

Dark Ages 321

Chapter 321 - Dedicated ancient sword

Tribal alliances, composed of countless primitive tribes, are the largest forces and armed forces in the tribe.

But at this time, there was a ruin in the Alliance tribe, with corpses everywhere, blood flowing into the river, a scene of ruin and destruction, no longer the prosperity of the previous.

“The alliance is ruined ...”

Inside the gate of the Alliance, a large army came here, and everyone was shocked and sad to see such a miserable scene.

Cang Shi and Shi Wen both looked sad and angry. Looking at the dead people, men, women and children were slaughtered, exactly like the scene in Blue Blood City.

Massacre!

The blue blood army killed everyone in the Alliance tribe.

Qin Tiange looked expressionless, looking at the tribal city that was turned into ruins, and suddenly saw people rushing around.

“Patriarch, no abnormalities were found, and the blue blood tribe is no longer in the city.”

Dozens of people’s shadows have arrived one after the other, and their respective returns have shown that no trace of the Blue Blood army has been found in the ruins of the Alliance city, and there has been no ambush.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange nodded, didn’t speak, walked silently in the city of the Alliance, stepping on a dead body, all slaughtered by the blue blood.

You kill me, I kill you, the war is like this. Yesterday, he led people to slaughter the blue blood tribe’s headquarters. Millions of blue blood tribe. Today, the blue blood tribe has slaughtered the entire Alliance tribe.

“The Blue Blood ...” Qin Tiange lost his thoughts as he walked.

He looked at the corpse all over the ground and swept Yun Ying behind him intentionally or unintentionally. She seemed to know the situation of the Alliance tribe long ago, and always felt that she was somewhat mysterious and weird.

Qin Tiange kept this in mind and didn’t say it, and he didn’t pay much attention. Even if the entire league was slaughtered, he would not pay much attention.

Now, the question he thinks is, how to find the trace of the blue blood army, otherwise how to complete his death mission?

Walking in the ruins, Qin Tiange came to the center of the city, where the tribal chiefs live and work.

In front of the gate, a corpse hung silently there, pierced by a azure blue battle grab and hung there. “That is the patriarch of the tribal alliance!” Cang Shi stepped forward and said sadly.

That corpse is the patriarch of the tribal alliance. He was killed by the blue blood and hung here. Is it to warn Qin Tiange these people who slaughtered the blue blood?

“Put down the body and prepare for the funeral.” Qin Tiange looked at the body of the tribal alliance chief and ordered Cang Shi and others to prepare the funeral.

In the entire tribal alliance, at least three million ethnic groups have been slaughtered, and more than three million corpses have become hairy.

“Where is it over there?” Qin Tiange asked, pointing to a huge and strange building in front of him.

Around him, Yun Ying whispered: “Patriarch, that’s a place built by the tribal alliance to dedicated some treasures.”

“Encouraging treasures?” Qin Tiange blinked, looked at the huge building, and walked without hesitation.

The huge building, with ninety-nine stone steps, the entire main body of the building is cast from unknown rocks. It is very grand and exudes an ancient and mysterious atmosphere.

When he came to this stone hall, Qin Tiange looked closely and found that there were many corpses lying around. They should be the soldiers guarding here, and they were killed.

Entering the stone hall, a desolate and simple atmosphere blew towards the face, revealing mystery, with a ray of vicissitudes of years, shocking the spirit.

“All the treasures were taken away by the Blue Blood.” Yun Ying, who followed in, said with disappointment.

The stone hall was empty, and the treasure was gone, apparently taken away by the Blue Blood.

Although Qin Tiange was disappointed, he looked up in the huge stone hall. The entire stone hall was as big as a football field.

There are some stone platforms scattered around. I want to come to these treasures on these platforms to worship, but unfortunately they were taken away.

Huh?

Suddenly, Qin Tiange issued a suspicion, his pace accelerated, and he came to the ancient stone platform in the innermost part of the stone hall, his eyes showed a hint of surprise.

In front of him, there is a stone platform, and the rock connected to the ground should be a carved worship platform.

On the countertop, a strange hilt was being inserted, looking at some quaint and ordinary, but a mysterious atmosphere was faintly expressed, making it feel extraordinary.

“What is this?” Qin Tiange pointed at the hilt and asked Yun Ying aside.

The latter glanced a little, but she shook her head and said, “Patriarch, I don’t know, it should be one of the treasures enshrined in the tribal alliance.”

“Really?” Qin Tiange glanced at her without saying more, reaching out and holding the sword hilt inserted under the stone platform.

With a humming sound, a tremor came from the hilt of the sword, and the strange purple air gradually emerged from around the stone hall, and quickly poured into the stone platform.

Soon, the purple gas disappeared, Qin Tiange slowly pulled out the ancient sword enshrined with surprise.

Uh ...

With a short beep, the ancient sword was slowly pulled out, and there was a slight buzz. The scabbard was quaint and the material was unknown. I didn’t know what kind of material it was made of.

Qin Tiange held this ancient sword in his hand, and gently stroked the scabbard. It felt strange that a unique scent flowed in it.

Huh!

The ancient sword came out of the sheath and flashed its sharp edge. At that moment, it was extremely dazzling. As the sharp edge of the ancient sword gradually disappeared, Qin Tiange had an antique sword in his hand.

“A good ancient sword ...” Qin Tiange liked this ancient sword at first glance, he couldn’t put it down, he felt that he had found an extraordinary treasure.

In fact, he couldn’t see any peculiarities in this ancient sword, but directed at the wisps of purple sword pattern on the ancient sword, showing extraordinaryness and mystery.

After examining it for a while, Qin Tiange turned the ancient sword into a sheath and gently put it on his waist. For a while, his temperament changed quietly.

After doing this, Qin Tiange began to deal with the millions of corpses in the tribe, piled up into hills, poured innumerable black oil and animal oil, and set them on fire.

This busy day was another day, but Qin Tiange felt a bit depressed at this moment, because his time was running out.

“It’s the last day.” On the city wall, Qin Tiange looked into the distance, and there was one last day before the mission time limit.

“Death mission: time 6/7 days, mission progress: 560,000 / 1 million ...”

This is Qin Tiange’s current task progress. In six days, he has slaughtered 560,000 two-star blue blood people.

The 300,000 beast cavalry, plus the two-star Blue Blood tribe originally in Blue Blood City, add up to exactly 560,000, but it is far from enough to complete the task.

Time passed little by little, and after watching for a long time, but no trace of the blue blood tribe was found, Qin Tiange's heart sank little by little.

“Did I fail this mission?” Qin Tiange couldn't help but look up at the sky, turned around, and looked at the busy hundreds of thousands of people in the city.

These are all small tribal people who have recently gathered from all sides, and some of the original Union army's collapse. The more they gather, the more there are more than 500,000 people.

Qin Tiange's complexion changed. Looking at the 500,000 people in the city, most of them were elite soldiers. The ranks were from one star to two stars, plus some old two-star people. task.

Just think of a way to slaughter these half a million people, and you can complete the task.

“Do it or not?” Qin Tiange was engaged in a battle between heaven and man, looking at more than half a million busy people in the city, thinking about the task.

He is very tangled. On the one hand, the task time is coming, and on the other hand, more than 500,000 primitive human races let him fight or not kill.

It wasn't his mercy and patience, but the most critical question that came to mind. Can he complete the task by killing more than half a million primitive humans?

Qin Tiange expressed doubts that once he started, even if these people were killed with poison, he was not sure if he could really complete the death task.

It's like the previous death mission. Once you go wrong, let alone complete the mission, you don't know how to die.

“There is only one chance. I can't go wrong. Once I am wrong, I will never lose it again.” Qin Tiange muttered in his heart, turning his teeth and turning away from his eyes.

He didn't know that in the crowd in the city, a graceful figure was watching his every move quietly.

It was Yun Ying, who had been watching his every move quietly, acting strangely, with a hint of energy in his eyes, nodding from time to time.

She smiled inexplicably, suddenly walked out of the crowd, came to the city wall, and stood quietly behind Qin Tiange.

“Did you find the trace of the blue blood tribe?” Qin Tiange did not look back, and asked this sentence in a cold tone.

At this moment, he felt that Yun Ying was a little bit wrong, but there was nothing wrong with it, and his heart was very strange.

Yun Ying's mouth slightly tilted, and an inexplicable smile flashed in her eyes. She said gently, "Clan leader, I was about to tell you this news, and I have discovered the trail of the blue blood tribe."

"Oh?" Qin Tiange listened to his shock, turned abruptly, and stared at Yun Ying, the daughter of the old patriarch.

He began to doubt, but didn't say much, but asked, "Where is the blue blood army and how far away?"

"The East, three hundred miles away, is coming towards us." Yun Ying whispered the amazing news.

The blue blood army appeared, just three hundred miles east of the Alliance tribal city, and it was still coming here.

Qin Tiange was facing the east, holding his hands against the stone wall, his fingers kept pounding, and he didn't know what he was thinking.

His eyes flickered with faint flicker, murderous faintness, and a decision was quickly made in his heart.

"It is ordered that all ethnic groups except for the elderly, women, and children, all young people take their weapons and prepare to go out with me to meet the blue blood."

After speaking, he went straight down the city wall, leaving Yun Ying alone to look at the back of his departure, thoughtful on his face, his eyes mysteriously.

With an order, the people gathered in the city acted immediately, and the young men gathered together, holding weapons, ready to follow Qin Tiange to the battlefield.

This battle will be the last. The battle with the Blue Blood will be either you or me.

Before the 300,000-strong army, Qin Tiange rode on a huge alien beast, which was the horse left after killing the alien beast captain.

"Get off, kill the blue blood!"

His face was cold, and he suddenly took out the ancient sword in his waist, and waved it gently, pointing sharply towards the east, faintly revealing an extremely mysterious atmosphere that caught everyone's attention.

Qin Tiange set out with a 300,000 army, rushed out of the Alliance tribe mountain city, and flew towards the east, gradually disappearing into the distance.

Chapter 322 - Finally crazy

Rumble ...

The earthquake trembled, the smoke billowed into the sky, and a large army was marching in the distance.

Leading by 100,000 alien beast cavalry, followed by densely packed soldiers, the team is neat, Lan Chancan can't see at a glance.

This is the blue blood army. When a million troops arrived, with a sense of death, a look of decisive death appeared on all faces.

The entire tribe of the Blue Blood tribe was slaughtered cleanly. This time it appeared to kill the tribe survivors.

Rumble ...

In front of it, an army appeared as well, appearing opposite the blue blood clan with rolled sky dust, everyone holding a weapon in his hand, his face was decided.

Headed by the same is a strange animal cavalry, full 200,000 cavalry rushed up, followed by a 300,000 army, are young men in the human tribe.

The two armies met on the grassland, thirty miles apart, and they saw each other.

“Kill, destroy the blue blood!”

With a wave of Euphorbia Qin Tiange, he rushed out first, riding a strange beast, and led 200,000 cavalry straight to kill him. Any words are superfluous, and any scheme is superfluous.

At this moment, only by killing one can we know who can laugh to the end. Only by killing the blue blood army on the opposite side can Qin Tiange complete the task.

“Kill, slay the Terrans!”

On the opposite side, in front of the blue blood clan army, an extremely burly figure, waving a blue battle, rushing forward, pointed directly at Qin Tiange.

He is the patriarch of the Blue Blood clan, with a strong breath all over his body, murderous, biting, and a powerful opponent.

Qin Tiange saw through at first glance. The other party was a six-star powerhouse, extremely powerful, and the breath revealed was definitely 800 people.

boom!

The two beast cavalry first collided, and for a moment, the world roared, and the beasts mourned.

When the army collided, the two cavalry teams, under the leadership of their respective strong men, madly attacked each other's formation, crushing each other.

“Kill!” Qin Tiange waved his halberd, ran on a strange beast, and slashed the blue blood cavalry in front of him all the way.

He was like a meat grinder, frantically slashing, and the target locked on the blue blood patriarch in the cavalry team. The other side also came over, and his eyes flew two beams of terror.

I was surprised to see that the two figures continued to smash, colliding instantly in the center.

boom!

There was a loud noise and raging smoke. The huge air waves sent the cavalry around to Zhenfei. No one dared to approach within a kilometer.

The two commanders were killed together. One was the only remaining patriarch of the tribe and one was the blue blood tribe.

The two were powerful, half a catty, and the blue blood tribe chief was a little inferior at the moment of the collision.

“Human race, be extinct!”

Li Xiao, the patriarch of the blue blood tribe, eyes blue and faint, staring at Qin Tiange, with a strong self-confidence in his tone, trying to kill each other.

However, Qin Tiange stabbed with a halberd and screamed, “Don’t hesitate to see, I will destroy your last power of the blue blood tribe.”

“kill!”

Two roars, accompanied by the impact of the figure, made a loud noise, the ground was sunken, and two strange beasts successively made a sound of wailing and fell down.

Immediately afterwards, the figure vacated, and in a ten-meter-high air collision, the halberd swept and the battle hummed.

Huh!

After Jin Fei’s confrontation, the sparks spattered brilliantly, and saw Qin Tiange’s feet fall to the ground, which instantly turned into a blue light passing by.

On the opposite side, the blue blood tribal chief looked grim, and a horrible blue flame was rising all over him, converging on the battle.

The two collided swiftly, the figures crisscrossed, and they continued to smash into a ball. They were indiscernible and set off smoke and rubble within a kilometer.

“Kill kill!”

The patriarch of the blue blood is crazy, waving the battle and grabbing, the figure is almost invisible, and the only thing that can be captured is the afterimage.

On the opposite side, Qin Tiange almost turned into a blue light, dancing with halberds, opening and closing, and endless scrolling blackness and magnificence.

boom!

The two men collided with their halberds, sparks exploded, and the air waves rolled away. A terror force erupted from the center of the two, crushing the ground and forming a huge pit.

In the big pit, the two men wielded weapons and slashed. They were fast and lightning-fast. After fighting dozens of blows, they instantly took off and landed in succession.

“Today, your human race will perish.” Opposite the big pit, the blue blood tribe chief roared almost mad.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange here sneered back and hummed, “Popular bragging will depend on whether you have survived under my halberd.”

“kill!”

“dead!”

The two drank violently, jumping up at almost the same time, wielding weapons and fighting fiercely over the big pit.

Hearing only a loud noise, the two retreated at the same time, flying down, and each of them retreated a few steps before stopping.

The patriarch of the blue blood tribe, six-star, eight hundred people is terrifying. However, Qin Tiange confronted with the power of Kirin to become a thousand people, which finally strengthened the opponent.

“Blue stripes, strangling!”

Suddenly, the blue blood patriarch raised a blue flame, intertwined in the fight, turned into a strange blue pattern, his body disappeared instantly.

He used his stunts, the blue stinger, and the terror power, one shot.

“Ghosts and gods, dominate the world!”

Suddenly, a violent drink, accompanied by soaring black air, turned into a huge black imagination, holding the halberd in both hands, violently bombarding it, like a meteorite falling into the sky.

With a bang, the earth collapsed, crushed stones penetrated the sky, smoke and dust rushed into the sky, and an invisible air wave rolled over a radius of two kilometers, shaking several blue blood cavalry on the spot with humans and beasts.

In the smoke, two silhouettes stood back to back, the blue blood tribe chief broke and broke, and a huge scar appeared on the chest.

Looking back at Qin Tiange, there was a huge scar on the back, and bone was deeply visible, but the scar recovered in the blink of an eye.

Immortal, Qin Tiange held down another card and was not afraid of injuries. He could recover in a blink of an eye.

“Dead!” Almost at the same time, the two turned around instantly, and the weapons in their hands quickly pierced towards each other.

Flutter!

With a crisp sound, the two stopped almost at the same time and stood silently. The chief of the blue blood tribe had a stiff face, stealing a piece of the battle, only three centimeters away from Qin Tiange’s face door, but could no longer penetrate even one centimeter.

He himself was pierced by a large halberd in his throat, and almost all of his neck was cut off by the crescent, and a little flesh was still missing.

“Uh ... I ... no ... no ...” The Patriarch of the Blue Blood opened his mouth, the blue blood spewed, his words were intermittent, and his head slowly lowered, his bones rolling to the feet of Qin Tiange.

Under the blow of the lore, Qin Tiange won and turned back to kill his opponent’s life.

“The blue blood tribe is dead, kill the blue blood tribe!”

Suddenly, there was such a violent drink on the entire battlefield, and the voices circulated openly. Countless people looked up and saw one person holding up a blue head, constantly impacting the battlefield.

That was Qin Tiange. He jumped into the head of the blue blood tribe, rushed to the center of the battlefield, and waved a spear into the blue blood tribe.

Wherever he went, no one could stop him, especially when he saw the high head, all the blue blood fighters were afraid.

“The patriarch is dead!”

The next moment, the entire Blue Blood army fry pan, collapsed instantly, produced great chaos, no war heart, morale was hit to the lowest point.

On the other hand, although the number of people is half that of the other side, the morale is high, and the shouting and killing sound is earth-shattering.

“Kill!”

“Kill the blue blood!”

A roar, accompanied by a large morale of the Terran Army, suddenly dispersed the formation of the Blue Blood Army, forming a trend of encirclement and strangulation.

The situation is complete. It is only a matter of time before the blue blood tribe defeats, and Qin Tiange looks at less and less mission time. He is more and more calm, waving his halberd expressionlessly, and constantly kills the blue blood elite warriors in front.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange’s eyes were red, and he became jealous and mad, and the whole man went madly into the blue blood army’s central army.

He is like a terrible beast. The halberd passes by. No one can stop it. If he touches it, he will die. The middle one will kill.

The power of a thousand people exploded completely. For the first time, this force was used to carry out the slaughter. The speed was shocking, and the scene was creepy.

Millions of troops fought, and the total number of the two sides totaled 1.5 million. They were densely packed, and the entire grassland was occupied by black people.

The grasslands were killing everywhere, and millions of people hacked each other. What a scene, the blood flowed into the river, the head was rolling, and the grass was dyed red and blue.

“Run, run away!”

Finally, the blue blood tribe completely collapsed, and most of them turned and fled. They had already been killed and completely shocked by Qin Tiange’s madness.

He held the head of the blue blood tribe with one hand, waved the halberd with one hand, and hanged him all the way, no one could stop his footsteps, and was completely slashed on the spot.

The blue blood tribe collapsed, and instantly made 500,000 people of the tribe warriors endless force, chasing and killing them from the back, killing countless blue blood fighters.

Millions of troops collapsed, scattered and escaped. This one who fled and killed was killed for a long time, and the whole grassland was full of corpses.

“Kill kill!”

Qin Tiange resembled a madman, waving his halberd, killing and escaping the blue blood tribe who ran away, killing and killing suddenly all around him, no blue blood tribe was standing.

All the blue blood people were either killed or ran away, and the battle stopped in the setting sun.

Looking at the corpses all over the ground, the flesh flew across, his head rolled, and the blood converged into rivers flowing on the grassland.

Zitz ...

Stepping on the grass full of blood and stepping over one body after another, Qin Tiange looked somber looking for the undead blue blood people who might exist on the battlefield.

Unfortunately, these blue blood people are dead, which makes him have an urge to violently.

“Task progress: 999999/1 million ...”

There is still one, yes, there is one more to complete the mission, but at this time, no blue blood on the battlefield survived.

Some are just a group of wounded human army soldiers, standing silently on the battlefield, no one speaks.

“Clan ... Patriarch, we have won ...”

In front of him, a figure limped up. He was Cang Shi. He had already been promoted to a three-star level in the war.

He walked up pale, reporting the news with a touch of excitement.

Looking at this weak tribal warrior chief, he can be killed with a single blow, and Qin Tiange's eyes were full of thoughts.

The more this time, the more he calms himself down, he must think twice before doing things, the more critical moments need to calm down.

“You go down ...” Qin Tiange didn't do anything in the end, even if he could kill the three-star warrior Changcang Shi with a single blow, and complete the last number.

But he didn't do it because his instinct told him that it would probably be counterproductive and the task might not be completed.

Waving his hand, Qin Tiange dragged a heavy halberd and walked slowly on the battlefield, his back was a bit heavy and lonely.

There was a sharp ray in his eyes, and he secretly felt some kind of peep, but instead of searching, he looked for the blue blood people who might be alive on the battlefield.

“Mission time, three minutes ...” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, expressionless, three minutes away from the mission time.

After three minutes, if he couldn't complete it, it means his mission failed, and the death mission, the end of failure is death.

Time passed by little by little, Qin Tiange was still walking on the battlefield, dragging Shen Shiji, even if one of the two seriously injured human two-star warriors walked by, he did not do anything.

He needs patience and calmness, knowing that the more critical this is, the less he can mess up his position, and he will definitely have a chance to complete the task.

Two minutes later ... Qin Tiange was still the same, even walking next to an elite human warrior who was seriously injured and unconscious, but he ignored and continued to move forward.

The more this time, his calmer and calmer face, walking step by step across the battlefield, as if a lone walker.

The time passed by one second, the last thirty seconds, Qin Tiange stopped suddenly, looked up silently, and looked into the distance, as if he could see through there a beautiful figure standing in the sunset, looking at this side .

hiss...

Just then A strange beast lying around suddenly screamed, struggling, and bite Qin Tiange fiercely.

Almost instinctively, Qin Tiange lifted his halberd and stabbed it fiercely, listening only to the flutter, blood and water spurting, and the strange beast wailed and fell.

“Ding ... two-star death mission, complete!”

At the same time, a strange reminder was introduced into the sea of knowledge, so that the tense Qin Tiange suddenly relaxed, looked up silently, and looked into the distance.

With a flash of light, Qin Tiange felt that the surrounding scenes were gradually hazy, as if the mirror was blooming, and a dream was broken, and the noise broke up.

His eyes suddenly bloomed with two amazing silver awns. Through a long distance, he saw a beautiful figure shrouded in the afterglow of the setting sun, and an inexplicable smile appeared on Qiao's face.

Immediately after, everything disappeared, Qin Tiange lost his consciousness, and this time the task was finally completed. At the last moment, he still resisted his inner throbbing, believed in himself, and chose the right one.

Chapter 323 - Reward, promote 3 stars

In the mist, Qin Tiange woke up and looked at the gray space around him, finally relieved.

“Finally passed.” Qin Tiange exhaled lightly, looked down at his body without any scars, and the broken armor was intact.

He knew that he had figured it out and finished the task from the death task.

“Ding, congratulations on completing the two-star death mission and starting to award rewards.”

Suddenly, an ethereal voice came from afar, awakened Qin Tiange in thought, suddenly looked up, and saw a virtual light curtain appeared in front of him.

Three things emerged on the light curtain, which are the rewards for completing the death mission this time.

The first one is exactly a planet-like bead, which is the blue blood tribe worshipping the fetish obtained in the mission space.

“Let me see what this is.” Qin Tiange gently took off the bead, and immediately a message came to mind.

“Star Seal: A seal made of a star, with the inner seal of the blue blood tribe.”

Such an introduction made Qin Tiange hold back and secretly said: “It is really a planet, and it is a seal. Inside the planet, there is a seal of the blue blood tribe.”

This shocked Qin Tiange. Who made such a seal with a planet?

As far as he knows, even the three first-ranking powerful men in previous lives do not have this ability, then, what level of powerful men use the planet to make seals?

The seal of this star seals something inside. The blue blood tribe seems to be sealed inside the core of the planet.

“Well, it seems I made it.” Qin Tiange suddenly raised a smile.

He carefully put away the seal made by the planet, then looked at the second prize, which was an ordinary ancient sword with a hint of vastness.

Hum!

Holding this ancient sword and pulling it out with a humming sound, Qin Tiange looked weird, constantly stroking the simple sword body, the purple sword pattern flashed, revealing the ancient and vicissitudes of charm.

This ancient sword was obtained on the stone platform inside the destroyed tribal alliance.

“No introduction?” Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the simple sword body, no introduction information was transmitted, making him even more curious.

After thinking about it, Qin Tiange took out his own Samsung bronze sword and directly slashed it with an ancient sword.

Click!

A crisp sound came, and the Samsung bronze sword was cut into two parts on the spot, and the fracture was smooth, and it was cut like a piece of tofu.

With a light sword, the three-star bronze sword was cut off. The sharpness of the ancient sword was amazing, it was incredible.

“It’s a good ancient sword, alas, it’s making a lot of money again.” Qin Tiange grinned, the ancient sword returned to the sheath, so don’t hang it on your waist.

Next, it’s time to look at the third prize. This prize is a bit special.

“Another jade box?” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, looking at a delicate jade box floating quietly in front of him.

He remembered that the jade box obtained the previous two times was filled with inexplicable things. The jade box obtained in the previous mission contained a strange purple gas.

And he was curious, what was he loading this time? With questions and expectations, Qin Tiange gently opened the jade box.

With a click, the jade box opened, and there was a ray of purple mist inside it. At the moment, a crystalline purple mist kept flying in the box.

“It’s purple gas again?” Qin Tiange froze, looking at this purple gas a little dazed, he didn’t understand what it was, and didn’t even introduce anything.

However, this time Ziqi didn’t rush forward by himself, but constantly coiled and danced in the jade box, which looked extremely amazing.

With a little curiosity, Qin Tiange gently reached out his hand and carefully grasped the continuously coiled purple gas.

Suddenly, he felt himself pinching a soft mass, and the purple gas was caught in his hand like that.

“What’s this?” Qin Tiange looked at the purple gas in his hands stupidly, feeling the grasp of a soft purple snake, beating and struggling.

Looking at it, Qin Tiange couldn’t see why, so he couldn’t help scratching his head, his head was full of black lines.

“Can you eat?” Qin Tiange murmured suddenly.

Can this strange purple gas be eaten or have any effect? He really didn’t know anything about these, he had never seen or heard of it in previous lives.

Examine carefully, suddenly, the purple gas that was being grasped melted in this way, penetrated into the palm of his hand, and quickly rushed into his eyebrows along the arm.

boom!

Knowing the sea fryers, the purple gas came eastward, and it swept for thousands of miles, and immediately rushed into the depth of the soul consciousness and directly integrated into it.

Ziqi came fast and went fast, Qin Tiange had not even thought about how to deal with this purple Qi, and then integrated into the soul consciousness.

“Uh, I don’t want to do this without my consent.” Qin Tiange said with a black line, he couldn’t help muttering.

This is not the first time anyway, he has a big nerve and doesn’t care, but suddenly feels that his body has become a little different.

In other words, the body and even the soul have a different feeling. It seems that there is a certain kind of breath and energy that is unclear.

Huh?

Just then, a powerful energy suddenly poured out from the depths of the soul and swept up and down the body.

Before Qin Tiange had time to figure out what was going on, the whole person was drowned by this force, his body and bones clamored, his internal organs trembled, and he gave out cheerful cheers.

Promotion!

Yes, Qin Tiange felt that his overall physical quality was improving rapidly. The two-star barrier was broken and he was promoted.

From two stars, he broke through and entered three stars, which is a bit weird and weird.

“Is this promoted?”

Qin Tiange looked at his own body, and a little bit of starlight kept emerging, more and more, he couldn't help but feel dumbfounded.

He didn't even think that this promotion would be too fast, and where did that powerful and powerful energy come from?

“Is it purple gas?” The only possibility he thought of was the purple gas.

Qin Tiange was full of excitement as he couldn't figure it out, feeling the rising physical fitness, both in terms of physical strength and strength level.

The power of four hundred people was increasing rapidly, and the power of four hundred and fifty, five hundred, six hundred, and seven hundred people finally increased to eight hundred before stopping.

Three stars, eight hundred people, how terrible is that?

Bang ... click!

Qin Tiange was surprised, his five fingers were held lightly, and a burst of noise came from the air.

Powerful and horrible. This is his most real feeling at this moment. The power of eight hundred people is only three stars. The average person can have eight hundred people in six stars. That is a master.

Wow ...

With a flash of light, Qin Tiange disappeared into the misty space and reappeared in front of the assessment stone.

As soon as I came out, I felt the rain dripping down from my head, only to find that it was raining heavily and pouring down.

“It's raining?”

Qin Tiange looked inexplicably at the sky, pouring rain, thunder and lightning, dark clouds billowing the sky's light, and a large black block made people panic.

Watching a thunderstorm, Qin Tiange suddenly thought, maybe this rainstorm will be a long time.

“The second calamity is coming soon ...” Looking at the sky's huge flash of lightning, thunder rolling and pouring rain, Qin Tiange did not rest, walked slowly in the heavy rain, and left the assessment stone monument.

Chapter 324 - Clear, signs of catastrophe

The rain was heavy, and it didn't stop for three days and three nights. The entire Guangcheng base was filled with water everywhere. The shallowest place was half a foot deep, and some low-lying areas had already accumulated water one meter deep.

At this time, the Guangcheng base realized that the matter was serious and immediately launched an emergency plan.

“Order the various legions of troops to close the net. Guangcheng wants a stable and stable development space.”

In Guangcheng Base, in the highest conference room, a group of veterans gathered together, and a mid-year-old veteran general on the subject directly clapped and issued this order.

What does he mean by closing the net?

With the order from the authority of the Guangcheng base, immediately, the personnel at all levels in the base, up to the two stars, Samsung strong, and people down to the refugee areas outside the city, felt a pressure.

I saw a large number of heavily armed troops pouring out of the major military camps inside the base, tidy in all directions towards the entire base.

“what happened?”

For a time, the people of Guangcheng Base were upset, watching a lot of elite troops suddenly appeared, one by one felt an unusual breath.

In particular, some intensifier teams have tightened up in their respective sites, and dare not move, because this is the actual controller of the Guangcheng base, and the military dispatched.

“Is this going to rectify the interior?”

In a certain block of the base, Qin Tiange stood under the eaves and looked at an elite army on the street. The tanks opened, and armored vehicles followed one another. The military dispatched.

This surprised him, guessing the intentions of the Guangcheng ruler, and he soon understood that this was to rectify the Guangcheng base.

Sure enough, as a detachment ran out, he encircled a number of areas inside the base, set up artillery, and aimed the tanks at these places.

“Damn, the military want to deal with us.”

In a high-end residential area ahead, a group of people panicked. Looking at the coming elite troops, they suddenly surrounded the place, and they couldn't help panic.

The troops of the Guangcheng base were dispatched. They realized that it was the military's decision to take action to resolve the unstable factors and some tumors in the base.

“The people inside listened and immediately surrendered.”

Outside, an officer braved heavy rain and shouted into the upscale community. There were dense warriors around, guns and ammunition loaded, a steel knife in their hands, and hundreds of soldiers wearing armor standing quietly in the heavy rain.

They are intensifiers, and they are all two-stars. They have to surprise Qin Tiange, and the strength of the Guangcheng base can not be underestimated.

He jumped onto the top of a building and silently watched the movement here. Almost two battalion elite soldiers, five main battle tanks aimed at them, and three artillery guns pointed far away.

“Damn, what shall we do?”

Hundreds of people immediately panicked in the high-end community, but a small number of them had a somber face and quietly looked at the surrounding troops outside the community.

I saw a middle-aged man in bright armor stood up and hummed coldly: “The military is too bullying. We just occupied some real estate for sale. They were so persecuted that they didn't give us a little bit. Chance of getting rich. “

“Boss, let's go out!”

At this time, it was suggested that the consent of most people was immediately obtained. There were thousands of intensifiers here, all of whom were privately armed and strengthened intensifiers.

They consciously gathered together to form large and small forces, occupying a piece of residential area in the base, selling empty houses to other refugees outside, and obtaining high crystal returns.

Originally, the base did not have much thought to manage these trivial matters, but now it suddenly started to completely rectify the tumors inside the base.

“Go, kill it!”

The middle-aged man sang, and immediately led his more than one thousand intensifiers and suddenly killed them from the community.

“Fire!”

Outside, the general immediately ordered the firing. At the moment, the guns exploded and the artillery fire roared, pouring down directly, covering this group of people who were madly rushed out.

In the distance, Qin Tiange looked at the fierce battle here, turned his head and looked at the whole base, and fierce fighting took place in one community after another.

This is the heart of the Guangcheng base. It is necessary to rectify the internal situation, clear the tumors, gather refugees, and grasp the timing.

At this time, water was trapped everywhere in the base, and there was already a faint flood. The refugee areas outside the base were directly collapsed under the impact of the flood. Countless refugees were guided by a branch of the rescue team and introduced into the base .

Attacking on both sides, on the one hand, combating tumors inside the base, rectifying the interior, on the other hand, sending troops out to collect and treat refugees, distribute food, and appease the people.

“This base powerman has sharp means, isn’t that the veteran?” Qin Tiange watched the constant battles and battles in the entire Guangcheng base, but was quickly put out.

Some private armed forces were annihilated one by one, uprooted, screaming and screaming, but unfortunately they were drowned in thunder.

Even the sound of artillery fire was not as loud as the sky rolling and deafening. Only a few people knew that a cleanup battle was being staged inside the base to rectify the tumor.

The base army attacked quickly, decisively, and was powerful. It was not something that private armed forces could resist.

“Great, this is a killer for two birds, and the timing is extremely accurate. It is the best time to gather the base’s people’s hearts in one fell swoop. Since then, the interior has been completely cleared, and the people’s hearts have settled. The Guangcheng base is as stable as Mount Tai.” The annihilated private armed forces, those who desperately resisted, were hanged one by one.

Moreover, as a large number of refugees were taken back and entered the main base, the people’s aspirations immediately formed a strong cohesion. The military-civilian integration made the base stable like a mountain in the future.

“kill!”

Suddenly, a fast figure rushed out of the community, waving a sword, and suddenly split into the general who led the army outside.

The general looked dignified and looked at the screaming sword. He knew that he could not escape, and the sword must be killed.

call out!

At the very moment of death, an arrow came through the air, breaking through the rain and drawing a long mark.

With a slamming sound, the arrow burrowed into the body, piercing the strengthener who rushed out of the community, and the strong impact knocked him out of the body ten meters away, hitting the water surface, causing a burst of water to spread.

A stream of blood lingered, flowing out of a hole in the center of the eyebrow, stained with water on the ground, scarlet.

“Who is it?” The general looked surprised and turned to look at it. He could only see a figure leaping from the top of the building with a bow in his hand and disappearing in a blink of an eye.

An arrow was shot by the man just now. An arrow killed the man in a second, saved his life, and surprised the general and the soldiers around him.

That arrow was fast, almost invisible, and when it was seen, it was dead.

In Guangcheng base, private armed forces were suppressed everywhere. Finally, these people surrendered under the suppression of a powerful army.

At the same time, in the refugee area outside the city, countless refugees were brought into the city by the army, arranged to live, and distributed food. At one time, the cheering throughout the base was continuous for a long time.

Perhaps, this is what the people want, in fact, as long as most of what you do is supported by anyone, then you can get people’s hearts.

The Guangcheng base suddenly attacked at the most critical and appropriate time, destroyed the private armed forces and some tumors in the city, directly rectified the interior, and won the hearts of the people.

“time to go...”

Outside the base, a figure stood in the heavy rain.

Qin Tiange looked at the gate of the Guangcheng base, turned silently, and left here, but did not stay here. He came out to improve his strength. Now that he has successfully promoted Samsung, his strength has increased, and he will naturally leave.

As for the Guangcheng base, in fact, he didn’t care at all, and he couldn’t turn him in.

The rainstorm is getting worse and worse, the whole of China and even the whole world, the sudden heavy rainfall, this is the case for several days, there is no sign of stopping.

In some places, the phenomenon of floods and floods has begun to appear. This is a sign of a calamity.

Chapter 325 - Meteorite

After seven days of heavy rain, it finally stopped today. After the rain was fine, a huge rainbow hung in the distance, extremely colorful.

Guangcheng and Shenzhen are at the junction of the deep mountains. On the highest peak, a figure stands proudly, with black hair dancing in the wind, holding a halberd, and quietly looking into the distance.

Beside him, there was a huge white tiger lying on his back, watching the mountain quietly.

“The rumored mysterious realm of heaven should be here ...” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, looking down at the scenery from all sides.

After he came out of Guangcheng, he came here in the rain all the way, because of a message from previous lives, there was a secret entrance here.

The mysterious mystery is extremely mysterious. It is rumored that a  has fallen into it, causing such a mystery.

Qin Tiange sneered at this statement. He did not believe in any deities, but he was a powerful creature.

“Yanji, is there anything in the base?”

At this time, Qin Tiange said something to a watch, opened his own subsystem and contacted his self in the base.

As soon as the words fell, I saw a small hazy figure emerged, pretty and charming, it was my own self.

“Master, the Lun family misses you so much that they don’t come to see Jiji.” Qiji said a grieving cry and made Qin Tiange unbearable.

He rolled his eyes and said, “Okay, just tell me, what’s the situation at the base?”

Jiji immediately turned his face and smiled slyly, saying, “Master, the base is currently in good development. The military factory has begun to produce super ice crystals. The outer base has begun to use super ice crystals to cast the fence. It can be completely completed in a month. “

“Anything else?” Qin Tiange listened quietly, without speaking.

Xi Ji continued: “Master, there is one more thing. With the installation of probes by technicians in the street corners of Shenzhen City, the number of zombies in Shenzhen City has decreased significantly.”

Oh? Qin Tiange thought, thinking of the little figure in purple clothes, it should be related to her.

I saw, Jiji said again, “Master, Jiji can already invade the core chips of those robots.”

Upon hearing this, Qin Tiange looked shocked and immediately asked, “Did you succeed? Did you find anything?”

“No!” How do you know, Jiji shook his head slightly, disappointed: “In those core chips of the robot, Jiji only saw countless stored building materials. As for the creatures and origins behind the robot, there is no record at all.”

“However, Jiji has evolved according to the intelligent programs in those chips. The first stage of transformation has been completed. Jiji is now different!” Jiji said, and glamorously looked at Qin Tiange, ashamed to answer.

“What’s so different?” Qin Tiange twitched slightly and couldn’t help asking.

As a result, Jiji didn’t let him vomit blood, and only listened to her Jiao Didi said, “Master, Jiji really wants a body. Can you clone Xiji a complete and real body?”

“Clone the body?” Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes when he heard it, staring at his self, thinking quickly about the problem.

He thought about it, didn't agree, and didn't refuse, but said: "The cloning technology is still immature, and I don't have time to return to the base for the time being, I will wait until I return."

"Okay, I still have something to do, for the time being." Qin Tiange finished, without giving his chance to speak, and closed the communication directly.

At the top of the mountain, Qin Tiange meditated on the road and murmured, "Yi Ji wants to clone a real body, does her intelligence really have some kind of evolution based on the intelligent programs of those engineering robots?"

After thinking about it, Qin Tiange didn't care. At present, he doesn't want him to have a real body, which will cause some kind of variation in the program.

Once you have the physical body, it is tantamount to a kind of weird transformation of intelligent consciousness and evolution towards the real soul.

Qin Tiange must confirm whether he is still under his control, otherwise, once it is done, it will be a trouble.

Throwing away these things, Qin Tiange rode on the white tiger and rushed down the mountain, towards a huge valley below.

After two days of observation, he basically determined that the entrance to the mystery was in the valley.

Since being promoted to a three-star rating, Qin Tiange has been eager to move, thinking that it is time to * some of the opportunities and benefits of previous lives.

For example, here is a mysterious world, the mysterious mysterious world, it is said that there is an extremely rare treasure in the world.

In the valley, the mist is transpiration, and it has just rained. Here, there is a thick mist everywhere, which is constantly tumbling and sweeping, covering the entire valley.

Riding a white tiger into the valley, Euphorbia slashed the bushes blocking in front, opened a passage, and soon came to the end of the valley.

In the valley, the streams are rushing, and after the heavy rain, the mud and sand washed down from the mountains are mixed into a powerful mudslide.

"This is it ..." Qin Tiange rode a white tiger, stopped in front of a cliff, and looked at the cliff in front of him quietly.

On both sides, a large stream of mudslides crashed madly, and a sound of rumbling came out, like a thunderous thunder.

On the stone wall, an inexplicable ripple ripples constantly, like a wave of waves emitted from the air.

There was energy fluctuations there, and Qin Tiange saw this and understood that it was the entrance to the mystery.

“Xiao Bai, you are guarding in the valley.” Qin Tiange rolled over and instructed Bai Hu to guard in the valley.

He was alone, walking towards the stone wall in front of him with his halberd, and reaching out to gently touch the ripple.

Suddenly, the hand sank into the stone wall, causing ripples, giving a very mysterious feeling, it was amazing.

“It really is the entrance to the mystery.” Qin Tiange smiled without hesitation, and his body slowly passed the stone wall in front.

Ripples rippled, Qin Tiange disappeared into his body as if he had never seen it.

In the valley, peace was restored once again, but there was a huge white tiger, lying on the ground alertly, guarding quietly.

Qin Tiange, through the stone wall, stepped into the secret entrance. He was looking forward to what he had learned from this secret journey.

Different from the previous invasion of the evil spirit, this time, Qin Tiange has a lot of self-confidence. He has just been promoted and improved his strength. It is the best time to explore the secret territory and find opportunities and treasures.

Wow ...

After Huaguang flashed, Qin Tiange felt that he had entered a mysterious tunnel and passed forward quickly after passing through the stone wall.

He felt that there was an extremely mysterious and terrifying atmosphere, which was fleeting, and he quickly lost his sense, and the channel had reached its end.

Qin Tiange only felt a flower in front of him, and then appeared in a mysterious world. This is the mysterious world, the mysterious mysterious world.

The mystery of Shen Yun is full of crisis, weird everywhere.

The most weird thing is that when people fall here, there is no gravity. Qin Tiange feels his body fluttering, like a piece of red hair, and slowly falls on a huge meteorite.

Here, there are huge meteorites floating everywhere, staggered one by one, as if it were an outer space, inexplicably shining a kind of light in the darkness.

call out!

Immediately after falling, before Qin Tiange looked around, he felt a sharp burst of air coming quickly, with a sharp edge pointing at the brows.

“There was an attack!” Qin Tiange’s heart darkened, feeling the chilling moment of coldness, leaning back slightly, avoiding a sharp steel arrow, and immediately taking out a bow of war, aiming at the bow in front of him. Arrow Mang whistled away.

Chapter 326 - Me, the last sun!

collapse!

The bow broke and a sharp arrow whistled away, pointing directly at a huge meteorite floating in front.

I was surprised to see a figure flashing there, and at the same time hurriedly drew his bow and fired an arrow.

With a bang, the arrows collided in the void, bursting into a little spark. One of the arrows was blown out and clicked into the foot of the figure.

“It’s so powerful that it can hit my arrows, who you are, report your name.”

On the meteorite over there, a young man wearing golden leather armor and holding a gold battle bow, looked at Qin Tiange with a look of surprise, and was extremely surprised.

His arrow was actually hit by the opponent’s arrow. If he did not shoot an arrow and caused the arrow to drift, the meteorite inserted at his feet would probably be injured by an arrow.

This caused the youth’s vigilance and could not help asking.

“Who are you? Why are you attacking me?” Qin Tiange blanched expressionlessly, drew his bow and drew an arrow.

The opponent also responded quickly, swiftly kicked, the golden battle bow opened, and a sharp arrow was also aimed at Qin Tiange. Both did not move, but locked the opponent vigilantly.

The two confronted each other, and the atmosphere was a little dignified and depressed for a while. In this land where the gods fell, they encountered the same kind.

Qin Tiange was extremely surprised, because the young man on the opposite side was extremely good at archery. If he hadn’t been fast enough just now, he could not escape the sudden arrow.

“Sorry, you suddenly appeared, and thought you were monsters and enemies. You instinctively fired an arrow instead of aiming at you intentionally.” The youth confronted for a long time and finally spoke first.

He whispered in his heart: “Who is this guy? The archery is very sharp and strong. I should not be an opponent.”

This is his most intuitive feeling. When he felt the threat from Qin Tiange, he was naturally cautious. After all, he was wrong first.

“Introduce yourself first, me, yi, and the last sun!” Said the young man, raising his head and looking proud.

Qin Tiange pumped his skin, covered his black line, and secretly said, “Is this guy’s head broken by the portal, or is the pesticide poisoning too deep?”

“Whether you are Houyi or Houyi, in short, how did you count the arrow you just attacked me?” Qin Tiange asked slightly, his lips slightly tilted.

Hou Yi lifted his chin and proudly said, “What else can I do, I apologize. If you don’t agree, then we will see the real chapter under your hands and see if your archery is good or my archery is good.”

“Okay, let me see. Is your last sun in vain?” Qin Tiange smiled inexplicably.

At this moment, he already remembered who the other party was from. The guy from the previous life is very famous, not because he is strong, but because the other party is so proud.

Yes, this Houyi is extremely proud. Before the death of Qin Tiange, he was only stuck in a ten-star rating, and he could not further win the king.

Hou Yi, a ten-star archer in previous lives, always likes to call himself “the last sun”. With a look of arrogance, many people look unhappy.

collapse!

At first glance, two slight bursts came almost at the same time, superimposed on each other, as if there was only one sound.

I was surprised to see that two arrows flew across the void, rushing through the air, jingling, and the two arrows collided and hit each other.

One of the dark black ordinary steel arrows, with a strong force, directly broke the opposite steel arrow, and flew towards the opposite Houyi instantly.

Houyi’s face changed greatly, his body twisted back slightly, his body avoided the arrow, but after all, the steel arrow crossed his arm.

A splash, a little blood splashing out, Houyi was injured. He looked dull, staring at a cut on his left arm, and blood leaked out of the leather.

“It was hurt. This is the first time since my debut that someone has hurt me with archery. You are the first.” Hou Yi said, his face was a bit cold, and his arrogance was broken.

He has always been smooth sailing. He has never encountered an opponent along the way. Even some powerful opponents and mutant creatures have fallen under his archery.

This developed his arrogance, as if arrogant, thinking that his archery was the best in the world, and no one could stop it.

But this time, he was hit hard by Qin Tiange. One arrow not only broke his archery, but also hurt him. It was simply the biggest blow that made him feel humiliated.

“Why, don’t you call yourself the last sun?” Qin Tiange looked at the other side’s ever-changing complexion, and suddenly smiled.

He stepped out of the meteorite step by step, and just walked gently on the void in this way, it was strange that he could step on the void without any help.

In fact, this is the mysterious power in the mysterious realm. People have no weight here, as if they have lost their gravity and can walk in the void, even a few hundred meters.

“You’re humiliating me?” Houyi clenched his golden bow, his fingers were white.

His face was somber and angry, and he felt humiliated by the other side, which made him so proud that he could bear it.

“Shit you?” Qin Tiange smiled, disdain: “I’m really disdainful of someone who is so proud of you. If you didn’t apologize just now, that arrow is more than just hurting your left arm. “

After that, Qin Tiange’s smile converged, and his eyes showed a trace of icy murderousness. He hummed softly: “People can have pride, but they must not develop pride. It will blind a person’s heart and eyes.”

“And you are blinded by your pride. You only see the land three inches below your feet, but you can’t see the vast world outside.”

After Qin Tiange finished speaking, he suddenly took out three sharp arrows, suddenly pulled the bow, pulled into a full moon, and suddenly loosened his hands. Three sharp edges penetrated the void and whistled away.

Uh ...

I was surprised to see that the three sharp arrows penetrated the void in front and suddenly penetrated a meteorite, leaving three holes, and then changed the course at the moment when the meteorite passed out, and continued to rush towards the side of Houyi.

Three beeps, three sharp arrows inserted on top of the meteorite under his feet, and the tail was still shaking slightly.

This archery stunned Houyi, completely stagnant there, immersed in Qin Tiange’s magical archery.

Sanlianzhu even changed the flight trajectory after breaking through the target, and turned a bend directly at his feet, and he has to say that he was deeply shocked.

“How did you do that?” Hou Yi stood there stupidly, looking at the quivering arrows, and kept thinking about all Qin Tiange’s actions in his mind, and carefully considered how the other party did this.

In fact, it looks simple and difficult to do. It requires precise control of power and a deep understanding of archery.

Only by grasping the flight trajectory of the arrow can we determine its trajectory in distress, so as to make advance power control and change.

“The last sun?” Qin Tiange smiled inexplicably after listening, gently retracted the bow of the war, picked up the halberd and jumped away, jumping out of the hundreds of meters in an instant, and constantly stepping away in the void.

At the scene, Houyi was left alone in a daze, as if he had fallen into some sort of archery comprehension, or he got into the tip of the horn.

Qin Tiange didn’t take his heart for this past ten-star archery master. If he wasn’t a villain, he apologized before, so he didn’t care about him.

This person is just a little more arrogant, and his heart is not bad. Qin Tiange hasn't paid much attention before killing people.

“Hey, hey, wait for me, you haven't told me what your name is, and how did you do it.”

Suddenly, Houyi was awake and saw Qin Tiange rushing away quickly. He was in a hurry and immediately opened his throat and shouted, while continuing to jump and catch up.

Chapter 327 - Meteorite rain, 1 continent

In the dim world, like a starry sky, there are huge meteorites floating everywhere, and there is a trace of coldness in the silence.

Huh!

Suddenly, a figure flashed quickly, leapt from a meteorite in the distance, and landed steadily on a meteorite that was several meters away.

“Did these meteorites come out after the planet exploded?”

Standing on the meteorite, Qin Tiango thought silently, lifted the halberd and waved it gently, and when the foot met, the meteorite collapsed on the spot and turned into numerous rubbles and blasted in all directions.

In this non-gravity space, a little force can make objects pass quickly, and I have to say that there is mystery everywhere.

Qin Tiange guessed that these large and small meteorites seemed to be fragments after the explosion of a star, which was extremely strange.

Looking around, Qin Tiange chose a direction, his body jumped, and he flew a distance of dozens or hundreds of meters, constantly jumping on these meteorites.

As for the protagonist of the self-proclaimed last sun, Qin Tiange didn't want to be with others.

He didn't know that there were several entrances to this secret realm, how many people came here, and he just wanted to find his own chance here.

call!

Suddenly, a sharp whistling came from the dark and cold void in front of me. I looked up and saw a huge meteorite rushing forward.

Qin Tiange's body was just in front of the meteorite, watching the meteorite about to hit, hitting at a speed of 300 meters per second.

“drink!”

Suddenly, he shouted, and the halberd waved, splitting on the meteorite that flew in, and only heard a loud noise, and the meteorite exploded into pieces.

The powerful impact force Qin Tiange to retreat hundreds of meters, stopped on a meteorite.

“That’s it?” Qin Tiange’s face changed slightly, and he looked at the meteorite flying in front of him, forming a large meteor shower, large and small, as if a meteor whistled.

There are too many meteorites, like meteors flying constantly in the starry sky, converging into a swept one, hitting a lot of meteorites all the way, generating a violent explosion.

boom...

The two meteorites collided and exploded, and they both shattered into numerous small stones that splashed through the void and struck into the distance.

This is a meteorite rain, but also a meteor shower. An inexplicable mass of meteor showers unexpectedly appeared, which caught Qin Tiange’s attention.

“Meteorite rain, is there any inexplicable power effect over there?” Qin Tiange immediately started with a look of surprise.

His body flickered quickly, avoiding two huge meteorites, stepped on it quickly, and the relay quickly passed through the meteorite rain.

The meteorite rain is very fast, but his speed is not slow, and it is easy to hide, and some meteorites that can’t escape are broken by his halberd.

Bang bang ...

Qin Tiange rushed into the meteorite rain, his body swayed lightly, and the halberd waved, smashing three meteorites that were not too big.

He looked cold and cold, for a while left and right, stepped on the meteorite relay and quickly passed through the meteorite rain.

The more he moved forward, he felt that the number of meteorites was significantly larger, large and small formed a large area of meteorites, constantly flying around.

Huh!

The halberd waved and hit * a huge meteorite dozens of meters away, his body suddenly flew up, and the relay landed on the surface of this meteorite steadily.

Qin Tiange looked up and saw the scene of meteorite rain coming from the dense flight.

“A continent?” He looked suspiciously, looking at the meteorite rain in the distance, where a large tract of land was faintly floating above the void.

The meteorite rain was actually peeled off from this continent and pulled by inexplicable force to cause this meteorite rain.

Qin Tiange was trembling with fear, and was secretly guessing that there should be something good on it.

Thinking about it this way, he was faster, kicking out with both feet, stepping on the surface of another meteorite that was flying fast, avoiding the impact of the meteorite flow, passing through it, and quickly rushing towards the floating continent.

The floating continent is huge from a distance, and it was not until recently that the vastness of the continent was discovered.

Gravel and dirt are constantly peeling off from the top. The boulders form a meteorite flow, and the earth forms a nebula-like thing that swirls around the continent.

Such a strange scene made Qin Tiange both surprised and curious. What kind of land can have such a strange phenomenon?

Is this continent floating in the sky left after a broken star? Everything is a mystery, there is no way to guess.

Huh!

The figure flashed. Soon, Qin Tiange came to the edge of the suspended continent, and the huge land was lying in front of him. Numerous sediments turned into a torrent of continuous coiling, like a terrible torrent, blocking his progress.

Qin Tiange stood quietly floating in the void, looking at a large torrent of mud and sand flowing in front of him. He didn't know how to pass safely and got on the suspended continent.

He looked around, and just saw a ten-meter-wide meteorite peeling off, his eyes suddenly flashed, and the relay jumped up.

drink!

I was surprised to see that Qin Tiange supported the meteorite with both hands, sinking continuously, being driven back by the huge meteorite and flying over, because the beauty was more powerful, so the power could not make it up.

Qin Tiange's body was hit by a huge meteorite all the way, and he will soon hit each other with the same meteorite.

"It is now." Seeing this, Qin Tiange was not surprised, but showed a hint of joy.

I saw his feet stepping on the meteorite behind him, the powerful force burst out almost instantly, and the meteorite under his feet was stepped apart.

Born with strength, Qin Tiange dragged a huge meteorite like a meteor, rushing away, and immediately crashed into the mud-rock flow swirling around.

Bang ...

I saw a loud noise, a meteor passing through the debris flow, Qin Tiange dragged a huge meteorite, rushed into the debris flow, passed through this terrible protective layer, and came to the suspended continent.

He dropped the meteorite and leaped on the meteorites that were constantly peeling off, and several arrived safely behind the suspended continent.

For a moment, a shadow rose from below, turned cleverly, and landed firmly on the mainland. It was Qin Tiange.

With a hilarious look, he quietly looked at the surrounding environment. On the ground behind him, there was a continuous collapse of sand and rocks, and the entire continent seemed to be peeling itself apart.

“Finally came up ...” murmured, Qin Tiange flew away quickly, and was surprised that there was no small attraction on the road. Although it was weak, it was enough to keep a person in balance.

Ten steps away, Qin Tiange is like a traveler in the history of space, constantly walking on this barren continent.

Except for the sand, which is rock, as far as you can see, it is too barren here. There are no plants, except for the huge mountains that are faintly visible in front.

On the strange suspended continent, what secrets are there? Qin Tiange leaps forward with curiosity and expectation, looking for possible opportunities.

Ok?

At a certain moment, when Qin Tiange was on his way, his body stopped suddenly, so he floated in the air lightly, and his body sank slowly.

His eyes flickered, and he looked at a mountain in front of him with suspicion, only then, there was a small movement there, which aroused his alertness.

Chapter 328 - Donor, put down the butcher knife

On the barren hilltop, two silhouettes staggered, fists fought, and fiercely collided, fighting fiercely over the hilltop.

Bang bang ...

Fighting dozens of blows in an instant, the two quickly separated, each standing on the top of the mountain, staring at each other.

One of them, wearing a robe, carrying a simple seven-star sword, claps his breath, propped up his robe and hunted.

He was an unscrupulous man, with a smile on his face, and looked calmly at the figure facing him.

“I said the dustless young monk, you have been chasing me for three days and three nights. Are you annoying?” Wuliang Taoist said, looking upset.

On the opposite side, it turned out to be a young monk, wearing a purple jacket and a crown of jade. It looked like he was about eighteen years old, and he was a handsome young monk.

His name was Wu Chen, and he was adopted by his master since he was a child. The ancient buddha always accompanied him, and finally took over his master's mantle.

“The donor, you dig the grave to steal the ancient corpse. This act is against the peace, and you also ask the donor to return the ancient corpse to be buried in the soil.” The dustless tone said this sentence.

It turned out that an unscrupulous man had excavated an ancient tomb three days ago, which was the grave of an ancient general, and stole the body of the owner of the tomb.

It is amazing that the body of the owner of this tomb has remained uncorrupted for thousands of years, which can make ungrateful people ecstatic.

“Little monk, you’re over, what is a gravedigger?” The unscrupulous man stared angrily at the dustless little monk on the opposite side.

He justified his words: “I just want to obtain the body of the general who was millennium ago to become a bronze armor, to fight against the doomsday calamity, to clean up the evils of the world, and to restore peace in the world. You even hunted me down for three days and three nights, really When I lose my temper? “

“Amitabha Buddha!” Dustless hands clasped his hands together, and said a Buddhist chant, “The donor, the sea of suffering is boundless, and the shore is turned back.”

“Go back to your dead bald head.” The wickedness exploded in popularity.

A few days ago, Qin Tiange’s guy almost shot and killed the Mounted Crane, and it was already a fire. It was so easy to find a general tomb a thousand years ago. It was found that the general’s corpse remained intact for thousands of years, and corpses had been generated. This led to the refining of a powerful bronze armor corpse.

But I just encountered this nosy little monk who directly chased and killed three days and three nights. This clay figure has three points of anger, let alone an unscrupulous person?

“The unscrupulous monk ... the little monk?”

In the distance, on a desolate mountain peak, Qin Tiange was looking at this in surprise, and the moment he saw the two men, his heart was extremely strange.

He knows the unscrupulous people, but the little monk on the opposite side has never seen it, and he has not heard of the existence of this little monk in previous lives.

Ok?

Almost at the same time, the unscrupulous man and the dust-free young monk turned around at the same time, staring at them together and seeing the figure of Qin Tiange.

“Is he?” The wicked man changed his face slightly, screaming inwardly.

He simply simply turned around and left behind a sentence: “Clean little monk, I want to take a step first, let’s play slowly.”

As soon as the words fell, he ran away, and the speed was fast. The dustless little monk who was left was shocked, looking at the unscrupulous Taoist who ran away, and then looked at Qin Tiange over there, thoughtful on his face.

“Is this gone?” Qin Tiange couldn’t help crying, watching the unscrupulous Taoist turn and run, his heart was quite weird.

Was the other person scared away by him? In fact, it is correct, but the immeasurable person is a little frightened by Qin Tiange.

Huh!

Qin Tiange's body jumped, several ups and downs rolled over, and stood in front of the dustless young monk. He kept looking at this young and handsome young monk, and was measuring the strength of the other side.

“This little monk is not simple.” Qin Tiange said secretly.

The dust-free little monk on the opposite side has a three-star rating, and there is a surging force hidden in his body, like King Kong's strength, giving a very fierce feeling.

Especially the faintly revealed golden ray of light on the other side surprised Qin Tiange and had to re-examine this young monk. Why hasn't he heard of it in previous lives?

“You're called Wuchen?” Qin Tiange asked.

On the opposite side, the dust-free young monk folded his hands and said, “The donor, the monk is dust-free. I don't know what the donor intended to stop the monk?”

“I didn't stop you?” Qin Tiange shook his head silently.

The dust-free monk took a stun, folded his hands and said, “Donator, you are holding your breath too heavily. You should put down your butcher knife, recite the Buddha every day, and calmly resolve the anger, to avoid going astray.”

Upon hearing this, Qin Tiange's eyebrows jumped abruptly, almost slamming in the past.

He said expressionlessly: “Little monk, you should take care of yourself. I don't care about my affairs, you can't control it.”

Originally I wanted to say a few more words, but now I was out of mood, shook my head, turned around and leaped, and disappeared here in a blink of an eye.

The dustless little monk froze for a moment, and murmured, “This donor is so suffocating, the evil is too heavy, and it is almost condensed into an entity. Is there a demon in the world?”

“Amitabha, the little monk can't watch him incarnate into a demon.” The little monk whispered a Buddhist horn, with a hint of firmness.

He stomped on both feet, and the mountain top collapsed suddenly, causing a landslide. Then he rushed out, and saw Jinguang flash quickly, and disappeared here in a blink of an eye.

“Hmm ... * it, that bastard?”

Under the mountain, a figure rushed out, covered with mud and sand, making his face gray, and scolded in resentment, almost eating his mouth full of mud and sand.

This man was Hou Yi. He followed Qin Tiange all the way, but he just saw the meteorite rain. After breaking in, he saw a huge suspended continent.

It was hard to come up. Before he was excited, he sensed the movement over here and came to take a look. As a result, he was stepped on by the dust and buried underneath.

“Darkness, don’t let me know who it is.” Hou Yi jumped to the top of the mountain with a look of resentment and looked at the traces of someone here, her heart was even more angry.

He didn’t have time to slap on the dust on his body, and caught up directly, thinking to himself, he must find this place.

The young monk Wu Chen didn’t know about Hou Yi’s encounter. He was quickly chasing Qin Tiange’s figure.

“This little monk is not slow.”

Ahead, Qin Tiange was on his way and was surprised to see that the dustless young monk behind was not slow and even caught up.

However, he has not yet used the maximum speed, so it is normal to be caught up. If it completely broke out, or even a unicorn change, it is not a grade.

Qin Tiange ignored it, but dangled on this suspended continent, constantly searching for possible opportunities.

“Donor, if you follow me back and sit still in front of the bodhisattva for three days, you will be able to resolve one’s shame and suffocation.”

In the back, the word “Dustless Monk” suddenly came, which almost caused Qin Tiange to run away, but he didn’t get angry, but thoughtfully looked at the dustlessness in the back.

“I’m too angry?” Qin Tiange lost his thoughts, remembering the fifteen years of his previous killings, the accumulated angry and evil spirits were naturally very heavy.

In addition, he slaughtered millions of blue blood people in the assessment space, and the suffocation was absolutely huge. Although it was just an imaginary world, the spirit of slaughtering millions has naturally turned into a horrifying killing suffocation. .

It is because of this that the dustless young monk felt that Qin Tiange was too suffocated and killed too much, so he wanted to dispel the suffocation from him.

“Really annoying little monk.”

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange cursed, watching the dust-free little monk who was chasing after him, directly plucking the bow of the war to turn into a full moon, and shot an arrow in the face of dust-free.

call out!

Wu Chen was startled by the sudden arrow, but he was so good, his hands were crossed, the Buddha’s light was faint behind him, and he slapped it on the sharp arrow.

With a bang, the sharp arrows shattered, and the dust-free little monk found out that Qin Tiange was gone, and he was helpless.

“Amitabha, the little monk will not give up, he will definitely dissolve the suffocation on the donor!” Wu Chen had a compassionate look, and he would not give up, but he would catch up if he accelerated directly.

“Stink monk, stop me!”

But at this moment, a loud drink came from behind, and a figure rushed to see a rush, and then drew a bow and set an arrow to point to the dust.

Chapter 329 - Alien beast

The arrow flew, and he pointed directly at the back of his head. When there was no dust, he turned around and patted him.

With a slam, the arrows were beaten and flew out, only to find a dreadful figure rushing to the front, bowed and set arrows, and three sharp arrows aimed at dust-free.

“The donor, why attacked the little monk?” There was a trace of anger on Wu Chen’s face, and he was attacked for no reason, and the Buddha was on fire.

Hou Yi’s nose was crooked, and he hummed, “Little monk, you almost buried me alive. Why do you say I attacked you?”

“If you don’t give me an explanation, then let you taste the Sanlianzhu that I just learned.” Hou Yi’s face was proud.

Sanlianzhu, which is the archery he just realized, was learned from Qin Tiange’s series of actions. I have to say that he is really talented.

“Uh ...” Wu Chen stunned for a moment, recalling just now, I really heard a scream and scream, and thought it was an illusion.

He didn’t care then, but now he wants to come. It should be that stepping down on the top of the collapsed mountain caused a landslide, and the Houyi was almost buried alive.

Thinking of this, Dust-free face was hot, hands folded and apologized, “Amitabha, the donor, this is indeed the fault of the monk, and the monk apologizes here.”

“You thought it would be over with an apology, and then with that ...”

Bang ...

After Hou Yi’s words were not finished, he heard a violent vibration from the distance, and the smoke soared into the sky, interrupting his speech.

The two looked at each other, and in the mountains in the distance, there was a strong shock, and then the smoke was soaring and spread.

Huh!

There was a terrible growl in the smoke, the sound was rolling, and the endless fierce gas was flowing.

“I’m going, what are you doing?” Hou Yi was startled and almost let go of the three sharp arrows on his hand. Fortunately, he closed them in time.

He looked in horror, looked at the mountains in the distance, looked at each other with Wuchen, and both of them leapt away.

A few kilometers away, Qin Tiange was on his way. Suddenly he heard the vibration, and then roared, and stopped immediately.

“There are powerful creatures ...” Qin Tiange looked slightly condensed, feeling a fierce gas from that roar.

It was a peculiar smell of fierce creatures, very strong, and even gave him a hint of danger, and had to be vigilant.

He didn't hesitate, his body jumped, and he rushed away quickly, wanting to see what kind of beast it was.

Huh!

In the barren valley surrounded by mountains, a roar filled with anger, shaking the earth and shaking in all directions.

The mountains were trembling a bit, causing a landslide in the earth, and there was a roar of noise, and the smoke and volcanoes shrouded the sky over the entire canyon.

Uh ...

Several silhouettes arrived one after another, Qi Qipai stopped above the canyon, and looked down from the top, and was suddenly startled.

“Nothing, measure that big deity ...” Wuliang Taoist was frightened and said words.

He looked horrified, looking down at the canyon, there was a giant beast, roaring madly, rolling over, shaking the mountains.

Dust-free, Houyi arrived one after another, looking down one after the other, both of them were shocked by what they saw.

“What kind of monster is this?” Houyi took a small step back in shock, holding her bow tightly and staring at the huge creature below the canyon with vigilance.

The dust-free complexion changed to calm, hands folded, pupils of golden Buddha light revealed, seeing through the huge creature below the canyon.

“Amitabha, the world is full of evils, and the world is suffering. My Buddha is compassionate.

Wu Chen murmured to himself here. When the unscrupulous priest not far away heard it, he pouted and said, “Little monk, your path is too shallow. If you want to cross all sentient beings, it is just delusion.”

Over there, Qin Tiange glanced at the two of them, not paying much attention, but staring at the roaring creature below the canyon.

I saw, in the canyon, a huge creature that was 300 meters long, densely crawling with claws, rumbling and crushing, wherever he went, the rocks were crushed into powder.

“Who is that?”

At this moment, the dustless eyes shone through the pale golden light of the Buddha, and saw two figures fled quickly in front of the murderer.

Others also found out that Qin Tiange had already seen it. Through the fog, it was clear that the two figures were a man and a woman.

The man’s body is burly, and his face is a bit fierce, while the woman’s body is pretty and pretty, her face is pretty, but she is covered with frost.

She wobbled with snow, her body was filled with astonishing cold, snowflakes fluttered and looked pleasing to the eyes.

“Is she?” Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the delicate figure shrouded in frost and snowflakes, thinking of someone in his heart.

Huh!

At this moment, the creature snarled, his mouth opened wide, and the two people who fled forward suddenly engulfed.

However, the two were not weak, not slow, both jumped away, escaped the blow, and continued to escape quickly.

Behind, the terrible creature growled wildly, hissing and hunting down the two men.

“An alien beast, from the point of view of breath, has at least seven stars, but its size and speed are limited by the canyon a lot.” Qin Tiange quickly saw the level of this alien beast.

It turned out to be a seven-star creature, absolutely horrible, and is the most powerful alien creature Qin Tiange has seen so far.

Even the tentacle monster that was encountered in the land of heaven before was not as powerful as this one, and I have to say that it caused Qin Tiange’s curiosity.

He didn’t bother the two people being chased, let alone the alien beast, but flickered from the top of the canyon.

“What is he trying to do?” Hou Yi froze and watched Qin Tiange jumping.

The eyes of the unscrupulous Taoist priests turned around suddenly, and suddenly they brightened. When they thought of something, his body flashed quickly, and Qin Tiange quickly jumped down.

“Amitabha Buddha!” The dust-free little monk moved at the same time and jumped out of the canyon.

In the end, Hou Yi came to his senses and immediately followed him, faintly understanding that these three guys should be heading for the treasure that may exist under the canyon.

Those two people were hunted down by alien beasts. They might have encountered some kind of treasure after entering the gorge. Unfortunately, they were guarded by strange beasts and were hunted down naturally.

Now, while the two were attracted to drive away the alien beast, Qin Tiange jumped straight down, his body gliding gently in the air and landed, floating into the canyon without weight.

Slap!

As soon as the person landed, Qin Tiange swept away with the halberd quickly, rushing towards the end of the gorge, rushing towards the end, leaving the dustless, unscrupulous priests, and Houyi following them all changing in speed. almost.

At the end of the canyon, the mist was transpiring, and there was a strange and heavy pressure sweeping over it, acting on it, making people breathless.

“What’s so heavy?” Hou Yi’s face changed slightly, and he looked at the end of the canyon in surprise.

In front, Qin Tiange was the fastest. He was expressionless, not slow, and even ignored these inexplicable pressures.

After a few breaths, he finally came to the end of the canyon. Qin Tiange looked up and saw a mouthful of spring-sized eyes appearing in front of him.

In the golden spring eye, gold-colored liquid is pouring out, boiling constantly, exuding a golden glow of golden light, and gathering into a golden haze.

“Shenquan?” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank when he saw Quanyan’s eyes, and his heart couldn’t help beating.

Almost instinctual glances were swept away. Next to the gold-colored spring eyes, there was a strange plant, golden yellow, nine inches tall, with nine branches, each with a golden fruit.

Huh!

Qin Tiange took the lead to start with, and continued to rush away. With ecstasy, he would take the golden fruit tree into his pocket.

But at this moment, an extremely frightening crackling sound came, and a huge rock behind Shenquan suddenly exploded, Kakaka turned into a terrible creature, and the grey rock fist slammed into it. Qin Tiange.

boom!

A large pit exploded on the ground, and Qin Tiange swiftly turned back to avoid the blow, looking cold and staring at a strange creature that suddenly came out.

This creature is nine feet high, and its whole rock structure is like a rock creature, with two beams of red firelight in its eyes, which is extremely violent.

Huh!

At the same time, the alien beast who was pursuing two people stopped abruptly, turned around, and made a terrible growl, full of anger, in the hair of the canyon.

Roaring around, it ran madly, gave up the two people, and rushed directly into the end of the canyon, rolling in the smoke and dust.

Chapter 330 - Fight fiercely

“I rely!”

Hou Yi, who had just arrived, was startled, and looked at the nine-foot-tall rock giant creatures, one by one, astonished.

Even more surprised is that they also saw the mouth of the golden spring, and that strange golden plant, with nine golden fruits hanging on it.

“baby!”

“God Fruit!”

The three exclaimed, almost leaping at the same time, all trying to capture the golden fruit of that golden plant.

However, the rock giant was not a vegetarian. His fists hit him hard, and the ground collapsed, the rubble penetrated, and bursts of smoke and dust.

The dust-free young monk was generous in golden light, with continuous slaps on both palms, and the relay flew back.

The unscrupulous man there retreated and cursed, “Why is that deity, should you be so fierce?”

“Good strength.” Houyi held the bow in his hand and was forced back down.

Each of them stood in one direction, surrounded by the rock giant, and looked at Qin Tiange, who was not far away. The latter had a terrible dark inflammation.

“Let’s go together, fix it!”

Qin Tiange drank swiftly, took the lead in action, the halberds danced, rolled up the sky, and the black giant was rolling and rolling, straightly rolling the rock giant.

“kill!”

Almost at the same time, the three shot quickly without hesitation. Naturally, the current situation must kill the rock giant as soon as possible.

Otherwise, when the huge beast over there comes back, they just have no chance to seize the * fruit.

“Buddha shines!”

Drink lightly, flash the Buddha’s light with both palms, and slap in the past fiercely. The Buddha’s light is magnificent, and the black flame of Qin Tiange bombarded the body of the rock giant at the same time.

With a bang, the black flame burst, the golden Buddha light was magnificent, and two forces beat the Rock Giant back and forth.

“Seven Stars, Thunder!”

Suddenly, the sky thundered, and it banged on the rock giant's brain, blasting a gap on the spot, and the stones were flying.

Unscrupulous people have such a skill to manipulate the power of the Thunder, which is already a real spell.

“Three arrows with beads!” Finally, Hou Yi shot, three sharp arrows penetrated the air, and hurriedly came.

Huh!

The Rock Giant screamed. Although the sharp arrow was blocked, his eyes were pierced by two arrows, and a painful mourning was issued.

“It's now!” Qin Tiange drank, his body vacated, waving his halberd, condensing an extremely intense glow of fire, and Cangyan raged.

With a bang, the halberd fell, Cang Yan rolled and surged, breaking the rock giant's head into pieces.

The rock giant died, and his head was smashed by Qin Tiange's halberd, and his body fell tumblingly into pieces of gray stones.

“Grab God Fruit!”

Seeing that the Rock Giant was dead, the wicked man screamed and rushed away very fast, and he would rob God.

The other two were the same. Even the dust-free monk couldn't do all four things, and it was faster. It almost turned into a golden light and directed at the golden yellow fruit tree.

The speed of the three is not uncomfortable, but unfortunately, Qin Tiange is faster, and he is closer.

“It's mine!” Qin Tiange faced with joy, reached out and touched the golden plant, and as long as he could fully enter the space bracelet.

“kill!”

However, at this moment, there was a sound of breaking air behind him, and a huge spear flying in the distance, with a sharp edge and a lightning speed, penetrated Qin Tiange's back heart position.

Feeling the threat from the spear, Qin Tiange had to withdraw his hand, and turned back to fight with a halberd of anger. When the loud noise broke, the spear broke and blocked the blow.

But he couldn't be happy, because he was so blocked that he lost the best time to pick up the * fruit, and the huge beast was killed.

Huh!

With a roar, the beast slammed to death, and the huge body was crushed all the way, even if there was no dust and others had to quickly escape.

Qin Tiange's face was gloomy, and he bears the brunt of it. He looked at the huge beast that came from the impact. His body was tens of meters high and jumped onto the back of the beast.

“Kill the other beast first!”

Qin Tiange drank swiftly, wielded the halberd and inserted it fiercely at the neck of the strange animal, and the blood water suddenly gusted, and a dark green blood sprayed three feet high.

It is just that the body of the alien beast is too large, and this little injury hurts only a little skin, which is useless at all.

“Go on, kill together!”

The unscrupulous man was very simple. He stepped on the seven stars, his body rose into the air, jumped on the back of the other beast, the seven stars sword was held high, and the sky fell into a thunder.

thunderbolt!

The lightning struck down and hit the body of the other beast, but just letting it tremble, and hitting a black hole had no effect.

Huh!

The strange beast roared, and the dense claws swept fiercely. He nearly cut off Houyi, who was bending the bow and arrow, but fortunately the other side avoided it in time.

“King Kong Fu Mo!”

Suddenly, a group of Buddha’s lights rushed up. In the light of Jin Chancan, the dust-free little monk was as angry as King Kong, his hands were folded, and sharp diamond thorns were flying around him.

As he pushed with both hands, Fo Guang wrapped in nine diamond thorns and stabbed in the body of the beast fiercely, bursting into blood.

Huh!

The strange beast screamed, his body was penetrated by nine diamond thorns madly, and he suffered great damage, and looked a little angry and irritable.

It turned around madly, slamming it in the past, rumbling, the mountains shook, and the boulders collapsed and rolled down.

In the smoke and dust, a golden mang flickered, rushing out of the dust quickly, looking a little bit embarrassed. The corner of his mouth was bleeding, and he was obviously injured.

“Ice and snow!”

At this moment, there was a coquettish drink from behind the strange beast. Qin Tiange looked up and suddenly felt an endless cold swept through.

With a few clicks, half of the body of the other beast was frozen into an ice sculpture, and the cold breath was piercing, even Houyi couldn’t help taking a nap.

“Xue Nu ...” Qin Tiange’s face remained unchanged, and he looked at the man and woman rushing after the strange beast.

She had a strong cold and cold atmosphere, and her cold and cheeky face was covered with frost. She flung a handful of snowflakes between her hands and rushed towards the strange beast.

“kill!”

Immediately afterwards, the burly man screamed angrily and waved a large gun into the tail of the strange beast, penetrating through the chrysanthemum.

Alas ... the strange beast screamed, and it was awkward to be besieged by these people, but the power was too huge, and the skin was thick and thick and it was difficult to kill.

“Just now, did you hit me?” Qin Tiange stared at the fierce-looking man and asked lightly.

The latter snorted arrogantly, and said proudly, “Why did I take the shot? Can’t you take the * fruit we found?”

Qin Tiange glanced at him, didn’t speak, and stepped on the other animal’s forehead, his halberds held up, and his body burst into a black sky.

“Ghosts and gods, dominate the world!”

A loud scream, shaking the gorge, was shocked by a dark sky, billowing, turning into a huge black ghost, burning blazing blue flames, both hands holding a halberd hit the head of a strange animal.

boom!

Just listening to the roar, the strange beast screamed the most, the whole head collapsed, green blood spewed, and the body fell down.

The ghost halberd, with the power of dominating the world, killed a blow, causing terrible damage to the strange beast, almost deadly.

He knew that Qin Tiange was very strong, but he did not expect such a strong one. He struck a strange animal with one stroke and had to say that it shocked everyone.

“kill!”

Almost at the same time, the six launched an attack together, violently bombarded the head of the strange beast, smashed its brain on the spot, and completely turned out this powerful alien beast.

The beast uttered a wailing sound, the body rumbly collapsed, set off billowing smoke and dust, and died tragically here.

“God Fruit!”

The strange beast just died The six figures exploded almost at the same time, each exhibiting the maximum speed and rushing to that * fruit.

However, one of them was the fastest, Qin Tiange. Not only was he faster than the others, but he had already taken the lead in this moment when the ghost and the halberd hit the other beast.

“court death!”

“you dare!”

Seeing Qin Tiange reaching out and holding the golden-yellow * fruit, the others' faces changed greatly, and they were furious and gathered strength, and they were going to bombard him.

Watching five people gather together, Qin Tiange's thoughts moved, and he wanted to completely seize these divine fruits, and immediately made a decision.

I saw that Qin Tiange's hands turned into afterimages, and he picked five Jin Chancan's fruits and threw them to the five people.

Uh ...

The five golden lights rushed quickly and flew towards five people. The five people who had originally gathered power were shocked to dissipate their power and quickly grasped that golden light.
