

Dark Ages 411

Chapter 411 - Fire beast

Houshan is a vigorous ancient forest. The trees are soaring and the rocks are huge.

When Qin Tiange came here, his brows grew darker and deeper, and he felt something came here before, leaving a scorching air in the air.

“What the * is it?” Qin Tiange secretly watched, holding the halberd, and following the scorching breath.

Soon, he passed through this vigorous ancient forest, came to a huge rock dozens of meters high, and saw a hole, dark and faint.

There was still a trace of fire in front of the cave entrance, which was definitely the breath left by some creatures, which aroused Qin Tiange’s vigilance.

He didn’t know what was behind this cottage, and he could only guess secretly, wouldn’t there be powerful beasts living here?

But if there are really beasts, why haven’t you heard of the bandits in the cottage, or even heard of beasts attacking them.

“Go in and take a look.” Finally, Qin Tiange decided to look into the cave. What was hidden inside?

With curiosity, Qin Tiange stepped into the cave, and darkness couldn’t block his sight. The cave was large, and there were traces of being stepped on by the creatures on the ground, and the burnt traces of scorching black made him extremely surprised.

Qin Tiange is the most sensitive to the atmosphere of fire. Just now a little snoop was captured by induction, and then as a phoenix, he sensed the atmosphere of fire.

Qin Tiange cautiously, quickened his pace, walked along the cave all the way in, and gradually, he felt as if he was walking down the mountain.

Yes, this cave twists and turns, but it seems to lead to the valley below the cliffs of Houshan.

For thousands of meters of mountains, a cave was hidden behind the cliff. Qin Tiange couldn’t help but be surprised and curious, and quickly caught up.

Finally, ten minutes later, Qin Tiange saw that there was light in front of him, that was an exit, and there were bushes blocking it.

“This is ...” Qin Tiange stepped out of the cave, looked up, and saw a valley.

Sure enough, it is a valley, and it is also a valley below the cliff behind the cottage. Looking at the valley from above, surrounded by mountains on all sides, there is no entrance at all, and I do n’t know that there is a passage into the valley.

This valley is extremely large, with a radius of ten kilometers. It is like a huge pasture with rich green grass and a small stream winding in the center.

hiss...

Above the valley pasture, a loud hissing came from time to time, as if there were wild horses living here, which caught Qin Tiange's attention.

With a look of excitement, he rushed out of the grove and came out, just to see a fiery shadow flashing on the grass.

"Oh?" Qin Tiange was surprised when he saw the shadow, and felt the strong element of fire, which was emitted from the fiery figure.

Moreover, a breath of fire element is the same as that left in the cave.

Qin Tiange's eyes flickered, he looked hard, and finally saw the true face of the fiery red figure that ran fast.

It was a strange beast, shaped like a fierce horse, with a horn on its head, sparkling fire, covered with dense scales all over the body, burning red, burning flames, and looking at the extreme god.

"Breaking fire strange beast?" Qin Tiange exclaimed, a flash of joy in his heart, that strange beast turned out to be a fire beast?

The fire beast, rumored to be an ancient beast, has the appearance of a great steward, powerful power and speed, and a body of flame, shaped like a steed, called a fire beast.

This strange beast is powerful and terrible, it is generally difficult to see, and it may not be able to capture it.

hiss!

There was a flash of fire, and Qin Tiange was spotted by the beast of fire, and a loud hissing sound from the sky suddenly caused the whole pasture of the valley to shake.

The shock was getting stronger and stronger, and a rumbling sound came, which made Qin Tiange's pupils shrink, he secretly surprised, and then exulted.

Bang ...

The ground shook, as if there were thousands of horses galloping, a large wave of fiery red waves appeared. One was up to two meters in size, covered with red armor and burning flames, and formed a fiery red wave.

Fire-fighting beasts, and a huge group of fire-fighting beasts, is incredible. Why is there such a large number of fire-fighting beasts in this valley?

"Ha ha ha, cavalry of other beasts ..." Qin Tiange looked ecstatic, and the corners of his mouth were about to go to heaven, not to mention the excitement in his heart.

He didn't expect to find a large group of strange fire beasts here. Such strange beasts are simply the best natural mounts.

The lowest of these fire-fighting beasts are one-star strange beasts, but the speed is much faster than many two-star and even three-star strange beasts.

In addition, these beasts of fiery fire are extremely superb, with hard armors, strong defenses, and even lower attack power. Therefore, they are a kind of born perfect mounts.

“There are at least 10,000 fire-preventing beasts here. You must think of a way to tame them, so there will be 10,000 fire-preventing cavalry.” Qin Tiange licked his lips.

He didn’t even care why there were a large number of fire-fighting beasts here, and he didn’t even think about these issues. As long as he saw them, that was a good thing. Why did he appear here?

hiss! Rumble ...

The beasts rushed, the boundless flames rolled, and the rumbling swept through, the terrible impact of ordinary people will be frightened.

But instead of being surprised, Qin Tiange showed a look of joy, his eyes locked on a leading fire-fighting beast in the fire-fighting beast group.

This strange beast is even more majestic, with red blood on his scales, and a unique flame flickering on his horn. His eyes are full of pride and violent light.

It is the king of the fire beast. It is the most powerful fire beast in the entire group. It has three stars. No wonder it can lead all fire beasts.

“It’s up to you!” Qin Tiange sighed in secret, and his body did not retreat, directly affecting the tens of thousands of fire monsters coming from the violent shock.

Suddenly, Qin Tiange accelerated abruptly, his body leaped high, and he crossed the thousands of meters in the void, and landed on the back of the beast-headed strange animal.

hiss!

When Qin Tiange rode on, the fiery beast suddenly hissed, his four hoofs kicked, and he jumped high, banging on the ground and setting off a huge smoke.

It stepped out of a large pit on the ground, but unfortunately, Qin Tiange did not move, sitting firmly on its back, with a smile of excitement on his face.

Qin Tiange smiled and sat on the back of the Beastmaster, smiling: “Very well, it is indeed a natural mount. Just thinking about how to form a cavalry, you brought me so many beasts. “

hiss!

This beast of fire is extremely violent, jumping wildly, wanting to throw Qin Tiange down, and even burning flames covering Qin Tiange, but unfortunately, the flames want to burn a phoenix?

“Submit!” Qin Tiange waved his fist, hitting the head of the beast of fire, and the powerful force made the eyes of the beast strange.

The severe pain made him angry and hissing, jumping like a thunder, accelerating suddenly, running wildly in the valley, jumping for a while, jumping for a while, but unfortunately he couldn’t shake the person on his back.

No matter how much it struggled to resist, after all, it was impossible to get rid of Qin Tiange's repression. In the end, his strength became weaker and weaker, and Qin Tiange was struck on the ground by one hand.

Hiss ... The leader of the Beast of the Fire sent out a wailing, rushing forward, and rumbling, but stopped motionless, and dared not approach.

Their leader was trapped on the ground, unable to struggle, gradually weakened, and soon ceased to move.

Hiss ... Hiss!

A hissing sound resounded in the valley, and it has not subsided for a long time. Tens of thousands of powerful fire-fighting beasts sighed together, but did not dare to rush up.

In the end, the head of the beast of strange fire struggling slightly, panting, and let out a weak hissing noise.

"Submitted?" Qin Tiange heard this tweet, a smile appeared on his face, and he knew that the fiery beast had surrendered.

In fact, in the face of Qin Tiange's surge in power now, this three-star beast of fire has no room to resist.

He held it with one hand, unable to move, and finally gave in to Qin Tiange's men and surrendered directly.

As the leader of the fire beast surrendered, the next moment, tens of thousands of fire beasts made a hissing sound, representing that this population was captured by Qin Tiange.

"Ha ha ha ha, good!"

When Qin Tiange saw this, he couldn't help laughing, and that laughter spread through the valley, arousing a lot of weird birds, flew away with wings.

After tapping the leader of the beast of fire that was in front of him, Qin Tiange laughed: "Since you have surrendered, then let those of your kind wait here, and someone will pick them down soon."

Speaking of this, Qin Tiange patted this down payment beast, which rose into the air, turned into a gray shadow, and flew up the mountain with the flames.

In the valley, a group of strange fire beasts gathered around, all of them looked very anxious, hissing and groaning from time to time, looking very sad.

They moaned around the leader of the three-star beast, which seemed to be telling something.

The leader was despondent, hissing hissing, lethargic to survive in the valley, but he did not expect to see Qin Tiange.

The appearance of Qin Tiange is destined to make this 10,000 fire monsters become mounts, so there will be a 10,000 alien beast cavalry team Back to the cottage, Qin Tiange keeps on guarding, except to guard the gate Outside of him, he summoned all the personnel directly, and took tens of thousands of people down the cave to the valley.

“Oh my God, it's a strange fire?”

“How could there be a fire beast here?”

Tens of thousands of people rushed into the valley, and when they saw the tens of thousands of flaming beasts, they were shocked one by one, and then ecstatic.

I saw Qin Tiange's order: “Everyone, go up and select the fire-fighting beast as a mount. From now on, you will be stranger cavalry and train me fiercely in the valley.”

“Yes!”

The crowd was cheering, countless people cheered, and rushed straight up, each picking an eye-catching beast, as a mount.

With the discovery and taming of the Beast of Fire, Qin Tiange will have a powerful alien beast cavalry regiment.

The mission of resurgence is a step further ...

Chapter 412 - 9 village 18 ditch

One month later, on the rugged mountain and the wild tiger village, the training scene of 100,000 people was extremely spectacular.

These people were all in the past month, Qin Tiange led 10,000 fire cavalry to attack around, and smashed 100,000 people gathered from bandits of various sizes.

He already knew clearly that the mountain range here was called Dangdang Mountain, and there were hundreds of bandits of large and small bandits. For a month, all the bandits of small and medium bands had been cleaned by him.

One hundred thousand people, this is the result of his continuous mad raids over the past month. Of course, there are still some relatively large bandit forces here, known as Jiuzhaibagou.

Jiuzhai actually includes the wild tiger village, but the wild tiger village was originally the weakest one, but due to his recent moves, it caused the shock of other Bazhai and Shibagou forces and has gathered into an alliance to compete. He is a guy who suddenly lifts up.

“The protagonist, the other Bashaigou forces in Jiuzhaishibagou have united the Shibagou forces to form a huge alliance.”

In the Juyi Hall, a group of people gathered here. Qin Tiange Gao sat down and listened to an elegant middle-aged man on the side to introduce the current situation in the Dangdang Mountains.

At present, Jiuzhaishibagou is out of his wild tiger village, and other forces have already formed a unit to fight him.

This middle-aged man was named Yu Qing. He was a talent discovered during the Qing Dynasty's mid-sized cottage. At that time he took the initiative to surrender without Qin Tiange's suggestion. It was a good talent.

There were also eight heads, three four-stars, strengths of about three or four hundred, five three-stars, and strengths between two or three hundred. All were bandits being beaten.

“Sir, at present, the other Bazhai forces joining the Shibagou forces are swaying the mountain. The leaderless side gathers to discuss how to deal with us.” Yu Qing finally said this sentence.

Because they called King Shan to make Qin Tiange very unaccustomed, they asked them to change their mouths and call them the protagonist.

Qin Tiange was expressionless, his fingers lightly hit the table, Qin Ji was veiled beside him, and quietly poured wine for him.

Just listen to him say: “At present we have 100,000 trained troops, plus 10,000 fire cavalry. Now that they are gathered together, it is just a mess.”

“The order, the army assembled, followed me without a leader.”

After Qin Tiange finished speaking, he stood up, drank the fine wine in the bowl, and directly ordered the army to gather, and immediately set off, leaving the remaining bandit forces in a slump.

It was better to gather. He was still wondering how to knock down the cottages one by one, but each cottage was built on the mountain, which was easy to defend and difficult to attack.

This time, they have gathered together, and they want to discuss how to deal with him. This is an opportunity. It is better to solve it at one time.

The silhouettes of the wild tiger village gathered, and 100,000 troops gathered. Although the armor was mixed, at least there was a shadow of the army.

Demon training for more than a month still has a little effect. Moreover, these bandits are more than one star, a small number of two stars are the leader of the team, and three stars and four stars are just the leader.

As for the 10,000 fire cavalry, it is Qin Tiange’s guard, which is currently the most powerful cavalry legion. It has selected all two-star replacements from 100,000 people.

In other words, in fact, the fire cavalry is composed of two-star powerful bandits, led directly by Captain Qin Tiange.

When the army of wild tiger villages gathered, it was far away from the headless men in Dangdang Mountain, and there were also countless bandits and bandits, at least 200,000.

With such a large number of bandits, Qin Tiange is inexplicably surprised. How many bandits and robbers are hidden in a dangling mountain?

“Jackpot, it’s too bullying.”

On the headless, a group of fierce bandit bosses are negotiating. One of the burly and fierce men slaps the table.

He looked very angry and exclaimed: “That pretty tiger village has done too much, violates the agreement of Jiuzhaishibagou and must destroy his power.”

“Yes, pretty tiger village has eaten large and small hills, and now has gathered a hundred thousand troops, we must destroy him, otherwise the next one is us.” Said a middle-aged man with a cold face hate.

At the scene were all Jiuzhai Eighteen Ditch strength brains. Nine cottages and eighteen ravines formed a huge bandit group.

Here are eight cottages, the most powerful one, which can have 50,000 horses, which is incredible.

In Shibagou, there are eighteen ringing horse heads, all of which are cavalry. They are very famous in this area.

These eighteen ditch ring horse thieves add up to 90,000 cavalry, and they are riding a variety of strange beasts, very powerful.

Because the ringing horses are cavalry, and the number is somewhat inferior to the cottage bandits, it is Jiuzhai first.

“Master Dazhai, how do we fight?” Someone said, asking the figure who hadn’t talked in the main seat.

The man was shrouded in a black robe, and he could not see what it looked like at all. The only thing he could see was the hand holding the wine bowl, which was extremely thin. Although his skin was not very white, he looked absolutely a woman.

Yes, the most powerful cottage in Jiuzhai turned out to be a female bandit, and couldn’t believe it.

But no one dares to underestimate the figure of the other cottage leaders and the sounding horse head of Shibagou, but there is a sense of awe.

“I guess he’s already killed with the army.”

The owner of the mysterious Dazhai opened his mouth softly, not concealing the woman’s crisp voice, which was extremely pleasant.

She guessed that most of Qin Tiange had led the army to come here now, ready to wipe them all out, and the guess was correct.

“He dares to come better, and we just save the time to find him.”

“Yes, let him die.”

“The 10,000 fire cavalry is arrogant, this time let him see how strong our cavalry is.” An eighteen ditch screamed.

Then, a group of bandit leaders began to discuss how to uproot Qin Tiange, a wild tiger village.

Of course, the owner of Dazhai did not speak, and seemed to be thinking about the sudden rise of Manhuzhai.

“Report ...”

At this moment, a silhouette rushed in, a spy.

With a hurry and anxiety on his face, he knelt down when he came up and said in a hurry: “Report to the villagers, visit the Malay newspaper, and find the army of the tiger village, thirty miles away.”

“What, so fast?” Some people stood up in surprise.

But soon it quieted down, one by one with a faint smile, as if imagining  the wild tiger village next.

The arrival of the wild tiger village army aroused the attention of the bandit leaders, excited, worried, and ridiculed, but the big village host shrouded in a black robe was silent.

The female fierce band, who did not know what excels, was able to command a huge cottage, and even became a bandit leader.

Her strength is absolutely very strong, otherwise in a cottage like this is a fierce bandit, it is really rare for a woman to be a host.

“Everyone, go back to gather the various armies and prepare to meet the enemy.”

The master of Dazhai stood up and directly ordered the assembly of various Zhai army to prepare for the raid of the wild tiger village.

With these words coming down, eight cottages and eighteen ravine horses left the Juyi Hall in chaos and called their respective men and horses to prepare for the battle.

“The people of Wuhe ...” The female bandit murmured as she looked at the head of the cottage that had left in chaos.

It is indeed a crowd of people in Wuhe. Don’t look at the hundreds of thousands of people in eight cottages, plus the 90,000 ringing horse army, which is enough for the 200,000 army.

However, it must be clear that between these cottages and between the Eighteen Ring Horses, there is actually a disagreement between faces and hearts, and no one is willing to obey the arrangements of others to rule.

It was precisely because of this that Qin Tiange led the army outrageously. Since the eight cottages and the ringing horses in the eighteen ravines came out, they just hit the net.

“Yu Qing, where have we been?”

On the way, Qin Tiange rode on the three-star fire-fighting beast, followed by Yu Qing, the current power strategist.

Yu Qing looked at the surrounding terrain and affirmed: “Master, we are less than twenty miles from the headless.”

“Lord, you see, the half of the mountain in front is no head.” Yu Qing pointed to a faintly visible peak in front.

The whole mountain is a thousand meters high, and it looks like it has been cut off halfway by the Shengsheng. It is extremely weird, so it is called headless.

There were 200,000 troops gathered there, and the mountains came down densely, because the roots of the mountains could not be used, and they must come down to meet the enemy.

Finally, the two armies met less than ten miles apart and met on a plain.

In the 200,000 army opposite, there were 90,000 ringing horse thieves, riding various strange beasts, the team was roaring, there were strange beasts roaring, the staff laughed, scolded and noisy, and looked at a group of black people.

In contrast, Qin Tiange's side, although there were only 10,000 fire cavalry, but everyone was wearing heavy armor, holding a spear, and stopped here neatly and solemnly.

Behind them were 100,000 troops, all of which were infantry soldiers. Although they were not neatly looked at, they were at least much better than the 100,000 army soldiers on the opposite side.

“This person is difficult to deal with.”

There In the head of the bandit in Jiuzhaishibagou, the female bandit pulled a black robe, and for a moment revealed her true appearance, and her dignified face was extremely dignified.

She saw through at a glance, and there was a trace of the army in the army led by Qin Tiange, which they could not match.

Ok?

Here, Qin Tiange's face was slightly condensed. He originally thought it was all Wuhe, but suddenly found an abnormality in the army opposite.

In the 200,000 bandit army opposite, there was a team that looked extraordinarily clean, with uniform armor and bright weapons, and revealed a powerful killing spirit as a whole.

“Which cottage team is that?” Qin Tiange pointed at the whole team and asked seriously.

Yu Qing answered with a glance: “The protagonist, that is the most powerful cottage in Jiuzhaili, the number one Feiyanzhai. The owner is a female bandit, but the identity, name and strength are unknown.”

“Oh? Female bandit?” Qin Tiange was shocked. He turned out to be a female bandit and immediately aroused his curiosity. It was amazing that he could train a whole army.

Chapter 413 - Surrender or die!

The two armies confronted each other, and the atmosphere was extremely dignified. There were more than 200,000 bandit troops over there. This was a 110,000 army in the wild tiger village. It looked like this was weak, but it was not weak.

Suddenly, the wild tiger village army rushed out of a flaming figure, which was a three-star beast, and came to the center of the army on both sides.

The visitor was Qin Tiange, and when he saw him, in the Jiuzhai Shibagou Alliance opposite, the Dazhaizhu and Shibagou Xiangmatou immediately caused a lot of movement.

“What is he trying to do?” A hostess was surprised, looking at Qin Tiange in front of him for a while, uncertain.

I saw, Qin Tiange riding the fire beast, walking slowly, his eyes sharply swept across the huge bandit army.

Qin Tiange’s eyes swept over the several wall owners, and his attention was most concentrated on the female bandit in the black robe, with the strongest breath.

He suddenly yelled, “Give you a chance, surrender, or die!”

Quiet!

The scene was quiet, all the noise ceased, no one spoke, only his words echoed here.

Qin Tiange spoke and the bandits on the other side surrendered. This made the bandits on the other side feel ashamed. Everyone was dumbfounded, as if looking at a fool.

“Ah ha ha ha ha ha...”

Suddenly, the 200,000 bandits on the opposite side burst into laughter, and the scene was a little out of control.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange’s mouth slightly tilted, humming: “A group of black people, bandits are bandits, all proud, a word has caused a huge riot in the team, today will not die, when will it die?”

“what did he say?”

“Tell us to surrender?”

On the opposite side, more than 200,000 bandits laughed and talked. The whole scene seemed extremely hot, as if it were a vegetable market. Everyone laughed and laughed at Qin Tiange, all like a fool.

The other side is only 110,000 people. There are more than 200,000 people here. This is twice as much. The other side even let them surrender.

“joke!”

As soon as a loud drink came, he saw a man rushing out on a huge strange beast. He was carrying a huge mace with a fierce face.

This is one of the villagers, with a strength of four stars and about four hundred people. He looks extremely powerful, but in the eyes of Qin Tiange, it is nothing.

He rode the strange beast to the front of the battlefield and sneered: “Boy, you should go home to feed yourself and surrender, otherwise you will have no place to die.”

“Be careful!”

Suddenly, Jiaoyin came from behind, and the Dazhai host uttered a reminder, many people didn’t understand it.

But the next moment, the host’s face changed wildly, feeling a crisis overwhelmed, seeing Qin Tiange suddenly plucked a bow to turn into a full moon, three sharp arrows locked him.

collapse!

There was a blast, a sharp arrow whistled, and three arrows were coming through the air. The speed was so extreme that they could not even be caught. Without waiting for the host's reaction and avoidance, three arrows were inserted into three parts of his body. .

Flutter!

An iron arrow was inserted into the heart, eyebrow, and throat. The man's eyes were raised, his body trembled, and he twitched to death.

With three arrows in one shot, he killed a Zhaizhu directly. For a time, the whole scene was quiet, the needles were heard, and everyone was shocked.

Before the battle started, a Zhaizhu was shot and killed here.

In fact, that guy ran out stupidly. If he didn't come out, Qin Tiange really couldn't shoot him.

"Damn, he killed the host!"

There was a panic of 30,000 people, some were furious, and the bandits were all in a mess, and the whole team was roaring.

The owner was dead, and these people seemed a little at a loss, not knowing what to do next. As to who to order, this was another problem.

"Cavalry, strike!"

When the people on the opposite side panicked and dumbfounded, Qin Tiange lowered his bow, took out the halberd and waved gently, and launched an offensive command.

Bang!

Suddenly, the 10,000 fire cavalry moved, speeding up instantly, the impact of rumbling came up, the spear was cold, showing endless killings.

The fire beast was very fast, and he rushed to Qin Tiange not far behind in the blink of an eye. Then he urged him to sit down and speed up.

"kill!"

The two armies were within ten miles of each other, and they arrived at the blink of an eye. The Qin Tiange took the lead, and the halberd hit the bandit team in front.

With a bang, dozens of people collapsed on the spot, their flesh broke up, and they were killed in one shot.

Immediately after, 10,000 fire-fighting beasts were killed, and this woke up the bandits who raged and exploded.

"Damn it, stop him, stop him!"

"Cavalry, cavalry, come on!"

The host and the eighteen ringing horse heads were frightened and angry, looking at the 10,000 fire cavalry who suddenly attacked and killed, one by one appearing a little busy.

Everything happened too quickly and suddenly, and they couldn't react yet. First, a Zhaizhu was shot and killed, then a cavalry attacked, Qin Tiange took the lead, and no one could stop it.

He led a 10,000 fire cavalry straight into the hundreds of thousands of infantry. The selected location was the place of the slain host team. It was fast and powerful, and the timing was extremely accurate. The other party caused great confusion.

“what...”

Screams, screams, and horrifying growls intertwine, and the whole team is chaotic.

The Wuhe people are the Wuhe people. They can't form effective defense and resistance at all. Even if the eighteen ring horses and their heads lead their cavalry teams to chase down, they eat dust in the back.

Moreover, these cavalymen chased behind the 10,000 fire cavalymen of Qin Tiange and others. Instead of having no effect, they played a negative role and completely dispersed the entire infantry team.

“A bunch of jerk!”

The female bandit was extremely angry and looked at the ten thousand cavalry who hunted Qin Tiange like a fool with eighteen horse heads and fools.

Tell me, isn't it good for you to directly kill the 100,000 troops on the opposite side? How do you chase this 10,000 cavalry?

In fact, you can't blame them. Because they are habitual, generally, the ringing horses are chasing horses and chasing the enemies. After seeing Qin Tiange killing them, they react instinctively and chase them to kill the 10,000 cavalry.

The tragedy turned out, and more than 100,000 bandit bands were rushed. Fortunately, the female bandit leader felt bad at first, and immediately gathered her team and retreated directly.

With a somber complexion, with 50,000 infantry, 5,000 cavalry retreated, watching the huge team that was completely broken down, many bandits crying and crying, and ran away.

No way, in the face of the cavalry shock, the unstoppable shock, coupled with Qin Tiange taking the lead, no one can compete.

“It's over!”

Ugh...

The female bandit's face changed, knowing that it was completely over, and the battle in Jiuzhaiba Shigou was completely planted.

“The whole army listened to the orders and shocked the opposing army!”

At the next moment, the female bandit leader immediately took her decision and led her army directly to the 100,000 troops that were rushed over there.

Headed by her, 5,000 cavalry took the lead, followed by 50,000 troops, a neat formation, let people know at a glance that they are often trained elite.

Qin Tiange, who was rushing to death, actually noticed the female bandit early in the morning and was surprised when she saw her action.

“This female bandit, not only knows how to train, but also knows how to train. It’s a personal talent, and you can’t let it go.” Qin Tiange turned his mind sharply and immediately turned around and rushed to the female bandit.

He feels that this is a personal talent and cannot be let go. Since the task of resuming the country is difficult, it is impossible to rely on him to complete it alone, and more talents must be available.

hiss!

The strange beast growled, Qin Tiange waved his halberd, and strangled all the bandits who were blocking the road. The speed was as fast as lightning, which attracted the female bandit’s attention.

“It’s so powerful that no one can stop it. Where did he come from?” The female bandit looked grim.

She wielded a large iron gun, and went straight into Qin Tiange’s army of 100,000 soldiers. She originally thought that the following broke through the opposing army, but she was blocked.

Yes, her 5,000 cavalry was blocked. Inside the 100,000 army, iron chains were tied with sharp hooks, and a slender spear was used to fight and stand in front of the battlefield. With one exception, they were penetrated.

Only by virtue of her powerful strength, she managed to kill a  road, but she couldn’t do anything, and she was soon besieged in the army of 100,000.

“drink!”

Just when she was in a hurry, a loud drink came from behind, accompanied by a wave of air, and Qin Tiange was killed by riding a fire-beast.

Huh!

One shot and one halberd hit each other fiercely, and with a bang, the female bandit felt only a strong and unmatched force coming, and even the people with their mounts shook back a few meters.

The black robe on her body was lifted by the air waves, revealing the delicate and graceful figure, wearing a set of iron armor to set off the proud figure.

There was a flash of anger on her face, the wheat-colored skin was extremely smooth, and the carved face was full of British spirit.

“Submit, or die!”

Qin Tiange stepped forward step by step on the fire-preventing beast. Euphorbia hummed and looked at the female bandit expressionlessly, and issued an ultimatum.

The female bandit had an ugly head, glanced around, and found that five thousand cavalry had been separated and besieged in the army.

As for the 50,000 troops, they can still compete outside and form an army formation, forming a fierce battle. You come and go and fight fiercely.

Qin Tiange was amazed. Looking at the 50,000 soldiers, he was able to compete with the 100,000 army without losing the wind, and really made him look.

“If you want me to surrender, it’s impossible!”

The female bandit drank violently, flashing a violent murderous face, waving an iron gun to kill him directly, the speed, the power was extremely terrible, and even the shadow of a thousand people.

Qin Tiange was surprised. Looking at the female bandit who was stabbed by the gun, she felt the powerful power contained in it.

“Five-star, thousands of people, you are the most powerful bandit in Jiuzhai Shibagou.” Qin Tiange smiled, and Euphorbia stabbed hard.

With a short bang, the two weapons collided together, the huge waves rolled, the smoke and dust spread away, and several bandits nearby were lifted out.

hiss! As soon as a wailing came, she saw the female bandit sitting on a two-horned beast and making a wailing, her body fell suddenly, and tossed her down.

Hum ...

As soon as the female bandit stood up, a buzz came, and then her neck was faint, and a halberd straddled her neck. The crescent moon made her afraid to move.

“Give you another chance, surrender, or die!”

Qin Tiange stood high, looking down at the female bandit, and made an ultimatum, surrendered, or died, and there was no third way.

He’s getting more and more murderous in his heart. If this female bandit is not surrendered, she will cut off her head without hesitation.

Chapter 414 - Imperial city, assassination

The Dalai Lama, the Imperial City, has a population of 3.5 million, contains 100,000 guards, and 300,000 city defense forces. It is the strongest defense in Dalai Lama.

Unfortunately, the imperial city fell, and the lord and prince were killed, and only the big princess and the little princess fled.

“One hundred thousand embargoes, one hundred thousand city defense forces betrayed, alas, this country’s lord is enough to take advantage of it, the guards actually turned into mutiny?”

Outside the imperial city, a young man looked out at this majestic ancient capital from afar, wondering his face, and it was Qin Tiange.

Since annihilating all the gangsters in Jiuzhaibagou of the Dangdang Mountains and collecting those people, Qin Tiange went out alone to check the current situation in the entire Dao Kingdom.

In a month, he traveled to more than half of the country, and was surprised to find that the land area of this country was not smaller than the size of Huaxia in the real world, even larger.

In addition, the smoke of the Dalai Lama was pervasive and the fighting was everywhere. Since the general rebellion, the entire country has fallen into war after the lord was killed.

What makes Qin Tiange speechless is that the head of this country's head is really incompetent? Why do n't you have a problem with the 100,000 embargoes? It 's the most powerful ace in the hands of the emperor.

The Guards, that is, the Imperial City, guarding the Emperor, and loyal to the Emperor, turned out to be unbelievable.

“There seems to be no time limit for this mission. Do I stay in the mission world forever without completing it?”

While looking at the imperial city in front, Qin Tiange thought secretly that two appointments had passed.

This is the first time he has experienced a task without time limit. The first two times are time limited, and even he must be completed within the prescribed time.

This time, not only did he not have a task reminder, but also no time limit, he couldn't help whispering in his heart. Is he right in this step?

“The imperial city is heavily guarded. It looks like the entire imperial city is currently in the hands of that general. Look into the city at night.”

Looking at it, Qin Tiange then retreated quietly into the grove, quietly waiting for the night to come.

The Imperial City is now heavily guarded, with an army patrolling, the gates closed, and it is not open at all. Therefore, if you want to enter the Imperial City, you must cover it into the night.

Waiting quietly in the woods, gradually, the sunset fell, and night fell.

Huh!

At night, a shadow rose from the woods, flew over it, and quickly swept over the imperial city.

Soon, the shadow flew over the city wall in a blink, and quietly fell into the imperial city.

In the dark, a patrol in the imperial city walked through, wearing iron armor, holding weapons, and patrolling the city.

Every ten minutes, a squad of ten people patrolled past, letting Qin Tiange concealed on the roof.

His sight was not affected at all in the dark, and he could clearly see the huge building in the center of the imperial city, which was a palace.

Huh!

Qin Tiange vacated quietly, flying freely under the transformation of the Phoenix, and in a blink of an eye came to the top of the palace, alert to the situation in the palace carefully.

The entire palace is heavily guarded and more defensive than outside, with teams crossing patrols and whistle staring at each direction.

But no one noticed what was going on in the sky, so Qin Tiange was relieved, but soon he was surprised.

“There is a very strong breath in the palace, is that the general?” Qin Tiange muttered secretly.

According to Qin Ji, in addition to her father Wang, the entire Dacheng Kingdom is the most powerful general with a six-star rating.

Yes, this general is a six-star, and Qin Tiange has to be taken seriously. After all, it is not clear how powerful the opponent is.

call...

A gust of wind blew through and rolled up a few fallen leaves, but no one saw a shadow flash from high into the forbidden area of the palace. This is the harem.

He sensed that breath was in the harem. It should be the general who was having fun in the palace.

Sure enough, just after approaching a luxurious dormitory, I heard a few bursts of coquettishness, and the sound of panting came, looming and irritating.

Quietly falling from the roof, Qin Tiange saw the scene inside through the thin paper curtain of the window.

“King, don’t ... let your ministers down ...”

The voice of an intermittent woman came, panting, and saw two people lying on the bed in the palace.

One man and one woman, the man’s body is extremely burly and majestic, showing a fierce and powerful breath, extremely strong, this is the great general who betrayed and became king.

“Hahaha ... beauty, my king hasn’t played enough yet, come again.”

The burly general, naked, continued to rush, as if a general on the battlefield had won the battle, and the woman had been begging for mercy.

Outside the door, Qin Tiange quietly walked to the side of the palace and jumped in from the open small window without making a sound.

Even his body breath converged as hard as he could, and his heartbeat and even heat all converged in his body.

“Hahaha, cool, it’s really cool. It feels good to be a king. The harem is three thousand beauties, and all will be mine in the future.”

The Vietnam War became more brave, his face flushed, his eyes a little reddish, and the thought of the entire harem being three thousand beauties was his. From then on, every night, joy, song, no wonder the king did not want to go early.

Roar!

For a long time, when a low roar came, the general was finally tired, stunned, and his face was soothing.

At this moment, a ray of cold mang cut through the air and took the back of the general who was enjoying it. The sharpness swallowed, and he was shocked with cold sweat.

“Who?” With a loud shout, this man was too clever, and responded quickly, but unfortunately he had just lost his mind between pleasures, and it was too late to try to escape.

A thump, although I tried to avoid the key, I was still stabbed in the shoulder with an ancient sword, cut through the skin of the neck, and blood flowed down.

“Ah ... the assassin!” The burly man was terrified and yelled, but unfortunately there was no guard in the entire harem, because it was opened by him before.

Huh!

He was indeed a six-star powerhouse, convulsing a sword on the bedside, slamming it with a slash, slamming it, and came back with a blow.

“Six stars, the power of five thousand people?” Qin Tiange’s complexion changed slightly, and the ancient swords in his hands gave a slight buzz.

A blow just now made him clearly realize that the strength of the general, even a six-star star with 5,000 people, was extremely scary.

“who are you?”

The general looked somber and stared at him. He was a young man, very strange and never seen him, but he was so strong that he almost killed him just now.

“Fight fast!”

Qin Tiange drank secretly, directly turning on the Phoenix transformation, and the whole person turned into a flaming flame towards the burly and powerful general.

Ding Ding Ding ...

The two silhouettes collided quickly, each of them was extremely powerful, and how powerful the 5,000 people were. Look at the entire dormitory being smashed by both forces.

With a bang, the palace collapsed, and in the smoke, the concubine who had been stunned by the general was crushed to death by the collapsed roof.

“Assassins, there are assassins!”

The explosion stunned the entire palace, countless guards frying pans, and rushed into the area with their blades, only to see a pile of ruins.

On the ruins, two figures collided swiftly, sending a huge and horrifying air wave rolling endlessly.

“King of heaven!”

Suddenly, he slammed across the palace, and was shocked to see a dim shadow, still showing in the night, bursting with a sword.

There was a rattling sound, the general's body cracked, blood and water spurted, and the whole person was chopped to the ground and smashed into a large pit.

“dead!”

An icy word came from the sky, the air whistled, and Jianmang blasted down.

In the big pit, the general was flushed, full of energy, and the sword was buzzing and humming, sending out a horrible sharp edge and slashing it with a slash.

when!

Just listening to a loud noise, the ground exploded, the smoke was long, the rubble penetrated, and the scene was extremely terrifying.

Many imperial palace guards rushing around were blasted off by a wave of air, one by one looking wild, but did not dare to step forward.

“Kill him, kill him for my king!”

In the big pit, a wobbly figure rushed out, the steel knife was broken, his body was scarred, his blood was stained, there was a huge sword mark on his chest, and the bone was deeply visible.

The general was severely wounded, and was almost killed by a sword. His heart was frightened and furious, and he had to run into the Guards to hide.

Humph!

In the smoke, Qin Tiange snorted coldly, took off the iron bow behind him, and three sharp arrows aimed at the general who was wounded.

Hearing only a muffled noise, the iron bow broke, and the three iron arrows turned into sharp stalks, rushing through the air.

“what...”

Someone screamed, but unfortunately it was a guard who was caught by the general and stopped in front.

One arrow was blocked, but the other two sharp arrows turned weirdly and stabbed at his back heart and head.

Ding!

The general turned around and smashed an arrow, but after all, had no time to stop the third arrow, watching Li Man pierce his chest.

Fortunately, the moment he turned around, his heart was no longer here, and he was just stabbed into his chest and came out through his body.

“Jack, show me, kill him, shoot him!”

The general under the anger immediately ordered that the guards took out their crossbows and aimed at Qin Tiange to shoot him.

The rebellion was successful and the general who captured the throne was enjoying the harem beauties. He was assassinated when he did not expect it, and he was simply furious.

“Hum, you’re dead!”

Qin Tiange snorted coldly, his body shivered into the sky, several ups and downs rushed out of the palace, and disappeared under the blink of an eye at night This time the assassination was declared failed.

“Search, search me all over the city.”

“I’ll find out three feet in the ground.”

The general who had just ascended the throne as a roar, roaring again and again, his angry anger could not be vented, and he directly slashed a few nearby guards with a knife, scaring many guards to retreat immediately, all with fear.

Just when he was angry and vented and roared, Qin Tiange, who had left in the sky, quietly fell into a dormitory.

“Damn, my king must cramp your bones ...”

After this guy roared angrily for a while, he hurriedly returned to the harem, looked at a dormitory that turned into ruins, and ignored and went directly to the other dormitory.

He needed a woman to vent his anger, but he didn’t know that a cold shadow was hiding in that dormitory, waiting for his arrival quietly.

The general who had just ascended to the throne and became king did not know at all that his death crisis had not passed, but was getting closer.

Chapter 415 - Make a public appearance, the Queen ascended the throne

“I’m so angry!”

In the dormitory, the new head of the country came in with a look of anger, scaring the two concubines, and they knelt down in front of the bed.

In the darkness, Qin Tiange was quietly hiding, his eyes were dull, and he looked at the newly-born lord, who had just been assassinated and angered, and was walking in front of the two concubines. He grabbed his clothes and tore apart.

That brutal picture, the two concubines screamed and begged again and again, but after all, they were ravaged by the new founder.

In the corner, Qin Tiange’s mouth slightly tilted, and his heart snorted, “I don’t know if I was killed or assassinated, but there is still a mood to find a woman to vent, it seems that your fate is destined tonight.

In fact, he wasn’t sure if this guy would come, but he didn’t expect that it would actually come, it was a godsend.

This guy does n't know how to repent. It 's not enough to be assassinated once. He does n't remember anything. Do you think the danger has passed?

In the dormitory, there were bursts of panting, accompanied by intermittent sounds of the two concubines, and they were quickly stunned.

Roar ... Finally, a low roar came, and the landlord was relieved.

This moment was the moment when he was most relaxed physically and mentally. At the moment, a touch of cold wind burst into the air quickly and silently, even when he was close to the three-inch position of the back of the head to feel the cold and murderous.

"No ... " His eyes widened, his hair was erect, and his momentum broke out, but it was too late.

With a thump, Gu Jian pierced his heart, smashed his heart instantly, came out through the body, and the blood ticked down.

He couldn't believe it, he was assassinated again, and was still the same person, but he didn't leave after the assassination failed.

With a flutter, Qin Tiange drew his sword, gently threw off the blood on the sword, and watched the new countryman slowly turning around.

"You, didn't you leave?" He opened his mouth, squirting a stream of blood as he spoke.

Qin Tiange didn't have much nonsense. Raising his hand was a sword across his neck, a click, his head soared, and his blood spurted three feet high.

One sword cut off the other's head, Qin Tiange was relieved, and it took a lot of effort to kill this guy. If the other party didn't like to play with women, he might not have the chance to assassinate.

"Well, there is a knife on the head of Sezi, and you have to be alert this time." Qin Tiange hummed and warned himself secretly that women can have them, but they must not be addicted, or they are not far from death.

Glancing at the two concubines still in a coma, Qin Tiange shook his head secretly, ignored the graceful figure of the white flower, and lifted the human head out.

Roar...!

In the dark night, there was a sudden roar in the palace, showing a ferocious atmosphere, and there was an ancient charm in it.

This roar shocked the entire imperial city, and was clearly heard even ten miles outside the city.

"It's the principal's signal, it worked!"

Outside the city, in the dark, a huge army lurks quietly here, and immediately after hearing this roar, knew that this was a signal from Qin Tiange.

"Her Royal Highness, the lord has sent a signal proving that he has succeeded and we can launch a night attack."

In the dark, I saw two graceful figures standing on top of the mountain, looking towards the direction of the imperial city. One of them was wearing a steel armor and holding an iron gun. His Majesty's mount was a powerful two-horned beast.

She was a female bandit named Luo Feiyan. She finally gave in under the intimidation of Qin Tiange and became his strongest general.

Beside her was Qin Ji, and the princess of the country also followed. This was an extremely risky move, a plan formulated by Qin Tiange.

The march was dangerous, assassination alone, the ambush waited for a signal outside the city, and once successful, launched a night attack and captured the imperial city.

“attack!”

The next moment, the four gates of the imperial city ushered in a raid by a large army, quietly approached in the night, and quickly launched an attack.

With the news from the palace, the new head of state was killed, and then another news spread, causing all the army in the entire city to be disturbed.

“The princess is back with soldiers!”

One word, I do n't know how to spread it, which caused the 100,000 embargoes in the entire imperial city to panic. They were rebellious. Now when they heard the princess brought the army back, they panicked.

Moreover, when the lord was killed, his head was hung in front of the palace gate, and the corpse on the ground was killed by the assassin.

Bang ...

The iron hooves shook, the army raided, and an army hit the city gate, causing panic and commotion in the entire imperial city. Without the general to preside, the entire imperial city was in a mess.

“Kill rebellion, surrender without killing!”

“Kill rebellion, surrender without killing!”

Outside the city, a shout was deafening, and a crowd of people rushed to the wall in the night, shouting to kill.

With just one face-to-face, the defense of the imperial city was broken, the gates and walls of the imperial city successively fell, and the entire imperial city became like a lamb with feathers to be slaughtered.

As soon as a slogan came out, many of the resisting troops immediately surrendered, and some recalcitrant elements were still struggling with the army's resistance, but they were no longer able to turn the waves.

An assassination was accompanied by a night attack on the imperial city, which was actually taken down, that is, the female bandit capital was a little embarrassed.

The sky was gradually shining, the sun was rising, and it illuminated the entire imperial city. There were corpses everywhere, and the blood stained the imperial city.

The killing last night caused great confusion, but most people avoided a robbery at home.

Anyone who appeared on the street last night would be shot relentlessly without surrendering. One stayed for a whole night before completely controlling the entire imperial city.

In the early morning, a * human head hung there in front of the gate of the palace. Standing outside the door was a young man with a tall figure, holding a halberd, and stared blankly at a group of people escorted from the front.

“Sonah, all the rebel generals have been arrested and escorted. Please ask him to report.”

Luo Feiyan’s face was cold and bloody. She killed all night last night. It’s unclear how many people died in the former female bandit and now the female general.

Qin Tiange’s eyes glanced at these groups of people, all of whom were generals in the Guards or the City Defense Forces.

“Kill, hang their heads at the city gate, and bow your heads!”

A fluttering sentence, revealing the piercing forest cold, Qin Tiange waved his hand and directly ordered the cut, hanging his head on the gate of the city gate to show the public.

As soon as this word came out, the generals panicked.

“No ... don’t kill me!”

“Please, I don’t want to die.”

“Princess, forgive me, forgive me, I never dare!”

For a while, the generals knelt down and bowed their heads, begging for mercy continuously, begging for mercy to Qin Tiange, and begging mercy for Qin Ji, the princess of the country.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange didn’t bother him. As for Qin Ji, she had a complex complexion, but didn’t speak, and looked at Qin Tiange’s actions quietly.

“what...”

Soon, * heads were brought up, and there were three hundred human heads, so terrible, that Qin Tiange ordered them to hang from the gate.

This is a deterrent and a warning. At present, the Imperial City has experienced several storms and storms. The previous time the Guards rebelled, this time Qin Tiange directly killed the rebel general, and all the generals killed as many as possible. He would rather kill the wrong and not let it go. .

All captain-level generals of the Guards were killed, and the city defense army was even more outrageous. Thousands of generals were chopped off their heads and covered the tower.

Thousands of  heads hung on the gate of the city, soaring to the sky, shocked the people in the entire imperial city, no matter whether they were dignitaries or poor people, they were shocked.

“Qin Ji, your enemy is dead, the imperial city has been recaptured, the next step is to stabilize the imperial city, and then regain the entire territory of Datong.”

In front of the gate of the palace, Qin Tiange looked at the dense army and suddenly spoke softly, saying this.

Beside him, Qin Jijiao trembled slightly, and looked back at the general's head hanging from the gate. His complexion was complex, and there was a strange light in her eyes.

Qin Tiange didn't notice, just listened to Qin Ji's head nodding gently, and wept, “Everything is based on the protagonist, and she is a female stream, and the blood and blood that can be reported is enough.”

“Is this enough?” Qin Tiange tilted his head, and the corner of his mouth suddenly raised a radian.

He secretly said that if you were really satisfied, my task would have been completed early, and now there is no sign of completion at all, how could it be satisfied?

“The country cannot be without a day, and the imperial city is newly set. You need a new owner to preside over the whole situation. Qin Ji, as the only bloodline in the royal family, you should shoulder this responsibility.”

Qin Tiange said lightly, saying this shocking sentence, Qin Ji stared at him staring blankly, stunned by his words.

“You, you just said, you want me to become king?” Qin Ji Baba said in a knot, still a little uncertain, thinking that he heard it wrong.

However, Qin Tiange nodded and smiled: “Yes, you are the last heir of the Dao Kingdom, and naturally you will be the head of the country.”

“That's the way it will be. Tomorrow, when we choose a good time, we will announce our ascension to the throne, and then we will tell the world that all parties will come to see you!”

With a big wave of hands, Qin Tiange made a decision directly, and did not give Qin Ji the opportunity to refute or even oppose her, and pushed her directly to become the country's owner.

In fact, this is also reasonable, after all, the only royal blood in the entire Dabang Kingdom is left. Who is to be the one who is not the country's head?

As for Qin Tiange? Don't be stupid, he is still sober, knowing that his task is to help Qin Ji to restore the country. Since it is a return to the country, then she must be made the country's owner.

“Thank you, thank you!”

Qin Ji was touched with a look on her face, but still refused to say, “I am a girl, and you do n't have such ability, you should be the master of the country.”

“No need to say more!”

Qin Tiange's expression was firm. She did not give her a chance at all, and attracted Luo Feiyan with a strange look and gave an order.

“Feiyan, the security of the imperial city will be entrusted to you.” Qin Tiange stared at her sharply, the latter with a dark heart, and immediately took his life.

“Yu Qing, immediately set about preparing the Queen's ascension ceremony, proclaiming the world.” Qin Tiange recruited Yu Qing, the conspirator again.

The latter was agitated, this is the dragon's merit, naturally happily led down, ready for the Queen's ceremony.

As for Qin Ji, he faintly followed Qin Tiange's side, watching his conductor and watching him orderly things.

Soon, the entire imperial city was renewed and the atmosphere changed, and then a message came out of the imperial palace, radiating the world.

The Dalai Lama experienced three major changes. The first was the invasion of foreign nations, and the country's leader impelled him. After the foreign nations were repelled, they encountered the rebellion of the general and the country broke down.

Then, there was news that the general had been killed by the princess Qin Ji at the gate of the palace just one month after he had ascended to the throne. What's more, Qin Ji was going to become the first queen of the whole country.

Chapter 416 - Town Treasure, Ancient Bow

In the inner court of the Royal Palace, a young man sat quietly by the stone platform, drinking royal tribute wine, and the corner of his mouth evoked a slight smile.

“Second stage mission: completion: 50% ...”

Since the moment Qin Ji ascended the throne as a queen, a reminder came to mind, reminding him that the second-stage task was completed by 50%.

Yes, only fifty percent. Seeing this, Qin Tiange smiled inexplicably.

“Interesting, wouldn't I be able to complete the task without giving her the title of queen?” Qin Tiange muttered to himself.

Immediately, he glanced across the inner courtyard, where Yingying Yanyan gathered a large group of beauties, all the princesses in the palace.

Yes, these are the harem concubines of the original King Qin Ji father, all of them are graceful in appearance, and the appearance is top-notch, there are a large number of them, and most men see it with a certain heart and cannot control it.

Even a queen in the harem, the mother of Qin Ji, is certainly not her own.

This queen, when she was truly exquisite, had just laid down the imperial city the other day, all the former princesses in the entire backyard of the palace were led by the queen to Qin Tiange.

The appearance of Jiao Didi, the flaky skin, and the charming, mature and charming queen even said that she would serve him.

Even, Qin Ji once said that he would be the master of the country, and the entire harem was his, including Qin Ji himself.

This has to be said to be a huge temptation. Think about it, a bunch of beautiful women kneeling in front of you, begging you to become king and get all of them, is this a great temptation?

In the face of such a situation, most men would definitely be emotional, and even directly agreed, but unfortunately Qin Tiange did not, but instead rebuked Qin Ji, and then pushed her directly the next day.

This process is a bit weird, weird everywhere, making Qin Tiange feel that the task can not be careless.

Once he promised himself to become king, will he be finished? He's not stupid. What is it like to be king in this virtual mission world?

"There are still fifty percent, how to complete it?" Qin Tiange held the glass quietly, lost in thought.

At present, Kotohime has become the queen, and half of her mission has been completed. How to complete the next half?

"Brother Qin, what are you thinking?"

At this moment, a scent of fragrance awakened Qin Tiange, looked up, and saw Qin Ji wearing a dragon robe and wearing a crown sitting in front of him. The temperament of grace and nobleness was different from that of the queen Does not attract the attention of men.

Of course, Qin Tiange's eyes were calm, and she glanced at her and smiled: "Her Majesty, I can remember very clearly on the spot, if you said to help you restore the country, you will give me the treasure of the country.

"It turned out that Brother Qin was thinking about this." Qin Ji covered her mouth with a small smile.

Later, she looked at Qin Tiange and said earnestly, "Brother Qin, thank you for helping me, not to mention the treasure of the country, that is, everything I can give to Brother Qin without reservation."

"Stop!" Qin Tiange waved her hand slightly to interrupt her, and smiled: "Don't mention this again, you just need to talk about whether the treasures of the country can be given to me."

"Since Brother Qin is so anxious, then Qin Ji took Brother Qin to take the treasure of the town."

There was a hint of loss on Qin Ji's face, but the moment she turned and stood up, a light flashed in her eyes.

She took Qin Tiange and entered the palace treasury, where most of the wealth of the entire Dao Kingdom was stored.

In addition, there are all kinds of rare treasures, talented and beautiful jade, and even many rare treasures can be seen.

Qin Tiange didn't move, ignored these things, and the only thing that attracted him was the so-called treasure of the town.

He was curious, what kind of treasure can be a national treasure?

As for Qin Ji's title, he actually changed his name on the day of his ascension. He called his elder brother Qin, which seemed to be closer. Qin Tiange did not say this.

One title is nothing, everything is illusory, Qin Tiange cares about the completion of the task, and the treasure of the town.

Soon, the queen Qin Ji took Qin Tiange into the deepest part of the treasury. There was a secret room. Even the generals didn't know the secret here. Only the members of the royal family really understood the secret.

There is a treasure in the treasury!

Click!

Seeing that, Qin Ji took off a dragon-shaped pendant around her neck, and gently printed it on a metal wall, and immediately opened the secret door.

It's not big inside, but it's very secretive. There is only one doorway in and out, which is where the treasure is stored.

"Brother Qin, look, that's the only treasure in our country that is big."

In the back room, Qin Ji looked serious, and pointed to an object stored in front, and introduced it to Qin Tiange, the treasure of the country.

Qin Tiange looked at the supply platform in the back room with a bow of war, yes, that was a bow of war.

The whole body's purple-golden war bow reveals a quaint and desolate atmosphere, and the strands of purple light flow, giving people an extremely mysterious feeling.

"The treasure is this battle bow?" Qin Tiange was a little disappointed.

However, Qin Ji explained earnestly: "Brother Qin, don't look down on this bow of war, this is the treasure of our country and the artifact of our country."

"It is rumored that this is an artifact that the first generation of the founding emperor of my country had obtained during a battle with foreigners." Qin Ji introduced her with a somber expression.

This battle bow is of extraordinary origin, and was obtained by the first emperor of Dacheng State. It was with this mouthful of bows that the Dajiang Mountains were laid down and passed down for hundreds of years.

Qin Ji suddenly lost her path and said, “Unfortunately, since the death of the first emperor, no one has been able to pull this bow. For centuries, no one has been able to pull this bow out. it’s here.”

“No one can drive?” Qin Tiange immediately became interested.

He stepped forward and looked carefully at the war bow. The whole body was purple and gold, and the bow was flowing with strange strands of purple light. The bowstring was flowing with golden gas, and the breath was very mysterious.

Almost instinctively, Qin Tiange reached out and held the mouth of the purple gold  bow. A soft buzz came, and the  bow even gave a slight vibration.

This shock didn’t seem strong, but it was very violent. It almost made Qin Tiange unable to grasp the bow. Fortunately, he burst into full strength and held it firmly.

Qin Tiange held the bow in his left hand and murmured, “Let me see, isn’t it so amazing that no one can pull the bow?”

Hum ...

With a buzz, Qin Tiange took hold of the bowstring, and the entire bow of God’s bow gave out a purple light, and a slight buzz came out, shaking the entire treasury.

Qin Tiange was astonished that he had used 50% of his strength, and it was incredible that he could not pull the Zijin Shen bow.

“Drink!” Thinking, he drank aloud, his whole body broke out, and the force of four thousand people raged wildly, and the result was only a little bit of a pull, yes, a little bit.

Hum!

Qin Tiange fiercely let go, looking stunned, constantly staring at the mouth of the Zijin Shen bow, the more he looked the more he liked it.

He just lacked a powerful bow, and when he saw the magical bow of Zijin, he immediately fell in love with it, just wondering if it could be taken out as a reward?

“Brother Qin, what is it? Isn’t this mouthful of magic bow so powerful that you can’t even pull it away.” Qin Ji laughed playfully.

Qin Tiange glanced at her, smiled and didn’t care, but asked, “Are you sure you want to give this to me?”

“Of course, Qin Ji talks.” Qin Ji nodded surely.

She looked at Qin Tiange gratefully and said: “If it weren’t for you, I would never be able to regain our country, let alone a magical artifact, that is, the whole country can be given to you.

After that, she bowed her head shyly, and two red glows appeared on her face, which was particularly attractive.

However, Qin Tiange's attention was all over the mouth of the Zijin Battle Bow, and her charming moment was blind.

"Can it have a name?" Qin Tiange asked with a smile, the more satisfied he was at the bow.

Qin Ji looked at him resentfully and gently shook his head: "This mouth of the bow has never been named, because the emperor once said that if the bow has spirit, it has its own name."

"Is that so?" Qin Tiange shook his head and didn't care.

He picked up the purple gold bow and walked directly out of the treasury. At the back, Qin Ji followed with a resentful look, as if an angry young daughter-in-law.

"Report ..."

When the two returned to the inner court of the palace, a guard rushed to him, kneeling directly in front of Qin Ji.

"Report to my king, there are urgent reports from the border, and a large number of foreign invasions."

The guard posted a war report after speaking. It was an urgent war report from the border of the Dalai Lama. It said that foreigners invaded again.

Qin Ji changed his face, looked at the battle report, and then handed it to Qin Tiange. She seemed a little anxious, walking back and forth, as if she were extremely disturbed.

"Brother Qin, what should I do? Foreigners are coming. Our aunt is not yet stable. The rebels on all sides are still being destroyed everywhere. General Feiyan is rebelling outside. What can I do?"

But Qin Tiange looked expressionless, looking at the battle report, and secretly said, "The last part of the mission has finally arrived and it really belongs to foreigners."

He understood at the moment that the key to the last part of the mission lies with the foreign race. Perhaps this is why the mission is only half completed.

Helping Qin Ji to restore the country is only half, and the next step is to face a large-scale invasion by foreigners. Once they have completed this part of the task, they should be able to leave.

"Mo panic!" Qin Tiange said lightly, then he pondered for a while and made a decision: "There are 100,000 guards in the imperial city, I will bring 50,000 guards, plus 50,000 cavalry. Go meet the enemy and leave the Imperial City to yourself. "

He said, looking at Qin Ji seriously, he always felt something weird. He felt that Qin Ji's eyes and eyes were familiar, as if he had seen them before.

"Brother Qin take care, I'll wait for you back!"

Qin Ji looked worried, looking at Qin Tiange, as if a wife was waiting for her husband to triumph silently at home.

Qin Tiange shook his head with a grinning smile, shaken off these messy thoughts, and warned Qin Ji something, and then took the fifty thousand guards and fifty thousand powerful alien beast cavalry to the frontier alien front.

Chapter 417 - Noire, fierce battle!

The frontier fortress was full of smoke, but no shouting or killing was heard. Only the corpse and the broken wall of the place were stained with blood.

A corpse piled up like a mountain, and the entire border fort was slaughtered, not even a small animal.

Hundreds of thousands of soldiers and civilians have been slaughtered and cleaned up.

“The fort was broken and everyone was slaughtered clean.”

“Damn alien.”

At this time, Qin Tiange brought the fifty thousand forbidden troops and the fifty thousand cavalry arrived, walking quietly in this broken fortress, looking at the fortified corpse with corpses stacked.

He walked slowly on a fire-fighting beast, with no expression. From the corpse here, we can see that there are only males, but no females, no children.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange had a thought in his heart, and the foreigners should  away all the women in the fortress, and even  and scrape everything.

“Just march, catch up!”

Qin Tiange immediately ordered to march with 100,000 troops and chase along the trail left by foreign troops.

Unsurprisingly, this time the foreign invasion invaded and destroyed the frontier fortress. All human males were slaughtered, and then all women, large and small, were taken away.

A huge team, slowly moving forward, each one is burly, foreign creatures holding weapons are bailing the human race women who have been plundered.

The appearance of these foreign races is no different from that of humans, the only difference is that there is a short black unicorn growing on the forehead, known as the black horn tribe.

This clan is strong and brutal, often attacking and invading the clan, killing countless, and snatching countless.

“Cavalry, charge!”

When seeing this huge team, Qin Tiange’s halberds held up, pointed directly at the huge foreign team in front, and carried out a group charge.

The 50,000 cavalry held up their battles, speeded up neatly, followed Qin Tiange, and launched a charge madly towards the nocturnal team in front.

Bang ...

The earth roared, and the sound of vibrations caught the attention of the Black Horns, and immediately found 50,000 cavalrymen chasing up from behind.

“Enemy attack, enemy attack!”

“Array!”

The 50,000 black-horned soldiers behind the pads turned around and faced the enemy, but unfortunately, due to being too hasty, they did not even expect the Terran Army to chase them out.

I saw that before the huge black family army had time to start the formation, they were crushed by the 50,000 cavalry, and they rushed all the way, disrupting the entire formation.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange took the lead, and the halberds danced, rolling up a flesh and blood, all the way down, no one was an opponent.

He was like an arrow, inserted straight into the rear army of the Black Horns, and the target pointed directly at the leader of the Black Horns.

“Look for death!” In the army, a three-meter-tall black-horned general was furious and assassinated with a big iron gun.

The roaring air, the sharp iron gun, penetrated the power of three thousand people, but, in the face of Qin Tiange’s halberd, a slight touch, the iron gun broke, and the halter passed instantly.

Qin Tiange’s halberd pierced the black-horned general, raised it high, ran across the road, and killed many black-horned soldiers.

“Kill them all, leave none!”

With a loud scream, I saw 50,000 cavalry soldiers rushing in at the same time. The rumbling vibration came, and flesh flew for a while, screaming and screaming.

With a bang, Qin Tiange flew the corpse and killed three or four black-horned fighters. The halberd swept, the flesh flew, and his head rolled.

The army of 50,000 blackhorns was quickly crushed and dispersed by 50,000 cavalry, and was killed by the 50,000 embargoes killed by the army.

The embargo is extremely powerful, and the lowest person is actually two stars. This is the power of the embargo.

Everywhere they went, their heads were looked down, and the scattered Horned Horn warriors were hanged one by one.

Fifty thousand horned fighters were washed away in just one face-to-face, and they were hanged and cleaned shortly after.

The rear army collapsed, which alarmed the front noire army, in which the two flanking armies had already unfolded and slowly pressed down.

The rapid transformation of the former army’s army turned into a huge whole, a huge number, a full 300,000 army, a dark one, looking extremely scary and scary.

“It is no wonder that the 300,000 Horned Clan army has killed the entire fortress.” Qin Tiange lined up and looked at the neat Horned Clan army in front.

On the left and right wings, there are 50,000 blackhorn cavalry each. In front of the Chinese army, there is a neat and large infantry array, which is 200,000 blackhorn cavalry.

Inside the Chinese army, under a banner, the commander of the Heijiao ethnic group is watching the situation of the ethnic army here.

The commander was wearing a suit of armor, riding an unknown beast, and wearing a metal mask. Only the short black horn was exposed, flashing with black light.

He was the commander-in-chief of the Black Horns. After observing for a while, he suddenly sneered: “Any 50,000 cavalry and 50,000 infantry would dare to chase it.

“The cavalry, with wings flanking, the Chinese army overwhelmed and wiped out the human army.”

The commander of the Horned Horns raced up to grab the battle, pointed at it fiercely, and issued an attack order. The 50,000 cavalry on each side of the wing accelerated together, and the impact of the boom came.

In the face of the 300,000 army attack, Qin Tiange could not help but look dignified, 100,000 to 300,000 army is a loss.

But he did not retreat, nor did he turn around to run away, but tightened the cavalry formation, and a killing sprang up.

“The thief captures the king first, everyone, follow me.”

“kill!”

With a wave of Qin Tiange’s halberd, the fire-fighting beast instantly turned into a flame of fire, and rushed towards the army of the Black Horns on the opposite side.

In the back, fifty thousand cavalymen followed, and turned into an arrow headed by him. Behind him, the fifty thousand forbidden troops rushed in, chasing all the way behind the cavalry.

boom!

When the two armies met, people suddenly turned their backs, screaming, and wailing came.

Qin Tiange took the lead, and Euphoria rolled up a death storm. Nowhere was a blackhorn tribe able to survive, even with one move.

He is like a sharp pointed knife, fiercely inserted into the heart of the Black Horned Army, pointing sharply at the handsome banner of the Black Horned Army.

There, it was the position of the commander-in-chief of the Heijiao tribe that allowed Qin Tiange to tear open his mouth with his army.

“A little skill!”

Lengjiao, the commander of the Heijiao tribe, looked at Qin Tiange who was rushed to death, his face was cold, and a flash of mockery flashed in his pupils.

“Two wings flanking, surrounded this army of human races in the middle, and strangled me a little bit.”

He issued this order, and the 300,000 army swallowed Qin Tiange’s 100,000 army directly, besieged in the center, waiting for a little strangulation.

The Heijiao Commander is very confident, but he is too arrogant and thinks that Qin Tiange can be besieged. Unfortunately, he underestimated each other.

boom!

In the army, the black horns were blown away, their bodies were in ruins, their heads were cracked, blood and water sprayed wildly, and the wounds were a bit scary.

There, a fiery figure galloped all the way, and the Horned Horns within a dozen meters of the Euphorbia danced were hanged into piles of minced meat and corpses.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange was furious, followed by the killing of 50,000 cavalry, and the inner hatred was aroused.

They were inspiring because Qin Tiange was so powerful that he had no obstacles all the way, not far before the head coach of the Black Horn Army.

The two looked at each other far away, but they were no more than two kilometers away. They would soon be able to rush through, really making the commander of the Heijiao tribe realize that this tribal general was not easy.

“Stop him!”

The cape commander of the Heijiao tribe was gloomy, the army retreated, and a crowd of black-horned fighters rushing behind stood in front of Qin Tiange.

Unfortunately, he expected a mistake, and Qin Tiange has never exploded out of his body until now.

When the commander of the Horned Horns was evacuated, the corners of his mouth were slightly tilted, the halberd smashed fiercely, and a loud bang, hundreds of soldiers of the Horned Horns blocking the road in front of him were burned into ashes by a gray fire.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange raised the flames of chaos, rumbling, and swept away in front of him, leaving only ashes wherever he passed.

Suddenly, the army was broken through heavy barriers, the commander of the Black Horns turned wild, and looked at a chaotic flame that swept through.

drink!

He screamed angrily, the forehead horns shined brightly, the iron gun swept fiercely, and a huge wind wave rolled up to stop the fierce flame.

“Dead!” Qin Tiange curled up with chaotic flames, the fire beast rushed up, and Euphorbia fiercely chopped down.

There was a bang, the two weapons collided, but because the commander of the Black Horns rushed to meet the enemy, his body was flown ten meters away and a large pit was hit.

“kill him!”

Numerous horned warriors rushed around, and their heads were cut off by a halberd, or the entire head was blown open.

Gradually, the surroundings became empty, and no more Blackhorn soldiers dared to step in, but avoided it far, leaving Qin Tiange and the Blackhorn commander with a space of a thousand meters.

“The human race is strong, report it by name.” At this time, the general of Heijiao stood up and asked coldly.

Qin Tiange was expressionless, riding a fire-fighting beast slowly forward, and a drop of blood slid down from the halberd, revealing the sensation of murder.

“Dead people don’t need to know my name.” Qin Tiange replied lightly, his figure moved, and he rose from the flames.

“Overwhelming heaven and earth!” The ghost and * burst out in a sudden, a ghost gathered, holding a halberd to smash the commander of the noire.

With only a bang, the ground collapsed, the smoke and dust spread apart, and a huge sandstorm swept across the square kilometer.

In the smoke, a figure rushed out, the armor was broken, blood stained, and the iron gun was broken.

That was the commander of the black horns It was so embarrassing that even the black horns on the forehead had cracks. It can be imagined how violent the blow was just now.

“So strong?” The commander of the Heijiao tribe almost scared his courage. This tribe was too strong, and crushed him directly.

Without hesitation, he turned around and ran, riding his own beast mount, and fleeing wildly into the army of the Horned Horns. The densely packed Horned Horns soldiers came up to block Qin Tiange.

“Want to run?”

Qin Tiange snorted with a hint of coldness, and took a mouthful of purple gold from the back, exuding a simple bow of war, which is the national treasure of the Datong Kingdom, the purple gold bow.

Ga ...

Into the phoenix change instantly, with a quack, the bow of God was pulled away a little, without the iron sword, but the continuous chaos of flames condensed and re-condensed, turning into an arrow of flame, locking the escaped Blackhorn commander.

Hum!

I saw a buzzing sound, a purple bow crashing, and the sharp arrows of the flame condensing, turning into a gray flame that quickly passed through.

Chapter 418 - Curse? mission completed

cry!

A gray sharp arrow, shining through the flames, suddenly turned into a gray  phoenix, long a long way, and wherever he went, all the black-horned soldiers turned into powder.

Fengming stunned the escaped Blackhorn commander, turned around and looked horrified, staring at this huge phoenix with wings spread.

Bang ...

Chaos  phoenix screamed and banged in front of the commander of the Black Horn tribe. The latter exploded to the limit and ran to the side to stop, but the body was pushed by Shen Feng all the way.

The sound of rumble came, and the  phoenix fluttered all the way, biting the commander of the black horn tribe, passing by all the way, rolling up the flames of the sky, and even burning a tens of meters wide passage.

All the Black Horns have been burned to ashes, powerful forces, and horrible flames. No one can stop them.

Even the commander of the Heijiao tribe, his body was impacted all the way, and he eventually crashed into a mountain. The sound of a blast came, the dust was raging, and the rubble was falling down.

Qin Tiange froze, staring blankly at the bow of his hand, thinking about the arrow just now, it was an instinct. Instead of iron arrows, only a rocket was condensed with the power of the Phoenix, which turned into a rocket. A  phoenix.

At this moment, he felt that his archery had obtained an amazing transformation, as if there was a wonderful sense of breaking through the shackles and achieving a breakthrough.

With just one arrow, the power has been chasing the second form of the ghost halberd, and the arrow has turned into a fire and phoenix to attack the enemy. The super destructive power is that the commander of the Black Horn tribe cannot follow.

In the distance, the mountain was blasted out of a deep cave, and Qin Tiange drove the fire monster to rush in, just to see a flesh-colored figure lying quietly there.

That is the commander of the Heijiao tribe. Before he died, he vomited blood, his eyes were full of fear and horror, and he looked at Qin Tiange who came up.

“It's an ancient * bow. How can you pull this ancient bow?” The commander of the Black Horns spit blood as he said.

There was a huge blood hole in his chest, transparent on both sides, and the whole chest was smashed by that arrow, and he could remain immortal enough to see his strength.

But unfortunately, he struggled twice, but wanted to continue talking, but eventually kicked his feet, his body was stiff, and his life whimpered.

“You can die in the hands of this * bow.”

Qin Tiange murmured, sweeping Euphorbia, cutting off the head of the Black Horns Commander, stabbing and jumping with the Euphorbia, quickly turning around and rushing out of the blasted cave.

“The Black Horn Commander is dead, kill me!”

Outside the cave, Qin Tiange rode into the fire beast and provoked the head of the Black Horned Commander into the battlefield, all of a sudden attracting the attention of numerous Black Horned soldiers.

When he saw that head, all the Black Horn soldiers collapsed, and the mighty commander was cut off.

“The commander is dead.”

The Great Collapse caused countless horned fighters to panic. The team collapsed, and many horned fighters turned and ran.

The Horned Horns who had been besieged by the army of 100,000 people suddenly collapsed. With the killing of the commander, most of the Horned Horns lost their spirit and turned away without fighting.

This run just gave Qin Tiange a chance to kill them. Such a good opportunity naturally was not let go. He threw away his head and gathered tens of thousands of cavalry to cover it up.

“Kill! Kill! Kill!”

A massacre was staged, and the Black Horns were beaten to lose their helmets and armors, and the wolves fled, but they were still cleaned by Qin Tiange and his cavalry.

Throughout the battlefield, the army of 300,000 Black Horns burst out and collapsed completely.

“Run!”

Run away!

They could do nothing but escape, the commander-in-chief was dead, and morale was low, leading to the loss of warfare, and once the fear had arisen, it was impossible to restrain.

Qin Tiange led the fifty thousand cavalry to cover up and kill all the way, forming a one-sided slaughter. From the early morning to the night, he finally ended when he could not see a living blackhorn family.

This battle won more by less, killing more than 200,000 Heilongjiang fighters, and killing a commander, it was a fruitful battle.

Of course, the 100,000 troops on the Terran side also suffered heavy casualties. Half of the army was lost, and more than 40,000 troops were left in the 100,000 army.

Looking at the densely packed corpses on the battlefield, some undead beasts were wailing, and some of the Horned Horns were seriously injured and unconscious, but they were ruthlessly killed.

One human warrior was on the tour, cleaning up the remnants of the battlefield, and slashing the black horn warriors who had not completely died, none remained.

“Cut off your head!”

At this moment, Qin Tiange thought, thinking of a scene he had seen at first, and immediately ordered that all the bodies of the Black Horns were chopped off their heads and stacked aside, forming a large * character.

“Those who commit my tribe will be beaten!”

Fully 300,000 * heads were piled up into these ancient fonts, soaring into the sky to kill, the evil spirit was almost condensed into substance.

When the words were composed, the whole world was roaring, as if there was a violent shock, the thunder rolled and the world shook.

Bang!

“What happened?” Qin Tiange froze, looked up at the sky, the sky was thundering, and lightning bolts fell down, pointing directly at Qin Tiange’s position.

He was standing with his hair upright and fierce, staring at the thunder that had fallen down, and he felt a stinging spirit in his heart.

“Break me!”

Qin Tiange erupted into a violent gas, drew his bow at the thunder above the sky, and a chaotic flame continually condensed, turning it into an arrow and straight into the sky.

cry!

The * phoenix roared, and the sharp arrow turned into a chaotic phoenix straight into the sky, banging against the thundering thunder, and collapsed on the spot.

However, those thunders that were split were blown up at the same time, turning into flashes of electricity and light, and soon disappeared.

Rumble ...

The thunder in the sky was stronger, the thunder was rolling, as if the sky was angry, and the thunder constantly intertwined, as if angered by him, he would be punished by falling to heaven.

“I have a clear conscience, why do you judge me?”

Qin Tiange furiously emptied, surrounded by horrific fire, chaotic flames boiling, a horrible suffocation and fierce air rolled up high.

He glared at the sky and yelled, “I don’t care who you are, why are you targeting me, what are the 300,000 aliens in the slaughter area?”

“Dare to mess with me, no matter what kind of blackhorns or any tribe, come to kill me one by one, what I do is ashamed, why do you judge me?”

boom!

Tianlei landed, Qin Tiange screamed, God's bow collapsed, all chaos Phoenix soared into the sky, fluttered wings, constantly bombarded the sky-thundering thunder, and thunder clouds exploded.

“You are not qualified to judge me!”

Qin Tiange shouted angrily, and the bow of God was pulled away again and again. The ancient bow of God, combined with the power of the phoenix, turned into a chaos  phoenix, constantly bombarding the sky.

Boom Boom Boom ...

The sky was rolling, the gods were chanting, and the whole world was in a mess. Below, countless soldiers looked at this sudden change in horror, and didn't understand what happened.

When all the thunders in the sky were smashed and thunder was no longer there, only a special magical phoenix soared into the sky and kept buzzing.

boom!

Suddenly, a purple  thunder bombarded the  phoenix. With a click, the  phoenix disappeared, and purple light poured in across the sky, only to find that it was a human figure.

Qin Tiange's eyes shattered, his armor was shattered, and the whole man was chopped into the ground, and a thunderous thunder drowned.

Tian Lei's final blow contained the destruction of death, smashing his body again and again, but persisted tenaciously with the recovery of the undead.

“You are not qualified to judge me!”

In the thunder of the sky, a roaring roar was heard, a unicorn stood up, jumped out of the big pit, and stepped on the auspicious cloud and rushed into the sky.

The unicorn bathed under the sky  thunder, set off that kind of arrogance, full of vitality and aura, and the aura of auspiciousness, defeated all thunder.

The different colors in the sky came and went quickly, and the unicorn transformed by Qin Tiange flashed back, turned back into a person, and fell straight down.

boom!

Qin Tiange fell, his heart was unusually calm, and his eyes were full of fierce fierceness. He was really inexplicable just now, but he had slaughtered 300,000 blackhorns, and it caused heaven punishment?

Is there a day penalty in the task space? Qin Tiange's face was cold, his eyes stared at the sky, but unfortunately nothing was found, and all the thunder disappeared.

He gently wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and sneered coldly: “Although I don't know what it is, how dare to judge me?”

He was judged inexplicably, and naturally angry, he walked along all the way and never did anything to apologize to heaven and earth's conscience.

He kills, he kills all, he is his own enemy. Although many people die because of him, who can not die in the last days?

Even if he slaughtered foreigners in the mission, no matter the blue blood or the black horns, he felt well conceived, so when he saw Tian Lei suddenly bombarded him and tried him, it was naturally furious.

“You want to judge me, well, I’ll kill all the aliens and see how you judge me?”

Qin Tiange snorted, with a sigh of anger, and rode directly into the beast of fire, immediately gathered the army, ready to kill into the hinterland of the Black Horns in one fell swoop.

He decided to slaughter the entire Blackhorn tribe. Now that you have ran out and tried me, what else is there to say, continue to slaughter.

“The whole army, Tuguang Noire.”

Qin Tiange was so angry that he ordered to kill the Heijiao tribe. Hearing this sentence, the more than 40,000 troops who survived were shocked, and recalling the shocking scene just now, everyone respected Qin Tiange.

“kill!”

“Tu Guang Noire!”

The 40,000 army yelled at the same time, and the momentum and killings erupted exceeded the 100,000 army’s momentum, which was incredible.

Ding...

As soon as he was preparing to reorganize the army, he went on to the headquarters of the Black Horns and wanted to kill the Black Horns there, a voice came to his mind.

Qin Tiange froze, and immediately checked the information, there was an urge to cut people.

“Ding ... Congratulations, the second task, complete!”

This message echoed in his mind, representing the completion of the second phase of the task, but Qin Tiange not only had no joy, but was depressed and furious.

“This is done? How is it done? I still have the Heijiao Town Tribe’s treasure, and the town’s treasure from the neighboring country was taken.”

Qin Tiange was so angry that he couldn’t help snarling. As a result, the picture around him was broken, his consciousness was dark, and he was caught in the darkness, and he heard a crisp laughter.

“Hee hee ...”

“His performance is very good ...”

In the dark, a crisp, laughter came, hazy, not listening, and then completely lost consciousness.

Chapter 419 - Reward, Purple Gold

When Qin Tiange woke up again, he found that he had left the mission world, appeared in a dim void, and a light curtain appeared in front of him.

“Ding, mission completed, rewards started ...”

An inexplicable voice came, Qin Tiange’s eyes flickered, his heart was weird, and looking at the light curtain in front of him, it became more and more certain that the assessment of the stele was spiritual.

The most unfortunate, and like artificial intelligence self-confidence, this makes Qin Tiange feel weird, thinking of the experience during the mission, I thought a lot.

However, he quickly suppressed these thoughts, and carefully checked the rewards of the task assessment, three things.

The first one is the town artifact that was acquired in the mission world, an ancient bow, and when killing the commander of the Black Horn tribe, the other said before death that it was an ancient bow.

“Ancient God bow?” Qin Tiange murmured, took out the purple gold bow, and it really did not have any introduction like the ancient sword.

However, Qin Tiange smiled. It didn’t matter if he didn’t introduce. He knew the power of this war bow, and it was ancient and mysterious, and naturally happy.

A set of weapons is finally complete. The three weapons, the halberd, the ancient sword, and the magic bow, are completely complete. There will be no shortage of weapons and equipment in the future.

As for the armor, Qin Tiange feels dispensable. Anyway, his physical body is strong enough, and with the improvement of strength, he will become more and more powerful.

Even he was a bit repulsive, and felt that having a * armor limited the growth and transformation of his immortal body, so he never thought of a strong defensive armor.

Even if it was exchanged, he did not exceed the three-star armor. He consciously avoided it. He wanted his immortal body to grow quickly and become stronger.

After closing the bow, Qin Tiange turned his attention to the second thing, and was surprised that it was a purple air mass.

Yes, it was a purple gas, unpredictable, once obtained.

“What is this?” Qin Tiange was very puzzled. Once he was getting such a small group of purple gas, it was weird.

He didn’t know what it was, but he murmured that it was absolutely important and precious.

Looking at this mysterious purple gas, Qin Tiange felt that the mysterious and mysterious charm was revealed from the purple gas, as if through thick fortune.

Huh!

When he reached out his hand, the purple gas immediately melted into his body and disappeared instantly, making him want to look at it.

Qin Tiange reluctantly, shook his head, and then looked at the third thing, as if it was a mass of gas. However, this mass of gas is purple-gold, with a noble and simple atmosphere, like a born emperor. “Purple gold imperial air: imperial air ...”

This group of purple-gold gas has this introduction. Although it is only a brief introduction, it contains a huge amount of information.

This is Zijin’s imperial qi, Qin Tiange froze, thinking that he hadn’t obtained such Zijin gas before? “Zi Jin Huang Qi ...” Qin Tiange murmured, his eyes were dazzling, his heart was guessing faintly.

With a smile on his face, he opened his mouth and swallowed the purple gold gas the size of a fist. Regardless of its effect, anyway, this thing is rewarded by the death mission, Qin Tiange naturally did not miss the truth.

Swallowing this purple golden imperial energy, Qin Tiange’s body burst into a strong momentum, like a born emperor, gradually growing and rising.

He just feels comfortable and his energy has reached the zenith, as if his inner temperament and level of consciousness have undergone transformation, which is very mysterious.

“This mission ...” Then, Qin Tiange frowned, glanced at the gray void world around him, and remembered some experiences of this mission.

For example, after the slaughter of the 300,000 black horns, a sky punishment came to the sky, and it felt like God was going to judge him, which directly annoyed Qin Tiange.

He had a clear conscience of doing things, not to mention the 300,000 black horns in the slaughter area, even before the massacre of millions of blue blood races, but he did not see a day penalty.

Now it ’s just killing 300,000 black horns. Is it because too many creatures have been massacred before?

But why is there a day penalty in the mission space?

“Forget it, no matter what, anyway, I have a clear conscience, and no one wants to judge me.”

Qin Tiange’s face was firm and unmoved. He was conscientious in doing things himself. He was worthy of his own ethnic group and was not afraid of any challenge.

Then, Qin Tiange sensed his own level, and was pleasantly surprised to find that he was already a four-star, and he could be promoted in the mission world.

“Four-star, pretty good.” Qin Tiange smiled, four-star, four thousand people’s strength surging in the body, can growl at any time.

Just as he thought about it, the void world around him collapsed and quickly disappeared, his consciousness blurred, and he soon found himself back outside the stone monument.

Roar!

Bai Hu leaped up and was excited when he saw Qin Tiange, while Xiao E and Xiao Xuan, two female soldiers guarding at the side, were surprised.

The two of them suddenly felt that the atmosphere of Qin Tiange had changed, more inscrutable, as if having a natural and noble temperament, it was easy to attract women's eyes.

Qin Tiange patted Xiaobai, and then laughed: "Two sergeants, take me to meet your commander."

"Yes, Chief!"

Xiao'e and Xiaoxuan saluted immediately, turned around, and took Qin Tiange away from the assessment stone stele to the conference room in the center of Guangcheng.

Not long after, led by two female soldiers, Qin Tiange came to the highest conference room in Guangcheng and met Lieutenant General Qi Shao and a group of senior generals.

"The future is coming!"

As soon as Qin Tiange came in, all the officers stood up and looked at each other with solemn salute. No one dared to be sloppy, because that was a general, a rank higher than Commander Qi Shao.

In earnest, Qin Tiange came to Lieutenant General Qi Shao and laughed, "Old general, is the finishing work of Guangcheng finished?"

Lieutenant General Qi Shao's eyes were clear, and suddenly he felt that the oppression on Qin Tiange seemed more intense than before.

He suddenly changed his mind, and suddenly smiled, "Your boy, it must be a great increase in strength. Even I feel the pressure. It seems that the gain is good this time."

"The veteran general has won a prize. I am only four stars. Your subordinates are strong. This seven-star strong makes me envious." Qin Tiange looked enviously at the large group of elite soldiers present. Strong general.

In fact, seriously, he is really envious, because compared with a group of high-level generals in the Shenzhen City Base, compared with this, it seems that the rank is much weaker.

Qin Tiange suddenly realized a problem in his heart, that is, gathering himself with the past masters in this way, did they obliterate their opportunities for growth?

"It seems necessary to make adjustments ..." Qin Tiange thought about this.

After General Qi Shao invited him to sit down, he said, "There should be other things when the admiral comes to Guangcheng this time?"

"Good!" Qin Tiange nodded, and then glanced at a group of senior generals around him. Lieutenant General Qi Shao knew it and waved his hand to let everyone out.

“You go to work separately. No one can approach the meeting room within two kilometers.” Lieutenant General Qi Shao said calmly.

A group of high-level faces met, but they all got up and saluted, and quickly left the conference room. They were all guessing. What secrets should Qin Tiange and Qi Shao talk about?

Of course, since it is a secret, they refuse to let them know. Some things can be known, but some things, even senior officers and generals, cannot be involved.

“Can you talk about it now?” Qi Shao looked serious and looked at Qin Tiange seriously.

The young Chinese general who admired Hua Xia surprised him a lot, even this time the Guangcheng crisis was lifted because of him.

Qin Tiange thought a little bit, and started the content of this secret talk. He said, “Old general, we do n’t speak secretly, Beijing must support it. Do you agree?”

After this remark, Lieutenant General Qi Shao’s eyes were faint and expressionless, so he looked at Qin Tiange for a while and then suddenly laughed.

“Your boy, don’t try to test me as an old man.” Lieutenant General Shao Qi shook his head, then reassured.

He laughed: “I was worried, but now it seems blindly worried.”

Qi Shao’s worry was actually worried that Qin Tiange’s ambition was too big, but a sentence just now made him see that Qin Tiange’s words meant to support the legitimacy of Beijing.

With this sentence, it is enough.

“The Chinese nation cannot be divided. No matter what kind of force or anyone, as long as they stand in front of this trend, they will be ruthlessly crushed.” Qi Shao said with an expression of anger.

Huaxia cannot be divided. Once someone does, it is the enemy of the entire Huaxia nation. This cannot be changed.

Qin Tiange nodded, showing a hint of smile. Next, two people, one old and one young, began secret talks.

Really involved a lot of secret conversations, no one knows, what was talked between the two, and even what agreement was formed, etc.,

All I know is that in the future, new energy and so on will suddenly appear inside Guangcheng, and even many scientific and technological personnel in Guangcheng will be secretly sent to a place.

As for where, outsiders don’t know at all.

“Old general, thank you for your hospitality, and I will leave first.”

Four hours later, an old man and a young man walked out of the door of the conference room and shook hands, showing each other an unspoken smile, very treacherous, as if the two young and old foxes reached an agreement.

Qin Tiange rode on the White Tiger and left, leaving Guangcheng under the curious eyes of a group of senior generals.

“Xiao’e, you go to gather all the researchers in Guangcheng and send them to Shenzhen in secret.”

“Everyone comes in, holds a meeting, and discusses the future development plan of Guangcheng.”

With a serious face, the old general gave an order, and then led a group of senior generals into the conference room to continue the meeting. This meeting was to discuss the blueprint for the future development and planning of Guangcheng.

Chapter 420 - Yin Yang corpse, challenge purple clothing?

On the outskirts of Guangcheng, corpses were everywhere, and dense crowds of zombies gathered together as if forming a zombie kingdom.

There are at least tens of millions of zombies here, watching the scalp explode, but there is a figure slowly riding a white tiger walking among the corpses.

A weird scene appeared, and instead of attacking the man and the white tiger, the zombies on the streets gave way one by one.

Roar...

In the corpse, all the zombies snarled, watching each person and a tiger passing by, and none of them dared to attack.

The bloodthirsty and cruel zombies didn't attack this person. Not only did ordinary zombies dare not attack, but the mighty zombies of Samsung and Four Star did not dare to move, but gave way.

“Presumably, Ziyi already knew I was here.”

Riding a white tiger, Qin Tiange slowly walked into the depths of the corpse, watching the performance of the zombies around, guessing that Ziyi knew he was coming.

Otherwise, it is impossible for these zombies not to attack him, unless they are ordered by the purple clothes, otherwise the zombies will swoop up and see the prey.

Huh!

As I was walking, there was a roar, fierce, and endless suffocation coming from afar, like a terrible beast.

Qin Tiange moved his face, looked up, and frowned secretly: “This roar is the call of a zombie. The breath is extremely strong. Is there a strong zombie born?”

Before he could continue to think, there was a violent vibration, smoke and billowing, which alarmed countless zombies.

He squinted his eyes and suddenly felt two breaths, one of which was the breath of purple clothes, and the other was the owner who just roared.

“Purple is fighting? Xiaobai speeds up ...” Qin Tiange was surprised and immediately made Baihu speed up and ran away.

He sensed that the two breaths were in a contest, and it seemed that Ziyi was fighting with a powerful zombie, causing his vigilance.

The white tiger ran wild, and the corpses made their own way along the way. Soon, he came to the core of the corpses, and many senior zombies stared at Qin Tiange who broke in.

But none of them moved, only a low roar, most of the zombies did not dare to move, but there were so few powerful zombies that they rushed towards Qin Tiange.

Roar!

The three zombies roared and smashed madly, with a powerful force in their breath, which could have a power of 500 to 700 people.

Humph!

Watching three five-star zombies pounced on, Qin Tiange snorted coldly. People sat on the white tiger, plucked the bow of the god’s bow, set up an arrow, and collapsed.

A thump sounded. At about the same time, the three five-star zombies fell straight, and there was a blood hole in the eyebrow.

Three birds with one stone and three powerful five-star zombies were killed in seconds, causing a lot of movement in an instant.

“Giggle, my brother is still so heroic. Your sister’s heart is completely melted by you, oh, what can my sister do in the future!”

As soon as the three zombies died, they saw a graceful woman in a golden jade dress come up, and said with a smile, roaring, charming and charming, but charming.

She was a jade corpse. She stepped in front of Qin Tiange step by step, ignored the white tiger grinning warning, and ran a kiss against Qin Tiange.

“The three zombies were you ordered to attack?” Qin Tiange looked expressionless, so he looked at her silently.

The jade corpse glanced at the three dead five-star zombies, disdaining: “This kind of sister really doesn’t look down on it, and how can the sister bear to hurt you, the younger brother really broke the sister’s heart, so sad ... “

She said, with a sad face, water mist appeared in her eyes, which made Qin Tiange sigh. The jade corpse turned face faster than the book.

Look, look at this expression, don’t cry, the pitiful appearance, will really deceive many fierce teenagers.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange ignored her, which disappointed Jade Corpse.

“Brother, this is really not sent by my sister, oh, that is the yin and yang corpse over there, it’s his men.” Jade Corpse explained, pointing to a powerful zombie who was fighting fiercely over there, it was yin and yang. corpse.

“Yin Yang Corpse?”

Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and looked at the two figures that were constantly colliding there. The speed was very fast, and almost a residual image was pulled out, which is invisible to most people.

And he could see very clearly that it was a yin-yang corpse that was fighting Ziyi.

The so-called yin and yang corpses are a type of hermaphrodite, and the special zombies of yin and yang are both male and female.

Roar!

With a roar, the two figures broke apart after a collision, staring at each other.

Needless to say, Ziyi is powerful and mysterious. Qin Tiange has always felt that Ziyi has never exploded to his most extreme power.

As for that yin and yang corpse, seven-star, extremely powerful, covered with dense two-color scales.

Its body was surrounded by strange flames, which were cold and hot for two extremes.

This is the strangeness and horror of the yin and yang corpses, which can draw the essence of the sun and the moon, and at the same time gather together to achieve evolution, compared with the silver-winged flying corpses encountered before, it is more powerful and strange.

“I didn’t expect there was a yin-yang corpse here?” Qin Tiange secretly surprised and muttered.

This was exactly what Jade Corpse heard, and she laughed softly, “Good brother, you do n’t know, this yin and yang corpse was originally a member of Ziyi, but recently suddenly promoted to a seven-star rating. This ran out to challenge Ziyi’s authority. . “

“Oh?” Qin Tiange was really curious this time, looking at the yin and yang corpse, a male head on his neck, and a female head on his chest, looking very weird.

The two heads opened their mouths, growled, growled, and filled with horror.

It is to challenge Ziyi’s authority, defeat her and even kill Ziyi to gain the dominance of the corpse.

As for the three zombies that had attacked Qin Tiange just now, they were the three direct subordinates controlled by this yin and yang corpse. Unfortunately, Qin Tiange was killed.

Roar!

“Damn human ...” The yin and yang corpses suddenly turned their heads and snarled at Qin Tiange, looking very angry because their three powerful men were killed.

After looking at it twice, Qin Tiange shook his head secretly and murmured: “This yin and yang corpse is unlucky and has encountered Ziyi. If it slips away after being promoted, instead of coming back to challenge Ziyi, it may become a powerful Corpse King. “

“Father, you’re here!” At this moment, Ziyi was excited, and after watching Qin Tiange appear, the whole person was different.

After seeing Qin Tiange coming, she didn’t care about the yin and yang corpse, thinking about killing the other party quickly and then came to talk to her father.

“Father, wait, I kill it first!” Ziyi smiled sweetly, and then his body moved, and a purple light disappeared.

Roar!

The yin and yang corpses on the other side roared suddenly, feeling icy, covered with a crisis of death, breaking apart and breaking out.

With a bang, it turned out to be baffled by somehow, and saw a flash of purple light, a petite figure catching up with it, and a fist flashed with amethyst light hitting its face door fiercely.

There was a crunch, and the face of the yin and yang corpses collapsed, blood and water spewed, and looked so miserable that they were stunned by Ziyi.

Huh!

The yin and yang corpses screamed. As a result, Ziyi stepped on it with a severe blow, and a loud bang made a dust on the ground.

Immediately afterwards, I saw that Ziyi was waving her hands, slamming hundreds of punches every second, and a muffled sound came. In the big pit, the yin and yang corpses were beaten with flesh and blood, and their calls were gone.

“Well, is this the real strength of Ziyi?” Qin Tiange was amazed, looking at the half-dead yin and yang corpse of Ziyi, and he had a clearer understanding of Ziyi’s strength.

How long has she grown up? Just born less than two years ago, he has grown to this point. I have to say that Ziyi is unique and talented.

boom!

In the end, Ziyi punched the head of that yin and yang corpse with a punch, took out one black, one white and two seven-star Xinghe, leaped with a smile, and fell in front of Qin Tiange.

“Father!” Ziyi Qiaosheng looked up at Qin Tiange, her face flushed, her eyes narrowed.

Qin Tiange smiled, squatted down, and patted her little shoulder, praising: “Ziyi is very powerful, I’m afraid my father is not your opponent now.”

“That’s not it.” Ziyi shook her head, a pair of amethyst pupils looked at him very seriously, and said, “Father, Ziyi felt a lot of powerful breath from you, each of which was enough to cause Ziyi to be injured or even die. “

Oh? Qin Tiange was stunned, thinking to himself, Ziyi said that there are many powerful breaths. What are those powers?

“Ziyi, how many kinds of breath do you feel?” Qin Tiange became interested and asked Ziyi seriously.

I saw that Ziyi slightly tilted her head and said carefully, “Father, there are five terrible breaths.”

Five powerful breaths make the powerful one like purple clothes feel a kind of heart palpitations, which is very dangerous. Qin Tiange feels surprised, is there so much?

He counted carefully. The power of the unicorn becomes the power of the unicorn, the power of the phoenix becomes the power of the phoenix, and there is the imperial power of Zijin which is just known. This thing should be one of Ziyi.

Although he did not know how to use it, Zijin Huangqi was indeed a mysterious and terrible power, and Ziyi could sense it was really incredible.

As for the other two, Qin Tiange guessed that it should be his left eye. What the last one was, he couldn’t guess.

“Father, this is for you.” Ziyi suddenly spread her palms, one black and one white crystal nuclei appeared in front of her.

At this time, she was like a child offering a treasure. With a look of expectation, she hoped that Qin Tiange would recognize and praise it.

“Thank you!” Qin Tiange accepted it with a smile, but he did not refuse. When he had collected it, he smiled: “Ziyi, take your father to your zombie kingdom to see.”

“Okay, father, let me take you, will sister Yuer come with you?” Ziyi’s little face was filled with a happy smile, and her small hand held Qin Tiange’s generous hand tightly.

She greeted a silent Jade armor corpse, letting the latter show a charming smile. Next, Ziyi took Qin Tiange and the Jade armor corpse to play in this zombies kingdom that belongs to her. .
