

Daily Life 1981

Chapter 1981 The Feint Came True (1/92)

Li Changzhe's sword attack caused the entire spirit world No. 2 training ground to change color.

The black crescent-shaped sword Qi moved along the ground and then crushed forward in an unstoppable manner with astonishing destructive power.

No one had expected that this black sword Qi would actually become more and more powerful, like a winding black dragon.

Everything it passed through would be crushed into dust, no longer existing..

When the astonishing sword Qi arrived, the offensive in front of the battlefield went smoothly. The sect master of the non-phase peak led everyone to defend, and it looked as if they were about to fall into a situation of surrender.

However, it just so happened that the astonishing sword qi whistled over from outside the main hall, overturning the entire mountain.

In that instant, everyone's protective mechanism was activated, and they were directly sent out of the spirit world trial ground.

This was a huge destruction that was akin to the end of the world. No one could have imagined that an elite high school student's sword could actually tear the entire world apart.

In fact, when this black crescent sword aura was produced, most of the surveillance equipment in the nine heavens precision search courtyard had already disconnected.

Along with the disconnected connection, there was also the continuous sound of the system overheating alarm.

"What's Going On!" Teng Luchen was originally looking at the screen, but the entire screen turned black, followed by a string of bright red 404 numbers flashing across the screen.

“Elder Hui Teng, the No. 2 training ground has collapsed... everyone has been forced out of the spirit world, including those actors. And we can be sure that the actors can’t go back,”Jing Heqiu said.

If it was just a normal system failure, even if the students were forced to leave the spirit world, the actors in the spirit world would still be online, because they had different authority.., they wouldn’t go offline just because of a normal failure.

But the current situation was obviously unusual.

“Was the system directly destroyed...”Fujii Luchen was also puzzled. “Student Li’s sword was that powerful?”

“Elder Teng is worrying too much. No matter how strong an elite high school student is, it’s impossible for them to use such sword Qi.”

Jing heqiu said, “Currently, the preliminary results of the technical department’s analysis are also available.”

“What do you mean?”

“They think that when student Li waved his sword, the sword Qi just happened to hit the secret door of the No. 2 training field, causing the entire training field to collapse.”

“Secret door?”

“Elder Teng should know that all the training grounds in the spirit world are transplanted from real scenes using spells and professional magical artifacts. It’s like a huge jigsaw puzzle. “And to connect these jigsaw puzzles together, professional magical artifacts are needed to build the secret door... This is an invisible material used to link each scene and the stability of the spirit world.”

Jing heqiu said, “And for safety reasons, the secret door would change its position every second...”

“I understand. You Mean, student Li’s sword aura just happened to hit this changing secret door,”said Teng Luchen.

“That’s right.”Jing heqiu bowed.

Teng Luchen was speechless. From the looks of it, this seemed to be the only explanation.

The secret door was equivalent to the stabilizer of the linked scene. Once it was destroyed, the world would immediately fall into a state of collapse.

However, with this kind of destruction, the entire spirit world would have to undergo a period of maintenance and repair work. It would be impossible to have a rematch or carry out the next selection test.

Teng Luchen thought to himself that he was unlucky. He did not expect to encounter such a thing at the crucial moment of the Earth’s core project. However, the Spirit World No. 2 trial this time was considered to have gone smoothly.

At the very least, he had obtained two talented young girls, Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan, as well as a clear understanding of Qu Shuling’s true colors.

Now, he had a good idea of the number of students with heads among these elite high school students.

“Let’s hurry up and arrange the restoration of the spirit world. Also, we need to confirm the information of all the students and actors. See if anyone is injured.”

After saying this, Teng Luchen let out a sigh.

He originally wanted to choose a target from the final winner of the No. 2 Spirit World Trial Ground to participate in the Earth’s core project together. In the end, he didn’t expect that the plan couldn’t keep up with the changes.

“Yes, your subordinate will make the arrangements. But...”

“But what?”

“It’s like this, elder Teng. According to the system, there seems to be one person left in the spirit world right now...”Jing heqiu said awkwardly while swiping the tablet computer.

“The secret door has been destroyed, and everyone has been sent out. How is it possible that there’s still someone here?”Teng Luchen was very puzzled.

The entire trial site No. 2 was now shattered, and all the constructed scenes no longer existed. If someone was trapped inside, it would be a vast white space with nothing.

Jing heqiu said awkwardly, “Do you still remember, elder Teng, that he has a special card in his hand... when everyone was forcibly pushed out, the special card clashed with it, forcing student Wang Ling to stay in the spirit world. The backup system shows that student Wang Ling’s vital signs are currently stable and there are no abnormalities.”

” ...”

Teng Luchen was completely stunned by these words.

There was actually such a thing..

He was silent for a good few minutes before he finally said, “This student Wang is indeed worthy of being the sixty mascots...”

He had always thought that Wang Ling had something special about him.

But after this spirit world trial, Teng Luchen realized that perhaps he had been wrong about Wang Ling back then.

Perhaps this kid really was just lucky..

“Hurry up and repair the passage and bring student Wang out safely.”

“Elder Teng, do you still want to see him?”

“No need, let him go back and have a good rest... oh right, remember to send him a box of crispy noodle snacks as a token of sympathy.”

“I understand.”

..

When Wang Ling was rescued, it was already early in the morning on Friday, January 17th.

He had deliberately stayed in the spirit world, because only Wang Ling knew the truth. The spirit world had definitely not collapsed because the secret door had been broken, but purely because the sword qi from night Slayer had been too fierce.

So Wang Ling had deliberately stayed in the spirit world, which looked like an oolong operation that had used up a special privilege card, but in fact, he had stayed to destroy the secret door, making this accident seem even more real.

For Wang Ling, this second trip to the spirit world had been very rewarding. At the very least, he already knew that Teng Luchen’s gaze had already shifted away from him, and he was starting to care about Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan.

Especially Li Changzhe.

This time, his various outstanding performances in the trial grounds were eye-catching in every way, and were far more dazzling than his own.

Of course, Wang Ling also knew that since he had helped Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan arrange the script as a director, whether or not this script could be justified was also the key.

“Disciple of the fog god, the identity of the Arrow God’s disciple is all fake. What do you plan to do next?” Wang Ying’s voice rang out in Wang Ling’s mind as he was on the way home from Nine Heavens Precision Academy.

“Then, the fake will come true...”

Wang Ling was silent for a moment, and then gave a succinct and concise reply.

Chapter 1982 Experimental Version 001 Talisman Seal (1/92)

Within a few minutes of Wang Ling’s arrival home, Zhai Yin had come at the same time to deliver the talisman seal.

Previously, Wang Ling had been holding back in the spirit world to protect the stability of the talisman seal. Now that the talisman seal was becoming more and more unusable, the effective seal time after each replacement was getting shorter, this made Wang Ling a little worried.

Fortunately, there were still a lot of people who cared about him.

Zhai Yin didn’t disturb father and mother Wang. She was dressed like a heroine in her nightwear and directly climbed through the window into Wang Ling’s bedroom.

Fortunately, after Wang Ling returned from Sun Island, he had already added Zhai Yin to the white list of the Villa’s defense mechanism. Otherwise, under normal circumstances, if outsiders wanted to directly climb through the window and break into the villa, they would end up in a very miserable state.

“Is it okay for you to come here? You’re Mr. Ming’s bodyguard.”

Loopy toad yawned, squatted at Wang Ling’s feet, and lazily looked up at Zhai Yin as it said this.

“He can protect himself, and I’m here to save the earth... This is obviously more important.”

Zhai Yin said, “This time, the new talisman has already been added with a little material extracted from the meteor called Eternal. The lasting effect should be stronger than before.”

“It’s been extracted and produced so quickly?” Loopy toad was extremely surprised.

“It’s just test subject 001.”. “But it’s also a necessary test; otherwise, there would be no way to update it in the future.”. “In addition, because that meteorite is very radioactive, it still needs to be cleaned up after the radioactive contamination during the extraction process, which is why he couldn’t come over personally.”

As Zhai Yin spoke, she couldn’t help showing a worried expression.

“Is there anything else? Is there a problem?”Wang Ling asked softly.

“After all, it’s a trial version of the talisman, so there might be some bugs in the process of sticking the talisman... but as for what exactly the problem is, it’s hard to say at the moment.”

As he spoke, Zhai Yin took out a jade jar with a seal on it from her storage bag, she handed it over to Wang Ling. “Inside the jade jar is the latest version of the regular talisman seal, the same as the one you changed out of. No matter what, it’s always good to keep it with you in case something goes wrong.”

“Thank you.”

Wang Ling took it with both hands and thanked her very politely.

He stared at the Smiling Zhai Yin for a few seconds, and then, out of the blue, added, “Sister-in-law...”

Zhai Yin’s face instantly turned red.

She had never thought that Wang Ling would call her that.

Did this mean that... she had already received the approval of her brother-in-law?

For a short moment, her mind was almost blank, but her body had already reacted unconsciously. With a red face, she almost ran out of the window.

Wang Ling was actually a little envious of such a genuine emotional reaction.

Because of the talisman, his emotions were suppressed and it was very difficult for him to release them.

Even if there was a slight fluctuation sometimes, it would quickly calm down.

Fortunately, Wang Ming didn't let him down, and very quickly cooperated with Shouchong to extract the sealing material from the eternal stone.

He just hoped that he wouldn't become too strange after changing into this experimental version of the talisman..

In front of the mirror in the toilet.

Under loopy Toad's protection, Wang Ling performed the operation of replacing the talisman.

The moment the new talisman covered him, Wang Ling felt a strong suppressive force that almost suffocated him, causing his eyes to go black for a short while.

This was something that had never happened with a conventional talisman before.

A few drops of cold sweat instantly dripped down from his forehead.

This reaction was very similar to hypoglycemia.

But Wang Ling was Wang Ling after all.

This lasted only for about three seconds before it immediately subsided.

Gradually, Wang Ling straightened his back in front of the mirror.

It could be said that he was pleasantly surprised by the Suppressive Force of the trial version of the talisman.

This time, he felt that the trial version of the talisman would last for a long time.

As for the side effects...

Apart from the three seconds of discomfort he felt when he put it on, everything else was basically normal for now.

At this moment, Wang Ling looked at Loopy Toad and clenched his fists. “Can you let me punch you?”

” ... ”

Cold Sweat instantly broke out on loopy Toad’s dog head. “What? Is this necessary...”

“I promise to be gentle,”Wang Ling said.

“No! Absolutely Not!”Loopy Toad’s face was full of rejection.

Although the enhancement effect of the trial version 001 Talisman looked fierce, this was Wang Ling standing in front of it after all, and this punch wouldn’t directly take half of its life.

“AI, it’s boring.”

Seeing loopy Toad’s frightened eyes, Wang Ling sighed in his heart, but in the end, he didn’t make things difficult for loopy toad anymore.

He had originally wanted to test how much damage he could do with one-hundredth of a hundred million of his strength after replacing this experimental version of the talisman seal.

But now, it seemed that this experiment could only be put on hold for the time being.

“Sleep, sleep. There’s not much time left, I still have to go to class later.”Wang Ling grumbled as he lay on the bed.

The stronger the talisman Seal's Suppressive Force was, the more stable his sleep would be. Whether or not he could quickly enter a state of sleep was also one of Wang Ling's tests.

For now, he felt that it was pretty good that the talisman seal didn't have any strange bugs for the time being.

On the other side, loopy Toad's mouth was agape as it looked at Wang Ling, who was already lying on the bed with his eyes closed and asleep.

If it hadn't misheard..

Wang Ling had said four lines in total just now.

Four lines!

And it hadn't even used a sound transmission spell..

Was this an illusion?

Could This Be a BUG in the trial version of the talisman?

At this moment, loopy toad looked at Wang Ling, who had already fallen asleep at the speed of light. It wasn't a reminder, nor was it a No..

Because who the hell would have thought that.

The BUG in this trial version of the talisman was actually to make Little Master Ling add lines!

It wouldn't develop into a social badass disease, would it

Loopy toad suddenly had an ominous premonition.

..

It was still Friday, January 17th, early in the morning.

Songhai city was shrouded in dark clouds, and the entire city was permeated with a hazy fog that made it hard to breathe.

Many people put on masks and went out.

Although Wang Ling had only slept for two hours, the quality of his sleep during those two hours was the highest in a month.

He could clearly feel that he was very energetic today.

If the weather had been a little better when he had woken up earlier, he might have been in a better mood.

“This kind of fog is rare,” Wang Ying said.

In fact, Wang Ling could also see that this was man-made.

All the foreign students who had been forced to leave the spirit world trial grounds yesterday had stayed in the hotel arranged by nine heavens fine search academy to rest.

Therefore, Li Changzhe hadn't left Songhai city yesterday.

Besides the legendary God of fog, there was probably no one else who could cause this kind of natural fog to affect the entire city..

In other words, the god of fog was probably already in Songhai city at this moment.

Chapter 1983 Gifted Disciple From The Heavens (1/92)

The visibility on the streets of Songhai city today was frighteningly low. Some areas had already announced the control of flying swords and the suspension of traffic.

A man carrying a guzheng bag, wearing round sunglasses, and wearing a gray cotton coat walked on the street. He calmly looked at the pedestrians around him who were wearing masks and walking in a hurry. Then, he sighed slightly, he shook his head.

The fog condensed by magic power was very clean. In fact, there was no problem of pollution.

It was a pity that young people nowadays were too lacking in common sense, as if they were afraid that the pollution would affect their cultivation base..

However, the modern cultivation world was not quite the same as before. In the modern cultivation society, people often said that only when one stepped into the golden core stage could one truly begin the path of cultivation.

This was because under the modern cultivation system, the price of spirit herbs used to break through bottlenecks in the realm before the golden core stage had almost been suppressed to the point where even ordinary people could afford to buy them.

In the case of equal resources, the rest depended on talent. If one's talent was good enough, then generally, one could directly become a cultivator in the golden core stage before stepping into the university stage.

However, it was clear that not everyone had such self-awareness.

“The weather forecast is getting more and more inaccurate! Such a heavy smog has polluted my child's exceptional spiritual root. What should we do?”

“This city really does a lot of harm to people! It's killing people!”

A middle-aged woman with an aura of jewelry held the hand of a little boy who was less than five years old as she walked on the road in a hurry.

It was obvious that this was a mother who was in a hurry to send her child to kindergarten.

She was cursing and complaining.

The man in the Chinese tunic stood still until the middle-aged woman walked past him while cursing. Only then did he heave a sigh of relief.

As expected..

The life in the reclusive mountain forest was more suitable for him. Modern cultivators... especially those who lived in fast-paced cities, had a very bad temper.

Luo Lan was a little flustered by the scene just now.

He rarely set foot in cities because he had a severe social phobia. He would feel uncomfortable as soon as he stepped into the city boundary.

That was why he used a secret technique to create this foggy scene. In this fog, it was his best protection.

And this time, Luo Lan did not hesitate to come to Songhai city. It was actually related to a magic ball that was given to him anonymously.

That person obviously knew that he did not know how to operate modern technology, so he recorded a video in the magic ball for him to watch.

That was a video in a dense forest.

In the video, Luo Lan immediately recognized the person who had a certain degree of fame in the entire country and was crowned as a high school genius, Qu Shuling.

When she first watched the video, Luo Lan was somewhat puzzled, but when she looked at him, she was immediately attracted by the gaze of the youth who was fighting Qu Shuling.

He actually used the mist technique..

Looking at the magic ball, Luo Lan was extremely shocked.

He had never taken in a disciple, nor had he taught anyone else the technique of the mist technique.

However, this young man relied on his own strength to directly comprehend the highest level of the mist technique, the “Water mist mirror flower.”.

Hence.

At that instant!

Luo Lan was moved.

The mist technique was a very unorthodox technique. It had the same origin as water-type spells but also had a difference in form. It was very difficult to control.

Those who were proficient in water techniques might not be proficient in mist techniques, but those who were proficient in mist techniques would definitely have top-notch water technique abilities.

Back then, he used decades of time to touch upon the Mist technique. He also used decades of time to cultivate the mist technique to the highest realm.

Now, a 17-year-old youth could actually have such amazing talent. How could Luo Lan not be tempted?

So he came just like that.

Even if he had a complete social phobia.

But in order to take in this “Genius” as a disciple, he still decided to take a risk and set foot in Songhai city.

But in this vast big city, finding a person was like finding a needle in a haystack. How could it be easy?

If there was no one to lead the way, no matter how long he stayed here, it would be useless.

Therefore, before coming to Songhai city, Luo Lan made some preparations. He used the most primitive method of communication to contact a young fellow Daoist he had known many years ago with a flying sword..

It was said that this person had been doing quite well in the city recently. Perhaps he could help him.

Venus Full Moon Tower.

This was the tallest landmark building in Songhai city.

Shrouded in a hazy fog, Luo Lan appeared in front of the Venus Full Moon Tower.

Soon, a familiar voice came from afar.

“A heartbreaking song...”

Luo Lan raised her head in surprise and responded to the secret signal. “Where is the end of the world... looking for a bosom friend!”

“The city hero, master Luo Lan, has come from afar. I’m sorry.”

The curly-haired young man walked over from afar with a smile on his face and took the initiative to shake hands with Luo Lan. “I’m Odd Zhuo. I’ve been waiting for master Luo Lan here for a long time.”

Luo Lan looked at Odd Zhuo’s hand and took a deep breath. She then tried to hold it, but it was only a light touch. Before Odd Zhuo could even shake her hand, Luo Lan’s hand slipped out of her hand like a fish.

Odd Zhuo wasn’t stupid. He had seen all kinds of people in his many years in the job, and his ability to read people’s expressions told him that this master Luo Lan in front of him was probably a veteran social phobia sufferer.

Uh, why did he seem to know so many people who were social phobia?

Take his master for example, she was a typical social phobia sufferer..

“I’m sorry to have disturbed fellow Daoist Odd Zhuo on this trip,”Luo Lan said politely.

“No, no, master is too polite. Just call me Odd Zhuo.”Odd Zhuo smiled.

Actually, his meeting with Odd Zhuo was a little awkward.

He had met Odd Zhuo many years ago when that level five demon king sky-swallowing toad had arrived in Songhai city.

After that, he and Odd Zhuo had been jointly named City Heroes.

But because he was too afraid and too ashamed to appear in the media, Odd Zhuo had received the award on his behalf and then mailed it to him.

After that, he had never contacted Odd Zhuo again.

Now, he didn’t even know what Odd Zhuo did, but he had heard that Odd Zhuo was a very impressive person in the local area.

Speaking of which, Luo Lan actually felt a little ashamed.

There were times when interpersonal relationships needed to be safeguarded by oneself.

He usually didn’t greet odd zhuo during festivals and festivals, but now that he had something to do and thought of Odd Zhuo, he was indeed a little shameless.

This kind of behavior was actually no different from those old classmates who hadn’t been in contact for 800 years and wanted to borrow money from you as soon as they did..

Of course, Luo Lan was someone who knew how to reflect on herself.

He had his own thoughts.

Now that Odd Zhuo had come to help him, Luo Lan was very touched by this friendship.

“Fellow Daoist Zhuo is too polite. There are so many people here... if it weren’t for the fact that I’m not familiar with this place, I wouldn’t have been able to pull down my face and ask fellow Daoist Zhuo for help,”said Luo Lan.

“Master Luo Lan is thirsty for talent, so I naturally understand.”

Odd Zhuo said, “In addition, I’ve already found the person you’re looking for.”

“So Fast?”

This was a first-tier metropolis..

Just based on the clues in the video, she was able to accurately find the student who had fought Qu shuling, which stunned Luo Lan at Odd Zhuo’s networking ability.

“Does master Luo Lan want to investigate in secret, or do you want to go directly to him?”Odd Zhuo asked.

“I’ll have to trouble fellow Daoist Zhuo to take me there directly. Time doesn’t wait for me.”Luo Lan bowed respectfully to Odd Zhuo and said earnestly.

Chapter 1984 Double Bluffing (1/92)

“This person is Li Changzhe, the president of the Student Union at Jingmen No. 8 High School in Jinghua City. He came to Songhai this time because of the spirit world trial.”

Odd Zhuo had driven here himself, as he drove, he explained the situation to Luo Lan. “Because of the accident at the Spirit World Trial site yesterday, he was temporarily arranged to stay in a hotel with the other students who had come to Songhai city for training.”

“Fellow Daoist Zhuo’s intelligence network is really powerful...”

Luo Lan sighed with emotion. He was very confident in accepting Changzhe Li as his disciple. After all, the fog technique was an unpopular type of spell, most of the practitioners of the fog technique only decided to follow him after hearing about his legendary deeds.

In other words, Luo Lan had already guessed that the probability of Changzhe Li being his fan was very high before she came to Songhai city.

He was only worried that Li Changzhe would be poached away by someone else, and since the spirit world trial was being promoted by Nine Heavens Fine Search Academy, he wasn’t worried at all.

For the Fine Search Academy, which liked to recruit elites, Li Changzhe was definitely someone they would focus on nurturing. In the future, even if he wanted to personally guide Li Changzhe, there probably wouldn’t be a very good opportunity..

It was as if Odd Zhuo could guess what Luo Lan was thinking, as he drove, he smiled and said, “It’s true that elite search academy Nine Heavens is recruiting talents, but I don’t think this actually conflicts with master Luo Lan taking in disciples. Moreover, there’s nothing wrong with receiving the attention of elite search academy Nine Heavens. You can enjoy cultivation treatment that ordinary high school students can’t imagine, right?”

“Master Luo Lan, you don’t have to worry too much. At most, you can try to learn modern technology. If you want to guide student Li, you can do it through remote online classes.”

These words made Luo Lan suddenly feel enlightened. “This... What fellow Daoist Zhuo said is true... but you know, I’ve been living in seclusion in the mountains for a long time. Regarding these modern technologies...”

“I can find someone to teach master Luo Lan. This way, master doesn’t have to worry about losing face in front of his disciple. Moreover, student Li is so outstanding. There must be many people who want to take him in as a disciple. For such an outstanding disciple, master Luo Lan learning modern technology and sacrificing a little time should be worth it, right?”

As soon as she said this, Luo Lan felt as if she had been injected with stimulants as she hurriedly nodded, like a chick pecking at rice: “Yes! Fellow Daoist Zhuo is right! As long as I can accept this peerless genius as my disciple, I’ll have a successor! The path of cultivators is endless, and I’m indeed too pedantic... for classmate Li, it’s also possible to learn modern technology!”

“That’s easy.”Odd Zhuo smiled.

In fact, it had been two hours before he had met Luo Lan.

Odd Zhuo had just met Li Changzhe in private.

“You’re... Odd Zhuo! ?”

Li Changzhe covered his mouth with a face full of surprise; he hadn’t expected odd zhuo to appear in his room without anyone noticing.

He was so scared that he almost cried out, but he quickly calmed down when he saw this familiar face. Odd Zhuo’s face often appeared on TV... he was very familiar with it.

The city hero from six years ago was now the idol of almost every high school student, not only in Songhai city, but also in other places.

This year in particular, Odd Zhuo was one of the key candidates for the vice-president position of the Alliance of ten thousand schools, and he had received a lot of attention.

“I’m Odd Zhuo.”

Odd Zhuo admitted generously and smiled like a spring breeze. “You can call me brother Zhuo.”

“Then brother Zhuo... I understand the logic. What do you mean by flashing into my room so early in the morning?”

Li Changzhe looked at him with a trace of fear on his face. “I’m a serious girl lover!”

“Of course! Who Isn’t a serious girl lover!”

Odd Zhuo facepalmed. “I’m sorry. It’s my fault for being so abrupt. I didn’t explain the situation to you beforehand. Actually, your performance in the spirit world this time was very good. I have a friend who wants to take you as a disciple. His name is Luolan. I don’t know if you’re interested.”

Hearing this, Li Changzhe was instantly shocked. “Master... Master Luolan! Brother Zhuo, you actually know Master Luolan! He’s always been my idol! I’ve been paying attention to him since primary school! I like him very much! My mist-dispelling technique is also...”

“Mm... I understand how you feel.” Odd Zhuo nodded.

Back then, he had been saved by Wang Ling and had accidentally become the city hero who had defeated the demon king. Odd Zhuo could only understand how similar his admiration and adoration for Wang Ling was to that of the current Li Changzhe.

“But master Luo Lan isn’t good with words and doesn’t like to socialize. This time, he’s taking in disciples as an exception. Let me be frank with you.”

Odd Zhuo looked at Li Changzhe and said, “This time, master Luo Lan came to look for you to take you in as a true disciple. In other words, apart from master Luo Lan telling others about your master-disciple relationship with him, you can’t tell anyone else about it.”

“Understood, keep a low profile.” Li Changzhe nodded.

“Also, master Luo Lan will come to your room later to see you. This matter has to be hidden from everyone in nine days precision search academy. I believe you should be able to handle it, right?”

“Of course!”

“There’s also another point. In the future, you’ll still have to follow the arrangements of nine heavens fine finding courtyard. Master Luo Lan’s initial teaching might take the form of an online class.”

“Online class...”

“It’s a bit unrealistic for him to just take you out like that.” This was a decision made after comprehensive consideration. “To be able to take his idol as a master, and to be such a good one at that, this little sacrifice in the early stages should be worth it, right?” Odd Zhuo patted Changzhe Li’s shoulder as he said this.

As soon as he said this, Li Changzhe felt as if he had been injected with stimulants as he hurriedly nodded, like a chicken pecking at rice, he said, “Yes! Brother Zhuo is right! As long as I can take master Luo Lan as my master, I’m willing to die! For master, I’m willing to cooperate with all of Master’s actions!”

“Very good.”

Odd Zhuo nodded in satisfaction. “There’s one last thing. I need to retrieve that night severing sword.”

“Eh? Don’t you need to give this sword to nine Heavens Precision Search Court?” Asked Li Changzhe.

To be honest, he himself didn’t feel at ease with Zhanye staying by his side. This sword was too strange... carrying it with him was like carrying a bomb.

Last night, Li Changzhe actually didn’t sleep well because of this, even though he had now heard the experts say that the spirit world trial ground had collapsed because his sword Qi had coincidentally struck the secret door..

But thinking back on the destructive power of that sword strike, Li Changzhe was still terrified, and he didn’t dare use it a second time.

“Master Luo Lan is also very interested in this sword. So she wants to borrow it to study it, but in name, it can’t be said that master Luo Lan borrowed it. If anyone asks, just say that I’ve already taken it back. No one will come looking for trouble with you.” Odd Zhuo reached out his hand, then he smiled kindly.

Chapter 1985 1,981, High-Quality Human Wang Ling (1/92)

At the same time, No. 60 High School’s morning self-study session was particularly lively today, and there were almost no impenetrable walls in the modern cultivation campus.

The collapse of Spirit World No. 2 trial ground had been posted on the cultivation forum almost in the early hours of this morning, and although the post was quickly deleted, it still attracted extensive attention from many people.

Of course, compared to this blunder, the most surprising big news was the news that Qu Shuling was leaving as the president of the Student Union of Saint Sciences! The new president of the Student Union of Saint Sciences would be Su Xingyue, an alchemy genius from the same sect.

The former was only a rumor spread on the Cultivation Forum, while the latter was an announcement from the official side of Saint Sciences.

And this notice directly caused a world-shaking earthquake in the entire cultivation campus.

Although the notice saved Qu Shuling's face and stated that it was Qu Shuling who left voluntarily, the supporters of Qu Shuling still didn't believe it.

"What on Earth happened?"

"Why did the weather change after sleeping for a while?"

Many people revealed the same question at the same time.

No one knew what Qu Shuling had done to be suddenly given up by the academy. Qu Shuling had also completely disappeared without a trace, and he hadn't come out to express his stance. There wasn't even a single message on all of his social media accounts.., he hadn't even posted a selfie.

This made people even more suspicious as to whether Qu Shuling had already been controlled by the authorities.

There were even people who started to link the reason for the collapse of the spirit world trial ground to Qu Shuling, thinking that this trial ground was because Qu Shuling was too strong.., in the process of fighting with people, it was accidentally destroyed by Qu Shuling's domineering aura!

And the authorities' actions were actually taking revenge on Qu Shuling.

"Someone must be jealous of Big Brother's strength, so they messed with big brother like this!"

“What kind of broken spirit world is this? The spirit world was destroyed by high school students. What are these people building the spirit world for!”

When Lotus Sun saw this news, she was completely shocked, because as the secret participant in this matter, she knew very well what had happened.

It could only be said that..

The brainless fans had really killed people!

Perhaps the authorities only wanted to teach their big brother a lesson, but they wanted their big brother to die.

Of course, the collapse of the spirit world trial ground and Qu Shuling’s suspected disappearance as the student council president... In the end, it was all an outsider’s business.

And today, for No. 60 high school, especially the people from grade one, class three, there seemed to be another unusual matter.

That was that Wang Ling felt that today was very unusual..

“Lingzi, you went to participate in the spirit world trial too, right? Can you tell us about it?” Super Chen and hero Guo couldn’t help asking as they sat at Wang Ling’s table, very curious about what had happened, but in reality, these two were also participants in this blunder.

“It’s nothing. It’s just picking spirit fruits, collecting materials, and then repairing the great array.”

What Super Chen and hero Guo hadn’t expected was that Wang Ling actually directly answered them!

And it wasn’t just one or two words!

It was a series of long sentences!

Before the two of them could react, Wang Ling continued, “Then the trial ground collapsed, and everyone was forcibly sent away.”

“Is that so... isn’t that the same as the game super and I played yesterday, when the server suddenly crashed and we went offline?”

“Yeah, I even stopped inside because of a BUG; it was the relevant staff who took me out.”

” ...”

This time, it was Super Chen and hero Guo’s turn to be silent.

The two of them looked at each other for a moment, then looked at Wang Ling strangely one after another.

They wondered if it was because Wang Ling had been too shocked by the collapse of the spirit world trial ground yesterday... This cold and aloof man, who had almost 1,980 chapters and less than 1,000 words in all, was so scared that he could speak!

“What’s Wrong?”Wang Ling looked at the two of them and asked.

“Nothing... nothing...”Super Chen and hero Guo shook their heads.

No!

It was an illusion! It had to be an illusion!

Wang Ling... how could he be so talkative..

Lotus Sun also saw this scene.

She was so scared that the milk candy in her hand fell off..

Of course, the above conversation seemed to be a relatively normal exchange, but if it happened occasionally, there wouldn't actually be any problems.

So the key came very quickly.

During an expansion class on the creatures of the Earth's core, teacher Pan was introducing the relevant theoretical knowledge to everyone.

"Everyone knows that now we have confirmed that the Earth's core is not groundless. "However, to the current human cultivators, the Earth's core is still full of unknown and dangerous. "There will be very powerful creatures appearing inside."

As she spoke, teacher Pan switched the Powerpoint. An eagle-headed man with thick hair on his upper body and a pair of wings on his back appeared before everyone's eyes.

"Currently, the cultivation science community has sent out detectors to search the core world. Other than powerful high-level spirit beasts, there is also the possibility that there are intelligent creatures

"Everyone, take a look at this eagle-headed man. This is a photo that has been reconstructed by analyzing the DNA of a feather collected by the Academy of Cultivation and magical equipment science."

"Now, let me ask you a question. Does anyone know what the cultivation science community has given such creatures a special name for?"

Under normal circumstances, almost no one in the class would raise their hand.

Especially in the face of such unknown knowledge.

But as the class teacher, teacher Pan had long thought of how to deal with such a situation.

Most of the time, she would say that she would draw the student number according to the date, or use a little cock to point sesame and directly call the roll.

A while ago, it was even popular to directly broadcast the faces of everyone in the class. Whoever's face was frozen, the person would answer the question.

When she asked this question, the class was silent for a few seconds, and she was just about to pick a student to ask.

But suddenly, a loud and clear voice came from the back of the classroom.

"I know!"

Then, a voice by the window suddenly stood up and said loudly, "The scientific name is: earth-core beast-shaped person!"

"Wang... Wang Ling?"

Teacher Pan was so scared that she dropped her chalk.

At the same time, everyone in the class looked at Wang Ling in disbelief.

In an instant, the class suddenly became lively.

"Oh my God, teacher Pan's eyes seem to be red... Are You Crying?"

"It's true! Old Pan is touched! After teaching our class for more than half a semester, this seems to be the first time someone has taken the initiative to raise their hand to answer a question... and the first person to do so is actually Wang Ling!"

..

"Very good, student Wang Ling, your answer is absolutely correct! Please take a seat!"

Teacher Pan took off her eyes and wiped away the tears on her glasses emotionally.

Then, she continued to ask, “Now, does anyone know which expert academician developed the first earth core detector in our country?”

“I know!”

It was Wang Ling again. As he raised his hand, he suddenly stood up. “Academician Zhuang Junbaoli invented it!”

“Very good, student Wang Ling is right again. Please sit down!”

..

“Next question, when is the second season of the Immortal King’s daily life animation...”

“I know!”

It was Wang Ling again. Raising his hand again, he stood up at the fastest speed possible. “It’s October 30th!”

“Very good! Student Wang Ling, you actually know how to answer First!”

”...”the rest of the crowd.

Chapter 1986 1,982, Urban Legends About The Spirit World (1/92)

Wang Ling was very abnormal today; anyone with a discerning eye could actually see it.

Of course, the reason why Wang Ling had suddenly become proactive was still unknown. Thus, after the first class this morning, the urban legends about Wang Ling being possessed in the spirit world trial ground spread like wildfire..

“Oh my God, is the spirit world trial ground that scary? I heard that classmate Wang from grade one, class three, don’t possess him!”

“Wang? is that the legendary mascot of our sixty?”

“Yes, yes, yes! That’s him!”! I heard that he had never been so active in answering questions in class before and had lived a low-key life, but when he came back from the spirit world, he was like a different person... tell me, if this isn’t possession, then what is it? His personality has changed!”

”...”

Fang Xing, Wang Zhen, and Liu Qingyi listened to the rest of the class’s discussion. They looked at each other for a moment and suddenly felt the seriousness of this problem.

Of course, they also knew very well that the idea of possession was pure nonsense; there was no one in this world who could possess Wang Ling’s body.

After all, if cultivators wanted to possess a body, the first thing they had to do was to battle their souls.

The last living creature that had entered Wang Ling’s soul had already been scared silly by the boundless universe, and it didn’t know which step it should take to possess it in the face of this incomparably bright universe and the Milky Way.

And this was under the circumstances that Wang Ling had deliberately let it in. Under normal circumstances, it would undoubtedly be very difficult to infiltrate Wang Ling’s soul.

Putting aside all these external factors, the remaining circumstances that could cause Wang Ling’s personality to change so drastically seemed to be easy to analyze.

“Talisman Seal...”

Fang Xing quickly thought of the problem and took the initiative to communicate with Wang Zhen and Liu Qingyi through voice transmission.

He reacted extremely quickly because he couldn’t think of any other reason besides this.

After hearing what Fang Xing said, Wang Zhen suddenly remembered, he hurriedly replied, “Yes, I remember now. Mr. Shouchong seems to be studying Ling Zhenren’s new talisman seal with Mr. Wang Ming... I think it’s most likely because he changed the new talisman seal.”

It was very obvious that this was a serious BUG in the new version of the talisman seal. The old version of the talisman seal could not only seal strength, but also affect one's emotions.

For the time being, Wang Ming had made some adjustments to the seal on his emotions, but this adjustment was too drastic, and not only did it open up Wang Ling's emotions..., it also made him seem like a completely different person.

On the other hand, Fang Xing and the others weren't the only ones who were anxious; Lotus Sun had actually thought of this as well.

As soon as class was over, she rushed to the student union office and used this quiet place to contact Wang Ming.

"Brother Ming! Something Big has happened! Student Wang Ling... has become so strange!" Lotus Sun called out.

On the other end of the phone, Wang Ming looked as if he had already expected this, and had an expression that said he had everything under control. "Has his personality changed? is he more cheerful than before?"

"He's more than cheerful... he's simply unrestrained!" Lotus Sun facepalmed.

Although she still liked Wang Ling very much, she still felt that there was something strange about him having such a huge change in personality... if she got used to it, it wouldn't be easy.

The point was that this Wang Ling liked to show off too much, and if she let him be, something big might happen.

"It looks like there's a bug in the new talisman."

"Is this because he's completely opened up his emotional suppression, brother Ming?"

"Not really," Wang Ming said. "I've been monitoring the data from a distance, and from the results now, Ling Ling should be imitating it."

“Imitating?”

“The old talismans suppressed his true strength, true emotions, and emotions, so even with the new version of the talisman, his understanding of emotions and emotions is still very limited. When he doesn’t know whether to be happy, angry, sad, or happy, it’s easiest for him to imitate at the same time.”

Wang Ming said, “You know that Li Changzhe, right? He’s quite noisy. Ling Ling was in the same group as him in the spirit world trial ground.”

“So that’s how it is...”lotus sun suddenly understood.

What he meant was that Wang Ling’s personality, emotions, and expression of emotions had completely assimilated with that Li Changzhe.

Of course, this was an important result for Wang Ming, and he could avoid any mistakes in the subsequent development of the talismans based on the problems that had arisen now.

As a serious scientist, Wang Ming naturally had a backup plan for this matter, so last night he had Zhai Yin prepare the regular seal talisman seal.

“So as long as he replaces the regular talisman seal, Wang Ling will be able to return to normal.”

“That’s right.”

Wang Ming replied, “But Lotus, this is actually a rare opportunity.”

Lotus sun: “Eh? A good opportunity? What do you mean?”

On the other end of the phone, Wang Ming smiled calmly. “In the past, you never got a response for your feelings. If you express your feelings to Ling Ling now, you might get a direct response.”

Lotus Sun’s face immediately turned red.

To be honest, it was just as Wang Ming had said: this was a rare opportunity... if she confessed again, perhaps she would really get a response from Wang Ling.

After all, under normal circumstances, who knew how long it would take for this blockhead to take the initiative to say that he liked her.

She was well aware of this.

However, the girl at the moment didn't want to do that.

After a long silence, and after her emotions had cooled down a little, Lotus Sun calmly replied, "Then, forget it..."

"Why?" Wang Ming didn't understand.

"Because it's very strange..."

Lotus Sun smiled. "I clearly know that Wang Ling is now in sync with Li Changzhe's personality, but I still took this opportunity to confess to him. So, is the person who responded to my feelings student Wang Ling or that student Li?"

"Although... There's nothing wrong with student Wang Ling being cheerful, I hope that one day he can grow up on his own and comprehend his own feelings like a man..."

"Before that, I'd rather he be a piece of wood..."

"Alright."

Hearing this, Wang Ming nodded repeatedly with a smile on his face. "Then let's wait and see. The regular talisman is on Ling Ling himself. You just have to find him and replace him."

"Okay, thank you, brother Ming."

Lotus sun nodded and heaved a huge sigh of relief as she hung up the phone.

It was good, it was good..

That wasn't student Wang Ling's real personality; it was just a phenomenon caused by imitating others.

All she had to do now was remind Wang Ling to replace the talisman.

But at that moment, an accident happened again. Super Chen and hero Guo almost broke into the student union office.

"Boss Sun, it's bad..."hero Guo panted.

"What happened? Tell me slowly."

"It's Shengke! Shengke has sent US Sixty Challenge Letters!"

"The normal challenge and sparring between the two schools requires the approval of the principal. It's against the rules for them to send an invitation like this alone. They can ignore it."

"That's true, but the person who issued the challenge was none other than the principal of Shengke, Dai Tianchun!"

"Principal dai... came personally?"Lotus sun instantly understood.

It was rumored that this principal dai, who was known as Crazy Dai, was famous for protecting his own son..

He had spent countless resources to build Qu shuling up, making him an outstanding representative of the high school cultivators. But in the end, a spirit world trial match had completely destroyed Qu shuling.

Clearly, this wasn't something principal Dai could accept.

“Where’s principal Chen?”

“Principal Chen isn’t here... teacher Wang Zukang went to the academic conference with him.”

Super Chen said, “Of course, the crux of the problem isn’t actually here...”

He and hero Guo sang in unison, and the two of them did a cross talk.

Hero Guo: “The crux of the problem is that Wang Ling... accepted this challenge!”

Lotus Sun:”...”

Chapter 1987 1,983. No, But She Could Play With Him (1/92)

Lotus Sun hadn’t expected things to take an unpredictable step in the end.

The new Talisman Seal’s ability to assimilate characters was truly heaven-defying. If it had been an ordinary classmate Wang Ling, he wouldn’t have been able to dodge this challenge in time... he definitely wouldn’t have been able to accept it so easily.

In fact, after accepting this challenge, Wang Ling’s heart was filled with regret; he could feel that he was very strange today.

He had already become a little different from his usual self..

But for some reason, when he saw Dai Tianchun’s long-distance challenge with a spirit sword, Wang Ling’s heart was actually filled with a rare desire to win.

As long as the letter was opened, it would be considered a challenge. There was a secret art inside the letter that could let the person who wrote the letter know about it in an instant.

In other words, it was already impossible to pretend that nothing had happened.

Even if principal Chen hadn’t opened the letter, it was still open..

If anyone had heard of this Dai Tianchun, they would definitely know that this person was the unreasonable type. Once the letter was opened, there was absolutely no way he would regret it.

“Oh my God... Student Wang Ling is too brave, he even dares to accept this...”

“That Dai Tianchun from Shengke is known as crazy dai. He used to beat almost every principal in the group training Mystic Realm held by the major school sects, and he was ruthless...”

“It’s over, it’s over... Our School is going to be gone. Won’t this principal Chen be sent straight to the hospital to lie there for a few hundred years?”

Many students began to feel pessimistic. Although principal Chen was also known as a tactical genius, who could resist the edge of crazy dai in the face of a solo between principals.

No matter how smart principal Chen was, even if he was a tactical genius, he had to combine his tactical and strategic abilities to the maximum by combining them with the appropriate terrain.

When Lotus Sun arrived at the scene with the students from the student union (followers of the Grey Religion) , there were already quite a few people surrounding Wang Ling, who were maintaining order on the scene, lotus Sun gently held onto Wang Ling’s arm. “Everyone, stop watching and go to class as usual! Leave the rest to our student union!”

Although this had happened very suddenly, lotus sun felt that the overall situation hadn’t completely gone out of control.

And for some reason, she even felt that it was a blessing in disguise.

Because everyone was now starting to worry about the outcome of the principal solo battle between Principal Chen and principal dai, they had somehow forgotten that Wang Ling had become a little abnormal today.

“Student Wang Ling, calm down...”under the cover of a few people, Lotus Sun quickly brought Wang Ling back to the Student Union office.

“I’m sorry,”Wang Ling apologized at the speed of light.

Even this was surprisingly in line with Li Changzhe’s personality..

“AI, actually, this isn’t your fault.”Lotus sun put her hand on her forehead and then said to Wang Ling, “You have the regular talisman, right?”

“Mm, yes, it’s on me,”Wang Ling said. Then, he spread out his palm, and a spirit talisman with a yellow background and a red character quietly lay in his palm along with a spirit light.

”...”

Lotus Sun realized that Wang Ling, who usually only answered with a “Mm”, seemed to be even more likable.

“All the strange things you feel on your body now are caused by the new version of the talisman, so it’s time to replace it with a regular talisman. Now, let me help you change the talisman.”

As Lotus Sun said this, she directly started to work in the Student Union office and started to pull Wang Ling’s jacket.

“Lotus Sun, what are you doing?”Wang Ling was startled by Lotus Sun’s sudden action.

“I’m... Sorry!”Lotus Sun’s face instantly turned red. To be honest, she hadn’t thought about it at all. When Wang Ling’s reminder made her realize that she was actually picking up Wang Ling’s school uniform.., she was so embarrassed that she wished she could dig a hole and hide in it.

She immediately raised her hands to face Wang Ling, her face red. “Believe me, I didn’t do it on purpose... classmate Wang Ling... I just want to help...”

“I can do it myself,”Wang Ling said.

“Okay... then change yourself. I’ve already locked the door,”Lotus Sun said as she covered her eyes with her hands.

She was so shy that she couldn't even open her eyes or close them. Although there was an evil voice in her heart telling her that it wouldn't hurt to take this opportunity to peek, in any case, her gaze would only seep out through the cracks between her fingers, so Wang Ling shouldn't have noticed it..

But when this evil voice rang out in her heart, Lotus Sun had a high degree of doubt about herself.

She actually had this strange thought..

Sigh, her character was really too bad!

But in the end, Lotus Sun held it in. Even though the evil voice in her heart rang out continuously, she still didn't take that step.

"Student Wang Ling, are you done?" After calming down, Lotus Sun took a deep breath and asked.

"Yes."

This time, Wang Ling gave her the correct answer.

Only then did Lotus Sun move her hand away and open her eyes.

Then, she directly saw Wang Ling naked in his school uniform and short-sleeved shirt.

Lotus Sun only felt her blood pressure rise on the spot!

With a red face, she turned around and started to speak incoherently. "You... didn't you say you're done? Student Wang Ling, you... liar..."

Wang Ling:"?"

..

Because of Wang Ling opening the SHENGKE Letter of challenge, the teachers of No. 60 High had specially held a meeting in the afternoon.

In the absence of principal Chen and teacher Wang of history, Monk Jin Deng was in charge of the overall situation of the meeting.

This was the first time Jin Deng, who had assumed the identity of vice principal “Huoding,” was presiding over the meeting.

Perhaps it was because he had guessed that someone would use Wang Ling’s letter-opening question as an excuse, at the start of the conference, Jin Deng spoke directly. “This is the age when curiosity flourishes. It’s not necessarily a bad thing for students to be curious; this will help our country’s creativity in the future... We didn’t come here to discuss punishment in the first place.”

The few teachers present were rendered speechless by this speech. This shield... was too obvious. Although they didn’t know why vice principal Huo Ding was so protective of Wang Ling., the teachers still had to give face to the vice principal.

Since vice principal Huo had already said this much, the teachers naturally had nothing to say in response.

“Now, we need to discuss how to deal with the current situation and what we can do to preserve our face as much as possible. Teachers, do you think I’m right?” Jin Deng crossed his fingers, sitting in front of the central seat in the conference room, he said slowly.

“Vice principal is absolutely right. “But this crazy dai is really not easy to deal with...”teacher pan replied, “Now, director Wang and principal Chen are both going to the city for a meeting. I heard that they will only be back in a week. “If this Dai Tianchun comes knocking on our door...”

“Everyone, don’t worry. I’m still here.”

At this moment, Monk Jin deng smiled and said, “The principal isn’t here, but I’m still here. If everyone agrees, then this old monk will replace principal Chen in this battle...”

“This old monk?”

“Oh, no, I mean, this penniless monk...”

“This penniless monk?”

“Uh, I’m sorry, everyone. Recently, there have been a lot of TV dramas about Shaolin Temple... anyway, what I mean is that I will replace principal Chen in this battle,” monk Jin Deng said to everyone.

In the meeting room, the teachers present looked at each other in dismay. They only knew that this new vice principal Huo Ding was very good at teaching mathematics, but no one had ever seen him fight.

“Vice principal huo... it’s not that we don’t believe you, but this is a principal solo battle, and it concerns the school’s reputation...” a teacher muttered.

“I know.” Monk Jin Deng nodded.

“I heard that principal Dai knows tenth-tier and above spells... does vice-principal fire know them too?”

“No.”

Monk Jin Deng had a smile on his face as he calmly and modestly said, “But I can play with him.”

Chapter 1988 1,984, The Strange Vice Principal (1/92)

Although the monk had never bothered to compete with the secular world, his many reincarnations had always given him a sense of immersion in his current role.

Now he was not a monk, but the vice principal and math teacher of No. 60 High School. The most important thing was to protect the reputation of the school, to protect the face of all the current teachers of No. 60 High School, and most importantly..., protecting all the students here was an important task in his current job.

He had also heard of Dai Fanmo’s name. He had been born on the battlefield of Wuyi in the chaotic war era, and had become famous in one fell swoop. He had made a lot of first-class or even special meritorious deeds.

The enemies he had killed could even be piled up into a mountain.

However, in the early years of peacetime, Dai Fanmo, who had made outstanding military achievements, had not been placed in an important position. The reason was that he had insisted on going his own way on the battlefield, repeatedly disobeying orders and going against the wind. Although he had created many miracles of winning the war with fewer people.., such a disobedient person was indeed an important blow to the overall strategic deployment.

Therefore, in the early years of peacetime, Dai Tianchun was left out for a very long time. The ten generals all thought that he was too young and impetuous at that time, which was why he repeatedly disobeyed orders and took risks.

Therefore, they temporarily left Dai Tianchun out in the cold, hoping to make his temperament more stable..

Then, the famous general Dai Tianchun, who was born in the battlefield of the Wu Yi, was reactivated. It was already a thousand years after the beginning of the era of peace.

The ten generals reassessed and found that Dai Tianchun's personality was indeed more stable than before. Moreover, they also found that while Dai Tianchun was immersed in his research, he had started to research scientific magical equipment, he had repeatedly produced research results that shocked the world.

At this point, there seemed to be no other reason to keep Dai Tianchun hidden.

Then, Shengke... was officially established, and Dai Tianchun had taken over Shengke from the very beginning. He had been the first principal until today.

Everyone thought that this legendary general had become more stable, but later, in the training mystic realms of the various principal groups, he once again displayed his crazy-wearing characteristics and beat the principals to the ground, he showed no mercy at all.

In the eyes of the ten generals, Dai Tianchun's action was more like a vent for years of hiding. He had a strange personality, like an old child who would never grow up, full of the desire to win and the desire to win.

After listening to the monk's story, all the teachers in No. 60 High School's conference center opened their mouths wide. They hadn't expected that this vice principal would be so vast when he was in school, he was able to understand Dai Tianchun's history so clearly.

But knowledge was knowledge..

The question now was, what would happen if the two of them fought? Because the outcome of this battle was actually very crucial.

Teacher Pan frowned. "Vice principal Huo, you should know the stakes involved in this battle between the principals... This Dai Tianchun just wants to make an example of our No. 60 High School."

"Of course I know. This is a kind of threat."

The monk nodded, he calmly said, "As far as I know, he didn't just issue a letter of challenge to No. 60 High School. He also issued a letter of challenge to No. 8 Jingmen High School, which is also No. 2 in Jinghua City. This move is actually a kind of threat."

"Just for Qu Shuling?" A teacher asked in puzzlement.

"This is a student that he spent a huge amount of resources to nurture with great difficulty. "Because he made a mistake in this spirit world trial, today's news was spread... if he doesn't show his attitude, then this student Qu will face the result of being frozen," the monk said, he hit the nail on the head, making all the teachers present come to a sudden realization.

It turned out that Dai Tianchun's action was because he saw a shadow of himself in Qu shuling..

In this way, the reason why this crazy dai suddenly attacked didn't seem so strange.

Now that Principal Chen wasn't around, all the teachers could only place their hopes on this new vice principal Huo.

Although no one had really seen vice principal Huo fight, and no one knew how strong this vice principal Huo was... but judging from vice principal Huo's words., this man who had suddenly entered No. 60 high school to become vice principal was full of mystery.

“No... But we can play with him...”

The teachers couldn't help but think of the scene that had just happened.

Was this something that a normal person would say?

“Old Pan, do you think Vice School Fire is reliable?” After the meeting ended, a teacher communicated with teacher pan in private.

“I'm not sure... But for some reason, vice school fire suddenly gave me a feeling...” teacher pan said.

“What feeling?”

“Sixty sweeping monks...”

“If this is really a sweeping monk, that would be great.”

Many teachers couldn't help but laugh. In this situation, they could only take things one step at a time.

After all, the principal was a master in a duel, and the leaders of the higher-ups wouldn't just sit idly by.

Not long after the monk left the conference center, he heard the teachers discussing him in private.

Floor-sweeping monks..

The monk scratched his head.

He felt that his acting was pretty good. He looked like a vice-principal.

But for some reason, he suddenly returned to his role.

He couldn't help but laugh.

It seemed that this time, he was acting as himself..

..

In Principal Shengke's office, Dai Tianchun had already received No. 60 High's response. His hair was long and messy, and his white mane covered the bottom half of his face along his temples. From Afar, he looked imposing without being angry, and he carried a fierce image, he was like a silver lion shrouded in lightning.

To be honest, No. 60 high school had dared to accept the challenge, which was a little beyond his imagination... Although No. 60 high school wasn't ranked high, the development of No. 60 high school over the years had attracted Dai Tianchun's full attention.

In particular, there was always a seed in his heart..

He really wanted to have a good fight with No. 60 High School's School Head Chen.

After all, there weren't many principals in the principal circle who hadn't been beaten up by him, and No. 60 High School's headmaster Chen was one of them.

However, at this moment, Dai Tianchun realized that the person who was going to fight this time wasn't headmaster Chen, but No. 60 high school's new vice-headmaster, Huo Ding..

"Using a vice-headmaster to fight against me, is he looking down on me?" Dai Tianchun immediately felt a trace of anger rise in his heart.

Especially after he carefully investigated the information about this vice principal huuding, he felt as if a fish bone was stuck in his throat.

A vice principal's entire experience was completely blank. It only stated that he had interned in the war sect for a period of time..

Using an intern as a vice principal and still daring to accept his challenge?

This wasn't just a question of looking down on him.

This was completely crushing his dignity as the principal of the school..

At this moment, Dai Tianchun's mane fluttered even though there was no wind.

There was only one thought in his mind -- Trample No. 60 high school!

Chapter 1989 1,985, The Heart Of Defense (1/92)

Everyone had fifteen minutes to become famous. They would rise to fame at a young age and fall to the bottom in an instant. They were about to face a situation where they would be frozen and sealed. If it were anyone else, they would not be able to bear this fall in a short period of time.

At this moment, Qu Shuling was sealed in the student apartment. It was difficult for him to even go out. There were four nascent soul stage spirit guards on the walkway. They were sent by the Nine Heavens Precision Search Academy to directly monitor him.

From now on, he would probably be locked up in his student apartment for a very long period of time to receive official supervision.

He could access the Internet, but all his social networks were also monitored. As for his social accounts, they had long been taken over by the Precision Search Academy, and Qu shuling himself could not post any information on them.

This was almost no different from being locked up. Qu shuling did not know what he had done wrong. He just wanted to prove his strength in the spirit world trial.

He did not expect that after this trial, he would actually become the abandoned child that was abandoned by the speed of light..

He browsed through all the major social media platforms. Although he saw that there were still quite a number of his fans supporting him, Qu shuling was very clear that under such strong pressure, his many years of accumulation would eventually disappear bit by bit.

The shelf life of an idol was always short. As long as someone replaced him, that person would soon be focused with a brand new gaze, and the past him would be buried forever under the haze.

However, at this moment, he was like a helpless mantis, trapped in his cage, with no way out.

In a year of despair, Qu shuling suddenly heard a familiar voice coming from the door of the apartment.

The voices of the spirit guards were filled with surprise and embarrassment.

“This... Principal Dai, why are you here?”

“Why? You have my students locked up. Can’t I come to visit?”

“This isn’t a detention. We just need student Qu’s cooperation for the time being. Moreover, we’re following orders. Otherwise, I’m afraid it’ll be hard to explain things to elder Teng.”

“Teng Luchen, right... Don’t use him to pressure me! If that old man were to personally guard the door, I definitely wouldn’t come. But who asked that old man to not guard the door himself and send you guys over? Who Can you scare?”

Dai tianchun chuckled, “Don’t worry, I won’t make things difficult for you guys, only fifteen minutes. Let me talk to him for a few words.”

As he said that, he took out a thermos bottle filled with food and dishes from his storage bag, “You guys are holding my student, you have to at least let my student eat something good, it’s only for the time of one meal.”

With just a few words, the four spirit guards looked at each other, their expressions conflicted.

After a moment of silence, one of them took a step forward and bowed to dai tianchun, “Just 15 minutes. I hope principal Dai won’t make things difficult for us.”

“Of course. I always keep my words.” Dai Tianchun revealed a sly smile.

After watching crazy dai enter the room, the leader of the Spirit Guards finally let out a long sigh of relief.

“Captain, isn’t it against the rules for us to do this... What if elder Teng blames us?” A spirit guard couldn’t help but ask.

“Do you think elder Teng didn’t expect this scene?” The captain sighed. “Our job is just to look after him. There’s no need to create unnecessary complications. As long as principal Dai doesn’t take Qu shuling away, everything will be fine. “Moreover, it’s impossible for him to take Qu shuling away. If that happens, he won’t be able to protect Qu shuling. “Elder Teng is protecting our safety.”

“...” after saying this, the other three spirit guards sucked in a breath of cold air.

What he meant was that if they weren’t at ease just now, with Dai Tianchun’s temper, it was very likely that he would use forceful methods to break down the door..

Others might not be able to do this, but this crazy dai might not.

..

This weekend was destined to be restless..

Wang Ling walked along the garden path on campus and listened to the discussions of the alumni around him.

Because of golden lamp’s strong words and Wang Ling’s secret “Great Memory Spell”, everyone’s memories were blurred.

No one was bothered by the question of who tore the letter of challenge.

Almost everyone's eyes were focused on the upcoming principal duel.

To be honest, a lot of people weren't sure.

After all, Shengke had sent the principal, and No. 60 High's vice-principal Huo had only recently taken over.

In less than half a year..

To fight on behalf of No. 60 High's honor sounded a little too hasty.

Wang Ling was of course aware that he had his own big pot to play, but as the saying went, those who were involved were the ones who were confused. If it hadn't been for Lotus Sun this time... he might still be playing the copy of Li Changzhe because of the talisman seal's bug.

But the new version of the talisman seal could indeed bring him an unprecedented sense of stability, and this sense of steadiness was indeed something that ordinary talismans couldn't do.

There was nothing he could do, so he could only take things one step at a time.

As for Lotus Sun, he would think of another way to express his gratitude.

Lotus sun already had a few sacks of milk candy, and Wang Ling hadn't decided what to give her yet.

"Is that vice-principal Huo really reliable? He's a vice-principal who suddenly transferred to our school, so can he understand our school motto and foundation of No. 60?"

"Look at what you're saying. I don't think that's the key at all! The key is that vice-principal Huo has a chance of winning against principal Dai of Shengke!"

"By the way, is that principal the only one from Shengke who came personally this time?"

“Not necessarily. Their scientific magical equipment is very mature, and they also have a data pagoda in their hands. I heard that not only do they have the data of all the students from other schools that Shengke pays attention to, but they also have the data of their teachers!”

“So what you mean is...”

“I think that maybe someone from Shengke has already infiltrated our school. Vice School Fire’s background is too mysterious. Let’s assume that the data pagoda did not include it. “Then according to Shengke’s strict style, it’s not impossible for them to send someone to test it out in advance.”

“Your imagination is really big. Go write a novel!”

A few sixty-year-olds in the same school uniform were discussing animatedly in a small corner of the garden.

Wang Ling had only heard it from a distance, but after thinking it over carefully, he felt that this guess wasn’t completely unreasonable.

To be honest, he himself also couldn’t figure it out.

He didn’t know what exactly No. 60 high school had done..

It seemed that ever since he had transferred to No. 60 High School, No. 60 high school had always been plagued with disasters. Even if there were peaceful days, it wouldn’t last for long.

The most ridiculous thing was that those people who were looking for trouble came to No. 60 high school one by one as if they had been bewitched... They were afraid that Wang Ling would live too long.

In fact, Wang Ling really hated the feeling of his life being watched all the time. During the majority of the semester when he had been studying at No. 60 high school, he had already treated this place as his second home.

Since it was his home, he naturally wouldn’t tolerate outsiders coveting this place at all times.

After hearing what those alumni had said just now, Wang Ling instantly felt that there was indeed a need to be more vigilant at this stage.

It was most appropriate for him to hand this matter over to the Heavenly Dao of death, who was then No. 60 High School's new principal guard..

Chapter 1990 1,986: Angry People Don't Live Long (1/92)

The Spirit Guards didn't know what Dai Tianchun and Qu shuling were talking about inside.

In front of such a powerful person, surveillance equipment was useless.

Even though Dai Tianchun wasn't even an ant compared to Wang Ling, his overall combat strength could be considered world-renowned on earth.

"Ai, I don't know what they're talking about."The leader of the Spirit Guards opened the projection on his wristwatch and stared at the screen, and a puzzled voice came from the surrounding team members.

Qu shuling and Dai Tianchun were currently facing each other, while Qu shuling was obediently eating the food that Dai Tianchun had brought with him. Neither of them made any strange movements.

Anyone with a discerning eye could understand that they were communicating through telepathy. Moreover, with Dai Tianchun's level of encryption, normal telepathy would not be of any use in deciphering spells.

"It's fine as long as you don't make any strange movements,"said the spirit guard captain.

He knew that he was unable to decipher the content of the conversation, so he was completely uninterested in what the two of them were talking about.

As long as Dai Tianchun did not do anything strange.

Moreover, from the current display on the surveillance equipment, the psionic wave value in the room had been maintained at zero.

If someone in the room used a spell, even if it was just a spell with the smallest psionic wave, it could be detected instantly.

The Spirit Guard captain stared at the screen for more than fourteen minutes. When Dai Tianchun was about to leave the apartment, he hurriedly put away the projection screen.

“Thank you, principal dai. Fifteen minutes, no more, no less.” Seeing Dai Tianchun come out as promised, the spirit guard captain and his subordinates bowed and saluted him.

“Thank you for your trouble. Take good care of my students.” Dai Tianchun smiled indifferently and left with a flick of his sleeve.

It was not until he completely disappeared at the end of the corridor that the four spirit guards let out a long sigh of relief.

Everyone could not help but sigh in their hearts. After all, he was the terrifying crazy dai. It was just a normal exchange, yet he could give people such a heavy sense of oppression.

“Captain, should we send this footage back to the Nine Heavens High Search Academy for analysis?” A Spirit Guard member suggested.

“Of course, and we have to upload it immediately,” the spirit guard captain immediately replied.

Everything was for the sake of caution.

Although the teacher and the student did not make any strange movements in the video before this, other than using an encrypted voice transmission technique to communicate, QU shuling had only been eating.

Moreover, the data of the psionic energy monitoring equipment had always been zero, so there was nothing wrong with it in every aspect.

However, as the leader of the Spirit Guards carefully selected by Teng Luchen, he still felt an indescribable sense of strangeness towards Dai Tianchun’s sudden appearance.

However, he didn't know why..

..

On the other side, it was currently the end of School for No. 60 High School. The primary schools and kindergartens that were relatively close to No. 60 high school were all ending school at the same time, so the roads in front of the school's main gate were often congested.

As No. 60 High School's principal security officer, in addition to protecting the safety of the students, he also had to be concerned about the road in front of the school gate.

Tiandao of death was wearing the principal security officer's uniform in a decent manner. A pair of white gloves gently knocked on the window of a medium-sized SUV.

When the window was lowered, he saw a middle-aged lady with curly hair sitting in the driver's seat. She looked at him impatiently and asked, "What's the matter?"

When Heavenly Dao of death had first taken over the position of principal guard of No. 60 high school, he had been extremely angry, but he had already recovered quite a bit.

He had originally come to this position so that he could be closer to Wang Ling and experience the secular world, then train his mind.

Although it hadn't been that long, he had still honed some willpower.

At least he wouldn't get angry directly after hearing such an impatient tone.

As the heavenly axiom, how could he lower himself to the level of mortals?

After sorting out his thoughts, the heavenly axiom of death still looked at the middle-aged lady with a pleasant expression. He used the gentlest tone he could to say, "Hello, Auntie. It's after school now, so you're not allowed to park here."

“Then my baby is injured. What should we do? The world is in chaos now, and there are so many bad people!”

“Auntie... Your Child is already?”

“He’s only 18 years old. What’s wrong? He’s not a baby at 18 years old? He hasn’t even grown his hair yet. In our parents’ eyes, children will always be babies, okay?” The lady patted her chest and said exaggeratedly.

”...”the heavenly axiom of death sighed in his heart.

He thought that a small portion of the giant babies in society were probably raised by this kind of endless pampering..

He was already 18 years old, and he still didn’t know how to go home by himself!

“If Auntie wants to park, drive to the road ahead and turn around. There’s a special parking lot.”

“Aiyo! That parking fee is so expensive! Anyway, he’ll be out soon. I’ll pick him up and leave!”

“Aunty, please don’t make things difficult for me. This is the rule.” The heavenly axiom of death continued to persuade her nicely.

Unexpectedly, even with such gentle advice, the middle-aged woman was still suddenly angry. “I’ve been holding it in for a long time from the beginning! Who are you calling Auntie! Do I look that Old? Do you know how to speak or do you have any upbringing? !”

” ...”

The heavenly axiom of death realized that for some middle-aged aunties who were particularly unreasonable, as long as they were unreasonable in their own matters, they would suddenly change the topic and bring up other issues.

However, they had no choice. For people like them who refused to listen to reason, no matter how many words they used to persuade them, it was just a cliché.

“Then Auntie, since you’re not leaving, I’ll have to deduct your points.” At this moment, the heavenly axiom of death stood outside the car. He still maintained a professional smile on his face, but for some reason, he looked a little gloomy.

“Do you think you’re a traffic policeman? You’re Crazy!” Seeing this, the middle-aged noblewoman quickly closed her window and continued to hide in the car.

“219 years.”

At this moment, the heavenly axiom of death almost immediately reported a number.

This was his real occupational disease, because when almost everyone met him, the heavenly axiom of death could clearly see the number on top of the other person’s head.

That’s right, this number indicated how many years this person had left in his life.

“Illegal occupation of the road in front of the school, invalid after advice, fined 10 years of life.” At this time, the heavenly axiom of death silently sighed, directly changing the number above the middle-aged woman’s head to 209.

..

“Ah, Grandma. Are You Alright?”

At the school gate, an old man holding a crutch suddenly fell. A passing girl rushed over immediately, not afraid that she would be blackmailed, and directly helped her up.

She was a kind girl.

The heavenly axiom of death nodded.

Then..

He directly transferred the ten years of his lifespan to the girl who helped the old man up.

However, after everything was done, he suddenly felt that this girl's face seemed a little familiar, as if he had seen her somewhere before.

Wait a minute..

Wasn't this person the Genius Alchemist girl from Shengke, Su Xingyue?
