Chapter 2161 A Thousand Miles To Deliver A Nuclear Bomb

You never know how hard a group of fugitives will work to get into the game.

As a veteran gamer, the first person to discover the game was green dragon. He accidentally saw the introduction of closed beta on the game forum and felt an itch in his heart.

Ever since evil sword god was arrested, they had been hiding overseas for a long time. They were very cautious in everything, which resulted in their extreme lack of freedom in the past.

The wandering immortal child's Dharma Ring was an alternative way for them to find freedom.

Green Dragon was a gaming expert, but he was also a technical nerd. He knew that the game cabin had a criminal positioning system, and it was very likely that it would detect that they were fugitives.

Therefore, it was green dragon's idea to create a puppet that could be used as a mid-end link.

Moreover, this mid-end technology allowed the group of four symbols to make a lot of money on the foreign black market, allowing many suspects with criminal records to successfully experience the fun of this game.

From the place where the group of four symbols, the Guild of the same name, was founded, as cultivators with rich experience in swordsmanship, Green Dragon, Snow Tiger, Zhu Yi, and Xiong Wu, according to their respective areas of expertise in swordsmanship, they developed all kinds of novel and novel ways to play.

This allowed them to reap the long-lost satisfaction in the virtual world.

The itinerant immortal child's Dharma Ring was not a game that cost money, but the daily maintenance of the game cabin required money, and the daily maintenance of the puppets also required money. They relied on the income from selling puppets on the black market as the key to breaking even.

More importantly, Xiong Wu saw hope for the four elephants to rise again on the itinerant fairy ring.

Since they were hiding in the real world, why not use the game to cultivate their power?

As long as their influence was big enough, more and more sword immortal players would join them. In the real world, these sword immortal players might not be mainstream sword practitioners, however, the fact that they could choose this class indicated that they were interested in sword arts.

In that case, they could directly filter out a group of people.

According to Xiong Wu's plan, when the number of players in the guild increased, he would use his identity as the guild leader to gradually understand everyone's true background. In the end, he would decide whether or not to pull them into his own team.

Once the team was established, he would give the new team a new name. In fact, it was a branch under the name of the four divisions.

The four divisions had originally been a branch under the Wuji Sword sect.

Now that they had established their own branch, it was very reasonable.

Once the branch was established, Xiong Wu would teach the swordsmanship mantra created by evil sword God in real life, so as to strengthen the reputation of the four divisions.

It could be said that this entire process was very detailed, to the point that a few people would clap their hands in admiration. At the same time, relying on the game to rise up in real life had become the only hope of the four divisions.

But what Xiong Wu had never expected was that at this juncture, they would meet that... the general in charge of floating cloud town.

"We've found him!"

After they had discussed and decided to find out where Wang Ling was, Green Dragon, who was a geek, kept investigating him. He was also a little famous in the hacker world, and had an ID called beauty dragon.

His overall strength was actually on par with nine paths and high school sparrow.

“How is it? !”Xiong Wu asked with concern.

“Big Brother! This person is real! He’s not an NPC! He’s a real player!”

“He must be cheating!”

“I’m not sure... but he’s really a real player... it’s just that the other party’s coordinates are very well encrypted, so there’s no way to locate him at the moment... we can only think of a way to hack into the other party’s game cabin and see if we can accidentally trigger the game cabin’s crime alarm system, so that the other party’s game cabin can be sent directly to us.”

Green Dragon told him his plan.

To be honest, he was still hesitating.

Because logically speaking, the firewall of ordinary players should not be like this, nor should there be such meticulous encryption measures. This was very likely because behind this general of floating cloud town., there was also an expert who knew how to hack, secretly planning everything.

So, it seemed to make sense why the other party could have so many different kinds of godly skills in the game.

Because this general of floating cloud town might not only be a real player, but also a game administrator?

But Xiong Wu clearly couldn’t care less about this anymore. He ordered the green dragon, “Fourth brother! Do As you think! If something happens, Big Brother will be there!”

The sense of realism in the loose immortal child's Dharmic ring was too strong, and Xiong Wu had suffered so much in the game that he had been immersed in the game until now. He couldn't accept that kind of humiliation.

Thus, he couldn't calm down properly. The Fury in his heart couldn't be quelled, and all he wanted was to kill Wang Ling.

On the other side, in fact, when the green dragon had checked Wang Ling's coordinates for the first time...

Wang Ming had already sensed the attack from the green dragon.

Inside the Karma Base, Wang Ming had planned everything and felt that it was interesting.

"Ling Ling's game pod has been attacked," Wang Ming said calmly and calmly as he looked at the code that kept jumping in front of him.

Zhai Yin was also very calm on the side, because she clearly knew that in terms of hacking skills, there was probably no one who could compare to this most calculative and powerful brain in front of her.

"What do you plan to do?" Zhai Yin asked.

"Teacher Shouchong."

"I'm here."

"Save Ling Ling's game data for a while to prevent the data from being damaged when the link is broken later."

"Okay."

The gray fog covering the loose immortal child's Dharmic ring was still very hazy. Players in the game world could still exit and enter the game as usual. Once more than half of the game was completed, they wouldn't even be able to exit the game, they could only enter from the outside.

Wang Ming hadn't expected the four symbols army to actually take the bait so quickly. He had even arranged for Odd Zhuo, Qin Zong, and Xiang Yi to sneak in separately.

In the end, the other side couldn't sit still anymore.

After instructing Shouchong, Wang Ming calculated the time and pressed the red button on the system's control panel.

Buzz!

In the Karma base, the space tunnel that directly connected to the ground was opened, and a beam of light shone down from above onto Wang Ling's game pod.

At the same time, Wang Ling, who had been playing games, suddenly woke up and realized that he had temporarily returned to the real world.

Furthermore, he seemed to be in a state of waiting for launch..

"Are you... playing along?" Zhai Yin suddenly understood everything.

"You can say that."

Wang Ming smiled sinisterly. "Since they want my brother's nuclear bomb so much, they can take it back themselves. I Won't lose anything anyway..."

As soon as he finished speaking.

There was a "Boom" in the laboratory.

Wang Ling's game pod directly rose into the sky on the spot, and with the help of the high-density spirit energy booster, it shot straight out of the Karma base, with the help of the high-density spirit energy booster, it shot toward the coordinates of the four elephants in the real world..

Chapter 2162 Two Thousand One Hundred And Fifty-Eight: Open The Hatch And Kill! (1/86)

Inside the game cabin, Wang Ling was calm.

He pinched his fingers and deduced the whole thing.

He couldn't beat him in the game world, so he wanted to directly kill him in the real world, right

It had to be said that this group of murderers really had a bold idea.

It could only be said that this was an unexpected episode. Even Wang Ling hadn't expected that he would be forced to go offline halfway through the game, and then be ejected by Wang Ming just like that.

His heart was as still as an ancient well, and he even wanted to laugh a little.

It could only be said that Wang Xiaoer was indeed Wang Xiaoer; it was as if he had never been vague about setting him up.

On the other side, after learning that Green Dragon had successfully hacked into the game cabin and successfully carried out a long-range launch.

The hearts of the four divisions were surging with excitement. They had actually succeeded!

Moreover, not long after, that damned player who was playing the role of the general of floating cloud town would appear in front of them.

Xiong Wu had even thought of a package of revenge methods. For example, what kind of posture should he use to coolly open the game cabin door and pull up the hateful guy who had messed up his overall plan.

“Big Brother, we're about to succeed!”

The others looked at the location of the game cabin on the radar map and saw that the entire game cabin was rapidly approaching an island close to the forbidden area of the sea with the speed of a rocket.

No one could have imagined that the main members of the four symbols gang, who had been exiled overseas for many years, were all hiding on this seemingly desolate island.

The cultivators didn't dare to set foot on this island anymore.

But this island was actually an uninhabited island that evil sword God had bought for the development of the four symbols gang through someone else's identity. He knew that this day would come, so he had prepared everything in advance for a backup plan.

However, it had been hundreds of years since he had bought this island. Even evil sword God himself had forgotten that he had such an overseas asset.

As the finance staff of the four divisions, Xiong Wu remembered to record down all the financial details of the association. He also knew the situation of this small island like the back of his hand.

He and the other three senior brothers of the four divisions had hidden here. They cultivated diligently every day so that they could find a chance to turn things around.

"I won't trouble you to do the matter of opening the cabin and killing people. I'll be right back." The green dragon snorted and laughed.

He held a blue void sword with ripples on it. If he stared at it for a long time, he would feel like he was hallucinating.

"Thank you, fourth brother."

"The game cabin will arrive at the coordinates of 787.120. Fourth brother, be careful."

"Don't worry. No matter how strong that person is, he's just a fat otaku who plays games. He's nothing to worry about." "What I hate the most is people who snatch rankings. No matter which sixth brother dares to snatch our positions, that's a dead end."

At this moment, the Green Dragon said excitedly.

The base of the four symbols horde was set up fifty meters below the island.

After the Green Dragon finished giving his instructions, he stood on the teleportation formation and directly teleported to the surface of the island through the teleportation formation.

He bared his white teeth, showing his confidence.

Under a coconut tree, the green dragon stared at the light dot coming from afar. He couldn't wait to attack. He might as well use a sword Qi to break the opponent's game cabin in the air, let this guy die in the sea!

No..

This seemed to be letting sixth off too easily.

Moreover, falling into the sea would not be able to confirm the other party's death.

The green dragon frowned slightly. In the end, he endured it and decided to follow the original plan to open the cabin and kill.

Bang!

Soon, the game cabin stopped at the top of the island. A huge parachute flew out from the cabin, causing the speed of the game cabin to slow down.

Green Dragon watched this scene. He had been holding back on the island for too long, and he had been holding back the desire to kill. Perhaps it had been too long since he had been stained with blood.

This made green dragon feel an unprecedented sense of excitement.

"Young man... You can only blame your bad luck for being too high-profile in the game. Next time, remember not to break the rules in the hands of someone who doesn't follow the rules..."

The green dragon snorted as he slowly stepped forward. Under the scorching sun, his shadow directly shifted onto Wang Ling's game cabin.

His Hand had just been on the door of the game cabin, and he had planned to directly rip it open.

In the end, something unexpected happened.

Boom!

Inside the game cabin, Wang Ling kicked the door and sent the entire cabin door, along with the Green Dragon, flying out.

It was just an ordinary kick..

The green flood dragon had been kicked in the face by Wang Ling, and the huge impact made him feel as if he had been hit by a ten-thousand-ton ship.

Crack!

In an instant, the green flood dragon's skull had been shattered, and it spat out blood. Its meridians had been broken by Wang Ling's ordinary kick, and its body had been sent flying.

It had crashed into several large trees along the island in succession, and even the thick rock wall had been directly pierced by the Green Dragon, leaving a human-shaped hole.

"There seems to be someone."

Wang Ling climbed out of the game cabin.

He had just felt that there seemed to be someone at the cabin door, and was worried that he would be in danger, so he had gently kicked open the cabin door as a means of self-defense.

This was to prevent him from being attacked.

In the end, he hadn't expected that person to fly right in front of him when he kicked down..

Sigh.

He couldn't take it anymore.

He didn't know whether this person would be able to take this light kick or not.

For a moment, Wang Ling was quite worried. After all, it was a bit of an exaggeration to kick someone to death with one kick.

Although an itinerant immortal was weak, he shouldn't be that weak..

At least if he had kicked him lightly two months ago, the chances of him surviving were quite high.

Oh, no..

It had been two months.

He had also grown up.

The suppression effect of the talisman was getting worse and worse, which meant that it wasn't easy to compare his current combat strength with two months ago.

Sigh, how to clean up the mess in front of him was now Wang Ling's biggest problem.

..

At the same time, in the surveillance room of four symbols base, the rest of the people looked at the hidden surveillance cameras on the island and saw everything.

Their mouths were wide open, and they couldn't believe their eyes.

Because right in front of their eyes, they had clearly seen the moment the itinerant immortal level Green Dragon opened the game cabin, the person in the cabin had directly kicked open the cabin door along with the Green Dragon.

And now, the Green Flood Dragon was seriously injured..

Like a scarecrow, he flew from one part of the island to the other end of the beach. His entire body was covered in blood from being kicked, and his head had caved in from the head-on impact.

It was just a kick..

He could kick an itinerant immortal to this state?

Xiong Wu was stunned.

Chapter 2163 2,159: Original Records Of Li Yuan (1/86)

Ever since Earth's upgrade, the most affected people were those who had stayed at the peak of the ninth level of true immortal realm for a long time. With their talent, they had long been able to break through the current realm, it was only because they had been restricted by the spiritual energy that they were unable to break through.

And among this group of people, there was no doubt that sword Saint Yi Jianchuan was the representative.

As for those below true immortal level, the impact might not be great, but at least it would lay the foundation for the future of all the human cultivators on Earth.

Thus, in the end, the people who were truly affected and had broken through to the next realm were still a very small group of people on Earth, perhaps less than 1% .

But for those below true immortal level, such as itinerant immortals, Wang Ling felt that their strength should still be there.

Although Wang Ling had seen a large number of itinerant immortals around him, all of whom were representatives of elites from all walks of life, the Green Dragon had been seriously injured by his kick.

Wang Ling didn't understand.

The kick he had given to the cabin door had really only been a light one; it hadn't been as heavy as his slap.

In the end, he had been seriously injured..

It seemed that he had thought too highly of the itinerant immortals on earth. Or perhaps after earth had been upgraded, Wang Ling felt that the standard for the itinerant immortal realm should be redefined.

At the very least, he had to be able to kneel on the ground and speak after receiving a light kick from him.

This was a qualified itinerant immortal.

Someone like the Green Dragon, who was lying on the ground bleeding from seven orifices and struggling to get up, was clearly an unqualified itinerant immortal in Wang Ling's eyes.

On the other hand, Wang Ling's kick could be considered self-defense.

After all, the purpose of his kick was just to open the cabin door of the game cabin. Who would have thought that person would be so close to the door.

And he hadn't been able to see that his light kick could cause such a high explosive damage.

At that moment, he put his hands in his trouser pocket and sighed softly as he turned his red eyes to somewhere on the island.

It was a hidden surveillance device.

At that moment, Wang Ling's gaze just happened to meet that of the other dumbfounded members of the four divisions.

This youngster... was looking over here?

Xiong Wu looked at Wang Ling's gaze on the monitor. He was so nervous that his face was covered in sweat, and he couldn't say a word.

Everything was too shocking.

He had kicked the green dragon into the bridge of helplessness..

"But the Morning Sun Qi on him is still there; he's clearly a young man!" On the side, Snow Tiger felt that perhaps they had thought things too complicated.

Perhaps this game cabin had an unimaginable defense mechanism... when a stranger approached, it would activate its self-defense system to eliminate danger.

But even so, it didn't make sense..

This was just a game cabin; even if the highest level of technology was used, how could a door blast an itinerant immortal to such an extent?

Itinerant immortal realm..

This was the realm of being able to receive missiles with his bare hands!

"Don't Panic... I'll go check out this person and find out." Zhu Yi frowned and wanted to personally test Wang Ling's strength.

However, he was stopped by Snow Tiger. "Leave this matter to me; I don't need second brother to do anything. My Snow Magic Sword can fight!"

Because this young man who had landed on the island was very strange and did not dare to recklessly engage in close combat, Snow Tiger could only launch a long-range attack to test the waters.

His snow sword could control the weather of the four seasons. It was a top-tier holy weapon! It was only second to a pseudo-world-level magic weapon!

Normally, Snow Tiger had always maintained it well and was reluctant to take it out to use. He was afraid that it would wear down the durability of the magic weapon. However, he did not expect that it would be used on a young man when it was used again.

Without saying anything else, he immediately unfurled his hand, and an ice-blue leaf flickered with a ball of spirit light in his palm. Then, it suddenly enlarged into a blue magic sword, which the snow tiger held in its palm.

He held the magic sword in his hand, and his clothes fluttered in the wind. Instead of entering the island directly, he found a wall in the underground space and pierced the magic sword directly through the wall into the rock layer deep inside to connect with the entire island.

At the same time, Wang Ling saw Snow start to fall on this small island.

The fluttering snow fell from the sky and only targeted this small island. In less than two minutes, it became heavier and heavier, forming a snowstorm.

The natural lake water on the island directly froze.

As the snow continued to accumulate in a short period of time, the Green Dragon's body was quickly submerged by the snow, then turned into a spirit light and disappeared.

Wang Ling knew that this was a method to manipulate the weather, so he conveniently used the snow as a camouflage to pull his companion back.

Unfortunately, his movements were a little slow, and he should have directly gone to the island to bring the person back, which might have given him a chance to survive.

Using magic to save the person was already seriously delaying the rescue time.

So in Wang Ling's opinion, this green dragon probably couldn't be saved anymore..

Wang Ling looked at the falling snow and fell into deep thought for a moment. As a child who had grown up in the south, Snow was a rare thing for Wang Ling.

..

On the monitor, everyone from the four symbols closely watched Wang Ling's movements.

Now that the Snow Tiger had used the snow magic sword to activate the underground spirit vein under the island to trigger the weather phenomenon, the flying snow had caused the temperature of the island to fall into an abnormal state.

It was a whole minus fifty degrees Celsius!

No matter how talented this young man was, he was at most at the early stage of the Golden Core Stage... Moreover, he was the unstable type. Given the extreme temperature, such thin clothing shouldn't be able to last long.

But to the great surprise of the Snow Tiger, Zhu Yi, and Xiong Wu, they actually saw Wang Ling building a snowman on the island on the surveillance camera

Xiong Wu rubbed his eyes, convinced that he hadn't seen wrongly.

This youngster was really building a snowman in front of them!

And he had done it with a nose and eyes.

This was a large snowman.

Wang Ling directly pinched out his four limbs and started to create a body with snow.

"No... This doesn't seem to be just a snowman..." snow tiger frowned, feeling that what Wang Ling had created looked a little familiar.

The corners of Zhu Yu's mouth twitched. "Why do I feel like this is a Gundam..."

To be precise, it wasn't necessarily a Gundam, but a similar type of mecha.

It was hard to believe that a youngster wasn't afraid of the cold at all in such an environment, and even pinched a thirty-meter-tall Gundam with his bare hands.

"This... What kind of background does this person have..."this time, even snow tiger was horrified; he had never seen anything like this before.

At that moment, Wang Ling slowly walked to Gao Da's neck.

He directly went in from the inside, revealing only his head as if he was wearing clothes, and his pair of dead fish eyes staring straight ahead.

At that moment, something even more shocking happened.

Rumble..

In the next second, Wang Ling stood up from his lying position in his thirty-meter snow-white mecha!

Chapter 2164 2,160, Sword Fighting (1/86)

The crowd of four elephants did not understand such a situation, but everyone expressed great shock. The snowstorm of the Snow Tiger was directly ignored. Not only did this youth happily build a 30-meter-tall mech outside, also personally sat on the mech, by themselves to form the head!

This is the kind of operation that a normal carbon-based organism would think of!

Then, an even more shocking scene happened.

Because in the next second, above their heads, this youth sat on the snow mech that he had made himself and began to perform penetration. The right hand of the snow mech instantly turned into a spiral and began to drill into the ground.

The ground shook.

In the four symbols base, the ground on the ceiling began to collapse. Large amounts of wall dust shook down, as if they were going to bury them.

This youth was too terrifying. He was so strong that he didn't seem like a human. Most importantly, it seemed as if they had never noticed the existence of such a figure on Earth.

This was definitely a nightmare!

How could he be a real figure..

They were sixteen or seventeen years old, and they were still playing with mud!

This youth was a sixteen or seventeen year old high school student, and he was already chasing after the loose immortals!

"No, if this goes on, the base will collapse!" Xiong Wu opened his mouth and motioned for snow tiger to quickly think of a way.

In a moment of desperation, Snow Tiger pulled out the magic sword that had pierced the wall in an abnormally sorry state, and the snowstorm on the island immediately stopped.

They had thought that the snow mecha Wang Ling had created would also melt, but what they didn't know was that Wang Ling had already cast the latest version of the Great Enlightenment Spell 3.0 on the snow mecha. Even if the surrounding temperature returned to normal.., it wouldn't melt directly.

"There's nothing I can do, Big Brother. It's my turn!"

In a moment of desperation, Zhu Li finally decided to make his move. He had a magic sword called fire of joy, and anything that was cut by his sword Qi would turn into an explosion!

So in this situation, he couldn't care less. The only thing Zhu Li could think of was to use the passive ability of his magic sword to cut the snow-white mecha and turn it into an explosion!

“Sword fighting technique!”

There were many spells that could control the spirit sword from a distance. As a sect that was famous for its sword techniques, the disciples of the four symbols group were all top-notch in the use of sword techniques, and in order for Zhu Yi’s sword Qi to smoothly hit the object he wanted.

He had already spent seven hundred years just practicing this sword fighting technique.

The “Sword fighting technique” that he had refined over the past seven hundred years had given Zhu Lin even more confidence at that moment. In an instant, a scarlet sword qi spread out behind him, and flames filled the air, it was as if the divine bird, the Vermillion Bird, was emitting light that lit up the entire underground.

Before Wang Ling’s electric drill had even pierced into the base under the island, he could already see light seeping out from below. It was a sword qi rising straight from the ground, exuding an astonishing amount of heat.

If Wang Ling had seen it when he was one year old, he might have been shocked, but he was now as still as an ancient well.

In terms of this type of fire-type swordsmanship, Wang Ling had seen the Great Emperor of the east in ancient times. He had the immortal dharmic image of the peacock king, and that kind of light had illuminated the entire eastern great region in those days, he himself was a sun that shone on an entire region.

Thus, in comparison, Zhu Xu in front of him was nothing.

“Swordmaster, this is to use sword-fighting techniques to smear sword Qi on your Snow White Mecha,” Jingke analyzed.

As the strongest sword spirit, he naturally had his own ability to distinguish between various sword techniques.

Just as Zhu Xu was using sword-fighting techniques to remotely control his own fire, Jingke could already tell.

Wang Ling nodded to himself.

His heart was as calm as an ancient well.

”-- Sword!”

Below the base, Zhu Lin was so happy to control the fire that he planned to suddenly burst out of the crevice underground to give Wang Ling a surprise.

Zhu Lin had also given this sword art a very pleasant name for a sword art that sought to survive in the crevice.

That was: between coming and going..

He looked at the fierce sword qi rushing out of the ground and stood guard by the crevice. The moment he saw that this magic sword was like the tip of a bamboo shoot, it had just emerged.

Wang Ling raised his sword finger and casually pointed downwards.

This fire of joy, which had just emerged, immediately turned around and headed for its master.

“Idiot! You’re going the wrong way! It’s not here! I’m Your Sword Master! Don’t come over!”

..

In just a few dozen seconds, there was a huge explosion underground on the island.

It was like an active volcano erupting, with lava spewing out from the cracks and flowing around the island.

Just like that, Wang Ling directly destroyed the four symbols Horde’s base... No, to be precise, it should have been Zhu Zhu who had lifted a rock and smashed his own foot.

But Wang Ling could sense that apart from the severely injured green dragon and Zhu Fu, Snow Tiger and Xiong Wu were still alive.

Their spirit energy signals were still there.

They had probably fled before Zhu Fu's magic sword fell back and exploded.

Unfortunately, with Wang Ling around.

In the end, fleeing was just a futile effort.

He locked onto the direction in which Xiong Wu and Snow Tiger had used their spells to escape, and sensed their spirit energy signals from a distance as they fled the island.

In the end, his gaze was locked onto the sea.

So it turned out that he had used magic to break through the rock walls beneath the base and had escaped by diving into the sea.

It was simply impossible to pull out two living people in the vast sea.

But if his opponent was Wang Ling, the outcome would be different.

At that moment, Wang Ling had submerged himself into the snow mecha and was standing on the island, facing the direction in which the Snow Tiger and Xiong Wu had fled.

They were fiercely diving at the bottom of the sea, and their excessive fear had caused their legs to move very quickly. Although they hadn't been away for very long, they had already swam a very long distance.

This youngster was too terrifying..

They were no match for him.

They could only think of this pathetic way to escape in a panic.

They had already swam very far.

Furthermore, there were so many signs of life under the sea. Logically speaking, even if this youngster was extremely skilled, it should be very difficult to track them down, right?

Unfortunately, Snow Tiger and Xiong Wu did not know what kind of contestant they were facing at this moment.

While snorkeling, the two of them quickly realized that something was wrong with the sea water around them..

Wait..

How could the sea water be wrong?

“Big Brother, although... But... but I just feel like we’re swimming backwards...”

Snow Tiger said in horror.

This was definitely not an illusion.

It was something that had really happened!

The direction of the seawater around them had changed!

This made Xiong Wu extremely shocked.

At this moment, the two of them looked behind them and saw that the young man was already operating the snow-white Mech and was already standing at the edge of the island waiting for them. Both of his excellent hands had been inserted into the seawater.

Snow Tiger and Xiong Wu were both shocked.

They had never thought that this young man would actually use his own strength to change the direction of the ocean current..

Of course, this was not the only scene that shocked them the most.

Because in the next second, they felt that the seawater around them had actually dispersed, directly revealing a passage, revealing a wide sea-bed avenue..

F * ck!

It was separating the sea!

Xiong Wu couldn't help but swear.

Was this something that a normal human on earth could do!

Chapter 2165 2,161 -- Imagination Limits One's Realm (1/86)

Splitting the sea..

Was this something that an ordinary person could do?

Dressed in casual clothes and with his pants in his pockets, Wang Ling looked at the corridor that was completely exposed and had been automatically cleared out by the sea and sighed slightly.

This time, the commotion was a little too big.

If anyone used satellite surveillance to look at their position at this time, they would see a patch of the Earth's ocean as bald as if a barber in a barbershop had scratched his head with a trembling hand.

This wasn't the evaporation of the sea water, but the splitting of the sea.

It was indeed difficult for an ordinary cultivator to split the sea.

This required a huge amount of spirit energy to pull every drop of sea water to achieve this effect. Dao God realm cultivators could do it, but they couldn't achieve the scale of Wang Ling's control.

If it was an ancestral realm cultivator like the golden lamp monk, it would be about the same.

However, splitting the sea was an act that consumed a lot of one's Qi sea, which was the cultivator's spirit energy reserve. After it was used up, it needed to be replenished by sitting cross-legged.

It could be said that splitting the sea was indeed cool, but the price of being cool was often that the subsequent gains outweighed the losses.

After all, not everyone's sea of Qi was as big as a black hole like Wang Ling's.

At this moment, Wang Ling stared at the two shivering people exposed on the clean seabed and sighed in his heart.

It felt good not to have to pretend..

The main reason he dared to do this this time was because Wang Ming had blocked the satellite recording device aimed at this area from behind.

In other words, apart from Xiong Wu and Zhu Yi, there was no one else who knew about him on this map.

Wang Ling was relieved.

On the other hand, it was actually good for Wang Ling to occasionally make a move like this.

The new version of the talisman seal was still under development.

The current Talisman Seal's suppressive power was weakening day by day, so in order to extend the lifespan of the old talisman seal, Wang Ming's advice to Wang Ling was that it would be best if he could cast a spell every day or every other day, it could use up a large amount of the spirit qi stored in his spirit qi sea without causing too much damage.

Mm..

Splitting the sea was actually a type of spell.

Visually, it was very intimidating.

But in fact, the principle behind splitting the sea was nothing more than a traction spell; it wasn't that high and mighty.

At that moment, faced with such a shocking scene, Xiong Wu and Zhu Yi, who were old-school itinerant immortals, were already huddled together.

They were truly frightened.

They had never thought that a sixteen or seventeen-year-old youth could be so heaven-defying..

"Big Brother... What should we do... This person is at least a true immortal!"

Zhu Yi was so frightened that his legs were trembling. Boundless fear enveloped him, lingering in his heart, causing him to be at a loss.

Xiong Wu's situation could be said to be even worse than Zhu Yi's.

A true immortal..

He even felt that Zhu Fu's imagination was a little too conservative.

This youth was too terrifying. He directly separated the entire sea along both sides. The key was that they couldn't see the end of the seabed as far as the naked eye could see.

This meant that the youth's actual sea area was very large. If there were satellite images, they would be able to clearly see the changes at this level.

Then the question now was: had this youngster existed on Earth before the Earth's upgrade, or had he only appeared after the Earth's upgrade?

Xiong Wu was more inclined towards the latter

He even felt that Wang Ling wasn't human at all.

Only an alien could have this kind of F * * King Strength, right?

Otherwise, he would have been completely ignored on the way to the Earth's human cultivators' upgrade and evolution!

For a moment, the two of them had a myriad of thoughts in their minds.

Faced with such a huge difference in strength, it was already impossible for them to escape.

Xiong Wu and Zhu Yi looked at each other in dismay.

Wang Ling had originally wanted to split into two waves of seawater to form a water whip that would bind the two of them from a distance in front of him.

In the next second, the two of them actually assumed the starting position of track and field athletes at the same time as they sprinted toward him.

When they got close, they immediately put on a knee brake, and the two of them slid down the seabed from the middle

Their movements were uniform, as if they had been rehearsed beforehand, and Wang Ling was also startled.

“Spare my life, Exalted Immortal!”

The two of them stopped in front of Wang Ling in an orderly fashion, and then directly hit their heads on the beach.

At the same time, Wang Ling waved his hand and closed the sea behind him again. The sea water that had overlapped formed a huge wave that crashed onto the beach, making the two of them wet from head to toe.

Wang Ling had thought that the two of them would resist for a while, but he hadn't expected them to surrender so thoroughly.

He sighed slightly, then looked up at the blue sky and heard the sound of helicopters patrolling in the distance. It was the international cultivation criminal police that Wang Ming had contacted.

At the same time, Monk Jin Deng had also appeared here first.

“Leave the rest to this penniless monk.” Monk Jin Deng was as serious as ever.

He took over from Wang Ling.

Wang Ling jumped down from the snow-white mecha and left the mecha to Jin Deng. Then, he patted him on the shoulder and directly disappeared from the beach.

Capturing the members of the four divisions was just a small episode after all, and he still had to go back and play games with Lotus Sun..

Wang Ming should have saved it for him.

But after going back this time, Wang Ling felt that he couldn't hide the fact that he wasn't an NPC anymore.

..

At this point, the members of the four divisions had all been brought to justice.

Two people were seriously injured, and it looked like they couldn't be saved.

Zhu Fu and Xiong Wu had surrendered in time, so they were still breathing.

When the two kneeling people saw Wang Ling and the Golden Lamp Monk complete their handover, the evil thoughts they had just abandoned suddenly rose in their hearts.

After earth had leveled up, how many people had become venerated immortals..

Even if they had been unlucky enough to encounter a monster, it wasn't to the extent that they wouldn't be able to provoke this monk, right?

They knelt on the ground, secretly planning in their hearts whether or not they should continue to escape.

In the end, the monk pressed his palms together.

The Buddha's palm emitted a golden light.

A huge golden figure of Buddha appeared behind the monk, only Zhu Yi and Xiong Wu could see it.

"Could this be... Dharma Idol..."

Zhu Yi and Xiong Wu were stunned again.

They knew what it was.

It was the first time they had seen such a huge dharma idol Buddha that was as big as a mountain.

However, this was not the end.

Monk Jin Deng silently chanted “Amitabha of the south” to the two of them. The Dharma Idol of the Golden Buddha behind him suddenly increased in size and gradually expanded to the outer space. A pair of Buddha’s eyes were staring at them from the outer space, they were staring at them.

This made Zhu Yi and Xiong Wu feel a profound fear of the outer space and the mysterious universe

“Senior... senior brother...”

“Sigh, it seems that we have been concealing ourselves for too long and are completely out of touch with the modern cultivation society...”

Xiong Wu sighed.

He didn’t dare to have any other thoughts.

He directly pulled Zhu Yi and kowtowed to the monk.

“Saint Monk, please show mercy. We will never have the thought of escaping again...” Xiong Wu almost said with a sobbing tone.

This feeling of powerlessness.

Made him both embarrassed and helpless.

Chapter 2166 2,162, Attacking Players (1/86)

In the cause and effect base, Wang Ming’s satellite signal was blocked until the golden lamp monk left. Wang Ling needed protection, and the monk also needed protection.

This was the result of Wang Ming’s comprehensive consideration of the modern cultivation world, and it wasn’t good to expose his own strength too early.

After all, a country like mixiu had always made money from war since the cultivation country had been founded, and it had a deep-rooted hegemonic mentality that it couldn't stand to see others do well at all

Therefore, Wang Ming wouldn't miss a single person he had to protect when the golden lamp monk took Wang Ling's place to suppress Zhu Yi and Xiong Wu.

Wang Ming controlled the clouds in this area to prevent satellites from directly penetrating the clouds to capture the scene below. This method wasn't just modern technology; at the same time, Wang Ming had also borrowed a part of the power of the Heavenly Dao Cloud.

In the past, in order to protect his own people, Wang Ming's methods had been limited to modern cultivation technology developed by relying on his own intelligence. Now, he was even using an existence like the cosmic miracle.

Wang Ming didn't know whether this kind of progress was good or bad. Sometimes, a variety of methods didn't mean stability.

He had a hunch that the Battle of Destiny might come at some point in the future, and they weren't far from that point now.

Everything would depend on director Wang's arrangements.

..

On the other side, director Wang quickly used the blink technique to return to the karma base, and Zhai Yin had already prepared a new game pod for him in advance.

"Ling Ling, everything is ready for you here."

Zhai Yin smiled. "You don't have to worry about the data; everything has been saved for you. While You're away, we'll use the AI system to imitate your logical thinking when you log in for practice."

She realized that while she was speaking, Wang Ling was secretly observing the young girl's sleeping face through the reinforced glass window in the game cabin.

“OH.”Wang Ling nodded slightly, looked away, and then lay back down in the game cabin.

It turned out that while he was away, his character was still active... there was actually a mechanism to practice on behalf of others?

Wang Ling didn't say much, and then directly lay down.

The itinerant immortal child's Dharma Ring was a little more powerful than Wang Ling had imagined.

He was originally a person who didn't like to play games very much, because no matter what game he played, he would eventually finish the Matchless game, which was an instant kill, and it was like having a cheat.

But the itinerant immortal child's dharma ring was different.

Although Wang Ling was still very strong in the game world, so strong that those who had seen him before would rather believe that he was an NPC than a real person.

But the loose immortal child Dharmic ring wasn't a game that could be played by him alone.

How to win over the hearts of the players in this game world and unite them into a rope, thus breaking through the difficulties that most players currently faced together.

This was what Wang Ling really felt was the fun of the game.

In other words, Wang Ling felt that the loose immortal child Dharmic ring he was playing now was more like a sandbox deduction for the Battle of Destiny in the future.

The gray fog Bai Zhe had set up was gradually making this game world real.

In addition to facing this difficulty, Wang Ling hadn't forgotten his and Lotus Sun's original purpose in entering the game, which was to assist Mr. Tibetan Fox in his grand plan to break the wall of spirit consciousness.

This was the key.

But it was clear that this grand plan was far more difficult than Wang Ling had imagined.

..

While Wang Ling was away from the game, Lotus Sun and Old Huang were still working on the city's construction according to their original plan.

At present, floating cloud town was crowded with crouching dragons. After Xiong Wu's provocation, floating cloud town, which hadn't been rich in resources, had directly become the most popular gathering place for newbies.

Moreover, thanks to Wang Ling's sense of security, the crime rate around floating cloud town was also the lowest. High-level players, whether human or demon, didn't dare bully them easily, and even more so when it came to robbery.

Moreover, the players who had come here were very open-minded. When they saw many demon spirits working in floating cloud town to move materials, they actually helped to escort the materials and build the town.

"It's really strange that no one would attack these monsters that move materials. "At first, I thought that if we let too many demons become our coolies, The Residents' Happiness would drop," Lotus Sun said as she looked at the data sandbox generated by the system, she smiled.

"That's normal. Most players are still interested in our floating cloud town's NPC general. Such an NPC is too heaven-defying."

Old Huang analyzed, "They know that these demons were arranged by the general, so they naturally won't attack. If they do, it might reduce the general's favorability toward these people."

Lotus sun: "So they're also helping to rhyme the materials to increase the favorability?"

"That's obviously the case."

Old Huang nodded. “In the world of the wandering fairy’s magical ring, the stronger the NPC, the harder it is to increase your favorability. But if you can increase your favorability to a certain level, you might be able to unlock additional hidden rewards.”

“You should know that there are some players who play the wandering fairy’s magical ring. They don’t take the path of fighting monsters and leveling up. They take the path of strategy.”

“Raiding... Path?”

“As the name suggests, it is to lock on to certain npcs to complete a designated quest or give a designated gift to increase your basic favorability. After your basic favorability increases, you can go out on a date together.”

“So that’s how it works? !” Lotus Sun was shocked. She had never thought that there was such a thing.

“The strongest player in the game has even married an NPC as his wife in the game world. Not only did he get all of the NPC’s assets, but he also got decent equipment and magic treasures. “It can be said that in the game world, it’s a roof over one’s head.”

“He’s also a talent...” the corners of Lotus Sun’s mouth twitched.

She felt that this wasn’t something an ordinary person could do. It was really too outrageous.

So, in order to cooperate with Mr. Tibetan Fox’s follow-up actions, shouldn’t she go and conquer this general of floating cloud town as well?

Logically speaking, she had worked under this general for so long, so her favorability rating shouldn’t be low, right?

“Then, Old Huang, how should your favorability rating be judged?” Lotus Sun asked.

“You can try asking if it’s possible to ask someone out on a date. If it reaches the point where you can go on a date, then the basic favorability value will be enough. It should be at least above 40. And that’s the key point.”

“Because during the follow-up date, your favorability value will still fluctuate. Under normal circumstances, as long as it reaches above 60 points, you can ask an NPC for something. “If the other party agrees to give it to you, you can directly display the specific favorability value between you.”

“I see...”lotus sun nodded.

The strategy route was much more difficult than she had imagined. This was because the favorability value was hidden in the beginning, and wouldn’t be directly displayed. In other words, whether or not you could get an NPC depended on the specific feeling.

Lotus Sun was currently at a loss.

For Mr. Hidden Fox’s grand plan, she really wanted to try conquering this general of floating cloud town... But what if she just went there and classmate Wang Ling saw her..

Just as the girl’s thoughts were running wild, old Huang’s eyes suddenly lit up. “In that case, there’s no other way. For the better development of our floating cloud town, I’ve decided to personally attack our general!”

”...”Lotus Sun quickly pulled old Huang back. “Wait, Old Huang, you’re a man!”

“I know, but this is a game, so what does it matter?”. Npcs didn’t only have the option of becoming husband and wife, they could also be brothers! Of course, if they became husband and wife in the end, then it could only be God’s will...”

” ...”

Lotus sun wiped her cold sweat and said, “No, Old Huang... let me do it... It’s better if I do it...”

Chapter 2167 2,163, Brave Strategies (1/86)

Seeing that Lotus Sun had made up her mind, Old Huang smiled faintly.

Yes, his plan had succeeded.

Although Old Huang wasn't very old, as an adult who had already had a few emotional experiences, how could he not see through Lotus Sun's petty tricks?

Moreover, Old Huang actually knew what was going on. He felt that this general of floating cloud town... was most likely a real person, not an NPC.

But Old Huang had no evidence at all.

Because this player who played the role of an NPC general was too dedicated, Old Huang had once suspected that this person had either graduated from the acting department or the directing department.

He was too good at Life!

"Sigh, what a pity. Since Miss Sun has decided to go, then I won't take away her love." Old Huang shrugged and sighed.

Even though Lotus Sun had already made up her mind, she still felt a little uneasy.

Not every player could control the strategy stream. Those who could use the strategy npcs to make a name for themselves in the game world of the itinerant fairy's Dharmaraja were very mature galgame players.

They were often well-versed in strategy, and would know how to manipulate the behavior and logic of the game npcs to infer how to use the game system to gain the favor of as many npcs as possible.

Lotus Sun had played similar games before. She had also played the popular mobile game love and Paper Man a while ago, but compared to the same type of galgame, this type of mobile game could usually be used to increase the favorability of the general by spending money..

In the game world of the wandering immortal child's Dharmaraja, now that Lotus Sun was armed, how could she gain the general's favorability?

Lotus Sun was a little troubled by this.

“A barefoot person is not afraid of wearing shoes. Sometimes it’s not a good thing to think too much.”

At this moment, Old Huang comforted Lotus Sun. “Our logical thinking naturally can not be compared with professional strategy players, so it’s completely meaningless to think about what strategy they used.”

“So, Old Huang, you mean...”

“Casual and spontaneous.”

Old Huang said, “Our current position is Wolong recruitment officer. This general of floating cloud town has also given you the authority to manage floating cloud town, so I have a hunch that his favorability toward you should be quite high. “Maybe you can be a little more reckless.”

“By the way, did something happen between you and him before? It’s a little ridiculous to directly give the town to a novice player.”

It had to be said that old Huang’s words immediately woke lotus sun up.

“Oh right... I helped him take care of the children in the manor and taught them in class...”

“No Wonder.”

Old Huang knocked on his hand. “If that’s the case, then it makes sense. As a father, the most troublesome thing was definitely not to earn money to support the family, but to take care of the children and teach them to finish their homework! “I have quite a few friends who broke their golden core while helping their children with their homework.”

”...”Lotus Sun was stunned.

She hadn’t expected old Huang to have such an experience.

As they talked in depth, although Old Huang didn't directly tell her what kind of work he was doing in the real world, Lotus Sun could more or less sense old Huang's mature image as a social animal.

He was probably in his early thirties, more than ten years older than her and Wang Ling.

His occupation didn't conflict with that of a homebody, so it was possible that he was an internet-related occupation like the program ape.

After interacting with Old Huang, she found that he was a very open-minded person, like a small sun.

This kind of personality was very infectious to Lotus Sun.

If there was one, she would know it; Lotus Sun really wanted to meet old Huang in the real world.

Wang Ling was terrified of society.

Old Huang was a society cow again.

Lotus Sun felt that if they were in the real world, Old Huang's existence might be able to infect Wang Ling as well.

..

On the other side, after returning to the game world, Wang Ling immediately checked his data panel.

Wang Ling didn't care about character attribute values at all, because with the god-grade cultivation method in "Defying the heavens and changing fate," he could easily reverse his attributes through the difference in levels.

At that moment, what he really cared about was his health bar.

While he had been away, Wang Ming had arranged for the AI to repeat the pattern of his chants, helping him raise his health bar from 100 million to 200 million.

He had only been away for a short while, and he had actually gained another 100 million health by relying on the AI hack..

How did this AI do it?

Wang Ling imagined the scene of the AI silently reading the chant, and felt that it must have been infused with a considerable amount of ghost animal elements; otherwise, it would never have been able to achieve such an effect.

Overall, Wang Ling was still quite satisfied with the current situation, because the existence of the Ai didn't stop him from doing much.

It was just that he didn't know if Lotus Sun and La Euhang had suspected him while he was away.

At that moment, Wang Ling woke up from his half-asleep state in the general's mansion.

He was still trying his best to play the role of floating cloud town's general, and was about to get up and go to the Wolong recruitment office to take a look at the situation on the ground.

A familiar figure suddenly appeared in front of him outside the main hall.

Lotus sun..

This wasn't the time to report on work.

So was there something else for her to come here for?

Or was it... Lotus Sun already aware of the truth?

Under the mask, Wang Ling's expression didn't look so calm. Although it was only a slight change, it was undeniable that there was indeed a slight expression on this expressionless face.

The emotional constraints in the real world made Wang Ling's emotional reactions less sensitive, but this was a game, and the virtual game world would make the most realistic response through the player's nervous system.

In other words, even if Wang Ling didn't have any emotional reactions in the real world, the game system could directly display his emotions in the game world by capturing his nerves.

In other words, a part of the various emotional reactions in the game world was the system's neural capture power.

So the moment he saw Wang Ling, because he didn't know what Lotus Sun was here for, he instantly felt a little flustered.

Immediately after, a drop of sweat slid down his cheek under the mask.

He had never panicked in the face of such a fierce boss, but instead had this kind of emotion when facing Lotus Sun... Wang Ling wasn't sure if it was panic, nervousness, or other emotions.

Perhaps it was because he was afraid that Lotus Sun would be angry with him for hiding it after he was exposed by her?

But why should he care about how the girl looked at him..

Wang Ling felt that he hadn't been like this in the past.

Perhaps it was because he had gotten too close to Lotus Sun recently?

Wang Ling didn't understand.

What should he do?

Should he open the door first?

At that moment, he and Lotus Sun were only separated by a door in the main hall.

Their thoughts were strangely in sync.

Chapter 2168 2,164: Brave Rong Rong Isn't Afraid Of Difficulties (1/86)

Wang Ling had been single for nearly seventeen years, and had habitually kept his distance.

But now, he was gradually discovering that very few existences seemed to be special exceptions, especially since he had entered No. 60 High School, it had almost reached the point of no return..

If it hadn't been for Super Chen and hero Guo's secret special training, these two brothers would probably have been involved in this world adventure of the itinerant immortal children's Dharma Circle.

Wang Ling wasn't sure if there were any exceptions, but he felt that Lotus Sun was one of them at least for the time being.

She was always able to help him.

It was true that she had helped him solve a lot of difficult problems.

Wang Ling had no way to repay her, so he could only give her one big white rabbit milk candy or the enlightened version of crispy noodle snacks in return.

However, it seemed that the girl rarely ate the things he gave her... According to Sun Ying 'er, Wang Ying had also revealed information to him.

Lotus Sun had specially opened a safe in the bank to hide the enlightened version of snacks he had given her, and the amount insured was very high... it was practically the girl's pocket money for several months.

When Wang Ling heard this, his heart ached a little. A month's one billion pocket money was guaranteed for several months.

How much crispy noodle snacks could this buy? !

At the moment, Wang Ling was feeling a little hesitant about his actions.

He could easily destroy a planet with a raise of his hand, but he had never expected that the door would be much heavier than he had imagined when he was facing a girl.

So this time, for Wang Ling, who had never taken the initiative, it was still too difficult to open the door.

Just as he was in a dilemma, the young girl outside the door had already taken a deep breath and made the first decisive decision.

After a resounding “Brave Rongrong isn’t afraid of difficulties” low moan, Wang Ling saw that the door had been directly pushed open by Lotus Sun, and the force was so great that it directly smashed into his face, the outline of Wang Ling’s human figure was left on the door.

“General... are you okay?”

Lotus Sun hadn’t expected Wang Ling to be standing behind the door when she opened it, and this wave of operations had directly shocked her.

The direct result was that the main hall’s door had a HP of -1,000,000

The general’s HP WAS -0.000,001

She had originally come to attack the general, but hadn’t expected that she would be able to ambush him by opening the door directly.

Lotus Sun suddenly panicked.

At the door, Old Huang sighed as he watched this scene, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

This was clearly not an attack... They were here to assassinate the general!

It really was Li Yuan Shangpu!

On the other side, Wang Ling had to admit that he had made a mistake..

He hadn't expected the young girl to be so brave, and much more ferocious than he had imagined.

Although he hadn't received any damage from the door's impact and hadn't moved an inch from where he was standing, his entire body was thrown into disarray.

Furthermore, Lotus Sun had directly seized the opportunity to get close to him.

Worried that her actions might reduce her favorability, Lotus Sun directly grabbed Wang Ling by the shoulder and started to shake him.

"General... I'm sorry, I didn't mean it. I really didn't come here to assassinate you..."

"..."

She was filled with lingering fear.

It was mainly because she hadn't expected that she had pushed the door a little too hard just now. After all, during the time that Wang Ling had been offline, she had gone through several levels, and her character's comprehensive attributes were already incomparable to her newbie self.

Just a simple push of the door could cause a huge amount of damage to the door.

This time, Lotus Sun even felt a little pain from Wang Ling's usual restraint..

Student Wang Ling was so pitiful.

Had he always been like that?

He was so scared every day because he was afraid that he would be too strong and hurt others.

He was really good at Yasasi, so gentle!

For a moment, Lotus Sun was filled with a myriad of emotions. At that moment, she was facing this general in front of her who seemed completely stunned by her, and couldn't help putting this matter into Wang Ling's perspective.

It was also at that moment that she noticed that a corner of the mask of the general of Floating Cloud Town on Wang Ling's face had actually been broken.

What had she done..

Even the mask of the general had been destroyed by her.

Lotus Sun didn't have time to think about this.

That slogan of "Brave Lotus isn't afraid of difficulties" was still echoing in her mind.

In any case, she had already been reckless in opening the door this time. Even if she had already reduced her favorability, from her current performance, it seemed that the general of floating cloud town hadn't pushed her away.

This meant that the favorability points she had accumulated through managing the town these days were still quite high.

This also meant that she had the capital to continue squandering.

She had already acted rashly.

How about... a hundred million more?

The next second, something unexpected happened again.

Lotus sun directly raised her hand and lifted his mask.

In the game world, Wang Ling couldn't directly read Lotus Sun's mind with a spell, which directly made it impossible for him to predict what lotus sun would think next.

In the end, it turned out that the girl was far more daring than he had imagined.

She had actually lifted her hand and removed his mask.

This directly exposed Wang Ling's face.

Looking at this very familiar face, the two people in the main hall of the general's mansion fell into a long silence.

Wang Ling was thinking about what to say, but his mind was blank.

He had thought that the girl would get angry and think that he was toying with her in this way, but he hadn't expected that Lotus Sun would actually wipe away her tears.

He started to think of a big show on the spot.

Pearl-sized tears rolled down the girl's cheeks.

These were tears of gratitude.

"Student Wang Ling, SOB SOB SOB SOB... your initial mission, is it... to hide your true identity as a player..."

"..."Wang Ling was stunned; he hadn't expected Lotus Sun to actually make this up in her mind.

In fact, Lotus Sun's gratitude at this moment was indeed based on this basic reasoning logic.

She felt that Wang Ling was usually lonely enough, and this time he had taken the initiative to invite her to participate in the itinerant fairy child's Dharma Circle game world. Since they had met in the novice village, there was no need to hide his identity from her at all.

Unless he had received some initial mission and had to hide himself.

A person who was already very lonely in the first place had chosen to continue playing the game in a lonely way. He had even quietly upgraded her, built her equipment, and let her manage the town... he trusted her ability so much..

All of this made Lotus Sun feel that Wang Ling was helpless.

Immortal King's helplessness... This was what he was talking about!

"I'm sorry, student Wang Ling, I was too slow... I should have taken off your mask earlier..."

Tears of gratitude flowed down Lotus Sun's face as she wrapped her arms around Wang Ling's neck. "This way, you won't feel lonely."

Wang Ling was just being held in her arms.

His mind was still blank..

He hadn't said anything yet.

He hadn't expected Lotus Sun to be able to come up with such a story on her own.

As expected of the Sun family..

Chapter 2169 Two Thousand One Hundred And Sixty-Five, Unity Of Power (1/86)

The turn of events had been sudden and abrupt, but the ending of the story was much better than Wang Ling had imagined.

Even though he hadn't done anything, and even though he hadn't realized that he was unilaterally wrestling with the girl's emotional reaction, it was actually because of some kind of emotional factor.

She had been waiting for him for more than a decade in the future for this late realization.

Of course, all of this was in the future.

For the current Wang Ling, the relationship between him and Lotus Sun hadn't risen to such a complicated level.

She was now a core member of the war sect, and also a rare and powerful fighter, so it was normal for him to plan and play with Lotus Sun in the rear?

He was also playing with grenade-throwing and his disciple Odd Zhuo.

That's right, this was just the most basic logic of a friendly partnership.

Apart from this, there was also a very important point: Wang Ling felt that Lotus Sun was his relatively stable source of crispy noodle snacks.

When father Wang had cut off his pocket money for no reason and made it so that he couldn't buy the limited edition crispy noodle snacks, Wang Ling clearly remembered this "Favor" from Lotus Sun.

At the same time, outside the main hall of the general's mansion, Old Huang had seen Lotus Sun wrap her arms around Wang Ling's neck from afar.

There was no doubt that ten thousand black question marks had flitted across his mind, and he had no idea what had happened.

This..

Was she really a real person?

Old Huang was convinced.

He was completely convinced by Wang Ling's ability to pretend to be an NPC.

He and Lotus Sun had been constantly testing him with the Turing test!

In other words, if it hadn't been for Lotus Sun's wave of open-door assassinations that had destroyed Wang Ling's mask, this person might have planned to continue hiding it from Lotus Sun.

But as for the reason for hiding it, old Huang had more ideas than Lotus Sun.

Perhaps it wasn't just because he had to hide his identity in order to hide his mission; Old Huang felt that Wang Ling might have been setting it up in the dark, and that the level of secrecy had reached a point where even acquaintances couldn't easily tell him.

Of course, Old Huang didn't choose to expose these additional controls. He wasn't a person without discernment, and didn't want to ruin this hard-won reunion and harmony.

But at that moment, Old Huang's mind was undoubtedly still very messy.

Because he had already roughly figured out Lotus Sun's background.

After all, Sun Yiyuan's name was really too well-known, and in addition to the mature style of future corporate successors that Lotus Sun had shown in managing the town.., old Huang almost immediately confirmed that this female player with the ID "Sun Yiyuan" was probably the eldest daughter of the legendary Huaguo Water Curtain Group.

And this general of floating cloud town in front of him was most likely her classmate.

Damn, two foundation establishment high school students were killing in the game world as if they were cheating... the key point was that old Huang was very sure that this was definitely not the result of spending money.

The game world of the Loose Immortal Child Dharma Ring was fair enough. Other than the game guides that were shared by a large number of players, there were no other options.

Of course, in order to ensure the game's revenue, Bai Qiao would launch a skin function after the game's open beta, which was to sell it without any additional attributes. It would only look good in fashion.

This was a necessary operation to recoup a portion of the game's research and development costs.

..

In the main hall of the general's mansion, after Wang Ling laid out his cards, the situation in front of him seemed to suddenly become much clearer, at least for Old Huang.

But when he saw that Wang Ling had very honestly started to switch between the various identities he had collected...

Old Huang and Lotus Sun were still shocked.

Right now, Wang Ling's identities were: [trash] , [jailer] , [general Chen of floating cloud town] , [ten-cave demon lord of Floating Cloud Town] , [hundred-cave demon lord of Floating Cloud Town] , [recruitment envoy of Wolong] ..

Good Lord, were they going to steal all the npcs' jobs?

"Student Wang deliberately hid his identity; I don't think there's anything wrong with that. It's very reasonable..." Old Huang didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

He felt that the foundation establishment high school students nowadays were a little too heaven-defying.

The point was that even if Wang Ling personally organized this into a guide, there was a high probability that he wouldn't be able to replicate it.

Because it was really too outrageous.

Right now, many people outside would rather believe that Wang Ling was an NPC than a real player. This was the reason.

If Wang Ling really was a real player, in many people's eyes, he would become an insurmountable legendary peak.

So Old Huang felt that although Wang Ling had revealed his identity as a player at the moment,.

Fortunately, there were still a limited number of people who knew about it, so everything was still under control.

Everything seemed to be back on track.

But soon, a series of system announcements appeared in the world channel.

[system] Xiong Wu, president of the four symbols guild, killed player "Nine Bend Creek" in eight Star Ridge

[system] Xiong Wu, President of the four divisions guild, has killed a player "Today, I'm going to be a cave master" in eight Star Ridge

..

A series of system announcements showed that Xiong Wu had killed in all directions in the game world, and this abnormal phenomenon immediately attracted Wang Ling's attention.

The four divisions guild members had clearly been arrested in the real world, but their accounts in the game world were still logged in, and their behavior was even more arrogant than before.

According to the four divisions' previous style, they had only sent sword immortal players of similar levels in the guild to rob them. On the surface, this would at least appear fair.

But now, a guild leader directly went to bully a newbie and even completed the massacre in the system announcement. This was a little shameless.

“How could this be...”

Inside the karmic base, Shouchong looked at a string of abnormal code that had suddenly appeared in the game world. He tried to fix it, but he discovered that this string of code could not be changed by human factors.

Therefore, there was only one possibility that could explain this phenomenon.

That was that the gray fog that Bai Zhe had set up in the game world had taken effect.

Although Mighty Martial’s real person had been arrested, their game data had already become real. Moreover, according to their own logical thinking, they had directly separated into an independent individual, they had become a virtual human that truly existed.

In other words, the data of the four core members of the group of four symbols who had been arrested in the real world had already become real.

They lived in the game world of the loose immortal child’s Dharma Ring. They were independent individuals created by Bai Zhe’s distorted power.

It was also because of this that no matter how shouchong corrected the game data, he was unable to erase them.

“Good heavens, this is clearly a bug...”shouchong was a little confused. This change was too sudden and too complicated for him.

“Ling Ling can find a solution.”

Wang Ming sighed.

The only thing they could do now was to believe that Wang Ling could solve this matter satisfactorily.

Moreover, with his help, almost all the preliminary work had been completed.

After all, Wang Ling wasn't the only person in the current world of the itinerant immortal child's Dharmic ring who had a cheat to secretly set things up.

There were also the other core members of the battle sect that Wang Ming had arranged.

Qin Zong, Xiang Yi, Odd Zhuo, nine temples... they were all important forces that Wang Ling could use to arrange troops and formations.

Chapter 2170 2,166, Pill Assassin (1/86)

According to Mr. Hidden Fox's original plan, he would be able to absorb all the potion shops in small and medium-sized towns within a short period of time. He would then purchase NPC potion shops for himself with high-quality and low-cost pills.

After that, he would use the potion shop's publicity to attract more NPC players to join his shop. He would then develop and produce the pills in his shop. As long as he could ensure that the recipe was top-secret, this would be a transaction that would allow him to earn a lot of money.

It was the same as saying that if the other players joined Mr. Hidden Fox's potion shop, it would be the same as opening up an offline channel to sell the pills. Mr. Hidden Fox would be able to earn the alliance fees and share in the sales of the pills.

As for whether the quality of the pills was good or not, Mr. Hidden Fox would be in charge of everything here.

This was just a game. Normally, there would not be any problems with the safety of the pills. To the other players, as long as Mr. Hidden Fox could provide a stable supply of the pills, it would be a win-win situation.

However, after the demand increased, how to increase the production was also a big problem. If players were hired to participate, the recipe of the medicine was very likely to be leaked.

Therefore, Mr. Hidden Fox's idea was to hire a large number of npcs to refine the medicine for himself.

This directly solved the problem of production capacity.

Originally, everything was developing in an orderly manner according to Mr. Hidden Fox's plan.

When Mr. Hidden Fox went to a medium-sized town's medicine shop to investigate, he was shocked to discover that a level 4 medicinal pill worth 5,000,000 silvers was openly displayed in this medium-sized town's medicine shop.

“A Level 4 medicinal pill... 5,000,000 silvers?”

Mr. Hidden Fox frowned.

Similarly, this was a medicinal pill that was produced independently by players. Generally speaking, the market price of a Level 4 medicinal pill was usually 1,000,000 silvers in the world of the unaffiliated magic rings.

Unless the material was extremely rare, there was a possibility of a double premium.

With this level 4 medicinal pill worth 5,000,000 yuan, Mr. Hidden Fox carefully looked at the information of this medicinal pill.

Name: Returning Immortal Dragon's blood pill

Quality: Level 4

Rarity: ★★★★★

Effect: after consumption, all attributes will be temporarily increased by 25 points for 24 hours. This temporary attribute bonus will be effective for instance dungeons and pvp battles. At the same time, you will receive a special aura of “Return of light”.

NOTE: under the special status of “Return of light”, when your character is hit by a fatal blow, he or she will not die immediately. Instead, he or she will be locked into the status of 1 drop of health. At the same time, when the “Return of light” status is activated, all abnormal status on the body will be cleared.

To be honest, the effects of the medicinal pill could not be considered top-notch.

The effect of the last ray of light in Mr. Tibetan Fox existing pills there are some pills will produce such a special medicinal properties, but the probability is relatively low.

So 5 million per pill seems a little far-fetched to Mr. Zanghu.

And he found it when he was checking out.

“This looks like the Tibetan fox, sir, excuse me... Do you still buy?”The clerk looked politely at Mr. Tibetan Fox said.

This was what Mr. Hidden Fox thought was the most ridiculous part.

Because in order to do market research, Mr. Hidden Fox would usually buy all the medicinal pills in this pharmacy in one go after arriving at the new map and do a price survey.

In the end, he never expected that when he chose the medicinal pills, the price of this five million immortal returning Dragon Blood Pill was actually hidden!

It was not until he paid the bill and found the astronomical figure on the bill that he realized that he had been backstabbed!

There was no doubt that Mr. Hidden Fox’s face was filled with despair..

He had only heard of ice-cream assassins.

But he had never heard of pill assassins.

In the real world, life products like pills that required strict production qualifications had to be strictly checked from production to sales. Most of the pills that could be bought on the market were clearly priced, even if there was a price fluctuation around, it would usually not exceed 3 huaxiu dollars.

Oh..

This was a game.

Then it was fine.

It could only be said that the person who could use the ice-cream assassin's trick to sell elixirs in the game was indeed a talent.

Moreover, their sales model was targeted at obvious users. Basically, they were only scamming rich players or new players who did not understand anything at all.

The raw materials might not be the real thing. Although they were rare, they were not that rare. Therefore, the value of 5 million per pill, the 4 million inside, still came from the story of the elixirs themselves.

Through the marketing of the content to open up the customer's mind, let the buyer feel that the pill they bought was worth it.

Therefore, in essence.

What they bought was not only the pill, but also a touching little story..

This really made the job of paying for the content clear!

Looking at the shop assistant in front of him who had a look of disdain in his eyes, it was obvious that this shop assistant had gone through a considerable degree of training.

Mr. Hidden Fox was more or less familiar with this kind of trick.

Usually, when the shop assistant hesitated to pay, he would put on a disdainful face and use micro-expressions or inoffensive words to provoke the customer into spending.

However, Mr. Hidden Fox was experienced. As a walking encyclopedia of the Cultivation World, Mr. Hidden Fox's experience was not limited to books, but also a wealth of social experience.

He would not be fooled by the shop assistant's supercilious look. In the end, he directly moved the pill assassin out of the shopping cart and left.

Although the existence of the pill assassin reaped the middle-and high-end market, there was no obvious conflict with Mr. Hidden Fox's current layout. However, in the future, when Mr. Hidden Fox wanted to enter the high-end market..., it would be a little too late to enter this part of the market.

Moreover, in Mr. Hidden Fox's view, if he wanted to make the pill high-end, he absolutely couldn't rely on a simple story.

He needed to really make the pill high-end, so that this pill would be worth it and obtain the approval of mainstream players.

Other than using top-notch raw materials, the method of refining pills also had to be updated.

The traditional pill refining was done with pill furnaces. In the modern cultivation society, the pill furnaces were all equipped with high-tech equipment, connected to the Internet and big data. All the medicinal ingredients added were accurate to milligrams, and even the temperature was precisely controlled by modern technology, this allowed the quality of the medicinal pills to be stabilized and standardized.

However, under this standardized model, the medicinal pills produced were naturally standardized medicinal pills. In ancient times, when cultivators refined medicinal pills with the same formula, the medicinal pills they refined had different characteristics, this was due to the addition of the power of nature, which allowed the medicinal pills to have other additional attributes.

For example, Mr. Hidden Fox used the most primitive pot to refine pills in the wild. The success rate was not as high as that of a normal pill refining tool, but it was better than being able to steadily refine some special pills.

At this moment.

Mr. Hidden Fox opened the game map.

He had a very bold idea in his heart.

There were thousands of ways to refine pills, but if there was a way to greatly increase the value of the pills and allow the specificity of the pills to reach the extreme... Mr. Hidden Fox's personal experience only came up with one.

He needed to find an active volcano!

Yes!

A volcano to refine pills!

He would use an active volcano as a pill furnace to refine pills!
