

Dark Ages 391

Chapter 391 - Chaos Flame, Phoenix Change

In the magma, a huge egg floated there, the whole body was red, and the three-color flames were burning around, blazing, and the air was burning and twisting.

Uh ...

The black flames are burning, the fire is burning, and the two are fighting first. They are devouring each other crazy and want to grow stronger.

The three flames are the flames possessed by Qin Tiange's body, the black * fire, the talented * fire from the fallen angel, and the Cang Yan from the mysterious planet seal with the powerful fetish seal inside. There.

The phoenix magic fire is the talented magic fire inherent in the ancient phoenix gene. At this moment, the three kinds of flames are intertwined, colliding and engulfing to strengthen themselves. cry...

Suddenly, a phoenix came, and then the phoenix * turned into a flame phoenix and launched a surprise attack.

Then this action led to the resistance of the other two flames. The black flame broke out first, and the thunder rose, turning into a black fallen angel, four wings shaking, rolling up the infinite black flame and sweeping away.

Bear!

The next moment, Cangyan changed, and gathered into a horrible eye, pale color, revealing endless cold, as if the eyes of God, the pressure is amazing.

Three flames collided instantaneously, the eight-winged fallen angel fluttered and roared, and the ancient phoenix soared for nine days. The mysterious pale eyes looked down on the beings, and the mighty, the three of them struck at the other.

With a loud bang, the three virtual shadows exploded at the same time, and then turned into an endless force to be absorbed into the egg.

The crater, sweeping with endless energy, was absorbed by the egg, and no trace of Cangyan or Melanoma disappeared, and the Phoenix Fire was gone.

Huh!

Suddenly, a ray of gray matter overflowed on the surface of the egg, like a flame, but no light, but a ray of simplicity and desolation, full of destruction.

A ray after a ray of gray flames surrounded the egg. Eventually, the egg shell itself changed inexplicably, gradually becoming gray and Mongolian.

A black pattern spread, followed by a pale pattern interwoven, and finally, a colorful pattern of shuttles shuttled over, the three interwoven into a strand, turning into a gray and strange pattern, soon covered the entire dome.

Divine changes are happening quietly, and inside the giant dome that has become gray and Mongolian, a figure curls up, and gradually mutates, and the human body gradually melts into a chaotic atmosphere.

The chaos gradually stretched out, one wing stretched out, and then the other wing also stretched out. Finally, the body, tail, and head emerged one by one.

It was a phoenix, chaotic in color, showing its simplicity and vicissitudes, born noble, as if an ancient * phoenix was born from chaos.

Clicking ... A crisp and cracking came, and saw the gray egg shattered, the endless chaos of flames swept out, and a sense of desolation spread out, revealing invisible coercion.

“Yeah ...” outside the volcano, Suzaku was startled, shocked by this inexplicable coercion, almost jumped up and flew away.

Her instinctive fear, the throbbing from deep in the blood, made her feel the terrible coercion under the volcano clearly.

Fortunately, it remembers its mission, and even recognizes that it is Qin Tiange’s breath, and this escapes without panic.

cry!

A phoenix came, starting to be faint, as if coming from a distant nothingness, gradually becoming high and bright, coming out from the crater, and radiating.

Suddenly, the mountain forest shook, and countless birds flew up in horror. In a panic, he said to the mouth with a trace of fear and awe.

Crying ... Another horrifying phoenix, trembling in all directions, countless birds hissing in the sky, hundreds of birds flying in groups, as if welcoming their king.

In the sky, densely packed birds, large and small, no matter what they are, nearby birds are attracted in groups, flying in groups around the volcano.

Strange scene, tens of thousands of mutant birds and birds form a huge formation, one after another landed near the volcano, respectfully worship in the direction of the volcano.

boom!

Suddenly, a volcanic flame erupted under the volcano, and the gray flames swept across the sky, sweeping the world, revealing endless coercion.

There, there was a huge phoenix bathed in the flames of chaos. The fire was reborn, its wings soared, and the sky soared.

cry!

With a sound of phoenix, countless birds trembled, and lay there motionless, forming a trend of a hundred birds toward the phoenix.

Suzaku can't help shivering, lying quietly on the crater, looking up at the chaotic flames sweeping across the sky.

Inside, there was an extremely amazing phoenix, soaring wings, kept crying, and swore its own birth.

In fact, it was Qin Tiange, who finally completed the second immortal change, the Phoenix change. Moreover, due to the existence of three kinds of flames in his body, they led to competition and fusion with each other, and finally turned into a more powerful flame.

This kind of flame is gray and quaint, as if the flame from the chaos, so Qin Tiange named it chaos flame directly.

"It turned out that this is the Phoenix!" A Phoenix muttered to himself in the sky.

Qin Tiange looked amazed, watching his body turned into a phoenix, with bright feathers and a certain ancient atmosphere. The gray flames shrouded the flames, and the emptiness was distorted.

He was inexplicably shocked. His second change, the Phoenix change, was so powerful that he could clearly sense that there was a violent power hidden in his body.

It was a new talent from the Phoenix talent. The three types of flames were re-integrated into a new talent. The gray chaotic flame was even more violent and horrifying.

Moreover, the power of a thousand people had actually increased the strength of only 300 people after entering the Phoenix Change, that is, the strength of 1,300 people, but what he was most concerned about was finally being able to fly freely in the sky, more chaotic and chaotic. Yan, a combat strength beyond expectations.

"Hundred birds are facing the phoenix?" Qin Tiange looked down, and found that the densely packed mutant birds were lying there quietly, and immediately understood.

This is a hundred-bird phoenix, which makes him very strange, but it also feels normal. If the real phoenix was born without a hundred birds coming, then it is necessary to doubt whether it is a real phoenix.

Phoenix, known as the head of the hundred birds, Qin Tiange incarnates the phoenix, revealing the noble breath of more ancient and vicissitudes, suppressing these birds on the veins, naturally attracting the strange sight of the hundred birds coming.

Instead of paying attention to these mutant birds, he kept crying: "Suzaku, go back by yourself, I have some things to deal with."

After saying this, Qin Tiange fluttered his wings, and instantly swept across the void with the vast chaotic flames, disappeared in a blink of an eye.

Flying for the first time made Qin Tiange feel a little excited, as if from instinct, free and free, soaring for nine days.

cry!

In the void, a frightful sound came from Fengming, and the clouds were scattered.

I saw an ancient phoenix of chaotic color, swept away by the boundless chaotic flames, the speed was so extreme that it disappeared into the air in a blink of an eye.

Qin Tiange was surprised to find that his current speed has increased more than ten times, even exceeding the speed of sound, causing a huge sonic boom along the way.

The transformation of the Phoenix is not about strength, but its talent and fire, but also that terrifying supersonic speed.

Moreover, Qin Tiange faintly felt that he had acquired some kind of Phoenix talent, that is, Nirvana rebirth.

This mysterious genetic power allowed him to inherit the power of the mysterious nirvana of the Phoenix and gain the ability of nirvana.

As he successfully transformed into the undead phoenix, a sense from the bloodstream made him feel a breath of blood of the same kind.

That was the unique induction of the Phoenix, and Qin Tiange, who turned into a Phoenix, naturally felt it clearly, and the phoenix breath was very familiar. It was the same Phoenix he was injured before.

It's just that the wounded phoenix is in a bad situation at this moment. If there is no blood vein induction, it seems that it will disappear at any time.

“That Phoenix was only shot with one arrow. The injury was not particularly serious. Why does it seem to be almost dead now?”

While fluttering his wings, Qin Tiange was thinking about this problem. He was injured by an arrow at the time, but he guessed that the injury should not be serious.

Perhaps, the phoenix used the power of the destiny fire to escape, causing the injury to worsen and rebounding, resulting in aggravation of the injury, and it seemed to be on the verge of dying.

call!

A gray shadow flashed through the void, and an endless cloud of smoke disappeared into the distance. How many pieces exceeded the speed of sound?

It didn't take long for Qin Tiange to come to the sea, and soon tracked the volcanic island over the volcanic induction.

Here is a volcanic island. The volcanoes are emitting thick smoke, and some even emit hot lava, which will erupt at any time.

cry...

In the middle of the volcanic island, in the largest volcano, there were faint bursts of phoenixes, with sadness and unwillingness, as if unwilling to die.

Looking down from a high altitude, Qin Tiange saw a fiery red phoenix lying weakly in the magma, and his body was chaotic.

Phoenix is male, female is phoenix, and fire phoenix wants to enter Nirvana.

This fire phoenix was sad and desperate, lying quietly in the volcanic magma and waiting to die. She had a premonition that she was about to die.

cry!

Suddenly, an extremely high-pitched phoenix came from the sky, and immediately shocked the seriously dying phoenix. She lifted her head hard and glanced hard at the sky, just to see the chaotic * phoenix floating above.

Yes, a powerful phoenix with chaos flames appeared.

Cry ... Phoenix suddenly wailed, and wailed for a while, as if telling this strange fellow that he was about to die.

“It took my destiny to fire, it seems that this is your calamity.”

On the sky, Qin Tiange turned into a chaos * Feng muttered to himself, and finally realized in her heart that this fire phoenix had come to this step because she was good at using her destiny.

Chapter 392 - Phoenix is bad

The destiny fire, which belongs to the most precious flame essence of the Phoenix, is the most important force for Nirvana. Once consumed, it is equivalent to losing the Nirvana opportunity.

Just like the phoenix awakened by the phoenix gene in front of it, the seven-star star has just obtained its initial metamorphosis, and has actually used its destiny. Now it cannot enter Nirvana to be born again, and can only wait for death.

cry...

The phoenix wailed, and hung his proud head weakly, and his flaming red feathers were dim and dull.

There was a wound on her chest, which was pierced by a purple arrow, and the injury was very serious, because the purple arrow contained a mysterious force that destroyed her self-recovery.

Huh!

Qin Tiange fluttered his wings, dived down, and blinked into the volcano, his wings fluttered quietly not far from the fire phoenix.

Looking at the dying fire phoenix, there was a strange throbbing movement in Qin Tiange's blood, as if there was a kind of sad emotion, which belongs to the emotion of the Phoenix gene.

“Forget it, see that you got me a share of the Phoenix change, save you once.”

Qin Tiange's mind was complicated. After thinking about it, he finally decided to save the dying fire phoenix, not only the throb of the phoenix gene, but also because he obtained a small group from the fire phoenix's body. Phoenix blood was cloned to restore a mass of true blood of the ancestor of Phoenix.

Therefore, he obtained the second immortal change, the Phoenix change, which allowed him to acquire various talent abilities belonging to the Phoenix, which was regarded as an opportunity.

Huh!

As I saw, the flame of chaos flashed, the phoenix disappeared, and a young man stood quietly in front of the phoenix.

“Ga ... is you?” Fire Phoenix screamed in shock, and the instinctual flutter was about to fly, but unfortunately struggled, there was no strength to fly.

She throbbed a few times before stopping, unable to stop, staring at the young man in front of her, showing an anger and grief, and even a hint of strange light.

Wasn't a similar person just here to see her off? Why, in a blink of an eye, she turned into this enemy who hurt her, making her frightened and a little surprised.

“Oh, there is still strength to struggle.” Qin Tiange shook his head secretly and laughed: “Little fire phoenix, do you know that you have to use your destiny fire before it has completely turned into a phoenix? ? “

“It's all up to you. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't do that. Are you here to kill me now? If you want to kill, hurry up and start.” Fire Phoenix said weakly, drowsing her head and waiting to die. .

She was powerless to refute, there was only a sorrow, and she would eventually be buried in the hands of this abominable human.

What I do n't understand is why this human has become her kind and has the same breath, even more noble and ancient than her?

“Okay, seeing that I got the chance from you, I save you once.” Qin Tiange shook his head and took out a copy of the regeneration material.

He ignored the struggling fire phoenix and poured the super-renewable material into the fire phoenix's wound pierced by the purple gold arrow.

The golden super-regenerating material melted in and immediately made the wound recover quickly, but there was a hint of mysterious force preventing the wound from recovering.

“Purple gold arrow seems to have mysterious power. It seems that I still study a lot of mysterious secrets in that arrow.” Watching the wound finally healed, Qin Tiange thought to himself, and should study the purple gold arrow well.

Although the wound healed, Fire Phoenix did not recover on time, because her Nirvana origin had been consumed.

“Phoenix's origin is damaged. Generally, it is extremely difficult to recover, and it can never be recovered forever. Fortunately, you met me.” Qin Tiange said with a smile.

Huohuang was quiet this time, looking at him curiously, thinking: “Why does this human want to save me, isn't he trying to kill me?”

“Also, the breath on his body is really like my own * Phoenix, why does it become human again?”

One question after another filled the heart of Fire Phoenix, for a time, she turned out to be crazy. The phoenix is arrogant inside, the noble blood gene, so that the phoenix itself has a lofty arrogant personality, and it is difficult to even group with other birds.

Because the level of genetic blood is different, even Suzaku can't, but treat the same kind differently.

“Shenquan, Lingtao, five-star liquid of life, Qiongjiangyuyu ...” Qin Tiange took out one by one, and let Fire Phoenix open his mouth, and threw them into the same.

Soon, after taking a lot of spiritual medicines, the weakness of the Phoenix has improved, and soon, the dim feathers gradually light up, and the breath is getting stronger and stronger.

In the end, after absorbing the huge energy, the injured source finally recovered gradually. After being nourished by the essences such as Shenquan and Qiongyeyu, it was finally repaired.

boom!

A group of destiny fire was burning, and through the colorful light of God, the fire phoenix issued an extremely excited tweet, crying with joy.

The resurgence made her extremely excited, and she forgot about the incident that Qin Tiange had hurt her.

In fact, this is also to blame Huohuang himself, rushing into the base recklessly is a provocation to Qin Tiange.

A powerful fire phoenix rushed into the base, vomiting the phoenix * fire, a bad one had cooked her for the entire base, how many people would be burned to ashes, how many people would die?

At that time, Qin Tiange had the intention to kill her, but unfortunately let her run away. After obtaining the blood of the phoenix, he returned to the ancestors using biological cloning technology and cloned an ancient phoenix. As a result, he obtained the true blood of the phoenix.

Qin Tiange completed the Phoenix transformation in this way, so when he saw this phoenix struggling to death, he wanted to save her life.

cry...

“Are you human or my kind?”

The fire phoenix fluttered its wings, the beautiful feathers flickered, coiled around the turbulent phoenix * fire, coiled not far in front of Qin Tiange, and looked at him doubtfully.

Qin Tiange smiled and didn't care. A chaotic flame erupted from his body, which turned into a phoenix spreading his wings and flying high, soaring into the sky.

“Cultivate well, don't break into human territory easily, otherwise no one will come to save you when you die.”

Far away, Qin Tiange dropped this sentence and disappeared into the air with the flame of chaos in an instant, leaving this phoenix stupidly stunned.

She saw Qin Tiange once again turned into a  phoenix, and the response from the bloodstream could not be wrong, that is a real phoenix, an ancient phoenix.

“Hey, wait for me ...”

Suddenly, the fire phoenix came to her senses, and the fire wings flickered, and the feathers glowed, soaring into the sky instantly, the breath chasing Qin Tiange quickly disappeared into the distance.

After all, he encountered a phoenix of the same kind, but it was also an extremely ancient god. He naturally refused to let him leave, and went directly to catch up.

In the distance, Qin Tiange enjoys the feeling of soaring freely. He has had the feeling of flying in previous lives, but he has never been so comfortable.

The change of the Phoenix gave him the flying ability and terrible speed of the Phoenix. The speed beyond the speed of sound was really fascinating.

“When I fully grasp this power, I can have all the abilities of the Phoenix without becoming a Phoenix.” Qin Tiange thought while secretly flying.

He has not yet thoroughly understood and applied this power belonging to the Phoenix Change. When he is thoroughly familiar with this power, he will remain the same as the Kirin Change and gain the power of the Phoenix.

That’s the perfect transformation of the Phoenix. This looks like a phoenix, its power is not perfect, and even less perfect.

cry...

Suddenly, a phoenix came from behind, Qin Tiange really heard the potential meaning in the phoenix.

“Wait for me!”

In the back, Fire Phoenix chased quickly, but she couldn’t match Qin Tiange’s speed, and had to eagerly scream.

After hearing this tweet, Qin Tiange choked for a moment before crying and laughing. It turned out that he understood the language of the bird, and suddenly felt a little depressed.

But soon it became happy, because it would be more convenient to know how to communicate with birds, and as the phoenix, the head of the hundred birds, he could make the birds listen.

“I don’t know what the ability of the third change to become a white tiger?” Qin Tiange was a little curious now.

He didn’t even care about the phoenix that was struggling to catch up behind him, but thought about his next third change, the White Tiger Change, what ability is there?

And, if you want to complete the transformation, do you have to get the ancient white tiger gene? This made him think of his mount, White Tiger, and now he thought that White Tiger should be brought back.

call!

Thinking about it this way, Qin Tiange's wings shook, and the nine-foot-long Phoenix god's body turned the direction directly. The wings flew and accelerated, and a burst of sound burst came out.

“Asshole, why ignore me?”

In the back, Fire Phoenix was obviously furious, and Qin Tiange ignored her, which greatly hit her proud heart.

It's like a girl who has the courage to pursue a man he likes, but is indifferent and ignored, that kind of embarrassment, that kind of mood can only be understood by the parties.

The Phoenix at this time was this feeling, which was ignored by Qin Tiange.

Huh?

In the distance, Qin Tiange, who was flapping his wings across the sea, suddenly stopped, looking suspicious, staring at the sea below.

He sensed a familiar and unfamiliar breath, very powerful, and it was quickly emerging from the sea.

Chapter 393 - Meet Qing Qing, the flames cook the sea

Rumble ...

The sea rolled and the tide surged. Something terrible in the sea was rushing out quickly, setting off a stormy sea.

In the sky, Qin Tiange was stunned, staring at the water below, and a familiar and powerful breath was quickly rushing out.

I only heard a loud noise, the tsunami hit the sky, and rolled up the violent waves, but Qin Tiange easily escaped.

He looked down and looked down in amazement, and saw a huge cyan dragon, heading up into the air, disturbing the boundless sea.

“Xiaolong?” Qin Tiange stunned.

It is a dragon with blue scale armor, shining brightly, showing a solitary height, the head of the dragon is raised, the four claws of the dragon are sharp, showing the coldness.

It is a cyan dragon, a real dragon, a seven-star star, and it is completely a rank with the Phoenix.

Huh!

The roaring dragon roared, his body soared into the sky, and the waves broke, and endless water and gas gathered from the sea surface, condensing into a cloud and surrounding the claws of the dragon.

Clouds from the dragon, winds from the tiger, this cricket dragon leapt forward, hovering not far in front of Qin Tiange, the dragon's eyes revealed a fierce light.

“Phoenix?” Qing Yan said, sounding like a bell, shaking the sea.

However, Qing Yan growled, “Why do I feel the human flavor that I hate?”

It was very angry. From the strange phoenix in front of it, it felt the breath belonging to Qin Tiange, and it was its enemy.

The human had let it hate the bone marrow, and the two encounters did not resolve the other person, let him run away.

The first time was in the river, and met Qin Tiange, who had just left the town by train, and was run away by the latter.

The second time in Xiangjiang, was approaching the puppet stage. After seeing Qin Tiange, he was hunted down directly, but was bombed by electromagnetic energy cannons and ran away.

This made Qing Yan's heart hate Qin Tiange's heart. Now, inexplicably, he felt the breath belonging to Qin Tiange and immediately rushed out of the deep sea.

The result was surprised to see a phoenix, but the breath on him was very familiar, that is, the breath on Qin Tiange, immediately surprised and roared.

"Well, have you succeeded?" Qin Tiange was surprised. The green cricket in front of him naturally knew him, and it was the green scale demon python that evolved.

Unexpectedly, this monster python has evolved so fast in the sea. Want to come, there are many mutant creatures in the ocean that are enough for it to evolve into a dragon.

In addition, the ocean is rich in resources, and there are countless more spiritual materials than on land. It is not unusual for the blue-scale demon python to successfully and quickly transform into the sea after entering the sea.

"Say, do you have anything to do with that human being?" Qingyu roared, dragon claws simmered, and the cloud of transpiration seemed to be extremely powerful.

A blue dragon was blocking the way, but Qin Tiange was watching it with interest, but thinking in his heart * the dragon?

cry...

At this moment, a distant phoenix came from the distance, which aroused the vigilance of the green pheasant. The dragon head suddenly turned over and saw a rush of fire.

In a blink of an eye, a fire phoenix appeared in the sky not far away, and he took a look at Qin Tiange and then stared at the barley.

"Qing Ye, you are not in the sea, what do you run out of?"

Fire Phoenix's eyes flickered with murder, and he spoke clearly, but the result was that the qing dynasty was angry, the head of the dragon was awe-inspiring, and his mouth was horrifying.

Its lantern-like eyes stared at the phoenix, humming: "It's your phoenix again, it seems you are a pair."

Qing Yan felt the power from Fire Phoenix, and it was a level. She had played against it several times, regardless of the outcome.

It originally stopped Qin Tiange, but now it has another fire phoenix, and even if it is arrogant and arrogant, it will not dare to act arrogantly.

One can handle it easily, but the two phoenixes are a bit difficult to handle, or they may be slaughtered at sea.

Moreover, the most important thing is that the phoenix formed by Qin Tiange is burning with a chaotic flame of flames, with a violent atmosphere and the power of destruction.

This power made Qingyu very daunting, and he dared not move for a while.

“Phoenix, join forces to kill this barnyard.” Suddenly, Qin Tiange began to invite Phoenix to jointly kill this barley.

As soon as this word came out, no matter whether it was the green pheasant or the fire phoenix, they were stunned, especially the green pheasant, with a chill in his heart, and his blue scale armor was erected.

Huohuang took a sigh of relief, then nodded and promised: “Okay, I happen to have this meaning, kill it.”

The hot-tempered fire phoenix directly agreed, and even the whole body of the phoenix fire rolled, and launched a violent attack directly on the green pheasant.

The two have known each other, and have had many contests, they are evenly divided. Now that there is more Qin Tiange, the victory is naturally tilted.

cry...!

A pair of phoenixes shouted, and the dragons roared. The three strong men were fighting over the sea. Two godly fires swarmed the sky, a chaotic flame, an orange-red * fire, and rushed to the green lotus.

Hmm ... Qingyan was roaring, and was very angry. She was besieged by two powerful phoenixes, especially the eccentric phoenix with a gray body, which threatened it the most.

Bang!

Qing Yan opened her mouth and sprayed a black liquid, revealing the endless corrosive force, as if a kind of stagnant river water, drowning the sky with the breath of death.

Water and fire were incompatible, and they collided instantly, bursting out a force of terror, setting off a sea of horrible waves.

Bang ...

Chaos flame broke through the black stagnant water, and directly ignited several scale armors on the green urn. It burned to the ground on the spot, the flesh was defeated, and looked miserable.

The green urn roared, the sky shook, and the clouds gathered in the sky, holding the green urn leaping into the air and flying away.

Its speed is very fast, and it ran directly. Moreover, Yun Conglong, the speed of this green cricket was close to the speed of sound, but it was really much worse than Qin Tiange.

“Want to run?” Qin Tiange drank, fluttered his wings, flickered into light and shadow, disappeared, and appeared again in front of Qing Yan, and opened his mouth with a chaotic flame.

With a bang, the green pimple rolled, screaming in anger, and a spout of standing water blocked the terrible and violent chaotic flame.

The result is self-evident, the standing water was burned clean, and the blue eyes looked at him and was covered by chaos flames around the body. There was a phoenix * fire spouting from the phoenix behind.

Pinching back and forth, Qing Yan was in danger, and the next moment was to be killed by Huang Quan.

Huh!

“You wait!”

With a scream of anger, the dragon’s head suddenly rushed into the sea, plunging into the deep sea, setting off a wave of waves dozens of feet high.

When the dragon enters the sea, Qin Tiange sighs. After all, as a phoenix, he is not familiar with water, and the phoenix that is a fire is instinctive to water.

It is unwise to see Chen Long rushing into the deep sea, but it is the home of Chen Long. Once he enters the deep sea, it is bound to be suppressed.

cry!

The fire phoenix yelled, a mouthful of spit fire spewed out, and the flames boiled the sea, spreading out on the sea surface, evaporating the seawater several meters deep below.

Immediately afterwards, Qin Tiange opened his mouth and chaotic flames whistled away, tumbling down and rushing down, even breaking open the seawater and rushing into the deep sea, scared the green pheasant into the deeper area quickly.

The terrible chaos flames swept up, combined with the Phoenix Fire, and continuously burned in the sea, boiled this area directly, the sea water boiled and evaporated, and the water vapor continued to flow up, turning into clouds and mists. The scene was extremely appalling. .

This is simply burning the mountains and burning the sea!

The two flames burned out in the sea for a while and then went out, but the flames on the sea burned for an hour before they extinguished. This area of the sea was cooked and thirsty for 20 meters, and was soon caught by the surrounding seawater. Give the padding back.

Looking at the fire phoenix still under anger, Qin Tiange secretly squeezed a sweat, he whispered in his heart: “Are all phoenixes this hot temper?”

No way, the Phoenix is a fire. It is normal to be violent in character. It will ignite at every turn. It is a common fire to open the mouth.

“Hahahaha, do you have the ability to chase it down?”

In the depths of the sea, the barnyard is in the deep sea, staring at Qin Tiange and Fire Phoenix through the endless water, splitting the cage and spreading this ironic word.

As soon as this remark came out, Qin Tiange was nothing, but the Phoenix did not follow.

“Asshole, thought you could run away into the sea?” Fire Phoenix was so angry that she swooped her wings and dived into the depths of the sea.

Watching the fierce phoenix about to enter the deep sea, Qin Tiange shamed, fluttering his wings directly, blocking the submerged phoenix from letting her into the sea.

He couldn't help crying and persuaded: “Forget it, after all, the sea is the home of the dragon, and we will be suppressed unless we grow up to a ten-star level and go to heaven. Then, we will not be affected and suppressed by external factors.”

“Well, I listen to you.” Fire Phoenix's anger dissipated and suddenly changed, Jiao Didi's head bowed down without hesitation.

This change made Qin Tiange a little uncomfortable, and it took a long time to calm down, and there was an inexplicable shame in her heart.

“How can a temper change faster than flipping a book?” Qin Tiange muttered secretly, then fluttered his wings and climbed high.

The fire phoenix flew at the same time and followed him closely, looking at this weird phoenix of the same kind from time to time the more I looked at the god.

“Uh, did this fire phoenix look after me?” Qin Tiange felt the burning eyes of the other side, and was shocked in his heart.

He was taken aback by his own idea, his instinctual flutter speeded up, and he disappeared after a moment's stun, causing the phoenix to be confused.

“Hey, wait for me.” Huohuang screamed in dismay, shaking her wings, and chasing after boundless flames.

Soon, the two disappeared here. In the sea, a barn with a thickness of five meters slowly floated to the surface, raised its head, and looked at the leaving Qin Tiange and Fire Phoenix.

“Two * phoenixes have hurt my king. After the king has absorbed that dragon ball, the dragon will be your death.”

The green snarling roared, shaking the sea, and countless creatures turned and fled, shivering. On its body, there was a large scorched scale armor and flesh, all burned by Qin Tiange's chaotic flame, which was very scary.

“Uh ...” Qing Yan roared in the sky, turned around and dived into the deep sea, no longer appearing.

Chapter 394 - Fire Phoenix deliberate, God Phoenix is ruthless

In the distance, a gray shadow flashed across, creating a scorching air wave, sound bursts, like a thunder rolling away.

“Wait for me...”

At the back, there was a scream of desperate anger, and the phoenix persevered to catch up.

She was very angry and swept across the sky with flames, but it was far worse than Qin Tiange’s speed.

Qin Tiange incarnates the Shenfeng, speeding a lot faster than the speed of sound, naturally much faster than her, and gradually widened the distance.

“Hey ... wait for me ...” Fire Phoenix screamed, making Qin Tiange faster, his wings trembling, and he ran fast.

He was ashamed, and chased by a fire phoenix was really speechless, and he felt a little weird in an awkward mind.

A phoenix turned out to be interesting to him? Just thinking about it, Qin Tiange felt cold all over, running faster, and disappeared into the sight of Fire Phoenix in the blink of an eye.

“Asshole, asshole, asshole!”

Watching Qin Tiange disappear, the fire phoenix is extremely angry, his mouth is open and his voice is long, and his body is full of flames.

She opened her mouth and blew a blaze of flames, covering a mountain range below. The phoenix was so fierce that the mountain was incinerated in the blink of an eye.

Just cooking the sea together, now the fire phoenix burned a mountain, but imagine how angry she was at the moment.

“Ah ... aunt, don’t burn it, don’t burn it again.”

Suddenly, a golden light came out under the mountains, screaming screaming, and rushing out of the mountains, the golden scale armor shone and white smoke erupted.

It was a pangolin. It had been resting well in the rocks of the mountain, but suddenly a phoenix fire fell from the sky and directly burned the mountain. It was almost cooked.

“Oh my god, grandma, how can I provoke you?”

The golden pangolin cried without tears, looking at the mountains that had been burned to ashes, the home was completely burned out, and it was almost buried in flames.

Fortunately, it was smart enough, and it was wrong to run out of the ground immediately, and it was not burned to ashes.

When I looked out, I found out that it was an angry phoenix that was spitting fire around in anger, burning this and then the other, and it was frightened.

“Cry ... I’ll bake you again.” The phoenix’s fierce long chanting, a pair of eyes filled with rage, scared the pangolin to curl into a ball, and did not dare to say a word.

It is a wild pangolin, which was washed away by dark energy after the end of the day. As a result, gene transmutation occurred. The golden scale armor was extremely amazing, and it could stop the phoenix  fire from burning and not die.

Ordinary creatures were burned by the phoenix  fire and absolutely turned into flying ash, but this golden pangolin pangolin did not die, and it has to be said that it was a little strange.

“Hum ... am I so ugly?”

Huohuang muttered with shame and indignation, and she was very angry. She was naturally attracted by Qin Tiange’s transformation into an ancient  phoenix, and the look of the  can naturally attract her.

Unfortunately, Fire Phoenix is intentional, and Shen Feng is ruthless!

“Suddenly disapprove me, you think I can’t find you anymore?” Huohuang was still indignant, looking at Qin Tiange’s direction of leaving thinking.

She turned her eyes around and said proudly: “Well, that base must have something to do with you. I’ll live there and see if you come out?”

As she turned and fluttered, she soared for nine days, and disappeared into the distance with a cloud of fire.

At this point, the pangolins curled up on the ground finally extended their heads carefully, and finally breathed a sigh of relief when they saw the fire phoenix leaving.

It leaped on a large rock, looked golden and bright under the sun, and was full of scale armor, extremely amazing.

“This aunt is very temperamental, she must have lost love, and pity my family.” The pangolin muttered, watching Dashan burned to ashes with tears.

Its home was burned by a fire of Phoenix. When the real disaster descended from the sky, the pangolin realized that it was not safe to hide in the mountain.

“No, I have to move quickly, lest I meet another grumpy guy, that would be awful.” Pangolin’s eyes twitched, and he immediately decided to move.

It thought for a moment, his eyes flashed, and he rejoiced, “Oh, I saw that there was an old ginseng extract in that place, so I moved it. If I could eat this old ginseng extract, I would definitely be able to do it again. Advanced. “

After that, the pangolin slipped into the ground and disappeared directly.

Shenzhen City Base, since the fire phoenix was repelled, people are still immersed in the scene of the fire phoenix, Kirin’s shocking scene.

At first, Fire Phoenix broke into the base suddenly, and then a huge Mo Qilin burst out of the base. The scene really shocked the world.

Many people still talked enthusiastically after dinner, and many people were even guessing the identity and origin of the unicorn.

Moreover, in the end, Kirin changed into Qin Tiange's appearance, and they could not see it, because it was above the sky, and the phoenix fire covered the sky, which blocked the scene of Qin Tiange's change. Of course, many people guessed.

cry...

Over the base, a long phoenix came suddenly, and many people looked up instinctively, and saw a phoenix swiftly across the sky and landed on the top of the lotus mountain.

"Dare you come?"

On Lianhua Mountain, Suzaku stared at his eyes, his hair was erected, and he watched the fire phoenix suddenly approaching, but he did not dare to come.

Fire Phoenix took a glance at Suzaku and didn't care, but explained: "I didn't come here for the two of you, but live here in the future."

"What?" Suzaku was dumbfounded, just like a parrot coming from afar.

At this moment, the parrot has recovered a bright feather, colorful, looking extremely colorful, but was stunned by the words of the fire phoenix.

Oh my god, does she live here?

"No!" Suzaku objected directly, the anger came up, and there was a raging flame, and he was about to attack.

Fire Phoenix wants to live here, but she touched her taboo and immediately started to work, even if she knew that Fire Phoenix was strong, she still had to fight.

"Stop, I don't share your general knowledge. You and your fat chicken hurried down the mountain. This mountain will be my future residence." The fire phoenix dropped a sentence, burning fire, warning Suzaku and parrot.

"Suzaku, calm down, let's go down the mountain first and wait for the boss to come back before making a decision."

The macaw was a bit trembling, and there was a little fear of the fire phoenix, because the previous time he was severely stung by the other party, and then he was punished by plucking Suzaku.

It just wanted to leave quickly and stay away from this fire phoenix, even afraid that Suzaku was angry with him because of the arrival of fire phoenix, and it was finished by pulling out its feathers.

Huh!

Watching Suzaku and the parrot retreating, Huohuang hummed dissatisfied, and looked down proudly at the entire Lianhua Mountain, and soon found the flowers, trees and fairies on the Lianhua Mountain.

Huh?

Fire Phoenix was surprised, and observed it secretly, and soon sensed that these fairies seemed to be drawing what mysterious power was transforming themselves.

She was thinking about going over and found a strong lock. The base's electromagnetic energy cannon had locked her.

“Asshole, isn't your place here? Wouldn't it be good if you stayed with me?”

Fire Phoenix was furious and felt the thick threat of death. She immediately screamed and looked very angry, with an inexplicable anger.

In her opinion, this is Qin Tiange's territory. He said so at the beginning, but now he doesn't want to live with her, and even wants to lock her with some dangerous weapon. It is a pride that broke her heart. .

In fact, what locked her in was her own artificial intelligence, that is, she mobilized the electromagnetic energy cannon and aimed at this sudden phoenix.

“Why does this Phoenix come here?”

In the underground base, I looked at the virtual light curtain, showing the phoenix on the top of Lotus Hill, thinking about this question secretly.

Soon, a small drone flew from the top of the Lotus Hill, hovering in front of the Phoenix, and then a light curtain projected, showing up.

Qin Tiange was absent, and she had to stabilize this seven-star fire phoenix to show up directly.

“Living here is ok, but it is best not to hurt people, not even the flowers and trees and everything here. You can live at these points. No, then I will ask you to leave.”

Hu Jin's indifferent words made Huohuang a little stunned, looking at this virtual figure, feeling unreal and strange.

But she nodded and said, “I just want to live here and wait for that * to come back. It won't hurt everything here.”

“That's good.” I nodded, the light and shadow disappeared, and the drone quickly returned.

Seeing her leaving, Huohuang suddenly loosened, feeling that the lock had disappeared, and she was really assured.

She was secretly surprised, and there was something else that could make her feel dangerous, and the death threat she didn't want to feel anymore.

In the base, there are still many secret weapons that can kill this seven-star phoenix, not just the killer of electromagnetic energy cannon.

Don't forget, I have dismantled nearly a hundred engineering robots, and the self-destruction program inside is a super-concentrated, pollution-free nuclear bomb.

This thing, two are enough to kill this phoenix, so I have made a threat without fear.

In this way, there was an additional fire phoenix in the base, and she lived quietly on the top of Lotus Hill. When she was hungry, she went out to hunt for food. When she was sleepy, she slept on the top of the mountain.

Qin Tiange didn't know yet, after the fire phoenix could not catch up with him, he turned around and ran to his base.

At this moment, Qin Tiange was coming to the place where he originally entered the mysterious realm of the gods, and saw the white tiger still guarding it.

Roar...

In the valley A white snow tiger screaming and roaring loudly, issuing a strong warning at the phoenix flying in the sky.

"Xiaobai, don't come here?"

In the sky, the * Phoenix was naturally Qin Tiange. Seeing Bai Hu still guarding here, he was somewhat moved.

He flashed the light directly, and then he met the person and fell in front of Bai Hu, making this white tiger dumbfounded.

"Master, master ... master?" Bai Hu said crisply, his voice was a little naive.

However, Bai Hu was very excited at this moment, because Qin Tiange appeared, the guard was here, waiting for Qin Tiange to die out, but he did not see it, but he saw it now, so he was a little excited.

"Tough work for you, Xiaobai, this oyster is for you!"

Qin Tiange sighed, touched Xiaobai's big head, and then took out a bead, which was a tiger's bead, and threw it directly to Xiaobai.

Chapter 395 - Dark energy, 2 evolutions

White Tiger, who has been guarding here, never left, and never left the valley except to hunt for food.

Seeing the White Tiger again, Qin Tiange felt so emotional that Bai Hu first ate a tiger's bead, digested it in the valley, and was ready to be promoted to a six-star rating.

White Tiger's main killer, now entering the five-star, the gene in the body is getting stronger and stronger, there is a dignity of the white tiger, the majesty of the power, Qin Tiange's strength is surprised.

Howl ... The white tiger lies on its back, absorbing the power of Zhu Zhu, and constantly transforming itself. Today, the white tiger has the genetic power in its body, reaching a level of horror of 500 people.

And this level is still improving. A five-star star with five hundred people is absolutely terrible existence. Of course, if the white tiger really awakens the ancient genetic power of the holy beast white tiger, it is likely to be more powerful.

Dark energy is getting more and more intense ... "Qin Tiange looked at the sky, and suddenly felt an inexplicable force washing on the earth, and a new energy permeated the air, and invasion into the body.

This energy, which is the dark energy from the dark side of the universe, is getting richer and denser, causing the earth's organisms to enter the second evolution.

The so-called second evolution is that it has already evolved, but due to insufficient dark energy, genetic defects will be made up one by one.

At that time, it is possible that many powerful mutant creatures will be born. For example, the strength of the mutant creature will be doubled when the level of the mutant creature is unchanged. Although humans can also gain a little benefit in the second wave of biological evolution, they are not as good as those mutants. Creatures are still a lot weaker.

“As the dark energy becomes more and more intense, no matter the defects of genes and power of human beings or other organisms are made up, the power that can burst out becomes more powerful.” Qin Tiange thought about this question secretly.

Nowadays, the dark energy on the earth has become more and more intense, and a strange energy breath can be almost smelled in the air.

Many creatures have evolved faster and more powerfully in such an environment. For example, those three-star creatures that have evolved imperfectly and have weak power.

However, as the earth's dark energy continues to increase and the concentration becomes higher and higher, the energy amplitude obtained by the evolution of various organisms has greatly increased, leading to the compensation of biological defects and greater strength.

Like the Phoenix, seven stars, but because it is the earliest evolved group of creatures, the innate ability seems to be high level, but it is extremely empty inside.

If the dark energy concentration is higher, high-level creatures such as Phoenix will become more and more terrible, accumulating more dark energy intentionally or unintentionally, and making up for the shortcomings of evolution, which will immediately cause a horrible ascension.

In previous lives, in the first year of the last days, humans could barely catch up with the speed of evolution of various organisms, and even once suppressed those mutant organisms.

But in the end, all kinds of mutant creatures suddenly became violent and unmatched, and their strength soared, causing humans to be much weaker. That was the second evolution of creatures, which made up for the shortcomings of their rapid evolution before, but the emptiness inside.

Everything is caused by the existence of dark energy. The dark energy concentration in the earth's air is gradually increasing, and the future is the vast stage where all kinds of strong men rise up.

Qin Tiange thought quietly and murmured: “At present, my strength looks very strong, and it is pressing against the current seven-star mutant creatures. In fact, these are the results of various biological details that have not been completely made up. , It's not so easy to come. “

He naturally realized this, so at present Qin Tiange looks very strong, but in fact it is not strong. The dark energy of the earth is getting richer, and the creatures have evolved a second time. After making up for the shortcomings in their respective backgrounds, they will skyrocket immediately. At that time, maybe five stars Level creatures have the ability to overpower him.

The various creatures of the earth are about to usher in the second evolution, including human beings, and they will gain great benefits in the second evolution. At that time, it will be an era of great evolution and explosion.

“Yes, I don’t know what happened to the ice silkworm?”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange reacted. When he was nirvana, there was an ice silkworm. At that time, he didn’t care. Now, in retrospect, will the nirvana’s sacred fire burn down the nine-variable ice silkworm?

Thinking, he touched the top of his head directly, and found the cocoon ice silkworm in a handful of hair behind the earlobe.

Taking it off gently, Qin Tiange placed it on the palm of his hand, and observed carefully that the ice silkworm had not changed much, and he felt relieved.

“Fortunately, this ice silkworm is okay, otherwise the loss will really be great.” Qin Tiange shook his head with a bitter smile, even forgetting that there was an ice silkworm on his head.

Fortunately, this ice silkworm has not been burned to death. In fact, this is the function of his instinctual subconscious. When Nirvana has a subconscious mind, it will not harm the ice silkworm, so that the destiny fire has the initiative to not harm the ice silkworm.

This is the reason why the ice silkworm survived. Moreover, the ice silkworm followed all the nirvana of Qin Tiange, which is equivalent to going through a magical nirvana.

Zitz ...

Above the ice silk cocoon, suddenly a little cold air was hurt, and gradually turned into a stream of crystal clear ice crystals, continually coagulated and then coagulated.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange was amazed, looked at the ice silkworm, and found that a peculiar air of flames appeared on the surface of the cocoon, like a pure ice flame.

Yes, this is a kind of ice flame. An ice silkworm has undergone a weird change. Since following Nirvana with Qin Tiange, it has been inexplicably transformed.

First of all, the most obvious is that on the silkworm cocoon of the ice silk, there are strange patterns, interwoven and spread, much like Qin Tiange Nirvana.

Is it possible, what did this ice silkworm realize after experiencing a Nirvana? Nine-variable ice silkworm, every life and death change, actually has the same points as the Phoenix Nirvana.

“Is Bing Yan, is it because of the influence of my chaotic flame, so that the ice silkworm has some kind of strange change in Nirvana?” Qin Tiange had to guess secretly.

At this time, the ice silkworm cocoons boiled with strands of ice flames and continued to burn, and the surrounding temperature dropped to the freezing point and frozen into ice crystals directly.

A little bit of ice crystals spilled, and then more ice crystals emerged. The strange thing was that the strands of ice flames were gradually growing, getting stronger and stronger, and rising three inches high.

The ice silkworm is very small, but it can spew three inches of ice flames, revealing a breath of frozen heaven and earth, and burning all things, it really surprised him.

Hiss ...

The ice flames boiled and bursts of burning sounds were heard, but instead of melting, they froze, freezing everything, and finally dispersed into ice crystal powder.

Qin Tiange was shocked, watching his palms frozen into ice crystals, but he didn't feel any harm. Perhaps the instinct of the ice silkworm would not hurt him.

“Strange thing, I don't know if this change is good or bad?” Qin Tiange couldn't help worrying.

Bing silkworm and Nirvana experienced Nirvana together, leading to an irreversible mutation, which caused this appearance. I don't know if it is good or bad.

For the time being, the ice silkworm is in good condition. A larva in the cocoon is growing rapidly, emitting an increasingly intense ice flame.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange knew that the ice silkworm was still undergoing metamorphosis. This time, life and death were a bit long, and he didn't know when he would wake up to complete metamorphosis and regenerate.

“Forget it, you should transform and fight for cocoon rebirth.” Qin Tiange sighed secretly, poured a little liquid of life into the cocoon, and carefully put it back in place, hiding in the hair.

Strange to say, after being put into the hair, the silk cocoon autonomously stuck to his hair, and even the boiling ice flame went out and hid.

“It should be a good thing.” Qin Tiange nodded, smiling.

As long as the ice silkworm is okay, the next step is to wait for Bai Hu to succeed, and then leave here.

Rumble ...

Suddenly, a roar came from heaven and earth, and the whole earth trembled as if being impacted by some force.

The earth trembled lightly, flowers and trees trembled, making joyful sounds, countless creatures roared and roared in the sky, and the scene was shaking.

Qin Tiange turned wild, looked up, and saw that the sun was obscured. The endless torrent of black pressure swept from the dark side of the universe and washed away.

“Dark energy tide, the era of the second evolution is ahead of time?” Qin Tiange was shocked, looking at the black tide that came from the dark side of the cosmic void. It was dark energy.

The earth is wrapped in a thicker dark energy and is constantly washed away, and the entire earth has undergone a strange transformation.

This is the second evolution. Qin Tiange was shocked that the time of the second evolution was earlier than before.

He suddenly realized that this life can no longer be measured by the things of the previous life, because his appearance has caused the whole world to quietly change.

“Second evolution is ahead, it seems that my appearance has broken a certain taboo.” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, staring into the void, the endless dark energy tide poured into the earth, the sky, the earth, the ocean, all corners were dark Energy scours erosion.

Whether it is flowers and trees, or various creatures, or human beings, at this moment, they have obtained a mysterious secondary evolution. The dark energy scrub has made up for the defects in their lives.

“This opportunity is too precious to miss.”

Abandoning all thoughts, Qin Tiange held his halberd in both hands and began the practice of mysterious body technique. Starting from the first form, he immediately fell into the valley and practiced.

I saw that strands of mysterious energy came from all around and were sucked into the body by the mystic body technique, constantly replenishing the defects of the genes, and improving their own background.

At this moment, the earth's creatures ushered in the second great evolution, all human beings feel that they have become different, and even some powerful people have also gained huge improvements from it.

One star originally had more than a dozen people. At this moment, it suddenly doubled, and even several times. Various plants frantically absorbed dark energy.

Various mutant creatures growled at the sky, roared excitedly, and lie on their stomachs, drawing on the huge dark energy that swept up this time, to strengthen themselves.

Gene transformation and the second evolutionary wave have begun. In the future, the earth will enter a vast era of high-speed evolution, with countless masters and countless tyrannical creatures emerging endlessly.

The time passed little by little. After three days, as the energy tide weakened, many creatures changed dramatically.

Roar...

At this moment, a terrible tiger howl came from the valley, the mountains shook, the flowers and trees shook.

Clouds from the dragon, winds from the tiger, and the whole valley instantly hurled a huge typhoon, rolling some flowers, trees, and even stones up into the sky, and throwing them far away.

A strange wind emerged out of thin air, awakened Qin Tiange's practice, looked up, and found that a strong black wind was exuding from the white tiger.

Chapter 396 - Wind and clouds, fate has changed

The sky was black, flowers and trees swept across the valley, boulder rolling, the scene was extremely scary and scary.

It was a wicked spirit, extremely powerful, and even revealed a fierce killing breath, White Tiger successfully advanced.

"Six stars, the power of 1,500 people, very good!" Qin Tiange was surprised, watching Bai Hu successfully step into the six stars, completely transformed into a monster, the second evolution has greatly improved it. With a force of 1,500 people, he is far more than he is now.

Moreover, as long as the white tiger enters the seven-star level, the demon qi in the body will immediately transform, turning into the nutrients of the white tiger's genetic blood, and awakening belong to the white tiger's true ability.

Roar!

Bai Hu roared excitedly, the ground shook, the wind swept through, the ancient trees were broken, and the boulders were lifted into the air.

It was so excited that it flew in front of Qin Tiange, and his huge head was arching, very happy.

"Okay, Xiaobai, since you have successfully advanced, then we should go." Qin Tiange smiled, patted the white tiger's head, and jumped onto the white tiger's back.

Suddenly, the white tiger screamed, leaping arrogantly and arrogantly, faster, as if driving a demon wind, rumblingly rolling over the forest, blowing off numerous flowers and trees along the way.

In the second evolution, not only the white tiger has gained promotion, but Qin Tiange himself has also gained the promotion. Although the strength has never been improved even a little, the background and some genetic defects have been made up one by one.

For the time being, Qin Tiange's explosive power to reach the limit of one thousand people is one of two hundred people, which is a great improvement.

In addition, the gene is more perfect, and the physical potential is extremely deep. Waiting for the next advanced star to break through, that is the biggest gain.

Coming out of the valley, along the way, Qin Tiange saw a lot of creatures involved in evolution, flowers and trees began to become more refined, and various poisonous insects and beasts began to mutate.

This is the era of great evolution.

If Qin Tiange were to face the Phoenix or Green Dragon again now, it might not be the scene of defeating them before, but it would be suppressed in turn.

“The power of a thousand people is too weak and must be promoted.” Riding a white tiger, Qin Tiange thought secretly that his current strength was being pulled away.

The second evolution of the earth’s creatures is coming in advance. Dark energy floods every corner of the earth, and all creatures are madly drawing dark energy to evolve themselves.

The next is the period of big blowout of biological power. Before, my power of a thousand people looked extremely powerful and pressed seven-star creatures. Now it seems that it is not enough.

Even some five-star creatures can beat him now. They must step up their evolution, improve their level, and increase their strength, or they will be eliminated.

Moreover, not only various organisms have been improved, but also human beings have also been improved. After the genes are made up, they will emerge from endless masters.

Qin Tiange felt the pressure, the pressure that came from the background of the times, and the pressure that came from beyond the control and expectations of the unknown.

Of course, there is pressure to be motivated. Qin Tiange is not afraid of the changes of the times, nor is he afraid of unknown areas. Instead, he feels that this is normal.

Huh!

In the mountain forest ahead, a giant wolf screamed in the sky, its huge body and feet were three meters high, its fangs, and its powerful breath were enough to prove its strength.

The four-star jungle giant wolf has the power of eight hundred people. This is the breath that Qin Tiange clearly sensed. The giant wolf is even more terrifying after the second evolution.

This is not a myth, but the mysterious energy of the dark side of the universe, which causes the creature to enter the second great evolution, transforming itself, making up for the emptiness and defects of the past, and truly showing the brutality and terribleness of the doomed beast.

“The previous life is the previous life, this life is this life, I will not be able to see this life in the eyes of the past life.” Qin Tiange looked at the jungle giant wolf and whispered to himself.

Then, the white tiger roared fiercely, driving away the demon wind and sweeping away, and immediately suppressed the jungle giant wolf and bit the opponent’s throat.

Whoosh ... the wolf howled, and before waking up from the joy of his promotion, he was bitten by the white tiger and his life was completely ended.

Qin Tiange put away the body of the giant wolf, looking cautiously, and urged the white tiger to quickly leave the old forest in the mountains and head for Guangcheng.

He needs to advance, otherwise, let alone now, it will be difficult to fight against these powerful creatures that have actually completed the second evolution.

Soon, as White Tiger rushed out of the forest and into the city, he saw a zombie that had become even more brutal and terrible.

These zombies have also obtained a second evolution. Of course, that is an alternative evolution, because they are all zombies that have been mutated by the first failure of human evolution.

After the second evolution, the zombies became more powerful and horrible, their strength almost doubled, and even some powerful zombies also doubled.

Regardless of humans, zombies, creatures, and plants have benefited from this second evolutionary force, many people have evolved in their deep sleep, so their power has skyrocketed and their strength has been inexplicably increased.

In fact, it is the role of dark energy. As the creatures complete the second evolution, the human situation is getting more and more difficult, because after all, humans have evolved a little slower.

Although it is said that there is an inheritance stele, after all, the far water cannot save the near fire. Many bases and forces are firmly in control of the heritage stele, and ordinary people don't even want to approach it.

Unless it is a temporary heritage stone that appears from time to time, good luck can be encountered, you can redeem something, and bad luck will have nothing.

Roar!

On the streets, zombies roared, filled with violent will to kill. One-star zombies have become rare, most of them are two-star zombies, three-star zombies are fast becoming mainstream, the number of powerful four-star zombies is increasing, and five-star super zombies are even more numerous.

For now, five-star super zombies are no longer leaders of zombies, but are led by more advanced six-star or even seven-star zombies.

boom!

In the street ahead, there was a white shadow flashing, and several zombie bodies were blown up and scattered, only to find that it was a white tiger, carrying a young man.

The person who came was Qin Tiange. He was constantly searching for zombies in the city to see how zombies evolved after the second evolution. He was very powerful.

“After the second evolution, the evolution of organisms has basically entered a plateau, and the speed will slow down countless times, and even some creatures will not be able to break through the bottleneck and enter a higher level.”

Qin Tiange murmured to himself as he watched the dead zombies. Two three-star and two two-star were both upgraded after the second evolution and became more terrible.

Two-star zombies can have the strength of more than a dozen people, and three-star zombies can have at least 30 people.

He knows that after the second evolution of the creature, the evolution speed will be slower, and the potentially powerful creature can advance to a higher level by virtue of its own heritage or luck.

Just like human beings, people with great potential, or people with good luck, can obtain great benefits in this second evolutionary force, so as to accumulate sufficient foundation for promotion.

These people are a large number of strong men who rose in the early days of the doomsday. Many of them fell midway, and many of them sang along all the way and reached the king level.

Qin Tiange felt that this world is far more exciting than previous life, and there will be more masters, because he has found many masters who have not heard of previous lives.

This is a big time with strong winds and strong people. It takes a lot of luck and perseverance. If you want to live and live better, you must have a powerful and frightening strength.

Qin Tiange does not lack luck, otherwise he will not be reborn, let alone lack of perseverance and determination, or he will not build a huge base.

What he lacks is a time. As long as the time is sufficient, he may not be able to overpower all the masters and become the first person in the end, even the strongest under the stars.

Qin Tiange rode a white tiger and rushed towards the base of Guangcheng. He had been pondering a problem on the road.

“Even the second evolution has advanced, so will the disasters such as the second calamity, the third calamity, the fourth calamity, and so on, be advanced?”

This is a question he must seriously consider now. Since the second evolution has been advanced, other major events will not make sense and will not change.

The gear of destiny has been pushed and changed, this world will be a different world.

Chapter 397 - 0 million dead tide, besieging Guangcheng

Outside the Guangcheng base, dense crowds of corpses surged and gathered to attack the base insanelly.

Roar!

The corpses roared, rushing like a tide, attacking the base of Guangcheng. This tide of corpse suddenly appeared yesterday, as if there was a premeditated, planned attack.

Three days ago, due to the explosion of dark energy on the dark side of the universe, zombie and mutant creatures were all acquired secondary mutations, which caused a huge impact.

The biggest impact is that zombies are more powerful, and in groups, they have formed an unprecedented scale and directly attacked human settlements.

Maybe it was hunting instinct, or maybe there were some zombies premeditated. In short, Guangcheng ushered in the first siege of corpses.

“The corpse tide?”

Outside the base, Qin Tiange rode a white tiger to the top of a building and looked towards the direction of the base of Guangcheng, where it was surrounded by dense corpses.

He looked dignified, watching the huge number of zombies continue to come, and even formed an unprecedentedly large group of zombies.

These are all zombies that have experienced secondary evolution. Each zombies is extremely terrible and more powerful than before.

Although human beings have gained a lot of benefits under this tide of dark energy, many people have improved their strengths, but they are still a little overwhelmed in the face of zombies.

“Guangcheng is in trouble.” Qin Tiange looked at the surrounded Guangcheng, knowing that this time the Guangcheng base was in trouble, and it was still the biggest crisis.

How many zombies are there outside the city? From here, the crowds of corpses are surging, and the number is roughly estimated to be more than five million.

Five million zombies, what kind of scene is it?

These zombies piled up the corpse wall, and a huge corpse wall was laid directly on the wall of Guangcheng Base.

“Stop it, stop it from me!”

On the walls of the base, an army fought desperately, slashing the zombies that had rushed up, weapons and cannons roared, and tanks all opened up to the walls and bombarded the huge corpses.

However, there were too many zombies, and even more terrible after completing the second evolution, the defensive forces on the city wall were suddenly broken.

“Company commander, the bullets are gone.”

At this point, in the second defensive position of the city wall, a company of soldiers used hot weapons to suppress those rushing zombies, but the bullets were quickly consumed.

This battle has been going on for a whole day. Outside the city, there are many corpses stacked in the city. Zombies and humans were attacked by the zombies several times. Still, countless soldiers persevered and killed the corpses and persisted. .

Seeing that the bullet was gone, the young company commander stood up and pulled out the sword behind him.

“Er Brothers, we are soldiers. Since we are soldiers, then we must be a soldier who is not afraid of death. The war has come, and we cannot be soldiers. Who will?”

“Get the bayonet and kill me!”

The company commander roared, wielded a sword and took the lead in killing, slaying the zombies, and leading the soldiers, and told all the soldiers directly that since he is a soldier, he must be a soldier who is not afraid of death.

As soldiers, when the nation is in trouble, and when the nation is alive or dead, who will they not attend? Do you expect those who call on me to be patriotic all day, but only know every day that they are abusing the country and the soldiers?

“kill!”

A company of soldiers carried a sword and yelled and rushed up to kill. The soldier with the sword pulled out the sword, and replaced it with a bayonet without a sword.

A fierce hand-to-hand battle was staged, flesh and blood, corpses raging, accompanied by a roar and shouts, and deafening.

Guangcheng was filled with smoke, blood and blood stained the walls, and corpses piled up like mountains. This was another battle between humans and zombies.

“Yiji, is there a drone in the direction of Guangcheng?”

At this time, Qin Tiange was directly connected to his self, looking serious, staring at the currently precarious Guangcheng base, feeling a little heavy.

This is a situation that has not happened in the previous life. The power of the Guangcheng Military District in the previous life is obvious to all. It even surpassed the beginning of the last day, and then recovered the fallen corpses.

However, depending on the situation, it seems that Guangcheng may fall. This is due to Qin Tiange’s vigilance and attention.

“Master, the drone is no longer a wide city, but it can be mobilized from the direction of Guancheng.” Fu Ji answered neatly.

Qin Tiange pondered for a while, his eyes flickered continuously, and he suddenly ordered: “Dear oneself, connect me to Nie Teng, the head of the First Land Reclamation Army Corps in Guancheng.”

“Yes, master!”

Xun Ji quickly connected to Nie Teng, the head of the First Land Reclamation Corps, who was clearing the zombies in Guancheng through his personal terminal.

Huh!

“General!” Light and shadow emerged, and Nie Teng looked serious, wearing a set of armor and saluting directly.

Qin Tiange did not say nonsense, and directly gave an order: “Nie Teng, I order you to immediately lead the First Wasteland Corps to Guangcheng.”

“Yes!”

Nie Teng stunned, but did not hesitate, directly took orders, closed the communication, quickly adjusted the troops, immediately turned around, lost the large area of Guancheng recovered, and even placed those rescued large numbers of survivors in place Lead the army to Guangcheng.

At this time, over the roof, Qin Tiange watched the influx of zombies on the city wall, and many soldiers were drowned relentlessly and shattered by zombies.

The corpses were even more violent and horrible, and Guangcheng was caught off guard by the tide of corpses, causing huge losses and even being threatened.

“Yanji, the electromagnetic energy guns aimed at those corpse walls and destroyed them all.” Qin Tiange ordered without expression.

Jiji had been prepared for a long time, and the electromagnetic energy cannon had already been recharged, because she knew that her master had already prepared for it and received an order to fire immediately.

boom!

The sky suddenly flashed, and a loud boom rang, shaking the entire city, and a corpse wall was blasted out of the corpse.

Countless zombies were blasted into gas, and more zombies were broken into pieces and burned with coke.

“what happened?”

On the city walls, many soldiers did not know what was happening, but soon, Shenzhen City suddenly passed a huge beam of electromagnetic energy.

The rumbling explosion exploded all the way, one wall after another was blasted into the sky, and numerous zombies were blasted into powder, which instantly caused a huge sensation.

“That’s super-compressed electromagnetic energy?”

At the base of Guangcheng, above the city wall, an old general was bathed in blood, holding a sword, and surrounded by a dense and powerful evolutionary.

These are the elite and strong generals in the army. The old general is General Qi Shao, the highest commander in Guangcheng.

He looked horrified and looked at the huge beams of electromagnetic energy bombarding the corpse wall, and immediately realized that other forces were helping Guangcheng.

“Is that the latest young admiral from Shenzhen?” Lieutenant General Qi Shao changed his face and speculated.

But soon he threw away these thoughts, raised his sword and screamed loudly, “Soldier, defend the country, and kill these zombies with me.”

The old lieutenant was a soldier, and took the lead to kill him. A group of experts in the army around him guarded him.

With the support of electromagnetic energy guns from Shenzhen City, the Guangcheng crisis has been alleviated, but the situation is still not good.

Qin Tiange found that the zombies gathered near Guangcheng have so far received more than 10 million zombies, which is incredible.

“Why are there so many zombies in Guangcheng?” He looked dignified and felt the pressure for the first time.

The number of these zombies is too large. Even if the entire population of Guangcheng is more than 14 million, even if more than 90% of them become zombies, it is impossible to have so many zombies, let alone Guangcheng. There are also millions of soldiers and civilians in the base.

“Did some of these zombies come from Shenzhen?” Qin Tiange made a guess and thought of the answer in his heart.

In Shenzhen City, there are currently no more than 10,000 zombies, and they are completely empty. Even as the base personnel go out to clean up, even one zombie is gone.

Some are just densely packed mutant insects in the ruins of the city. Many of these things are hidden in dark corners and sewers and difficult to clean up.

Now, more than 10 million zombies have gathered outside the base of Guangcheng. On the sky, groups of flying corpses gathered, and the scene was extremely terrifying?

Not to mention Guangcheng, which is now the base of the Shenzhen city where Qin Tiange is located. Once attacked by tens of millions of zombies, they will suffer heavy casualties even if they are kept.

“Yanji, continue to fire support and send drones to find me the super zombies hidden in the corpses.”

Soon, Qin Tiange made arrangements, and at the same time passed the latest order to Nie Teng, temporarily rested and waited for the order.

Because there are too many zombies outside Guangcheng, Nie Teng’s First Land Reclamation Army will not do anything, even if it is drowned.

A wasteland army of 100,000 people rushed to meet the army of tens of millions of zombies, and that was what a fool would do.

At present, only a large electromagnetic energy cannon can support Guangcheng, and a drone aerial survey is sent to find the super zombies in the corpse.

Only by killing these super zombies and even more powerful lost leaders can the crisis in Guangcheng base be lifted.

“Commander, Guangcheng can’t keep it.”

At this time, the  battle was still underway. Some officers ran up in blood, and sadly said the news. Guangcheng could not keep it.

Despite the inexplicable electromagnetic gun support, in the end, the condition of the reinforced concrete fortifications in Guangcheng appeared.

Boom ... Kaka!

As the officer’s voice just fell a section of the city wall collapsed in the distance, and dozens of huge zombies rushed into the steel to open a gap.

“The walls have fallen!”

Lieutenant General Qi Shao was full of fear, not anger, but anger.

“Stop me, even if killed in battle, you must guard Guangcheng, order the missile brigade, artillery brigade, and cover-up strike.”

The veteran lieutenant looked serious, ordered the knife to be rushed forward immediately after being ordered, and led the gang of high-ranking officers to directly lead the guard camp to kill him, using the flesh and blood to cover the gap.

War is the most cruel, and the soldiers are the most admirable, because they fought blood and blood, regardless of life and death, in order to protect the homeland and the people's lives.

Uh ...

At this moment, a huge barrage of fire suddenly emerged from a certain military camp of the base, which was launched by missiles, which directly passed over the base of Guangcheng. She pierced her head.

Chapter 398 - Guangcheng is in danger

Boom boom ...

Hundreds of missiles blasted down, blasting off, setting off a burst of flames, the soil was flying, debris was scattered, and many zombies were blown out.

For a while, there was no small movement inside the corpse, followed by the artillery brigade, thousands of artillery roared together, the scene was extremely spectacular.

With two rounds of volleys, the entire corpse was bombarded with dense artillery fire, causing huge losses. Tens of thousands of zombies and even hundreds of thousands died under the fire.

However, soon the missiles and artillery fire in the base ceased, and the fire ceased.

“There is no ammunition ...” Qin Tiange frowned, seeing that the missiles and artillery had come to a halt, and speculated in his heart that the artillery shells had run out.

Sure enough, all the artillery shells in the Guangcheng base have been exhausted, and a little ammunition that can be accumulated has been used up.

In the face of the tens of millions of zombies, the Guangcheng Military Region seemed to be incapable of parrying.

“Master ... something went wrong with the electromagnetic cannon.” Suddenly, his own light appeared, and he was embarrassed to say the news.

There was a problem with the electromagnetic cannon, which made Qin Tiange startled and annoyed, “Why is there a problem again? Isn't it fixed?”

Really annoyed, every time a key moment goes wrong, is it a quality problem? The previous time was a sudden problem, and the internal parts of the electromagnetic gun were damaged. This time, the repair was broken.

“Master, the drone is examining the corpse and has not found any trace of the leader of the corpse. It only saw a few traces of suspected five-star super zombies.” Soon, Jiji reported the situation again.

This made Qin Tiange difficult to manage. The zombies that controlled the corpse were not found. At present Guangcheng is facing the crisis of occupation and has to make him make a decision.

“Yanji, dismantle the electromagnetic energy gun for me, and ask the people in the Ministry of Science and Technology to study it thoroughly and make a more powerful and better electromagnetic gun as soon as possible.”

Qin Tiange was so hard-hearted that he had to dismantle the large electromagnetic energy cannon for research, and to make a better and more powerful electromagnetic energy cannon.

Otherwise, the situation will occur again and again, and there is only a small number of electromagnetic energy turrets. There must be enough weapons to cope with the changing battlefield in the future.

“Also, tell me where the super zombies are.” Soon, Qin Tiange decided to hunt for the super zombies.

I was very fast, and all the locations of the found super zombie traces were transmitted to Qin Tiange’s personal terminal.

“Xiaobai, start!”

Qin Tiange gave a low drink, and White Tiger jumped up immediately, jumped to another building, and jumped away quickly.

Along the position information given by Jiji, Qin Tiange took out the six-star Moyu bow, and the two arrow pots were filled with five-star sharp arrows.

“There!” Soon, Qin Tiange caught a trace of a powerful zombie. He was inside the corpse and kept roaring, controlling the zombies rushing up.

The bow of the war broke apart, and two sharp arrows whistled away. As soon as he was shocked, the super zombie’s skin was bulging with purple grains.

Roar!

The Super Zombie roared, turned around in a hurry, and slapped his claws fiercely. A loud noise came, and his body was struck back by two powerful steps.

But at this moment, another sharp arrow hole penetrated its door, penetrated from the back of his head, brought up a black blood arrow, and the body fell straight.

It was a five-star zombie, which was suddenly killed by Qin Tiange in an instant. It looked very easy, but it was not easy.

Qin Tiange’s arrow was too sudden and powerful, which caused the five-star zombies to shoot and kill a sharp arrow.

Roar!

The corpse caused a commotion, and many zombies stopped for no reason, because they lost the order of the five-star zombies, and swayed and roared aimlessly for a while.

Looking at this situation, Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes and thought secretly: “It seems that the five-star zombies in the corpse are the leader, and the six-star zombies must be hiding nearby.”

He even suspected that the more powerful seven-star zombies were hidden in the corpses, and that was the true behind-the-scenes leader. The six-stars already had the wisdom of humans.

Roar!

In the distance, a zombie roared and waved a giant hand to slap the side of the zombie’s brain, slap a zombie on the spot.

In the surroundings, countless zombies rushed up in a frantic rush, and the five-star super zombie commander in chief just happened to be seen by Qin Tiange.

collapse!

A crashing cry came, and three arrows screamed. The five-star super zombie roared, turned and waved his claws, and knocked out two sharp arrows with two beeps, but his claws were shot out of the cracks in the road.

Before he could continue to wave his claws, he saw that the last arrow suddenly turned, and clicked out from the back of the brain, bringing up a black blood, and the body fell straight down.

Qin Tiange’s archery is extremely impressive, riding a white tiger, constantly running around the top of the building, looking for a super zombie to shoot.

Of course, some super zombies are shrewd and seem to feel wrong, but they are hidden in the dense corpses so that he cannot find them.

“Jumble, so smart?”

Qin Tiange searched for a while and found no trace of super zombies. He scolded in his heart that these zombies were getting smarter.

As a last resort, he let the white tiger stop at the top of a building, looking at the corpses, and the dense zombies swelled below him, killing them madly.

Ahead, the walls of the base were overwhelmed by the corpses, and corpse walls piled up, and numerous zombies poured into the back, screaming and rushing into the base.

Even more frightening is that in front of that collapsed city wall, dozens of hundreds of huge zombies waved iron bars and other weapons, crushing soldiers blocking the gap all the way.

“Take the commander.”

At the gap, a blood-stained general roared, and a guard battalion immediately erected the old General Qi Shao to evacuate immediately.

The commander must be okay, otherwise the entire Guangcheng will collapse immediately, and then the military and civilians will be truly slaughtered by the zombies.

Roar!

A giant zombie rushed in, swept the iron pillar, and swept a few times, and dozens of fighters were beaten and even beaten on the spot by two people.

The  and brutal war continued and many people died, but more soldiers rushed forward without fear.

Because they know that as a soldier, who else can they expect to kill?

Guangcheng is in danger!

“Yanji, haven’t found the leader of the corpse?”

At this time, Qin Tiange was a little anxious, watching Guangcheng being attacked by tens of millions of zombies, and millions of soldiers and civilians inside would face a slaughter.

But he was useless in anxiety, and his self-controlled drone investigation still did not find the true zombie masters among the tens of millions of zombies.

“Crash, crash, we’re done.”

At the base, many people looked in horror, watching countless zombies rushing up the city wall, seeing the army killed and defeated, and panicked for a while.

Ordinary people, even the intensifiers, are panicked at this time, and even some of the combatants have the mind of running away, and the situation is not good.

“Let’s run away!”

“Yeah, we are not soldiers. There is no need to stay there. There is still a way to escape, whether others live or die?”

Some youth fortifiers are terrified, and some even scream to run away. They are not soldiers anyway, and there is no need to sacrifice themselves for others.

“Junk stuff, you young people are alive.”

Nearby, many old people saw the scene and became furious, reprimanding these young intensifiers who threatened to flee.

This group of old people were angry one by one. One of them pointed at these people and scolded: “Look at you, the national crisis is at stake, the key to the survival of the nation is the key to survival and death, look at the soldiers who guard you, look at the soldiers. Baby, you would have died without them. “

“How can the Chinese people of China bring out such a young generation like you? It is really not as good as one generation. During the Taiping period, they were doing nothing all day long. They really knew how to make head turtles.

“Pick up your weapons and kill the zombies!”

“Cut them down, we’re living a lot of years anyway.”

A group of old people broke out, picked up the weapons scattered on the ground, and rushed up crazy, more and more ordinary people broke out behind.

Survival is critical, there are no tens of thousands of zombies, and there is no way back. All the troops in the entire base are fighting in blood. These ordinary people, even many intensifiers, have never realized this serious problem.

Running away, being weak can't solve the problem, it will only die faster, and even cause a big crash. It won't help to get up again at that time.

“kill!”

The Guangcheng base boiled completely, and millions of soldiers and civilians fought together. The people spontaneously organized, took up weapons and killed them on the front, and directly went up.

Now you wait to die without killing, anyway, after the army completely collapses and is completely submerged by the zombies, these ordinary people will be shattered ruthlessly.

“Is Guangcheng over?”

Lieutenant General Qi Shao looked at the Guangcheng Base, which was about to collapse, with grief. For a while, blood was stuck in his throat, his face turned red, and he burst out.

“commander!”

A group of guards panicked and saw the commander spit blood suddenly, apparently injured.

Lieutenant General Qi Shao's face was pale, but his eyes flashed resolutely, and he ordered: “The two brigades were ordered to enter the underground air-raid shelter with the woman and the child who could not fight.”

“The rest, carry me to the end!”

The old Lieutenant General had a face to death and made the final order directly. The key to the final survival of the base was that they either killed the zombies or drowned them completely.

“kill!”

In the Guangcheng base, the major army groups joined millions of soldiers and civilians to explode the final blood, growling, roaring, shouting and killing sounds interwoven into a tragedy of doomsday.

That is the blood of the Chinese people. The army and the people are united, and the battle will never end!

“Wait!”

Outside the base, among the corpses, Qin Tiange looked cold and yelled. He didn't want to wait any longer and had to make a choice.

“The Phoenix changes!”

Suddenly a loud drink came, shaking in all directions, and was shocked to see that a raging fire rushed for nine days and swept down, and wherever he passed, countless zombies were burned to ashes.

Qin Tiange started, and directly transformed into a chaotic phoenix and killed the corpse. His wings fluttered with chaotic flames, setting off a horrific flame that drowned countless zombies.

Chapter 399 - The tide of fire burned, the owner appeared

cry!

The phoenix crowed and shook the earth. A phoenix swooped down from high, its wings shook, and it rolled down endlessly with chaotic flames.

A loud rumbling came, the flames rolled over the sky, and it swept across the square, covering countless zombies and burning them to ashes.

Chaos flames, gray fires, and the destruction of the sky, except for the four-star zombies can stop, the other zombies were burned to ashes.

Roar!

The corpses were chaotic, and all the zombies were roaring to the sky. Unfortunately, they were shrouded in endless chaotic flames and instantly burned to ashes, or some three-star zombies were burned to coke.

This sudden change caused a huge riot in the corpses. Many people in the base of Guangcheng saw it. A phoenix, wrapped in infinite chaotic flames, rolled around the base, and a cloud of gray flames swept down.

“Phoenix?”

Many people are surprised and feel inexplicable, because how can mutant organisms help humans?

As the phoenix first appeared, in the mountain forest, numerous mutant birds suddenly vacated collectively, gathered into a large dense cloud, and screamed wildly.

The flocks of birds appeared, and various mutant birds seemed to be summoned. They immediately gathered into a flock and flew over the base of Guangcheng, all swooping down and attacking the zombies.

“Hundred birds are facing the phoenix, why does that phoenix help us with mutant birds?”

At the base, the veteran general looked horrified and looked at the countless huge birds circling and flying above his head. They were all kinds of mutated birds, madly killing the zombies in the city.

Seeing this, a lot of people were excited, and the morale was shocked. No matter why there was a phoenix leading countless flocks of birds, it depends on the situation to help humanity.

“God beast comes, God bless China!”

“Brothers, kill!”

“kill!”

For a time, the morale of millions of soldiers and civilians in the base of Guangcheng was greatly shaken. Countless people burst out of great potential, and even sublimated themselves in the war.

As Qin Tiange turned into a phoenix and ordered hundreds of birds to help, it immediately caused a great shock to millions of soldiers and civilians in Guangcheng. Countless people went crazy, rebelled, and killed the zombies.

All the zombies rushed into the base were cleaned up by countless humans flying in circles in the sky.

Roar!

At this moment, outside the base, over the corpse, countless flying corpses that had remained motionless suddenly moved.

The appearance of the phoenix ordered the birds to immediately attract the attention of the hidden corpse owner, and numerous dense flying corpses attacked aggressively.

Howl ... oh!

The corpses fluttered and roared, the densely packed flying corpses swarmed to the base of Guangcheng, and rushed to the calling mutant birds.

Suddenly, a melee formed in the sky. Mutant birds and flying corpses killed directly, the bones flew, the feathers scattered, and the blood was stained with bits and pieces.

cry!

I was surprised to see that the God Phoenix transformed by Qin Tiange suddenly turned around and flew up with a mighty chaos flame, which was extremely fast, and rushed into the flying corpse.

The chaos flames were fierce, burning in the void, engulfing a flying corpse, and suddenly burning a large corpse.

Huh!

On the ground, the huge number of zombies is even more crazy, as if being angered by the Phoenix, the attack is even more violent, and the military and civilians at the base of Guangcheng feel tremendous pressure and heavy casualties.

The * battle is taking place, even if it is Qin Tiange's order that the hundred birds come to help, it is a little helpless, and it is not even possible to reverse the war situation. The fall of Guangcheng is only a matter of time.

Unless, he can find out and control the corpse master behind the corpse and kill it, so there will be chaos inside the corpse, and some super zombies will fight for hegemony and kill each other.

cry!

The * phoenix shouted and fluttered wings, constantly flying around the base of Guangcheng, vomiting chaotic flames, drowning one group after another.

He did not know how many zombies he had killed, but it seemed to have no effect. No matter how he killed, it seemed that the corpse had not decreased.

Thousands of zombies, what kind of scene is that, zombies flying in the sky, corpses like tides are flowing on the ground, killing endlessly, endlessly.

“Damn, I don’t believe you won’t come out!”

Qin Tiange was furious. Seeing that he still could not elicit the powerful zombies hidden behind him, he had to make a decision. He must elicit the powerful zombies who control the corpse behind the scenes.

boom!

I was shocked to see that the phoenix turned into a flame by Qin Tiange, the gray chaotic flames swept the sky, setting off waves of horror.

He dived down continuously from high altitude, his wings rushed into the corpse with chaotic flames, flying up numerous zombies all the way, causing huge chaos.

With his current strength, the strength of the Phoenix variant can have 1,300 people, plus a horrible chaotic flame, which is enough to run rampant in the corpse.

Unless it is the six-star or higher seven-star corpse owner who appears, although the corpse group cannot be killed by him, there is absolutely no zombies that can stop it.

Roar!

The corpses roared, but unfortunately could not stop Qin Tiange’s phoenix, the chaos flames roared, burned the earth, and burned countless zombies.

Qin Tiange spit out flames, fluttered his wings, smashed through the walls, and smashed many zombies.

Chaos flames, thousands of miles away, few ordinary zombies can survive this terrible flame.

The two-star can barely resist, the three-star can support it soon, and the four-star can survive for a long time. The two-star and three-star zombies have been burned into coke.

Seeing Qin Tiange raging back and forth among the corpses, Chaos Flame burned countless zombies, causing great confusion.

Even the flying corpses in the sky were burned everywhere, suppressed by the hundreds of birds, and for a while there were signs of smashing the zombies.

However, the corpses had no fear, never retreated, but continued to attack the base insanely, and a large number of zombies poured into it.

And it was those powerful zombies that survived the chaos flames that burned into the base and caused huge casualties, almost unstoppable.

Fortunately, there are masters in the base, one after another stepped forward to block, otherwise they were really slaughtered by these super zombies, and the base was really over.

Even if there are no masters, the army will still be daring to kill and stop, until those zombies have died.

“Hoo ... hmm!”

Suddenly, another roar filled with anger was heard from all over the corpse, shaking the earth, causing a commotion among the zombies.

The horror roar, the rage, filled with a brutal and powerful breath, extremely fierce and shocking.

“Finally willing to show up?”

Hearing this roar full of raging roar, in the sky, Qin Tiange’s phoenix turned suddenly, staring at several directions of the corpse.

There, where the roar came, the breath was extremely strong, with a brutal and cruel killing.

The powerful zombies in control behind the corpse were finally led out.

Roar!

To the east, a roar came, and the corpse rioted, and saw a huge flame burst into the sky, and the flames were black, and it was a flame.

Qin Tiange was surprised, his eyes locked there, and the corpses let out a clearing, letting him see a terrible zombie, burning with a strong flame.

“Seven-star star, flame corpse master?” He narrowed his eyes, looked at the seven-star corpse master, his body was full of fire, the temperature was extremely high, and even the rock and soil on the ground were red.

Unsurprisingly, the terrible zombies were hidden in the corpse, which was the master behind the scenes, the seven-star corpse owner.

The so-called corpse master is the master of the zombie group, known as the corpse master, who leads numerous zombies, and this is the corpse master.

Huh!

Immediately afterwards, a roar came from the corpses in the south, which caught Qin Tiange’s attention, and suddenly turned and looked over.

As I saw, a dark shadow flew up from the corpse, dark and covered with a layer of black cuticle, which turned into a set of armors covering the whole body.

The most shocking thing is that This zombie has three huge pairs of hands, his claws stinging, and his horrible coldness.

“Six-armed Rakshasa?” Qin Tiange squinted his eyes, surprised, this is a seven-star powerful zombie, super mutant, six-armed Rakshasa.

He had encountered an eight-armed Rakshasa in the previous life. It was an eight-star powerful super mutant zombies. It was very scary. He was almost killed after being hunted down.

Later, because he was severely wounded by the eight-armed Rakshasa and escaped, he encountered a mighty wild beast, but he died and died.

“There are two breaths ...” Soon, Qin Tiange looked dignified.

Because he suddenly felt two extremely terrifying breaths, just like the appearance of the two super terrible seven-star corpses.

“This breath ...” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, and he suddenly caught two familiar traces, a familiar taste in his breath.

They were two terrible zombies, and they were super-zombies who had dealt with them. They were extremely powerful and appeared.

Chapter 400 - Purple Clothing, Jade Corpse, Fire Corpse, 6-arm Rakshasa

Two figures came up into the air, one of which was coiled in jade air, wearing a jade clothes, and wrapped in a graceful figure.

The other was wearing a purple suit, and stepped on purple crystal boots, with purple hair flying around, surrounded by violent purple gas, looking like eight or nine years old, but with a very strong breath.

She is a purple corpse baby.

“Is they?” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, and when they saw the two zombies dominating, they all knew each other.

Needless to say, the jade corpse was once encountered in the largest jade market in China and played against it when Qin Tiange suppressed the other party.

The corpse baby’s purple clothing was weird. This time it seemed to grow a lot. It showed a more mysterious atmosphere, and the purple corpse pattern on the brows was even more mysterious.

Roar!

Four zombies dominated Qi Qi, floating quietly, surrounding the phoenix formed by Qin Tiange.

Ziyi corpse infant, jade corpse corpse, flame corpse, six-armed Rakshasa, four zombies dominated Qi Qi, surrounded Qin Tiange, the atmosphere was dignified for a while.

“A phoenix?” The flame corpse opened his mouth, licked his lips, his mouth full of fangs, as if to eat Qin Tiange.

It is a flame corpse, seven-star, with extremely fierce flames and high temperatures, and the air is distorted wherever it passes.

Seeing Qin Tiange’s incarnation of the phoenix, there was an urge to devour, as if he could swallow him to gain endless benefits.

Roar!

Aside, the six-armed Rakshak roared, staring at Qin Tiange’s phoenix incarnately with a grim smile.

It is a six-armed Rakshasa, a terrible mutant corpse with six arms, like a demon Rakshasa crawling out of hell. Each arm is extremely stout, with sharp claws and holding six weird weapons. It looks like Some kind of * intertwined.

The six-armed Rakshasa smiled, “I never thought that the Phoenix would run out all the time, and it didn’t seem to be very strong, he was mine.”

“Giggle ... Raksha Ugly, you’ve said that.”

There was a crisp laughter, and I saw the jade corpse laughing a few times, holding a faint jade sword, and I didn’t know where she got it.

Her eyes flashed with strange light, and she constantly looked at the phoenix in front of her, and seemed to feel a special familiar atmosphere, which was strange.

“This phoenix ... is so strange.” The jade corpse crooked his head, and a hint of suspicious fox flashed on his delicate and pretty face, but he didn't care.

Instead, the purple-clad corpse baby's eyes were seeing purple light, and the corpse marks on his eyebrows kept flashing. It seemed to see through the phoenix, but it didn't seem to see through.

Roar ... She frowned, opened her mouth, growled, and asked, “Who are you?”

The three words revealed her doubts. From this phoenix, she sensed a familiar blood wave, which was the breath of Qin Tiange.

Qin Tiange didn't speak, he was full of chaos, and watched with vigilance over the four seven-star zombies. The strength was not visible for the time being, and it became even more terrible after the second evolution.

“Roar, don't talk, kill it!”

The flame corpse was the most irritable, and roared directly, rolling up and killing the flames. It is most eager to devour the Phoenix, because it has a fire talent, and zombies that can manipulate the fire are extremely rare.

After eating the Phoenix, it is likely that it will be able to acquire the ability of the Phoenix. Even if it does not, it will also greatly improve the flame talent.

Especially the chaotic flame, which gave it great attraction, thinking that after absorbing Qin Tiange's body and blood, he would surely make himself advanced again.

Bang!

The fierce battle erupted, and the flames burned into the sky. A seven-star flame corpse launched a surprise attack. Qin Tiange opened his mouth to spray a chaotic flame, and the impact of the blast was up.

The flames collided, and the void was burnt and twisted, and the flame's body was burning with a terrible black flame, like the fire of * before Qin Tiange did not merge.

However, this flame could not stop the chaotic flame, and was drowned quickly, and then bombarded the body of the flame corpse, knocking him out.

Roar!

The flame corpse was bombarded for dozens of meters, making a roar, looking very irritable, and a black burn scar on his chest soon recovered.

The powerful seven-star flame corpse, one of the main zombies, has a terrible power of no less than two thousand people, even stronger.

“Kill!” At this moment, the six-armed Rakshasa, which had been quiet, suddenly moved, and screamed with a roar, the six arms wielded six weird weapons and hit them hard.

cry!

Qin Tiange wailed in the sky, fluttered his wings and flew up into the sky, dived down with violent chaotic flames.

With a bang, a huge shock came, and Chaos Flame broke apart. It was seen that the seven-star six-armed Rakshasa broke the Chaos Flame, and a sharp weapon struck the Phoenix feathers severely.

Hearing only a whistle, the sparks splattered and a feather fell. Qin Tiange only felt a mighty force coming in, and Phoenix couldn't bear being beaten and flew out.

"I want Phoenix meat, too."

Over there, the jade corpse chuckled slightly, and suddenly moved. As soon as it reached the body, Yu Jianxi hurried out of the sheath, and struck Qin Tiange's body with a touch of jade light.

Ding-dong crunching, Qin Tian-ge tried to avoid it, and was still scratched by a ray of jade, and flew off on the spot.

Roar!

The three major seven-star zombie overlords attacked at the same time, Qin Tiange felt tremendous pressure in his heart, that terrible power and huge lethality made him a little difficult to fight.

One to three, but also dominated by three seven-star zombies, became even more terrifying after the second evolution.

boom!

Finally, one time to dodge, Qin Tiange was knocked down into the void, just to see a purple mang roar, Jing Jing's fist hit the belly of Phoenix fiercely.

With a sound of Qin Long, Qin Tiange's claws clawed and met, and the two collided, causing a tragic air wave to erupt, rolling the Quartet.

"So strong, at least 3,000 people." Qin Tiange's body was trembling and his claws were cracked, but he recovered quickly.

What made him unbelievable was that the strength of this purple-clad corpse baby was as high as 3,000 people, and perhaps it was not her limit.

Roar!

The four masters Qi Qi attacked, Qin Tiange felt the pressure of death, and never felt this way after he was born again.

Today, he truly realized that he is not invincible. The strong breath of death made him boil all over his body, and a powerful energy roared in his body, and he was about to come out.

"Drink!" With a swift shout, accompanied by a blast of flames, the phoenix avatar turned away and disappeared, replacing a figure burning chaotic flames.

Under the pressure of the crisis, Qin Tiange finally took complete control of the power of the Phoenix transformation. At the moment, a force of the Phoenix in the body was added to the body and integrated into the body without distinguishing each other.

At this time, he is enough to keep the body unchanged, and acquire the abilities belonging to Phoenix, whether it is flying or the Phoenix talent.

“King of heaven!”

In the flames of the sky, such a cold and ruthless word suddenly came out, and I was surprised to see a huge gray shadow rising into the sky, holding the prince to the world.

The ghostly scourge swept, a bang, and a huge shock wave swept thousands of kilometers away. The four zombies dominated the complexion, only feeling the endless power of Wang Dao swept through, accompanied by the horrible lethality.

Four bangs made a muffled sound, and the four zombies who rushed up to besiege Qi Qi were beaten and flew out, unable to stop the king's power in the world.

“It's you?”

Almost at the same time, two clear exclams came, and Ziyi and Jade Corpse both stared and looked at the figure walking on the flames of chaos in front of uncertainty. It was Qin Tiange.

The eyes of the two flickered, staring at the figure who stepped out of Chaos Flame, overbearing and majestic, exuding a breath of the king.

Under the persecution of death, Qin Tiange took complete control of the power of the Phoenix, and the power belonging to the Phoenix was completely and perfectly controlled.

“It turned out that the strength of the Phoenix change was not weak, but I didn't control it completely.” Qin Tiange looked surprised and muttered to himself.

He felt that the strength in his body had suddenly increased to the strength of three thousand people, that is to say, he originally had the strength of one thousand people, and the imperfect phoenix had just increased the power of three hundred people, and the perfect phoenix had exploded to The power of three thousand people.

Perfect and powerful, this is the power of the ancient Phoenix. Even Qin Tiange suspected that he was the first to change to Kirin, and he had not yet mastered it, and he had not even developed various talents that belonged to Kirin.

Roar!

“Humanity?”

There, the six-armed Luosha roared and looked at Qin Tiange, who was an adult, and immediately became angry, as if being deceived.

However, the flame corpse looked startled, stared at Qin Tiange, seemed to smell a breath that attracted it.

That's the origin of Phoenix's talent. The breath of Nirvana's divine fire makes it extra hearty and can't help but growl.

“Giggle ... good brother, my sister is looking so hard for you.”

At this moment, the jade corpse flashed a smile, looked up and down Qin Tiange, there was a miss in his words, but there was a cold cold in his eyes.

But she remembered that Qin Tiange had taken all the baby jade away, and now she still hates it.

“You took the elder sister’s sweetheart, and now you are finally willing to appear.” The jade corpse smiled more and more cold, his eyes showing murderous power.
