

Dark Ages 281

Chapter 281 - Idol

In the dim underground space, the oil lamps swayed, which was weird and weird.

In front of it is a nine-meter-high idol with three black wings, which is the idol of a six-winged fallen angel.

This idol is extremely weird. It is shrouded in a dark atmosphere full of horrible evil, making people creepy.

Hum!

The cross changed and flew away autonomously, inserted in front of the idol, and kept buzzing, and the black gas was soaring into the sky.

I was surprised to see that the three pairs of black wings behind the statue suddenly shocked, and the black gas rolled away, turning into a black flame, burning, covering the entire underground space.

Qin Tiange was cold and arrogant, holding a halberd, quietly and proudly, unmoved, but with twinkling silver awns in his eyes, staring at the idol.

“Humble mortal, don’t you worship my god?”

In the dark fog, such a word suddenly came out, with strange sounds, echoing constantly in the underground space, as if from a distant heaven.

surprise! That statue talked ...

“Shit!”

How do you know, Qin Tiange sneered and sneered: “A statue, you just become a spirit by drawing on the church’s centuries-old willingness to believe that you are a god?”

God? Qin Tiange has not seen it, not in previous lives, as in this life. The statue of the six-winged fallen angel in front of him is just a statue that draws on the church’s centuries of faith. It was due to the dark energy of the doomsday that it gave birth to spiritual wisdom. For god.

“Ignorance, humble mortal, my, great, supreme, I have not yet stepped forward to worship, accept the great power of my own God, and give me immortality.”

“Come, believe me, you will have eternal life!”

In the dark fog, a strange voice came, thrown into the soul, directly into the soul, as if there was some magic power, even the impulse to submit to worship and faith.

Qin Tiange looked cold, and Euphorbia hit the ground fiercely, with a slam, a crack quickly spread and rushed straight towards the idol.

It was a pity that he was three meters in front of him and was obstructed by a black gas and disappeared.

In the dark fog, the statue seemed to have come alive, his eyes slowly opened, two beams of horrible light burst out, looking at Qin Tiange faintly, as if the true  had come to judge sin.

“Mortal, blasphemy against God will be punished by God!”

There was a cold sentence from that statue, without emotion, as if it were the true God who is high above, looking down at the mortal world.

After hearing this, Qin Tiange sneered at the corner of his mouth and hummed: “Don’t talk badly, a statue, don’t say you are not a god, even if the real  fallen angel comes, I don’t have to be afraid of you.”

“What’s more, it’s just the wisdom of a small statue, and you want to judge me, depending on whether you have the ability.”

After Qin Tiange said, Euphorbia stabbed across the air and pierced the air with a whining sound, pierced through the black mist, and took the statue in front of the black mist.

when!

With a loud noise, Mars broke apart, and a black cross emerged to block the halberd. The powerful black gas rolled and shook Qin Tiange’s body.

He looked dull, his eyes were cold, and he stared at the statue, disdainfully, “You don’t have to do it, you can’t move at all. Just when you have spiritual wisdom, your statue itself can’t be moved.”

“Here, blasphemy, be a god!”

The idol was angry, the black gas rolled, and it turned into a raging flame that swept away, engulfing Qin Tiange, a human who desecrated it.

In fact, this statue is just a  of wisdom. It is not a so-called god, but it is the absorption of centuries of vows, combined with the impact of dark energy at the end to create consciousness.

In previous lives, there were still many phenomena such as idols that produced this kind of idols. Qin Tiange had seen many of them. At that time, humans called them aliens.

Yes, the deities produced by these idols have been alienated by human beings, not gods, but they all call themselves gods.

“Fire, judge the heresy of sin!”

In the dark fog, a cold word came, and it was seen that the dark sky was turning into flames, and it was swept up by the blast, which drowned Qin Tiange.

The flames were blazing, showing the cold and evil intentions, and had a strong force of corrosion. Even the steel was burned through by corrosion and the ground was melted.

“Ghosts and gods, dominate the world!”

Suddenly, a loud drink was heard, and the figure was vacated, and the blue air was intertwined, turning into a huge virtual shadow, and slamming the front with a halberd.

With a bang, the black fire collapsed and dispersed, and the endless black gas disappeared, revealing the appearance of the statue.

It opens and closes its eyes, with black gas surging, the flames tumbling, it looks very angry, and the three pairs of black wings behind it are constantly shaking, emitting a ray of black flame.

“Damn!” The idol was furious, his attack was broken, and now he couldn’t hold it, and looked a little anxious.

Seeing it like this, Qin Tiange Hengji laughed: “Why, don’t you continue to pretend, go on, don’t you say that you are almighty god?”

“Here, find death!”

The idols were angry, the wings behind them were trembling, the sky was dark, and they rolled up. Unfortunately, it was smashed by Qin Tiange’s halberd and broke easily.

In fact, this idol does not have much attacking means, because it has not been completely transformed, but has only produced spiritual wisdom.

Only when the idol itself is completely transformed into a real *, can it be completely transformed. Once born, it is a powerful alien creature.

Like the six-winged fallen angel statue in front of me, at this time, even one arm has not turned into a *, let alone other abilities. Naturally, it is limited by the statue. As long as the statue is broken, it will completely dissipate.

“I didn’t expect that I was lucky. I encountered a strange alien creature that just gave birth to a psychic creature. It seems that I have learned a lot today.” Qin Tiange smiled hesitantly.

He held the halberd and approached the idol step by step, but it caused a huge rebound of the idol. The black cross in front of him suddenly flew up and hit him overhead.

when!

Euphorbia swept across and struck the weird cross. Qin Tiange’s face was cold and cold, his eyes flickered with two cold mangs, and he killed himself.

Heterogeneous, once rumored to be born, it will be at least ten stars, and there will be no pressure for promotion in the future.

Of course, if you want to be transformed, you want to completely transform the idol into *, which requires a huge amount of energy, even a strong will.

“I heard that once the idol is born with wisdom, the heart will take the lead to become a living heart, known as an immortal heart, I don’t know if it is true?” Qin Tiange sneered and kept whispering these words.

The idol was furious, black gas, and thunderous, but unfortunately it could n’t move, let alone escape. The only thing he could do was deceive, seduce alive, and even attack Qin Tiange, a guy who rushed in. .

Unfortunately, in the beginning, deceiving failed and temptation failed Even after a war, he was not Qin Tiange’s opponent and naturally seemed anxious.

“Mortal, this is just one of my idols, you better leave, otherwise you will be punished by me most cruelly.”

Finally, the deity spoke, threatening Qin Tiange to leave, threatening that it was just a statue of it, and there were many other idols in it.

In other words, this is one of its avatars, not the subject. The other avatars or subjects are still in some countries or places.

“Joke!” Qin Tiange kept walking, holding the halberd and smirking: “Today, don’t want to live, I want to kill a stranger, and see if your heart has completely transformed into *, is there really a rumor? That kind of immortal effect? ”

Idols, once transformed, are real creatures, first of all, the heart, known as the  heart, with a powerful and mysterious effect, known as the immortal heart.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange screamed violently, his body leaped, and he waved the halberd to the front of the idol to slam it in the past. The heavy halberd broke through the black mist and the violent force screamed.

Chapter 282 - Soul Eater, Undead Heart

when!

The black cross stood in front of it, and the black gas surged, and a sound of gold and iron clashes came out, and sparks scattered.

Qin Tiange was blocked with a blow, his face remained unchanged, his feet kicked after his body landed, and the cracks on the ground cracked, and the whole man jumped up again.

“Ghost halberd, kill!”

The strongest blow, the ghost and the halberd, savagely killed it, and the halberd was like a mountain. It was heavily pressed against the black cross, and flew out on the spot.

Immediately following the turquoise light, a huge phantom banged on the nine-meter-tall six-winged fallen angel statue.

Huh!

Hearing only a loud noise, the entire underground space was trembling slightly, and the black gas was broken out wildly, exposing the idol itself.

The next moment, the crackling noises continued to spread, and the idol cracked, slowly cracking from head to toe, more and more.

“Here ... when you are foolish!” The idol is extremely angry, and the body is wounded, but Dong Dan cannot, the only thing that can be done is to counterattack with strange black gas.

It is a pity that those strange black gas did not have much effect on Qin Tiange, and his halberds were broken down.

Boom, the three pairs of wings behind the idol shook violently, black fire rolled up, Qin Tiange's figure swiftly turned over and fell, and a halberd hit in the past.

boom!

The black gas dissipated, the flames burned, and gradually dissipated. Surprised to see that Qin Tiange had a faint smile on his face, the whole person continued to flash, and the endless blue light of the halberd whistled.

I saw a flash of blue light, and a bang, the idol's eyebrow broke a hole on the spot, and a stream of black gas spewed out from inside, as if blood was shocking.

“Ghost, die!”

With a swift drink, accompanied by Qin Tiange's whole body of masterpieces, he turned into a huge cyan phantom and suddenly pounced on the statue, and fell from the beginning to the next halberd.

“what...”

There was a scream from inside the idol. With the loud noise, the entire idol shattered from the beginning and fell down.

A violent and overbearing blow finally broke the idol, and the black gas billowed like a volcanic eruption.

Buzz ...

Qin Tiange retreated with his halberd, staring sharply at the half-broken idol, and black gas kept flowing, like blood flowing out.

The scene was weird. What was even more weird was that a black shadow burst out from that idol, and the whole body was black and billowing, like a burning flame.

“Here, I will return ...”

The shadow struggling, such a crazy roar, turned into a six-winged angel and flew up, about to escape.

“I want to run, no way!” Qin Tiange snorted, and the halberd spun into the air. The whole person turned into a blue light, as if the halberds were one.

With a whining sound, Qingguang Cave penetrated the shadow of the fluttering wings, penetrated its body, and nailed it to the wall.

“Ah ... I'm not willing, not willing!”

The black shadow was nailed, sending unwilling sorrow, struggling hard, the six wings trembled, but unfortunately was nailed there by Euphorbia.

Soon, the shadow stopped moving, and only a weak, roaring roar was still echoing.

In the end, Hei Ying was swallowed by Euphorbia. Yes, if you read it correctly, it was swallowed by Euphorbia.

Soul Devourer can swallow the spirit body. Qin Tiange saw this before he understood the meaning of the word soul swallow, which is that he can easily swallow the spirit body.

“It’s worthy of being a soul-stealer, but it can swallow a spirit body?” Qin Tiange muttered such a word with surprise.

As a result, before he could react, he felt a cold energy from the halberd, which instantly flowed into his mind.

“This is it?” Qin Tiange was startled first, then ecstatic. It turned out that this energy turned out to be the power of the soul from which the six-winged fallen angel idol was born.

That’s right, the power of the soul that gave birth to the six-winged fallen angel statue was fed back to the master Qin Tiange after being devoured by the soul eater.

The powerful soul power is extremely pure, revealing an endless coldness, as if the ghost fire from * is burning in the sea.

“His ... it’s cold!” Qin Tiange took a nap, the whole face frosted, and began to freeze from the inside out.

Immediately afterwards, a black flame emerged from the center of the eyebrows, which spread quickly all over the body, forming a trend of wildfire incineration, enveloping Qin Tiange as a whole.

That’s the power of the spirit from the six-winged fallen angel deity. The fire of * can burn the soul and corrupt everything.

Qin Tiange consciously at home, the endless black fire was burned, the soul was tempered, and a little impurity was burned out, more transparent.

He didn’t feel the danger, and the power of the soul from the Euphorbia contained this talented ability to let him absorb it together.

“it is good!”

After a long time, the black fire disappeared, hiding in the depths of the soul, and Qin Tiange was awake from it, and could not help yelling.

He couldn’t resist the excitement and excitement of the great opportunity. The whole man was immersed in the sea of his consciousness and really saw his empty space.

This is the first time that he has introspected the sea of his own consciousness, proving that his consciousness has been greatly improved just now, and his soul has transformed.

Absorbed the huge soul power transmitted from Euphorbia, known as the divine soul, is the spiritual intelligence generated by the six-winged fallen angel idol, and contains huge soul power.

This soul power is very pure, there is no obstacle to absorption, and there is no danger. At once, Qin Tiange’s soul level has been raised again, and it has reached transformation. You can look inside.

Bear!

Deep in the palm of Qin Tiange's palm, a mass of black flames rose and burned, exuding an extremely cold atmosphere.

"Hey, hey, I have talent?" Qin Tian looked at the black flame in his palm and couldn't help laughing.

This is the inherent talent from Hell's Fallen Angel. If the opponent has not completed the true transformation, this talent is not strong, otherwise it is really impossible to deal with.

Putting down the black inflammation, Qin Tiange came to the broken statue, and the black cross was obliquely inserted there, and the black air coiled around.

In the fragment of the idol, a faint glance of black was seen, and a digging turned out to be a beating heart.

"Immortal heart?" Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and stared at the huge heart, muttering and beating constantly, extremely powerful.

This is a living heart, the size of a human head, black, crystal clear, as if carved from black diamonds.

Strangely, this heart is still beating. It is a truly alive heart. It is said that the heart never stops, known as immortal heart.

"Undead heart, is really weird." Qin Tiange picked up the heart, feeling the kind of beating from the heart, shocking people.

In my heart, a trace of black blood flowed out, and then went back, this strange and weird phenomenon made people's scalp explode.

However, Qin Tiange was not afraid, but showed a hint of joy, and carefully collected the so-called immortal heart.

"I'm right this time. I didn't expect a six-winged fallen angel idol to produce psychic intelligence. It would be really difficult for him to transform into a *." Qin Tiange looked at the fragment of the idol broken into stones, and couldn't help but sigh .

Shaking his head, Qin Tiange pulled up the black cross and looked at it without damage. He didn't know what material it was, and put it together.

Uh ... roar!

As soon as he got out of the basement, he heard an extremely angry tiger howling from outside, which surprised Qin Tiange and hurried out of the church.

Chapter 283 - Rune Run

Outside the church, a huge white tiger screamed with rage. Around him, a group of people wearing black clothes and black trousers, covering their faces with bearded looks, were besieging the white tiger.

“East?”

On the top of the building, Qin Tiange stood with a halberd, and looked at the eight besiegers who were besieging the White Tiger in surprise, who turned out to be Dongmen.

Where are the Dongmen from Shenzhen? Qin Tiange was curious, instead of rushing to pass, he stood here and observed carefully.

He found that the eight masked men of Dongsong were dressed like bears, each with good strength, and were all one-star intensifiers.

But in the face of a four-star white tiger, it is simply a delivery of food. If it weren't for the white tiger playing with them, it might have died.

Because Qin Tiange had already explained it, he must not hurt others at will. He naturally obeyed his master's orders, so he always played with this group of Dongmen.

“There is still a person hidden there.” Soon, Qin Tiange realized that there was still a person hidden there.

He faintly felt a breath, very strong, but also at the two-star level, the combat effectiveness is not the same as Bai Hu and him.

Nine people, eight siege white tigers, one was hiding nearby, and a cruel smile gradually appeared on Qin Tiange's face.

“Dong people should have arrived in Huaxia before the end of the day. Otherwise, Dong people now don't want to cross the sea to Hua Xia.” Qin Tiange made a guess.

These Dong people may have come to Huaxia before the end of the day. Otherwise, in the current situation, the sea is more dangerous. Dong people think that it is a dream to cross the sea to enter Huaxia.

“Hey, it's interesting.” Qin Tiange watched Bai Hu play with the eight Eastern warriors, one by one, dressing up, holding a samurai sword, constantly jumping and moving, besieging White Tiger.

It looks like a group of monkeys, jumping up and down, while the white tiger dodges, showing contempt, the tiger's eyes show contempt.

“Kill!” Qin Tiange spoke, spitting out two words softly, but Bai Hu heard it.

Roar!

Suddenly, the white tiger broke out and broke into a fire. A tiger swooped down on one of them, and his claws went down fiercely, and a brain and blood burst on the spot.

One died, and the other seven were a little panicked and startled by the sudden change.

“Baga, this white tiger is playing on us, hurry up!”

One of them drank in a low voice, showing a little horror and anger, thinking that the White Tiger was not strong, but he never wanted to play tricks on them and suddenly killed someone.

Seeing this scene, the other seven ninjas panicked, and hula opened up, the speed is called a fast, but unfortunately, can it be faster than Baihu?

Roar!

The white tiger roared, his limbs kicked, and the ground slumped. The huge body struck a ninja over a distance of more than ten meters.

“Ah ... Bajaya Road, help me ...” The man screamed, the call for help came to an abrupt halt, and Bai Husheng stepped on it into a mud.

“Run!”

The remaining six ninjas were terrified, and spread apart, fleeing each other in an attempt to distract Bai Hu’s attention, but unfortunately he missed it.

How fast is the White Tiger? The four-star white tiger was as fast as lightning, and when the white light flashed, the upper body of a ninja slammed and broke, and the remaining two feet fell on the ground instinctively.

“stupid!”

The others looked terrified, panicked, and ran faster. The last five ninjas, one of them saw the White Tiger catch up, and was frightened to take out a black ball and smash it to the ground.

With a slam, the smoke rolled over and enveloped the man, losing his trace. And the white tiger chasing and killing his eyes flashed a scorn, and it was ridiculous to play a little trick in front of it.

I saw that Bai Hu raised a tiger’s claw and slammed in a cloud of smoke spreading to the side, smashed with a bang, flesh flew, and was shot dead before he could scream.

The ninja wanted to hide his body by the smoke and avoid it. Unfortunately, he made a mistake and noticed that Bai Hu not only had strong eyesight, but also had an abnormal sense of smell. It was really difficult to avoid it and track it.

“what...”

One ninja after another died tragically, and they were beaten one by one by the white tiger.

Bai Hu chased after him, slamming one claw, and finally there was a ninja, fleeing wildly, climbing to the top of a building, shivering.

However, before he was lucky, thinking about the ten-story height, the white tiger could not jump up, nor would he climb up, and finally felt relieved.

“Childish!” Seeing this scene, Qin Tiange couldn’t help sneering, the other party was really naive, thinking that the tiger would be safe if he could not climb the tree?

But who stipulates that White Tiger will not climb up the roof? When I first saw Bai Hu, Qin Tiange saw Bai Hu standing on top of a tall building.

Roar!

Sure enough, Bai Hu speeded up a few times and suddenly jumped up, so his limbs ran up the wall of the high-rise building like this, yes, just ran up.

“Baga!” The ninja was startled. The whole man couldn’t calm down. He turned and ran, trying to jump.

As a result, a white shadow rushed up and grabbed his body. His paw clicked and crushed his heart, ending his life.

Before his death, the ninja screamed, “Qianlu, hurry up!”

After shouting, the white tiger was extremely upset. The tiger’s claws smashed his head, and even the cement on the roof was beaten out of a large pit.

“There is one more!” Qin Tiange held his halberd and kept staring at the place where the hidden man was. When the eight ninjas were killed, the hidden people did not dare to stay, flashed, and disappeared into the corner .

Seeing this, Qin Tiange sneered, humming, “Wherever you want to come, just leave as you want, how can it be so easy?”

“Little white, catch up!”

Qin Tiange leapt forward and landed steadily on the back of the rushing white tiger, ordering to catch up with the escaping figure.

It was the last East man, petite, tightly packed, fast, and good.

Especially during the running, the two peaks and ridges on the chest kept undulating and shaking, making Qin Tiange realize that it was a woman.

“Qianlu, is it a member of the Qianhe family, one of the eight major forces in the East?” Qin Tiange chased on a white tiger, thinking about this question.

In the previous life, Dongyu had eight of the biggest forces, rising from the end, and one of them was the self-proclaimed Qianhe family.

This family gave birth to two king-level masters. It can be said that it was strong for a while. Of course, the entire Dongluo was also an emperor-level master, and the first emperor-level was not.

“Interesting, grab this Dongying chick and question it.” Qin Tiange suddenly sneered and made a decision.

He was going to catch this Donglu chick called Qianlu and interrogate to see if he was from the Qianhe family of the eight major families of Donglu.

“Damn, Bai Hu is actually the mount of the Chinese?”

Ahead, the fleeing petite figure was frightened by Qin Tiange, who was chasing after him on a white tiger.

She did not expect that this white tiger turned out to be a mount for Chinese people, which shocked Qianlu and felt incredible.

The powerful white tiger, who played with her group of friends, shot one by one after death. It was absolutely powerful, which made her thought of going back to breeding as a mount completely extinguished.

Looking at it now, there was a Chinese who was riding on the White Tiger, didn't it mean that the White Tiger was actually the other's mount.

Moreover, the other party kept watching nearby, thinking of this, Qianlu was so cold in her heart that she couldn't help overflowing with sweat, and wet her black tights, looming her proud figure.

"Qianlu, obediently stop surrendering. I can be gentle and not torture you. If you resist, then don't blame me for using tough and * methods."

Qin Tiange rode a white tiger and said such a word to the Qianlu who ran away ahead. The result actually made the opponent run faster.

"Asshole!"

Qianlu was crying anxiously. Seeing the white tiger getting closer, she was about to be caught up. No matter how she accelerated, she could not get rid of the white tiger's tracking.

"You can only use this!" Qianlu looked back at Qin Tiange on the white tiger, and there was a trace of coldness and determination in his eyes.

Surprised, she suddenly smashed a piece of jade charm on the spot and clicked, and a large light burst into the jade charm to wrap her.

Huh?

"Amulet?"

Qin Tiange stunned, slammed the white tiger, and the latter noticed an instant acceleration, and flew back behind Qianlu in a blink of an eye.

Unfortunately, the light flashed, Qianlu disappeared and disappeared.

"Want to run, thought you could run with the magic sign?"

Seeing Qian Lu disappear, Qin Tiange not only was not angry, but showed a sneer and looked at the distance, and patted Bai Hu to catch up directly.

The magical rune, a disposable item that can be exchanged for an autobiographical stele, allows a person to escape instantly and passively, and escapes a distance of 10,000 meters within five seconds. It is a good escape.

Of course, this thing has many restrictions, such as using magic signs, the body can not move, can only be passively wrapped around and taken away.

With a magical sign, Qianlu flickered with a ray of light and quickly appeared ten thousand meters away. It seemed to be teleportation, but it was not teleportation. The whole process took five seconds.

In other words, within five seconds, she was taken by the light beyond ten thousand meters, and appeared to her body. Qianlu's tights were broken and her skin was exposed, and the proud half of the mountain peak continued to shake with rapid breathing. , Full of temptation.

“Return to Xiangcheng first ...” Qianlu was pale, and whispered, and turned away quickly, without knowing anything, Qin Tiange from behind was riding a white tiger to catch up.

Chapter 284 - Family beast, real snapping turtle

Xiangcheng, also known as Xiangjiang, is adjacent to Shenzhen.

Followed all the way from Shenzhen City, a few hours later came to Tianfu Port, which is the entrance of Shenzhen City and Xiangcheng Customs.

“This chick wants to go to Xiangcheng?”

In the back, Qin Tiange, who was hanging from a distance, rode a white tiger and chased for more than three hours. He originally wanted to catch each other, but changed his mind later.

This young girl named Qianlu, who seems to have a companion, probably has a lot of industries in Huaxia Xiangjiang, which made him want to follow him.

In this way, one was running away, the other was secretly tracking. More than three hours later, the girl drove a modified Hummer into the realm of Xiangcheng.

On the bridge, Qin Tiange looked pensively at the hummer, and the opposite side was Xiangcheng. Qin Tiange never went there before or after the end.

“The Qianhe family has a lot of industries in Huaxia. Even if the past life is the end, there is a lot of power in Huaxia. It is necessary to explore.”

With this in mind, Qin Tiange set off directly, rushed away riding a white tiger, wielded Euphorbia all the way, and slashed the blocking zombies on the bridge.

He digs the nucleus without any thought, runs all the way, chases Qianlu who drives Hummer in front, and quickly crosses the bridge and enters Xiangjiang.

Qianlu drove the modified Hummer, rammed into a country road, and drove all the way without knowing that a white tiger was following closely.

Since entering Xiangcheng's area, Qianlu has obviously relaxed a lot, and a little anger has flashed from time to time.

“The abominable Huaxia people killed eight family warriors. If the sister of the headquarters is known, she must be suppressed by her excuses.” Qianlu looked resentful and hated Qin Tiange.

The eight family warriors are all one-star intensifiers. It can be said that she was an elite team cultivated by her own hands, but she was damaged in Shenzhen.

In her hands, there are not many such elites. Once her sister knows, she will certainly make excuses to suppress her and even get rid of her.

The fighting in the family is extremely * and cruel. Even brothers and sisters can fight for your life. This is the secret of several ancient families in Dongbei.

An hour later, Qianlu Luxia Ma Xiawan Village, Qianlu stopped Hummer and jumped out of the car.

She looked around vigilantly, and then quickly entered the village in front, bypassing the Qingshan and a stream, and came to a secret stronghold of the Qianhe family in Xiangjiang.

“Sure enough, the Qianhe family has a lot of power in the Huaxia Xiangjiang.”

In the back, Qin Tiange, who caught up, watched quietly, watching Qianlu walk into Xiawan Village, and realized in his heart that this is likely to be a stronghold of the Donglu Qianhe family in China.

He followed carefully, riding a white tiger around the stream, walking up a wooden bridge, and then entering the village.

Upon entering, I immediately saw a tall fence, reinforced concrete fortifications, ten meters high, occupying most of the entire Xiawan Village.

“Interesting, the Qianhe family ...” Qin Tiange looked at the constructed reinforced concrete city wall and couldn’t help showing a sneer.

Riding a white tiger, bypassing this wall, in a dilapidated house in Xiawan Village, Qin Tiange resettled the white tiger and climbed the wall quietly alone.

Inside the wall, it is exactly around the central area of Xiawan Village. There are hundreds of houses in it, and there are people patrolling them, all of them are people wearing the armor of the Eastern Warrior.

“Miss Qianlu, why are you coming back alone?”

Qianlu hurriedly walked in, and an old man came face to face, dressed in a kimono, who looked like Dongsong people, and was the steward of the Qianjiang base of the Qianhe family.

The old man looked at Qianlu, and asked strangely, didn’t he take a dozen or so family members when he went out?

Why did she come back alone now? The old man felt bad. Sure enough, Qianlu did not elaborate, but just said she was sent out to perform the task.

“Perform the task?” The old man looked at Qianlu leaving in a hurry, his eyes blinked, and murmured: “It seems that Miss Qianlu is in trouble, most of them have been damaged, and she must report to the owner, Miss Qianhe, as soon as possible. “

The old man hurriedly left, Qianlu did not know, but the old man sent her sister to watch her every move.

“The internal struggle of the Qianhe family is interesting.”

Outside the fence, Qin Tiange lay there carefully, observing the old man who had left in a hurry, only then the other party muttered that he could hear clearly.

Looking at Qianlu again, walking towards the back of Xiawan Village, family samurai patrolled along the way, some held guns and ammunition in their hands, and some were equipped with katana.

“Follow up!”

Qin Tiange thought for a moment, immediately turned over the mountain and quietly entered Xiawan Village, escaped several patrol teams, followed Qianlu, and came to the end of Xiawan Village.

There was a low mountain there, the stream was clear, and I walked over to find that there was a huge water pond, which seemed to have been dug out by hand.

In the water pool, there are icy streams flowing down from the mountain stream, converging into a water pool, 300 meters in diameter, like a huge swimming pool.

Qianlu came to the pool, and suddenly took out a lot of fresh meat from the storage ring. It was the meat of the mutant creature, and the corpse was still bleeding. It must have been killed shortly.

This is the harvest she got when she took someone out to hunt mutant creatures. Unfortunately, she almost couldn't return after seeing a white tiger.

"It's all Huaxia people, abominable!" Qianlu threw a mutated corpse into the water pond, and scolded Qin Tiange and the white tiger in his mouth.

Seeing her doing so, Qin Tiange, who kept up, hid quietly, looked at in surprise, and did not rush to subdue the chick.

Qianlu released a full 30 fresh mutant corpses, the blood stained the pool water, and she even took off her torn clothes on the spot, exposing that exquisite and beautiful figure, full of temptation.

"Take a bath?" Qin Tiange's mouth twitched, his eyebrows raised, a look of interest appeared on his face, his eyes stared at Qianlu, who was naked.

She stepped into the pond step by step, faced with holiness, as holy as a pilgrimage, and felt unbearable.

"In a few days, the beast I raised will be advanced, and then I can kill and go back to find the Huaxia man to get revenge." With a look of excitement, Qianlu looked at the middle of the pool, where a stream of blisters was rising.

She was standing naked in the water, spreading her hands, as if to meet something, something was coming out underwater.

"Oh?" Qin Tiange, who was hiding his figure, gave a suspicion, his eyes flickered with silver awns, and he looked at the center of the huge water pond.

The bubbling of the bubbling gurgles, and as the blood stains the water, it seems to startle a giant underwater object.

Gulong, Gulong ...

The water was tumbling, rising from the ground, a large black shadow slowly emerged from the water, and the entire pool of water was shaking.

Suddenly, with a loud bang, a huge water column rushed into the sky ten meters high, scattered and spread into a water curtain.

Immediately afterwards, a behemoth slowly emerged from the water, protruding a huge head, gigantic and huge.

“God tortoise, enjoy your delicious meal!” Qianlu saw a huge head coming up, her face holy, her voice shouting hollowly.

That huge head, two turquoise eyes staring directly at the Chilü covered with red fruit, then slowly poked out his head, opened his mouth, bit the corpse of one of the mutant creatures and swallowed it.

“A mutant real crocodile turtle?” Qin Tiange looked surprised, looking at the huge head, five meters thick, his mouth full of dense fangs, his jaw bent sharply, as sharp as an eagle’s mouth, and full of horrible bite force.

The Qianhe family even raised a huge real crocodile turtle here. Looking at the huge sharp armor shields on its forehead, it looks like it has been hundreds of years old.

boom!

Suddenly, the mutant real snapping turtle that was eating suddenly looked up, staring directly at the hidden place of Qin Tiange, suddenly opening his mouth and spraying a water column.

“Discovered!”

Qin Tiange’s thoughts flashed in his mind, the speed was not slow, and he jumped quickly and smartly into the air, turned over and avoided this huge water column, and landed on the ground steadily.

“It’s you?”

Seeing the person, Qianlu turned wild, covered his upper body with both hands, immersed himself in the water to hide his body, his complexion changed, and he became red and white for a while.

She did not expect that Qin Tiange would chase here, and she did not find her along the way, and even came to the forbidden area where she kept the family beast.

One person and one turtle confronted each other. Qin Tiange did not look at Qian Lu’s shame, but stared at the behemoth slowly appearing in front of him, a mutant real snapping turtle.

A * beast raised by the Qianhe family has been rumored to have a hundred years of history, and has been kept secretly in Huaxia. It is the first time I have seen it today.

“It turned out to be her, Qianlu, the tortoise, and one of the two young and beautiful kings of the previous family’s Dongzhang Qianhe family.”

Qin Tiange suddenly remembered, Qianlu, no wonder the name is somewhat familiar, turned out to be one of the two king-level masters of the Qianhe family, two sisters, Qianlu is the younger sister, sister Qianhe is the head of the contemporary family.

This is fun, Qin Tiange is interested in looking at hiding in the water, only revealing a head of Qianlu, this Eastern girl is hot and very charming.

hiss...!

At this moment, the real crocodile opened his mouth to scream, low and hoarse, as if a dragon and snake were roaring.

The huge body, the shell of the turtle is twenty meters wide, and the huge turtle's back is densely covered with sharp and sharp armor shields, shining with metallic luster.

It was furious, an outsider broke in, opened his mouth and launched an attack directly on Qin Tiange, and a water column crashed into it.

Chapter 285 - Lead out the beast to prepare for slaughter

boom!

The water column hit the soil, and a big pit was hit immediately, and the water splashed, but Qin Tiange hid it subtly.

He rolled over to the ground and looked at the huge real snapping turtle in surprise. He did not expect that he could use water column attack, but it was a powerful method.

It is worthy that the Qianhe family has kept the  beast secretly for more than a hundred years. It has been psychic, and after being mutated, it is even more amazing. It has super powerful ability and has five stars.

The five-star mutant made Qin Tiange start to doubt this Qianhe family, and it was incredible that he could cultivate such a monster.

Of course, the situation after the mutant of the real snapping turtle gene is still surprising, such a monster has a strong attack power.

Unfortunately, its speed is not enough. It seems too slow for Qin Tiange. It takes ten seconds to get up from the pool, and the ground comes with vibration every time you take a step, and the water waves are soaring.

boom!

The real crocodile turtle stood up completely, crawled out of the water pool, and went up to the shore. The huge body, tortoise shells as high as ten meters and twenty meters wide, and dense and spiky spiky, looked terrifying.

"Damn, do you even follow me?" Qianlu has already taken this opportunity to land and put on a new set of tights. His face is full of anger, his eyes are glaring at Qin Tiange, with sharp hands in each hand. Samurai sword.

Hey!

Qin Tiange smiled, ignored the chick with only two stars, but stared greedily at the huge real snapping turtle.

In his eyes, tortoises are precious species that provide long-lasting blood. The last time he killed only the eighth king of the millennium. Although it is called the millennium, it is only more than ten years old.

If it were not for a genetic variant, it would not be possible to grow like that, and even condense the growing blood. Now this real snapping turtle is different, and has been secretly raised by the Qianhe family for hundreds of years.

Moreover, they used precious medicinal herbs and cherished animals to feed them, which resulted in a huge amount of medicinal properties accumulated in the body of the real crocodile tortoise. In addition to the current genetic variants, huge amounts of longevity blood were produced in the body.

“Good thing, you must kill!” Qin Tiange licked his dry lips, and his heart moved.

But he knows that this is the secret stronghold of the Chizuru family. How many family warriors are still unknown here, not even what dangerous weapons are hidden, so he must be careful.

After thinking about it, Qin Tiange immediately thought that he would anger the real crocodile completely and lead him to leave this Xiawan Village and settle it outside.

“Kill!” When you think about it, Qin Tiange sighs angrily, his whole body is full of murderous intentions, his body leaps tens of meters high, and he shoots the halberd straight to get the head of a real snapping turtle.

Just listening to the bang, the real crocodile screamed, his head blossomed, and blood spewed out. It was too large and slow, so he couldn’t escape being hurt.

hiss...

The wounded real snapping turtle was extremely violent, hissing, and he rushed up, opened his huge mouth to swallow Qin Tiange.

It’s a pity that the latter is too fast. It’s not what it wants to swallow. The only thing it eats is a mouth full of sand.

“Come, come and kill me!”

Qin Tiange sneered, twitched his fingers, then turned to speed up and rushed towards a wall behind Xiawan Village.

Behind, the real snapping turtle seems to be irritated, it has a lot of wisdom, like an irritated child, chasing up and killing him crazy.

The loud noise, the huge real crocodile tortoise stepping on the ground, spreading the eight characters, madly chasing and killing Qin Tiange, no matter how the Qianlu behind called it, it was useless.

“God beast, come back, come back!”

Qianlu was anxious, watching the family beasts chasing after him, drinking immediately to stop it, but unfortunately the real snapping turtle didn’t care a bit, as if chasing Qin Tiange like crazy.

It instinctively felt that eating Qin Tiange had a huge amount of benefits. In his small consciousness, he simply ignored and directly pursued the killer.

As for why it feels good to eat Qin Tiange, it may be that the latter has an immortal body and built-in immortality, which is extremely tempting to the real snapping turtle.

Hiss ... 咚隆, 咚隆!

Xiawan Village shook. A huge real crocodile turtle ran madly. Every step trembled, the ground shook, the sand was flying, and the ground was sunken.

Ahead, watching the real crocodile turtle catch up, Qin Tiange's mouth evoked a smile, and he dared to catch up just to his heart.

“Baga, what happened?”

At this time, in the Xiawan Village, a team of samurai warriors from the East were stunned. Looking at the continuous sound from the end of the village, they saw the huge real snapping turtle. Some warriors exclaimed, “It's a family beast. What's going on seems to be angered.”

“Who is it that angers the beast?”

The old man came back, full of anger, looking at the real crocodile turtle mad, and his heart was angry.

He thought, was it that Qianlu angered the beast while feeding, and that was the only way to guess.

“Hurry up, catch up with the beast.”

Finally, the old man ordered that a team of ninja warriors immediately set off to catch up with the real snapping turtle.

But at this moment, the real crocodile turtle saw Qin Tiange swiftly turn over, flew out of the front wall, and rushed into it.

There was a loud noise, the smoke was rolling, the wall collapsed, and the crocodile turtle slammed into a slump, and the rumbling shock went out.

In the back, Qianlu, who was quickly catching up, changed his face, his eyes were burning with anger, and he kept shouting that the real snapping turtle wanted to stop it.

It is a pity that the real crocodile tortoise is going to eat Qin Tiange and naturally will not listen to it.

How fast is the turtle? If you think about it, you can see that even the real crocodile turtle after the mutant is as good as ashore. It is really impossible to chase and kill Qin Tiange.

If the latter had not intentionally attracted him to catch up, Qin Tiange would have been gone for a long time, but Qianlu and a group of mighty Eastern warriors would also catch up.

“Baga, a Chinese!”

Seeing Qin Tiange, the samurai who was catching up immediately became angry, shouting and pulling out the samurai swords, killing them madly.

boom!

However, a huge tortoise stomped down and trampled two Eastern warriors on the spot.

Seeing this, the other samurai were terrified and did not dare to come forward. Only Qianlu ignored the direct pursuit of it, and was very fast.

“Dead!” Qianlu drank, this chick is really hot, and it seems that she is not indifferent to killing.

Seeing her attacking with a knife, Qin Tiange snorted softly, swiping the halberd in his hand, and snoring, the katana was shaken by the fly, and even Qianlu vomited blood and hit 30 meters away before stopping.

A blow hit Qianlu, which scared her to death, and almost disappeared. With just one blow, she was hit hard by a two-star star and was almost killed. How can she not be surprised?

“Baga, where is the Chinese strong?”

At this time, the old man from the east who was catching up was furious and couldn’t help yelling.
hiss!

At this point, the real snapping turtle chased Qin Tiange and rushed out of Xiawan Village. Soon, he came to an empty place, which is a large lawn.

Behind them, a group of Eastern warriors chased after the old man, but did not dare to get too close, but just followed their family gods and beasts closely.

And Qianlu’s face was so pale He followed, with a look of resentment, his eyes almost burst into flames, and his hatred for Qin Tiange deepened.

“God beast, kill him, kill him!” Qianlu was mad, like a madwoman, making a sharp cry at the real snapping turtle.

She was mad by Qin Tiange and would kill the other party at any cost, otherwise this time, even if she did not die, she would be killed by her patriarch and sister.

The corners of Qin Tiange’s mouth slightly tilted, * put a whistle in his mouth, it was sharp and long, and it spread far away.

Roar!

At this moment, a tiger shout came from far away, and the white tiger continued to run, making a sudden landing, arrogantly domineering, and rushed to the back of a large group of eastern warriors to kill him.

The moment Qianlu saw the appearance of the White Tiger, his face turned pale, and his face was terrified. He immediately reminded the family warriors, but it was too late.

Chapter 286 - Blood deed

“what...”

A scream came, and a group of Eastern warriors did not respond, and they were killed by two white tigers and smashed one.

For a time, a large number of samurai attacked with swords, screamed wildly, and wanted to besiege the White Tiger, but their courage was commendable, but how could they be four-star White Tiger opponents?

“Retreat, rewind!”

Qianlu screamed anxiously, but late, the white tiger was screaming, and his two claws flew to see that they had shattered one of the Eastern warriors, and even the people with the sword were broken.

Over there, the beasts of the Qianhe family moved, opened their mouths and sprayed a huge water column, banging at Qin Tiange’s location.

However, Qin Tiange jumped out and escaped, his body turned dexterously in the air, and landed firmly on the back of the real snapping turtle.

“Kaizai!” Qin Tiange chuckled and slammed the halberd into the head of a real snapping turtle.

The crescent moon was crooked and sharp, the heavy Euphorbia slammed, and a slam, blood and water gushed three feet high, and the real snapping turtle was wounded and screamed.

It wanted to swallow Qin Tiange, but was wounded by the other side, and the injuries were stimulating the cruel nature of this real snapping turtle twice in a row, even more crazy.

Bang!

The real crocodile shook his body, trying to shake off Qin Tiange on his back, but unfortunately the latter was as if rooted on his back, waving the halberd again and again.

A banging bang came, blood and water spewed around, and the head of the real crocodile turtle blossomed and was beaten miserably.

The five-star real snapping turtle is actually being beaten by Qin Tiange. In fact, this is why it is too large in size, slow in speed, and has few means.

“Ghosts and gods, dominate the world!”

Suddenly, he drank loudly, accompanied by the flash of blue light, and turned into a huge virtual image. He whistled with a halberd, and hit the head wound of a real snapping turtle suddenly.

hiss!

With a scream, the body of the real crocodile turtle slumped down, setting off a burst of smoke and dust. It suffered a fatal blow, the whole head was flowing with blood, the bones were broken, and it was extremely miserable.

Feeling the danger, it immediately retracted its head and lay there quietly, trying to defend Qin Tiange’s blow with a hard turtle shell.

“Go to death!”

Suddenly, there was a sound of Jiao drinking from behind, and a Jiao Qiao figure continued to come, and the samurai sword swallowed and pointed directly at Qin Tiange’s heart.

When Qianlu was killed, he saw that the beast he had raised was about to be slaughtered. Naturally, he couldn't ignore it and directly attacked Qin Tiange's heart.

Huh!

The bronze sword came out of the sheath, swung back, the sparks splattered, and the katana was blown out, but Qianlu's body paused, feeling the sharp edge on his neck, and he didn't dare to move.

She looked at the bronze sword on her neck, her face pale, her forehead dripping ticking down.

"Please, don't kill it, I can give you anything you want." Chilun was afraid, and begged for mercy, and Lihua was pitiful with rain.

It is a pity that Qin Tiange showed no pity for Xiangxiyu, raised his feet and flew her, throwing blood on the turtle's back, and couldn't get up for a while.

Humph!

"Stay there for me!"

Qin Tiange didn't rush to kill her, but kept it. I'll ask about the situation of the Qianhe family. Even, how can this Qianlu be one of the king-level masters with few digits in the past? It seems more useful.

Now, it's time to kill the real snapping turtle, and want to come, there must be a huge amount of growing blood in its body, which is what Qin Tiange peers into.

"Think it's safe to hide in the shell of a turtle?" Qin Tiange looked at the real snapping turtle with his head tightening, sneering.

He lifted the halberd, and the starburst flickered, continually intertwined and gathered on the halberd's sharp edge, and the halberd was inserted in the soft flesh between the neck and the shell of the real snapping turtle.

Flutter!

A spray of blood was three feet high, the real crocodile screamed, his head suddenly shrunk deep, turned his head and bit the Qin Tiange's spear, and rattled.

The sharp teeth, biting on the halberd, burst into sparks, sending a horrible sound of rattling, soothing.

"Is it worth it?" Qin Tiange sneered, pulling out the bronze sword with one hand, and stabbing at the eyes of the real snapping turtle.

A jingle sounded, the real snapping turtle closed its eyes, and the scale armor on the eyelids blocked the assassination of the bronze sword, and the defense was amazing.

"No, please, don't kill it. I am willing to sign a blood deed with you, to be your slave forever and ever, and to be loyal to you, just ask you not to kill it."

In the back, Qianlu was terrified and shouted sadly, begging for mercy, even surrendering, to be a slave to Qin Tiange, and to keep this real snapping turtle.

It was her destiny beast, which was raised by the family 100 years ago, and it was not until her generation that she was a tribe who could really fit the real snapping turtle.

She has raised this real snapping turtle since she was a child. She has a deep affection and is even closer than her parents.

As long as the real crocodile turtle can grow completely, it is not impossible to awaken the basalt gene and acquire the basalt ability. The rumored sacred animal basalt is a creature in Chinese mythology.

This is why she had to establish a secret stronghold in the area of Huaxia Xiangjiang, in order to raise this real snapping turtle.

Only Huaxia has the legend of basalt. This ancient and mysterious land may really use this mysterious land to let the real snapping turtle to obtain mysterious transformation and awakening.

Qianlu begged for mercy, but Qin Tiange didn't care much about her, but thought about it carefully and signed the blood deed to be his slave?

"You just said, signing a blood deed?" Qin Tiange looked surprised, and looked back at the Qianlu with pear rain, who was pale and horrified.

She was afraid, because once the real snapping turtle was killed, she not only failed to feed, but also because she was born into the body of the real snapping turtle with the secret method of the Qianhe family, causing the fate of the two to be linked.

Once this secret method is successful, the caster can obtain the ability to link fate, that is, Qianlu and this real crocodile turtle are linked to each other's fate, all glory and glory.

"Did you complete the secret method of the Qianhe family with this real snapping turtle?" Qin Tiange suddenly asked, looking at Qianlu thoughtfully.

Qianlu looked horrified and looked at Qin Tiange like a ghost. Did he even know the ancient secrets of the Qianhe family?

"Yes, I am the one who best fits the family beast in a hundred years. After casting, I can connect with the life of the beast. It dies and dies. I can live as long as it lives."

Qianlu didn't conceal her. She even told her secrets. She even said, "Our family has two divine beasts in total, one is a three-headed bird. It is the home of our family, which is my sister's beast.

"Oh ..." Qin Tiange was surprised, no wonder the past lives have heard, the two beautiful kings of the Dongzhang Qianhe family have a powerful beast.

One looks like basalt, and the other is a nine-headed bird. Now that three birds are heard, it is likely that they have not fully grown up, which is completely clear.

"Birth beast is interesting." Qin Tiange suddenly became curious about the ancient secrets of the Qianhe family.

He would like to know how these secrets came. As far as Huaxia is concerned, there are also many mysterious techniques and secrets.

He was all clear, just curious, and even had an immature idea.

“I’m willing to sign a blood deed with you, as long as you release my destiny beast.” Qianlu said, taking out a * animal skin from the storage ring.

She knelt carefully in front of Qin Tiange and solemnly handed in the blood deed.

Qin Tiange took it for a look, and it turned out to be a blood deed. I wanted to get it from the heritage stone stele. There was no redemption. It should be a lottery.

“Blood deed, I don’t know if I should say you are lucky or unlucky?” Qin Tiange smiled inexplicably.

The existence of this blood deed made him decide to keep the Dongying chick, the Qianhe family and other Dongying forces, all of which gave Qin Tiange some thoughts at this moment.

He didn’t intend to leave this chick’s life at first, because it is uncontrollable, it is better to kill Dongjun by one king-level master.

But the blood deed is different. Since the other party is willing to come up and sign the blood deed of the master and servant, then she can save her life and make some arrangements and plans even more perfect.

“Sign it!” Qin Tiange dripped a drop of blood and melted in the title of the blood deed, then Qianlu signed the master-servant contract with a sadness.

After the contract was completed, the * mysteriously ignited a * flame, which instantly turned into a mark on Qianlu’s eyebrow, deeply imprinted in her soul, unable to betray.

“Master!” Qian Lu Qiao shouted, kneeling quietly.

Qin Tiange looked at her, then looked at the real crocodile turtle that had become docile, and shook his head in regret.

“Forget it, if you don’t kill, don’t kill.” Qin Tiange smiled, looked at Qianlu kneeling in front of him, suddenly dropped a Lingtao, and said, “Qianlu, since you become mine Servant, then eat this recovery, then you should know how to do it? “

“Yes, master, thank you for your gift!”

Respectful thanks from Qianlu, he answered, immediately got up and ate the Lingtao, and soon the injury was repaired in an instant and completely recovered.

Huh!

As soon as Qianlu recovered, he immediately pulled out two katanas, and it was bright and bright, but Qin Tiange was motionless, as if he had determined that the other party would not attack.

Sure enough, Qianlu did not attack the master Qin Tiange. Because the blood deed itself is a kind of soul puppet, it can only be loyal to the master Qin Tiange.

She turned around, carried the real crocodile turtle with a knife, and step by step came to the old man who was seriously injured by the white tiger, and hesitated across the old man's neck without hesitation.

"You ... betrayed the family, there will be no good end ..." The old man covered his neck, and just after saying this, his head rolled down to the ground, and the blood sprayed for ten seconds before he stopped.

After killing the old man, Qianlu was expressionless, slashing the East Rifle warriors who did not die, one by one.

Moreover, among the other Tomorrow warriors who came over, these were originally her men and the elite power of the family, but she was hacked and cleaned by her without any help.

Qianlu, a ruthless and ruthless chick, really showed her ruthless and ruthless side, but when she returned to Qin Tiange, she turned into a docile kitten, kneeling quietly.

"Let's go and solve the others."

Qin Tiange looked expressionless, jumped down from a real crocodile turtle, rode a white tiger, and rushed straight into Xiawan Village, where there was also a large group of Eastern Tatar warriors.

Chapter 287 - Master, slave family rubs your back for you

In Xiawan Village, the corpses were covered with blood, the blood was stained with red sand, and there was a strong smell of blood, which attracted many zombies.

These corpses were all dressed up by Eastern warriors, one by one, because they killed the original master, Qianlu.

"Master, these eleven people grew up with me from an early age. They belong to me."

In a courtyard, Qianlu knelt down resolutely at the feet of a young man, and behind her were eleven figures in black ninja clothes, all kneeling down and motionless.

Qin Tiange was sitting on a chair, his eyes were calm, and he constantly looked at the eleven petite ninjas in front of him. Needless to say, they were all women.

To his surprise, these female ninjas were all trained by Qianlu from an early age. When they grew up, they were regarded as her most loyal dead.

"Well, the dead men are all women. You are really extravagant. Do you want these female ninjas to seduce men and then assassinate them?" Qin Tiange said surprisingly.

How do you know, Qianlu nodded and admitted directly, she said: "Master, they are really cultivated by slaves to seduce, spy, and assassinate."

"If the host needs it, they will be virgin despite enjoying it," Qianlu said softly.

Qin Tiange stopped talking, watching eleven female ninjas taking off their face towels in unison, fair complexion and good looks, which were considered to be of medium and high quality.

It is a pity that he has no love for these female ninjas. He is not the kind of man who wants to go to see a woman, let alone a casual person.

He has a very strong purpose and will leave this group of female ninjas. In fact, he has some plans and plans in his heart. Otherwise, Qian Lu was killed.

“Since it is your deceased, then do something good for me. If you betrayed, then you should know how to do it without me teaching you?” Qin Tiange’s tone was very flat, but there was a hint of murder.

Qianlu shuddered and responded quickly: “Master, the slave family knows how to do it, please rest assured that they will not betray anyone.”

“Okay, it’s not early, you go down to clean up the corpses, take a rest for a night, and tomorrow you will take your dead back to the east.”

After Qin Tiange said, he got up and walked to the house. There was a hot spring, and he was about to take a break and prepare to rest.

If the color gradually fades today, he doesn’t want to hurry at night, and plans to rest here for one night before making plans.

Qianlu took the only eleven female ninjas who had not been killed to clean up the corpses. Hundreds of corpses died without staring, all of them looked embarrassed, and they must have been very resentful before death.

Of course, I was resentful and killed ruthlessly by my own loyal master. In that case, individuals would be grieved.

However, these warriors were not defiant. The first few were defiant, but all the warriors started to attack, unfortunately, they were all flattened by Qin Tiange’s mount White Tiger.

Wow!

In the backyard, Qin Tiange walked down the hot spring naked, lying there comfortably, and it was really refreshing to soak in a hot spring.

While he was in the hot spring, the wooden door opened, and a petite figure came in, wearing a kimono.

“Master, the slave family will help you carry your back.”

Qianlu whispered softly, her face was ruddy and somewhat shy, but she took off her kimono without hesitation, exposing her perfect skin and proud body.

She came to Qin Tiange’s back gently, holding soft towels in two small hands, and began to gently rub his back.

“Tell me about your sister, Chizuru.”

With her eyes closed, enjoying the female slave who had just been conquered, Qin Tiange said gently.

He wanted to know about the contemporary head of the Qianhe family, and some of her sister Qianhe's situation was more like understanding the other ancient family forces in Dongbei.

The Qianhe family, in fact, each generation of the homeowner is a woman. The owner is named after the Qianhe. He was born without a name. He can only call himself Qianhe after becoming the clan leader.

As for Qianlu, it can only be said that it cannot be a clan patriarch, but it is not without opportunities, as long as her sister is killed, she can take over as patriarch.

“Master, my sister Qianhe, is actually a twin sister to me. Our two looks are the same. It is difficult for outsiders to tell the difference between us. The only difference is that my sister has a crane-shaped birthmark on my chest. Qianlu, while scratching her back, told them something about the Qianhe family.

Qin Tiange listened gently, and finally had a good understanding of the Qianhe family. At least, he knew that the contemporary owner, Qianlu's sister, Qianhe, had a three-headed beast.

That three-headed bird is very powerful. It is much more powerful than the one raised by Chilun, and it is over 150 years old.

“The world is so big that one or two strange beasts can't be surprised ...” Qin Tiange murmured, thinking about some things in the previous life.

But soon, Qin Tiange asked some things about the secret technique of the Qianhe family. Qianlu did not hide it, because the existence of the blood deed made it impossible for her to hide it.

“The secret technique of our Qianhe family is actually from Huaxia. Our family's first generation of Qianhe has obtained this ancient and magical method from Huaxia three hundred years ago.”

Qianlu carefully said that the secret method of the Qianhe family was actually an ancient secret method obtained by the first generation of Qianhe three hundred years ago from China.

Qin Tiange was stunned, he didn't have many expressions, he could get it from Huaxia, it was the ability of others, and it was no wonder that those things could not be taken away, and he was beaten up.

“The mystery of the mysterious method is based on the essence and blood of its own name, and the same matching beast or divine beast is connected by a special method to become a magical beast that is glorious and glorious.

Qianlu whispered, Qin Tiange had some understanding of this secret law, and he was really disappointed in his heart, this is just a contract technique.

Originally I thought about coming, but now I think, it seems that this thing is not needed at all, and there is a great danger hidden in it.

For example, if the covenant beast died, he suffered the same blows even if he did not die by chance.

Therefore, this thing is not as good as it seems, and Qin Tiange finally gave up his intention to learn.

“Master, it’s getting late Slave family will help you rest.” Qianlu blushed and whispered.

Qin Tiange looked at her coquettish and seductive appearance, proud figure, perfect figure, naturally moving in her heart, but not a fool, she naturally knew what Qianlu said.

“From past life to this life, it seems that women have not tasted for many years.”

Qin Tiange lifted Qianlu’s delicate chin and looked at Qianlu’s shameful look. After thinking about it, he did not refuse in the end, and the female slave sent to the door naturally would not refuse.

If you refuse in this way, then it is really not a man, although he has never slammed into a woman, and even elegant women such as Liu Ye and Long Xiaoya have not touched.

It’s not that I don’t like it, but that I know what I should do and what shouldn’t be done. When it is time to restrain, Qin Tiange can restrain himself.

But at this moment, Qin Tiange didn’t need to restrain himself, so he said nothing, picked up the petite Qianlu, and walked directly into the cleaned room.

The night was deep, everything was quiet, there was a warm hibiscus in the room, the beauty was as clean as a jade, the moment was worth a thousand dollars, the yellow warbler began to cry, the song ...

Chapter 288 - 1 arrow frightened

Chaoxia Yanyan will rise tomorrow!

In the early morning, Qin Tiange woke up, feeling only comfortable and looking around, Qianlu was long gone.

“Master, wake up, the slaves will help you dress.”

Just after waking up, I saw Qianlu walking from outside the door, wearing a cheongsam and exquisitely dressed, which surprised Qin Tiange a bit.

Surprised that the other party passed on the cheongsam, and perhaps felt his doubts, Qianlu whispered: “Master, the rules of the Qianhe family, a woman marries a husband. Although the slave family is only a slave of the master, it must also be based on the master’s Huaxia tribe. Etiquette costume owner. “

“Hmm ...” Qin Tiange said, dressed neatly under the careful service of Qianlu. This was the first time a woman helped him change his clothes and armor.

What he thought at the moment was one of the previous emperors, Chen Xi, this little girl should be in Huaxia City now. I wonder what’s going on now?

Dressed neatly and rinsed cleanly, Qin Tiange came to the yard and saw the eleven female ninjas standing there neatly, all looking calm and expressionless, as if they were a piece of wood.

Secretly shaking his head, such a woman is not interested in a man, like wood, what interest?

“Qianlu, you lost a large number of elites. Dongying must not be your sister's opponent here. This is what I gave you. It is a reward for your performance last night.”

Qin Tiange said, took out a metal box, opened it, and stored a series of test tubes in it quietly, full of 100.

This is a one-star quench body potion, which was produced by Du Jing's research team. At this moment, he handed over a hundred female herons to Qianlu, which was a kind of support for her.

“Thank you, master!” Qianlu was startled, excited, and a rosy face appeared.

Qin Tiange reminded: “These are for you to train your men. Yours, I will prepare for you separately. The medicine is more powerful.”

After that, he took out ten enhanced hardening medicaments and ten two-star-level medullary lavage medicaments, which cost a lot of money.

He needs to smash a nail in Dongcheng, and this candidate is naturally Qianlu. The other party signed a blood deed with him and will not betray, otherwise he will die.

Because of the blood deed, Qin Tiange was willing to pay the cost, train Qianlu, and even helped her to develop a plan to prepare her to be her ears and secrets in Dongying.

“Master, slave family ...” Qianlu was really touched in her heart, the preciousness of these things, she was naturally clear.

For such a long time in China, she has only taken a small amount of hardening agent after the end of the day, and even only used a two-star pill washing agent once.

These things were still obtained from a temporary heritage stele, which has long since disappeared. I did not expect Qin Tiange to give her these precious things.

Originally becoming his slave, Qianlu was naturally unwilling, but now people are his, and even resistance can not be achieved, it is better to be a female slave with peace of mind.

“Is this moved?” Qin Tiange laughed secretly, not caring about Qianlu's performance. What he needed was to press a dark child in Dongyu, and wait for the future to bear fruit.

“Okay, you can take your people away.” Qin Tiange waved his hand gently, and let Qianlu take people to leave directly and return to Dongyu.

Qianlu lifted her head and glanced deeply at Qin Tiange, engraved the master in her mind, with a trace of complexity, turned and led the eleven female ninjas away.

A group of people rode on the real crocodile turtle and hurried toward the sea. On the back of the turtle, Qianlu watched Qin Tiange here until he could no longer see the figure.

“Oh ...” For a long time, Qianlu sighed with a sad expression, and had mixed feelings in her heart. This time, Qin Tiange couldn't get rid of it completely.

She never thought that she would become a slave to others, remembering Qin Tiange's madness last night, her body was still in pain, and Qianlu's face turned red unconsciously.

It was her first night at night, and just gave that man, a Chinese strongman.

“Dongshen, Qianlu, Qianhe ...” Qin Tiange looked at Qian Lu leaving, muttering to himself, and unconsciously showed a weird smile.

He discovered last night that Qianlu seems to have some mysterious connection with her sister, and there seems to be something in common in each other's genes.

In other words, what happened to her last night, her sister Chizuru, felt it. I do n't know what she thinks now?

“Electrocardial induction? Hehe ... it's funny!” Qin Tiange smiled badly, and didn't take it seriously, inviting Baihu to ride on, and went straight out of Xiawan Village.

Why did I have the first night of the Qianlu chick, Donglu, last night? That's because she was her own slave.

As for other women, Qin Tiange has always been very cautious, except for the former beauty emperor Chen Xi, he has never thought of any woman.

Because he knew that once he had done it, he was responsible. As a man, how could he eat the other party without being responsible?

Qianlu doesn't count, it is one of his slaves, there is no internal pressure, naturally he doesn't need to be responsible, and the other party will not betray himself.

This made him feel that the blood deed was a good thing, but unfortunately he didn't have such a thing.

Roar...

Just out of Xiawan Village, the white tiger was obviously wrong, and growled violently, his head roaring at the sky.

This situation caught Qin Tiange's attention. When he looked up instantly, he saw a black spot in the distance approaching quickly.

After a closer look, I was surprised to find that it was an immortal crane, a red-crowned crane, which was particularly large and amazing after its transformation. The wingspan was eight meters long, the white feathers were shining with fluorescence, and a small piece of blood-colored hair on the head was particularly conspicuous. A real nine-day fairy crane.

“Xianhe?” Qin Tiange secretly surprised. He didn't care, but the next moment he shrank his pupils and saw a person standing on his back.

Yes, there is a figure standing on the back of the red-crowned crane, and it is still an acquaintance.

“Unscrupulous Taoist?” Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes and stared at the figure on the back of the red-crowned crane, which turned out to be the unscrupulous Taoist.

The other side also found the white tiger on the ground, and Qin Tiange sitting on the white tiger, looking at each other in shock.

“Unlimited that big deity, why is he?”

On the sky, the unscrupulous priest looked down and saw Qin Tiange riding a white tiger. He was startled and looked a little embarrassed.

Immediately, he showed surprise, looked at the white tiger under Qin Tiange, and became more and more frightened, secretly horrified. From his eyes, he can see that the white tiger is a four-star, and he will soon break through the five-star Level up.

“This guy, even found a white tiger as a mount?” The unscrupulous priest was depressed, and his good mood suddenly became bad.

Originally, he was so proud of himself that he caught a fairy crane and tamed it as a mount using the secret method of the school, which was called Shuang.

“I said donor, why haven’t you been killed by the corpse baby?” The ghost sent the gods down, and the unscrupulous Taoist asked this.

Upon hearing this, Qin Tiange, who did not want to bother to look at each other, looked cold, and took out a bow of war, and turned into a full moon, and a steel arrow aimed at the unscrupulous Taoist in the sky.

collapse!

A slamming sound, the arrow soared into the sky, pointed at the unscrupulous priest in the sky, killed the lock, and scared him into a cold handstand.

“Digging grass, I just ask, don’t you treat me like this?” The unscrupulous Taoist horrified his face and immediately drove the crane to speed up. A sharp turn escaped the steel arrow and looked very embarrassed.

call out!

I didn’t wait for him to breathe a sigh of relief There was another sharp whistling from below, the unscrupulous Taoist heart was so cool, he drove the crane to instinctively escape, and thumped, two white feathers burst out, stained with blood Fluttering down.

cry!

The fairy crane was terrified, frightened, flapping its wings and quickly flew away. The unscrupulous priest looked with horror, looking at a bloodstain on the wings of the fairy crane. If it had not run fast, the crane had been pierced by an arrow just now. Go on.

Falling from a high altitude, the unscrupulous Taoist dared not think about it. With a cold sweat, he constantly urged the crane to speed up and accelerate again, and he did not dare to stay.

He was frightened by Qin Tiange's sudden arrow, and his heart was beating horribly. He looked at the ground behind in fear, Qin Tiange looked at him swiftly and ran away.

"Count on you running fast!"

Qin Tiange snorted, and his heart lost a lot of anger. He folded his bow and left the place riding a white tiger. As for the unscrupulous Taoist priest, it was just an encounter.

Chapter 289 - 9 Long Village, Sea Crab Rider

Twenty-five days later, in the Kowloon District of Xiangcheng, a white tiger carried a young man slowly walking on the deserted street, and from time to time, several zombies came from both sides of the street. 23us. Fastest boom!

He patted the zombies in front of him, and Qin Tiange looked around. The ruined streets, abandoned vehicles, and dust everywhere.

After the end, the human world has changed, with abandoned cars, broken buildings and streets, empty shops, and mess.

Zombies wandered during the day and mutated at night. Various mutant creatures raged, making the surviving humans tremble.

Many people began to gather together consciously, and gradually formed large and small gathering places, and survived by hunting mutant creatures as food.

Kowloon City, the largest gathering place of survivors, Kowloon City, stands in the most prosperous center of Kowloon.

Over 80% of the survivors in the entire Kowloon area are gathered here. It is a huge base with at least a dozen or 200,000 survivors living inside.

"Qianlu said the Jiulongzhai gathering place should be in front."

Riding a white tiger, Qin Tiange came to a broken building and stopped. After careful observation, he soon discovered that some steel was welded between the building and the building to form a defensive wall.

He guessed that this should be the place where Jiulongzhai was called by Qianlu. She had been here a few times and was naturally familiar with it, so she told Qin Tiange about the news.

It took five days to find Qin Tiange here. Seeing the situation here seemed worse than expected.

"Kowloon Village, built by the sea, don't you know that the ocean is more dangerous?"

After a short walk, Qin Tiange found that the gathering place was actually established on the coast, and the south was relying on the sea, and there were two gates in and out in the east and north.

To the west is a mountain range, which looks like a good defensive place. Unfortunately, Qin Tiange knows that the ocean is more dangerous.

Throughout the Jiulong Village, the outer perimeter defense circle is formed by welding rows of high-rise buildings to each other, and there is also a reinforced concrete wall to block it and two defense nets.

“Xiao Bai, first go play in the mountains over there for a few days.”

Soon, Qin Tiange came to the entrance of the east gate and hid in the street. When he got off the back of the white tiger, he ordered the white tiger to enter the mountain for a few days to play.

He didn't want to sway the market with a white tiger, it was easy to cause trouble, and even attracted some people's peeping.

Even if he wasn't afraid, and didn't want to increase his worries, let Bai Hu go into the mountains for a few days to play, and call him after he left.

Roar!

Bai Hu roared, stepped back three times, and finally accelerated, rushed to a mountain range to the west and went there for a few days.

As for Qin Tiange, he walked towards the front gate of the gathering place, and saw a few people patrolling and guarding in the distance.

These men, all heavily armed, looked fierce and watched vigilantly outside the gates of the gathering place.

There are people coming in and out of the gate from time to time. Qin Tiange fell into a small team just before entering and followed into the front Jiulongzhai gathering place.

“Damn shit, it's unlucky today.”

In the front squad, suddenly someone scolded him, his face was depressed and unhappy, as if he had encountered something unhappy.

I only heard this person yell, “It's all those bastards. They ran out of the deep sea to hunt. This time, it's fine. Not only did the ship destroy people, but it also affected our fishing boats, and we almost couldn't return. “

“No?”

Someone in that squad resentfully said: “This time it was full and returned. If the fishing boat broke into the deep-sea fishing without listening to the warning, and it attracted dense sea crab attacks, we would not have caused such a large loss.”

“Yeah, those sea crabs are too scary, dense and dense, at least millions or even millions.” Someone with a pale face echoed, remembering yesterday's maritime experience is still shocking.

The sea is dangerous, but humans here have to rely on fishing to survive, or they will starve to death.

But the creatures in the sea are even more fierce and terrible, and the mutated marine life is extremely aggressive, especially the huge species.

For example, sea crabs, which are the largest in the size of a basin, almost doubled in size. They are numerous, and even some huge sea crabs are several meters in size. Two large pliers are hard, powerful, and steel. You pinched.

“Captain, we have lost a lot of sailors this time, and we will recruit some sailors to get another boat out to sea.”

In the team, a relatively quiet young man with an eye, he put forward a suggestion to a middle-aged man beside him.

The middle-aged man is the captain. This time he went to sea and lost a boat and a lot of sailors. It is good to be back alive.

He sighed and said, “The ship is easy to find. The key is that there are not many people who dare to go to the sea. One by one, they are all constricted on the land, dare not dabble in the sea. There are too many dead people.”

“Is it useful to be afraid of death?” A team member said unhappily: “Now in this world, zombies are everywhere on the land, mutant beasts run rampant, where isn’t it dangerous?”

“That’s right, we won’t starve to death sooner or later without fishing.”

“Yes, I’m afraid of dying and waiting to starve.”

More than a dozen team members responded, everyone was afraid of death, but in order to survive, they must go out to sea to venture fishing, because the living creatures in the ocean are more abundant, and the harvest once sailed is enough for thousands of people to eat for a few days and still be rich.

Life is not easy, especially under the post-apocalyptic food crisis. Human beings must find ways to find enough food. Hunting is one of them.

“Don’t say it, hurry up, while it’s still early, we go to the market to recruit a group of sailors to set off immediately.” The middle-aged captain opened his mouth and decided to go out again today.

Qin Tiange, who was not far behind them, listened all the way, with a thoughtful look, watching this group of people going to Jiulongzhai Market to recruit sailors, and they had a plan in mind.

Following the eleven-member squad along the way, they soon came to the trading market in Jiulongzhai, where people were seen selling fish.

They are all marine fish, and various kinds of mutant fishes are very large in size, and some even have a length of several meters.

“The Big Sailboat team recruits sailors, three big ships, with preferential treatment, first come first served ...”

“The Pioneer Fleet recruits powerful sailors, and intensifiers are preferred.”

In the market, there is not only a bargain, but also a small area where an individual is holding a sign that says recruiting sailors.

Yes, this is where the sailors are recruited. There are not many harbors in Kowloon Port. There are many ships. After the end, these ships will be ignored.

Now, as long as you have the courage, you will be able to drive a boat to go fishing in the sea, and there will be gains. Of course, you have to take huge risks, and it is likely that the ship will destroy people.

“The Hanhai Fleet recruits sailors. The number of places is limited. There are only ten places. The young and strong are limited. Those with experience are preferred. The treatment is interviewed.”

Soon, the squad put on a stance and began to yell and talk, recruiting sailors.

The crowds here are crowded together, and the voices are full of people. Some people choose to be sailors, but most people don't want to go to sea. They would rather go out to hunt on land than go to sea.

After watching it for a while, Qin Tiange went directly to the team just now, and wanted to go with the team to take a look.

“I want to join, don't know if I can?” Qin Tiange asked directly when he arrived.

In front of him, the middle-aged man was surprised, looked at Qin Tiange, and then nodded and smiled: “Of course, we can wait for the treatment after the recruitment is over. We will talk about it later.”

“Row!”

Qin Tiange has no opinion. He doesn't care what treatment he wants, but he wants to go to the sea to take a look. By the way, he understands the basic situation of this Jiulong Village.

If you want to understand, you must first integrate into it, and it is most appropriate to join one of the fishing and fishing teams.

It didn't take long for the team to recruit nine other sailors, all young and strong men, and naturally there would be no women.

“There are enough people. Let's go find a boat and bring fishing tools. I remember there is a big ship in a port.”

After recruiting people, the middle-aged man smiled and said, and walked towards the seaport with more than 20 people.

Wow ...

As soon as I arrived at the port, I heard a loud noise that caught Qin Tiange's attention and looked up.

“Look at you ...” a young man exclaimed, pointing forward.

I saw the crowds in front of the harbor, all looking surprised, pointing and watching the behemoths passing by side by side.

Yes, that thing went sideways.

“Crab?” Qin Tiange looked surprised, looking at the behemoth, his whole body blood-red, two cyan huge pliers, flashing metallic green awns.

This is a big sea crab, four meters wide, two pliers huge and unmatched, with eight feet walking sideways, covered with hard armor, full of spikes, and blood red, looking mighty.

The most amazing thing is that this big crab is standing alone. He is very young, with a very stature and a beautiful appearance, but his eyes are very sharp.

“His name is Meng Yu. He is one of the celebrities in the gathering place. The two-star strengthener is extremely powerful, especially he was lucky enough to catch a big crab as a mount. Someone gave him a nickname called a sea crab. Knight. “The middle-aged captain said with an envious face.

Qin Tiange then knew that the young man riding a big crab called Meng Yu was one of the celebrities in Jiulongzhai and one of the rare strong men.

“I’m really envious. I also want to raise crystal nuclei for a riding pet contract. When I get a big crab and come back to sign the contract, I can become a mount.” Some youth said enviously.

As soon as this word came to an end, someone immediately struck him: “You can save it. A riding pet contract requires a thousand crystal nuclei. We go out to sea fishing hard, at least we have to work for a month to save this. Be proper. “

“Yeah, I don’t know if I can live for a month, or don’t even think about it, let’s be honest.”

Many people shake their heads and smile bitterly I feel that I have no chance. One thousand crystal nuclei and one contract is an astronomical number for ordinary people.

They just want to go fishing in the sea, come back to save enough for their own food, sell it in exchange for crystal nuclei, and then go to the heritage stele to exchange good things.

Especially the hardening medicament, these are what they want most, and they can gain more gains with strength.

Listening to these people’s discussions, Qin Tiange thought about this gathering place while observing Meng Yu who was walking by the sea crab.

“Come here, let’s see, how is this big ship, isn’t it very elegant?”

Soon, the middle-aged captain took everyone to the corner of the port. Here is a large ship parked, three stories high, with a hull of 51 meters long and 8 meters wide. It is definitely a large fishing boat.

“His, captain, this fishing boat is bigger than ours.”

“Great, we’re going to drive this large fishing boat a little safer.”

The team members were excited and looked at the huge fishing boats covered by canvas. One by one they couldn't wait to get on the boat.

"Stop, this is our ship, who dares to touch me and kill anyone!"

At this moment, a large group of people rushed next to each other, three big and five thick, fierce-looking, holding a steel knife, brightly shivering.

The fairy fairy said

Sorry everyone, today the little demon has built a new house to build the foundation, and has been exhausted all day. He can only make three changes today, and he will fill it up the day after tomorrow.

Chapter 290 - Kill feed fish

A group of three big and five thick men suddenly appeared, thirty people in total, each holding a steel knife, naked upper body, and various tattoos.

A big man, headed by him, looks around 30 years old, with a handful of yellow hair on his head, his face full of flesh, and looks very vicious.

"One of the ten tigers in Yi'an, Huang Sheng, nicknamed Golden Retriever!"
Said the middle-aged captain Lu Jun with a dignified face.

The visitor is one of the black forces in Jiulong Village, Yi'an Ten Tigers, Huang Sheng, nicknamed Golden Retriever, and one of the ten trump cards of Yi'an.

"Who gives you the courage to dare to move our ship?"

As soon as Huang Sheng came, he scowled at his face, stared fiercely at Lu Jun and others, and more than thirty subordinates shook steel knives and smirked around.

For a while, Lu Jun and others looked bad, and most people were panic-stricken. Only the captain Lu Jun and the young man with glasses were intensifiers in the team, the others were ordinary people.

Of course, excluding Qin Tiange, who has not spoken, he is looking at Huang Sheng in front of him, the ten trump cards of one of the three major forces in Jiulongzhai.

In his eyes, Huang Sheng is just a one-star intensifier, that is, his physique is much higher than the average one-star. It is a bit fierce, and there is nothing surprising.

"Brother Huang has misunderstood. This ship has been here for a long time. I didn't think anyone was here, so I came to see it." Lu Jun smiled and explained this sentence.

Snapped!

As a result, as soon as the voice fell, Huang Sheng threw his hands and slapped him on the face. Lu Jun's nose and mouth were bleeding with heavy force, and Venus was piercing his eyes.

Looking at the injured Lu Jun, Qin Tiange secretly shook his head, and the manpower opposite was Huang Sheng as an intensifier. The others looked at the fierce point, which is no different from ordinary people.

How can there be more than 20 people here, all holding weapons and tools, why are they afraid of these people? Is it because of the black forces?

“Mom, are you looking for death?” Huang Sheng cursed and spit on Lu Jun’s face, grabbed his collar and sneered: “Who is familiar with you, don’t call Huang Ge and Huang Ge, You moved my boat today, just don’t give us face. “

“Come and chop them with both hands.”

Huang Sheng said, toppling Lu Jun, wielding a steel knife, and smirkingly ordered to cut off the hands of these people.

This guy was fierce. When he opened his mouth, he wanted to chop people’s hands. It really scared a lot of people, and two of them were paralyzed on the spot.

“Did you overdo it?”

Suddenly, a young man came out of the crowd, looking at Huang Sheng in front of his face calmly, his eyes were cold.

“Boy, are you looking for death?” Huang Sheng was so angry that he did not expect anyone to jump out?

He stepped forward, shook his hand, and slashed with a steel knife towards Qin Tiange’s head. The wind roared, and if ordinary people must have been cut in half.

Unfortunately, he attacked Qin Tiange. Under the fear of a group of people, he thought Qin Tiange was going to die tragically.

Huh!

I was surprised to see that a green flash had passed, and the sound of crickets had just arrived, and saw that the steel knife in Huang Sheng’s hand was broken into two sections, the latter turned wild, took three steps back quickly, and looked extremely angry.

“I was choking him for whatever I was doing.” Huang Sheng looked back at a group of silly hands and suddenly screamed angrily.

As a result, his group of men took a step back in horror, looking at him with horror, as if watching something terrible.

“You ... uh ...” Huang Sheng was about to continue to scold, but his eyebrows opened a bloodstain, and then blood spewed, and his body cracked into two.

Huang Sheng died, and his body was cut in half. No one saw how he was cut in half. The only thing I knew was that at that moment, Huang Sheng was likely to be cut in half with a knife.

terror!

Everyone looked at Qin Tiange, his eyes were not right, full of shock and horror, and a touch of fear.

One-star intensifier Huang Sheng, one of the ten tigers in Yi'an, was killed by this young man's inexplicable sword.

"Don't do anything, kill the fish."

Qin Tiange spoke softly and awakened Lu Jun and others in a daze, looking horrified one by one, looking at him in disbelief.

"Go on, kill them!"

Fortunately, Lu Jun's mental quality is good. The first to wake up, regardless of Qin Tiange's mysterious strongman, now is a good opportunity to kill the people in front.

He picked up the steel knife and rushed up first. He dropped the knife with his hands, two heads soared three meters away, and blood and water sprayed the ground.

"kill!"

In the procession, the young man with glasses drank and killed a crowd with a large knife and smashed it into his hands.

Like Lu Jun, he is a one-star intensifier. In fact, if he joined Lu Jun just now, he might not be able to kill Huang Sheng, but he was afraid of the forces behind him.

But do n't think about it now, Qin Tiange cut the Huang Sheng with a sword, they just do n't want to kill.

"what..."

"Quick, go back and report the faucet."

The gang of youngsters brought by Huang Sheng were panicked, and most of them were hacked and killed. The rest turned in a panic and dispersed, and they were about to run away.

Someone screamed before death, letting some brothers escape to report the news to the leader of Yi'an, and someone dared to touch their people.

Soon, thirty puppies were killed and twenty-eight were killed, and two of them fled first. At this moment, they were scattered and escaped, and they could not catch up.

call out!

Just when everyone was annoyed, a sharp roar came, and then a figure fled in front of them suddenly, looking down, and a steel arrow in his heart.

collapse!

A slamming sound, everyone was surprised to see Qin Tiange pull the bow, another steel arrow whistling, and instantly penetrated another escaped person, killing on the spot.

After lightly killing the two, Qin Tiange looked at the corpse on the ground and said, "Hurry up and clean the corpse and throw it into the sea to feed the fish."

"Yes, hurry up, clean up the corpse!"

Lu Jun panicked, shouting that the people in the team deal with the corpses. Everyone worked together and quickly threw all the corpses into the sea.

At this moment, Lu Jun came to Qin Tiange with a group of people and silently thanked him.

“Thank you for your brother’s righteousness. Lu Jun is grateful.” Lu Jun knew very well that the young man was a master.

He even suspected that this person was stronger than the three celebrities in Jiulongzhai Village, and he was naturally surprised and even more excited.

Unexpectedly, can you please recruit a sailor without such a strong man?

“You’re welcome. After all, everyone is on the same boat, isn’t it?” Qin Tiange smiled and didn’t take it seriously.

Is there anything good to kill a few crickets?

“Let’s hurry up and see if this boat can still sail, is there any oil?” Qin Tiange said as he boarded the large fishing boat first.

In the back, Lu Jun and others looked at each other, followed one after another, and boarded the large fishing boat along with Qin Tiange.

Faintly, Lu Jun and others are led by Qin Tiange. Their attitude towards the strong is different, and the strong are welcome everywhere.

“My name is Lu Jun. I don’t know what this brother is called?” At this time, Lu Jun checked the situation in the cabin and came to Qin Tiange, asking softly, somewhat restrained.

Qin Tiange was observing the outer waters on the deck. He heard the words and smiled back: “In fact, don’t worry so much. My name is Qin, just call me Tian Ge.”

“Otherwise, what are you doing as the captain, I am your deputy?” Lu Jun suddenly made this suggestion without hesitation.

Qin Tiange listened for a moment, then thought, and soon nodded and agreed.

He laughed: “Okay, since you asked me to be the captain, then I’m disrespectful, but I don’t know if the other crew members will not agree?”

“Captain rest assured, no one will object!”

Lu Jun was ecstatic, and patted his chest to ensure that no one would object. Just kidding, this is a strong man, and being a member of his crew or subordinates is definitely a good thing.

With such a powerful captain, not only is it safer to go fishing in the sea, but the status in Jiulongzhai will not be low, and the fool is not willing.

In this way, Qin Tiange became the captain of this group of people at a glance. All of them did not object, but showed a touch of excitement and expectation.

“Captain, set sail?”

On the deck, Lu Jun stood beside Qin Tiange and asked loudly if he could set sail. However, Qin Tiange's face was a little dignified, his eyes staring at the water, as if something bad was found.

"Look at the corpses ..." Qin Tiange pointed under the deck. The corpse just dropped was stained with red water, but weird bubbles popped up under the corpse, more and more.

Lu Jun stepped forward and looked at, his face changed greatly and he exclaimed: "No, there seems to be something under the body, they are eating the body."

Sure enough, as soon as his words fell, a huge fiery red pair of pliers suddenly stuck out in the water, and the bodies were clamped and clicked into the water.

"Going ashore, things aren't right."

Qin Tiange looked dignified, watching the harbor begin to burst bubbles under the water, the number is increasing, and even the bottom of the water is still turbulent and surging, the tide is surging, realizing that something is wrong.

"Sea crab, it is sea crab!"

"The sea crabs are ashore, everyone is running!"

At this moment, there were sudden screams from all around the port, and some people roared, causing chaos throughout the port.

For a while, countless people panicked and saw in horror that the ships that had just sailed out of the port were, without exception, crawled up and covered with huge sea crabs.

Panic and start to spread!
