

Dark Ages 131

Chapter 131 - Bai Huxiao, Wang Sheming!

In Taoyuan Village, a figure is standing on the balcony of a luxury villa.

“Too many zombies in Shenzhen ...”

Qin Tiange frowned, looking at the dense zombies outside the villa, wandering in groups, making people feel hairy.

For most of the day, it took a lot of effort to go from Lianhua Mountain all the way to Taoyuan Village. I was almost surrounded by corpses several times.

The population of Shenzhen City is too large. Not counting the floating population, the resident population has reached a staggering 20 million. How many zombies are there?

Qiu Guang looked at the dense crowd of zombies and knew that the entire Shenzhen city was actually a huge and horrible corpse.

“It seems that the plan must be changed. For the time being, we cannot go to the Changsheng Pharmaceutical Group, which is a dense industrial area with a large population and a large number of people. It is difficult to break into.”

Checking the map again, Qin Tiange could not help but vomit. The large population of Shenzhen is also a kind of trouble. There are too many people who become zombies.

In the face of hundreds of millions of zombies and even countless mutated creatures, individuals will feel powerless, let alone go to the road in such a dangerous environment.

“From here, you can directly bypass the industrial zone to the place where the sky descends. It seems that you have to change the route.” Qin Tiange drew a route while looking at it.

This is where the destination is directly reached, the place where the sky descends, and temporarily abandoned to Changsheng Pharmaceutical Group.

“It’s getting dark, rest for a night and then go on the road.” Looking at the sky, Qin Tiange decided to rest in the villa for one night before going on the road.

In Taoyuan Village, there is a group of villas. One of them is in one of them. People go to the building and there is no figure long ago.

In the lobby on the second floor, there were two zombies whose heads had been cut off. They were killed when he came in. They should be the original owners of the villa.

Sitting in the hall, Qin Tiange took out a little compressed dry food and some well-preserved milk drinks, and began to replenish food.

The night is gradually coming down, and the night is covering the earth, and various mutant creatures still appear.

Uh ...

Suddenly, an extremely high roar came from under the night, with great momentum, full of endless domineering, shocking.

Qi Qin Tiange's face changed slightly, he suddenly stood up, lost the milk in his hand, rushed to the balcony in three steps and two steps, and looked in the direction of the roar.

“That's ...” The next moment, his pupils shrunk slightly, and the silver awns flickered, appearing particularly conspicuous in the night.

Through the heavy night, Qin Tiange saw such a scene, and there was a huge thing standing on a tall building in the distance.

庞 This behemoth is five meters long, two meters high, and has thick limbs. The snow-white hair on the body looks brighter and brighter at night.

It was a tiger, a white tiger, standing at the top of a tall building, roaring loudly, domineering, as if a generation of kings were visiting their territory.

“Mutant white tiger?” Qin Tiange looked startled and looked away. The whole white tiger, two fangs, looked like sharp swords, revealing a murderous look.

It found Qin Tiange, a pair of tigers staring at this side, cold and bloodthirsty and cruel, full of desire to eat.

Roar!

I was a tiger howling again, shocked the wild, and all the people were silent. Even the zombies in this area were hiding in the dark corners.

Night is the world of mutant creatures, and zombies must avoid it. If you go out, you will definitely see street sewer crossings, groups of terrible mutant cockroaches, mutant mice, and all kinds of mutant moths, locusts, ants, and so on.

With the tiger shout, all the creatures within ten miles of it changed color and died, no matter whether it was a mutant cockroach or a mutant mouse, they all calmed down and did not dare to move.

Hu Huwei was shocked and deserved to be the king of beasts!

“This white tiger is about to evolve to a four-star. I want to escape from the nearby wildlife park.” Looking at the mighty white tiger, Qin Tiange made a guess.

八 There is a safari park eight kilometers away from Taoyuan Village. This white tiger should come from there.

Xi Baihu just stared at Qin Tiange for a few moments and stopped looking, as if dismissive of him, or it was too lazy to come over.

“No!” Qin Tiange flashed a thought in his heart, and felt wrong. In principle, the mutant white tiger found that he would definitely be a prey, but why he did not attack.

He soon noticed something strange. The white tiger stared in one direction, and glared angrily at a dark street not far away.

Hissing ... Hissing!

In the dark night, a terrible hissing sound came from time to time, showing a nasty coolness, making people hairy.

The white tiger's hair exploded, his eyes flashed a bloodthirsty, and he opened his mouth with an extremely violent roar.

Huh!

Tiger Xiao world, Octagon with shock!

白 This white tiger slightly slumped his body, his limbs made the appearance of attack at any time, his fangs exposed, revealing terror.

After seeing Qin Tiange, he looked towards the dark street in the distance and faintly saw a huge black shadow disk there, with a huge head high.

“Cobra?”

Finally, he saw the true shadow of the huge group of dark shadows. Actually, it was a huge unmatched king cobra, coiled on the street, and blocked the whole street.

The king cobra, also known as the hairy snake, is a mountain bee, with strong toxicity and huge size, especially the king cobra after this genetic variant.

That huge, flat head was two meters thick, and it was as thick as a bucket. The head was so high that it swallowed the core and hissed. , Showing endless cold.

One tiger and one snake confronted each other, and each of them seemed very cautious. Facing such an opponent, whether it was the White Tiger or the Eye King Snake, they felt the threat of the other party.

Roar!

After a long time of confrontation, Bai Hu suddenly made a roar, which seemed very irritable. In the end, he ignored the king cobra, turned around and jumped, and his huge body took off, and a few jumps disappeared into the vast night.

The white tiger gave up the King Cobra. It did not dare to take risks, but abandoned this seemingly terrible poisonous snake and went looking for other prey.

As for the King Cobra, after seeing the White Tiger leaving, the whole head shook a few times and made a high hissing tweet, looking very proud.

“That white tiger has the potential to become the Beastmaster, but unfortunately I can’t capture it now, otherwise I can try to be tamed into a mount, unfortunately ...” Watching Bai Hu go away, Qin Tiange couldn’t help but regret.

He can see that this white tiger is infinitely close to the four stars. The gene mutation in the body has the potential to become the Beastmaster. Unfortunately, he does not have the ability to capture it now.

As for the King Cobra, it is better not to touch it. This thing is also not a good stubble. It is very toxic. As long as it is bitten, it is enough to paralyze the white tiger just now.

The White Tiger was gone, and the King Cobra was also gone. Qin Tiange then turned to prepare to go back to rest.

“what...”

At this moment, an extremely sharp scream came suddenly from a villa not far away. It was extremely screaming, and it seemed extremely abrupt in the night.

“Stupid, find your way ...” After hearing this scream of extremely high decibels, Qin Tiange’s face changed and he cursed a fool.

I screamed in the night, and such behavior was just like death.

Chapter 132 - Why are we in love when we fall in love?

On the top floor of the third luxury villa in the middle of Taoyuan Village, Qin Tiange lay in front of the guardrail, set up a sniper rifle, and a villa building a thousand meters away from the observer.

I saw someone walking around in the sniper mirror, and saw a young man through the window glass, with eyes and a very stylish look.

But his face was distorted, extremely scary, as if there was a pathological pleasure, holding a dagger in one hand, and two beads in one hand, full of blood temporarily, ticking down and staying along the palm of his hand.

Sahahahaha ...

“Slut, sister-in-law, all right now, you can never leave me ...”

The young man laughed wildly. Qin Tiange moved the sniper slightly and saw a woman lying in bed in front of the young man rolling painfully, covering his eyes, blood, and red white sheets.

I saw here, and then looked at the two beads on the young man’s hand, only to realize that they were two eyes.

“Really perverted ...” Seeing this, Qin Tiange shook his head secretly, but nodded to kill, even tortured like this, or a girl, is simply perverted.

“Did you know?” The young man in the villa over there held two eyes and said with a crazy face: “In fact, my favorite is your eyes, beautiful, pure and charming.”

“But why don't you just touch me?” He suddenly yelled, looking very angry and growling. “I'm your boyfriend, and I've been dating for more than a year. You didn't even touch me physically, even I do n't even give a kiss, so I 'm holding hands for fart. Do you know how many people laugh at me? ”

“What do you want to give me after you get married, shit, you are a bitch, now I dug your eyes, I see how you leave me, you will always belong to me, only belong to me Zhao Detian of.”

The young man yelled madly, and the girl was gradually motionless, lying there with a stubborn face, motionless, leaving **** marks in her closed eyes.

The pain in squinting her eyes is never worse than the pain in her heart at the moment, the kind of injury that was deceived by her lover and dug out of her eyes by her lover, deeply hurt her innocent soul.

There is a way, mourning is more than heart death!

“Look, the zombie outside is much more pleasant. Doomsday, how can you leave me without your eyes?” The young man smiled hesitantly, his voice trembling, shuddering.

He even dug out his girlfriend's eyes with his own hands, so as not to let the other party leave him?

想法 This idea is really perverted, or he is already a pervert, which makes Qin Tiange have to sigh, there are all kinds of perverted birds in the forest.

“Why don't you talk? You don't like to talk and laugh with a group of my buddies. Look at your itching. Every time your eyes are dripping, do you really want others to slap you?”

德 Zhao Detian threw his eyes out of the villa and fell on the grass. The **** smell just caused a few nearby zombies to come, and they were eaten by the strong ones.

He said while laughing and tearing the girl's clothes, but the other side was motionless, his face was ashes and his heart was dead.

“Don't touch me with your body, I will play to death today.” Zhao Detian was crazy, his eyes were red, his breathing was short, and he tore the girl's clothes.

When he was tearing the girl's shirt crazy, Qin Tiange couldn't see it anymore. This kind of person is a pervert. How can other girls say they are your girlfriends?

Click!

The sniper rifle loaded the bullet, Qin Tiange expressionless, aimed at the crazy young man in the villa over there, and pulled the trigger at his arm.

He only heard a “bang” gunshot, which was particularly harsh in the dark, followed by a scream from the villa over there.

“Ah ... my hand, my hand ...”

德 Zhao Detian was screaming in horror, tearing the girl’s clothes, and suddenly his left hand was blown off. Pain swept the nerves of the brain and made a scream.

His entire arm was interrupted, and his right hand was shot in a single shot. The blood shamed the bed and the floor, and the broken hand was still twitching a few times.

Sudden changes in the sudden made Zhao Detian frightened to death, looked around, but found that there was no figure in the villa.

“Ah ... who, who shot me?” Zhao Detian rolled painfully along the bed, with as many expressions as possible.

Qin Tiange moved the sniper rifle slightly, and suddenly pulled the trigger again with a bang. Zhao Detian over there blew up another hand, and the whole arm fell down.

Bleeding blood, the ground is covered with blood, gushing continuously from the fracture of his arms.

“Ah ... forgive me, forgive me, don’t kill me!”

Finally, Zhao Detian was terrified, while screaming screaming, he begged for mercy. Unfortunately, Qin Tiange did not intend to bypass this abnormality, clicked a bullet into the load, and aimed at the opponent’s thigh this time.

He heard only a bang, and a sniper muzzle sprayed a flame, which was particularly dazzling in the night.

Over there, Zhao Detian screamed “ah”, the bones on the thighs were blown out, the blood was dripping, and the scene was terrifying.

At this time, the girl who was so ashamed heard Zhao Detian’s screams, and suddenly woke up from the dark death.

She heard Zhao Detian’s screams and begging for mercy, a flash of pleasure flashed in her heart, and then a hate rose from the bottom of her heart, rolling and surging.

“I will kill you!”

The girl opened her mouth and spit it out line by line. She couldn’t see with her eyes, but she could clearly hear Zhao Detian’s scream coming from her feet.

Xu got up hard, she was fumbling with her hands, and soon caught Zhao Detian’s broken hand, which was holding a dagger.

Zhao Detian just dug out her eyes with this dagger just now, feeling the pain from the eyes, and the pain in the heart, she couldn’t help the anger of hatred.

“Ah ... go to death!” She screamed holding the dagger tightly in both hands, slamming hard at the place where Zhao Detian screamed.

Ding...

It's a pity that she couldn't hit it. The dagger stuck Zhao Detian's face to the ground and made a crisp jingling sound. She was so scared that Zhao Detian didn't dare to make a sound.

“Dead, I want you to die, die ...” The girl went mad, turned all her pain and hatred into madness, and pierced Zhao Detian again and again with a dagger.

“No ... no, wife, dear, I was wrong, please don't kill me.” Zhao Detian screamed, begging for mercy.

He was stabbed in the face, and the sharp dagger pierced into it. Maybe the girl's strength was not strong, and she only pierced a little.

I heard Zhao Detian begging for mercy, the girl was even more crazy, full of hatred, and pulled out a dagger with both hands and pierced again.

flutter!

This time, I stuck my ear, although Zhao Detian twisted his neck to avoid it, he was stabbed in the ear after all, and half of his ear was cut off.

“Why do you love each other?” Qin Tiange couldn't help sighing when he saw this scene in the sniper mirror.

He originally thought that the perverted man would end up with a shot, but saw that the girl actually got up, groped for the dagger that Zhao Detian had fallen, pierced it with a knife, cut it into the meat, and pierced the bone.

Soon after, Zhao Detian didn't move. Except for the instinct of the body, which was still convulsing, the whole head was blurred with flesh and blood, and the eyes were dug out by the girl.

Seeing here, Qin Tiange has stopped watching. What about the girl, in fact, has nothing to do with him, but he just can't get used to Zhao Detian's abnormal behavior.

Gently put away the sniper rifle, Qin Tiange went downstairs, ready to go back to rest, and set off early tomorrow to continue his journey.

Chapter 133 - Lingsha

Xun was about to turn around, but Qin Tiange stopped, raised his sniper rifle and pointed at the villa over there, and he could clearly see from the night vision of the sniper mirror that the girl whose boyfriend had dug out his eyes was groping to the balcony.

The girl was leaning on the edge of the balcony with her hands, her body was a bit thin, she shivered in the evening breeze, her face was covered with blood, especially her closed eyes, and the blood could not stop.

Her face looked mullified, her lips moved, as if talking, because she was too far away to hear, but Qin Tiange could understand what she was saying from her lips.

谢谢 “Thank you, thank you for saving me. Although I don’t know who you are, I still want to thank you for making me avenge me, and then repay your kindness in the next life!”

The girl was talking to herself there, actually thanking Qin Tiange. Although she didn’t know where the other party was, she knew that the other party had saved herself.

If it wasn’t for the other person to interrupt Zhao Detian’s hands and feet with a gun at a critical moment, she would probably be killed by insult and death.

“She wants to commit suicide?”

Qi Qin Tiange murmured, and sure enough, she saw the girl climbing up the balcony slowly, depending on the situation, she was going to jump off the building and commit suicide.

He raised his head, and could vaguely see the girl who climbed to the balcony. With open hands, there was a kind of relief and relief on his face, and he wanted to die to relieve her inner pain.

“Farewell, world ... farewell, benefactor ...” the girl muttered, her body moved slightly, and she made a jump.

Alas!

At this moment, a sharp whistling sound came, and the air seemed to be pierced and cut by something, making a harsh sound.

I only heard the sound of “铿锵”, the girl was in a body, feeling a wind and waves passing by, something stared hard at the wall of the villa, deeply penetrated it.

That was a steel gun, which flew from a villa thousands of meters away from the girl, and a thick rope was tied to the end of the steel gun.

At this time, opposite to the villa, Qin Tiange tied the rope on the top floor, then took out the hook and jumped down along the rope, his body quickly slipped past.

The distance of kilometer was fleeting, and in a blink of an eye, Qin Tiange turned lightly and fell on the balcony of the opposite villa, just less than one meter away from the girl.

“You just want to die like this?” Qin Tiange asked softly to the girl who lost her eyes as soon as she arrived.

虽然 Although the girl was invisible, she instinctively felt that someone had appeared. When she heard this sentence, she was beside her, and she was scared to slip on her feet and her body fell down.

Fortunately, Qin Tiange’s eyes were fast, and he went directly to grab her hand and lifted it up effortlessly.

“How was the feeling of death just now?” Qin Tiange’s mouth showed a smile as he dropped the frightened girl.

The girl's face is very round, with short hair, looks full of vitality, and has a clean and easy-looking female style, but unfortunately it seems to have lost her vitality, and her expression of amusement makes people look very uncomfortable.

She was sitting on the floor, panting hard, calming down her violent heart, and thinking about the moment when she fell, the feeling of death choked her, it was really scary.

“Why save me and let me die for a hundred years. What is the point of a wasteful person like me alive? Moreover, the outside world has changed, and blind people like me cannot survive.”

Although the girl was grateful for Qin Tiange's help in saving her, only her own sorrow and suffering were known. How could a blind man survive in the cruel end?

“Who said the blind man couldn't live in the last days?” Qin Tiange looked at her desperate expression and said quietly.

In fact, he was not sure, but the girl seemed to catch a life-saving straw, as if she saw a ray of hope from the abyss.

She suddenly looked up, her eyes closed facing Qin Tiange, her expression was extremely longing. She murmured: Can I really survive? “

“Of course you can. If you have strong power to survive, you may even see the light again in the future. Maybe your eyes can grow back. Maybe.” Qin Tiange touched his chin, thoughtfully Say something.

He was thinking, maybe it was really possible, not to mention all kinds of strange treasures in the last days, just to say that his own left eye was replaced by a weird eyeball.

真的 “Really? Can I become stronger? Can I defeat those zombies, those terrible mutants?” The girl's dead mana's face finally showed a look of surprise and expectation.

Qin Tiange thought for a while, and looked at her expression of embarrassment, and made a decision in his heart, after all, could not bear to refuse a person who wanted to be strong, even if she was a disabled person.

“My name is Qin Tiange, what's your name?” Qin Tiange asked with a thought.

When I heard this, she remembered that she didn't introduce herself: “My name is Lingsha, a blind man, a stupid woman.”

When she said this, she laughed with self-deprecation, and her smile was gone on her somber face. The young and beautiful, lively and lovely she had died.

挖 Since her eyes have been dug out by her beloved boyfriend, she has died, including her heart.

If Qin Tiange was her life-saving benefactor, maybe Ling Sha wouldn't even talk to him, or even ignore her.

I saw him like this, Qin Tiange secretly shook his head and regretted that a good girl, just like this, was made a sin.

等等 “Wait, what did you just say?” Qin Tiange suddenly moved and stared at Ling Sha and asked again.

“Lingsha!” Lingsha lowered her head and spit out the words. There was blood flowing down in her eyes, and the ticking slipped, her complexion looked pale because of pain and blood loss. Eyebrows, shell teeth biting her lips and bearing.

“Lingsha ... Lingsha ... is so familiar, I seem to have heard about why can't you remember?” Qin Tiange frowned, muttering to himself, trying to remember, But I can't remember.

“Forget it, maybe I forgot it.” Qin Tiange shook his head, leaving this doubt behind, and did not want to think of it.

“You hold it, drink it and you can become stronger. Whether you can become a strong one in the future depends on your own efforts.” Qin Tiange said, taking out a test tube and handing it to Ling Sha, Zheng Is a quenching agent.

Ling Lingxu took the medicine and clutched it tightly. Both hands could not help but tremble slightly, and her heart was agitated.

“Thank you!” Ling Sha said thank you softly, and the cold tone gave a feeling of a thousand miles away from the giant, Qin Tiange didn't care.

After all, whoever is subjected to such encounters and blows will change, Ling Sha can still talk to Qin Tiange because the other party is her life-saving benefactor.

Linging at Ling Sha with an increasingly cold expression on her face, Qin Tiange secretly regretted that a girl full of youth and vitality was born into another extreme.

“I'll rest first, and I'll be on my way tomorrow morning.”

Qi Qin Tiange yawned, and before Ling Sha answered, he turned into the villa and threw the dead Zhao Detian's body directly out of the villa to eat the mutant creature.

On the balcony, only Ling Sha was left standing alone in the cold wind, her thin body shivered, and her eyes were bleeding with blood, and she had a strange beauty.

“Thank you ...” In the evening breeze, a soft whisper came and gradually went out, and today Ling Ling was her darkest and most desperate day.

However, when she fell into the abyss of despair, there was such a person who brought a light of hope to her who fell into the abyss and let her see the hope of living.

That person is Qin Tiange!

Chapter 134 - The food is eaten up

The dark night shrouded the earth, and the deep night was like a flood beast, engulfing everything.

Rustling ... rustling!

There was a sound of rustle in the dark, and there were terrible creatures. Even the hordes of zombies disappeared during the day, hiding in the corners of the city.

Only all kinds of creatures and insects appearing at night start to dominate, such as mutant mice, groups of swarms, and all the food that can be eaten is swept away.

Mole rats, before or after mutation, are one of the most annoying species in humans.

“There are more and more mutant mice, and the lives of human survivors are getting harder ...”

In a room in the villa, Qin Tiange stood in front of the window sill, staring at the deep night and mumbling to himself.

He is very clear that humans can still get food from various shops and supermarkets on the streets of the city a few days before the end, but as mutant mice run rampant, the food in these places will soon be swept away.

The mutant mice are terrible. What they can eat will not be let go. Absolutely no grain will be left. Without food, human society will be more difficult.

All survivors who survive will face a more cruel environment and food is gone.

Not only rats, but also those mutated cockroaches, densely packed, crowded in the dark, looking for food everywhere.

There are also competitions between tadpole species and species, such as cockroaches. Although the size of the cockroach becomes large after being mutated, the cockroach size of the bowl mouth can make the scalp numb.

However, these cockroaches have natural enemies, such as insect-eating creatures. Geckos are one of the creatures that appear at night, but sometimes they can be seen during the day.

Night is a hunting ground. Various mutants kill and devour. The competition between species and species has begun. Humans are no longer the supreme masters.

I stood for a long time, Qin Tiange closed the doors and windows, and slept in bed. But what is surprising is that even when he was sleeping, he held a steel knife in both hands, which was a habit developed in previous lives.

He slept soundly, but Ling Sha in the next room was sleepless all night. The pain in her eyes made her intolerable. The kind of pain that had been dug out of her eyes could not understand.

Ling Lingsha, a girl's family, could even withstand the pain of being so eye-catching, that Qin Tiange had to admire her patience and willpower.

Although she was thinking of dying, it was human nature. Everyone has a weak side, let alone a weak girl's house?

Fortunately, after drinking the medicine given by Qin Tiange, Ling Sha felt a lot of relief in her eyes. Gradually, she suffered a physical overdraft due to injury and blood loss, coupled with mental difficulties, and finally fell asleep.

Overnight!

In the early morning of the next day, when Ling Sha awakened from her nightmare, she screamed in shock, and then realized that it was a dream.

She dreamed of her terrible experience yesterday. Fortunately, everything passed. Zhao Detian was killed by her, and revenge was lost, but the price was always lost eyes.

I have a saying that a man is afraid of entering the wrong line and a woman is afraid of marrying the wrong person.

Ling Lingsha just loved the wrong person and chose the wrong boyfriend, and she suffered this terrible disaster, otherwise she would not lose her eyes.

Uh ...

He groped to the door of Qin Tiange's room, Ling Sha knocked on the door, but unfortunately knocked for a long time and saw nothing.

"Brother Qin, are you there?" When no one responded, Ling Sha could not help but screamed, looking a little stiff.

After a rest of the night, the pale and bloodless face had recovered a little health, the eyes that had been bleeding more than once had stopped bleeding, and the wound began to heal.

Under the powerful action of the quenching agent, her eyes no longer hurt, but unfortunately she lost a pair of eyes forever.

"Are you gone?" Ling Sha felt a sense of loss in her heart, and she was inexplicably disturbed, as if she fell into the abyss again and could not extricate herself.

She was a little scared, sitting helplessly at the door, curled up, like a scared little girl.

"this is..."

Quickly, Ling Sha found something strange, touched the ground next to her hand, and found several things on the ground.

Holding a steel spear was very heavy, but it was easily lifted by her. Her physical fitness had been transformed as early as last night. The twenty-pound steel gun was still very easy to hold.

Not only was the steel gun, she immediately found a set of steel armor, but also a steel crossbow, a few bundles of steel arrows, and even a box.

"Brother Qin, did you leave it to me?" Ling Sha held the wooden box and muttered to herself, her eyes closed, leaving two lines of blood and tears, which was black congestion in the eye socket.

Open the box, Ling Sha carefully touched with her fingers, feeling the contents, and soon found that there were four test tubes in the box, exactly the same as she took last night.

The four hardened body medicaments were all left by Qin Tiange, including the steel armor, the steel gun, and the steel crossbow, all left by him early in the morning.

Oh oh oh ...

Ling Lingsha bit her lip and finally couldn't help sobbing, holding the box and the steel armor and steel gun tightly, her mood was a little out of control.

She knows that this is the hope left by Qin Tiange and the hope of living. Weapons, steel armor, crossbow, and especially the four hardened potions are the most precious things, and her ultimate hope is that she can survive the last days.

I do n't have a hardening agent, she really wants to live very hard, of course, not to say that she can't live without these things, but it's just more difficult.

When she lost her eyes and suffered a blow, it was Qin Tiange who rescued her. When she was desperate and helpless, she fell into the abyss of darkness, and it was Qin Tiange who pulled her a hand and gave her hope for survival.

To meet a person who gave her hope at the most helpless and desperate moment was a deep feeling, and even turned into admiration, admiration, and even faith.

Ling Ling is such a person. At this moment, in her dying heart, there is a profound figure, who is the one who brings her hope for survival.

Qin Tiange didn't know her thoughts at the moment. He left Taoyuan Village early in the morning and was already far away.

“I hope you can live ...”

At the top of a building, Qin Tiange looked in the direction of Taoyuan Village. Those things were left before he left. As for Lingsha?

Joking, he doesn't want to carry a burden on his own Saving the other party is just doing it by hand, leaving things that are saving people to the end, sending the Buddha to the west.

Given something, strength, hope also left. As for whether it can really survive, it is not Qin Tiange's concern.

He finally glanced at it, Qin Tiange turned directly, his body jumped up, and he jumped forward quickly at the top of the tall buildings.

As the physical strength began to become familiar, the perfect control of the previous life returned again. For Qin Tiange, it was not difficult to jump on the roof and hurry.

Forty-four times his physical quality is absolutely terrible, and he can jump more than ten meters and twenty meters in a single jump. As he hurried, Qin Tiange swept through the shops and supermarkets, but unfortunately, he didn't have any grain.

Unexpectedly, the food in the shops in the city has been eaten up by the mutant mice. Humans want to eat, and they can only think of another way.

“It seems that I can only give up the plan to collect food along the way.” Qin Tiange watched another large supermarket being patronized by the teacher, and there was a mess on the ground.

He had no choice but to give up his plan to collect food. Fortunately, there is still a lot of food in his space bracelet, otherwise this time it will be really miserable.

Xu no longer stayed, rushing to the road, when an hour later, Qin Tiange came to a mountain and stopped.

“You should be able to reach that land today ...”

取出 He took out the map to check the route, and according to the information on the map, he could quickly reach his destination. He also found on the map that there is a large area of farmland nearby that is planted with rice crops.

I collected the map, Qin Tiange quickly found a stream, walked along the stream, bypassed the woods in front, and saw a large expanse of fields.

Chapter 135 - Big Fat Rabbit in the Field

The vast fields were originally fertile farmland. Before the end of the day, it was almost time to harvest the rice, and the fields were full of golden rice.

It's a pity that nowadays there are no more rice paddies in each field, even a grain of rice is gone, leaving only the mess of the place and the footprints of countless creatures.

“All the food has been spoiled ...”

Qi Qin Tiange sighed and watched that a large area of farmland was ruined. All the rice and crops had been eaten up by various mutant organisms.

Uh ...

In Putian, from time to time, several locusts flew by, and the locusts the size of a washbasin looked much scarier. There are even some crickets, grasshoppers, etc., jumping in this completely ruined farmland, eating some rotten millet, and making cheerful tweets.

These creatures, such as locusts and grasshoppers, are actually not fierce. Even after mutation, they will not actively attack humans or other large creatures.

I walked past a locust, and shocked the other person and took off. Many of the mutant creatures in the last days were not terrible.

Is just annoying and has great harm. For example, if humans want to continue to grow food, they must guard against these mutated insects, otherwise you will soon be exhausted when you just plant them.

“Grilled grasshopper is actually a good choice.” Qin Tiange quickly grabbed a huge grasshopper, hehe smiled.

昆虫 These insects contain extremely high protein in the body. Although there are no so-called crystal nuclei or other cherished things, they have high nutritional value.

At the end of such food waste, in order to get food, in fact, eating other mutant organisms is also a good choice.

For example, insects, many can be eaten, fried or grilled, delicious and nutritious, why not?

After catching a lot of mutant insects in the field and saving them as meals, Qin Tiange was walking on the abandoned field barn, watching a lot of electric poles collapse, and the circuit was interrupted. Do n't think about it, the power grid in the whole of China is basically broken Already.

呱呱 ... 呱呱呱!

Suddenly, a wave of frogs came from a stagnant paddy field in the distance, which aroused Qin Tiange's attention and alertness.

He stopped, looked up, and saw a huge frog lying in the paddy field, with a pale yellow body, two eyes the size of a sea bowl, and a white belly with a bulging belly, making a loud tweet.

“Mutant frog is a delicious dish.” Qin Tiange licked his lips, slowly slowed down, and approached the giant frog a little.

From this point of view, the mutated frog is at least one meter long, and its jumping ability is extremely amazing. It is generally difficult to catch.

The big frog lay there quietly, and suddenly opened its mouth, scratched its long tongue in the depths, and a locust flying over his head rolled up and dragged into the mouth to eat.

Huh!

The frog screamed with satisfaction, but soon it was shocked. The big frog turned to Qin Tiange immediately when he saw the appearance of the frog, his eyes stared at Qin Tiange's approaching person.

Wow!

Suddenly, the frog's body leaped, and the whole leaped. It was difficult for ordinary people to catch fast. In a blink of an eye, there was a triple jump, which flew dozens of meters away and fled.

“I'm going, running fast ...” Qin Tiange chased for a long time, but finally the frog jumped into the creek and escaped, but shook his head with regret.

The frog meat tastes good. Of course, these frogs are beneficial insects. They have a great help in planting food for humans, and they can protect the food from being swept away by insects.

In the last days, human beings want to re-growing food, one must establish a completely closed planting base, and the other is breeding mutant frogs.

Huh?

Suddenly, Qin Tiange noticed that there was a bush clump on the field in the distance, making a rustling noise.

Soon I saw a fat, dumb head, gray hair, and two eyes turning slowly in the grass, looking around vigilantly.

That's a big fat rabbit!

"I ran a big frog and came a big fat rabbit. Good luck today." Qin Tiange looked at the fat gray head and smiled immediately.

He could see at a glance that it was a mutant rabbit, all gray, taking care of the food in the grass.

From here, a rough estimate is that this rabbit is definitely two meters long and covered with furry gray hair, making it look like a big round ball.

"There was rabbit meat at noon today." Qin Tiange said as he took out his sniper rifle, the bullet was loaded, and he aimed at the fat rabbit in the grass over there.

But as soon as he made a move, he was immediately spotted by the big fat rabbit, and in fright, ran straight into the grass and ran.

"Want to run, no way!" Qin Tiange cursed, raised his leg and chased after him, running wild in the field, chasing the big fat rabbit.

The bunny looked fat, but it was astonishingly fast. It jumped a few meters in one hop, and its running interval reached five consecutive jumps per second.

boom!

At this moment, the gun rang, scaring the big gray fat rabbit running faster, because the rabbit was anxious and biting.

I was frightened by the sound of the gun The running speed was called fast, and rushed straight away in the grass, once to the left and to the right, Qin Tiange scolded him.

I tried several times to shoot, but unfortunately I missed the opportunity and couldn't find the time, because the other side was too fast, and Qin Tiange himself was running to catch up, making shooting more difficult.

"Running fast thief ..." As he ran and chased, Qin Tiange muttered secretly. The speed of the rabbit after mutation was even more amazing.

If it were forty-four people in his body, he would probably not see the rabbit now, let alone chase.

However, the trace of that rabbit is getting farther and farther. It is too fleeing, and it keeps running into the weeds, which increases the difficulty of Qin Tiange's pursuit. He almost lost it several times.

boom!

Finally, Qin Tiange fired again, and this time, the bullet flew across the gray rabbit's hind legs, flickering with blood, only scratching a little fur.

Scratched by bullets, the rabbit was more hurried, the jumping force was more rapid, and the speed was even more amazing. It unexpectedly increased three layers, and opened a large distance in a blink of an eye.

“I’m going, can’t I even eat rabbit meat?” Qin Tiange was obviously scared when he saw the rabbits running faster and faster.

Moan ...!

At this time, an extremely high-pitched tweet came from the sky, shocked through the wild, many creatures hiding in the field grass flew away immediately, that is, mutant voles rushed into the cave.

With this tweet, with a large shadow passing on the ground, Qin Tiange’s face changed slightly, and he suddenly looked up, his face immediately changed.

“Asshole, dare you come to grab my food?”

Seeing a huge shadow across the sky, Qin Tiange immediately became angry, and immediately raised his gun and shot at the sky.

Chapter 136 - Variant Goshawk

boom!

A gunshot rang, and a hawk came from the sky, loud and full of anger.

Looking up, the sky quickly passed a huge figure, a four-meter-long body with a wingspan of nine meters, and it was a behemoth.

It was a mutant goshawk with a huge body, bright grey-brown feathers, and extremely amazing defense power. It was stronger and stronger after mutation.

Goshawk, large raptor in the sky, extremely fierce.

cry!

A tweet, showing the vastness and arrogance, was the angry cry of the goshawk. It was naturally angry when it was interrupted by a shot of a feather in its wings.

On the ground, Qin Tiange was even more angry, and a good rabbit hunting operation was interrupted by the appearance of a mutant goshawk. The big fat rabbit was even more scared when he saw the goshawk. The people looked at each other, and immediately entered the jungle over there, disappeared in a blink of an eye.

Seeing the fat rabbit running away, Qin Tiange yelled: “Damn spoiler, I can’t eat rabbit meat today, so I ate you.”

boom!

There was another shot. The Qin Tiange people were shooting at the goshawk hovering in the sky on the ground, but unfortunately the hovering goshawk was already prepared, and a rollover ducked to avoid the shot.

The goshawk is amazing in speed. It is a big overlord in the air. Only it is bullying its prey.

Seeing this little human, even dared to interrupt its hunting and even attack it, it was unbearable for his uncle.

cry!

The eagle hit the sky, the goshawk rushed into the sky, soared directly into the clouds, and soared for nine days. The arrogant figure and the loud bark were really intoxicating.

However, Qin Tiange looked dignified at this moment, staring at the clouds in the sky, and faintly saw a black spot dive down quickly, breaking through the clouds all the way.

The goshawk soared into the sky, but that was just a precursor to its offensive, and it swooped down from high altitude.

The goshawk dived faster and faster, breaking through the air. From a small black spot, it turned into a behemoth in a blink of an eye, rushing to kill Qin Tiange.

It was said that sooner or later, Qin Tiange leaped suddenly, tumbling in the fields to avoid the rapid flutter.

With a bang, the mud splashed!

The goshawk slammed down, and its two claws gripped on the ground where Qin Tiange was originally.

The huge claws, with their sharp coldness, make people have no doubt that steel will scratch them.

Seeing the prey dodging the blow, the goshawk was not discouraged, but spread its wings soaring, the hawk hit the sky, soared back into the sky, and circled again to dive.

“Eh ...” Climbing from the field, Qin Tiange spit out a few spit of mud, his face embarrassed, and he looked up at the huge goshawk hovering above the clouds.

This goshawk is very powerful, not only the speed is amazing, the power is huge and unmatched. Judging from the flutter of power just now, at least it has the power not to lose Qin Tiange.

“Bullying I can’t fly?” Qin Tiange turned black, aimed at the goshawk in the sky, and then quickly aimed at the body of the goshawk that was circling rapidly.

He even fired three shots, but unfortunately he missed them. One was the Goshawk’s fast speed, and the other was the other was more than two kilometers high.

At this distance, ordinary sniper rifles are difficult to hit, and after the mutant goshawk’s feathers are as hard as iron, ordinary bullets are hard to hit it hard.

Click!

In the end, Qin Tiange took out the electromagnetic sniper rifle, squatted his body, and raised his gun at the goshawk hovering above the sky.

There was a confrontation between the two, one hovering at a height of two kilometers, and the other was aiming on the ground, and no one easily attacked.

Qin Tiange knows that once he takes the lead in firing, as long as he fails to hit, the opponent must dive down and attack in an instant.

cry!

The goshawk screamed, uttering a horror through the wild, full of arrogance, revealing the meaning of vastness.

It hovered for a long time, perhaps because it felt the threat from the prey. Finally, the goshawk gave up its plan to capture Qin Tiange, turned over and accelerated directly, rushed into the clouds and disappeared.

Far away, there was only a whistle of loud croaking with solitude.

“Oh ...” Seeing the goshawk leaving, Qin Tiange had to sigh, after all, he couldn't deal with these overlords after the sky mutated.

If it's on the ground, Qin Tiange will surely get the other side in two or three attempts, but the goshawk will not easily land, unless it is the moment of predation and rest time.

Eagles spend most of their time in the air, and even stop and rest very little, because they are very alert. As air masters, they are naturally alert to threats on the ground.

The goshawk is gone. It is clever that it does not want to expend energy and time here. Having these time is enough for it to hunt more other prey.

Put away the electromagnetic sniper rifle, Qin Tiange looked at the sky, then shook his head helplessly, want to eat a rabbit meat is not enough.

“Bad!” Qin Tiange cleared his mood and was ready to hit the road.

He had just taken two steps, but found something wrong in the grass in front, and immediately stopped and stared carefully.

Huh?

The next moment, he uttered a suspicion, his eyes fixed on a dense grass in the distance, although there was no trace of movement there, he was still found.

There was a ray of white shadow hidden in the grass, and it was faintly visible. If you didn't find it carefully, it was Qin Tiange's eyesight that captured the ray of white.

He squatted quietly, hiding behind a haystack, and looked carefully there. Time passed little by little, he didn't move, let alone give up, but waited patiently.

A qualified hunter must have the patience to wait for the prey, otherwise, let alone hunting, it is difficult to find the prey.

Uh ...

Finally, after ten minutes, there was a little noise in the grass, and the grass made a snoring sound and something moved.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange's mouth slightly tilted, evoking a smile, and as expected, there was a creature hidden in that grass.

It should have been hiding after the goshawk appeared just now, and now I saw the goshawk walking for a long time before coming out quietly, and it was really alert.

Uh ...

A snow-white head, a pair of ruby eyes, quietly burrowed out of the grass, looking around dribbly, looking very smart, seeing some kind of aura.

“Are there still a rabbit?” Qin Tiange was surprised and surprised.

Unexpectedly, there was a rabbit hidden near here, similar to the previous one, but it was relatively petite, and its hair was white. to make.

Only those eyes are the most special. The rubies are as glittering as they are very cute.

A big gray rabbit ran, but a big white rabbit came, which has to say that Qin Tiange's luck was really good.

“This time, how do you see me running?”

Here in the grass, Qin Tiange quietly went to the sniper rifle, and the muzzle was slowly deep out of the grass, aiming at the white rabbit who was watching carefully.

Suddenly, White Rabbit turned her head vigilantly, and stared at the grass here with a pair of eyes dripping, as if she felt danger and was immediately alert.

There was a doubtful gleam in his eyes, and then he seemed to be greatly frightened. He jumped a few meters high, jumped five times in an instant, and flew far away in the blink of an eye.

“I'm going, so alert?”

Qin Tiange scolded him, immediately stood up, and quickly pursued him with a sniper rifle. This time, how could he not let this big white rabbit slip away again.

Chapter 137 - Little bunny boom! boom! boom!

There were continuous gunshots in the silent field, and they were shocked, and many insects and timid animals fled away.

I saw a man running wild in the field, carrying a sniper rifle and firing at the front from time to time.

“Bunny obediently stop and don't run, I promise not to eat you ...”

Qin Tiange shouted as he ran, as much sincerity as possible, but unfortunately, the sniper rifle in his hand repeatedly aimed at the white rabbit fleeing in front of him and fired bullets.

In this situation, people will think that a strange uncle is trying to induce the little girl.

If anyone sees Qin Tiange like this, he must startle his chin, and even tell a rabbit to tell him not to run, and promise not to eat it.

In front of it, the big white rabbit was sturdy, and jumped into the grass quickly, hoping to avoid the threat from behind.

As it ran, it straightened out in aggrieved hearts: “Smelly human, obviously want to eat me, even coax me, when I am a silly rabbit?”

This rabbit has given birth to a decent intelligence. Although it will not speak, it is definitely no worse than a human child.

Quietly, it has been hiding just now, you can see its cleverness. If it is not for the presence of Qin Tiange, it is likely that it has been hiding.

It also had a carrot in its mouth and it was picked in a field. It was fresh, big and crispy, and it was its favorite food.

boom!

At the back, another gunshot came, and the white rabbit’s hair was erected in horror, rushing quickly to avoid a bullet that came from behind.

Of course, this is not to say that it is fast enough to dodge bullets, but that it has a strong danger to avoid instincts, and made an evasion action in advance.

This made Qin Tiange, who was chasing behind him, have to sigh, rabbits are really hard to chase, and they are a little bit smarter.

“Rabbit, don’t stop, I use a bomb.”

In the back, Qin Tiange suddenly shouted, feeling strange. In fact, he wasn’t sure if the previous White Rabbit had given birth to sage, but at least he was very clever.

From the beginning, Qin Tiange thought about hunting and killing the rabbit for dinner, but now he is chasing after him, but he has no such thoughts, but has a lot of fun.

“Rabbit, stop quietly, or I will kill you with a bomb!” No matter if the rabbit in front didn’t understand, Qin Tiange shouted as he chased.

This picture is too beautiful to look at!

If someone is on the side, maybe you just rushed up and gave him a slap, your brain is broken, and you even chase a rabbit with a gun and call the other party to stop.

Unless the rabbit is stupid and has a cramp in the brain, it will be strange to stop. Sure enough, hearing the human cry of Qin Tiange in the back, the running white rabbit rushed even faster.

“Smelly human, dead human, bad human ...”

As the White Rabbit fled quickly, it cursed silently. The word for humanity actually came from a “brother” it had just met.

This “brother” is very good to her. If there is something to eat, she will be given it first. The reason why the white rabbit ran here today is to come out to find carrots to eat.

It remembers that there were many large and crispy carrots planted by humans here, but unfortunately they were eaten up by other animals, leaving only one on its mouth.

boom!

A bullet hit his feet, the soil splashed, scared it and he almost dropped the carrot on his mouth, but he bite it hard. For it, his life can be lost, and the radish cannot be lost.

Chasing and chasing, Qin Tiange had to stop, because the little rabbit rushed into a wood in front of it, and there was no way to chase it.

“Really, I said you would n’t eat you if you did n’t eat, why run away so fast?”

Standing in front of the woods, Qin Tiange couldn’t help whispering, shook his head, and put away his sniper rifle. As for chasing into the jungle, stop joking.

The jungle is even more dangerous. There are too many dangerous species in it, and the paradise where various mutant creatures gather. Once they are blindly loaded in, they will not understand how to die.

Not only the mutated animals, but also the mutated flowers and trees, such as some terrible cannibals, cannibals, etc. These things are the most terrible.

After giving up the pursuit, Qin Tiange turned and left, because this direction was not his set course, and he could only give up the big white rabbit.

Not long after he left, the big white rabbit who had fled into the woods appeared. It quietly got out of the woods, carefully looked around, and then raised its head, a pair of ruby eyes staring straight away.

“This abominable mankind has finally gone.” The big white rabbit sighed secretly, clutching the carrot on his mouth and taking a bite.

Kacha Kacha, it tastes very fragrant, with aura in his eyes, looking angrily at the back of Qin Tiange’s departure, waving the carrot in his hands, looking very angry.

“Go back and tell Big Brother Monkey that he must be careful of humans in the future. These humans are so abominable that they bully Tutu.”

The big white rabbit was indignant, staring at the back of Qin Tiange fiercely, perhaps out of instinct, feeling that something was watching himself, and was suddenly returning while walking.

“Eh? Really wise?” Qin Tiange asked in surprise, looking at the big white rabbit by the wood, as if looking at him angrily.

At this moment, he can be sure in his heart that this big white rabbit was born with wisdom, not easy.

Not every animal or creature can easily give birth to wisdom, which requires luck and opportunity to produce wisdom.

The big white rabbit was just a sage-born rabbit. At this moment, when Qin Tiange turned around and looked over, he was frightened and fled.

Glancing for a moment, it ran away in the blink of an eye, making Qin Tiange look funny.

“This silly rabbit was frightened by me. It is estimated that I would run away after seeing more than one, which is fun and interesting.” Qin Tiange smiled and left without leaving.

Although he couldn't hit the rabbit and couldn't kill the goshawk, Qin Tiange was not disappointed, because he quickly hit a fat vole.

“You can eat a ton of barbecue.”

By the stream, Qin Tiange was peeling a washbasin-sized voles skin, ready to bake here, after all, near noon, he was too hungry.

While he was busy grilling the voles, the big white rabbit that escaped returned to the Shenzhen Wild Animal Park.

“Bunny is back?”

In the zoo, a large group of monkeys are swaying around, jumping and playing between tree trunks. There are many, at least hundreds of thousands of monkeys.

These monkeys are mutated mutant monkeys. Most of them are yellow-haired, and they are a few circles larger than before the end of the day. They do not need to be small, and some are even larger.

Among them, there is one of the most special monkeys in the back group, covered with golden hair, shining brightly in the sun, looking extremely gorgeous.

When the golden monkey saw the big white rabbit, he immediately jumped down from the tree, and actually opened his mouth and said a human word, yes, it is human language.

The big white rabbit looked aggrieved, those ruby eyes, looked at the two-meter-high golden monkey pitifully, crying.

“Don't cry, don't cry, tell big brother, who bullied you, is that the big white cat on the east bullied you?” When the big white rabbit was seen like this, the golden monkey was anxious and irritable.

Unfortunately, White Rabbit shook his head and said no, and then the golden monkey's hair sprayed out, exposing his tusks. It touched the ears of the big white rabbit and asked, “Is that the big reptile on the south bully you?”

“Still the black charcoal head on the mountain bullied you?”

“neither?”

Seeing the big white rabbit shaking his head again and again, the golden monkey scratched his cheek, looking at the aggrieved big white rabbit, he didn't know how to comfort him for a while.

“By the way, Bunny Bunny, I'll take you to see a baby, to make sure you feel good.”

The golden monkey took the big white rabbit's ears and took it directly into a lush forest in the park. Here is the world of monkeys.

The big white rabbit was curious, so what kind of baby would the big monkey monkey take to see him?

“Is it a lot of delicious carrots?”

As he followed the golden monkey, he thought in his heart that nine of the ten thoughts could not be separated from the favorite carrot.

Chapter 138 - Monkey King?

“Little bunny, hurry up, we’re here.”

The golden monkey danced with excitement, looking happy. It is a monkey in a zoo. Because it has different hairs, it is different from other monkeys in the monkey group.

Moreover, its height and shape are much larger than ordinary monkeys, so it has become the leader of the monkey group, equal to the monkey king.

Soon, the Monkey King brought the big white rabbit to the middle of the woods. This is a huge rockery. Various buildings were built around it, which were originally used for tourists to visit the monkey group.

Now, it has become the residence of monkeys, and the monkey king lives here.

It came to the largest house with the big white rabbit full of carrots, and then carefully took out a package.

It was wrapped in cloth. It was a rag of human blue clothes. It was opened layer by layer, revealing something inside.

If anyone is here, it must be recognized at first glance, this is a smart phone, a domestic Huawei brand machine.

A monkey, even if it talks human, even a smartphone?

In fact, this mobile phone was picked up by this monkey after it became sane. Before the end of the day, it often saw many humans dangling toward these monkeys with this kind of thing.

I picked one up now, naturally picked it up curiously, checked it, and really gave him some tricks.

Just yesterday, the Golden Monkey King turned the phone back and forth, and when he pressed the power-on button, the screen lit up immediately, scaring it to throw it out.

Fortunately, the picture on the screen of the mobile phone is very beautiful and attracts it, so hold back the inner fear and not lose it.

That’s it. After a while of tinkering with the golden monkey, I really learned how to use the mobile phone, and finally accidentally opened a movie player.

This is incredible. It happens that the classic TV series “Journey to the West” is downloaded on this mobile phone, and the cover is Qi Tian Da Sheng Sun Wukong.

At first glance at the cover, the golden monkey was deeply attracted, and the ghost sent the **** into it and played it.

“I’ll show it to you. You must like it.”

The golden monkey hurriedly turned on the mobile phone and opened the Journey to the West series. Immediately, a burst of music sounded, which was the theme song “Dare to Ask Where to Go”.

Listening to this piece of music, the Golden Monkey King inexplicably closed his eyes and listened quietly, as if brought into the Journey to the West, recalling the pictures it saw at the time, making it enthusiastic.

“Little Bunny, look, this is Monkey King ... Monkey King, doesn't it look like me, doesn't it look like me?”

The golden monkey pointed at the screen of the mobile phone and was playing the first episode of Journey to the West, which was the scene where Sun Wukong was born.

It looked particularly excited, staring at the screen of the phone, even the big white rabbit was attracted, completely fascinated, and forgot his carrot.

“See? It's awesome. It's the monkey I admire most in my life. Fight against the sky and kill the heaven. I will be the next generation of Monkey King!”

Suddenly, the golden monkey jumped up to the roof, raised his chest and shouted loudly, vowing that he would be the next generation of Monkey King.

“I'm the Monkey King!”

The Golden Monkey King is a little bit into the play, as if he is the Monkey King in the Journey to the West who can soar in the clouds and change the sky, and the 72-year-old Sun Wukong.

I have to say that Journey to the West is really a generation of gods, and even a monkey was infected, thinking that he was also a generation of beautiful monkey kings.

Well, if Qin Tiange is here, he must be stunned, because no monkey in the past life has heard of any monkey claiming to be the Monkey King.

In fact, since his rebirth, many things have changed, and his trajectory has changed. This is the butterfly effect.

The big white rabbit was fascinated, and the Golden Monkey King was tumbling around in the room. He learned about the mobile phone screen like Sun Wukong and jumped around, yelling that he was the Monkey King.

At this moment, a group of monkeys nearby came to hear the news, one after another scrambling, thinking about why their leaders screamed so much?

“Baby, from now on, I will be the Monkey King, your King!”

The golden monkey leaped out, standing smartly at the top of the rockery, looking down at the roar, with a very loud voice, and there was no such thing as a tens of thousands of somersault clouds and golden hoops.

A group of monkeys are aggressive, they look silly, scratch their cheeks, they don't understand what the Monkey King is, what does it mean, can they eat it?

Seeing that his group of people were so stupid that they didn't understand anyone, the monkey king felt unbalanced in his heart.

Take a look at the Journey to the West, Monkey King Sun Wukong has a bunch of monkeys under his hands. Which one doesn't speak, one after another shouting the "power" and "power"?

"Baby, from now on, all of you will call me King, can you hear me?" Monkey King shouted again.

The result is still the same, the monkey group is aggressive, looking at it stupidly, wondering if its leader has been damaged?

Seeing the monkeys didn't respond, the monkey king was embarrassed, and his anger rose, snarling: "Are you all deaf? Really stupid, can't even talk."

"From today on, you must learn to talk to me one by one. Whoever can't speak, you can't eat."

The monkey king was angry, with serious consequences, and the monkeys were finally afraid. Not eating is tantamount to being hungry, which is definitely the biggest punishment for monkeys.

"big big big..."

This is, an old monkey in the monkey group came out, it was gray all over, and the hair was a little shedding, but the skill was still strong, and the monkey became stronger after mutation.

This old monkey even started to speak. It is not low-spirited, it just doesn't know how to speak, but it often comes into contact with humans, and now it can begin to imitate speech gradually.

Hearing this voice, Monkey King's heart was so beautiful, and finally a younger brother opened up.

"Hurry up, call the King to hear it." The Monkey King eagerly stepped forward, clutching the old monkey's hands, his face full of excitement, looking at it eagerly, looking forward to it.

The old monkey opened his mouth and wanted to talk, but he always felt that something was covering his throat and he couldn't make the sound of human speech.

"Big .... big ..." Finally, after trying a few times, the old monkey spoke and shouted the first human words of the monkey.

"Big ... King!"

A big king shouted that the monkey king's body was all crisp, fluttering lightly, as if rising from a cloud and driving a fog, as if he had imagined that he would have a struggle in the future.

Hahahahaha ...

The monkey king laughed loudly and jumped up, jumping and moving on the tree, flashing golden phantoms, and the speed was amazing.

“I’m the Monkey King!”

“I’m the Monkey King!”

In the woods, this high-pitched roar kept echoing, terrifying the beasts from all sides, staring fiercely in this direction.

“Baby, go out with King Ben and find a weapon in your hand.”

Enough to play, the Monkey King finally jumped down, the first sentence of opening his mouth was to find a weapon. This is to see the Journey to the West being affected, and I feel that as a new generation of Monkey King, naturally I can’t live without a weapon in hand?

So many faceless, as a generation of monkey kings, there is not even a decent weapon, how to lead the group of monkeys, how to become a beautiful monkey king?

Chapter 139 - Ready to enter

The dilapidated mountain village is silent, except for the bird calls from the surrounding mountains, there is no sound here.

The whole village is quiet and terrible. Many dilapidated houses have collapsed a lot, and even some of the built pig houses have completely collapsed.

“According to Hu Yan, after passing this small village, it should be three kilometers away.”

On the aisle of the village, Qin Tiange silently looked at the map, and compared the village where he was, it was exactly the location of the village that Hu Yan said at the time.

After rushing for a day, Qin Tiange finally came here before night fell, and as long as the past three kilometers came to the land of heaven.

Of course, it seemed that the sky was getting dark, Qin Tiange would not be stupid to go on the road now, and breaking into the sky at night is the act of seeking death.

He plans to stay in this small village for one night, and enter the land of heaven early in the morning to see if he can find any treasures in it.

In fact, he didn’t know, if there was any baby in it, I do n’t know, if it was n’t, it would only be a trip.

However, according to Hu Yan, they saw huge bone wreckage scattered on the helicopter, and some weapons.

This news was enough to impress Qin Tiange, indicating that there are good things in it, and this time he should not return empty-handed.

Endured with excitement, Qin Tiange carefully walked on the village road, guarding the surroundings. After all, the rural areas were the most dangerous in the last days.

What is the most in the countryside? There are all kinds of creatures, chickens, ducks, cows, sheep, dogs, and even various insect poisons, etc., are terrible things.

Many mutated beasts and monsters are definitely a threat to human beings, but Qin Tiangeyi is bold and not afraid of them.

Coo, coo ...

While walking, a sudden cooing came, Qin Tiange moved his face, and walked towards a collapsed pig coop over there.

This pig house was originally built by a resident in the village to raise pigs and chickens. After the last days, the pigs mutated and became ferocious and wild.

There was a cooing sound in the semi-collapsed pigsty, like the hen's bark. Curious, Qin Tiange walked over and took a careful look inside.

"Really a hen?" At this look, he really saw a big hen, nestling on a pile of weeds, making a cooing sound from time to time.

It looks like this hen is hatching her eggs.

Qin Tiange concealed carefully outside, carefully looked at the hen, a one meter tall body, yellow feathers all over her body, and her eyes were occasionally looking around, very alert.

Unexpectedly, there is a hen in this village, and it was lucky that it was not eaten by other ferocious creatures.

"Good luck, maybe there are eggs?" Qin Tiange smiled, and quietly approached the big hen from behind the collapsed pigsty.

I just had roasted field voles at noon. Tonight, there is probably no more chicken broth and eggs to eat. This is very delicious.

Cooing, cooing!

Suddenly, the hen stood up, erecting her feathers, as if she found an anomaly, and immediately started a defensive battle, sending out continuous warning sounds.

Unfortunately, this hen encountered Qin Tiange, how could he be his opponent?

Bang Bang!

Three steps forward, the steel knife slapped for a while, and knocked the hen directly without killing him.

Qin Tiange smiled, looked into the hen's nest, good guy, there were a bunch of eggs in it, at least a dozen.

Moreover, these eggs are very large, and fist-sized eggs look extremely huge, which is inferior to ostrich eggs.

This is the egg laid by the hen after the mutation. The nutritional value has increased by dozens or hundreds of times. It is the most luxurious food in the last days.

Quickly collected the nest of eggs, counted them, and eighteen eggs were enough for him to eat for a while.

After collecting the eggs, Qin Tiange looked at the hen who passed out and dragged his chin, thinking about how to deal with the big hen.

“Then stew a pot of Longfeng soup!”

After thinking about it, Qin Tiange felt that it was time to eat a pot of Dragon and Phoenix soup. There was still a large green snake carcass in the space bracelet. Just matched with this hen stew, the taste was absolutely memorable.

Just do it. Qin Tiange first cut the hen’s neck with a knife to bleed, and used a large washbasin to receive half a basin of blood.

Chicken blood is a good thing. It is delicious and nutritious. It must not be wasted.

Before night fell, Qin Tiange found a cauldron in the village and started to make dinner tonight, Longfeng Soup.

After a lot of work, I finally set off the flames and simmered the green snake meat and hen meat. I continued to add some ingredients, such as Qingbuliang, lotus seeds, lily, ginseng, etc., all collected from the drug store along the way. .

“It’s so fragrant. It’s a mutant green snake and hen. It smells different when you smell it.”

In a house in a small village, Qin Tiange looked at the boiling soup in the pot.

After boiled for a long time, I can finally start eating.

For a pot of Longfeng soup, Qin Tiange could not close his mouth, half of the green snake and half of the hen were eaten by him, not even a little soup was left.

“Cool!”

Full of food and drink, Qin Tiange lay on a couch beside him and spit out a sip of muddy air, which was really cool.

He felt that after eating the flesh of these mutant creatures, some kind of change naturally occurred in his body. His physique was slowly strengthening, although it was very weak and slow, it did indeed increase.

If humans eat these mutated creatures all year round, they must become stronger and stronger, with strong blood and strength.

Perhaps this is what is called evolution!

belch!

Meimei nodded, Qin Tiange grabbed the steel knife and was going to find a place to take a bath.

The house has three floors, and a stainless steel pool is installed on the top floor, which is filled with water. Turn on the faucet and find that there is still water. Take a good bath naturally.

On the second floor, blood was everywhere in the house, and the owner wanted to come to this house already dead.

After eating and drinking enough, and wrongly taking a bath, Qin Tiange was content to sleep in the room on the second floor.

The black lights are blind, and they are still grotesque in the village. The timid person may not be able to sleep, but Qin Tiange didn't care about these at all, and soon fell asleep.

Of course, when he fell asleep, he grabbed the steel knife and kept the ability to react at any time, so that he could survive fifteen years in the last days.

One night passed, nothing happened, and there were no accidents except the occasional beast roar from the mountains.

Getting up in the morning, Qin Tiange washed his face, dressed neatly, and began to cook eggs.

That's right, he just wants to cook a pot of eggs in case he doesn't have time to get into the world, so he should prepare in advance.

Fifteen minutes later, the eggs were cooked, eighteen full, enough to eat three meals.

“Now, it's time to enter the heavens.”

Outside the village, Qin Tiange was fully armed with a very serious look. He strode forward, left the village, and went to the land that fell from the sky three kilometers away.

Along the way, at last half an hour, Qin Tiange came to a weird place.

It was originally a mountain forest, but because a land fell from the sky at the end of the day, it fell directly here, completely erasing the originally lush mountain forest.

Now, there is a flat barren land, ravines, sand and stones flying, there is an unknown magnetic interference, and the mist is transpiration, giving a very strange feeling.

Qin Tiange came to the edge, squatted down and grabbed a handful of scattered sand. I felt that this kind of dirt is not something on the earth, and it is more certain that this misty area is the land of heaven.

Ok? Qin Tiange looked excited, raised his foot and was about to step into it. But when he first mentioned his feet, he usually stopped immediately, his face turned a little bit suspiciously, and he stared at a dense forest not far away.

“somebody is coming!”

Qin Tiange frowned slightly and noticed that someone nearby was coming, because the voice of someone speaking in the dense forest came over.

Chapter 140 - Weird dark fog

“Boss, it's not far ahead.”

In the dense forest, a group of more than thirty people are walking towards this side, headed by a inch-inch man, burly and looks very mighty.

There were scars on his arm, which looked like they were cut by a machete, with a fierce look in his eyes.

There was a young man next to the man, pointing to the front and saying, “I remember that a huge land was landed here.”

“You don't need to say it, fools can see it.”

The headed man snorted, looked out of the dense forest, and dimly saw a barren land, which was the land fragments falling from the sky.

At the beginning of the end, he was fortunate enough to see such a scene and kept it in his heart, and only recently planned to come and find out.

Because of his good luck, he discovered a temporary heritage stele, which only gained unimaginable benefits. Not only his body was strengthened, but also many weapons, etc., which brought him together in just a few days. Help people.

“Boss, I think it’s grim here, let’s get out of here, right?” Someone couldn’t help but feel the smell of dense forest, and proposed to go out quickly.

The boss didn’t say much, because he knew the jungle was dangerous, and he didn’t know how many zombies and mutant creatures he encountered.

A team of more than 50 people now has 30 people left. It can be said that nearly half of them have been damaged. It is false that it is not annoying.

Soon, a group of people walked out of the dense forest and came to the fog-covered area, looking at the fog in front of each other in wonder.

“Boss, are we going in?” Some of his men were timid.

The boss gave him a stern glance, and then he was dissatisfied: “Look at your bear-like, isn’t it just exploring a place, so afraid?”

“Moreover, you are all the first class who have been drinking potions and have been strengthened. How can they be worse than ordinary people?”

This boss is quite dissatisfied, his men are timid, it was hitting his face, it was really bad, if it was not for the employment, it is likely that he had killed the man long ago.

A group of people who were watching the land of heaven did not notice at all that a figure was hiding behind a stone not far away.

“This group of people came at the right time, just to explore the way for me.”

After the stone, Qin Tiange quietly observed the group of people, and his heart was laughing. It was so sleepy that someone sent a pillow. He was thinking about going in, and a bunch of cannon fodder came.

OK, let this group of people go ahead and take the lead to explore the road, but he quietly follows behind, which is equivalent to letting these people do cannon fodder to die.

“Everyone is vigilant. We go in and say there must be no treasure in it.”

The boss opened his mouth and announced that he would make a breakthrough, after all, the treasure was moving. He believed that there must be good things in it, and think of the stele that fell from the sky.

It doesn’t make sense that there are no treasures in these same land that fell from the sky. This is why this group of people take risks here. Greed is really everywhere.

“Go, go, find me the way!”

Behind the stone, Qin Tiange flashed a sneer on his face, watching the group of people stepping into it indifferently, without any intention of showing up.

Seeing the group of people leading the way, soon Qin Tiange stepped out from behind the stone, followed quietly, and fell far behind.

Out of the sky, the mist rises, there is a strange breath everywhere, there is no sound at all.

From the moment I stepped in here, it seemed that the world was quiet, there was no noise, and even the call of insects was gone, as if isolated.

“Curious magnetic field ...” As soon as Qin Tiange came in, he couldn’t help but be shocked. There was a mysterious magnetic field in this heavenly land, which blocked all the sounds from the outside world.

A group of people in the front also noticed that they seemed a little flustered and stunned. The surroundings were too quiet, and even the insects that had been heard outside were gone.

“Boss, it’s too quiet and weird here, why don’t we go back?”

Some of his men couldn’t bear the fear in his heart and proposed to withdraw it, only to anger the boss’s big-footed man.

“You, go ahead, dare to step back and I chopped you.” The boss drank the cowardly man and walked forward.

Under the threat of death, the young man had to surrender and walked ahead tremblingly, with suspicious eyes in his eyes and death in fear.

“Boss, something is wrong. I always feel that something is staring at us all around.”

At this time, a young brother beside the inch-headed man opened his mouth, worried, his eyebrows kept picking, and he felt nearby when he felt the danger.

The group was a little nervous, that the boss seemed very cautious, and suddenly took out something, and saw Qin Tiange froze for a moment.

“Gatlin?” Qin Tiange murmured in his heart, seeing that the thing was a heavy machine gun, Gatlin was very strong, lethal.

Watching the boss pick up Gatlin directly, covered with bullets, it feels like watching a movie.

“Unexpectedly, he also has a storage ring. It seems that he has a lot of power in his hands.” Qin Tiange followed him, thinking about the origin of the group of people while he was alert.

However, he has never seen anyone in this area, and he has never seen the boss who is headed by him, so naturally he can’t think of anyone.

“what...”

Suddenly, there was a sound of participation in the fog in front, and the team was shocked.

In front of the team, the young man who was forced to lead the road disappeared, leaving only a puddle of blood in the place where he was originally. The scarlet blood scared everyone.

“What happened? People?” The boss tightened his eyes and stared at the blood, but he disappeared.

Originally, he was asked to send death to explore the road, but now he is really dead, and he can't help feeling a little panicked, especially he died in front of them, and no one found out how people were.

“Everyone is vigilant. The three of us are gathered together, get the weapons, load the bullets, and show me eyes wide. I have something nearby.”

The boss made a speech, so that the people in the team gathered, three people in a team, can not be dispersed.

In the back, Qin Tiange hanged from a distance without too close, but through the fog, they can still clearly see the group of people.

“What's that?” Qin Tiange was startled, secretly surprised, because he didn't see what it was, he just caught a dark shadow and passed by, and then people disappeared.

“Ah ... no, don't ...”

In the fog, another scream came. In a trio, a person's body was suddenly entangled by a mass of black gas, and a click, blood and water spurted, and the ground was red.

This time they saw a weird black mist directly engulfing a person, dragged away on the spot, the speed was unresponsive.

Fear began to spread in the hearts of those people, one by one pale, their eyes flashing with fear, and they were frightened.

The inexplicable death has put too much pressure on them.

“Damn, what the **** is that?”

The boss saw the two men who were folded in a row, and was frightened and furious. He raised Gatlin and fired into the fog around him.
