

Dark Ages 35

Chapter 35 - Start

School canteen. After a full meal, everyone was resting. The boys gathered together in small whispers and wiped the steel knife in their hands.

Girls also gathered together and talked about their little secrets, more about Qin Tiange, a mysterious young man.

“You said, who is Brother Qin?”

A good-looking girl opened her mouth and asked in a low voice, her face was full of worship, and twinkles were shining in her eyes.

Flowers!

Many girls on the sidelines rolled their eyes, but in their hearts, they actually paid more attention to Qin Tiange. This mysterious young man is not only handsome, but also has powerful power. He is the white horse prince in the eyes of girls.

I watched her student talk about Qin Tiange. Liu Yi was very uncomfortable in her heart. At this time, she had mixed feelings in her heart, and didn't know how to describe it.

She always kept a little vigilance to Qin Tiange, but was more grateful. Without the appearance of this young man, they are likely to hide in the office and tremble, not to mention that they now have such a power that they had never dared to imagine before?

She felt very clearly that she now has a powerful force hidden in her body, which has improved ten times regardless of all aspects of her physical quality.

That is ten times the physical fitness of an adult man. How strong is it? She is confident that she can crush wooden tables and chairs with her own hands. She never dared to think of it before, and now she has such power.

In the last days, what is most important is strength. Those who have strength can live without being bullied.

“Who the * are you?” Liu Yan looked at the closed kitchen door in the dining room, guessing Qin Tiange's identity.

Walking next to her, Long Xiaoya was also curious. This young foreigner, not a school person, not a town person, had powerful power.

Such a man is the most charming and attracts the attention of a woman. This beautiful Hmong woman who can sing and dance is no exception.

“Everyone comes!”

The kitchen door opened, Qin Tiange came out of it, carrying a box of things, which was a test tube, and each test tube was filled with liquid that was generally black and red.

When they saw these liquids, everyone in the room quickly breathed, his face flushed, his eyes almost burst into flames.

“This is an enhanced version of the potion, which is stronger than ordinary potions. Although each person has only half a branch, the effect is not weak at all.”

Qin Tiange picked up half of the enhanced version of the hardened body medicine to explain, this is the enhanced version of the medicine he just prepared, just decided to play a big time, and invested hard.

“Morda, you come first!” In a word, Moda and others immediately excited, and stood up and lined up one by one to receive the enhanced version of the half of the water.

Soon after, the boys were finished. It was Liu Yan’s turn to take a large group of girls forward and pick them up one by one. Most of the boys and girls got the medicine and couldn’t wait to drink it.

Improvement, the overall improvement, under the powerful medicinal baptism of half of the enhanced version of the quenching agent, everyone has achieved a huge improvement.

Each of them has improved their physical fitness almost five times, plus the effect of the original improvement, Moda as the most, at this moment he has reached an amazing fifteen times the intensity.

Like Tamarix, it has increased to fifteen times the physical fitness of an adult, which is an unimaginable powerful force that makes people addicted.

On the edge, Chen Xi drank half of the enhanced version of body quenching medicament, feeling that he had reached 25 times his physical fitness, with the power of 25 people, and his heart was even more shocked and complicated.

She gently stroked the storage ring of the third finger of her left hand, and inside it were quietly placed four enhanced versions of the hardening medicine, which Qin Tiange gave her.

That is a strengthened version of the medicine with blood sacrifice, the potency is very strong, a branch is enough to make an ordinary person enhance twenty times the physical fitness, very powerful, of course, ordinary people will inevitably explode once they drink.

As for Qin Tiange, he has already taken an enhanced version of the body quenching medicament. At this moment, his physical quality is still thirty times, without any improvement, because the efficacy is no longer.

This time, taking the medicament did not improve the physical fitness a bit. It was also the strength of the original 30 people. That is because the efficacy of the medicament has been invalidated. Antibodies have naturally occurred in the body, and even these medicaments cannot be improved .

Wu Qin Tiange knew very well that if he wanted to continue to improve, there must be other higher-level materials. As for the inheritance stele, there was no exchange of subsidy medicinal materials like blood sacrifice. The only way to obtain it was from the mutant creature.

Thirty times, the power of thirty people is already very strong. He is the most powerful of all the people present, and no one is his opponent.

Only with great strength can I deter these students who have improved their strength, such as Moda, and know that Qin Tiange's toughness, he did not dare to be born at all, is very honest.

"Since everyone has improved their strength, start now, kill the campus and clean up the zombies in the town."

Qi Qin Tiange clapped his hands, and made a hairy statement, officially began to kill the campus, clear the countless zombies in the town.

He didn't mean to clean up the zombies, but for the brains of the zombies, which was the most important thing in his plan.

His eyes were sharp and sharp, sweeping everyone, saying one word at a time: "You gave me a good listen, I gave you a chance to improve your strength, and gave you a chance to survive, but you must complete my plan for me and listen to me Command. "

"Who dares not work, is not obedient, and dares to break my plan with a small idea, then I don't mind killing you one by one."

Click!

After speaking, Qin Tiange's feet lightly shook, and the concrete floor made a crisp sound, and several cracks quickly cracked, spreading for a full three meters before stopping.

Everyone's heart trembled. The ecstasy that had originally improved after the power disappeared, and the rest was covered with a cold feeling, and the cold sweat behind him was down.

I was shocked, Qin Tiange's words were to warn them that they must be obedient, otherwise don't talk about strength, and their lives will disappear in the next moment.

"Qin Brother rest assured, whoever disobedient I slaughtered him first." Moda immediately expressed his mind, he knows these Qin Tiange from the front, he will live if he is obedient, and he will die if he is disobedient.

Seeing the expressions of the crowd, Qin Tiange nodded with satisfaction. As long as these people are obedient, then he doesn't mind making these people stronger. If they are not obedient, then don't blame him for being ruthless.

"set off!"

With a single order, everyone was ready to go, along with Qin Tiange's head, stepped out of the dining hall and killed the mighty outside the campus.

This is to clear the zombies outside the town. A team of more than one hundred and nearly two hundred people is extremely huge. One by one wearing iron armor, they have mistaken steel knives, steel guns, and steel crossbows. They seem to have a sense of killing.

Roar...

Outside the campus, the streets of the town are full of zombies. That is the world of zombies, that is, mutant creatures are hiding from it and dare not appear, otherwise they will be eaten by the attack of these zombies.

Mutant creatures are actually creatures, and their flesh and blood are more delicious. They can naturally attract the attention of zombies, and mutant creatures that dare to appear will be bitten and devoured by countless zombies.

A group of people rushed out of the school gate and immediately alarmed the attention of a large group of zombies at the street outside the school gate. They all rushed in, one by one screaming bloodthirsty.

“Array, kill the enemy!”

When the sword came up, Qin Tiange took the lead and looked at the zombies rushing up. The team immediately leaned against the gate of the campus and began to line up against the enemy and kill the zombies.

After increasing the strength, the lethality erupted by the entire team is extremely horrible. The number of zombies coming in and being killed is how powerful it is.

Moreover, a group of people is collectively powerful. For his own goals, Qin Tiange is a stubborn smasher with a potion to smash a team that is currently the strongest.

“kill!”

Two hundred people blocked the gate of the school, and began to slash the zombies that came up madly, one after the other.

Roar!

At this moment, a terrible roar suddenly came from the town market, shaking the earth, as if the ancient beast was awake and shocking.

“That's it?” After Qin Tiange slashed a zombie, his face changed slightly, he suddenly looked up, stared at the side of the trading market, and vaguely saw a burly figure coming out slowly.
