

Dark Ages 42

Chapter 42 - Brother 8, bully?

“these people...”

A group of people stared outside at the Diba window on the second floor. Qin Tiange and others made an appearance and immediately caught everyone’s attention in Diba.

In particular, they saw that Qin Tiange was dressed neatly in armor, steel armor, and looked extremely mighty.

The neat sword shield hands in front, followed by a group of long-sought, the back looks like a group of girls, even holding steel crossbows and steel arrows in their hands, it is incredible and subverted their understanding.

“They, are they filming?”

“Brother, where did the group’s armor and weapons come from?”

A group of younger brothers were shocked, staring at Qin Tiange with their eyes wide open, wondering if the other party ran out to make a movie.

As for Huang Ba, his eyes are gloomy, because he can see at a glance that, except Qin Tiange, everyone else is a student and teacher in this small town middle school.

“My son is not in them, he must be in school.” This was the only thought in Huang Ba’s heart, thinking of his son Huang Feilong.

Xi Huangba stared at Qin Tiange and others, making Qin Tiange who had just entered the market seem to feel something, suddenly looked up, just to see the people in the window of the di bar on the second floor of the market.

“Survivor?” Qin Tiange took a glance and stopped paying attention, but took the team behind him and entered the trading market.

There are still a large number of zombies shaking in it. He doesn’t care at all whether there are survivors. The time is urgent. The only idea is to kill the zombies and dig their brains.

Today is the fifth day. You must kill more zombies as soon as possible, or once the heritage stone disappears, it will wait for a month before it will appear again.

“Sword and shield came forward, followed by a long grab, followed by a steel crossbow.” Orderly ordered, Qin Tiange headed, the bone-breaking tang sword turned into a beam of knives, and slashed one after another.

In the market, hordes of corpses fluttered, scattered scattered zombies were attracted, and roared wildly, killing everyone.

For three days, weird hacking made the dense zombies in this market much thinner. It didn’t take much effort to kill them now.

The only thing to be aware of is some zombies that may evolve into two stars. These two-star iron corpses are the most terrible, and Moda and others can never compete.

Fortunately, only a two-star iron corpse was born in the market of this small town. The remaining zombies, even some particularly powerful ones, did not reach the two-star level, and were quickly killed under the siege of everyone.

“My brother, that group of people seem to be zombies downstairs, what should we do?”

On the second floor of the market, inside Diba, a young boy asked this question.

For the myna, Huang Ba, the boss of Diba, groaned, his eyes flashed fiercely, and his fierce eyes made people afraid.

He suddenly said, “The group of people is not simple. I guess that their armor and weapons must come from the school.”

“We quietly entered the middle school to see what was going on. I had a hunch that it must have something to do with the stone tablet that fell from the sky a few days ago.” Huang Ba said his guess for sure.

At the moment when the Doomsday came, many people saw the stele falling from the sky, and Huang Ba was basking in the sun on the roof of the building at the time, and just saw this scene.

I didn’t care, but now when I saw Qin Tiange’s group, I suddenly realized that the stone monument from the sky had great significance.

Xu Xingxu said that those armored weapons came from that stele. His guess was correct. This is the most important reason for him to enter the school.

There is one more, his son Huang Feilong is still in middle school, it is not clear whether he likes Huang Feihong, so he gave his son such a name.

“Go, go to school!”

Huang Huangba immediately made a decision, pulled out a gun around his waist, loaded the bullet, and decided to enter the school.

He first arranged a group of younger brothers to guard Di, and he took most of the younger brothers more than one hundred people quietly downstairs and saw the corpses of zombies everywhere in the market. It was determined that Qin Tiange and others were cleaning up the zombies here.

“My brother, look, the zombies’ brains have been dug out.”

There was a younger brother’s sharp eyes, and he immediately discovered the situation. Huang Ba and others took a look at it. It was true. All the zombies that were killed had their heads dug.

“Is it those strange crystal nuclei?” Huang Ba looked startled, feeling vaguely that he had discovered the secret.

At this time, a younger brother came forward and whispered, “My brother, we seem to have collected a lot of strange crystals. Would you like to take them to school to see?”

Huang Huangyi listened, groaned a little, and finally shook his head to veto: “No hurry, let’s go to the school to see what happens. If these crystal nuclei are useful, then come back later.”

He said, looking at the other side of the market, Qin Tiange and others were clearing the zombies all the way, and even went door-to-door into the shops on both sides of the market to kill the zombies inside.

“Go!” Seeing this, Huang Ba took away and rushed towards the school quickly. On the way, they encountered several zombies coming from them, and they were all settled by them. They dug out the brain crystals.

Here, in the process of clearing the zombies, some people found out what happened here, and a girl ran to Qin Tiange immediately.

“Brother Qin, there is a group of people down the second floor of the market, and it seems that they are heading for school.” This girl, named Qi Lan, is a little ghost and has a lively personality.

I heard her say, Qin Tiange glanced back and saw the back of Huang Ba and others who disappeared around the corner. They went to the school.

“Tiange, I seem to know that person.” Liu Ye saw the back of the group, and The one led by Com was somewhat familiar and frowned secretly.

She thought about it for a while, then suddenly thought, and said, “I remember, that man is Huang Feilong’s father. His name is Huang Ba, and he’s called My Eighth. He is a bully in the town.”

“Oh? Mynah?” Qin Tiange laughed after listening, thinking that these eight people must have noticed the abnormality of the armored weapons on their bodies, and even saw the stele falling from the sky into doubt.

He looked at the zombies nearby, and they were almost clear. Many zombies in the shops were cleaned up. Except for some closed shops, they did n’t go in. The zombies in the outside market were basically cleaned up.

On the street far from the market, there are still a lot of zombies, but this side is basically cleared up.

“Dug out the brain crystal, we are ready to go to that di on the second floor to see.”

After thinking for a while, Qin Tiange finally decided to go to Di Bar on the second floor to have a look. Listening to the local teacher Liu Ye said that this disco is Huang Bakai, and it is the only disco entertainment city in the town.

Moreover, the whole town is obsessed with Huang Ba’s order, known as My Eighth, who is extremely influential in the local area and is a true bully.

After collecting the concentrated brain crystals, Qin Tiange sneered and led Moda and others to the stairs on the second floor of the market.

“Brother Qin, Diba is on it. The entire second floor of the market is occupied by Huang Ba. It was transformed into Diba to do business, and the oil and water are very sufficient.” Moda explained the origin of Diba.

Qi Qin Tiange could ignore this, and went straight up the stairs. The crowd quickly came to the second floor. The gate was locked. There was a large iron door, which was locked from the inside.

“Open the door!” Qin Tiange stepped back and ordered Moda aside.

Don’t mention the excitement on the face when he hears the excitement on his face.
