

Dark Ages 106

Chapter 106 - Giant earthworm

As soon as Wu Gang stepped into the cockpit, Qin Tiange was startled, and everything he saw was chaotic. Five boys and five girls were lying on the ground with blood on their bodies and pale faces, apparently seriously injured.

Wu Xinlan, the flight attendant was lying on the corner with a huge wound on his back, his blood was lingering, and it was shocking to watch.

Hiss!

In front of the cockpit, a sharp roar came. Looking up, I saw a huge dark shadow crashing fast, and a special noise, the front windshield shattered on the spot.

Wu Qiqi glared across the knife and protected the train captain behind her. Seeing that the dark shadow slammed into her head quickly, she couldn't care about raising her hand and waving her sword.

He only heard a click, and the knife was cut on the huge black shadow, but he was bitten by a row of sharp teeth.

“Variable giant earthworm?” Qin Tiange's complexion changed slightly, without a word a step forward, a hot blade slashed with his hands.

It was a giant earthworm, the thickness of the bucket, the entire black head turned out, the dense sharp teeth inside, the four tentacles danced wildly, and rolled the prey into the mouth to bite and devour.

I was surprised to see the human figure flashing, and with the slashing of the knife light, fluttered, the huge earthworm's head was cut off more than half, and a thick black and yellow liquid spewed out, emitting a foul odor.

Hiss!

The earthworm was severely injured and screamed violently. The head that reached into the carriage immediately retracted, and disappeared into the darkness in a blink of an eye.

“Qin brother, you are here ...” Qi Qi saw Qin Tiange standing in front of her, her heart loosened, and the whole person collapsed and fell down.

Her body was scarred, she had already run out of oil, and her pale face had no trace of blood, and the silver steel armor was red with blood.

“What's the injury?” Qin Tiange held her up, looking unhappy, and blamed him, “Why didn't you issue a warning to help?”

Qi Qin Tiange was a little angry. When he was in trouble, ten students were injured and fell to the ground. Wu Xinlan was seriously injured and unconscious. Only the train captain suffered a slight trauma.

Qi Qiqi herself almost died under the attack of the mutant earthworm. If he hadn't arrived in time, he would probably be finished at this moment.

“Brother Qin, don’t blame her, we were attacked too suddenly.” At this moment, the train captain spoke slowly and explained.

It turned out that when Qi Qi escorted the captain to the cockpit, there was no problem at all, and she was about to start the train, but suddenly a huge black shadow burst out from the tunnel in front.

These dark shadows are mutated earthworms. They are very fierce and powerful. The thickness of each earthworm bucket is very scary.

The attack was so sudden that everyone was injured. Fortunately, there were no casualties. This was a strengthened person. Wu Xinlan, a beautiful flight attendant, was seriously injured and unconscious.

I looked at the crowd, Qin Tiange shook his head slightly, and sighed helplessly, without continuing to blame. After all, they were not clear and normal.

There was no nonsense, and the injured person was rescued. Qin Tiange stared at the broken train glass now, his expression inevitable.

In the subway tunnel, it seems that there are many terrible mutant creatures, especially those living under the mud, which are particularly terrible after mutation.

“Train conductor, can this subway still operate?” Looking at the busy train conductor, Qin Tiange couldn’t help asking.

The latter did not turn his head back, checking the cockpit condition and assured: “Everyone can rest assured that the train can still run without problems.”

“Then hurry up, we can’t go any slower.” Qin Tiange said, looking outside, dense zombies poured into the subway station, more mutant giant rats appeared, the two sides fought, and formed a huge mess This is the only chance to rush out.

The train was full of big men, and it was clear that the form was urgent. Soon, he finished the inspection and immediately sat in the driving position to start the train.

Uh ...

Finally, under the operation of the middle-aged train conductor, this subway train finally started slowly.

“The car is driving, it’s driving ...”

“We can escape!”

The train just started, and the people in the car immediately became excited, one by one, they seemed particularly excited. The train moved, which meant that they could escape.

However, the current situation is still not good. Outside the closed car door, a fist the size of a fist crawled over the car window, densely crawling, looking hairy.

What’s more terrible is that the giant mice outside hit the windows from time to time, and even the four-star giant rat and four-star giant corpse that had been killing them stopped and looked over here.

Roar!

The giant corpse roared, suddenly rushing towards the train, as if giving up the fight with the four-star giant rat. And the four-star blue giant rat also turned and opened his mouth to growl and rushed over.

What's worse is that the two groups that had been fighting at the moment stopped at this moment and swarmed towards the moving train.

Mutant giant rats, mutant fleas, and dense zombies, all three flocked to the moving subway train. They saw the crowds on the train frightened and horrified.

"Oh my god, they don't even fight."

"It's over, it's over!"

"Hurry up!"

On the train, the crowd panicked and looked a little impatient, shouting one by one with their mouths open.

Even, some of the crashed car windows, the flea and lice that came in and checked, attacked the people in the train, and the situation was very bad.

Fortunately, Moda and others were calm enough to organize human defenses to block the flea that came in, and even the giant mutant mice that rushed in. They were all cleaned and killed.

"Calm, don't panic!"

Moda yelled, wielded a steel knife, slammed the giant mouse rushing in through the window, and flew a zombies up.

At this time, the train slowly pulled out of the subway station and entered the subway tunnel, but the speed of the train was getting slower and slower, and it seemed to be very heavy.

"It's not good!"

In the cockpit, Qin Tiange pinched a zombie with his head in. He watched as the giant rats climbed to the top of the car. Zombies surrounded the train in large groups, and the train would be overturned with great strength. Already.

Seeing this, he was naturally anxious, thinking secretly how to deal with the current crisis situation?

"Mad, fight!"

I thought for a while, Qin Tiange gritted his teeth, turned back and quickly returned to the train, just to see Moda and others frantically resist the impact of giant rats.

It was just a kick, and a giant mouse flew. Qin Tiange looked out of his face and took out two black grenades, which were white phosphorus incendiary bombs.

Dang!

Two grenades were thrown from the broken car window, and when they made a sound, they were drowned by countless giant rats and zombies.

He heard only two loud sounds of "Boom", and then two yellow flames rose into the air, engulfing everything within 200 meters.

The zombie corpse was burned by the white phosphorus flame, the giant rat screamed screaming, his hair was black on the spot, and even the flesh and bones were burned by the white phosphorus flame.

Boom! Boom Boom Boom ...

A series of eight loud noises came, and then, people in the train saw in horror that a mass of yellow phosphorous fire was erupting on the subway platform. It was very violent, the temperature was very high, and a lot of zombies and giant rats were burnt to death.

Even, those dense fleas were swept by the phosphorous fire, and the spot was black, and there was a burst of crackling barbecue sounds, and the fleas died on the ground.

Finally, the train accelerated and drove out of the subway station. It flew into the tunnel and disappeared. Only the densely packed giant rats and zombies in the subway station roared and roared there.

Uh ... roar!

Hiss!

Far away, a roar of roar filled with anger came, astonished all over the place, and the sound was getting farther and farther, and finally no longer heard.

“Finally safe ...”

At this moment, the people in the train could not help but slumped on the ground, all pale and gasping without any image, calming the fear and anxiety they had just felt.

“Quack ... delicious!”

“Insects are so delicious, they are so delicious, babies love them!”

“I eat, I eat, I eat, eat ...”

At this moment, an excited exclamation came from the carriage, which attracted everyone’s attention, and everyone looked at it in unison.
