Chapter 1951 A New Way To Earn Money By Working Part-Time (1/92)

“Student Wang Ling... Why did you suddenly change your position?” Jiang Yingying simply couldn’t believe it when she saw this scene. This time, her state of mind had completely collapsed.

She had spent all her money to get closer to Wang Ling, but in the end, not only had she failed to achieve this wish, she had even become further away from Wang Ling!

Jiang Yingying’s heart was on the verge of collapse. She watched as Wang Ling packed up his things and prepared to move to that spot in the middle of the classroom, and her heart was filled with mixed feelings.

What on Earth was going on?

Hero Guo spread his hands and smiled. “Classmate Jia Jun and Wang Ling really can’t be blamed for this. It wasn’t even boss Sun who decided it; it was old pan.”

“Teacher Pan?” Jiang Yingying was startled.

“That’s right, it’s very likely that Wang Ling will soon represent our school in the battle. The middle of the classroom is where the spirit gathering array’s spirit qi is densest, so of course we’ll give him special treatment,” hero Guo said.

“But... but suddenly moving to the middle, isn’t this too sudden? Furthermore, student Wang Ling has been leaning against the window the whole time, so he won’t be used to being surrounded by everyone all of a sudden, right?” Jiang Yingying wanted to cry, but no tears came out, she didn’t know what to say.

“That’s fine,” hero Guo said mysteriously. “All the desks and chairs are going to be fitted with partitions soon, which means that everyone has separate partitions in front, back, left, and right. With partitions, there shouldn’t be a problem. This is also good for preventing and controlling the epidemic!”

“The front is also fitted... how can we go to class like this!”

“It’s very simple. The partition in front has a built-in double-sided LCD screen, which can be directly projected onto the screen at the lectern. Then, the teacher can also observe our expressions through the night screen on the back. It’s no different from usual,”Super Chen added from the side.

Jiang Yingying was stupefied. She had never thought that there was actually such black technology.

Super Chen and hero Guo had always viewed this matter as a show, and they were well aware that boss Sun would definitely retaliate against Jiang Yingying’s fierce attacks.

But it had happened so suddenly, and it really had nothing to do with Lotus Sun.

Now that Wang Ling had suddenly been transferred to Super Chen’s position, Jiang Yingying felt very hopeless.

And even if he was transferred back later, there was still a black technology screen on the desk... This also made Jiang Yingying feel very hopeless.

Of course, this screen was still limited to the elite class internal test phase, and wasn’t directly open to the public. After all, the existence of the screen would still cause a certain blind spot in the field of vision, so the teacher wouldn’t be able to see the students’small movements inside the screen.

But the students of the elite class had always been very disciplined, so they didn’t have to worry about this group of elite students doing illegal things inside.

Jiang Yingying was actually very annoyed, but at this moment, she felt an inexplicable sense of balance in her heart because she felt that adding this baffle would make it inconvenient for Wang Ling, and it would also make it inconvenient for Lotus Sun.

But reality proved that she was still young.

In the Student Union office, Lotus Sun called six-eyed Red Hezi, she communicated with her in fluent Sun Island language. “Student sparrow, that’s right! I’m Lotus Sun, and our school has installed a baffle device for desks. So I want to ask you if you can develop a plug-in...”

“I understand. Our school has also tested this black technology baffle before. I happen to have a program here that gives you the freedom to link the screen inside the board to other people. That way, you can secretly observe the person you like!” Sparrow replied.

Lotus Sun’s face instantly turned red. She had never thought that Sparrow would reveal her thoughts so directly.

But this feeling of being understood by others made Lotus Sun feel really good.

Of course, Lotus Sun also noticed something strange, which was that even nine paths and high school had already tested this set of desk baffles.

“Speaking of which, so you’ve experienced it too,” she immediately asked.

Sparrow told her everything he knew, she answered directly, “Yes, but the results of the test were actually very average. There were blind spots inside the baffles, so everyone went about their own business. The teacher was also very distressed. “But black technology is indeed black technology. This baffle was developed by Wuyang Mansion.”

“I think I’ve heard of this name before!” Lotus Sun was deep in thought.

“It’s that independent magic treasure research laboratory that’s shuttling between the various cultivation nations.”

Sparrow said, “So this time, they directly laid the baffle they designed in high school. I think there’s actually a problem. They’ve never cooperated with a high school cultivation academy before.”

“I get it, student sparrow is suspicious. Maybe Wuyang mansion has something to do with the group of miscreants who ambushed Nine Heavens Precision Yard?”

“It’s just my suspicion, and it’s a guess without any evidence. I think the possibility is very high, because they all have the same goal, and it seems they’re targeting a high school student.”

Lotus sun frowned slightly at these words.

For some reason, she had a faint feeling.

She had a feeling that Wang Ling was already being targeted by multiple forces..

If that was really the case, it would be an unprecedented crisis for Wang Ling.

After the call with Sparrow, Lotus Sun felt as if she had noticed something extraordinary again, but she didn't have any evidence at the moment to suggest that Wuyang mansion was directly related to the attack on nine heavens precision search.

As an independent laboratory dedicated to researching cutting-edge magic treasure technology, Wuyang mansion was well-known throughout the cultivation world, and had even been considered a competitor by Wang Ming in the past.

And the group of criminals who had suddenly barged into nine heavens precision search academy had now been classified as a terrorist organization. If the majestic Wuyang mansion was related to them, it would be big news around the world.

So the new information lotus sun needed now was to investigate the structure of the Wuyang mansion and find out who the curator was.

With this doubt in mind, Lotus Sun seemed a little absent-minded the whole day. In the evening, she put on the Fox Mask and met Jiang Yingying at the exclusive training ground of the war sect.

In fact, both of them had their own thoughts.

It was rare for the two absent-minded people to maintain the same silence throughout the whole training process.

In the end, it was Jiang Yingying who opened the door. “Pretty sister, you don’t seem too happy today?”

“Yes...”

Lotus Sun was stunned for a moment, and then replied, “My boyfriend is being chased by a lot of people. I feel terrible.”

“Is it a gambling debt?”

“No... It’s something else. He’s too outstanding.”

” ...”

Hearing this, Jiang Yingying also sighed. “My future boyfriend was transferred to another seat today. I paid a lot of price to sit behind him. But now that he’s gone, he’s even further away from me...”

As she spoke, she looked at Lotus Sun and asked sincerely, “Pretty sister, can you tell me if there’s a way to make money quickly?”

Chapter 1952 1948, Double Agents (1/92)

How to earn money by working?

In fact, in the modern cultivation environment, there were actually many ways to earn money by working, and it wasn’t uncommon for high school cultivators to use their vacations to take part-time summer jobs.

In addition, this was also an effective way to accumulate immortal affinity and connections in the modern cultivation society.

Lotus Sun had always known that Jiang Yingying was very short of money. This time, she had finally managed to buy a pretty desk from grenade-throwing senior immortal, but Wang Ling had switched seats again. It was obvious that Jiang Yingying was in despair now.

It was the kind of despair where money and people were both gone.

In fact, Lotus Sun had also vaguely sensed that something was wrong with Jiang Yingying at this time.

She was usually so poor, so how could she suddenly have such a valuable small pot of tea on her to trade with grenade-throwing senior immortal

Moreover, she would probably be able to quickly associate the small pot of Tea with that Nine Heavens Teahouse! That was elder Teng's base!

In other words, it was very likely that Jiang Yingying was the spy hiding in No. 60 high school that the core members of the war sect were looking for right now.

After discovering this shocking fact, Lotus Sun instantly fell silent, just like grenade-throwing senior immortal's earlier reaction.

Because this spy was a little too easy to find!

It wasn't challenging at all!

Lotus Sun sweated in her heart. She felt that grenade-throwing senior immortal should have already discovered Jiang Yingying's true identity a long time ago; right now, he was purely teasing her... he didn't want to end his high school experience card so soon.

"Yingying, you're too naive." At this moment, Lotus Sun sighed meaningfully at Jiang Yingying.

Actually, this was all Jiang Yingying's fault.

She knew that this small pot of tea was from the Nine Heavens Teahouse, yet she still brazenly went to make a deal. Wasn't she rushing to hand out elder Teng's business card to everyone.

Perhaps even elder Teng hadn't expected Jiang Yingying to be discovered so quickly.

"Sigh, I just know that I'm easily fooled. That's why I hope that pretty sister can give me some pointers... and introduce me to some reliable jobs," said Jiang Yingying.

“But that way, you’ll have to take care of school, training, and working at night. It’ll be very hard.” Lotus Sun’s expression was complicated under the fox mask. “Your grandfather will definitely feel sorry for you if he finds out, won’t he?”

“I don’t want to cause trouble for grandfather, so please keep it a secret for me, pretty sister. Besides, with pretty sister around, I don’t think anyone can bully me,” Jiang Yingying said innocently and romantically.

Lotus Sun thought for a moment, finally, she nodded. “How about this? I’ll introduce you to a less tiring job. You can help watch the shop after training with me every day. If there are customers coming over, you can help to sell things. You can earn 1,000 yuan in one night. If your sales are high, there is an additional 20% commission. “Our training ends at 8 pm. You can work until 0 pm.”

“The hourly wage is very high! Then what is the selling price?” Jiang Yingying instantly laughed.

She felt that this job was very good. It didn’t take up time. The key was that she could really earn money! With a daily minimum of 1,000 yuan plus 20% commission, as long as she worked hard, she could also become a rich woman!

“Ahem, it’s selling tea leaves. A friend of mine opened the shop,” Lotus Sun replied.

“Oh! So that’s it. I’m familiar with it! I can do this job!” Jiang Yingying nodded and said confidently, “Where’s the address?”

“Do you know the Nine Heavens Teahouse of the Vermilion Bird Sect? This new teahouse is right across from the Nine Heavens Teahouse.”

“...” Jiang Yingying was instantly stunned when she heard that.

Although she had heard of KFC’s McDonald’s Law from the beginning, she had never thought that a teahouse could also be opened in the opposite direction.

Wasn’t this asking her to compete with old vine for business..

The key was that she tried hard to think about it. She had passed by the Nine Heavens Teahouse several times before, but she had never seen another teahouse across from the Teahouse..

At eight o'clock in the evening, the training ended.

Lotus Sun said goodbye to Jiang Yingying. She watched Jiang Yingying leave, and then immediately called Jiang Xiaoche. "Brother Xiaoche, how's the situation?"

"Don't worry, everything has been prepared according to your instructions. We've opened a new teahouse opposite the Nine Heavens Teahouse," Jiang Xiaoche quickly replied.

"Okay, sorry to trouble you, Brother Xiaoche. You're the quickest."

"It's fine! It's all part of my job, but can I ask, Miss, why did you suddenly want to open a teahouse?"

"Ah, it's nothing. It's just that a friend of mine, seeing how pitiful she is, opened a teahouse for her to work. That's all."

"Then why didn't miss open it directly, but instead entrusted one..."

"I have my own arrangements. Brother Xiaoche, just pretend you don't know anything." Lotus Sun smiled.

Jiang Xiaoche was dumbfounded.

What kind of poor friend did miss need to use such a roundabout way to "Give alms"?

For some reason, Jiang Xiaoche had a faint ominous feeling.

But he had already made arrangements for the teahouse, and had also opened the shop under the identity of "Jia Guang" as instructed by Lotus Sun.

Jiang Xiaoche had even gone to investigate who this Jia Guang was.

After going around for half a round, he found out that this person was the father of the new transfer student from No. 60 High School, and he had heard that this person was a very rich nouveau riche.

So what was the connection between the young miss and this nouveau riche?

Jiang Xiaoche found that he couldn't understand Lotus Sun more and more.

Or rather, he had a feeling that he was getting further and further away from her.

He had watched Lotus Sun grow up. In the past, she had told him everything, and even said that she was very dependent on him. But now, Jiang Xiaoche found that his young miss had more and more unfathomable secrets.

That night, Jiang Yingying started her own work plan. On the way here, she had even thought that it might be some kind of hint.

Pretty Sister was a member of the War Sect. Now, she had introduced her to a job in a teahouse, and this teahouse happened to be opened opposite the Nine Heavens Teahouse..

Jiang Yingying thought about it carefully and felt that there seemed to be a problem everywhere.

She was very clear about her identity as a spy.

Since she was here to gather intelligence for Elder Teng... then, she felt that it was necessary for her to take the opportunity of working to understand the identity of the owner of this teahouse. Maybe she could learn something.

After finding the location of the teahouse according to the address, Jiang Yingying almost felt delirious, because she found that it was really an old teahouse in a remote corner of the Vermilion Bird Gate Street.

There was no sign of the teahouse. Only the word “Tea” was written on an unusually shabby flag.

Lotus Sun had asked Jiang Xiaocheng to make the flag old on purpose so that it would look unremarkable, as if the teahouse had been here for a long time.

“Stop hanging around the door. Since you’re already here, come in.”

Just as Jiang Yingying was in a daze, Daoist Guang’s voice, which she hadn’t heard in a long time, suddenly rang out from the teahouse

Chapter 1953 1949, The Second Inner Test Of The Spirit World (1/92)

The familiar voice stunned Jiang Yingying.

She was suspicious. Logically speaking, she had never seen the owner of this nameless teahouse, but for some reason, she felt that the voice was very familiar, as if it was a familiar voice that could be heard often.

After entering the interior of the Teahouse, Jiang Yingying began to carefully examine the interior decoration. The old display cabinet, the pure wood mahogany tables and chairs gave off a strong sense of antiquity, it really gave people the illusion that this nameless teahouse had been here for a long time.

At this moment, a human figure was projected from a rectangular wooden board hanging above the display cabinet, giving Jiang Yingying a fright. This was not an ordinary wooden board., on the surface, it looked like an electronic LCD screen that had been assimilated into a wooden board by a simulation spell.

“Today, your task is to look after the shop. “As well as use your own method to attract customers. There’s a tea list under the display cabinet, and the types of tea leaves on the tea cans have already been marked. The method to brew tea is in the front desk’s notebook. You can study it yourself,” Daoist Guang said with a serious expression.

“Senior, may I ask... Where Have we met before?” Jiang Yingying stared at the mimicry wooden board for a long time.

“I’m that game streamer. What’s there to make a fuss about?” Daoist Guang said, not surprised at all.

“It really is you, senior...” Jiang Yingying was shocked. She had never thought that the owner of this nameless teahouse was actually that online celebrity game streamer.

Daoist Guang replied, “Esports is a bowl of rice for youth. Many times, when you’re past this age, you can’t live without earning money. Therefore, you have to take advantage of your spare strength to develop more side businesses.”

“But senior, your age is already...”

“Look at those cultivators who have cultivated for fifty to sixty years galloping through the king’s Canyon in the middle of the night. Although I’m a little bit older than them, I’m still young and strong.”

Daoist Guang chuckled. “Pretty Wang is an old friend of mine. If she hadn’t recommended you, I wouldn’t have used a little girl like you.”

“Don’t worry, senior. I’ll definitely do a good job. I know the tea ceremony, and I’ll definitely manage the business here well. It’s just that soliciting customers...” Jiang Yingying sweated. She hadn’t actually thought that there would be soliciting customers.

Wasn’t it obvious that she was competing with elder Teng for business?

For a moment, Jiang Yingying suddenly felt like she was in a dilemma.

But just as she was in a dilemma..., daoist guang suddenly said, “Soliciting customers, I won’t force you. But after all, your salary is also linked to sales. How many customers you can get and how much sales will depend on your own ability. “If you want to earn this guaranteed 1000 yuan, I won’t say anything.”

To be honest, these words Woke Jiang Yingying up.

Yes..

1000 yuan per day was actually not enough. This time, she had lost all her belongings in order to buy a beautiful desk!

According to the unscrupulous updating speed of the author of the novel "The daily life of the Immortal King," she earned 1000 yuan per day in the book. She would have to wait for a long time before she could make back her money!

Moreover, in order to smoothly carry out the investigation, the most important task now was to raise funds... Moreover, she couldn't let Old Vine know that she had used six small jars of tea to exchange for desks and chairs, she would probably be so angry that she would have high blood pressure on the spot.

"Don't worry, Senior Guang, I'll do a good job! From now on, I'll be the Queen of Sales!" Jiang Yingying confidently assured Daoist Guang

At night, Wang Ling lay on his bed and quietly watched the second hand of the clock in the room turn in circles.

He was now basically certain that the so-called spirit world internal test was actually a test that old vine had specifically targeted him; it wasn't really to select talented people from the younger generation of elite cultivators for the core formation project.

The higher-ups had probably already decided on the list of people for the core formation project, and this round of spirit world internal test was mainly aimed at him.

Wang Ling had received news of the second spirit world internal test this day. This time, there were more people than the last time, and in addition to new members, those who hadn't completed the test the last time had also completed the additional test under Jing Heqiu's guidance, and those who had passed the test would also join the second internal test.

It was just that Wang Ling didn't know what kind of method elder Teng would use to test him this time.

After the previous confrontation, this time, Teng Luchen should have done it even more seamlessly.

Wang Ling lay in bed for a while, and his phone vibrated a series of times to remind him that Li Changzhe, this chatterbox, was bombarding him with messages again.

"Tomorrow is the second spirit world internal test! Brother Wang Ling, we're going to meet again!" He said excitedly, sending a few grinning emojis in a row.

Helpless, Wang Ling could only reply with a cold ellipsis.

But at the same time, he had a question in his heart.

This Li Changzhe had already returned to Jinghua City after the first inner test, so he had to come back to Songhai city for the second inner test?

Wang Ling was speechless in his heart. After all, he was a student from a top cultivation academy, and the round-trip immortal boat ticket must have cost a lot of money.

How many packets of crispy noodle snacks could he buy with just the cost of the trip? What a waste!

The corners of Wang Ling's mouth twitched, and his heart ached endlessly, wang Ling stared at the screen for a long time, but he didn't type. He stared at the [the other party is typing...] above wechat, which was constantly dimming.

In the next moment, Li Changzhe sent him another huge pile of text, his hand speed was astonishing. "You still don't Know? It's said that it's to better contact students from all over the world to participate in the spirit world internal test. Now that the city teleportation array has been activated, only foreign students who are qualified to participate in the internal test are authorized."

City teleportation array?

Wang Ling was astonished.

This was because under normal circumstances, it wouldn't be easy to activate a mechanism like the city teleportation array. Under normal circumstances, the teleportation arrays in major cities would only be activated when the cultivation country entered combat readiness mode, or when large-scale cultivators' military exercises were launched.

It was very obvious that it was impossible for a level-one general of ten to directly activate the city's teleportation array to provide backup for the spirit world test students in terms of time and location.

It was probably the result of the rattan elder's manipulation again.

What was this old man up to this time?

Wang Ling was suspicious.

Li Changzhe's side always seemed to have a lot of information, and for some reason, Wang Ling even had the feeling that the other party was deliberately sending him a message.

At that moment.., li changzhe said again, "Oh right, Wang Ling, there's one more thing that you might not know. I heard that the second spirit world internal test will also have a system reward mechanism implanted in it, which means that every decision you make during this spirit world internal test will be rewarded. "There are high-grade magic scrolls, high-grade magic artifacts and high-grade pills!"

Wang Ling was silent for a moment, then replied with an "OH."

To him, as long as he didn't have high-grade crispy noodle snacks, these prizes were all trash..

Chapter 1954 1,950: Teng Luchen's Test (1/92)

On Thursday, January 16, Teng Luchen successfully obtained the first closed-beta video of the spirit world given to him by Jing heqiu.

According to the content of the video, Wang Ling hadn't made much of a contribution during the first closed-beta of the spirit world; he had just been sitting there taking care of Li Changzhe.

It was that six-eyed red he zi from Sun Island who had led the massacre there.

What made Teng Luchen even more surprised was that this six-eyed red he zi's weapons were actually Qu shuling and Li Changzhe, who had fainted!

In the video, this girl held up the ankles of the two men and treated them like spirit swords, brandishing two giant human-shaped swords as she massacred everyone on the scene..

For a moment, Teng Luchen and Jing heqiu were speechless. Their jaws dropped, and they were completely shocked by six-eyed Red Hezi's performance.

Teng Luchen had imagined countless scenes, and had been extremely looking forward to Wang Ling's performance before he had received the video. In the end, this girl from Sun Island had gained the limelight.

"How could this be..."

Jing heqiu scratched his head. "Elder Teng, are you sure this kid is the reclusive expert you've been eyeing for so many years? It doesn't look like it at all; he didn't contribute at all to this match. You had previously suspected that he was giving hints to other people and manipulating the match behind the scenes, but now it doesn't look like it at all..."

Giving hints and supporting teammates while actually manipulating the entire match from the shadows was Teng Luchen's initial guess of Wang Ling's position.

He believed that No. 60 high school had been able to win again and again because of Wang Ling's help in the dark.

But from the video footage just now, it wasn't obvious that Wang Ling was giving hints, and there were no fluctuations in his voice.

The Spirit World's system came with its own spiritual surveillance magic tool, and any student who used a voice transmission spell to communicate would be caught by the magic tool.

Even if they didn't catch the entire conversation, at the very least, there would be fluctuations in the magic artifact, which could prove that someone had used a sound transmission spell.

However, the current system could almost be described as "Completely unperturbed" when it came to sound transmission.

Even if Wang Ling had really manipulated the competition, a normal person's brain wouldn't have thought of using two unconscious people as weapons to smash spirit beasts..

Moreover, this was too outstanding, and didn't conform to Teng Luchen's basic impression of Wang Ling.

It could only be said that six-eyed Red Hezi was indeed worthy of being a cultivator cultivated by the island nation; his thinking was novel.

"Little Qiu, you might not understand this old man's guess very well, but this old man really thinks that there's something wrong with this person."

Teng Luchen's unrelenting attitude surprised Jing heqiu.

Even now, they still hadn't caught any trace of Wang Ling. Apart from the last time when battle sect had acted rashly as if to protect Wang Ling, they couldn't find anything else wrong with him.

Teng Luchen had even made preparations to prevent himself from losing his memory, but that information wall hadn't come in handy yet.

"Elder Teng..."

Jing heqiu sighed. "There's a saying that I don't know if I should say."

"Go ahead."

“Elder Teng, I just don’t understand. Even if there’s really something wrong with this person and he’s the hidden expert that you think he is, why does elder Teng have to dig him out and expose him to the world?”

Jing heqiu stood up and bowed, he said respectfully, “Even if he’s hiding in the city, as long as he has a heart for the world and a bright heart, he can still contribute to the country. “If the other party really is a hidden expert, it’s actually very rude of us to probe him again and again.”

Hearing this, Teng Luchen fell silent.

He felt that Jing Heqiu’s words were indeed reasonable.

But after so many years, his persistent pursuit of Wang Ling had almost become an obsession.

After a moment of silence, Teng Luchen stood up, he said unhurriedly, “Little Qiu, this old man knows what you’re talking about. But there’s one thing that you misunderstand. This old man doesn’t want to publicize him to the world. Since he’s a talent, of course he has to be well protected. How could this old man not know that publicizing him to the world is a risk?”

“But why, elder Teng...”

Teng Luchen’s brows relaxed as he smiled. “This old man has been in the cultivation world for so many years, and I still have the ability to recognize people. This old man doesn’t believe that he can be flawless in this second internal test.”

..

Compared to the previous internal test of the spirit world, there weren’t so many fancy things in this internal test.

All the students who passed the test would be given an electronic bracelet from the spirit world. Wang Ling’s electronic bracelet had been accidentally damaged last time, so Wang Ming had secretly sent him another one, and it could be considered flawless.

Songhai city has set up a transmission chain with the city as a restricted area. As long as the spirit world test is activated, all students wearing spirit world electronic bracelets in Songhai city, no matter where they are, will be instantly transported to the spirit world.

When the second transmission was complete, Wang Ling looked at the time.

Thursday, January 16, 4397, 18:00:01..

This was the time when school was over, and Wang Ling had just arrived home when he was teleported away.

And the number of people participating in the second spirit world internal test was clearly higher than the last time.

Everyone gathered in front of the familiar mission log cabin and Huaxiu's national flag, which was fluttering in the wind. This time, the screen displayed the words "Underground training ground no. 2-1/1/1."

"It looks like this is a single-player mission. 1/1/1 is the most unique number of people assigned to a mission." With her previous experience and Zhang Linyan's recent knowledge of the spirit world, she explained to everyone.

"In other words, this time, we're all fighting on our own?" Li Changzhe asked. His voice was so loud that even Wang Ling didn't have to look to know it was him.

"They say it's a solo mission, but in reality, it's a total score in the end."

Zhang Linyan said, "The electronic bracelets we're wearing are based on the cultivation nation, which means that although we're all fighting on our own, we still have to get as many points as possible after entering the trial ground. This way, we can ensure that our total score is higher than the other cultivation nation's representative teams. "It's just that I don't know what the content of this test will be..."

The last time they were trapped in a desert oasis, they were asked to cross the desert to a distant city without any hint.

This time, they didn't know what kind of difficult questions the officials would give them..

However, everyone was eager to try the second spirit world internal test.

This was because they could bring out all the rewards they had obtained during this spirit world internal test! In other words, as long as they were outstanding enough, they would be able to obtain unexpected cultivation resources and various benefits in this second spirit world internal test!

However, even though everyone was eager to give it a try, Wang Ling's face was still as calm as an ancient well.

There was a limit to the number of people in the elevator heading to the training ground. Qu shuling was the first to press the elevator button, and there were quite a few people following behind him.

Because they were fighting their own battles, even if they were in the same batch of elevators, there was a high probability that they would be scattered at different coordinates in training ground no. 2.

There were more than twenty people.

Wang Ling was the last to enter the elevator.

One of them was Zhang Linyan.

The other was Li Changzhe.

Previously, he had heard Li Changzhe say that the second spirit world internal test was selective, and Wang Ling hadn't understood what that meant at first.

But when the three of them entered the elevator...

Suddenly, Wang Ling felt the electronic bracelet in his hand vibrate.

Three choices suddenly appeared in Wang Ling's line of sight.

[option one: Hold Li Changzhe's hand and carry out a mission with him. You will be teleported to the same coordinates as him and experience the vastness and profundity of Chinese culture. Mission Reward: one random upper-grade spirit weapon]

[option two: Hold Zhang Linyan's hand and carry out a mission with her. You will be teleported to the same coordinates as her and develop a relationship with her. Mission Reward: one random upper-grade spirit weapon]

[option three: ignore everyone and carry out the mission alone. Mission Reward: a random high-grade immortal weapon and a packet of crispy noodle snacks.]

Staring at the option, Wang Ling was completely dumbfounded.

Oh My God, she was waiting for him here..

Chapter 1955 1,951, Crazy Probing Of Wang Ling (1/92)

The three choices laid out in front of him made Wang Ling fall silent. This time, he completely understood what Li Changzhe had meant by “Reward of choice”.

He had to make a choice between the three choices. Although the reward of choice number three indeed looked very tempting, Wang Ling knew very well that this was in fact Teng Luchen's probing.

This was the choice he had made before entering trial site number two. In the face of an unknown trial, a normal person's mind would definitely choose a companion to accompany him in order to be steady.

It had to be known that all the rewards he had obtained in this trial could be taken back!

A steady choice would not only allow him to receive the assistance of his companion, but also allow him to buy an upper-grade spirit weapon for free, which would leave ample protection for the unknown trials to come.

If he ignored the first two choices, Wang Ling would directly choose to travel alone. Following the logic of Teng Luchen, Wang Ling felt that it was very likely that he would fall into the trap.

That Old Teng probably wanted to see if he would dare to travel alone.

He stared at choice number three, and his heart itched. At the same time, he was conflicted as to which of the first two choices would be better.

But at that moment, Wang Ling realized that his left and right hands were being held back by Zhang Linyan and Li Changzhe at the same time. “Wang Ling, let’s Go Together!”

Wang Ling:”...”

At the same time, Li Changzhe and Qu Shuling’s voices came from the other side in unison.

In front of the surveillance screen, Teng Luchen’s expression also twitched incessantly. “What’s going on... I didn’t just give this student Wang a choice! Why did this student Li and student Zhang get multiple-choice questions at the same time?”

“This system is a newly developed tenglao. It was put into use without any tests. There might have been a bug... based on Tenglao’s opinion, should we temporarily take the selection system offline and let us check it again in detail?”A researcher asked.

“Check it? There’s no time. It’s already too late. Forget it, forget it. Just continue to arrange multiple-choice questions to make things difficult for this student Wang.”

Teng Luchen said, “Right, if you don’t make a choice in time, how are you going to deal with it?”

The staff member said, “Under normal circumstances, you need to make a choice within 30 seconds. If you don’t make a choice, it will be considered as giving up on the reward. If you don’t make a choice after three times, it will be considered as a negative competition. At that time, the mission will be declared as a failure and you will be eliminated.”

“So student Wang has already wasted a chance?”

“Not really... because now that the other two students have chosen him, the system has directly determined that he has chosen option number one and two at the same time, and has obtained two high-grade spirit weapons.”

When Teng Luchen and Jing heqiu heard this, they wiped their sweat at the same time. They hadn’t expected the plot to develop in such a way.

Teng Luchen felt that he was clearly the one who had arranged the script, so why did it feel like Wang Ling had turned him around?

In fact, Wang Ling hadn’t expected that he would actually be so popular, and that he would be grabbed by the arms of two people at the same time.

Then, there was no “Then.”The original one-man mission instantly turned into a three-man mission.

Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan each held Wang Ling’s arm as they were teleported to an empty space on a worn-out mountain peak.

Wang Ling found that they had all changed into the coarse hemp clothes that belonged to the sect on this mountain peak.

“Interesting. It looks like trial field No. 2 is a script. The three of us have become disciples of this good people sect.”Li Changzhe laughed, he pointed at the two “Good people”on the back of Zhang Linyan’s hemp clothes and said.

“So Ugly.”

Zhang Linyan complained, which happened to be heard by the eldest senior brother here.

The young man whose head was marked “The eldest senior brother of the good people sect” immediately frowned. “What are you waiting for? Hurry up and get ready on the FUTON! Wait for the sect leader to come for the morning meeting!”

“She didn’t do it on purpose, senior brother, please don’t blame her.” Li Changzhe cupped his hands in front of his chest. He was very dramatic, and it was as if he had completely immersed himself in the scene.

“That’s good. Today’s morning meeting is very important, so you have to listen carefully.” After this big senior brother of the good people peak finished giving his instructions, he sat down in the middle of the first row.

Wang Ling and the others knew very well that there was no countdown for this trial, so they would probably have to follow the npcs’ instructions for the specific tasks to be carried out.

At that moment, the first rays of the morning sun shone down on the graceful mountain peak, and the misty fog instantly swept away, shrouding the good people peak in a warm spirit light.

It was at that moment that a faintly discernible cloud appeared on the good people peak.

An immortal-like old man came riding on a cloud.

With an ethereal and somewhat mysterious air, he landed on the open space next to the elegant bamboo house on the good people peak and faced Wang Ling and the others.

When he appeared, he was a precise Guanyin sitting lotus as he skillfully stuck his butt to his futon.

Then, he began to chant:

Good People’s sect on good people peak, the immortal path is impermanent and requires hard work.

The accumulation of Good Karma and immortal virtue, as well as Fu Ruo’s Dao and magic, are all in vain.

Thank you, Immortal King Wuji of primordial chaos, for blessing the cultivation world for thousands of generations.

All the disciples must remember that no matter when or where, they must not forget these four immortal king mantras.

These were the four immortal king mantras that the immortal king had personally bestowed upon the good people sect of good people peak. No other sect had such treatment..

“Master, has our sect really produced an immortal king before?”

A pure and lovely female disciple raised her hand. Her name was Su Qiao'er, and she had only joined the sect for a short period of time. However, she had just completed a year, so she did not know much about the “Corporate culture” of the good people sect.

During this one year, she had followed her fellow disciples and cultivated together. Day after day, she repeated the morning training Dharma Assembly. Listening to these familiar immortal king mantras, she felt that her delicate ears were getting calloused.

She had been holding this question in her heart for a long time. Today, she finally mustered up the courage to ask the sect master of the good people sect.

The old sect master's surname was Hao, and his single name was sword.

In response to this question, the good people sect's old sect master stroked his long beard, he calmly replied, “Qiao'er's question is good. Immortal kings are the highest realm in the cultivation world today. If one becomes an immortal king, he can form his own heaven and earth and merge with the universe. He is no different from a god... and the reason why our good people sect received the immortal King's four mantras was not because there was an immortal king.”

“Then why?”

The disciples could not help but look curious.

“Ahem, it's because the first sect master of the good people sect and the Immortal King are Dao Partners.”

The old sect master cleared his throat, he shook his horsetail whisk and replied, “Unfortunately, since the cultivation modernization, the high-rise buildings around us have been rising day by day. They have destroyed the spirit veins and feng shui around the good people peak, causing the spirit energy around the first-class cultivation land that the good people sect used to occupy to become less and less...”

It was rare for the old sect master to talk about the history of the sect with everyone. Su Qiao'er sat upright on the futon, and her fair little face looked like she was deep in thought, she seemed to be trying hard to understand the sect's past. “Then, sect master, why don't we go somewhere else?”

“Good people peak and the good people sect have been established for more than a thousand years. We must not abandon them easily. Although our good people peak is incompatible with the surrounding sects, at least we are in east barren city. It's just that our position is a little off...”

The Old Hierarch smiled sheepishly. “But don't worry, everyone. Although the good people sect is in the ten rings of East Barren City, the ten rings also have the benefits of the ten rings. At the very least, it is quiet and at ease. Moreover, outside of the ten rings, the good people sect also has a certain say. ”..

“As long as everyone remembers the four words of the immortal king and cultivates diligently day and night, sooner or later, they will be able to achieve success in their cultivation. They will be able to build a foundation, form a gold core, condense a nascent soul, and then ascend to immortality

“If they can touch upon the immortal King's Great Dao, it will be a glory that will be spread throughout the cultivation world for thousands of generations and bring glory to the clan..

“Then, master, master, what is your current realm?”

“Ahem... cultivators don't lie. Currently, I am still a hundred million points away from reaching the nascent soul stage. It shouldn't be too far away.”

A Little Bit?

Since they said so.

It seemed that it was true.

He was indeed the master of the sect master!

Hearing this, the disciples suddenly regained some confidence in the good people sect.

“Let’s not talk about this anymore. According to the usual practice, we will enter the last segment.”

At this moment, the old sect master waved his horsetail whisk. After a burst of dense immortal light appeared, an ancient table of eight immortals suddenly appeared in front of everyone’s eyes like magic.

This table of eight immortals was taken out by sect master Hao from his spatial spiritual artifact.

On the table, there was a wooden tablet with gold-plated powder and the words “Immortal king of Wuji of the origin” written on it. In the middle was an incense burner, and on the left and right sides were immortal fruits such as spirit peaches and Jade apples.

In addition, there was a portrait behind the wooden tablet.

It was said that this was a portrait of the immortal king, but the disciples could only see the clothes of the immortal king and couldn’t see the actual appearance of this legendary immortal king.

That was because the immortal King’s appearance was a mosaic.

At that moment, Li Changzhe frowned and said telepathically through a team voice transmission, “The magic power in this portrait is surging. I Can’t see through it at all, it’s very strong!”

Zhang Linyan nodded. “Yes, Me Too! I Can’t see through it at all, our spirit energy is still too low! What about you, Wang Ling, can you see it?”

In an instant, three options appeared in front of Wang Ling.

[option one: tell everyone what mosaic is, I can see it clearly. Mission Reward: one human golden core.]

[option two: Echo that what I see is also a mosaic. Mission Reward: one random privilege card.]

[option three: tell everyone that I'm an Immortal King! Mission Reward: One Heavenly Dao golden core, three random privilege cards.]

Wang Ling:"..."

Chapter 1956 1,952, Wang Ling's Game Of A Thousand Layers (1/92)

Wang Ling's mind was as clear as a mirror when it came to Teng Luchen's thoughts. To others, the spirit world internal test was nothing more than an ordinary elite trial.

But to Wang Ling, the essence of this internal test was actually a psychological game.

The first time he had faced a choice, he had been lucky enough to muddle through. If he had passively waited for the option to disappear each time, then directly giving up on the choice would actually have a negative competitive mentality.

After all, if he hadn't made a choice immediately three times in a row, he would have been forcefully eliminated.

Given Teng Luchen's suspicious personality, Wang Ling felt that if he had been too negative, he might have been suspected as well.

So this time, he had no choice but to make his own decision.

Just as the thirty-second timer in the upper right corner was about to end, Wang Ling chose two. In this situation, it was always right to echo along with the people around him. That image of surging magic power was clearly another test for Teng Luchen.

Sigh..

This old man was really cunning.

Wang Ling let out a sigh of relief and lamented in his heart that he had never met someone so difficult to deal with.

But for now, he could only take one step at a time.

In fact, Wang Ling still had a lot of cards up his sleeve. If it really came to the point where he threatened to expose his identity, he could use them one after another to make Teng Luchen back down.

But now, he felt that he didn't need to be in such a hurry to show off his skills. It would be good to play with this little old man.

Teng Luchen had a high status, and to be able to become the chief commander of project geocentric at his age showed that his strength was extraordinary.

The reason why Wang Ling was willing to continue playing with him was that in essence, he still had the intention of taking him under his wing.

If Teng Luchen joined, Odd Zhuo's future development would be even more unimpeded.

Of course, Wang Ling also knew that if he continued to play along like this, it would actually be very dangerous for him.

But there was nothing he could do; he had nothing but a lot of cards up his sleeve.

Once he messed up, he would think of a way to end it.

After the morning meeting ended, Wang Ling followed the guidance of the first senior brother of good people peak with a slightly solemn mood. He followed a few scattered disciples to the sect cafeteria, which was a very dilapidated bamboo hut with a few prayer mats placed on the shore.

Today, good people peak was still eating the usual steamed buns, pickled vegetables, and a bowl of plain porridge.

“Senior brother, are there no crabs?” Li Changzhe asked weakly, sincerely thanking the great poverty alleviation strategy of the modern cultivation society.

Huaxiu nation had already been lifted out of poverty, and even the worst cultivation sects wouldn't have such a clear and watery head full of pickled vegetables for breakfast, even if it was a script designed in the spirit world... the design was too exaggerated!

“Our sect master only thinks of sweet and bitter memories, and the Great Dao is simple. You've been here for so long, and you still don't understand this logic?” Clearly, Li Changzhe's unintentional words had angered the eldest senior brother of good people peak.

The eldest senior brother put his arms on his hips and immediately began to reprimand, “If you really can't stay on our good people peak anymore, you can learn from that traitor, senior brother Qi, and go down the mountain! Go join a stronger sect!”

“Senior brother, don't be angry. It was just a slip of the tongue; he didn't do it on purpose.” Zhang Linyan hurriedly tried to smooth things over.

Watching the show from the side, Wang Ling felt that the spirit world script was very real. These cultivators weren't illusions designed by the system, but real cultivators. At the same time, they were real actors, people with flesh and blood.

Wang Ling guessed that these people had been arranged to enter the spirit world a long time ago, and each of them had their own jobs, just like those actors who played various npcs in modern secret rooms.

With one look, it was obvious that they were from the Orthodox class, which was a little too real..

“By the way, eldest senior brother, do you know why senior brother Qi went down the mountain to betray us?” At this moment, Zhang Linyan continued to ask.

Wang Ling and the others were well aware that they had already entered the main storyline stage.

This eldest senior brother sat down on the side and took a bite of a steamed bun, he sighed deeply. “What else could it be? Of course, it's to show off in the sect grand competition in three days'time. At that time, the twenty-one peaks nearby will have a competition. Our Good People Peak's overall strength is at the bottom.”

“Because there’s a team competition, he knew that even with the combined strength of our entire peak, we wouldn’t be able to survive the group competition, so he naturally left

“Look at how many people our good people peak has now. Me, the three of you, plus Qiao'er and the sect master, there are only six people in total...”

..

Listening to eldest senior brother’s bitter voice, Wang Ling couldn’t help shaking his head.

It was true that good people peak was too poor, and Wang Ling had just used his God’s eye to observe all the maps of Trial Ground No. 2.

It seemed that only the good people sect on good people peak was the most primitive sect, and it still retained this rather simple ancient cultivation temperament. The other twenty peaks had basically been modernized!

Moreover, when Wang Ling had switched views earlier, he had inadvertently seen Qu Shuling, who was wearing a suit and using a work card to clock in on non-phase peak next door!

Damn it, they had come to the spirit world to eat porridge and pickles..

Qu shuling had directly found a place to work.

Wang Ling was silent. This good people sect was indeed too primitive..

But after listening to eldest senior brother’s introduction, Wang Ling, Li Changzhe, and Zhang Linyan also understood the final mission of this trial.

It was probably the so-called sect competition in three days.

In other words, they had to gather as many magic treasures and cultivation resources as possible in three days to increase their combat strength.

At that moment, Wang Ling and the other two looked at each other in dismay. Although they hadn't exchanged any words, their gazes had already been taciturn.

Wang Ling thought it over carefully. He felt that the spirit world's system still considered checks and balances.

After all, this time, it was originally a solo mission, so the difficulty of the solo mission would inevitably increase. Without other companions to discuss it with, he would have to figure everything out on his own.

But Wang Ling's situation was completely different. As soon as he landed, three people were bound to him..

The starting point for the three-person mission was bound to be the worst.

The poor good people sect on this run-down good people peak... everything looked so hopeless, as if there wasn't the slightest chance of winning.

But Wang Ling was very calm in his heart.

To him, this was just a game.

Moreover, with Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan around, there were still people who would take the blame for him.

If he really had to carry out the mission alone, it would be very difficult for Wang Ling.

"Alright, I see that everyone has had their fill. In order to prepare for the sect competition in three days, I think it's still necessary to carry out some special training. Next, I'll take everyone to the designated training ground," eldest senior brother said.

Wang Ling:"..."

So this was a training ground?

Eldest senior brother of good people peak said it very casually, but when they actually reached the training ground, Wang Ling and the other two couldn't help feeling their hearts skip a beat.

This was because this was a mine that was emitting hot air everywhere. After all, it was a volcano, so the surrounding environment was unusually humid and stuffy, and their trial mission this time was to excavate fire spirit stones in this mine.

When the mine owner saw them coming, he immediately assumed the posture of a boss and smiled arrogantly at the newcomers who had just entered the mine.

A few people stood beside him, one of the attendants immediately stood out and said, "In the future, when you see the mine owner and US clearly, the mine owner will come to inspect the work. Keep an eye on the badge. Other than us, no one will care about you."

"Let me introduce you. This is the director of our mining department. He is called the manager."

"Good morning, manager." A few scattered voices came from the mine.

"Let's not slack off during the day."

The manager cleared his throat, he chuckled and said, "If you're tired and tired, think more about yourself and your sect. We are the sponsors of the sect competition in three days. "Your sect only has the funds to participate in the competition because of a loan. Otherwise, you can only withdraw. "So work hard. You must fill in the hole in the loan as soon as possible. Otherwise, your sect will only become poorer and poorer."

Chapter 1957 1,953: The First Senior Brother Will Never Be Punished Again (1/92)

The manager next to the mine owner revealed an evil, Rich Man's face as he spoke arrogantly about the sponsorship of the sect's grand competition.

It was only then that Wang Ling and the others realized that good people peak had taken out loans to participate in the sect's grand competition..

"You guys should know that cultivation is always hard work. Don't look at how hard the work in this mine is, it's actually the best way to train one's physical strength and patience. If you manage to dig up a good fire spirit stone, there will be an additional bonus. That manager Ma looks fierce, but he's actually not such a bad person,"the good big brother said earnestly to Wang Ling and the other two.

Wang Ling and the other two looked at each other in dismay. They had the same intuition that this big brother had probably been dealt a heavy blow by the manager of this mine.

Moreover, why was this method of taking out a loan to participate in the sect competition, and then being cheated into working because he couldn't pay back the money, so familiar?

It must be known that any loan would have interest, and the wool came from the sheep... just by digging fire spirit stones to pay back the money, they would never be able to pay back the snowball-like interest.

However, eldest senior brother also said that there was a way, and that was to dig out high-grade fire spirit stones of excellent quality. However, to be able to dig out such high-grade fire spirit stones, it really depended on one's luck.

In a mine, the area where high-grade spirit stones could be dug out was usually deep inside the mine, and even though there was a certain probability that they would be able to sell them in the shallow layer, it was still very rare.

Now that they had all been arranged to mine in the shallow layer, it was clear that the black-hearted boss of the mine had done it on purpose. In this way, they might not be able to pay off the sect's debts even if they dug here for the rest of their lives.

Wang Ling felt that this scenario was quite educational.

He could get a loan, but first of all, he had to measure his ability to repay it. Without a source of income, he definitely couldn't go down this path, and second of all, he had to go to a formal banking institution in order to be more reliable.

If he met a black-hearted lender, he wouldn't be able to bear the Snowball's interest alone. In the real world of cultivation, those who were doing well were often ruined by black-hearted loans.

Without any training, Wang Ling and the others started working in the mine with the guidance of this great senior brother of good people peak.

The props the mine owner gave them were a bamboo basket and a pickaxe.

After knocking around for a long time, Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan were already covered in sweat, but they hadn't found anything.

Mining in the real world was too difficult; it wasn't as easy as they had imagined. If they were in a game, all they had to do was point wildly at a spot.

"Our main mission should be to revitalize the sect and win the sect grand competition, right? Why are we here to mine? "Moreover, this is too exhausting. Do we still have the strength to fight on the day of the sect Grand Competition?"Li Changzhe used the team telepathy spell, he took the initiative to speak to Wang Ling and Zhang Linyan.

Zhang Linyan deeply felt the same way.

She felt that something was very wrong with this situation.

They had started out as a sect weaker than the others because of the three of them working together.

Qu shuling, on the other hand, was very comfortable. Joining the rich non-phase peak, wearing a suit and punching in to work... they actually wanted to go underground to dig for minerals, what kind of logic was this?

The most pressing matter at hand was to pay off the sect's external debt as soon as possible; only by leaving the mine would they have more possibilities.

Wang Ling had naturally thought of this as well.

Fortunately, the environment here was dark, and there was gray smoke coming from the fire spirit stones everywhere. Under the cover of the smoke, Wang Ling secretly cast a temporary "Great luck spell"on the pickaxes of Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan.

It had been a long time since he had used this heavenly dao spell, because this kind of extreme spell would seriously destroy the game's balance. But now, in order to battle wits and courage with Teng

Luchen, as well as to resolve the current stalemate., wang Ling had no choice but to use this method.

The moment the spell was cast, Li Changzhe picked up his pickaxe and struck.

“Nail!”

Along with a crisp sound of a rock wall colliding, a red-gold spirit stone the size of a basketball emitted a dazzling light from the hole in the rock wall.

Li Changzhe was shocked. “It’s... It’s out! It’s a top-grade fire spirit stone!”

These were not high-grade fire spirit stones, but top-grade fire spirit stones! One fire spirit stone was worth ten high-grade fire spirit stones!

The first senior brother of the good people peak was also stunned. According to the contract they had signed, as long as they could get eight high-grade fire spirit stones in exchange for a commission, they would be able to pay off the sect’s external debt.

Now, this top-grade fire spirit stone could not only help them pay off their external debt, but also make a small profit from the black-hearted boss.

“Junior brother Li... Your Luck is really too good.”The eldest senior brother was stunned. According to the original script, they would complete the collection of eight high-grade fire spiritual stones the next day. Everything was planned in the script.

However, now that Li Changzhe had completed the mission in excess, even the eldest senior brother of good people peak could not do anything about it.

At this moment, everyone in the mine was attracted by the appearance of this supreme-grade fire spiritual stone.

No one had expected that Zhang Linyan would also sell the fire spiritual stone at this moment!

Moreover, it was pure golden light, which was much brighter than the one that Li Changzhe had dug out!

This time, the entire mine was filled with F * * K. Not only the eldest senior brother of the good people peak, even the mine manager and the mine owner who came to inspect the mine were dumbfounded.

F * ck! Ultimate Fire Spirit Stone!

As the name implied, the value of this fire spirit stone was one level higher than that of a supreme-grade fire spirit stone. Its entire body was emitting a golden light! After the light faded, the entire fire spirit stone appeared to be made of a diamond-like material. The bright red body of the stone had an indescribable brightness.

This kind of natural beauty instantly attracted everyone's attention. Many of the pickaxes in their hands fell to the ground without feeling a thing.

This ultimate fire spiritual stone was worth 100 ultimate fire spiritual stones!

At the same time, in front of the monitor in nine Heavens Precision Yard, Teng Luchen was also dumbfounded.

He hurriedly turned to look at the staff at the side. "What's with this delivery rate? Didn't I ask you to set up an intermediate fire spiritual stone that will guarantee a minimum price for every 100 knocks? ! "How can we let them pay off their debts so quickly?"

This was the current thinking of most card game companies. They wanted to guarantee a minimum price, but they couldn't do it completely. They had to give the players the feeling that they had hit a sweet date with a stick so that the kryptonite elders could keep pouring money into it.

According to Teng Luchen's original plan, he wanted to put pressure on Wang Ling in this extreme environment to see his true level.

But now, everything had been broken by Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan's sudden good luck.

They had been reprimanded, the staff member also felt wronged. “Elder Teng... We don’t know what went wrong either! Logically speaking, the delivery rate of top-grade fire spirit stones is extremely low, and can only be obtained after 100,000 knocks with a pickaxe. They need at least one million knocks for their final fire spirit stones to be guaranteed... their luck is really frighteningly good!”

Chapter 1958 1,9954, The Plot Began To Develop According To What Wasn’t In The Script (1/92)

The existence of the Heavenly Dao was something that ordinary cultivators couldn’t touch. As one of the ten generals, general Yi’s “Boundless Sword Dao” was essentially just a branch of the Heavenly Dao.

Only when one reached the venerated immortal realm could one touch on what the Heavenly Dao was, but the number of Heavenly Dao comprehended by the venerated immortal realm was also limited.

After all, no one was like Wang Ling, who was a monster at the Great Circle of Thirty Thousand Heavenly Dao in the ten universes..

This was something that couldn’t be understood in the first place, so the existence of the great luck spell was completely beyond Teng Luchen’s comprehension.

No matter how much Teng Luchen had calculated, Wang Ling’s use of the great luck spell had temporarily changed Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan’s luck.

He had no idea what kind of man he was fighting..

Even if Teng Luchen felt that Wang Ling was a very strong genius, his understanding of Wang Ling’s upper limit was still limited. He might have felt that Wang Ling had already reached an extraordinary realm at this age, but he hadn’t guessed the realm above true immortal.

He had never thought that Wang Ling’s Heavenly Dao would be a blow to him.

“Boss, our mission has been completed. Have we paid off all the sect’s debts?” Li Changzhe rubbed his hands together with a smile on his face.

They had only been in the mine for less than half an hour, and they had already completed their mission ahead of time.

Putting aside that high-grade fire spirit stone, with just that ultimate fire spirit stone, not only would they be able to help the sect pay off its debts, they would also be able to make a lot of money from this boss.

The boss and the manager were stunned. The script they had received was about evil characters. They wanted to play the cunning and dirty boss who used money to trample on other people's personalities.

However, with chang-zhe Li and lin-yan Zhang's digging, the plot began to develop according to what was not in the script..

This made the two extremely nervous.

According to the contract signed in the previous plot, they needed to pour out money, but they were only actors after all, and they didn't have that much money in their hands!

But soon, chang-zhe's side put forward a condition. "How about this, Boss? We don't want the money we earned. You just have to let all of us here have our freedom."

The mine owner was confused. He carefully thought for a moment, and it seemed that he had no other choice. In the end, he could only nod and agree. "Well, you did well..."

"It's all thanks to you, Boss." Li Changzhe smiled faintly, then directly threw away the pickaxe and led the group of people trapped in the mine to be liberated.

Everyone's faces were filled with happiness and joy as they rushed out of the dark, cramped, and damp mine..

Although Wang Ling had only been in the mine for half an hour, the joy of being free was very real.

Especially in this atmosphere, it was easier to experience this hard-won feeling of freedom.

"Did the options jump out of your eyes just now?" At that moment, Zhang Linyan asked.

“Yes! So I directly went to the mine owner and said that I don’t want money anymore, I want freedom,”Li Changzhe replied.

Listening to their conversation, Wang Ling also felt that the three of them were actually quite tacit this time.

That’s right.

Wang Ling had just received a new choice, and this time, it was a very convenient one. He also chose to give up money to free the miners in the mine.

He consolidated the resources he had.

Including the choice he had just made, Wang Ling already had three upper-grade spirit weapons and a special privilege card. Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan each had two upper-grade spirit weapons.

And now, these spirit weapons were all in an undrawn state, so the spirit weapon rewards were random. When needed, they could directly rotate the electronic bracelet on his wrist to select and extract them based on the projected image.

Magic weapons were still very easy to understand, and the only thing that couldn’t be understood at the moment was the special card in Wang Ling’s hand..

According to the rules of this trial, all cultivation resources could be brought back to the real world, including magic weapons, pills, and all kinds of heavenly and earthly treasures, but only the special card could be used or stored.

It was just that they didn’t know what the special privilege card was for.

“Wang Ling actually has a special privilege card. The drop rate of this thing seems to be quite low. It’s not like he will be given any mission.”Li Changzhe was suspicious.

“Since it’s a special privilege card, what effect does it have?”Zhang Linyan asked.

“I think it’s better to keep it for now and not use it lightly.”

Li Changzhe communicated with the group telepathic message. Then, he looked at the eldest brother of good people peak, he bowed respectfully and said, "Eldest brother, we have paid off the external debt of the sect. Now, can we focus on developing the sect?"

"That's... natural. Now, our next task is to collect as many resources as possible." Eldest brother wiped his sweat, the expression on his face was very interesting. He didn't know how to deal with the situation in front of him.

The development of any sect was a long-term plan. Compared to the other sects here, the good people sect was too backward. Even the heaven and earth spirit array on good people peak was almost exhausted, however, the old sect master Hao Jian refused to move out.

This was also a problem that Li Changzhe and the others had to consider. In order for the good people sect to develop, it was actually very important to repair the sect's spirit gathering array.

But how could it be easy to repair the sect's great array with just the resources they had?

"Please let us... Let us join the good people sect too!"

While Wang Ling and the others were conversing with eldest senior brother, a burly man with a full beard suddenly stood up among the rescued miners.

As soon as he spoke, the remaining dozens of miners also cried out, "Yes! Please let us help! We want to join the good people sect!"

Wang Ling:"..."

Li changzhe: "You want to join the good people sect? Aren't you going back to your own sect?"

The burly man in the lead said, "My name is tie Yi, and I originally came from non-phase peak. These brothers behind me are also disciples of other peaks. We've been sent here to mine, and there's no end to it. The sect says that they want us to cultivate here, but in fact, they just want to use us as cheap labor... in that case, I think we might as well directly join the good people sect! You're the ones who gave us freedom!"

At that moment, Wang Ling instantly understood that this was the cause and effect of the plot. Because they had chosen to free the miners, the good people sect had suddenly gained a large group of seventy-six cultivators.

Developing the sect still required manpower, especially when one's strength couldn't be exposed. The more people there were, the more cover they could provide.

Moreover, manpower was also crucial to repairing the sect's spirit gathering array!

Now that the manpower had been resolved, the key lay in how to repair the sect's resources.

At that moment, three more options appeared in front of Wang Ling.

[option one: Listen to the follow-up advice of the great senior brother of good people peak and slowly collect the resources. Mission Reward: one random high-grade spirit weapon.]

[option two: inquire with the miners about how to quickly collect the materials. Mission Reward: one random high-grade spirit weapon, one random high-grade level 3 spell book.]

[option three: directly Rob Phaseless Peak! Mission Reward: one random high-grade spirit weapon, one random high-grade level 4 spell book, one crate of crispy noodle snacks!]

Chapter 1959 1,9955, This Blood Loss (1/92)

Wang Ling stared at the three options that had suddenly popped up and fell into deep thought. Although the reward for choosing three looked really tempting... there was a whole box of crispy noodle snacks, and Wang Ling had almost subconsciously chosen three.

However, at this critical moment, he still held it in. Teng Luchen wanted to see the plot of him directly going up against non-phase peak after choosing three.

Furthermore, he would be suspected of taking the initiative. Furthermore, did he look like a completely useless person who would fight over this crispy noodle snack? ? ?

Moreover, this option only mentioned crispy noodle snack in a box, and didn't say what flavor it was!

If it was just ordinary pepper-flavored crispy noodle snacks, there was a high chance that they wouldn't be able to satisfy Wang Ling's appetite. He was now keen on tasting all kinds of custom-made crispy noodle snacks and special editions.

Ordinary flavors were already difficult to satisfy Wang Ling's growing appetite.

"Brother Ling, did you see a choice? What Choice?" Li Changzhe asked at that moment. He and Zhang Linyan hadn't received a choice this time, but based on Wang Ling's reaction, he felt that he had definitely seen a choice.

And it was a very tempting one at that..

Even Zhang Linyan had never seen Wang Ling, who had always kept a low profile and remained silent, have such an expression on his face. His eyes were about to pop out of their sockets!

Could it be that he was going to be rewarded with an immortal weapon or a holy weapon?

If he could get a holy weapon in this trial, it would undoubtedly be a bloody profit.

If a high school student could get a holy weapon, he would be the cutest kid on the street! Under normal circumstances, a high school student who was only at the foundation establishment stage or golden core stage wouldn't be able to control a holy weapon!

There was a very high risk of backlash for a high-level magic weapon. Anyone who had some knowledge of cultivation would understand this, but it didn't actually affect their ability to show it off.

Of course, neither Li Changzhe nor Zhang Linyan would have thought that the thing that attracted Wang Ling the most was actually the common puffed food in the snack bar.

After staring at option three for the last second, Wang Ling didn't fall for Rattan Luchen's trap and chose option two in the end.

The reward was an upper-grade spirit weapon and a level three spell book.

To Wang Ling, these were two more useless things..

He held Heavenly Dao in his hand, which was already in the category of Super Spells, and was no longer something that could be measured by level.

Of course, Wang Ling didn't care about these things, but there were naturally others who did.

He felt that it would be a good idea to keep it with him for now, and then give it to someone as a favor. Although he didn't know what use it would be, judging from Li Changzhe's attitude earlier., this thing in his hand should also be an important tool to exchange for crispy noodle snacks in the future.

At that moment, Wang Ling suddenly had an epiphany.

The "Trash" in his hand could actually be exchanged with others!

As long as he had these tools, there was no flavor of crispy noodle snacks he couldn't exchange for! Did he need to go out of his way to carry out the dangerous mission in the option?

After he had made his choice, it was clear that the absentees had also received instructions from the script and immediately started their performance according to the plan.

The bearded man named Tie Yi quickly said, "I know that it will take a lot of resources to repair the old spirit gathering array of the human sect. The sect competition is coming soon. "I'm afraid it won't be easy for us to gather the resources in a short time."

"Then, Mr. Tie Yi, do you have any good ideas?" Chang Zhe asked.

"Wealth comes from danger. I know a dangerous secret realm... the resources there can be taken at will."

"Taken at will? There's such a good place?"

"The premise is that we have to defeat that mountain guardian spirit. It's a natural spirit that protects the resources in the area and is very powerful.". "We have the advantage of numbers. We might be able to defeat all of them if we launch an attack. However, there will definitely be people who will be injured. However, right now, besides the resources, manpower is also the key to our good people sect. Therefore, we have to take those resources without losing our people.”

Tie Yi said, “Therefore, the best way is to bypass the mountain guardian spirit. “Many of our brothers in the miners were members of the sect near the natural area, so they are very familiar with the terrain there. “If we take a small path, we might be able to bypass the mountain guardian spirit. There is an 80-90% chance... the disadvantage is that once the mountain guardian spirit finds out, it will be difficult for us to retreat when we retreat.”

These words made Zhang Linyan fall into deep thought. As an archer, she could actually display a very strong geographical advantage in the natural environment.

The mountain guardian spirit’s strength was very strong. It had to be at least at the peak of late Jindan stage, or even early nascent soul stage. Its attack was very strong, and its skin was rough and thick. The disadvantage was that its movements were too slow, so under normal circumstances, if they encountered it, they could still run away..

All the mountain spirits were like watchdogs in the backyard; they wouldn’t keep chasing you, and as long as you left the area, they wouldn’t chase you down.

For the mountain spirits, the key was to protect the natural treasures under their noses.

“Then let’s try it out according to what big brother Tie Yi said.”

After discussing with Wang Ling using the team voice spell, the three of them decided to take tie Yi’s advice.

Wang Ling actually didn’t care about a mere mountain spirit at all. They were all gatekeepers, and loopy toad wasn’t even as strong as him.

Led by Tie Yi, they arrived at the entrance to a dense forest. In the depths of the dense forest was an endless mountain range, which was filled with the aura of many powerful spirit beasts and was filled with danger.

This path had been artificially created, and very few people knew about it. According to tie Yi, this was a shortcut left behind by a senior, and its location wasn't fixed. Only by knowing the path of change could one know how to find a shortcut.

"So, what senior created this path?"Zhang Linyan was very curious.

Such a method was not something an ordinary person could do. The geographical change technique was very difficult. It required one to combine the five elements eight trigrams and understand the astronomical and earthly veins. It had very strict requirements on the overall cultivation level of the person who set up the array.

"I heard that senior was previously from the non-phase peak."

"Non-... Non-phase Peak?"

"Yes, this area is actually a resource within non-phase peak from this dense forest,"tie yi replied.

"..."

It turned out that he had followed tie Yi to the area of non-phase peak to fight for resources..

Wang Ling hadn't expected that he would eventually be tricked by Teng Luchen.

They had already stepped into the resource area of non-phase peak. As long as a disciple of non-phase peak discovered them, let alone the mountain spirit, a small-scale battle would be inevitable.

Wang Ling sighed in his heart. He felt that if this was the case, it would be better to just make this area a little more chaotic. Let more people nearby join in the resource gathering operation!

He couldn't just be designed by Rattan Luchen; he had to design rattan Luchen as well..

Chapter 1960 1,956, Crusade Against Non-Phase Peak (1/92)

Wang Ling felt that he should have seen it clearly a long time ago; Teng Luchen's goal was to test him, so no matter what he chose next, the final plot would move toward "Crusade against non-phase peak."

But fortunately, Wang Ling was already prepared for this; he couldn't let Teng Luchen lead him by the nose all the way..

At the same time, Lotus Sun, Super Chen, hero Guo, Gu Shunzhi, Zhenyuan, and grenade-throwing senior immortal were all gathered here by Bai Qiao in the name of testing the new game.

They were all wearing No. 60 high school's School uniform, and all of them had the identities of No. 60 high school students.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal had actually been the one who had suggested bringing Super Chen and hero Guo on this mission because he thought it would be more interesting. Of course, grenade-throwing senior immortal had already made arrangements for the entire sect, super Chen and hero Guo wouldn't know their true identities.

On the other hand, the group of disciples were extremely shocked by the appearance of Super Chen and hero Guo. There was no need to mention Lotus Sun; this young miss of Huaguo Water Curtain Group was very famous in the war sect, moreover, Huaguo Water Curtain Group was also one of the partners of the war sect, so it wasn't strange for her to be here.

But who were these two... They could actually play games with the Great Elder, Gu Shunzhi, and Immortal Zhenyuan! Even sect master grenade-throwing was amiable to them!

The group of disciples were a little confused. How could this be a treatment that normal high school students could enjoy? There must be something special about these two!

"You guys don't understand, right? These two were also invited by elder Bai Qiao to play games in our war sect's holographic internet cafe before. "I remember them, but I'm afraid you new members don't know."An old disciple looked as if he had everything under control.

"Senior brother, do you know the origins of these two?"

"They are extraordinary, not something you or I can ask about. Let's just do things honestly. Also, tell the other battle sect disciples that if they see these two coming to the battle sect in the future, they have to be more polite."

"Yes..."the group of disciples kept quiet out of fear. They were very surprised by the appearance of Super Chen and hero Guo.

On the other side, after Bai Qiao tested that all the equipment was working properly, she immediately signaled for everyone to sit in the holographic cabin.

“I thought the cultivation simulator was quite interesting. What kind of game are we testing today?”Hero Guo asked.

“Heh, I won’t let you guys down.”Bai Qiao deliberately kept them in suspense.

Then, she pressed the start button and closed the cabin door.

In fact, Super Chen and hero Guo hadn’t been invited to participate in the game at all.

Lotus Sun, Wang Ming and Wang Ling had designed it from the very beginning.

They would temporarily exchange souls with the gray sect disciples in charge of receiving them in the spirit world based on the “Great Spirit Substitution Spell”that Wang Ling had prepared beforehand.

During the Soul Exchange, the party whose soul had been swapped would enter a sealed state and completely forget what had happened during the soul exchange, as if they had taken a nap.

Of course, it wouldn’t cause any harm to the body either.

In order to successfully use the “Great Spirit substitution spell,”Wang Ming had already developed a backup electronic bracelet in advance. As soon as he had entered the internet cafe, he had tricked Super Chen, hero Guo, and the others into wearing it.

This was the secondary bracelet of the electronic bracelet, which was connected to the person who was wearing the main bracelet to replace the soul. It could accurately locate the person who needed to exchange the soul.

Once the spell was activated, it was actually similar to entering a holographic game world, except that it was using someone else’s body.

In the depths of the dense forest, Wang Ling sat cross-legged on the spot and began to regulate his breath, under the pretense that he was overly nervous. In fact, he was waiting for a signal.

Tie Yi couldn't help laughing when he saw Wang Ling's expression. "Student Wang, are you alright? You Don't have to be so afraid of alerting the mountain spirit. With these few brothers leading the way, there won't be any problems."

Hearing this, Wang Ling silently rolled his eyes in his heart. He wouldn't believe a single word these script actors said.

These old geezers were very bad.

Wang Ling had already guessed their next move. If he continued to follow tie yi along this jungle path, he would definitely alarm the mountain guardian spirit.

And as long as the mountain guardian spirit moved, the non-phase peak would definitely know that their resource land had been invaded by outsiders, and they would definitely defend themselves to a certain extent.

A big battle was inevitable.

Now that Wang Ling had directly sat down cross-legged to rest, Tie Yi's pace had actually been disrupted, but he couldn't urge him too many times after reminding him.

Otherwise, the traces of this script would be too obvious.

He was a professional actor, so of course he had to move the audience with his natural performance.

While waiting for Wang Ling to rest, tie Yi kept sizing him up, feeling that this youngster in front of him was actually very real.

He was only at the foundation establishment stage, and it was very real to feel fear when facing a mountain spirit who was at the peak late golden core stage or even early nascent soul stage.

They had only walked for so long, but he was already so scared that he couldn't stand and needed to sit cross-legged to meditate.

On the other side, Zhang Linyan and Li Changzhe didn't urge him too much; they already had a good impression of Wang Ling to a certain extent.

In addition, Wang Ling's realm was indeed the lowest among the three of them, so the two of them naturally had the empathy to take care of the weak..

Wang Ling also realized that he seemed to have the talent to be a "Group pet".

He was puzzled.

There were so many branches of Heavenly Dao, but there was no such ability as "Big group PET".

Why was it that when he tried every means to put some distance between himself and the others, they would get closer and closer to him?

After about twenty minutes, when tie Yi was getting impatient, Wang Ling, who was sitting cross-legged, suddenly opened his eyes.

"Is he here..."he looked up at the sky as if he had sensed something.

Buzz..

With this dense forest and the nearest non-phase peak as the center, for some reason, the people in the dense forest seemed to hear the sound of a bugle call at this moment..

"Kill!"

"Crusade against non-phase peak! Capture the sect master of the non-phase sect alive!"

Along with the charging sounds, there were also many people roaring at the same time, as if a large-scale battle was going on.

“Boom!”

In the end, even that earth-shattering explosion sound was heard, not far away from the dense forest.

Tie Yi and the others instantly cast their gazes in the direction of the non-phase peak.

There was no mistake!

The huge explosion came from the position of the non-phase peak!

Someone was attacking the non-phase peak!

No!

This was not a problem of anyone... there was a group of people attacking the non-phase peak!

“What’s going on...”the miners led by Tie Yi were dumbfounded at this moment, because this was something that was not written in the script at all.

No one had expected that non-phase peak would actually be besieged at this time.

“Roar!”At the same time, in the depths of the dense forest, the shaken mountain spirit let out a sky-shaking roar.

It couldn’t care less about Wang Ling’s small army in the dense forest, and headed straight for the mountain gate of non-phase peak.
