

Dark Ages 108

Chapter 108 - Ever heard of Dragon and Phoenix Soup?

“Go and stay while you go!”

Qi Qin Tiange rolled his eyes darkly, and snorted dissatisfied. He stepped open the mutant parrot and smashed it across the carriage.

“Ga ... it hurts my baby, boss, don't ah, boss don't eat me.”

Although the mutant parrot was smashed in pain, it quickly climbed up swiftly and jumped up in three or two steps. The fat wings embraced Qin Tiange's thigh, and the crying father shouted. His eyes were ticking and slipping. There are tears, which is called sadness.

He was so afraid of Qin Tiange's demon, but he had to beg for mercy. After all, he was very embarrassed whether he would be roasted or stewed?

As soon as I saw, Qin Tiange waved his hand, and a corpse of a blue giant snake smashed at his feet. He was so scared that the mutated parrot trembled and couldn't support the sound. Two eyes stared at the cyan giant snake with the thickness of the bucket.

Whisper ... The mutant parrot's throat squirmed, as if drooling, and its voice trembled: “Boss, do you really want to stew me with this dead snake?”

It was really scared this time. When I saw the dead body of the huge green snake, I couldn't help shaking, my feet were trembling, and Qin Tiange's thigh was hugged, and the feathers exploded.

Qi Qin Tiange sneered and said, “Stupid bird, have you heard of Dragon and Phoenix Soup?”

“Dragon and Phoenix Soup?” The mutant parrot's feathers exploded, and it was so horrified that it had cracked its heart. It naturally heard the name. Its former breeder liked the Dragon and Phoenix Soup very much before the last days.

The dragon said there is actually a snake, and the phoenix is the hen. Stew the two together and that is the dragon-phoenix soup.

Hearing now, wouldn't it be a pot of dragon and phoenix soup with this huge cyan dead snake?

“Boss, boss no, baby is not a hen, baby is your cute and loyal parrot, it is a parrot, not a hen, you can't stew it.” The mutant parrot was frightened and opened his mouth.

Behind him, Liu Yan and others looked at each other, watching one person and one parrot babbling over there, and they felt a weird feeling in their hearts.

The parrots can talk. They know, but it is the first time that a parrot that speaks like humans can't help getting hairy. Is it really fine?

“Grandma, what's wrong with this world, either zombies or fine monsters.” Moda muttered to herself and couldn't help voicing.

The world has changed. Not only are zombies in groups, but even more terrible is that these mutated creatures, whether flowers, trees, or these animals, may become refined.

Isn't this mutant parrot just fine? Look, the expression is as vivid as it is vivid, and the words are filled with intense fear, and they are constantly begging for mercy.

Instead of being moved, Qin Tiange revealed a bite of white teeth, and said arrogantly: "Stupid bird, this mutant green snake, just stewed with your fat parrot is a perfect match, and it will definitely stew a pot of tonic soup, Delicious and nutritious, why not? "

"No no no, the boss is not like this, I am really not a fat chicken, I am a parrot, not a fat chicken, and my meat is inedible." The mutant parrot shivered and shook his head, denying the fact that he could eat.

It begged: "Boss wow, please be merciful, just bypass the baby this time. The baby swears to follow the boss all his life and be faithful. The boss asks me to go west. I definitely dare not go east."

"Really ...?" Qin Tiange leaned down, his voice lengthened, and asked with a cold face: "Are you saying this to deceive me? I don't think you can trust it. It's better to stew it." it is good."

"Ten Ge, I think it's all right, if it's so poor, just spare it."

At this time, a tadpole came from behind, immediately rejuvenating the mutated parrot's heart, shaking his head and looking up, only to find that Liu Yan came.

"Wow, the hostess was right, the baby is the most obedient."

I just quit with a slap before Qin Tiange finished speaking.

boom...

"Oh, it hurts, boss, don't slap ..."

The mutant parrot had wings to protect its head, and it hurt so much that it jumped to its feet, but had to beg for mercy: "Boss, look, the hostess said so, did she spare her baby this time?"

Qi Qin Tiange's mouth twitched, looking at this big fat chicken, no, it's a macaw, how could he never imagine that it would become so smooth.

Qiu Liuxiu blushed slightly, and when she heard the parrot calling the hostess three words, she was so ashamed to find a seam to drill in. There were so many people here that she must have been heard.

She lowered her head and didn't talk, Qin Tiange grabbed the mutant parrot's neck and was about to say something, but saw a shadow rushing forward.

"Tian Ge, come, come, we have received a strange communication signal."

Wu Xinlan hurried in, breathing out the news and letting everyone here be choked.

When He heard her say that, Qin Tiange froze obviously, but he recovered quickly, instead of rushing to pass, he lifted the mutant parrot's neck.

“You listen, it’s best to be honest with me. If you let me know that you are not honest, put you in the pot and stew with the green snake.” Qin Tiange’s eyes were cold and his voice was full of threats. Said.

As soon as the mutant parrot heard it, he nodded fiercely and assured him, “The boss is at ease, the baby is very obedient and honest, so you can rest assured.”

“Very good!” Qin Tiange was satisfied, put it down, and ordered: “Give you a task to eat up all the bugs on the train, and the patrol task will be given to you and it will perform well I’ll find you a female parrot for you in the future. “

I lost this sentence, Qin Tiange followed the strange face of Wu Xinlan, leaving a group of people looking at each other, and the mutant parrot who wanted to cry without tears.

“Wow ... the baby is bitter!” The mutant parrot sadly mourned disappeared here, and then saw that it had eaten bugs cheerfully on the other side.

Yes, it is eating insects, swallowing a bite of fleas, and eating it is a joyous one. Seeing this, Liu Yan and others couldn’t help but be speechless, staring at the huge mutant parrot, he felt weird for a while.

“This ... is it over?” Someone asked suddenly.

Leaning aside, Moda gave the person a white look and scorned: “What else do you want? Brother Qin is Brother Qin. Even this mutant macaw has to be honest and obedient, see?”

The conversation over here made the mutant parrot eating the bug cry in its heart. It cursed, “What the * is that * boss, devil, bastard, bullying the baby? And, I do n’t want a female parrot? , My spouse must be Phoenix to be so handsome and handsome ... “

“I eat, I eat, I eat ...” I thought fiercely, swallowing fleas one by one in my mouth, and soon, all the fleas in the train were eaten up by it.

At this moment, Qin Tiange came to the cockpit and saw the train captain with a look of surprise.

“Train Captain, what news did you receive?” Qin Tiange went straight to the subject and asked when he entered.

When he saw him in, the train captain said with a strange look: “Brother Qin, I just received a communication message from Hualong Station, but it was a little strange.”

“Hualong Station?” Qin Tiange stumbled, really surprised.

The No. 4 subway line from Qinghu to Hualong Station. It was really unexpected that I never received a communication message from Hualong Station on the train.

Wu Qin Tiange immediately stepped forward to check the newsletter. This news came to the station ahead, Hualong Subway Station.
