Chapter 2151 Talent Recruitment Interview (1/86)

Two level 30 sealed couple came to negotiate with him, which surprised Xiong Wu. Although most of the players in the group of four symbols were sword immortals, there was no hard and fast rule that said they were not allowed to recruit other players.

After all, there was a class change option after level 50. As long as one contributed enough to the guild, they could continue to stay in the Guild and become a sword immortal. As long as they contributed enough, even if they did not change their class, it would not be a problem.

However, the two level 30 sealed players mixed in with the team and made it to the final stage unscathed, which aroused martial hero's great interest.

"The two of you actually made it to this stage?" Martial Hero's reaction was the same as Li Bai's and Mang Shan's. Martial hero was shocked by this. Even if the low-level players in this dungeon had everyone's protection..., the number of players who could make it to the final stage could be counted on one hand.

The Black Dragon, the boss of the final stage of the Black Dragon Cave, could kill players who weren't satisfied with their levels with just a single roar.

Liangzi nine temples: "The president of the White Horse Guild and the President of the Mountain Village Guild have both left for floating cloud town. I wonder what's so special about floating cloud town."

Odd Zhuo: "Whoa! ?"

Liangzi nine temples: "They said that there's a big shot player there, and they want to recruit him."

Odd Zhuo: "What's up?"

Liangzi nine temples: “It’s absolutely true, but I think that the four symbols guild is full of geniuses. The players that Li Bai and Mang Shan are eyeing are definitely not ordinary.”

Odd Zhuo: “Great!”

As the couple sang along, Xiong Wu also started to get a little excited. He had seen floating cloud town’s name in the system notification a few times.

It was not very scientific for a newbie town to appear in the system notification one after another.

Initially, he was not interested in floating cloud town. However, when he heard that Li Bai and Mang Shan were already there, he suddenly felt an inexplicable sense of competition.

Xiong Wu had such a personality. No matter what it was, it was very boring for him to be high. He had to snatch it from others. That was what made it interesting.

So he didn’t think too much about it, and hurriedly took out a space teleportation scroll and teleported to the nearest place to floating cloud town, intending to fly there directly on his mount.

In the blink of an eye, the three guild leaders used teleportation scrolls one after another to leave for floating cloud town, and this scene alarmed quite a few surrounding players.

Odd Zhuo had been there for the purpose of creating hype, and the three guild leaders’ actions could be said to have affected the whole body, which was equivalent to advertising floating cloud town to the people around them.

This gave Wang Ling and Lotus Sun more talent to choose from.

But right now, Liangzi nine temples was still a little puzzled. “Your goal is just to lure them over to fight? It shouldn’t be that simple, right?”

Liangzi nine temples didn't react at first when he heard this, but soon his expression changed in shock. "This... can't be? Are you talking about the real Xiong Wu of the four symbols army? This is a real wanted criminal... how could they dare?"

"Although it's a fake ID registration game and the name is a bit confusing, after all, if you directly use the name of a wanted criminal to swagger around the market, most of the time no one will think that this is a real wanted criminal."

Odd Zhuo said, "I was just testing his reaction just now. In the information, Xiong Wu is just like this. He likes to compete with others, and most importantly, the way he holds his sword."

"Is there a problem?"

"I've been observing him for a long time, and the way he holds his sword is very strange.". He wasn't a habitual one-handed sword user. It was clear that he was more accustomed to using a two-handed sword, and Xiong Wu was in the information as a swordsman with a great sword. "He's also the person with the highest cultivation among the four divisions."

Odd Zhuo frowned. "All these years, he's been hiding everywhere, and there's been no news of him. Up until now, we still don't know where he's hiding. I didn't expect him to actually play this game."

"..."when Liangzi nine temples heard this, he didn't know what to say.

This was the first time he had heard of using the game to locate and capture a wanted criminal.

"This... can we capture him?"

But Yoshiko nine temples still had some doubts about this.

Locating a wanted criminal was one thing, but it might not be possible to capture him.

If this was detected by the other party, they could just log off and escape.

“I’ve already asked Mr. Ming. Locate him first. As long as we can find the correct location, he can remotely control the game cabin to activate good citizen mode.”

“Good citizen... mode...”

“When the time comes, the game cabin will automatically seal and capture the criminal. At the same time, the rocket thrusters will automatically launch the entire cabin and land at the nearest police station.”

“But this game cabin... isn’t that sturdy! This is an international wanted criminal; it will definitely be broken!”

Odd Zhuo shook his head, he smiled. “The game cabin has a simple long-range great enlightenment talisman seal. Bai Qiao asked my master to design it when she was developing the game cabin, so that it can be reinforced if necessary. In other words, Xiong Wu won’t be able to escape even if he has wings.”

Xiong Wu, who was immersed in the game world, would never have thought that he would be tricked like this.

At the same time, Wang Ling and Lotus Sun’s plans for the town were also going very smoothly. Apart from expanding the scale, the happiness of the town’s residents was also rising in an orderly manner.

Most importantly, because of old Huang’s participation, the “Wolong” of the surrounding towns began to gradually flood into floating cloud town.

Old Huang and Lotus Sun had shockingly become recruiters for talent.

Faced with all kinds of talents, lotus sun and Old Huang had the same idea. Apart from battle-type talent players, players with flexible economic thinking were also very important.

So talent was not only measured by equipment and level, but also whether they had a flexible mind.

For example, the young man in front of them had a square face, a buzz cut, thick eyebrows, and beady eyes. He was very iconic, and looked a bit cheap.

“Nice to meet you, HR. My name is Zhuang Xian, male, and my occupation is to break off a marriage. I’m level 15.”

The young man named Zhuang Xian said, “I’m here in Floating Cloud Town. Of course, I’m not here because of my level.”

He pointed at his mouth. “To be able to reach level 15, I’m here purely because of my eloquence... so please listen carefully, HR. What are my future plans for the food in our town?”

“Food plans?” Lotus Sun’s eyes lit up. “You’re in the food business?”

“Then do you want crispy noodle snacks?”

“If I don’t, there’s no way I can make money from junk food.”

“It’s like this. I’m in the chain of Hotpot restaurants. “I think in the future, our floating cloud town needs a hotpot restaurant franchise center. That way, we can attract players from the entire game world and build a unified franchise through us.”

Zhuang Xian spoke of his magnificent blueprint for the Hotpot store. “As long as we have enough resources and hire powerful celebrity players as endorsements, and promise to make a regular return on our investment, I believe there will be a lot of interested players.”

“What if we don’t manage it well?”

“Hey, joining is a voluntary act. What can we do if we don’t manage it well? In any case, as a brand, we definitely won’t lose money. At worst, we can just run away!”

” ...”

Hearing this, Lotus Sun had already stamped the red stamp “Reject” on Zhuang Xian’s name. She then turned her gaze to the back of the crowd. “That... next...”

Chapter 2152 2,148, Crouching Dragon Gathering (1/86)

Lotus Sun and Old Huang knew very well that they wanted crouching dragon, a genuine talent. Even in the game world, there was justice and morality, and they would never do such a disgraceful act.

Of course, some people would think that this was just a game, and no one would take it too seriously, but the problem was that everything in the game world of the loose immortal child’s Dharmaraja Ring was too real.

All the players who could feel the purity of the air in this world and breathe in the fresh air in the game world wouldn’t think that this was a fake world.

What’s more, this world was currently being affected by some evil force and was gradually becoming real.

Wang Ling sat in the general’s residence and used his Dao 04 eye, the virtual and real primordial spirit magic eye, to observe the changes in the game world.

He observed the game world through reverse extrapolation.

Strings of cold digital codes seemed to be in disorder, but in fact, as long as one could understand them, there was a pattern to follow. He could use the code to reverse extrapolate and see the essence through the phenomenon.

There was now a long queue outside the general’s residence at the temporary recruitment office in Wolong, and an endless stream of interviewees came to recommend themselves, filling the entire street.

The town's Happiness Index was steadily rising. The Gathering of talents was one of the ways that the system judged the town's Happiness Index as a bonus.

In a short period of time, the number of sleeper dragons gathered in floating cloud town would increase, and the happiness index would also increase, which would attract more players.

This was a positive cycle.

Of course, in addition to real players, there were also npcs who automatically entered floating cloud town to participate in the election because of the increase in the town's Happiness Index.

That was to directly conduct the Turing test.

First, he could tell with the naked eye whether this person was a robot player generated in the wandering fairy's dharma circle world. Then, he could directly ask questions.

And it had to be repeated questions.

For example, below, Old Huang's conversation with a suspected NPC player.

"What's Your Name?"

"Li Qiushui."

"What's Your Name?"

"Li Qiushui."

"What's Your Name?"

"Excuse me, HR, are you deaf? My name is Li Qiushui."

“Okay, it’s fine...”

After repeated questions, the robot player did not answer the question in a fixed sentence according to the code. This was enough to prove that this was an ordinary player.

Of course, these situations couldn’t be generalized. After all, some very “Dog”players would even use the “Turing test”in reverse order to hide their identities.

No matter how many times they asked a question, the answer was exactly the same, which made people believe that this was a real NPC.

For example, they were very suspicious of... Wang Ling..

Mm, although this wasn’t the first time they had suspected this general of floating cloud town, they still felt that he had been acting strange from the beginning to the end.

The main thing was that they had also run a Turing test on Wang Ling, and in the end, Wang Ling hadn’t fallen into their trap. They had asked countless questions, and each time, Wang Ling had given the same answer.

Furthermore, some of the questions had been asked after a long time, and the results were the same as last time.

They had no choice but to believe that this general was a real NPC. Besides, even if he was a disguised NPC, old Huang also felt that this person was too dedicated... hundreds of questions! He had to memorize the fixed answers to hundreds of questions, and then answer them every time they chose, without making any mistakes. How dedicated must he be..

It would be a pity if he didn’t become an actor.

With such strong acting skills and memorizing lines, even a best actor would have to kneel.

So Lotus Sun and old Huang felt that regardless of whether the player was real or fake, they should just treat him as a fake... After all, he had the mental strength to memorize so many answers and answer people who never made mistakes, they had to show some respect.

Lotus Sun and Old Huang methodically selected smart players to build the town. Many players had their own main jobs in the real world, and the experience from these jobs could also be applied to the game.

For example, 3D modelers usually had the ability to design, so they were very good at the overall map planning of the town and the beautification of the city environment.

For example, a real chef. A chef could be considered a sub-class in the game, unlike the scammer who tried to persuade others to join and open a shop, a real sub-class chef was undoubtedly a high-income class in the game world of the Loose Immortal.

The start was chosen to start with [ thief ]. High luck attribute bonuses could often be used in the sub-class of chef. If the ingredients were not enough, they could be stolen through the thief's class skill at the beginning, the luck value also meant that the chef could cook dishes with high attributes.

It was very useful for raiding dungeons.

Although the attribute bonuses of the food were temporary, these high attributes were often the key to raiding dungeons. Similarly, the thief-turned-apothecary and thief-turned-blacksmith were the mainstream choices of the current players, however, it was very difficult to obtain the ingredients for the pills and weapons.

Therefore, in the early stages of the game, choosing a chef as the starting point for a sub-class and selling them as a cook, and then finding a way to turn into an alchemist or refiner after earning the money, was also a steady path to progress.

Old Huang and Lotus Sun had been picking together for a long time. There were quite a few people who came, but there were very few people they liked. There was a difference between choosing to stay in floating cloud town to develop, and directly being recruited as a Wolong.

The town recruitment mode and guild recruitment seemed to be quite similar, but in fact, there was a fundamental difference in treatment. The Guild belonged to the Guild leader, and whether or not the distribution in the guild was balanced depended on the guild leader's conscience.

As for the sleeping dragons that were recruited into the town, they were distributed fairly according to their contribution to the town. As long as you put in enough effort, they would never treat you unfairly.

This was also the reason why many players wanted to be recruited into the Wolong. There was no other reason.

There were only two words: Fair!

Fair!

It was still fair!

At this moment, a shadow covered the players lining up in the sky. A group of beautiful white Pegasus entered everyone's sight. At the same time, a boorish player riding an armored Griffin entered their sight.

"Excuse me, is the Wolong recruitment office here?" A handsome young man on a white horse asked with a smile.

Everyone was attracted by the two players' mounts.

Being able to ride a flying mount was enough to prove that these two players were not low-leveled. They were at least level 50 and above.

Even a level 50 player had come here to apply for a job?

Many players who were queuing up could not help but curse in their hearts. This was too indecent!

Old Huang stood up and narrowed his eyes as he looked at the two people. He felt that these two people looked somewhat familiar..

Wasn't this... The guild leaders of the White Horse Guild and the Mountain Village Guild? !

Old Huang was shocked.

Chapter 2153 2,149: Lotus Sun (1/86)

There were many players in this world, and it was rare to have a name among them. Li Bai and Mang Shan were two special cases.

Thanks to the ranking of the White Horse Guild and the Mountain Village Guild, both of their names were very well-known. Guilds that were established with the same class as their attributes were often more cohesive than other independent guilds.

Although the class was fixed, the way they played was endless. A group of players who had a common interest in the same class gathered together and worked together to develop new tricks, this was the unique charm of the two large guilds in the eyes of outsiders.

It was Li Bai and Mang Shan!

Other than Old Huang, there were also other players who had queued up to apply for Wolong. They recognized the two of them, and their thoughts of joining floating cloud town became even firmer.

These were the guild leaders of two large guilds!

For a big shot player like this to choose to join the novice village, it meant that floating cloud town was indeed something.

Many players had initially been shaken. Now that Li Bai and Mang Shan had come here, they suddenly felt a strong sense of belonging to floating cloud town.

Many people also revealed surprised expressions. While they were stunned by Li Bai and Mang Shan's appearance, they also began to marvel at the methods of the person behind floating cloud town.

What kind of player was this? How could he have built such a remarkable novice village?

Lotus Sun and old yellow were undoubtedly helpless in this regard. Although Lotus Sun was beginning to wonder if this general of floating cloud town was an NPC that a real player was pretending to be.., but the other party's acting was too exquisite and she couldn't find a single flaw in it, so she couldn't bear to expose it.

If she really was an NPC player, everything Lotus Sun was doing now was because of the massive main storyline quest that this NPC had given her.

That was to build floating cloud town.

As for when she would finish this main storyline, even Lotus Sun herself didn't know. But as long as she could complete a little of floating cloud town's leveling and various construction activities, Lotus Sun would receive a huge amount of experience points as a reward.

As the town leveled up, her level had already surpassed old yellow's by 10 levels, while old yellow had also leveled up by 5 levels.

So now old yellow was level 38, while Lotus Sun was Level 48.

A novice village, a level 48 ancient heavy armor cultivator player, this was extremely outrageous!

"I'm really sorry to have disturbed your recruitment. Mang Shan and I came here to discuss whether we can build our branch guild in Floating Cloud Town, but the process is very long. I'm afraid we'll delay everyone's time, so we'll come back to discuss it after today's recruitment ends."

On Pegasus, Li Bai's reply was polite and polite. He did not want others to gossip about how high-level players bullied low-level players because of their level and status.

All of his replies followed his personal style. They were very polite and strict, making people feel like they were bathed in the spring breeze. They did not feel like they were being bullied at all. Instead, they felt a sense of equality.

This was also the impression that many players had of Li Bai.

As for Mang Shan..

Everyone knew that he and Li Bai had a very good relationship. The two of them often hung out together. Compared to Li Bai, he had a style that did not care about trifles. He was very loyal. Sometimes, he would personally lead a team to help low-level players clear dungeons.

However, sometimes, when they were in the top of the game, all sorts of vulgar words would spill out. However, the situation with Li Bai by his side was much better.

Basically, he did whatever Li Bai said. He just had to follow the rules.

Everyone:”...”

However, to everyone’s surprise, such a harmonious scene was quickly broken by someone who came out of nowhere.

Not far away, a large group of people came over on flying swords. The leader was riding on the iconic flying elephant armor, followed by more than a dozen members of the same association. This group of people surrounded them in the sky, from Afar, there was a powerful oppressive feeling of dark clouds pressing down on the city.

“It’s the four divisions!” Within floating cloud town’s city, many people recognized this stance. When they saw that it was the four divisions, and it was that Xiong Wu who was leading the team, many people immediately felt that things were not good.

It was not just Li Bai and Mang Shan. The other novice players, as long as they were not sword immortal players, almost all had complaints about the four divisions. Bullying newbies and forming teams to rob them in the game were all things that the four divisions had done.

Although this was just a game, dying once would mean losing equipment, EXP, and levels, and even resurrecting at the rebirth point, bullying others with their power still made people unhappy.

Most importantly, the others were helpless against Xiong Wu and the others’ arrogance. They indeed had the right to be arrogant. The multiple tactics of this professional sword immortal were developed by the members of the four divisions, led by Xiong Wu.

It was just like an intellectual property developer. If you used other people's tactics to play the game, at least those who used tactics wouldn't be able to slander you.

And because of this, Xiong Wu had gained a lot of loyal sword immortal fans.

If Xiong Wu came here alone, everyone would know what he was up to. It was nothing more than robbery.

But now that Li Bai and Mang Shan were present, everyone immediately knew that this matter was going to become even more complicated. It had already become a battle between the two sides.

Li Bai and Mang Shan could be considered as one side, while the four divisions were obviously on the other side.

"Floating cloud town, speak! How much can you offer? You can sell it to me. I, the four divisions, have decided to accept it!"

On the armored flying elephant, Xiong wucui spoke in an imposing manner. There was an ancient stone box in his hand. After opening it, it emitted an orange glow.

"Orange Equipment Box!" When many people saw this scene, they were immediately horrified.

This was an equipment casket that could be opened to random equipment. The orange glow indicated that one would definitely obtain an orange equipment!

In the eyes of other players, this item was priceless!

"This is the casket that I just obtained from the Black Dragon Cave's storage. I haven't confirmed the opening of the casket yet, but as everyone has seen, there is a 100% chance of obtaining an orange equipment from this casket. "I think it shouldn't be difficult to use this orange-colored box to exchange for this city, right?" Mighty Martial said confidently.

In the world of the Loose Immortal Child's magic ring, the difficulty of obtaining an orange-colored equipment was as difficult as ascending to the heavens. Its overall value was overflowing.

Now that Mighty Martial had directly taken out this box to exchange for it, it was a little hard for everyone to imagine.

But Old Huang chuckled, not buying it at all.

He secretly said to Lotus Sun, “Don’t fall for it. With this guy’s personality, even if he gives you the Orange Box, he’ll definitely ask his guild members to snatch it back after you open it.”

Lotus Sun frowned slightly. Of course, she knew what was at stake. Seeing that Xiong Wu had the intention of taking the city by force, she hurriedly said, “Wait!”

“Oh, you’re the Deputy City Lord of this city? In other words, the leveling up of floating cloud town and the extermination of the nearby hundred cave demon lord are more or less related to you?” Xiong Wu glanced sideways at Lotus Sun, seeing that it was a heavily armored cultivator, he couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

In his eyes, this class wasn’t very useful. It was too newbie and had high HP, but the damage was too low. It wasn’t a threat to him at all.

He could even kill a black dragon, let alone a mere heavy-armored cultivator.

At that moment, Xiong Wu drew his greatsword and pointed it directly at Lotus Sun. There was a threatening tone in his words. “Say it, your city. Do you want it or not?”

“Sir, aren’t you a little too overbearing? It’s not like there aren’t experts in our floating cloud town.” Lotus Sun took a deep breath. She could feel Xiong Wu’s arrogance, but she wasn’t afraid at all.

“Overbearing? I’m sorry, I’ve always been like this!”

As soon as she finished speaking, the Greatsword in Xiong Wu’s hand began to burn like a raging flame. Then, he directly slashed out a crescent-shaped sword energy toward Lotus Sun!

He had held back and hadn’t used all of his strength. His goal was only to injure Lotus Sun and intimidate her.

Li Bai and Mang Shan were anxious. They called Xiong Wu Shameless!

As for Xiong Wu, he waved his sword and said, “Sorry, my hand slipped...”

Buzz!

But when the sword Qi hit Lotus Sun’s armor..

The damage was actually 10!

Many people couldn’t help rubbing their eyes, thinking that they had seen wrong.

This was Xiong Wu!

He was Level 60!

Even if he hadn’t used his full strength to attack a level 48 player, he wouldn’t have only lost 10 hp!

Lotus Sun, on the other hand, smiled.

Now she knew why she existed. Perhaps there really was a nemesis in this world.

Mighty Warriors were strong.

But no matter how strong they were, it was impossible to imagine.

Lotus sun already had a godly cultivation technique, [ sword skill ] , in the initial stage.

The damage of all sword-type attacks benefited from the passive ability of [ sword skill ] . When it hit Lotus Sun, it would be directly reduced by 75% ! Not only that, but Lotus Sun was also an ancient heavy-armored cultivator with thick skin.

It could be said that it was much easier for the current group of Sword Immortal players to kill the Black Dragon than it was for Lotus Sun..

Chapter 2154 2,150, Invalid Attack (1/86)

Lotus Sun had relied on her own epiphany to create the divine skill “Sword to work”. In addition to having a 75% reduction effect on sword-type damage, she could also stack a layer of passive ability every time she was attacked.

That was: at the same time as gaining 1 permanent agility attribute point, each layer of passive ability would also determine the number of spirit swords that Lotus Sun could control at the same time.

Currently, Lotus Sun was Level 48. In other words, as long as she carried a sword-type weapon that was no higher than level 48 and a sword-type weapon with [ unrestricted level ] special effects, she could easily control it.

It was unknown if it was the will of heaven that allowed Lotus Sun to possess such a natural restraining ability. It could only be said that when Lotus Sun faced the vast crowd of four symbols, she really didn’t feel the slightest bit of fear when she held such a divine skill.

On the contrary, she was looking forward to this group of Sword Immortal players slashing at her a few more times so that she could stack her passive abilities.

As for the damage, it seemed that Lotus Sun really could only be described as “Scraping.”.

Now that Lotus Sun was Level 48, a level 48 ancient heavy-armored cultivator with high defense and full defense attributes.., she was still wearing the full set of purple equipment that she had obtained when she had followed the general of floating cloud town to attack the hundred-cave demon lord.

Not only was Lotus Sun’s defense extremely high, but her HP was also shockingly high.

Her 5,000 hp was almost comparable to that of an early-stage map boss.

Mighty Martial’s sword strike looked majestic, but it had only dealt 10 damage to Lotus Sun.

“How could this be...”

Seeing this unbelievable scene, the players of four divisions could not help but feel a wave of shock in their hearts.

Many of the surrounding players also looked like they were watching the show. They hadn't had much hope for this level 48 assistant vice-general, but they hadn't expected him to be so strong, which was beyond their expectations.

He was the mighty warrior who wielded a greatsword and was famous in the game world for his high explosive damage! The founder of Violent Sword Immortal... In the end, he had only taken 10 damage with a single slash. It was simply ridiculous!

That slash just now had been very awkward, and mighty hero was also trying his best to find something for himself. He had attributed the 10 damage he had taken to Lotus Sun's magical equipment.

“You must have a piece of equipment with a [ late-strike ] special effect, right?”

In the Loose Immortal's magic ring, there was an extremely low probability that a piece of equipment would trigger different special effects during the process of dropping or forging.

For example, the previously mentioned [ unrestricted level ] weapon was a weapon that could cross levels. Even if the weapon's level was higher than a character's level, it could still be activated.

Another example was old yellow's [ never wear ] and [ never drop upon death ] , which were also special effects.

And the [ strike after strike ] that Xiong Wu mentioned was a type of life-saving special effect that only had a probability of appearing in defensive equipment or accessories. When a special effect was used to take a high-damage attack, it would be activated, the first attack could be limited to a very small range.

However, this value was usually 100 or a few hundred. At the very least, there would be dozens of them.

However, 10 points..

This was the first time that many players had seen such a special effect.

Without a doubt, having such a special effect equipment was worth more than a normal orange grade equipment even if it was violet grade. This was because it was too rare!

Being able to directly withstand an explosive attack at the beginning would be very helpful in raiding dungeons and PVP.

But the truth was that Lotus Sun was very clear about her situation. She knew that she didn't have such special effect equipment at all. She only had high defense and high HP.

But Xiong Wu was obviously a tough guy. He didn't believe that he could even kill a black dragon. Killing a heavy armor cultivator would be so exhausting! When his greatsword struck the black dragon's Mountain of dragon scales, it was instantly torn into pieces

"Next attack, I'm going to be serious!" In the air, he shouted while riding on his flying elephant. In the next second, his appearance changed. His long golden hair was disheveled, and even his pupils turned dark gold, a demonic light burst out.

The sect master... had switched to the violent mode!

Many people kept quiet about this scene. Li Bai and Mang Shan were even more familiar with Xiong Wu's change in appearance, because this was Xiong Wu's usual operation in the dungeon, by superimposing various special effects on equipment to achieve such a seemingly transformed effect, not only did his attributes increase by several times, but also.., the halo bonuses, the color of his hair, and the color of his eyes that came with the special effects could even transform him in a short period of time, giving him a faint sense of oppression.

"This is too much. He's using his level to flaunt his power."

Mang Shan couldn't stand it any longer. He was about to step forward to help, but was stopped by Li Bai.

Li Bai: "Let's take a look first. If there's really danger, we can attack later."

Li Bai had a good eye for people. From the first moment he saw Lotus Sun, he had felt that this deputy general wasn't a simple character. Moreover, he had a feeling that the blade that had struck Lotus Sun at the very beginning.., the 10 hp that had been inflicted was definitely not caused by the special effects of the equipment.

Very soon!

Mighty Martial's next attack began. Golden Flames covered the greatsword, and an even larger golden moonlight slashed down across the sky. There were flames and electric sparks, and sizzling sounds kept coming out of it. It was incomparably terrifying.

The power of this sword light seemed to be enough to split a mountain, but Lotus Sun still chose to stay where she was in the face of this attack. She didn't Dodge or Dodge at all, as if she was sure to take this attack.

In the end, the two collided, and a deafening sound once again exploded, and dust rose up in the air as they collided. Then, the dust dispersed bit by bit with the strong wind.

The crowd rubbed their eyes, and were astonished to find that Lotus Sun was still standing there. She was as thick as an immovable five elements mountain, displaying the defensive ability of a demon king!

Looking at the damage, Xiong Wu had indeed used all his strength in this attack... and dealt three times the damage to Lotus Sun!

A full... 30 points!

Everyone was stunned. Was this really Xiong Wu's attack that had switched to a violent form? He had only managed to cut Lotus Sun's health by 30 drops..

This was too ridiculous!

Many people were shocked. Between Lotus Sun and Xiong Wu, they had been checked for more than a dozen levels... the combined damage from two attacks from an opponent that was higher than them didn't even reach 60!

It wasn't even close to the passing mark!

"I told you, this deputy general is no ordinary person," Li Bai said. He was completely relieved. Although floating cloud town was a novice village, it was indeed full of hidden dragons and Crouching Tigers, moreover, this was the first time he had seen this type of heavy-armored cultivator. He was very curious as to how Lotus Sun had stacked her defense so high.

"I've never seen a reverse-level difference that can block damage..." Mang Shan was also speechless.

"I don't think this deputy general is the only one who isn't simple. That old Mr. Huang sitting next to him isn't an ordinary person either," Li Bai said. "Did you see that? The weapon on his body. It's something that can never be worn down, that can never be dropped even after death... how can this be something that an ordinary person can have?"

"Brother Li Bai, I understand the logic. But I just want to know, if this deputy general and crouching dragon are already so outrageous, then how abnormal is the great general behind Floating Cloud Town?" Mang Shan said in astonishment.

Chapter 2155 2,151, Director Wang's Performance (1/86)

Thinking back to Xiong Wu of the four symbols guild, the inventor and creator of the Sword Immortal's various factions, and all kinds of data on paper, whether it was in terms of class advantage, equipment quality, or equipment special effects..., Lotus Sun couldn't be said to have an absolute advantage.

Fighting against the difference in levels had always been regarded as taboo in the game world of the Loose Immortal Child's magical ring. This was an impossible act, not to mention that Lotus Sun was far inferior to Xiong Wu in all aspects, and many players didn't think highly of her.

But a “Miracle” had happened. Lotus Sun’s defense was as strong as an indestructible mountain, neutralizing all sword attacks.

After Xiong Wu’s two strikes, even Xiong Wu himself felt EMO. He was a man who could even kill a black dragon... The Black Dragon in the Black Dragon Cave had thick skin. He held a greatsword in his hand, and no matter how he struck, his skin would be torn open.

However, when it came to the vice-general in front of him, his entire mind exploded with a buzzing sound. He felt that the person he was facing could not be judged by the mentality of a normal player.

After eliminating all the possibilities, the only possibility left was that... the player in front of him might have a “Godly cultivation technique”!

Although this was only a guess, if it was true..

In an instant, Xiong Wu became jealous.

Wasn’t this what he had always yearned for?

After spending so much time in wandering around the world, he had relied on the experience he had accumulated bit by bit to obtain one eye-catching achievement after another.

Using his best field in the real world to analyze classes, then creating various sects, then using the influence of the sects to win the hearts of the people, establish a guild, and lead a team to raid dungeons to obtain equipment.

This would give everyone who followed him the illusion that they would not be able to pass this dungeon without him.

As he obtained the orange equipment one by one, in addition to the growing number of people in the guild, the four symbols Horde, which was formed by professional sword immortal players, rose to fame in the game world of the Wandering Immortal’s magical ring.

It could be said that Xiong Wu had obtained everything he wanted in the game world.

Stronger equipment, stronger summoned spirit beasts, more gorgeous mounts, and so on..

And now, the only thing that he was missing was the legendary divine skill.

This was the most difficult item to obtain in the current world of the itinerant fairy's magical ring.

The skills of the professional faction were relatively fixed. The strongest skill was only purple-quality, and orange-quality divine skill had a very small chance of being obtained from a hidden quest.

He had chased after something for so long... In the end, it had been obtained by a newbie player in a novice village..

This made Xiong Wu extremely jealous.

He could also sense the intense jealousy rising in Xiong Wu's heart.

Wang Ling thought that it was very normal for divine grade skills to be difficult to obtain. After all, when Bai Qiao had designed the Loose Immortal Child Dharma Ring, all the programming logic in the game had been designed according to the framework of the real cultivation world.

What was the concept of a divine grade cultivation method?

It directly corresponded to the Heavenly Dao.

It was already difficult for an ordinary cultivator to comprehend a single Heavenly Dao.

There were even cultivators who had been on the Dao for thousands of years, but had only been able to glimpse the outline of the Heavenly Dao.

Therefore, it was as difficult as ascending to the heavens to comprehend a divine grade cultivation method, even in the game world, when Bai Qiao had changed the probability of it.

But Wang Ling and Lotus Sun were different.

Because they knew the Heavenly Dao.

Although Lotus Sun didn't understand, the current lotus sun had the passive ability to become one with the Ao Hai People's sword, and Ao Hai understood it!

"Impossible! You must have cheated! I want to report you!" On the Mount, Xiong Wu was very direct. He pointed his greatsword at Lotus Sun and crazily stared at her head, wanting to press the -LSB- report ] button.

At the same time, the system received a notification that -LSB- your report has been submitted ] .

However, this wasn't of much use.

In the outside world, Wang Ming was in charge of everything, and he was the manipulator behind the scenes. He didn't even look at Lotus Sun's report and directly rejected it.

He didn't even enter the deliberation stage, and directly sank like a stone into the ocean..

At the same time, Xiong Wu's fight against the plague caused a lot of discussion among the players present. In their memories, they had never seen Xiong Wu lose his composure like this.

"What right do you have to say that she's cheating? What proof do you have?"

"Just based on her! She hasn't even played for 48 hours and she actually has a divine skill on her body! This is simply impossible!"

"Just because you can't get it yourself doesn't mean that others can't get it. It's a matter of probability anyway!" "And this deputy general is obviously not a newbie player. Otherwise, how could she have leveled up so quickly?" "Maybe she already knows how to get the skill through a hidden quest!" One of Lotus Sun's supporters retorted online.

“You guys are really a pack of snakes and rats... I think your floating cloud town is rotten to the core!”

Xiong Wu was so embarrassed that he flew into a rage and roared.

At this moment, Li Bai and Mang Shan also got off their mounts at the same time. They were worried that Xiong Wu would attack these players who spoke the truth.

But Xiong Wu still refused to admit defeat. He gritted his teeth and glared at Lotus Sun. “You vice-general! Are you cheating? ! What right do you have to manage floating cloud town as an agent? ! Don’t you! Don’t you have a business license? ! Don’t you belong to! Illegal Business!”

Hearing this, Mang Shan couldn’t hold it in any longer. He took a step forward and then stomped on the ground in front of him. “Retreat! -- retreat! -- Retreat!”

Xiong Wu couldn’t hold it in at all. His greatsword was once again ablaze with flames, and his entire body swelled up as he unleashed his most powerful cultivation technique.

The difference in size several times that of Lotus Sun made him look like a huge bear at the moment. He had transformed into a giant, and his body, which blotted out the sky and covered the Sun, was like a black cloud that covered all the players in front of him.

But even so, he was still no match for Lotus Sun.

In the general’s mansion, Wang Ling watched all of this. He knew that he was no match for her.

She also knew that he was no match for her. If he stepped on her, Xiong Wu might even be directly injured by Lotus Sun’s high defense.

But..

Wang Ling just didn’t want Xiong Wu to step on him.

And so, at the critical moment...

Wang Ling made his move.

No one had expected that this general of floating cloud town would appear in front of everyone at this time.

No one had expected that this general of floating cloud town... was actually only level one..

Level One?

Wasn't he just courting death?

Xiong Wu was a level 65 sword immortal professional player!

He was one of the few players who surpassed the current level of the world!

However, when they looked at his HP, everyone could not hold themselves back anymore.

Because this level 1 player..

Had 100 million (1,000,000,000/1,000,000,000) hp!

Chapter 2156 2,152, Director Wang's Performance (2)(1/86)

At the critical moment, Wang Ling instantly appeared on stage, and this city lord-level figure of floating cloud town instantly attracted everyone's attention.

A lot of people looked over and saw that the nickname displayed above Wang Ling's head was indeed different from that of an ordinary player. It read "Floating cloud town general", and even the font color was the same as that of an NPC.

This was the advantage of having multiple identities. If Wang Ling wanted to, he could also change his nickname to "Floating cloud town's Hundred Cave Demon Lord."

As long as Wang Ling didn't take the initiative to expose himself, no one would ever know his true identity.

Even if Lotus Sun and Old Huang had suspected him a long time ago, there was no evidence to prove that Wang Ling was a real person and not a mere NPC in the game.

The two of them had tested Wang Ling many times, and their initial stubbornness had long since changed to lying flat, just as Lotus Sun had said.

They had passed the Turing test and asked Wang Ling over a hundred questions, and in the end, Wang Ling had given a specific answer to each question. Even if they messed up the order of the questions and asked them again, Wang Ling's answers hadn't been wrong at all.

This was outrageous!

Lotus Sun's defense was originally as high as a city wall in everyone's eyes, and the 5,000-drop high-defense heavy-armored cultivator was a rare species, a rare creature like a panda.

But..

They had never even heard of an "NPC" with 100 million drops of blood.

F * * K!

How could an NPC have 100 million drops of blood! Even the black dragon BOSS in the Black Dragon Cave only had five million drops of blood!

Was a creature with 100 million blood really real? !

When many people saw Wang Ling appear on stage, their faces were filled with disbelief. They had never imagined that there would actually be a level 1... Strange creature with 100 million blood in the game world of the itinerant fairy child's dharma ring.

Many people were stupefied.

The scene immediately fell into silence.

Li Bai and Mang Shan fell into deep thought.

Even the previously arrogant Xiong Wu became silent.

In that instant, Xiong Wu felt that his voice just now was indeed a little loud..

He shouldn't have been so arrogant..

But the atmosphere had already reached this point. If he retreated at this time, it wasn't Xiong Wu's style.

It had to be known that the members of the four divisions that had come with Xiong Wu were all core sword immortal players; which one of them hadn't been personally taught by him?

Although the "NPC" standing in front of him had a frightening amount of health, he was only Level 1 after all!

Xiong Wu told himself in his heart that there was nothing to be afraid of!

The Loose Immortal Child's magic ring had the most powerful mechanism of checks and balances. Although an NPC like this had a high amount of health, its defense must be very low! This strike of his might have taken hundreds of thousands of HP!

But what Xiong Wu didn't expect was that he was right. Wang Ling, who had one hundred million drops of HP, had the same thought.

He was wondering how many drops of HP Could Xiong Wu cut him with this strike?

Wang Ling had two god-level cultivation techniques on him. One of them was called “God’s descent”, which was mainly used to stack HP, and the other was called “Defying the heavens and changing fate”, which was a passive ability that was specifically used to counter opponents of a higher level.

On the map in front of him, the group of four symbols was coming menacingly. Xiong Wu alone was a full level 64 ahead of him, in addition to the other contestants.

Mm..

Right now, Wang Ling had already obtained thousands of attribute points just by using the god-level cultivation technique “Defying the heavens and changing fate” to counter the difference in level.

In other words, his overall attribute value was several times higher than Lotus Sun’s. That defensive drama wasn’t a city wall, but a 24-carat titanium alloy dragon iron sheet!

“I don’t care who you are. If you obstruct my four elephants, you’ll die!” Xiongwu held his greatsword and was furious at Wang Ling’s arrival. At the same time, there was an unknown fear in his heart, after all, he had never seen a creature with 100 million blood since he had started playing the game, which was really ridiculous.

Wang Ling’s expression was very calm, and he didn’t take Xiongwu’s words seriously at all.

He raised his sword fingers and used spirit Qi to form a sword in front of him, directly cutting a deep ravine with golden flames burning on it. The blazing flames shocked everyone.

This was another immortal spell that no one had ever seen before..

While Wang Ling was meditating in the general’s mansion, he had also learned a vast number of spells by analyzing Bai Qiao’s programming thinking. Now that he had opened Wang Ling’s skill tree, the number of skills on it was dazzling, and all of them were orange-colored divine items.

It could be said that even in the game world of the Loose Immortal Child’s Dharma Ring, Wang Ling was a complete BUG.

“You’re courting death!” Xiong Wu stepped forward, and finally couldn’t hold it in any longer, and attacked Wang Ling with his greatsword.

He knew very well that the gully Wang Ling had cut was a warning to them not to cross the lightning pool, or else they would bear the consequences.

But it was just like what Xiong Wu knew.

The atmosphere had already reached this point, and he couldn’t back down anymore; otherwise, his reputation, which he had worked so hard to build up, would be directly destroyed, and he would become the laughingstock of everyone here.

Soon, he moved. After dismounting from his mount, Xiong Wu held a greatsword in his hand, and his seemingly heavy body was actually extremely fast. Xiong Wu was the founder of Violent Sword Immortal, in addition, he was also the first player to raise the attack speed of a two-handed greatsword to above 5.0 in the game world of itinerant fairy child’s dharma ring.

It was very difficult for ordinary greatsword players to raise their attack speed!

But Xiong Wu had purely relied on his equipment and all sorts of equipment enchantments to raise his attributes to the extreme!

Five slashes per second could actually be done on a violent sword player, which was inconceivable to many people.

Wang Ling stood motionlessly on the spot. He was still wearing the mask of the general of floating cloud town, and his entire body was covered in light armor.

As Xiong Wu approached, countless Golden Greatsword Phantoms appeared behind him. In that instant, every player on the scene could clearly feel the pressure Xiong Wu brought.

“Sword! Come!”

He roared, and in an instant, the Greatsword in his hand, along with the Phantoms behind him, turned into a thousand sword lights that simultaneously attacked.

“Thousands of Thunderbolts... This is the move that Xiong Wu used against that black dragon...”

Li Bai and Mang Shan had both entered dungeons with Xiong Wu a few times. They were both shocked by Xiong Wu’s decision at the same time.

He had actually used the move that he had used against the black dragon at the end of the most difficult dungeon. He had used it directly against an NPC who was on the sidelines..

When this move had struck the black dragon, it had at least a critical hit of several hundred thousand health!

Xiong Wu would then need to go through a long cooldown before he could use it a second time. This was a major move that couldn’t be used consecutively in a short period of time, and could be considered one of Xiong Wu’s few ultimate skills.

Li Bai and Mang Shan had the same opinion. After all, this general of floating cloud town was only level 1..

Although he had a lot of HP, his defense might be very impressive. He had already used this mighty martial art, and the Black Dragon’s damage was in the hundreds of thousands, so it should have at least dealt millions of damage to Wang Ling, right?

The result was very quickly out of everyone’s expectations

The damage that mighty martial art had dealt to Wang Ling was..

Miss..

Chapter 2157 2,153, Director Wang’s Performance (3)(1/86)

This was an outcome that no one had expected. It was beyond the expectations of every player here. They had imagined that the damage dealt by Xiong Wu’s sword would definitely be in the millions, or at the very least in the hundreds of thousands.

Although it wasn’t as if they hadn’t thought that this sword would only hit an absurd number of digits, it was a little hard to accept that it had missed.

When a capital Miss appeared in front of everyone's eyes, and with a very cheeky leap, it slowly disappeared above Wang Ling's head, everyone present sucked in a breath of cold air.

No one had expected this outcome. The purple Miss text was right above Wang Ling's head, but it was as dazzling as a sun.

However, an even more astonishing scene happened soon after. After Xiong Wu's sword attack, this "General of floating cloud town" shot out rays of golden light from all over his body, piercing through the air like a bright sun.

At this moment, for the first time, the game world of the itinerant immortal child's magic ring felt like a God had descended.

Wang Ling's body slowly floated up into the sky.

He sighed softly. Although he had thought that Xiong Wu's sword strike might not cause much damage to him, he hadn't expected it to be so direct.

But he hadn't expected it to be so direct.

Moreover, this "Miss" had also triggered the new god-level cultivation method, "Eight Desolation Nine Heavens Spell," which Wang Ling had unexpectedly comprehended when he had been sitting in the general's residence on the passive side.

This was also a cultivation method that was programmed according to the logic of the Heavenly Dao. Its passive ability was to automatically trigger when an attack with a damage value of more than 100,000 points was dodged.

In other words, Xiong Wu's attack just now had indeed dealt a lot of damage -- at least 100,000 hp or more. For Wang Ling, it was already a small fraction of his 100 million HP, this was already quite an impressive achievement.

Unfortunately, because Wang Ling's evading value was higher than other players', and in addition to his high luck attribute, he had dodged the damage directly.

Then, the “Eight desolation nine heavens technique” was triggered just like that..

This was originally a godly skill that could save lives. When triggered by a cultivation technique, it could last for ten minutes in real life.

In this 10-minute state, Wang Ling will also receive the following effects.

Attack Speed + 200%

Skill Cooldown-95%

Mana cost-95%

Attribute Values + 500 points

Physical Resistance + 75%

Spell Resistance + 75%

Neutralize enemy physical resistance + 75%

Negates enemy spell resistance by 75%

Your maximum mana cost will be increased by 200% when cast

Your Mount's speed will be increased by 200%

Without a mount, your mount will be increased by 100%

Your Spirit Beast loyalty will not be affected during this period

You can summon Spirit Beasts to battle in greater numbers than the maximum limit

Your Spirit Beast will also receive 20% of all your attribute points as a bonus

In battle, your opponent's spirit beast will be affected by this skill aura and will be overall reduced by 60%

All enemies couldn't summon new Spirit Beasts

All enemies' attributes would be reduced by 20%

Wang Ling glanced at this stat sheet, which looked as if it had been opened for cheats, and immediately fell into deep thought.

In fact, he felt that using the word "Invincible" could directly summarize all of the above?

There was no need to go through so much trouble..

But it could only be said that Bai Qiao was indeed Bai Qiao. Wang Ling could tell that Bai Qiao had definitely designed this arrangement meticulously, and that it was based on the game's rationality.

It had to be known that the reason why the Loose Immortal Child's magic ring was so popular with so many players was because the game was sufficiently fair.

The probability of obtaining everything was fixed, and everyone had a chance to obtain it.

It was just that it was really rare for so many ridiculous god-level orange skills to appear on one person at the same time.

"I believe it now; this is definitely an NPC... how can a normal player be so ridiculous?" Mang Shan crossed his arms as if he was watching a show. At first, he had thought that this general of floating cloud town was a real player pretending to be one.

But now, he would rather believe that Wang Ling was an NPC because it was really too ridiculous. Although Mang Shan and Li Bai had long heard that the probability of obtaining an orange divine grade skill in loose immortal's dharmic ring was so low that it was dust, once it was obtained..., it would be a qualitative leap.

Wasn't the reason why Xiong Wuxin had spent so many times clearing treasure chests in Black Dragon Cave All for an orange divine grade skill?

In the end, the thing they hadn't seen all day could reappear on the same player.

"Intruders, die."

Wang Ling was still standing behind his cordon line. The spell halos that had been stacked all over his body were dazzling as he stood under the Sun. At that moment, he was the sun, and it was so strong that it made people's hair stand on end.

Even if he hadn't made a move, the astonishing pressure was still there. Many people below felt suffocated, and under this pressure, they felt as if they couldn't breathe.

Bang! Bang! Bang! ..

Below the field, the members of the four divisions riding their mounts all felt the mounts beneath them emit a huge wave of fear. They all dissipated on the spot and were directly scared back to their spiritual grounds, turning into a cloud of smoke.

Then, one by one, the sword immortal players of the four divisions fell from the sky uncontrollably, smashing into the ground and creating individual pits.

Everything happened too suddenly.

The pressure brought by the general in front of him was suffocating.

And the most unbelievable thing was that the opponent... was only level 1!

This was really the strongest battle against the difference in levels.

Xiong Wu gritted his teeth. No matter how tough he was, he knew that if he fought head-on, he would definitely die. If he died in battle, he would not only lose money, but also the orange equipment that he had painstakingly obtained through daily dungeon raids.

Even for the sake of the overall situation, Xiong Wu felt that he had to calm down now and not advance rashly.

However, with his retreat, the glory of the four symbols horde would no longer exist.

In the days to come, the rules of this game would be completely rewritten. Those newbies who knew that floating cloud town had such a number one general guarding the city would surely come here to do missions and seek protection, right?

For a moment, Xiong Wu's thoughts were a myriad of things.

Through his divine eye, Wang Ling could read Xiong Wu's thoughts.

He wanted him to protect so many players?

He was really thinking too much..

This was just a game. Even if he was strong, he wouldn't be so bored as to take care of so many people.

As for why he had appeared at this time...

Wang Ling glanced at Lotus Sun.

This was a very strange emotion, which Wang Ling didn't quite understand. In any case, when he saw that Xiong Wu was going to step on Lotus Sun after his body had grown stronger, he felt a little emotional.

Then, Wang Ling no longer hesitated and decided to make his move.

There was no other reason.

Wang Ling just felt that Xiong Wu's behavior was very impolite.

"Let's Go!" In the end, Xiong Wu gritted his teeth and led his troops away from floating cloud town in a dejected manner.

This was also the first time Xiong Wu had lowered his head. In front of so many players, especially Li Bai and Mang Shan, he felt like he had lost face.

Chapter 2158 2,154, Mr. Hidden Fox's Business Plan (1/86)

Xiong Wu was defeated.

After he left, not only did Xiong Wu lose all of his face, but the entire four divisions had also become a target of public criticism. Due to the importance of the dungeon, many players wanted to clear the dungeon, they had no choice but to cooperate with the four divisions, so they dared not speak out when they bullied the rookies.

In this battle, Xiong Wu was defeated by an "NPC" from floating cloud town. This caused the players of the entire world to boil.

For a time, many people began to voice their condemnation. When one person stood up to challenge Xiong Wu's authority, there would be a continuous stream of successors swarming over.

It was also thanks to Xiong Wu that many rookie players felt that they had found a new haven -- floating cloud town.

Many new players did not feel that when they encountered a small problem of being chased by monsters, this general would take the initiative to protect them, but at the very least, if they were to suffer injustice!

For example, when they were being bullied due to the difference in levels.

Then this general of floating cloud town would definitely not sit idly by, right?

This general of floating cloud town was only level 1!

Wasn't this clearly telling the players that the NPC general's real purpose was to protect high-level players from bullying newbies.

After the battle with Xiong Wu, Wang Ling returned to the general's residence and continued to silently recite the chant for "Heavenly God descends to earth" to accumulate HP.

At the same time, he glanced at everyone's conclusion.

It could only be said that the players' imagination was really strong, but whether or not he made a move depended on the timing.

He wouldn't make a move in every battle.

Furthermore, Wang Ling had a faint feeling that this battle was over, and Lotus Sun was even more suspicious of him.

In addition, some bold and careful players started to dig through the system's updates to confirm whether he was really a player or an NPC.

After all, the appearance of such a BUG-level NPC in a novice village was a major change, and it was impossible for the system's update announcement not to mention it at all.

Some players felt that perhaps they had overlooked it in the past, or perhaps they had missed out on some important details.

Wang Ling ignored these players' suspicions.

Because it was a normal phenomenon.

It was impossible to change everyone's thinking according to what you thought, just like how you thought.

To sum it up, there were now three groups of players discussing his identity.

Some people thought that he was a real NPC.

Some people thought that he was a real player pretending to be one, but only a small portion of them believed that he was an NPC. After all, if he was a real player, it would be a little too outrageous.

The third group of people had even more novel ideas. They thought that Wang Ling was a hidden NPC.

What was a hidden NPC?

Such npcs wouldn't normally appear in public, but would act when necessary, but in reality, they were manipulated by game administrators.

And this perfectly explained why Wang Ling had so many god-level cultivation techniques.

After all, to GM, no matter how precious and rare these things were, they were just a bunch of data.

So what would happen in the future?

Wang Ling himself was also extremely curious.

He sat cross-legged in the general's mansion and watched his health bar continuously rise, his heart still calm.

He had already completed one small target.

His final target was to stack up to ten small targets.

For now, Wang Ling still needed time.

On the other side, Lotus Sun and Old Huang were busy at the Wolong recruitment office. After the battle with Xiong Wu, new players kept applying to join, and the whole of floating cloud town instantly became famous.

To put it bluntly, the Wolong Agreement was a mutual development agreement. Joining floating cloud town meant that in the future, you could obtain corresponding city resources that matched your city contribution.

It could be considered an investment.

And once you joined, it also meant that the Wolong people wouldn't be able to voluntarily withdraw from Wolong recruitment for the next 30 days. They would need to apply and get Lotus Sun's approval.

Strictly speaking, this was a little similar to recruiting employees.

Lotus Sun and Old Huang were now equivalent to HR, and Wang Ling hadn't expected that young people who loved to show off so much in this day and age would actually fight for a job one day.

As it turned out, young people nowadays were actually quite ambitious. As long as you gave them the perfect treatment, why worry about them not working hard enough?

On the other side, the continuous news from floating cloud town also made Mr. Hidden Fox, who was not far away, feel an itch in his heart. He had wanted to go and take a look for a long time, and he had always had such an obsession in his heart.

But now, Mr. Hidden Fox felt that it was not the time yet. At the beginning of the game, during the rookie stage, some people came for levels, some came for experience, and Mr. Hidden Fox's goal was very clear, he was there to accumulate wealth.

It sounded a little vulgar, but Mr. Hidden Fox felt that for people like him who did not know how to play games, the only way out was to earn money and hire people to bring him along.

Fortunately, his knowledge was profound enough.

Under the cover of the hired motorcade, Mr. Hidden Fox successfully refined the spiritual plants and mushrooms he collected in the wild into pills and sold them in the nearby towns.

High-quality hemostatic medicine was a necessity in the eyes of any player. It was useful for survival in the wild and for exiting dungeons. However, hemostatic medicine was expensive. The ones that the town pharmacies specialized in were not cheap. Each one cost more than 20 taels of silver, this was simply adding insult to injury for many players.

As for Mr. Hidden Fox, he just had to set up his stall next to the pharmacies and sell medicinal pills with the same effect. However, the price was only 50% of the pharmacies' exclusive supply

Most importantly, the medicine in the pharmacy could not be taken continuously. The effect of the second treatment would be reduced by half.

Many players who passed by Mr. Hidden Fox's stall were surprised to find that the medicine in Mr. Hidden Fox's stall did not have such a limit!

"Brother, did you refine the medicine yourself?"

The players who passed by were shocked. "How many pills do you have on you?"

"I only have 200 pills at the moment."

"Ten taels for one pill, I'll buy them all!"

The player said generously.

But Mr. Hidden Fox was not such a stupid person.

He was a seller of medicine, but he did not work for others. Other than selling his own pills, he also had to strictly control the circulation of the market.

Otherwise, if a large amount of cheap good medicine appeared in the hands of one person, who knew if that person would increase the price and sell it somewhere else?

Thus, after Mr. Hidden Fox smiled, he mysteriously raised two fingers and said, “Each person is limited to two pills.”

That’s right..

Although Mr. Hidden Fox thought that hunger marketing was very shameless, sometimes this trick could have a miraculous effect.

When he said this, the corner of the mouth of the player in front of him twitched. He stared at Mr. Hidden Fox’s stall and felt an itch in his heart. He really wanted to buy all of it.

Unfortunately, he limited his purchases. In the end, he only took out two pills of silver.

Just as Mr. Hidden Fox had thought, he never had to worry about selling cheap and good medicine.

The level 3 wild blood recovery pills that he had refined in the wild were in short supply. They directly brought him 2,000 taels of silver.

The net income was more than 1,980 taels of silver.

In that case, as long as he continued to repeat the process and hire better teams or players, he could go deep into dangerous areas and collect better spiritual plants to refine higher-level pills.

In that case, he might be able to purchase this pharmacy in front of him in the near future.

Chapter 2159 2,155: Hello, Boss Qin (1/86)

According to the game’s terminology, Mr. Hidden Fox’s actions were considered as carrying bricks, but the way he carried the bricks was much more advanced than the average player.

In the game world of the wandering immortal fa Huan, the most common way to carry bricks was to catch spiritual beasts.

There were guild players who, in their daily guild quests, had a high probability of receiving a quest to catch spiritual beasts. Some players, for convenience, would go to the market and buy ready-made bricks with cash.

Hence, a brick-moving industry chain was born.

There were risks involved in capturing Spirit Beasts. Hence, the price of Spirit Beasts for Guild quests would usually increase by 10% on the Spirit Beast itself

On the other hand, Mr. Hidden Fox's alchemy was even more advanced.

His train of thought was very clear.

He would first rely on selling at a discount to accumulate customers. Once he made money, it would mean that he could refine even more advanced medicinal herbs. At that time, he would raise the price again. The other players who bought the herbs would not have any objections.

Most importantly, there was no limit to how much hp could be replenished. It was really quite tempting.

It was much more cost-effective than directly buying in a pharmacy.

In addition, Mr. Hidden Fox's hunger marketing tricks had caused his small medicine stall to line up in the town.

The nearby pharmacy was open, but no one came to buy the medicine. This made the NPC, the owner of the pharmacy, feel depressed.

In the end, the owner of the pharmacy could not hold on any longer.

He saw that Mr. Hidden Fox's business was getting bigger and bigger, so he could not help but submit an application to Mr. Hidden Fox, intending to rent the shop.

Seeing that his plan was successful, Mr. Hidden Fox could not help but laugh. He was clearly a very reserved person, and no matter how funny he was, he would not laugh.

To Mr. Hidden Fox, taking over this shop was not the key, but he had his eyes set on the ready-made spirit herbs in this medicine shop.

This also meant that Mr. Hidden Fox did not have to hire a convoy to risk his life to collect spirit herbs in the dangerous jungle like before. This medicine shop had a mature supply chain, and the system would refresh the herbs every day, he only needed to be in charge of refining and selling the herbs.

His gaze returned to the mechanical city that had the most futuristic and technological sense in the world of the wandering fairy child's FA Huan.

Not long after the kidnapping incident ended, the news of Xiong Wu and the others fleeing in a panic came from floating cloud town. As one of the members of the four symbols horde, Li Ziyue, who was a Feng System Sword Immortal, simply could not accept this outcome.

Originally, the friction between him and Qin Zong and Xiang Yi was already a blow to him. He did not expect this double blow to come so quickly..

The four divisions had suddenly fallen from its peak to the target of everyone's criticism. This sense of difference made every sword immortal player who joined the four divisions feel it.

It was obvious that Li Ziyue was in a very low mood. However, Qin Zong and Xiang Yi more or less knew what kind of organization the four divisions were.

They brought Ling Ziyue to a high-class inn in machine city. The price for a night there was 1,000 taels of silver.

Normal players would definitely be reluctant to part with it.

However, Qin Zong and Xiang Yi had a huge amount of money on them. Even if they stayed in one, it would not be too much of a problem.

When the inn owner saw that Qin Zong and Xiang Yi's levels were very low, he felt that it was easy to trick the newbies. He even asked the two of them to get a card. He said that as long as they filled up the amount, they would be able to withdraw cash. The highest amount they could withdraw would be 300% cash, in other words, they would be able to draw as much as they wanted. Moreover, the owner promised that all the money in the card could be withdrawn at any time.

When it came to drawing the lottery, Qin Zong became excited. He had never seen such a man who would send himself to draw the lottery.

He had charged two million in one go.

In the end, not only did Qin Zong have six million taels of silver on him, he had also become the owner of this inn..

This ling Ziye couldn't be messed with anymore.

He realized that this man's luck was simply terrifying.

Not to mention that he was a sword immortal of the element, not to mention that he couldn't seal it, even this kind of high-class inn could be bought by lottery..

He had never seen such a ridiculous operation.

A high-class inn located in the machine city could be bought by five million.

This round of lottery by Qin Zong had bankrupted the entire inn, so he was forced to become the new boss here.

"Boss Qin, here's your tea."The former female boss obediently picked up the tea and put it down one by one in front of Qin Zong, Xiang Yi, and Li Ziye. Then, she respectfully twisted her graceful figure and left.

"Who are the two of you... ?"Li Ziye was shocked.

He was extremely scared.

Especially when he was facing Qin Zong, a man whose fate was unknown, he had a deep fear.

“You don’t need to know who we are, but you’d better give yourself a chance.”Qin Zong took a sip of tea and said to Li Ziyue.

“Brothers... I’m stupid, I don’t know if I can be more clear...”

Qin Zong and Xiang Yi looked at each other, and then Xiang Yi took the initiative to say, “You should know what kind of organization the four symbols horde is in reality.”

“Of course I know that.”

Li Ziyue nodded, the answer was smooth. “This is the branch left behind by the Sword Immortal Fan Rui, who created the Wuji Sword sect. It’s said that it was created by one of his disciples, Evil Sword God. Unfortunately, this branch doesn’t follow the right path and causes trouble everywhere.”

“Since you know so much, why did you choose to join?”Xiang Yi asked.

“This... is just a game... why do you need to be so serious?”Li Ziyue was stunned.

“What else do you know about the four divisions?”

“I also know that the legendary leader of the four divisions is Xiong Wu. Behind him are three people who stand side by side with Xiong Wu, Zhu Zhen, Snow Tiger, and Green Dragon. These four people each control different sword techniques, and their strength is outstanding. In real life, they were once A-rank wanted criminals...”

“Then it seems that you are very familiar with the situation of the four divisions.”

At this moment, Qin Zong took a deep breath and looked at Li Ziyue. “Then what if I tell you that the four divisions in the game were established by these four people?”

When he said this, Li Ziyue was dumbfounded on the spot. “No... It can’t be? How is this possible... doesn’t the game have a real name system?”

“Nowadays, even devilish children know how to find their grandparents’ ID cards to log into the game and pretend to be adults.”

Xiang Yi ridiculed, “You should know that nowadays, those old and old grandparents who roam the Summoner’s canyon may have a devilish child standing behind them.”

Li Ziyue was instantly rendered speechless by these words.

Indeed.

If the four symbols horde in the game was really a criminal gang, then it would be much easier for them to get fake identities than normal people.

“Then... What do you two brothers want me to do...” Li Ziyue was stunned.

He didn’t expect such a ridiculous thing to happen to him.

Qin Zong replied, “You’re an old member of the four symbols horde. Logically speaking, it shouldn’t be too difficult to introduce us to the four symbols Horde, right?”

Chapter 2160 2,156, Undercover Plan (1/86)

All along, the four divisions had committed many crimes, and most of the fugitives had fled overseas. It was very difficult to catch them.

After all, they were the disciples brought out by Evil Sword God, and evil sword God knew them well. According to evil sword God’s confession, Green Dragon, Snow Tiger, Zhu Yi, and Xiong Wu all had strong anti-detection awareness, it wouldn’t be that easy to catch them.

Especially since evil sword God had been caught, according to the research of the overseas criminals’ escape team of the cultivation police station, the escape team was sure that they had never come back.

The arrest of Evil Sword God was a warning to them, but not coming back at this stage didn't mean that they wouldn't find a chance to come back in the future.

The cultivation police department had been worried that the four symbols army might still be planning some big plan, such as rescuing evil sword God after the prison break.

This was the situation that the cultivation police department was most worried about. The prison break wasn't a big deal, but they were afraid that the people who had broken into the prison were all lunatics, and they were all lunatics with a plan.

If they really decided to set off to rescue evil sword God, then the pressure the cultivation police department would face would be even greater.

So rather than being apprehensive all the time, it was better to act early and arrest them together.

For this reason, the cultivation police department had long since contacted Huaxiu Alliance for assistance, and Huaxiu Alliance had also taken the initiative to find Zhan Zong.

Thus, Odd Zhuo had now entered the game as a GM to coordinate with Qin Zong and Xiang Yi to lock down the specific IP coordinates of these four people.

A few of them even entered the game to assist Wang Ling and Lotus Sun in their development, which was the second-in-line side mission. The current main mission was to locate their real IP coordinates.

After the capture was completed, the mission to assist Wang Ling and Lotus Sun in their development would naturally become the next main mission.

You could never imagine how cautious a group of extremely vicious criminals could be at this juncture.

“Why does it need to be so complicated? Didn't they say that the gaming cabin of the Wandering Fairy's Dharma Ring has a crime detection system?”

Li Ziyue was puzzled. "Once a criminal is found playing the game, the gaming cabin can be directly sealed and the crispy noodles gas can be released. When the criminal thinks that he is playing the game, the gaming cabin can be launched on the spot and teleported to the designated location

"But these are all things that happen in an ideal state, aren't they?"

Qin Zong raised his eyebrows, he said, "These people have faced the pursuit of the cultivation police department for so long, from the overseas escape team to the help of the international cultivation criminal police, but there has been no news of them for so many years. This proves that they are much more cautious than we thought."

Xiang Yi touched his chin and nodded slightly. "Brother Qin is right. If it were me, I wouldn't have entered the game cabin by myself. "Instead, I would first place a dummy in the game cabin, and then use other spells to make a neural connection between the dummy and the real body. "In this way, I can play the game normally even outside the game cabin. "The key is that I won't be controlled by the game cabin anymore."

"Then, these people are going all out to play the game..."

After hearing this, Li Ziyue was greatly shocked.

In order to play a game, he had to fake his ID card, make a fake body double, and even establish a neural link... This wasn't something that an ordinary cultivator could do, right?

"Alright, I Promise You. But let me say this first. I'm purely doing this out of friendship, out of the basic philosophy of a good citizen,"Li Ziyue said reluctantly.

Although he was basically in a state of "Committing all kinds of evil" in the game, it wasn't bad to return to his human nature.

Just like Li Ziyue said, this was just a game after all.

So sometimes it wasn't necessary to be too calculative.

“Really! ?”Li Ziyue was tempted.

This was something he could brag about for the rest of his life!

Huaxiu Alliance’s Commendation Token!

There was no need to say anything more about the value of this thing!

“Don’t worry, I’ll definitely introduce the two of you!”At this time, Li Ziyue blew on his nose and suddenly patted his chest.

On the other side, after returning to the four divisions guild, Xiong Wu’s mood had always been very low.

Many guild members kept quiet. They knew their guild leader’s personality. From the start, he had always been a very strong person. This time, he had lost face in floating cloud town.

It was obvious that Martial Xiong would find his way back no matter what.

In the meeting room in the real world, Green Dragon, Snow Tiger, Zhu Yu, and Martial Xiong were currently in a meeting.

They took off the neural data connection with the dummy in the game cabin and had a private meeting in the real world.

The main content of today’s meeting was: How to take revenge on floating cloud town.

A slender youth, a youth with a whip said in a cold voice, “Big Brother, you know me well. I have always advocated taking revenge on the spot, and I suspect that the city Lord is definitely not an NPC. His words and actions have a high probability of being a real player.”

After saying that, Xiong Wu looked at Snow Tiger.

Snow tiger straightened his muscular body and said, “Big Brother, you know me well. “I have always sought to pick the weak ones. Since those people all want to go to floating cloud town, and floating cloud town has a city lord who I don’t know if it is an NPC protecting it. “We might as well set up checkpoints around floating cloud town and kill all the players who want to go to Floating Cloud Town!”

Then, Xiong Wu looked at Zhu Yi.

Zhu Yi’s voice was long and thin, there was a sense of hidden blade in his smile. “Big Brother, you know me well. In fact, I have the same opinion as Green Dragon. That person’s HP is too high. As far as the game is concerned, we won’t be able to find a strategy in the short term. If that person is a real person, it will be easier for us.”

Xiong Wu showed an interested expression.

Zhu Yi sighed and said, “Big Brother, my method is still very simple. “Since we can’t get rid of the person in the game, then we’ll get rid of the person outside the game. “If he’s a real person, then we’ll just get rid of him directly. “Green Dragon has the resources in this area. If this person is real, we might be able to directly find his coordinates. “Then, we can ask Green Dragon to hack into the system.”

“But isn’t that too risky?”Xiong Wu frowned.

Zhu Zhu waved his hand and smiled, “When did big brother become so timid? If Big Brother is really worried, I can use my sword Qi to track him from afar. As long as my sword Qi touches it, no matter what it is, it will explode!”

Xiong wu slammed the table, “F * ck! Find this person! Kill him!”
