

Dark Ages 39

Chapter 39 - Digging traps

Yan Liuyan was scolded and cried, tears swirled in her eyes, but she bit her lip and did not cry. A group of students kept their promises, one after another, looking down and busy.

Xiaolong Xiaoya looked strange, looked at the two of them, and then dug out the brain crystal of the zombies.

“Hurry up, dug up the brain crystal and threw the body over there.”

Qi Qin Tiange scolded him, and a group of people immediately speeded up their actions. After digging out the brain crystal, the corpse's body was immediately removed and discarded and piled up near a flower garden.

At this time, the terrible buzzing sound began to come from the air. There were many flies, but everyone had sprayed insect repellent, so they just wandered and did not come down.

When everyone left, the flying flies finally moved, and groups swooped down and began to draw around the body of the zombies.

Sting flies, the favorite thing is the carrion stinks. At this moment, the bodies of zombies naturally meet the food standards of these flies.

Buzz buzz ...

Numerous flies came flying, densely packed, and squirming in groups, and in just ten minutes, the bodies of those zombies had been eaten up to make them feel hairy.

“These flies are terrible!” A group of boys were a little hairy.

They looked at the countless flies' dense gnawing carcasses, and in the blink of an eye there was only a pile of skeletons, which was very infiltrating.

Qi Qin Tiange looked at the flies from a distance, and looked at the corpses that had been eaten so that only white bones were left. After thinking about it, he quickly thought of a way.

“Everyone, go to school football!”

At the order, he took all the students to the football stadium, and they were all puzzled, not sure what to do here.

I soon understood that Qin Tiange asked some boys to go back to the teacher's dormitory to collect tools such as ***** and shovel.

“Digging!”

Everyone understands that this is to dig a pit on the edge of the football field to make a trap. Here is a block near the town with a fence.

At this moment, Qin Tiange would dig a trap here, and then push off the wall to attract zombies. This is to hunt and kill zombies with the help of traps.

Both boys and girls are digging by hand. Everyone has improved their strength. It is easy to dig and the speed is fast. In half an hour, a large pit 30 meters wide and two and a half meters deep was dug out.

But this is not over yet. After digging one, continue to dig a big pit on the left and right sides of the big pit, and behind it. The entire football field edge and even half of the football field have been dug into several huge pits.

Nine big pits were connected one by one, and a total of seven big pits were dug out, which took only one and a half hours to complete.

Boom!

As a fence in front of the big pit was pushed by more than a dozen boys, a five-meter-wide exit was exposed. The movement on this side immediately attracted a lot of zombies outside the school wall, and immediately came here.

“Clean up the scattered zombies and prepare to blame.”

At this time, Qin Tiange looked excited and looking forward, and issued an order to clean up. First, the crowd went out of this gap to clear up some scattered zombies.

After all, the school is not close to the center of the town street. There is a concrete avenue outside that leads to the town center market.

The number of zombies here is not very large. Most of them are concentrated in the small town center market. They cleared up quickly and killed hundreds of nearby zombies in a flash.

“Morda, did you see it?”

Pointing to the east of the school, looking from here, along the cement road, there is a gas station one kilometer away from the school.

Qi Qin Tiange called Moda and said directly, “You take someone over, clean up the zombies over there, and then bring me those petrol and diesel and bring me back.”

Upon hearing this, Moda immediately took people over, cleared the zombies at the gas station, and then packed all the gasoline and diesel stored there.

As for Liu Yan and others, they used to find some flammable materials in the school and threw them into the big pit. Then they poured gasoline and diesel. The whole process took three full hours to complete.

I saw that it was noon again, and it was almost afternoon. I ate a little dry food and spent several hours. A zombie didn't go hunting. It is about half way through today.

However, Qin Tiange was not in a hurry, he did not accidentally chop firewood workers, dug the traps, and found the tools.

“Here you are, I will lead the zombies.”

After doing this, I arranged for everyone to guard the trap, Qin Tiange set off, went out from the wall gap pushed there, and rushed all the way to the small town's trading market.

There, hordes of zombies surged, and the roar stunned the entire town, making them creepy.

— As soon as he appeared, he immediately attracted the attention of many zombies. Of course, Qin Tiange did not avoid it. He came here to attract zombies.

Uh ...

“Brother, brother, come over and see.”

The second floor of the town’s trading market is a song and dance hall, which is the only disco in the entire town.

Walking in the window of the song and dance hall, a figure looked at this in shock, just seeing Qin Tiange rushing out, he was surprised by his next action.

In the second floor of Diba, a large group of burly men, holding steel pipes, machetes, and even someone holding a shotgun and other weapons, led by a big brother-like man immediately came to the window and looked.

Roar!

Zombies boiled in the market, as Qin Tiange appeared and actively attracted the attention of a large number of zombies.

Dozens, hundreds and even thousands of zombies were attracted to the past. Seeing this scene, everyone in Diba on the second floor widened their eyes and opened their mouths, stunned.

“Is that kid looking for death? What do you want?” Someone asked dully.

They saw Qin Tiange as a kid and led away more than a thousand zombies, rushing all the way towards the school wall.

In Didi Bar, a large group of people were stunned, staring at the thousands of zombies who left, they couldn’t believe their eyes, especially that big brother.

“Isn’t that kid afraid of death?” The elder brother’s eyes flashed fiercely and he was puzzled.

Soon, he ignored these, but showed an excited look, because as Qin Tiange led away thousands of zombies, the number of zombies in the market suddenly decreased a lot.

“Brother, good opportunity, zombies are much less, why don’t we take the opportunity to kill and get some food back, otherwise we will have to starve to death in two days.”

A younger brother made a suggestion, taking advantage of the loss of more than a thousand zombies, immediately went to Di, and took the opportunity to get some food back in the market, otherwise he would starve to death in two days.

The elder brother knew this, he nodded slowly, but looked at the direction of the school, his eyebrows frowned slightly.

“Is there no news from Feilong?” The elder brother was worried.

When he spoke, a group of younger brothers didn't answer, one by one, they didn't talk. When the burly man looked at it, he snorted, and said nothing, and walked directly into a box.

Inside, there was a group of women, and without wearing any clothes, a piece of white flowers, the group of women immediately saw the man came in with a horrified look.

“Hurry down to find food. My Eighth is here to refresh yourself.”

This myna, named Huangba, is my boss. This is the boss of this bar. It is rumored to be the biggest evil in the town.

He dropped a word, took off his clothes and rushed to the group of white flowers in the box, and started a gallop.

The screams and wailings were intertwined, looming from the box, letting the younger brothers shine with their eyes, like a wolf, but unfortunately had to go down to find food.

Qin Tiange is not clear about this. He is leading a large group of zombies back to the school.

“Ready to fight!”

Xun rushed in from the gap and returned to the team around the big pit. Qin Tiange gave a combat order with a serious expression.

In front of the cricket, a large number of zombies poured in from the gap, opened their teeth and clawed, and snarled and rushed towards the crowd, but unfortunately fell into the pit one by one.

Zombies are pouring in more and more, and a large pit is filled first, followed by countless zombies that follow the zombies in the pit and rush into the second large pit.

In this way, the zombies did not have self-conscious thinking, they only knew that they were rushing towards the prey, and fell off the big pit without realizing it, but were trampled by the zombies behind.

Qin Tiange and others stood in front of the seventh big pit, staring nervously at the countless zombies that came over, full of more than 1,300 zombies, and soon filled the six big pits, and came to the first in front of them. Inside the seven big pits.

“kill!”

I watched the zombies rushing up, Qin Tiange's binocular killing flashed, he screamed, and waved the bone-breaking tang knife to take the lead to slash the zombies rushing to the feet.
