

Dark Ages 151

Chapter 151 - Year 0 King 8

After rummaging for a while, almost half of the entire body of the monster was cut open and rummaged, but unfortunately nothing was found again, except for some fragmentary bone fragments found in the stomach, no valuable things were found. []

“It’s a pity ...” Qin Tiange shook his head secretly, his body turned back to the ground, and came to a section of broken tentacles to check.

The nagging tentacles flowed with disgusting dark green sticky mules, like the blood of a monster, with strong corrosiveness.

After looking at the valuelessness, Qin Tiange turned around and left. It was too dangerous to stay in this place.

He vaguely remembered that there seemed to be other things in this extra-terrestrial place, and the fog at the time did not know whether it was emitted from this thing.

Qin Tiange faintly felt that it was better to walk first, and sure enough, as soon as he stepped out of the sky, he saw waves of mist wafting out, gradually covering the entire sky.

“Are there really other things?” Qin Tiange squinted his eyes, secretly terrified. There was not only the scary creature in the land of heaven, but also other unknown things.

Vaguely, through the layers of fog, Qin Tiange saw some black shadows floating back and forth, quickly surrounding the body of the dead monster.

They’re eating, and they’re not mistaken, they’re eating the monster’s body, as if there were unknown creatures chewing the monster’s body there, watching the scalp explode.

Qin Tiange is also thankful that he walked in time, otherwise he would have to face this group of unknown creatures who did not know the details.

After leaving the land of heaven, Qin Tiange wandered in the mountains, looking for water, because his body was so dirty that he wanted to clean it.

Soon after passing a mountain, Qin Tiange saw a mountain stream, the water flow was crystal clear, and he immediately walked over.

At the side of the stream, Qin Tiange carefully looked around and found that there was no danger. He was only in the stream, but he did not see a fish creature. Under the central water, there was a huge black stone. It looked weird, but he took off his armor without paying much attention, and stepped into the icy stream with his naked body.

“Cool ... too comfortable.” Qin Tiange cleaned the dirt from his body in the stream, and the cold stream made him sigh with relief.

The water flowing out of the mountain stream is not the same. It is not only cold and refreshing, but also extremely clear. It makes people feel inexplicably comfortable when they look at it.

Qin Tiange scrubbed the dirt on his body, and soon dyed a large stream of water into a muddy black, and finally exposed his white body, muscle R symmetrical, full of beauty of strength.

The scorched hair, under the strong impetus of life, has now grown out again, thick and dark, more bright and moving.

“Hey, women are jealous of my skin right now?”

While cleaning, Qin Tiange muttered narcissistically and was very satisfied with his body at the moment.

After taking a lot of quenching medicaments, the body has been perfected, not to mention the surge in constitution in the heavens, which is even more remarkable.

Hum!

Washing and washing, Qin Tiange took out the obtained halberd from the space bracelet, and stroked the cracked halberd gently, faintly heard a slight buzz.

“It’s a pity ...” Qin Tiange cleared the halberd, looked at the crack on the halberd, and even broke a small halberd front in the sharp part, and had to regret it for a while.

Shaking his head, Qin Tiange moved his mind, remembering the strange bead just obtained, and immediately took it out and held it on the palm of his hand.

Zizi ...

The orange-red beads were exposed to intense heat. When they appeared, they burst into white smoke, and the stream was sizzling with sounds, which was amazing.

Qin Tiange looked startled and secretly said: “What a high temperature, what is this thing? It has such an amazing temperature, as if holding a mass of magma.”

He had to be surprised, because the strange bead was too hot, he felt a tingling in his hands, and it was heated and evaporated under the stream.

Gradually, the temperature of the bead was no longer astonishing, as if it had gone out. Soon, when the temperature of the bead dropped to a tolerable range, Qin Tiange could carefully observe the strange bead.

The size of a fist is orange-red, and there is something flowing inside. It looks weird like it looks like a flame burning inside.

Ok?

While observing the beads, Qin Tiange’s face was frozen, and he suddenly felt a chill, and his back was shocked with cold sweat.

He didn’t want to, he jumped up, and a deft turn over went ashore. Landing from the water, the whole process took less than a second, and the speed was shocking.

“What’s that?” Qin Tiange stood on the shore, gathered up the beads, and stared at the water of the stream with his halberd vigilantly.

Suddenly a large stream of shadows appeared in the clear water, and the dark shadows gradually rose from under the water.

Wow!

Suddenly there was a splash of water, a huge head rose in the middle of the brook, and two eyes stared at Qin Tiange on the shore.

“His, turned out to be a king eight?” Qin Tiange took a breath and was very surprised.

That head was exactly the head of Wang Ba. It was huge and unmatched, with the thickness of a water tank, and the shadow under the stream was its body.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange couldn't help but feel cold. He had looked at the stream by himself, but he didn't see anything there, even the situation under the stream, and the rocks were clearly visible.

It was just that he saw a huge black rock, which was strange. I didn't care about it at that time. Now I think back, where is this rock?

Boom ... The river was surging, and Qin Tiange couldn't help but stay for a while as the huge Wang Ba completely appeared before his eyes.

Large, very large, this Wang Ba's head has a thick water tank, the whole body is even more incredible, at least more than ten meters.

How did such a huge Wang Ba grow up here? Qin Tiange came with a question, and suddenly came to understand Why there is no fish in this mountain stream, and the daring is eaten by this huge mutant king eight.

“Eight Millennium Kings? Hey, I didn't expect my luck.” Qin Tiange was not surprised, but showed a ecstasy.

He stared directly at the giant Wang Ba floating in his eyes, and in his heart began to figure out how to solve this mutant King Wan.

Bang bang ...

Suddenly, Wang Ba rushed out of the stream, opened his limbs, and bite at Qin Tiange, trying to devour the prey in front of him.

This Wang Ba has been hungry here for a long time. He had originally planned to leave down the stream today and enter a larger river.

However, I did not expect that I could encounter a delicious meal before leaving, that is, Qin Tiange in front of him, and he was going to attack quietly from the bottom of the water, but Qin Tiange noticed that something was wrong and escaped.

“Good job!”

Seeing the initiative of the eighteen-year-old king offensive, he dared to go ashore, so that Qin Tiange couldn't help but give out a thrilling excitement, and lifted the halberd directly to meet him.

Qin Tiange rushed in two steps and smashed his halberd!

Sound of wailing

The mutant turtle screamed, his head burst into a blood flower, and he was stunned by the heavy Euphorbia, and his body could not help but recede a little. [Full text reading]

This blow contains the power of a hundred people from Qin Tiange, and the heavy unmatched ancient halberd makes the mutant turtle unbearable.

“Dare to go ashore, then you are trying to kill yourself!”

Qin Tiange gave a low drink, twisted his body, and kicked his feet. The whole man leaped high, holding his halberd with both hands at the same time, and pointed his sharp part at the turtle head.

Just listening to the muffled sound, the turtle screamed, opened his mouth to bite the spear, and rattled his teeth.

Suddenly, the thick head of the water tank was slammed, and Qin Tiange and the halberd flew to the side, but he was not injured.

At this point, the mutant turtle, who wanted to eat Qin Tiange, knew that the other party was terrible. After being hit twice with his head, he immediately retreated, and his limbs kept crawling backwards to retreat into the stream.

But how could Qin Tiange let it escape, and finally encountered a wild mutant turtle, and stupidly ran ashore to want to eat him, then there is no possibility of letting go.

“I want to run, there is no door.” Qin Tiange snorted, a smirk appeared in the corner of his mouth, then rushed away in three steps, and Euphorbia aimed at the turtle head again with a fierce blow.

Euphorbia was heavy and unmatched, and a burst of noise came from the air, hissing, and a sharp edge of Euphorbia ripped the scale armor on the turtle’s head straight through the brain bone.

hiss!

The severe pain caused the mutant turtle to scream screaming, his blood was flowing down, and he looked extremely miserable, but he shrank his head into his body and didn’t dare to come up.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange smiled and hummed, “I thought I could take it for you if I shrink my head? Then you are too naive.”

This huge mutant turtle thought that it would be impossible to take it by shrinking its head and limbs, but Qin Tiange was hoping that it would do so.

I was surprised that Qin Tiange stepped forward in two steps, holding the halberd in both hands, and the broken halberd issued a sharp whistling, tearing the air, and sticking into the turtle’s forehead shrunk in the armor.

Click!

A crisp sound came, and the turtle's body suddenly violently tossed, and the entire head was pierced by the halberd, punctured, and the sound could not be heard.

The huge turtle was struggling, and its limbs frantically ran, but unfortunately it soon disappeared, and a large stream of blood flowed out of its head, which stained the stream.

This is a mutant species, which can be said to be the Millennium King Eight, and this turtle that absorbs the dark energy mutation has an extremely precious thing in its body.

"I don't know if it?" Qin Tiange held back his excitement, pulled out the halberd, and began to look around the huge turtle.

The entire turtle is nine meters in size, and it is a huge creature. It is absolutely impossible to see such a huge turtle before the end.

Bang bang

Qin Tiange struck the back of the turtle with a few times in a row with a halberd, making a dull sound. The hard shell was hard to break.

"It is rumored in the previous life that these mutated turtles have a treasured blood in their bodies, do not know if it is true or false?" Qin Tiange looked at the dead turtle body, and could not help thinking of a rumor about turtles heard in previous lives.

Some people say that after the mutant turtles absorb dark energy in the body, gene mutation occurs, and the blood in the body changes inexplicably, producing an extremely precious blood.

This blood can make people live longer, which may be the reason why turtles live longer. And that kind of blood is born only at the core of the turtle's heart. It is the essence of the whole body's blood, and it is a magic weapon that the turtle can prolong its life.

"Let me see if there is any." Qin Tiange stepped forward quickly and turned the turtle's body over.

Immediately, he took out the electromagnetic light blade, aimed at the turtle's belly armor and cut it with a knife. The hot electromagnetic light blade cut the turtle's belly as if it were tofu.

A stream of blood flowed out, Qin Tiange ignored it, but opened the turtle's belly, looking for the turtle's heart.

Soon, he found the soft-shelled turtle's heart, which was the size of a washbasin, and Jinger was still beating fiercely, which was amazing.

"Sure enough, the vitality is strong, and the heart can beat even when dead. It is no wonder that it can live a long time. It is not unreasonable." Qin Tiange dug out the huge heart of the turtle, and could not help but marvel.

Turtles or tortoises generally have a long life span. They can live for at least a hundred years, and some can live for hundreds or even thousands of years. Of course, millennium turtles are hard to meet.

This turtle is also not the eighth king of eight, but only absorbed dark energy and mutated to grow into a thousand eighth king.

噗通， 噗通

The soft-shelled turtle's heart was still beating, Qin Tiange resisted the inner excitement, gently cut a gap in the heart with a dagger, and picked up the soft-shelled turtle's blood with a prepared iron bucket.

Soon, the blood in the entire heart was drained, and Qin Tiange then carefully cut the whole turtle heart.

“This is” The next moment, Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, and he saw a purple-gold light in the center of the turtle's heart.

Looking closely, I found that it was a peculiar drop of blood, emitting purple light, a little bit golden and extremely dazzling, looking strange and gorgeous.

A drop of purple-gold blood appeared in front of her eyes, and she couldn't help being excited like Qin Tiange.

“Is there really longevity blood?” Qin Tiange said ecstatically.

He did not expect that a drop of purple-gold blood was actually born inside the turtle's heart, which is the strange and cherished blood rumored in previous lives.

Longevity blood, a magical blood that can be said to be long-lived, comes from the heart of a mutant turtle.

This kind of long-lived blood is self-gathered by turtles, stored in the heart, and when the life is exhausted, this precious blood will spread out and get an alternative rebirth.

As long as this drop of blood is present, the turtles can live for another life, and then continue to condense the longevity blood. If luck can continue to condense, then they can continue to live for a lifetime.

It is rumored that a drop of longevity blood can make a turtle live for another thousand years. I don't know if it is true or not, but it is enough to see this purple-gold blood and its preciousness.

“Hahaha, it is really long-lived blood, and the second main medicine for the preparation of immortal medicine is complete.” Qin Tiange flushed with excitement He carefully took out an empty test tube and caught it. The drop of purple-gold blood that is only the size of a thumb is said to be able to make life long.

Longevity blood is one of the main drugs for the preparation of immortal medicine. It is difficult to find, because all the turtles that produce longevity blood in the body will live in deep water areas.

Unexpectedly, Qin Tiange had good luck. He encountered such a turtle that grew in a mountain stream, and was also a mutant turtle that had grown blood in its body.

The turtle was originally decided to relocate tonight and entered the Dajiang River along the stream. Unfortunately, it was unlucky to meet Qin Tiange and be killed to get blood, which was really humming.

“Turtle is very tonic and cannot be wasted.” Qin Tiange collected the longevity blood with a smile, and then looked at the turtle’s corpse. This is a huge tonic and cannot be wasted.

“A few miles, a few miles”

Putting the turtle body into the space bracelet, Qin Tiange hummed the small song happily, left with the halberd, and soon disappeared into this mountain.

Chapter 153 - Man, do you want the goods?

In Hualong District, a high-tech industrial park northwest street, a silhouette is walking on the street. [Read the latest chapter]

There are no silhouettes in the empty streets, only the zombies that are constantly wandering, and thriller grows from time to time.

Huh!

One halberd cut off the head of the zombie in front, Qin Tiange frowned slightly, looked at the neighborhoods, and checked the information on the map.

Coming out of the land of the sky, stopping all the way, Qin Tiange followed the location shown on the map to Hualong District, near the high-end industrial park.

“This is the area where the Changsheng Pharmaceutical Group’s headquarters is located. I don’t know if the research team of Zhuo Tianfan is still alive?” Qin Tiange muttered secretly, carefully looking at the map, and even a zombie pounced behind seemed to have not seen it.

The zombie was rotten, his mouth wide open, and he roared and rushed up. As a result, a spear of horror screamed, and it clicked through its grown mouth, and half of its head was cut off.

Qin Tiange put away Euphorbia without looking back. He didn’t care how unwilling the dead zombie was. He felt that there was a zombie attack behind him, naturally he didn’t take it seriously.

“You should be able to reach the headquarters of Changsheng Pharmaceutical Group before noon.” Putting away the map, Qin Tiange moved forward with the halberd.

On the roadside, several abandoned luxury cars were lying there, covered with thick dust, and two bones remained inside the car, exuding a foul odor.

Roar!

Suddenly, a dark shadow was thrown from the alley on the left, with a roaring sound in his ear, and two black claws were about to catch Qin Tiange’s head.

Time and time later, Qin Tiange avoided the blow on one side of his body, and then Euphorbia pierced away at a tricky angle.

I only heard a muffled sound, black blood splashed, and then looked at the ground. It turned out that a black zombie was attacked. Unfortunately, it was spiked on the spot.

Such a zombie is only one star and hungry for a long time. How could it be Qin Tiange's opponent?

Shaking his head, Qin Tiange didn't care. He walked on the dead street. Newspapers were flying everywhere, the sky was full of dust, and the cold wind was howling.

Looking at this weather, Qin Tiange speculated that there should be cold air to land here, and the deep city is near the sea. It has been affected by coastal hurricanes.

“The wind is blowing” Looking at the dark sky, the wind is getting stronger and stronger, Qin Tiange realizes that the storm is coming.

Sure enough, it didn't take long for the sky to make a sound of thunder, the thunder was rolling, the lightning and thunder were intertwined into one piece, covering the entire sky.

The deep city after the end is shrouded by infinite thunderclouds, heavy rain and raging winds, that is, zombies instinctively hide in the dark corners and shiver.

Under Tianwei, even the zombies were afraid, especially the thunder of lightning, which greatly affected the hearing and induction of the zombies, and even lost their induction and dared not appear.

In a broken shop, Qin Tiange stood at the door and silently looked at the lightning and thunder intertwined in the sky. The rumble of thunder seemed to be angry.

thunderbolt!

Suddenly, a lightning struck a street corner not far away, and there was a thunderous sound, and there was a terrible howl.

A closer look revealed that it was a group of zombies hiding there, unlucky being chopped by a lightning, and several zombies were scorched on the spot and smashed into coke by Huanghuang thunder and lightning on the spot.

In front of Tianwei, both humans and zombies, or those mutant beast creatures have to avoid three points.

Before Thunder, everything bowed down!

In front of the hurricane, the zombies were blown up and rolled up, and the beasts were mourning. They were rolled to the sky by the huge hurricane on the spot, and they fell into a pile of flesh.

“Taking advantage of the thunderstorm, it's just the right time.”

After looking at it, Qin Tiange immediately decided to rush out while taking advantage of the heavy rain. This is an opportunity. The zombies are hiding, and the mutants are not willing to come out. Naturally, it is a good time to rush.

Think of it, Qin Tiange put away the Euphorbia first, and dared not carry a metal Euphorbia to sway under the thunderstorm. It might be funny to hit a thunder.

During the thunderstorm, Qin Tiange ran all the way, despite being wet by the rain, and ran for two full feet. The heavy rain also fell throughout the morning, and gradually stopped at 3:10 in the afternoon.

The rain stopped, and zombies began to appear. Mutant creatures were dispatched for a day of hunting and eating.

Fortunately, Qin Tiange has now arrived near the Changsheng Pharmaceutical Group at a distance of less than a kilometer, and will soon arrive.

He stopped, however, because he found a survivor in a factory not far away and had to get his attention.

“There are few zombies here, and they seem to have been cleaned up.” Qin Tiange soon discovered that in this high-end industrial park, the zombies were almost invisible and there were signs of being cleaned up.

Needless to say, it must have been cleared up by the survivors of this industrial area, maybe there are a lot of them.

“who?”

In front of a huge fence in front, Qin Tiange came here, suddenly heard a loud drink, looked up and it turned out that someone on the fence was guarding the whistle.

That was a young man, wearing a steel helmet, looked at Qin Tiange heartily, and was relieved when he discovered that it was human.

“I’m a survivor passing by. I’m here to escape. I hope I can go in and rest.” Qin Tiange calmly made up an excuse.

The young man looked up and down and saw Qin Tiange wearing a steel armor without doubt, because survivors often came to ask for help, hoping to get in.

“You wait, I’ll open the door.” The young Mali turned over and opened the door.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange shook his head secretly and had to, now that the end of the day has just begun, it is not long before the human mind is a little less alert and alert.

If it is five years after the last day, there will be almost no such absolute trust between people, it is all you to guard me, I am alert to you.

Entering this industrial park, Qin Tiange was surprised to find that this industrial park was composed of hundreds of companies, forming a large-scale industrial park.

No wonder there are walls. In the industrial park, not only one factory, but hundreds and thousands of factories are gathered in this area.

“Brother, have you just arrived?” The young man who opened the door looked at Qin Tiange and asked with a smile.

This young man has a good impression. At least Qin Tiange thinks that the other party is a good guy and has a good impression.

“I just fled from the security area, and I’m not familiar with it.” Qin Tiange made up another reason, and the young man really believed he said with a clear understanding: “Well, this world is really not It’s alive. “

“Yo, here comes a big money ...”

At this moment, a middle-aged man walked not far away, smiling and looking very kind, but if you look carefully at those eyes, you can certainly see the slightest hidden.

“Brother, do you want the goods? Make sure they are all fine, absolutely original, and the price is fair.”

As soon as the middle-aged man came up, he directly spoke to Qin Tiange and made people confused.

“Goods?” Qin Tiange obviously lengthened his voice, his eyes narrowed, looking at the middle-aged man in front of him.

The words of the other party are difficult for most people to understand, but Qin Tiange has heard such words before and even met such people.

At this moment, I couldn’t help but let go of the killing in my heart, but he was immediately depressed by him, and there was no change on the surface.

When Qin Tiange heard what the other party was selling, he immediately understood that the middle-aged man was a trafficker.

Chapter 154 - Trafficker, kill!

The middle-aged person in front of me is a personal dealer!

What he was selling just now is selling human trafficking. He is an outrageous trafficker. [No Popup Novel Network]

“Oh? What are you selling?” Qin Tiange pretended not to know.

When the young man on the side saw the middle-aged person, he showed a disgusted expression, and saw Qin Tiange seemed interested, and immediately reminded him.

“Brother, this person is not a good thing. You better not touch this kind of person.” The young man whispered a reminder.

Qin Tiange gave him an unexpected glance, at least the young man’s heart had not been completely devoured by the cruelty of the last days, and he could still maintain the purity of his heart.

He didn’t care to wave his hand to signal that he had his own measure, but instead looked straight at the middle-aged man in front of him, waiting for his answer.

When the other party heard that he was interested, he immediately laughed and said, “Brother, rest assured that you will be satisfied. The goods in my hand are definitely good value for money. All the fine products are original goods.”

“You see, these are all beautiful items in my hand. You can pick whatever you like, the price is reasonable, and I won’t ask you more.” The middle-aged man enthusiastically took out a stack of photos and handed them over.

Qin Tiange casually took the folded photos and found that there were as many as eighteen, all of them were little girls, some were eleven or twelve years old, and they seemed to be just in junior high school.

Others are even younger. They are all five to nine years old. They are all a group of little girls, all of whom are still underage. They have been sold as living creatures?

How long has it been since the last days have passed, such people have blatantly betrayed their human beings, and have been selling them everywhere. It is incredible.

“Human hearts, all were eaten by dogs.” Qin Tiange looked expressionless, silently looking at the stack of photos, looking at the immature faces in the photos, looking particularly helpless and desperate.

The doomsday did not take their lives, but planted in their own hands, was arrested and held in prison, and sold as living creatures. This is the doomsday.

“What are you going to change?” Qin Tiange put the photos in his hands and looked at them one by one, looking very interested.

The middle-aged man kept smiling, and secretly met a guy who was dressed up and dressed, and at a glance he could see that the other party was definitely an evolutionary.

“I want food, one for a hundred pounds of grain, and five for an evolution fluid. What do you think?” The middle-aged man thought about it slowly before asking the price.

As soon as he opened his mouth, he changed one hundred pounds of grain for a little girl, and five for an evolution fluid, which made Qin Tiange’s inner suppression of killing almost unbearable.

Traffickers, the former enemies are the public enemies of human society. After the last days, this group of people became even more intensified, even openly doing things against humanity.

In previous lives, Qin Tiange once joined a battle against anti-human forces, and that battle allowed him to truly see the hatred of these anti-human forces.

At that time, their coalition forces broke into an anti-human army headquarters and saw hundreds of thousands of people imprisoned there.

Yes, hundreds of thousands of people in captivity are raised as breeding pigs, and women are treated as sows to produce children.

As for men, as long as the old ones are killed, they are sold into dried meat and sold to the hands of the major forces as food.

The most valuable are the girls, as young as five years old and twenty years old, all sold as goods for pleasure.

Think about it. Hundreds of thousands of people are kept in captivity, men are responsible for breeding, women are responsible for childbirth, and the children born are dead and sold into jerky.

After surviving a little bit, they were bought by some people around five or six years old to have fun, and some deformed children, even baby boys, were marinated alive and used as a food source for some people.

This is the most famous human civil war in the previous life. The Huaxia humans attacked anti-human forces. That war killed blood and turned into a river. I don't know how many human demons were killed.

In short, why did Qin Tiange hate such people because he was influenced by previous lives, and he really didn't want to see the scene again.

Now, seeing the trafficker again, he ran to him to sell the goods and looked at the helpless faces, reminding him of the war in his previous life.

“Okay, you take me to see, I want to see the real, the photos will be deceiving.”

Qin Tiange remained silent for a long time and nodded his head directly to agree to the transaction, making the young people on the side unable to bear a distaste for him.

“It's a bunch of inhuman bastards, scum!” The young man glared away and couldn't help screaming in a low voice.

He was angry but couldn't do anything because he didn't have the ability. Not to mention Qin Tiange, it is the middle-aged who cannot shake him.

Anyone with a discerning eye can see that the middle-aged person must not be alone, but a large group with premeditated groups. Otherwise, how could he dare to be so brazen?

“Little brother is so refreshing, you can rest assured that the living thing in my hand will definitely satisfy you.” The middle-aged man continued to smile and opened his heart.

This sale is about to be completed, and my heart is naturally beautiful. A little girl changes one hundred pounds of grain, and five changes one evolution fluid.

As for why Qin Tiange appeared and came to sell it, it was because middle-aged people saw Qin Tiange's wristband.

He has seen this thing before. It is a kind of storage treasure. People who have such a treasure must have a lot of food and evolution fluids on them.

Although the undeveloped fluid is the one-star quenching agent, Qin Tiange is an understanding person, knowing that the other person can see that he has a storage bracelet on his body.

“Brother, it's here!”

Soon, the two came to a factory living area, and the middle-aged man took Qin Tiange to the eighth floor of one of the residential buildings.

I saw that the middle-aged man opened a door in the front and took Qin Tiange in.

Just stepping into it, Qin Tiange locked another room, where there were a group of little girls, looking pale, and looking at the two people who came in in horror, crunching together.

“Look, they are all beautiful goods. The oldest is only twelve years old and the youngest five years old are all genuine originals. No one has touched them.” The middle-aged man licked his lips and introduced the eighteen being controlled. Little girl.

Qin Tiange looked calm and looked at the little girls shrunk in the house one by one. There were eighteen people in total. Each one looked pale. His eyes were completely free from the past’s purity and immaculateness, but only the endless fear and despair of the future. .

The world has changed, and the human heart has changed. Sometimes, the human heart is more terrible than any variant, and more terrifying than ghosts and gods.

“I want it all!”

After looking at it, Qin Tiange suddenly said something to make the middle-aged man stupefy, then came to his senses and looked ecstatic.

“Really?” The middle-aged man stared at him ecstatically, expecting what he said was true.

Qin Tiange nodded, suddenly cracking his mouth, exposing a mouthful of white teeth. He laughed: “The nature of what I said is true, I have all of this Okay, refreshing, brother I really did not read the wrong person.” Middle-aged people are excited, their bodies are trembling obviously stand up.

His flushed face was full of excitement, and he didn’t notice the horrific murderous flashes in Qin Tiange’s eyes, and the corner of his mouth was slightly icy.

“Now you can die!”

Suddenly, a large spear appeared in Qin Tiange’s hand and struck the middle-aged person’s neck at lightning speed.

At the critical moment, the middle-aged man felt the danger of death and instinctively made dodging, but unfortunately he couldn’t get faster than Qin Tiange, and eventually couldn’t avoid it. His neck was cut open by more than half, and blood was flowing like a spring.

“You ... you ... why ... why are you killing me?” The middle-aged man lay on the ground, covering his cut neck with his hands, and asked with fear and disbelief.

Qin Tiange shook his head slightly and murmured, “Human traffickers, anti-humans, be killed!”

After finishing speaking, a halberd pierced the middle-aged man’s atrium, picked him up, and threw it directly from the window balcony.

Chapter 155 - Cannibalism

Qin Tiange killed the trafficker like killing a chicken, with no expression at all, as if it wasn’t a person, but a beast. [Full text reading]

When he saw the killing on the spot, the eighteen underage girls in the room were terrified, covering their mouths, not letting themselves out, curled up in a ball, and shivered.

They suffered such a disaster at their age, first the end came, then they were taken away and imprisoned by traffickers, waiting for others to buy them.

Many people were originally detained with them, but some of them were bought one after another, leaving them with them. These were the more watery batches left by the trafficker.

“Come out, don’t hide.”

At this point, Qin Tiange came to the door of a room and said a light tone. The room was quiet and there was no movement in the closed door, but he felt a few breaths inside.

Seeing no movement, Qin Tiange looked slightly cold and hummed, “Don’t you come out, then I will throw a grenade in and let you taste it.”

“Don’t don’t do it, let’s get out.”

As he took out the grenade, a panic sound came from the silent room, and the door opened with a click.

If anyone did come out of the room, there were three people, two young people, and a middle-aged man, all of them panicked, and looked at Qin Tiange in fear.

This is the accomplice of the person just now. Originally, they were planning to go out and sell these imprisoned girls by themselves. Three people were here to take care of them.

If the person who comes is weak and bully, then come to kill more people, if it comes to a stubble, then do the business honestly.

They killed a lot of people like this, they saw a lot of evil thoughts after seeing the photos of the girls, thinking about buying one to go back to play, but after they came, they were killed by the group.

“You should be just a group of puppies. I can spare you the lives of the people behind me.” Qin Tiange said calmly, holding a halberd in his hand.

In front of them, the three were extremely nervous. The middle-aged man quietly held a dagger in his hand and hid it in his sleeve. His eyes seemed scared, but there was a hint of * murderous power.

He killed many people. This was Qin Tiange’s first look at the other person’s camouflage. He was not afraid, but an outrageous trafficker.

“We have no behind-the-scenes ambassador, you killed our head just now,” the middle-aged man trembled and explained.

The two youths behind him nodded equally severely, indicating that they had no one behind the scenes, and their heads had just died.

This is called death without proof, death does not admit it, and most people can’t help it. Even if they know that there is a master behind the scenes, they can’t find it out.

Unfortunately, what they met was Qin Tiange, who did not play cards according to common sense at all. The moment he heard the words of middle-aged people, he sneered at the corner of his mouth.

Humph!

With a slight hum, Qin Tiange raised his hand, and Euphorbia stabbed quickly, snapping off the middle-aged's right hand and dropping it on the ground.

"Ah" was suddenly cut off with a right hand, and the middle-aged man realized that he met a ruthless master.

The severe pain made him scream, and the broken right hand was still holding a dagger.

"I don't know if I live or die!" Qin Tiange sneered, raised his foot and stepped on the side face of the middle-aged man, looking down at the other person's eyes.

"Who is behind you, otherwise, you don't want to see it in the end." Qin Tiange questioned word by word.

Until then, the middle-aged and the two young traffickers finally couldn't help the fear, especially the two young people were the most afraid, and the dagger hidden in their hands fell into the ground.

One even slumped to the ground, terribly scared. Qin Tiange didn't even think of it, and he broke off the middle arm of the middle-aged person.

His means were so fierce that even middle-aged people who thought they were so embarrassed were afraid.

"I, I, don't kill me."

Under the threat of strong force and death, a weak young man could not help but took the lead to acknowledge it.

The middle-aged man suddenly turned wild when he heard it, and shouted, "Don't you dare to say a word, the people above will not let you go."

"I don't care, I will die now, and I've had enough of this torment, and I don't want to do these broken offspring anymore."

The young man was still very scared at first, but the next moment he became a person, as if he was out of the way, and snarled up.

He went directly to Qin Tiange: "Boss, I'll tell you everything, just ask me to let me go alive and give me a chance to reform."

"Yes, the prodigal can be forgiven for turning back, but you have to do it." Qin Tiange nodded faintly, not caring about this person's life or death.

Then the young man looked at the middle-aged man with anger and began to slowly talk about a huge group behind them.

“Who is the person behind us? In fact, I don’t know. He only knows that he is a very background person. We all call him President Wang.”

The youth started, detailing many things he knew, directly shaking out a huge group behind them, and involving a huge black industry chain.

“General Manager Wang is apparently engaged in the business of medicinal materials. In fact, he is secretly engaged in the trading of human organs. He does not know how many children have been trafficked, and even stolen many organs for sale.”

Listening to this young man’s complaint, Qin Tiange’s face grew colder and colder, and his heart was almost unbearable.

It’s not that he is overflowing with good intentions, but that anyone who hears these things will have an expression, that is shock, thriller, and shocking.

The middle-aged man was trafficked, kidnapped and killed, organ stolen and trafficked, and many black things were shaken out. The middle-aged man was saved from death.

“Furthermore, I recently heard what kind of elixir Wang is going to develop, digging out many people’s hearts for research, and even grabbed a few zombies for research.”

The words of the youth were extremely shocking. The so-called behind-man Wang, who did such a horrible thing, was simply outrageous.

Using human organs for research and human heart for research is to develop the so-called longevity drug, which is really an outrageous madman and demon.

“Brother, me, I also know the news. President Wang recently took someone out and heard something to find, but he came back alone by himself not long ago.”

As soon as this remark came out, Qin Tiange’s face moved, and a man secretly thought of him.

“Mr. Wang, isn’t that the inch man?” Thinking, Qin Tiange asked what the so-called Mr. Wang was in the mouth of this young man.

“Brother, look, this is how President Wang looks like. It is the only photo I took.” The young man took out a cell phone and opened a photo directly. The person above was exactly Qin Tiange in the land of heaven. See the inch man.

“It really is him!” Seeing this, Qin Tiange faintly understood.

“Kill them and you can live.”

Suddenly Qin Tiange’s faint tone came, saying something that made middle-aged people and another young man tremble with fear.

He called this young man and killed his two companions before he could survive.

After hearing that, the young man froze quickly, then quickly grabbed the dagger, and pierced the middle-aged man's neck severely on the ground, doing nothing wrong.

Flutter!

"You must not be betrayed by betraying the king" The middle-aged man uttered this sentence with his last strength, full of cursing.

It was at this time that another young man was almost at the same time, pulled out a pistol behind him and pointed at Qin Tiange, and pulled the trigger.

boom!

The gun went off, but it wasn't Qin Tiange who died, but the young trafficker who pointed his gun at him. The body slowly fell down, and there was still an unbelief on his face.

It was his original companion who killed him. The young man shaking out everything and secrets, he pulled out a pistol around the middle-aged man and killed the original companion.

Chapter 156 - Mysterious stone

Damn!

Throwing a gun to the ground, the young man killed his companion and threw the gun, raised his hands, looked at Qin Tiange and said he was harmless. [Read the latest chapter]

"Brother, can I go now?" The young man asked a little uneasily.

He was really afraid that Qin Tiange wouldn't count, and there is a saying that is to cut the grass and root it out. In fact, he was worried that it was superfluous. Although a little man, although his heart was a bit decisive, Qin Tiange really didn't take it seriously.

Even if he was given a gun, he could not kill Qin Tiange face to face. With his strength level of a hundred people at the moment, plus the inexplicable eyeball ability of his left eye, he could clearly see the traces of the bullets, and even avoid them.

"While I haven't changed my mind, hurry up." Qin Tiange waved his hand and ignored the young man, but came to the room where the girls were imprisoned.

Seeing him coming, the group of teenage girls panicked. In their hearts, this Shushu is a murderous mad, bad person, it is terrible.

"Don't be afraid, Shu Xi is not a bad person, bad people have already been killed by Shu Xi."

Qin Tiange showed a smile that he thought was very kind, but in the end he scared the little girls to tremble, and his eyes narrowed in the corner.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange twitched his mouth and secretly said, "Am I just like a bad guy?"

But he didn't care, but walked down in front of a little girl about six years old, and he said, "Little girl, what's your name, tell Shu Xi to give you an egg to eat."

As a result, he turned out a fist-sized egg, exuding a fragrant aroma, which was exactly eighteen eggs that he had already cooked and stored.

The little girl was scared at first, but she couldn't help groaning a few times before finally speaking.

"Shu Xi, my name is Tian Tian." The little girl answered brittlely.

Her name was Tian Tian, with big eyes, long eyelashes, and a small round face with a craving for her eyes, staring closely at the egg on Qin Tiange's hand, she wanted to eat it.

"Tian Tian, good name. Here, Shu Xi gives you eggs to eat." Qin Tiange laughed, as long as he was willing to speak.

"Thank Shushu ..." Tian Tian said thank you first, then put out his fat little hand, holding a fist-sized egg, she knocked on the ground, peeled the egg shell, thought she would eat it by herself, I never thought she gave it all to a smaller girl aside.

"Sister, you eat." Tian Tian gave the egg to a little girl about four years old next to her, which surprised Qin Tiange.

In today's society, how many people know how to share, and how many people are willing to share their food with others?

Moreover, at the end of this person's cannibalism, children always have the innocence and kindness that adults do not have.

"Don't worry, there is still Shu Shu here, come and come, everyone one by one."

Qin Tiange struck out another seventeen eggs and distributed them to the little girls. Finally, they no longer feared the strange Shushu.

"Thank you Uncle!"

"Thank you Shushu!"

A clear and thankful voice meant that the little girls started to accept Qin Tiange's strange Shushu, and thought that he was not a bad person.

It's good to have something to eat. It's easy to buy children. No wonder children are generally easily abducted. I have to sigh, as parents, we must educate our children.

This society is too complicated, and people are too simple to be harmed. Therefore, if you want to survive in this society, you must complicate yourself.

Looking at the little girls eating rightly, Qin Tiange couldn't help sighing. It was okay for such a small child to die at first, but to survive in the last days, that was a kind of sin.

It's okay to meet people with good intentions. If you encounter the traffickers or bad-hearted people just now, these little guys must be miserable.

"Why didn't you go?"

Qin Tiange frowned suddenly, then turned around and found that the young man had not left yet, even standing at the door and not leaving, did he think he really dare not kill him?

The young man seemed to feel the killing intention in Qin Tiange and immediately explained: “Brother, can I and I mingle with you?”

As soon as this word came out, Qin Tiange stopped talking, staring quietly at his eyes, and soon realized that he was telling the truth.

He didn’t rush to answer, but thought quietly for a while, and finally nodded and said, “It’s okay to follow me, but leave if you want to mix, it’s dangerous to follow me. If you want to mix, it’s a mistake to pay attention. . “

“No, no, brother, you have misunderstood. I really want to worship you as the boss. Please ask the boss to accept the younger brother. Li Xiaodao is willing to go to the soup to make trouble.”

The young man was called Li Xiaodao, and he was still studying on TV. He even knelt down on one knee to worship the boss directly.

Qin Tiange rolled his eyes and scolded: “Your boy watched too much on TV, worship the boss, and watched the confuse more, right?”

“Get up, don’t you help them pour water?” Qin Tiange looked as if you were not funny.

Li Xiaodao was ecstatic when he heard this. He immediately stood up and began to pour water for the little girls. The look was so awkward and scared the little girls.

But now Qin Tiange is thinking about a question, how to place these little guys, this is a very serious question.

Since killing the two traffickers, it is tantamount to saving the poor little fellows. If it is allowed, will it be equivalent to killing them?

“It seems that I must contact the research team that Zhuo Tianfan said as soon as possible.” Thinking, he recruited Li Xiaodao who was pouring water to the little girls.

“Sword, do you know Changsheng Group?”

Hearing this sentence, Li Xiaodao was shocked and said directly: “Brother, I’m sure you know the Changsheng Group. It’s a big group and it’s a competitor with President Wang’s company.”

“I heard that recently Wang always wanted to take action with the Changsheng Group and wanted to control the secret research team to help him.” Li Xiaodao said so.

Then he looked anxious and proposed: “Brother, let’s move quickly. After all, this is a point of general merchandise for President Wang. Once he finds it, it will not be easy.”

Qin Tiange thought for a while, and finally nodded in agreement with his proposal and transferred directly. He had to take the girls to change places to be safe.

When Qin Tiange left with a group of young girls and moved to a safe place, in the middle of the industrial park, a tall office building, the inch-headed man received the news.

“Mr. Wang, it’s not good. One of our sales points was taken care of A man rushed to report the news in front of the inch man.

He is President Wang, the helm behind a pharmaceutical group, with a vicious expression, without saying anything, without asking, and waving his hands to let his men go out.

There was only him in the room, so he slammed the table and hummed, “It’s really death, dare not go with my Wang Dong.”

“But I have this baby now, see who is my opponent?”

Wang Dong said, took out a peculiar stone from the storage ring, and then a magical scene happened.

With Wang Dong holding the stone, he flew up inexplicably, slowly vacated, and floated in the three-meter-high air, which was very amazing.

“The era that belongs to my Wang Dong is coming, Du Jing, you will be my person sooner or later.”

“Hahahahaha ...”

In the room, Wang Dong’s crazy laughter kept coming out, making people feel irritated.

Chapter 157 - First contact

At the headquarters of the Changsheng Group, four security guards guard the gate. Everyone has a gun, stands upright, has a firm face, and is a retired soldier at a glance. [No Popup Novel Network]

“Stop, please come back from outside!”

Suddenly, two security guards stood up and stopped a young man who was coming over. It was Qin Tiange.

He looked at the four security guards, with a look of vigilance, and had to admire him. It was indeed a soldier. Even if he retired, it was not comparable to ordinary people.

Qin Tiange thought for a while and then said, “I’m coming to Du Jing. Your CEO Zhuo asked me to bring her a letter.”

“President?” The four security guards were horrified and looked at Qin Tiange in front of them for a while, uncertain.

They did n’t know the truth of the person in front of them, but one person still responded. He said, “Sorry, routine business, we ca n’t let you in, but I can go and tell President Du as long as we ca n’t see you. There is nothing to do. “

“It doesn’t matter, just give this letter to her, she will understand after reading the letter.” Qin Tiange smiled, took out a letter and gave it to a security guard.

The latter took it, checked the appearance of the letter, confirmed that there were no problems, then turned around and walked into the office building, leaving three security guards watching Qin Tiange vigilantly.

These four are security personnel of Changsheng Pharmaceutical, all retired soldiers. As for the guns on them, they were only obtained from some policemen who became zombies.

In the building, the security guard hurried to an office on the top floor and knocked on the door.

“Come in!”

In the room, a tall woman in business attire said softly. She is Du Jing, the daughter of Zhuo Tianfan, with a pair of eyes and a professional outfit to set off her proud figure. The two peaks on her chest almost broke through her coat.

The security guard opened the door and came in. He handed the letter directly and said, “President Du, someone came from the door, claiming that the president asked him to come to you, and brought the letter.”

“Huh?” Du Jing calmed her expression, quickly took the letter, opened the envelope and looked up.

There were only a few words on the stationery, and soon she finished reading, but she sat there and said nothing.

After a long time, Du Jing raised his head, raised his glasses and asked, “What about that person? Bring him to see me. I have something to ask him.”

The security guard went out directly after hearing it, and soon came downstairs to the door, seeing Qin Tiange who was still waiting here.

“We Du always invite you in, please!” The security guard said in a much lighter tone, at least not as guarded as before.

He took Qin Tiange into the building and took the elevator to the top office. This building has its own backup generator, and naturally also has electricity supply.

“Mr. Du is inside, you can go in!”

The security guard stopped at the door of the office. He didn’t go in, and he didn’t leave, but stayed at the door of the office.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange knew without thinking that this was because he was afraid that he would do harm to Du Jing and stood in front of the door to be able to rescue in time.

Praising in secret, Qin Tiange stepped into the office without thinking, and met the very famous pharmacist of the previous life.

Du Jing, a ten-star pharmacist of the past life, and one of the ten-star pharmacists most promising to be promoted to the rank of king-level pharmacist, finally saw a real person.

“You are the one sent by the president?” Du Jing kept looking at the people who came in.

The two looked at each other, Qin Tiange nodded with a smile, didn't speak, but the rumored pharmacist in front of the observer.

You know, he has acquired the inheritance knowledge of the ten-star pharmacist. It can be said that he is a quasi-ten-star pharmacist.

“Sit!” For a long time, Du Jing spoke again and asked Qin Tiange to sit down.

She looked at the person in front of her, and she couldn't help but be surprised, she couldn't see anything, as if she couldn't see the person in front of her.

This made her really value the person in front of her, not as simple as her old man's letter said, and there must be hidden feelings.

Zhuo Tianfan did not say in the letter that he had become Qin Tiange, nor did he mention the origin and identity of Qin Tiange, but simply said that he sent someone to pick her up.

“Say, what does the president ask you to do?” Du Jing's tone was very blunt. It seemed that he really had a bad relationship with Zhuo Tianfan.

Qin Tiange was very straightforward, saying directly: “I'm here to take you and the entire research team away.”

“It seems that your mind is not pure. Is my old man controlled by you?” Du Jing looked calm, touched his glasses, and said something lightly.

She didn't panic at all, as if she didn't worry about whether Qin Tiange was a danger to her, and she was in the mood to drink tea.

Qin Tiange can't help but admire that this woman really has a mentality, is calm, and is indeed a generation of celebrities who can grow up.

“Did Brother Zhuo talk to you?” Qin Tiange suddenly smiled.

This smile was treacherous, which made Du Jing extremely uncomfortable, especially that the old brother called her father, didn't this mean that he was just a short generation?

“If you want to take this team, unless the president comes in person, you still dispel this idea. With a letter, it is like taking away the entire research team. Are you really stupid or fake stupid?” Du Jing said politely. .

She couldn't surrender the research team. With a letter from unknown sources, she wanted to convince her that it was really difficult or even impossible.

Letters can be disguised at any time. Everyone knows this. Qin Tiange naturally knew this, so he didn't expect much, but came up with something else.

“Your father knew you, and said you wouldn't believe a letter, so you gave me this thing before leaving.” Qin Tiange smiled and passed a cell phone.

That was Zhuo Tianfan's cell phone. Du Jing could see it at a glance. His heart was tight. He took the cell phone and opened it. A video was recorded on it.

“Daughter, sorry, I can only talk to you in this way. Your father is afraid of death and dare not come to you, hoping you can forgive me.”

In the first sentence at the beginning, Zhuo Tianfan just apologized to his daughter. Then, he began to talk about some origins of Qin Tiange. For example, he acknowledged the fact that he has become the counterpart of the other party. Video release It was over, but Du Jing was expressionless and lacking in emotion, as if she couldn't shake her heart at this moment, making Qin Tiange helpless.

“As expected, this woman will not easily believe me, let alone give me the entire team to lead.” Qin Tiange thought this thought secretly, something was a little troublesome.

“You go!”

After being silent for a long time, Du Jing said a word and sent him off directly.

Qin Tiange smiled and didn't say much, stood up neatly, turned around and left, without any clutter, and didn't care about the other party's rude hospitality.

On the contrary, Du Jing was stunned. She thought Qin Tiange must have tried hard based on reason, but she had missed her expectations. The other party walked neatly without saying a word or even asking her why.

“An interesting person, just don't know if the old man is true or false?”

Du Jing was standing in front of the window, looking at the back view leaving downstairs, and couldn't help whispering to himself, her eyebrows frowned deeply.

Chapter 158 - Handsome guy, do you have an appointment?

In the industrial park, Qin Tiange came out of the Changsheng Group and strolled here alone to observe the situation of the entire industrial park. [No Popup Novel Network]

He found that many high-tech companies are gathered here, pharmaceuticals are only part of it, and others are electronics and machinery companies.

However, most of them are pharmaceutical companies, which makes him have to guess whether the pharmaceutical companies in this industrial park have been contracted by those two big groups?

“Handsome guy, is it an appointment?”

Walking and walking, suddenly a figure ran out of the residential building on the side, dressed up splendidly, and thought seriously that it was a woman.

But when Qin Tiange saw it, it was so dangerous that no blood spewed out, because the man who ran over was actually a man?

“I'm going, shemale?” Qin Tiange was startled and jumped back instinctively, avoiding the man's hand.

This is a man, washing white tender meat, wearing lipstick, wearing a jumper dress, stepping on hate sky high, walking twisting makes people vomit blood.

A man, even dressed up in a showy fashion, isn't it a shemale?

“Handsome guy, you are so cool. My name is An An. If you are free tonight, would you like to meet with someone ...” Then, this person is still shy, full of sissy.

Qin Tiange’s body was chilling, his back was overflowing with a cold sweat, his forehead was twitching, and he was sickened by this man.

“I’m going, you dead lady, running around you want to scare the dead?” Qin Tiange took another step back and said with a cold face.

The glamorous man who claimed to be An An didn’t care, waved his hands and smiled, “Oh, handsome, don’t talk about people like that.”

“They just like men, not shemales.” An An rolled her eyes charmingly, daring to admit that she liked men and was gay.

Well, Qin Tiange was thundered. I didn’t expect to encounter such a homosexual here, and the woman was just a man, but he was still carrying him.

“Stop, you stay away from me, I have three views, and my preferences are normal. You still don’t approach me. I’m allergic to flour and allergic to perfume.” Qin Tiange held his nose back a few steps, indicating that he was allergic to cosmetics.

Look, this young man who claims to be An An is actually wearing a thick foundation, rubbing fragrant lipstick, stepping on hate sky high, how awkward to look at.

“Unlucky, met such a guy.” Qin Tiange cursed secretly.

Seeing that this charming guy was going to slap up again, Qin Tiange was chilling, terrified: “Sorry, I have to take a step in advance. Go and find someone else. I only like women, especially those with big breasts. “

As he turned around and ran away, as if there was a flood beast behind him, the speed was called fast, and he disappeared without a trace in a blink of an eye, leaving the self-proclaimed An’an stunned for a long time.

“Hate, even discrimination against homosexuality. I’m going to make a small report with Sister Jing Jing, and I also like a woman with a big breast. Isn’t this alluding to his preference for Sister Jing Jing?” Xiaoman waist, walked on hate sky high.

In the far corner, Qin Tiange patted his chest and cursed, “Unfortunately, even when I encountered a dead shemale, he was still homosexual and scared the baby.”

After looking at the guy not catching up, Qin Tiange was relieved and relieved. It’s really that devil. He’s a demon who doesn’t even want a woman. He is a demon who likes men.

When he saw that guy’s daddy look, Qin Tiange was full of nausea, not to mention contact with this kind of person, it was better to avoid it.

And he did not know at all, An An stepped on hate sky high all the way, entered the top of the headquarters of Changsheng Group, and came to Du Jing's office.

"Sister Jingjing, you can decide for me. That guy is really not a thing. He even discriminates against others, and he still loves him at first sight."

As soon as An An came in, she cried directly about her encounter, and she would meet with Qin Tiange. The conversation between the two was fifteen and ten, and she said something with jealousy.

Du Jing touched his glasses, expressionless, and kept listening to An An talking, waiting for him to finish speaking, tired, and then asked gently.

"I want you to check his details, did not tell you to like him, or even want to date him, do you not want to stay any longer?" Du Jing, like a thunder, was drinking tea in front of him An An.

puff!

An An was frightened by a spit of tea, and Hua Rong said, "Sister Jing Jing, do n't drive away, I am homeless, and there are such terrible and disgusting monsters outside. Where can you tell a weak woman to go Yeah? "

"No more nonsense, I fire you!" Du Jing's eyes jumped abruptly, and the blue tendons rose up, apparently angry.

This time, An An was honest, lowering his head and not talking, and his eyes were on Du Jing with frost on his face from time to time.

"Sister Jingjing, I heard a message about you from that guy's mouth." Suddenly, An An said carefully.

Du Jing looked motionless, did not speak, and looked at An An quietly, this dead shemale.

An An shrank her head and said carefully, "I heard that guy said that he didn't like men, and only liked women with * like Sister Jingjing."

boom!

As soon as the words fell, An An's face was immediately hit, and a book was slapped on his face, beating him with a slap and almost falling to the ground.

Du Jing said with a cold face, "Don't you dare to talk nonsense, I promise to sew your mouth up and let you go naked outside for a day."

"Don't wow ... Jing Jing, I know I'm wrong."

There was a sudden sorrow and sorrow in the office, so that the entire Changsheng Group couldn't help looking at it, and many people who knew it secretly shook their heads.

"It's that perverted demon again. It seems that he did something wrong and was trained by President Du."

Outside the office, several employees shook their heads secretly, all knowing that the owner of this voice is the only  in the company, who specializes in teasing promising young people in the company, especially those young meats that he likes most.

“Deserve it, tell him to harass us all day, really, I have been in contact with this pervert for a long time, and I have started to doubt my sexual orientation.”

A young man with a beautiful face was indignant, and his expression was sad, and he murmured, “I used to see Du always had a  impulse, but now I see Du always no longer feel the passion and excitement of the past, but see that The dead  feels particularly pleasing to the eye, am I really bent by that dead shemale? “

“Wow!”

When several colleagues around me heard it, they suddenly dispersed, and looked at the young colleague in horror. They were horrified and were afraid to approach him.

“He’s miserable Isn’t he really being cramped, do you like men?”

A few colleagues were afraid, and immediately turned around to spread out, afraid to stay with this colleague, or even to stay away, really afraid that they would be miserable when the guy climbed into bed one night.

“Hey, don’t go, wait for me ...”

A young man didn’t understand that his colleagues looked at him as he changed his eyes, and he kept pursuing it. The result is self-evident. Changsheng Group has since added another man who was crooked and sad.

Just when Du Jing was reprimanding the  An’an, a security guard hurriedly walked outside the gate.

“Mr. Du, the kid who came before is here again, but ...” The security guard looked hesitant and tangled, not knowing how to say it.

Du Jing was stunned, An An was also stunned, and did not expect to hear the news of Qin Tiange’s return.

“But what?” Du Jing caught the secret.

The security guard hesitated, and then slowly said the reason, let Du Jing and An An face each other, and for a while was silent.

Chapter 159 - Kill 0 Knife Man

At the door of the company, a group of underage girls stood here cleverly, making three retired soldiers dumbfounded. You look at me, I look at you. [Full text reading]

This group of girls was brought by Qin Tiange, and after the introduction, they immediately left, leaving the group of girls here.

The three security guards didn’t know what to do. They wanted to accept this poor group of children, but they were just a security guard.

“Boys, are you hungry?”

At this time, an older security guard revealed a kind smile, and found out a packet of chocolate from his body, and distributed it directly to the little ones.

“Let’s eat it, your uncle gave it to you.” The middle-aged man said, tears lingered and stayed, could not stop.

Because he had a daughter, it was a pity that he would be eaten by the zombies after the end.

At this moment, when I saw the helplessness of these little girls, I was deeply touched in my heart, thinking of my daughter and the education that I had received in the army.

Soldiers, defend the country, protect the weak!

“There is still, everyone can eat with ease, enough!”

The other two security guards immediately stepped forward, took out the only food left on them, and distributed it to the girls.

“Thank you Uncle Dajun.”

“Thank you Uncle PLA!”

A group of little girls were happy, with smiles on their faces, innocent and heartbreaking.

They felt the goodwill brought by the three security guards, and their defenses were loosened, thinking that the three uncles in military uniforms were good people.

Sure enough, soldiers are more worthy of respect and trust, because they have the responsibility, responsibility, their own honor and mission, and do not forget their original intentions.

“General Manager Du ...”

“General Manager Du!”

At this moment, three figures came out of the gate, and it was Du Jing, the beauty chief, who was taken aback by a group of little girls in front of him.

She had no idea that Qin Tiange would bring a group of little girls over to throw it to her, and left without saying a word, just like losing a bag.

“Sister Jingjing, what does that guy want to do?” An An was dumbfounded, staring at a group of innocent little girls for a while, at a loss, wondering what to do.

Du Jing glanced at him fiercely before sighing helplessly, cursing: “The bastard, the man who killed the thousand swords, unexpectedly ...”

She was so speechless that when she looked at the little girls, she didn’t know what to do, because their food was already in short supply and it was not enough for the internal staff to eat for two days.

Grain, it’s gone.

But what about the eighteen underage girls? What do the shelters give them to eat, and what do these people eat?

This was the reason for her resentment. Qin Tiange, the bastard, had lost a bunch of children to her and was not worried about her rejection.

“The one who kills thousands of swords, don’t show me any more of you, man, every good thing.” Du Jingqi’s * were violently undulating.

But at this time, the oldest girl came out of the group of children and looked at Du Jing, the beauty chief, timidly.

“Hello aunt, the uncle who saved us said, you are a good person, did your uncle say you would help us?” She was twelve years old, the oldest, and stood up to speak on behalf of the other little girls.

When Du Jing heard it, she hated Qin Tiange * even more. Wasn’t this posing as a direct promise to these little girls?

“Yes, aunt has food here, you can rest assured that you will not make you hungry.” Although she resents Qin Tiange’s approach in her heart, she still smiles, and pulls the little girl’s cold little hand directly, taking this group Helpless child walked into the company.

She accepted the little guys, and did not reject them, let alone the eviction happened. The four security guards were relieved and recognized the boss more.

“Fortunately, if President Du is driven away, then I have to consider whether I have left.” The middle-aged security man breathed a sigh of relief and murmured to himself.

The other three security guards shared the same feelings and nodded silently. They even believed that following the beauty boss, it was their responsibility to protect her safety.

“Sister Jingjing, we haven’t had enough food for two days. Is this really okay?” An An walked in front and said quietly to Du Jing.

He was actually speechless, even more helpless, because Qin Tiange brought a bunch of young girls and left here, leaving no care whatsoever.

This made An An hate his teeth and murmured, “Well, that handsome guy is so unloving. I thought you were good, but now they don’t like you.”

“Ahhh!”

In the corner not far from the Changsheng Group, Qin Tiange suddenly had a cold war, Shengsheng sneezed, wondering in his heart, couldn’t help whispering who was scolding him?

He looked at the accepted eighteen minor girls, and finally felt relieved that he had a deeper understanding of Du Jing.

In fact, from looking for Du Jing just now, I can see what kind of person she is, so I decided to give her a bunch of girls.

He is a big man, and he always takes a bunch of little girls with him. That's why I came up with a way to take someone directly to the door and throw it at the door. Du Jing just didn't want to take it unless she was a cold-blooded animal.

Looking at it, Qin Tiange smiled inexplicably, then turned around and left here with Li Xiaodao full of doubts.

On the way, Li Xiaodao was very puzzled and asked, "Why Brother Qin, why did you give it to Jing Du? I can hear that there is not much food on their side, and I can't afford the kids."

"Don't worry, she doesn't have food there, but someone has it." Qin Tiange smiled and didn't care about it.

Du Jing is out of food, but there is someone in the industrial park who definitely has food. That is the general manager Wang, an inch-headed man.

"Brother Qin is talking about President Wang?" Li Xiaodao frowned slightly and proposed: "I have to say, Brother Qin, although he has food, there are thousands of people in President Wang's hands. There are even more weapons and equipment, so you must be careful. "

"Okay, I have these in my heart." Qin Tiange waved his hand and stopped him from continuing, has something in his heart.

Thinking of that inch-headed man, Qin Tiange could not help showing a hint of sneer. He was still thinking about how to get back the account that wasted a nuclear bomb. Now he is here.

Moreover, he remembered that the president Wang seemed to have got a treasure, which was what he was most concerned about, so the king always got rid of it anyway.

For nothing else, just for the food and the unknown treasure, Qin Tiange will make up his mind to kill President Wang, who will let him get what he shouldn't get?

The two walked into a residential building and stopped at the door of a room on the fourth floor.

"Brother Qin, here it is. This group of people does not seem to be the same as President Wang's group. They are a group of desperate people." Li Xiaodao pointed at the front of the room and closed the door quietly.

Qin Tiange smiled, hehe laughed: "It doesn't matter, all I want is a group of desperate people, which just meets my requirements."

Uh ...

Speaking, Qin Tiange knocked on the door directly, waiting quietly for the people inside to open the door.

Chapter 160 - Obey, or die!

With a click, the door opened a slit, and a figure was exposed inside, looking out of the slit. [Full text reading]

“Who are you?”

Listening to the sound, Qin Tiange determined that the inside of the door was an extremely burly man, who could be seen through the iron door. The man was naked and densely tattooed looking strange.

“Fei brother, it’s me, knife.”

Li Dao immediately greeted with a smile and explained: “Feige opened the door, and my brother had some trouble with a friend, and he wanted to ask Fei to help.”

“Oh? It’s a knife. If you don’t eat spicy food with your general manager Wang, what do you come here to do?”

The flying brother was surprised, and opened the door aside, his eyes kept staring at Qin Tiange.

At this time Qin Tiange wasn’t wearing steel armor, and he wasn’t carrying any weapons. He was just wearing casual clothes and looked like a harmless young man with a smile.

As soon as he looked like him, Fei Ge unconsciously relaxed his vigilance, opened the door and let the two enter.

Fei Gexin stretched his head and looked around the door. When he found nothing, he closed the door and locked it.

“Oh, why is Dao Zi free to come here to play today?”

Immediately after entering the door, I saw a large group of burly men gathered around, one by one holding a steel knife with a stick, and surrounded them with a smile.

These people are extremely burly, most of them are bare-chested, with colorful tattoos, left Qinglong, right white tiger, and a bull in the middle.

But Qin Tiange smiled inexplicably, and secretly muttered, “This is the desperate one?”

“Brother Dashan laughed. Brother isn’t in trouble now. How about a few brothers to help?” Li Dao smiled a little far-fetched.

“Fuck your shit!”

A loud drink suddenly came, and with a loud noise, a burly man slammed the table and made a loud noise.

His face was fleshy, three scars across his face, and he looked terribly scary. The fierce look was scary, and Li Dao couldn’t help but tremble slightly in his heart, his face paled.

Li Dao opened his mouth and wanted to explain, but Qin Tiange stretched out his hand to hold it. From the beginning, he had a calm face, and didn’t care about the dozens of people around him.

These people, despite holding sticks, knives and guns, were even playing with a firearm in their hands, but they did not scare him.

“You, who is the head here?” Qin Tiange said the first sentence.

As soon as his words fell, the room was quiet immediately, and the guys looked at him in unison, staring at him as if watching a monster.

“Your son, very face-to-face, I have never seen you, in your way?” At this time, a middle-aged man stood up and came over from the sofa.

Everywhere he went, everyone consciously gave way, and every fierce man seemed very respectful.

“You are their boss?” Qin Tiange looked up and down the middle-aged man in front of him, nodding secretly, a little imposing.

The middle-aged man raised his brow frantically, while secretly pondering the origin of Qin Tiange, so calm?

“Son, I’m very brave, I admire it.” The middle-aged man spoke in appreciation.

However, his voice turned and he sneered, “Although I admire you very much, I can put up a big name in front of my fat dragon. Are you too brave?”

“Feilong? I haven’t heard of it, but I did kill a man named Zhao Kun who claimed to be a big brother in three provinces. He hasn’t been a big brother for many years. I don’t know if you recognize him?” Fat dragon.

As soon as this remark came to an end, many people around him were shocked and looked at him in astonishment, as if doubting the truth of his words.

“Zhao Kun, brother Kun?” Feilong’s pupils shrank, his heart could not help but tremble, apparently knew Zhao Kun who had been killed on the train.

He naturally knew it, and it was just the understanding that was taken aback. He looked at Qin Tiange in front of him with a little suspicion. He was young and looked nothing special.

“Why, do you really know?” Qin Tiange murmured in surprise, “I thought he was bragging. It turned out that he was really famous, but it was a pity to kill him, so I kept it for a long time.”

The seemingly light words were heard by everyone present, especially the fatty dragon, and the whole person’s face became different.

“You really killed him?” Fei Long asked uncertainly, apparently already convinced.

Who is Zhao Kun? As a man on the road, no one knows, no one knows, but such a big man was killed by the youth in front of him?

Incredibly, the words were amazing. For a while, the atmosphere in the room was a little dignified, and many people began to breathe quickly.

“The visitor is not good!” Fei Long sighed, and Qin Tiange’s corner was not good.

It is no wonder today that the eyelids are always jumping. It turned out to be a big buddha or a fierce and terrible fierce buddha. His mouth opened to kill the big man who they could only look up to.

“Well, what are you doing here?” Feilong’s voice softened, and he had unconsciously created some awe.

“In fact, it’s nothing. Listening to you is not afraid of death. It’s a group of desperate people. Everyone is scared. Even Wang Dong has nothing to do?” Qin Tiange smiled and said something like this.

His seemingly unintentional sentence, however, made Fei Long and other people’s hearts tight, and it turned out that the bad ones did not come, and the good ones did not come, so the trouble came to the door.

Fei Long smiled at himself, before he said: “It was all spread by others, and individuals are afraid of death. Who dares not fear death by himself?”

“I’m here for one purpose. I want to work with you to create a career. I wonder if you have this interest?” Qin Tiange stepped onto the sofa and sat down on his own, regardless of the gloom of a large group of men Complexion.

Fei Long’s face was not good, his eyes flashed with fierce light, but he calmed down quickly, sat opposite Qin Tiange, and poured a glass of spirits.

“Please!” Fat Long raised his glass and drank it.

Qin Tiange picked up the wine glass and shook it, then drank it, and suddenly smiled: “You are an understanding person and a refreshing person. Give me an answer.”

“What if we don’t want to cooperate?” Fei Long hesitated, and finally asked.

With a relaxed face, Qin Tiange put down his smile after putting down the wine glass, saying, “If you don’t cooperate, you don’t have to talk.”

“Two ways, one is obedience, and the other is death!”

Obedience, or death, there are only two ways. Qin Tiange directly pointed out that he came to the people to subdue them.

“Hello tone, I really thought you were who?”

A young brother immediately quit, and he jumped out and snorted, attracting the companionship of his companions, and glared at Qin Tiange, an unknown son.

Feilong is silent, in fact, his brother’s words are what he meant, who would like to have an extra boss for no reason, or a child of unknown origin?

Click!

The next moment,, there was a crisp sound in the room. I was surprised to see Qin Tiange reached out his hand and gently scratched, a steel knife on the table in front of him was crushed.

With five fingers spread apart, pieces of pieces fell to the ground, and a dingling sound came out, shocking.

There was a dead silence in the room, and Fat Long's face was different, and his eyes were horrified, his face was incredible.

"You, you are an evolutionary?" Fat Dragon said in a trembling, stuttering tone.

Qin Tiange chuckled coldly: "Listen well, I only give you one last chance to choose, obey, or die!"

Everyone said nothing, Fei Long and a bunch of younger brothers, dozens of people quietly, none of them dared to speak, and even Li Fei, who was standing behind Qin Tiange, clenched his fists nervously.

"We obey!"

Finally, after a minute of silence, Fat Dragon slowly stood up, sighed, his face was full of helplessness and unwillingness, and finally had to give in.

In this world, the strong are respected and disobedient, then there is only one dead end.
