

Dark Ages 301

Chapter 301 - Let's be your elder sister?

“A pretty handsome man, my sister likes it.”

The jade corpse spoke and smiled like a flower. The voice was crisp and full of aura, which made people unbearable.

What is even more exciting is that this jade corpse is graceful and exquisite, and the jade clothes are wrapped in proud peaks and peaks. They have beautiful faces like jade, delicate bodies, and ice muscle jade bones.

“Four-star, or five-star?” Qin Tiange looked stern, his eyes twinkling, his eyes constantly looking at the jade corpse in front of him.

He couldn't sense the level of the other party, and a strange aura blocked his judgment, which was a breath of spiritual jade, very strange.

This jade corpse absorbs the jade qi to support itself and evolves into a spirit corpse, which is definitely a heterogeneous one among the other species, which is unusual.

The jade corpse looked at Qin Tiange, and the more he liked it, the more he laughed and said, “Giggle ... good handsome man, my sister likes it, why not, you can be your sister's face?”

Qin Tiange had a black line, his mouth twitched, his heart was speechless and funny, but this jade corpse asked him to be his first face?

What is the head of the face, that is the meaning of the male son, male pet, the other party actually asked Qin Tiange to be her head, the words are amazing.

“Joke!” Qin Tiange snorted, and Euphorbia was buzzing and shaking. He said, “No matter what kind of mutant corpse you are, even if you are the corpse emperor, you can't scorn and humiliate me so much that I can't kill you with my temper. ? “

“Giggle ... don't be angry, people really like you, the more you look at it, the more you like it, compared with other male pets just caught, your sister thinks you, and you will kill everything Face to face, and I will spoil you all in the future. “Yu Shijiao laughed again and again, not saying a word, but saying this.

Qin Tiange almost exploded. Why didn't this sound right? Does the other party now have a group of living men as male pets?

Sure enough, as soon as he lost his thoughts, there were a lot of silhouettes all around him, all with handsome faces, delicate skin and tender flesh, looking like little white faces.

The point is, these people are actually living people, they are all human.

“Look, these people are really far worse than you. I have been dissatisfied with them for a few days. My sister now likes you more and more. No, I must be my sister's face. Sister can lead these people for you, what? “

Jade corpse was talking, suddenly blushing, his eyes let out two watery ripples, as if spring, heart, rippling.

“How can he compare to us?”

At this time, among the young beautiful men, someone spoke, soft and soft, with a feminine atmosphere, which made people uncomfortable listening.

There was a flash of anger on his pale pink face, and he pointed at Qin Tiange and said, “Look at him, what is better than us?”

“That is, if you have no figure or face, the key is to have a cold look, and then you look nauseated, Your Majesty, such garbage is not worthy of your noble identity.”

“I think it’s better to cook it.”

“No, it should be baked.”

A group of delicate-skinned young men, you say a word to me, and you have even made a fuss about Qin Tiange’s head, as if it was worthless.

They said, but they didn’t find Qin Tiange looking at them with a mockery, and from time to time they swept across the frozen jade corpse in front.

She was furious, her figure suddenly flashed and she lost track.

“So fast!”

When Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, he just caught a trace of shadow, and saw eighteen handsome young men around him embracing in a cloud of blood flying away.

These people were too late to scream, and the jade corpse was torn to pieces with two claws, and died on the spot.

“As a low-level male pet, I am not qualified to speak, but I have a good opinion of the man I like and kill him.” After the jade corpse killed, Mans wiped his jade in an orderly manner.

The sharp nails shone with jade light, revealing the murderous sensation, making people shudder. However, Qin Tiange didn’t move from start to finish, and didn’t even care, but looked at the jade corpse with great interest, which is really strange.

It was rare for her to catch a beautiful man as a male pet, and he had never heard of the existence of such a zombie in the previous life, which made him feel weird.

“What, are you thinking about it? Tell you the truth, sister, I’m still a virgin, and I have kept my body full, waiting for a beautiful man like your brother to appear.” Yu Shi stood in front of Qin Tiange again, The smile is smoky, the face is charming and charming, extremely touching.

The average man is definitely difficult to control, and even nodded directly to agree, naturally it was resolute consent.

Such a beauty of ice muscle, whether it is a person or a corpse, a man can't hold it, even Qin Tiange can't help flashing a fascination in his heart.

Unfortunately, he was sober, knowing that the opponent was powerful and terrible, and even cruel. Besides, let him be the face of a female corpse?

Qin Tiange shook his head, the halberd lifted, and pointed sharply at the other side, the meaning was obvious.

"It's a stubborn little man, my sister prefers it." Yu Shi giggled, covering her mouth slightly, and she laughed: "Since this, then the sister convinced you and slowly spoiled you My sister can't wait. "

Huh!

The voice faded, and the other person's figure disappeared. He flew straight to Qin Tiange. The speed was so amazing that he could not capture it with the naked eye.

But who is Qin Tiange? His eyesight was already strong, not to mention there was a weird eyeball that could clearly capture the movement track of the jade corpse.

Huh!

The halberd stabbed with a stab, and there was a puppet in the middle of the jade's corpse, and sparks sprang out.

Jade Corpse was surprised, but he did not expect that he was hit by the other party. If the jade armor on his body was strong enough, he would have been stabbed.

Qin Tiange was even more surprised. Looking at the impenetrable jade armor, it was conceivable that his heart vibrated. This set of jade clothes is really amazing.

It may have been transformed, with incredible power, containing strange auras, blocking the assassination of Euphorbia.

"Interesting little man, my sister can't wait to spoil you even more." The jade corpse laughed again and again, and the figure disappeared. There were only a few crisp laughter coming from all around.

"Good brother, let's follow your sister."

The sound of the jade corpse came from far and near, it was weird, but the figure just disappeared, as if it came from a long distance.

However, Qin Tiange was unmoved. He held the halberd standing still, his face was calm, his eyes constantly looked around, and he suddenly raised his hand to slap on the left position.

when!

Jin Tie crosses, the sparks are scattered, and a petite figure is hit. It is the jade corpse, with a look of surprise and disbelief, but a strong affection in his eyes.

She is becoming more and more fond of Qin Tiange. Not only is she beautiful, full of masculinity, but also has a mysterious atmosphere, which deeply attracts this mutant female spirit corpse.

“Good strength, comparable to me, but I don’t know how many stars it is?” Qin Tiange was horrified, and his halberd trembled in his hand, feeling a huge shock.

This corpse was no weaker than him and had to be shocked. Moreover, the level was unknown and could not be detected at all. There was a strange aura blocking it.

“Good brother, come on, be your elder sister. Your elder sister will always pet you forever, letting you set aside all your pets.”

A crisp and ethereal word kept circulating, full of temptation, as if a beautiful woman was seducing a handsome guy.

“Noise!”

Qin Tiange looked cold, and the clay figurine had three points of anger. This spirit corpse said this time and again and again, it was absolutely a shame to him.

“Ghost halberd, kill!”

Angrily surging The outrageous blow erupted, the ghost halberd, shocking the world, the weeping ghost lord, a halberd crashed, and the yard broke apart from the extremely huge raw stone.

I saw the sound of “Boom”, the dust was soaring, the rubble penetrated through the air, and a figure rushed out with a horror.

Yu Shi’s face was frosty, and he hummed, “My sister wants to spoil you, but you don’t appreciate it, so don’t blame her for being ruthless and catching you.”

Talking, her body evoked an air of sorrow, Bao Guangcancan, jade gas, intertwined with the jaws of her hands.

“Good come, let me see what you have!”

Qin Tiange gave a low drink, his face was full of condensate, his hands held a halberd, and a cloud of mist was rising from his body. The stars flickered continuously, spreading and intertwining on the halberd, and instantly emptied into a huge ghost.

boom!

The two figures slammed together almost at the same time, and the whole shop was lifted up.

Chapter 302 - Little man knows to bully sister

There was a loud bang, and the shop collapsed on the spot and was opened by a huge air wave. The smoke was raging and the rubble penetrated the air, as if it had been bombed by a missile.

Click!

The ground was constantly cracking, and cracks spread out. In the smoke and dust, gravel constantly flew out and crackled in the shops around.

“kill!”

In the smoke and dust, a violent drink, shocked the Quartet, saw the figure flipped inside, the halberd swept, lingering, and a faint burst of sparks scattered.

The two silhouettes collided quickly, the claws whistled, and the sound of ghosts and wailing came from the air, extremely terrifying.

Huh!

There was another clash of golden iron and iron. There were terrible air waves rolling out, the smoke was soaring, and it rushed into the sky.

As I saw, a human figure was almost lightning, and the halberds held up and fell, and a loud bang spread, and they saw a large pit of several meters hit the ground.

Some people were dodging, and the jade armor was flickering, and the jade clothes were emaciated. From time to time, there was a quarrel, and the corpse was repelled.

Up to now, the two are fighting fiercely, but they can't breathe in dozens of times, but they have fought hundreds of times, and finally Qin Tiange has the upper hand.

“Good brother, it's amazing. My sister likes a strong person like you. The stronger you are, the more your sister likes it.” Ling Zhe laughed, and his face was like a peach blossom.

It is a pity that in response to her was a heavy halberd, which fell to his head, as if an ancient mountain was resting on his head.

The corpse's face changed slightly, and he evaded quickly, avoiding the heavy halberd, where he was bombarded by a large pit that was half a meter deep.

Gently pat the flying gravel away, and the corpse gently covered his lips, and smiled softly: “Good brother, how can you bear to hurt your sister, are you iron-hearted?”

“Noisy!” Qin Tiange drank coldly, the figure jumped up in three steps, and the senior halberd fell from the sky, violently chopping on the head of the spirit corpse.

If it was hacked, the spirit corpse would be split in half, no matter how strong it was, but she wasn't so stupid, but she didn't think Qin Tiange would show pity for her, so she avoided it.

“Good brother, you can't hit my sister ...” Ling Zhe laughed as he avoided,

There was a patch of red glow on that delicate face, a trace of spring and intent in his blood-colored eyes, and the more he looked at it, the more he seemed to fall in love with Qin Tiange.

“Really?” Qin Tiange chased after him, sneered, and said suddenly: “Actually, I just warmed up, and now, I understand your details.”

“What?” The corpse stunned, before waiting for a reaction, he saw Qin Tiange throwing up a group of cricket glaucoma, his halberd flat, and his sharpness pointing straight at her heart.

Woo!

Suddenly, the blue light flashed, Qin Tiange seemed like a human halberd, and turned into a blue light. The sharpness was unparalleled and unstoppable.

The sudden assassination gave the spirit corpse a warning sign, and it was too late to think about it, the twin claws flickered and smashed lightly, slamming ahead.

Huh!

After a while of gold and iron confrontation, sparks were seen, and then a sharp jade claw was cut by the Euphorbia crescent.

That section of jade nail clinker fell to the ground, and the spirit corpse held it, but saw the halberd pounding Huanglong, stabbing her in the heart.

I heard only a crackling sound, the jade armor cracked, two jade pieces fell on the spot, and her body was blown out by a huge force and crashed into the ruins.

puff!

In the smoke, a graceful figure crouched on the ground, opened his mouth to spit out blood, and a little bit of jade light flickered. It was not the black blood of the zombie, but a spirit blood containing aura.

She was injured, slowly stood up, and looked at Qin Tiange, who came up with the halberd, with a slight complexion, and was injured.

“Little man, you know how to bully your sister.” The spirit corpse gently wiped the blood from the corner of the mouth and chuckled.

Her eyes are complicated, anger and murderous are intertwined, but she has a hint of unclear emotion, as if she really likes Qin Tiange.

“You are the first man to hurt your sister, and my sister remembers you.”

Suddenly, the spirit corpse showed a charming smile, and Qin Tiange cracked two sharp fangs, crystal clear, as if carved by jade, exuding slaying murderous power.

Roar!

She roared, and suddenly turned around and jumped. She cleverly turned over the ruins, jumped to the top of a shop, and looked at Qin Tiange from afar.

The complex look of the corpse was a little annoyed: “Sister takes a step first and meets in the future. Sister will make you willing to do it first.”

“Dream you, I think it's better for you to be my skinny girl!”

Qin Tiange snorted, leaping with the halberd lightly, and he had to catch up, but after the spirit corpse heard a faint glance behind his eyes, his eyes flashed a little complicated, and he turned around and disappeared after a few landings.

Qin Tiange, after catching up, looked stern and looked at the leaving corpse. He felt a little regretful and failed to leave the other party.

The spirit corpse is not weak, comparable to him, but I don't know how many stars it is, and each battle is half a catty.

If it weren't for Qin Tiange's comprehension of the overbearing ghosts and halberds, it is likely that he lost this time, but now he has only won half.

"Soul corpse, is a trouble." Qin Tiange muttered, jumped off the roof, and returned to the backyard of the shop where the battle had been fierce.

Here, it was already a mess, the entire store was overturned and collapsed by the fierce fighting between the two, and it completely collapsed.

What surprised Qin Tiange was that the original huge jadeite stones in the yard were dug intact, and even the position had not been moved by a single cent, which was really surprising.

"These rough stones are extraordinary." Qin Tiange dragged his chin, wandering around a rough stone weighing at least three tons, and looked at the largest rough stone in surprise.

The whole rough stone, three meters high and one meter wide, looks very ordinary, but if you look closely, you will find a trace of abnormality.

On the surface of the original stone, there is a strange ray of light flowing, and a unique aura of emanation emanates from the inside, that is, jade.

The transpiration of the jade gas makes the whole rough stone look extraordinary. At first glance, it is not ordinary, and it is no wonder that the spirit corpse just took the jade gas emitted from the rough stone here.

"Good thing, I don't know what kind of spirit of heaven and earth is contained in it?" Qin Tiange's expression was inexplicably surprised, and he directly put away this largest rough stone.

Then, he looked at the other rough stones in the yard, all of which were very huge and strangely weird, together with the largest piece he had just collected, a total of nine rough stones.

"This rough stone is black all over, with jade light looming, and treasure light in it, there must be good things."

Qin Tiange looked at a one-meter-high rough stone, the body was black, and the light was looming. It was determined that some kind of treasure was born in the interior.

This is the precious light that the jade stone has just mutated. Once these things settle down, a trace of precious light will not be emitted, let alone look at it, and even think it is a very ordinary stone.

"Close it up and talk." Qin Tiange did not look at it one by one, but quickly collected the other rough stones in the entire yard, leaving one piece alone.

After doing this, he slowly walked out of the shop turned into ruins. Outside, White Tiger was staring nervously at the ruins.

Roar!

Seeing Qin Tiange coming out, Bai Hu was relieved and immediately rushed forward to coquettishly. Seeing Bai Hu doing this, the latter reluctantly patted his head and jumped straight up.

Riding a white tiger, Qin Tiange began to wander the entire gambling stone street, entered one after another in the rough stone shop, and took away most of the jade rough.

Huh!

Soon after he left, a figure quietly emerged. It was the escaping spirit corpse, and she returned.

Standing on the ruins of that shop The spirit corpse looked a little angry and looked at the empty courtyard. The original stone was gone.

“This little man, Sister Fei likes you so much, not only hurts me badly, but also robs her sister Lingyu.” Ling Zhe looked angrily and angry.

But she didn’t dare to catch up, because the position of the heart was still faint. She just pierced her heart with a blow just now. If it was not blocked by jade armor, she would probably be pierced by a halberd.

Looking at the two pieces of jade armor broken, the corpse was helpless and resentful, and he loved and hated Qin Tiange. Not only did she hurt her, but she also took away the extremely fast and best rough stones that she had finally found.

In the gambling market, Qin Tiange rode around the white tiger, and every store was turned over by him, leaving him three feet away.

Wherever he went, all the rough stones were swept away, and one was not left. According to his words, it is waste to keep it anyway, and it is better to take it away.

In this case, the spirit corpses that were followed all the way were completely dumbfounded, because all the raw stone wool in the entire jadeite trading market, Gambling Street, and various stores were gone.

“Gone?”

Looking at the empty rough stone warehouse, all the stores were empty, all the jade rough stones were swept away, and they were extremely clean.

The corpse stood stupidly in the center of the empty gambling stone market, and she was really angry with a anger brewing in her heart.

“Asshole man, my sister is with you!”

The spirit corpse roared loudly in the sky, and the jade was boiling like fire, suddenly slamming a building next to it, and it was smashed into ruins.

She was standing here roaring constantly, her voice was endlessly angry, and she had never been so angry today, and almost never went away.

In this regard, Qin Tiange didn't know. After robbing all the emerald rough stones, he left the white tiger and left quickly, non-stop.

Chapter 303 - Qiongyeyuyu, Kuangshizhen

In a huge business building, Qin Tiange was enjoying his meal and was willing to eat a huge leg of lamb.

Next, Bai Hu gave him a dissatisfied glance, licked his greasy mouth, and never finished, he just ate a roasted whole lamb.

Grunt grunt ...

After filling a few mouthfuls of cherry wine, Qin Tiange was satisfied with a relaxed expression on his face and was full.

"It's time to eat and drink. It's time to calcite." Murmured, Qin Tiange began to take out a set of top-level calcite tools.

He connected the wireless power receiver, turned on the electricity, opened the understanding stone knife, and then took out a large number of emerald rough stones from the space bracelet.

Looking at these emerald rough stones, Qin Tiange's face couldn't help but a little excitement, and his heart almost didn't dance.

Fortunately, he was calm enough to pick up a rough stone the size of a human head and start cutting.

Click ...

Under the pressure of the calcite knife, the surface of the original stone was cut instantly, and the internal conditions were gradually exposed, and a faint flash of jade light was visible.

Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the cut smooth surface, and there was a faint luster in it, as if it was some kind of liquid.

"Did you win the first rough?" He couldn't help but be surprised and excited, and continued to press down the calcite knife to quickly cut the rough.

Not long after, all the shells on the surface of the original stone were cut open, leaving only half the size. The whole body was crystal clear, and there was a faint light in it, even a strange fragrance.

"There is a play!" A flash of excitement and anticipation flashed on Qin Tiange's face, and he continued to cut down, cutting it across the knife, cutting off a small half, revealing the internal core.

Through the crystal jade jade, Qin Tiange saw that in the center of the original stone, there was a small group of crystal liquid lying quietly, exuding a radiant gloss, and the aroma was stronger.

Click! Click!

With the sound of cutting, the entire rough, even the jade with high value in the center, even if it is not the best jade.

What he only cared about was what was grown up inside, that little liquid, crystal clear, as if it were a piece of jade that melted into a liquid.

Huh!

Finally, the last bit of jade was cut open, revealing a small hole inside, filled with a small liquid, the color is clear and moist, exuding a strong aroma, refreshing.

“Haha, it is Qiongyeyu liquid, good things, good things.” Qin Tiange looked excited, looking at the small group of liquid, which is a precious spirit, Qiongye jade liquid.

Qiongjiangyue is a kind of cherished spirit produced by the natural variation of jadeite and jade in the last days. It has a powerful and magical effect, and is called Qiongyuyu.

This is the essence of jade. It is extremely precious. Ordinary jade may not contain such rare things.

Qin Tiange took out a test tube with excitement, and carefully took the small lump of crystal, moist liquid, agar slurry and liquid.

He said with excitement: “The agar slurry and jade liquid contains the essence of jade, has a strong body and strengthens the wonderful effect of bones. If it is made into a medicine, it is likely to obtain a powerful ability of ice muscle jade bone.”

With a small bottle of Qiongyeyu liquid, Qin Tiange was naturally happy. He was well aware of the role and effect of this spirit, so he had the first harvest and was full of confidence.

Next, he continued to pick up the raw stones next to him, one by one, but his luck was not so good.

In many rough stones, there is nothing at all, nothing special except jade.

Even if some precious jade seeds before the end of the day were solved, Qin Tiange couldn't be happy, instead he threw it aside like throwing garbage.

“Luck, luck!”

After dozens of rough stones were untied, Qin Tiange sighed for luck.

He paused for a while, sat down to drink and rest, adjusted his somewhat irritable mood, and waited for a complete calm before proceeding.

The sound of clicking and clicking kept coming. Qin Tiange pressed the calcite knife and cut it one by one, from the initial excitement to the calm now.

He is like a skilled master of calcite. There are no waves in the ancient well. Pieces of rough stones are unlocked by him.

Hundreds of rough stones were unlocked, and finally, the situation quickly appeared in the 101st.

“Well?” Qin Tiange was moving with pressure on the calcite knife to cut, and made a suspicion. He stared at the rough stone under the knife, and had been cut out for a little while.

Originally it was empty, but this time it was different, there was a hint of luster in it, the treasure light appeared, and there was a baby.

To calm down a wave of heart, Qin Tiange calmly resolved, and soon, the rough head-sized rough was completely cut open.

Inside, a small clump of crystalline liquid appeared in front of the eyes, exuding a strange aroma, which was the agar pulp and jade cut out before.

Qin Tiange couldn't help showing a smile, this was the second copy.

This time, there isn't much agar liquid, just enough for a small piece, but it's good enough.

“Aren't you running out of time, and you can't produce strange treasures inside these rough stones?”

At this time, Qin Tiange couldn't help whispering, wasn't the original stone accumulated enough time to prevent the creation of precious and rare treasures?

It is very possible, because the previous life is also the third year of the last days, so many people began to pursue these jadeite rough stones.

Maybe it takes time for the inside of the rough stone to settle, and to conserve the cherished spirits and strange treasures.

“Will you continue to untie it?” Qin Tiange looked hesitant.

After cutting more than one hundred and nearly two hundred rough stones, two copies of agar slurry and jade liquid were obtained, which is somewhat unreasonable.

After thinking for a few minutes, Qin Tiange gritted his teeth and decided to continue cutting. You know, he evacuated the entire jade rough street, and all rough stocks in the gambling market were cleaned up.

Adding all the rough stones, there are 80,000 pieces without 100,000. Naturally, I will not keep them stupidly, but I will solve some of them and see if there is any gain.

This time, Qin Tiange chose a relatively large rough stone, and put a hundred pounds of rough stone under the calcite knife to slowly release it.

Piece by piece, piece by piece, Qin Tiange carefully and carefully calcite, gradually, this piece of hundreds of kilograms of raw stone was cut into the size of a washbasin, cut off next to some of the precious gems before the end ~~ mtlnovel.com ~ The piece left behind is crystal-clear, constantly revealing the light, showing a peculiar gloss, which is extraordinary.

At first glance, Qin Tiange felt that there must be treasures in his face, and a smile appeared on his face, and he was more cautious about it.

Click!

As the sword went down, finally, the internal situation of the entire jade had been looming, and it was clear from Qin Tiange's eyesight.

“This is ...” Looking at the piece of jade that was cut open, the simmering gas transpired, and a peculiar ray of light bloomed throughout the body.

Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, staring at something in the center of the jade, and his heart couldn’t help beating a few times.

“Kuang ... world ... strange ... Jane!”

One word at a time, Qin Tiange read the words, and he couldn’t help breathing quickly.

It’s a timeless treasure!

Chapter 304 - 9 becomes immortal, Kirin becomes

In Yuzhong, a hazy figure loomed, revealing a vast, simple, noble and strange atmosphere.

That was the appearance of a unicorn. It was very delicate, the scales were clearly visible, and it was constantly changing, as if it were an unreal unicorn.

“King Qi is precious, and it will never die.”

Qin Tiange looked dignified, his breathing was a little quick, his eyes stared at the little unicorn in the jade, hazy, fantasy and real.

The Nine Transformed Immortal Blood is a rumored timeless treasure, which is recorded in the knowledge of pharmacy heritage. The language is unknown, and only the rare world is mentioned.

Once it appears, it is the treasure that countless people have to fight to break their heads, and it can even cause a terrible disaster.

This kind of timeless treasure is like a kind of blood, which is born in nature. It is called the Nine Change Immortal Blood. What is the Nine Change? It is this kind of blood that has nine kinds of changes, nine transformations, and after reaching the ninth change, you can get real immortality.

Now, the kind of timeless treasures in the jade is only in the first change, the unicorn change, and it is not yet mature.

At the next moment, Qin Tiange looked gloomy and annoyed, “Waste, before the first change has been completed, Kirin Shadow is a bit futile. When it is opened, it is equivalent to a complete disuse.”

He held the jade in both hands, and after careful inspection through the jade, he found that the unicorn shadow inside had not been fully formed, and the first transformation of the unicorn was almost completed.

The unicorn is black and black, carved like Mo Yu, and has its own inner world. I don’t know why it can form such a magical treasure.

The power of nature is beyond human comprehension. Just like this magnificent treasure in front of you, you have no idea how it was formed.

Qin Tiange repented and murmured: “Being immature and precious, being driven out by me is equivalent to breaking up the opportunity for growth. If you complete the first transformation of the unicorn transformation, then it is true maturity.”

According to the piecemeal information recorded in the inherited knowledge, the Nine Changes Undead Pill, once completed nine transformations, will turn into an undead.

And this kind of timeless treasure can only be discovered after it becomes fully mature and taken directly, and that person can get this kind of timeless wonder, such as the unicorn transformation.

The immense medicinal properties contained in it can even cause people to metamorphose, metamorphosing one at a time, until they gain immortality after nine times.

This immortality is not Qin Tiange's immortality, but a true immortality.

“Can you ripen it?” Qin Tiange faced remorse, feeling that his heart was dripping blood, and the time of this extraordinary time was too early.

This made him extinguish the urge to continue to calcite. Once the baby that has been opened has not yet formed, it is a huge waste.

He stared at the ever-changing unicorn, thinking in his mind whether he could ripen this timeless treasure?

“Immortal medicine, can you ripen Kwong Chi Chien?” Qin Tiange suddenly thought of a problem, and he still had an immature immortal medicine in his hand.

Whether this immortal medicine can ripen this timeless wonder, if it is feasible, it is a huge surprise, if not, use Kuangshizhen to ripen the immortality.

One of the two, although heartache, Qin Tiange still feels like trying it, otherwise it would be useless to leave this timeless treasure.

As soon as he thought about it, Qin Tiange immediately took out the immature immortal pill, and originally extracted two copies, and matured one, but now the last immortal pill is left.

Gritting his teeth, Qin Tiange poured the immortal medicine in the jade box directly into the jade that was opened in a crack.

Huh!

A magical scene happened. As the undead medicine poured into it, it entered the crack along the crack, and immediately caused the vibration of the shadow of the unicorn, then opened its mouth and swallowed the undead medicine.

Yes, the little Moyu unicorn swallowed the immortal medicine, as if a living unicorn was amazing.

“With a little sign of spiritual knowledge to be born, it really deserves to be a nine-in-one medicine, but unfortunately it was premature.” Qin Tiange repented, and if he waits for the birth of this magnificent treasure, he will probably get An undead creature.

However, it was delusional. Kuang Shiqizhen was rare in the world. If you can find it good, you still want it to complete the nine changes completely?

Once the nine changes are completed, it is a powerful undead creature. Who can suppress this creature, not to mention enslaving this noble undead creature.

Qin Tiange also thought about it. At this moment, he saw that Qilin was getting more and more energetic, his scales were shining with jade, his limbs were solid, his head was shaking, and his horns were blooming with a hint of black gas.

Roar...

Suddenly, Kirin yelled from the sky and heard a faint whistle of Kirin howling. The white tiger jumped up in shock and exploded.

It felt a kind of threat on the bloodline, and was immediately vigilant, staring at the jade in Qin Tiange's hand, full of fear of the unicorn inside.

"It's done?" Qin Tiange faced with surprise, looking at the complete absorption of the immortal medicine, Kirin completely formed, it completed the first change, Kirin change.

This timeless treasure has been ripened and completed the first change. As long as it is taken, it will inevitably get a unicorn change, and even have a variety of magical effects.

As long as enough energy can be obtained in the future, it is not that there is no chance to complete other changes and completely form the Nine Changes.

"Okay!" Qin Tiange was so excited that he couldn't say a word, cut the jade directly, and took out the magnificent treasure.

A black jade-colored unicorn soared out, soaring in the air, constantly running, and stepping on a black cloud under the limbs.

No, it's not auspicious clouds. There is an icy coldness in the dark clouds, as if from the underworld of the land, which makes people shudder.

"Roar!" Xiao Qilin roared skyward, and Pentium was about to escape. It already had a hint of instinct, and naturally felt dangerous, and immediately ran.

It's a pity, how could Qin Tiange, who had been prepared, let it run away, and he stood up and grabbed the little unicorn like lightning.

Alas ... Kirin roared, constantly struggling on the palm of his hand, but unfortunately could not break Qin Tiange's Wuzhishan and was firmly grasped in his palm.

Mo Yu Qilin, with an exquisite body, only three inches in size, looks extremely delicate, but contains wonderful abilities.

"Hey, luck is overwhelming." Qin Tiange grinned, grabbed the Mo Yuqilin and stuffed it into his mouth.

No matter how little Kirin struggled, he was swallowed in his stomach, and soon turned into a mysterious force, melting in his body.

"Nine changes will not die. The first change will be Kirin."

Suddenly, he saw Qin Tiange's face was red, and he drunk loudly, and a black gas puffed up and down his body, covering him instantly.

Next to him, the white tiger was stunned, staring with horror, staring at the dark air area, gradually showing a figure, aggressively domineering.

Roar!

The shadow opened his mouth and roared, his body covered with black mist, and it was constantly surrounded by a unisex unicorn, two meters long, half a meter high, and mighty.

Kirin, that's a Moyu unicorn, and Qin Tiange himself?

"This is the unicorn change?" Mo Yu unicorn spoke, saying such a sentence, it is Qin Tiange's voice.

He turned into a unicorn?

Amazed, shocked, incredible!

Roar!

Bai Hu roared and kept back, staring at Mo Yuqilin suddenly appearing in front of him, ten thousand * Pentium in his heart.

It wondered in his heart: "How did the master become like this? Is this what the master looks like? Don't say, the master is really powerful and handsome now."

call!

Suddenly, Mo Yuqilin rose into the air, stepping on the black clouds and constantly galloping in the hall, burning with black silk flames, as if it were a mythical unicorn beast.

Qin Tiange was amazed and even shocked. After feeling that his body had changed into a unicorn, his combat power doubled. This strange ability was incredible.

Huh?

Suddenly, Qin Tiange, who was running, was surprised and saw a black flame suddenly burst into the body of the transformed unicorn.

It was the talented angel fire of the fallen angel, and suddenly he sprang up and merged into the black mist of Mo Yulin, turning into a thicker and scarier black flame, cold and dark, full of horror.

"Okay, hahahaha ..."

Qin Tiange couldn't help laughing, turning into a unicorn running in the lobby, suddenly turned around and rushed out the door, running wild on the street, the whole person felt that the world was a little different.

Roar!

Bai Hu stood in front of the gate, staring blankly at Mo Yuqilin, who was tumbling on the street. Suddenly there was a strong fear in his heart, a deep fear from the bloodline.

After playing for a while, Qin Tiange felt that his body was a bit empty, ran back quickly, and stepped on a black cloud of fire under his feet and returned to the lobby of the commercial building.

For a moment, black gas rose, Kirin disappeared and Qin Tiange's figure appeared here again.

He was pale and his steps were slightly bleak, but he muttered excitedly: "The nine changes will not die, the first change, the unicorn change, it is truly a world of preciousness."

Qin Tiange was so excited that he calmed down for a long time before calming down, then thinking about whether to continue calcite.

However, he soon decided not to dissolve the stones for the time being, because many of these rough stones are likely to be immature like this rare gem. Once opened, it is equivalent to destruction.

"Still wait first. At present, there is Qiongjiang Yuyu, plus blood Ganoderma lucidum, and then subsidizing some medicinal materials should make a good pot of medicine."

After thinking about it, Qin Tiange decided not to dissolve the stone for the time being, intending to refining a furnace of medicinal solution and preparing to improve his strength.

As for the unchangeable blood of the Nine Changes, in fact, this thing cannot increase a person's strength, and can only obtain a strange power, such as the Kirin Change.

Of course, after becoming a unicorn, Qin Tiange's strength has doubled. What is that concept?

Double the power, enough to crush him now, so Kirin becomes his killer, an ace.

Boom!

Taking out the lipstick, the extremely hot furnace, Qin Tiange once again started refining medicine, ready to improve his existing strength.

In this refining, the main medicine is Qiongjiangyuyu and Blood Ganoderma, while the other subsidy medicines are a little more. The most important thing is a drop of Shen blood.

Chapter 305 - Refining medicine, ice muscle jade bone

Qiongyeyu liquid was poured into it, which immediately stirred up blue smoke. Strangely, this jade liquid was not reduced by burning.

"It's worthy of Qiongyeyuyu, and it's no exaggeration to call it Xianjiang." Qin Tiange sighed, and then took out the nine-leaf blood Ganoderma lucidum into it.

Just listening to the noise, the blood mist rose, and the whole blood Ganoderma lucidum melted on the spot, turning into a blood-colored energy liquid and merging into the Qiongjiangyu liquid.

The fusion of the two triggered a certain reaction, such as mutual exclusion and competition, but unfortunately, under the continuous burning of the furnace, the two gradually merged perfectly, regardless of each other.

Next, Qin Tiange put the same medicinal materials into the furnace to burn and refine the essence.

Ginseng, Polygonum multiflorum, Huang Jing, etc., all kinds of fresh medicinal materials were taken out into the furnace and refined into essence.

Refining medicine requires time, but also requires skill and energy. Once the steps are wrong, even a little mistake will cause the refining medicine to fail.

However, with several experience in refining medicine, coupled with the knowledge of pharmacists, under the calculation of the super brain, there is almost no error. Therefore, this time refining medicine is very smooth.

Grunt grunt ...

In the furnace, the liquid constantly boils, blisters emerge, and a strong aroma is emitted, which is poisonous.

Refining medicine, the aroma is toxic, you must slowly refine the toxins in the medicine to truly complete the refining of a good medicine.

Throughout the process, Qin Tiange was attentive, with a white tiger guarding him, he was not worried at all, and he worked his heart and soul to refine the medicine.

All the medicinal materials have been refined, which is the last step. This new medicine requires one thing, that is, the blood of the god.

“Divine blood, I wonder if it is brewing?”

Qin Tiange murmured and took out a dark heart. This is the immortal heart, which belongs to the eight-winged fallen angel idol.

It is rumored that God’s blood can be brewed in the heart, I don’t know if it is true or not, but Qin Tiange wants to try it to see if it is true.

Holding the immortal heart in both hands and squeezing it with a little force, a squeaking sound came, and a pipe of immortal heart was slowly overflowing with a little purple and black blood.

It was the blood of God, with a strong breath, like a fallen angel from the eighteenth floor of hell. The breath was noble and frightening.

“Spirit blood ...” Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes, his heart was surprised and rejoicing.

Although rarely, he squeezed a drop from the immortal heart, and a drop of  blood slowly dripped from the heart.

Tick!

A drop of purple-black  blood dripped into the furnace. At once, a powerful momentum rushed into the shape of an angel with eight wings, and hovered and danced continuously over the furnace.

The four pairs of wings flapped constantly, rolling up a black flame, and finally shouting, they burst into the furnace and disappeared.

Divine blood, melted into the medicinal solution, completely disappeared, leaving only a finished refining of the new medicine, the liquid crystal, with a ray of purple and black luster inside, as if a ray of flame was boiling.

“Finished?” Qin Tiange looked excited, watching the medicinal solution in the furnace gradually calm down, knowing it was done.

The medicine has been completed. It is a brand new medicine, not an ordinary liquid medicine, but prepared by smelting several precious main medicines.

As for the effect, Qin Tiange himself didn't know. Only after taking it could he know what the effect was.

Without hesitation, Qin Tiange packed this brand new liquid medicine in a container, drank it directly, and drank it a few times, leaving nothing left.

Uh!

At the entrance of the medicinal solution, Qin Tiange hit a full stomach. Then, his face was red, and there was a scorching scorch on his body, as if it was about to burn.

In the body, the infinite energy of the medicinal solution swept across the body, the bones screamed, the cells trembled, and the internal organs were shattered one by one.

Strong, medicine is so strong that Qin Tiange's current physique is difficult to counteract, and was easily torn.

Qin Tiange gritted his teeth and endured, but soon found himself wrong. The medicine of this new potion was too violent, which directly destroyed the internal organs, even crushed his bones on the spot, and his body was about to explode.

“Kirin changes!”

At the critical moment, Qin Tiange directly used the unicorn transformation, and the whole person turned into a giant Moyu unicorn, burning with a blazing black flame.

At this time, he felt that the medicinal properties had weakened, and the broken internal organs of the body were quickly restored and repaired by the immortal body.

The broken bones began to be repaired one by one, and the broken cells and muscles were also restored to integrity under the action of the undead body, becoming more powerful.

clank!

The whole body was arguing, like gold and iron, like beautiful jade, constantly flashing the luster of jade, becoming more transparent, and finally turned into a pair of jade bones.

Yes, the original pale bones actually broke down and completed transformation, turning into a harder and stronger jade bone.

Huh!

At the same time, a body of black and yellow blood continued to flow from the surface of the body, with a foul odor, fragments of the internal organs, bone fragments, aging dead cells, and even stubborn toxins.

Wash your body and marrow, strong bones and bones, cast jade bones inside, and ice muscles outside!

Ding!

Just listening to a soft humming sound, like the sound of a collision of gold stone corundum, saw Qin Tiange's broken body quickly recover, transform, and flicker with jade light, extremely amazing.

Skin is fairer and more translucent, as if carved from ice jade, full of charm.

Within the body, starlight looms, little by little, starlights continue to emerge, and the more they gather, the more they become a star that spreads throughout the body.

There were three hundred points of starlight, but one hundred points of starlight were suddenly added, and one hundred points more was equal to one hundred more people.

At this moment, Qin Tiange has a force of four hundred people, or is only a two-star level. If people know it, don't startle his chin?

"Ice muscle jade bone, it's done?" Qin Tiange muttered, but there was not much joy in his heart, as if he was used to it.

He felt great changes in his body and took that new potion, which actually enabled him to obtain the ice muscle jade bone, which not only made his appearance more perfect.

Moreover, the bones are as strong as corundum, and the body is not only more white and translucent, the biggest change is defense.

when!

Without saying a word, Qin Tiange took out an ordinary steel knife and chopped it directly in his left hand. There was a sound of golden iron and iron attack, and the sparks spattered without injury.

Marvel, his physical defense has undergone a qualitative transformation. The ice muscle and jade bone are particularly amazing. The ordinary steel knife can not cut it, and even a powerful body shakes a gap.

"Ordinary swords are difficult to hurt, so what about one-star?" Qin Tiange thought for a while, and directly changed to a one-star sword.

Without hesitation, the knife stabbed, a tiny tink came from the left arm, and then a sting came from the skin, and the blood did not flow out, only a white mark.

A one-star weapon could not hurt him, too, and Qin Tiange was surprised. He changed another two-star sword and placed it in his left hand.

Huh!

This time, the left arm was cut away with a very slight wound, but it was repaired by itself before it could be seen clearly.

The two-star sword can only hurt a little, Qin Tiange continued to try, this time a three-star dagger.

But this time it was bad. The three-star dagger was extremely sharp and opened a bloodstain. Some blood was about to flow out, but was recovered by the immortal body.

Qin Tiange closed his dagger and murmured excitedly: “Very well, at present, my physique and strength have reached the two-star level and I can reach the limit. It is time to enter the steel assessment and then Tier Samsung.”

His strength has risen to the limit. The power of two stars and four hundred people is incredible.

For ordinary people, if you promote two stars with the power of more than a dozen people, you will double the strength by being promoted to one star. That is to say, one person has 10 people with one star, so you will get 20 people with two stars. Doubled.

Qin Tiange is different. One star has been promoted to the limit of 110 people. Two stars have been promoted to obtain the power of 200 people. Through practice and promotion, the two-star limit has been reached and the strength of 400 people.

If he was promoted to three stars, would he get 800 people? Qin Tiange felt that it was impossible to be so good, it should have some restrictions.

The higher the level, the more difficult it is to improve, especially after Samsung, it will be more difficult to improve in the future.

“Let’s take a look at Foshan first. Has it fallen?”

Qin Tiange said, mentioning Euphoria, riding on a white tiger and walking out of this business building, he wanted to see if Foshan had fallen.

Chapter 306 - Up, kill him

Foshan has a resident population of more than 9 million. In addition to the floating population, there are tens of millions of people. After the end, zombies will be rampant and dense.

There is a military subdivision here, and there are no small police forces, but after the end of the disaster, the disaster will be too fast and there will be too many zombies, resulting in the military subdivision having to withdraw to Guangcheng.

It’s empty, it’s quite lost, and there are only scattered survivors in the city who haven’t had time to evacuate.

On the street, zombies are surging, especially in dense industrial areas. Zombies are the most numerous, wandering in groups.

Roar!

Suddenly, a white shadow continued to flash, and several zombies slammed into a fly. It was a snow-white tiger all over, carrying a young man.

Qin Tiange looked unhappy, looking at more and more zombies around him, struggling to kill a * path, rushing out of the encirclement.

“Damn, why are all these zombies coming to my side?” Qin Tiange cursed as he waved the halberd to kill the zombies.

Seeing the crowds of zombies coming, he had a bad hunch and seemed to guess the reason.

“Is it the jade armor corpse that is engaging in ghosts?” Qin Tiange thought secretly, frowning, and constantly looked around.

The corpse surged and kept coming up to keep him from leaving. This situation is a bit wrong, even if Qin Tiange is stupid, he understands that the corpse has something to control.

“It really is the spirit corpse ...”

Finally, at the top of a building in the distance, Qin Tiange saw a graceful figure, standing proudly, looking down at this place.

She was a corpse. The one who was injured and ran away at that time did not expect to control Qin Tiange to prevent Qin Tiange from leaving.

Humph!

Qin Tiange glanced at the corpse over there and sneered: “If it had been before, you might have been defeated, but unfortunately, you can’t keep me now.”

After taking Kuang Shiqizhen’s unchangeable blood, and after taking the refining medicine, Qin Tiange’s strength at this moment has already changed from that of the past. If he confronts that spirit corpse, he will definitely be able to damage the other party and even find her opportunity.

However, the spirit corpse was very cautious, and was not close, just watching from a distance, directing the corpse group to keep coming, trying to drown Qin Tiange with the corpse tide and stop him from leaving.

“I said, you can’t keep me!”

Qin Tiange watched more and more zombies rushing, seeing that the White Tiger could not rush out, immediately drank loudly, and a mass of ink mist was raised.

boom!

More than a dozen zombies in front of him were smashed by the ground, their bodies were broken and their heads broke apart. I saw that Qin Tiange had lost his trace and was replaced by a two-meter-long, half-meter-high Moyu unicorn. The black flames.

Roar!

The unicorn roared, crashed madly, ran all the way, fast as lightning, terrible power directly hit the zombies blocked in front, and no zombies could stop them.

Behind him, Bai Hu followed closely, and Shengsheng killed a * path, far from the siege of the corpse, and disappeared at a distant street corner.

“This little man really makes my sister wonder.” On the top of the building in the distance, the spirit corpse watched Qin Tiange programming Mo Yuqilin, leaving his face unsightly.

Unexpectedly, the corpses could not stop him from leaving, and had to marvel at his mighty strength. He liked the human man more and more in the heart, and even more determined to take him as his first face.

Rushing all the way, Mo Yulin turned into black gas and disappeared, Qin Tiange’s figure appeared, his face was pale, and he felt a little bit floating inside.

“It turned out that the Kirin Transform needs huge energy to support it.” Qin Tiange then realized that the Kirin Transform needs huge energy to support.

Once the energy consumption is clean, then the unicorn change disappears, and even it will be weak for a period of time to recover.

If it weren't for his immortality, he might not be able to support the unicorn change, and even after the change, he would be weak for a few days, which is quite dangerous.

The unicorn transformation has actually not been completed, and Qin Tiange has not formally mastered this magical power, so he cannot exert his true strength.

“That jade corpse will beat her down sooner or later.”

Qin Tiange snorted softly, carrying the halberd, and left here on a white tiger. Foshan had already gone to the sky, and most of the survivors had already moved to the Guangcheng Military Region.

After the corpse was created, Qin Tiange rushed all the way, and rushed to the direction of the Guangcheng Military Region without stopping, there was a huge survivor base.

Outside the base of Guangcheng, more and more refugees are coming from all sides, so that the entire Guangcheng Military Region has felt tremendous pressure, and the food crisis, external crisis, internal crisis and other issues have followed.

From Foshan to Guangcheng, it took Qin Tiange three full hours to get here from there.

Even the white fur of the white tiger was dyed black-red, stained with blood, and it smelled bad, making it extremely unpleasant.

After finding a clear stream in the countryside, Qin Tiange continued his journey and soon came to the base established by the Guangcheng Military Region.

In fact, it's easy to find, because there are scattered leaflets throughout Guangcheng. These were intentionally sprayed by the Guangcheng military. The purpose is to let the survivors know that this base exists.

“In front of the base of the Guangcheng Military Region ...”

Soon, Qin Tiange came to the base of Guangcheng alone, but he was caught by the sight.

The huge reinforced concrete city wall, twenty meters high, looks majestic, but there are huge gathering places outside the base.

These are refugees from all over the place. The base can no longer accommodate it, so they have no choice but to build simple tents near the base.

The environment here is harsh, there are  everywhere, full of rotten moldy smell, let people vomit when they smell, let alone live in such a place.

The gate of the base is guarded by a heavily armed soldier with a live ammunition, and there is a person next to it who disinfects and sterilizes the person to prevent it from entering.

Qin Tiange did not follow the refugees to go for disinfection. Although there was a little free ration distribution for disinfection, he did not lack this.

Leaving the crowd, he came to a large, simple place of residence outside the base, where refugee flows were concentrated.

“Sooner or later, these people will starve to death.” Qin Tiange walked into the damp, moldy, foul-smelling gathering place, and saw each of the refugees lying thinly and yellow-faced.

He knew that it wouldn’t take long for these people to starve to death unless there was enough food in the military base.

But is there food in the military area? The answer is yes, but there are not many. Even the grain of the military war reserve before the end of the day is just enough for the base itself to spend, and it can only support it for about a year.

With more and more refugees coming in, the situation here will get worse, not just external dangers, internal crises are quietly brewing.

Once there is no food, the refugees are encouraged by the people who care for them, and a * civil war erupts immediately.

All the influx of refugees will definitely do bad things under despair and hunger, and by that time the military region will be unable to cope.

“Hey, boy, do you have any food?”

Just thinking about this, suddenly a group of people came up in front of them, all dangling, holding steel choppers and other weapons, staring at Qin Tiange with all eyes.

He didn’t have a weapon on his hands at the moment, and he wasn’t wearing armor. Instead, he wore a neat casual clothes, fine-skinned and tender meat, looking harmless to humans and animals.

This is not. As soon as I got here, I caught the attention of a group of villains, stopped him immediately, and surrounded him with bad intentions.

“Why, do you want to rob?” Qin Tiange glanced lightly at the eighteen rumblings around, not paying any attention to them.

Among these people, the short, but extremely strong man in front of him, his eyes were cold and his face was fierce.

“Boy, don’t you know that this is my place, you have to pay to come here, you have to pass three low-level crystal nuclei, and you need to pay ten crystal nuclei for one night.” The short and clever man smiled with a smile. The sentence.

“Your place?” Qin Tiange looked at the other person with his head crooked, and a sneer appeared in the corner of his mouth.

Nearby, many survivors saw and evaded one after the other, dared to avoid, and did not dare to approach, let alone to go out of their way.

The law and order here is very confusing, because not inside the base, the military area is incapable of keeping their eyes open and letting the refugees here develop themselves Hey!

The man laughed with a hey smile: “Yes, this is Ye ’s place. You who know how to give up everything on your body, or you will have an extra body in the stinking ditch.”

“Really?” Qin Tiange sneered at the corner of his mouth, humming, “Your territory, but not necessarily yours, maybe me?”

“Finally give you a chance and leave immediately, I don’t care about your rudeness.”

“what?”

Around, a group of people were stunned, staring at Qin Tiange with wide eyes, as if looking at a fool.

“Look to death!” The short, clever man was angry, and yelled, “Brothers, the copycat killed him and threw it into the foul ditch to feed the flies.”

“Go on, kill him!”

The leading man drank, rushed first, waving the steel knife, and with a sound of wind, he was obviously an intensifier, but unfortunately too weak.

Chapter 307 - Killing like mowing

Woo!

A spear of halberds suddenly emerged, paddling towards the savvy man, and there was a sharp whistling sound in the air.

Just listening to the flutter, his head soared high, and after a few laps rolled down to the ground, the intrepid man died.

Before he died, his eyes widened, his pupils dilated, his eyes were raised, and his mouth was too wide to scream and scream, and his head was cut off.

Hum!

Qin Tiange shakes the halberd lightly, shaking off a trace of blood, some dissatisfied that the halberd was not fast enough, otherwise it would not be stained with blood.

hiss!

“how is this possible?”

At this moment, a group of people who had been rushing around all of a sudden were dumbfounded, looking at the dead head, and they all drew back air conditioner, horrified to retreat.

They looked at Qin Tiange, not knowing when a spear was added to their hands, with a sharp edge, revealing bloodthirsty killings.

“Encountered stubble, go!”

The group was very simple. One of the youths was panicked and drank a little. He turned around and ran away.

They know that this time they encountered a stubble, that is, their bosses were killed by the other party's tricks, but that was a one-star intensifier.

When I think about it, I feel scared. The one-star intensifiers are all spiked on the spot, not to mention their ordinary little sisters?

"I want to run, I've given you a chance, but I don't know how to cherish it." Qin Tiange shook his head secretly with a cold smile on the corner of his mouth.

His figure flickered, with the halberd across the front, the crescent crooked, and fluttered across one's neck, his head soared, and blood and water sprayed three feet straight.

"Ah ... don't kill me!"

Someone screamed in horror and begged for mercy, but suddenly they felt that they were turning around, then their bones fell into darkness and their heads were cut off.

Qin Tiange has no mercy. People are like ghosts and killings are like mowing grass. They have not let go of these people at all.

The survivors who did not stay and were so horrified scared one by one around the sidelines, shied away, and even hid.

Looking at the headless corpse on the ground, a dozen cricket heads lay there quietly, both eyes have a feature, that is, the eyeballs are raised.

"The opportunity has been given to you for a long time." Qin Tiange finished these people, expressionless, muttered to himself.

In fact, they were given a chance just now, but unfortunately no one cherishes it. If they want to kill him, then there is nothing to say and it will be resolved directly.

He kills people like cutting grass, and there is no fluctuation in his heart. He has sharpened a cold and tough heart in previous lives.

Looking at the crowd around him, Qin Tiange ignored it, but walked slowly through this extremely rotten neighborhood.

Around, there were suggested residences built one by one, some were made of twigs and quilts, and some were made of rags with iron frames. They were all kinds of messy and dirty.

"Who is he?"

After Qin Tiange left, a group of nearby survivors walked out in horror, looking at the back of the departure, feeling a sense of consternation.

On the ground, heads seemed extremely stingy, bloody, and headless bodies lying there made people's hairs.

They guessed who Qin Tiange was, and actually killed the bully in this refugee area, and uprooted him directly.

Dozens of stupid people want to rob Qin Tiange, aren't they trying to die?

Out of this refugee zone, Qin Tiange came to a larger refugee zone, which is more chaotic and dirty, but there are more people.

From the perspective of Qin Tiange, at least 10,000 people have gathered in this area, forming a large area of refugees.

In these refugee areas outside the base, there are such large and small forces that specifically divide their respective refugee areas.

For example, it was not surprising that a dozen or so people were just the evil forces in the smallest refugee area.

“Stop, you have to pay to enter here.”

At the entrance to the refugee area, unexpectedly, two burly men stood with their knives and blocked Qin Tiange's way.

They opened their mouths and asked for a fee directly. They had to charge a fee to enter the refugee area, which made Qin Tiange, who had no intention of paying attention, angry.

“What if I don't pay?” Qin Tiange asked with a tilted head.

The two guys on the opposite side couldn't hear it. Someone openly challenged their authority, wouldn't they not take them seriously?

“No, let's kill the fish!” Said one of the men with a grimace, and the steel knife in his hand shook, showing a hint of horror.

Another man snorted likewise: “Boy, hurry up and pay, don't delay our affairs, leave without paying, otherwise kill you and feed the fish.”

“A lot of people said they wanted to kill me, but their graves were as tall as the two of you.

Qin Tiange sighed secretly and said this sentence.

As a result, when he saw a stab in his halberd, a snoring sound came, and the halberd penetrated directly to the heart of a big man opposite him, strangling on the spot.

When the last one found something wrong, he immediately retreated and tried to escape, but it was too late and was soon caught up by Qin Tiange.

“No, you can't kill me. My brother-in-law is a high-ranking base military officer and a captain. You will never be better off killing me.” The last man was terrified and begging for mercy, but it meant a threat.

Qin Tiange sneered after hearing it, as if looking at a fool, a captain, did he dare to touch him this Chinese general?

“You go with peace of mind!” Qin Tiange was expressionless, and as soon as his voice fell, he saw that his figure had lost his trace, and then appeared to have been behind the man. A halberd returned to the horse and stabbed directly through the man and killed Got him.

Killing two more people, Qin Tiange can be regarded as killing people like hemp and cutting people like mowing, which really makes many nearby survivors frightened and awed.

After killing these two people, Qin Tiange walked into that refugee gathering place, and there was a small market inside, and the crowd was full of excitement and excitement.

“Get out of here!”

Suddenly, there was a riot in the front market, and many people were pushed forcibly and even beaten and maimed on the spot.

It was a group of fierce men, all of them carrying steel knives, and several even came quickly with submachine guns.

“Kui, that’s him. I saw him kill the two goalkeepers.” A survivor pointed out Qin Tiange in horror.

Suddenly, the crowd was quiet all around, looking up at each other, looking up and down at Qin Tiange with a calm face.

“Is it true what he said? You killed a group of my men?” The burly man who took the lead asked with a calm face.

A smile appeared on the corner of Qin Tiange’s mouth, and he did not deny it. He said, “I killed someone, but they asked for it.”

“What a reason!”

The burly man was furious and yelled, “Don’t talk nonsense, brothers, copy this guy and kill this kid, take revenge for the dead brother.”

“Revenge, kill him!”

The small trading market is completely messed up Many people who buy and sell are far away, fearing that it will harm the pond fish.

“Dead!”

Qin Tiange spit out two words gently, and Euphorbia whistled a buzzing sound, passing through a stunner who waved his knife, and it was better than killing.

His speed was like ghosts, and the group could not capture the trace of the other party. Instead, they were killed back by Qin Tiange.

“Ah, forgive me, I don’t want to die.” Some youths roared unwillingly before they died.

In the end, a flash of light flashed, half of his head was cut off, and blood and water mixed with his brain to collapse and fly around and spilled on the ground.

Qin Tiange rushed into the crowd, opened the killing ring, and danced to kill a group of people who wanted to surround him.

His killing was like cutting grass. No one was his one enemy. It was a one-sided slaughter, which scared many survivors into fear. Some of them were frightened and incontinent.

Chapter 308 - First class? 1 foot to death

“Who is that man? So scary!”

After Qin Tiange left, nearby talents came out tremblingly, his face was still in shock, and some people’s pants were wet.

The corpses were full of heads, their heads were rolling, they looked extremely scary, and many people even rolled their eyes on the spot.

“Okay, good kill!”

However, some people in the crowd clapped their hands and applauded, even stepping up on a human head, scolding while stepping on it.

“Tell you to run rampantly, call you to trespass, rob, and plunder, and die.”

Many people hate these rampant bastards. In this refugee area, they often bully ordinary people, and even bully women, and behave badly.

Now that many people have been killed, they clap their hands and say that they would have died prematurely. But here is chaos, there is no law and order, and the Guangcheng Military Region is incapable of managing the refugee areas.

Over time, this place has become a crime paradise, and even caring people have quietly pulled out gangs to form forces, large and small, in order to compete for control of these refugee areas.

Anyone who lives and lives in the controlled area must pay fees, food, items, etc., and some even force others to hunt and kill the zombies to get the nuclei.

After passing through several large refugee areas, Qin Tiange saw an extremely chaotic situation. Several groups of people often hacked and killed each other. The dead were the most normal.

Moreover, the women who live here are the most miserable, often forcibly insulted by many people, and finally can’t bear to move directly into the base and become a scenic line of the Red Light District.

In order to live, it is not easy for anyone. This is the result of doomsday and the loss of people’s hearts. There is no peaceful and stable environment, no strong armed institutions to suppress it.

“My son, why are you leaving ...”

Outside a tent, a man was crying with a small child in his arms. It was his son who had been dead for a long time and was starved to death.

Many refugees nearby shook their heads and regretted it, and someone sighed: "It's all done in this world. I don't know how many people die every day and how many children are starved to death in the refugee area?"

"Poor baby ..."

Many people regret, and feel a little sorrow, watching a small life starved to death, one after another, the heart is sad, the world is difficult, and the end is dangerous. Where is their way out?

Standing in the crowd, Qin Tiango watched this scene silently. He walked across several large refugee areas and saw such a scene.

"Children are not connected to the base for unified management and education. Is it true that the Guangcheng Military Region has ignored these children?"

Qin Tiange's heart was a bit of a fire. In the modern society, the ancient Chinese people even saw that the next generation was starved to death. It was simply intolerable.

If a nation cannot take care of the next generation and starve to death, what is the use of this generation alive?

Turning around and leaving the crowd, Qin Tiange walked out of these refugee areas, went directly to the base entrance, and walked in.

"Please show your credentials."

At the door, several soldiers with live ammunition stopped Qin Tiange immediately and asked him to take out the access card of the base.

Because the population is full and there are too many victims, the residents inside the base must apply for residence permits, and even entry and exit permits.

"Certificate of entry and exit?" Qin Tiange looked at the two soldiers blocking the road, very young, with a hint of helplessness in their eyes. They were soldiers, not like blocking ordinary people from entering the base.

But this is the command above, they can do nothing but execute the command.

"What about this certificate?" Qin Tiange was naturally absent, but he took out a certificate and threw it to a soldier.

The latter took a hold and picked it up. When he opened it, his face suddenly changed. He looked at Qin Tiange and looked at his credentials.

"Hello Chief!"

When the two soldiers saw the document, it was written from the Central Military Commission to Qin Tiange's admiral that they could see the authenticity at a glance.

Seeing this, the two soldiers looked solemn and saluting, gave way and returned the document.

"Go on duty!"

Qin Tiange retrieved the documents, nodded and walked in, leaving the two soldiers facing each other, somewhat surprised.

I didn't expect to stop a general. I still suspected that it was a false certificate, but the special stamp printed by the Central Military Commission above is not wrong.

Entering the base, Qin Tiange frowned unconsciously. Looking at the huge base that was obviously not full, he felt a little uncomfortable.

Are there still many houses or spaces in the base that can be inhabited?

"You are just here, should you buy a house?"

Just as Qin Tian Ge thought for a while, a middle-aged man came over there, and smiled and said something that surprised him.

buy house? Qin Tiange's head buzzed and almost ran away. He held back his anger and asked lightly, "The houses here seem to be ownerless. After the last day, all the properties are ownerless. Why do you say you want me to buy a house?"

"Can't you live here without buying?" He asked gently.

The middle-aged man converged with a smile, scorning: "You have water in your head, do n't buy a house, what do you live in, don't think those houses are ownerless, tell you the truth, those houses are all occupied by the bosses above us Selling it depends on your pity, otherwise, all of it will be demolished and not for you. "

"Some people are selling in enclosures?" Qin Tiange sneered at the corner of his mouth, and then asked, "Don't you be afraid of military suppression?"

"Joke, our boss knows big men in the military, and the real estate sold by the military is a lot of money ... Cut, what do I tell you about a poor ghost?" The middle-aged man said that his consciousness was wrong. His face changed slightly and immediately stopped the topic.

He stared at Qin Tiange fiercely, despising: "Trash, poor ghosts, inferiors, you, such lowly inferiors, should live in the dirty, foul-smelling refugee area outside. This belongs to us. Where the finest live. "

boom!

As soon as the middle-aged man's voice fell, he felt his body shake, flying high, and slamming it to the ground.

While he was in a circle, one foot fell from the sky, trampled on the middle-aged man's face, and stepped him into the dirt.

"Good man?" Qin Tiange chuckled, looking at the lack of attention around him, and even the soldiers guarding the gate behind did not notice it.

Gently leaning down, Qin Tiange said, "In my next life, remember not to give birth to the Huaxia people. I am ashamed that Huaxia has such garbage as you."

There was a click, and there was a slight strain on the feet, and the middle-aged man could not scream. The whole head burst like a watermelon. The blood and water mixed with the brain plasma splashed and stained the soil.

Looking at the middle-aged man with his head crushed, Qin Tiange turned expressionless, turned into the block in front, and soon disappeared, leaving only a corpse with a broken head.

Walking in the base of the Guangcheng Military Region, Qin Tiange looked colder and colder. There are many real estate here that are not occupied by people, but they are empty.

“No one lives, even if they don’t allow refugees to enter the base to live, or even buy and sell real estate with crystal nuclei. Some people, aren’t they afraid of moving in the middle of the night?”

Qin Tiange’s face grew colder and colder, and the entire Guangcheng Military Region began to undergo class differentiation. The words of that person just now are enough to see a little.

Inside the base, all kinds of wealthy people live extremely moisturizing. Outside the base, a large refugee area is formed, and the huge refugee wave is thus blocked from the fence.

This has caused polarization, and people in the base look down on those in the refugee areas outside the base and feel that those are inferior people.

Ugh...!

Thinking for a while, Qin Tiange sighed suddenly, without paying any attention, he could not do anything, and currently has no ability to reverse these things.

Moreover, this is a matter for the Guangcheng Military Region, and Qin Tiange has no right to intervene. Naturally, he doesn’t think much about it, because he came to a huge stone monument to assess the stone monument, there is in the base of the Guangcheng Military Region. Such an evaluation stele, as for the inheritance stele, is tightly controlled in the hands of the military, guarded firmly, and it is difficult for ordinary people to approach.

Only the assessment stele is open, and it is not yet open.

“To enter once, you need to pay a crystal nucleus.”

In the inheritance, it is surrounded by a steel fence, and there is only one channel in the four directions of southeast and northwest to reach the assessment stone.

There are soldiers guarding the entrance, and one person needs one crystal nucleus as a fee to enter at a time. It can be said that it is really profitable.

Throwing away one star crystal nucleus, Qin Tiange walked into the entrance expressionlessly and went directly to the assessment stone.

“Mad, if you want money before the last day, if you want to die after the last day, will you not let anyone live?”

As soon as I walked by, I heard someone murmuring nearby and looked very angry. Qin Tiange followed his voice, and saw a young man in black armor whispering there.

Chapter 309 - 2 Star Death Mission

A man wearing black armor and a black helmet, holding a two-handed sword, swayed gently in a tattered cloak behind him, looking familiar.

“What are you looking at? You haven’t seen Arthur?” The young man saw Qin Tiange come over and snorted, looking very angry.

Qin Tiange shook his head secretly, and was a young man poisoned by pesticides, just a one-star intensifier, with a strength of at most three to four people.

Not paying attention, Qin Tiange directly reached out and held the stone tablet, and immediately, a mass of light curtain appeared in the sea of consciousness, clearly visible.

“Open the two-star assessment and choose the difficulty of death.”

When Qin Tiange thought, he sent this instruction directly. Soon, a light curtain emerged from the light curtain, which instantly spread out.

At this time, the stele suddenly emits a light covering Qin Tiange, and disappears into the stele.

Following the disappearance, there are people in the other three directions who have come to perform the promotion assessment task, one by one here.

In the mist, Qin Tiange felt that his body was being pulled by a mysterious force. Although it was not clear, he could feel it faintly.

He was uplifted in heart, this is the change after the soul’s metamorphosis, proving that at this moment his consciousness is absolutely strong and he has been able to keep awake.

A voice soon came from the hazy task space: “Two stars, difficulty of death, do you confirm?”

Hearing this, Qin Tiange froze, because it seemed that there was no such reminder last time, but he didn’t care. With the power of the current two-star 400 people and the immortality, he was naturally not afraid of death. Difficulty.

“Yes, turn on the difficulty of death.” Qin Tiange confirmed directly.

Seeing the fog swirling around and the light flashing, Qin Tiange only felt that his consciousness was blurred and found himself in a strange world.

Shaking his head, Qin Tiange stood up from the ground, picked up the halberd across his chest, and watched the surrounding environment vigilantly.

This time the two-star assessment task is even more terrifying and dangerous than the one-star one. You must be careful and not take the wrong step almost as you did last time.

“Ding ... Death mission, level, two stars, mission requirements: Kill one million two-star creatures in seven days.”

This sentence, Qin Tiange almost did not let blood spurt, almost ran away. This mission is too far-fetched, and actually asked to kill one million two-star creatures in seven days?

“One million, isn’t it wrong?” Qin Tiange frowned, watching his mission to hunt down one million two-star creatures.

How can a person kill a million two-star creatures in seven days? It is from now on that one rushed up and chopped him, killing seven days and seven nights, killing one every second is not enough to kill one million.

“There must be a way to do it.” Qin Tiange calmed down, and the super brain quickly calculated and thought about the problems and key issues.

It is not possible to kill by one person, and it is not possible to use only a knife to cut it. Then, the task requirement is only to kill one million two-star creatures, and there is no account of what means are used to kill.

“First look at the situation here and then make plans.” Qin Tiange thought about it and decided to go around first, after all, he will stay here for seven days.

Thinking of the tribe encountered in the previous mission, Qin Tiange raised a hint of hope in his heart. Maybe this mission will also have such external strength?

With questions and expectations, Qin Tiange stepped out of his mountain stream and stood on the top of the mountain looking out into the distance.

call!

At this moment, a gust of wind screamed and rustled the surrounding trees, and then a large shadow swept across the ground. Before Qin Tiange reacted, a strong wind swept across his head.

“Not good!” Qin Tiange’s complexion changed slightly, and the secret road made a bad noise, saying that from time to time, his body was tumbling down the mountain in an instant.

Bang!

As soon as I turned over, there was a sudden loud noise from the top of the mountain behind. The whole mountain shook gently, and gravel penetrated and fell down the mountain.

Qin Tiange was in the air, turned around and looked at him, and his face suddenly changed. On the top of the mountain, a huge venomous bird was culled, and a large pit was set off on the top of the mountain.

cry!

The raptor is fiercely roaring, with a huge body with a wingspan of twenty meters, bright black feathers, and a scarlet bloodthirsty light through his eyes.

This is an unknown rogue bird that has never been seen before. Qin Tiange feels a strong killing from it, which is very dangerous.

“Damn, what kind of fierce bird is this so fierce?” Qin Tiange landed on his body, with a dignified expression, staring at the huge fierce bird on the top of the mountain.

He didn’t expect to have been attacked immediately after he arrived, or an unknown vicious bird, full of wild and wild breath, terrible.

What is even more amazing is that this fierce bird is extremely powerful, and it was incredible that it was crushed when it fell to the top of the mountain.

“It’s better to go first.” Qin Tiange looked unhappy, and rushed directly into the jungle, not wanting to compete with this sudden bird.

He didn’t know the environment here, let alone whether there were other powerful creatures, so he had to be careful.

cry!

Seeing the prey plunging into the jungle, the fierce bird sang loudly and filled with anger. But unfortunately, it is too large to enter the jungle at all, so it can only watch Qin Tiange leave.

In the end, the venomous bird flew high, soared into the sky, and disappeared into the distance.

In the dense forest, Qin Tiange has been running quickly towards the east. Just now on the top of the mountain, he faintly saw someone in the east.

Although attacked by a fierce bird, he didn’t care, as long as he knew the basic situation in the mission space was enough.

In the jungle, poisonous insects infested and the beasts ran rampant. From time to time, a large and weird beast emerged.

Roar!

For example, in the front, one head has four horns, the body is densely scaled, and the limbs are like horseshoes.

One of them was under the horns, staring wide, and there was a hint of evil light inside, making people unconsciously dizzy at first glance.

“What the hell?” Qin Tiange cursed, looking at the weird beast blocking the way. He didn’t say a word, he killed the halberd and killed him first.

Roar!

The beast roared, and the four horns slammed into Qin Tiange, and the speed was extremely fast. It was necessary to penetrate this little creature.

Unfortunately, it underestimated the strength of Qin Tiange, and his halberd was heavy. He banged on his head with a bang, and a horn broke.

Then, his head collapsed, and a mourning came, and a stream of blood sprayed three feet directly, which stained the surrounding bushes.

The fierce beast has not completely died yet. He was still struggling with a severe blow to his head. He opened his mouth fiercely, exposing his fangs, which was extremely fierce.

“It’s fierce enough, but destined to die.” Qin Tiange muttered, and Euphorbia stabbed the beast fiercely, killing the beast completely.

He looked at the dead beast, shook his head secretly, and didn't know what kind of creature, maybe there wasn't even on earth.

When I looked at my wrist, the space bracelet was gone, and my own subsystem was also gone. This means that Qin Tiange was either in a fantasy state or was restricted by something.

“Task progress: 1/100 million ...”

Secretly shook his head, watching the mission status only completed one, that is, the unknown beast killed in front of him, two stars or more.

Fortunately, Qin Tiange felt that all the power in his body was not restricted, so he proceeded with confidence and boldness.

However, before leaving, Qin Tiange picked up the two-meter-long beast and walked through the jungle in a swift pace. He quickly walked out of the dense ancient forest and came to a densely populated plain.

Chapter 310 - Blue blood, pick!

On the plain, a primitive tribe stands by the small river, where shadows throb and the sound of shouting and killing keeps coming.

boom!

Suddenly, a loud noise caught the attention of Qin Tiange, who was approaching. Looking up, he saw that the tribe's mountain wall collapsed and set off a billowing smoke.

“A battle is happening there?” Qin Tiange was surprised, his pace accelerated, and he flew away.

Before long, he came to the small river in front of the tribe. From this side, the tribe was being attacked by a large crowd of creatures.

These creatures are tall and have blue skin. They look weird. They look like humans, but they have thinning hair, sharp blue spines on their foreheads, blue eyes, and are holding weapons such as spears and knives. They are attacking the front tribe.

“Clan, guard the tribe, kill these blue blood!”

On the mountain wall, a burly figure shouted, wielding a huge bone spear, swiping, and slamming, the blue-blooded blue-blooded man was hit on the head.

A stream of blue blood was mixed with brains to see the scalp tingling, these creatures are blue blood creatures.

The blue blood race has blue body, blue eyes, blue blood, and weirdness everywhere.

“Blue blood tribe?” Qin Tiange frowned, looking at those two-meter-high blue skins. The creatures known as the blue blood tribe were madly attacking the tribe.

All the blue blood people have at least three thousand, and they are all powerful. They are all two-stars. The blue blood who takes the lead has the strongest breath and is definitely a three-star strong.

His strength was more than a hundred people, and he swung a azure blue to grab the horde from the collapsed gable, and none of them was his opponent.

“I’ll stop him!”

On the mountain wall, the tribe chief was furious, his body jumped, fell from the sky, and waved his bone spear to hit the blue blood leader.

when!

Just listening to a loud noise, the ground made a slight vibration, the dust raged, and spread.

When the dust dispersed, the burly patriarch kept backing, bleeding from the corners of his mouth, and obviously suffering minor injuries.

Before he could catch his breath, he saw a azure blue edge roaring, and plopped through his heart, picking it up.

“Patriarch!”

“Patriarch!”

Around, hundreds of tribal warriors looked startled, watching the patriarchs being picked up, one by one roaring, wielding weapons to kill them.

The blue-blood leader had a cold smile on his face, and the sapphire blue gun slammed it fiercely. He flew out the pierced tribal chief, and slammed into the ruins.

“The patriarch is dead!”

I don’t know when the roar of the sorrowful came, shocked the entire tribe, all the non-tribes were in the face of sorrow.

Their patriarch, who died, was killed by that blue blood leader.

“Human races are a group of weak chickens. Kill as many as you want!” The blue-blood leader sneered, and his words were full of contempt and contempt.

This was exactly what Qin Tiange who crossed the river heard, frosty, staring at the blue blood tribe leader, and then seeing which tribe chief died, this is the primitive tribe.

Regardless of whether it is a fantasy state or not, whether the primitive people of these tribes are real or not, it is enough to make Qin Tiange determined to kill him with a word of the blue blood command.

“Don’t hesitate, I think your blue blood is a weak chicken.”

Suddenly a light drink came, and a figure continued to flash, and rushed into the battlefield instantly, wielding a spear to sweep the four sides.

With a loud bang, Euphorbia blasted fiercely, breaking up the three blue-blooded soldiers on the spot into pieces.

The blue blood, which looks extraordinarily gorgeous in the sun, sets off that demon-like figure, and is coming up step by step.

“weak!”

Qin Tiange spit it out, the halberd swept across, and a croaking crunch came, and the two blue blood people's bodies were cut into two parts, and blood and water scattered around the intestines.

His face was cold, his eyes were locked on the blue blood race leader, killing one step at a time, all blocking blue blood soldiers were ruthlessly slashed.

“kill him!”

The blue-blooded leader was gloomy, his eyes were blue, and cold and murderous bloomed. As soon as his words fell, hundreds of powerful blue blood fighters rushed in, slashing their weapons and greeting Qin Tiange.

Looking at the hundreds of blue blood fighters coming in, Qin Tiange's mouth showed a faint smile, suddenly accelerated, his body rotated, and Euphorbia swept away.

With a slam, almost at the same time, the bodies of the three blue blood soldiers in front of them were beaten into pieces and scattered.

Then, Qin Tiange's body leaped, and he swooped the halberd to slam a blue blood tribe head, and his body was smashed by more than half.

“It's so weak, it's so vulnerable!”

Qin Tiange shakes the halberd and hums, and rushes into the dozens of blue blood fighters in three steps to start a crazy kill.

Euphorbia buzzed, crescent crooked, and clicked across the necks of the blue blood tribe, holding up the stinging heads.

He was like the * of killings crawling out of hell. No one could stop the halberds. All blue blood fighters had their heads cut off without exception.

The slaughter on one side seemed to be mowing the grass, not killing, it was too easy.

The force of four hundred people erupted, and when they were killed or injured, Euphorbia was heavy, making a terrible sound of whining sounds, bringing up a piece of blue blood.

“It's my clan master, clan people, kill!”

At this time, many tribal and desperate warriors in the tribe immediately boosted their morale and looked at Qin Tiange who was suddenly killed. Needless to say, the breath on his body was just human.

Seeing him slaughtering the Blue Blood tribe outside, the morale in the tribe that had been depressed immediately skyrocketed, and thousands of tribal warriors waved weapons and madly killed them.

“kill!”

“Destroy the blue blood!”

A burly warrior roared, waved his sword, and slashed three blue blood people in a row. He is the only master of this tribe in this tribe. This patriarch died in battle, except for Qin Tiange and the leader of the blue blood tribe.

As he led the killing of 5,000 tribal soldiers, Shengsheng repulsed the blue blood fighters who had rushed into the tribe, saving the tribe in crisis.

boom!

Suddenly, a violent shock broke out in the blue blood fighters, and they were surprised to see that the dust was rolling, the flesh was flying, and it was flashing a faint blue.

The smoke was scattered, and there was a silhouette, holding a halberd, and the surrounding ground was completely filled with pieces of blue minced meat, all blue blood fighters.

In just a few breaths, Qin Tiange killed hundreds of blue blood people, rushed into the central position of the central blue blood team, and faced the blue blood leader.

“Just now, you said that all human races are weak chickens?” Qin Tiange came to the front, and the halberd buzzed, sharply vomiting, and pointed directly at the blue blood race leader in front.

His tone was cold, his biting murderous power, his eyes burst into two beams of cold light. What the blue-blood leader commanded just now was enough for Qin Tiange to sentence him to death.

It is a shame and disdain for humans to say that all human races are weak chickens.

“Human races are originally weak chickens, you can’t admit it.” Lengheng, the leader of the blue blood, replied.

Although he was shocked by Qin Tiange’s strength, he slashed his 100 men a few times and had to raise his spirit, but he was still arrogant and despised the people.

Humph! Qin Tiange snorted, and laughed: “Since you look down on the human race, then I will cut off your head and hang it here, so as to serve you!”

“court death!”

The blue line leader was furious, waving the blue battle to kill, and if the speed was lightning, most people could not see the attack path of the opponent and they were killed through the body.

Unfortunately, he is facing Qin Tiange, who has just raised the power of the two-star limit, and faced the three-star blue blood leader.

Huh!

The halberd stabbed lightly, the crescent frame held the opponent’s large gun, and remained motionless, so that the blue blood tribe led the dark heart and looked grim.

He realized that this human was difficult to deal with, and was trying to retreat, but it was too late.

“Come where you want to go, go where you want to go?” Qin Tiange chuckled, and Euphorbia turned slightly, and with a click, the azure blue gun was smashed in this way.

Then, Qin Tiange’s body disappeared suddenly, and then he appeared behind the leader of the blue blood clan.

Flutter!

The halberd penetrated the heart of the blue blood tribe, Qin Tiange held the halberd with one hand, and picked up the body of the blue blood tribe and lifted it above the sky.

His eyes were cold, and he stared at the blue-blooded leader who was wearing a stab on his head, saying, "By giving back what you just said, the blue-blooded people are as weak as you, kill as much as you want."

"Ah ... * ..." The blue blood leader was mad, opened his mouth and growled, and severed his hand with a broken gun.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange did not let him succeed, he threw him on the ground fiercely, smashed a large pit, and the blue blood fighters who rushed up all around were forced to retreat.

"dead!"

With a icy word, the edge flashed, and a head soared and rolled down on the ground, and the blue blood was stained with aqua blue.

As soon as the leader of the blue blood tribe killed the tribal patriarch, Qin Tiange turned back to slay him, his eyes were raised, and he would not stare!
