

Dark Ages 32

Chapter 32 - Burn it, white phosphorus

Roar!

There was a huge tide of corpses, and the goal was exactly where the dining room was located. Not only was there a strong smell of blood, but it also had hundreds of lively breaths.

Zombies are here. In the dining hall, except those who followed Qin Tiange to kill the zombies from the beginning, those who joined them were all horrified and pale.

“What should we do?”

“Would you like to run?”

The newly joined boys and girls, one by one, even got into the heart of running away, but these people’s words were immediately set off, and they were immediately stared at by a fierce look.

Moda turned her head and stared at a boy. The steel knife in her hand was dangling, and her murderous intensity became more and more intense.

Humph!

He hummed quietly and warned: “Listen well, who dares to run away, Brother Qin will kill you first without killing you.”

“Come calm down for those who don’t want to die. Zombies are nothing terrible. They will die as long as they cut off their heads.” Moda warned with a whistle and immediately let many people settle down.

There is no way, the team’s eyes are disdainful, and even stare at them with fierceness. If anyone dares to escape, they will really start to kill.

This is Qin Tiange’s account for a long time. At the beginning, they will also have fear and want to turn around and run away.

But persevered under the threat of Qin Tiange, and now he is accustomed to zombies and even mutant creatures, and began to have a touch of eschatology.

“Bowman, prepare now!”

In front of him, Qin Tiange suddenly ordered a large group of girls in the back. More than 60 girls immediately lifted up a steel crossbow, sharp steel arrows aimed at the broken door of the dining hall.

Outside the canteen, all zombies rushed forward, much faster than the previous zombies, tall and mighty, all grown-up zombies.

The puppets are stronger, and these zombies are obviously not so easy to deal with, but Moda and others have no fear at all, because they are afraid that these zombies are really puppets when they are equipped with weapons and their strength is improved.

“Come on, give you a white phosphorus firework feast.”

Qi Qin Tiange was expressionless, his eyes shone with two stern lights, and suddenly he turned his hands, and two dark objects emerged.

This is a grenade, a characteristic white phosphorus incendiary bomb. The heritage stone must be a fine product, powerful and amazingly lethal.

“Everyone step back and don’t get splashed with white phosphorus.”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange opened his mouth and warned that Moda and others immediately stepped back, avoiding from a distance, looking at him with a serious look.

Exactly, he looked at the two black grenades in his hand, which were the white phosphorus incendiary bombs he had exchanged for his lethality.

I was shocked to see that Qin Tiange stepped forward and bit off the ring directly with a white phosphorus grenade and threw it out instantly. Two black lacquered grenades were thrown high, and there was a loud noise, the huge smoke was rolling apart, the white phosphorus scattered around, and it was covered by white phosphorus within a range of several hundred meters.

Suddenly, a group of raging fires burned, soaring in the air, the hot air waves rolled away, that everyone in the dining room could clearly feel the terrible temperature.

General white phosphorus incendiary bombs can burn up to a thousand degrees of flame temperature. The exquisite grenade converted from this kind of weapon has even more terrible lethality.

The terrible temperature reached 2,000 degrees, or even 3,000 degrees, at a terrible high temperature. The flames burned and burned, and they drowned a large group of zombies.

Hoo ... Hoo!

There were screams of screams. The group of zombies was burned by hundreds of white phosphorus incendiary bombs. The fire spread directly all over the body. The yellow flames were extremely horrible and could not be extinguished.

This flame of white phosphorus can burn on the skin, and even burn into the bone marrow.

Zombie tragedy, was blown up by the white phosphorus incendiary bomb, and hundreds of zombies immediately burst into yellow and white flames and rolled on the spot.

Hiss!

Everyone took a sigh of cold air, watching hundreds of zombies burned by white phosphorus incendiary bombs, one after the other being burned into flames, and sent a miserable mourning.

Zombies had no pain at first, but their body muscles and even their bones were burned by the flame of this incendiary bomb, and they quickly turned into ashes.

He only had gray-black brain crystals lying on the ground quietly. There was no sign of melting when the fuel was burning.

Brain crystal, it is difficult to burn and melt with a flame. Unless it is a higher temperature flame, someone has tried it in the previous life. A flame with a temperature of 5,000 degrees Celsius can melt a star brain crystal.

As for the more advanced brain crystals, higher temperature flames are needed to achieve it. At the scene, the yellow and white flames emitted a pungent smell and burned hundreds of zombies.

Two white phosphorus incendiary bombs burned hundreds of zombies, and the power was shocking. Some newcomers looked at Qin Tiange.

“I’m lost, I’m lost!” Qin Tiange had a pain in his face and looked at the hundreds of zombies that had been killed. A rough estimate was that at least 500 zombies had been burned to death.

However, this income was still lost. A white phosphorus incendiary bomb cost him two hundred one-star brain crystals, and two were four hundred.

I seem to have made a profit, but in Qin Tiange’s view, this is definitely a loss.

“Ready to crossbow, three rounds!”

He cleared his mood, Qin Tiange immediately ordered the shooting, Liu Ye led more than sixty girls, Qi Qi raised the steel crossbow, and aimed at the yellow flame outside the canteen to pull the trigger.

There, all the zombies rushed across the sea of fire and rushed directly to the dining room, but they were greeted by a sharp steel arrow pouring down.

Hmm ... flutter flutter!

A sharp steel arrow hole penetrated into the flesh, and there was a muffled sound, and the zombies roared, but they were beaten into hedgehogs.

After another wave of arrow rain, three consecutive shots, killing dozens of zombies, the record is good, after all, a group of girls just started to learn to use, missed the head slightly.

“Aim, shoot the next round!” Qin Tiange, expressionless, stood next to Liu Yan with a knife and directed the battle.

Tamarix was serious, and as soon as she entered the battle, she seemed to have become a person. From the beginning, she was afraid of being soft, and now she is bold and resolute.

“Shoot!” Liu Yanjiao drank, and first issued steel arrows, three sharp steel arrows in succession, and even two steel arrows directly penetrated the heads of two zombies and killed on the spot.

This is progress. She has been working hard to improve her fighting level. She knows very well that strength is the only reliance on her survival.

The group of girls is also making progress, striving for archery, and aiming to shoot as much as possible.

Especially the group of girls who have been bullied. They are most eager for strength, so with the opportunity given by Qin Tiange, they naturally grasped firmly and held on tightly.

Even now Qin Tiange told them to rush up and fight melee without hesitation, strength, they are too eager to have powerful strength to protect themselves from being violated. A rain of arrows pouring down, outside the dining hall. A large amount of zombies had been piled up, and dense steel arrows were inserted, and the death was really ugly.

Gradually, Liu Ye and others had fewer and fewer steel arrows. At the sight of one person, ten steel arrows were about to run out, but the zombies outside the canteen were not reduced at all, but there was an increasing trend.

“Stop firing, Moda prepares, Sword Shield hands forward.” Another order, Moda stepped out and led more than 60 Sword Shield hands up.

Half fought first, half of the sword shield hands were changed to respond, followed by forty-eight long-handed squeezing.

“kill!”

Roar!

When humans were ravaged, the zombies began to fight, and  hand-to-hand battles were staged. Moda was the first one, wielding a sharp steel knife to slash the zombies rushing forward, and his armour defended the claws of the zombies.

Take a group of knife and shield hands, wave the steel shield forward, go up, and kill with a knife in your right hand. In the back, the long-handed and fiercely stabbed the gun, and then stabbed the gun again, the movements became smoother and more concise, as if they had learned  the enemy after fighting.

“Yu Yan, your crossbow team shoots freely and starts to collect brain crystals and steel arrows.”

Talking, Qin Tian Geti knives went up, he had to look at the team, there can not be too many casualties. This is the only way he can complete the plan at present. If these people are lost, it will be difficult to gather a large amount of time Help someone complete the plan.

“Kill, go through them!”

“Send them to hell!”

Moda and others screamed, slamming and slamming, the steel shield smashed, and crazily went up. In the back, long assassinations were killed, killing only one zombie. In the back, Liu Ye and others followed with a steel crossbow, while shooting freely, digging brain crystals and recovering steel arrows.
