Chapter 441 – Heavenly Dragon Subduing the Devil

When Liu Menger, Gu Dongchen, and the others saw the white dragon tattoo on Chen Xiang, they treated it like it was nothing, they only thought Chen Xiang liked dragons, that's why he got it.

But now, sensing the powerful aura gushing out from that white dragon, they could not help but associate it with a dragon soul!

Beast souls were also a kind of martial souls, the acquired martial souls! They were the souls that remained after some powerful beasts had died. A majority of the beast's strength was stored in that soul. After fusing with it, one could obtain a very astonishing strength. Furthermore, he or she could also get some of the martial techniques of that beast soul. These martial techniques were also called beast martial techniques!

Upon recalling this point, everyone believed even more so that it was a dragon soul that was fused with Chen Xiang's arm! A dragon was a divine beast. A beast soul of that level was the strongest of all. Thereby, the beast martial technique that Chen Xiang had obtained was also very horrifying, or so they believed.

Some of the people who had once seen Chen Xiang's battle understood as to why any martial techniques that Chen Xiang employed always were in the form of a dragon!

At this moment, Chen Xiang was using Long Xueyi's strength. He knew that he could not defeat that resurrected Evil Skeleton Devil Lord with his own strength. It might seem that he was completely suppressing the Evil Skeleton Devil Lord, but that was just temporary.

His dragon force was limited. Furthermore, it's rate of consumption was astonishingly fast. As the matter stood, he couldn't even cause any injuries to the Evil Skeleton Devil Lord. Evil Skeleton Devil Lord had also noticed this point, that was why he was very calm.

Therefore, Chen Xiang could only borrow Long Xueyi's strength and cast the strongest killing technique—the Heavenly Dragon Seal!

The Heavenly Dragon Seal did not just use the caster's strength when cast out, it also borrowed the strength of the heaven and the earth. That was also the reason it was so powerful. The stronger its caster was, the more strength of the heaven and the earth he could borrow Long Xueyi's strength was very unique. It could very easily fuse with Chen Xiang's strength and become a lot stronger. Furthermore, Long Xueyi's strength itself was nothing to scoff at. In addition, her spiritual energy was also very strong. As a result, the Heavenly Dragon Seal cast was even stronger.

Only with this move could Chen Xiang completely kill the Evil Skeleton Devil Lord who was in his growth phase!

Watching the rising winds and scudding clouds, many people who had seen Chen Xiang's fight knew that Chen Xiang was about to cast a very powerful move. Last Time he had even destroyed the Fragrance City's square. That scene was still fresh in Gu Dongchen and the others' minds.

Very soon, everyone came to learn of that frightening move and were ready to jump!

Wang Quan wanted to block them, but there were a couple hundred Nirvana Realm martial artists watching. If he did this, he would be stopped by those Nirvana Realm experts for sure. Furthermore, he was confident about Sun Xueren. When he saw Sun Xueren's other arm also turning into the skeletal claw he knew Sun Xueren had evolved, he was even more powerful!

Chen Xiang was stalling until he had gathered enough of heaven and earth forces. He was mainly gathering the Spirit Qi and lightning. The Heavenly Dragon Seal he was casting this time wasn't the same as before. It was a special move to deal with the devil.

"If you cast the Furious Dragon's Retribution, it's sufficient. But if you want to cast the Subduing Dragon Seal, it is still lacking!" Long Xueyi pointed it out as she continued to pass the casting method to Chen Xiang's mind.

Dark clouds had covered the sky. But they were mainly gathered above the arena, forming a whirlpool of dark clouds, which gave no small pressure to Sun Xueren. He too had heard of this move. Even if he had fused with the Evil Skeleton Devil Lord, he still could not fathom from where Chen Xiang learned such a powerful dragon martial technique.

"That's it!" Long Xueyi shouted in a lovely voice as a flash of white light erupted from Chen Xiang's right arm. In fact, Long Xueyi was instilling her own energy into Chen Xiang.

While Chen Xiang was pounding Sun Xueren, he was reading the incantation as well!

The thunder clapped and lightning flashed in the sky as the wind tore through the ground. Even the ground was slightly shaking. The entire scene gave the impression that the entire world was coming to an end, scaring the hell out of everyone.

The black whirlpool over the martial arts stage started rotating like crazy, sucking the dark clouds surrounding it into the whirl. Meanwhile, Chen Xiang's spiritual energy and the vigorous True Qi madly rushed into the sky, sucking even those lightning strikes into that whirlpool.

As everyone raised their heads, many people gulped nervously by the sight of the sheer mass of energy contained inside that huge whirlpool. They immediately gather their strength underneath their feet; ready to jump at a moment notice. Once that horrifying energy struck down, they would jump into the sky.

Wang Quan and the other Nirvana Realm experts noticed that although that mass of energy was huge, it wasn't that strong. They believed it wasn't strong enough to destroy the arrays surrounding the arena.

"Heavenly Dragon Seal, Subduing the Devil!" As Chen Xiang finished chanting, a dragon roar reverberated in the sky before that ball of light in the sky which had all kinds of energy stored in it flashed with a white light.

"Roar~" A dragon roar pierced through the nine heavens. At that moment, a disastrous aura came crushing down, covering the entire King City. Horrifying tremors ran through the ground. Those cultivators who had long prepared to jump, leaped into the sky instantly.

At this moment, a white dragon emerged from that whirlpool. That huge white dragon was as natural as though it was living. It was releasing a holy white aura. Its majestic bearing gave a newfound chill to everyone.

The dragon roars continued one after another as the huge white dragon came rushing down from the sky, crashing into the arena. At that moment, all the arrays on the martial arts stage were broken completely. The few Divine Martial Palace elders immediately laid a barrier, nonetheless, they were late by a step. After that dreadful energy crashed into Sun Xueren, it burst forth with a powerful qi that seeped deep into the ground, before exploding. A wave of energy spread in all direction, enveloping the square, as well as the faraway pavilions; many cracks had appeared on them.

The martial arts stage was affected most tragically. After having been enveloped in a white aura, explosions rang to no end. It seemed as if many huge white dragons continued to emerge from that whirlpool and rushed straight towards the ground, madly crashing into that arena.

About thirty white dragons congealed from energy, giving out majestic dragon roars struck the ground like lightning. Almost half of that huge square that was as big as a small city was split. All the faraway pavilions were also trampled from the shockwave.

That kind of strength was far stronger than an early stage Spirit Martial Realm cultivator! How could it not, it was an attack cast using the strength of both Chen Xiang and Long Xueyi. Not to mention that an all-powerful spiritual power was cast. The attack was created using the forces of the heaven and earth. It was endlessly powerful!

Soon, the heaven and the earth calmed down. The earlier attack was so powerful that they felt as if the world was coming to end. Even those Nirvana Realm powerhouses dreaded that dragon martial technique of Chen Xiang; if Chen Xiang was in Nirvana Realm, it would be even stronger for sure!

The martial arts stage no longer existed! However, Chen Xiang and Sun Xueren were still there. Although Chen Xiang was also standing on the arena, he wasn't affected by the attack, for it was him who had cast that spiritual power.

As for Sun Xueren, he was lying on the ground. Those giant skeletal arms of his had already disappeared, reverted back to their original appearance. His entire body looked like a mummified corpse. His face was completely pale as if he was scared shitless.

"In the future, I would never go to watch this guy's fight, ever! It is simply suicidal!" A man crashed down from the sky. Had they not escaped a moment ago, perhaps they would have been blown away already.

"Yeah! Last time I was a bit slower to react and was buried in the rubble!"

"That guy is a complete freak!"

At this moment, many people sighed with emotions. Had it not been for those arrays on the martial arts stage, perhaps everything would have been destroyed completely!

With Sun Xueren's death, Chen Xiang took a long, deep breath. Nearly all of his True Qi had been consumed.

Wang Quan's facial muscles twitched as he walked onto the stage. Just as he touched Sun Xueren's corpse, that corpse transformed into ashes and scattered with the wind!

By the sight of this, everyone was started!

“You...you won!” Wang Quan shouted in a hoarse voice. His entire body quivering with anger.

Chapter 442 – King’s Mysterious Realm

Seeing Wang Quan in a towering rage, Gu Dongchen and Wu Kaiming hurriedly arrived beside Chen Xiang, lest Wang Quan fling caution to the wind and attacked Chen Xiang.

“What about my rewards?” Chen Xiang was even more concerned about this. He did come here for that Fruit of Fortune, after all.

Taking deep breaths, Wang Quan managed to suppress the fury and hatred in his heart. He took out a jade box and handed it over to Chen Xiang. “As the winner of this year’s King’s Martial Arts Assembly, this is your reward on behalf of my Divine Martial Palace.”

Chen Xiang opened the box immediately to check and saw a fist-sized pure white fruit inside. It was the Fruit of Fortune. Although it was not emanating any kind of aura, whatsoever, when Chen Xiang touched it a bit, he could feel a bizarre Spirit Qi inside.

“It sure is the Fruit of Fortune,” Su Meiyao said, after having confirmed.

Watching that precious Fruit of Fortune falling in Chen Xiang’s laps, some of the alchemists and young martial artists felt extremely jealous. They were feeling envious of Chen Xiang for being able to obtain such good thing at his age.

The final winner of King’s Martial Arts Assembly turned out to be a martial artist from overseas, which made many native martial artists of Kings’ Mainland feel very shameful. There were many who hated Chen Xiang, but they had no choice but to acknowledge Chen Xiang’s strength. Just from the square he was in, it was quite apparent that Chen Xiang was extremely strong. After all, that Sun Xueren was a level higher than Chen Xiang.

“There should be one more reward, right!” Chen Xiang said. He was also quite curious about that mysterious reward.

Hearing this sentence, Wang Quan was started a bit before he replied, “You have to come with me! Also, you need to keep it a secret!”

“That won’t do!” Of course, Gu Dongchen couldn’t allow Chen Xiang to go alone with Wang Quan. Wang Quan had a deep-seated hatred for Chen Xiang. It was impossible not to worry.

Wang Quan coldly said, “I also don’t want to! I don’t want to regret it later. As much as I want to kill this brat, I don’t dare to act recklessly in regards to this matter!”

This proclamation made Chen Xiang think of the King’s Mysterious Realm. It was a very mysterious place. Chen Xiang reckon that there were some powerhouses still inside the King’s Mysterious Realm.

“It’s alright, don’t worry about me!” Chen Xiang smiled at Gu Dongchen and Wu Kaiming, assuring them. The King’s Martial Arts Assembly was held once every decade, yet no one knew what this mysterious reward was. And everyone who did get this reward had to keep it a secret.

Judging from Chen Xiang's bearing, Gu Dongchen and Wu Kaiming could only let Chen Xiang follow Wang Quan. By the sight of this scene, many onlookers' curiosity was piqued, for they didn't even know about that mysterious reward.

Chen Xiang, following Wang Quan, left. Whereas Gu Dongchen and Wu Kaiming were surrounded by a group of powerhouses, asking about that mysterious reward. However, they couldn't get any answer, which added much to their curiosity even more so.

Wang Quan brought Chen Xiang into an enormous palace. This palace was magnificent yet not luxurious. There was a strong ancient aura to it. Apparently, it was a relic from the distant past.

After entering, Chen Xiang, following Wang Quan through many secret passages, finally entered the heart of this tall and magnificent palace.

"Wang Quan, I think you should go and meet my teacher!" Chen Xiang suddenly said.

"Hmph, why?" Wang Quan coldly harrumphed. At present, he could not wait to crush Chen Xiang to death. However, he didn't dare so. If he could, he would have done it a long time ago.

Chen Xiang could also see that this mysterious reward was of paramount importance, or why would Wang Quan be so cautious.

"The martial soul you gave Sun Xueren was actually an evil martial soul, called Evil Skeleton Martial Soul! Don't you know?" Chen Xiang coldly smiled as he asked.

"So what? Sun Xueren didn't do anything bad with that evil martial soul. Only his character appeared to be indifferent, that's all," Wang Quan said disapprovingly.

"You might not know but this Evil Skeleton Martial Soul was a relic of a guy name Devil Lord Evil Skeleton. His soul and consciousness were actually inside it...I don't need to say anymore, and you aren't an idiot as well. You should be well aware of what are the consequences if the Devil Lord Evil Skeleton is resurrected and is allowed to flourish!"

Upon hearing Chen Xiang, Wang Quan trembled a bit and stopped. He no longer said anything and continued leading Chen Xiang through various secret passages.

Wang Quan sure knew about Evil Skeleton Devil Lord, he very well knew that the Evil Skeleton Martial Soul belonged to Devil Lord Evil Skeleton. However, he had never expected for Devil Lord Evil Skeleton to resurrect in this way. After carefully analyzing the unusual changes in Sun Xueren after Chen Xiang had ripped Sun Xueren's arm away, he was sure Chen Xiang was telling the truth. At that time, he too believed that there was something wrong with Sun Xueren.

When Chen Xiang had killed Sun Xueren, that slowly growing Devil Lord Evil Skeleton was also killed by Chen Xiang. If he had allowed that Devil Lord to secretly prosper, the subsequent consequences would have been disastrous!

After following Wang Quan through many secret passages, even Chen Xiang had no idea where he ended up. However, he was still inside the huge palace, it was the one thing he was still sure of.

At this moment, Wang Quan led him into a huge hall. At the center of this hall was a teleportation array.

“Stand in the center, I will teleport you to a place. I hope you can still come back. Of course, it is still not too late for you to back out,” Wang Quan said.

Just as Chen Xiang placed his foot forward, he withdrew it immediately. “What do you mean? Explain it clearly, will you? Won’t this teleportation array teleport me to the King’s Mysterious Realm?”

Wang Quan answered coldly, “You sure know more than you should. That old madman must have told you! To tell you the truth, the King’s Martial Arts Assembly has been held many times over tens of thousands of years, but not many people know about the King’s Mysterious Realm!

“Do you know why?”

Chen Xiang shook his head in response.

“Because most of the people who won first are afraid to step into the teleportation other. They are afraid to enter the King’s Mysterious Realm. I too was a champion of King’s Martial Arts Assembly once, but I also gave up the chance to enter the King’s Mysterious Realm!”

Chen Xiang slowly took a deep breath before asking, “Why?”

“Because those who had entered have never come out, ever! All I know is that anyone who enters will face King’s trial which is very dangerous! Now, are you sure you still want to proceed?”

Chen Xiang nodded his agreement. “I want to go.”

Having said this, he walked to the center of the teleportation array without further ado.

Pinching a talisman, Wang Quan said, “I have recorded what you just did a moment ago. If you don’t come back, I can still prove my innocence!”

While Wang Quan spoke, a dazzling white light flashed from the teleportation array before Chen Xiang’s figure disappeared. He had been teleported to the King’s Mysterious Realm!

Chen Xiang didn’t fear any trial, the slightest bit. As far as he was concerned, it was a means to improve his strength. Not to mention the fact that he was now in Extreme State. He could leave the mysterious realm through the Luo Tian Door at moment notice. If he felt that something was wrong, he could escape momentarily.

At present, he wanted to see what’s so mysterious and terrifying about this King’s Mysterious Realm!

After having his sight dazzled by the white flash of light, Chen Xiang appeared on a plain. And on the distant horizon of the plain was a tall and huge palace. Looking from afar, he looked like a tall mountain rising straight from the prairie. Even from this far away, Chen Xiang could still feel its grand and imposing aura.

“Hei hei, welcome to the King’s Mysterious Realm. Little Brother, I would still have to ask you the trouble to enter the King’s Palace yourself!” a gentle laughter floated into Chen Xiang’s ears, echoing continuously.

King’s Palace? Chen Xiang could not find anything terrifying about this place as Wang Quan had said. Putting his mind at ease, he ran towards that distant palace.

Chapter 443 – King’s Palace

When Chen Xiang manage to arrive at the entrance of the palace, an old man suddenly walked out from within, welcoming him with smiles.

“Little Brother, are you the recent champion of Kings’ Mainland!” that old man asked, smiling.

Chen Xiang nodded his affirmation. “I am, but I don’t know why I have to come here!”

That old man answered, “It’s better if you don’t know. Come with me!”

Chen Xiang could only follow that old man to a stone room. Standing inside which was a middle-aged man, who waved his hand to the old man. Whereupon, that old man withdrew from the room. The door of this stone room was also closed completely.

The middle-aged man was dressed very simply. His long hair was draped over his shoulder. With a gentle look and a slight smile on his face, he gazed at Chen Xiang.

From the beginning, the King’s Mysterious Realm was very mysterious. And after Chen Xiang had arrived here, his curiosity was piqued even more so by the sight of the King’s Palace. What he could not understand was why a group of people were willing to stay here for thousands and thousands of years. Rich as the Spirit Qi in here was, staying in here would be rather monotonous.

After staring at Chen Xiang for a while, that middle-aged man finally opened his mouth, “It’s very difficult for me to believe that there is still someone willing to come in here. I have waited for a long time. My wait has not let me down! Your physique is very good. Although you have expended a lot of your True Qi, I can still see that your True Qi must have been very vigorous. You deserved to be the champion of the King’s Martial Arts Assembly! It looks like you are far better than those who have come before you.”

Chen Xiang pursed his lips into a smile as he said, “All I knew was that the champion will receive this mysterious reward, therefore, I came in!”

That middle-aged man smiled and asked, “So to say, when you came in, you knew it would be dangerous?”

“Yes, but I am not afraid! Now, shouldn’t you tell me what that reward is?” Chen Xiang asked. He was a bit fatigued and wanted to leave this place sooner.

The middle-aged man nodded. After all, young people were all extremely curious. Now, after having arrived at such a mysterious place, Chen Xiang would want to know some things naturally.

“This King’s Mysterious Realm has a long line of history. It’s also the place where the Human King was born. We are the guardian of this place! This King’s Palace is also the base of Human King in the mortal world. So, in order to cultivate some good seedlings, the Human King will choose some King’s Vein martial artists from the Kings’ Mainland to come here using some ways, where they will receive the Human King’s inheritance and become a martial artist of King’s Palace!” that middle-aged man explained.

Chen Xiang was momentarily stunned. He could not help but ask, “So to say, there is a King’s Palace in the Heavenly Realm as well?”

“That’s right! However, it is just a young influence! One of the reasons why the Human King established an influence in the Heavenly Realm is to let many King’s Vein martial artists have a safe harbor once they arrived in the Heavenly Realm! And since you can come here, it means your bloodline is outstanding. You will be zealously nurtured by King’s Palace, as such, your bloodline’s power would be inspired to the most perfect form.”

Hearing this, Chen Xiang was secretly laughing in his heart, for he wasn’t a King’s Vein martial artist. Now he came to realize why anyone who entered the King’s Mysterious Realm never came out.

“Some people don’t have the guts to come in. Such timid people would never get the approval of the King’s Palace. Therefore, anyone who dares to come in will be considered a member of the King’s Palace! Of course, you can still leave this place, but if you stay here, you will receive better training. Here you will be cut off from the outside, your heart will be cleansed and your passion will be restricted, you can cultivate the dao of martial arts in serenity, indifferent of fame and wealth,” the middle-aged man said in a peaceful voice.

Chen Xiang said, a bit embarrassed, “Senior, I’m sorry to say that I am not a King’s Vein martial artist, I am also not a citizen of Kings’ Mainland. I was only invited by the Divine Martial Palace to participate in the King’s Martial Arts Assembly, which I won luckily!”

The middle-aged man’s eyes went wide in surprise as he looked at Chen Xiang with disbelief. “That’s impossible! The King’s Vein martial artists would not have declined so much? How could they possibly be defeated by martial artists from other mainlands!?”

“Senior, if you don’t believe it, you can ask the Divine Martial Palace lord!” Chen Xiang heaved a sigh and said. He believed that this middle-aged man must have secluded himself from the outside world in day to day life. However, he had made the Divine Martial Palace aware of this palace nevertheless, therefore, the Divine Martial Palace didn’t dare to mess with the reward.

Although Chen Xiang only saw two people after having arrived at this enormous King’s Palace, he was sure that there were still many super powerful old codgers in here. More importantly, all of them were King’s Vein martial artists. Such a strength sure was extremely formidable. Now he came to understand why the Kings’ Mainland remained unscathed during the last Great Battle of Three Realms.

“The Divine Martial Palace is just a branch of King’s Palace. For many years, they have been responsible for hosting the King’s Martial Arts Assembly. I believe that they should not have made a mistake! It’s just that you have surprised me so much. You were actually able to defeat the King’s Vein martial artists of my King’s Mainland.” the middle-aged man surprisingly believed Chen Xiang so soon.

Chen Xiang pursed his lips and said, “You really should manage that Divine Martial Palace a bit. Your King’s Vein martial artists haven’t declined at all. It just that there are some people who have the power to hide the truth from the masses. They want to manipulate the entire King’s Martial Arts Assembly!”

The middle-aged man’s face was lined with furrows after hearing this. “Are you telling the truth?”

Chen Xiang made a harrumph in a low voice as he said, “In order to get the first, the Divine Martial Palace Lord haphazardly gave the Evil Skeleton Martial Soul which was a relic of the Devil Lord Evil Skeleton to his treasured apprentice...”

Next, Chen Xiang began to narrate what he saw and his own experience when he participated in the King's Martial Arts Assembly to the middle-aged man. Because he reckoned that this middle-aged man should be the Master of this King's Palace. Currently, the Divine Martial Palace's atmosphere wasn't very good. If this continued, something big might happen.

For instance, Wang Quan could seize other mainlands to fulfill his own ambitions and expand his influence. This wasn't impossible at all.

The middle-aged man was secretly furious but there was no change in his expression or his voice, for it still hadn't been verified.

After hearing everything, the middle-aged man said, lamenting, "Men are not what they were in the times of long ago! I will send someone to investigate it clearly. Little Brother, it's a pity that you aren't a King's Vein martial artists, you won't be able to receive Human King's inheritance."

Chen Xiang laughed and said, "It's alright, I have my own teacher anyway. If the opportunity presented itself in the future, I want to compare notes with the King's Palace martial artists."

"I wonder what's the name of Little Brother's sect?" only now did the middle-aged man wanted to ask the origins of Chen Xiang. However, he also appeared to be less concerned about it.

"Extreme Martial Sect and my teacher is Huang Jintian," Chen Xiang answered right away.

Just as the name Huang Jintian entered his ears, the middle-aged man was totally started. He said, "So it was like this. In other words, you cultivate in Tai Chi Subduing Dragon Exercise, you have Yin and Yang Vein?"

Chen Xiang nodded his affirmation. He didn't expect this middle-aged man to actually know of his teacher.

A sharp gleam immediately flashed past the middle-aged man's eyes as he looked at Chen Xiang thoughtfully. Then, he said, "Although you can't become a member of the King's Palace, I will still give you a reward, it can be regarded as a compensation!"

"A reward?" Chen Xiang originally believe he had to return empty-handed, but now he was secretly excited. This King's Palace was the strongest existence of the Kings' Mainland, they sure won't be stingy in their rewards.

The middle-aged man raised his head as he looked at a huge crystal ball in the stone room. Only now did Chen Xiang discovered this thing. But he didn't think that this was a treasure.

Chapter 444 – A Huge Reward

The middle-aged could guess what Chen Xiang must be thinking. He chuckled and said, "This is not the reward I want to give you, it will let you see a person!"

"Who am I meeting?" Chen Xiang immediately felt extremely disappointed. What kind of a reward was meeting a person? He may as well receive some real treasure.

When Chen Xiang's gaze landed on that crystal ball, a gust of gentle aura emanated from the crystal ball suddenly, projecting on the ground. A translucent figure, seemingly false and real at the same time, appeared before Chen Xiang.

Seeing this man, Chen Xiang was momentarily dumbfounded. Meanwhile, that middle-aged man hastily bowed down to greet. "Your Excellency, it's a bit complicated, please listen to me first."

In fact, Chen Xiang recognized the man projected by the crystal ball. It was none other than Wu Canghong whom Chen Xiang had met under the Heroes Mountain earlier. When that middle-aged man addressed Wu Canghong as 'Your Excellency', it was quite evident that Wu Canghong may very well be the Human King.

[TLN: What author has used is 大殿主, roughly translated as Great Palace Lord, but I changed it to Your Excellency.]

Wu Canghong broke into laughter as he said, "Little Brother, we are really destined, we meet again!"

The middle-aged man had not yet had the time to report the matter before he heard Wu Canghong's word, which greatly surprised him.

Much to his surprise, Chen Xiang had met their Human King. Furthermore, from the looks of it, their relation was pretty good as well. It was very difficult to be appreciated by the Human King. The middle-aged man was quite familiar with Wu Canghong's personality, he rarely saw that kind of expression in Wu Canghong's eyes when meeting others.

Wu Canghong was someone who cultivated in Shinto. And Shinto cultivators were pretty rare. Therefore, he was very friendly with Chen Xiang because he believed that Chen Xiang was just like him. In the future, maybe he could discuss the Shinto cultivation with Chen Xiang.

"You go out first! Let him tell me about this matter himself," Wu Canghong said. That middle-aged man immediately peeked a glance at Chen Xiang with an incomprehensible look in his eyes before promptly taking his leave from this stone room.

Chen Xiang burst into a mischievous laugh as he said, "Senior Wu, your background is really big! You turned out to be the illustrious Human King!"

Listening to Chen Xiang's remark, Wu Canghong shook his head as he broke into laughter, "Human King my ass, it's a title given to me by others. I was just a bit powerful in my clan which later brought about the development of my clansmen, nothing more, nothing less."

"Tell me, how did you come here? You wouldn't have won that King's Martial Arts Assembly, have you?"

Chen Xiang roared with laughter as he nodded and said, "I am sorry, your King's Vein martial artists were beaten by me..."

Thereafter, he once again narrated the details of King's Martial Arts Assembly to Wu Canghong.

After Wu Canghong came to know of that Evil Skelton Martial Soul matter, he fumed with anger. "This Wang Quan is looking down on my King's Palace more and more! It looks like, after managing the Divine Martial Palace for many years, his ambition has grown a lot!"

“As for how to deal with him, it would depend on King’s Palace of the mortal world. I am from Heavenly Realm, I can’t intervene in mortal world’s matter. This is a principle. Although I may not adhere to the rules, this thing is conscious, or else all the worlds would fall into disorder.”

“Then, Senior, so to say, I will not be getting any reward, will I? What a pity!” Chen Xiang said, sighing intentionally.

“Kiddo, are you still not satisfied after getting the Luo Tian Door? I can’t give you anything now and also can’t order the King’s Palace to give you anything. However, I can tell you the location of a hidden herb garden. It might not be a mysterious realm but it’s a bit dangerous!”

Chen Xiang’s eyes immediately lit up. This was a pretty big “reward”. He hastily asked, “Where is that place?”

“It’s in the King’s Mainland! Let loose your mind, I will impart the map into your brain,” Wu Canghong said.

Chen Xiang closed his eyes as he let loose his entire body. Suddenly some extra information appeared in his mind, it was a map. The map was very vast and detailed, pointing to a remote place from the King City. More importantly, the route to it was quite dangerous!

“This is given to me by a guy named Li Tianjun. He is one crazy guy who is mad about alchemy, and very stingy to boot! He once stayed in Kings’ Mainland for some time, where he planted a herb garden. However, now, he has already arrived at the Heavenly Realm, therefore, that herb garden has been deserted already. He also didn’t leave any behind, so, he told it to me! In fact, I was cheated by him at first, and that’s the only reason I got this useless herb garden.”

Dan King Li Tianjun! Chen Xiang and Su Meiyao were greatly taken aback all of a sudden. Earlier, he was rumored to have died already. Now, it appeared that he was quite alive and kicking.

In the past, when Chen Xiang was making his way to the Extreme Martial Sect, he had obtained a herb garden, which was also left behind Li Tianjun. Then, once again, he had encountered the second herb garden in Lu Family’s Herb King Mountain. And from there, he had gotten the clue of the top mysterious realm!

World’s first mysterious realm, where all kinds of rare and precious herb could be found. In the past, Li Tianjun had been hunted down because of this! Chen Xiang had a detailed map. A year or so after Chen Xiang had obtained that map, there were indications of the occurrence of a solar eclipse. However, at that time, Chen Xiang had missed it. Therefore, he was waiting for next time. At that time, his still wasn’t strong enough to traverse through various mainlands. But now, it was different. He had been waiting for the solar eclipse to approach because the mysterious realm would open only then.

“That guy had also said that he was quite famous in the Mortal Martial World. And now, he is still doing rather well in the alchemists’ circle of Heavenly Realm! This guy is a genius. He is quite proficient in alchemy, refining equipment, as well as in arranging arrays. And he is quite powerful, and also somewhat crafty!” said Wu Canghong.

Chen Xiang broke into laughter and said, "When I arrive at the Heavenly Realm, I have to thank him! The herb gardens left behind by him had brought me no small amount of benefits. I had chanced upon two of his herb garden earlier."

"I will sure to tell him this! Well, I hope that next time I see it will be in the Heavenly Realm! I am looking forward to that day," Wu Canghong said, laughing. And waving his hand at Chen Xiang, his figure slowly disappeared.

Chen Xiang left the stone room himself, a smile on his face. After that middle-aged man saw Chen Xiang, he asked, "How did you know his excellency?"

Chen Xiang, pretending to be mysterious, replied, "It's a secret. He asked me not to reveal it. I want to return now!"

Although he had to retrieve that reward himself, Chen Xiang thought that it was a pretty good harvest already.

Seeing the expression in Chen Xiang's eyes, that middle-aged man led Chen Xiang respectfully to a hall. In the hall, there was a teleportation array.

The middle-aged man promptly activated the transmission array after Chen Xiang stood on it. Immediately after, Chen Xiang disappeared and appeared before the entrance of that huge palace of Divine Martial Palace.

Where Wu Kaiming and Gu Dongchen was waiting for him. They were worried that Wang Quan had secretly assassinated Chen Xiang.

"I am alright, let's go back!" Chen Xiang broke into a laugh as he assured them. After Hua Xiangyue and Liu Menger, who were standing in the pavilion far away, heard it, they too left with ease.

"Scoundrel, when are you coming back? I am still not convinced about my defeat, I still want to fight with you!" Lanlan, followed by an old man, shouted aloud from afar.

Hearing this, Chen Xiang could not help but burst into laughter as he said, "You want me to look for you for a fight? Why don't you pay a visit yourself? Why would I come and look for you? But even if you come, we have to see if I am in the mood!"

"Hmph, even if you don't want to, you have to! This lady here is the strongest woman of the Blue Blood Family!" Lanlan harrumphed charmingly, sticking her tongue out at Chen Xiang. By the sight of her wry face, Chen Xiang and the others suddenly couldn't help but laugh.

Mo Tian hadn't arrived. He had already left with his clansmen.

It was also the first time Chen Xiang had ever seen an elder of Blue Blood Family. It was that smiling old man sitting next to Lanlan.

Bidding goodbyes to Lanlan, Chen Xiang and the others stepped into the teleportation array. With the conclusion of King's Martial Arts Assembly, Chen Xiang's name had spread far and wide across the entire Kings' Mainland.

“I will come back!” When Chen Xiang stepped into the teleportation array, he said in his heart, as there still that “huge reward” he needed to retrieve himself.

Chapter 445 – Elder Dan’s Decision

Having returned to the Extreme Martial Sect, Chen Xiang came to the Extreme Dan King Courtyard without further ado and then, slept, just slept.

When Chen Xiang woke up, a silhouette dressed in black and a white muslin on its face suddenly entered his gaze, scaring the hell out of him. He was so scared that he let out a sharp scream.

“What the hell is wrong with you? You scared me to death!” Chen Xiang shouted snappily. At first, he had been scared by Elder Dan, however, now, he was rather happy to see her because he finally got to see Elder Dan after so long.

Elder Dan harrumphed lightly and said, “Where is the herb garden?”

“I moved it because of some things. Therefore...at that time, I thought I may have to escape, however, due to my vigorous effort to turn the tide, I was able to save the situation and avoided getting hunt down,” explained Chen Xiang.

Taking out a White Jade Lotus Seed, Chen Xiang gave it to Elder Dan and said, laughing, “Little girl, this is for you, consider is a repayment for giving me the Five Element True Elemental Dan’s herbs last time, it really helped me a lot!”

Elder Dan was taken aback momentarily before taking it. She would never say no to anything given by Chen Xiang.

“Very conscientious of you! Tell me the truth, have you learned the Refining Simulation Technique?” Elder Dan asked. Although she sounded cold, Chen Xiang could feel that her attitude towards him had turned for better. There was a kind of inexplicable gentleness. He couldn’t help but act in a well-behaved manner.

Chen Xiang nodded his affirmation as he replied, “Yes! I didn’t expect that you would even know about this!”

Elder Dan, storing the White Jade Lotus Seed, turned around and said, “Of course, I would know about it. Don’t think that I would not know anything since I had gone into seclusion for training!”

“Little Girl, why didn’t you greet me, or addressed me as martial uncle for that matter. Just now, I gave you such a precious thing and you still haven’t thanked me!” Chen Xiang said, laughing.

Elder Dan countered, speaking in a cold voice, “Don’t you want to look at my appearance?”

Chen Xiang was immediately tempted. “That’s all I have been dreaming of. You mean to say you will show me now?”

“As I have said, as long as you can defeat me, I will be yours. However, you still have a long way to go!”

Chen Xiang immediately snorted and said, “Then, why all this bullshitting? Do you like teasing me!?”

Elder Dan suddenly heaved a light sigh and said, “You have three years, in these three years you have to refine a low-grade earth level dan for me. Then, we will have an alchemy contest, and as long as you won, I will accept my defeat!”

Her sigh was full of complex emotions, which Chen Xiang found difficult to understand. He came to realize that Elder Dan must have encountered something.

“Why?” Chen Xiang, pondering for a moment, asked.

The current Elder Dan gave off the impression that she could not wait to marry him. But he used to think that Elder Dan was just speaking dismissively. How could she possibly become his just after getting defeated, he was skeptical about it and treated it as a nonsense.

“I am preparing for my eighth tribulation! Therefore, if you want to see my face, this is your last chance!” Elder Dan’s voice was filled with helplessness.

Chen Xiang immediately felt a twinge of pain upon hearing. He felt a bit sad and very dejected as well.

“You can choose to not cross the tribulation, can’t you? Haven’t many people done the same?” said Chen Xiang. Mysterious and cold as Elder Dan was always, Chen Xiang felt that he could get along with her. He regarded her as a good friend. Furthermore, both were alchemist; so, Chen Xiang could not bear to part with her.

“No! I don’t want to act timid in my life, ever. You know, if I shrank once, I will shrink twice. Then, I won’t have the guts to face the Nirvana Tribulation ever again. That’s why many Nirvana Realm martial artists die of old age! My strength has arrived at a bottleneck, I have already done all level of preparations,” Elder Dan replied in a stern voice.

Refining a low-grade earth level dan in three years!? At present, Chen Xiang’s divine sense and flame had already reached the threshold. What left was finding the herbs, which was rather difficult. If Elder Dan failed to cross her tribulation, it would be impossible for Chen Xiang to see what Elder Dan looked like.

“My master can...”

“I’ll go to him. However, even if I knew what I will be facing in the Nirvana Tribulation, a certain level of danger is still there. It’s impossible to have a complete assurance. Therefore, I am giving you three years for you to prove that you can be as good as me!” Elder Dan said in a serious manner.

Chen Xiang felt depressed. “Even if I can have you, so what? You still have to cross your tribulation, don’t you? Furthermore, I don’t want to marry you, haven’t I said that Xianxian has to agree first. I just want to take a look at your face!”

After three years, Chen Xiang would be in his thirties. If he could refine earth-level dans by then, that would make him the topmost genius of the world. Elder Dan thought that if she could find a man with such a talent as a support, it wasn’t unwise at all. And as she herself was an alchemist, the two would get along far better.

“Hmph, anyway, you have to treat this contest seriously. It may be my last alchemy contest. Furthermore, I haven’t had a man until now, I want to let a man worthy of me to look at my face before I die!” said Elder Dan.

Chen Xiang heaved a long sigh. “Sigh, if I came to like you, wouldn’t it make me sad if you want to cross the tribulation!”

“But, it’s also possible for me to successfully cross the tribulation!” said Elder Dan.

In order to ease up the atmosphere, Chen Xiang deliberately laughed and said, “It seems that I can only give it a try. As long as you become mine, you will be at my mercy! Hei hei, I always wanted to strip you clean...”

Elder Dan, noticing Chen Xiang’s perverted gaze focused on her chest, tenderly snorted, “I will see you again after three years!”

As suddenly as Elder Dan came, she left as quickly as well. Chen Xiang heaved a sigh, shaking his head. He knew that he had slept for a long while already. At this time, rubbing his hands, he said as his lips rose into a perverted smile, “Beautiful Sisters, are you ready?”

Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou, in order to encourage Chen Xiang into getting the Fruit of Fortune, promised Chen Xiang that they will kiss him if he could get the Fruit of Fortune.

It was one thing to say at that time, but acting on it was another. Now, it was the time to follow up on it. They were feeling a bit reluctant. Although they could break their promise, they didn’t want to cheat Chen Xiang. Not to mention, it was not the first time for Su Meiyao already.

Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou came out of the ring. They were wearing the very same beautiful dresses bought by Chen Xiang. Su Meiyao was wearing an elegant bluish-purple one piece, that was decorated with embroidery. When that kind of beautiful dress was worn by such a charming and seductive woman, it added much to her elegance and charm, giving her a graceful bearing.

Bai Youyou, on the other hand, was wearing a pure white one piece, which boosted her elegance and charm even more so. She was completely surrounded by a noble and dignified air. And those ice-cold pupils of hers were staring at Chen Xiang with an inexplicable tenderness.

As soon as Chen Xiang thought of kissing this elegant and cold beauty, Chen Xiang’s blood started boiling, filling him up with excitement and anticipation!

“Hmph, who do you want first?” Su Meiyao, seeing Chen Xiang staring at them with a dishonest gaze, spat down on the ground.

Chen Xiang very much wanted to say, ‘Both of you, come together!’

Imagining kissing the two peerless fairies at the same time, an evil fire rose in Chen Xiang’s lower abdomen.

Chapter 446 – Kissing the Goddesses

Chen Xiang wanted to try kissing the two beauty at the same time. However, he dared not propose it. After all, if angered them into leaving him, he would lose lot more than he could gain.

And who to kiss first was also a problem. Chen Xiang, gazing at their stunning faces, wondered in his mind who to kiss first.

“Hurry up!” Su Meiyao urged Chen Xiang. She could not stand his fervent gaze.

Is there a difference as to who I kissed? Chen Xiang, gazing at Su Meiyao, broke into mischievous laughter as he said, “Sister Meiyao, we have kissed once already, as such you have some experience in it. Let’s demonstrate before Sister Youyou once, so that she won’t be so nervous.”

Hearing this, a tint of red immediately appeared on Bai Youyou’s face as she rolled her eyes at Chen Xiang.

“Watching you and that master and apprentice duo kissing so many times, I and Senior Sister have already grown numb!” Su Meiyao said, giggling. She was quite open about this. She was rather familiar with Chen Xiang. Furthermore, she also liked Chen Xiang a bit.

Seeing Chen Xiang getting closer, Su Meiyao’s heart also started racing. A tint of red appeared on her face, adding much to her charm. She slowly closed her pretty eyes, only to feel Chen Xiang’s arm getting around her waist.

Chen Xiang said with a chuckle, “Sister Meiyao, it’s been a long while!” He took a long whiff out of the sweet fragrance wafting off Su Meiyao’s body as he pressed his lips against hers and pried open her lips with his tongue.

Su Meiyao also went along with Chen Xiang, allowing her tongue to intertwine around Chen Xiang’s. Immediately a bizarre numbing sensation coursed through her entire body, giving rise to an inexplicable euphoria. She could not help but tightly hug Chen Xiang, pressing her tender body against Chen Xiang’s robust body tightly. She could not wait to become one with Chen Xiang.

Watching Su Meiyao getting aroused, the nearby Bai Youyou also found it unbelievable. However, imagining herself acting like the same with Chen Xiang, she felt very tensed and afraid, but there was a bit of anticipation as well. She felt extremely conflicted. Her heart was gripped with complex emotions.

A stunner like Su Meiyao had evoked the most primitive desire of Chen Xiang’s. However, he also knew that he couldn’t go too far, for Su Meiyao was a peerless expert; she was aloof!

Chen Xiang could not cross the line, otherwise, there would be awkwardness between them in the future.

At present, he found it quite sufficient already. Although they were just kissing, he felt incomparably satisfied. What made him unusually excited was the fact that Bai Youyou was watching them.

The tightly embracing Chen Xiang and Su Meiyao were totally engrossed in the wonderful pleasure of kissing. Having tasted the sweetness last time, she had always hoping to try it again. However, it was rather difficult to voice out her opinion. And later, when she saw Chen Xiang passionately kissing Xue Xianxian often, she felt jealous.

The two finally parted, God knows after how long. Chen Xiang, watching Su Meiyao with deep love, this ravishing beauty, he felt inexplicably satisfied.

A drunk look filled Su Meiyao's eyes, glittering with complex emotions. She licked her lips as she tenderly snorted. "Little Rascal, just now, you couldn't wait to eat this Elder Sister completely, so dangerous!"

Chen Xiang pursed his lips into a mischievous smile as he touched Su Meiyao's face. "Sister Meiyao, it felt good, right!"

Su Meiyao smacked Chen Xiang's arm away immediately as she let out a harrumph before returning back to the ring.

Bai Youyou, on the other hand, was standing in a daze. At this moment, she felt like a deer, tensed and panic-stricken. After all, it would be the first time for her to do such intimate things with a man. Because of this, the iceberg temperament of her had disappeared suddenly. Although her face still bore the ice-cold look, in Chen Xiang's eyes, she was a naive and inexperienced girl.

Chen Xiang started walking towards Bai Youyou. In fact, he was more nervous than Bai Youyou, a bit terrified too. He was afraid that Bai Youyou would suddenly return, leaving his lips to kiss the empty air only; which he would regret his entire life.

"Sister Youyou...if you don't want to do it with me, I won't force you! And don't worry, I will never blame you," Chen Xiang said, as gently as possible. His eyes, filled with deep love, were staring at Bai Youyou.

Bai Youyou pursed her lips ever so lightly. Of course, she knew what was going on in Chen Xiang's mind. Although he was saying this, it was quite evident that he wanted to kiss her very much.

"Sister Youyou, you are a saintess in my eyes, I..." Chen Xiang had yet to finish his sentence before Bai Youyou raised her head. Those ice-cold eyes of her had already melted away. As she looked at Chen Xiang, all that left in her eyes were tender feelings. Much to Chen Xiang's surprise, she took the initiative and stood on her toes before pressing her lips against his and then, wrapping her arms around Chen Xiang's robust body ever so tightly.

In that very moment, Chen Xiang's mind went completely blank. The same was true for Bai Youyou. However, Chen Xiang pushed his tongue out unconsciously, leading along that inexperienced tongue of Bai Youyou, teasing her so that she won't be so rough and shy.

It may have been the first time for Bai Youyou to kiss a man, she had done sufficient preparations already. She knew what to do. At this point, she also actively took part in it. She let her soft and fragrant tongue intertwine with Chen Xiang's. The two hugged each other tightly, kissing each other unwittingly. The two wanted to melt the other and then fuse into one.

Chen Xiang was sucking Bai Youyou's tongue quite vigorously. Although what Bai Youyou cultivated was freezing cold True Qi, her tender tongue was unusually warm. Chen Xiang liked it very much. Because of this, the pleasure was greatly amplified, giving him a rush of extreme euphoria.

Only now Bai Youyou came to know why every time Su Meiyao and Chen Xiang's kissed, her face would be flushed completely red. She also came to realize as to why every time, Xue Xianxian and Liu Menger kissed Chen Xiang, they looked so intoxicated. It was all because of that kind of indescribably marvelous feeling which made her sink into depravity.

Chen Xiang and Bai Youyou kissed for a long time because Chen Xiang knew that it would be very difficult for him to kiss her again. He very much wanted to keep hugging this beauty until sea ran dry and rocks crumbled.

Unknowingly, the two separated from each other on their own. On that beautiful face of hers which always bore an icy look, a warm and intoxicated flush had emerged. It was very charming. This was also the first time Chen Xiang had seen such a look on her.

Bai Youyou, hanging her head slightly, said gently, "Chen Xiang, thank you very much for letting me experience this kind of happiness!"

Having said that, she transformed into a streak of light as she entered the ring.

Chen Xiang heaved a sigh of lament in his heart. At this moment, he felt as if he had lost his entire world.

"Hmph, the harder it is to get, the more you want it! Little Rascal, you are pretty lewd!" Su Meiyao tenderly snorted. She could clearly see the kind of feelings that Chen Xiang had for Bai Youyou.

Of course, knowing what a philanderer Chen Xiang was, Su Meiyao knew Chen Xiang had desires for her as well. Just a moment ago, when they were closely hugging each other, she could feel that thing growing madly on top of her abdomen as he got aroused.

Recalling this point, Su Meiyao's face once again flushed red because that thing was pressed against her for a very long time.

At this point, Chen Xiang was lying on the bed, staring at the ceiling in a daze, savoring the taste of kissing the two ravishing beauties. When he was kissing Su Meiyao, he was burning with an evil desire to conquer her. However, when he kissed Bai Youyou, he didn't have any kind of such thoughts.

He had no idea what Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou had experienced, but he knew that they had extremely powerful enemies. More importantly, they had currently lost their strength. In order to guard the two goddesses, he had to become stronger!

Chapter 447- Returning to the Kings' Mainland

Su Meiyao and Bai Youyou had witnessed Chen Xiang's growth, step by step. Since his youth, the pains and labors he had suffered didn't go unnoticed to them. Their heart ached when they saw Chen Xiang go through all sorts of hardships just to speed up his growth. And the main reason behind all this was them, all in order to fulfill the contract he had signed with them at the Immortal and Devil Cliff.

However, Chen Xiang had never complained or anything. Which moved them very much. Over time, they came to have peculiar feelings for Chen Xiang, and even they could hardly describe it clearly.

After having rested for two days, he sought Yun Xiaodao and the others to have a meal together before leaving the Extreme Martial Province!

At present, he still had one last reward he had yet to obtain. And that was the very herb garden which Wu Canghong had told him about. He didn't want to go alone at all, so, he went to the Divine Weapon Heavenly Empire to look for Liu Menger.

Having arrived at the Divine Weapon Heavenly Empire, Chen Xiang didn't find Liu Menger. An elder told him that Liu Menger had gone to the Icewind Valley, where she would be staying for some time. Apparently, there was a secret place there, where she was helping Leng Youlan and Xue Xianxian in cultivation.

In the beginning, Chen Xiang came for Leng Youlan because Leng Youlan had always wanted to take an adventure trip with him. He was also planning to take Xue Xianxian. With their strength, it would not have been a problem to look for the herb garden in the Kings' Mainland.

Regretfully, he could not find anyone.

Having left the Divine Weapon Heavenly Empire, Chen Xiang came to Fragrance City in the Taoyuan Province. He came here to look for the seductive Hua Xiangyue.

When Hua Xiangyue came to know Chen Xiang came looking for her, she arrived immediately.

"For what do I owe the pleasure? How about I take you to the Danxiang Taoyuan? You can directly come to me there in the future." Hua Xiangyue was wearing a simple dress, a set of black tights and a ponytail for her hairstyle. Be that as it may, it could not cover that charming and captivating figure of hers.

"For now, let's not. Rather, I want you to come with me!" said Chen Xiang. To ensure safety, he was planning on taking Hua Xiangyue with him.

Hua Xiangyue was an alchemist and the head of Danxiang Taoyuan. The tycoons of various mainlands would give a face to her. Most importantly, she was extremely strong as well.

Now, Chen Xiang was ordering Hua Xiangyue as if she was his maid.

"You finally came to realize how good I am!" Hua Xiangyue said, laughing charmingly. After the revelation of her identity, the tycoons of all mainlands treated her with great respect, as if they were afraid to offend her. This gave her a superiority complex, especially in front of Chen Xiang, this little man.

All the more reason for Chen Xiang to wonder as to why a woman of her stature would be willing to be his maid? There didn't seem to be anything wrong with her head. More importantly, she was the empress in the alchemists' community.

If it was some mediocre woman throwing herself into his arm, it would be rather normal. At present, there were many tycoons who were willing to offer their daughter's hand in marriage to Chen Xiang. Some famous beauties of other mainlands even came to Extreme Martial Sect after having come to know Chen Xiang's deeds, to get closer to him.

And Chen Xiang was pretty well aware of their aim. All they wanted to get was his Tai Chi Subduing Dragon Exercise, as well as to climb up the ladder using a young alchemist like him, allowing them to enjoy various precious dans.

On the other hand, Hua Xiangyue had been trying to get closer to him since the time when he was just a nameless figure!

"If my guess is right, you first went to your Sister Menger, and when you couldn't find her, only then, you came looking for me!" Hua Xiangyue rebuked, pretending to be angry.

Pinching Chen Xiang, she continued, "Little Rascal, hurry up and tell me, where are you taking this elder sister! My hands are full, you know!"

Chen Xiang cried in pain as he grabbed those slender hands of Hua Xiangyue. "I want to go to the Kings' Mainland to look for a herb garden! That herb garden is quite far away from the King's Capital. More importantly, the route is a bit dangerous as well. If I want, I can ask my two martial nephews to accompany me, but Elder Sister, you are more important to me, so, I came to you!"

If Wu Kaiming and Gu Dongchen came to know this, Chen Xiang would definitely be sworn at for "paying more attention to a lover over friends".

Chen Xiang felt that taking a long trip with Gu Dongchen and Wu Kaiming would be too boring. However, if a beauty was accompanying him, especially a captivating beauty like Hua Xiangyue, it would be a different matter altogether. He could also take liberties with her, while at it.

How could Hua Xiangyue, after having lived for such a long while, not see what was going on in Chen Xiang's mind. However, she was still very happy to accompany Chen Xiang.

"Wait a bit for me, let me dress up!" Having dropped this sentence, Hua Xiangyue left hurriedly.

Only after waiting for an hour did Chen Xiang see Hua Xiangyue with a mask over her face. Half of her captivating face was veiled by the mask. Even her voluptuous bosom was flattened quite a bit. She must have tied a cloth over them tightly.

Hua Xiangyue, holding a sword of very poor quality, nudged Chen Xiang in his abdomen and said with a charming smile, "If we encounter any danger, just stay and watch from the sidelines, let this lady do everything."

Chen Xiang, aiming at her chest, said with a perverted laugh, "Your rabbits are tied up too tightly and wrongfully. Quickly let them out and let me massage them, what if they are ruined?"

Hua Xiangyue knocked on Chen Xiang's head with her scabbard; she wasn't angry at all. She countered with a charming laugh, "You, Little Rascal, are perverted to the core. Believe it or not, I will tell your Sister Menger!"

"What am I afraid of? I have massaged hers, Xianxian's had also been massaged by me. Both of them enjoyed it very much!" Chen Xiang said, laughing mischievously. Nothing of that sort had happened with Liu Menger, he was just lying to Hua Xiangyue. He wanted to see her response.

"Hmph!" Hua Xiangyue harrumphed in jealousy. She hadn't thought that Chen Xiang and Liu Menger's relationship had arrived at this step.

Hua Xiangyue threw a mask at Chen Xiang. The mask was just enough to cover half of the face. Chen Xiang had often seen many people wearing them. With this, they could avoid some unnecessary troubles.

"How did you come to know about that herb garden?" asked Hua Xiangyue as she pulled Chen Xiang and took a leap. They flew out of the window at a breakneck speed, before landing next to a teleportation array. The current Chen Xiang could bear that kind of speed already.

“Don’t ask anymore, let’s just go!” said Chen Xiang. He had been exhorted by that middle-aged man of King’s Palace to keep the matters of King’s Palace secret.

Activating the transmission array, Chen Xiang and Hua Xiangyue arrived at the King’s Capital. Hua Xiangyue right away brought Chen Xiang to her place of residence.

“Xiangyue, is this yours?” Chen Xiang, sitting on the topmost floor of a four-storied building, asked. A unique fragrance belonging to Hua Xiangyue was lingering in the air. It was quite evident that Hua Xiangyue came here often.

Hua Xiangyue, pouring a cup of tea to Chen Xiang, said, “I came to the Kings’ Mainland a long time ago. Quickly tell me the position of that herb garden, so that I can determine the route.”

Chen Xiang had no idea about the Kings’ Mainland. Whereas Hua Xiangyue had traveled to many mainlands to look for the herbs. Naturally, the Kings’ Mainland had not been spared by her. Therefore, she had quite a bit understanding of Kings’ Mainland. This is also why Chen Xiang didn’t look for Gu Dongchen and the others and came to her.

Chen Xiang took out a sheet of paper and drew a simple map out of his memories. It only had some lines.

Seeing Chen Xiang’s map, Hua Xiangyue frowned and said, “That place sure is extremely dangerous. If you have gone alone, coming out of alive would have been difficult for you!”

Chapter 448 – Slave?

The more dangerous the place is, the more spirit herbs we might find in that herb garden. Chen Xiang was currently in need of those high-grade herbs.

“How dangerous?” asked Chen Xiang. He secretly rejoiced that he didn’t go alone. Otherwise, it would have been troublesome.

“When we arrive there, I will tell you! If there is indeed a herb garden there, I am sure that the spirit herbs there would be extraordinary. Who on earth did build a herb garden there? How long ago was it built?” Hua Xiangyue was perplexed. “I have looked for spirit herbs in the vicinity of that place and found many spirit herbs. All of which were comparatively rare. The best spirit herbs I have found were high-grade earth level herbs!”

Upon hearing this, Chen Xiang was extremely excited. He said in a low voice, “It was left behind by Dan King Li Tianjun!”

“What?” Hua Xiangyue cried in shock. “Is that true?”

“I am not lying! To be honest, I have found two such herb gardens already!” Chen Xiang stated as he broke into mischievous laughter.

“No wonder a kid like you had so many herbs! So it was like this!” Hua Xiangyue continued, sighing in lament, “If you had found your Sister Menger, you wouldn’t have to come to me, right?”

Chen Xiang said, a smile on his lips, "Of course not! I would have made you accompany me even then." He originally wanted to invite Leng Youland and Xue Xianxian with him. Fortunately, he couldn't do, otherwise, it would have been troublesome if they arrived at that dangerous place.

"This herb garden is in the Kings' Mainland and hidden at such dangerous place, it wouldn't be that world's first mysterious realm, would it?" Hua Xiangyue's eyes gave out radiant splendor, gazing at the map.

Chen Xiang, shaking his head, said, "It's not the top mysterious realm. It's just a herb garden."

Many among the expert alchemist were aware of the matters of Dan King Li Tianjun, because he was a legendary figure in the mortal world. Not only was he famous in the Mortal Martial World, it was true in other worlds as well. Back then, when he was being hunted down, he had escaped to various worlds, where he left his precious alchemical knowledge.

"How can you be so sure?" Hua Xiangyue asked as a frown crept up on her brow.

"The person who had given me this map told me that it was just a herb garden!" Chen Xiang, pursing his lips, said. Although Chen Xiang knew where the topmost mysterious realm was, he was still not planning to tell the others.

Hua Xiangyue knew that there was a mysterious expert behind Chen Xiang, one with very high attainments in alchemy techniques. So high that they had surpassed even hers. For now, she could only believe that Chen Xiang had been informed by that mysterious figure.

"Let's go, I am in a hurry! I have things to do!" Hua Xiangyue, wearing the mask and burning the map, brought Chen Xiang out of the building.

Hua Xiangyue was just like Su Meiyao. Both were quite captivating. That kind of charm was completely natural, and none could resist it.

Now, Chen Xiang, taking those jade-like hands of Hua Xiangyue, was slowly walking down the street. They currently looked very much look like an affectionate couple.

"Little Rascal, how are you planning to divide with me?" When Hua Xiangyue felt Chen Xiang pulling her hand and rubbing his thumb on the back of her hand from time to time, feeling her smooth beautiful hands, she could not help but snort in her heart repeatedly.

"Your share sure is there, but let's talk about it when we arrive there!" Chen Xiang continued with a laugh, "Don't we look like husband and wife who likes to travel around the world?"

Hua Xiangyue just let out a light harrumph in response. However, they sure looked like one. Furthermore, she didn't abhor Chen Xiang feeling her hand.

"Hurry up, I really have something important to do!" Hua Xiangyue started pulling Chen Xiang, increasing their speed. Were it not for the fact that they were in the King's Capital, she would have used her fastest speed a long time ago.

Chen Xiang asked in a low voice, "What important thing? Can you tell me?"

"Who are you again? Why should I tell you?" Hua Xiangyue said, laughing charmingly.

Hua Xiangyue continued to pull Chen Xiang through the streets and out of the King's Capital just like this, chatting and laughing. Had it not been for many Nirvana Realm experts in the city, Hua Xiangyue would not have been acting in such a low-key manner, because the matter of herb garden must be kept secret. After all, this was the Kings' Mainland. If the forces of Diving Martial Palace saw them, they would recognize them for sure.

After having made their way out of the city, they came to a secluded place, where Hua Xiangyue, dragging Chen Xiang, treaded the air, shooting through the sky. They were extremely fast, which made Chen Xiang marvel again and again. Furthermore, Hua Xiangyue wasn't emitting any kind of fluctuations, whatsoever. Just like this, Chen Xiang was dragged at a breakneck speed above the clouds.

"If I don't accept such a captivating woman, the heavens won't tolerate it!" Chen Xiang's heart started palpitating. Hua Xiangyue had always been wanting to become his maid. As long as he nodded, this captivating woman would be his slave!

Thinking of this point, Chen Xiang's heart started to race in excitement. He felt that this matter didn't need Xue Xianxian's approval. After all, taking a maid was his decision.

The herb garden was quite a bit far away. It would have taken him far longer than the time it took him to complete the last race. However, all it took half a day for Hua Xiangyue to complete one half of the journey.

Only when Hua Xiangyue thought Chen Xiang won't be able to hold on did she stop. Even if Chen Xiang had reached the Extreme State, moving at such speed and for so long, he was exhausted. Had it been an ordinary person, he would have long collapsed under that kind of pressure.

Realizing that Hua Xiangyue was pressed for time, Chen Xiang felt ashamed and uneasy. "Xiangyue, I am sorry, I have delayed your important things."

"Hmph, why are acting all polite with me now? In the future, if you need any kind of help, you can come to me anytime, regardless of anything!" Hua Xiangyue handed a cup of scented tea to Chen Xiang. The flowers for the tea were personally planted and processed into the scented tea by her, not everyone could drink it.

After drinking the tea, Chen Xiang felt refreshed. According to Su Meiyao, middle-grade profound level spirit flowers were at the very least used to create this scented tea. They might not be valuable for the alchemy, but they could be used to create the scented tea.

Now, Chen Xiang was thinking of taking her as his maid. However, he found it rather difficult to voice it out. He found it absurd actually; the honorable chairwoman of Danxiang Taoyuan, the very alchemist who is well respected by tycoons of various mainlands actually wanted to be his maid!

"Then, if you need my help in anything, you can also tell me, regardless of anything! Although I am weaker than you, in some aspects, I am better than you!" Chen Xiang said, laughing.

"I need a few sets of Resurrection Dan herbs. Of course, if you can give me that Fruit of Fortune, it would be for the best!" Hua Xiangyue charmingly laughed.

Chen Xiang stared at her blankly. He sure could give them but it would need some time. What he was curious about was what Hua Xiangyue wanted to do with the Resurrection Dan! Generally, only when one is crossing the Nirvana Tribulation, or going to do something very dangerous, they would need it.

Seeing Chen Xiang in pondering, Hua Xiangyue patted him on the shoulder. "I was joking with you! Last time, you have given so many to Meng'er, you should not too many of them, right! You will need what's left, they would be very helpful to you in the future. Of course, if you trust me, I can refine Resurrection Dan for you."

Hua Xiangyue believed that since Chen Xiang had chanced upon two of Dan King Li Tianjun's herb garden, he must have some. Just now, she was just kidding. These herbs would be lifesavers for Chen Xiang.

"I will give them to you! However, I need some time," stated Chen Xiang, a smile on his lips. He had decided that after he had given these herbs to Hua Xiangyue, he would take her as his maid.

It never crossed Hua Xiangyue's mind that Chen Xiang would agree. "No need, you can keep them! I am not so poor."

"Hold on, we are about to enter the Blood Lightning Mountain Sea. We can't fly there because the entire sky has red bolts of lightning everywhere. Furthermore, the mountains here are very tall, and dark all around the year."

Chen Xiang nodded. Pulling him, Hua Xiangyue continued to fly high up in the sky. After a short while, Chen Xiang heard deafening thunderclaps coming from the front before round after round of bolts of lightning filled his sight.

Chapter 449 – Blood Lightning Mountain Sea

Blood Lightning Mountain Sea, as the name dubbed it, there was nothing but mountains in Chen Xiang's sight, endless and endless sea of mountains, which were shrouded by thick dark clouds. The entire area was extremely dark. However, it was dyed red from time to time from the intermittent flashes of lightning, all of which were as red as blood. The entire range of mountains, under this bloody red light, looked extremely eerie.

Hua Xiangyue landed on the ground, her face extremely serious. She pulled Chen Xiang closely as she started walking gingerly.

"What is it?" asked Chen Xiang. Hua Xiangyue was in no way weak. She was an expert who had crossed seven nirvana tribulations. Last time, when she had released that Perishing Golden Body of hers, Yue Jianglin of Proud Sword Sect didn't dare to utter as much as a single word.

Judging from how cautious Hua Xiangyue was acting, it was quite evident that the danger level of this place was extraordinary.

"We have to cross this Blood Lightning Mountain Sea to reach that herb garden! This Blood Lightning Mountain Sea is spread over a vast area, so vast that the entire area is bigger than the area of two Chenwu Mainlands combine. Furthermore, these mountains have formed a very huge circle, surrounding a large piece of land. This area is at least five to six times bigger than a mainland. And rarely anyone trespasses on this land as this Blood Lightning Mountain Sea is extremely dangerous."

[TLN: Think of the Blood Lightning Mountain Sea as the circumference of a circle.]

Chen Xiang had long known that Kings' Mainland was very vast. However, he never thought that this place would be so bizarre and dangerous.

"So to say, thus Blood Lightning Mountain Sea had created a barrier, protecting the center!" said Chen Xiang.

Hua Xiangyue nodded her affirmation. "Right, there are creatures in here called lightning beasts. These creatures are different from demon beasts! The demon beasts can evolve into spirit beasts, profound beasts, and then, take a human form. However, these lightning beasts can't! They grow stronger by engulfing the blood lightning throughout the year. Their mind is filled with the urge to eat lightning and destructive thoughts. They are very violent creatures. Many are on par with the Nirvana Realm cultivators!"

Chen Xiang drew a cold lump of air. He now came to know what Hua Xiangyue was afraid of.

"Let's go! If and when, we encounter any kind of danger, you must escape." Hua Xiangyue, pulling Chen Xiang's hand continued, "Stay close to me, I have gone in once, I know the route."

Chen Xiang was moved. "Sister Xiangyue, you are really good to me!"

Hua Xiangyue said, harrumphing tenderly, "Of course, but you just don't seem to appreciate it."

"When did that happen? Didn't I say I will give you those herbs? That's a little token of my regards, it's you who don't appreciate it!" rebuked Chen Xiang.

"Keep them for yourself, I don't need them!" She may have said this but she was pleased in her heart. Indeed, she needed them very much, but she knew it was difficult to get such life-saving herbs were hard to come by. Chen Xiang might need them in the future, if and when he encountered any misfortune.

Chen Xiang did not say anything. The decision he had taken would never be changed, no matter what. Not to mention, it wasn't anything difficult for him, it was just a matter of time. The Fruit of Fortune he had awarded had been handed to Su Meiyao for planting a while back. And after having poured a large amount of Golden Dragon Saliva, it had already grown into a small tree.

Hua Xiangyue sure was familiar with this place. Wherever she went, it wasn't struck by that red lightning. Only after entering this place did Chen Xiang come to realize the danger of this place. These red lightning bolts were brimming with a vast amount of energy. Whenever they struck down, a huge mountain would surely be destroyed. Furthermore, the energy would also seep into the ground, causing the mountains to shake.

Dense as these red bolts of lightning were, they rarely struck the ground. However, if someone were to fly high in the sky or get sensed by the red lightning, he or she would be out of luck.

Chen Xiang wasn't afraid of lightning strikes at all. After all, when he had started cultivating the Azure Dragon Divine Exercise, he needed to attract the lightning into his body sometimes. However, this blood lightning was far more different than ordinary lightning. Chen Xiang didn't know if he could endure them.

Hua Xiangyue led Chen Xiang through the mountains for three days. All along the way, nothing happened. Nonetheless, Hua Xiangyue remained vigilant all the time.

Chen Xiang didn't say anything along the way as well. Only when they were resting would he flirt with Hua Xiangyue a few times.

"Sister Xiangyue, I want to start refining middle-grade profound level dans, if you find anything, please help me get them," stated Chen Xiang.

"Hmm, you sure have come a long way so quickly!" Hua Xiangyue praised Chen Xiang, nodding. Over these days, she had been taken advantage of by Chen Xiang quite a few times. Not only had Chen Xiang caressed her face, he had laid his hands on her thighs from time to time. Even those curvaceous buttocks of her had been felt a few times.

After having rested, just as they took a few steps, the ground suddenly started shaking wildly. Many large pieces of boulders came rolling down the mountain. Flashes of red lightning had also filled the entire sky as peals of thunder deafened everything. The scene before them was simply terrifying.

Chen Xiang raised his head to look, only to see bolts of red lightning madly coming down on a tall mountain, causing the ground to shake violently.

"A lightning beast is engulfing blood lightning there!" Hua Xiangyue's stunning face turned serious as she looked at those glittering red snakes in the sky.

The dark sea of mountains was dyed in glaring red. Flashes after flashes made the mountains extremely appalling. Furthermore, the deafening rumbles and roaring of the ground rang to no end. If someone with a weak heart was here, he would have fainted already.

"Hurry up! We have to escape this place quickly!" Hua Xiangyue cried in an anxious voice. Just then, a red flash of lightning blazed in the sky before Chen Xiang was sent flying as he felt a warm energy coursing through his body.

At this moment, the red lightning in the sky had disappeared. Much to their surprise, the one who had bolted down from that tall mountain turned out to be a red-armored giant. Furthermore, a small figure donning a red armor also stood behind him.

These two red-armored figures looked extremely scary. From head to toe, their entire bodies were covered in thick red armor. From time to time, thin red arcs of lightning would glitter around their bodies as well.

The biggest of the two was as tall as three men combined, while the smallest figure was still two heads taller than Chen Xiang.

Apparently, it was Hua Xiangyue who sent Chen Xiang flying using her strength. And the place where Hua Xiangyue stood had red arcs of lightning running amok. Much to Chen Xiang's astonishment, these arcs of lightning had gathered into an array. From the memories, Chen Xiang recognized the array to be a sealing-type array.

"Hua Xiangyue is in danger!" Just when Chen Xiang wanted to rush over, Hua Xiangyue let out a tender snort before slamming her foot on the ground lightly. The ground shook momentarily as spider web-like cracks spread from her position, spreading towards all direction. And that array created by those arcs of lightning was subsequently destroyed.

“You go deal with that little brat, leave this woman to me!” the bigger red-armored giant caught the smaller red-armored man and threw him towards Chen Xiang.

Upon seeing this, Hua Xiangyue took a leap gracefully, smacking a palm towards that smaller red-armored man. However, the bigger red-armored giant promptly waved his arm, releasing a red bolt of lightning.

“Chen Xiang, be careful! Be careful of his blood lightning!” Hua Xiangyue exhorted. At this moment, she was being attacked continuously by that red-armored giant with red lightning, forcing Hua Xiangyue to defend herself. That kind of lightning bolts were extremely fast and utterly powerful. Every time she blocked them, shockwaves would immediately burst forth. At one glance, it was quite evident how powerful they were.

Chen Xiang could see that the red-armored men were father and son. Surprisingly, the father was on par with Hua Xiangyue. As for how powerful the younger one was, it remained to be seen.

“I have not eaten a human for a long time. Rumor has it that eating human flesh and drinking their blood would allow us to become stronger!” said the red-armored figure, standing before Chen Xiang, laughing in a gruff voice.

Chen Xiang promptly took out the Azure Dragon Slaughtering Devil Blade and said, a cold smile on his lips, “Want to eat me, dream on! Don’t underestimate the humans!”

Just as Chen Xiang’s voice faded away, tens of red lightning bolts emerged from that red-armored figure, and came flying at Chen Xiang, just like a hail of bloody red arrows!

Chapter 450 – The Blood Lightning Demi-Human

With a loud thunderclap, Chen Xiang hurriedly smacked a palm. The vigorous energy over his palm burst forth with an intense shockwave that promptly scattered the red lightning bolts fired by that red-armored boy.

Chen Xiang had no idea whether these creatures were lightning beast or not as they looked much like humans. Moreover, they could speak as well. Only their act of engulfing the blood lightning bolts in this Blood Lightning Mountain Sea stated otherwise.

What was most fearsome about them was their strength; they were dreadfully powerful. The bigger guy was even on par with Hua Xiangyue.

The red-armored boy was slightly taken aback. He never imagined that this weak looking human before him would actually be so powerful. That powerful shockwave not only scattered his attack, the shock had also messed up the energy in his body completely.

“Chen Xiang, can you deal with that little guy? I will draw this big guy away. If I fight with him here, it will certainly affect you as well,” Hua Xiangyue asked Chen Xiang with her divine sense.

“I should be able to! How about you?” answered Chen Xiang.

“Don’t you worry, although these guys look similar to human after having evolved from lightning beasts. They are still stupid, nonetheless.” Hua Xiangyue smacked out a palm. It appeared very light as if it held no power, however, the power that broke out from it suddenly shook the mountains and move the earth. Bolts of red lightning broke out from that red-armored giant, after having his chest attacked with that terrifying smack.

The red-armored giant immediately became furious and roared like crazy. He kept on waving his palms arbitrarily, attacking Hua Xiangyue in a brutish manner. Although those strikes were faster, they were disorganized. Hua Xiangyue could easily dodge them with her agility. While at it, she could also lead him away from here. This way, she could also fight freely.

The red-armored giant appeared to be extremely hot-tempered. He was very quickly angered by Hua Xiangyue. He kept on waving his palms arbitrarily. Bolts of red lightning were shooting out of his mouth as he chased after Hua Xiangyue, leaving this place. It took longer to describe, but all this happened in a very short time.

Now, Chen Xiang knew that these red-armored men were evolved from lightning beasts. They might stand on two feet, they might speak as well, but they sure were a bit stupid. All they knew was to attack randomly, relying only on their strength.

Nonetheless, they were fairly powerful!

Particularly that red armor of theirs. Chen Xiang had somehow landed an attack on him, but all it did was make that red-armored boy roar in anger; nothing more, nothing less. One must bear in mind that had it been a brilliant-grade weapon, it would have been damaged for sure.

“This guy’s armor can mitigate a lot of power. It’s not very tough on its own, it’s just that a very unique energy is attached to it, which dissipates most of your power when you attack lands on it! Any kind of weapon would be ineffective against him!” explained Long Xueyi.

Upon hearing Long Xueyi, Chen Xiang put away the Azure Dragon Slaughtering Devil Blade. This move of Chen Xiang astounded that red-armored boy. He broke into laughter as he said, “The human weapons are useless against me, I didn’t expect you to so perspective!” While speaking, he showered those fist covered in red armor at Chen Xiang. His punches were laden with violent lightning energy. As they rumbled towards Chen Xiang, they also burst forth with lightning explosions.

All Chen Xiang could do was escape as far away from him as possible. If he stayed close to those punches, he would suffer successive explosions even if he avoided them.

“This guy thinks he is so clever.” Chen Xiang was having a good laugh in his heart. Although the red-armored boy’s attacks were incredibly fierce, they lacked any kind of control, whatsoever. Even if Chen Xiang was far away, the red-armored boy kept on pounding at the ground like an idiot, thinking he could deter the enemy this way.

While Chen Xiang was dealing with the red-armored boy, he was also looking for an opportunity. At the same time, he was also trying to understand the attack pattern of the red-armored boy. If the red-armored boy was facing some lightning beasts who didn’t have high wisdom, he would be extremely powerful for sure.

However, Chen Xiang was a human. He knew a great deal about martial techniques. These martial techniques could be used to restrain the enemy under all kind of different circumstances. Even if someone wasn't exceptionally powerful, in many circumstances, he or she could restrain someone who was stronger than him or her with these martial techniques.

"This guy should have bones too, right!" Gathering the universe True Qi over his palm, Chen Xiang reached out at a terrific speed, grabbing that huge red palm that was hacking down just like a giant ax, holding on it ever so tightly.

A thunderous crash immediately resounded across the sky. Just as Chen Xiang grabbed the wrist of that red-armored boy, it cut off the energy surging out from the red-armored boy's arm. The red-armored boy was unable to release that violent energy, even an itsy-bitsy bit, which caused an explosion in his arm.

The red-armored boy let out a furious wail. His arm had actually been blown away by his own energy. His pieces of armor were scattered on the ground, and the ground was dyed with his blood.

"So, you weren't that intelligent at all!" Chen Xiang ridiculed as he took a step forward. Whereas that crazed red-armored boy let out a roar in anger as he punched towards Chen Xiang.

Chen Xiang took that giant fist head-on with his palm. When Chen Xiang's palm clashed with that punch, the earth around them collapsed completely as a loud thunderclap echoed in the sea of mountains.

"Puff!" Chen Xiang spewed a mouthful of blood as he was sent flying from the aftershock. He could not help but admit that the violent energy released by that red-armored boy was extremely terrifying. It was an energy converted from the lightning energy.

However, that palm strike of Chen Xiang was also extraordinary. Just as Chen Xiang crashed into the ground, he heard the terrified wail of the red-armored boy. The red-armored boy's arm was hanging down his shoulder because all the bones in his hand were gone!

Transforming Bone Devil Palm, a palm that could melt the bones instantly. Just now, Chen Xiang had used this very devil technique. He had also put his entire strength into it, melting those sturdy bones of red-armored boy completely.

At this point, the red-armored had lost both of his arms! However, he could still spew red lightning bolts from his mouth. All his anger was poured on Chen Xiang in the form of red lightning bolts. Wherever those lightning bolts landed on the ground, giant pits appeared one after another.

Chen Xiang could very easily dodge the attack of the red-armored boy now. Just in a few steps, Chen Xiang was by that red-armored boy's side. Chen Xiang struck his palms ever so quickly, hammering them on that sturdy armor of red-armored boy.

The Transforming Bone Devil Palm's energy was extremely unique. It could seep through those pieces of armor and into the body of that red-armored body, melting those sturdy bones inside.

Just a couple strikes had caused grievous injured to that red-armored boy. At first, the red-armored boy could still stand, but now, he was lying on the ground, coughing up blood violently.

“Hmph, if you had stayed on the hilltop, maybe you won’t be in this state now. The big guy is going to accompany you soon.” Chen Xiang burst into a cold laugh.

Immediately, the Azure Dragon Slaughtering Devil Blade appeared in Chen Xiang. Chen Xiang, infusing the blade with that terrifying dragon force, vigorously hacked down, shaking the ground slightly.

A shrilling wail of red-armored boy immediately followed before that red-armored boy’s head was separated from his body.

After having eliminated the red-armored boy, Chen Xiang wiped the sweat on his brow. But suddenly, a ball of red light emerged from the red-armored boy’s neck. A pellet flushed out from that beheaded neck, along with a fountain of blood.

This ball of red light slowly rose into the air. At a glance, Chen Xiang could see that this pellet was the crystallized form of red lightning. It sure was good stuff!

As Chen Xiang reached out to grab it, he felt the red crystal ball slightly tremble before a tingling current broke out from it.

“This thing can strengthen my Azure Dragon True Qi!” Chen Xiang was extremely delighted.

Meanwhile, there were quite a bit of movements stirring far away. Even a few mountains had disappeared. Apparently, the fight between Hua Xiangyue and that red-armored giant was still not over yet.
