

Dark Ages 1011

Chapter 1011 - To attract thousands of people, those who don't come and join the whole family boom!

Suddenly bursting above the ignorance of ignorance, a figure flew from the inside, crossing the space between the two universes, and stopped shortly.

That was Qin Tiange, which was thrown out directly by the river of epochs, or was thrown directly by Chen Xi.

“Chen Xi ...”

Qin Tiange's expression changed, he stood quietly, staring at the vast river of light in front of him.

The river of the epoch is Chen Xi's body. She once belonged to the instrumental spirit. Because she saw the end of the road, she ventured away from the body and reincarnated.

The awakening memories of this life have regained the abilities of the River Spirit of the epoch, but they must also enter the dust.

In other words, she can't get rid of her original fate. The river of epochs is suppressing a terrible force that masks the universe.

Once that power awakens, the river of epochs, including the instrumental spirits, will fly away, this is the fate of Chen Xi.

In the past, she was not willing to go into such a destiny herself, and wanted to get rid of it, so as to escape from the ontology and risk her reincarnation, but she did not expect that she would not be able to get rid of it again.

“Tian Ge, you go, don't come back again, accumulate enough power to pierce the universe, your future is in the vast universe of the sea, should not reside here.”

Suddenly, such an ethereal word came from the river of epochs, and it passed into the mind, making Qin Tiange tremble and grieve in his heart.

His own woman even let him stealthily, accumulate strength alone, penetrate the universe, and soar the universe.

This is saying goodbye, so that Qin Tiange doesn't care about her. This is the fate of Chen Xi and the river of epochs.

“Without you, what's the point of my going out? And, don't you believe me?” Qin Tiange smiled, and a calm tone came into the river of epochs.

Suddenly, the river of epochs paused, and a dim shadow loomed inside, staring silently at him.

“Letter!” Chen Xi answered with a smile, surely: “Of course I believe in my own man, you have never let me down.”

Death is not terrible. At least she can get a wonderful life. Even if it disappears, there is no regret.

Qin Tiange stepped up step by step, waved his hands to break the pressure of the two universes, came to the river of epochs, and looked at the hazy figure inside.

He had a solemn expression, saying one word at a time: “Since you say I’m your man, I don’t allow anyone to threaten you, and no one can take you away. The big universe can’t do it, and the force outside the big universe can’t do it. “

“You control the river of epoch with peace of mind, and leave the rest to me.”
Qin Tiange finished, the whole man exuded a strong momentum.

He looked up at the nothingness, as if seeing a power he had never seen before, it was sleeping, and was gradually awakening.

Qin Tiange’s eyes suddenly burst into two beams of terror and hummed, “Since that thing threatens my wife’s life, then destroy it first.”

“wait for me!”

He glanced deeply into the light and shadow in the river of the epoch, Chen Xi’s figure was hazy and gradually dissipated, her strength was a little empty.

The river of epoch is not yet in control, and is currently trapped in the chaos era. To escape or even regain control of the river of epoch, it must cost a great deal.

Looking at the vast river of light flowing through nothingness, Qin Tiange was silent and knew very well that the only reliance on protecting his wife was strength.

Only when the power is strong enough, no external force can threaten themselves and the people around them is the most important thing.

Hum!

I saw Qin Tiange throwing out light clusters, floating around, exuding a hazy and powerful breath, it was exactly the universe without a subject.

These are all the inventory from the early Emperor Emperor, more than two hundred and eighty unowned universe.

“swallow!”

When Qin Tiange drank coldly, he opened his mouth and swallowed more than two hundred and eighty inner universes, crushing and devouring them.

He crushed with the great chaos in the growth period, crushed these unincorporated inner universes, and smelted into a vast mass of the origins of the universe, constantly devouring and expanding the cosmic membrane in Dantian.

This is a fight. Her own woman, Chen Xi, is in a dangerous stage, and may disappear at any time, and fly ash annihilates.

As a man, Qin Tiange naturally cannot tolerate someone threatening his own woman, so point it out and kill the source of the threat.

If you want to go back to the source of the threat, you must have enough power. The only way to get power is to devour the inner universe and grow yourself.

More than two hundred and eighty inner universes came into the body, shattered by the great chaos, refined into a cluster of universe origins, and poured into Dantian.

boom!

In Dantian, the three hundred baby universes that have been conceived are giving out powerful power to support Qin Tiange's body.

Hundreds of other cosmic membranes have not yet been formed. Next, a whole new baby universe has finally begun to take shape.

Such an outrageous practice can only be done by Qin Tiange, and it is still a super monster all the way to today.

Except for 999 cosmic fetal membranes, every cell in Qin Tiange's body is evolving towards the universe.

The 60 trillion cells of small chaos, although growing slowly, have been growing, especially after the formation of the large chaos, which is faster.

Bang bang ...

There was a muffled sound in the body. Dantian's location, a mysterious light flashed after another, like the explosion of the universe.

It wasn't an explosion, but a brand new baby universe was born in Dantian. The wonderful glory was the birth of a baby universe.

A total of two hundred baby cosmos were successfully bred and born. In addition to the previous three hundred, it is five hundred baby cosmos.

The five hundred baby cosmos are gathered in one's body, and how strong the burst of power is, even Qin Tiange is not sure.

boom!

There was a sudden roar, and the void space outside the River of the Era collapsed suddenly, crushed and crushed by an invisible breath.

It was the breath from Qin Tiange's body that was released autonomously, but shattered the void space around him.

The junction area where the two universes collided, which was scary and chaotic at first, is now torn by this force.

"This is the feeling of strength, but it is not enough!" Qin Tiange shook his fists, as if now he can break the **** of the universe.

But he didn't think it was enough. This power was strong, but it was not enough to penetrate the universe, and he could not even compete with the force that was awakening.

The 500 baby cosmos was formed, and 499 cosmological membranes were left. Half of them were not bred, so Qin Tiange felt that he had to conceive all the inner universes in order to compete with that power.

“Chen Xi, wait for me!”

Qin Tiange murmured to himself, staring deeply at the river of epochs, and finally glanced resolutely and turned out of this chaotic area.

With a click, he tore up this chaotic cosmic collision area, and stepped out of nothingness.

Qin Tiange stepped out of this area and returned to the edge of the desert, silently overlooking the entire broken edge of the desert.

Barren, dead and silent, no creature came here, making him unable to bear a cold slay in his heart.

“Don’t come?” Qin Tiange sneered, his eyes bloomed with a ray of killing, sweeping across the vast universe under the wasteland.

Qin Tiange suddenly raised his hand and grabbed on top of nothingness, and the loud noise spread, and he saw endless material flowing.

Huge pieces of debris flew out, fell into the wasteland, and quickly melted under the control of his power, turning into an endless continent.

In just a quarter of an hour, an endless frontier continent appeared on top of nothingness, exuding a hazy light.

boom!

With the formation of the borderland continent, a slight vibration spread throughout the big universe, and the creatures and strong men in both universes were awakened without exception.

After doing this, Qin Tiange stepped out of the wasteland, came to the other side, stood on the quaint stone bridge, and looked down at the entire universe.

After being silent for a long time, Qin Tiange suddenly said, “Go, run through the void level of the universe, connect the peoples, and lead the peoples of the peoples into the wasteland of the universe.”

Hum!

As the voice just fell, the quaint and quiet stone bridge suddenly hummed, shaking, as if responding to Qin Tiange.

Then the next moment, the stone bridge suddenly unfolded, and one end extended rapidly, penetrating through the universe’s nothingness, piercing the deep space regions of the universe.

The big universe boiled in an instant, and countless powerful men were horrified and looked at the ancient stone bridge that suddenly came across the whole big universe.

“Naihe Bridge!”

“This is to lead the universe?”

For a time, the entire universe was filled with tens of thousands of people, and the powerful men from all sides were frightened, as if they understood something.

Sure enough, with the end of the stone bridge, an indifferent word came from the other side of the universe, which made all the universe fear.

boom!

With the horrible crackling sound of countless shocks, countless powerful men found out in horror that the stone bridge even penetrated the dark side of the universe and reached the boundary sea.

Immediately afterwards, a ray of light suddenly came from each layer of space and time, and imaginary stone bridges across the space and time, connecting the other shore.

“Stone bridges lead thousands of people to get on the road, and the creatures above the star level must enter the marginal wasteland, and those who are not within the wasteland within three days ...”

“The whole family!”

A word spread throughout the universe, leaving all races dead, all living beings trembled, and inexplicable fear rose.

That’s a sentence from the other side of the universe, full of killings. Within three days, all living creatures of all universes, all at the level of time and space, must step into the desert.

Once it is not, then the entire family, who does not come, directly kills the entire family, uproots them, and wipes them out of the universe.

“hiss...”

“What a killer!”

“This generation of emperors is so arrogant!”

“But they have arrogant capital!”

In the big universe, some Xeons couldn’t help pulling down the air and felt the horrific killing intention from Qin Tiange.

They knew that the star killer could really do it, and if no one was there, it might affect the entire group and be wiped out by roots.

“Roar...”

“What do you count?”

“Who is it that wants to command the universe?”

Suddenly, there was a roar in the universe, and Xeon was angry. It was a horror creature that only came out of the cage of the universe.

The big universe shook, and all races boiled. When they saw a Xeon creature that had only been imprisoned, it even rushed directly into the frontier to kill the arrogant man.

One hundred Xeon creatures crossed the void of the universe and did not walk on the stone bridge. Instead, they crossed the void of the universe and killed the frontier.

They are all Xeon creatures imprisoned in the cage of the universe in the past, all of them are powerful creatures that break through the universe.

Because of being confused, he went directly into the cage and was trapped inside. Before Qin Tiange released them, some Xeon creatures did not understand who he was.

So, seeing someone calling the universe, these Xeon creatures are directly angry, isn't this provoking them Xeons?

“Hey, there is a leader.”

“The court of life has been demolished by the emperor. Have these released guys been stupid?”

Many of the Xeons who had fallen from the sidelines have witnessed the events in the Temple of Life.

Someone provoked the murderer. Think of the life court at that time, the two Xeons, a chief judge, and a chief arbiter. The end was miserable.

That is, the five thousand judges were killed and the whole temple of life was destroyed. It is conceivable how strong Qin Tiange puts pressure on the most powerful people of all races.

“Let you out, that's to give you freedom. Since you don't cherish it, let's kill it all.”

On the other side, above the stone bridge, Qin Tiange calmly looked at a hundred horror creatures across the void of the universe, his eyes showing a ray of killing.

Since you do n't understand, kill!

boom!

Raise your hand gently, and probe into the void of the universe, only to hear a click, the void breaks open, pierced by Qin Tiange's hand.

That hand swelled in the cosmic nothingness and turned into a towering giant hand falling from the other bank.

Huanghuang is mighty and powerful, thrills all powerful parties, and the big universe comes with violent fluctuations, and the terrible breath is covered in the entire universe.

“presumptuous!”

“court death!”

Looking at the hazy giant hands that were grasped, the hundred Xeon creatures that roamed across the void of the universe roared, all roaring into the sky, and broke out.

There are a hundred universe-like Xeon creatures, fierce and cruel, and nothing can restrain and discipline them.

Imprisoned for countless years, it has already become extremely cruel, or it will not be released and even its own souls will be restored to repair.

Rumble ...

The big hand covers the sky, and the five fingers cover the entire universe. Everything that has passed, the deep space of the universe has collapsed and collapsed.

The whole hand was getting bigger and bigger, and finally it was fished together, and the five fingers were closed together, holding the one hundred Xeon creatures in their palms.

“Oh!”

The roar shook the sky, the universe collapsed, and among the giant hands, a Xeon creature roared, slammed back, struggled, and roared.

Unfortunately, no matter how these Xeon creatures struggle, they can't get rid of that stubborn and gray hand.

Click!

A crisp sound came, and in the entire universe, many strong men beating their hearts and saw the gray hand with five fingers.

I heard a rustling sound spreading across the universe, the blood waves were soaring, and the void was falling, and a drop of crystal blood slipped into the deep space of the universe.

The entire universe is dead, and there is no sound at all, as if all of a sudden, the powerful people of all races are stagnant, in all major time and space, the universe's dark side and the sea are still.

Wow!

As the hand spread out, a pile of fragmented meat and bones fell from the top, dripping into the void of the universe bit by bit, exuding the weather.

It was just the flesh and bones of a hundred Xeon creatures that were crushed in the palm and died directly, with no resistance at all.

There are only a hundred hazy light clusters floating on the palm of that hand, exuding waves of wailing, which is the inner universe of the Lord.

He died, and a hundred fierce Xeon creatures were released, just gently pinched to death with one hand.

Grunt!

In the big universe, the hidden Xeons from all sides, without exception, have a cold heart, a cold back, and a trembling soul.

This scene really horrified the strong man in the entire universe. No one had thought about it. Qin Tiange pinched a hundred universe-level creatures in one hand.

That's a cosmic creature. It's not about killing and killing. Now Qin Tiange is pinched to death, and all of them are killed at once.

“Three days later, those who don’t come, kill!”

Just listening to an indifferent voice spreading in all corners of the universe, awakening the peoples, many strong men couldn’t help fighting the Cold War, and were heartbroken.

At this moment, no voice dared to jump out, even if some angry Xeons immediately extinguished the anger, only the coldness filled with anger filled.

Fear, they were frightened by this scene and did not dare to jump out.

Either the creatures from the cage of the universe, the strong men of various ethnic groups in the universe, or the most powerful ones that could not be hidden, were silent.

Qin Tiange said, who dares not listen now? Command the universe, this is the strength. If you order it, whoever dares not to follow it, then the whole family.

“hiss...”

“How could he be so strong?”

“No one can beat!”

“So, do we still have a way out?”

The fear of the strong parties from all sides, and the anxiety of the various races, have been frightened and collapsed by Qin Tiange this time. To this extent, it is already invincible in the entire universe.

Not to mention the big universe here, even the universe on the other side of the desert, where the Xeons on the other side hide and watch, all one by one are silent, dare not come forward.

With Qin Tiange pinching down the one hundred universe-level creatures, all the universes were honest at once, and some Xeons appeared one after another and went up the stone bridge.

“Let’s go, honestly!”

“We have no choice!”

“In this era, respect for the human race!”

“Who dares not respect this man?”

Everyone in the big universe stepped on the stone bridge and entered the border desert. None of them dare to hesitate or not to come.

Because of Qin Tiange’s strength, it is impossible to refute and oppose it, let alone fight it. If you don’t start on the road honestly, then you just wait to be destroyed.

In the major space-time layers, one by one, the space-time class strongmen stepped out, set foot on the stone bridge, and walked into the borderland.

Jiehai, the boundless waves are rolling, the Jiezhū who was trapped here cannot come out, but now they are bitter one by one.

Because the stone bridge runs through the sea of the sea, they can’t go out, they can only grit their teeth and step on the stone bridge with the kingdom of God.

The cosmic starry sky, the major galaxies, and the central continent, all of which appeared in a strong and powerful atmosphere, were all hidden taboo creatures.

They were not intended to come out, but Qin Tiange's fierceness was beyond imagination. He said that killing was killing, and it was extremely terrifying.

This time, these hidden strongmen, all forbidden creatures came out, set foot on the stone bridge, and walked into the deserted battlefield on the edge of the universe.

boom!

The universe is endless, and everywhere in the restricted area of the universe, suddenly a strong and terrible breath emerges.

There were a lot of Xeon creatures out there, all kinds of deeply taboo creatures or Xeon creatures, but at this moment they had to come out.

They are actually very helpless, but have to appear, otherwise, Qin Tiange may really destroy one by one.

The entire universe suddenly emerged with dense and dense creatures, which really shocked the peoples, and the powerful people from all sides burst into discoloration.

“Well ... Herald, I didn't expect him to grow to this step, unexpectedly.”

In the deep universe, in a broken inner universe, a group of powerful creatures are gathering, silently watching the ancient stone bridge across the deep universe.

One of them is full of light, and the sacred universe behind it floats, as if one side is Xitian Bliss Pure Land.

“Amitabha, we, it's time to hit the road.”

With the sound of the Buddha's horn, the most powerful man had a smile on his face. If Qin Tiange were here, he would definitely know this person.

He was Sakyamuni who had awakened from the earth in the past, and there were several strong men next to him, one wearing the light of God and stepping on a ginseng fruit tree, which was Zhenyuan.

“Yaochi, Zhenyuan, countless years, whether we can succeed in this era may depend on this emperor!”

After finishing Shakyamuni, he rolled up a Buddhist universe and set foot on the stone bridge. Behind him, Zhenyuan, Yaochi, and other ancient strong men all set foot on the stone bridge.

At the same time, all corners of the universe came out of ancient and powerful figures, one by one set foot on the stone bridge.

“Roar...”

“I hate the breath of the Pangu people.”

The deep space of the universe was dark. When a broken universe burst, a terrifying troll came out of it, surrounded by horror and chaos.

It was a horrible demon. It came out from the place of exile. It was strong and terrible. He stared at the proud and powerful figure above the stone bridge.

This horrible demon came out, and the huge demon's body was standing in the deep space of the universe, full of destruction and oppression.

“Roar!” He opened his mouth and roared, and the universe was shaking violently, and the ferocious gas surpassed many Xeons.

Qin Tiange looked over in surprise, just right to the eyes of this demon god, both stared at each other and looked.

“The demon in the land of exile?” Qin Tiange said to himself, nodding his head slightly, not caring.

The demon hummed quietly, but did not blaze, but walked up the stone bridge honestly and stepped into the edge of the desert.

“It's time to find the ground books.”

After watching for a while, Qin Tiange said to himself, stepped out of the stone bridge, disappeared in the blink of an eye on the other side of the universe.

He was just about to look for the land book. This book had given him too much help. With the land book's true character, Qin Tiange went all the way up smoother.

I heard Chen Xi said that The book of the earth seems to have not been completely restored after being broken in the past.

Although the body was restored, the instrumental spirit was damaged, and even the self-recovery could not be repaired at all. It was ignorant and confusing.

Huh!

Deep in the dark universe, in a deserted area, a figure suddenly appeared. This man was Qin Tiange.

He came here one step from the other bank, and it was Chen Xi who told him that the ground books were hidden in this dark area.

Deep darkness, with no light at all, or even no sound, gives a feeling of extreme depression.

“Ground book, come out!”

Qin Tiange suddenly spoke, and his voice came into a deep dark area in front of him, and he was shocked by waves.

Hum!

The next moment, a buzz came from the darkness, and a quaint book flew out of it. It was a mysterious book.

Chapter 1013 - Reversal of pattern, return of ground books

A quaint book floats with a hazy luster, as if there is a ray of true spirit struggling inside and a mourning pain.

The ground books were really badly damaged. Although the body was repaired, the true spirit has not recovered from the wounds of the past.

“Well ...” Looking at the book, Qin Tiange sighed softly, with a kind of sadness.

He was originally the spirit of human books. Like the earth books, the three books of heaven and earth are three books of the universe. They were born in nature.

As the reincarnation of Qin Tiange, Qin Tiange naturally felt the pain of the earthly books and could not recover. There was a force to block it.

Buzz ...

The book shuddered slightly, emitting a hazy light, as if greeting an old friend, but with a sense of sorrow and sadness.

The true spirit of the human book is reincarnated, the body is gone, and the ground book is restored, but the true spirit cannot return. This is a kind of sadness.

As for the Tianshu, it has never appeared, and no one knows the trace of the Tianshu, which is the same as the three books.

“In the past, you gave me the complete truth, and helped me grow up. Today, I help you to return from the true spirit.”

Qin Tiange uttered this sentence solemnly, sent from his heart, and truly felt gratitude to the book of the earth.

Because on the earth in the past, he obtained the complete truth of the book of the earth, which would not have been possible without the book of earth automatically given to him.

As the spirit of people’s books, the book of the earth is willing to give Qin Tiange the complete source of the book to help him grow up. Now, it is time for Qin Tiange to show his gratitude.

“Burning the universe, reversing time and space, and returning!” A loud shout ran through the darkness, shaking the universe.

Qin Tiange was full of breath, his black hair was dancing, and he stood in the dark universe, as if a infinite lighthouse illuminated the darkness of the universe.

He was holding a cloud of dim light, which was a universe, which was directly ignited by him, and the little universe of the unowned was ignited and turned into a blaze of flames.

Burning a small universe without a subject, Qin Tiange used this burning power to reverse time and space and pulled back a trail of strange fragments in the meditation.

boom!

Time went backwards and years went backwards, and the entire universe suddenly came with a burst of astonishment. Numerous strong men had hair in their hearts and felt a kind of palpitations.

They don’t know what happened, they just know that there is a terror force that is competing with the universe to reverse the situation in the universe.

“what happened?”

“Who is this force reversing the pattern of the universe?”

“Forbidden movements!”

Some Xeons have hair in their hearts and chills on their backs, feeling cold and insecure.

Because there are some inexplicable people who are deliberately moving the taboos of the universe, this kind of thing is bound to cause a sudden change in the pattern of the entire universe, and even move to a more unknown situation.

Unfortunately, they don't know. That is what Qin Tiange is doing. He burned a small universe without an owner, and reversed the pattern of the universe.

In an instant, Qin Tiange pulled out pieces of broken pieces and gathered them on the palm of his hand.

When that small universe was completely burnt and exhausted, Qin Tiange also stopped, and the original small universe was gone, replacing a hazy shard.

That is the true spirit of the earth book. The true spirit that was broken up in the past allows Qin Tiange to reverse the years of the universe and pull it out of the meditation.

thunderbolt!

A weird lightning split, silent and colorless, invisible and quality, hit Qin Tiange's head directly.

That was the anger from the universe. It seemed to warn him that the universe should not be touched, otherwise it would inevitably lead to disaster.

Qin Tiange's expression was indifferent. Even if the invisible and intangible lightning struck the body, he was not moved at all. Five hundred internal universes broke out in the body, breaking up that strange lightning.

“Big universe taboos, who has taboos? Who set taboos? The big universe is universal, there is no thin side at all, let alone the so-called taboos, only an external force exists.”

He spoke word by word, his voice murmured, and introduced a mysterious place through the nothingness, causing turbulence in the entire universe.

Qin Tiange even uttered taboos and told the truth. He was completely fearless, and no longer had any scruples.

Rumble ...

The big universe was boiling, as if it were angry, but it quickly dissipated, leaving the strong and countless creatures of various races in shock.

They felt that the universe was angry and terrifying. Fortunately, nothing happened. They almost thought they were going to be cleaned directly.

“In the future, anyone who blocks my way will be crushed!”

Qin Tiange snorted, looked back, and looked at the book in front of him, sending out a burst of intense light, full of excitement.

It felt its broken true spirit, and it was in Qin Tiange's palm that the fragment of the true spirit was pulled back by reversal.

"I help you return!" Qin Tiange drank, and once again burned a small universe without a master, directly transformed into a cosmic origin, and merged into that broken spirit.

Then, he mixed this true spirit into the cosmic origin and broke it into the earth books.

Hum!

Suddenly, the earth's book erupted into the light of the supreme god, and the hazy light filled it, covering a large space of deep space, lighting up the darkness and nothingness.

The movement here attracted the attention of countless powerhouses, and they all came over and saw this scene in surprise.

"Ground Book?"

"What is the Emperor doing?"

For a moment, the strong men from all sides were horrified, and some of the Xeons who were stepping on the stone bridge had their eyes widened and tried to come over.

They saw Qin Tiange reversing the years for the book of the earth, restoring the true spirit, and helping the book of the earth to return intact again.

Huh!

Accompanied by a crisp gurgling sound, the sound spread to all corners of the universe, causing huge waves.

The mysterious ground book has actually recovered, from the dark and blind endless abyss, freed from death and was born again in ruin.

"I am back!"

A sound full of vicissitudes spread slowly, causing fluctuations in the entire universe. Many strong people were shocked and realized that the ground books were back.

Sure enough, in the dark space, the mysterious book on that side suddenly burst into a mysterious light, and gradually became a magnificent figure.

It was a magnificent man, with a vicissitudes of his face, exuding a strong breath, and the true land book returned.

"Thank you!" The man bowed and thanked him slightly, feeling very excited.

He is the ground book, and it can be said that it is very difficult to return again. It is also incredible.

Because without Qin Tiange, he could not return, or, without the gift of the past, there would be no results today.

“Congratulations on your successful return. You and I are one of the three books. You’re welcome.” Qin Tiange nodded with a smile.

The kindness between the two was paid off.

“唉 ...” The spirit of the book sighed sighing, looking at the stone bridge that traverses the universe, muttering: “Nei He Bridge, the three living stones are one, reversing the origin, the third life, but unfortunately she still lost a love First.”

“The first life, incarnate in Shiqiao, just to wait for that person.”

“The second life, turned into a three-life stone, illuminate the next life, just to look for that familiar figure.”

“Third Life ...”

The land book sighed sighing, word by word, full of sadness, as if seeing a friend was so silent.

Qin Tiange stood aside, not saying a word, sighing in his heart. In fact, he knew very little about the mysterious woman, and lost his old memory again.

He couldn’t understand this at all. Now listening to the book, there is a deep bitterness in his heart. How could there be such an infatuated woman in the world?

I live, just to wait?

“I’m on my way, waiting for you on the other side.”

Suddenly, the floor book spoke softly, and the mighty face showed a faint smile.

He looked at Qin Tiange and laughed: “I firmly believe that this era is dark and light, and it is the end and the beginning.”

“Everything, it’s up to you!”

After that, the spirit of the earth book jumped into the air, fell into the stone bridge, walked directly onto the other shore, and disappeared before the eyes.

Qin Tiango watched silently, motionless, as if turned into a statue, quietly watching the ancient stone bridge across the void of the universe.

It has no spirit, because its spirit is the mysterious woman, the ancient stone bridge, has become a chasing shell, carrying countless souls and strong people, set foot on the desert and the other side of the universe, for an invisible hope Go fight, go fight.

“Everything looks at me?” Qin Tiange said to himself, and suddenly laughed at himself: “Under the sky, rely on the sky to rely on others, it is better to rely on yourself.”

“Ren, after all, you have to rely on yourself.”

Qin Tiange smiled, throwing away all distractions, without any intention of relying on others. They wanted to see him, but did not know that he was confused.

Many ancient powers seem to have an instinct, as if it is determined that the emperor Qin Tiange can do great things that cannot be accomplished in previous eras.

On what basis? Qin Tiange is a little speechless. Do you not want to rely on your own strength, but instead rely on the strength of others?

“Xi Xi, you should be back ...”

At this time, Qin Tiange slowly turned around, looking down at the dark and deep space of the universe, his eyes were deep, as if seeing through a lot of barriers.

He thought of one person, Chen Xi said, except for Xi Xi, everyone else was with her, so the only explanation was that Xi Xi was not in the era.

This young girl awakening ancient power, and perhaps the reincarnation of an ancient Xeon, gave Qin Tiange some conjecture.

Now, Xi Xi is unclear about her whereabouts. Qin Tiange feels that she should be back.

“The Half-Demon clan should be hidden in a small universe.” Qin Tiange said softly, his eyes bloomed with two beams.

His eyes were scorching, and he continuously swept across all corners of the universe, searching inch by inch for the possible universe of the small universe.

In the big universe, there are also many small universes hidden, which are left over by some Xeon and refined into treasures as hidden places.

“Oh, here it is!”

It didn't take long for Qin Tiange to find a mysterious area filled with a strange ray of breath.

In appearance, it is a super black hole floating in the deep space of the universe. There is no matter around, and light is swallowed clean.

In the black hole, there is a small universe hidden, which is equivalent to a cosmic-grade treasure, hidden there, and the entrance is a black hole.

Huh!

Qin Tiange straddled the deep space of the universe in one step, came to the black hole in a blink, stepped into it, and disappeared into the dark nothingness.

Chapter 1014 - River of Life: Xi Xi

Inside the black hole is a small universe.

This small universe was made into a treasure by the strong and exists in the big universe, which is equivalent to a small universe independent in the big universe.

In other words, it is an independent world parasitic in the universe.

Huh!

A dark emptiness, a figure came here, looking at a bright world in front of him.

Qin Tiange blinked his eyes, staring at a small universe in front of him, blocked by a powerful force, forming a kind of diaphragm.

“Yan Xi, it really is here.” Qin Tiange murmured, the corners of his mouth slightly tilted, feeling the breath of Xie Xi.

He stepped out, passed through a light curtain in front of him, and walked into this mysterious little universe.

An aura of breath hit the face, and the unique breath of life was permeated and extremely strong. What you saw at first glance was a vast river.

Qin Tiange looked surprised, watching the long river running through the entire small universe, the breath of life was turbulent and roaring.

“It turns out that the river of life is Xi Xi ...”

Seeing this, Qin Tiange suddenly realized that Xi Xi, the spirit of the river of life, turned out to be the rebirth of the most powerful.

Xi Xi is the spirit of an ancient river of life. At the beginning of its birth, it gave birth to life and naturally had a name.

Son-in-law creates life, and life comes from the river of life.

Looking at this ancient and vast river in front of him, a stream of life is in its mighty roots, and it will never cease to extinguish.

That vitality was beyond imagination, and Qin Tiange couldn't believe it easily. This turned out to be a vast river that gave birth to souls.

Walking step by step in the vast river of life, Qin Tiange felt carefully and realized the truth of life a little bit.

Suddenly, Qin Tiange saw an ancient scene, the birth of the universe, the nightmare of all things, and a vast river crossing the nothingness from the chaos.

It has spawned countless lives, added countless glory and vitality to chaos, but because the power of life is exhausted, the long river is dried up.

Vaguely, Qin Tiange saw a hazy figure coming out of the source of the river of life, watching the dry river and sighing.

In the end, this figure turned into an aura of life, escaped from the river of life, fell into the nothingness of the universe, and disappeared.

“Son-in-law, Xi Xi?”

Qin Tiange stood, closed his eyes, and muttered to himself, not paying any attention to a figure coming out of the long river before him.

When Qin Tiange slowly opened his eyes, the two face to face, their eyes were intertwined, and a hint of light filled the air.

“Brother Qin!”

A clear call made Qin Tiange understand that the person in front of him was Xi Xi, the young girl of the past had grown up.

Moreover, she awakened her memory and gained the ancient power, the body, and the river of life has returned to her and merged into one.

“Me, should I call your son-in-law, or Xi Xi?” Qin Tiange smiled, smiling at the beauty in front of her.

Yan Xi, the head of the snake, thought at first glance that she was a snake demon, in fact, her snake body is not a snake, but a scene of a long river of life.

Her lower body is a river of life, not a snake, but a river full of vitality.

Yan Xi blinked his eyes, looking at the person in front of her, the man she used to want but was afraid to face.

“I am the son-in-law, but not the son-in-law. I am still Xi Xi.” Xi Xi said softly, and suddenly smiled.

She stared at Qin Tiange and said softly, “Brother Qin, I thought you would not come back, and I would never remember my little girl of the past.”

“Hahaha ...” Qin Tiange laughed, stepped forward, and patted Xiang Xi’s shoulder gently.

The old people met, and the two were particularly happy, especially Xi Xi, who thought Qin Tiange had forgotten her and would not come.

But he never thought that he really found it and came to her.

“Xi Xi, I did not expect that you should be the river of life, Chen Xi is the river of epochs, and you are the river of life, things are wonderful.” Qin Tiange looked with emotion and looked at the next to Xi Xi.

“Hee hee ...” Xi Xi smiled cheerfully, she said: “Brother Qin, this is called fate.”

“Well, it’s fate!” Qin Tiange smiled for a moment.

He walked along the river of life with Xi Xi, stepped on the waves of life, and walked all the way, seeing countless creatures in this small universe.

The half-demon, the human race, and the son-in-law family, the living beings here are all peaceful, respecting the river of life, is Xi Xi.

Why is Xi Xi a half-demon maiden, in fact, it comes from one ethnic group, that is, the son-in-law.

In fact, the son-in-law was born from the river of life. They claim to be descendants of the son-in-law, and they are talking about the descendants of the river of life.

“Brother Qin, do I need my help?”

Walking and walking, Wan Xi crooked her head and looked at Qin Tiange, softly speaking a firm belief.

She has never changed, even if she restored her memory and strength, she never changed her original intention.

“Well, I need your strength, the human race needs you, Chen Xi needs you, and I need you too.” Qin Tiange stopped and looked at her with a serious expression.

Qin Tiange really needs the power of Xi Xi, or the power of the river of life, because if he wants to save Chen Xi, he cannot lack Qi Xi.

The river of life has unparalleled strength, and it is not worse than the river of the epoch, but Xun Xi never performed it.

“What should I do?” Xi Xi was serious, with a feeling of surprise in her heart, as if she suddenly felt useful.

Qin Tiange looked down at the entire small universe and remained silent for a long time before he said, “My time is not enough, and my strength is not enough. The other day, I need your help.”

“Need the power of the half-demon tribe, son-in-law tribe?” Xi Xi nodded and asked softly.

She set foot on the starry sky with Chen Xi at the beginning, awakening her power all the way, gaining ancient memories, and realizing her original roots.

Afterwards, Chen Xi suggested that she return and get her own strength and glory. She did not want to return because she was afraid that when she returned, not only would she change, but she would forget Qin Tiange.

Even more afraid that once she left, Qin Tiange forgot her, now everything is not important because he came.

“Do you have memory, Panzun?” Qin Tiange asked softly.

Xi Xi nodded slowly, and said quietly, “In the past, Pan Zun broke through the universe with his own strength and successfully jumped into the universe, which is our model.”

“However, because we are restricted by the ontology, we cannot be like Panzun, and we can only escape from the ontology and reincarnate.”

“Like Chen Xi, I am the same, Brother Qin, are you the same?” Wu Xi finished, looking at Qin Tiange curiously.

Because she didn't know Qin Tiange's true identity till now.

Qin Tiange shook his head and laughed: “I am worse than you. As a human being, I was crushed inexplicably.”

“People's books?” Xi Xi stumbled and realized: “Wow, Brother Qin is the spirit of human books. We used to have ...”

Having said that, Xi Xi was a little embarrassed, with her head bowed, her face flushed slightly, as if there had been any intersection.

Qin Tiange was curious and asked, "I don't know anything about the memories of the past. Did we ever know each other and tell me?"

He came to interest, but Xun Xi was a little bit contorted, her face turned redder. She did remember some of her memories, but some were hard to tell.

After repeated urging by Qin Tiange, Xi Xi finally said: "That ... Brother Qin, I said, don't you get angry?"

Speaking, Xi Xi carefully looked at Qin Tiange before whispering: "In the beginning, you suddenly ran and said you want to sleep in the river of life. I, I beat you out in anger, and later I heard that Broken. "

"What?" Qin Tiange was thundered, his head full of black lines.

Qin Tiange's expression was more embarrassed, more embarrassed, his face was reddish, and his heart was speechless. Has he suffered this in the past?

A picture in his mind, an ancient era of chaos, an ignorant book, ran into a river of life and said he was going to sleep here.

Then, the river of life was enraged, and the book was directly typed out. The picture was too beautiful to dare to imagine, making Qin Tiange's old face blush.

"That, Brother Qin, I didn't mean it at the time, because the river of life dried up, and you still want to sleep in it, wouldn't it kill me?" Wu Xi said with some grievances.

She looked at Qin Tiange pitifully, two former enemies. It turned out that Qin Tiange was beaten out by the river of life.

"Well, where did my old face go? I was so famous and ruined it all." Qin Tiange's face was so distressed that Xi Xi couldn't help laughing.

"Eh!" She Xixi smiled, her face flushed slightly, and shyly: "Brother Qin, sister Chen Xi was happy for three days at that time."

"I'm dizzy!" Qin Tiange almost fell down, and dared to love Chen Xi, who was there at the time.

"However, when we heard that you were suddenly broken, we were very sad and wanted to help you find the fragments and reorganize, but it was then that Pan Zun broke through the chaos and killed the universe, causing the collapse of that era, We also had to get away from the reincarnation at that time. "After finishing Xi Xi, there was still a feeling of being in another world.

Qin Tiange was silent, Pan Zun hit the universe and jumped into the universe sea is a good thing, but it also caused the chaos to be destroyed. In that battle, almost all the strong and souls of the entire chaos era were destroyed.

The Pangu tribe died away at that time, and the Zhi tribe was destroyed because of it. One powerful race and one Xeon creature died in the ancient and fierce battle.

Now think about it, every era has a big cleansing, in order to get out of the universe and jump into the universe sea.

“Okay, Xi Xi, Chen Xi is in great danger. I need you to go there and help Chen Xi.” Qin Tiange suddenly became serious.

As soon as this word came out Xi Xi immediately focused his head and said, “Brother Qin rest assured that Sister Chen Xi and I have had countless years of friendship. She is in trouble, and I am willing to define it.”

“Okay, here you go, help Chen Xi regain control of the river of epochs, and temporarily work together to suppress that impulsive external force, don’t let it wake up so quickly.”

Qin Tiange’s expression was serious and solemnly warned. This is to use Chen Xi’s river of life to help Chen Xi resist the pressure.

“Well, I’ll go!”

Xi Xi was fiercely popular, and he waved his hand directly, and the whole river of life shrank immediately and merged into her body.

“Brother Qin, I’m gone. Sister Chen Xi and I are waiting for you.”

Xi Xi looked at Qin Tiange, his eyes flickered, and suddenly he stepped forward and kissed Qin Tiange’s face.

Huh!

Xun Xi flashed for a moment, tearing the universe into nothingness, disappearing in a blink, leaving Qin Tiange alone in a daze.

Chapter 1015 - Into the opposite universe

Qin Tiange stayed a moment, then shook his head and laughed, watching the disappearing Xi Xi, has rolled into the river of life into the wasteland of the universe.

She directly penetrated the junction of the two universes and disappeared in a blink of an eye, leaving many strong guesses.

“Human, it’s time to hit the road.”

After watching the meeting, Qin Tiange suddenly exhaled and said to himself, his eyes gazing at the other side quietly.

The ancient simple stone bridge traverses the universe, and countless powerful creatures set foot on the stone bridge and head to the edge of the universe, where it will become a battlefield for all nations to kill together.

There are millions of people in the universe here, but the universe on the other side is not moving at all, making Qin Tiange's pupils unable to bear the slightest coldness.

“On the other side of the universe, if you don't come, kill it.” Qin Tiange snorted, suddenly turning his hands, and a hazy large chaos appeared behind him.

There is a vast river flowing in the chaos, which is the long river of human luck, which has been fully condensed by him into a cosmic treasure.

The mighty river is full of vitality, exuding eternal immortality. At the source of the long river, there is sitting a behemoth.

It was an emperor's body. It became more and more powerful and horrifying, and it was not bottomed out. It was not clear how specific the combat effectiveness was.

On the shoulders of the Emperor's body, stood a man, a mysterious human prophet, and her eyes glowed with a light of wisdom.

“My lord, I don't see the future ...” The prophet suddenly spoke, spit out quietly.

Relying on the book of wisdom that has been promoted, she has expended countless efforts. After all, she still can't peek into the future, the luck of the people, the fate of the people, and the future of the emperor.

“The future is in our hands, why do you need to look with your eyes?” Qin Tiange smiled indifferently, without even caring.

The so-called future is nothing in his eyes, even if he sees it, it is just a phantom.

The future is in your own hands. You can only create the future without seeing it. What you see is not necessarily true. Only what is created is true.

“Go, take the human race and set foot in the desert, our human race does not lag behind others.”

After Qin Tiange finished speaking, he suddenly typed a hazy book, and the book of the universe was born, turned a page, and there was a universe on it.

In this universe, there are the entire human race and even the human race's allies, densely packed, and an endless army of human races gather.

The warriors of the entire human race have gathered, and have been ready for a long time, waiting for Qin Tiange's order.

Now that the Terran Army is in place and the Allies are in place, the time has come.

“Human races obey orders, enter the desert, let the name of the tribe forever engraved the universe of the heavens, let the people of the big universe know that the human race is the eternal master of the universe!

With an order, the entire human race was boiling, the soldiers of the clan moved together, the war soldiers were raised high, and they stepped on the stone bridge with anger and entered the desert.

“My queen has orders to land on the other side, to suppress the living beings on the other side of the universe, and to make my people’s name immortal!”

With a loud drink, accompanied by a battle flag hunting, across the void of the universe, a huge hole was made.

That was the human war banner, followed by an endless army, the Emperor’s guard, leading the immortal war spirit, densely packed, and overwhelmingly plunged into the vast universe.

The appearance of the human race, the horror of all races, and all the strong men of various races in the borderlands, without exception, looked at this leading human race’s immortal war spirit in horror.

“Human race!”

“The Emperor’s Immortal Guard!”

“Immortal War Soul!”

Each side of the universe, the vast universe is famine, there are thousands of people living, all the strong are silent, watching the eruption of the human race banner running through, killing the slaughter.

The war will to pierce the universe and make all people thriller!

Huh!

Another howl pierced through the nothingness of the universe, and a bright red flag came across the universe, all the way through the nothingness and obscurity, appearing in front of the peoples.

It was a bright red five-star red flag. The flag was fluttering and exuding immortality.

“Another immortal banner!”

“Human race, what do you want?”

People of all races are trembling, watching another kind of immortal battle flags piercing the universe across the sky, cutting through nothingness and ignorance, and breaking into the desert.

I saw, on the road that was cut through, a terrifying army of human races uniformed and walked up the void.

The army passed, nothingness broke, the powerful breath swept through the ignorance, the neat steps, each step shocked the entire universe.

Uh ...

The vast army of human races is neat and uniform, step by step, and unswervingly walks in the cosmic void, and all the main army of the Huaxia ethnic army appear.

The huge starry fortress, the horrible galaxy battleships, densely packed, laid on top of the nothingness of the universe, all the way across, incessant.

“Prisoners, though strong, they will die!”

“Break through the universe on the other side, scrub the shame of the ancestors of previous generations, and immortalize the name of the human race!”

Rumble ...

The big universe trembled, all sides of the border desert were boiling, and they watched with horror that the huge army broke through the universe and entered the battlefield of the border desert.

It is the main force of the human race, dense and dense, like endless, it is scary to see thousands of people, terrifying.

The human race embarked on a frontier wasteland, hunting flags, and fighting against the sky. An endless battle is intended to penetrate the barriers of the universe.

There are thousands of people living, and the strong men of all races look at the invincible soldier front of the people's race, their hearts are cold, and no one dares to stop.

Wherever people pass by, even the Xeons avoid the frontier, and dare not face the terrible soldier front.

In addition to Terran, there are Terran's allies, Purple Spirit, Hell, Huangquan Corpse, Ice and Snow, Fairy and so on. All the allies are here.

“This battle, even if we fall, we will be famous forever!”

On the border, all the people from all ethnic groups gathered together, including Shangguan Xianer, Nalan Feiyu, and Nalan Jingyu.

These people all met Qin Tiange, the emperor of the past, and laid down the friendship behind them. It was considered a clan alliance and followed Qin Tiange all the way to black.

Now that I've set foot on the edge of the desert, and is about to enter the opposite universe, how can such an unprecedented war not be exciting?

“The power of the nations to kill and rob can break through the barriers of the universe. If the universe on the other side does not come, it will kill everything on the other side.”

Above nothingness, Qin Tiange stood quietly, looking down at the entire frontier situation, watching the quietness of the opposite side of the universe, and no creature came.

That is to say, the power of the other side of the universe is that no creatures of all ethnic groups have come, so how can we bring together the power of annihilation by all ethnic groups?

Huh!

Detective Qin Tiange slowly pulled out the Emperor's Sword from the chaos, and slammed, the edge pierced through the nothingness of the universe, attracting the attention of countless powerful people.

I saw that he held up the Emperor's Sword, gathered a horrible sword, and slashed it with a sword, chopped over the barriers on the other side of the desert.

Click!

A sword is split, nothingness is cracked, and the whole edge wasteland is shaken slightly, and the edge wasteland of the other side of the universe is cracked.

There was cut out of a boundless mouth, dark and dark, revealing an unfamiliar atmosphere of the universe, which belongs to the energy of the universe on the other side.

“Kill, wither everything on the other side!”

Qin Tiange made a killing order. Suddenly, the entire Terran Army moved, and two immortal battle flags thumped, which instantly penetrated the opposite bank.

Suddenly, two torrents of torrential torrents swept across the border, flooded into the wasteland, and plunged into the universe on the other side, and directly conquered the other side.

Since the universe on the other side is not coming, kill it, and kill all living beings on the other side.

“The flag does not fall, and the expedition continues!”

“kill!”

The terrifying killing of the sky, the warriors of human races roared, and along with two immortal battle flags, they entered the opposite side of the universe.

As the saying goes, the battle flag will not fall, and the expedition will not stop. This war can only stop the expedition if the universe on the other side is completely withered.

Seeing that the human race actually entered the opposite universe, the Xeons of the races were horrified and couldn't believe it, all this was true.

You know, the opposite universe is stronger than the big universe here, and both the number of top Xeons and all aspects are much stronger than the big universe here.

But why do people still want to kill the past? Isn't it afraid that they will be destroyed in the universe on the other side, which is their territory after all.

“Tens of nations listen to orders, assist human races, set foot on the other side of the universe!”

Suddenly, an indifferent voice spread to all corners of the universe, to the ears of all the ethnic groups in the desert, and suddenly felt cold.

That was Qin Tiange's voice. The emperor directly ordered the peoples to cooperate with the people to break into the universe on the other side, once and for all.

He didn't think of acting. He didn't feel in the mood to act with the other side of the universe.

Moreover, in the past, the human race was bullied again and again, and almost destroyed the race again and again. Although this blood debt has the credit of the great universe, the biggest blood debt is still the opposite universe.

“kill!”

After a long silence, there was finally a terrifying shout from the edge of the wasteland. The sound came from the opposite universe.

In that rift, a terrible shout came and heard, and the Terrans have begun to engage with the powerful creatures on the other side.

“Peace the other side, and wash away the disgrace of the Terran ancestors!”

“Kill, let the name of the tribe be carved across the shore forever, ringing through the universe!”

A roar spread across all sides, and the desert was boiling, and the Terran army suddenly accelerated, rushing into the universe on the other side.

All the armies of all races entered into it. One never retreated, and no one flinched. Everyone had gone to death after the war.

With the passing of the battle flag, the soldier pointed out that there was the battlefield of the human race. As long as the battle flag did not fall, the expedition would never stop.

boom!

Suddenly, just as the frontiers of the Wanwan nationality were in a daze, one hand came across the nothingness, and one palm penetrated the other bank.

With a bang, that hand smashed across the other side directly penetrated through the depths of nothingness, and a powerful blow made countless Xeons frightened and terrified.

“on!”

“Into the opposite universe!”

“Kill!”

Suddenly, countless Xeons roared, stunned into the universe on the other side, and rushed into them one by one.

Immediately after, there were thousands of people in the big universe, and the army of all races immediately moved into the universe on the other side, killing them without hesitation.

They were frightened by the hand that pierced the other side, that was Qin Tiange’s hand, pierced the other side with one palm, hit the depths of the other side of the universe, and scared countless Xeons.

Humph!

Watching the army of all ethnic groups and all the powerful men break into the opposite universe, Qin Tiange snorted, slowly retracted his palms, fastened his fingers, and held a dim light in his palms.

It was an unincorporated inner universe. Qin Tiange’s palm penetrated the depths of the other side of the other side, and he grasped it with one hand.

Chapter 1016 - 2 horror creatures

The cataclysm rises, all nations kill together!

boom!

The wilderness was shaken on the edge of the universe, the vast land was broken, and it was shattered by a terrible killing force.

That power comes from the universe on the other side, and the power of endless robbery is like breaking the shackles of the universe, which is frightening.

Robbery, robbery, where's the rogue without killing? Qin Tiange is very clear that only by killing people from all over the universe can he create this terror.

Watching the rumbling sweep, the mighty killing force, Qin Tiange was very calm, standing here watching silently, watching the scene of the universe on the other side.

There, the human race is headed by all nations, and all the nations have the same respect, and together they enter the opposite universe. This is an unprecedented mass murder of the nations.

In each previous era, the two universes were controlled by the Xeon across the coast, and they manipulated the pattern of the two universes.

Only in the borderlands, the repeated killings and the combined forces of killing and killing are not enough to break the barriers of the universe and cannot penetrate the constraints of the universe.

Repeated killings, causing the Terrans to collapse and disintegrate again and again, and even almost exterminate the race several times, all these are caused by the universe on the shore.

Because they are weak, they are being manipulated, and because they are weak, they are crushed to death, even the universes here are no exception.

The court of life is the supreme master of the universe on the other side, playing with the two universes, and silently using the souls of the universe to accumulate the power of unlimited killing.

“Your plan will eventually fail!”

Qin Tiange spit out a faint sentence, and the words passed into the deep space of the other side of the universe, causing a wave of waves.

In the endless darkness, two pairs of horrified eyes were staring at the people and even the army of thousands of people who had entered the other side.

“Human races, ten thousand races, dare to break into the cosmic range of the High God Temple!”

“Then let them be buried here!”

“Kill, subvert them!”

Across the shore, there was a supreme voice conveying will, endless creatures poured out, and a group of terrifying verdicts and trials killed them.

The war began, the blood robbery was born, and the power of endless robbery came together, condensing on the two cosmic barriers of the border.

Nothingness was shattered, terrible killings, shocked the two universes, the strongest roared, taboo creatures roared, all forgotten everything, only killing.

“kill!”

“In this era, the only way to survive!”

“Our will, we will break the **** of the universe!”

There are roars of the Xeons, diffused light of the Buddha, and the power of the Xeons boiling. Here in the universe, there are many strong people who existed in ancient times.

They have endured countless years, and they are waiting for this opportunity. The fleeting opportunity cannot be missed.

For this day, I waited too long, even forgotten countless years, everything was to break the universe and enter the universe.

Pan Zun's achievements have inspired countless latecomers who are struggling for this goal. For this reason, I don't know how many heroes have fallen.

“My lord, our hope is on you!”

“kill!”

“Former comrades, we are back!”

“On the other side, let's fight again!”

Zhenyuan, Yaochi, Dishu, all kinds of ancient Xeons issued Xeon roar, cast aside the life and death, and directly into the deepest universe on the other side.

They have been waiting for too long. This battle is the last one. For this day, they have planned for countless years, and the strong men who have fallen in the past have returned.

Inside the other side, a horrible bone buried suddenly raised his head, his eyes revealing two beams of horror.

“I see, that is the hope of breaking the darkness!”

A hoarse and horrible voice came, and the skull dragged the rusty iron sword, step by step unfolding nothingness, cutting through the barriers of the universe and killing into the desert.

Step by step, there was a **** light on his body, wrapping his body, and gradually he was born of flesh and blood, and returned from the rebirth.

“kill!”

A sword slashed across the shore, and it penetrated into it. The unmatched killing force caused the thriller of the opposite universe.

“Hou ... Pangu is gone, I'm alive!”

A roar came, and a terrible demon stepped on the edge of the wasteland and stepped into the opposite bank. The body of the terrible demon was immortal.

It was a horrible demon from the place of exile. It was so voluminous that the Pangu clan was gone, but he was still alive. This was a powerful manifestation.

One after another, the terror creatures have risen from all sides and entered the opposite universe. No one is exception, all in order to accumulate the power of killing.

Only the annihilation of the nations can break the constraints of the universe. Otherwise, who can play the universe like Pan Zun?

Qin Tiango watched silently, without intervening or leaving, but staring at the deep space on the opposite side of the universe.

There were two terrible breathes. On the other side, there were huge secrets hidden. Two terrible breaths remained unmoved.

The chief judges and arbitrators of the two life courts that killed in the past are nothing more than clowns on the bright side.

Really arrogant, has not yet come out, has hidden countless years, hiding behind the scenes, like the Supreme King of the past.

“Don’t you come out yet?” Qin Tiange snorted, staring indifferently, two beams of light locked on the dimly visible figure.

In the locked opposite universe, two horrors existed, and finally turned their eyes to meet Qin Tiange’s eyes.

“wanna die?”

Two cold and indifferent words penetrate the diaphragm of the universe, penetrate Qin Tiange’s ear through nothing, and reveal a shocking killing.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange was unmoved, and his strong will locked those two hidden horrors.

It belongs to the Xeon who is behind the universe on the other side. As the former emperor said, he killed the person in charge of the life court on the other side.

Qin Tiange did not believe it, because he had already noticed that there were two terrible things hidden on the other side.

These two things are much stronger than the former emperor. They cannot be compared at all, because he has long been prepared for them.

Now, there are thousands of people in the big universe. As the human races have entered the other side, it is already a complete war, and there is no room for relaxation.

The two universes killed together, either you die or I die. Only one side of the universe is completely dead can we stop this war.

“Men, do you want to break the barriers of the universe with the death robbery of a large universe?”

After a long silence, one of the shadows spoke indifferently, telling Qin Tiange’s thoughts and wills, which he guessed.

However, halfway through the sanctions, Qin Tiange did want to bury the living beings on the other side of the universe and gain a mighty killing force.

But it is not used to penetrate the big universe, but another scheme, as for what he knows only.

“It’s useless to say more, you two have been hiding for too long, come out and fight me.”

Qin Tiange was indifferent, even ruthless, without a little bit of mercy. It was directly to make the universe on the other side completely wither and everything was extinct.

That is to bury a universe, to truly kill a creature of the universe. This determination is that the Xeon of all ages cannot do or dare not do it.

Now, Qin Tiange is going to bury the other side in exchange for the survival of the universe and the human race here. This killing heart is really frightening.

“Want to fight, as you wish!”

Finally, a dark shadow moved, directly and simply, it was a blow to Qin Tiange, penetrating through the two cosmic diaphragms and bombarding it.

With a bang, the universe trembled, a blow beyond imagination penetrated the two universes, and exploded in front of Qin Tiange, even if the general Xeon could not stop it, it would be instantly destroyed.

boom!

However, such a horrible blow was broken by an understatement of Qin Tiange’s palm, and the fluttering palm disintegrated the power.

He opened his eyes, and two beams of cold light burst out, humming: “You want to fight me fiercely across the universe, it’s too funny.”

Huh!

As soon as the voice fell, Qin Tiange launched a flat fist, no fireworks, no violent explosion came, only a loud noise came from the other side of the universe.

I saw that one of the black shadows was trembling, black gas billowing, being beaten out by a force, flying across the universe, revealing his true body.

“It turns out that this is your true body?” Qin Tiange sneered, watching the beating down, revealing the true strong hiding power across the bank.

It was a headless creature without a head. It had only one body, and the others were not much different from humans.

The only difference is the lack of head position, blood rolling, exuding a terrifying atmosphere.

“Very good, for many years, no one has hurt me, except for the disk.” There was a cold word from the headless creature.

This is shocking. The creature has fought fiercely with Pan Zun?

Humph!

Qin Tiange legheng, disdainfully said: “Pan Zun’s men defeated. In the past, you prevented Pan Zun from penetrating the universe and beheaded. How can you resist me?”

“Roar ... you will die terribly!” The headless creature roared, as if being pained.

In the past, he did prevent Pan Zun from going out, but he was chopped off with an axe. Now he has not recovered, and it seems that he cannot recover.

Pan Zun’s strength is beyond imagination. The two creatures on the other side are just as terrible, but they are ultimately defeated by Pan Zun.

“Cut him!”

The other shadow opened, and simply, stepped out of nothingness step by step, the powerful breath crushed the side shortage.

He was mottled, rusty, missing an arm, and blood was still rolling over the wound, looking terrifying.

A headless, one-arm-free creature, the breath emanating from it was super scary, causing the thrill of the Xeons of all parties.

No one expected that the two universes hidden in the opposite universe, they are the strongest in the opposite universe, discerning the most powerful creatures of that era.

“I was beaten by Pan Zun and could n’t even repair the damage How else are you qualified to fight with me?”

Qin Tiange came word by word, step by step, his body was full of strong meaning, the powerful killing intention was shocking.

One to two, he was not afraid at all. The two creatures on the opposite side were beaten like this by Pan Zun, and haven’t recovered for countless years. What fear does Qin Tiange have?

If even these two creatures can’t be killed, how can he fight the universe, and how can he fight against the force outside the big universe that is about to wake up?

“kill!”

There was a sudden bang, and the three Xeons were killed in a ball, one from the Xeon King of the Universe, and two Xenos from the other side of the universe.

The horrible strongman left over from the era of Panzun, who blocked Panzun in the past, has only been dug up until now.

boom!

The three major Xeons broke the other shore, directly into it, and launched the most intense battle of life and death. The power of the three shattered the nothingness of the other shore and broke into the deepest.

Chapter 1017 - Slaughter and escape deep into the other side

Deep on the other side, three Xeon figures are fighting fiercely, killing real fire and breaking into a ball.

Huh!

With a loud noise, the fog on the other side exploded, and a broken figure flew out of nothingness. A creature missing one arm uttered a terrifying roar.

It had a sunken door and had a punch mark left behind, apparently just punched out.

“kill!”

It roared into the depths of the other side, rushing into the depths of the other bank, breaking out with all its might, fighting with Qin Tiange for life and death, two dozens of one couldn't restrain the other.

Qin Tiange, with one enemy and two, took it easy, his fists waving to break the nothingness, and to break the ignorance deep on the other side.

boom!

A punch was punched, and a headless creature in front of him fought to resist, the two fists collided, and a burst of bangs came out, as if gold and iron were fighting.

The two creatures were very powerful and immortal, and there were sounds of shivering on them, deafening.

“Kill kill!”

In the fog, the headless creature made a cry, a roar from the soul, full of violence and killing.

It went crazy, combined with another powerful creature missing one arm, and fought against the emperor Qin Tiange.

The three wars caused turmoil on the other side, and even broke into the depths of the other side, causing a mighty robbery.

Bang!

The sky is full of robbery, and the three Xeon are drowned. Qin Tiange ignores the robbery, and the two Xeon creatures on the other side have no fear at all.

“Men, you are dead!”

With a roar, the headless creature suddenly vacated and stepped on top of Qin Tiange's head, trying to step him down.

However, what responded to it was Qin Tiange's simple and simple punch, shaking his arm and waving, with a buzz, his fist penetrated the blindness, and banged on the bottom of the creature.

Slightly!

I only heard a crisp sound, the soles of the feet cracked, the bones splashed out, and blood and water poured wildly in all directions, and the creature's foot was blown by a punch.

“Hmm ...” One leg was blasted, and the headless creature mourned, retreating quickly, and the broken foot wanted to recover.

But the scene that made it scared was that the broken foot couldn't be recovered. No matter how much energy it poured out, it couldn't repair the broken foot.

“impossible!”

“how come?”

The headless creature screamed, looking terrified, looking at his irreparable feet, as if his head could not be repaired.

This situation made it very scared. In the past, his head was cut off by Pan Zun, but he failed to recover and could not recover.

Now he was fighting fiercely with Qin Tiange and was knocked off one leg. He couldn't even recover, which was a bit of fear.

“No, this is the power of the disk, you, how can you have the power of the disk?”
The headless creature screamed in panic.

It was embarrassed and lost its head, as if looking at Qin Tiange in horror, suppressing the creature with the missing arm.

“The power of the pan?” The creature lacking the arm heard it, and slammed it.
Qin Tiange punched him in the face door.

With a bang, the face door sags, the eyes burst directly, and a stream of blood flows down with a mixture of blood and water.

The miserable scene made the creature suddenly breed a little fear, because it suddenly found that its injury could not be repaired.

There is a mysterious force that is blocking the repair of injuries, just like the old Panzun. After hurting them, it can't be repaired for countless years.

“You, what is your relationship with Panzun?”

The two creatures on the other side of the universe were finally frightened. Looking at Qin Tiange's body covered with hazy chaos, he had guessed.

“Dead people don't need to know!”

Qin Tiange replied lightly, walking step by step on the other side of nothingness, and wherever he passed, the universe's robbery retreated autonomously.

There was a hazy chaos outside his body, and a violent breath swept away, eroding and assimilating the surrounding rogue force.

This scene made the two creatures on the opposite side chilly, as if returning to the picture when they faced Pan Zun in the past.

“kill!”

Under fear, the two creatures drank violently, and finally turned fear into strength, killing Qin Tiange, to kill him, and drive out the shadow left by Pan Zun's past.

The indelible shadow was imprinted on the hearts of the two creatures. Now that Qin Tiange has the power of Panzun, he naturally wants to kill him from the influence of Panzun.

Unfortunately, they had the wrong idea. Is Qin Tiange weak? No, Qin Tiange is not weak, but strong to a desperate degree.

boom!

Five hundred inner cosmic forces erupted, punched the other side with a punch, and blasted out a huge cave, deep and horrifying.

Qin Tiange's growing strength, the five hundred inner universes in his body burned together, turned into a boundless force, gathered in his fists, and waved his arms.

Listening only to the "swish", the headless creature was wounded and was punched through the heart with a fist, revealing a blood hole, and the heart was still beating fiercely.

"what..."

Another creature screamed, and Qin Tiange was tortured by one of the remaining arms, which was torn off directly.

"Two hundred and ninety-nine inner universes, two hundred and eighty-nine inner universes, you two, pretty good ..."

Qin Tiange said to himself, his eyes were cold, and he stared at the two horrible creatures in front of him, the two powerful creatures from the other side.

They are all powerful men left from the old Panzun era. They blocked Panzun and gave birth to hundreds of inner universes.

In both organisms, nearly three hundred inner universes have been bred. How powerful and terrifying is this?

Unfortunately, they were defeated by Pan Zun in the past. One was chopped off his head and could not be recovered, and the other was chopped off his arm.

Now, facing the emperor Qin Tiange, he was beaten to no avail, and he couldn't recover after being wounded.

"You, what kind of monster are you?" The creature who lost his arms was a little embarrassed and stared at Qin Tiange.

They don't believe that Qin Tiange is too strong. It seems that he is better than Pan Zun who was then.

Although they were discouraged by the disc and their strength was greatly reduced, they are still strong now, but they are still crushed and beaten by Qin Tiange.

"The inner universe of the two of you adds up to more than five hundred, which is enough for me to conceive and complete all the inner universe in my body."

Step by step, Qin Tiange, his eyes glowed with faint cold light, already regarded these two creatures as a nutrient.

There are nearly 300 inner universes in each of the two opposite universes, and this is an opportunity.

Once it is dug out and smelted into the absorption of the universe's origin, all the inner cosmos membranes in its own body can be bred to success as soon as possible.

“kill!”

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange stepped forward without hesitation, stepping on the body of the headless creature.

Not only did it lose its head, it also lost a leg, it could not compete with Qin Tiange at all, and it was stepped on one foot.

“Well ... go to death!” Another Xeon creature growled, a powerful force burst out from behind, and an astonishing ray of light emerged from behind.

Those are the inner universe apertures, which exploded directly, ignited their inner universe and shrouded Qin Tiange.

Such an approach is to die together, kill a thousand enemies, and harm 800.

“boom!”

Qin Tiange punched his arm, punched through the hazy apertures, and smashed that powerful force of suppression.

No matter how many universes are suppressed, he is broken by one punch, and even the punching power directly penetrates the creature's body.

puff!

A spit of blood spewed out The creature was stiff there, trembling all over, and a ray of fear in the pupil.

It saw that Qin Tiange lifted his foot and stomped, and the headless creature was trampled directly on the body, turning into a sphere of cosmic aperture.

“Suppression!”

With a low drink, Qin Tiange turned his hands to suppress these scattered inner universes, one by one in the palm of his hand.

A total of 299 inner universes were suppressed by Qin Tiange as many as possible, and one headless creature has now disappeared.

“Escape ...” The remaining creature saw his companion killed, the inner universe was dug out to suppress it, and he was frightened, and turned to escape.

It did not escape from the other side, but directly into the depths of the other side, where there is the deepest side of the other side, with inexplicable power.

“Want to run?” Qin Tiange stared at his eyes, seeing that the creature escaped into the deepest part of the other bank, stepped out without hesitation, and chased directly into the depth of the other bank.

Chapter 1018 - First confrontation

At the deepest side of the other side, a dazzling other side flower takes root in obscurity, quietly blooms in nothingness, revealing a ray of loneliness and sadness.

call!

Suddenly, a wolverine figure rushed into the mist, losing all his arms, and fled here in a panic.

It is a Xeon creature in the universe on the other side, but frightened to break into the depths of the other side and come here.

boom!

At this moment, the creature burst into nothingness behind it, protruded a hand from the inside, and hit it **** its back.

Just listening to the bang, the creature was knocked down on the spot, and his expression was frightened, watching Qin Tiange catching up step by step.

“Damn, why do you have to kill everything?” The creature screamed in fear.

It roared: “In the past, Pan Zun didn’t kill us, why did you kill everything?”

In the chaos era of the past, Pan respected these two creatures on the other side, but did not kill them, but left them behind.

Now Qin Tiange digs out these two hidden ancient creatures, kills one first, and now hunts down this one.

“Why?” Qin Tiange sneered, and said to himself, “Because you guys can just become my nutrients for growth, so rest assured.”

Click!

As soon as the voice fell, the creature’s chest was sunken, a bone was broken by a palm, and a blood hole was penetrated, exposing a cloud of halos inside.

“Ah ... I’m not willing, not willing ...” The creature mourned sternly, staring at nothingness deep in the other side.

It sent out a euphemistic cry for help: “I am willing to give the true spirit, become your slave, save me ...”

As soon as the words fell, Qin Tiange’s expression was condensed, and he suddenly looked up, staring at the deepest area of the other bank, the solitude of silence, and rooting a flower of the other bank.

Other than that, there was nothing, but it gradually gave him a terrible breath, as if something was waking up from there.

“What is it?” Qin Tiange squinted his eyes, wondering in his heart, and stepped on that sorrowful creature under his feet.

I saw that a strange ray of strange light suddenly emerged from the creature’s eyebrow, which was its true spirit, which was inexplicably absorbed.

“I sacrifice the true spirit and become a puppet?” Qin Tiange changed his face and hummed, “In front of me, you still want to be a puppet of others, want help, and dream.”

Click!

After speaking hard, clicking and crunching, the creature’s back was directly sunken, and the cosmic rays of light flickered inside.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange’s eyes were fierce, and he directly raised his hand to pierce the opponent’s Dantian and the heart, and dug out dozens of inner universes from the inside.

“Ah ... Lord, Lord, save ...” The creature stared wide, sorrowful and sorrowful, struggling.

Seeing that Qin Tiange was about to dig out dozens of inner universes, even hundreds of inner universes were held by his palm, suppressed one by one, and he was dug out of the body a little bit.

Hum!

At this moment, a strange buzz came from the other side of the other side, causing the entire other side of the nothingness to fall into a still moment, Qin Tiange and the creature were together.

Qin Tiange only felt a strange force sweeping over, his body was stiff, as if to be locked down by repression, but he soon recovered his freedom.

The heart of time and space in his body was not affected, but he was shocked in his heart, watching the other side of the void be frozen.

“Who?” Qin Tiange suddenly looked up, staring at the deepest area on the other side, behind a flower on the other side, there was a mysterious force revealing.

With a humming sound, a terrible breath permeated, and an invisible hand grabbed at Qin Tiange and the creature.

Looking at the sudden change, Qin Tiange’s expression was condensed, he was in danger, and he directly punched his arm with a punch.

He punched and banged, as if hitting a horrible steel wall, and there was a loud roar.

The powerful boxing power could not be broken, but I felt that my body had a strong anti-seismic force, and I was almost shocked to fly out.

“Open!” Qin Tiange drank violently, and his arm trembled, blocking the invisible hand and bursting it.

After the loud bang, the invisible power collapsed, and the invisible hand was finally blasted by Qin Tiange's punch.

"Is it you?" Qin Tiange stared at his eyes, sending out two horrific killings, and an anger in his heart couldn't help the explosion.

From this power, he sensed a familiar atmosphere, the enemies of the past, the black hand behind the man who crushed the book.

"You want to **** my prey, you are dreaming!" Qin Tiange said a word, and punched the creature's head with a punch.

It squeaked and crumbled, the creature's head was smashed like a watermelon, and the real spirit was smashed by Qin Tiange's punch, completely disappearing.

Buzz!

With five fingers spread out, Qin Tiange held a ray of light and suppressed it in his palm. It was an inner universe, and a total of 289 inner universes were suppressed.

After collecting these inner universes, Qin Tiange looked up, his eyes glowed with a cold light, and through nothingness, he saw a mysterious wave in the deep area of the other side of the flower.

"The hatred of the past is liquidated today!"

Qin Tiange's words just came to an end, step by step resolutely set foot on the deepest side of the other side, without any stop and fear at all.

Step by step, walking in the midst of sky robbery, no force can stop his footsteps, as if nothing can stop him in front.

Qin Tiange's expression was indifferent, his eyes revealed the meaning of a lore, and locked the invisible wave of power deep in the other side.

Hum!

He walked through the robbed sea, broke through the mist, and came to the other flower, just as he was about to pass, the flower made a soft hum.

A dazzling flower from the other shore suddenly made a slight shock, a mysterious light filled the air, and flew to Qin Tiange, making him have to stop.

"You, what do you want to tell me?" Qin Tiange stopped, never crossing.

He looked serious, staring at this dazzling flower of the other shore, mysterious and unpredictable, full of unknown and weird, with a scent of the old woman.

However, why did the other flower suddenly block his way and not allow him to step into the deepest area of the other flower? Is there any change?

"I'm going to step inside and end my old grudges." Qin Tiange said, speaking his decision.

However, the other shore flower trembled slightly, emitting a ray of mysterious light and mist, intertwined and coiled in front of Qin Tiange to form a picture.

This is a fragmented picture, which appeared in front of Qin Tiange and suddenly poured into his mind.

“This is ...” Qin Tiange was shocked. Looking at these fragmented pictures, the broken and fragmented pictures recorded secrets that were difficult for outsiders to understand.

This flower on the other side recorded some scenes of the mysterious woman entering. It was weird, terrible, and eventually disappeared.

Seeing these fragmented pictures, Qin Tiange was silent, staring at the unknown area ahead, where an invisible wave surged.

It is this power that Qin Tiange remembers very well. It is this power that crushed people’s books, making him intolerable.

But now he is a bit wary. Things are not as simple as he thought, and he has to be careful.

Suddenly, a group of broken pictures from the other side of the flower made him suspicious and immediately retracted his steps without stepping into them.

“Thank you, I’ll take you back!”

Qin Tiange thanked him gently, and suddenly said, he was going to take this other flower back. He squatted down and gently pulled out this plant, which was rooted in this illusory Beyond Flower. The charming, mysterious Beyond Flower had a fascinating mystery.

He held the other shore flower, his eyes were cold, and he looked at the dark area in front, the invisible wave disappeared gradually.

“Stay with you for a while, and wait for me to build up my strength, which is your death.”

Qin Tiange thought silently, resolutely turned around, stepped out of the depths of the other side, tearing open the sky and blocking the sea quickly rushed out of the other side.

boom!

Outside, the other side suddenly blasted a hole, and there was a mighty robbery from inside, and then someone came out of it step by step.

Qin Tiange stepped out of the other bank and stepped out of the sea, holding a mysterious flower from the other bank and killing him from the depths of the other bank.

He didn’t stop after he came out, but stepped out one step, and the person has reached the stone bridge and stood where the Sansheng Stone was originally.

“Go!” Qin Tiange tossed it gently, the other side of the flower flew down, and the root system was directly inserted into the stone bridge, taking root exactly in the position of the previous Sansheng stone.

Looking at the other flower in front of him, Qin Tiange was silent, it took him a long time to turn around, step out of the stone bridge and disappear here.

“The other day, if I can penetrate the big universe, I will come to take you into the universe.”

There was such a word from a distance, which made the stone bridge tremble slightly, and the other side of the flower gave out a hazy light, mysterious and unpredictable, and the petals even opened up autonomously.

Chapter 1019 - 1000 universes

The universe was empty, and a figure broke through the barriers and came to the river of the epoch, watching the vast river quietly.

Above the epoch, a vast river of light floats, exuding a strong breath of life, which is the river of life.

Xi Xi has already come here, and united Chen Xi to help her regain control of the river of epochs and suppress the external force that is about to wake up.

“let’s start!”

Qin Tiange glanced at him, sitting cross-legged, suddenly a dim light suddenly appeared around his body.

A closer look reveals that it is an unincorporated inner universe that emits a strong brilliance, floating in hundreds of inner universes.

Before that, Qin Tiange captured hundreds of small universes from the other side, and then killed two Xeon creatures on the other side.

One headless creature has 299 inner universes, and the other has 299 inner universes.

Together, the two are almost enough for five hundred inner universes, and Qin Tiange has gained a lot. It is directly possible to complete the inner universe breeding.

Click!

With a crisp sound, a small universe cracked, and a powerful universe origin overflowed from it, which was absorbed by Qin Tiange one by one.

He directly and directly refined with the great chaos, quenched the origin of the universe to absorb and devour, and strengthened the cosmic membrane in Dantian.

Gradually, the inner universe was formed one by one in the body, and the cosmic fetal membranes that had not yet been formed had been completely bred and turned into baby universes.

One by one, the number is still increasing, so that Qin Tiange Dan Tian looks like a cosmic sea, and the cosmic lights and mists are permeated.

A total of 999 baby universes were born in Dantian. When the birth was completed, the entire Dantian void collapsed.

A loud bang came, and Dantian collapsed, resulting in voluntary destruction and collapse, as if it could not withstand such a huge universe.

Watching his own Dantian fall into ruin, Qin Tiange was exceptionally calm, without any anxiety or nervousness, but stood on the sidelines.

The 999 baby cosmos was formed, and the force effect produced directly crushed Dantian, causing the entire Dantian world to collapse.

Boom, click! Click!

The sound of the explosion came, and the sound of cracking and collapsing kept coming out of the body. If anyone was nearby, he would definitely find in fear that Qin Tiange's body Dan Tian was creating a horror swirl.

That hazy vortex, like the Dantian universe, fell into destruction and formed a terrible scene. The 999 light clusters were flashing and shining.

Hum!

At the moment Dantian was about to collapse, the chaos in Qin Tiange's body suddenly shocked, and suddenly fell into the collapsed Dantian.

Suddenly, the Great Chaos was directly transformed into Dantian, and the 999 Baby Universe was completely wrapped and contained in it.

The Great Chaos Primitive Universe, which includes 999 baby universes, seems to have bred inside, forming a strange balance.

boom!

Suddenly a muffled sound, Qin Tiange's body was smashed, then cracks spread and crisscrossed, and the whole body cracked.

The physical body can't bear it. The 999 inner universes, plus a primitive chaos, are a whole thousand universes.

A thousand forces of the universe directly tore Qin Tiange's body, unable to withstand the impact of that force, and collapsed directly.

boom!

Qin Tiange's body was smashed, turned into countless pieces of scattered meat, and fluttered to form a vortex, circling violently, emitting a horrible light.

Immediately afterwards, an extremely heavy pressure permeated, as if a thousand universes erupted in unison, squeezing a vacuum, and fracturing nothingness.

The big universe can't bear nothingness, and it's cracked one inch at a time, as if the diaphragm of the universe became extremely fragile at this moment, and it was crushed and crushed.

Huh!

Suddenly, the broken flesh flew together, suddenly turning into a hazy figure, completely restored.

Qin Tiange recovered, the physical body no longer collapsed, but instead became a little quaint, hazy mist covered, autonomous diffuse.

Hum!

With a slight movement of the body, the entire nothingness cracked and cracked, Qin Tiange slowly stood up, and the nothingness within a three-foot radius collapsed, causing collapse.

He looked at the collapse of the big universe around him, with no joy or sorrow in his heart, and gently pointed out, with a sound of collapse, the big universe diaphragm was penetrated through a hole.

“A thousand universe forces.” Qin Tiange said to himself, his eyes calmed, as if a thousand inner universe forces were brewing inside.

In his body, there are a total of 999 baby cosmos, plus a growth primitive primitive chaos, that is a whole thousand.

boom!

Stepped out, cracked in nothingness, staggered by huge cracks, stepped out by Qin Tiange step by step.

Every step he took, the big universe shook once, and the fissures crisscrossed, cracking like a mirror.

“A thousand universes, what power is there to stop my footsteps?” Qin Tiange looked indifferently, looking at the unknown land.

There was a powerful and terrifying energy inside, awake, a pair of illusory, invisible eyes watching him.

The two looked at each other and stared at each other silently, as if they saw each other’s powerful and terrible, truly shocking.

thunderbolt!

A void of lightning, an invisible force, an invisible robbery, was directly hacked down, in the middle of the sky above Qin Tiange’s head.

However, a weird scene appeared, and that invisible lightning was completely annihilated within nine feet of Qin Tiange.

The annihilation that did not originate, as if being directly annihilated by a more terrible force, could not hit Qin Tiange’s body.

“This power is ineffective for me now.” Qin Tiange spit it out lightly, suddenly raising his hand to shake his arm and pierce through the nothingness.

Clicking and crunching, the palm penetrated a layer of invisible diaphragm, and entered an unknown area of ignorance.

boom!

Just listening to the roar, there was a terrible shock from the unknown, and an unknown force broke out, blocking Qin Tiange’s terrible palm.

As everything dissipated, a cloud of light emerged from the unknown nothingness, with a strong wave of will inside it.

“The breath of human books, the power of the pan ...”

An idea wave came out, causing the universe to boil, as if waking up with a horrible will.

Just one palm, it actually made the will feel two breaths, one from the human book, and one from the power of the disc.

“Now that you are awake, come to an end!”

Qin Tiange’s eyes sharpened, and suddenly he stepped on the other side and went directly to the deepest side of the other side, sweeping away with a murderous intention.

He stared at the unknown area on the other side, and a mighty will was waking up. This force was the culprit in the past to crush people’s books.

As the spirit of people’s books Qin Tiange naturally has an indelible hatred. If someone shatters people’s books, it is tantamount to killing one’s body.

“who are you?”

In the mist, an indifferent voice came out, with a hint of doubt, as if he did not know Qin Tiange at all.

“The hatred of the past, today, liquidate together!” Qin Tiange did not answer, but stepped into it step by step.

In the dark, a pair of horror eyes stared at Qin Tiange, and the two looked at each other, finally seeing through the details of each other.

“Human books?”

“Tianshu?”

Two low-pitched voices spread across the other shore, shocking the strong men from all sides who were fighting, many Xeon looked with suspicion and looked to the deepest side of the other shore.

There were two Xeon figures confronting each other, the two of them colliding with each other, and a mysterious book suspended above their heads.

Chapter 1020 - Heaven, earth, man

boom!

A cloud of mist dissipated, revealing the scene from the other side of the shore, two figures were confronting each other, the breath collided, shattering nothingness.

Both of them have one thing in common, and a mark appears on their brows, as if it were a book with a mysterious atmosphere.

Above the two men’s heads, a dim light condensed autonomously, transformed into a book, exuding an amazing breath.

“Tianshu!” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, looking at the person in front of him, and the illusory book floating above his head exuded Lingwei Tianwei.

He had a cold face, young and powerful, imprinted with an eyebrow, a book floating in his hand, and an ancient font imprinted on the cover.

day!

It turned out to be the most mysterious heavenly book in the rumor. The heavenly book that has never appeared before is here?

“The spirit of people’s books, recovered?” The other said lightly, looking at Qin Tiange with his eyes, as if seeing through his true spirit.

Heavenly books, human books are confronting each other, and the breath is a little dignified. And Qin Tiange thought, as one of the three books, Tianshu is here?

So, who shattered people’s books in the past?

Qin Tiange’s eyes glowed with a ray of coldness, staring at the heavenly book in front of him, and looking up and down, he felt that it was not his crushing.

The three books of heaven, earth, and people are the treasure of the same level. In the universe, it is not the books of heaven that can crush people’s books, but rather higher-level things.

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange asked, word by word, “You, relying on that external force, became a walking dog and a puppet?”

“Huh!” Tianshu hummed quietly, and said indifferently, “I just chose another way, and the resistance is doomed to no result.”

“Tianshu, you have fallen.”

Suddenly, a dull voice came from the other side, and when a light came, breaking the nothingness of the other side, he rushed in.

It was a book, simple and mysterious, with mystery and powerful breath. It was one of the three books, the earth book.

Heaven, earth, people, three books are here!

“Three books are gathered together, this is a rare sight.” Tian Shu said a little, looked at the book and Qin Tiange.

I saw, the earthly book slowly shed the hazy light, the instrumental spirit reappeared, standing not far beside Qin Tiange, the two of them looked at the Tianshu quietly.

“I didn’t expect you to rely on external forces and become a running dog and a puppet of the other party. You are not worthy of being the first of the three books, Tianshu.” Di Shu said, the first sentence was irony.

However, Tianshu was unmoved, and looked at Qin Tiange and the ground indifferently. The three breathes were intertwined, and the three books dimly fluttered, emitting an amazing light.

The Three Books of Heaven and Earth, which contain the truth of the universe, are rumored to be one, which can peek into the true core origins of the universe.

“Since you have become a puppet, there is no need to keep you, Tianshu, it is good to die.”

After a long silence, Qin Tiange finally spoke, and with a powerful sense of killing in his words, he had moved his heart.

He decided to slay the spirit of Tianshu, destroy it, completely sever the future of Tianshu, and directly kill the other party's spiritual wisdom.

“I want to kill me, to see if you have this ability.” Tianshu snorted, a smile of ridicule and confidence in his smile.

The three books of heaven and earth are the most powerful ones, because the books of heaven are ranked first, the books of earth are ranked second, and the books of people are last. In fact, it is impossible to distinguish who is strong and who is weak.

“kill!”

Suddenly yelled, the war started, and the three books of heaven and earth were directly killed in a group. The books of earth and people joined forces to bombard the books of heaven.

When the loud noise rang, the heavenly books buzzed, and they were struck by two imaginary books. They trembled and hit the strong sky.

The three books are directly intertwined with each other, and they collide with each other. As for the spirit of the heavenly books, the spirit of the earth books, and Qin Tiange, who is the spirit of the human books, are silently staring at each other.

“Earth book, this battle has nothing to do with you. Tianshu used to sell my position to that external force, causing my body to be crushed. This account must be liquidated.”

Qin Tiange stepped out suddenly, his words were haggard, revealing an unquestionable determination, he wanted to personally kill the spirit of Tianshu.

The Three Books of Heaven and Earth have originally shared the same sense, and only each other can sense the specific unknown, but in the past Tianshu passed the position of the book to that external force.

This led to the human book being crushed, and almost couldn't return. Now that Qin Tiange is back, naturally he cannot let go of the spirit of this book.

“it is good!”

The spirit of the earth book quickly retreated, looking at the spirit of Qin Tiange and the spirit of the heavenly book, both of which became increasingly heavy and horrifying.

Tianshu is very strong, no one knows how strong it is, and Qin Tiange has now faintly seen the strength of Tianshu.

You can see through the book of the other person's body. Each page of the book contains a universe. Inside the entire book, there is a dense atmosphere of the universe.

“The spirit of human books, you still fall.”

Suddenly, the spirit of the heavenly book moved, and the palm turned upside down, and the palm was wrapped in a cloud of dim supreme light, as if Tianwei was mighty.

This palm contains terrible power, like one universe pressed down, giving people a terrible feeling that it is heaven.

Huh!

Qin Tiange flicked his arm and flew out the spirit of the heavenly book. Every move contained a force that would shake the universe.

With a cold face, he walked step by step. Wherever he went, the void in the depths of the other side collapsed and collapsed into a collapse.

boom!

Uh ...

Qin Tiange waved his arms, shaking the spirit of the Book of Heaven, shaking his body constantly, sending out a burst of horrible roar, like a universe burst.

As soon as the war began, the spirit of Tianshu shocked to find that the power contained in Qin Tiange's moves was too scary.

It was as if it were endless. The power from the big universe made him tremble all over his body, and he was so painful that he almost collapsed.

boom!

Suddenly a punch collapsed, and the face of the spirit of Tianshu changed slightly. If he wanted to dodge, he could only slap him with a slap.

Just listening to the crackling sound, the whole arm bones, flesh flew horizontally, was blown out by a fist, and turned into a ball of flesh flying away.

“Ah ...” Tianshu screamed, and his body flew out quickly.

I saw, Qin Tiange stepped up, stepped on his feet, and thundered the spirit of Tianshu under his feet.

His eyes were cold and he looked down at the spirit of Tianshu. This mysterious and powerful creature, who controlled the power of Tianshu, was willing to become a running dog.

“The spirit of heavenly books should not exist!”

Qin Tiange uttered this sentence inexplicably, and he thought of the old, indifferent words, saying that human books should not exist.

Now, facing the spirit of Tianshu, Qin Tiange also said such a sentence.

“You ...” The spirit of Tianshu was furious, and was about to speak. The power in his body was violent.

He was about to fight back, but unfortunately, Qin Tiange gripped his neck with one hand and lifted it up, and a cloud of chaotic flames poured out of his palm.

“Refining!” With a low sigh, he saw a raging flame rising directly, drowning the spirit of Tianshu, and smelting it on the spot.

Qin Tiange smelted the spirit of Tianshu even without giving him any chance to escape, and simply smelted it cleanly.

Bit by bit, the spirit of the heavenly book was smelted, and a scream of sorrow came, making the earthly book, one of the three books, a little bitter in heart.

Watching the spirit of Tianshu melted by Qin Tiange with his own eyes, the inexplicable sorrow in the heart of the book, but it did not stop, but looked silently.

Tianshu went the wrong way. He knew this very well and could not help but to kill himself, otherwise.

“Tianshu, unfortunately, you have gone the wrong way.” The spirit of the earth book muttered to himself, watching the spirit of the heavenly book that was completely melted, gradually calming down.

At this time, Qin Tiange grabbed a dim light, which was the spirit of the heavenly book, and he was completely smelted into the source.

Hum!

With a buzz, Tianshu itself sent out a strong divine light, and a burst of sorrow came, full of sorrow.

The book of Tianshu was suppressed by Qin Tiange with one hand This mysterious book of Tianshen was easily calmed down, and the body exudes a hazy light.

“swallow!”

Qin Tiange opened his mouth and directly swallowed the origin of the spirit of the heavenly book. Then, Shengsheng refined the body of the heavenly book, a mysterious book of heaven, which directly made him the source.

“Ground book, here is a ground book source. I want three books in one to explore the mystery of the origin of the universe.”

Suddenly a low drink came and awakened the spirit of the Book of Earth. Seeing Qin Tiange’s actions, even the Book of Earth could not help but be appalled.

He had to use the power of the three books of heaven and earth to unify the mystery of the origin of the universe.

“Heaven, earth, man, and three talents are one, transforming the universe!”

Suddenly yelling, Qin Tiange bloomed an infinite amount of light, and someone's book source poured out. Then, the source of the heavenly book was refined. Then, the spirit of the earth book lost a source of the earth book.

The origins of the three books are entwined with each other, the three talents of heaven and earth, and the three forces are fused and unique, transforming the universe and simulating a mystery of the universe.
