

Dark Ages 221

Chapter 221 - Vampire tree

Groan!

There was a sudden sword groan on the street, then a sloppy head soared, and the bone rolled down the street.

It was a zombie, his head was cut off, and his mouth was still instinctively opened and closed, but he was crushed with one foot.

“With just a little medicinal materials, we can formulate brain-domain development agents.”

On the street, Qin Tiange lifted his eyes and died. He ignored the zombies’ heads that had been trampled under his feet.

He came out of the steel plant and had already gone for a morning to find the last medicinal herbs.

After the previous horrific encounter, Qin Tiange secretly cracked down on the Euphorbia and even severely damaged him. He wanted to accelerate his growth and improve his strength.

Qin Tiange took a closer look at the recipe. The medicines and things listed above were almost collected, and he was almost blind.

“Vampire tree, does Huaxia have this kind of thing?” Qin Tiange could not help but frowned.

Vampire trees, according to the information introduced above, are a kind of blood-sucking tree. It has been rumored that Afghanistan has such terrible and weird trees.

But know that Qin Tiange was in Huaxia, how could he now run to Afghanistan to find a vampire tree? Therefore, he thought back carefully, remembering that he seemed to have heard people in the past life who had encountered a vampire tree.

I just thought it was a joke at the time, and now think about it, whether it is true or not, you have to take a look, otherwise you will have to repent if you miss it.

If you want to formulate a brain-domain development agent, you will eventually lack a blood-sucking tree as a material. As long as you obtain a blood-sucking tree and extract the peculiar sap from the blood-sucking tree, you can start to formulate a brain-domain development agent.

“It seems to be nearby.”

Qin Tiange took out the map and examined it carefully, mumbling to himself, comparing with the address that the previous person said, it seemed to be near here.

However, he looked around, except for high-rise buildings, where no shadows of trees existed, and some were only ornamental trees on both sides of the street, which was useless.

He frowned, searching, while avoiding the large number of zombies wandering the streets, and finally climbed up to the top of the building and looked down.

“Did you get scammed?” Qin Tiange didn’t look so good. He came here and found nothing. Where did the vampire tree come from?

He felt that the news he heard in the previous life was false, and there was no such thing as a vampire tree, which really annoyed him.

Rustling ...

At this moment, the sound of animals crawling around came louder and louder, as if there were countless insects crawling on their way.

This movement caught Qin Tiange's attention. He raised his eyes to look at it, and was surprised to see that a large group of things were crawling on a distant street.

“That's ... the emperor scorpion?” Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, and he was surprised when he saw the things crawling up.

On the street in the distance, a huge black scorpion with bright black hair crawling fast, huge in size, four meters in length, and extremely fast. Two huge pincers are constantly waving, the tail of the long link is at the end, A huge stinger, shining with faint light.

This is an emperor scorpion, with a huge body, bursting temperament, and extremely aggressive, especially the stinger at the end of its tail, which is definitely a terrible weapon to kill without seeing blood.

What surprised Qin Tiange was that the number of these emperor scorpions was so large that they crawled on the streets, that is, the zombies were swarmed up by them, and they were directly divided into food.

A large number of emperor scorpions passed by, eating up all the zombies they encountered, and none of them escaped. Qin Tiange even saw several two-star zombies being eaten by the emperor scorpions.

“It's terrific. It's better than ants.” Qin Tiange stood on the top of the building, overlooking the group of emperor scorpions crawling over, as if eating enough, and devouring the zombies he encountered.

Not far ahead, there are a group of hundreds of zombies swaying, but facing the huge emperor scorpion rushing over, this group of zombies is tragedy.

Roar...

The zombies roared, but unfortunately they were soon drowned by the crowded emperor scorpion. Within 30 seconds, all the zombies were eaten up.

After these Emperor Scorpions mutated, their appetite and strength were terrible. Everywhere they went, whether they were zombies or mutants, or humans, they were eaten as food sources.

Qin Tiange was high on the ground, and roughly estimated that at least tens of thousands of emperor scorpions passed by, and soon disappeared on this street, moving on to find food.

As he was about to leave here and look elsewhere, suddenly his eyes caught sight of a particularly huge and peculiar building, a huge building made of steel and tempered glass, covering an area of hundreds of acres, without seeing the edge at a glance.

“Botanical Institute?”

Qin Tiange turned around and looked at the building carefully, some surprised that the listing on it turned out to be the Botanical Research Institute.

As if thinking of something, Qin Tiange thought, and immediately went down to the top of the building, rushing to the door of the Botanical Research Institute.

“Is it inside?” Qin Tiange stepped into this botanical institute with a little expectation.

Roar!

As soon as he entered, he saw dozens of zombies rushing up and smelling the wind. Qin Tiange who wanted to walk in was eaten.

Unfortunately, these zombies are not strong. They are unlucky when they meet Qin Tiange.

Huh!

The bronze ancient sword came out of the sheath and clicked, and cut off the head of a zombie on the spot, and then the light flashed, piercing a zombie’s mouth.

One couldn’t breathe and killed two zombies. Qin Tiange carried a bronze sword and walked through dozens of zombies like ghosts, bringing a splendid blood flower.

Click!

When the figure stood still, all the zombies were fixed in place, and a blood stain was ripped on their necks, black blood poured out, and then the skull rolled down.

Dozens of zombies were cut off by Qin Tiange in a very short period of time. How hard is it to imagine his speed at this moment?

“The faster the sword, the more amazing the lethality.” Qin Tiange threw off a drop of black blood on the bronze sword with satisfaction, and then proceeded into this botanical research institute.

Soon, he came to a glass gate with three large letters on it, the botanical garden.

“Botanical garden, it seems that this is an institution specializing in plant research. It should cultivate a variety of plants. Maybe a blood-sucking tree really exists?”

Qin Tiange could not help raising a hope, walked up quickly, opened the glass door with blood, and walked into the botanical garden of this institute.

In the botanical garden, there are all kinds of strange flowers and trees, weird looks, gorgeous flowers, and varieties that have never been seen before.

As Qin Tiange walked, he looked at these strange plants in surprise, but he didn’t know what kind of plants they were.

Some flowers look like a big horn, bright red like blood, and look very interesting. Some plants are two meters high, and the trunk is very thick and round, but there are few leaves.

The strange plants that grew in this botanical garden looked as if they had stepped into an unknown world. Qin Tiange couldn't help but startled.

“Strange, why haven't I seen these plants? Are they all extinct plants on the earth?” He had to wonder, because the plants here were so weird that they had never been seen before.

Walking and walking, Qin Tiange suddenly stopped and looked suddenly shocked, looking up to the deepest part of the botanical garden, where there is a unique area isolated.

“Surely there is a vampire tree?”

There was a flash of excitement on Qin Tiange's face, and he saw a strange and weird tree growing there, about five meters high, with blood all over his body, a striped road flashing on the trunk, and bright red colors appearing on the leaves from time to time. .

That is, the rumored vampire tree, which really exists, grows in an area isolated from the deepest part of this botanical garden.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange was waiting to go forward, when he was going through the dense and strange plants.

call!

Suddenly, a sharp whistling came, and two large black shadows hit him fiercely.

Chapter 222 - Cannibal vine

Huh!

Listening only to the sound of”, the sharp edge of the bronze sword crossed the two black shadows in front of it, and a crunchy sound came, accompanied by the breaking of the two sections of blue and black rattan, and constantly twisting on the ground.

“this is?”

Qin Tiange's face was slightly condensed, and he took two steps back, looking at the constantly twisting tree vines on the ground, covered with blue and black rattan, and a dark green juice flowed from the fracture.

Looking up, I found that the dense plants were coiled with thick vines like green pythons, which were very scary.

“Man-eating flower vine?” Looking at the large vines in surprise, Qin Tiange recognized this plant, which is exactly the man-eating flower vine.

A particularly huge dark red flower blooms in the center of countless plants, and under the petals grows a thick rattan that is very thick, like a python, with a whole body of black and black, and constantly crawls around the surrounding plants.

hiss!

The vines shook, and a rushing rushed towards Qin Tiange, one by one, densely, like countless pythons going to swallow Qin Tiange.

He looked cold, and hummed: “A small two-star cannibal vine, dare to stop me. It seems you are impatient?”

Speaking, Qin Tiange pulled out the bronze sword and slammed it. Jian Mang cut off several rattan spouts in front of him, the juice fluttered and shaved the ground.

He cut off a section of rattan, making other rattans have to withdraw and seem to know that Qin Tiange is not easy to mess with.

Uh ...

Hua Teng danced all over the sky, held up high, and slammed down on Qin Tiange’s side.

There were a few bangs, and the concrete floor was smashed and flying. The rigidity and strength of the rattan were extremely terrible, but they could not hit Qin Tiange’s body.

He kept dodging, waving the bronze sword continuously, his body passed through the dense flower vines, took a touch of dark green liquid, and cut off dozens of crazy dancing rattan.

Click!

Another thick-edged rattan was chopped off, and the juice sprayed. There was a faint sadness, and the cannibal flower rattan painfully retracted its rattan tentacles.

“Afraid?” Qin Tiange sneered, watching the fledgling cannibal, the bronze sword returned to its sheath, and took out a high-energy electromagnetic sniper rifle.

boom!

A highly-concentrated plasma bullet whistled and exploded on the main body of the cannibal vine, instantly tearing several of its petals, and green leaves splashed.

Looking at the cannibal vine that was trembling with a single shot, Qin Tiange looked expressionless, raised his gun and hit it again with a bang, and the plasma blasted most of the vine.

Wow!

Numerous vines gathered, coiled on huge flowers, layered and dense, forming a vine defense net.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange couldn’t help laughing, humming: “Wanting rattan to want to block my Samsung high-energy electromagnetic sniper rifle?”

boom!

With one shot, many arabesques were smashed on the spot and broken into several pieces, and even some arabesques were burned by high concentration plasma to become coke.

hiss!

Finally, the cannibal flower vine no longer defended, but reached out all the vines and rushed towards Qin Tiange at a super fast speed.

Qin Tiange was not shocked, he raised his gun and aimed at the root system of the cannibal flower vine. Aiming there, he fired the trigger.

With a loud bang, the entire plant of the cannibal vine was blown off, and the dark green liquid spewed continuously from the fracture.

The coiled vine tentacles fell down like a weakness, completely silent.

“Block me, look for death!”

Qin Tiange snorted, put away his sniper rifle, took out the bronze sword and held it in his hand, and walked up to the robber cane that had no movement.

At the feet, numerous vines lay quietly, motionless, as if they had never been moved, and even outsiders did not know that they were very terrible assault weapons.

The tentacles of the cannibal vine are full of tenacity, solid and full of dense dense spikes, with toxins on it. Once a creature is entangled, it will become rigid immediately within three seconds, and will be dragged into the huge flower by the cannibal vine. Off.

Huh!

A sword flashed, and a bang, Qin Tiange severely inserted the broken cannibal flower and rattan root system with a bronze sword.

He stabbed one sword at a time, almost severing the roots of the entire cannibal vine, and finally completely killed the cannibal vine.

Huh?

As he was about to leave, Qin Tiange’s body paused, and he looked in horror at the huge flower interrupted on the side, with green and black particles on it.

Picking up a view, Qin Tiange smiled on his face: “It turned out to be the seed of a cannibal flower vine. It seems that this cannibal flower vine is ready to be promoted to Samsung, and the seeds just mature.”

Looking at a green-black seed the size of an egg in his palm, Qin Tiange knows that this is the seed of a cannibal vine. As long as it is planted, a brand new cannibal vine can grow again.

There are dozens or hundreds of seeds here, isn’t that to say that dozens or hundreds of cannibal plants can be planted?

“Collect it first!” Qin Tiange quickly gathered the hundreds of seeds ripe in the cannibal flower.

Then he used a bronze sword to continuously cut cannibal flowers, as if he was looking for something. In fact, it was a kind of spiritual material unique to this sperm-eating cannibal vine.

Natural plant variations, especially this aggressive carnivorous plant, produce an extremely magical and special spiritual material in the body.

Sure enough, Qin Tiange was at the bottom of the huge cannibal flower, and found a weird thing in that joke system.

It was something like a flesh sac, a peculiar liquid that grew out of a man-eating vine.

The meat sac is filled with crystal liquid, and the body is full of dark blue. It is as unique and transparent as seawater, with a hint of fragrance.

“The essence of Hua Yao’s life, the origin of evolution.” Qin Tiange smiled and collected it directly.

This is the essence of the flower monster’s whole body and the source of the evolution of the flower monster. As long as the source is sufficient, it can be promoted to a stronger and higher level, has a strong vitality, is no worse than the life fluid, and even surpasses it.

This spirit can also be called the origin of the fairy.

“It’s your turn!”

After solving the road cannibal vine, Qin Tiange sneered and stared at an area isolated in front of him, where there was a five-meter-high tree.

This peculiar tree with red blood throughout and red leaves on it is a rumored vampire tree. Once a creature approaches, it will be completely stuck by its leaves and branches, and it will eventually be thrown away. Died from the essence of flesh and blood.

Husha ... The vampire tree trembled slightly, as if aware of Qin Tiange’s strength and danger, but he watched Cannibal Flower Vine be chopped and killed by Qin Tiange.

Seeing the other person coming over means that it is coming at it, and naturally I can’t help shaking, and some of my fears are normal.

“Fear is useless, because I need all your sap to be used as medicine.”

As Qin Tiange approached the vampire tree, he said it calmly, no matter what the vampire tree was, he must obtain the sap dispensing in the other person’s body.

“Hmm ...”

Suddenly, a weird human face emerged from the blood-sucking trunk, and a horrible scream was made against Qin Tiange, and the branches were shaking and gave a warning.

“Dead!”

Qin Tiange faced a bit of coldness, his body suddenly accelerated, the bronze sword in his hand pierced the air, and pierced towards the face on the blood-sucking trunk.

Chapter 223 - Sneak into the gathering place

Hum!

The bronze ancient sword rushed forward, screaming quickly, but stopped at a centimeter from the face.

It wasn’t that he couldn’t get in, but Qin Tiange stopped on his own initiative, not to mention that he didn’t want to kill the blood-sucking tree, but that the blood-sucking tree split open its trunk and spewed a soft mass.

“Surrender?” Qin Tiange looked surprised, looking at the vampire tree, the trunk split, and a basketball-sized **** thing spewed out of it.

This is the origin of the blood-sucking tree condensed into a sphere. The blood-colored sphere is the essence that it actively condenses and spit out, which is exactly what Qin Tiange wants.

I looked at the basketball-sized soft blood ball, and then looked at the shivering, the branches and leaves were falling, and some withered yellow bloodsucking trees surrendered from the source of injury.

It doesn't want to die, and it doesn't want to be killed as soon as it is born, so it ventures to surrender directly and actively sends most of the essence of the origin.

“Life is not easy, just spare you once!” Qin Tiange thought for a while, and finally gave up killing the blood-sucking tree that surrendered.

What he wants is the essence of the vampire tree, the kind of blood-like spirit, it doesn't matter if you kill the vampire tree.

Since the other party was interested, Ken would take the initiative to bring it up from his own source of injury, so he took it down and put the blood-sucking tree on his way.

Life is not easy at all. Whether it is human or other species, having a self-life is a miracle.

“Okay, look at you like this, not like cannibals and flowers, bypass you and save you a life, I just hope you don't let me see you a scourge in the future, otherwise I don't mind eradicating you completely. Qin Tiange put away the bronze sword, took a soft blood cell, and did not forget to warn the vampire tree.

The latter shook the leaves and shrivelled, losing most of the source of life. It already looked a little yellow, but finally left a life.

Qin Tiange shook his head, but the ants are still stealthily, not to mention the fairy who evolved consciousness? He got what he wanted, left two zombies, and turned to leave.

Just after he had just left here, the vampire tree suddenly stretched out numerous thick root systems, struggling to entangle other plants in the botanical garden, madly absorbing the root of life of all plants.

It is replenishing the source of its loss, and soon it recovers a lot. The blood-sucking tree absorbed the plant origin in the entire botanical garden, recovered most of it, and finally the root system rose up, twining into the shape of two feet, and quickly ran out of the botanical garden.

A running tree rushed out of the botanical garden, panic-like, looking stunned.

“interesting!”

At the top of the distant building, Qin Tiange, who saw this scene, couldn't help but evoke a smile, watching the blood-sucking tree running away, and did not go after him.

Since letting go of the other party, that 's all he can do. He 's here just to look for the last spiritual material for medicine. Now that he 's found it, how can he manage this vampire tree?

After looking at it, Qin Tiange leaped with a smile and jumped into another building, quickly left here, looking for a place, and preparing to dispense medicine.

Rushing all the way, Qin Tiange found a few high-end apartments, ready to go to rest, and dispensing medicine by the way.

But he stopped in front of a high-end apartment, and looked at the outer wall of the apartment in surprise. The iron wires were intertwined into a net to surround the wall, and there was still a lot of black blood on it.

“Someone here.” Qin Tiange made a judgment. There were survivors in these high-end apartments, and the number was still quite large.

Judging from the defensive circle established on the periphery, there should be a team of survivors, or it has already formed a gathering place here.

He guessed that he was right. He walked along the defensive wall of the apartment, and soon saw a large iron door, which was not only welded with thick steel bars, but also a sharp thorns flashing cold mang.

Inside the gate, several men with guns were guarding, one by one staring vigilantly at the open area outside the gate, all of which were cleared defensive belts.

“It turned out to be a gathering place!”

On the corner of the street, Qin Tiange quietly observed this place, and soon determined that it was a gathering place established by survivors, which was regarded as a small base.

The three high-end apartments are actually three new villages in the city, covering a wide area, at least more than enough to accommodate tens of thousands of people.

He didn’t guess much. This is a place where survivors gather, which is a base, which has just been established from the end.

Qin Tiange didn’t show up, let alone swaggered over, but quietly retreated, and came to a section of the wall.

Looking at the six-meter-high fence full of dense spikes, a protective net was pulled over it, and the fence was ten meters high.

It is very difficult for ordinary people to climb up, let alone enter through a wall, it is likely that there is a current on those iron grids.

Crackling!

Sure enough, Qin Tiange lost a zombie arm and really splashed a wave of electricity. I have to say that the defense circle here is good.

This defensive circle can block most ordinary zombies, but it can’t stop high-level zombies and some huge mutants, even Qin Tiange can’t stop it.

call!

Qin Tiange climbed up to a nearby tree, observed no one, jumped up directly from the tree, crossed the wall, cleverly turned in the air, and his feet fell firmly inside the wall.

He looked around vigilantly, flashed at speed, hid in a bush, and quietly observed the three villages in the city.

“this is?”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange’s face was stunned, and then he noticed that there was something wrong with the flowers, as if it were not ordinary flowers.

He then looked carefully at the entire garden and found that the same kind of plants were planted here, the flowers were gorgeous, like a cyan bud.

“Poppy?” Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and looked around the garden in surprise. These poppies were planted.

Yes, poppy!

Fields of poppies, planted with this mutated poppy flower, are incredible. Qin Tiange was startled and thought: “The survivors here are actually planting a variety of poppies, and they don’t seem to be ordinary survivors.”

Thinking about it this way, Qin Tiange quickly flashed this poppy field, soon over the large poppy field, and quietly evaded under an apartment building.

“Hurry up, the boss demands that the poppies over there must be harvested today.”

At this time On the aisle of the apartment building, several burly men with guns pressed a large group of people to the poppy field.

Be the first one, with a horrific face, and glanced across the group fiercely, one by one holding a sickle and preparing to harvest poppies.

They were all persecuted, and a group of survivors were brought under control, all with fear, but had to obey.

“Area A, A area, the situation is found outside the area C, please support immediately, support immediately!”

Suddenly, the fierce man who took the lead rang the intercom and heard such an anxious word.

Hearing this, the famous man was shocked, raised the walkie-talkie, and returned to: “Area A, go to support immediately.”

“You you you, the five of you guard these people and find that you run away and kill them immediately.”

After he finished speaking, he took six men directly and left five to guard the dozens of people here.

Watching the leader take off, Qin Tiange, who was hiding in the corner of the corner, thought for a moment and immediately followed him quietly.

Chapter 224 - Weird giant

Roar!

A ferocious roar came from the southwest of the apartment, which alarmed the whole Quartet.

“Damn, this zombie again!”

The fierce man who had just arrived here was frightened and yelled, and saw a giant zombies up to five meters outside the fence slamming against the wall.

With a loud bang, a large hole was punched on the wall, the power grid fell, and electric flashes flickered.

In the wall, dozens of people held guns and fired at the huge zombie. The machine gun blew fire and the bullets flew randomly, hitting the body of the zombie.

Da Da Da Da Da ... Bang Bang!

Dozens of people opened fire, but what was shocking was that the bullets dropped to the ground and they couldn't penetrate the zombie's flesh at all.

Giant zombies, five-meter-high body, muscles swelled, flashing a dark metal light, showing a terrible breath.

Especially the mutated right claw, which is thick and unmatched, is thicker than its legs, its claws are slender and sharp, its light is shining, and it looks extremely sultry.

“Four-star giant zombies have simple wisdom.”

In the corner not far, Qin Tiange looked dignified, staring at the huge zombie, smashing the wall with one claw, staring at numerous bullets sweeping into the gap, stepping on the power grid and bursting with electricity and sparks.

However, a frightening scene appeared. The zombie just trembled. Electric sparks couldn't stop it, as if electricity couldn't hurt it.

“Fire, fire!”

Dozens of people were screaming, more and more people came in support, hundreds of people were armed, guns and ammunition were complete, and the brain opened fire on the zombie.

“Go to death!”

Surprised, a burly man took a rocket launcher and aimed at the zombie, with a faint smile on his face, and fired instantly.

Suddenly, the rocket whistled away, and in the middle of the giant zombie's chest, it exploded into a blast of flame, and the powerful air waves overturned many people.

The terrible explosion, the flames were raging, but unfortunately as the fire went out, the huge giant was exposed, standing upright and roaring.

Roar!

The giant roared, his eyes stared fiercely and bloodthirsty at the hundreds of people on the opposite side, his chest was blackened, and the wound was left with dark black blood, which was injured.

It was blown up by a bazooka and wounded, but it was frightening that the wound was recovering at the speed of the naked eye, and it completely disappeared in a blink of an eye.

“Impossible!” The man who fired the rocket was terrified and exclaimed, it was too late to retreat.

With a click, the giant claw pulled into his chest fiercely, killing the man on the spot.

Immediately afterwards, the giant corps leapt into the air and fell into the crowd, wielding the giant claws to kill the Quartet, flesh and blood flew in a blink of an eye, and the screams repeated.

“what...”

“Hurry, shoot!”

“Oh!”

The screams and screams were intertwined, and as the giant zombies slammed into the crowd, no one could stop them, and they were easily beaten to death.

The giant zombies, five meters high, waved their giant claws, and someone who had passed by must have had a broken body or even been shot dead.

awful!

Qin Tiange shook his head secretly, looking at the hundreds of people who had been slaughtered on one side, and shot one by one, but unfortunately it was futile not to penetrate the tough skin of zombies.

In just five breathing times, more than a hundred people were killed and more than twenty were killed. The rest were scattered away, looking for a place to hide away, and firing on the zombies.

call out! Uh ...

At this moment, on the top of the building not far away, five men in black and black armors carried rocket launchers and fired at them. Several rockets whistled along with their long tail flames.

Boom boom ...

Four consecutive explosions came, the flames vacated, and the heat waves billowed, completely submerging the huge zombie.

For a long time, when the fireworks dissipated, the figure of the zombie was revealed. He was bleeding and scarred, and was blown lightly by four rockets.

It slowly got up, yelled at the top of the building, and then made an unexpected move.

When he saw the zombie giant claw wave, he grabbed five people on the ground who had not completely died, turned around and leaped, rushed out of the collapsed wall, and fled in a blink of an eye.

“Damn, this is the fifth time. This zombie comes to kill every time, and then runs away with a few undead people.”

Not far away, a big man shouted angrily and looked at the corpses and minced meat all over his heart, and couldn't help the cold.

This was the fifth time that he had been attacked. This zombie had been killed every time, and then slaughtered with some undead people.

“This zombie is not low in wisdom.” Secretly, Qin Tiange watched this happen, without going out to help at all.

Although with his current ability, it is more than enough to deal with the four-star zombies, but he did not help. One is that the people here have planted poppies that disgusted him, and the other is that these people do not look good. They die when they die. Already.

What he most concerned about was why did the zombie take away a few seriously wounded and left?

Could it be brought back to eat? This is very likely, but not every time, and I heard these people's scolds learned that the zombies had come five times.

This is the fifth time that people have to doubt that the zombies had other purposes for this purpose, but it was unknown.

“boss!”

“boss!”

At this time, everyone in the room turned around and bowed down to salute a group of people coming out of the front building. The first middle-aged man wearing a suit and holding a tobacco pipe swept across the corpse with a cold face.

He looked at a group of men with their heads bowed, and looked at a section of the wall that had broken and collapsed, and a bit of fieryness gradually appeared on his face.

Humph! The man snorted and hated, “Bullying on Guo Tiancheng's head again and again, no matter what you are, this time will definitely not let you run away.”

“Pull that artillery out, we catch up, and today we must kill the zombie raised by this bitch.” Guo Tiancheng's expression was sullen, and the killing flashed.

He couldn't help it. He was knocked on the door again and again, and even killed many of his men. Every time he ran away with a lot of wounded men when he was about to kill each other with a cannon.

This phenomenon is very wrong, causing Guo Tiancheng's uneasiness, plus five times to come to the door, the clay figurine has three points of fire, let alone the cruel master?

Therefore, he directly brought a cannon, dragged it with an armored vehicle, and slowly opened it.

“Let's go!” Guo Tiancheng got on the armored vehicle and ordered the departure, and the team set off in a mighty manner.

The entire team was led by an armored vehicle, and the middle armored vehicle pulled a huge artillery, which was a 203 mm howitzer.

The entire team was followed by 3,000 people with guns, all of them fierce-looking, showing a bandit, and aggressively ran out of the gate of the gathering place.

Looking at this team, Qin Tiange looked surprised, especially when he saw 3,000 people equipped with a uniform rifle, plus two armored vehicles, and a 203 mm howitzer, enough to see the power of this gathering place and its Tough.

“It seems that Guo Tiancheng has good luck. He should have encountered a temporary heritage stele and exchanged out these weapons and equipment.” Qin Tiange thought secretly, guessing that the origin of these weapons and equipment came from the heritage stele.

Watching the huge team chasing and killing the four-star zombies, Qin Tiange moved his face and quietly avoided many people. He walked away from the broken wall and traced the trail left by the four-star zombies. .

He also wanted to see why the four-star zombies had arrested some seriously wounded people back again and again?

Chapter 225 - 4 Infidels

In front of a maternity and child health care hospital, dense crowds of zombies swelled and stood quietly around the health care institution.

There are a lot of zombies here, but the weird ones have not left. The faces of each zombies are dull, and their eyes are flashing with weird light.

“Boss, that zombie went to a maternal and child health care home in front.”

At this time, in an empty street, Guo Tiancheng was sitting in an armored car listening to a report from his men. The giant zombie entered the Maternal and Child Health Hospital with several seriously injured people.

Hearing his eyes, he couldn't help narrowing his eyes, the twinkling ray of danger flashing, staring at a huge building not far away, where the Maternal and Child Health Hospital.

I didn't encounter a zombie along the way. It turned out that the zombies were all here, and the situation around the maternal and child health center was strange.

“There must be something weird in it.” Guo Tiancheng's face changed, and there was a feeling of uneasiness in his heart, as if something bad was about to happen.

He didn't know what it was, but thought it was definitely not a good thing. Looking at the dense crowd of zombies, he surrounded the Maternal and Child Health Hospital, what was there to make these zombies obedient?

“Set up a howitzer and blast the hospital for me.”

Finally, Guo Tiancheng made a decision to erect a howitzer directly to flatten the Maternal and Child Health Hospital in front.

At this time, Qin Tiange, who followed him, stopped at the top of a building and looked down at Guo Tiancheng's team. Then he looked away and stared at the maternal and child health center surrounded by tens of thousands of zombies. "Maternal and Child Health Hospital?" Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes and flashed a bad thought in his heart.

What does this hospital do? Naturally, it is a maternity and child health care hospital, a hospital specially set up for pregnant women and babies.

Now, countless zombies are surrounding this hospital, and there must be something nasty in it, and even there are factors that disturb him.

"Is it ..." Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, thinking of something, couldn't help his heartbeat speeding up, startled.

However, it is really possible that Qin Tiange's face was gradually dignified, his eyes were staring at the maternal and child hospital, and he couldn't see what was inside.

The only thing that can be judged is that there are tens of thousands of zombies inside to control the health care center outside, as if in defense, the situation is a bit strange.

When he was observing the Maternal and Child Health Hospital, in the other direction of the hospital, a figure appeared on the top of the building, quietly looking at the hospital.

"It's the fifth time, and that female corpse should have a child."

The man muttered to himself, his sullen face became serious immediately, a worn out robe hunting against the wind, holding dust in his hand, and carrying a simple iron sword on his back.

He is a Taoist priest, looking at not very old, his eyes are slightly vicissitudes, staring directly at the hospital in front, has been waiting here for ten days.

For the past ten days, this young priest has been here, watching the huge zombie bring the seriously injured person back to the maternity and child care hospital again and again.

He understood that the corpse brought back the pregnant female corpse as food, supplemented the nutrition, and provided for the little baby in the female corpse.

That's right, it is to support the little corpse baby in the female body.

"Zombies give birth to children, according to the ancestral records of this sect, that is a kind of demon corpse, once it grows up it is the emperor of the corpse." The Taoist muttered to himself without knowing anything, a figure approached him quietly.

"Who!"

Suddenly, the Taoist slammed instinctively, pulled out his sword, and watched a figure close to him ten meters away. It was Qin Tiange.

He wanted to look around the hospital. He never wanted to find the Taoist priest. He immediately approached him quietly. He didn't expect such a shock.

“Taoist?” Qin Tiange looked at each other up and down, and the Taoist looked at the same person.

The two looked at each other for a while, Qin Tiange then said: “Do you know the situation in this maternity and children hospital?”

The priest nodded and watched him vigilantly: “I know a little bit, but why should I tell you?”

He rubbed his fingers and laughed, “I can tell you what’s going on inside, but what good can you give me?”

Huh!

A crystal nucleus was thrown high, and the Taoist steadily caught it. Opening it, it turned out to be a zombie brain crystal.

“There are too few corpse crystals, at least ten, otherwise it will be avoided.” The Taoist stole the brain crystal, and opened his mouth directly to ten crystal nuclei.

Qin Tiange’s mouth slightly tilted, and he lost ten crystal nuclei to the other side. Then the Taoist smiled and collected the brain crystals.

“The donor, it’s so refreshing.” He looked at Qin Tiange with a smile, and then said, “My name is Four Innocents, and I am a master of Four Eyes. What is the name of the donor?”

“Four infidels?”

Qin Tiange curiously looked at the Taoist priest in front of him, recalling his past life’s memory, and found no information about this Taoist priest, so he didn’t care.

He looked at each other. Judging from the response and breath just now, he should have strengthened a lot, at least with a dozen people.

“My name is Qin Tiange, and I don’t know if Siwudao can tell you what is happening in the Maternal and Child Health Hospital?” He asked directly.

The four innocent people became serious, their eyes were shining, and they dragged their chins. “If I guess well, based on my continuous observation these days, there must be a pregnant female body in the hospital in front.”

“You mean, a pregnant female zombie?” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, and his heart could not help but secretly jump.

The four innocents nodded and said, “Is it a zombie? I think it’s a zombie, but it’s the lowest level of carrion, not climate, but some powerful zombies are extremely scary.”

Listening to the words of the four innocents, Qin Tiange’s heart gradually became heavy and felt that things were a bit big.

Zombie birth is an extremely horrible thing. After the end of the day, some pregnant women can't resist being turned into zombies, and eventually the babies in the body have a strange and inexplicable mutation.

“The people over there are you?” At this moment, the four innocents looked at a team preparing for battle in the distance, and the howitzer began to be erected.

Qin Tiange glanced, shook his head to say no, he said: “This group of people is a survivor force in a city village not far from here.”

“Oh!” The four or five people stopped ignoring each other, but stared at the hospital with a dignified expression.

He said: “Donald Qin, we must prevent the coming-out demon corpse from coming into the world, otherwise once it grows up, no one can deal with it.”

After hearing what he said, Qin Tiange didn't say anything, whether it was a demon corpse or a **** corpse, as long as he was strong enough, nothing could be killed.

But he is also right, this kind of little demon corpse that produces mutation and evolution in the female zombies is definitely a dangerous thing.

Roar!

Suddenly, an extremely painful roar came from the Maternal and Child Hospital, and a roar burst out, causing a commotion among the tens of thousands of zombies around the hospital.

With that corpse roar coming, immediately afterwards, there was a burst of crisp and loud crying in the hospital.

Wow ... wow ... wow ...

A cry of babies rang out, shaking back and forth in the air, revealing some weird frequency of sound waves, dizzying.

“Not good, the little demon corpse is born, isn't it another day?”

Qin Tiange's face also changed. He stared at the Maternal and Child Hospital with suspicion, and there was a terrible cry, which made people dizzy.

At the same time, Guo Tiancheng heard the loud and weird cries, and they felt dizzy and almost fainted.

“Not good, fire, fire!”

His face turned wild, and he immediately ordered the firing. Several men immediately turned the grenade muzzle and fired at the Maternal and Child Hospital.

Chapter 226 - Female corpse child

Bang!

There was a loud noise, the ground was shaken, the hospital door and even half of the building collapsed on the spot and was blown apart.

The 203-mm howitzer was extremely powerful. When it was fired, it collapsed the hospital door and half of the building.

The cannon continued to stun tens of thousands of zombies over there, turned round and yelled at Guo Tiancheng.

In the smoke, a huge figure crashed to the ground and walked out of the hospital. His eyes were full of an angry murderous weapon, staring at Guo Tiancheng's group of people.

“Uh ... hoo!”

The giant roared and became angry, wielding a huge claw and grabbing a large piece of cement board that had fallen down, and threw it severely.

There was a loud noise, and the cement board smashed into the team over there, causing more than a dozen people to be smashed into mud on the spot. They died before the screams were issued.

“Fire, kill it!”

Guo Tiancheng's face was iron-blue, and he snarled and ordered the firing. He even took out a rocket launcher on his shoulder and fired at the giant corpse standing at the hospital gate.

boom!

There was another loud noise. The howitzer fired and fired a cannonball, hitting the giant three meters in front of the ground, blasting it, and blasting the giant to a dozen meters away.

Uh ...

Immediately after the long flames blasted away, rockets slammed into the giant's location.

Suddenly, the sky was falling apart, where rockets exploded into a sea of fire. The explosion sounded through the sky and shocked all directions.

The mud and stones splashed, the smoke and dust billowed, and the huge impact force saw nearby zombies flying off, and some were even killed on the spot.

Roar!

The giant corpse climbed up, bleeding, blood vessels valgus, exposing the scary bones, the muscles squirmed, and soon recovered.

It looked extremely angry, opened its mouth and growled, and then waved its big claws. At that moment, tens of thousands of zombies rioted together, rushing towards Guo Tiancheng's side.

Uh ...

The corpse attacked, and jumped up during the running, spanning dozens of meters, and directly crushed the team in front of Guo Tiancheng, broke the concrete floor, and set off a large pit.

A riot of corpses rushed under the leadership of a four-star giant. Guo Tiancheng and others turned wild and opened fire.

“good chance!”

At this moment, on the top of the building in the distance, the four innocent people looked slightly happy, and said lowly, "While the giant is leaving, it is the best opportunity to go in and kill the little demon."

"Can't make it born!"

The four innocent people were so excited that Qin Tiange didn't look like he was going to kill the little demon corpse that was about to be born. Instead, he was more excited than seeing the baby.

For a moment, the four innocent people jumped lightly, crossed another building, and quickly approached the maternal and child hospital.

His speed is fast, his body is light, as if a Swift is generally surprising, the other is good at light body surgery.

Qin Tiange watched him rush to the Women's and Children's Hospital without hesitation. At the bottom of his feet, the whole person, like Dapeng, spread his wings and leapt over, and landed on the top of the building nearest to the hospital.

He looked at the hospital building right in front of him, not even thinking about it, followed by the four innocent people leaping quickly and came to the top floor of the hospital.

"You shouldn't be killing that little demon corpse." Qin Tiange said softly when he came to the four innocent people.

This sentence was in the heart of the four innocent people. He said he looked stiff and embarrassed, but said nothing, rushed to the entrance and went straight downstairs.

Qin Tiange smiled, followed quickly, followed the bronze sword and followed him all the way, but wanted to see what the four innocent people wanted to do.

He faintly guessed that the purpose of the four innocent people was probably the little demon corpse in his mouth.

Roar...

The hospital was quiet, there was no trace of zombies, only a roar of painful sound came from the delivery room of the hospital.

The four innocent people had big heads and ran very fast for two minutes. They came to the third floor of the hospital and stopped in front of them.

"Here it is!" He looked dignified, carrying a simple iron sword, with a solemn look, as if he had a great enemy inside.

Qin Tiange stared at the iron sword in his hand. The sword body was smooth, with seven stars engraved on it.

Squeak ...

Gently pushing open the door of the delivery room, Qin Tiange and the two quietly walked in. The purpose was to fill the ground with flesh and blood fragments, blood stains, scattered bones everywhere, piled up in piles, with a disgusting smell, extremely unpleasant.

The ground was broken, it should be the man who was captured by the giant corpse and was eaten.

“That is?”

The next moment, Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, staring at the bedstead in the delivery room. An extremely scary zombie was lying there, covered with tentacle-like straws.

These straws, which are inserted into a human body lying under the bed, are constantly wriggling, which is extremely flesh essence and nutrients in the human body.

“The female corpse is drawing nutrition and supplying the little demon corpse in the belly.” The four innocent people looked solemnly and stared at the large female corpse.

The female corpse looks horrible and can no longer be regarded as a human form. Instead, it looks more like a monster. In addition to a head that can also be seen as a human being, it looks like a monster’s belly all over and around. .

Those on the ground are not dead yet. They are pale, with pupils growing up, eyes raised, and opened their mouths to ask for help, but unfortunately they can’t yell out. They can only stick sticky and disgusting tentacles from their mouths into the body , Constantly absorbing the nutrition on them.

Disgusting, horrible!

Qin Tiange could see his scalp numb, especially when he saw the female zombie’s belly, continuously bulging and shrinking, and then shrinking again, faintly revealing a trace of blood.

“Wow ... wow ...”

A cry came from the woman’s zombie’s belly, like a baby waiting to be fed, and cried for food when he was hungry.

The scene was terrifying in every way, it was too scary.

“I’ll kill it!” Qin Tian got his sword was about to come forward, but was stopped by four innocent people.

With a cautious face, he warned: “Don’t get closer first, the little demon corpse is being born. You must have the most terrible counterattack up.”

“Is that you don’t want to kill that little demon corpse?” Qin Tiange sneered, staring sharply at the four innocent man.

The latter’s face changed and he bit his teeth: “Yes, I don’t want to kill the little devil, but I want to control it.”

“It’s ridiculous!” Qin Tiange sighed, pushed away the four innocents, and said harshly, “Do you know what the zombies produce is dangerous?”

Roar!

Over there, the female zombies found Qin Tiange and the four infidels who broke in, and immediately opened her mouth and uttered a fierce roar, but there was a hint of pain.

It is at the critical moment of childbearing, it cannot move at all, and it is angry at the two humans who broke in.

This roar, however, alarmed the giant corpse who was leading the corpse to attack Guo Tiancheng's team and noticed.

"Oh!" The corpse turned, snarled at the hospital, and was angry. He left a person alone without a word, his body soared and jumped, and rushed toward the hospital frantically.

"No, it's summoning the giant corpse." The four innocents changed their faces and immediately realized that something was wrong.

Humph!

Qin Tiange Lengheng, holding a bronze sword, stepped forward, and stabbed the female zombie in the belly, killing the little demon inside.

This thing is dangerous and terrible. Once born, it grows fast hardly anyone can stop its growth, the future is a powerful corpse king.

Moreover, this little demon corpse is no different from humans, it is difficult to tell whether it is a zombie or a human.

Hum!

The bronze sword whistled and was about to pierce the female zombies, but at the last moment, Qin Tiange turned angrily with a sword.

Huh!

Sparks splattered and the two figures receded from each other. Qin Tiange stared angrily at the four innocent people in front of him.

"Do you dare stop me?" He chilled.

The four innocent people smiled bitterly, their arms trembled constantly, and they just stabbed each other just now. As a result, he suffered a loss. At this moment, the whole arm was numb, which made him unable to bear secret concubine.

boom!

Just when the two confronted each other, the door of the delivery room exploded, and a horrible giant rushed in, snarling and waving his giant claws to slap the nearest Qin Tiange, and there was a burst of crackling in the air.

Chapter 227 - Corpse baby

Huh!

The silhouettes staggered, accompanied by a sword-mangling, and fluttered open the giant abdomen's abdomen, bringing up a dark black blood.

Qin Tiange lifted his hand, and the blood on the bronze sword dropped a little, turned around, and stared calmly at the giant corpse.

Roar!

The giant roared and stood in front of the two, guarding the female corpse that was in production. The tall body was full of oppression, and the two men glared at Qin Tiange.

The four innocent people looked dignified, and their sword-shaking hands were still shaking slightly. Obviously, the sword against Qin Tiange was still a little numb.

Looking at the coming corpse, the four innocent men carefully looked at Qin Tiange, but did not dare to make any comments.

Humph!

Qin Tiange snorted softly, stepped his sword, and the bronze ancient sword clamored, breaking the air with a buzz, and quickly passing over the neck of the giant.

With only a snoring sound, the giant claws blocked the sword, and the sparks splattered and spread apart.

When he missed a shot, Qin Tiange's body jumped back slightly, avoiding the clamoring clamor of the zombie giant claws, and the concrete floor exploded.

He fluttered lightly, his feet fell to the ground, and he suddenly kicked hard, his body leaped again, and he lifted his sword diagonally and chopped it on the neck of the giant.

when!

The sound of gold and iron fighting came, and the sparks scattered. The zombie blocked the sword with a huge arm, sharp and boney, and severed its tough muscles.

The Samsung bronze sword cut the muscle defense of the giant, and almost cut off the bones of his arm on the spot.

Roar!

The giant was so angry that after snarling, his left hand slammed ***** Qin Tiange's chest. If he hit it, the latter would be severely wounded.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange was not slow, and his body was forcibly twisted. He avoided the fierce blow from the zombies, and then drew a sword across the zombies' neck.

Flutter!

A splash of blood soared and scattered all around, and Qin Tiange's neck finally cut through a huge mouth, angering the zombie.

It was very irritable and angry, slamming its claws and slamming it down hard, the wind roared, extremely fierce.

“Good job!”

Instead of being surprised, Qin Tiange showed a smirk, and Tijian took the initiative to greet him.

The two silhouettes staggered in large and small moments, and then there was a sound of crisp crickets, which faded after the sparks scattered.

At the moment of the fierce battle between the two, the four innocent people nearby moved, continued to pass, and rushed directly to the female corpse.

“Heartblood, corpse grass, Huangquan soil, Naihe leaves ...”

The four innocent men waved, taking out all kinds of things one by one, constantly thinking about what was in his mouth, and looking closely, all kinds of strange things were taken out by him.

Then, he was seen rubbing these things into a ball of powder, all sprinkled on the female corpse’s belly.

“Keeping the corpse and controlling the corpse, I sent my blood to feed ...” The four innocent people were excited, watching the strange powder absorbed by the corpse baby in the stomach.

Just as he was about to dislodge his heart and take out the blood to feed the corpse baby, the mother zombie uttered a fierce roar, awakening the fierce fighting giant.

Roar!

The fierce corpse suddenly turned and saw that the four innocent people ran to the female corpse, and immediately left Qin Tiange and rushed straight up.

With a bang, the giant claws swept across, clicking and flying the four innocent people to the corner, and the whole body was broken into a few pieces and suffered heavy injuries.

puff!

In the corner, the four innocent people looked purple-gold, opened their mouths to spit blood, and looked anxious.

“It’s almost, it’s almost.” With a look of grief, he could almost complete the steps of controlling the corpse baby just now, but he was interrupted by the giant corpse.

Looking at the grief and indignation of the four innocents, Qin Tiange shook his head secretly and hummed, “It’s really terrible. At this time, I still want to control the corpse baby, it’s just death.”

Roar ... The corpse is very angry and very irritable. He waved his giant claws and rushed to the corner to kill the four innocent people, but just watched Qin Tiange vigilantly, this very dangerous character.

In the end, the giant corpse did not move, so it was guarding in front of the mother zombies, looking at the bulging belly of the female corpse from time to time, with a hint of awe in his eyes.

“This zombie is not low-minded, and must be eradicated as soon as possible.” Qin Tiange looked at it, raised his sword directly in three steps and rushed, and the figure leaped was a sword.

Huh!

I was surprised to see that the giant corpse’s huge claws blocked Qin Tiange’s swift sword, and a large piece of spark exploded from the claws and gradually extinguished.

Instead of being disappointed, Qin Tiange showed a hint of smirk, and then someone made a difficult flip in the air. The bronze sword stabbed a giant eye.

Flutter!

Jian Feng came into his eyes and pierced the giant's eyes on the spot, bursting out a black blood, and the whole huge eyeball was pierced.

A loud scream came, and he was surprised to see that the giant corpse raised his right arm and swept across, but Qin Tiange had already drawn his sword back and landed steadily.

“While you are ill, you will die.” Qin Tiange just landed, raised his hand and held a sword flower, and his body disappeared in a stun.

Again, he had come to the left of the corpse, the bronze sword roared, swallowed a horrible sharp edge, hissed and pierced its defense, pierced the corpse's left rib, and penetrated the heart.

boom!

Before waiting for Qin Tiange to draw a sword, I felt a strong attack, and even people with swords flung out far and hit the wall.

He was flushed, his body was boiling, his internal organs were trembling slightly, and he was hit hard.

“Kill!” Qin Tiange kept his mouth open and sang. Qin Tiange stepped up and lifted his sword. The bronze sword cut a gorgeous arc in the air and cut through the neck of the giant.

I saw the sharp flash, with a click, the bronze sword cut open the muscles of the corpse and cut a bone around the neck, but his head was not lost.

Suffering heavy blows, the giant corpse was extremely violent, arms stretched towards Qin Tiange and hugged him hard, trying to restrain him.

However, Qin Tiange was short and drew his sword to hide behind the giant corpse. After aiming at the giant corpse, he stabbed in with a sword.

With a thump, the bronze sword was submerged, and a muffled sound came. The sword stabbed the heart and pierced the body through the chest of the giant.

“Come on!” There was a bit of hotness on Qin Tiange's face, and the bronze sword stirred fiercely. He instantly smashed the giant's heart, then pulled his sword back, and swept across the giant's neck.

Just hearing a click, a huge head soared, and the black blood sprayed three feet high, spilling over the entire delivery room.

“Wow! Whoa whoa ...”

At this moment, there were babies crying in the delivery room, louder than loud, full of some kind of magic and shocking.

After hearing this cry, the four innocent people changed their faces and exclaimed: “The corpse baby is born. Hurry up, and use your hard work to stop the corpse of the corpse baby’s brows.”

Listening to his scream, Qin Tiange turned to look around, and saw that the obese mother zombies suddenly dried up quickly, and then lost a strength and completely turned into a pile of skins.

The corpse baby was born is crawling out of the dead mother’s zombies a little bit, the head slowly protruding from the ***** placenta.

“Wow ... wow ...” As soon as the corpse’s head came out, his eyes hadn’t opened, but he opened his mouth and wept loudly around him, as if he was announcing its coming.

This is a baby girl, looking at no difference from the ordinary human newborn child, but there are strange purple lights all over the body.

Especially the corpse baby’s eyebrow was imprinted with a weird mark, exuding a touch of purple gas, showing a little evil, which brought endless fear.

“Come on, it won’t be too late!” The four innocent people struggled with anxiety to get up, but unfortunately he was too injured, crawled a few times and fell down again.

In the end, he had to yell at Qin Tiange to remind the other party to use painstaking effort to control the corpse baby who was about to be born.

“To shut up!”

Qin Tiange scolded, holding a bronze sword, looking dignified, suddenly stepped forward, raised the sword’s head and stabbed at the head of the corpse infant.

Chapter 228 - Credit to

With a ding, the sword tip paused, and a clear jingling sound made it impossible to pierce.

Qin Tiange’s face changed slightly, and a blocking force came from his hands. The sharp edge of the bronze ancient sword could not penetrate the corpse’s spirit, and was blocked by a faint purple light.

“Use blood, use blood ...” In the corner, the four innocent people looked anxiously, hissing growled.

Qin Tiange was hesitant, but looking at the corpse baby who could not get into it, he finally gritted his teeth and pumped his sword to open a hole in the heart of his left hand.

He controlled the speed of self-healing of the wound on the palm, and the ***** palm pressed against the corpse’s head, and the blood flowed, which stained the corpse’s small head.

Slight blood flowed through the corpse baby’s eyebrows and was absorbed by that weird purple pattern. Just when the four innocent people had complex looks and envy, an accident happened.

“Wow ...” The corpse baby suddenly raised his head, opened his closed eyes, and saw the first glance he saw when he came into the world.

They were pure purple eyes, without impurities, and without the so-called evil, but gave people a feeling of innocence and purity.

Qin Tiange faced these eyes and froze for a moment, his heart pumped fiercely, a trace of cold sweat overflowed from his back, and he felt instinctively that Han Mao was standing upright.

“Dangerous!” A thought flashed, and he was about to pull away from his left hand, but saw the purple trace of the corpse baby’s brows suddenly burst into a strong black light, purple gas surging.

With a bang, a powerful force sent Qin Tiange out to Zhen Fei and smashed into the corner without any preparation.

His face was flushed, he struggled to get up, looked up, and the corpse baby was gone.

“Damn!”

Looking at the disappeared corpse baby, Qin Tiange scolded him, and looked around vigilantly with his sword. Unfortunately, no trace of the corpse baby was seen.

The four innocent people were dumbfounded and stared at the window. He could see very clearly. The purple scar on the corpse’s eyebrow broke out. After shaking Qin Tiange, he crawled out, and then leaped out of the window. .

“Run away?” The four innocents muttered to themselves, eyes dull, as if they hadn’t awoken from the blow.

The corpse baby ran away, proving that Qin Tiange failed and could not control the corpse baby at all. The corpse baby had just been born, even with such a mysterious power to protect himself, even Qin Tiange had to be shocked to fly.

“This corpse baby is very talented and difficult to deal with.” Qin Tiange looked dignified and had a kind of uneasiness in his heart.

The corpse baby ran away, which made him very upset. At first, when the corpse baby was not born, he could kill with a single sword, but the born corpse baby was very talented and guarded by abilities.

That is, Qin Tiange can’t pierce the corpse baby’s head. In fact, this is the effect of the ability of the corpse baby to defend itself. As soon as the time is up, Qin Tiange will definitely kill the corpse baby.

After all, it was just born, it was a baby, it didn’t grow up at all, and it was easy to kill, but unfortunately, there was not enough time.

The saddest thing is the Four Innocents. He spent a lot of energy to control the raising of a corpse baby, but unfortunately, now he is all in one place.

Not only was he badly wounded, he also wasted a lot of spirits, and even finally let the corpse baby run away.

“All told you to hurry up, you just don’t listen. Now that the corpse baby is gone, you will wait for the corpse baby to take revenge.” The four innocent people looked at Qin Tiange fiercely and looked very upset.

Of course, the corpse baby ran away. He failed to control the corpse baby, and the loss was great. You know, once a corpse baby grows up, it must be a generation of corpse emperors. How amazing is it to raise a corpse emperor?

It’s a pity that people are not as good as the heavens, they can make all kinds of calculations, and they are all prepared. After all, they fail and fail completely.

The four innocents suddenly showed a hint of glee and said, “Your boy is out of luck. He can’t kill the corpse baby. In the end, he can’t control the corpse baby. You will suffer in the future.”

“You know, corpse babies are the most vengeful, especially those who have the potential to become the corpse emperor, the most vengeful, you have a good show in the future.” The four innocent people climbed up against the wall and said with a gloat.

That expression is as bad as it owes you. This unscrupulous priest also had a distressed expression just now.

“A corpse baby, what are you afraid of?” Qin Tiange didn’t care, but he was already wary.

The corpse baby is weird, and even more terrible is its growth rate. Once it grows up, it is a huge scourge.

In the previous life, there were three corpse emperors who had appeared, each of them was extremely cruel and horrible, killing countless, it is difficult to kill the three great kings of China.

“Come and come!” Qin Tiange cleared his mood, no longer paying attention, came forward and dug out the four-star corpse crystal, the corpse baby came, he is not afraid of revenge since he has done so.

It depends on whether the corpse baby dared to come to him and trouble him. If he dared to come, Qin Tiange would be happy and just solve this potential threat.

“You priest, with bad intentions, even wants to raise a corpse. It seems that you are not a good bird.” Qin Tiange countered with scorn.

As a result, the four innocent people leaped wildly and scolded, “What do you know, our heavenly masters live on corpses and corpses? Do you think corpses are evil?”

“Look at the current world Demons and monsters are rampant, all kinds of evils are growing, and see what this world has become?”

He was talking, his face was sad and compassionate, and he sighed, “Thinking of the poor is the 386th generation of Tianshidao. Demons in the world run rampantly. He wants to surrender the demons and have more than one mind. Not enough strength. “

“The purpose of raising a corpse is to clean up the demons and monsters in the world, and to return to the world. Your thoughts are too evil, and you do n’t understand too much.”

The four innocent people kept crackling and talking, Qin Tiange listened to the twitching of his face, rolled his eyes silently, but turned and left, without continuing to care about him.

“Hey, hey, it’s not finished yet!”

Seeing Qin Tiange leaving, the four innocent people were in a hurry and wanted to catch up, but unfortunately his body had broken a few bones. At the moment he was seriously injured and couldn’t catch up.

In the end, he had to give up helplessly, and sighed, “Well, Poor Dao is trying to tell you that if your blood sacrifice failed just now, it means that the corpse raising ceremony has failed.”

“It is recorded in the ancestral books of this sect that what will happen after the corpse raising ceremony fails?” The four innocent people thought about it carefully, and finally took out a shabby ancient book and opened it for research.

As a result, because the ancient books were really broken, the above records were incomplete, and I did n’t understand the consequences after failure.

“The immense amount of that great deity, the poor can’t help you anymore, you can ask for more blessings.” The four innocent people smiled and forgot about it.

He claims to be four innocent people, heartless, lungless, and conscience. Naturally, he would not care about Qin Tiange’s life or death, but only himself.

“Dao Dao, very Dao ...”

The four innocent people flicked their hands, carried the seven-star sword, stepped on the seven-star step, sang the sermon song, stepped out of the hospital step by step, and gradually disappeared on the street.

Chapter 229 - Development of the brain domain

Looking at the window of the blood test room of the hospital, Qin Tiange gently closed the curtains, and then he found some glass containers and began to prepare medicine.

He intends to formulate brain-domain development medicaments here, develop his brain potential, and enhance his potential strength.

The formula of the medicine is just one. The ingredients of the medicine and various medicinal materials are densely listed. As long as they are prepared according to the above method, the brain domain development medicine can be prepared.

There are good and bad preparations. The good effects are very strong. The poor effects are very small. The grades of the preparations are also different.

This depends on the mastery and proficiency of the person who formulated the medicine, and Qin Tiange formulated it for the first time, so he does not expect to be able to dispense powerful medicines, at least to do not fail.

Soon, the sound of jars and jars came from the blood test room of the hospital, and Qin Tiange began to refine and prepare meticulously.

Colorful magic butterfly powder, a variety of medicinal materials, the origin of vampire trees, soul beads, and other shore flowers, one by one are extracted and synthesized.

The preparation process is proceeding in an orderly manner. Qin Tiange is not in a hurry. He knows that the preparation of pharmaceuticals must be carried out with special care and strictly in accordance with the formula.

Starting from the afternoon to the west of the month, the hospital was quiet and horrifying, and the entire hospital was alone.

As for the zombies, there were none. The tens of thousands of zombies that had originally been around had already dispersed after he killed the four-star giant.

Ding...

Finally, Qin Tiange picked up a glass container and shook it gently, looking at the constantly boiling liquid in it, emitting a strange and strange light.

This is the brain domain development medicine that has just been formed, and he has finally formulated it, but the efficacy of it is still uncertain.

“I don’t know how many stars the medicinal effect is?” Qin Tiange looked curiously, looking at this prepared medicine.

The development of brain domain is an extremely dangerous thing. Once it fails, there will be only one result, brain death.

“A lot of medicinal materials have been wasted, and it has to be successfully prepared. Let me see now, is this medicine as magical as rumored?”

Qin Tiange murmured to himself, then looked up and drank this unique brain-domain development agent, preparing to develop his brain potential.

In order to become stronger, he is doing everything possible to improve himself, even if he has huge risks.

I sipped it, the taste was extremely weird, bitter, very bitter, like a bile, making it difficult to swallow.

But soon, this kind of suffering was nothing, because Qin Tiange felt his brain buzzing and was instantly lost.

The brain domain is very mysterious. It has always been the most difficult area for humans to study. It is the legendary forbidden area of God.

Once the potential of the brain domain is opened, it is tantamount to opening the forbidden area of God, possessing incredible power, and not knowing the true and false.

Even if it is fake, it can have an extremely powerful brain like the brains of super scientists.

The moment he drank the medicament, Qin Tiange felt his brain shaking, and his consciousness entered an inexplicably dark, chaotic, unopened world.

It's hazy here, it doesn't look real, as if it is an illusion, but it doesn't seem to be, the consciousness can't wake up.

If he is awake at this moment, he must be able to find something unusual on his body, and the internal structure of the brain has begun to be affected by a mysterious potion, which constantly changes and becomes more complicated.

Some undeveloped areas were gradually torn apart and hindered by this force, and the potential was liberated.

Moreover, in his forehead and the position of the heavenly spirit, a trace of black and yellow material leaked out, ticking and tickling, emitting a terrifying stench.

These are impurities and toxins that hinder the development of the brain's potential, and are squeezed out by the mysterious energy of the developed agent.

Ticking ticking ...

Qin Tiange's mouth and nose were bleeding, Qiqiao shed a drop of dark red blood, and it tickled down and fell down, looking particularly dark in the night.

In the blood test room, he was lying on the ground quietly, his body continually convulsed and convulsed, Qiqiao bleeding, more and more, like a stroke person.

The brain is very mysterious and equally dangerous. Once the development of the potential of the brain domain fails, it is equivalent to brain death.

Don't worry about having a medicament. In fact, the biggest danger comes from the development of the medicament itself, because the brain is too fragile.

Qin Tiange knew the dangers hidden in the potion, but he still took it because he believed in the strong resilience of his undead body.

As the blood flowed from Qiqiao, more and more, the whole ground was finally stained red, and even a trace of white matter began to appear.

This white substance, like brain plasma, radiates hot steam with blood flowing out, which is very scary.

Poor Qin Tiange, at this time, even his brain began to be squeezed out. The situation was quite dangerous, and he would die soon.

But strangely, after a lot of brain fluid flowed out, Qin Tiange's twitching and cramping body gradually eased down, and the painful expression gradually disappeared.

The immortal body has played a role in self-recovery. The brain is rapidly repairing itself due to developmental damage, making countless cells at the brain level tougher and tougher and less vulnerable to damage.

The **** smell wafted through the window in the night, and instantly attracted the attention of many bloodthirsty creatures, quietly approaching.

Gecko is one of them. It appears in the dark. The extra bloodthirsty after mutation will eat all other species encountered.

Outside the hospital wall, a faint golden light flashed. It was a huge pale golden gecko who climbed up the hospital along the wall.

Hiss ...

This gecko had golden scales and glittered with a touch of gold, and his eyes shone like broken gold, staring at a hospital window, where the ***** smell came from.

It approached slowly, crawling slowly to the window, but unfortunately there were curtains in it, and it could not see its prey.

But this can't be stumped. I saw that I had to deepen my long tongue, squeeze it into the window gap, and then pull it back, click, and click, and the whole window was tossed away by its tongue.

The window was broken, with a four-meter-long golden gecko, slowly crawling into it.

Inside, Qin Tiange lay there motionlessly. Even if he was in a coma, he still instinctively grasped the bronze sword, which came from the conscious instinct.

Brain development put him in a very dangerous and weird state I didn't know that this golden gecko was close to him.

The golden gecko, extremely rare, is the most cherished species in the gecko class because it has more advanced regenerative substances in its body.

Such geckos are difficult to kill, because they are full of regenerative substances on their bodies, and they can recover quickly after being injured. Even if their heads are lost, they can gradually grow a brand new head in the near future.

Golden geckos, no longer restricted to ordinary geckos can only be reborn, this gecko has been able to achieve the terrible degree of rebirth.

This is the self-superevolution of the species. The golden gecko is one of the best. It is difficult to be successfully hunted. It is not only difficult to find, but also its powerful.

Hiss ...

The golden gecko swallowed his core, stared at Qin Tiange on the ground, and watched vigilantly for a while. After feeling no danger, he launched a raid.

The golden gecko slowly opened his mouth, and stunned, the huge and slender tongue rolled up towards Qin Tiange like lightning. The sticky tongue has strong adhesive force. Once the prey is caught, it is difficult to escape.

Chapter 230 - Super brain

Groan!

A sword murmur rang through the hospital, and was surprised to see that there was a blue light in the darkness, and something was cut off with a thump.

In the darkness, a huge golden gecko with a whole body screamed, and his entire tongue was cut to the ground, slimy and disgusting.

It was frightened, thinking that its prey had no movement, but never thought it would hit him suddenly at the most critical moment, it was too sudden.

“Wait for you!”

Qin Tiange, who was motionless, suddenly stood up and fell dexterously on the neck of the golden gecko, holding a bronze sword, the sword tip swallowed a sharp edge, and pierced the golden gecko’s head fiercely.

With a click, the sword edge penetrated through the body and pierced through it. The golden gecko resisted hard, rolled his body, and wanted to throw the enemy away.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange held it tightly, and the bronze sword penetrated his head, pierced the brain, and soon lost his voice.

In fact, as early as when the golden gecko was approaching, Qin Tiange was awake, but he was just pretending to attract this golden gecko.

He knows very well that the scarcity of golden geckos is absolutely difficult to catch and kill, and now he naturally encounters one.

“Hey ... the golden gecko is still a three-star, it seems that there are a lot of regenerative substances on the body, developed.” Qin Tiange smiled, his blood was too late to wipe, and he laughed like a smile. Demon crawling out of hell.

He pulled out the bronze sword, and once again severely stabbed the neck of the golden gecko, and cut off the neck of the gecko with a click, and his entire head moved.

But don’t think that you can kill this golden gecko, and see that its headless corpse is still struggling. It was just a pretense.

Unfortunately, how he disguised it, he couldn’t escape the palm of Qin Tiange’s palm, and was quickly opened up to take out the flesh and blood that contained regenerative substances in his body.

“Good stuff, super recyclables, this time really developed.”

Soon, Qin Tiange laughed out loud, because he took out a little golden liquid from the body of the golden gecko, which was a mutated renewable substance in the body of the golden gecko, which was rarer and more precious than before.

Super regeneration material is a unique product in the body of the golden gecko. It has super regeneration ability in it, which can not only be dispensed, but also directly applied to the wound and recovered on the spot.

The four-meter-long gold gecko had a lot of super-regenerating substances hidden in it, and it was quickly taken away by Qin Tiange.

“The corpse cannot be wasted. It has a powerful medicinal effect. Keep it first.” Looking at the two golden liquids in his hand, this is the super-renewable substance.

Qin Tiange collected this harvest, and even the golden gecko’s body was not let go. This is a good thing, can’t it be wasted?

After doing this, Qin Tiange found a locker room, took a bath in it, and changed his clothes and armor.

“Cool!”

After taking a shower, Qin Tiange’s face was energetic, his eyes bright and moving, as if he could shine in the dark.

He felt very different at this time, feeling that his brain had never been clearer, and his consciousness had a hollow and transparent feeling.

It’s as if you are thinking about something right now, you can think about it, you can think about it, and you even have all kinds of incredible abilities.

For example, he never forgets, super-computing. Before, he could remember some complicated things, but he had to read it a few times. Now he doesn’t need it. He can remember it again.

The memory has increased significantly, the brain’s computing ability has been greatly enhanced, and the ability to think is even more difficult to estimate. Although there are no powers, it has changed greatly.

The development of brain domains has changed the whole person of Qin Tiange. If you use an example, the day before yesterday was a very ordinary person. Now his brain is like a super scientist like Einstein.

One in the sky, one in the ground, can’t be compared at all. This is the magic and horror of brain domain development, and it instantly became a super brain.

Now how powerful Qin Tiange’s brain is, he himself does not know, only knowing that if he is given time and absorbs all kinds of knowledge, it is not a matter of time. It is only time and knowledge to become a super scientist like Einstein. problem.

Now, as long as he is willing to learn, everything seems very simple, and the problems that originally seemed to him are not so difficult now.

“I took the wrong step before, I shouldn’t do that, I should ...” Qin Tiange’s brain was thinking quickly. What he had done before, he suddenly found that he seemed to have done a lot of things, and there were many things that were unnecessary.

Just like in the previous hospital, the undead corpse baby was directly killed, unnecessary crickets, leading to not only killing but also dying.

“Well ... the combat skills in my brain don’t seem to suit me ...” Soon, the super brain once again autonomously operated, instinctively mobilizing countless computing cells, and began to analyze the type of combat skills learned in memory.

Soon, he found that this was not suitable for himself, because it was not his own comprehension, it seemed a bit stiff.

This discovery surprised Qin Tiange, secretly exulting, and it is indeed the development of the potential of the brain domain, which has achieved excellent results in one fell swoop.

The super brain is like a computer. It constantly calculates various problems, and it is all about self-interest, and calculates things that are in its best interest.

Qin Tiange is obsessed with brain thinking and calculations. He is deeply infatuated and unable to extricate himself. It is as if he is an extremely eager person who is eager to learn countless knowledge.

He pondered over and over again, what combat skills are most suitable for himself and best suited for himself, and the answer he obtained was created by himself, and will always be the most suitable for himself.

What others have created are other people's, with other people's emotions and comprehension, they will never become something of another person. Even if they realize one hundred percent, they are still not his.

"The one that belongs to me is really suitable." Qin Tiange muttered to himself, suddenly gritted his teeth, and made a decision.

He must re-understand his own combat skills, abandon the original understanding, discard it, and realize his own perfect combat skills.

Qin Tiange's super brain is playing an important role at this moment by analyzing the mysteries through the style of ghosts and gods.

One night of analysis and dissection finally allowed him to fully understand the core mystery of the ghost-god style, and reached 100% comprehension.

In fact, this is not what he wants, but to use this type of mystery to comprehend and create his own true mystery.

Outside the window, the sky was already bright, Qin Tiange woke up from his thoughts, and silently walked up to the hospital building with a bronze sword.

He looked up at the misty sky, as if through the endless nothingness, he saw the sun hanging high in the east, red and bright, glowing with light.

Looking at it, Qin Tiange was lost, as if the soul was in a certain state, the super brain was running fast, countless pictures flashed through, and finally turned into a silhouette, a sword, a huge, bright. The stars burst into pieces.

"cut!"

Qin Tiange's consciousness was suddenly sober, he spit out a word instinctively, and drew a sword, as if the figure in his mind had just been chopped out.
