Chapter 2021 The Second Way To Infiltrate The Earth (1/86)

With a wave of his hand, Wang Ling solidified dozens of chaos missiles, which were then swallowed up by the Golden Vortex in the void and returned to nothingness.

He opened his king's eye at the same time and stored all of the chaos missiles into the King's Eye World, which coincidentally helped Wang Ling with his cosmic eye experiment.

He found that the cosmic eye was still absorbing nutrients, so it needed to feed in large quantities, and these chaotic missiles were top-grade fodder.

It was true that Wang Ling could directly pour spirit energy into it, but he didn't know how long the cosmic eye could last, and it wouldn't be good if it went too far and directly destroyed the cosmic eye.

At that moment, the sound of the Netherworld that Mingyue ye heard wasn't an illusion. In fact, it was a special sound wave emitted by the cosmic eye in the King's eye world when it devoured those chaotic missiles, it was like flowing water... making him mistakenly think that it was the netherworld.

Wang Ling actually had no intention of directly killing Mingyue Ye, but Mingyue ye was clearly unable to contain his fear.

When he had used the meteorite to teleport to Earth with the primeval young master Bai Zijing, his old master, Bai Zhe, had warned him that there was only one person on earth that he couldn't afford to provoke, as long as he didn't provoke that person and the people around that person... it would be fine as long as they developed smoothly.

Mingyue ye naturally remembered these words now, but when Bai Zhe had told him that person had a real name.

However, when the bright moon night landed on Earth, he had completely forgotten that person's name.

Therefore, when the bright moon night realized that he couldn't see the person in front of him clearly, he became even more alarmed.

It turned out that that person was grenade-throwing senior immortal's mysterious master, the true leader behind the war sect, and the number one cultivator on earth..

In an instant, the bright moon night understood everything.

At the same time, he had a myriad of thoughts in his mind, because the man in front of him actually had the ability to erase all information about him from his mind the moment he landed on Earth.

This proved that the other party had known of his existence from the very beginning..

This instantly made the bright moon night break out in a cold sweat.

He couldn't stay any longer. He lightly tapped the ground with his magic staff, and in an instant, a cloud of glass mist spread out. The entire space trembled slightly, and several ancient fierce beasts the size of mountains landed here.

There was a lightning snake as long as a mountain range, a toad that was a thousand feet tall, and a slug that was covered in slime.

They were formed from glass mist, which was an ability that was very similar to Wang Ling's real clone. Normal attacks wouldn't be able to hit these illusions, but these illusions had the astonishing ability to distort reality.

Lightning snakes, toads, and slugs were known as the most ferocious and violent existences among divine beasts, which was why they were known as the three heroes of the ancient Vicious Beasts.

This was Mingyue Ye's life-saving trump card, and he hadn't expected it to come in handy less than a week after arriving on Earth.

But what Mingyue ye had never expected was that the three heroes of the ancient vicious beasts summoned by real illusions seemed to have no effect at all on this terrifying man in front of him.

He still maintained his elegant posture and moved forward with his hands in his trouser pockets. With each step, one of these three huge fierce beasts would be disintegrated.

“How could this be!”Mingyue ye was terrified.

He had never expected that the life-saving illusion that he had used all his strength to cast would actually be so easily broken.

This was the power of Wang Ling’s King’s pupil to remove illusions and preserve the truth, so he had almost a natural counter to all kinds of illusions.

No matter how real an illusion was, it was useless against Wang Ling.

So when he saw that bright moon night thought that she had successfully used her life-saving spell to escape, Wang Ling smiled in his heart.

It was a cold smile as he watched an ant bounce in front of him.

He had thought that since bright moon night had been personally sent to Earth by Bai Zhe, her business ability should be stronger than any of the enemies he had encountered in the past.

He hadn’t expected this person’s ability to be so unsightly.

At that moment, Wang Ling opened his five fingers, pointed them at the sky, and squeezed out of thin air.

Bright Moon Night’s entire body was bound by an invisible force, and he could clearly feel a large hand tightly binding his body like a cage.

He couldn’t resist..

The fear of death had already struck him, and bright moon night found that he couldn’t breathe at all.

Then, he felt that his body was being melted by spirit energy, and he had the illusion that he was about to turn into light.

In fact, Wang Ling hadn't used that much strength. In the instant that he had grabbed bright moon night, he had only used less than five nuclei..

One nucleus was enough to easily destroy a planet and kill anyone below the ancestral realm.

With Bright Moon Night's strength, he felt that five nuclei should still be able to barely hold on.

Who would have thought that just as his palm wrapped around it, bright moon night would directly vaporize in front of the enormous spirit power.

At the same time, his entire aura also disappeared.

"Aura, it's gone."

At that moment, Jingke's voice sounded. "But he shouldn't be dead."

"Mm." Wang Ling nodded.

As the person who had protected Bai Zijing on his way to Earth, Bai Zhe should have left Mingyue ye with a variety of life-saving methods.

Moreover, Wang Ling could also predict how the other party would escape.

So Wang Ling had crushed Mingyue Ye's body for two main reasons.

First, he wanted Mingyue ye to think that he had indeed killed him.

Second, he wanted Bright Moon night to restrain his actions on Earth. At least, he wouldn't try to devour those so-called experts in broad daylight..

“That magic staff in his hand isn’t simple.” At that moment, Wang Ying also laughed. He had been observing in secret, and just like Wang Ling, he had seen the clues.

In the absence of a physical body, bright moon night wanted to keep himself alive, but at the same time, he didn’t want his aura to be exposed.

There was only one way left.

And that was to become the weapon spirit of that magic staff.

Of course, ordinary magic tools definitely couldn’t do that.

And the magic staff in Mingyue Ye’s hand had probably been carefully selected and crafted by Bai Zhe.

To use the body of the weapon spirit to get a new life..

At that moment, Wang Ling lowered his head in thought.

He suddenly felt that he had discovered a blind spot that he had never cared about.

“Swordmaster, I’ve thought of it. What?” Jingke asked.

”...”

Wang Ling lowered his head in silence.

He didn’t have any evidence.

This was purely a guess that he had come up with in a moment of inspiration.

From the fact that he had turned into a weapon spirit during the bright moon night, Wang Ling suddenly thought of a possibility that he could teleport those outsiders to earth without passing through meteorites.

Moreover, this method was even more secretive than sending meteorites.

That was to reincarnate those extraterrestrial forces or even the arranged eternal ones.

To directly plant them in the form of souls on some cultivators on earth..

Chapter 2022 2018, The God-Making Movement (1/86)

Wang Ling sighed silently. He was still young; after all, he was only seventeen years old.

There was always a lack of experience when one was young, even though Wang Ling had been tormented by his powerful strength since he was young, and was afraid that he might accidentally blow up the Earth.

But in the end, he found himself a person who loved life very much.

And he thought of human nature very kindly, without so many fancy tricks and twists.

At least, before he met a thousand-year-old Fox like Bai Zhe and a cockroach.

He had never thought that a person's heart could be so sinister and complicated.

If his judgment was right, using a meteorite to project to Earth was probably just one part of Bai Zhe's plan.

Soul planting might be the key.

However, it was actually not easy to thoroughly investigate soul planting because there were many different methods of soul planting.

If it was Bai Zhe, what choice would he make based on his logic?

This Old Fox would definitely choose the most secretive method.

Then there were only two methods.

The first was to first find a suitable physical body, similar to the method the old devil used during the military training exercises of the six schools.

For example, to find the skeleton of a mighty figure, then use a special psionic clay to fill up the simulated physical body, and finally transfer the soul to this physical body.

However, it was actually not an easy task to find a suitable physical body.

Moreover, the process was very complicated. The Bright Moon night had just arrived on Earth not long ago, and without strengthening its own foundation, it was not realistic to use money and modern technology to achieve this operation.

Therefore, if the first method of soul planting was followed, only grave robbing would be left..

Soul planting by digging up the remains of ancient cultivators.

This was the most economical and practical method.

Once the soul planting was successful, it could be put into use immediately.

And the second method was to use external factors to directly possess.

The advantage of this method was that it was more concealed than the first method, which was through tomb robbing, and it was very difficult to detect abnormalities.

As for the target of the possession, according to the patterns of many reincarnation novels, they would definitely be some unremarkable small characters, such as the good-looking trash who had almost zero cultivation talent, or the weak and sickly handsome guy who seemed like he was going to die at any time..

That's right, these people had nothing but skin, but they didn't have any cultivation aptitude.

Even in the context of modern scientific cultivation, if they didn't have any cultivation aptitude and weren't willing to work hard, it would be a matter of time before they were eliminated by the Cultivation Society.

Wang Ling hadn't expected that these ordinary unremarkable people would actually have the possibility of their souls being planted now.

This was a very bold idea, but it was indeed in the process of being cleaned up.

Soul planting sounded a little similar to Sun Ying 'ER's invasion of the void, but in fact, there was a fundamental difference.

Because the Void was the void, Wang Ling could easily identify it with his king's eye.

But what was planted in the soul was the souls of serious human cultivators.

In other words, there might be a lot of hidden immemorial cultivators who, following Wang Ling's reasoning, would possess those originally unremarkable cultivators and live in the human cities.

It wasn't until the day Bai Zhe gave the order that they would take down Earth in one fell swoop.

"As expected, there was a reason why dao ancestor Wang put most of the immemorial cultivators into the corpse painting back then..."Wang Ling muttered to himself.

He had always felt that there had to be a reason for dao ancestor Wang's actions.

Now, with the revelations one after another, he felt more and more that Dao ancestor Wang's actions were in fact to be on guard.

Hero Guo and Super Chen hadn't come out of seclusion yet, but lotus sun had already smoothly entered the golden core stage.

Wang Ling felt that Lotus Sun might be able to help him find cultivators whose souls had been planted on earth.

..

In a private room of a popular pancake fruit shop on Vermilion Bird Sect's student street.

Lotus sun woke up from her sprawled on the table by the smell of the pancake fruit.

"Miss Sun, you're Awake?"

The people smiling at her were immortal Toya, who had disguised himself and wrapped himself up very tightly, and Wang Ling, who was eating the crispy noodle snack pancake fruit.

"I remember I was cultivating..."lotus sun said as she rubbed her face.

"That's right, Miss Sun has successfully broken through to early golden core stage in the mountain of backtracking. Congratulations."Immortal Toya smiled. "This is the Vermilion Bird Sect's Chen's pancake fruit chain store."

"Chen's..."

Lotus Sun searched her memory and suddenly remembered. "Oh right, it's the name of Old Master Chen's pancake fruit store outside No. 60 High School."

She was a little surprised. She hadn't expected that old master Chen would open a chain store so soon..

And the shop was ridiculously big.

It was also the first time she had learned that there was actually a private room in the pancake fruit shop!

“Miss Jiugong seems to be very keen on pancake fruit, so she helped old master Chen Open a branch in the Vermilion Bird Gate’s Student Street.”

Immortal Toya said this as he sipped his tea. Because the private room was quiet and there was no one to disturb or eavesdrop on them, his conversation was quite open. “After you broke through to the golden core stage, Ling Zhenren found me and said that he wanted to drag me along to discuss some things with you.”

“Then I’m here as well...”at that moment, Lotus Sun glanced at Wang Ling.

“That’s right. Before Miss Sun Woke Up, Ling Zhenren was the one who carried you here.”Immortal Toya’s words were astonishing, and Lotus Sun’s mind was instantly blown silly.

“Carried... carried you here? In front of so many people?”Her face was flushed red, and she was a little incoherent.

“Ah, I’m sorry, I didn’t use the right words.”

Immortal Toya smiled. “That position shouldn’t be considered carrying, it was carrying. Yes, it was carrying!”

” ... ”

“Ling Zhenren carried you and teleported here. But don’t worry, Miss Sun, there weren’t many people on Student Street at that time, so almost no one saw you.”

“Ha, Haha, then it must have been hard on student Wang Ling...”Lotus Sun didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

“Cough, cough...”

At that moment, Wang Ling coughed lightly and stopped the topic.

Immortal Toya quickly went back to the main topic. “Mm, I came to find Miss Sun this time to actually ask for your help. The current situation is like this...”

It took her a few minutes to sort out Wang Ling's deduction, and only then did Lotus Sun understand what kind of deduction Wang Ling had made while she was unconscious.

"According to Senior Toya, in other words, we need to use the power of our Sun family's flower and fruit water curtain group to find those who might have been planted with souls, right?" Lotus Sun said.

"That's right, especially those cultivators who aren't strong to begin with and aren't eye-catching to begin with. The chances of them being planted with souls are very high."

Immortal Toya said, "But as upper-level mighty figures, they usually possess weaker bodies. They usually use their own methods to modify their bodies. Refining pills and taking pills to change their physique are routine operations

"In other words, in the following days, those self-cultivators who are obviously not strong, but are buying precious spirit plants to refine pills or attempt to do so, as well as those self-cultivators whose cultivation aptitude has changed dramatically in a short period of time, are all suspicious

"I understand, senior. Huaguo Water Curtain Group has controlled the spirit medicine market for many years, so I believe it shouldn't be difficult to monitor it. But there's one thing I don't understand."

"Please speak, Miss Sun."

"Whether it's buying spirit plants or refining pills, they all need money. So where do they get their money from?" Lotus Sun asked.

"Miss Sun, don't you think you're underestimating these mighty figures? Since they were able to become mighty figures in ancient times, they were the cream of the crop in that era. So even in modern times, they still have their own ways to make money."

Immortal Toya said, "According to Ling Zhenren's analysis, after the soul is planted, they will also obtain the memories of the original owner of the body on Earth. Therefore, it will be much easier for them to adapt to modern life than it was for senior Zhang Zicao and senior Li Xian."

“It seems that Bai Zhe launched the deity-creating movement. It’s indeed very dangerous.” Lotus sun sighed.

“Ling Zhenren has already seen through his intentions, so all we have to do now is counter-attack. Therefore, we’ll have to trouble you with the monitoring. There’s also one more thing we need to ask of you, Miss Sun.”

“Senior, please speak,” Lotus sun replied very politely.

She knew very well that Immortal Toya’s request was actually Wang Ling’s plan, so she had no reason to refuse.

“I want to ask Miss Sun if she is qualified to enter the Sun family ancestral land?”

Chapter 2023 2019, The Ancestral Land Of The Sun Family (1/86)

The importance and confidentiality of the ancestral land of the aristocratic families, who had always enjoyed a certain reputation in the world of cultivation, went without saying.

Whether it was the Sun family, which had established the Huaguo Water Curtain Group with pills, the Xiang family, which had made a fortune with talismans, or the nine temples family, which was famous for eliminating demons on the Sun Island, almost all of them had their ancestral land.

However, the existence of the ancestral land was a secret, and only a few people knew of its existence. This was because to these aristocratic families, the ancestral land was an important place for the family’s lifeline.

Not only did it seal the important foundation that a large family could use at a critical moment, but it was also an important place for the family’s fengshui and lifeline. If the location was known by hostile outsiders, it was very likely that they would do harm to it.

And once the ancestral land was destroyed, it could directly affect the future fate of the entire large family.

Of course, for such an important secret, the fewer people who knew, the better. Moreover, the family also had a family rule for such a top secret. The person who leaked it was a traitor to the family, and could be directly expelled from the family.

So when she heard that Immortal Toya had inquired about the Sun family's ancestral land, Lotus Sun frowned slightly.

"I know that the ancestral land is of great importance, and I understand if Miss Sun doesn't want to talk about it," immortal Toya said with a sigh.

In fact, he had already expected this outcome. As the saying went, filial piety was the most important of all virtues, and respect for one's ancestors was also a manifestation of filial piety. What's more, great cultivation clans with ancestral lands had their own rules, and such rules couldn't be easily broken.

"I'm sorry, Senior Toya and... Student Wang Ling."

Lotus SUN's expression was also rather helpless; Wang Ling could clearly sense that she was nervous, even her heartbeat couldn't help quickening. "Even if I knew about this, I wouldn't be able to tell you in detail. Although I know that senior Toya and student Wang Ling definitely didn't mean any harm..."

Immortal Toya was clearly a little surprised by Lotus Sun's answer.

"Then does miss sun mean that you don't know about this?"

"Yes, Senior."

"But the Sun family shouldn't have any other heir besides you, right?"

"The ancestral land is of great importance. Even the heir doesn't know about it as long as he or she hasn't ascended to the position of family head. I don't know what the rules of the other aristocratic families are, but the Sun family's rules have been the same since ancient times."

Lotus sun said, "Generally speaking, only after the succession of patriarch is confirmed will the previous patriarch hand over the position of the ancestral land in the form of a secret scroll on the day of the succession ceremony."

"So that's how it is."

Immortal Toya nodded secretly. For most itinerant cultivators who were used to independent cultivation, there were times when they really didn't know much about the situation of the noble families.

In particular, the cultivation aristocratic families had gone through many generations of evolution, and there had actually been obvious changes between the ancient and modern cultivation aristocratic families. It wasn't difficult for the members of the aristocratic families to know the details of many details.

"Then does Miss Sun know anything about the ancestral land?"

"It's just some rumors..." Lotus Sun smiled awkwardly. "Anyway, I heard that the Sun family's ancestral land is a palace."

A Palace?

Wang Ling raised his eyebrows. "No, Water Curtain Cave?"

"Oh, I find you quite humorous sometimes, Wang Ling." Lotus Sun couldn't help laughing.

"..." Wang Ling.

"Although water curtain cave is the Sun family's ancestral land, it's just a real estate. "Moreover, that place is too unconcealed; it's not suitable to be used as the ancestral land. "The ancestral land is a place where family secrets and foundations are sealed."

Lotus Sun also started to get curious when she said this, she hurriedly looked at Immortal Toya and Wang Ling and asked, "I know that student Wang Ling and senior Toya definitely don't have any strange thoughts about our Sun family's ancestral land, but I'm still very curious... What does the search for those extraterrestrial creatures who sneaked into earth and the eternal ones who used soul cultivation methods to sneak in have to do with our Sun family's ancestral land? Why did senior want to find out about this?"

When Immortal Toya heard this, he first glanced at Wang Ling. After Wang Ling nodded, he finally felt at ease and replied.

“It’s like this, Miss Sun. I don’t know if you still remember the yin-yang Death Tribulation.”

“Of course!” Lotus sun nodded.

It was impossible for her to forget that memory until now: The Golden Man of the Evil Heavenly Dao, the Golden Lotus Buddha, the unspeakable place, and... the end of the world, the peak of her palm. She had written all of these things clearly in her little notebook.

Lotus Sun had also made up her mind in that diary.

Once she succeeded to the position of family head, she would directly seal this diary in the family ancestral land forever.

Lotus Sun had thought that the yin-yang death tribulation had already come to an end, but she hadn’t expected that the reopening of the old matter was actually related to it, and it was also a major event related to the ancestral land.

“It wasn’t because the seal on the unspeakable land had loosened that those evil heavenly dao golden men had a chance to take advantage of it, and student Wang Ling had also acted in time.”

“That’s right. But haven’t we still not found the old man who predicted the yin-yang death tribulation back then?”

“I remember that old man guessing that it was... Dao ancestor Wang?”

“It’s just a guess, but the exact identity is still unknown.”

“So, what does this have to do with our Sun family’s ancestral land?”

“This is Ling Zhenren’s idea, although I don’t know how he came to this conclusion.” At this moment, immortal Toya looked at Lotus sun and said seriously, “But since it’s Ling Zhenren’s idea, there should be a conclusion. Ling Zhenren suspects that the Sun family’s ancestor may still be alive...”

The scene was silent for a good while.

Lotus Sun's pupils began to tremble and contract violently.

Sun family's... ancestor?

Still alive?

If this was someone else's theory, Lotus Sun wouldn't believe it at all, but this was Wang Ling's conclusion.

In fact, this was a completely new guess based on the soul planting incident.

He had been looking for Dao ancestor Wang all this time, and could confirm that he was indeed still alive in the universe.

Because the spirit of his dharma idol, the Malevolence, was still alive in the universe.

If Dao ancestor Wang's original body split, then the malevolence would naturally cease to exist.

Previously, Wang Ling had suspected that the person who had brought up the yin-yang death tribulation to Lotus Sun was Dao ancestor Wang himself. As for why he had now shifted the focus of that old man to this ancestor of the Sun family.., in fact, it was also closely related to Dao ancestor Wang.

There was one thing that Wang Ling hadn't mentioned to Lotus Sun, because there were too many implications involved. The more Lotus Sun knew, the more dangerous it would be.

That was because he was now very suspicious.

Perhaps Dao ancestor Wang had long ago used the method of soul cultivation to become a cultivator on earth.

And according to Wang Ling's deduction of various Heavenly Dao spells..

If Daoist ancestor Wang had used soul cultivation to change his identity, the most suitable body on earth for Daoist ancestor Wang to plant would have been the ancestor of the Sun family who had been sealed in the Sun family ancestral land ten thousand years ago

Chapter 2024 2,020, The Ancestor Of The Sun Family And Old Jun (1/86)

Of course, these were just bold deductions based on the latest clues that Wang Ling had obtained. He had once suspected that the fortune teller was Peng Xiren, even the monk had personally confronted Peng Xiren and asked him in person if he knew anything about this.

From Peng Xiren's reaction and attitude at that time, it seemed that he didn't want to admit it... However, this was exactly Peng Xiren's deception. If he directly admitted it, he would instead doubt its authenticity.

On second thought, it was true that Peng xiren had never taken the initiative to admit it.

This made Wang Ling even more suspicious of the fact that Peng Xiren was a fortune teller.

Most importantly, ever since he had defeated Peng Xiren last time, he seemed to have become much more "Obedient", but this kind of person was inherently restless.

"So the purpose of student Wang Ling and senior Toya in entering the ancestral land... is to verify whether our sun family's ancestor is still in the ancestral land?" Lotus Sun asked at that moment.

"That's right." Immortal Toya nodded. "But if even miss sun doesn't know, there's nothing we can do about it. Ling Zhenren originally wanted to entrust this matter to me, and then secretly protect me. He was worried that if he went personally, he might alert the enemy. Speaking of which, I actually have some history with the Sun family's ancestor."

"Connections?"

"I attended the Sun family's ancestor worship ceremony 500 years ago as a friend," immortal Toya said with a smile.

"Senior... knows our Sun family's ancestor?" Lotus Sun was shocked.

She knew about the ancestor worship ceremony, which was held every 500 years. However, the location of the ancestor worship ceremony wasn't in the Sun family's ancestral land. Instead, feng shui was used to find the best location near the ancestral land to set up the altar.

In other words, the actual location of the ancestor worship ceremony was actually very close to the Sun family ancestral land, with a radius of less than 1,000 kilometers..

This range might sound a bit distant, but the cultivation world was vast and boundless. It was also common for cultivators who rode swords to fly faster than 1,000 kilometers per hour in an area with no speed limit. Therefore, for cultivators.., it was indeed not too far away.

However, it wasn't easy to find a hidden altar in this range.

In addition to being hidden, the ancestral land of the Sun family also had a terrain encryption algorithm. Given the ability of the Sun family's ancestor, it was possible that he would set up a lot of warning traps and illusion traps near the ancestral land, only the head of the Sun family knew how to enter the ancestral land safely.

Of course, if Wang Ling wanted to, he could force his way in, but the damage to the Sun family's ancestral land would be irreversible

In addition, Wang Ling could also force his way into Old Master Sun's memories to find out the location of the ancestral land, but that would also be risky.

Old Master Sun was a good person, and had given him many limited crispy noodle snacks as gifts in the past, so Wang Ling was naturally not an ungrateful person.

Although he had never believed that destroying the ancestral land would destroy the entire family's lifeline, he still had to respect the beliefs of others.

Back to the main topic, back to the ancestor worship ceremony itself.

Apart from the Sun family's immediate relatives, the rest of the people who were eligible to participate in the ancestor worship ceremony were friends in the cultivation world who had close ties with the Sun family, including many famous almighty experts, and the descendants of those close friends who had once been the ancestors of the Sun family.

However, there had been a limit to the number of outsiders who could participate in the ancestor worship ceremony over the years, which meant that there was a limit to the number of people who could participate. Those who could participate must be the ones who had the closest relationship with the Sun family at this stage.

This was the first time Lotus Sun had heard Immortal Toya mention that he had participated in the ancestor worship ceremony as a friend five hundred years ago, so she was very surprised.

At this moment, Immortal Toya took out a golden calabash pendant from his bosom.

“This is...” Lotus Sun’s eyes sparkled when she saw the pendant, and there was some shock in them.

“As you can see, Miss Sun, this is an item from my grandmaster, the Old Lord. It was also passed down to me by my master’s generation. Once the candidate for the successor disciple is confirmed, this item will be passed down.”

“I see.” Lotus sun immediately understood when she saw this gourd pendant.

Wang Ling was a little doubtful. “Who is the Old Lord?”

“Student Wang Ling, you may not know this, but the old Lord is an ancient great senior who was around the same time as our Sun family’s ancestor, and his strength is unfathomable. Although it’s rumored that he died while traveling in the universe, it’s not certain that he’s still alive.”

“...” the corners of Wang Ling’s mouth twitched slightly.

Traveling in the universe again..

He immediately thought of Immortal Zhenyuan.

Wang Ling realized that it seemed that those high-level mighty figures would always have the idea of leaving Earth to go to the outer planets to take a look, and then if something unexpected happened, they would never be able to return..

But this was actually not difficult to understand.

After all, the idea of going out into the universe was essentially to comprehend a higher realm. When no one on Earth could rival it, to experience the vastness of the universe was actually really helpful in comprehending the DAO.

“I heard from my grandfather that back then, the progenitor grandfather secretly ate a lot of senior senior Jun’s pills, and the two of them got to know each other just like that. Not only did senior Jun not blame the progenitor grandfather, the two of them even became very good friends.”

“That works too...”inside Wang Ling’s body, Wang Ying couldn’t help grumbling.

“It’s because senior senior senior Jun’s pills are said to be very unpleasant to eat. They’re bitter and bitter, but I don’t know why senior senior senior Jun can eat them with relish like candy.”

Lotus Sun actually didn’t know too much about the past; she only had a rough idea of it, she said slowly, “So under this kind of friendship, the great-grandfather made a pendant like this and gave it to the old Lord as a token of friendship. “In our Sun family’s ancestral teachings, there is also a record of the pendant. Anyone who has this pendant is a friend of the Sun family and will always be qualified to participate in the Sun family’s ancestor worship ceremony.”

Hearing this, Wang Ling’s thoughts were like clouds that had been cleared to see the sun, and he instantly came to a realization.

So it was a friendship recorded in the group training, which meant that their relationship was indeed extraordinary..

The reason why he had asked Immortal Toya to do this was because he had just casually asked about the situation. He hadn’t expected immortal Toya to immediately take the initiative to ask him for help, saying that he might have a way to enter the Sun family’s ancestral land.

It was just that Wang Ling had never imagined that Immortal Toya’s Grandmaster and the Sun family’s ancestor would have such an ancient friendship.

Now, it looked like this confidence was indeed there.

“How about this, Wang Ling...”

At that moment..., Lotus Sun suddenly thought of a way. “Should we try going to the ancestral worship ritual site five hundred years ago to take a look? “Although the area is quite large and there might not be a result, I’m still a descendant of the Sun family after all. Perhaps I can use my sixth sense to sense the ancestor grandfather’s intention to set up the ancestral land.”

“Is that okay, Miss Sun?” Immortal Toya asked.

“It’s just a casual stroll. I didn’t say that we would definitely find the ancestral land.”

Lotus Sun laughed. “If we accidentally find it, it can only be considered an accidental entry.”. After all, who hasn’t had an accident in life... I remember hearing my grandfather mention that someone had accidentally entered the ancestral land of the Sun family and almost died there. My grandfather was the one who brought him out.”

“There’s such a thing? Won’t there be a problem? What if the secret of the ancestral land is leaked...”

“No, that person became my grandmother.”

” ... ”

Chapter 2025 2021: Mysterious Signal From The Core Of The Earth And The Place Of Worship (1/86)

He had become... Grandma?

At this moment, Wang Ling and Immortal Toya couldn’t help looking at each other in dismay.

Then, Immortal Toya really couldn’t hold back the urge to complain in his heart, looking at Lotus Sun, he smiled. “Miss Sun, you can’t possibly want me and Ling Zhenren to enter by mistake, right? But Miss Sun, you have to think this through. In our cultivation country, it’s impossible to be a polygamist, so you have to choose...”

These words were a joke, and were even more flirtatious and suggestive. Hearing this, Lotus Sun’s face immediately flushed red.

She repeatedly waved her hand and vetoed it. “No... I don’t think that way! Senior, don’t joke with me! I’m just trying to help you guys...”

To be honest, even though she said this, in her heart, she still had some expectations for this matter.

Lotus Sun actually didn’t know much about the relationship between her grandparents.

And sometimes she even suspected that her grandmother had mistakenly entered the ancestral land of the Sun family, perhaps because her grandfather had deliberately led her there.

That was because after her grandmother was rescued, Lotus Sun knew that the relationship between the two of them had begun to heat up rapidly.

Of course, Lotus Sun had heard all this gossip from her second grandfather, who lived in seclusion all year round and didn’t smile.

It was said that the subsequent development of their relationship had been unusually smooth. Back then, her grandfather seemed to have set up an inescapable net, leaving her grandmother with nowhere to run.

In the end, they had come together.

No one seemed to be able to withstand such a powerful attack.

And the Sun family had always been the one who took the initiative to attack!

If they met someone they liked, they would express their feelings directly and clearly!

This included the time when her father Sun was chasing after her mother Sun.

But when it came to Lotus Sun, she began to doubt her life..

..

In Huaguo Water Curtain Group Building, Sun Yiyuan was standing in front of a mirror, tidying up his clothes. The stylist next to him checked his overall appearance and left the office with his team in satisfaction.

At the same time, Jiang Xiaoche, who had been waiting outside the door for a long time, pushed open the door and entered. "Master, the Songhai City cultivators' representative association has confirmed the time. It will be held at noon the day after tomorrow."

"What about the content of the meeting? Is there an announcement?" Sun Yiyuan asked.

"It's like this. The content of this meeting is to discuss the sustainable development of the core of the Earth Plan."

"Just this?"

"There's also the issue of the mysterious signal from the Earth's core... the higher-ups plan to understand the opinions of the representatives through this meeting." "Here's a detailed report." Jiang Xiaoche handed over the folder in his hand.

"As expected, this matter isn't groundless."

Sun Yiyuan sighed and frowned, as if he had known about this matter long ago.

Jiang Xiaoche stood solemnly at the side, not daring to say anything. With Sun Yiyuan's status in the cultivation world, it was easy for him to get some information.

Sun Yiyuan had heard about the mysterious signal before. It was a piece of gossip he had heard from a friend at the Academy of Science.

According to the available evidence, although the mysterious signal was transmitted from the center of the Earth, after data monitoring and analysis.., it was discovered that the source of the signal was actually an extraterrestrial signal from an extraterrestrial civilization... moreover, this mysterious extraterrestrial signal could not be compared with all the existing alien databases on Guo Ping's side.

Then, after categorizing this matter and discussing it, two conclusions could be drawn.

First, humanity was not the first race to explore the Earth's core. Long before the human cultivators, there had already been extraterrestrial beings that entered and hid in the core world. According to the current scientific methods, the bloodline signals of extraterrestrial beings had not been detected before entering the core world.

Second, there was a wormhole deep inside the core world of Earth that led to an alien planet.

Sun Yiyuan believed that the second possibility was the highest.

But regardless of the deduction, the risk of going to the core world would be greatly increased.

After all, in a short time, the elite teams of young cultivators selected from various countries would enter the core world and compete in the already calculated safe zone.

This matter had been prepared for a long time, but now, they had received this mysterious signal..

Then, should they respond to this mysterious signal?

After looking at the information, Sun Yiyuan put the folder on the table and rubbed the space between his eyebrows with a slight headache. "By the way, where did Rongrong go? I just sent her a message, but she didn't reply to me."

Jiang Xiaocheng quickly opened his wristwatch and looked at the electronic map. "Master, Miss's spiritual power signal has appeared near East Sea of Songhai City."

"East Sea?" Sun Yiyuan smiled. "Most likely she went to the palm cliff to play. She has been there several times in recent days."

"It might not be Master of the Palm Cliff. Miss is far away from the palm cliff. To be exact, miss should be on the surface of the sea now..."

"On the surface of the sea?" Sun Yiyuan couldn't help but break out in a cold sweat when he heard this.

“Master... What’s Wrong?”

“No, nothing...”

Sun Yiyuan looked at Jiang Xiaoche. “Xiaoche, cancel my afternoon trip for me. I have some private matters to attend to now.”

“But the afternoon trip is very important, master. This is the annual gathering of entrepreneurs in the cultivation world. This year, our Huaguo Water Curtain Group has signed strategic cooperation agreements with the Zhan Zong family and the Jiugong family. They will definitely be the focus.”

“It’s okay. It’s just a small matter.” Sun Yiyuan wiped his hands with a handkerchief. “Go find second master and ask him if he wants to go. If he doesn’t want to go, then you can take my place, Xiaoche.”

”...”

Jiang Xiaoche was flattered. Seeing Sun Yiyuan’s firm attitude, he didn’t dare to say anything more. He had no choice but to agree. “Yes, Master.”

He had repeatedly made mistakes and acted arrogantly a while ago, so he had been very well-behaved and had become very peaceful.

This was a heaven-sent opportunity, and Jiang Xiaoche felt that if he performed well, he might be able to redeem his image in Sun Yiyuan’s heart.

..

At the same time, on the other side.

The Sun family’s place of worship was near the East China Sea. When the three of them arrived, Wang Ling found that the area just so happened to be covered by the cliff in his palm that he had accidentally created when he had rescued Lotus Sun.

Blue waves rolled on the boundless sea, and the fine weather added a hint of warmth to the east China Sea today. The entire surface of the sea shimmered and sparkled, and spirit fish occasionally leaped up, it gave off a natural and harmonious aura.

Wang Ling frowned and used his king's eye to look at the bottom of the sea in this area, but found nothing out of the ordinary.

In other words, the entrance to the Sun family ancestral land might not be at the bottom of the sea?

His king's eye had the ability to distinguish all kinds of illusions. If there was an illusion trap near the East Sea, it would be useless, and Wang Ling would easily resolve it.

Perhaps it was another method?

Wang Ling had a hypothesis in his mind.

This was because he had deduced that the Sun family's ancestor was Dao ancestor Wang himself. Since that was the case, Dao ancestor Wang might use his own method to reconstruct the location of the Sun family ancestral land's entrance after successfully planting the soul.

If this was indeed Dao ancestor Wang's method, then it wasn't something that could be deduced with normal earth cultivation knowledge..

Wang Ling felt that perhaps he should consider the matter from another angle.

Chapter 2026 2,022: Wang Ling's Great Rewind Spell (1/86)

Hundreds of years ago, the Sun family's ancestral worship site was in the East China Sea.

Sun Yiyuan clearly remembered that at that time, he had followed the guidance of the old Celestial Master, who had specifically controlled the site for the Sun family's ancestral worship, and had spent a huge amount of money to build a temporary artificial floating island on the surface of the East China Sea for sacrificial purposes.

Therefore, the sacrificial ceremony that year had caused a great sensation. For the sake of this floating island for temporary sacrificial purposes, the Sun family had even obtained approval to fill the sea.

After the sacrificial ceremony, this temporary artificial floating island hadn't been wasted. Later, it had been put into use by Huaxiu Alliance for maritime training.

After all, it was an artificial floating island, and it had been continuously used for maritime training. After being bombarded by multiple rounds of spiritual energy, the Sun family's sacrificial island had now become a pile of debris.

As soon as he heard that Lotus Sun's coordinates had appeared in the East China Sea, Sun Yiyuan almost immediately thought of the sacrificial ceremony hundreds of years ago. After all, the Sun family didn't rely on the sea for a living, and there was no aquatic business in the family, moreover, the trading port wasn't set up near the East China Sea. The only connection with the East China Sea was the sacrificial ceremony hundreds of years ago.

What was Rong Rong doing in the East China Sea?

Could it be that she knew the way to enter the ancestral land and was filled with curiosity to take a look?

Or had she been hinted and urged by someone?

Sun Yiyuan suddenly became a little nervous. It was a violation of the clan rules to enter the ancestral land without permission.

Yes, under normal circumstances, it was not impossible to enter the ancestral land..

But it had to be approved by the Master of the family. The jade cylinder used for the approval would record the detailed time of the approval, and this time could not be changed.

Because there was a recorder in the ancestral land, the time shown on the jade cylinder for the approval could only be before the recorder. That was to say, even if Sun Yiyuan wanted to lie for Lotus Sun, if he made one wrong step, he would not be able to make it back.

He had groomed Lotus Sun as the future successor of the Sun family. If he wasn't careful now, it would be dangerous if the other shareholders of Huaguo Water Curtain Group caught him.

As he rushed to the East China Sea, Sun Yiyuan had a myriad of thoughts in his mind. Based on his understanding of Lotus Sun's personality, he believed that his granddaughter wasn't someone who would easily leave something behind.

Caution and caution had always been synonymous with her. Moreover, she had been taught by the clan rules group since she was a child, so she should know what was at stake.

He only hoped that things wouldn't turn out as he had imagined..

A drop of cold sweat involuntarily dripped down Sun Yiyuan's face. He sped up on his sword and headed in the direction of the East Sea. The large, extended version of the luxurious spirit sword streaked through the air, attracting the attention of many people.

..

"Strange, I remember that the island of sacrifice should be around here, so how could I not see it?"

Since Wang Ling hadn't been able to find any clues on the surface of the East Sea after several investigations, Lotus Sun suggested that they first go to the island of sacrifice to take a look.

Although the island of sacrifice had been blown to smithereens a long time ago because of the training, and was no longer the same as it had been in the past, Lotus Sun had always had a hunch that they might not be able to detect anything on the island of sacrifice.

Following the coordinates in her memory, she formed an aerial sword team with Wang Ling and Immortal Toya and rode their swords to the coordinates. In the end, the sponges beneath them were empty.

Then, Wang Ling's spiritual sense stretched out and directly pierced into the void, and according to Lotus Sun's description, touched the location of the sacrificial island.

This was an illusion time reversal method, which could perform an illusion time reversal in a specific area to simulate exactly what had happened here before..

Wang Ling also called it the Great Rewind Spell.

Although the area of effect was limited, the advantage of this method was that it wouldn't cause problems with time and space. The key was that it could also be used to reason and solve cases to understand exactly what had happened before.

As the spell was cast, the remains of the Sacrificial Island appeared like a mirage on the sea in front of them.

"It's the island of Sacrifice!" Lotus sun was pleasantly surprised.

"It's just an illusion. Don't get too excited, Miss Sun." At this moment, Immortal Toya's voice suddenly rang out.

The crowd continued to look back at the illusion. Soon after, the figure of a mysterious robed man appeared. He seemed to be injured and had climbed up the island of sacrifice while swimming. His movements were particularly strange, there was a feeling that his limbs were out of sync, and at the same time, a faint red and blue spirit light was emitted from his body..

"HM? It doesn't seem like a person?"

Immortal Toya looked at this scene with a strange expression. "Why do I feel like an injured weapon spirit?"

This was his judgment based on his many years of experience.

In fact, it also proved that Immortal Toya's judgment wasn't wrong.

Because Wang Ling had recognized this injured weapon spirit at a glance..

That's right, it was the bright moon night that he had dealt with not long ago and had been forced to become that magic staff weapon spirit in order to save his life.

Logically speaking, after he transformed into that magic staff weapon spirit, his appearance would also change, but Wang Ling had still recognized him at a glance..

“It’s the bright moon night,”Wang Ling said with a sigh.

He had thought that this was a kind of ill fate..

Wang Ling felt that every time he spared someone’s life, this sort of operation would always happen.

Just like how he had killed loopy toad three times back then, this bright moon night had actually appeared in front of him three times..

“Oh, so it’s him.”

Lotus Sun and Immortal Toya both nodded their heads and came to a sudden realization.

But what was this guy doing on the Sun family’s Island of sacrifice after he had been beaten away

At this moment, the rewind illusion formed by the Great Rewind spell played the most crucial scene, coincidentally answering the common questions in everyone’s minds.

After this bright moon night landed on the island of worship, she actually bent down and began to lick the entire island.

This scene directly stunned the three of them.

“I understand...”immortal Toya tapped his palm, as if he had thought of something, he said, “I remember that the base of the island of sacrifice was built with a precious medicinal coral called corals from beyond the heavens. However, although it’s a medicinal coral, it can’t be used as medicine.”

“Senior, do you know why?”

“This medicinal coral will lose its medicinal properties once it’s exposed to heat. Thus, it can only be used to its fullest potential when eaten raw.”. “But this thing is too hard. Even an itinerant immortal realm cultivator can’t chew it. How could a normal person have such teeth. “Therefore, this kind of coral is also known as rib coral.”

“A coral that even an itinerant immortal realm cultivator can’t Chew?”

To put it bluntly, true almighty experts of high realms looked down on extraterrestrial corals, but low-realm self-cultivators couldn’t chew them, which was why they were called rib corals.

However, in recent years, there had been a small range of refiners testing the use of chicken ribs corals. They believed that adding a bit of chicken ribs corals during refining could increase the toughness of the spirit weapon.

Now That Bright Moon Night’s body was damaged, the floating island, which was made of extraterrestrial corals, was looked down upon by others, but it was very valuable to him.

Now that he had become a tool spirit, the floating island was a rich mine for him.

There was an old saying that went, “What you eat, you make up for.”.

Therefore, Bright Moon Night’s behavior of eating the sacrificial island also happened to prove that the refiners’ operation of adding corals to the refining segment was absolutely correct..

Looking at the replay of the illusion in front of them, the three of them fell into a long silence.

After watching for a few more minutes, in the replay of the illusion, a huge shadow of a whale floated up from the bottom of the sea. Its island-like body rolled up huge waves, the waves on the surface of the East China Sea were shaken up rapidly.

Then, it let out a roar and swallowed the bright moon night and the remaining Sun family’s island of worship in one gulp..

Chapter 2027 2,023: Saved One, Mr. Hidden Fox? (1/86)

Looking back at the Great Rewind Spell’s illusion, this whale was exceptionally huge, at least a hundred times larger than a normal spirit whale. It was an ancient whale that had lived for at least several thousand years.

“The back of this whale is almost as big as Sun Island, right?” Lotus sun was also particularly surprised.

Then, she looked at Wang Ling's eyes as if he had suddenly come to a realization. The two of them were telepathically connected, and almost instantly thought of the same thing. "Could it be... that our sun family's ancestral land wants this ancient whale's body?"

"It's very possible."

Immortal Toya also agreed with this view, but then he frowned and said, "But this ancient whale is too big. Even if it's hidden in the deep sea, once it surfaces, it's not surprising that the shockwave it creates will cause a small tsunami. "But from the backtracking effect of the illusion spell just now, this ancient whale should have the ability to control its body size on its own."

"In other words, when it floats up, it deliberately keeps its body in the shape of an ordinary spirit whale, and then when it gets close to its target, it instantly magnifies its body and devours it, and then reverts back to its normal size?" Lotus Sun asked.

"Mm." Wang Ling nodded, directly confirming Lotus Sun's guess.

This was the most reasonable answer he could come up with at the moment; otherwise, it was reasonable to say that an ancient whale with such a large body shouldn't have been undetected.

In addition, Wang Ling also recalled that there had been rumors of prehistoric spirit beasts in the depths of the East Sea in the past few years, which reinforced his inner thoughts.

If this ancient whale had the ability to control its body size on its own, then it would indeed be difficult to discover if it disguised itself as an ordinary spirit whale and blended into the sea.

Of course, what surprised Wang Ling a little wasn't the ancient whale's ability to control its body size, but that it actually had a space-type ability.

On Earth, Spirit Beasts with space-type magic abilities were also very rare. The most common magic ability of many space-type spirit beasts was teleportation, even if they weren't too far away, but such a spirit beast that could control space-type magic could be sold for a sky-high contract price.

If his deduction was correct, the Sun family ancestral land was very likely in the body of this ancient whale.

And this ancient whale that had lived for thousands of years... No, it was possible that it had lived for tens of thousands of years. The space-type ability it could control was even more advanced than the current space-type ability known on Earth!

This was a devouring ability.

It was called “Whale swallowing the world,” and Wang Ling had only learned about it among the divine beasts born from the chaos.

In that case, the origin of this ancient whale was a bit intriguing.

How could there be a divine beast of the Chaos-type hidden in the vast eastern sea?

Furthermore, it lay low in the depths of the eastern sea all year round, and would only surface when the Sun family needed to offer sacrifices to their ancestors to let the family head of the Sun family enter..

Sure enough, the Sun family’s ancestor back then was no ordinary person.

All along, there had been rumors in the cultivation world that Immortal Zhenyuan was the first person on Earth to break through to the venerated immortal realm.

But in fact, Wang Ling had a hunch that this might have been the result of some almighty experts hiding behind the scenes.

They had withdrawn from Immortal Zhenyuan, the number one venerated immortal, and then hid behind the scenes to use this as a cover..

This method was actually similar to how Wang Ling had pushed Odd Zhuo out in front of him.

..

“Help... help...”

Just as Wang Ling was thinking about how to find this ancient whale from the bottom of the sea, an ethereal cry for help caught the attention of the three people in the air.

Lotus Sun saw a humanoid creature that looked very similar to the Tibetan Fox floating on the surface of the sea from a distance, holding a piece of driftwood in its arms. It looked very strange and very weak, and it let out an extremely weak cry for help.

If it weren't for Wang Ling's unfathomable realm and his ability to clearly identify the sound, no one would have noticed the humanoid creature's cry for help, because the sound of the waves was much louder and would directly drown out its voice.

Seeing this, Lotus Sun took out a golden pill from her storage bag almost immediately and threw it fiercely onto the surface of the sea.

This pill looked like a pill, but it was actually a condensed magic treasure that could condense a huge physical object into this small pill and put it to use at critical moments.

Usually, the most common thing to do was to seal a spirit car inside.

But the Sun family was a big family, so there were naturally many things that could be sealed.

When Lotus Sun threw the pill into the sea, a white mist rose up, and a huge submarine directly appeared in front of everyone's eyes.

“...”seeing this, the corners of Wang Ling's eyes couldn't help twitching.

“As expected of you, Miss Sun...”immortal Toya was also very surprised. Although he had long thought of the Sun family's extravagance, it was still a little unexpected for them to directly summon a submarine.

“This is the smallest item I have that can be used on the sea,”Lotus Sun said as she took out another ball. “This one has an aircraft carrier sealed inside.”

”...”Wang Ling and Immortal Toya.

“That’s not necessary, Miss Sun. Saving people is more important...”immortal toya smiled awkwardly but not politely, and then followed Wang Ling and Lotus Sun to land on the huge submarine engraved with the word “Sun.”

Lotus Sun summoned arcane sea and used its power to gently lift up Mr. Hidden Fox, who was floating on the surface of the sea in the distance.

“Ahem...”Mr. Hidden Fox, who had been rescued, kept spitting out seawater, looking extremely pained.

“Are you okay, sir? Sigh, logically speaking, you’ve already cultivated to human form, so your realm should be very high. Why Can’t You Swim?”Lotus Sun looked at the human-shaped creature in front of her and asked with concern.

After Immortal Toya hurriedly examined the creature’s body, he looked at Lotus Sun and smiled bitterly. “Miss Sun... this sir isn’t a human-shaped spiritual beast... he’s a proper human.”

Lotus Sun’s face instantly turned red. “I’m sorry, sir... I, I didn’t do it on purpose.”

“It’s fine, it’s fine... I’m used to being misunderstood by others. Besides, people do call me Mr. Hidden Fox by my nickname. It’s fine...”

After saying this, Mr. Hidden Fox wagged the Fox’s tail behind him. He swallowed the Spirit Energy Replenishment Pill that Immortal Toya had given him, he felt that his weak body had recovered a lot. “It’s like this. This is a side effect of my cultivation technique. It will make me a half-beast person.”

“On land, with my nascent soul stage cultivation, I naturally wouldn’t be in such a sorry state... but ever since the side effect of my cultivation technique was formed, my body seems to have become especially afraid of the sea. “As long as I touch the sea, the spiritual energy in my body will drain away at an accelerated rate...”

“I see.”The three people on the submarine understood after hearing this.

If the side effects of the cultivation technique weren't taken seriously in the beginning, it would indeed cause unnecessary trouble, just like old antique and Daoist Taotie.

In fact, in the cultivation world, there were quite a few human cultivators who were permanently turned into half-orcs due to the side effects of the cultivation technique.

"Since you're afraid of the sea, then why did Mr. Hidden Fox come to the surface of the sea?"

"Well..."Mr. Hidden Fox wrung the sea water off his fox tail, he said, "Actually, I'm a science scholar in the cultivation world. My real name is Xiao Liang. People call me Mr. Hidden Fox. "I've always heard that there might be prehistoric spirit beasts on the East Sea, so I couldn't suppress my curiosity and came here to investigate."

Chapter 2028 2024: Identifying Popular Spirit Beasts On The Internet (1/86)

Xiao Liang?

Immortal Toya frowned, and then revealed an expression of sudden realization. "So you're that famous popular science scholar, Dr. Xiao!"

"Dr. Xiao?"Lotus Sun and Wang Ling were puzzled at the same time.

"His self-media account is called Infinite Little Liang,"immortal Toya replied.

"So it's teacher Little Liang..."lotus sun was also surprised. If she had to be honest, she was also a fan of this Dr. Xiao.

The videos of the Popular Online Spirit Beast Identification series had already been played over tens of billions of times on various self-media platforms. They were the most popular self-media authors!

With the support of a highly-educated cover, the name 'Endless Little Liang'had almost become a phenomenon in the cultivation science circles over the years.

It even directly caused people to not remember Dr. Xiao's real name, and instead kept calling him teacher Xiao Liang or Mr. Hidden Fox.

“But teacher Xiao Liang, I remember that you were still in human form when you were live streaming?” Lotus Sun was puzzled.

Although this teacher Xiao Liang’s human form also looked somewhat similar to hidden Fox’s... but overall, the unsmiling commentary style was still very interesting.

“After all, the duration of the live broadcast isn’t long. Using the shapeshifting spell to transform into human form can still last for a period of time. “But it can only last for an hour to two hours at most, so I usually go offline after fifty minutes of the live broadcast.” Mr. Hidden Fox sighed helplessly.

“But this should be your secret, right? Is it okay to tell us...” Lotus Sun asked very politely.

“You can call me Mr. Hidden Fox instead. There’s no need to address me respectfully. Even though you didn’t recognize me, I did recognize you. You’re the eldest daughter of Huaguo Water Curtain Group.”

Mr. Hidden Fox said, “My latest video just mentioned the chicken-rib coral incident, and also mentioned the Sun family’s Island of sacrifice hundreds of years ago. Of course, I also recognized Miss Sun. Student Sun has excellent grades and a good character, so of course I believe you won’t tell anyone. As for the two on the side, I know Senior Immortal Toya...”

As he spoke, he turned to look at Wang Ling.

Wang Ling only gave Immortal Toya a look, and immortal toya instantly understood. He hurriedly scratched his head and smiled. “Don’t worry, Mr. Hidden Fox. This student Wang is my disciple.”

“Eh? When did you take in a disciple? Why haven’t I heard of it?”

“In secret.” Immortal Toya smiled. “This counts as me exchanging secrets with Mr. Hidden Fox, doesn’t it?”

“That makes sense. In that case, we’re even.”

Hidden Fox nodded, then looked at Wang Ling. “Then is this student Wang also a fan of mine?”

”...”

Wang Ling fell silent.

He actually didn't pay much attention to those cultivation science articles..

After all, if he wanted to look up something, he could just ask the Heavenly Dao directly.

No matter how sophisticated cultivation science articles were in this world, they weren't as accurate as asking the Heavenly Dao directly.

After all, everything in the cultivation world was actually derived from the Heavenly Dao.

All living creatures, spells, and cultivation-related things were just branches, branches, fruits, and leaves derived from the Heavenly Dao..

Seeing that Wang Ling didn't reply, the scene turned awkward. Hidden Fox hadn't expected that there would actually be high school students who weren't his fans these days who didn't watch his videos.

“Mr. Hidden Fox, please don't take offense. My disciple is usually like this; he doesn't have much contact with the internet and is a person who is obsessed with cultivation.” Seeing this, Immortal Toya hurriedly cupped his hands in a bow to smooth things over.

When Hidden Fox heard this.., the expression on his face instantly eased up quite a bit. “So that's how it is; that's very rare! Nowadays, young people are always holding their phones and swiping around; there are indeed very few people who can truly isolate themselves from the Internet.”

“Let's not talk about this anymore, Mr. Hidden Fox.”

Immortal Toya smiled and said, “I want to ask Mr. Hidden Fox. Since Mr. Hidden Fox is here for that prehistoric spirit whale, do you have any gains? I'm not satisfied with what Mr. Hidden Fox said. We're also here for this spirit whale.”

“Hahaha, that’s a good relationship! Exploring the secret together will give us a greater sense of achievement! We can share information!”

Hidden Fox said, “And you might not believe it, but I really saw that guy! But that guy was very fierce, and he directly tore my boat apart with his tail... so I just floated on the sea.”

After saying that, he stared at the submarine under his feet, and his eyes shone. “Now with this submarine, I think it shouldn’t be difficult to find that guy!”

“Mr. Hidden Fox has this confidence?”

“Of course. I know the habits of the spirit whale very well,” Mr. Hidden Fox said confidently. He was afraid of the sea, but now that he had this submarine, it made his path of finding this prehistoric spirit whale more stable.

Looking at the huge “Black fish” under his feet, hidden fox crouched down and touched it, he couldn’t help but praise, “As expected of the Huaguo Water Curtain Group. This is the sixth generation of the cultivation submersible vehicle. Not only is the internal system completely made in China, even the chips are all independently developed and created by our country.”

As a scholar of cultivation science, one could only say that Mr. Hidden Fox was Mr. Hidden Fox.

Not only did he have a lot of research on Spirit Beasts, but he also dabbled in a little bit of knowledge about the world of cultivation.

“Mr. Hidden Fox, do you know how many generations the latest technology has reached?”

“It’s not convenient to reveal that. You have to know that although the technology that can be used for commercial sale is the latest in the market, in reality... it may not be the latest. “Usually, it’s sold for one generation, hidden one generation, and then studied the next generation.”

”...”

..

After entering the operating space of the submarine, Mr. Hidden Fox was familiar with the dazzling dashboard in front of him.

“Mr. Hidden Fox knows how to drive a submarine?”

“No, but in fact, the sixth generation submarine is not difficult to operate. Because the system and the chip are the latest, it’s fine to use artificial intelligence mode to sense and control it.”

He first turned on the power, then, he placed his palm directly on the sensing control screen. “Look, now, as long as I put my hand on this control screen, I can directly let the control screen read my brain’s thoughts, thus making the submarine move.”

As soon as he finished speaking, a series of red system warnings appeared on the electronic glass screen in front of him.

-LSB- warniThe the intelligent sensing operating system has failed to read! ]

[ please do not place the palm of a pet on the sensing screen! ]

For a moment, everyone in the submarine could not help but fall silent.

“Let me do it, senior Tibetan Fox...”Lotus Sun said.

“That’s fine...”although he did not say it, it could be seen that Mr. Tibetan Fox was feeling a little desperate at the moment.

When the submarine successfully entered intelligent pilot mode under Lotus Sun’s consciousness..., hidden Fox suddenly noticed a key question. “By the way, student sun, does this submarine have enough energy reserves? I think the remaining energy can only last for two hours at most.”

“It’s okay, senior. We have enough energy.”

“Have you brought enough spirit stones?”Hidden Fox said. “I suggest that we go to the energy furnace to replenish spirit stones now to avoid the problem of insufficient endurance.”

Hearing this, Wang Ling silently pulled out a strand of his hair and handed it to Immortal Toya..

Chapter 2029 2025, "Cave Immortal, My Realm Is Low, Don't Lie To Me (1/86) ."

The submarine's energy level rose to full capacity in an instant, Mr. Hidden Fox's worried heart was also relieved. "As expected of the Sun family, which is in charge of Huaguo Water Curtain Group. They even have sufficient energy reserves for the submarine sealed in the Golden Pill."

"This... of course. Our Sun family has always been cautious," Lotus Sun said with a faint smile.

She looked at Mr. Tibetan Fox's thumbs up and quickly straightened her head, staring unblinkingly at the screen in front of her.

Because she also knew very well where this submarine could get energy supplies?

Wang Ling must have pulled out his hair to use it as energy again.

However, at this moment, when Mr. Hidden Fox was praising her, Lotus Sun actually felt a little embarrassed.

"How is it, Miss Sun? is the current Operation Stable?"

At this moment, Immortal Toya and Wang Ling walked over from behind to ask about the situation.

"The submarine has already been successfully launched, and is currently using the radar signal to find the location of the spirit whales according to Mr. Hidden Fox's instructions," Lotus Sun said.

"You have to be careful of the unknown at the bottom of the deep sea," Immortal Toya reminded.

The Eastern Sea was very vast, and there could be countless dangers lurking in the deep sea. If that spirit whale, which could change its size, had really survived from prehistoric times until now, then its intelligence was naturally extraordinary, it was impossible for them to find it so easily.

Moreover, the status of such a special spirit whale in the whale circle was probably unimaginable. It was normal for other spirit whales to cover for it to protect its safety.

“Spirit whales are a kind of underwater spirit beast that is particularly United.”

When the submarine descended to a position more than a thousand meters below the sea bottom, the surrounding environment had already begun to turn dark. Mr. Hidden Fox stared at the screen in front of him, which was transmitted by the intelligent sensor system, he said, “Although they usually travel alone, that is only an illusion that the cultivators see on the surface of the sea. Once they enter the bottom of the sea, the spirit whales will band together to resist the foreign enemies.”

“Mr. Hidden Fox, the size of the spirit whales also has a nemesis at the bottom of the sea?”

“Currently, the human cultivators have analyzed less than 20% of the spirit beasts at the bottom of the sea. Originally, the cultivation seas of various countries were full of mystery. “Moreover, from the current data, the adult spirit whale’s body size is definitely not the largest in the bottom of the East Sea. “And the prehistoric spirit whale I’m looking for, I think, is a special case and very valuable for research.”

“What about after Mr. Hidden Fox finds it?”

“Naturally, he has to find a way to protect it. This is a rare Big Fellow on Earth that could witness the rise and fall of human cultivators on Earth. “If it was exposed like this, it would probably attract a fatal disaster. “Although in recent years, many people have explored the bottom of the East Sea just to find this big animal.”

As a rigorous scientist, Mr. Hidden Fox sighed and said, “A while ago, I deliberately released the news that there might be a giant beast bigger than a spirit whale in the bottom of the sea...”

“I know, Mr. Tibetan Fox is talking about a sea gorilla?”

“That’s right. It’s just a spirit beast that I created using online public opinion in order to protect this big fellow.”

“So that’s how it is...”Wang Ling and Lotus Sun raised their eyebrows at the same time as they came to a sudden realization.

Recently, there had been a lot of rumors about giant sea gorillas at the bottom of the sea. Who would have thought that it was actually Mr. Tibetan Fox’s arm.

However, Mr. Hidden Fox's original intention was to divert attention and protect the precious prehistoric spiritual whale. Therefore, this explanation was completely reasonable.

At this point, the submarine, which had already descended to three thousand meters below the sea floor, suddenly heard a loud sound.

An unknown collision had occurred!

Moreover, the radar sensors around the submarine did not respond before the collision!

"Strange, this sixth generation collision warning system should also be very advanced, how could it not notice?" Mr. Hidden Fox frowned.

Just as he was feeling strange, a loud tremor was heard, and then a shocking scene immediately appeared.

On the screen in front, a palm that flickered with azure spiritual light appeared. It was obviously the palm of a primate spirit beast. It was incomparably huge, like a small mountain.., its five fingers were tightly clenched like an iron pincer, tightly grasping onto the metal sheet of the submarine.

Then, a huge purple pupil suddenly appeared in front of the screen!

This terrifying huge underwater creature was using its own hand to grab onto the submarine, and using its own pupil to stare at the huge iron fish that it had caught.

Mr. Hidden Fox was already stunned. "This... This isn't..."

Sea Ape!

That's right!

There was absolutely no mistake..

This hairy hand and this huge body! And the appearance of the ape that was scanned from the heat-sensing equipment!

F * ck!

Is anyone there? !

Why would a species that he randomly made up really appear at the bottom of the sea!

Was this sea ape breathing with its lungs? Was it a proper primate spirit beast? Why could it continue to move freely in the deep sea? !

Faced with the spiritual beast that he made up but actually appeared in front of him, Mr. Hidden Fox's expression was dumbfounded.

However, something that made him even more dumbfounded happened.

At this moment, student Wang, who had been standing by his side and didn't like to talk much, suddenly took a step forward and used his fingertip to draw a line in the air. In an instant, spiritual energy boiled, and a hexagram seal formation appeared in the depths of the sea, it was carved directly onto the body of the sea ape.

Setting up a formation across space?

Mr. Hidden Fox was stunned. This shouldn't be the strength of someone at the foundation establishment stage..

"Mr. Hidden Fox, don't panic. This is a mission that I set up for my disciple. In truth, I've already finished setting up this formation. My disciple is just finishing up the job," immortal Toya said.

"Cave Immortal, my level of insight is low. Don't lie to me." Mr. Hidden Fox revealed a suspicious look.

"How could I lie to You? I'm also a fan of yours."

”...”

He rarely lied, because every time he did, he would break out in a cold sweat. The hexagram formation in front of him was a type of formation that could be directly implanted into a spirit beast's body and used to control its mind.

It only belonged to the Heavenly Dao, and all creatures below the dao ancestor level would be directly controlled by force, completely unreasonable.

Immortal Toya, on his own, would naturally be unable to achieve such an array.

Seeing that the sea ape holding the submarine had gradually calmed down, immortal Toya beamed with joy. He patted Wang Ling on the shoulder. “Alright, it's under control. It's been hard on My... good disciple.”

Wang Ling:”...”

Lotus Sun:”...”

Although he couldn't tell exactly what was strange, Mr. Hidden Fox felt that there was something strange.

He stared at Wang Ling and Immortal Toya with a suspicious expression, but his attention was quickly diverted by Lotus Sun's next sentence. “Oh right, senior, didn't you say that the sea ape was just a creature you made up? Why did it suddenly appear at the bottom of the sea...”

Chapter 2030 2,026: Chinese People Don't Lie To Chinese People (1/86)

Xiao Liang, internet name: Infinite Xiao Liang.

Nicknames: Dr. Xiao, Mr. Tibetan Fox.

Occupation: a professional scientist in the cultivation world.

However, what Mr. Tibetan Fox didn't expect was that this trip to the bottom of the sea completely overturned his previous understanding, and even broke his worldview for a time..

First of all, he really wanted to know why the creature that he made up out of thin air would actually appear at the bottom of the sea?

Obviously, this was something that was difficult to explain with science.

A primate creature that had lived in the deep sea for a long time, a sea ape... actually existed in front of his eyes. At this moment, it was even temporarily tamed and became a battle general to protect the submarine.

This made Mr. Hidden Fox feel as if he was in a dream.

Of course, what made him feel even more dreamy was that he noticed that the high school student surnamed Wang standing beside him suddenly had a hexagram seal between his brows.

This was the symbol of the Master of the array, which meant that the one who was actually controlling this sea ape's mind... was this seemingly ordinary high school student?

Was even a foundation establishment cultivator this brave now?

This was a sea ape that even he didn't know about... and judging from its strength, this sea ape's realm wasn't low. At the very least, it was at the same level as him, it was a high-level fourth-grade spirit beast whose strength was equivalent to the nascent Soul Stage!

A foundation establishment high school student controlling a high-level fourth-grade spirit beast..

Was... was this certain that his mind wouldn't collapse?

Seeing the suspicion on Mr. Hidden Fox's face once again, Immortal Toya hurriedly coughed, he said, "This is me intentionally training my disciple's willpower, Mr. Hidden Fox. Mind Control, you know, only when the master's mind is incomparably focused can it be trained properly."

"That's... That's natural..."Mr. Hidden Fox nodded.

In fact, he was roaring in his heart.

These words sounded very reasonable when it came to training the mind and willpower of a master, but Mr. Hidden Fox felt that there was something wrong with it!

This was a high-level level four spirit beast!

It wasn't something a foundation establishment high school student could control!

Even if you were the one who had set up the array!

But wasn't the master your disciple at the Foundation Establishment Stage? !

At that moment, Immortal Toya's face was also dripping with cold sweat. Seeing that things were about to be exposed, he hurriedly bowed to Wang Ling. "Ling Zhen..."

He had wanted to tell Wang Ling that it would be better if he was the master, but as soon as he said that, he habitually almost called Wang Ling "Ling Zhenren."

Wang Ling:"..."

This time, Mr. Hidden Fox's gaze became even more suspicious. "Ling Zhen What?"

"Hahaha, you misheard Mr. Hidden Fox. What I said was really unexpected... I didn't expect my disciple to actually improve so much."

"Cave Immortal, my realm is low, you really can't lie to me..."

"No Way, Mr. Hidden Fox. Chinese people don't lie to Chinese people."

Wang Ling:"..."

Lotus Sun:"..."

Under the escort of the sea gorilla, the submarine dived to a depth of four thousand meters. A huge undercurrent surged from the depths of the sea, forming a shock wave that headed straight for the submarine.

Wang Ling had already had a premonition that the sea orangutan would use its huge body to shield the submarine against the undercurrent. This wasn't a natural undercurrent, but a signal of an invasion from a group living at the bottom of the sea, it was warning them of their intrusion.

The sea orangutan was tall and sturdy, and its huge body was like an iron wall. It firmly protected the submarine and used its strong back muscles to share the damage of this undercurrent.

At the same time, the advanced sonar receiver in the submarine also received a signal. After the system analyzed the sonar, a wave of whale whistles came from within.

"This is... The Sound of a spirit whale?" Lotus SUN's expression immediately became nervous.

"It's not the spirit whale that we understand. When I listen, I feel like it's the sound of a sword whale. Its voice is sharper than a spirit whale's, and its territorial awareness is also very strong." Mr. Hidden Fox concluded from the analysis of the voice alone.

Sword whales, as the name implied, were a type of underwater spiritual beast with a spiritual sword tail. The cultivation level of the population grew widely. When the young sword whales were born, they were high-level second grade spiritual beasts, and when they matured, they could even reach the initial fifth grade.

Just as Mr. Hidden Fox said, the sword whales' territorial awareness was very strong. By swinging their spiritual sword-shaped tails, they could use the ocean currents to draw out sword Qi, and in an instant, they could form a sword in the water, it was a well-known underwater swordsmanship family that used sword qi to pierce prey or other places at great distances.

And in today's swordsmanship circle, there were quite a few swordsmanship techniques that could be comprehended by cultivators by studying the sword whales.

"Whoosh! Whoosh!"

At this moment, immortal Toya's ears twitched. Although he was in the submarine, the sound of Sword Qi in the water released by the sword whales below still reached his ears.

“Not good! They’ve launched an attack!”

Because they had stayed here for too long, the sword whales had already regarded them as invaders of their territory, so they attacked mercilessly.

Wang Ling naturally heard the sword whales’ attack as well.

This was an instinctive defensive reaction of the underwater creatures, and it was very natural. However, if they wanted to go deeper and find the spirit whales, they had to pass through the sword whales’ territory.

With that thought in mind, Wang Ling raised his arm in the face of the water swords that were shooting at him from all directions.

Under the Hexagram Seal’s mind control array, the gorilla guarding the submarine was in the same position as him. However, as he formed a seal with one hand, a portion of Wang Ling’s spirit energy was directly connected through the array, it was transmitted to the gorilla.

Buzz!

A dazzling sword light erupted from the sea gorilla’s palm, lighting up the entire seabed for a brief moment.

This was the sword barrier formed by the sword in the palm. Wherever the light reached, it was a defensive area, and any sword Qi that shot out from within the sword barrier would be dissipated.

It was obvious that the sword whales below had never seen such a formation before, and they were instantly frightened and let out even more intense roars.

Wang Ling didn’t want to disturb them at first, but this was really a last resort. At the same time, in order to avoid as many casualties as possible, he had used this method to protect the submarine as it moved forward.

Every living thing on earth had its own value and significance (except for mosquitoes) ..

..

On the other side, Sun Yiyuan had already arrived in the sky above East Sea in Songhai city a few minutes ago on his elongated spirit sword.

“Strange, Rongrong’s spiritual energy signal is getting weaker and weaker, but it should be here.” Sun Yiyuan frowned as he stared at the light spots on his wristwatch whose signal was getting weaker and weaker, he was extremely puzzled. “Could it be... that she has gone to the bottom of the sea?”

Not Good..

He immediately sighed and smiled bitterly in his heart.

It seemed that... Rongrong already knew that the Sun family ancestral land was inside the belly of the spirit whale..

As expected of his Sun Yiyuan’s granddaughter, she was so smart!

He had no choice. The purpose of his trip was to prevent Lotus Sun from making a mistake.

At the thought of this, Sun Yiyuan didn’t hesitate at all. He directly jumped into the sea with his body and then quickly dived down to look for Lotus Sun’s spiritual energy signal.

As the surrounding environment became darker, a ray of light in the depths of the sea suddenly caught his attention.

“That’s...” Sun Yiyuan frowned.

Because at that moment, he felt another familiar spirit energy.

Strange, why was student Wang Ling’s spirit energy also at the bottom of the sea?

After a short moment of doubt, as the leader of the Ling Rong Party, Sun Yiyuan's smile gradually became insolent
