“This...”

Hearing this, everyone was stunned. Wang Zhen took a closer look, he felt that Lotus Sun’s words made a lot of sense. “Besides, what Lotus said actually makes a lot of sense. “And why do I feel that rather than saying that the one who was truly arranged was the dead king of Heaven and earth, it’s more accurate to say that it was this Peng XI.”

Liu Qingyi also quickly nodded, she agreed with Wang Zhen. “Mm, that makes a lot of sense. “After all, in the modern cultivation society’s timeline, even if this Peng Xiren inherits dao ancestor Wang’s orthodoxy, he would still be beaten up by senior Wang... In other words, it’s very likely that this orthodoxy was deliberately passed on to him in our timeline.”

Wang Ling and Wang Ying:”...”

So that was how it was!

At that moment, Wang Ling couldn’t help secretly exclaiming that Lotus Sun was a genius..

He had only been thinking about finding out who was the expert behind the mysterious writing, but he had overlooked this logical connection.

That’s right, this Peng Xiren had already completed his orthodoxy inheritance in the modern cultivation society, and even if he had already obtained dao ancestor Wang’s orthodoxy, he wasn’t as strong as he had imagined.

The orthodoxy was a good thing. It could allow a cultivator to greatly increase his cultivation in a short period of time, which was equivalent to a grand ancestor giving him a meal.

But the orthodoxy also had its limitations.

Because if Peng Xiren had the talent to surpass Daofather Wang, then inheriting Daofather Wang's orthodoxy would actually be a shackle for Peng Xiren.

And now, it actually just proved this point.

Because Peng Xiren didn't like the Orthodox Book of the Nine Realms, he was actually more interested in the Yin scroll that had been copied. After all, the Yin scroll contained the power of the Old World, which could double his strength, thus, there were infinite possibilities.

After analyzing this, the situation in front of him seemed to be infinitely clear. Faced with a script that had completely deviated from the path of the diary, Wang Ling finally knew how to put an end to this plot from the eternal world.

"It looks like we still have to watch tomorrow's Four Emperors Assembly."

At this moment, Wang Ying looked around, he said, "It's impossible that Emperor West didn't know about King Tiandi's death. Given the conflict between Emperor West and Emperor East, they would have come to take revenge under normal circumstances. But Emperor West hadn't made any moves. This only means one thing, which is that Emperor West also thought of this, which is why... He didn't make a move."

"In that case, the faction that Peng Xiren belongs to will continue to make a move."

You Yueqing also said. She tried her best to straighten her posture and control her snake body. Although moving was no different from walking on two legs under normal circumstances, this sense of surprise was still present at all times.

"This Peng Xiren does not know that the Yin scroll has already been transferred by King Tian Kun in advance, and that it is in Madam Shan Xiu's hands. "Therefore, the biggest possibility now is that he will come and directly snatch the Yang Scroll. "Then, he will use the magical equipment or secret techniques of the Old World to duplicate another Yin Scroll!"

At this moment, Wang Ying’s eyes met with You Yueqing’s. This priest was not old, but he was very smart.

On the other side, Zhang Zichu also came over with the Yin scroll that Madam Shanxiu had given him. Madam Shanxiu was a person of her word. Not only did she explain the whole story, but she also directly handed over the Yin Scroll.

She was not stupid. In her hands, this thing was no different from an invisible time bomb. Moreover, as an orthodox cultivator, she did not even have the intention to open it to take a look.

No cultivator with normal thinking would hope that the terrible civilization of the Old World would be revived in the eternal world of cultivation... that period of history that was filled with darkness and distortion should be obediently turned into history forever, sealed in the river of time.

“What should we do? What should we do with this thing?”Zhang Zizi took the initiative to hand over the Yin scroll.

Wang Ling also took the opportunity to take the Yin Scroll, but he had no intention of opening it. Although he was curious about the Old World, he was now very clear that he was making a decision on behalf of the future cultivators.

So he didn’t think too much about it, and a dazzling black and white flame immediately rose from his hand and burned the Yin scroll to ashes with a boom.

The East Emperor couldn’t help feeling his Adam’s apple roll. He hadn’t expected the Yin Scroll of the book of the Nine Realms to be so easily burned... What kind of method was this?

Over the past few days, this senior hiding in his body had repeatedly used methods that surpassed the knowledge of the East Emperor himself.

In particular, when the East Emperor heard from the people around him that Peng Xiren, who had inherited the Dao ancestor Wang’s orthodoxy, was still being beaten up by this senior Wang in the modern cultivation world, his heart was filled with mixed feelings.

Who was Dao ancestor Wang..

He was the legend and Pearl of the eternal cultivation world!

Such a person actually made this group of people completely lose respect for him... it was too terrifying.

Even the East Emperor himself began to have some doubts.

Was this first cultivator of the dao, or was it not dao ancestor Wang..

Chapter 1886 1,882: The Restless Members Of The Peng Family (1/92)

At the entrance of Chunlan House, after Mrs. Shanxiu had finished her report, she left with Mei Yunhai, Sun Fu, Chen Ren, and Guo Jie.

Sun Fu had successfully received the recommendation letter from Mr. Room 1, and the pride in her heart was self-evident. Originally, the Emperor of the east had only agreed to keep Sun Fu by his side for the time being. It was just a vague attempt to shirk the responsibility, and he wanted to wait for the right time to reject Sun Fu.

But now, regarding the book of the Nine Realms, Madam Shan Xiu had fulfilled her promise, and it could be said that she had made a great contribution. He felt that if he still did not agree to Sun Fu, he would not be able to live with himself.

Therefore, he immediately had Zhang Zi Use Li Ren's notes to draft a recommendation letter. He stamped the royal seal that he had prepared beforehand to hide his identity, and then sent the entire letter to Sun Fu.

As expected, after receiving the recommendation letter, Sun Fu was overjoyed.

"My God, this is a nine-star royal seal!"! This person was really an amazing big shot... his status was honorable! "With this letter of recommendation, you will definitely be able to cultivate in the imperial palace of the Eastern Region!"The few of them stared at the seal on the letter of recommendation with their eyes wide open.

The imperial family was a noble family with a high status in any region, but they were actually divided into three, six, and nine ranks.

Under normal circumstances, the imperial family with the nine-star seal only meant one thing, and that was that this imperial family had a direct bloodline connection with the Emperor of the Imperial Palace! Therefore, their status far exceeded that of the ordinary royal family.

“Thank you, Madam! If it weren’t for you, I don’t think this would have happened.”Sun Fu smiled brightly, like a summer flower, with a dazzling brilliance.

“Little sister Fu'er, do you really want to enter the Imperial Palace of the Eastern Region so badly? Is there anything that attracts you there? Madam clearly has the best relationship with the Imperial Palace of the Southern Region. If you were to enter the Southern Region, Madam wouldn’t have to go through so much trouble,”Guo Jie asked.

“I can only say that it’s fate. I feel that I have a fate with the Imperial Palace of the Eastern Region, and I seem to have met this gentleman from room 1 before,”Sun Fu said.

“You will have the chance to meet again...”Madam Shan Xiu smiled.

“US?”Sun Fu was stunned.

“Yeah... you guys...”Mrs. Shan Xiu maintained her amiable smile.

She swept her gaze over Sun Fu, Chen Ren, and Guo Jie, and there was a profound look in her eyes.

On the other side, after he had sorted out his basic thoughts, Wang Ling already knew what he had to do next.

If it was as he had expected, Peng Xiren’s side would definitely continue to attack this Yang scroll in his hands.

Under such circumstances, he would have only needed to wait for the right opportunity, but Wang Ling felt that he couldn’t wait that long. He needed to find Peng Xiren and understand the evil fate of this eternal period.

However, the eternal world was so big that it encompassed so many galaxies, and finding a single person on this vast expanse of planets was like looking for a needle in a haystack.

This required the help of others.

Fortunately, Wang Ling had already contacted many partners. As long as they worked together, it wouldn't be difficult to find Peng Xiren no matter how vast the universe was.

"If we have the help of the other emperors and gather the power of the four emperors to set up an inescapable net, it will be easier to find this Peng Xiren," East Emperor said in the team voice spell.

"But the gathering of the Four Emperors hasn't started yet. How can we contact the other emperors?" Zhang Zi asked.

There was a way to contact the other emperors, but it was not a direct way. They still needed to wait for the other emperors to respond, and this delay might cause trouble.

Therefore, according to the Eastern Emperor's own analysis, it would be best if there was a powerful figure who could come out and act as a link to pass on the information, moreover, this person had to be very clear about the position of the Four Emperors.

The person who could be found in this eternal world reminded the Eastern Emperor of the President of the central auction house, Liu Muchen.

"Senior Wang... didn't you say before that the son of the president of the central auction house, Liu Renwen, is also one of your people?" At this moment, the Eastern Emperor suddenly asked.

"That's right. He also traveled from the modern cultivation society to the Eternal World." Wang Ying nodded.

"If we can get this senior to use his identity as the son of the president of the auction house, Liu Renwen, to invite his father, Liu Muchen, to come out of retirement. "This Liu Muchen should be able to act as a link to pass on the message of our four emperors. Moreover, he might have the means to find a place before the Four Emperors meet and let us meet first," the East Emperor said.

“He Knows Your Four Emperors’ message? Who On Earth is this person?” Wang Ying was very curious.

“It’s said that this Liu Muchen used to be dao ancestor Wang’s personal bodyguard...”

“No wonder he has such a trick up his sleeve,” Wang Ying Sighed.

He felt that this could be considered an unspoken arrangement. It was a good thing that the person who had transmigrated into Liu Renwen’s body was Qin Zong, so as long as Wang Ling sent a telepathic message to Qin Zong to ask him to do this and ask Liu Muchen to come out of the mountain., it shouldn’t be a difficult task.

In fact, Liu Muchen and Qin Zong had arrived a little faster than Wang Ling had imagined; he had only given Qin Zong an order in less than fifteen minutes.

Two black-robed men who had wrapped themselves up very tightly appeared at the entrance of Spring Orchid Pavilion.

One of them was Qin Zong, who had transmigrated into Liu Renwen’s body.

Everyone was very surprised that the matter had been settled so quickly.

“Senior Qin, you settled it so quickly?” Lotus Sun Glanced at Qin Zong, who had taken off his hood, and then saw that the person standing beside Qin Zong had also taken off his hood.

This was a well-proportioned middle-aged man with a small mustache. At first glance, Lotus Sun had a sense of awe-inspiring authority, and a faint sense of majesty.

This person was Liu Muchen himself.

Considering that Liu Muchen had once been dao ancestor Wang’s personal guard, it didn’t seem too surprising that he had such an imposing manner.

However, Lotus Sun soon realized that Liu Muchen was gradually losing his composure. He first glanced at Lotus Sun and called her “Mistress.”

Lotus Sun immediately returned a stunned look. “You... You Are...”

Immediately after, that dignified face started to twist, the moment she saw East Emperor, she immediately half-knelt on the ground, crying and crying as she pounced on him. “Master, Master! I missed you so much! What would I do without you!”

Wang Ling:”...”

In fact, even Wang Ling himself hadn’t expected Odd Zhuo to actually transmigrate to Liu Muchen, the president of the central auction house.

This world was really too small!

At that moment, Wang Ling couldn’t help sighing in his heart.

Chapter 1887 1,883: This World Is Really Too Small (1/92)

After Odd Zhuo’s series of Coquettish Acts, Wang Ling couldn’t help feeling a little dazed.

At that moment, he suddenly felt that this world was really too small.

Of course, all of this could be said to be a kind of luck. Although he hadn’t cast the “Great Luck Spell” on himself, Qin Zong was the only koi in the cultivation world that he had chosen.

With this koi, their luck naturally wouldn’t be too bad.

The president of the central auction house, Liu Muchen, was the only person in charge of the intelligence network of the four regions. In ancient times, no one could replace Liu Muchen as the perfect middleman.

But for Wang Ling now, it was still a question whether Odd Zhuo would be able to play the role of Liu Muchen well.

All in all, the real Liu Muchen would never do something like pouncing on people when they saw him crying for his parents... this, this, this, he was actually rubbing his head against his chest, what a disgrace!

Wang Ling calmly pushed Odd Zhuo's head away and sighed in his heart, feeling that Odd Zhuo wasn't the least bit sensitive.

If nine temples Liangzi saw this, he would definitely be jealous!

"That's not right. How do you know this too?" It was at this moment that Wang Ying suddenly asked Wang Ling telepathically. As Wang Ling's shadow, he and Wang Ling had a telepathic connection, so when Wang Ling was thinking about something.., he had discovered a blind spot.

As a young man who didn't understand romance and had always thought of himself as a person with a poker face, he actually knew how to be "Jealous". This made Wang Ying feel incredulous.

In the face of Wang Ying's question, Wang Ling felt that Wang Ying was making a big fuss over nothing. Although he had never experienced all kinds of emotions that normal people should have, he naturally didn't know what it was like to be jealous.

But it wasn't that he didn't understand what it meant to be jealous; to be exact, Wang Ling knew the written state of every emotion.

In Wang Ling's dictionary, emotions like jealousy could be summed up as a "Special possessiveness," such as this reaction when he saw something or someone he liked get closer to someone.

Wang Ling deliberately patiently gave Wang Ying an example of this.

For example, he would sometimes have this feeling when he saw someone eat a limited edition crispy noodle snack that he couldn't buy!

"This is jealousy, right? This is definitely jealousy!" Wang Ying facepalmed; he felt that Wang Ling's understanding of jealousy seemed to have some strange deviation

But it was obvious that this wasn't the time to discuss this.

Their biggest task now was to gather the four emperors, hold a secret meeting in advance, and then set up a trap to lure Peng Xiren out.

As the core of this plan, Odd Zhuo would play a crucial role in the rest of the plot.

“Don’t worry, master, this disciple is confident in this matter! You Don’t even have to move; I’ll use Liu Muchen’s methods to call the other emperors here in spring orchid tower,” odd zhuo promised solemnly.

As everyone knew, in the eternal cultivation world, apart from Dao ancestor Wang, the highest-ranking people were the four emperors in charge of the four regions of the universe.

It was extremely difficult for a normal cultivator to meet an emperor under normal circumstances, and it was even more impossible for an ordinary person to get the four emperors to gather at a specific location in an instant.

But Liu Muchen had this special appeal.

Even Zhang Zicao was very curious. “Even if Liu Muchen was daofather Wang’s guard, could he really have that much face to ask the other emperors for help? There must be some other reason behind this. Do you have something on them that you can use against them to threaten them?”

“Threaten? How could that be possible... Liu Muchen was daofather Wang’s guard in the past, after all; how could he do such a dirty thing. “Moreover, the target of this threat is the emperor. Although Liu Muchen is strong, if he offends four emperors at the same time, it won’t be easy, right?”Odd Zhuo said.

After eavesdropping, Zhang Zi frowned and nodded. “That’s true.”

But now, everyone was even more curious as to what method Liu Muchen would use to get the other three emperors to come here.

In the end, Odd Zhuo only took out a storage bag from Liu Muchen’s body. During the few days when he hadn’t met Wang Ling, he hadn’t been idle and had been studying his identity through the memories Liu Muchen had transmitted to him, he had put himself in the role and waited for an opportunity to act.

He knew that he would definitely be able to meet Wang Ling, so he had already familiarized himself with everything early on.

To everyone's surprise, Odd Zhuo took out something very simple from Liu Muchen's exclusive storage bag. It was an extremely ordinary crystal communication ball, it was a relatively advanced communication device in the eternal cultivation world.

Unlike ordinary communication talismans, it could not only accommodate more spirit energy imprints corresponding to different cultivators, but also build up a huge network of contacts.

The most important thing was that it could directly carry out face-to-face video calls, projecting the images into the void.

"You guys are so close that you can directly use a communication ball to shake people?" East Emperor was dumbfounded and shocked by this.

Although he also had Liu Muchen's communication ball contact method, as one of the four emperors, he knew to call an emperor-level figure to the designated location... even if it was Liu Muchen.., the process wouldn't be so convenient!

But now, Liu Muchen had actually directly "Called" him to shake him..

Was his relationship with the other three emperors already this good?

In that instant, East Emperor started to feel a sense of crisis.

"Don't be nervous, it's not as ridiculous as you think." Odd Zhuo gave a mysterious smile.

Then he began to use the messaging crystal ball, directly contact west emperor: "West Ah, you can come. Yes, the central trade star on the Chunlan Building, opened in the temple side."

Siao Siao... Siao Siao?

Once again, the familiar name caught everyone by surprise.

Are you sure it's the emperor and not the little brother?

Why will have a kind of black boss to order the younger brother's already familiar feeling!
Research on the weaver!

The east emperor mentality collapsed, he never thought that the west emperor and Liu Muchen between the relationship has been good to this point.

It's ridiculous to call him Shiv!

However, just as he vomited three liters of blood, the voice of the Western Emperor is also from the message crystal ball over: "That... Sure?"? King tiankun is dead, I am still dealing with the chaos, the courtiers reported that I directly sent troops to attack the eastern region, I am still playing tai chi with them..."

"Ignore them. Find an excuse to get out and come straight here. My Master, Mistress, Senior Zhang Zicao, brother Wang Zhen, Miss Liu Qingyi, Daoist You Yueqing, Brother Qin Zong, they're all here," Odd Zhuo said, after saying this, everyone finally came to a sudden realization and understood what he meant.

Lotus sun instantly understood, and a look of sudden realization appeared on her face. "Senior Odd Zhuo, could this great emperor West also be..."

At this moment.., odd Zhuo smiled and said, "That's right!"! This great Emperor West was actually senior Li Xian. When Brother Qin Zong and I had come to the eternal world, we hadn't done anything else for the past few days except use this messaging crystal ball to make calls. In the end, we didn't expect that one hit one hit..."

Hearing this, everyone was even more shocked.

Lotus sun: "Then the other two great emperors..."

“Master’s wife is right. The other two emperors are also our people. Great Emperor North is brother Xiang Yi, and the only great empress, Great Emperor South, is senior golden lamp.”

“Senior... Senior Golden Lamp...”

“Don’t worry, they all acted very well. They didn’t expose us. Senior Golden Lamp has been a woman for several lifetimes, so it’s more than enough to act as a great empress.”

” ...”

“In other words, it seems that apart from Gu Shunzhi and his brother, we have found the rest of the people who have transmigrated to the eternal world.”

“No, there’s still Ying ‘ER. Ying ‘er isn’t with me.”

“Oh, is that so? Mistress, don’t be anxious. I haven’t finished typing up my contact list yet. If you ask Senior Qin Zong to stand by the side and Type A few more, you might have it!”

” ...”

Chapter 1888 1,884: Sun Ying ‘ER Who Had A Mental Breakdown! (1/92)

Wang Ying also knew that Sun Ying ‘er was missing. Although he didn’t show it on the surface, he had secretly activated Shadow Dao’s sensing ability many times.

But for some reason, after coming to this eternal world, Sun Ying ‘ER’s connection with him had been completely cut off, and there was no sign of any connection at all.

Wang Ying was certain that there was absolutely nothing wrong with shadow path. After all, the connection between him and Wang Ling was still there, and this also just so happened to show that shadow path was operating normally.

But why couldn’t he sense Sun Ying ‘er?

Wang Ying felt that there might be some other reason behind this.

Fortunately, the Good News Now was that of the Four Emperors who currently controlled the overall situation in the eternal world, Wang Ling and he were in control of East Emperor, while the other three emperors were on the same side.

In addition, Odd Zhuo also played the role of Liu Muchen, who controlled the most powerful intelligence network in the eternal world. As long as a few people worked together, it wouldn't be difficult to find a needle in a haystack.

As long as they used their respective forces to send out appropriate signals throughout the universe, it would be fine.

Of course, the most important prerequisite was that Sun Ying 'er had to respond.

For example, in the auction house earlier, Wang Ling had used hints to get in touch with Qin Zong, Liu Qingyi and You Yueqing.

While spring orchid restaurant was waiting for the other partners to arrive, Wang Ying clearly felt uneasy.

"Director Ying, are you worried about Ying 'er?" Lotus sun was delighted to see this.

She thought this was a very good example, especially one that Wang Ling could use as a reference.

But although it was a classic example, Tsundere was also a classic.

Wang Ying snorted and used East Emperor's body to cross his arms, he said coldly, "Heh, who would be worried about her? It wasn't easy for her to hide in this eternal world, and she doesn't have to be under my control. I'm afraid she'll be more than happy."

Although Wang Ying's Tsundere wasn't as exaggerated as Liangzi Jiugongzi's, he had his own unique side. Lotus Sun felt that this was probably the legendary contrast and cuteness.

After all, the word 'cute' really had nothing to do with Wang Ying.

"Director Ying, it doesn't seem right to lie. Don't you want to find ying-er?"

“Heh, it’s for the best if you can’t find her. It saves me the trouble of finding her every night and making her back ache, and mine too.”

” ...”

Hearing this, everyone couldn’t help but gasp. Those who didn’t know the truth felt that this sentence seemed to contain a lot of information.

The master hadn’t even started, but the shadows were making amazing progress... they were already so sick of each other!

This, this, this... what a disgrace!

“Perhaps President Ying is right. Ying-er isn’t here, so you don’t have to worry. But other than ying-er, I’m afraid no one else can withstand your planet wall knock spell,” Lotus Sun said again. This time, she chose to retreat in order to advance.

Wang Ying was as stubborn as ever, he refused to admit that he wanted to find Sun Ying ‘ER. “Even if I, Wang Ying, am cursed to death and die outside, I will never think about anything related to this guy. She is the Lord of the void, do I have to worry about her? You must be joking!”

Their brief conversation echoed in this space, and no one could interrupt.

The rest of the crowd just watched silently.

Lotus Sun’s gaze never stopped on Emperor East from the beginning to the end, and it gave him goosebumps.

But the person she really cared about wasn’t Emperor East, but Wang Ling.

She really wanted to know how much Wang Ling had learned from it..

At that moment, Wang Zhen spoke weakly, he consoled the crowd. “And I think it doesn’t matter even if we can’t find him. “As long as we complete this plot, it means that our mission is over, and once it’s over, everyone who has transmigrated from the modern world to the eternal world can go back together, right?”

“That’s true in theory, but we’re always afraid of what might happen.”

Odd Zhuo said, “In short, it’s naturally the best if we can find all of them.”. Brother Wang Zhen, don’t worry too much. Don’t worry, your child will definitely not be born before the script is over. “After all, it’s only been a short while, and you haven’t taken any miracle pills to speed up the birth, so it shouldn’t be a problem.”

Wang Zhen’s face immediately turned red. “Let me be clear, I’m not doing this for myself...”

“I know, we understand.”Odd Zhuo reached out and patted him on the shoulder. “If it were me, I’d panic too. So when it comes to this, we should all learn from senior golden lamp.”

“Why?”

“Do you think that senior golden lamp didn’t experience childbirth when he chose to be a woman in his countless reincarnations...”

” ...”

Just as the scene fell into a dead silence following Odd Zhuo’s ramblings.

On the other side, Sun Ying ‘er was also in despair.

How could she not want to contact the main force as soon as possible?

However, Sun Ying ‘er was indeed powerless now. She was screaming and roaring in her heart a thousand times... she hoped that someone here would discover her existence soon.

However, what made Sun Ying 'er despair was that she could not make a sound in her current state. Moreover, the most important thing was that the binding between Shadow Path and Wang Ying had also failed. Wang Ying could not use shadow path to sense her existence.

This idiot! How could such a cunning and witty person not discover her existence? !

She thought that after experiencing Wang Ying's countless torments with the planet wall knock spell, the tacit understanding between the two of them should be very high.

She hadn't expected that at this critical moment, it would actually fail..

Sun Ying 'ER's heart was filled with grief.

Of course, after careful consideration, she felt that she couldn't completely blame Wang Ying for not being able to discover her.

After all, no one would have thought that she was so far away and so close..

That's right.

After coming to the eternal world, the character she had transmigrated into was the child in the belly of the Saintess of the holy stone sect that Wang Zhen had played!

At first, Sun Ying 'er didn't realize this and thought that she had just been trapped by some array.

However, when Liu Qingyi saw Wang Zhen's palm strike on Wang Zhen, she was immediately jolted awake..

So at this moment, Sun Ying 'ER's heart was on the verge of collapse.

She was really too miserable!

This was simply a scam!

Why did people transmigrate to the Eternal World and act like emperors! A goddess! A rich second generation heir! At the very least, she would be a maid by the prince's side!

She was the only one who couldn't move and had zero combat power!

Sun Ying 'er realized that her state of mind had really collapsed.

The key was that she was really afraid. If the plot ended and everyone still hadn't found her, would she follow everyone back to the modern world.

If she was unlucky enough to stay here alone, how would she go back

Chapter 1889 1,885. The Spring Orchid Pavilion Was Filled With Experts (1/92)

Perhaps even the owner of the spring orchid pavilion did not expect that he would be welcomed with a big deal today, even though the owner was already satisfied with the booking fee and went out to enjoy himself.

The East Emperor directly gave a fee that was enough to rebuild a spring orchid pavilion. Even if the East Emperor tore the place down during the negotiation process, the owner would not complain at all.

However, spring orchid building was still a place for the male and female cultivators of the eternal world to have fun, and it was also the place where the most courtesans and courtesans gathered in the entire central trading galaxy.

And it was in places like this, which were filled with all kinds of dazzling illusions and extravagance, that a secret meeting of the Four Emperors was about to be held, which would shock the world, this was probably something that none of the eternal cultivators would have thought of.

Because of the Four Emperors' meeting, the other three emperors weren't far from the central trade star. As Odd Zhuo sent out the assembly signal, three cloaked people wrapped themselves tightly in spring orchid tower soon arrived.

Even if Wang Ling didn't sense them, he knew that these were the three remaining emperors. Even if their figures were hidden very well by their cloaks, he could sense that they were extraordinary from their imposing manner.

In the previous call with the messaging crystal ball, Odd Zhuo had already hinted that he needed to help Wang Ling hide his identity, so the three of them respectfully lined up in front of the East Emperor, putting on a show, with a respectful heart, they bowed together in a very humble manner. “This penniless monk, golden lamp...”

“Xiang Yi...”

“Li Xian...”

“Greetings, senior Wang!”

It had to be said that the golden lamp monk was indeed very familiar with using the body of the great empress. He did not feel like a man at all. Instead, he embodied the great Empress’s charm vividly. The only thing that was a little out of place was.., that he still retained the habit of being a monk.

As everyone knew, although the golden lamp monk had been a woman before, he was still a serious monk overall. The experience of reincarnation was just his daily work as the most holy of Buddhists. There was nothing to be surprised about.

It was just that at this moment, the Great Emperor of the East was savoring the name and suddenly came back to his senses.

When he had heard Odd Zhuo call out Jin Deng’s name before, he had felt that the name sounded very familiar. Now that Monk Jin Deng had introduced himself as “This penniless monk” .., the Great Emperor of the east came to his senses at once. “So it’s you...”

“It’s been a long time since we last saw each other. I didn’t expect to see the Great Emperor of the East’s charm after such a long time. This penniless monk is truly fortunate.” Monk Jin Deng saluted with the Empress’s body and then sat down cross-legged.

“Golden lamp, I never thought that it would really be you... I thought that it was just the same name.”

The Eastern Emperor was shocked.

He never thought that this golden lamp was actually the golden lamp monk that he knew! Furthermore, not only did this monk really live to the modern cultivation world! He even interacted with this senior Wang in his body!

For a moment, the Eastern Emperor had mixed feelings in his heart. Back in the ancient world, the golden lamp Monk's strength was not as heaven-defying as it was now, but he was still one of the top talent-type contestants, he had once been considered a strong contender for the throne.

After everyone had gathered, Wang Ying glanced ahead and nodded in satisfaction, then, he began to relay Wang Ling's message. "I believe everyone is clear about what's going to happen next. The situation is urgent. What we need to do now is to put this deviated history back on track."

"Understood."

The other three emperors nodded at the same time. They were all old acquaintances, so there wasn't the slightest obstacle in communicating with each other.

"Let me say one last thing about the reward after this mission is successfully completed."

At this moment, Wang Ying spoke.

In theory, most of the people here were members of the war sect. Although Xiang Yi and Qin were temporary guest elders and elders of the war sect, they were actually part of the official system.

Under normal circumstances, the war sect would give a difficulty rating based on the mission. The lowest difficulty rating would be D, followed by C, B, A, S, SS, and the highest SSS. Then, the war sect would form a group according to the difficulty of the mission. Finally, they would give a score of 10 out of 10 based on the completion rate of the mission and the performance of all the mission operators during the mission.

During the mission, if the score was below 6, it meant that there was no outstanding performance in the overall mission. Only a portion of the mission points would be obtained. After accumulating the points, they would go to the war sect's treasure pavilion to exchange for the corresponding items.

A score above 6 points was completely different, and if you received a high-level mission, the reward would also be very shocking.

Wang Ling wasn't a stingy person, although he knew very well that everyone would do their best with just one word from him. But sometimes, there had to be a reward.

"This is a temporary mission, and the difficulty of the mission is the highest SSS difficulty since the founding of our sect. All core members of the battle sect with a score of six or above can go to the inside of the King's treasure and choose a magic treasure," Wang Ying directly said, he conveyed Wang Ling's meaning.

Everyone's eyes instantly lit up. Wang Ling himself didn't care about what was in the king's treasure, but to everyone here, every item in it was a treasure that everyone in the world would fight over like crazy.

Of course, it was usually grenade-throwing senior immortal and the elders of the battle sect who would decide after a meeting to rate the sect's performance on missions, occasionally, some sect disciples would deliberately curry favor with some elders to cover up their poor performance on missions, which would lose a bit of fairness.

Mm... in fact, this was a very serious violation of the rules, and if it was found out, there would be a very severe punishment! The more serious ones might be directly expelled from the war sect.

But Wang Ling had overseen the entire mission this time, so there was no objection.

Ling Zhenren's personal assessment was absolutely fair and just!

The problem now was how they could set up a plan to lure out Peng Xiren.

With Peng Xiren's cautious personality, if the Eastern Emperor did not reveal any flaws, he would never snatch the book of the Nine Realms.

If he intentionally revealed a flaw, it would be too obvious, and it would make Peng Xiren suspicious.

At this moment, the Four Emperors had gathered together, and all the networks and intelligence networks in the eternal world had gathered here.

Soon.., xiang Yi, who was playing the role of Great Emperor bei, suddenly said, “Oh right, there seems to be such a thing in great emperor Bei’s memory. “I remember that the Peng family is looking for a son-in-law? “Moreover, the person they’re looking for is Peng Xiren’s younger sister, Peng Beicun, so I think it’s better...”

After thinking for a moment, Xiang Yi quickly stopped talking and quickly shook his head, “No... forget it, I’d better not say it. This can only be considered a bad idea.”

“You can say it first and listen. It’s just a discussion. It doesn’t matter,”said Wang Ying.

Xiang Yi first glanced at Lotus Sun and then said a little awkwardly, “What I mean is, since the original copy of the book of the Nine Realms is with senior Wang, why don’t we let senior Wang bring the original copy to propose marriage...”

Hearing this, everyone was stunned at first, but then many people nodded.

“It’s not bad. This idea doesn’t seem too bad,”said Li Xian, who was the emperor of the west.

“This, this, this... how can this be!”

But at that moment, Lotus Sun suddenly stood up very excitedly, her face red. “This absolutely can’t be! It’s too dangerous!”

Seeing her anxious look, everyone around her smiled knowingly.

Odd Zhuo looked at Lotus Sun, and the corners of his mouth rose wildly. He couldn’t hold it in any longer. “Then, mistress, what do you want to Do?”

Lotus Sun was quick-witted. She patted her chest and said, “How about this? Give me the book of the Nine Realms! I’ll dress up as a man, and I’ll propose!”

Chapter 1890 1886 -- She Was Anxious, She Was Anxious! (1/92)

Under the meaningful stares of the crowd, Lotus Sun’s face turned even redder. To be honest, even she herself hadn’t thought that she would come up with such a bold and constructive suggestion.

Mm... in any case, anyone could propose marriage! Emperor East wasn't allowed to go! Even if Emperor East used his own body, Wang Ling and Wang Ying were still in it after all! Lotus Sun felt that this was a little strange!

She thought that her actions this time could be regarded as a righteous act, not just for her own selfish reasons, but also for Sun Ying 'ER's sake..

These two shadows were so close to getting the job done, so how could they ruin the crucial moment with something like this?

Yes, that's right! The opinions she was putting forward now were all for Sun Ying 'er and Wang Ying's happiness!

It had nothing to do with her!

No!

"Why do I keep feeling that mistress' words are a little anxious?"

"Nonsense! Not at all!" Lotus Sun felt even hotter from her words. Then she looked around at the crowd. "Am I anxious? Am I anxious? Do I look very anxious?"

Liu Qingyi patted her shoulder and sighed. "Don't say that, my good disciple. It seems a little..."

You Yueqing nodded as well. "Mm, a little anxious."

Seeing the meaningful looks in everyone's eyes, Lotus Sun took a few deep breaths, she tried her best to regain her composure. "Alright... even if I'm a little anxious, this is for the sake of returning to the righteous path. This is for the sake of all cultivators; it's very normal!"

"As expected of mistress, you're still able to uphold the justice of cultivators under such circumstances. We can't help admiring you." Odd Zhuo's lips curled up slightly when he heard this; he couldn't bear to continue leading everyone to tease Lotus Sun, in any case, everyone present knew clearly what Lotus Sun's anxious action meant.

The only person who wasn't romantic was probably the man who had been hiding inside East Emperor's body with a paralyzed face, and whose expression hadn't been seen until now.

Wang Ling hadn't planned on letting Lotus Sun Go. After all, the book of the Nine Realms was a hot potato in the current situation, and it might not be safe even in East Emperor's hands, let alone in Lotus Sun's hands.

But on second thought, Wang Ling felt that it might be easier to let Lotus Sun handle this matter. In any case, the course of history was already in chaos, and it didn't matter even if Lotus Sun summoned Olympian Sea. If there really was an emergency.., with Olympian Sea's protective sword body, Wang Ling felt that the Peng family's materials were no match for nine-core Olympian Sea.

Of course, there was also a more important reason. Wang Ling thought that girls would understand girls' thoughts better, and it would be very abrupt for them to suddenly propose marriage.

Lotus Sun's mind was relatively delicate, and it might make the whole thing seem more tactful.

After confirming the plan, Lotus Sun let out a long sigh of relief. Liu Qingyi and You Yueqing helped her out and made some delicate adjustments to her inside and out, mainly to her skin color and facial features, it gave her originally smooth and delicate face a man-like outline.

There wasn't much change in her hairstyle. She just adjusted the length of her hair to let the black hair fall naturally, and then used her forehead as the center line to decorate her bangs on both sides, all of a sudden, Lotus Sun turned into a handsome and handsome man.

When the crowd saw Lotus Sun coming out of the room in that pure white man's Han costume, they couldn't take their eyes off her. She had a very good foundation to begin with, even though she had disguised herself as a man, she was still stunning.

Even the eastern emperor was astonished. Whether it was a man or a woman, such a face could be regarded as an immortal talent. Even if there were as many handsome men and beautiful women in the Imperial Palace of the Four Emperors.., there was no one who could make people unable to take their eyes off her the first time they laid eyes on her.

In fact, cross-dressing was the best way to tell whether a person's background was good or not. It wasn't at all false to say that beauty was in the bone but not in the skin.

“It’s possible! I think it’s completely possible! Bring the book of the Nine Realms and the betrothal gifts to propose marriage. I guarantee that Peng Beicun will like you the first time he sees you.” For some reason, Odd Zhuo suddenly felt a little excited.

After everyone had worked out the plan for this proposal, Odd Zhuo, who played the core members of the battle sect as the Four Emperors, and Liu Muchen, quickly took the lead and set up an inescapable net to prepare for the subsequent proposal.

Although it was just an act, it was in fact fishing. Since they had to fish, they naturally had to do all the preparations. The proposal team had to be luxurious and not be below the standard of the nine-star imperial family in the eternal cultivation world.

Moreover, the marriage proposal team had to be densely packed with experts. According to the lowest realm standard, they had to be at the Dao God level!

Sea Calming Pearl, Sky Jade, eight desolation ruler, nine-faced Lion Heart... a dazzling array of magical treasures and heavenly materials and earthly treasures were listed in a long list that could not be seen with the eyes.

This was a marriage proposal list that gathered the treasures of the four great imperial palaces. Every single item was so precious that it was enough to drive the cultivators of the Eternal World Crazy.

However, now that these items were going to be betrothal gifts to the Peng family, one couldn’t help but sigh.

Emperor East was sweating profusely. “Isn’t this too much preparation...”

“It’s just for show. There’s no need for emperor east to worry.” Xiang Yi laughed. “Anyway, this thing doesn’t belong to us, so you don’t have to worry too much.”

The East Emperor was speechless.”...”

What Xiang Yi said made so much sense that he was speechless for a moment.

The next part of their journey was to head directly to the Peng family's headquarters. If it wasn't for the fact that the four emperors secret meeting had gathered all the information together, perhaps no one would have known that the Peng family's influence had spread throughout the four regions, the reason why the Peng family had set up their headquarters in the Central Region Galaxy.

On one hand, it was for the sake of trade convenience. On the other hand, they could also use this middle position to control the four regions' influence, making it easier for them to distribute the Peng family's spies between the various regions.

Although the Four Emperors had sent intelligence agents to investigate the Peng family previously, the information they obtained was ultimately limited. The universe was vast, and the detection of information could not be too obvious. Furthermore, this information was not publicly disclosed.

Even before this secret meeting, the East Emperor had already determined that the Peng family's network of influence over the past few years had probably expanded to an unimaginable extent, however, when they marked the distribution of the Peng family's various powers as asterisks on the same map, they could not help but be shocked.

The sight of the stars on the map caused the east emperor's pupils to tremble.

"It seems that the Peng family is quite ambitious. I'm afraid that they have some sympathy for the throne,"Wang Ying said.

The Great Emperor East was also very worried about this. "The Peng family is too terrifying. They colluded with the Old World... we must not let them gain the upper hand. I wonder if we can use this opportunity to suppress them."

Wang Ying nodded. "That's only natural. The original plan to weaken the Peng family's forces is also within our scope, isn't it?"
