

Daily Life 1991

Chapter 1991 The Reconciliation Of SU Xingyue (1/92)

As the school guard of No. 60 High School, it is also important to remember the faces of all the people who come into contact with No. 60 high school.

The safety of the campus is of paramount importance, and as the head of the school guard, the heavenly axiom of death now has an inescapable responsibility, so almost every day he browses through the records of wanted criminals on the internet and updates the memory bank in his mind, his appearance was deeply imprinted in his mind.

Just a few days ago, he had punished a human trafficker who was sneaking around the campus.

At that time, Tiandao of death had directly planted the “Tiandao Bell of death” in his soul. It was a seed-type spell that could slowly deduct his lifespan and directly affect his soul.

The person who was implanted would not feel anything. As long as he had an evil thought, his lifespan would be-1. Once it was deducted to 0, he would immediately die..

In addition, if the evil thought was directly put into practice, the Heavenly Death Bell’s crisis warning mechanism would be immediately triggered, and the person would also die.

The main reason for doing so was that the heavenly death bell did not want this human trafficker to die directly at the school gate. Otherwise, it would be troublesome for No. 60 High School.

He did not want people to think that an evil person had come to No. 60 high school and wandered around for a while, dying in the unit and dying on the way..

Of course, the above-mentioned disciplinary actions were only targeted at those evil people who violated the law and the unforgivable.

The Heavenly Dao of death felt that there was no need to go this far for the time being when dealing with Su Xingyue.

“Student Su, what are you doing at No. 60 High School?”The Heavenly Dao of death directly stretched out his hand and stopped Su Xingyue at No. 60 high school’s entrance. It was almost time for school to end, it was very strange that Su Xingyue had chosen this time to make Heavenly Dao of death feel this way.

After all, he had a “Previous record”of spying on No. 60 High School’s Students’ combat strength last time, so Heavenly Dao of death actually didn’t have a very good impression of SU Xingyue, in addition, Wang Ling had just told him to be on guard against the intelligence spies sent by Shengke.

So it was even more impossible for him to let Su Xingyue in.

“I’m here to see classmate Lotus Sun... She’s the president of the Student Union of No. 60 High School, right?”Su Xingyue said very politely, completely losing the feeling of superiority she had when she had come to No. 60 high school the last time.

She looked at the young man in front of her who had stopped her, and she was also slightly stunned. He recognized that this was No. 60 high school’s principal guard’s uniform.

The last time she had come to No. 60 high school, the principal guard hadn’t shown up yet. It seemed that No. 60 high school had been on high alert recently.

The heavenly axiom of Death’s human form was very young, about twenty years old. However, under normal circumstances, cultivators with social experience would never judge a person by his or her appearance.

Therefore, even though the heavenly axiom of Death’s human form looked very young, Su Xingyue didn’t dare to neglect it. She had her own intuition and always felt that the young man in front of her was mysterious and unfathomable. There was an indescribable sense of oppression.

“Then do you have an appointment with student sun?”The heavenly axiom of death didn’t waste any time and went straight to the point.

“Not yet...”Su Xingyue said awkwardly.

Actually, the last time she had come, she had tried to add Lotus Sun’s wechat, but she had been rejected outright. This left Su Xingyue slightly speechless.

Since becoming the new president of the Student Union of Saint Sciences, Su Xingyue had felt a lot of pressure on her. On the other hand, she didn't want to get into too much trouble with No. 60 High School, thus, she had come this time for the purpose of networking.

In addition, she was also here to plead for mercy for Qu Shuling

No one else knew what happened in the spirit world, but Su Xingyue had her own intelligence network.

She knew that Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan had a good relationship with Wang Ling, so she wanted to try communicating with him first. If she could get Wang Ling's help, then she could follow the clues and get the letter of understanding between Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan, qu shuling might not have to face the situation of being frozen.

Of course, Su Xingyue knew that it wasn't easy to get close to Wang Ling.

That was why she had come to look for Lotus Sun.

"If you don't have an appointment, then there's nothing you can do, classmate Su. You definitely can't go in. If you want to see classmate Lotus Sun, maybe you can wait for her to come out of school and try looking for her,"said Heavenly Dao of death.

"Can't you make an exception?"

"No. This is my duty. Please don't make things difficult for me, classmate Su."

"But hasn't No. 60 high always maintained an open and tolerant attitude..."

Su Xingyue was a little anxious. She hadn't expected the principal guard's attitude to be so unyielding.

"Our school's ethos has always been like this, promoting morality and upholding integrity. But we can't let people who deliberately probe our students' information enter again, right?"said the heavenly axiom of death with a chuckle.

Su Xingyue: "..."

So it turned out that her probe last time had already been discovered..

No wonder she wasn't allowed to enter.

Su Xingyue sighed in her heart. She had thought that her probe last time was flawless, but she hadn't expected it to be so exposed.

To be honest, she knew that Qu Shuling had made a huge mistake in the spirit world's trial field this time. When faced with the students from her own camp, he had wanted to kill them, even though he didn't succeed in the end.., however, the fact that Jing Search Academy had wanted to freeze him was already the result of them giving her the greatest face.

Now, she had risked everything to request No. 60 high school to help her obtain the forgiveness letters from Li Changzhe and Zhang Linyan... this step was probably as difficult as climbing to the heavens.

However, Su Xingyue still wanted to give it a try.

After all, no one knew Qu Shuling's past better than her. As someone who had learned from the same sect, Su Xingyue felt that she and Qu Shuling should have had a trace of brotherly and sisterly friendship that surpassed blood ties over the years.

That was why she was willing to risk being looked down upon.

To the heavenly axiom of Death's surprise, Su Xingyue raised her head in the next second. Her gaze was unwavering, and the setting sun's radiance lit up the maple leaf-style Han Chinese clothing she was wearing.

"Alright, I Won't trouble you, Mr. President. I'll wait here for Lotus Sun to come out," she said to the heavenly axiom of death, and then stood upright at the school gate.

The heavenly axiom of death had originally wanted Su Xingyue to back off because girls needed face. Moreover, Su Xingyue wasn't an ordinary high school student. Her popularity wasn't any lower than Qu Shuling's, even if she was wearing a mask now.., as long as she stood at the school gate for a while, she would still be recognized very quickly.

If the people on the Internet knew that she had come to No. 60 high school this time to reconcile, then it would undoubtedly be an epic face-smacking incident for Shengke itself.

The principal had just issued a challenge to protect her, but the president of the Student Union had come to No. 60 high school to seek reconciliation.

The netizens would surely think that shengke, the so-called number one high school, was only so-so.

Otherwise, how could she have made such a logical and chaotic decision?

Meanwhile, in No. 60 High School's Student Union office.

Lotus sun stared at Su Xingyue at the school gate for a long time.

To be honest, she was a little moved by this resolute look in her eyes.

If Su Xingyue continued to stand at the school gate, it was likely that someone would recognize her soon and cause a further stir. How could student Wang Ling Leave School in Peace?

Helpless, Lotus Sun could only sigh in her heart, she immediately sent a voice transmission to Heavenly Dao of death. "Senior, let her in. But School will be over soon, so be careful to stay hidden. Take her directly to the student union office through the transfer tunnel, and don't give student Wang Ling any trouble."

"Okay, got it."Heavenly Dao of death smiled wryly in his heart.

It turned out that in the end, it was actually for Wang Ling's sake and not for Su Xingyue's sake..

Chapter 1992 1,988: The Second Season Of The Immortal King's Daily Life Animation Starts Tomorrow (1/92)

Lotus Sun didn't like Su Xingyue. The reason was simple. It was simply because Su Xingyue's first rude test had left a very bad impression on her.

But under these circumstances, she had actually dared to come to her house alone to ask for reconciliation. The courage in her bones was still very admirable in Lotus Sun's eyes.

A genius from the number one high school and a genius in alchemy. If Su Xingyue had been at No. 60 High School, Lotus Sun felt that she and Su Xingyue could have become very good friends.

Unfortunately, they were still standing on opposite sides for the time being.

"Liangzi, what do you think of Su Xingyue?" At this moment, Lotus Sun turned her gaze to Liangzi Jiu Gong, who was sitting on the sofa and sipping tea leisurely.

In fact, Lotus Sun hadn't asked her to come when Liangzi nine temples had appeared. In addition, because she was an exchange student, Liangzi nine temples was actually very casual in class at No. 60 High School. It didn't matter whether he came or not; he was just here to experience huaxiu nation's rigorous learning atmosphere..

When he was suddenly called out, Liangzi nine temples held his tea and pretended to snort coldly. "Just to be clear, Odd Zhuo asked me to come because he was worried that Shengke might be up to no good."

"I understand."

Lotus Sun nodded and smiled faintly. She was already very familiar with Liangzi nine temples's personality. "There's a saying that 'those who are in the middle are the ones who are watching from the sidelines.' I can't thank you enough for having Liangzi, the military counselor, help me advise."

"Mm, it's good that you know." Liangzi nine temples nodded in satisfaction.

"Oh, Liangzi, I never asked you before. Didn't Jiudao and Shengke have dealings with each other before?"

“Of course.”. After all, Jiudao Kazuo was a famous high school on Sun Island. There had been a lot of international exchanges in the past. “Shengke was the number one high school cultivation academy for many years. Of course, there were exchanges between our two schools.”

While thinking, Liangzi said, “I remember that it was the last year before Sasaki Leek became the president of the student union... He was sent to Shengke to have an exchange.”

“And then?”

“At that time, Shengke specially renovated a training hall in the school and designed it as a demon-slaying hall. There were specialized teachers and security consultants who would place some captured ghosts in the demon-slaying hall.”. “Then, the representatives of the two schools would compete in the demon-slaying hall.”

“It sounds like they were quite generous. They really put in a lot of effort.”

“Yeah, at that time, we also thought that Shengke put in a lot of effort. But who knew that after the seniors of that year went in, none of the ghosts were caught. Instead, they were treated as ghosts and beaten up.”

”? ? ?”

“I don’t know the specifics.”. “But I heard from the seniors of that batch that the SHENGKE students who chased them and beat them up were in an uproar back then. They were shouting things like beating up the Japs, paying their debts to their fathers, and that we didn’t have the right to ask the seniors to forgive us. I actually still don’t quite understand what that means.”

”...”

Hearing this, Lotus Sun’s face began to sweat. After being stunned for a few seconds, she finally said, “Then... then what?”

“Then we’ll say that it was a misunderstanding, an accidental injury. Shengke has paid for the medical expenses and a bunch of supplements, so this matter is settled.”

“I see...”

Lotus Sun had an expression of sudden realization.

She hadn't expected that Shengke would actually do quite well in the field of patriotism education.

Logically speaking, in order to show their tolerance and international status, a top-ranked institution like this would usually be deeply influenced by the west in some aspects..

Now it seemed that she had misunderstood shengke.

Although the principal was a madman in everyone's eyes and the president of the Student Union was a twisted pervert... she couldn't kill all the students in there with a single blow.

Lotus Sun had heard that because of Qu Shuling's performance alone, the spirit world trial ground might directly cancel Shengke's participation in project geocentric.

Therefore, Lotus Sun guessed that the purpose of SU Xingyue coming to her this time was ostensibly to reconcile with Qu shuling, but in fact, it was also to protect Shengke's original plan of participating in project geocentric.

If Jing Mei Academy directly excluded Shengke from the list, their position and reputation as the number one university would be completely destroyed.

Thump, thump, thump

At this moment, a light knock came from the door of the student union's office, directly interrupting Lotus Sun's thoughts.

"Come in, classmate Su," Lotus Sun said.

To be honest, before entering the student union's door, Su Xingyue was still nervous. She had participated in countless international competitions, but she had never been as nervous as she was today.

Of course, when she entered the student union and saw nine temples Liangzi sitting in the office, she immediately broke out in cold sweat.

Of course, Su Xingyue understood the enmity between nine temples and Shengke.

Although she had heard that the young miss of the nine temples family had come to No. 60 high school as an exchange student, she had never expected that she would actually appear at this occasion..

So she was here to seek revenge for the “Devil Incident”back then..

“Let me introduce you to miss nine temples Liangzi of the nine temples family. She is currently an exchange student at No. 60 High School,”lotus sun went straight to the point, she didn’t mince her words and said straightforwardly, “But I think student su must have done a thorough investigation long ago. Even if she didn’t come in person, the data pagoda of Shengke should have included it, right?”

This was a straight punch, and it was the kind that stabbed straight into the heart, and it made Su Xingyue unable to hold herself back on the spot.

She hurriedly bowed and apologized. “As student sun said, I know Miss Liangzi Jiugong. “I’m very sorry about the last time I came to your school to probe for information. “Before I came here, I had already used the name of the student union president to have the staff at the Data Pagoda erase all the information about No. 60 high school. As a sign of my sincerity in coming here...”

These words sounded quite pertinent.

Liangzi Jiu Gongzi nodded to Lotus Sun secretly. The two women looked at each other for a moment, then Lotus Sun took the initiative to make Tea for Su Xingyue. “Student Su, you don’t have to be so nervous. Sit down first, and we’ll talk over tea.”

“Okay...”

Although SU Xingyue agreed, she knew very well that now was definitely not the time to leisurely sip tea. It had already been difficult enough for her to come to No. 60 high school this time.

Who knew if she would have the chance to meet Lotus Sun again..

“I know the purpose of student Su’s visit.”

Lotus Sun pushed the Teacup in front of Su Xingyue. “Regarding student Qu’s punishment, I think this is the best arrangement for the Fine Search Institute to protect Shengke’s face. “Moreover, this is also the consensus of the Fine Search Institute’s administrators. Whether it’s our Sun family or the nine temples family, no matter how rich and powerful they are, they can’t get a word in edgewise.”

“No... Student Sun, you’ve misunderstood.”

Su Xingyue wasn’t in the mood to drink tea, so she just kept twirling her two index fingers, this was an extremely nervous expression. “It’s just... I’m just asking... It’s just... I don’t know if student sun can help persuade student Li Changzhe and student Zhang Linyan... as long as they can come up with an understanding...”

“But I’m not familiar with them...”

“I know,” Su Xingyue said. “But isn’t student Wang Ling very familiar with them... in addition, you’re very familiar with student Wang Ling...”

“...” Lotus Sun and Liangzi Jiugongzi understood what she meant.

Good heavens, she was here to solve their math problems..

Chapter 1993 1,989, Relationship With Wang Ling (1/92)

The sentence “You and Wang Ling are very close” made Lotus Sun blush slightly, and her face instantly turned red, but she still tried her best to restrain herself.

“Why does student su think that Wang Ling and I are very close...”

“Wang Ling’s composition is very good. Didn’t you set up a literary exchange organization for student Wang Ling, and you’re also the President of the Support Group?” Su Xingyue said.

”...”lotus sun was shocked; she hadn’t expected Su Xingyue to know directly that she was the cult master of the Gray cult.

“How did you know about this?”Liangzi nine temples folded his arms, and a hint of hostility appeared on his face as he looked cautiously at Su Xingyue.

This wasn’t something that Su Xingyue should know. Of course, as the current president of the Student Union of Saint Science, in addition to her ability to gather intelligence in the past, her grasp of intelligence was bound to be stronger than ordinary people.

“I didn’t do it on purpose; this is also the result of the Data Pagoda’s calculation... It hasn’t been confirmed at first, but from your reactions, it shouldn’t be wrong.”

Su Xingyue smiled. “Because there were bound to be students Wang Ling and Lotus Sun in No. 60 High School’s competition, and in addition, there were rumors about the two of you in the school circle... so I thought that I might as well input my reasoning into the Data Pagoda and let it calculate the results... don’t worry, I’ve already said that the data has been completely erased.”

“Do you know, student Su, your behavior is actually very rude,”Liangzi nine temples criticized her with a scrutinizing gaze.

“All of your criticisms are correct, but I really didn’t do it on purpose.”

Su Xingyue lowered her head and sighed. “But at this point, I have no other choice. Because this time, Shengke is very likely to lose the spot for project geocentric because of senior brother Qu...”

When she said this, Lotus Sun and Liangzi Jiugongzi immediately looked at each other in dismay.

They had already expected this outcome.

On the surface, Su Xingyue was pleading for Qu Shuling, but in reality, she was here for Shengke’s spot.

But Lotus Sun really couldn’t get a word in edgeocentric about this.

And she knew that man too well..

The last thing Wang Ling wanted to do was to get involved in muddy waters and meddle in other people's business. It would probably be an impossible dream for him to be the peacemaker..

Of course, Su Xingyue had come prepared to personally visit Lotus Sun.

Although she wasn't very familiar with Wang Ling, she had more or less heard of his personality.

"High-tech quantum crispy noodle snacks..."she suddenly said at this moment.

"What did you say?"Lotus Sun thought she had misheard.

"As long as student Wang Ling is willing to help, our Saint Scientific Research Department will gather the Elite Forces of the entire academy to create this crispy noodle snack that incorporates quantum technology for student Wang Ling..."

"..."

"I think student Wang Ling is probably tired of eating all kinds of rare crispy noodle snacks. Although I don't know what this quantum flavor tastes like, and I don't know if it tastes good or not,. But student Wang Ling will definitely be interested! Moreover, this crispy noodle snack will be preserved forever without any preservatives. It might be filled with the smell of the universe in one bite."

"The smell of the universe..."lotus sun and Liangzi nine temples were dumbfounded. They had never thought that Shengke would go this far just for a spot.

They gathered all of the Academy's scientific research elites to study crispy noodle snack..

"Isn't this a little too much of a fuss? Student Su... I don't think it's a good idea, right? I think we should put scientific research on something more useful..."lotus sun facepalmed and said awkwardly.

“Please rest assured, student sun. The so-called existence is reasonable. “In essence, we study quantum crispy noodle snacks in order to study quantum food technology. “So, the development of quantum crispy noodle snacks as a goal doesn’t actually affect us as a whole.”

Su Xingyue said this with a straight face, and then took out a jade tube from her bosom. After injecting spiritual power into it, the jade tube began to play various digital codes and configuration diagrams in the air, which dumbfounded Lotus Sun and Liangzi Jiugongzi.

“This is a part of the information that can be made public. We are serious.”

Even Su Xingyue became serious as she spoke. “If quantum food technology can be developed, theoretically, we can provide long-range supplies to cultivators. “In other words, even if there is a war in the future, we can supply energy to cultivators on the battlefield through quantum food technology from a distance without wasting any time

“Moreover, the taste of these grains would be perfectly restored on the taste buds, making it feel as if they had really eaten something. Not only would it make people feel full, but it would also not make them fat!”

One could only say that Su Xingyue was indeed worthy of being called Su Xingyue.

As an international genius young cultivator who was used to big scenes and had now become the president of the student union of Shengke, his eloquence was no joke.

It had to be said that this generous speech was truly moving..

Even Lotus Sun and Liangzi nine temples were moved by it.

As young ladies, they constantly reminded themselves to maintain their figure. They couldn’t normally enjoy delicious food and could only use medicinal pills to replace the energy in their bodies.

They couldn’t enjoy the pleasure of delicious food at all.

For girls, keeping their bodies in shape was always the number one priority..

Lotus Sun's throat moved, su Xingyue knew that this was most likely going to happen. "Classmate Sun, it doesn't really matter whether this thing works or not. I just want you to express my concern to classmate Wang Ling..."

"Oh, right, this technology. "It can actually be used for pills, such as directly splitting pills and transmitting them to cultivators in the distance through quantum technology. "In other words, if the technology is successfully put into practice, our Shengke can actually cooperate with Huaguo Water Curtain Group."

Hearing this, Lotus Sun suddenly felt how terrifying Su Xingyue was.

She hadn't expected that he had even calculated this step..

As the future leader of the enterprise, Lotus Sun was naturally extremely concerned about the future development of Huaguo Water Curtain Group.

She took a few deep breaths and finally calmed down. "Alright, student Su, I'll only help you this time... but if student Wang Ling doesn't agree, don't blame me."

"Don't worry, even if student Wang Ling doesn't agree, even if our saint mark really loses this precious spot in the end, our friendship will last forever."When she said this, Su Xingyue took the initiative to extend her hand.

In Lotus Sun's place, Liangzi Jiugong directly shook her hand. "I hope classmate Su is really as you say and as you say. Our Jiugong family also has some complaints about shengke, and we hope that we can resolve the years of conflict in the future."

At first, Su Xingyue had thought that she had already successfully started the tempo.

But she had never expected Liangzi Jiugong's move, it directly cut her momentum to the bottom. "This is... natural... classmate Jiugong, don't worry... Look at my later performance, I definitely won't let you down..."

"Just like..."

“Just like what?”

“Just like the second season of the Immortal King’s daily life animation that aired today, I won’t let you down...”

“I know about this! Is it that domestic series whose author’s first episode was sacrificed again? !”

Chapter 1994 1,990, The Wave Of People Snatching (1/92)

“That’s how it is, student Wang Ling...”

At eight o’clock in the evening, Su Xingyue had already left the student union office, leaving Lotus Sun and Liangzi nine temples behind.

They had called Wang Ling over here, and then, based on Su Xingyue’s agreement, had truthfully explained the other party’s request.

“That student Wang Ling, don’t feel too much psychological pressure. If you don’t agree, just say it, and I’ll help you reject it,” Lotus Sun said with a stiff smile

Although she had already noticed that the youngster didn’t seem to be listening to her words seriously.

It could be seen that his mind was still stuck on the “Quantum crispy noodle snacks” that she had mentioned dozens of seconds ago.

Lotus Sun didn’t know why a packet of crispy noodle snacks could give Wang Ling such a boost of spirit, and even his dead fish eyes were blossoming with Fa Hua..

It could only be said that this SU Xingyue really did have something. This time, she had been completely defeated by Su Xingyue.

“Sigh...” when she saw this scene, Liangzi nine temples couldn’t help sighing and patting lotus sun on the shoulder to comfort her.

She had wanted to say that men were unreliable.

But when the words came to her mouth, she swallowed them back.

One reason was that there really wasn't a man in the world who was more reliable than Wang Ling in terms of strength.

Furthermore, in terms of his love for crispy noodle snacks, nine temples Liangzi also felt that Wang Ling had an extraordinary level of determination and persistence... this was something that other men couldn't do!

It was a pity that his emotional wisdom hadn't been enlightened, which was indeed a little worrying.

On the other hand, there was actually another reason why she hadn't said anything.

That was because she already had a man..

Although that old swindler Odd Zhuo also had a lot of strange and strange habits, it was only after she had fallen in love that she had discovered them.

For example, when she was sleeping, she ground her teeth, talked in her sleep, and her farts were very smelly..

However, old swindler Zhuo had been really good to her, and he had prioritized her in every aspect.

For the first time in her life, she felt like she was being held in the palm of someone's hand and doted on.

Compared to the scheming and scheming life in the nine temples family, Liangzi nine temples found that she would be more relaxed and happy with Odd Zhuo.

So she really couldn't say things like "Men are unreliable."

In contrast to Lotus Sun's current situation, she was a little too much for Versailles.

Even Yoshiko nine temples paid special attention to not posting those mushy pictures of love and affection in her moments.

Love and affection was something to show to outsiders... it was called "Killing a dog."

If it was shown to a friend, especially a single friend, it would be a little too much.

And this was often the moment to test the firmness of a friendship.

As long as the other party didn't block you, you would always be good friends..

..

Lotus Sun and Liangzi Jiugongzi hadn't gone back at eight o'clock in the evening because they had been talking to Su Xingyue very late.

But Wang Ling had also stayed in school today, which was a rare occasion. First, he was on duty, and second, Old Pan had found him for a one-sided conversation.

It was still a matter of the spirit world and the geocentric plan, even though Wang Ling had tried very hard this time to focus teng Luchen's attention on chang-zhe Li and lin-yan Zhang.

But the fine looking courtyard that side does not seem to have given up completely 60 high school..

"It's like this, student Wang Ling, I can see that you've done your best in this spirit world trial."

Old Pan found him and pushed up his glasses, thus, he said to him, "But under the joint request of student Zhang Linyan and student Li Changzhe, they've expressed to precision search academy that if the two of them are selected for Project Core Earth later on, they hope that you can go with them."

Wang Ling:"..."

Old Pan spoke earnestly, he patted Wang Ling on the shoulder. “Hey, Wang Ling, I actually didn’t expect that the usually quiet and handsome man in the back row would actually have such an attractive side. The representatives of the two famous schools have requested to form a team with you.”

” ...”

To be honest, this was yet another twist that Wang Ling hadn’t expected.

In the end, he still couldn’t avoid the event schedule for project geocentric.

Perhaps this was the legendary fate of evil.

Wang Ling sighed in his heart.

As expected, Karma was a cycle; sooner or later, he would have to pay it back.

After all, the entrance to project geocentric was just below the peak of heaven, Palm Cliff, and this entrance had actually been split open by his palm back then..

It was as if the spirit of the earth had been hit in the face with a through-and-through wound and hadn’t paid attention to it since.

It was just that back then, this entrance had been extremely small, perhaps even thinner than the eye of a needle, so Wang Ling hadn’t noticed at all that the force of that Palm had actually penetrated the earth.

Now, after countless years of baptism, this tiny and invisible hole had finally become the entrance to the Earth’s core

In the end, Wang Ling owed it to the spirit of the Earth.

The Beautiful Earth needed everyone to love it.

However, it seemed that it was already too late to fill in the hole. Since human cultivators had discovered the path to the Earth's core, they would definitely not give up on exploring the Earth's core.

The core of the Earth science and related professional courses that had been popular over the years were actually laying the groundwork for the future core of the Earth Plan. No matter how rich or rare or novel the resources were, once they were explored by humans, they would be doomed.

The greed of mortals was always a great sin that couldn't be abandoned. The pressure on the surface of the Earth was already unbearable, and if they waited for the core of the Earth to be emptied..

Wang Ling couldn't imagine whether he could still peacefully lead his ideal daily life.

Therefore, since he had come, he had to take things as they came. He knew that this trip was actually to pay off his debt, and that he had to go.

The fight for honor between the cultivation nation and the cultivation nation could be left to Zhang Linyan and Li Changzhe.

What he was thinking now was to take advantage of this great opportunity of the Earth's core plan to enter the Earth's core world and find a way to fill in this hole.

So after meeting Lotus Sun Here, Wang Ling immediately planned to meet with Li Changzhe.

He rarely took the initiative to look for people, but this time, he had no choice..

Because if he wanted to fill in the hole, according to his plan, he couldn't completely give up on Shengke.

Thus, helping Li Changzhe, Zhang Linyan, and Su Xingyue of Shengke reach a settlement was actually part of Wang Ling's plan.

So he wasn't the kind of person who would stop at the sight of a novel crispy noodle snack at all... all of this was within his expectations!

But at that moment, as he stood at the entrance of the hotel, he suddenly had a faint premonition..

At that moment in the morning, the fog master Luo Lan had already come to look for Li Changzhe, and Wang Ling was well aware of this.

However, in the vast modern city where there were many cultivators, Wang Ling's ability to sense auras had always been precise. If there were experts with high realms around him, he would be able to sense them very quickly.

In the end, there were still very few cultivators above the itinerant immortal realm on Earth at the moment

But now, Wang Ling could clearly sense that there were already four cultivators above the itinerant cultivator realm in the hotel alone!

Combined with the fact that Li Changzhe, this chatterbox, was now silent, it wasn't difficult for Wang Ling to determine that this guy might have been chosen by four almighty experts at the same time! All of them wanted to take him as a disciple!

Chapter 1995 1,991, Clean And Hygienic (1/92)

What kind of experience was it to be surrounded by a group of people fighting to be a master..

In any case, Wang Ling didn't have this kind of experience; he himself had only been asked by Odd Zhuo to be a master.

Of course, for a veteran social phobe like Wang Ling, it wasn't difficult for him to imagine how uncomfortable it was to be surrounded and stared at.

Especially when he was being stared at by four almighty experts at once. Even if he didn't release any spiritual pressure, just the suffocating feeling caused by the four almighty experts exchanging glances and fighting in the dark was enough to make him unable to breathe.

Thus, Wang Ling had indeed expected that the normally talkative Li Changzhe wouldn't be able to use his phone at all at this moment.

For a boy, the full keyboard grid on his phone was already small enough, and there was often a chance that he would make a mistake

And in this situation, chang-zhe had to face the pincer attack from four almighty experts, so weak that he was at a loss in the middle.

Even if Wang Ling hadn't seen this scene, he could imagine it.

He hadn't expected that this social badass would actually end up like this..

His fingers were probably trembling from typing now, right?

At the same time, chang-zhe was sandwiched in the middle of the private room in the hotel's restaurant, staring at the table full of hotel dishes without the slightest appetite in his heart.

These dishes had all been ordered by the four seniors in front of him. Even chang-zhe Li didn't know why things had turned out this way..

He had only met Luo Lan not long after Odd Zhuo had introduced him to her in the morning.

The remaining three people had come knocking on his door..

And they had completely ignored the fact that he was already Luo Lan's disciple and wanted to snatch him away in front of her.

"Hehe, master Luo Lan, you set up such a big mist array in Songhai city. But you don't care about your disciple at all. Look at what I ordered? Supreme Dragon Tiger Lung soup! This is a dish that specializes in cleaning the lungs! My disciple has superior talent, so he must keep up with the daily nutrition!"

A man with a strong build opened his mouth. He was huge, like a giant bear. His muscles were bulging, and he just sat there like a small mountain. His head almost reached the ceiling, he gave off a strong sense of oppression.

“Master Cang Long, you’re wrong... cultivators should cultivate the heart. As long as the heart is deep enough, how can these things to satisfy the appetite of my disciple be enticed?”

Luo Lan replied with a smile. Then, she looked at the waitress and suddenly shouted, “Waitress! More dishes! Bring out the most expensive Milky Way Buddha jumps over the wall in your shop!”

“It’s meaningless to compare the two of you like this. Everyone is here to take in disciples. Why are you so hostile?”

At this moment, the third person spoke. It was a middle-aged man with a slow beard and a spirited face. He was dressed in a tang suit, when he smiled, the dimples on his face deepened. “Since you’re like this, Don’t blame me for not being polite... waitress, immediately get the kitchen to stew the star arowana that I caught! The whole fish was stewed! Today, disciple, you can eat with all your might! Fresh caught! Clean and hygienic!”

The senior who caught the fish was called Liu Yong. He was as brave as his name suggested.

As a video blogger who traveled around the world and relied on tasting all kinds of exotic delicacies, Liu Yong earned money through the popularity of videos on the Internet. He cultivated everywhere and became famous many years ago.

At the same time, every time he tasted the exotic food, he would have the catchphrase “Clean and hygienic”, which left a deep impression on people.

Chang-zhe Li was stunned. He didn’t expect these seniors and “Masters” to roll up like this..

The damn desire to win and lose between men was fully expressed at this moment.

However, there was still one person who didn’t open his mouth. It was a short old man who sat on the side as if it was none of his business. He was wearing a training suit and a red belt.

Yes, that’s right..

This person was none other than Yi Jianchuan himself.

He was one of the legendary ten generals, Yi Jianchuan himself!

Li Changzhe never expected that even the sword saint would be alarmed by this..

Just as the three of them were fighting over Li Changzhe.., sword Saint Yi smiled indifferently. “It’s not easy for all of you to come to Songhai city. How could you spend so much money? I think I’ll pay for today’s meal.”

Without a doubt, this last speech truly defeated the three people in front of him.

The atmosphere in front of him gradually froze, li Changzhe finally couldn’t hold it in any longer. “Seniors, I think... everyone should calm down... and I’m already master Luo Lan’s disciple. Isn’t it not too good to become master again...”

After saying this, Luo Lan nodded in satisfaction. Li Changzhe’s firm attitude was really touching..

“As a disciple, you can directly finish your apprenticeship. I’ve heard of your fog technique. You’ve already cultivated it to the highest level. Logically speaking, you should have finished your apprenticeship long ago! “Why does master Luo Lan want to tie you up and not let you go? Young Man... you should go and see the wider world and absorb new knowledge.”The stocky and stocky master Canglong said with a serious expression, he said with a heavy heart.

These words are no doubt like a knife straight into the heart of Luo Lan..

And instantly silenced him.

Canglong was right. Chang-zhe Li’s fog spell had reached this level. It could be said that he was even more outstanding than his master himself. He had indeed reached the point where he could finish his master’s training..

However, the problem was that he had only confirmed the master-disciple relationship with chang-zhe Li in the morning!

How could he finish his master’s training at the speed of light when he hadn’t even reached 24? !

Luo Lan was almost roaring in her heart.

It was as painful as a mute eating Coptis chinensis..

He had an agreement with chang-zhe Li.

Therefore, Luo Lan was very clear that no one present knew that chang-zhe Li's mist technique had reached its peak because of him.

He had come all the way to Songhai city as a cheap master, but he had just picked up a ready-made loophole.

Originally, Luo Lan thought that she had made a fortune, and that she could find an opportunity to hold a feast in the future and show off that Li Changzhe was her personal disciple to everyone!

But she never expected that she would be forced to become a disciple by the other three people not long after she became a disciple..

"It's hard to resist..."

Even chang-zhe felt helpless in his heart. Facing these famous senior cultivators, he found that his glib tongue was instantly suppressed, and he didn't know what to say at all.

The main thing was that he didn't dare to offend any of these people... if he really said the wrong thing, who knew if he would take revenge on him in the future?

Although chang-zhe usually spoke a little carelessly, he wasn't completely unreasonable at the critical moment. If he used his usual casual and talkative tone to chat with the people present, he felt that he might be directly beaten to death.

Oh My God!

Can someone come and save me quickly..

Chang-zhe cried out in despair in his heart.

It was at this moment that a figure wearing chang-zhe's familiar school uniform suddenly appeared at the door of the private room.

Although that figure only flashed past, chang-zhe quickly recognized this person.

It was Wang Ling!

Chapter 1996 1,992, The Person Who Would Settle Everything (1/92)

For a moment, Li Changzhe's nose turned sour. He hadn't expected Wang Ling to show up even in this awkward situation.

Whether he would help him or not was another matter, but this friendship already made Li Changzhe very grateful.

Although he hadn't known Wang Ling for very long, Li Changzhe was well aware of Wang Ling's social phobia, and he was most afraid of appearing in crowded places.

He had previously arranged to meet Wang Ling in the evening, and had thought that Wang Ling would definitely not come under such circumstances. He hadn't expected him to actually show up as promised.

Good brother!

Li Changzhe was moved.

He was so excited that tears almost fell.

To be honest, he didn't care at all whether Wang Ling would help him out or not, but he was already very touched by his attitude.

Then, in the next second, the door to the private room was directly pushed open.

An elegant young man wearing a white ancient robe with a mark of lightning on his forehead pushed the door open with a smile on his face.

Anyone who dared to get involved in this situation wasn't bold enough to describe it... they were simply courting death! It had to be known that these people in the private room were all masters, and sword saint was in charge! Under the gaze of the four people, if it wasn't for the fact that they had a solid foundation, no one would dare to challenge them easily.

To be honest, the few people in the room were already at daggers drawn, and the atmosphere could be said to be extremely stifling. Facing this person who suddenly pushed open the door and entered.

In almost an instant, the intense spiritual pressure suddenly dropped!

The spiritual pressure of three legendary masters and a sword saint who was a retired general instantly froze the atmosphere in the entire private room to the extreme!

It was a huge spiritual pressure of tens of millions of tons, which directly condensed on the body of the intruder.

Li Changzhe almost covered his eyes subconsciously. This was too brutal... although he hadn't seen the face of the intruder clearly, who could withstand this spiritual pressure?

"Fellow Daoists, I think we should calm down a little?" The young man in the White Robe said with an easy-going expression.

Everyone present was stunned.

It was hard to believe that this person's voice could be transmitted so clearly and smoothly under the pressure of the four of them. It was as if his body was not under the spiritual pressure.

Wait a minute..

This voice seemed a little familiar?

At this moment, the sword saint, who was not angry, narrowed his eyes. When he saw the face of the person, he immediately withdrew his spiritual pressure. "I was wondering who came. It turns out that the sect leader of the war sect has arrived..."

Hearing this, Luo Lan, Cang Long, Liu Yong, and Li Changzhe were all stunned.

They had come from far away, but they had long heard of the reputation of the sect master of the battle sect. They had never thought that this legendary sect master of a Super Sect would show up at this moment.

Why did the sect master of the battle sect come?

This was the question that all the masters present had in common.

However, they understood one thing, which was why the sect master of the battle sect dared to recklessly barge into the private room.

On one hand, he was too strong.

This person had long broken through to the true immortal realm and was the first peerless expert on Earth to reach the true venerated realm. Not to mention the four of them putting pressure on him together, even if more than ten true immortals came, the result would probably be the same.

The gap between realm and realm couldn't be filled by numbers alone.

Of course, there was another aspect, which was that before grenade-throwing senior immortal had become the sect master of the war sect, he had been an itinerant cultivator who was active everywhere... almost everyone present knew of great death-courting senior's reputation.

"Ah, I didn't expect senior Yi to be here. I've offended you." After entering the private room, grenade-throwing senior immortal looked around, then walked up to Yi Jianchuan and bowed respectfully, pretending not to know anything.

In the end, grenade-throwing senior immortal still had to show full respect to this retired general.

Moreover, Huaxiu Alliance itself was a major shareholder of the war sect, and the ten great generals were all the rotating chairmen of Huaxiu Alliance, which was equivalent to a member of the war sect's board of directors.

Thus, grenade-throwing senior immortal had to be extra careful when it came to etiquette.

As expected, sword saint's mood eased up a lot with this action, he stared at grenade-throwing senior immortal and said unhurriedly, "Your battle sect has countless experts and talented disciples, so there's no need to compete with us for disciples, right?"

"Sword saint's words make a lot of sense," Liu Yong quickly said.

"That's right, I agree too!" Cang long followed suit.

On the other hand, Luo Lan looked as if she had directly lost half of her breath and was sitting on the side. Just by looking at her, one could feel that master Luo Lan's vision could be described as gloomy..

He couldn't help sighing in his heart.

This was the famous sect master of the war sect now!

If even he himself went down to take in disciples, who could resist such temptation..

But soon, grenade-throwing senior immortal's next words.., directly dispelled Luo Lan's worries. "Don't worry, everyone, Lei Mouren just happened to be passing by, so he specially came to be a mediator to mediate the conflict, not to take student Li as a disciple."

"Oh? Mediate the conflict? What do you want to Do? Then tell me, Little Lei." Sword saint chuckled and asked with an attitude of wanting to watch a show.

"As the saying goes, a gentleman doesn't take away what others like. Since student Li is already master Luo Lan's disciple, and he has no intention of taking on a new master himself, why do you all have to force him? It's not sweet to force a melon."

Grenade-throwing senior immortal spoke in a gentle voice, which was surprisingly the style of a modest gentleman, he said slowly, “Student Li’s achievements today are all thanks to master Luo Lan’s hard work in teaching him. It’s really inappropriate for you all to ask Master Luo Lan to force student Li out of his master’s tutelage.”

Then he looked at Cang Long. “I’ve heard of fellow Daoist Cang Long’s reputation. You’re a well-known martial artist with a body full of muscles and bones, and you stress extreme destructive battle techniques. Your attacks are as fast as lightning, and your body can withstand lightning. You’re completely the opposite of a gentle person like student Li. “If fellow Daoist Cang long trusts me, I can guarantee that one of you will be your true disciple.”

Cang Long’s eyes instantly lit up. “Senior Immortal’s reputation is like thunder. Since Senior Immortal is your guarantee, of course I Trust Senior Immortal!”

Seeing that the negotiations had started smoothly, grenade-throwing senior immortal nodded in satisfaction. “Then, fellow Daoist Cang Long, are you willing to withdraw from this competition for student Li?”

“Of course. But Senior Immortal, you have to let me choose a disciple that I’m satisfied with, otherwise I’m afraid I’ll have to choose classmate Li.”

“Don’t worry about this, fellow Daoist Canglong. This person’s name is Super Chen, and he’s a rare talent.”

Grenade-throwing senior immortal smiled meaningfully.

After dealing with Canglong.., he turned to look at Liu Yong on the side. “I also know that fellow Daoist Liu Yong and fellow Daoist Canglong came from far away. “Therefore, I can’t let fellow Daoist Liu Yong come here in vain. “I can also make a disciple of fellow Daoist Liu Yong

“I know that fellow Daoist Liu Yong is good at actuarial techniques and is quite skilled in the perception department. He is also a famous gourmet. “But look at fellow Daoist Li. He isn’t a foodie. “If he really takes fellow Daoist Li as his disciple, I’m afraid that you won’t be happy after spending so much time with him

“I’m here to promote fellow Daoist Liu Yong’s disciple, surnamed Guo Hao. Fellow Daoist Liu Yong will definitely be satisfied.”

Super Chen... Hero Guo..

At this moment, Li Changzhe and sword saint on the side carefully considered these two names.

For some reason, they felt that these two names were somewhat familiar, as if they had heard them somewhere before.

At the same time, Wang Ling, who had been eavesdropping outside the door, nodded his head in satisfaction.

Everything was in his plan..

Chapter 1997 1,993: Sword Saint's Disciple (1/92)

Wang Ling was well aware that today's disciple-taking event reflected, to a certain extent, one of the inner scrolls of the upper-class cultivators in the modern cultivation world.

In the information age, the upper-class cultivators were no longer limited to their individual abilities. It wasn't a big deal that they were strong, but the key was to have a good disciple.

If the disciple did well, the master would naturally be proud.

But in the modern cultivation world, in the scientific era where everyone practiced, there were as many cultivators as there were hairs on a cow's back, but it was still a big problem to choose a talented person who had the same path as him.

What had happened today could be seen from another perspective how desperate the almighty cultivators were for talents.

According to the information Wang Ling had gathered, there were only two ways for the almighty to take in disciples.

The first way was to start a sect directly as an itinerant cultivator, which would allow them to pass the sect entry test and directly filter out a group of young cultivators who weren't very good, after that, they would be selected through subsequent missions, trials, and tests, allowing these people to go from the outer sect to the inner sect step by step, and finally become true disciples.

This benefit was to cast a wide net. They could receive many disciples, and in the end, they would definitely be able to recruit satisfied true disciples to continue their legacy.

However, there were drawbacks to starting a sect.

After all, not everyone in the current sect could be like the battle sect. They had only started for less than a year and had already achieved a huge profit.

The vast majority of the sects were in a state of loss every year from the start. What they used up was the foundation that the sect master, who had started off as a loose cultivator, had accumulated over many years.

If there was one wrong step in the operation process, they would face the situation of losing both money and people.

Therefore, a few years ago, there was also a P2P sect trap. There were several famous rogue cultivators in the industry who used the name of jointly starting a sect to raise funds. In the end, there were many cases where they ran away after getting the money..

In short, the risk of starting a sect was still very high. Moreover, if it was not done properly, it would lose their financial foundation. The gains would not make up for the losses.

The operation of a sect was far from as simple as it looked. As long as it was open, it would be a huge gold-swallowing beast

Thus, itinerant master cultivators like Cang Long, Luo Lan, and Liu Yong had different ideas about how to manage their finances, as well as the self-awareness that their personalities weren't enough to manage a large sect, they would choose themselves to search for the right people to take in as disciples and then cultivate them.

So in Wang Ling's opinion, this matter couldn't be considered in detail yet.

After all, what Li Changzhe had done in the spirit world trial grounds was definitely a secret of nine heavens precision search court. Apart from Luo Lan, who Odd Zhuo had deliberately contacted... how did Liu Yong and Cang Long know that this matter had come knocking on their door?

The answer was already very obvious -- there were other people who had leaked the news in nine heavens precision search court.

After dealing with Cang long and Liu Yong in succession, grenade-throwing senior immortal knew very well that this sword saint would be a tough nut to crack.

Sword Saint Yi Jianchuan had been looking for his true disciple for a long time.

Back when he had been in the joint military training exercise of the six schools, he had even set his eyes on Wang Ling. It was only thanks to Immortal Toya's timely intervention that sword Saint had shifted his gaze.

As a retired general, his intelligence and ability were naturally extraordinary, so it wasn't surprising that sword saint knew of Li Changzhe's performance in the Spirit World Trial Ground.

Teng Luchen had guessed that sword Saint had personally taught him the "Heaven-turning sword technique". Perhaps it was after verifying it with sword saint that sword Saint had learned of Li Changzhe's existence.

At the same time, this also highlighted li changzhe's "Rarity".

He had clearly never taught li changzhe the "Heaven-returning sword technique", yet this young man was able to use it on his own!

If this wasn't a genius, then what was! !

Wasn't this the talented disciple that he, the sword saint, had been searching for with all his heart?

Of course, the sword Saint had also stopped pursuing his disciple for a period of time.

That was during the period when Yi Zhiyang rose to prominence.

The chairman of the Student Union of Sword God Academy, Yi Zhiyang, was also his adopted son. Although his talent wasn't as outstanding as sword Saint had imagined, it was actually passable. In addition, he was very perceptive when it came to practicing sword techniques, therefore, sword Saint had once trained Yi Zhiyang according to the plan of a successor disciple.

But who would have thought... After the nine dragons mountain physical skill competition, Yi Zhiyang's psychological trauma hadn't been completely healed yet.

So now he had the idea of recruiting a new successor disciple.

Grenade-throwing senior immortal and Wang Ling's hearts were as clear as a mirror; sword saint was the most difficult bone to gnaw on at the moment.

However, grenade-throwing senior immortal wasn't completely helpless.

"Little Lei, you should be very clear about this old man's standards. If you were an ordinary person, you definitely wouldn't be able to catch my eye."

Sword saint snorted and said, "By the way, if it's Miss Lotus Sun that you want to recommend to this old man, I think it's better not to... It's not like this old man didn't think of taking Lotus Sun as a disciple; after all, I'm quite familiar with that old fellow Sun Yiyuan. But when that old fellow heard that I had to suffer in cultivating sword techniques, he refused to trust me with his granddaughter."

"I see." Grenade-throwing senior immortal nodded slightly; he had actually heard about this before.

Everyone knew that grandfather Sun treasured his granddaughter like a pearl in his hand, so it was normal that he wouldn't let her go.

In fact, grenade-throwing senior immortal felt that Lotus Sun really didn't need to learn any sword techniques from sword saint now..

What a joke, this was the number one foundation establishment on earth..

With the nine-core Olympian sea man-sword unity passive ability! Sword Saint wouldn't be able to defeat her if she really unleashed all her combat power!

But from the beginning, grenade-throwing senior immortal hadn't actually been recommending Lotus Sun to sword saint.

"Don't worry, Old Yi, the person I'm going to recommend is completely in line with your expectations."

Grenade-throwing senior immortal smiled and said, "And this person is younger than the two people I've recommended before."

"Oh? He's a little kid?" Yi Jianchuan's eyes instantly lit up.

He had long ago believed that since they were cultivating sword techniques, the younger they were, the better. Although high school students in their teens were very young, they were still no match for a few-year-old kid in terms of teaching.

Don't underestimate the difference of a few years, but when you were young, it was an important time to lay a solid foundation. As long as you had a solid foundation, your future cultivation path would definitely lead you to a meteoric rise!

Grenade-throwing senior immortal naturally knew that sword saint liked children.

Apart from President Qi, who already had a wife and children, most of the ten generals were still single, and had formed a trend of adopting children..

Even if they didn't have children, they still had to create children to take care of them. In a sense, this was the adorable side of the ten generals.

"The person I want to protect is called Wang Muyu. Although he's young, Old Yi can rest assured that he's absolutely reliable,"grenade-throwing senior immortal said confidently at this moment.

In fact, it was one of Wang Ling's arrangements for him to push Wang Muyu out.

With this little guy's talent, it was easy for him to ask Wang Muyu, this omniscient Little Dragon Man, to cultivate Sword Dao. Thus, from the very beginning, Wang Ling hadn't actually expected Wang Muyu to learn Sword Dao by the sword saint's side.

Instead, he hoped that this little guy could learn more from the sword saint's awe-inspiring righteousness.

This little guy was still young, and he also needed a guide on the path of life..

Sometimes, what a person learned from another person didn't necessarily have to be abilities, but also all kinds of spirits that were full of sunshine.

Chapter 1998 1994, No. 60 High School's Challenge (1/92)

Up to this point, everyone had been arranged very clearly under grenade-throwing senior immortal's recommendation, and no one knew that the person behind all this was actually Wang Ling.

After Wang Ling's multifaceted calculations, this was already the best arrangement; everyone could have a bright future with such a confluence of fates.

Wang Ling also realized that ever since he had entered No. 60 High School, he had inexplicably become a lot more worried..

Perhaps it was because he had been influenced by the people around him.

He could be said to be the person who feared trouble the most.

Soon, grenade-throwing senior immortal took sword saint, Cang Long, and Liu Yong away from the scene. Once the three of them left, the overall atmosphere instantly eased up quite a bit. Li Changzhe felt like a fish that had almost drowned in deep water, he finally had a chance to catch his breath.

"Master, you're tired today. Why Don't you go back to your room and rest?" At that moment, Li Changzhe stood up, turned to Luo Lan, and bowed respectfully.

Luo Lan was very touched by this. So many people had come to poach him today, but Li Changzhe had still steadfastly chosen to follow him... in a sense, this also showed Li Changzhe's recognition of him!

As expected of his long-time fan!

This disciple was accepted correctly!

At this time, Luo Lan had already approved of Li Changzhe very much in her heart. It was not only because of his ability, but also because of his character! Such a disciple with both strength and character was actually found by him. Luo Lan might have saved the Milky Way galaxy in her previous life!

Luo Lan was very excited in her heart, and her eyes instantly became red. She held Li Changzhe's hand and patted it. Her voice was a little shaky. "Good disciple... Then I'll go back to my room first. You also... rest early..."

As the last person left, chang-zhe collapsed on the back of his chair, feeling a little tired. He looked at the table full of fragrant dishes that hadn't been touched and fell into deep thought. He had never felt as tired as he was today.

It didn't take long before Wang Ling finally came in, chang-zhe's mood instantly improved when he saw the familiar youngster. "Wang Ling, come quickly! Senior Immortal has already paid the bill. It's a waste not to eat this table full of delicious food! You Come and eat some too!"

After being surrounded by a few almighty experts for a few hours, he still didn't dare eat because it was very impolite for the elders to only eat when they were talking.

Li Changzhe could only listen to them talk on an empty stomach.

Now that he had finally sent the elders away, he was in a good mood when Wang Ling appeared, and his stomach instantly became hungry.

..

The food on this table wasn't cheap; many of them were very precious cultivation ingredients.

Wang Ling glanced at it and estimated that the food on this table would cost no less than 100,000 yuan.

He wasn't actually that interested in the cultivation world's delicacies, and felt that they weren't as delicious as his crispy noodle snacks. However, this table was full, and it was a waste to just leave it there.

In the spirit of saving food, Wang Ling listened to Li Changzhe for once, picked up a new pair of chopsticks, and started to eat.

After taking a few bites, Wang Ling suddenly realized that this was one of the few times since he had been in high school that he had eaten out on a school night with a man..

"This time, it's all thanks to the sect master of the war sect, grenade-throwing senior immortal. I didn't expect him to be so approachable."

Li Changzhe was famished, and his stomach was like a bottomless pit. As he spoke, he sucked in a storm. "Oh right, Wang Ling, don't tell me this is the person you're looking for?"

Wang Ling was stunned."..."

Li changzhe: "Actually, I heard through the grapevine that Odd Zhuo is your master."

Wang Ling:"..."

Li Changzhe spoke slowly, he gave his own analysis. "And Odd Zhuo is a member of the war sect, so it's not strange at all that he knows grenade-throwing senior immortal. When you saw me being surrounded, didn't you just ask your master to call senior immortal over... otherwise, with the identity of the war sect's sect master, how could he have come to this hotel so easily?"

This deduction was actually quite accurate..

Apart from the fact that Odd Zhuo was his master, it was indeed a bit of a reverse host, but Wang Ling actually didn't reject this guess at all.

In any case, as long as no one else knew that he was Odd Zhuo's master..

“Mm.” Since things had come to this, Wang Ling could only silently nod in acknowledgment of Li Changzhe’s deduction.

“As expected.”

Li Changzhe wiped his mouth, he smiled. “Don’t worry, I’ll keep this a secret for you. Who doesn’t have a master these days? However, I realize that your master has quite a lot of face. After all, he’s a member of the government, and it’s obvious that he has a good relationship with senior immortal. Otherwise, why would he come over just like that?”

“Not bad,” Wang Ling replied. As always, he was a man of few words.

However, Li Changzhe didn’t mind this at all. Wang Ling was a man of few words, but in fact, Li Changzhe thought that he was a very good listener.

On the other hand, Wang Ling actually knew very well that because Li Changzhe was too smart, communicating with this person... was actually not that difficult, and the other party could basically guess it, so all he had to do was nod yes and shake his head no.

“I know why you came to see me today. Su Xingyue came to No. 60 High School, Right?”

Sure enough, Li Changzhe’s next sentence went straight to the point, and he held a crab leg in his mouth, he smiled and said, “I know that her goal isn’t that simple. She wants to make peace for Qu Shuling, but in fact... she still wants to keep the spot for Shengke’s plan to go to the core of the Earth.”

“As expected, you all know.” Wang Ling nodded and said a few more words, which was a rare occurrence.

“That’s... our capital eight and Shengke are old acquaintances, and I’m not sure about Su Xingyue’s temper.” But Qu Shuling’s personality was twisted to begin with, and he had always held it in check. This time, the spirit world trial ground’s accident was actually an eruption that had been suppressed for a long time. “I thought that something would happen to him sooner or later; it’s just a matter of time.”

Li changzhe said, "Let me guess what Su Xingyue wants with you. Is it because she wants to get sister Zhang and I's reconciliation letter? But she's afraid that we won't agree, so she wants to talk to us through you?"

"Mm," Wang Ling replied.

"To be honest, sister Zhang and I can write this reconciliation letter. Even if it's not for Su Xingyue's sake, we'll definitely write it for your brother Wang's sake. But the crux of the problem now isn't here."

After Li Changzhe finished speaking, he sighed. "I think there's a high chance that Su Xingyue's efforts will be in vain in the end..."

This sigh was a helpless sigh, and Wang Ling naturally knew what Li Changzhe was talking about.

This was because although Su Xingyue was doing her best to salvage the situation, with principal Dai's temper, this matter wouldn't end so easily.

Tomorrow would be the day when principal dai of Shengke agreed to challenge the Vice Principal of No. 60 high school as the acting principal. The outcome of this battle would directly determine whether Shengke still had a chance to follow up.

"Shengke is in a hurry to prove itself, so they issued such a challenge."

Li changzhe said, "However, the alliance of ten thousand schools will definitely oppose such a challenge. "It is a provocation to issue a challenge to the principal for no reason. "If Shengke wins, although it has proven its strength, the Alliance of ten thousand schools and intensive search academy will definitely not agree to approve the quota for Shengke's geocentric project..

"If Shengke loses to you, it will be very awkward. What about the number one university? In the end, the principal is not even as strong as the vice principal... won't this matter be a joke if it gets out..

"So, the only possibility is a draw. This way, we can explain to the higher-ups, and at the same time, there won't be any conflict between the two schools. Everyone will just think that this is a friendly match that stops at the last minute."

“But the problem is that with principal Dai’s temper, he won’t end up in a draw with your vice principal, right? Who knows, your vice principal might even be beaten to death...”

” ...”

Hearing this, Wang Ling couldn’t help falling silent.

That’s right..

With Golden Lamp’s strength...

It was possible that Dai Tianchun might be beaten to death with a single palm..

Back in the divine realm, golden lamp was an existence who could stand up against several great dao gods and could be considered a universe-level powerhouse.

In front of such a universe-level powerhouse, true immortal realm was like a speck of dust.

Chapter 1999 1,995, Odd Zhuo’s Choice (1/92)

A duel between principals was a major event, and it concerned the reputation of both schools. Furthermore, Odd Zhuo had been the one who had helped prepare Jin Deng’s in-service teaching staff files, and many of the resumes were filled with the monk’s real life experiences.

It looked very rich, but there was almost no information on modern science, cultivation and education, and there was no record of him taking up a position on the internet at all. Apart from the mathematics teacher’s certificate, it was not an exaggeration to describe him as a parachutist.

Dai Tianchun’s reputation was well known, and the ten generals of Huaxiu Alliance were well aware of his madness.

On one side was a generation of Asura warlords who had been immersed in battle merits for a period of time and thought they had become mature.

On the other side was a pitiful vice-principal who still lacked modern science cultivation teaching experience and had yet to stabilize his foundation after becoming the vice-principal of No. 60 high school with his own strength.

As a superior department, the first reaction was naturally to mediate between the two.

At the headquarters of the Union of ten thousand schools in Jinghua City.

Odd Zhuo knocked on the office door.

“Little Zhuozi, come in. I can smell your spirit energy from afar.”

Sun Dakang had been waiting for a long time at his desk. He crossed his fingers and cupped his chin, waiting for Odd Zhuo to report the results of the mediation.

Odd Zhuo was in charge of the preliminary mediation.

This was an order from his superior, and he couldn't disobey it.

But in fact, in his heart, Odd Zhuo couldn't wait for Dai Tianchun to call him as soon as possible..

Odd Zhuo bowed respectfully, he replied, “I'm sorry, President.”. It was little Zhuo who was incompetent. When I was in Songhai city, I had already communicated with President Dai through the telephone connection in advance. President Dai impatiently hung up on me and said that I wasn't qualified to talk to him.”

“Ha, his character hasn't changed at all after so many years.”This was the expected result, and Sun Dakang was already used to it.

“I went to Jinghua to visit Shengke this time. Shengke has been cordoned off and no one is allowed to enter. Even if I show my identity as the director of the general administration of 100 schools in Songhai city, I can't.”

Sun Dakang raised his eyebrows and said, “Have you contacted the local general administration of 100 schools? I remember that you have a good relationship with Jinghua's Zhiliang.”

“Of course, I also contacted director Xu Zhiliang to go with me, but in the end, both of us were rejected.”

Odd Zhuo didn't know whether to laugh or cry. “I think principal Dai should already be making preparations before the war...”

“It's something he would do.”

Sun Dakang sighed. “I knew this would be the outcome. You Can't be blamed for this, Little Zhuo. I originally felt that the initial pressure plan from Huaxiu alliance wasn't enough. Although you've risen to fame in recent years, it's still very difficult to persuade an old fox like Dai Tianchun...”

“Little Zhuo doesn't understand, so why did you send me?”

“Huaxiu Alliance is testing my attitude,” Sun Dakang said meaningfully.

Odd Zhuo wasn't a fool; he understood the sensitivity in his words almost instantly.

What kind of person was Dai Tianchun... he was a top-notch expert from Huaxiu nation's founding days, and he was also a senior almighty with extremely long experience.

Logically speaking, he naturally had no right to interfere in this big shot's matter.

But Huaxiu Alliance insisted on sending him over. Just as Sun Dakang had said, the rest of Huaxiu alliance was testing him, the president of the Alliance of ten thousand schools, on his attitude toward Odd Zhuo.

Now, Sun Dakang's attitude could be said to be a clear card.

He had also given odd zhuo an important signal on the spot, which was that Odd Zhuo was very likely to be the successor to the future president of the Alliance of ten thousand schools.

As the new president of the Alliance of ten thousand schools, it was only a matter of time before the elders of the older generation would come into contact with them, which was why Odd Zhuo had been sent to meet them. It could be considered a form of pre-training.

“Junior... What kind of virtue and what ability...”

After understanding all this, Odd Zhuo lowered his head in a flattered manner and kept his hands clasped in a bow. It was faintly visible that his hands were trembling.

This was a mixture of emotions, with excitement taking up most of them, followed by disbelief, joy, and confusion..

“Little Zhuo, we’ve all witnessed your excellent performance over the years. You’re a smart person, so I won’t say anything more. I’ll definitely support you with all my strength.”

Sun Dakang said, he stood up and patted Odd Zhuo on the shoulder. “But you know that electing the President of the Alliance of Ten Thousand Schools is a big deal. “Although the assessment has already started a few years ago, every name on the final list must be voted on in Huaxiu Alliance

“In each round of voting, only those with more than two-thirds of the votes are allowed to enter the next round until only one name is left...”

“I know.”Odd Zhuo nodded.

This was the iron order of Huaxiu Alliance, and the people who were competing with him were equally outstanding. Although Odd Zhuo’s performance in recent years had indeed been good, he hadn’t received the approval of all ten generals.

The other ten generals might not necessarily give their votes to him in order to select the person they liked.

So when the day came to vote, it would be a real life-and-death decision, and it couldn’t be called Hell.

“Little Zhuo, you know how I feel about you. But in this world, no one can be perfect and make everyone satisfied.” At that moment, Sun Dakang looked at Odd Zhuo, and his words flickered, but he hesitated.

Odd Zhuo quickly sensed it and immediately cupped his hands in front of his chest. “Alliance leader, feel free to say it. If there’s anything you want to say, just say it.”

“In fact, in the final voting segment, more or less in order to canvass votes, people will expose each other’s dirty secrets. Little Zhuo, let me ask you, do you know what your problem is...”

“Could it be related to my family background? My family is quite well off...”

A drop of cold sweat instantly dripped down Odd Zhuo’s face. “But if the higher-ups are worried, they can completely check on me. In our Zhuo family, my parents get every cent from business transactions and have never done anything illegal. Every cent is clean and innocent, and there’s no record of being a deadbeat. Every year, our Zhuo family is a pioneer in disaster relief and takes the lead in donating money.”

“Don’t get too worked up, Little Zhuo. I didn’t say anything about your family’s problems. Although the Zhuo family’s business isn’t as large as Huaguo water curtain group’s, it’s still a pioneer in the electric spirit car industry. We’ve all seen the charity work they’ve done over the years. I’m asking about something else...”

“Something else?” Odd Zhuo stared blankly for a moment before he quickly thought of that mysterious black uncle... although he had become more familiar with his master, Wang Ling, he had also become less in touch with this mysterious black uncle.

However, he still didn’t forget to buy gifts for Uncle Black during the holidays.

Speaking of which, this black uncle’s identity was also very mysterious. could he really be a lawbreaker

“Hey, Little Zhuo, don’t make wild guesses. Let me get straight to the point. Actually, there’s only one problem with you... that’s also the most likely place to be attacked at the moment.”

At this time, Sun Dakang looked at him and said earnestly, “Let me ask you, are you in a relationship with that heiress of the Jiugong family, Jiugong Liangzi?”

Chapter 2000 1,996: To Make A Great Contribution To Liangzi Jiugong (1/92)

Odd Zhuo had never thought that Liangzi Jiugong would become an obstacle in his career path. He knew very well that this was probably the time when Huaxiu Alliance's higher-ups wanted him to make a decision.

He was silent and didn't know where to start. Seeing this, Sun Dakang could only sigh silently and Pat Odd Zhuo on the shoulder, motioning him to follow him.

Then the two of them went directly to the top floor of the Union of ten thousand schools' building through the transfer array inside the office. This was the top-floor stargazing platform, which could overlook all the buildings in Jinghua City, at the same time, it was also an important stronghold for monitoring the fluctuations of the gate between worlds in previous years.

Usually, this place was under lockdown, and only Sun Dakang would come up for a cigarette from time to time.

"Want a cigarette?" He took out a pack of cigarettes from his pocket and looked at Odd Zhuo.

"Thank you for your kindness, president, but I don't... Smoke."

"This isn't inside the alliance anymore. You can call me teacher, Little Zhuozi." Sun Dakang lit the cigarette and slowly blew out a smoke ring.

"Yes, teacher..." Odd Zhuo was reverent and didn't dare slack off in the slightest

"Tell me the truth. You should know the true age of nine temples Liangzi, right?" Sun Dakang asked.

"Liangzi... she's already an adult. Although she's still in high school, I asked her about it. Because of the family heir training back then, it was delayed for two years..."

"So you know a lot about her?"

"Yes, teacher."

Odd Zhuo nodded and then said slowly, “She came to Huaxiu nation to be an exchange student at No. 60 High School for me.”

“Back then, the nine temples family wanted to enter Huaxiu nation’s market. They had predicted the demon king sky-swallowing Toad’s movements in advance and wanted to take it down first to strengthen the nine temples family’s reputation in Huaxiu nation, but they didn’t expect me to take it down first.”

“Thus, the nine temples family began to doubt whether I had the strength to take down the demon king sky-swallowing toad back then..

“So, they sent nine temples Liangzi to investigate you.”

Sun Dakang curled the corners of his lips and nodded. “When you said that, I completely understood. It looks like you’ve already used your strength to conquer her. Otherwise, she wouldn’t have been able to fall in love with an enemy like you.”

“That’s the kind of teacher...”

“This sounds like a touching love story. And I know Little Zhuo, you’re not lying, because the logic behind the story makes perfect sense.”

Sun Dakang leaned back in the stands and smoked, with his back to odd zhuo, he said, “But you have to know, Little Zhuo, just because teacher trusts you doesn’t mean that other people will trust you... this path can’t withstand mistakes. As long as there’s a stain on it, it’s beyond redemption.”

“Teacher, I know that the background of the nine temples family is very complicated. Because of the lack of funds back then, nine temples Liangzi’s father married a sixth wife, which is the famous star picking group on Sun Island.”

Odd Zhuo frowned and cupped his fists. “But teacher, now that the head of the nine temples family has found out, that sixth wife also entered the nine temples family with impure motives.”

“And now the Jiugong family has also started a business partnership with Huaguo Water Curtain Group. With the guarantee of funds, the current Jiugong family has completely severed all ties with the star Seizer Group.”

“Their annual charity event...”

“There’s no need to continue, Little Zhuo. Of course, teacher knows that you’re very anxious, but you have to make a decision on this matter.”

“Is there no other way, teacher...”odd zhuo gritted his teeth and lowered his head.

He loved what he was doing now, and he had always had faith in this aspect since he was young. Influenced by his family’s education, he had never been at a loss or at a loss.

But at this moment, he felt a kind of difficulty.

Even a hint of pain.

Odd Zhuo certainly had never doubted his feelings for nine temples Liangzi. He had never felt such a throb of love at first sight in his life.

However, at this moment, Odd Zhuo realized that his feelings for nine temples Liangzi were even deeper than he had imagined.

Even his unwavering faith began to waver and waver for a moment.

“There’s a way.”

At that moment, Sun Dakang sighed and said, “But it’s very difficult.”

“Teacher, please make sure you tell your student!”Odd Zhuo bowed and was about to kneel when Sun Dakang suddenly helped him up. “Little Zhuo, what are you doing... Get Up quickly.”

He had really fallen in love, and Sun Dakang could also see that love between young people was sometimes like sparks, and no one could prevent it from suddenly going off.

After so many years, he had also watched odd zhuo grow up and grow up.

Sun Dakang was also moved by the dilemma between career and love.

“The only way now is to turn this Miss Jiugongzi into one of us,” Sun Dakang said bluntly.

“One of us? Teacher means...”

“That’s right, to get the citizenship of our Huaxiu nation’s legal cultivators.”

Sun Dakang said, “But you have to know, Little Zhuo, how difficult it is for a cultivator from another cultivation nation to get the citizenship of our Huaxiu Nation.”

“First of all, since the founding of our Huaxiu Nation, we have never recognized dual citizenship. “And for foreign cultivators to enter our Huaxiu nation and get the citizenship of our Huaxiu nation... unless they make a major and outstanding contribution to our nation, only then can they get the identity.”

“This isn’t a problem that can be solved with just a few donations from your family. Do you understand, Little Zhuo...”

Sun Dakang explained everything in detail. “Of course, if nine temples Liangzi really marries you, as long as she reaches a certain age, she can also choose to renounce her original cultivation nationality and get her own country’s identity card. “But if she does this, it will take a very long time, and the value is very low.”

“I understand, teacher...” odd zhuo lowered his eyes slightly and already completely understood the meaning behind these words.

Under normal circumstances, it was simply nonsense to help someone achieve outstanding contributions in a short period of time.

But now, Odd Zhuo had no other way..

Ever since loopy toad had visited the demon world last time, even the demon world had started to turn good... This was an era where there were no demons to fight at all, although he didn't know if there would be any new conflicts between the human world and the demon world in the future, but at least under the control of second generation demon saint and Shen Wuyue's old team, there would be a long honeymoon period between the human world and the demon world during this period of time.

So what other way could liangzi make a contribution?

A crazy idea even flashed through Odd Zhuo's mind

He remembered that Bai Zhe was nurturing dragon descendants, which were themselves a major threat to earth.

Why not let Liangzi nine temples kill those dragon descendants?

Or at the very least, let Liangzi kill that Holy Clan?

That wasn't right. The Holy Clan had already obediently handed over another cosmic eye to master, which could be considered as fulfilling their promise to stop the war. It seemed a little unkind for them to fight just like that.

To be honest, Odd Zhuo's mind was a little messy.

Fortunately, he could still beg Wang Ling.

Perhaps this biological master of his might have some ideas..
