

Dark Ages 26

Chapter 26 - The cost of emulation

“Look at everyone, it’s that person again!”

On a three-story teaching building, a huge classroom is gathering a group of people, men and women, and even a few teachers.

This is a dance classroom, which is very spacious. After the end of the day, a large group of students and teachers run to hide.

They were desperate at first, but once again they saw a man who killed a zombie with a steel knife and let them see hope.

Then they saw it several times, and the man ran to the mysterious stone monument in the center of the football stadium several times, as if doing something.

Not far from the football field, everything on the football field can be clearly seen from the third floor window. At this time, the group of surviving students and teachers saw the appearance of Qin Tiange again.

“Li Feng, what do you think?”

A group of boys, headed by a burly young man with yellow hair, asked.

This young man with yellow hair has a blue dragon on his left arm, which looks extremely mighty and domineering. With that fierce pair of eyes, the average person must have seen some dangers and mixed society.

The man named Li Feng is a junior boy with a pair of eyes, Sven Wen, looks fragile, but his mind is so good.

He pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose, Li Feng’s eyes were sharp, and he stared at Qin Tiange who wandered by the football field outside the window.

He suddenly said softly: “Boss, that person is not from our school. If I guess well, he is either a soldier or a killer, but he should not look like a soldier, but more like a killer.”

“I didn’t ask you who he is, I asked you how he always ran the football field, do you have any secrets to see that stele?” The Huang Mao boss said unhappily.

Li Feng nodded and said earnestly: “The boss guessed very well. The stele definitely appeared suddenly after the end of the day. The original football field did not have this thing at all.”

“You said, would his strength be related to this stele?” Someone raised this question.

Li Yi nodded gently, looking at Qin Tiange over there, and suddenly said, “I think it is very likely, like we bought equipment when we played the game. At that time, he did not have that armor, now it seems that it seems It was bought from that mysterious stele. “

I said here, everyone looked bright and excited. The equipment in the game, just look at Qin Tiange as soon as you know it, they are excited.

The key is, how did the other party get these things from the stone tablet that fell from the sky?

“Boss, you say, will he get this thing in exchange?”

At this moment, someone stood out and found a gray-black crystal from his pocket. At this time, the brain crystal of the zombies.

They originally fled here. During the process, they naturally killed a few classmates who turned into zombies. They stumbled upon this strange crystal growing in the head of the zombies. They didn't understand what it was and kept it. Now they suddenly understood something.

“Yes, it must be so. I saw him digging up this crystal after killing the zombies, it must be.” Someone whispered excitedly.

Everyone found the secrets, their faces flushed, especially the yellow-haired boss, and immediately took the brain crystals hidden in everyone.

Lame enough eleven brain crystals, the Huang Mao boss looked excited, looking at the direction of the football field, the mysterious stone monument standing in the center, made a decision in his heart.

大家 “Look, everyone, I think we have discovered a secret, that guy must know the role of these crystals, so he gained powerful power so quickly, this is our opportunity.”

Boss Huang Huang spoke, and a group of younger brothers immediately became excited, holding watermelon knives or machetes one by one. These were the knives they had brought to school before.

Fortunately, there are these knives, otherwise they do not know ***** those zombies, it is a disaster that came too suddenly.

毅 Li Yi's expression flickered and changed suddenly, he said suddenly, “Boss, let's do it, kill the zombies, take these crystals to see if you have the power and equipment in the game.”

“Yes, do it!”

A group of younger brothers, more than thirty boys immediately agreed, and the old Huangmao Nature did not oppose it. He himself hoped to obtain a powerful force to stabilize his position.

His eyes were shining, and he suddenly swept over the trembling group of girls in the corner. They were disheveled, and obviously many people were bullied.

Even a few female teachers did not escape their sinful hands. Under the disaster, people's hearts changed suddenly, and many people became even more embarrassed, showing their ugly side.

However, there are still two male teachers, but they do not share the same contamination. Instead, they protect most of the girls and a tall, beautiful, and beautiful teacher.

She is the only music and dance teacher in this school. Her pretty face is full of anxiety, wrapped in a thick dress, covering her perfect figure curve.

If the two teachers are not fighting each other, she is likely to be violated by the original students. This is an extremely horrible encounter.

“Li Yi, some of you are optimistic about this group of people. When we get back strength, we will remove the two obstructing teachers. After that, all the women are ours.” Huang Mao’s eyes were vicious and he whispered something like this .

毅 Li Yi’s eyes flashed, hehe laughed: “Boss, don’t worry, they can’t run, but only wait for the mysterious person to leave.”

的 The mysterious person he said was naturally Qin Tiange. Huang Mao and others immediately lay in front of the window, one by one, looking at the edge of the football field, Qin Tiange wandering.

At this moment, Qin Tiange looked ugly, looking at the entire football stadium covered with a one-man tall weed, densely packed, it was not clear what was hidden inside.

“Really **** it!” Hesitating for a long time, Qin Tiange still did not step into it, because the grass in front must have hidden a lot of terrible things.

Sting insects like to hide in the grass, ants, grasshoppers, etc. Small insects used to be different now. Not only have they become bigger, they are also full of powerful and horrific attack power.

“First go back and find a way to burn these weeds.” Finally, Qin Tiange left, went back to prepare, and found something to burn the weed.

When he walked away, Huang Mao and others on the third floor were immediately excited. After watching Qin Tiange, the mysterious man left, he immediately took half of his younger brother and 16 people went out.

Sixteen people, all armed with steel machetes and other weapons, quickly went downstairs. When they encountered zombies, a swarm of bees swarmed up and chopped to death, digging out brain crystals.

They were afraid of these zombies at first, but now they want to meet a little more zombies. Brain Crystal is definitely a good thing.

After killing the dozen or so zombies remaining in this building, Huang Mao and others carefully crossed the campus avenue and came to the edge of the football stadium.

快 “Hurry up, a few of you open your way and cut off those weeds!”

Huang Mao kept on for a moment and directly ordered a few younger brothers to open the road and cut the weeds. The younger brothers had to obediently go forward and wave the machete to cut the weeds despite their reluctance.

Howling ...

Twenty-four boys, dancing with a machete, slashed the tall weeds one by one, cursing yellow hair in their hearts.

As soon as they cut the grass, they caused a lot of noise immediately, and the grass made a rustling sound, but it was a pity that nobody noticed it.

四个 The four were weeding and weeding hard, and suddenly a boy looked terrified and stared at the grass in front of him. raised machete couldn't fall.

“what...”

Suddenly a panic scream came, scaring everyone 哆嗦, Qi Qi turned to look around, the next scene made Huang Mao and others look pale.

I saw that one of the boys who cut the grass was caught under a giant ant, two sharp pliers bit his neck, grunted his head and rolled down, and the blood sprayed on the ground.

Horror, thriller!

Is that an ant? The basketball-sized body, half a meter long, directly broke the boy's neck in one bite, and then quickly nibbled and swallowed.

The scene was extremely **** and scary. The other three boys who cut the grass were almost paralyzed immediately, and they turned to run away. As a result, they just turned around and did not step forward. They were thrown by a few huge things thrown from the grass behind them. Ground.

Two of the boys were smashed by two huge wine-red ants, biting their necks and swallowing for a while, and the other was more horrible, staring at the aorta of the neck by a bowl-sized mosquito, and then swallowing wildly, covering their blood. Get thirsty immediately.

“Ah ... Boss, save, save me ...” The mosquito stared at the man, terrified, and asked for help in his throat, but his body dried up quickly.

The belly of the mutant mosquito swelled like a balloon, and it was bright red. In just ten seconds, the boy's blood was sucked out and it turned into a dead body.

“Run ... Ah!”

Seeing such a horror scene, Huang Mao and others screamed in horror, turned around and ran away, and some of the younger brothers who were running slowly fell to the ground with a few giant insects emerging from the back, and soon sent out fierce misery. The cry is creepy.

They want to gain the same strength as learning Qin Tiange, but they pay a heavy price here.
