

Dark Ages 401

Chapter 401 - Kill blood, break the barriers

boom!

The flame corpse was rushed to meet, and his body was blown away by terrorist forces, but his body was unscathed. It must be said that the seven-star zombies dominated the horror.

It roared, waving its fists wrapped in black flames, and the two violently collided, and it turned out that Qin Tiange flew out.

Roar!

At this moment, the six-armed Rakshasa shot, the six-armed arms slammed the weapons and the air was blown up.

Alas ... Qin Tiange turned around to meet him, people were staggered in the air, and he felt uncomfortable with a force, and he wanted to vomit blood.

“Brother, try your sister’s jade sword.”

Over there, the jade corpse smiled coldly and shot violently. Yu Jian crossed Qin Tiange’s neck, and the crisis shrouded.

When the three zombies were killed together, Qin Tiange looked dignified, and the halberd was dancing, and the most extreme power burst out.

Bang!

A violent explosion came from the sky, and a shadow crashed into the void. A dozen zombies were smashed into the ground, setting off a billowing smoke.

In the big pit, Qin Tiange rose into the air, his armor was broken and scattered, and the skin on his body was bruises, which was hit by the three corpses.

The most terrible thing is a sword mark on his chest. He has cut off his powerful flesh. Fortunately, he had previously obtained ice muscle jade bones, and even used divine medicine to refine the body. Otherwise, he was really badly hit this time.

Roar!

At this moment, Ziyi moved, waved his crystal fists, and rolled purple sky to kill him.

Eventually, she couldn’t help but hit Qin Tiange in a fierce punch. The tiny fist contained extremely terrifying power, and the air was squeezed into a vacuum.

The wind and waves hit the face, Qin Tiange’s complexion was staring, staring at the purple clothes that had been killed, and Euphorbia ran quickly in front of him.

Huh!

The fist hit the halberd, and with a bang, the huge force pushed Qin Tiange to fly, and a trace of ten meters was slid on the ground.

He looked dignified and felt unprecedented pressure. The siege from the four corpse owners made him smell a thick death threat.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange Li Xiao, the halberd waved, scrolled endlessly, and killed four powerful corpses.

With one enemy and four opponents, after all, they couldn't catch it. They were suppressed again and again, and they encountered siege by the four zombies.

boom!

A six-armed Rakshasa attacked from behind, a sword-like weapon was chopped on the back, and the terrorist force of 4,000 people split him and hit him to the ground.

The body armor was completely broken, a crack appeared on the back, blood flowed out, and it flowed back to normal next second.

“Brother, as long as you promise to be your elder sister, my elder sister will help you right away.”

At this point, Yujia's corpse came up with a smile, and looked at him with anticipation on Qiao's face. If she really agreed, it is likely that she really went directly to help Qin Tiange.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange has his own proud bones. How could he promise to be the head of this jade corpse and be a male pet?

“Kill!” Qin Tiange's fierce halberd responded to her, and the halberd rushed violently, revealing the boundless sense of overbearing.

Seeing the overbearing halberd, the jade corpse was angry and yelled, “Since you are not willing, then don't blame your sister, and you will be convinced by oral administration.”

Uh ...

Five figures collided quickly, staggered by each other, the collision sparked fiercely, the waves billowed, set off everything within a kilometer, and the rubble penetrated the air and struck around.

Many nearby zombies were lifted by air waves, and even some zombies were smashed into fragments by the aftermath of the Big Five Fighting Center.

Huh!

The six-armed Rakshasa roared, and the flame corpse roared. The two were the fiercest. They fought Qin Tiange again and again. His body was beaten up several times and flew out, and crashed into the corpse.

The dense crowd of zombies rushed around to bite Qin Tiange, but he was lifted out by him.

“Go!” Qin Tiange roared, flames of chaos exploded, and burned all the zombies all around. The halberd waved and broke all the ordinary zombies that came up.

However, the four zombies dominated the siege, besieged Qiqi, making him tired of the challenge, and was quickly suppressed.

Bang Bang!

Finally, a pair of amethyst fists in Ziyi bombarded Qin Tiange's back in a flash of lightning. The sound of cracking bones came, and the armor was shattered and scattered.

He was beaten dozens of meters, sprayed a blood sword, and smashed a large pit fiercely. In the smoke, he could see that he was climbing up hard and the blood dripping from the corner of his mouth.

Qin Tiange was wounded, he coughed up blood, and was hurt by purple clothes, but he still looked calm. The more dangerous he was, the more calm he was.

Ziyi Su stopped, looking at her little fist, which was stained with the dripping crystal blood of Qin Tiange, and she injured Qin Tiange.

She trembled there. The other three zombie masters could not let go of this opportunity, but smashed it up. Qi Qi launched the fiercest offensive against Qin Tiange.

"Kill!" Qin Tiange drank violently, without any fear, soared to face the battle, the halberd smashed in the past, the smoke was rolling, the rubble flew across, and it was another **** battle.

However, this time without the purple clothes, Qin Tiange felt a lot less pressure and could barely support it, but he was still injured.

If it weren't for his immortality, he might be lying down now, and even, he was glad that he had used the magic medicine to train his body, otherwise it would not be possible to sustain it.

boom!

During the fierce battle, a figure suddenly fell to the ground, spit blood, and a dent appeared in the chest, which was a punch mark, which was hit by the flame corpse master.

In addition, there are sword marks across the ribs, deep into the bones, jade air interweaving, apparently the jade armor was wounded.

"Cough ..." Qin Tiange coughed up his blood, his wounds healed quickly, and the cracked spine was repaired.

Roar!

The three corpse masters roared and killed them all without giving him a chance to breathe. Assaulting Qin Tiange like a heavy rain made it difficult for him to parry.

The powerful seven-star corpse master, after the second evolution, was violently incomparable in strength. After surpassing the power of three thousand people, Qin Tiange could not bear it.

"Come again!"

Qin Tiange's halberd danced, rolled up a horrible flame to kill, and in the smoke, the four powerful men collided and collided quickly.

He was fast, but the three corpse masters were also not weak, and could even fly, naturally suppressing Qin Tiange's strength in an all-round way, and he was quickly crushed.

Click!

I was surprised to see that a jade sword crossed, the ribs broke on the spot, blood splattered, and the body was boxed by the flame corpse, and the figure smashed out.

At this time, the six-armed Rakshasa arrived, and the six-armed dancer slammed down with a weapon, hitting Qin Tiange's chest, head, and heart severely.

Three bangs, the head bone was cracked, a dent was made in the chest heart position, and the bones were broken apart, very miserable.

His body was thrown heavy and smashed into the corpse, but none of the zombies dared to rush up, but spread his fears.

The four corpse masters came up slowly, and the flame corpse stared at Qin Tiange with a sneer, the scarlet tongue licking its fangs continuously, and it was about to eat.

“How to divide?” Six-armed Rakshasa grinned and asked this sentence.

The jade corpse had a complex complexion, didn't speak, but just looked at Qin Tiange quietly. He was slowly getting up, and his body was supported with a halberd without expression. Blazing.

At this moment, a little pain and struggle appeared on Ziyi's small face, as if she had just hurt Qin Tiange just now.

“Why, I'm not dead, are you talking about eating my flesh?” Qin Tiange smiled slightly and wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth.

His eyes were calm, without the slightest fear, but he showed two burning rays of light, and his warfare almost burned.

Never before had such pressure made him feel that kind of limit power barrier, in fact, he could still rise up, that is to break the limit.

Yes, under the siege of the four corpses, he felt the barrier of the body's diaphragm in the threat of death, which was the ultimate barrier.

Qin Tiange was surprised to find that, in fact, the extreme barriers can be broken, which is extremely difficult and dangerous.

Now, surrounded by the four corpses, Qin Tiange has to seek a breakthrough, but he has not been able to break through before he has entered the three-star assessment.

Only by looking for other ways to break, that is, to break through the limit barriers, can we improve our strength to deal with these four terrible zombies.

“Come again!” The immortal body made him recover as much as possible from his injuries. Qin Tiange swept away the halberd, rolled up the chaos flames, and drunk directly.

He didn't give up, let alone fear, his face calmed down to a level of hairiness, even if the body was severely injured, the bones were broken, and the **** flesh and blood of the fierce scene never shook his heart.

Huh!

Suddenly, Qin Tiange's right arm was cut and broken by Yu Jian, and half of his flesh was still attached. Euphorbia was shot far away by a six-armed Rakshasa, inserted into a zombie's chest, and nailed there.

Qin Tiange was robbed, Ziyi punched him, but stopped at the last minute, and finally let the flame corpse fly out.

“Roar ...” Ziyi suddenly turned her head and yelled at the flame corpse, and amethyst murderous was revealed in the amethyst eyes.

Qin Tiange fell again, this time with more serious injuries, but his broken arm quickly recovered, chest dents and cracked bones recovered one after another, and even the cracked forehead recovered.

Moreover, as the undead self repaired the scars, the body became more and more powerful, a peculiar amount of power poured out of itself, the more they gathered, the more they blasted towards the limit barriers.

Click ...

There was a slight crackling sound in the body, as if some kind of barriers had been broken. For a time, Qin Tiange raised a strong breath and his black hair was dancing.

He slowly got up and raised his head to show a light smile: “The extreme barriers have been broken Very good. Without this experience of life and death, I really can't break through the barriers. The extreme barriers can actually be Self-broken. “

“kill!”

Qin Tiange gave a swift slam, and Gu Jian slammed out of the sheath to create a gorgeous sword arc. Two slaps repelled the attack of the flame corpse and jade armor corpse.

At this time, Qin Tiange obviously felt that the strength of the other party was weakening, no, to be precise, his own strength was increasing.

With the extreme barriers being broken, Qin Tiange's power seems to be endlessly skyrocketing, and that kind of improvement is felt.

“Sword of the King!”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange's figure flashed, and a huge chaotic flame rose up, turning into a huge figure, as if a king was looking down at his world.

This is the second form of swordplay he realized, the sword of the king, in fact, it is the same as the second form of ghosts and gods.

The huge shadow instantly split the four swords, and the sword light whistled, striking the four powerful corpse masters, respectively.

Chapter 402 - The purple suit is turned, the sword cuts the fire corpse

Hearing only a “click”, the flame corpse was cut first, the chest was cracked, the heart was clearly visible, and a crack appeared on the forehead.

It was embarrassed, withdrew sharply, and suffered a heavy blow, looking a little embarrassed and roaring with anger.

boom!

Immediately afterwards, the six-armed Rakshasa was robbed, and Huanghuang Jianman fell, and he fluttered twice, and saw two thick arms rising and falling to the ground.

Alas ... The six-armed Rakshasa was miserable and quickly pulled away. Both faces were painful and angry, and his two arms were chopped off. The blood spewed and kept falling.

“Drink!” Came with a yell, and was surprised to see that the jade corpse held up the jade sword to resist, but the sword awn was too sharp and unstoppable, slicing directly on the jade armor on her chest, and it suddenly broke apart.

She was blown away in a embarrassing manner, her face flushed, and there was a sharp Jianman continuous destruction in her body, but she was mostly blocked by the jade armor.

puff!

A bite of blood spurted, a little bit of jade light flickered, a burst of jade energy quickly repaired the wounds on his body, and he recovered in a blink of an eye.

The jade corpse was furious and glared at Qin Tiange, but she suddenly found that the purple clothing did not hide, even did not resist, and looked at the brilliant Huangmang that fell down like this.

“Ziyi dodging ...” Jade Corpse exclaimed, as if she knew Ziyi, and the relationship was good.

However, what happened to her suddenly happened the next moment, and I saw that a powerful swordman suddenly stopped, only three inches from the purple forehead, and the sharp spirit even cut a few strands of purple hair and fluttered down.

Ziyi remained motionless, his eyes never changed, and he fixedly looked at Qin Tiange, who looked at her with a complex look.

boom!

Jianmang shattered, Qin Tiange scattered that Jianmang and did not cut it down. His expression was a little complicated. Thinking back to the fierce battle just now, Ziyi should have hit him with one punch, but finally stopped.

She kept her hand. This was Qin Tiange’s most sincere feeling. The Ziyi baby kept her hand.

“Hoo ... it’s not time to kill this guy.”

Over there, the flame corpse roared, roared at the purple clothing, and then rolled the boundless flames to slam to the ground, and a punch of flame rolled and bombarded Qin Tiange’s face door.

When Hei Yan struck, Qin Tiange’s face remained unchanged, and a cold humming, the ancient sword groaned, and a sword was chopped on the fist of the flame corpse.

With a slap, the sharp ancient sword cut a finger of the flame corpse, blood splattered three feet, and howled.

“Kill him, share the food!” There was a roar, and the six-armed Rakshasa came, with boundless anger, and the only four arms left were chopped down.

Qin Tiange turned around and backed away, avoiding the slashing of the four arms. The ancient sword crossed one of the arms, and a jingle sounded, but was blocked by a jade sword.

The comer was the jade corpse, and the jade sword swept across the sky, blocking Qin Tiange’s sword.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange Li Xiao, the ancient sword softly, the more brave the battle, the stronger his breath, after breaking through the limit barriers, his strength is growing crazy.

The power of a thousand people is growing crazy, 1000 ... 1200 ... 1300 ... 1400 ... 1500 ..., this power is the limit barrier of a thousand people being broken, and with the increase of the Phoenix, the explosive force is even more terrifying.

At this moment, there seemed to be endless energy hidden in his body, and at this moment, all of it erupted. It was the hidden medicinal power of various magical medicines such as immortal medicine and divine medicine.

Because he had taken too many precious drugs before, a huge amount of unmatched energy was hidden in his body. At this moment, he broke down the barriers and directly squeezed out these hidden medicines under the pressure of death, turning them into constant energy. Promotion.

boom!

The four figures collided fiercely, the swords were dazzling, the boxing shadows were huohuo, and the endless killings all represented their most powerful killing skills.

Qin Tiange used one enemy and three, and the Vietnam War became more brave. Although he was severely wounded many times, he persisted tenaciously with the recovery of his undead body, became stronger and stronger, and eventually failed to retreat.

Although he was bleeding all the time, and his body was injured again and again, he finally survived, but fortunately, Ziyi didn’t get involved in it.

“Ziyi, what are you doing? Don’t you want to eat this phoenix?” Over there, the flame corpses in the fierce battle roared again and again.

Seeing Qin Tiange fighting more and more bravely, it is getting harder and harder to kill, and even now he has rarely hurt his body. This is an incredible change.

He is getting stronger, sharpened by the three zombie overlords, squeezing his potential one after another, and the endless energy bursts out, improving his fighting power at this moment.

The limit, once broken, will be out of control, just like a flash flood, and it will be swept up and out.

“kill!”

With an angry kill, accompanied by the ancient sword being split, the flame corpse was split and flew, cracked on the spot, but fortunately he avoided it in time, otherwise he was chopped into two sections by a sword.

The six-armed Rakshasa lost two arms and looked much weaker. He was suppressed by Qin Tiange and easily cut off the **** armor on his body. The sword marks on the road could be seen in the bones.

Roar!

“Purple, you traitor ...”

Suddenly, the flame corpse issued a terrifying roar, the air waves rolled, and he saw his body suddenly beaten and flew out inexplicably.

The jade corpse and the six-armed Rakshasa were dumbfounded, looking at the flame corpse that was beaten out, not Qin Tiange’s hand, but the purple clothes that had not moved, and suddenly launched a violent assault and injured the flame corpse.

Qin Tiange froze, looking at the purple figure, and suddenly there was a touch of touch. The purple corpse infant seemed to be anti-Ge?

“Purple clothes, you ...” Jade Corpse’s face changed sharply and quickly flew away.

I saw that the six-armed Rakshasa horrified four arms and danced wildly, chopped up on a purple figure rushing up, but was shocked to fly out.

The six-armed Rakshasa was furious and growled, “Dash, why did you attack us?”

At this moment, the flame corpse rushed to the side, standing beside the six-armed Rakshasa, with a bleak face, full of fire and black flames.

He was really angry, his teeth showed, and roared, “Ziyi, you don’t give an explanation, we will swallow you today.”

Zombies, who were already cruel and bloodthirsty, now see that Ziyi turned out to help Qin Tiange come to beat them, which really angered these two zombie overlords.

“Roar ... Go!” Ziyi roared fiercely, roaring, a little violent emotion appeared on that little face, and the whole body was full of purple gas, looking very scary.

The flame corpses and the six-armed Rakshasa noses were crooked, and the purple clothes even told them to roll? As one of the zombie overlords, the two are extremely arrogant and fierce, and they even heard the purple clothes call them off?

“court death!”

“Swallow you!”

The flame corpse and the six-armed Raksha exploded on the spot, and the zombies originally had competition, but they were united because they were overlords and there were many differences in strength.

Enraged now, she is going to slaughter Ziyi and swallow her.

Huh!

At this moment, a gurgling came, causing the two zombie overlords to be cold, suddenly remembering that there was a human here.

Sure enough, the flame corpse only felt the bitter coldness of the whole body, that is, the whole body of flame could not warm his heart at the moment. Turning around, there was a flash of fear in his eyes.

puff!

Jian Mang flew across, and a splatter of blood spattered from the neck of the flame corpse, covering his neck with both hands, and backing back, with a look of anger.

“Damn ...” Flame Corpse was furious, his neck was torn, and even broken, but he was covered by it. Gradually, the broken neck healed quickly and did not fall, but Gradually self-healing.

Roar!

When the flame corpse was alert to Qin Tiange, a roar came next to him, purple light passed, and a crystal fist hit his chest fiercely.

A crackling sound came from him, his bones shattered, his chest collapsed, and the flame corpse was severely injured by a fist punch.

“No ...” The next moment, the flame corpse opened its mouth and roared, making a scream of screams, and it was cut by a swordsman’s neck, and the recovered head was cut off directly.

The jade corpse saw a figure catching up, and Gu Jian fiercely inserted into the celestial cover of the flame corpse, nailed to the ground.

It was Qin Tiange who shot and injured the flame corpse in Ziyi. He seized the fighter and directly killed the seven-star flame corpse.

Although he didn’t understand why Ziyi suddenly turned down to help him, Qin Tiange could just kill one and talk about it.

“Well ... purple clothes ...” The six-armed Raksha screamed, extremely angry, looking at the crucified flame corpse’s head, his heart was frightened and angry.

Amazed that the flame corpse was dead, and angry that Ziyi, a similar corpse owner, helped humans and killed his own kind?

“Well ... Traitor!”

The six-armed Luosha made a terrible blast, rushed into the corpse at the fastest speed, disappeared directly here, and dare not stay.

Because the death of the flame corpse means that it is likely that he will be the next moment. Look at the performance of the purple clothing. In addition, the jade corpse seems to know Qin Tiange as a human being. As a last resort, the six-armed Rakshasa turned and fled.

Roar!

Seeing him run away, Ziyi roared, but the six-armed Rakshasa had already fled, leaving with the densely packed corpses.

He walked very straightforwardly without hesitation. He ran away when he was in a bad situation, and took the corpse to cover him and ran away.

At the scene, there was a jade corpse with a vigilant look on his face. He looked at Ziyi in uncertainty, and looked at Qin Tiange as a human. Why couldn't he help him?

"Why help me?" Qin Tiange looked complex and stood in front of Ziyi, asking gently.

Opposite, Ziyi blinked his eyes and looked at Qin Tiange in front of him. There was a vein of his blood flowing in his body. The two had a certain mysterious relationship.

"Father, why do you abandon me, or even kill me, do you really hate me?"

Ziyi clenched her fist, roared suddenly, bit her lip, and met Qin Tiange's gaze, stubbornly asking this sentence, which was the source of her anger that she had been pressing inside.

At that moment, the moment she was born, she felt the killing intention from Qin Tiange, and she really wanted to kill her.

Finally, because of the unscrupulous Taoist corpse control method, Qin Tiange's blood contaminated her eyebrow corpse, resulting in Qin Tiange's bloodline connection in the body. This relationship is very strange Does not seem to be the Lord The servant contact is more like an inexplicable father and daughter.

Seeing that her father was about to kill her, Ziyi ran away as soon as she was born. She didn't understand these things, but with the growing resentment in her heart, she felt abandoned and even felt the kill from Qin Tiange Meaning, my heart is more painful.

"You guys, you know?"

Aside, the jade corpse was stunned, and almost turned and ran away. There was no way to see that there was a strange relationship between Ziyi and Qin Tiange.

Just now, Ziyi helped Qin Tiange kill the flame corpse, which was also dominated by a powerful zombie. In this way, Ziyi was wounded and killed by Qin Tiange.

Qin Tiange froze, and Ziyi's father shouted that his heart trembled, something tumbling in the blood, roaring endlessly.

"You, what did you call me?" Qin Tiange looked horrified, looked at Ziyi, and was a little uncertain, thinking he heard it wrong.

But would he be wrong in his strength? But it was the instinct of disbelief. Ziyi didn't seem to have anything to do with him, even regarded him as his father?

Chapter 403 - Brother, sister waiting for you!

"When did I become your father?"

Qin Tiange looked weird. Looking at the purple clothes, he felt a little touched, but he just had a woman named Chen Xi. As for that Qianlu, he was only a servant.

Ziyi spoke to his father, which Qin Tiange couldn't accept, thinking about how she was born from a zombie.

Does it have anything to do with that mother zombie? No, it is based on some instincts, and the unscrupulous priests said that the corpse control failed, with serious consequences.

"I have your blood in my body, who are you not my father?" Ziyi growled, looking very angry, and his soul was stimulated.

She was very irritable and growled, "If you don't like me and you reject me, then I will cut off my flesh and give it back to you."

"Don't wear purple clothes ..." Jade Corpse's face changed so much that she rushed straight up and was pushed away by a purple gas burst from Purple Clothes.

"Oh ..." Ziyi growled and sky full of purple gas, the little face was extremely painful, as if to remove something from the body.

It was Qin Tiange's blood, which belonged to Qin Tiange's blood. At first, it was integrated into her body from the corpse of her brows, regardless of each other.

At this time, Ziyi saw that Qin Tiange still refused to recognize her, and suffered a huge blow and stimulus in her heart. She was irritable to remove the part of Qin Tiange's blood gene and give it back to him.

I saw that Ziyi raised a small crystal hand and was about to insert it into his heart. He wanted to grab the blood veins belonging to Qin Tiange.

Seeing her like this, Qin Tiange's face changed slightly, his heart tightened, and he felt a throbbing sensation in his subconscious, as if if Ziyi had really done this, it would be his disaster.

Huh!

Almost instinctively, Qin Tiange's figure flickered and broke into the mighty purple gas, a small hand that caught the purple clothes and was about to be inserted into the heart.

"Don't you deny me, why stop me?" Zi Yi stared at a pair of violent pupils, staring up at Qin Tiange, growling angry.

The latter's expression was extremely complicated, but he clung to her little hand and did not let her pierce her heart. It felt really bad, and it felt like a heartbeat.

Qin Tiange always believed in his intuition. If he did this to Ziyi, he would not only lose a lot of things, but even cause a series of unpredictable disasters.

"Well, why are your tempers so irritable, and you see how you sieged and killed my compatriots with corpses, how can you let me recognize you?" Qin Tiange was also annoyed.

Ziyi's previous attack on the Shenzhen City Base, and this time led the corps to attack the Guangcheng Base, which made Qin Tiange even more repulsive.

Despite having a unique blood connection, he still couldn't accept such a fierce, killing corpse baby. But he didn't think about it, who abandoned her?

When Ziyi heard this, she pursed her lips and stubbornly said, "You don't want me anymore. I care so much. I just want to prove it to you. I am excellent. I just want to attract your attention and want you to see more Look at me and let you know that I'm not useless. "

After speaking, her eyes were full of water, and she was holding back the urge to cry. Yes, she was very wronged, and she felt the strong rejection and aversion in Qin Tiange's heart.

She didn't know why Qin Tiange disgusted her, so she wanted to get his attention again and again. As for why she left the city with the corpses, she originally wanted to gather more zombies on the Guangcheng side to take home and continue the attack Shenzhen City, if let Qin Tiange know her thoughts must be sweating.

As a result, she encountered the other three Zombie Overlords here, and they didn't want each other. This was how they attacked Guangcheng jointly, and this was the scene.

Next to him, the jade corpse was stunned, his eyes were extremely weird, looked at Ziyi, and then looked at Qin Tiange, and quietly backed away a little.

"You don't like me doing this, then I tell them to leave."

Said, Ziyi roared loudly, suddenly, the attacking corpses came to a halt, and evacuated like a tide.

Yes, with the command of Ziyi, more than five million powerful zombies retreated.

After the original fire corpse was killed, some of the zombies it controlled were automatically controlled by the purple clothing, a small part was controlled by the jade corpse, and another part was taken away by the six-armed Rakshasa and the corpse it originally controlled. .

Outside the entire Guangcheng base, the endless crowd of zombies had retreat strangely, and even a large part of them left early.

"Sister Yuer, this is what I mentioned to you, my father."

At this moment, the purple clothes filled with a smile, and happily introduced Qin Tiange to the jade corpse, making the two of them weird, especially Qin Tiange, having a fainting urge.

Why do you have a daughter? Moreover, he is still a corpse baby, this change is a little too fast, making him unable to adapt for a while.

But at this moment he had to do so, because the purple clothes turned against him and directly let him cut off a flame corpse, scaring off the six-armed Rakshasa and lifting the Guangcheng emergency.

Regardless of Ziyi, Qin Tiange would be willing to do just to relieve the crisis of the fall of Guangcheng. What about multiple daughters?

“Your name is Ziyi?” Qin Tiange opened his mouth softly, and released Ziyi’s little hand.

The latter lowered his head shyly after listening, a little crooked, and whispered, “This is my own name. Father, if you don’t feel good, give me another name, right?”

As she said, she looked up with anticipation, and the amethyst pupil was full of hope. She really hoped that Qin Tiange would not reject her and hate her.

Seeing her like this, even a hard heart can’t be lifted, Qin Tiange sighed in his heart and had to admit that his heart was touched.

“Ziyi, this name is very nice. It’s called Ziyi. My surname is Qin. Since you call my father, follow my surname. Later, you’ll be called Qin Ziyi.” It is a preliminary recognition of this inexplicable daughter.

“Qin Ziyi, Qin Ziyi, I finally have a name, and my father finally recognizes me ...” Zi Yi muttered to himself, as if stagnant, something in her heart called happiness was sprouting.

She finally got the approval of Qin Tiange, and she was very happy. For the first time, her face was filled with a happy smile.

“Ziyi, let the corpses leave first, and you, if you think you will continue to attack, I will remove you.” Qin Tiange said to Ziyi, and then stared straight into the distance. Jade corpse.

The appearance of the jade corpse was extremely complex, always watching, very vigilant, and never approaching. Now when I heard Qin Tiange’s warning, I immediately felt an eye.

Yes, that gaze came from Ziyi. She stared straight at the jade corpse, trying to speak.

“That’s it!” Jade Corpse interrupted her with an impatient look, and hummed, “Ziyi, you really make your sister embarrassed.”

As she said, she roared. In the corpse, those zombies who were still attacking immediately retreated and retreated densely.

Even those flying corpses in the sky had retreated, and the Guangcheng crisis was completely lifted. Qin Tiange could not help crying or seeing this result.

Just now, he killed four dead zombie hegemons. In turn, Ziyi turned around and chopped the flame corpse, scaring off the six-armed Rakshasa.

Now that is even more outrageous, Ziyi directly believes that Qin Tiange is his father. If Qin Tiange did not stop just now, he might have dug out the part of his blood that belongs to Qin Tiange.

The jade corpse was extremely embarrassed at the side and very vigilant.

Just one of hers, how do you face Qin Tiange’s father and daughter after they met? She was not stupid, and at this moment ordered the zombies to retreat directly.

“Ziyi, you are happy to find your father, but your sister is bitter.” Yujia corpse said quietly, looking at Qin Tiange resentfully.

In her heart, she always wanted to catch Qin Tiange in front of her face, and now it was all right, Ziyi jumped out of it, and her mind was completely shattered.

I want Qin Tiange to be her head, unless she kills Ziyi, but this will definitely lead to Qin Tiange’s violent murder. Even if she can kill Ziyi is still a big problem, so she can only sigh in her heart.

“Father, sister Yuer treats me very well.” Zi Yi suddenly raised her head and explained.

Qin Tiange’s mouth twitched and he secretly said, “Sister Yuer? And she’s good to you? If you don’t eat, you’re fine.”

Zombies generally eat the same kind of things, and use the same kind to evolve themselves. This is one of the reasons for the lack of powerful zombies in the zombie group, because they often fight each other and devour each other.

Qin Tiange looked at the corpse retreating, and suddenly warned solemnly: “Ziyi, since you consider me a father, you must be obedient, and you cannot lead the corps to attack human territory at will.”

“I see, father, I won’t do it in the future.” Ziyi lowered her head, like a little girl who did something wrong.

“Well, you leave first, I’ll look for you later.”

Qin Tiange watched that the threat from Guangcheng had been lifted, thinking, let Ziyi leave first, and then go to her after a while.

Ziyi was anxious first, but suddenly felt that the rejection and disgust in Qin Tiange’s heart faded, and his face turned into a slight surprise.

“Okay, father, do you remember to come to me?” Zi Yi looked down, but knew that Qin Tiange had something to do.

Moreover, she had just attacked the base of Guangcheng, and even if she was stupid, she knew it was inappropriate to appear here, otherwise it would cause a lot of trouble to her father.

She turned back step by step. She was really scared to go this way, and lost Qin Tiange’s father. She was disturbed.

Qin Tiange’s mood was complicated, it was just mixed flavors, and some of them couldn’t help laughing and crying. Finally, after thinking about it, he took out a delicate bracelet and carried it on the delicate little hand of purple clothes.

“This is a storage bracelet, it’s my first gift for you.” He brought the purple bracelet to the purple clothes and touched her purple hair lightly.

This thing cannot be obtained from the inheritance stele by purple clothes. Unless it is robbed of the past from some human hands, it is not that humans cannot obtain things from the heritage stele at all.

Jade Corpse's face was envious. If she had the storage equipment, she would have taken away the jade. How could it be Qin Tiange's turn to ***** it?

“Thank you father!”

Ziyi smiled sweetly, her face filled with excitement, grabbed the bracelet tightly, turned and happily walked away with the huge corpse, she looked back every time she walked, her eyes very reluctant.

“Brother Sister is waiting for you, giggle ...”

At this point, the Jade Corpse walked, suddenly turned back and blinked at Qin Tiange, fluttered a charming kiss, and then giggled, leaving the corpse with Ziyi.

Qin Tiange was full of black lines, watching the jade corpse leading the corpse to leave, he never left, it was really complicated in his heart, it is not clear how to describe the mood at this moment.

However, the crisis in Guangcheng Base was finally lifted, and although there were some accidents that caught him by surprise, it ended up being a happy ending.

Qin Tiange glanced twice before digging out the seven-star crystal nucleus of the flame corpse. The whole body was black and tinged with traces of melanin, looking extremely terrifying.

“The corpse retreated?”

At this time, millions of soldiers and civilians stayed in the Guangcheng base. Looking at the numerous corpses that suddenly retreated, how did tens of millions of zombies retreat?

Everyone was stunned and hadn't responded yet. One by one had already prepared for a ***** battle and carried him to the end, but never thought that the corpse would retreat.

Chapter 404 - Reentry Death Mission

Inside and outside the Guangcheng base, there was smoke everywhere, dead bodies piled up like mountains, and blood gathered into streams, which stained the city walls.

In the city, millions of surviving soldiers and civilians stopped and looked at the corpses that had retreated outside the city, none of them had responded.

How to kill and kill, the zombies retreated, and the corpses have already entered the base, it will not take long to collapse and fall.

But why did the corpses recede?

“Commander, the corpse retreated.”

On the city wall, a group of high-level base officers and strong men came to protect Lieutenant General Qi Shao, looking at the densely deceased corpses outside the city, all looking horrified.

Yes, they saw the corpse retreating, which was a bit unbelievable, because the defense on the Guangcheng base has been broken, and the fall is a matter of time.

But now seeing the corpse inexplicably retreating, the fool understands that something must have happened to the corpse outside the city, otherwise, the corpse will not retreat actively.

“Will it be that phoenix?” The general was covered in blood, his face covered with black blood, but his eyes were brilliant.

Lieutenant General Qi Shao looked out of the city and looked out of the city. He quickly found a white shadow and was quickly passing through the corpses to the outside of the base.

It was a white tiger with a young man riding on it and his armor was broken. It was Qin Tiange himself.

Bai Hu has always been barred from participating in the war by Qin Tiange, because the four zombies are dominated by seven stars, and they are more terrifying after the second evolution. White tiger went to death.

“It’s White Tiger, who is that young man?”

On the city wall, a group of high-ranking officers looked horrified, and some strong men looked dignified, because the breath revealed by the white tiger was a six-star mutant creature.

The young man even had a six-star white tiger mount, and he had to say that he had attracted the attention and vigilance of this group of seniors, but Lieutenant General Qi Shao was astonished.

“Is he?” Qi Shao, the veteran general, naturally recognized Qin Tiange, because Beijing had already passed on a secret letter and notified the young general of Huaxia’s latest book.

It was Qin Tiange that when he saw him, Lieutenant General Qi Shao could not help but have some speculation, maybe the corpse retreat was related to this.

“Go, let’s go down and introduce you to our youngest general in China.”

Lieutenant General Qi Shao showed a smile on his face, and led a group of suspected fox generals and experts down the city wall, opened the gate, and greeted Qin Tiange.

In fact, the city gate does not need to be opened. It has already been breached. It is just a form. After all, Qin Tiange’s status is higher than Qi Shao’s veteran general.

“Hahaha ... I said why the corpse retreated. It seems that it was our general Qin who killed the corpse.”

In the distance, Qin Tiange heard a burst of laughter, full of vitality, and saw an old general coming out, bloodied, with more scars.

His gray hair seemed a little old, but he could not be underestimated, but he was capable and capable.

“The old general’s sword is not old, and he is fighting hard. It is our model.”

Qin Tiange jumped out of Bai Hu with a smile, reached out and stretched out his hand, shaking hands with the old Chinese general who met for the first time.

Two people, one old and one young, one general and one lieutenant, looked weird.

“Your boy, all of you admired and learned how to compliment you. If this is the case, you have to go back and punish you with three cups.” The old lieutenant face laughed, laughing.

Qin Tiange met for the first time with a smile, but the strangeness and estrangement between them both disappeared inexplicably.

Soldiers may be straightforward, but don't think that soldiers are stupid. What General Qi Shao said was an old general over half a year old, and more people had met.

He could see at a glance that Qin Tiange had just experienced a **** battle outside the city. Needless to say, Phoenix and Baibird had a relationship with him, and the corpse retreat must have something to do with him.

This is tantamount to rescuing the entire Guangcheng crisis, and he will not play tricks on stupid people, not to mention that Qi Shao, an old and sophisticated man?

“Admiral Qin wants to come and has just experienced a battle, and Guangcheng has just experienced a **** battle. There are still many things to be done, or should I ask some medical soldiers to take you to rest?”

Qi Shao brought Qin Tiange into the city, and suddenly proposed this sentence, making a large group of elite army masters behind him look strange and blinking.

This group of people was very surprised that Qin Tiange turned out to be General Hua Xia. He had a higher rank than General Qi Shao, which was the head of the military region.

What's even more weird is this sentence of Lieutenant General Qi Shao. What is the meaning of the medical soldiers taking Qin Tiange to rest?

Qin Tiange looked dull, and said with a smile: “Old general, don't make fun of me. After the war there were many wounded, let the medical soldiers rescue other soldiers, don't worry about me.”

“Okay, your boy and I have an appetite. If it is an ordinary person, let alone the admiral, I will not give face to the old Chen of the capital.” Lieutenant General Qi Shao laughed and pulled Qin Tiange directly into the city.

Qin Tiange smiled, and felt that the old general was really hot and upright. Those who bluntly disliked his appetite did not give the face to Chen Guodong.

Soon, Qin Tiange followed Lieutenant General Qi Shao and others to the center of the Guangcheng Base. He saw his mind after seeing the assessment stone.

He laughed: “Old general, you have to deal with the aftermath of the base, I will go around alone.”

After hearing what he said, Lieutenant General Qi Shao didn't say much. After all, Guangcheng does have a lot of things to deal with.

This battle, however, caused heavy casualties. Not only was the army's ammunition loss, personnel loss, but also other survivors in the base as great as the loss.

Moreover, the wall of the base was broken. This is a very dangerous sign, and there are many things such as corpse cleanup, which is very troublesome.

“Okay, then you go around. I will send some guards to listen to your call.” Qi Shao turned directly and called for several female soldiers to follow Qin Tiange.

Well, looking at the three heroic female soldiers, Qin Tiange couldn’t help crying and laughing, must the female soldiers fail?

It wasn’t discrimination against female soldiers, but it felt weird. He just wanted to go to the stone stele for the task.

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange explained: “Old general, please go to work, I will take the task at the assessment stone.”

Having said that, he turned to the huge assessment stone in the center of the base. In the back, Lieutenant General Qi Shao and a group of elite base strong flashed.

“How strong do you feel he is?” Qi Shao asked suddenly.

Among a group of base military strongmen, a middle-aged officer blinked his eyes and suddenly said, “Commander, with my current six-star rating, I feel I can’t compete.”

“what?”

At this moment, the other senior generals were shocked, and then realized that the general had the true skill.

After admiring Qi Shao nodded thoughtfully, he suddenly laughed: “Xiao’e, Xiaoxuan, you two should entertain the young general, and you should not be slack.”

“Yes, Commander!”

The two pretty and upright female soldiers saluted, with a serious and serious face, they turned and strode to keep up with Qin Tiange’s figure.

“Let’s go and clear the battlefield.”

Lieutenant General Qi Shao converged with a smile, turned solemnly, and left with a group of senior generals to handle the aftercare work of Guangcheng Base.

In this battle, the base of Guangcheng was almost occupied. If a phoenix appeared for some reason, the corpse would inexplicably retreat, and it might have fallen.

Lieutenant General Qi Shao became more and more certain in his heart that the retreat of the corpse was related to Qin Tiange. As to whether Phoenix had called him, it was also possible.

Just look at his mount White Tiger. You can have a six-star white tiger as a mount. This is something that most people do n’t dare to think about.

“Commander, electromagnetic gun support, and Phoenix’s initial manifestation, are they all related to that general Qin?”

On the way, the most powerful of the army, the six-star master asked. He guessed that it should be all about Qin Tiange, this is the most amazing news and discovery.

Qi Shao bowed his head and thought for a while, and finally nodded, "The electromagnetic gun must have something to do with him. I have received news that there are many large-scale emerging weapons and equipment in the Shenzhen city base."

"It should come from a heritage stele!"

Many people speculate that it should be because of the inheritance of the stele. This has to make them sigh and worry. The times have changed and heroes have emerged.

Qi Shao is not worried. Although he only met for the first time and did not know Qin Tiange well, in terms of his experience of seeing people, Qin Tiange still gained his approval.

At least this is the case. As for the future, two people need to communicate with each other to really make a conclusion.

"You don't have to follow me, do your favor ..." Qin Tiange looked at the two female soldiers behind him, speechless in his heart.

But whatever he said, the two pretty female soldiers persuaded the order, and then followed without a word.

Qin Tiange shook his head, no longer paying attention to them, but thinking about his current strength.

Since being besieged by four seven-star corpse owners, under the thick threat of death, he successfully broke the limit barriers and thus gained promotion.

Originally, only the strength of a thousand people reached the limit, but this limit was broken. Now Qin Tiange feels that the strength in his body is the strength of two thousand people.

Fully breaking through the power of a thousand people is equivalent to upgrading a level, but it is an improvement obtained by breaking the original limit barriers, and the level is still three stars.

At this moment, if you enter the Kirin Transformation, you will double the combat power and have the power of 4,000 people. If you enter the Phoenix Transformation, you will have the power of 5,000 people.

This power is extremely terrifying, only three stars, but Qin Tiange feels that his level is too low. If it was fine before, it is not working now.

With the advancement of the second evolution of the earth's creatures, the strength of all creatures is skyrocketing, and it is difficult for him to support his current level. In.

If it wasn't for Ziyi to keep his hands on him in the battle, this might not be the case, and he might die tragically under the siege of four powerful seven-star corpses.

Everything, because of Ziyi's sudden collapse, faced Qin Tiange's side and directly damaged the flame corpse, allowing him to seize the opportunity to kill the flame corpse.

"Purple clothes ..." Qin Tiange had a complex complexion, and the last gap in her heart dissipated. How could she survive this time because of the purple clothes, even breaking the barriers of limit, no matter how hard her heart could not be changed, she saved it Qin Tiange.

call!

“It’s time to enter the assessment!”

Exhaling gently, Qin Tiange cleared his mood, went directly to the stone monument, and took the three-star death task assessment.

For a moment, the light flashed, and Qin Tiange disappeared in front of the two female soldiers, leaving only the two white tigers with their wide eyes looking at the guard lying on the side.

Chapter 405 - Task: Kill yourself?

Ding!

“Samsung Death Mission, Phase One: Beat yourself!”

In the obscurity, Qin Tiange woke up to his consciousness, heard this voice, and immediately hesitated, thinking that he was hearing aloud, but he heard it correctly.

The three-star death mission turns out to be a victory over yourself, kill yourself? Moreover, what caught his attention was that first-stage task.

“Don’t ...” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, and looked around vigilantly, only to find that here was a party platform, and the ancient platform was suspended in nothingness.

The entire platform is extremely wide, three thousand meters wide, and is cast from unknown rocks. It has a shiny metallic luster and is extremely strong.

Outside the ring, it was a gray void, and it was not clear whether it was true or false, as if there was a great chaos in nothingness, with a sense of terror.

“Overcome yourself ...” Qin Tiange murmured and glanced around, holding a large halberd, wearing an ancient sword around his waist, and the whole man’s energy and spirit gathered to the extreme.

If he guessed well, this mission is to play against himself, most likely a replicator.

Huh!

Sure enough, when the right thoughts fell, a light flashed in front of the platform, and a person gradually emerged.

Wearing black armor, carrying a large halberd, and wearing an ancient sword at the waist, this man is handsome and resolute, and looks exactly like Qin Tiange.

However, this man looked extremely indifferent, and in his eyes only eternal indifference and ruthlessness seemed to be a killing machine.

Turned out to be Qin Tiange’s replica, Samsung died, the first stage actually met himself, making him unable to help narrow his eyes to think, this is the first stage, is there any other stage task assessment?

“Only I know myself best. It seems that this task is not so easy to complete, and it is indeed a three-star death task.” Qin Tiange muttered, and a ray of burning gods burst into his eyes.

His heart was full of passion and war, instead of being afraid, he had an urge to scream and scream.

Why Qin Tiange is excited, naturally, he can make progress when facing himself. Although dangerous, he can see his shortcomings and make up for it and become stronger.

“Come on, let me see, how strong is my other self?” Qin Tiange smiled wryly.

The shock of Euphorbia trembled, the whole person disappeared instantly, and on the opposite side, the indifferent copy person disappeared instantly, both of them lost their tracks.

Huh!

In the middle of the ring, there was a sudden clash of gold and iron, and when the figures crisscrossed, they violently collided, setting off waves of air.

The two confronted, evenly splitting the autumn, Qin Tiange’s face became calmer and felt an invisible pressure.

He knew very well that the duplicators on the other side had the same level and the same strength as him.

Even the weapons are exactly the same, as if the opposite is also Qin Tiange, but the other party has no feelings, like a killing machine.

“kill!”

The two yelled at almost the same time, Qin Tiange vacated, and the halberd waved, and the opposite side, the duplicator swept in with the halberd in his hand, slamming together, and the spark burst into flames.

The powerful force made both of them retreat at the same time. Qin Tiange stepped on the platform and stepped back for more than ten steps before stopping, but his face was inspiring, and he grinned, as if he had found the joy of fighting.

There was a war in his heart, his eyes were burning, and almost a fire blew out. Instantly, a chaotic flame erupted from his body, burning.

boom!

At the same time, the people on the opposite side also ignited a chaotic fire, and the two figures flashed rapidly, constantly colliding and fighting on the ring.

Uh ...

Weapons collided, sparks sparked, and chaos flames tossed endlessly, but no one could do anything, but if you look closely, you can see that Qin Tiange’s subject is still a little bit worse.

Qin Tiange’s halberd danced, rolled up the flames of chaos in the sky, and enveloped the entire ring, but the duplicators on the opposite side were extremely horrible. With the same power and the same moves, no matter how Qin Tiange attacked, he could easily resist.

Uh ...

The two kept fighting fiercely, Qin Tiange fought faster and faster, and killed more and more fiercely, showing all his skills.

“Ghosts and gods, dominate the world!”

There was a loud bang. At about the same time, the two had an Xeon blow, and the ghosts and halberds collided with each other.

I saw that two huge virtual shadows collided in the air, and they kept on fighting each other.

However, if you take a closer look, you will find that the duplicator is more powerful, and the power of the ghosts and halberds seems to be stronger, more domineering and harsh, and it quickly suppressed Qin Tiange.

boom!

Qin Tiange's body was blown down, his chest was sunken, and blood dripped from his mouth, apparently injured.

However, he didn't care. A little wound was quickly recovered. What made him care is that the copying skills and abilities of the man were obviously stronger than him.

It was just this little bit that led to two people who were originally the same, and it turned out that his subject lost half.

“What you will have, what you will be, and stronger than I realize?” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, his eyes glowing with scorching gods.

He was so frightened in his heart that Euphorbia stabbed away with a buzzing sound, and took the copy of the eyebrow.

Huh!

This blow was easily blocked, and the two halberds collided with each other and sparked, regardless of each other.

“Kill!” Qin Tiange screamed with rage, the power of two thousand people burst out, let it go, took the other party as his own sharpening tool, showed all his abilities one by one, and found many deficiencies.

With the insight of his super brain, he quickly learned a lesson in the battle and corrected some of his defects.

Boom ... Boom Boom Boom!

On the huge platform, two silhouettes collided constantly. You came and went, and the halberds collided, sending out a terrible sound of crickets, the waves rolling away, and the chaos outside the platform.

The halberd danced, but unfortunately he couldn't help replicating the person on the opposite side, but he was suppressed by himself, because Qin Tiange understood everything, even more exquisite and profound than what he mastered.

I have to say that the duplicator is really powerful, Qin Tiange himself can't help but be surprised, is he really so powerful and terrible?

See, the duplicator actually used all his fighting skills to the extreme.

Uh ...

The collision continued, and the speed of the two reached its limit, and almost no trace was visible. Only the sound of a clash of gold and iron was heard, and the sparks spread.

Suddenly, some of the two men who were fighting fiercely were blown out, and after a few somersaults, they fell to the ground.

Click!

Qin Tiange rolled his feet and stepped on the platform. The rock was cracked and the two footprints were sunken. The horrible impact even shaken the platform rocks.

Powerful, horrible, and exquisite fighting skills put Qin Tiange under tremendous pressure. If he loses, he will die.

"I never thought that a Xibei cargo would be so strong." Qin Tiange looked surprised, and then chuckled: "Well, this opportunity is rare. I will use you to sharpen my fighting skills and completely improve my fighting ability. . "

"kill!"

Rushing again, the two were killed again in an instant. You came and went, and you couldn't make friends, and even Qin Tiange waved right in his right hand and swept away.

With a loud bang, powerful forces emanated from the collision center, sweeping away, shocking them both backing away at the same time.

"Ghosts and Gods, Kings Come to the World!"

As soon as the person landed, Qin Tiange raised his anger and whistled, a purple gas was rising, the blue mist was surging, and the chaos flames were boiling. The three were constantly intertwined and turned into a huge ghost.

This phantom is domineering and has the power of a king. The strong coercion revealed is surprising.

But what was even more surprising was that the opposite, the duplicator turned into the same huge ghost image, blasting each other at each other.

In the second form of the ghost and **** halberd, the world exploded. When the two collided, the world and the earth suddenly fell silent, and the air fell into silence and pause.

It was that the chaos around Huandai slowed down, and gradually, two virtual shadows collided with the center, and the huge force burst out suddenly.

The loud sound of Qilong spread, the platform was shaken, and the entire depression cracked, setting off huge blocks of rocks to penetrate the chaos void.

Huh!

I was surprised to see that the two halberds flew out at the same time and clicked into the ring. Then, two silhouettes flew out staggered, punching each other's chests, and both backed to the ground.

Qin Tiange's face was quiet and silent, he suddenly rose into the air, suddenly pulled out the ancient sword, snorted, and the two ancient swords collided together almost simultaneously, causing great damage.

Just hearing a click, the two flew back at the same time, Qin Tiange's chest armor was cut open with a huge sword mark, deep bones. On the other hand, he only stepped back three steps, and was only cut off the chest armor. There were no scars. It seemed that he lost half a chip.

The ancient sword vibrated lightly and buzzed, as if an angry sword groan came from him, exasperated like the ancient sword held in the hand of the opposite replica.

Qin Tiange was surprised and muttered, "I did not expect that the ancient sword would become angry. It seems that there is a secret in the ancient sword. It is not as simple as it looks, but it is better to be angry."

Thinking of it, he stomped on the platform, rising into the air, his body turned into a ghost, and his sword fell down.

when!

It was another collision. The two battled faster and faster, Jian Mang crossed, Dao Dao Jian Guang intertwined into a large net, completely covering them.

With a few gurgling sounds, Qin Tiange's armor shattered in many places, one after another, the sword marks appeared, and the bone was deeply visible, which was injured by the other party.

Although he also scratched the other side a few times, after all, he was a lot worse, and he was even more eager to sharpen himself with the copy in front of him.

"Kirin changes!"

At first glance, the two used Kirin to change at almost the same time, their strength soared, and the collision caused the entire ring to be shaken, extremely terrible.

boom!

I was surprised to see that Qin Tiange's body flew upside down, his chest was blurry, his bones were clear, and the purple light of jade, and at the heart position, the heart beating was clearly visible, and it was actually wounded.

"Good power, does Kirin Transform have such powerful power?" Qin Tiange got up hard, looking shocked, looking at the replica who also entered Kirin Transform on the opposite side.

What made him unbelievable was that he was beaten in a unicorn transformation without any counterattack and was hit hard by a stroke.

Standing up slowly, Qin Tiange looked dignified, and suddenly realized that the Kirin Change still had potential power that he had never touched, otherwise he would not be overwhelmed.

“Sure enough, I guessed right, there is still an unexploited potential power in the Kirin and Phoenix changes. Perhaps, this is the only chance for me to improve myself.” Be calm.

He carried the ancient sword and stepped towards the opponent step by step. The ancient sword quarreled and launched an aggressive attack.

“kill!”

The two figures collided swiftly, the figures were staggered, and they kept fighting, and they were killed again.

Chapter 406 - Metamorphosis, Sword Art

On the ring platform, the two figures collided swiftly and looked at each other. It turned out that they were exactly the same two people, no matter whether they were dressed in appearance, weaponry skills, or even strength.

However, in Qin Tiange’s view, the opposite mirror person is far more powerful than him, and obviously has the same level of strength, and the combat effectiveness he displays is stronger than him.

This phenomenon indicates that he still has room for improvement. Under the current strength, the combat effectiveness that has erupted can continue to increase.

Huh!

Two ancient swords struck each other, the two stared at each other face-to-face, Qin Tiange’s eyes calmed like a stagnant water, while the other side was indifferent and unwavering.

Just hearing a loud noise, the two started to shake one after the other, Qin Tiange’s backed up four steps, the other backed up two steps.

The difference between strength and weakness was instantaneous. Qin Tiange lost, and the fighting power and even the fighting skills were not as powerful as the other.

“Sword of the King!”

Suddenly, Qin Tiangeti’s sword drank drastically, and his body was full of energy, turning into a ghost image, and the Xeon sword came out of the sheath, and it cracked down.

However, the duplicators on the other side broke out at the same time, and a gray shadow suddenly met, and the two collided fiercely.

First listen to a loud bang, and then a thunderous tremor, the ring is shaking, the rock cracks and cracks.

A terrible wave of air swept from the collision center, and it opened up, setting off a cloud of chaos outside the platform.

In the center of the explosion, a large pit emerged, accompanied by some gravel, and a figure, his body was broken, his body was wolverine, and his mouth was bleeding.

Qin Tiange was injured. Not only was a sword mark drawn on his chest, but bones were deeply visible.

“Kill!” He shouted, killing with his sword, the most powerful fighting force broke out, and he fought endlessly with his clones.

In Jianguang, the two figures kept colliding and fighting each other, and the sparks splattered along with a drop of blood and spilled on the platform.

Qin Tiange was bleeding, his body was losing ground, and he continued to cough for blood, but he was still fighting. He was completely in the mood of fighting with himself, killing with all his heart, even if he was injured.

“Roar ... Phoenix changes!”

The next moment, Qin Tiange looked like a madman, with a roar, his body changed instantly, directly into the Phoenix transformation, his strength expanded, and his momentum swept through.

But unfortunately, the opposite replica also entered the Phoenix transformation, that overbearing force and horrific fighting power suppressed Qin Tiange.

Strength, combat effectiveness, skills, etc., copying the mirror man to suppress Qin Tiange, as if he was the main body, playing Qin Tiange defeated and bleeding, scarred.

Bang!

The two men rolled up the chaos flames into the air at the same time, collided and collided.

Qin Tiange killed his eyes, as if he had forgotten himself, forgot the time, and forgot everything, and only knew fighting, fighting, and fighting again.

He remembered a thought in his heart that was to kill the other party. This obsession was deeply imprinted on his mind, making Qin Tiange’s whole person look like a madman.

Once caught in the core of the battle, Qin Tiange was unable to extricate himself as if he was in a demon. His body was injured and his bones were cut off. He still rushed to fight again.

“Come again!”

Qin Tiange got up from the ring, raised his sword and shouted, and continued to kill. He was seriously wounded again and again, and he got up again and again and continued to kill, as if never tired.

The immortal body gave him the capital of Aolidai, and he could quickly recover from the serious injury, which was simply an undead Xiaoqiang.

Of course, once a super fatal injury occurs, it is likely that the undead cannot recover, and that is the real death.

Falling down once and being beaten down once and for all, Qin Tiange coughed up with blood, and his eyes were burning, almost burning.

“you lose!”

On the opposite side, the dumb duplicator who had been silent and cold opened his mouth and came out with this cold and ruthless word.

What he meant was that Qin Tiange lost because Qin Tiange was lying on the edge of the ring at the moment and almost fell off.

"I, I haven't lost ..." Qin Tiange struggled to get up, looking calm, the battle in his eyes was burning.

He stared at the mirror person opposite, saying, "In my dictionary, there is no winning or losing, only life and death."

"war!"

In a word of war, Tao said that at this moment Qin Tiange's heart-warming warfare was in his heart, and his strong fighting spirit supported him in his heart. The steel-like will made him not discouraged or even moved.

Here, it is a death mission. There is no winning or losing, only life and death.

This battle with himself was either the death of the opponent or the death of Qin Tiange. There was no other result.

"You are dead, I will go out on your behalf." The copy mirror man suddenly said this sentence again.

As soon as this word came out, Qin Tiange's pupils sent out two beams of horrible cold mangs, killing them, and Mori cut through his bones.

Qin Tiange snorted and chuckled, "You want to replace me. This is the biggest joke I have ever heard in my life."

"Come to battle!" With a scream, accompanied by Qin Tian Geti's sword, there was definitely a sense of death in it.

Since the other party is going to kill him to replace him, there is nothing to say, let's talk about killing.

Huh!

Sparks splattered, the two ancient swords collided together, and at the same time a burst of sword groan was issued, shocking the four directions.

In the stillness of silence, the suspended daisies began to vibrate, and the two figures constantly collided. The erupting power was extremely horrible, and the entire dais could not support it.

"kill!"

The figure flew, only listening to the angry killing, accompanied by the ghost shadow gathering, and arrogantly counterattacked, Qin Tiange even repelled the mirror man this time.

The mirror image of the human face is expressionless, and there is a coldness in the cold eyes, as if he had been ruthless and meaningless, even without any emotions.

This is a killing machine. It exists only for fighting and killing. The copied people are created in Qin Tiange's most powerful fighting form.

Uh ...

The two silhouettes staggered, the ancient swords collided, and they continued to fight. The more they killed, the more fierce they were. In the end, even Qin Tiange ignored his injury and played a life-to-life way.

He fell into madness, completely killed, and directly killed him, crushing the other party with the most brutal and direct means, and really hurt the mirror copy person.

I heard only a bang, and the duplicator flew out, and a sword mark appeared on his chest. It was the sword mark cut by Qin Tiange, and the bone was deeply visible.

Seeing that the other party was finally injured, Qin Tiange smiled, his smile was cold, and he hummed, "It turns out that you will be hurt too, I thought you were invincible."

"kill!"

The duplicator's complexion was more icy, and the sword was killed. The sharp edge pointed at Qin Tiange's face. He broke out of the strong sense of fighting and pressed Qin Tiange to pass through.

At first Qin Tiange was wounded by the opponent again and again, but as the fierce battle time passed, Qin Tiange even closer to each other.

Yes, the gap between the combat effectiveness of the two is getting closer and closer, Qin Tiange is getting more and more brave, and his self-confidence is becoming more and more sufficient.

Huh!

Suddenly a sword broke the opponent's blow, and Qin Tiange swiftly scratched the copyman's left rib with a click, and the rib was severed.

The duplicator stepped back and looked down at a severed rib. His indifferent brows couldn't help but raise his head slightly. For the first time, his mood changed.

"You can transform in battle?" The copy of the portrait was very surprised, a hint of fluctuation in the indifferent tone.

Qin Tiange even transformed himself in the battle. He directly oppressed himself with his copy, sharpened himself, and exchanged numerous scars for progressive transformation.

Between life and death, there is great terror, but there is also a great opportunity. If you grasp it, you will be able to fly into the sky and get amazing transformation.

Now, Qin Tiange has no fear of any challenge, even if he can not let him have a little fear.

In this ***** battle with his own mirror man, Qin Tiange has made unimaginable progress, the level is still that level, the strength is still those strengths, but the combat power that can burst out is not the same.

"Come on!" Qin Tiange came up with his ancient sword and said blandly: "In order to thank you for letting me complete the transformation, I will use your strongest sword to dissipate you."

Groan!

The ancient sword softly whispered, sending out a shocking sword groan, revealing a sharp, simple sword meaning intertwined with the fluency.

Qin Tian Geti sword, the whole person shrouded in a glorious light, that is a very small swordsmanship, as if there is a sense of understanding, at this moment the sword skill suddenly acquired transformation and sublimation.

“Under the heavens, there is no land for kings, no governor for the shore of the land!”

With a low murmur, Qin Tiange’s figure turned into a light soaring into the sky, agitating the boundless chaos and emptiness. Suddenly, the chaos gas boiled and rolled, quickly converging into a huge gray shadow, overlooking the world.

That phantom is extremely huge, drawing countless violent gases from the nothingness and chaos, and looking down from below, as if visiting his own country.

“dead!”

Xu Ying’s eyes were cold and spit out a word. With the sword rising from his hand, a gray sword-sword was chopped down and silently passed through the copying body.

The opponent didn’t even have room to resist, and even couldn’t make effective avoidance, and fell down silently by the gray sword light.

Slap!

Qin Tiange’s figure slowly landed on the ring platform, holding an ancient sword, and calmly looking at the mirror copying person not far from him.

A cricket rang, and the eyebrows were split, and the indifferent expression suddenly had a slight wave, and there was a reluctance and complexity in his eyes.

“You, win.” The duplicator said lightly, and after finishing the sentence, his body cracked into cracks, breaking apart like a statue.

The mirror copy was killed, and died silently under that sword. It was weird, terrifying, and extremely scary.

puff!

The next moment, Qin Tiange suddenly opened his mouth and sprayed a spit of blood, his face flushed, then paled, and he soon recovered rosy.

The Xeon sword just now has actually been touched by him to realize the threshold of the third style of swordsmanship, but he can’t really step into it, but he suffered some backlash after forcibly using it.

But it didn’t matter, and he recovered in a blink of an eye. Qin Tiange took a few breaths and looked at the mirror man as if the statue was broken. He was relieved.

call out...

At the moment Qin Tiange relaxed easily, his heart tightened, and suddenly he saw the broken mirror person, and suddenly a light flew out. The light that was about to reach the extreme blinked into his eyebrow, and merged directly into the sea of knowledge.

“Reward?” Knowing Hailong’s shock, Qin Tiange finally flashed the last thought in his heart, and then fell into the dim darkness.

Ding...

“Death Mission: The first mission is completed.”

“Starting the second phase mission ...”

In the dark, if there was a voice, if any, Qin Tiange’s misty consciousness felt a mysterious atmosphere.

Chapter 407 - King Shan, Mrs. Zhai?

In the dimness, Qin Tiange heard a mysterious voice, and his strong willpower wanted to stay awake, but in the end he failed to succeed.

“The will is still not strong enough ...” After a long time, when Qin Tiange woke up and glanced vigilantly, he had to make a sigh when he found that there was no danger.

The appraisal stele has an inexplicable power, which caused his consciousness to fall deeply into a deep sleep, which was very vague and could not stay awake at all.

The next moment, Qin Tiange looked at the surrounding environment and murmured: “Sure enough, I guessed it well, there is a second phase task ...”

He enters the second phase of the mission. The first phase is to kill his mirror person. What is the second phase of the mission?

With curiosity, Qin Tiange looked at the task prompts, and was stunned.

He found that there are only two messages in the task prompt, one is to remind that the first stage task has been completed, and the other is the second stage task, which shows that it is not completed.

But what surprised him was that there were no hints, and no information on how to complete the second phase of the task, and no hints on how to complete it.

“Why not prompt?”

Qin Tiange looked stunned, then looked serious, realized that the problem was serious, and there was no task reminder. How to complete the second-stage task?

Ok?

Suddenly, Qin Tiange frowned slightly, feeling something in the consciousness, and immediately looked up.

He soon discovered that this was a message, or a memory, and somehow had more memory.

“These memorized information ...” Qin Tiange froze and found that this information turned out to be information about his current identity.

This is something that has never happened before. He knows from the memory that he has become a king in the cottage.

Yes, this information details his current identity, where he is, and even some basic information in the cottage.

“Is this memory information a mission-critical reminder?” Qin Tiange had to guess like this.

Next, Qin Tiange began to carefully look at the surrounding environment, and found himself lying in a fragrant room, which was arranged like an ancient house.

From the wooden bed, Qin Tiange looked around in the room for a while, and looked at himself, still in black armor. Euphorbia stood on the edge of the bed, and an ancient sword was placed beside the pillow.

Picking up the ancient sword and wearing it on his waist, he picked up the halberd, Qin Tiange opened the door and walked out of this ancient room.

“King!”

With a squeak, the door opened. As soon as I came out, I saw two burly men, holding steel knives standing on both sides of the door, and when Qin Tiange came out, he bent down and saluted.

Qin Tiange’s eyes narrowed and he was surprised and said, “What happened to this mission, even I was given an identity in advance. It seems that he is really the king of the cottage.”

Yes, the two goalkeepers called him “Big King”. This was a lot of information, which made him unable to guess.

Can it be difficult, in the second phase of the task, assign yourself an identity in advance, and then let him think and guess the task himself and complete the task? Qin Tiange thought for a while, and then looked at the dress of the two, with fierce looks, and knew that they were bandits.

“Bandit ... Shan Wang ...” Qin Tiange immediately guessed that he was a cottage bandit leader.

Sure enough, as he walked out of the door with no expression, and came out, he saw the scene in the void at first glance. Four huge planets surrounded a sun and looked extremely shocked.

“Is this real or imaginary?” Qin Tiange questioned again, and suddenly began to doubt.

He stared at the sight of the sky, the distance of four huge planets, looked extremely huge, surrounded by a huge bright sun, much larger than the earth’s sun, how it all looks in the outer planet world.

Subsequently, Qin Tiange walked around here, combined with the extra memory information to check the specific situation. Soon, he really found out that this is a cottage, extremely large, which can hold more than 100,000 people.

The entire cottage is built on a huge mountain range, with steep cliffs on three sides and a height of three kilometers. Only one side can go up and down the mountain, which is easy to defend and difficult to attack.

Moreover, during his inspection, he found that there were many bandits in the cottage. The number was huge, at least tens of thousands, all of them were burly, powerful and fierce bandits.

According to his observations, among the 10,000 bandits, the weakest one is one-star, while some powerful bosses have two-star or three-star strength. Of course, there is a second king.

“Bandit’s den ... King Shan, King 2?”

Behind the cottage, on the edge of a cliff, Qin Tiange quietly looked into the distance. Through the clouds and fog, faintly visible mountains, thousands of meters and even tens of meters high peaks, extremely majestic.

He was thinking that his current task was even assigned an identity, and there was no prompt about the task information, which made him feel that the second phase of the task was tricky.

This is a bandit’s den, and his identity turns out to be the head of these bandits. So how to complete the second stage task?

Without a hint, Qin Tiange frowned slightly, guessing: “It’s difficult, let me guess and find the task myself, it’s a bit difficult ...”

Qin Tiange rubbed his eyebrows, feeling very troublesome, and the task was not prompted, he should not try to complete it easily and effectively. The only thing he could do was find and guess the task.

The most critical question is that he is arranged to be a king of the mountain, then the task must be related to this level of identity. If you guessed it, you can complete the task if you do it right.

If the guess is wrong, or even the wrong step is taken, then the mission should not be completed, and the death mission finally shows its terrifying side.

“King, King ...”

At this moment, a burly man hurried over, with a surprise on his face, as if there was something great.

Qin Tiange turned around and asked lightly, “What are you looking for?”

The man laughed, “Hey, the two kings came back with their brothers, and they brought a lot of gold and silver treasures. The most important thing was to grab a lot of beautiful women back and wait for the king to pass.”

As the words came out, Qin Tiange’s eyes flashed a fine light and secretly said, “The two kings? Did they just go down the mountain to **** money and return the woman?”

“It seems that my task prompt is coming ...”

Qin Tiange walked, thinking secretly with a smile, followed the burly man, came to the central Juyi Hall of the cottage.

When I came here, I saw a large group of men surrounded in the center of the hall. On the ground, there were huge iron boxes filled with gold and silver jewels, exotic objects, and jewels.

“King!”

“The king is here!”

Soon, Qin Tiange’s arrival caught everyone’s attention, and he looked up excitedly one by one, but some people smiled.

Qin Tiange watched the reaction of these people secretly, and knew in his heart that the whole cottage was not his word, and those who respected him and saluted were all he could mobilize.

And those convergent smiles are just arched hands, and even those who are motionless are those who can’t move the orders, maybe these are the two kings.

“Brother, are you here?”

I saw a person walking out of the crowd, with no need to face, tall, wearing a set of chain mail, looking at the handsome and handsome, a beautiful man.

This person is the two kings in the cottage. Qin Tiange knew some information about this person based on the extra memory information.

His name is Lu Feiyi, and his origins are unknown. He only knows that a strong young man joined the cottage a year ago, and soon became the second king.

This guy, faintly has a position close to Qin Tiange’s king. Looking at him with a smile on his face, he is arrogant, and even his eyes are cold.

“interesting!”

Qin Tiange suddenly laughed in his heart. This task was very interesting, that is, it was unclear. It was the unknown that could test a person better. Whether it was mentality, thinking, or all aspects, it could be reflected in the task.

“The second child is back.” Qin Tiange nodded faintly and walked directly into the discussion hall, allowing the smile on Hou Feiyi’s face to converge, and there was a hint of murder in his pupil.

Although he covered up well, he was clearly captured by Qin Tiange and snorted in his heart. The two kings had a bad heart. It seemed that he wanted to kick him down and become a king himself.

“Brother, you see, this is the result of my brothers going out for a catastrophe this time. I met a big sheep, full of gold and silver jewellery, drugs, spiritual materials, exotic objects.”

In the Juyi Hall, the four largest boxes were placed. Lu Feiyi opened the boxes, which contained some rare treasures.

Qin Tiange's pupils flashed a fine light, and he was secretly surprised, because these things turned out to be herbs and spirits, and even many of them were rare treasures that could be used to refine medicine and enhance their own strength.

"Is this all taken?" Qin Tiange asked without expression, calmly.

In fact, he was very puzzled, where to grab these gold and silver jewellery, as well as herbs and spirits, even rare and rare, is not easy.

I saw, Lu Feiyi laughed: "Brother, you don't know, we found a huge convoy 30 miles below the mountain, carrying these things, and brother, do you know what else we grab back?"

Look at him mysteriously Qin Tiange flashed a ray of light in his eyes, and asked with a smile: "The second child, you talk about it, what other robbed baby is coming back?"

"Bring it up!"

Lu Feiyi didn't speak, but clapped her hands. Several big men walked in immediately outside the Juyi Hall, and brought a group of beautiful girls, and they were all a group of wonderful women.

Moreover, these women are white and delicate, with a slender figure and a good-looking appearance. They even robbed 18 beautiful women back?

Moreover, what Qin Tiange noticed was that one of the women had been covering her face with veil.

"These women are all dedicated to your elder brother. The elder brother is not too young. Just pick one and be Mrs. Zhaizhai. Everyone say isn't it?" Lu Feiyi said, and suddenly he sang loudly, which immediately aroused both inside and outside the Juyi Hall. There was cheering echoes.

"Mrs. Zhai?"

Qin Tiange was expressionless, his finger was lightly hitting the seat armrest, and he was thinking about the task secretly. How can he guess the focus of the task based on the current information?

Chapter 408 - Murder at the celebration party

"Come here, drink!"

"Three more bowls!"

In the night, the wild tiger village is brightly lit, the torches are lit, and the flames illuminate the entire gathering place of the cottage.

Here is where most of the entire wild tiger village gathered. At the big feast, a group of burly men dressed in leather armors gathered in groups of three or five, gathered together to yell and drink, ate meat, and drank in large bowls.

They were all fierce-looking, drunk and smoky, and a band of bandits made people see at a glance that this was a bandit's den.

On the theme, Qin Tiange smiled and looked at the eight people sitting on both sides, all of whom were eight small heads in the cottage, three-stars, with a combat power of two hundred people, each leading a thousand people.

As for the young man sitting below him, it is the two kings in the cottage Lu Feiyi, four stars, the strongest on the whole cottage surface, a level higher than Qin Tiange, the mountain king, with a combat power of four hundred. The power of people is extremely powerful, and this celebration party is his attention.

Sitting next to him was a woman in a white shirt and dress. She was graceful and beautiful, with a veil covering her face, but she couldn't hide the faintness of the city.

She's eyebrow-like, like a piece of ink painting, she looks like Qiu Shui, her eyes look at Qin Tiange from time to time, and she can still see a touch of smile under the veil.

"Come and present the good wine we hijacked."

Suddenly, Lu Feiyi stood up, waved his hands and shouted, and saw two burly men lift up a huge jade altar quickly.

The jade altar is half a meter tall and crystal-clear. It is polished from a jade structure. The ancient pattern is imprinted on it, exquisite and exquisite, and there is also an ancient font on it.

"Gongzi?" Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and looked at the ancient typeface on this jade altar, which is very similar to some ancient Chinese writing. It is a tribute.

He immediately realized that the wine was probably a tribute, perhaps a tribute to the aristocrats of the ancient palaces, and even a tribute to kings and princes.

In addition, Qin Tiange can't think of what kind of wine is made of jade. Even he wondered if there was a huge dynasty here?

Whether the mission world is true or not, it has a huge background. This was the case a few times before, so Qin Tiange couldn't help thinking.

"Brother, this is the wine we hijacked. Open it up and let the king taste it." Lu Feiyi glanced slightly, and said the origin of the wine with a smile.

However, Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and looked at the altar, it seemed that there were traces of opening, and the sealed lines above had traces of passiveness.

"It's nasty, this Lu Feiyi seems to have a ghost in this celebration ..." Qin Tiange smiled, but couldn't help sneering.

I saw that the jade altar opened, and a strong scent of wine filled it, immediately attracting the attention of many bandits nearby.

"Brother, how does it taste the best tributes?"

With a smile on his face, Lu Feiyi poured a large bowl of wine and carried it to Qin Tiange with both hands. His attitude was very sincere, as if he was a loyal little brother.

Qin Tiange smiled and nodded, praising: "The second child is interested, I have you in the wild tiger village, really a blessing for my brothers."

"Big brother has passed the prize." Lu Feiyi blinked his eyes, and replied humbly.

He retreated to his place and raised a wine bowl to lift up: "Brothers, celebrate today, let's worship the King."

"King King!"

Thousands of people raised the big bowls together, all of them flushed and drunk, all clamoring to respect Qin Tiange, the mountain king.

Next to him, the hijacked woman gently held up the wine bowl and brought it to Qin Tiange, with a twinkling light in his eyes.

"Thank you all for your love." Qin Tiange took a smile and took this bowl of fragrant, fine wine.

He stood up, glanced at everyone in the room, and looked at the heads of the eight little heads. The smiley eyes made six of them bow their heads unconsciously.

But there are two other small bosses who show respect, and that respect for Qin Tiange, the King of the Mountain, cannot be faked.

In the end, Qin Tiange put his eyes on Lu Feiyi and smiled even more. He said, "Second, you have done great work this time, why do you still drink this ordinary drink?"

Having said that he left the position directly, took the wine bowl and came to Lu Feiyi, took the ordinary wine in the other's hand, and put his own bowl of tribute wine in his hand.

Qin Tiange said earnestly: "Second brother, you have made a great contribution this time to seek so much money for your brother in the cottage. I thank you for your brothers."

"Brothers, respect the second king!"

Then, Qin Tiange himself raised the bowl of ordinary drink and drank it, and everyone immediately drank it.

"Dear King Two!"

With a sound of excitement, there was a roar of excitement from the man in the cottage, all of whom felt that Qin Tiange was right.

This time the two kings made great contributions and should toast. As a result, everyone in the room drank, leaving Lu Feiyi in there, holding the bowl of tributes a little at a loss.

His face changed, and his eyes were a little gloomy. Does he dare to drink this bowl of wine? He didn't dare, because he had made hands and feet in the wine. He made it himself, so he dared not drink it.

"Here, eldest brother, the tribute wine is for the elder brothers. I can't break the rules. Instead, I will use tea to replace the wine, and respect the elder brothers and brothers."

Lu Feiyi said as he put down the wine bowl, picked up a bowl of water, and mumbled and drank it. Humph!

Qin Tiange looked cold and hummed, and broke the porcelain bowl in his hand. For a time, the entire cottage square was quiet.

His eyes were slightly cold, one word at a time: “Boss, I reward you for this bowl of wine. You didn’t drink it, didn’t you give me this big brother face, or did you say there was a problem in the wine?”

“Brother, misunderstanding!”

Lu Feiyi’s complexion changed slightly, and he was about to explain, but Qin Tiange picked up the bowl and handed it to him. The aroma smelt and changed his complexion.

“Since it’s a misunderstanding, drink it.” Qin Tiange was expressionless, and a faint word spread. Many people stopped and looked at the atmosphere between the king and the second king. It seemed that the atmosphere was not right.

In the square, some people quickly gathered together, quietly holding the weapon, his face was a little cold.

The atmosphere of the entire cottage suddenly condensed, and many drunk people suddenly woke up with alcohol and started to sweat coldly.

“Big brother ...” Lu Feiyi’s smile disappeared, his eyes were cold, and he hummed, “I call you a big brother to respect you, without calling your big brother, you are nothing.”

“Oh, you mean, want to take my place?” Qin Tiange smiled, and that smile was a bit piercing.

Humph! Lu Feiyi snorted, and when he broke the bowl of wine, he tore his skin directly, discarded his camouflage, and revealed his true face.

“Yes, I just want to take your place.” Lu Feiyi stepped back two steps directly, admitting that he was going to replace Qin Tiange.

With a look of resentment, he yelled, “Look at what you did as the Queen of the Mountain in Zhaili, nothing. All the expenses in the Zhaili were hijacked by me when you went out, and you will be all day long. I haven’t seen you make any achievements in training any soldiers in the cottage. “

“Everyone said, what kind of future do we have for such a king?” Lu Feiyi shouted with his arm and immediately attracted a lot of support.

“Yes, we want to eat delicious and spicy.”

“We want women, we want gold and silver treasures.”

For a while, the entire wild tiger village was boiling, and the snoring wave was higher than the wave, and most people even followed the coax, even premeditated.

Qin Tiange looked at the noisy scene, looking calm, but sneered in his heart, not worried at all.

“Brother, give way, brother, I can give you a way to live.”

Lu Feiyi gently pulled out a sword, cold and sparkling, revealing his murderous power, and had torn off his final disguise to kill Qin Tiange.

“Give way, give way!”

Below, of the eight little bosses, six little bosses were directly embarrassed and supported Lu Feiyi, while the other two little bosses changed their faces, took out weapons to protect Qin Tiange, and looked at the group with anger and alertness.

“Want to force me down?” Qin Tiange smiled, waved his hands, and let the two head forward to guard his little heads away.

With both hands empty, the ancient sword at his waist whispered a little, step by step not far in front of Lu Feiyi, and looked up and down the two kings in the cottage.

“Brother, don’t blame me. If you blame you, blame you for doing nothing.” Lu Feiyi looked cold, revealing his murderous power.

He was a stride, and his sword struck Qin Tiange’s neck like lightning. In his opinion, as a four-star powerhouse, he was the strongest in the entire village. The head will fly down the next moment.

Flutter!

The sound of a flesh cut came, and a figure stopped. The sword was only three centimeters away from Qin Tiange’s face gate, but it could no longer pierce.

Lu Feiyi smiled stiffly, his face flickered with horror, stretched out his hand to cover his neck, opened his mouth to speak, but spit out a stream of blood.

“Eh ... hmm, you ... why ...” He widened his eyes Speaking a few words in a difficult way, but finally he didn’t finish, his head bone rolled down and blood spewed up. Three feet high.

Lethal, he did not understand, when Qin Tiange shot, and how did he kill him? In Lu Feiyi’s view, Qin Tiange was the material that was cut and killed by himself, and the three-star star would surely die when he faced him.

Yes, one person died, but it was not Qin Tiange who died, but him.

“Ignorant is fearless, you look down on me, thinking that three stars can’t kill you?” Qin Tiange looked at the dead Lu Feiyi, kicked his head and murmured on the six dumb-eyed little ones Head to toe.

“what...”

“The second king is dead!”

Suddenly, the whole cottage was bombed, and countless people were shocked, and some were afraid, especially the six little heads who were constantly backing, looking at Qin Tiange in horror.

“I have committed the following offenses, and I have been killed in situ.” Qin Tiange said, sweeping sharply across the audience, smiling softly: “Now, who else of your brothers will be on the road with him? “

Chapter 409 - Mission-critical

In the wild tiger village, the second king Lu Feiyi was killed, and all his relatives were killed by Qin Tiange, and no one dared to jump out.

After a rebellion and killing at the celebration party last night, the whole tiger village has become a little different, and everyone is even more awed by the king.

“King ... it's time to get up ...”

In the morning, a shy woman voice came from the room, covering her face with a veil, covering her face.

On the bed, Qin Tiange slowly opened his eyes and hugged the ancient sword with his hands, even when he was sleeping.

As for the woman who called him to get up, it was the most unique of the miraculous women who had been robbed.

Qin Tiange took the handkerchief from the other side to slap his face, and from time to time he looked carefully at the strange woman who was waiting for him. The veil had never been taken.

“Tell me what is your name, what is your identity?” Qin Tiange washed his hands and asked gently.

The woman trembled when she heard it. Although it was slight, she was captured by Qin Tiange, and she looked at Qin Tiange secretly, and lowered her head quickly after seeing his expressionless face. With a touch of glory.

“The king, the young lady Qin Ji, is the princess of the country of meng ...” She whispered about her life and origin.

It turned out that she was a princess of the Dao Kingdom, and her identity was not simple. No wonder there were so many gold and silver jewelry, medicinal spirits, and even royal tribute in the hijacked things.

“Due to successive years of war, Dasong's national strength was emptied, leading to the invasion of foreign nations, falling apart, and rebellion inside. My father and a few elder brothers killed the King City, leaving me to escape. Bao went to a neighboring country for help, but never wanted to be abducted by the king. “

Qin Ji said, sobbing softly, as if thinking of his own parents and brothers, remembering the tragic scene of the country's ruined family, immersed in sorrow for a while, crying into tears. Pity.

“King, Qin Ji has a merciless invitation, and hopes that the king will be complete.” Qin Ji said with sobbing lightly, kneeling slowly.

Qin Tiange didn't say a word, sitting there watching her motionlessly, thinking quickly about the connection between this woman and the task.

Just listen, Qin Ji begged: “I beg the King to let me go. The little girl hopes to go to a neighboring country for help.”

“Oh?” Qin Tiange didn’t move, his eyes flickered continuously, staring at Qin Ji, who was kneeling in front of him, the big princess who was all over the country.

How can I tell her appearance? In fact, how can a layer of veil block Qin Tiange’s sharp eyes, a thin veil, as if it does not exist.

It is such a look, plus other women’s looks are all superior, accompanied by gold and silver jewelry, medicinal spirits, and even royal tribute wine, which had to cause Qin Tiange to doubt.

Moreover, the task did not have any hint, Qin Tiange had to seize every suspicious place to think repeatedly, and wanted to follow the task’s focus and relevance.

“The cottage ... the king of the mountains, the king of the two kings, the princess of a country ...” Message after message flashed in his mind, constantly calculating and thinking.

Soon, Qin Tiange straightened out these seemingly unrelated things. For example, when he appeared, he was a mountain king of a cottage, and there was a second king who had a conjecture.

Coincidentally, the two kings happened to hijack a large number of gold and silver jewellery, returned the precious treasures, and hijacked a large group of fine-looking young women who came back, thinking that there were problems.

In the end, a banquet was celebrated. In fact, there was hidden murder, such as tribute wine, which was poisoned by Lu Feiyi. As long as Qin Tiange drank it, it would inevitably die, which is equivalent to the mission failure.

If Qin Tiange is an ordinary three-star strength, even if he knows that the bowl is poisonous, he still cannot escape Lu Feiyi’s killer, because Lu Feiyi is a four-star powerhouse.

“If you can’t get past Lu Feiyi’s level, then you can’t talk about the next tasks, one after the other, and the tasks are interlocking. This task is not easy.” .

Otherwise, this time it is estimated that it is very sad. There is no hint for the task. You can only rely on your own wisdom to make judgments and choices. You can take a wrong step forever.

After killing Lu Feiyi and controlling the entire wild tiger village, the next thing is to question the identity information of the hijacked woman. Gradually, Qin Tiange found the mission key.

The key lies in the body of this professed princess, Qin Ji.

This time she was going to bring a gift, and even took herself as a gift to go to a neighboring country for help.

“You go to the neighbouring country, can you really ask for support?” Qin Tiange said quietly for a long time, and said something lightly.

He looked at Qin Ji lying in front of him, gently reached out to help her, and asked, “Since your parents and relatives have already killed the King City and the country has broken down, why not find a safe place to live incognito?”

With tears in her eyes, Qin Ji said with a sad and resentful voice: “The little girl just wants to go to a neighboring country, and asks the owner of the neighboring country to help her return to the country.”

puff!

Hearing this, Brother Qin Tian couldn't help laughing, hahaha laughed, and heard the happiest joke.

This laughter made Qin Ji startled, unknown, but quickly thought that it was ridicule, his face was dim, and his eyes were full of sadness.

“Is the king making fun of Qin Ji's ignorance?” She said with a ridiculous smile, very miserable.

Qin Tiange converged with a smile and shook his head and said, “You are a bit naive and the country is gone. Even if you go to a neighboring country, you may not be able to get real help. Even if you donate it with yourself, it is In exchange for perfunctory, in the end you will only be locked in the deep palace and become the plaything of the owner of another country. “

“But Ke Qin Ji has no way, even if it pays a great price, it is necessary to kill those traitors. As for whether the country can be restored, it is not important.” Qin Ji murmured with no eyes. Talk to yourself, sink into sad memories.

Qin Tiange stood up and walked around the room, thinking quickly that Qin Ji, the fallen princess, was the key to the mission?

Reunification, is this the mission? Qin Tiange didn't know, but he knew that he had to be cautious, otherwise he would lose all the wrong steps.

“By the way, you just said, foreign invasion?” Qin Tiange suddenly remembered a bit, Qin Ji just said that foreign invasion.

He turned around and stared straight at her. This sad princess, Qin Ji, seemed to be the key to the mission.

“Yes, the king, the invaders of the Black Horn clan army invaded. Although they were repulsed by my father and king, these foreign armies also suffered heavy losses. This was only used by those traitors.” Qin Ji gently wiped her tears, explaining stand up.

After hearing Qin Tiange's eyes narrowed, his eyes flickered as if he had grasped the point, and the invasion of a foreign clan would be equivalent to a conflicting point of some kind of task.

He remembered his first two missions, the first time was in a small primitive tribe, when a tide of beasts invaded, and he helped those tribal primitive people to complete the mission.

And the second time, the same is true. At that time, the blue blood tribe, he chose the human race, because he was originally human.

Therefore, the Blue Bloods were slaughtered and the mission was completed. So, is this the same task around racial war?

“If I help you regain your country, what will you reward me for?”

Qin Ji, who was crying, suddenly heard this sentence, the whole person froze, looked up suddenly, staring blankly at Qin Tiange in front of him.

This bandit king, she couldn't believe it, thinking that she had heard it wrong. How could a bandit in this area want to help her regain her country?

"King, are you serious?" Qin Ji is a little uncertain, and wants to say that you really can't.

Qin Tiange frowned slightly and said unhappily: "Why, am I kidding?"

"Still, do you think I have no ability to help you complete the great cause of reunification?" He was a little plain, but showed a strong self-confidence.

Although it seemed really difficult or impossible to restore the country, Qin Tiange had this confidence.

Don't forget his current identity, a tens of thousands of cottage kings, holding 10,000 bandits in their hands, all powerful, this world can't be his nest of bandits, right?

According to the information he has learned, there are at least hundreds of bandits, large and small, in this mountain range.

Qin Ji bowed her head slightly, flashing a gleam in her eyes, and quickly raised her head to face Qin Tiange, with a serious look, and slowly took off the veil on her face, revealing the glamorous appearance of the country.

Qin Tiange's eyes brightened, but there was no variegated, no trace of fluctuations, despite the extremely beautiful appearance of Qin Ji, it can be said that it is not an exaggeration to upset all beings.

But he is always awake, this is an imaginary task space, no matter how beautiful it is, and what he has to do is not to look at women, but to complete the task.

Qin Ji's eyes flashed inexplicably, with a shy face, and she said softly: "If the king really wants to help Qin Ji regain his country, Qin Ji will serve the king for life, and he will be a slave and a slave, no regrets!"

"Also If the resurrection is successful, Qin Ji can also send the treasure of Daxu Town to the King." Qin Ji solemnly said this sentence.

When Qin Tiange heard this, he felt a shock in his heart, and secretly flashed a joy: "Walking right, the mission is here, the restoration of the country, the treasure of the town, want to come the same as the ancient sword and planet seal."

Missions must have rewards. So, will one of the rewards be the so-called treasure of the town?

"Okay, I promised you to help you restore your country. You don't have to go to neighboring countries for help." Qin Tiange waved his hand and promised to come down.

Since the focus of the task is on Qin Ji, then she cannot be allowed to leave. She must stay with her. The next step is to plan how to help her return to the country and then complete this task.

The restoration of the country was a very complicated and difficult matter. Qin Tiange sighed in his heart that the task was more difficult than ever.

“Thank you for your success!”

Qin Ji faced with surprise, then shy and cramped, two red glows appeared quietly, and then she slowly opened her belt.

Chapter 410 - Break through 4 stars, inexplicable spying

Squeak!

The door opened, Qin Tiange came out expressionlessly, closed the door gently, and was relieved.

“Restraint, restraint, you can’t ruin yourself for a moment of joy.” Qin Tiange told himself secretly, must restraint.

Just now, Qin Ji took off his clothes one by one, this is to show him.

But Qin Tiange not only didn’t have any thoughts, but he didn’t dare to touch any woman in the task space, because he was afraid of what to do if he met the task.

How do you know that this is not an assessment? In the evaluation of the stele, everything in the task space may be the evaluation, and he is naturally extremely cautious.

Qin Tiange took a deep breath and secretly squeezed a sweat. He was really a little emotional just now. The ancient women who were so famous and incomparable to the country were not able to match the beauty such as Chen Xi. Turn around and leave.

laugh...

After he left, there was a slight chuck in the room, and I saw, in the room, Qin Ji’s face was pink, and every piece of clothing was worn back, shy and charming.

Her perfect figure can only be described by heavenly fortune, it is natural, flawless, and it is a man’s nemesis.

However, Qin Tiange restrained himself and did not mess up. One was that he did not want to be nostalgic in the illusory world, and the other was that the task was the most important.

How do you know that this is not part of the task assessment? Human, sometimes you have to stay awake and have a knife on your head.

Qin Ji’s mouth is smiling, her eyes are shy, she is sitting quietly in the room after wearing her clothes, and her pupils are constantly flashing a strange light.

“It’s a special person, it seems ...” Qin Ji said, suddenly turning his face back to normal.

Qin Tiange didn’t know about these. At this moment, he was coming to the training camp of Manhuzhai, watching thousands of people gathered there to practice.

These people, after the incident last night, have been rectified again, killing those who belong to Lu Feiyi, and most of them born have surrendered.

“King!”

When thousands of people saw Qin Tiange’s arrival, they immediately shook their spirits and shouted Qi Qi. They looked very imposing, but they were actually a group of Wuhe people.

Qin Tiange was expressionless and sighed in his heart. He really wanted to die by relying on this group of Wuhe people.

“Everyone listen to me. From today on, I will personally train you. If anyone does not listen to the orders, then I don’t think you want to see it.” Qin Tiange glanced across the crowd and said flatly. sentence.

Thousands of bandits present had a cold heart, and Qi Qi snorted, looking down with sharp eyes, afraid to look at each other.

Qin Tiange said, “If you can’t train according to my method, then leave me alone and leave. There is no waste here.”

“Start training!”

Watching thousands of people begin to learn the entire team and train according to the new plan formulated by Qin Tiange, no one dares to disobey, because those who disobey are killed.

He needs a new army and a powerful army in order to talk about the restoration of the country. This task is not simple. It is not only the internal forces of human beings, but also the traces of foreign nations. It cannot be completed without strong power. This task.

After watching for a while, Qin Tiange turned and left, instead of staying, he came to the warehouse location of the cottage.

Here, there are special guards who are always guarding the warehouse gate. Seeing the arrival of Qin Tiange, the great king of the mountains, the two guardians immediately gave way.

Click!

After opening the door of the warehouse, Qin Tiange walked in and saw a jewel of jewels that was ignored by him.

These things are of no use to him, but they can flock to recruit soldiers and horses, and reward them to the people.

He came here for those medicinal spirits and rare treasures. These things can be used for refining medicine, and even he guesses whether he can improve his strength in the mission world?

With curiosity, Qin Tiange came to the place where the herbs and spirits were stored and saw the countless herbs stored in the entire cottage.

Huh!

Qin Tiange held his chin and said, “The two kings really did a good job, hijacked so many herbs and spirits, and came back cheap.”

Speaking, he directly asked people to remove these herbs, spirits, and other precious things, and take them to a hut behind the cottage.

There is a spring eye here, crystal clear, is the only source of water for the entire cottage.

“I don’t know, can I refine my medicine in the mission space?” Qin Tiange was curious. He entered the mission space, and the space bracelet could not be brought in.

Except for the halberd and the ancient sword, everything else could not be brought in, making him unclear whether it was true or not.

Fortunately, there is a bronze tripod in the cottage, which can be used to boil medicine. Don’t forget that he has talent and chaos.

Boom!

A bit of bronze tripod was carried and placed near Quan’s eyes. Qin Tiange then began to prepare the medicine. This time, he wanted to use the bronze tripod to boil a tripod of liquid medicine and upgrade his current level of repair.

He wanted to see if he could improve his cultivation in the mission world? If it can, even if it’s fake, that’s a good thing. At least it’s strong, and the task is easier to complete.

“These medicinal materials are at least over a thousand years old, and they are so diverse that I have never even seen them before.”

Qin Tiange began to sort out the medicinal materials, and couldn’t help but marvel. He knew the information of many medicinal materials, but had never seen them before.

And there are a lot of spirits and even a few rare treasures here, all of which are good things that can improve your own strength, you must try.

Bear!

A group of gray flames burned from the bronze tripod. Under the careful control of Qin Tiange, the temperature of the chaotic flame was not very high, otherwise the bronze tripod would melt.

Soon, as the water in the bronze tripod began to boil, Qin Tiange put all kinds of medicinal spirits into it.

This is a boiled medicine, not a refinement, because he has limited things now, and he must have the furnace to refine things.

Therefore, I can only settle for the second best, to develop a pot of medicine, and improve my current strength, which is quite exciting.

Grunt grunt ...

It didn’t take long for the medicinal materials in Bronze Ding to start to be burned, and the medicinal juice was gradually melted into the water. Soon, the water was evaporated a little bit, and the rest was the most precious medicinal essence.

All kinds of medicinal materials and all kinds of spirits were thrown away, and even a few rare treasures were finally added to it. Finally, after a long time, Yidingbao medicine was boiled out by him.

“Let me see if it works.”

Qin Tiange looked forward, looking at the half of Ding Jing’s medicinal liquid, the faint light appeared, the aroma was tangy, and people couldn’t help but want to take a sip.

First of all, Qin Tiange directly filled most of the medicine in Dingbao, drunk it with a big mouth, and even finally lifted up the medicine, swallowed it, and drank it all, leaving nothing left.

“Ha drink!”

After Qin Tiange drank the treasure medicine, he suddenly sang loudly, his face turned red, and only felt a magma in his body tumbling and roaring, extremely uncomfortable.

However, he could bear it, and quickly put on the posture of cultivating body technique. The first form of mysterious body technique was domineering, as if a overlord was in the sky.

Then enter the second form of mysterious body surgery, drunk lying on the knees of a beautiful woman, a mysterious purple air gathered from the void in the distance.

In front of Qin Tiange, it turned into a hazy woman’s virtual shadow, and danced the dance of the city. Gradually, the cultivation gradually entered a good situation. The woman’s virtual shadow slowly supported Qin Tiange with her body. Shadow is plunged into deep cultivation and comprehension.

Inside the body, a huge stream of energy is constantly scouring, a little bit of starlight emerges, and there are 2,000 starlights, which are densely scattered outside the body, turning into a small piece of starry sky, it is very mysterious.

The purple gas swelled like an emperor sleeping there, accompanied by beauty.

In the obscurity, it can be seen that Qin Tiange’s nose and nose spewed a purple gas, constantly intertwined around the body, turning into a cloud shape, making him even more mysterious.

Click!

Suddenly, a slight crackling sound came from Qin Tiange’s body, as if something was broken.

Immediately afterwards, a powerful breath permeated, the chaos flame boiling, and it became even more powerful, the temperature was extremely high, and the air was distorted.

I saw the phantom of Qin Tiange’s woman suddenly turned into a purple gas and melted into his body. Suddenly, a powerful force surged out of his body and melted into Qin Tiange’s body and flesh. .

There were more and more stars. The original 2,000 stars had doubled in an instant, and 4,000 stars had flickered.

One starlight represents the power of one person, and four thousand are the power of four thousand people. Qin Tiange successfully broke the rank barriers, stepped from a three-star to a four-star, and officially became a four-star master, soaring in strength.

call!

For a long time, when Qin Tiange woke up, he opened his mouth and exhaled a black gas, piercing the rock in front like a sharp arrow, and shattered into pieces on the spot.

Exhaling is like a sword. This is a magical effect that naturally occurs after the body is strong to a certain degree, as if it were a fairy.

Of course, with Qin Tiange's physical strength, genetic level, and even the realm of strength, he has already transcended the paradigm of mortals.

Qin Tiange looked slightly pleased and murmured: "It really can improve the level and strength, it seems that I ignored this before, just do not know whether these improved strength in the assessment space is true, after the task is completed and left Can it be taken away? "

This issue is still unknown Only after leaving this mission, I left here to understand these things.

Qin Tiange stretched his waist, his bones were arguing, and the sound of crackling fried beans was extremely dazzling.

"Well, who?"

Qin Tiange turned abruptly, sweeping the halberd, banging, and a vigorous old tree in the back collapsed, the dust was rolling, and the rubble was flying. He stared there, a large tree lying on his back, but it was not his attention.

Just now, when Qin Tiange was promoted to a four-star level, he felt a peep behind him, but he turned around and found nothing.

"Strange, who just felt a peep just now, who is it?" Qin Tiange looked horrified, staring behind the fallen tree, but unfortunately nothing.

He frowned secretly, thinking in his heart that he would not feel wrong, that was a peculiar induction brought by the surge in strength, and that induction would not be wrong.

With a hint of doubt, Qin Tiange brought up the halberd and went step by step.
