

Dark Ages 421

Chapter 421 - Restricted area, Huangquan corpse

“Father, are you leaving?”

In the early morning five days later, on a high-rise building, three figures quietly looked at the rising sun in the distance.

Ziyi looked at Qin Tiange with a look of perseverance. These five days were the happiest five days since she was born. She always hoped that Qin Tiange’s approval would finally come true.

But today, when I heard Qin Tiange was about to leave, I felt very lost and sad. I wanted to discard all the corpses directly and follow Qin Tiange.

“After all, the young eagle will soar for nine days, spread its wings and fly high. You have grown up and have your own career and life. You can’t always rely on me?” Qin Tiange smiled and comforted.

But how does this sound awkward? Think about how old the purple clothing is, and it has been more than a year since birth, and even less than two years.

In other words, Ziyi was only a year old when she was really old, and even said that she had grown up, that is, Qin Tiange’s old face was red, and a little awkward.

No way, who is Ziyi looks like an eight- or nine-year-old girl, and she has unbelievable strength and naturally has the ability to protect herself.

Moreover, as the ruler of the corpses, she could not follow Qin Tiange, so she would lose her chance to grow, which was not the result Qin Tiange wanted to see.

“But, I can’t bear my father.” Ziyi’s face was darkened, and her pupils were full of reluctance.

Qin Tiange smiled secretly, patted her little head, and laughed: “Ziyi, your father has a lot of things to do, and you have a big career, the corpses can’t leave your rule. Is that clear? ? “

“Well, Ziyi knows.” Ziyi nodded fiercely, the water mist in his eyes was filled, and a little teardrop was about to roll down.

But she still held back. Seeing her like this, Qin Tiange felt a little moved, but she had to do so. After all, Ziyi was the ruler of the corps, what was she to follow?

“Good brother, don’t you stay a few more days?” At this moment, the jade corpse said quietly.

She looked at Qin Tiange resentfully, her watery eyes could melt the hearts of almost all men.

However, I do n’t know if it was Qin Tiange’s iron heart, and there was no wave in his heart. He gave her a glance but did not show expression.

“Ziyi, do you remember everything I told you?” Qin Tiange suddenly squatted down and looked at Ziyi seriously.

I saw, Ziyi tilted her head, blinked her eyes, and said clearly, “Father, is that Huangquan corpse you said really so amazing?”

“Yeah!” Jade Corpse looked at it suddenly, and asked earnestly, “My good brother, is the so-called Huangquan corpse you said really so amazing?”

Huang Quan’s corpse is the last five days. Qin Tiange told Ziyi and Jade Corpse a message. What kind of place is this?

In fact, Huang Quan’s corpse was extremely famous in the previous life, and it is still so famous that no one in the entire human world knows this place.

It was a restricted area. Huangquan corpse was one of the several restricted areas on the whole earth.

In the previous life, because of the yellow river in this restricted area, there was a thick breath of death and the corpse was diffused, so it was called Huangquan corpse.

Whenever zombies enter here, they will be affected by the corpses there, becoming more fierce and brutal, and over time there will be a corpse forbidden area.

Inside, there is not only the mysterious yellow river, known as Huangquan. In fact, these rivers have powerful death energy, and souls must die when they enter.

But the zombies are no problem, but because of the action of the Huangquan River, they have become stronger and transformed into new individuals.

“Huangquan corpse is where you should go.”

Qin Tiange fell into the memory, and then said solemnly: “Ziyi, you must remember that the center of Huangquan’s corpse is an absolute restricted area, and you cannot step into it below the king level.”

“I know my father.” Ziyi looked serious and answered seriously, remembering.

With a solemn and curious look, the Jade Corpse had a keen interest in this so-called Huangquan corpse and wanted to enter it directly.

She thought for a moment and asked, “Good brother, you said that there was something in Huang Quan’s corpse that would allow us to re-transform and evolve. What is that?”

“Yes father, what’s there?” Ziyi was also curious.

Qin Tiange was a little meditative, recalling some memory information from previous lives. In fact, he had never been to Huang Quan’s corpse.

The previous life is an eight-star little person, who can’t be high or low, and wants to step into that kind of super restricted area is simply death.

Many things are hearsay and do not know true or false, but some of the information is true.

“There is a yellow river there. The river water can cause inexplicable transformation of the corpses in your body, and there are many strange rare medicines there. If you get them, it will be of great benefit to you.” Qin Tian Go reminder one by one.

He mentioned this with Ziyi, hoping that Ziyi would lead the corpse to the forbidden area of the previous life, obtain evolution and transformation, and then occupy it.

In previous lives, Huang Quan’s corpse was completely a paradise for zombies. In the later period, all zombies can no longer be seen in the city because they have gone to Huang Quan’s corpse.

Inside, there are rumors of three powerful corpse emperors, who lead the corpses, and more than eighty powerful corpse kings, who rule all corpses, have become a zombie kingdom.

If Ziyi were allowed to enter there early, so as to obtain metamorphosis and evolution, perhaps it would really become a true corpse emperor, thereby establishing a huge zombie dynasty.

“Remember, Huang Quan is in the middle of the forbidden zone, and you cannot step in until you are at the level of a king.” Qin Tiange once again warned Ziyi seriously.

In the middle of Huang Quan’s corpse, there is a great horror. Before entering the king level, he is looking for death, and even the king level is a little overwhelmed.

However, for a strong corpse baby like Ziyi, the king level is definitely qualified to enter the core position of the restricted area, where, although very dangerous, it also has great opportunities.

“I should say what I have to say. As for how, it depends on your own good fortune and hard work. Don’t forget to be disappointed with your father.”

Ziyi nodded fiercely, and secretly vowed that he would not let his father down.

“Brother, what about my sister?” Jade Corpse suddenly laughed and looked at Qin Tiange charmingly. The appearance of Jiao Didi was simply seductive.

Qin Tiange gave her a white look and said, “Did I already make it clear? As long as you remember those things, you will get the chance.”

“Also, start with the corpse as soon as possible and gather as many zombies as possible along the way. Your only goal is Huangquan corpse.”

Qin Tiange stood up, took out a map, and carefully discerned it. He recalled the location of Huang Quan’s corpse in the previous life, drew that area, and handed it to Ziyi.

“Ziyi, that’s all that can help you.” Qin Tiange sighed secretly, somehow had a daughter.

And it was still a corpse baby. At the beginning, it was false to say that it was not inconsistent. Of course, after the contact was understood, the trace of resistance to Ziyi had long since disappeared.

“I’m gone, don’t be sad, there will be time to meet each other in the future.” Qin Tiange rode on the white tiger and waved his hand, driving the white tiger to jump up and jump to another building.

He turned and looked at the purple clothes and jade armor corpses here, nodded gently, and turned and ran away on a white tiger.

“Father ...” Ziyi opened his mouth and snarled, and the scream was full of perseverance, revealing a deep sadness.

She watched Qin Tiange go away and wanted to catch up, but in the end she didn't. She stared at the distant figure until she disappeared.

On the top of the building, the jade corpse looks complex. Looking at the back that left, I don't know what the mood is.

Unhappy and sad? Maybe, for Jade Corpse, the mind in my heart has never diminished, even more intense.

“Good brother, my sister will not give up. One day, I must defeat you, and then let you obediently be the only face of my sister.” The jade corpse muttered in his heart, and his obsession became deeper into the bone marrow.

There is only one obsession in her heart, that is to defeat Qin Tiange and make him willing to be his only face.

Well, if Qin Tiange knew her thoughts, she would have violently beat her up, even thinking about it.

“Ziyi, don't be sad, it won't take long to see him.” The jade corpse then comforted Ziyi softly.

Soon, Ziyi cleared her mood and wiped off the two tears in the corner of her eyes. In fact, zombies generally don't cry.

But the corpse baby is different. Ziyi is a heaven and earth xenogeneity, which cannot be viewed by common sense. Its talent is beyond imagination. It is not even clear how great Qin Tiange will be in the future.

It is the luck of Qin Tiange to have such a daughter. If it really becomes an enemy, it may be his disaster.

Roar!

Ziyi suddenly made a roar on the sky, the sound of the waves billowing, showing a strong domineering, and an increasingly strong breath of the king.

As the ruler of the zombies, she became more and more full of breath, and the breath belonging to that kind of king became more cohesive, giving a lot of oppression.

The superiors all have their own unique temperament. As is the case with the purple clothing, Qin Tiange also has the fact that the jade armor corpses have gradually developed their unique superior temperament. Leading millions of zombies, Without developing your own unique and powerful momentum, then there is really no chance to become a true king.

“Purple clothes, take care!”

In the distance, a white tiger towered on the top of the building, Qin Tiango silently watched the numerous zombies surging around, began to gather in an orderly manner, and then left in one direction.

He knew that the Ziyi and Jade Corpse had gone and took the corpse towards the restricted area of the Huangquan corpse he said.

In the future, what Ziyi can achieve depends on her efforts and fortunes. Qin Tiange cannot interfere or even destroy it.

The only thing I can do is to point her to give Ziyi more opportunities to rise. At that time, maybe it will be another situation.

“This life is destined to be more exciting and vast than the previous life.”

Qin Tiange murmured, patted the white tiger’s head, and the latter turned around immediately, snarled and disappeared.

Chapter 422 - Punishment, removal of post?

Shenzhen city base, three days later, Qin Tiange returned here again.

Today’s Shenzhen market has already changed a lot. On the periphery of the base, no zombie can be seen any longer, and it has been taken away by the purple clothes.

What remains are various mutant creatures hidden in dark corners, groundwater ditches, or mountain forests.

Huh?

Just stepping into the base, you saw a huge steel platform floating over the central base from a distance.

Qin Tiange was surprised and looked at the platform made of super ice crystals, which floated at a distance of 50 meters in the air, which was strange.

“Did the anti-gravity technology and the suspension technology have achieved results?”

With deep expectations, Qin Tiange returned to the underground laboratory. After understanding, he realized that the research was really fruitful.

Not only anti-gravity technology, but even the mysterious magnetic field contained in the floating stone has been studied, and a huge breakthrough has been achieved.

With this, the various super technologies in the future base can develop rapidly, and even the next goal is to build a sky battleship.

After a rough understanding, Qin Tiange left the underground base and returned to the conference room. All the high-level bases have been gathered here.

The mission for more than ten days can be said to be successful or failed.

Success was because the three major legions returned with a large number of survivors and said that failure was that Qin Tiange saw the deficiencies of everyone in the whole process recorded by his own self.

It can't even be said to be inadequate, but a defect. The legion's battle is described as terrible, and it is completely a brain attack.

“Look, take a good look yourself, this is the whole process of your army battle.”

In the conference room, Qin Tiange was expressionless, pointing at the virtual screen played by himself in front of him. Above is the whole process of the three major legions fighting for more than ten days.

The entire process was not modified, and even the group battles as large as the legion and the individual performance of the team were clearly displayed.

Seeing this, all the generals present bowed their heads in shame. Nie Teng and Li Zhi, the heads of the wasteland reclamation regiment, were flushed and almost complacent.

On that screen, the First Land Reclamation Army led by Nie Teng originally stopped suddenly due to Qin Tiange's order, and then continued to attack Guancheng.

However, his performance was disappointing, as if a large corps of lay commanders had suffered many casualties, revealing the fact that he had no military qualities.

Yes, Nie Tengben is an ordinary person. Even if the previous life was a king, he would not be a general or a general, and he would never lead a soldier.

Like Li Zhi, these were ordinary people. Qin Tiange's role was able to achieve these positions and lead the huge army.

As a result, the shortcomings are now exposed. One by one has no experience in fighting soldiers at all, and he does not even know how to lead soldiers and how to carry out legionary wars.

Regardless of the experience of leading troops, I didn't understand the theory. Suddenly I saw this, Qin Tiange came to his senses, and after all, he walked into a dead end.

“Except for a few orthodox officers, none of you have military talent. This is my fault.” Qin Tiange stood up, looking serious.

He glanced at everyone on the scene and said a sentence: “In this battle, due to my personal actions, the Legion caused considerable losses. The responsibility lies with me, and I will write a review and submit it to the Beijing headquarters for punishment.”

As soon as this word came out, everyone's face changed. Looking at Qin Tiange with a firm face, many people felt a shame in their hearts, and they would not lead soldiers. Not only did they fail Qin Tiange's expectations, but he was also likely to be affected. The punishment was over there.

Being punished as an admiral was definitely an embarrassing question and even had a huge impact on his reputation ever since.

“It's not the general's fault!”

Suddenly, someone stood up, and Nie Teng looked solemn and ashamed: “General, it's our fault. It has nothing to do with the general. It is because we don't have the talent in this area. We live up to the general's cultivation and trust, which led to this battle. A big question. “

“I am willing to accept the punishment. At the same time, I formally made a request like a general and asked to be dismissed from my post.” Nie Teng solemnly took his responsibility seriously.

“I’m willing to accept punishment too!”

Li Zhi stood up with a look of loneliness. Although disappointed, he was more soberly aware of his shortcomings, and it was not appropriate to lead troops.

Yes, it is not a general. You will never be a general or a soldier. Just like the Three Legion operations, their performance is so bad that they can even be described by laymen and blindly command.

Wow!

At this moment, all the generals present stood up together, saluting, and then unanimously asked for the removal of the punishment.

“Please punish the army!”

A group of high-level generals, looking at Qin Tiange seriously, knew that they could no longer continue to serve as senior generals in the army and could no longer lead the army.

Without this talent, or even a systematic study, I don’t know how to lead soldiers to fight.

Only knowing that they are rushing, they really don’t know how to do it, except for killing.

Ordinary people, no matter how powerful you are, you can’t lead a huge army without the talent and knowledge in this area.

“That being the case ...” Qin Tiange stood up, disappointed in his face, and said not disappointed in his heart that it was false, but he took the opportunity to completely rectify the interior and lead the army with real commanders.

As for these generals, it is not that they give up on them, but just take this opportunity to throw these people out, let them go out to practice, find their own opportunities to grow into a strong generation.

“I ordered!” With a command, everyone waited quietly, and saw Qin Tiange sweeping everyone with a solemn look.

“Nie Teng, Li Zhi, and Moda. Due to repeated mistakes in the Legion battle, the Legion lost too much, and the positions of the three were dismissed.”

One order was issued, and the three heads were directly removed, and even Moda was removed.

“Yes, obey orders!”

Nie Teng, Li Zhi, and Moda had tears in their eyes, resisting the urge to cry, and after earnest salute, they turned and left the conference room, leaving a lonely back.

As the three of them left, the atmosphere in the entire conference room was extremely intense, and no matter the old real generals such as Hu Yan and Shao Feng, they felt the pressure.

“The heads of regiments, generals at all levels, due to the defeat in this battle, those who did not perform well have all been downgraded.”

“Later, a real corps-level exercise will be conducted in the army, and those who perform well can get the positions of three major corps leaders.”

Qin Tiange issued orders one after another. First of all, he punished the generals who performed poorly at all levels, and all of them were demoted. Even Hu Yuan and Shao Feng were demoted.

Everyone looked dignified, and felt that this time the internal high-level inside the base was a big change of blood, and even a group of old men who followed Qin Tiange were dismissed.

“Furthermore, I have to bear a large part of my responsibility in this legion battle. As an admiral, I have a bad job. In the future, anyone with military talent can be the leader of each legion.”

Qin Tiange looked serious and extremely self-examination: “I will send the review book to Beijing later. As for how to punish me, it is not my business.”

“All units, go back and prepare for the selection of those who have real military talents as soon as possible and break up!”

After finishing speaking, Qin Tiange walked out of the conference room directly, a group of officials looked at each other, each one frowning, the atmosphere was somewhat depressed.

“Is the general punishment too severe?”

At this time, Hu Yan carefully mentioned a sentence, and felt that his punishment was too serious, even if he almost performed, he could not directly remove the positions of Nie Teng, Li Zhi, and Moda.

Who is born a military god, that is impossible, all require war to sharpen, and continuous learning is required to become a true military talent.

“Don’t talk about it, do things with peace of mind, and strive to be motivated, otherwise we will be the next to be dismissed.” Shao Feng was expressionless, but his eyes were shimmering with light.

Qin Tiange’s approach surprised the indifferent general and also had a kind of admiration.

Yes, Qin Tiange has dismissed his old group of core figures, which means that he has the intention to make all the generals of the legions real talents.

Rather than a close friend, this point has been recognized by these generals who still had a trace of complaints, and the last trace of mustard in their hearts disappeared.

Since then, Qin Tiange’s status in this base will be unshakable.

At the base camp, Nie Teng, Li Zhi, and Moda hurriedly packed their packs and walked straight out of their respective camps.

After the three met, they laughed bitterly and sighed, feeling that their lives were dark and lost their motivation.

“Why, that hits you like this?”

A faint voice came, awakened the lost three, and looked up, only to find that Qin Tiange was here.

“General!” The three of Nie Teng instinctively saluted.

Qin Tiange felt helpless and smiled bitterly: “I don’t want to dismiss you but you really are not fit to lead the army.”

“We know!” Nie Teng sighed. He said, “The generals don’t have to be embarrassed. I have followed you all the way to this day. I have also been a general and have led over 100,000 troops.”

“Yes, the general doesn’t have to be in trouble, we know.” Li Zhi shook his head with a bitter smile, feeling very lost.

But Moda didn’t say a word, and there was really no complaint in his heart. In his opinion, he was originally a junior in the middle school. One day he could become the general of China and lead tens of thousands of people.

“Okay, the three of you just don’t want to be dead or alive. It’s not a big deal that will force you to death.” Qin Tiange rolled his eyes.

“Come with me, I have something to explain.” He then took the three of them to a secret room, and explained the many things in detail with the expressions of Nie Teng, Li Zhi, and Moda, and explained a lot. thing.

After one full hour, Nie Teng, Li Zhi, and Moda left with strange faces, hurriedly bid farewell to their daughters-in-law, and set out with a simple salute to leave the Shenzhen City Base. No one knew the three had gone. where.

Chapter 423 - Nanotechnology, Active Reserve

Above the base, on the huge suspended platform, there is a large crowd of scientific and technical personnel busy here, the tester this huge suspended platform.

“General, we are currently experimenting with floating stones to build this suspended platform. Due to limited technology, the concept of floating cities cannot be completed at this time.”

Wu Lao took Qin Tiange to visit this huge suspended platform and introduced the scientific and technological achievements and some problems in the current base.

Floating stones have been researched, for example, this suspended platform, with a radius of 1,000 kilometers, is made of super ice crystals, but it is just a test.

After looking at this platform, Qin Tiange asked: “The aerial platform is actually the imagination of the space carrier. Does Mr. Wu have any plans?”

Mr. Wu, the person in charge of the Ministry of Science and Technology thought for a while and said, “General, the plan of our Ministry of Science and Technology is to cooperate with our self and an intelligent drone designed by us. Manipulation. “

“Yiji, how is the satellite progressing?” Qin Tiange frowned slightly and asked this question.

Satellite monitoring system has always been the top priority. Without satellites, no one can locate or even monitor.

I saw a little light and shadow appear on my wrist, and smiled, “Master, nanotechnology has been thoroughly eaten by us. According to the principles and mysteries of those robots, we built the first nanosatellite.”

Qin Tiange was surprised and asked, “Nanosatellites? Are you talking about nanosatellites made up of numerous nanorobots?”

“Yes, master!” I nodded, and released a picture, introducing: “Master, look, this is the newly developed nano satellite, which is only one meter in size and weighs less than ten kilograms. It is composed of numerous nano robots. Made. “

In the picture, a weird metal ball floats quietly, and then transforms into various shapes, and then turns into countless dense black particles.

Those are nano-robots, dispersed into nano-robots, and combined into a new nano-satellite.

According to Jiji, this nanosatellite uses the latest detection technology, a new energy system, and its own subsystems. The power system is the latest anti-gravity propulsion engine, which can fly directly into low-space orbit in outer space.

“Master, if there are three hundred such nano-satellites, I will be able to control the detailed information monitoring of a location recognized on the earth.” Xi Ji proudly said this sentence.

Three hundred nano-satellites can enable all-round monitoring of the self, and there is no secret on the earth that can block the self-monitoring.

Of course, Qin Tiange doesn’t think so. The dark energy on the earth is getting richer. Various places have begun to form strange and powerful magnetic fields. Any monitoring will be affected.

For example, in some forbidden areas of previous lives, effective monitoring cannot be achieved, and even in some heavens, it is impossible to monitor the conditions inside.

“When will this nanosatellite take off?” Qin Tiange is most concerned about this issue.

This time Wu Ji said nothing, Wu said, “General, nanosatellites need to be studied for a few days. We have only mastered a lot of technologies, and there is still room for improvement and improvement.”

“Okay, the Ministry of Science and Technology has stepped up research and development to produce more of these nano-satellites and implement all-round monitoring and positioning.”

Qin Tiange made a decision to arrange the launch of nano-satellites as soon as possible, and by then, he would be monitored by himself.

Suiji laughed suddenly: “Master, and oh, nano-robots can be used for medical treatment and maintenance, such as future warships and fighters. After the nano-robots are injected, they will repair themselves once they are damaged. As a medical treatment, they are injected into the body. Once injured, the nanorobot will focus on its own cells, and clones will replicate and repair the injured cells. “

Listening to his introduction, Qin Tiange nodded clearly, but he knows that this technology is not very mature at present, and it takes a little time to achieve real application and mass production.

“This thing is still unstable. Let’s land it, research hard, and strive to build a floating city one year later.” Qin Tiange looked at this huge platform and said with a sigh.

The suspended platform is not very stable, and it has shaking and tilting as a whole, it feels as if the technology is not enough.

With an order, the self-operated suspended platform landed and quickly returned to the ground. Many staff immediately started researching, recording the data of this test, and going back to summarize the experience.

Suddenly the suspension platform landed, Wu Lao suddenly said to Qin Tiange: “General, according to the suspension technology we have mastered, we can already produce safe and efficient suspension trains. Of course, it can only be used inside the base. As for the danger outside the base, after all , We must keep the route safe. “

Qin Tiange nodded and said, “Yi Ji, you are currently in charge of the military factory, as soon as possible to implement the production and application of suspended vehicles, the base currently needs these vehicles.”

“Okay, master!” Jiji responded directly, and then she said another thing: “Master, the floating vessels you requested have begun to be assembled in the workshop, and the number is not many at present.”

“Oh?” Qin Tiange listened to a deep thought, looked at the dim sky, and said, “Yiji, after the satellite enters orbit, monitor meteorological changes on the earth and tell me if something is wrong.”

He thought for a while and then said, “Also, inform the senior management to immediately speed up grain planting. At present, there is no threat of zombies in Shenzhen City. Increase the grain reserves. If there is not enough land, organize the people in the base to carry out reclamation.”

“Good master!” I wrote down one by one.

The base is currently getting more and more people. Although there were many casualties in the last three legions, many survivors were brought back.

With one of his orders going down, millions of people at the base were organized, and fertile land was cultivated to plant the kind of golden rice.

What is it like when millions of people work together? Outside the entire Shenzhen city base, all the house soil was pushed and refurbished by engineering mechas, which attracted water and was reclaimed into vast expanses of good land.

Qin Tiange is preparing for the second calamity in the last days. The recent continuous rains and sudden changes have made him feel the breath of the calamity.

“Yiji, I asked you to calculate how to prevent and build the flood control works if the base is hit by a severe flood?” Qin Tiange looked serious and asked Jiji.

I touched my finger a little, and a light curtain emerged, showing the detailed map of the Shenzhen city base. Within 30 kilometers, a huge plan of flood control was planned.

The above shows that if the Shenshi base is experiencing a severe flood, a sufficiently large drainage channel must be excavated within 30 kilometers outside.

Qin Tiange looked a little dignified and suddenly sighed: “Mr. Wu, the Ministry of Science and Technology has accelerated the technical research and breakthrough of the electromagnetic energy shield. If this technology is available, there is no need to fear various disasters.”

Wu Lao looked dignified and suddenly realized that there might be an unexpected disaster. Although Qin Tiange didn’t say it, as a scientific and technological personnel, he naturally knew this.

For example, meteorological knowledge. There have been many rains and heavy rains recently. This is not a good phenomenon because the current season is not a rainy season.

“I understand that research breakthroughs will be accelerated.” Wu Lao answered with a serious expression.

Qin Tiange nodded, thinking suddenly, and said suddenly: “A few days later, there will be a group of new scientific and technological personnel in Guangcheng, Lao Wu, these people will be handed over to you for review, and you can enter the core of the underground base.”

“Understand, you can rest assured.” Wu Lao nodded and said he understood.

Next, Qin Tiange returned to the underground base, inspected the research of various departments, and arranged some research tasks and left the underground base.

“Yanji, when did the Phoenix come?”

At the entrance of the underground base, Qin Tiange looked at the top of Lianhua Mountain, where a scorching fire was permeating.

In fact, as soon as he returned to the base, he felt the breath of the phoenix. Although he was surprised, he ignored it.

Now, he has to talk to this fire phoenix. Since the other party has entered the base of his base, he can't let it go.

“Master, has been here for many days, but has been living on the mountain, there is no bad record.” Jiji's words are strange.

What is called a bad record is actually some criminal record. The entire base is under the surveillance of one's own. Once someone commits a crime, he is immediately arrested. As for the arrested person, of course, he never appeared again.

This fire phoenix has its own warning, and the moment the base electromagnetic energy gun fired, it was frightened, and it was naturally honest.

The power of long-range bombardment will be weakened, but the short-range bombardment, Phoenix asked a little hard to resist that terrible bombardment.

“Okay, you can do your work.” Qin Tiange waved his hand and set foot on the top of Lianhua Mountain, but suddenly remembered something.

“By the way, what happened to the study of the undead heart and the undead bone?” Qin Tiange was curious about these two things?

As soon as I heard this, came to the spirit immediately, excitedly: “Master, you don't know, that heart is simply incredible, all the gene cells and even various factor structures in it, and any organism even Human heart structures are all different. “

She said with excitement: “Also, the piece of immortal bone is extremely complex and mysterious. Even the sequence number of the genes and the gene chain information are very strange. With strong and mysterious power, it is difficult to be destroyed. . “

Qin Tiange was surprised. Listening to his self-talk about these discoveries, it was really different. It really deserves to be called a dead heart and immortal bones.

“Master, if you combine the research results of the two, you will definitely be able to create a brand-new powerful biological weapon, even if it is called” God “.” Xi Ji seems very excited because of the thorough study of these two things , You can get your own body.

“That being the case, study slowly.”

Qin Tiange shut down his personal terminal, walked directly to the top of Lianhua Mountain, and saw the phoenix that was sleeping there.

Chapter 424 - Give Fire Phoenix a mission, the original stone changes

“Yeah, why are you here, walk around, I'm not ready yet!”

On the top of the mountain, a fire phoenix was frightened, covering his wings to block most of his body, and he was so ashamed that Qin Tiange did not spray blood.

Fire Phoenix is shy. It had sensed Qin Tiange's return and was dressing up. Yes, she was combing her beautiful feathers.

“You don’t need to dress up? You are very beautiful?” Qin Tiange rolled his eyes and couldn’t help crying and laughing. The performance of this phoenix made him faint.

Qin Tiange is telling the truth, the Phoenix is beautiful, noble and elegant, that is the head of the hundred birds, high above.

“Really?” Fire Phoenix was pleasantly surprised, revealing her head to look at Qin Tiange, a hint of shyness flashed in her eyes.

Well, she heard Qin Tiange saying that she was beautiful and immediately in a good mood.

“You want to live here?” Qin Tiange stepped forward and asked with a crooked head.

Fire Phoenix lowered her wings, bowed her head, and whispered, “I, I, actually, I just want to live here. Are you here to drive me away?”

Qin Tiange smiled secretly, but shook his head and said, “Don’t worry, I’m not here to rush you, but to ask you for help.”

“Really?” Fire Phoenix suddenly looked up and asked with surprise: “Come on, what’s busy, I will help you.”

Qin Tiange thought a little bit and said what he meant: “Yes, I’m going to ask you to do a little favor, that is, to order a hundred birds to expel and clean up all the mutant creatures within 30 kilometers of the base area. You can do Are you here? “

“Yes, a trifle!” Huohuang agreed without thinking.

She laughed and said, “It’s simple. I’ll call the birds to help you later, but can’t you do it yourself?”

Fire Phoenix is curious, Qin Tiange should be able to order a hundred birds, why should I ask her for help?

“I have other things to do. I’ll leave it to you. Make sure that the food on the base is not damaged. I will ask someone to build a beautiful house for you.” Qin Tiange said with a smile. words.

Upon hearing this, Huohuang was happy, and she promised, and even flew her wings and cheered continuously.

“It’s so easy to cheat?” Qin Tiange felt ashamed, wasn’t it just a house, he could easily do it.

After the fire phoenix flew for a while to land, Qin Tiange then laughed: “If you find a sycamore tree that produces wisdom, you can bring it back and plant it here. Then I will order you to design a beautiful set of beautiful The house is for you. “

“Uh-huh, I see. I’ll catch the sycamore tree and come back.” The phoenix beamed his eyes, flew his wings and flew out of the base in a blink of an eye.

Even she can't wait, can't wait to catch a fine Indus tree demon come back to plant here, but that is her future residence.

Although Phoenix likes to inhabit the fire magma, there is Qin Tiange here, and it was decided without hesitation that Fire Phoenix settled here.

Watching the phoenix rush away, Qin Tiange shook his head with a smile and muttered, "Another powerful phoenix joins the base, um, do you want to catch a few dragons and come back to support them?"

Qin Tiange thought that he was really excited. Bai Hu had it, Phoenix had it, and he was missing a basalt and a phoenix.

As for Kirin, I have never heard of it before, so don't think about it, he is Kirin and Shenfeng.

"Boss mighty, that fire phoenix is finally gone."

At this time, a multicolored parrot came out spookily, the thief said in a whisper, but before he continued to be excited, Qin Tiange broke it into the abyss in the next sentence.

Qin Tiange looked at it with a smile and said, "Fat chicken, you misunderstood. I called Fire Phoenix to find the refined sycamore wood. She still lives on the top of the lotus mountain. Then you ordered with Suzaku and Fire Phoenix. Good bird, clear all the mutated creatures around the base, protect the good base, understand?"

"What !?" The colorful parrot was dumbfounded, eyes widened, and almost fell to the ground, hit hard.

It thought that it would be sad in the future, and his eyes suddenly turned, and he immediately had an idea.

"Boss, you see that I was about to report a message to you. I found a huge turtle on an island in the sea, it seems to be basalt?" The parrot uttered the news in a serious way.

Qin Tiange looked, looked up and down the dead parrot, speechless in his heart, thinking he must want to slip out to play.

"Okay, then give you and Suzaku a task, bring me a basalt back, if you can't do it, wait for Suzaku to pull out his feathers." Qin Tiange threatened fiercely.

As soon as the words fell, a fiery figure fell from the sky. It was Suzaku, with his head raised, and the parrot staring hard.

"Big brother, rest assured, I must be optimistic about it." Suzaku made a guarantee, and almost stopped the colorful parrot from crying on the spot.

"Boss, don't be so ruthless, don't you have the task to give Suzaku another one? Just one of the basalts is enough for me." The colorful parrot strives for reason, and wants to go out to do the task alone, but think carefully not to mention Qin Tiange, Suzaku is very clear.

“Are you itchy? Would you like me to change your feathers again?” Suzaku looked at the parrot drippingly, with a sense of anger in his words.

“Um, don’t want to ...” The poor parrot immediately persuaded, forced by Suzaku to leave the base, and went out looking for the so-called basalt.

In fact, Qin Tiange didn’t believe the parrot at all, but the trapped parrot and Suzaku had no effect in the base, so it would be better to let it go.

“It’s time to prepare some immortal medicine, take time to see Chen Xi ...” Qin Tiange stood on the top of the mountain and thought for a while, and finally decided to refine some immortal medicine.

Moreover, he is going to visit Chen Xi in the near future, and give her something by the way, immortal medicine is one of them.

With the idea, he went straight down the mountain and found all the herbs from the base’s medicinal material cultivation base. The next step was to prepare the immortal medicine.

However, he had previously instructed Ji Ji to design a house suitable for living in Phoenix, and then asked the base’s construction team to build it on the mountain top with super ice crystals.

...

Underground secret rooms, large and small stones are placed there, and some stones also reveal a strange luster.

This is the original jade stone, which was stored here by Qin Tiange. It has not been seen for a long time. Today I am going to open some jade stones to see if there are any good rare treasures.

“Yanji, have these rough stones changed?”

In the back room, Qin Tiange gently inquired about Jiji, who quickly appeared. In the light and shadow, Jiji explained the situation she observed carefully.

“Master, Xunji observed that these rough stones are drawing energy from the air, and they can even draw a variety of energy materials, which is strange.” Xunji said his findings in surprise.

Many rough stones absorb the free dark energy in the air, and even make some energy elements and substances deliberately, they can be absorbed.

“How many rough stones are absorbing dark energy in total?” Qin Tiange asked expectantly.

Soon, Jiji gave the answer. The whole chamber can absorb energy, and those that are not, are put on the other side.

Qin Tiange knew, no wonder that the rough stone was much less, and there were only 8,000 rough stones in this entire room.

Among them, the largest nine rough stones are the most amazing, the whole body is hazy, and the mist is lingering, as if swallowing and vomiting.

This phenomenon attracted the attention of the entire research institution, and some staff members were taken out for research, but Qin Tiange warned that no one would dare to come out to see it.

Just kidding, this is the baby Qin Tiange found. What's in it, only he knows the best, and naturally cannot be opened easily.

“Master, we probed through the instrument and found that inexplicable material was produced in the rough stone, and even some of them detected the fluctuations in life.” Xi Ji said with a serious face.

Not only did we detect the strange generation of various substances inside, but even the fluctuations in the breath of life were unheard of.

He pointed to three of the largest primitives and said, “Look at the master, the one who has the breath of life is the three largest rough stones. The body's surface emits a weird mist, much like an energy.”

Qin Tiange stepped forward, looked carefully, and really felt the slightest fluctuation in life. I was more surprised when I was surprised.

In the original stone, there must be some kind of living beings, just like the original nine changed into undead blood. Once it has given it a sage, it is a unicorn, and it can even be transformed into another powerful creature in the future. The real undead .

“I don't know what's in it?” Qin Tiange looked forward to it, looking at the three huge rocks in front of him, which were more than five meters high.

Yes, you read that correctly, it is more than five meters high. These three rough stones will expand autonomously, as if absorbing energy to grow.

The rough and rough surface of the stone surface gradually penetrated a ray of light, and the whole body was smooth, looking extremely amazing.

Huh!

See Qin Tiange directly pulled out the ancient sword and cut open his palm. He struck one of the rough stones and irrigated the huge rough stone with blood.

A surprise scene appeared, the original stone trembled slightly, and even took the blood from Qin Tiange's hands, and gradually a trace of blood was added inside the original stone.

“It really works!” Qin Tiange looked ecstatic, looking at the blood-stained rough, and even formed a strange blood deed, just like the little fairy.

Soon, the three rough stones were all watered by Qin Tiange with his own blood, forming a peculiar blood link. No matter what kind of creature was born, it would be restricted and controlled by Qin Tiange.

“Yanji, pay close attention to these three rough stones, supply them with various energy substances, and tell me if anything is abnormal.”

In the end, Qin Tiange explained these self-concerns, and selected a dozen rough stones from here, and then took away those rough stones that were not found to absorb energy.

He is here to calcite, open these rough stones, and see if you can get some good things. As for most rough stones that can absorb energy, they are stored for observation and research and allow the rough stones to slowly absorb energy to mature.

Chapter 425 - Emperor chalcedony, spiritual blood

In a secret room, Qin Tiange was carefully looking at the original stone on the ground, preparing to calcite.

Huh!

He slowly pulled out the ancient sword, and waved several swords at a half-meter-high rough stone in front of him, beating a few times, the broken stones were flying, and even the ancient sword was used to dissolve the stone.

Qin Tiange uses ancient swords to calcite stones. Not only can he sharpen sword skills, but he can also master the essence of sword skills.

Sword after sword was shot, accurate to the extreme, and a piece of gravel was cut off, and gradually the surface of the rough stone was completely separated.

Click!

As the last sword was cut and a large piece of rubble flew out, a strange ray of jade light was revealed, crystal clear and mysterious.

“Good luck, even the first piece of Qiongjiang Jade was opened. It seems that after time has settled, some of these rough stones have been born.” Qin Tiange smiled, and carefully collected this Qiongjiang Jade.

The quantity is not large, only two test tubes are filled, but it is already very good.

Next, Qin Tiange continued to calcite the stone, the ancient sword flew over and kept on, and the surface of the original stone was cut off with a sword and a sword to unlock the mystery inside the jade.

I don't know if luck is getting better. There are even ten pieces of rough stones hidden in Qiongjiangyuyu. This surprised Qin Tiange and made some guesses.

Maybe his luck has really gotten better?

Huh!

Another rough stone was untied, but unfortunately there was nothing in it, just some ordinary jade.

Qin Tiange shook his head, holding the ancient sword, and continued to unravel the next rough stone, the sword light flickered, and the sound of crickets kept coming out, and one rough stone was unlocked by him.

As he used ancient swords to calcite, his understanding and understanding of swordsmanship became deeper, as if in the process of using it more handy.

Whether it is swordsmanship or other, you must apply more to have a deeper understanding, otherwise you may go backward when left unused.

Skills need to be constantly sharpened to grow. From the beginning, Qin Tiange calcite still had some expectations, but gradually, he was caught in a deep and wonderful understanding of swordsmanship.

The whole person fell into it, unconsciously wielding the ancient sword, and constantly passing over the rough stones in the back room.

Even in the end, Qin Tiange forgot that he was a calcite, but fortunately he knew what he should do in his instinct.

Uh ...

In the back room, a clear and crunching clash came, and saw the rubble flying, pieces of rough stones were broken down, and they lay quietly on the floor of the back room.

The figure flickers, and the sword light is constantly intertwined. It can be seen that many rough stones are automatically disintegrated at once, as if they had been split.

This process did not last long. When Qin Tiange instinctively turned into a sword, the five original stones in front of it clicked and disintegrated, revealing the internal situation.

“Well ... what’s wrong with me?” With the last sword, Qin Tiange suddenly woke up from that epiphany, staring at the neatly broken rough stone in the back room.

The nine-story original stone was unraveled, completely decomposed, leaving only a little bit in the center, and a little bit of light flickered continuously. Many jade stones contained something in the center.

“I was just caught in the epiphany just now?” Qin Tiange responded immediately, and he just entered the epiphany just now somehow.

He was surprised to find that his swordplay was deepened, and even faintly touched the third form of the sword art. As long as he carefully realized it for a while, he could certainly create a powerful third style sword art.

Qin Tiange faced with joy, so he looked at the rough stones that he had untied to unravel, one by one, and the contents inside appeared in front of his eyes.

“Qiong Jade Liquid, Green Jade Essence ...”

At first glance, Qin Tiange saw two things, one is Qiongjiangyuye, and the other is green jade essence.

The so-called green jade essence is a turquoise emerald liquid, which is extremely amazing and has wonderful effects. It can be used as medicine and can be taken. The effect is very powerful.

This kind of thing can increase the strength of a person's body bones and bones, can wash the bones, taking this green jade essence year after year, will certainly make people get ice muscle jade bone.

“Good, good.” Qin Tiange smiled, and carefully collected all the agar slurry and some green jade essence.

In the end, he looked at the dozens of rough stones that were agreed to be untied in front of him, and there was a piece of rough light inside the rough stone, but nothing else.

“This is ... white fat chalcedony?” Qin Tiange was surprised, holding up a white light flashing jade, which contained a milky liquid.

This liquid, white fat chalcedony, is more advanced than agar slurry and contains more powerful energy and medicinal power. It is a rare spiritual treasure.

Take care carefully, Qin Tiange then looked at the dozen or so rough stones left in the back room. This time, the calcite can be said to have been harvested well enough for his next refining.

Huh!

With a gurgling sound, the ancient sword turned into a residual image, and half of the original stones were passed across in an instant. Three seconds later, these original stones were scattered to the ground, exposing the internal jade structure.

Qin Tiange stepped forward and looked at the untied stones, but unfortunately, he had no choice but to sigh with luck.

But he didn't care, there were nine rough stones left, and there should be some good things. These are the last few rough stones.

These are all rough stones that can absorb energy, and they are nine rough stones that have stopped absorbing energy, and he has taken them to prepare to unlock them.

Click!

The ancient sword crossed, the first rough stone split, and the surface layer fell off. Soon, a strong green light was revealed inside.

A peculiar scent of fragrance permeated the entire secret room, which was breathtaking and breathtaking. It felt very magical.

“Good stuff!” Qin Tiange didn't even know it was a good stuff. Just smelling the aroma made him feel amazing.

He immediately crouched down, carefully holding up the head-size jade, crystal clear and transparent, exuding a faint light of blue and green, the fragrance was refreshing.

This jade is the most precious kind of emperor jade, which contains a rare and rare treasure.

“Emperor Chalcedony?” Qin Tiange squinted his eyes, his heart beating slightly.

He could see that in this piece of emperor jade, a little precious chalcedony was born, much higher than white fat chalcedony.

Moreover, there is no way to compare the two. The emperor chalcedony is a treasure of heaven and earth, rare in the world, and its effect is so powerful that it is shocking.

The chalcedony of the emperor is fierce in medicine and contains powerful and violent energy, like the same emperor is alive, of course, this is a metaphor.

“I didn’t expect to have an emperor chalcedony. It seems that it is enough for me to prepare and refine two immortal pills.” Qin Tiange with a smile, did not take out the emperor chalcedony, but the entire jade. keep it.

When he was preparing to stare at the preparation of the immortal medicine, he would take out the preparation so as to better play the role of the emperor chalcedony. Otherwise, the medicine would volatilize and the energy would dissipate once it came out.

“The last few rough stones should have good things.” Qin Tiange looked forward and continued to calcite with the ancient sword.

After a while of arguing with gold and iron, a rough stone broke apart, but Qin Tiange was stunned by the contents.

There was a dark * in the untied rough stone. Yes, it was a slag.

“Evolution failed?” Qin Tiange was surprised and disappointed.

It turned out that what was contained in this rough stone failed, leaving only a clump of residue in it, which means that the spirit that had originally been cultivated was actually destroyed.

In the original stone, there are failures in the birth of the spirits and strange treasures, which is an example in front of them.

Unexpectedly, Qin Tiange encountered something that failed to be born, and shook his head with regret, not even knowing what was inside.

Throwing away the failed product, Qin Tiange continued to calcite the stone, but in the following several rough stones turned out to be such failed products.

“This should be some kind of rare treasure, but unfortunately failed.” Qin Tiange took one of the jade stones and saw a faint residue in it.

He smashed the jade, took out the residue inside, and found a little bit of residue, showing a strong aura remnant, it should be some rare treasure.

He shook his head helplessly, and regretfully collected these residues, which could not be used for medicinal purposes. The only purpose was to bury them in the soil, so that plants could absorb some of the strange energy left in them.

By now, the last one is left in all the jade stones, the whole body is dark red, and nothing unusual is seen.

Qin Tiange looked around, and without hesitation, he directly waved the ancient sword, and used the powerful sword technique to peel away the rough stone a little.

Finally, when a basketball-sized jade appeared in front of him, there was a glow of blood in the back room.

The * light was revealed, which caught Qin Tiange's attention. He picked up the basketball-sized jade, the whole body was blood red, and there was a little * liquid floating inside.

“Blood?” Qin Tiange was inexplicably surprised, carefully distinguished, and finally concluded that there was some kind of blood in this blood jade.

Yes This is a kind of blood, revealing aura, there is a trace of spiritual fluctuations, it is strange and incredible.

This is a kind of spiritual blood, its efficacy is unknown, that is, Qin Tiange did not find any records about this kind of thing when he went through the pharmacist's inheritance knowledge.

“There is no record, what kind of blood is this?” Qin Tiange was surprised and curious, unable to help looking at the mysterious blood in this blood jade.

This blood, with its deep spirituality, seems to have self-awareness, but it does not have consciousness. Perhaps, after a long period of accumulation, this blood will turn into a real creature.

But now it is impossible, being solved by Qin Tiange is tantamount to completely losing the possibility of progress.

Moreover, Qin Tiange discovered a problem. This blood was permeated with a powerful wave of energy, which was extremely strong. It was not weaker than the drop of the king's blood that he had originally obtained.

“No matter what it is, it seems that it can be used to mature the immortal pill ...”
Qin Tiange looked and laughed.

The calcite is completed and the harvest is quite rich. It is time to prepare the refining medicine.

Chapter 426 - Miss Auntie is missing

The Sucheng base became more and more prosperous. With Chen Xi's successive troop expeditions, he recovered nearby cities, brought back a large number of survivors, and strengthened the entire base.

“Haven't found it yet?”

In the conference room of Sioux City, Chen Xi was exhausted, her eyebrows frowned, and her eyes showed a hint of worry and tiredness.

She didn't close her eyes for a few days, her heart was anxious like an ant on a hot pot, and half of the entire army's legion was sent out.

“General Chen, there is no news yet, we are expanding the scope and stepping up the search.” One said with a solemn expression.

What are they looking for? What happened to Chen Xi, why she seemed so exhausted and even anxious.

Chen Xi clenched her fist, stared at the map in front of her, and ordered: “Order the various teams, evacuate, no need to find it.”

“what?”

As soon as this word came out, a group of senior generals at the scene changed their faces, and some people stood up and opposed it.

“No, you can’t give up!”

“Yes, General!”

A captain stood up and saluted, saying, “General, there is no news at this time to prove that there is hope and cannot be given up.”

Chen Xi slowly turned around, and that tired look was distressing. She frowned: “Don’t waste everyone’s energy for my ignorant sister, and let the team retreat. At present, the situation at the base is still unstable, the surrounding waters are vast, and the living creatures in the water are getting stronger. We must think of a way solve this problem.”

“What about Major Chen Yun?” An officer said anxiously.

It was clear now that they were looking for Chen Yun. What had happened to her?

Chen Xi shook her head and resolutely said: “It has been four days, and she can’t drag the entire Sucheng base because she is alone. Withdraw it and don’t need to find it.”

“Later, I will report to Beijing. This is the end of this matter.” Chen Xi said, and turned to leave the conference room.

Feelings of pain, anxiety, self-blame, etc., flooded her heart, making her feel like falling down at any time.

Chen Xi looks strong on the surface, but she is very painful and fragile. She knows that most of her sister is hopeless.

They have been missing for four days, no one can see the dead or the corpses, either they have been eaten by the zombies or some accident has occurred, and no one can be found at all.

Most of the army sent out to search for four days, but there was still no news, which made Chen Xi desperate.

But she can’t show it, because the base still needs her support, and the current situation in the base of Sucheng is not very stable.

Especially after the second evolutionary wave, the zombies and mutant creatures became more fierce, which caused the Soviet city’s forces to be greatly challenged and lost.

This time, it was because her younger sister Chen Zhen disappeared that caused most of the army to scatter out for a search. Many casualties occurred and she had to order to withdraw.

She can’t let the entire base be toppled because of Chen Yu alone. In this case, the person in power of this base cannot be justified.

If you use this layer to make things happen for the person intent, her situation will be more difficult, and even there are huge risks.

Chen Xi dragged his tired body and stumbled back to his home, but he didn't find that there was a person or a young man in the room.

Ok?

In the room, the young man saw Chen Xi's confused appearance, his complexion changed slightly, and he went directly to hold on to the beloved beauty.

“Chen Xi, what happened, why is it so embarrassing?”

A warm embrace, followed by a familiar voice in the ear, awakened Chen Xi, only to find that he was being held by a young man.

“Tian Ge, Chen Xi is gone ...” Chen Xi looked at him, and it was Qin Tian Ge who was thinking about it, and suddenly burst into his arms and burst into tears.

She couldn't help it, she was really exhausted, and her heart suffered a great deal. Chen Yun, the only sister, had disappeared.

Yes, Chen Xi's disappearance caused Chen Xi to collapse. If it wasn't for the toughness she needed to show in front of an outsider, she would probably cry like a cry now.

Chen Xi cried and cried even when she fell asleep, watching her pear flower slept in the rain, Qin Tiange felt a tingling in her heart.

“Chen Yun is missing?” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, watching Chen Xi who had slept in the past, cursed in his heart how this happened?

Qin Tiange did not expect that he had just come to Chen Xi, and he was in a good mood. When he saw Chen Xi's appearance, he heard that his aunt Chen Chen was inexplicably missing, and his mood was immediately bad.

He picked up Chen Xi, placed it gently in her room, covered the quilt, and sat quietly beside the bed thinking about the problem.

“This silly girl didn't contact me in time, didn't she give her a personal terminal?” Qin Tiange looked at Chen Xi, who was asleep, with some dissatisfaction.

Chen Ye did not notify him of such a big incident, and it was not impossible to contact him. Before leaving last time, Qin Tiange made a personal terminal for her, just for the convenience of contact.

Looking at a watch on her wrist, and then looking at Chen Xi's sleeping sound of rain, Qin Tiange shook his head and smiled bitterly, and couldn't blame him.

Now the most important thing is to find Chen Ye, and I don't know how she did it, she even disappeared.

Uh ...

For a long time, Chen Xi slowly woke up and saw Qin Tiange sitting on the edge of the bed, suddenly got up and hugged him tightly.

“Tian Ge, Chen Xi is gone, she is missing, what should I do?” Chen Xi was trembling with fear in her heart.

The only younger sister was missing and could not be found, making her whole body panic. Now that she saw Qin Tiange coming, she naturally became the backbone.

“Don’t worry, don’t panic, tell me first, what happened and why Chen Yue disappeared.” Qin Tiange calmed down and comforted Chen Xi, so he asked what happened.

Then, Chen Xi slowly told the whole story, and this story started five days ago.

At that time, Chen Yun brought the gift Qin Tiange gave her, the ancient stone egg, and was going out to find the spiritual material to contain the stone egg.

At first Chen Xi didn’t care, but this walk was wrong. I didn’t see her return at night, and she didn’t even see anyone after the next day.

Then Chen Xi panicked, and immediately sent someone out for a carpet search, but unfortunately found nothing.

“You don’t know where she went?” Qin Tiange felt tricky this time.

When my auntie went out, Chen Xi, who was an elder sister, didn’t understand her whereabouts. Isn’t that too careless?

Of course, this is also because Chen Xi is often busy with the base, leading to negligence, thinking that Chen Chen’s current strength should be sufficient to protect himself, but something really went wrong.

“Don’t worry!” Qin Tiange comforted Chen Xi gently, then fell into contemplation, thinking about some of the key issues that Chen Yun was missing.

He suddenly asked, “Did she not tell you where to look for spiritual materials?”

Chen Xi thought for a moment, her eyes brightened, and suddenly exclaimed: “Yes, she stunned before leaving. I didn’t care about it originally, and now I want to come, she is probably going to that place.”

“Where?” Qin Tiange sighed secretly, and care was chaotic.

Chen Xi only remembered at this time, indicating that her heart has been really disturbed these days, and she has been completely confused. If it were not for Qin Tiange’s arrival, she would probably give up Chen Yi in this way.

“Look at Tiange, this is it. Chen Ye said at the time that he would go out and find some spiritual materials. By the way, he would bring some ancient paintings and hang them in your room. Your room was arranged by her.” Chen Xi said. , His face darkened.

Qin Tiange froze and turned to look around. There was really a clean room outside. It was the two sisters Chen Xi and Chen Ye who negotiated for him.

It is decorated with antiques and fragrances, and there are many antique famous paintings, which are between Chen Xi and Chen Yan’s room.

Unexpectedly, this little Nizi still had this thought, Qin Tiange could not laugh or cry.

“Okay, now that I know the location, I'll look here.”

Qin Tiange Lei was very popular, and he didn't dare to delay, for fear that his little aunt would be miserable because he had finished playing as soon as he delayed.

Anyway, it is Chen Xi's sister, his younger aunt, who naturally wants to find him as a brother-in-law.

“You just wait in peace at home, I will bring Chen Xiping back safely.”

After Qin Tiange said it, he kissed Chen Xi's forehead gently, turned to the window, jumped out, vacated in an instant, and disappeared into the distance in a blink of an eye.

In front of the window, Chen Xi stared blankly at the figure he was leaving, and he felt astonished that he couldn't believe his man would fly.

“He is getting stronger and stronger. It seems that I must redouble my efforts to catch up, otherwise I will be left too far behind, and then I really can't keep up with him.” Ge Neng brought Chen Xi back safely.

But she was still very stunned, and it had been four days, would Chen Hao be dead.

In fact, Qin Tiange has such concerns about this problem. After all, Chen Yuan has been missing for four days. If he really died, he would never find it.

But the only good news at the moment is that Chen Yuan's life and death are unknown, and there is a little hope. As long as one day is not sure that she is really dead, there is still hope.

Huh!

Qin Tiange soared through the sky, and was very fast. It didn't take long for me to come to the map where Chen Xi pointed out. This is a museum.

Looking down, the huge building is the largest museum in the Sioux City Cultural Relics Protection Center

“what?”

As soon as he fell, Qin Tiange suddenly felt a familiar scent. Although it was very light, he was still caught by him.

This breath is exactly the breath belonging to Chen Xi's little auntie, which made him feel refreshed. Chen Qi has been here.

Without hesitation, Qin Tiange stepped into this museum and carefully sensed the familiar atmosphere remaining in the surroundings.

Along this lingering breath, Qin Tiange found some traces, proving that Chen Yue had been here.

“This is Chen Yun's silver gun?”

Soon, Qin Tiange found a small pool of blood stains in a corner of the museum and a * silver gun left here.

It was Chen Ye's weapon, but he didn't see the trace of Chen Ye. This changed Qin Tiange's complexion, and he couldn't help raising a murder.

Is Chen Chen dead?

Chapter 427 - Weird, painting the world

"Chen Yi ..." Qin Tiange's pupils contracted, and the slightest murderous permeated.

Chen Yan's weapon was found, leaving only a small pool of blood on the ground. There were traces of fighting here, but her body was not found.

This caused Qin Tiange's heart to emerge, and he searched carefully nearby and saw many traces of fighting, proving that Chen Yue had been here and that fighting had occurred.

Qin Tiange's expression was dignified, and there was a bad hunch in his heart. Did Chen die here, and all the corpses were eaten up?

But the museum is quiet, there are scattered things everywhere, some cultural relics have been broken and dropped to the ground.

Apart from these, there are no more figures, even a zombie has not been found, which is a bit weird.

"This is her blood ..."

Soon, Qin Tiange found a little blood on a wall. It was a blood-colored handprint. It should be the trace left by Chen Yong climbing the wall when he escaped here.

The bloodstains had dried up, Qin Tiange followed these traces and quickly walked deep into the museum, where more precious ancient relics were stored.

On the ground, scattered antique fragments, some ancient ceramics, etc. have all been broken, and the ground is messy.

Even some counters were crooked and crooked. The cultural relics stored in them were long torn and left a little bit of blood on them, so that Qin Tiange felt a ray of breath belonging to Chen Chen.

He traced all the way, looking for the traces Chen Chen had passed, and came to an exhibition hall, which is a place dedicated to displaying ancient paintings.

The hall was quiet, the atmosphere was very strange, and there were old beautiful paintings hanging on the walls.

"Chen Ye has been here ..." The moment he stepped into the lobby, Qin Tiange smelled the remaining breath of Chen Ye.

She had been here, and Qin Tiange suddenly raised a hint of hope in his heart, looking for it in the hall, but soon he was disappointed.

In this exhibition hall, apart from the ancient paintings, there is no further discovery. There is no extra door or passage here except for the passage that comes in.

Qin Tiange's brow was deep, and he was constantly wandering in the hall, looking carefully for the trace information left by Chen Kui, hoping to find out.

Before long, he saw some blood stains in front of a wall, and a blood-colored handprint was clearly imprinted there.

Judging from the breath of blood, it should have been Chen Ye. At that time, she fled here, but what happened in the end and where did she go?

“Chen Yun, where are you?”

Qin Tiange stared at the bloodprint, murmured to himself, feeling a little heavy, and even had a ray of bad worry.

He didn't find Chen Yue, and just as he was about to turn around and leave here to continue his search, he suddenly spotted a painting on the wall.

Ok?

Qin Tiange froze, his pupils narrowed, and he stared at the painting, as if stained with blood.

He saw that there was a bit of blood on the painting. It should be that Chen Chen was looking forward to the wall at the time. He just ran into the painting and was stained with blood.

And these did not matter to him. What surprised him was that this ancient painting has a long history and a long history. It is an ancient cultural relic.

This is a landscape painting. There are landscapes. Above the mountains, there is a vaguely white figure standing proudly on the top of the mountain, looking out into the distance.

“This picture ...” Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes and kept looking, and suddenly felt a unique and strange breath.

He felt that the painting seemed to be alive. He always felt that there was some kind of life feature that made him feel shocked and suddenly remembered something.

“After the end of the day, some idols were nourished by human incense because of the months and months, and the spiritual wisdom was born under the influence of dark energy.”

Qin Tiange murmured to himself, his eyes twinkled, he suddenly remembered that not only idols can produce some spiritual wisdom, but also some ancient things, such as those ancient murals, or some strange ancient paintings, which may have differences. change.

It is like this ancient painting in front of him. It has a history of at least three thousand years. He has a thick breath of years, and he is captured by the fluctuations of life characteristics.

Later, Qin Tiange looked back and forth in the hall, looked at other ancient paintings, and found that they were all ordinary and nothing strange.

Of all the ancient paintings, the only one that was a little special was that I realized immediately that there was something wrong with this ancient painting.

“The people in the painting are a little familiar ...” Qin Tiange looked more and more dignified, staring at that ancient painting, the hazy figure on the top of the proud hill was somewhat familiar.

The more he looked, the more he thought that the figure was Chen Kun, and the thought surprised him even.

“Does this ancient painting produce an inexplicable variation, forming a treasure like a secret place, forming a realm of its own, with a spirit?” Qin Tiange’s face changed slightly, and such speculation flashed in his heart.

He looked shocked. He stepped forward two steps and looked at the painting carefully. The figure above looked more like Chen Ye. The charm was very similar, and his breath was revealed faintly.

This made him more certain that the ancient paintings had been transformed, with an inexplicable transformation, and had become a small world, even with painting spirits already inside!

Ancient paintings have spirits, that is a unique existence, and once they really shape it, they are an elusive creature.

Think about it, a painting represents a world. Once it is truly transformed into a real little secret, how terrible is the born painting spirit?

“Did Chen Chen be in the picture?”

Qin Tiange was trembling in his heart, and his eyes were killing him. Without saying a word, he just picked up this picture.

boom!

Suddenly, a hazy light burst out and bounced Qin Tiange’s hand. He looked horrified, and looked at his hand, and was surprised by the inexplicable light.

Looking at the painting again, there has been a change. The original artistic concept of the mountains and rivers has changed, and instantly turned into a purgatory. Countless demons are struggling and shouting.

Uh ... roar!

The ancient paintings have changed, and the mountains and rivers have disappeared. It turned out to be a scene of * in front of Qin Tiange.

Countless fierce devils are struggling, almost to reveal the picture, and rushed towards Qin Tiange, but were locked inside.

“No!” Qin Tiange’s eyes were cold, and he hummed, “It turns out that this is not an Qingshan ink painting, but an ancient demon figure, which originally depicts all kinds of fierce ghosts and demons.”

Yes, this is the true side of ancient paintings. Originally painted on it was a terrible and horrible demon horror. Due to the erosion of dark energy, a weird transformation occurred.

This has become the current spirit of painting, and the various demons and ghosts in ancient paintings have become only real demons and ghosts.

Of course, due to the limitations of the diaphragm in these paintings, these demons and slayers could not escape, as if locked in a small world.

That's the world in the painting, isn't Chen Yu also in it?

“Oops, Chen Ye must have been sucked into the world in the painting, then she is now ...” Qin Tiange's face changed greatly, and he looked at a stubborn ghost, struggling and roaring, and had a bad hunch in his heart.

Chen Yan, it is likely that she was absorbed by this ancient painting, so how can she face the countless demons and ghosts in the painting?

What is the origin of this painting, and why can it be mutated like this, the ancient painting, the time can no longer be traced back, and even the real year is not clear.

Uh ... oh ...

Li Gui struggled, and the devil roared, as if to break away from the shackles of the picture, but unfortunately calmed down soon.

At this point, everything in the picture disappeared, leaving only a dim scene, as if the water waves were rippling, exuding the dark atmosphere of the forest.

This painting, like the gate to hell, looked horrifying.

“Whether Chen Chen is inside or not, I have to look inside.” Qin Tiange saw this dark passage and knew that it was the entrance to the world in the painting. He decided to enter. Among them, to see if Chen Chen was actually sucked into the world in the painting, he needed to find out for himself.

As for destroying this painting, it can be done. A chaotic flame can burn to ashes. Of course, this will surely burn Chen Chen, who is trapped in the world in the painting, to death.

This was not what he wanted to see, so he took a step forward and ran into the ancient painting with a halberd.

Wow ...

The figure flickered, and Qin Tiange hit the ancient painting. Instantly, a black light wave fluctuated and disappeared into it.

When he entered the moment of ancient paintings, the dark paintings changed suddenly, and the green mountains and green waters of the former were suddenly restored.

The most weird thing is that there is an extra figure in the painting. If you take a closer look, it turns out that Qin Tiange turned out to be imprinted in the ancient painting. It is really weird and scary.

What kind of world is the world in the painting?

Chapter 428 - Demons, ghosts, can't kill?

For a while, the sky turned round, as if entering some kind of tunnel, in a blink of an eye, Qin Tiange found himself in a strange world.

“This is the world in the painting?” Qin Tiange blinked his eyes, carried a halberd, and watched the surrounding environment vigilantly.

This is the world in the painting. He is on a high mountain, with huge rocks protruding, ancient pines vigorous, and breeze blowing, accompanied by the fragrance of flowers and herbs.

Ding!

Qin Tiange tapped the rock under his feet softly, and gave out a crisp tink, sparkling, feeling real.

Incredible!

He felt that all this was true, and it was hard to believe that it was the world in a painting. It was really incredible.

Ok?

Suddenly, Qin Tiange looked into the distance and saw a petite figure standing on the opposite cliff, quietly looking at the sunset in the distance.

“Chen Jiu!” Qin Tiange looked and saw that figure was Chen Jiu.

He jumped up in the air without saying a word, leaping directly, and landed steadily on the mountain over there.

“You’re here ...” As soon as I landed, I heard such a sentence, Chen Yu turned around and smiled at Qin Tiange, it was amazing.

However, Qin Tiange frowned, his pupils narrowed slightly, staring at Chen Chen in front of him, feeling strange to him.

Yes, Chen Yan smiled at him. It was nothing, but the point was that she didn’t seem to know herself, which was a problem.

“You’re not Chen Yun, who are you?” Qin Tiange’s halberd trembled sharply, pointing directly at the person opposite.

Giggle ... “Chen Jiu” laughed a few times, charmingly: “I’m Chen Ji, otherwise who do you think I am?”

boom!

Qin Tiange’s halberd hit the ground fiercely, with a click, the rock broke, a crack spread, and he stopped in front of Chen Chen.

A flash of coldness flashed through his pupils, and he hummed, “You’re not Chen Yan, but you dare to occupy her body, you’re almost dead.”

Qin Tiange was extremely furious, Chen Chen in front of her was not her own body, but something occupied the body, yes, Chen Ye’s physical body was occupied.

Huh?

‘Chen Yun’ was surprised and looked at Qin Tiange before saying, “Yes, you can see it, but what about you?”

She sneered at the corner of her mouth, pointing at the surrounding scenery, and said, “Look at the flowers, plants and trees here, everything belongs to me. If you come in, don’t want to go out, stay here forever with me Right. “

Humph!

Qin Tiange scorned and scorned, “You are the spirit in this picture? Really, you think you are the creator of the world?”

“Immediately, immediately, and away from her body, I can spare you a life, if not, I will let you die.” This cold utterance revealed the murderousness.

Qin Tiange was really angry, Chen Chen still didn’t know whether the soul was swallowed by the other party, which must be figured out.

Moreover, the spirit in this painting occupies Chen Xi’s physical body, which makes him a little jealous, and he cannot vent his anger.

“Hehehe ... hahahaha ...” Ling in the painting sneered first, then laughed wildly.

The smile on her face converged, and her eyes were stunned, and she shouted, “When you come to my world, you dare to threaten me. Later I will slowly cramp your skin and then dry your flesh and blood, watching you Any more strength? “

“Again, get out of her body!”

Qin Tiange’s face was cold, with intense killing in his eyes, and the euphoria buzzed, giving the final ultimatum.

The spirit in this painting occupies Chen Xun’s body, but Qin Tiange is not unable to resolve the other party, but is worried that Chen Xuan will be persuaded again and again.

“Crazy, you’re looking for death!” The spirit in the painting was furious and raised his hand and waved gently.

The rumbling noise came from the sky, dark clouds billowed, and the sky was so dark that it drowned the whole world.

The mountains and rivers are gone, and the flowers and trees have disappeared, replacing a barren, dead, purgatory filled with death.

“Enjoy it ... oh hehe hehe ...” Chen Yan Qiao Qiao looked weird and looked at Qin Tiange with a smile.

“Look for death!” Seeing this, Qin Tiange was furious, screamed loudly, and Euphoria slammed violently.

With a loud bang, Chen Kun’s body floated to the back, a strange smirk appeared on his face, and the body gradually disappeared into the dark air and disappeared.

“Jack!”

Seeing that the other party had lost track, Qin Tiange was furious and rushed up with his halberd, resulting in a rush of black gas.

Qin Tiange’s halberd slammed it, and the black gas broke up on the spot, revealing the terrible thing with its teeth and dancing claws inside.

Roar!

Oh oh oh ...

The black gas surged around, and there was a constant sorrow and sorrow, as if the ghosts in * were roaring, their voices were harsh, and they were daunting.

I saw that among the black surroundings, a terrible black shadow appeared, with a haggard face and a blue face with fangs, looking extremely terrifying.

These are the demons and ghosts in the painting, a huge number of densely packed up.

“A demon, a ghost?” If Qin Tiange’s face was frosty, Euphorbia was buzzing and shaking, and suddenly a halberd slammed into a black mass in front of him.

A muffled bang came, the black gas broke, a screaming demon screamed, and his body was smashed by most of the halberd.

Strangely enough, the devil, who had only half-broken his body, even recovered, and his claws reached out to Qin Tiange.

Huh!

Euphorbia spins, quickly perceives, and two beeps, seeing that Euphorbia pierced the demon’s head on the spot, and instantly burst into a cloud of smoke.

Behind came a hum ... immobile, there are devils claws culling up, chilly wind blowing, foul smells monstrous.

Qin Tiange lengheng, turned around and swept the body of this Li Gui, cut it in two on the spot, and broke apart in the air.

Just when he was about to rush to kill and kill the two, the two demons and the ghosts that were killed turned out to condense again, and the breath was even more fierce.

“Huh? Can’t kill?” Qin Tiange looked slightly condensed, looking at a demon and a ghost that appeared again, feeling a little surprised.

Alas ... Li Gui roared and flew straight on Qin Tiange, the ghost claw severely tore his flesh and blood, trying to devour him.

Scratches appeared, blood stained, but inexplicably waving back, the wound healed quickly.

“Go!” Qin Tiange drank angrily, his body shaken, and the screaming Li Gui screamed on the spot, and was burned to ashes by a chaotic flame.

However, even the fierce ghost turned into ashes, appeared again in front of him, and Zhang Yawu claws were killed.

At the same time, the devil roared in the dense paintings around, and the ghost roared, as if the whole world was like an eighteen-layer purgatory.

On the red ground, a figure stood with a halberd, constantly hacking and killing the horrible demons and terrible ghosts that rushed around.

There was a roar, a roar, and a mournful burst of smoke, and with the scream of Li Gui, finally Li Gui was beheaded.

Hum!

A spear of quake trembled and penetrated continuously, piercing a terrible ghost, who inexplicably absorbed the power of the soul in Li Gui's body.

“Ah ...” A scream came from the darkness and nothingness, and they were very affected by Li Gui, and they mourned and looked very painful.

Hearing that scream, Qin Tiange's complexion changed slightly, and he immediately waved his halberd to the front, where a * river was standing in front of him.

The torrential river was billowing, and the river inside was full of bright red blood, exuding horror and anger.

Above the river of blood, stood a graceful figure, which was Chen Xi, but it was occupied by the spirit in the painting, and the situation was not very good.

“Chen Jiu” shouted with a cheeky face, exclaiming: “You * it It hurt my soul.”

She was extremely angry, because a trace of her soul was wounded, and her whole face became incomparable.

Hum! Qin Tiange was holding a halberd, sharp and straight, pointing directly at Chen Qi, who was standing above the river of blood. His eyes were cold and murderous, and it became colder and colder.

“I'll say it again, get out of her body!” Qin Tiange said coldly.

It's a pity that Chen Xuan on the Blood River smiled, as if mocking his ignorance and naivety.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange stepped on the blood river step by step, so he stepped on the void and stood ten meters away in front of Chen Yue.

Around, dense crowds of demons and fierce ghosts danced, opened their teeth and claws, roared and roared, making people creepy.

“That being the case, let's die!”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange sang aloud, his body emptied, and the euphoria hummed and shattered, breaking through the air, a horrifying force spread out, the chaos flames boiled, and he swept away in all directions.

Chapter 429 - Spirit in the painting, refining the soul!

Boom!

Euphoria hit the ground fiercely, setting off boundless air waves, and a chaotic flame swept out in all directions, burning dense demons and fierce ghosts.

The flames of chaos burned the soul directly, letting the demons and slayers scream screams and screams, and eventually turned into smoke.

Oh oh ...

Groups of demons flutter, all ghosts roar, the whole world is like eighteen layers of purgatory, countless fierce ghosts are struggling and roaring, and madly killing them.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange, who was furious, broke out his most powerful force, chaos flames rolled up, and turned into a wall of flames to stop these fierce ghosts and demons.

Chaos flames, combined with the fire of * of fallen angels, pose a powerful threat to the soul. All the ghosts collapsed on the spot, and the miserable sorrow could not change their fate of being burned to death.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange was roaring, his halberd was waving, and he was surrounded by infinite flames, and the gray flames spread, burning all over the world.

Outside, the ancient painting trembled slightly, and the chaos of fire spread out, covering the ancient scroll. The demon howled, the ghost howled in the painting, and looked extremely terrifying.

In the ancient paintings, the mountains and rivers collapsed, the green mountains and green waters melted, and a sorrow came out in a sad voice, and the ancient paintings were being burned.

Vaguely, a figure can be seen in ancient paintings, burning with flames, and the world is constantly destroyed in the paintings.

“Ah ...” a scream came from the ancient painting, which was traumatized and the true spirit was damaged, and it immediately appeared.

In the world in the painting, Qin Tiange is approaching the extreme, rushing into the sky to kill and kill, and no one can stop him.

He started the slaughter, killing as many as he wanted, but the dense crowd of demons and ghosts around him still didn't seem to decrease.

“No, these demons and ghosts are not real bodies, they should be avatars.” Qin Tiange felt wrong when he killed and killed.

These flying demons don't seem to be real, killing one and resurrecting it is obviously a problem.

While chopping and killing Li Gui, he carefully observed the dense demons and Li Gui around him, and soon found the difference.

In retrospect, Qin Tiange recalled that there were only eighteen demons and fiendish ghosts in ancient paintings at the time, and each type was different.

“There!” Suddenly, his eyes lighted and he caught the demon in the sky. A devil never rushed up.

This demon is the real one, but the surrounding phantoms are just some condensed phantoms. Although they are attacking, they are not the real body.

Uh ...

Surprised to see that, Qin Tiange took out the Zijin God Bow, three arrows and beads, and instantly pierced the cricket demon hidden inside the demon group.

Alas ... a scream came, the demon's body was penetrated by three arrows, and a black blood spewed out at three points on his brow, heart, and throat, and finally fell down in wailing.

Seeing the demon squirting black blood, Qin Tiange knew that it was the real demon, and sure enough, as the demon fell, a large group of flying and roaring demons disappeared on the spot.

“Huh, that's it!” Qin Tiange snorted, burning flames and chaos, blocking the demons and ghosts that had been culled.

Afterwards, his body emptied, floating on the dark and dark void, holding his bow in his hand, a dart arrow whistling away, running through the real demons and real ghosts hiding in the surroundings.

“Uh ... hoo!”

The devil screamed, Li Gui mourned, and for a while, the flying demons and Li Gui gradually dissipated, as if they had never appeared.

With a total of eight real demons, Banyan shot and killed nine real demons. The whole world had a huge shock. The remaining one turned around and ran away.

Bang ...

Qin Tiange smashed into each other with an arrow, and it exploded into powder on the spot. The world collapsed, and every inch cracked.

I saw that the surrounding scene changed and appeared in one of the halls, with three horror characters written on it.

“Devil's Town?” Qin Tiange snorted and stepped in, not shy away at all, not even afraid of whether there were demons in it, is it really a Demon Town?

In his opinion, what a * demonic city is just a palace.

“You killed my men?”

Above the main hall, there was a figure sitting, his eyes were cold looking at the Qin Tiange who came in, and he was twirling with murderous tactics.

Qin Tiange stepped up step by step, staring directly at the ‘Chen Ji’ in front of him.

“Spirit in the painting, leave her body immediately, it is not easy to miss your birth, I can spare you once, this is your last chance.” He said this bit by bit, killing murder.

This is Qin Tiange's last ultimatum. If he was not afraid of hurting Chen Xuan himself, how could he repeatedly make nonsense and just kill it.

There is no way, the other party occupy Chen's body and had to let him cast a mouse jealousy. Some scruples are normal.

Hehe hehe ...

The spirit in the painting looks bleak, staring at Qin Tiange and humming: “Don’t waste your tongue, but she is the key to my transformation. If you give up, you have to wait another three or five hundred years to get out of the painting world and become real. Soul. “

Listening to it, Qin Tiange couldn’t help killing himself anymore, and violently broke out, and Euphorbia blasted him up.

Bang!

A huge table and chair collapsed on the spot, and the endless chaos of flames swept out, covering the whole hall, burning and burning, terrifying.

Qin Tiange launched a violent attack and directly launched a violent attack, which caused the spirit in the painting to evade and retreat.

“Dammit, do you want to kill Chen Yi’s physical body?” The aura in the painting was swiftly corrupted. Qin Tiange would have thought that he would cast a rattle, and should not attack.

But now it ’s not right, Qin Tiange broke out, and the halberd slammed. There was a meaning to break Chen Chen ’s body, and the spirit in the painting was frightened and furious.

“Stubborn, kill you first, then resurrect her!”

Qin Tiange drank swiftly, roared, and Euphorbia rolled in the flames of chaos in the sky, and made a bang, smashed the rolling black gas in front of him, and slammed Chen Chen’s door, scaring the tragic spirit in the painting.

It felt the horrific murderous power, thinking that Qin Tiange would really kill Chen Yun and then resurrect it?

Is he capable of resurrecting Chen Yun? Do n’t be kidding. Naturally, it is impossible to resurrect. With Qin Tiange ’s current ability, it is impossible to resurrect the dead.

As for the biological cloning technology, it is not the original Chen Ye, but the ancient memory awakened in the gene cell, it is another person.

Therefore, Qin Tiange could not scare it by books, and the spirit in this painting really believed it. flutter!

Euphorbia whistled and pierced Chen’s shoulders, blood splattered, and chaotic flames spread around, rushing directly into Chen’s body.

“Ah ... no!” After a scream, Chen Yu suddenly burst into a haze of light and escaped quickly.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange felt a little ecstatic, and quickly came forward to bring Chen Chen, who was slowly falling, into his arms, and stared coldly at the light and mist that escaped.

“The spirit in the painting, you are dead ...” Qin Tiange said in a calm tone, looking down at Chen Yun’s condition, and he was relieved after finding out that there was still life in his heart.

However, Chen Xun's consciousness was banned. It should be the hand and foot made by the spirit in the painting. It may not be able to swallow Chen Xun's soul consciousness for a while, and it was banned by special means.

"Damn, you lied to me, * it!"

Over there, the mist and haze turned into a soul-like appearance that looked like a human being. In fact, it is the spirit body produced by a painting, which is called the spirit in the painting.

Qin Tiange held Chen Chen's waist very lightly, and he didn't dare let go of it, because this is the spirit world in the painting. Once released, it is likely to be hidden. Then don't want to find Chen Chen at that time.

Now Chen Chen is temporarily safe, and Qin Tiange's face is gradually filled with horrific killings, his eyes are cold, and endless evil spirits are revealed.

"You can die!" Qin Tiange spit out indifferently, holding Chen Chen still fast to the extreme, and the whole person lost track.

"what..."

A scream, accompanied by the piercing of the spirit body in the painting, the burning chaotic flame above the halberd burned it for a while.

Just when it was about to turn around to escape, it was found that the surroundings did not know when the endless chaotic flames came, blocking its way.

"No, it's impossible ..." The spirit in the painting was frightened.

Looking at the chaotic flames rolling around, it was arranged early, as if waiting for this moment, then I realized that I was overwhelmed by Qin Tiange.

At the beginning, Qin Tiange really scared him, even to convince him that he would kill Chen Yan, and directly penetrated Chen Zhen's shoulder, the spirit of not swearing and killing her was so scary that the spirit in the painting rushed directly out of Chen Yun's body.

Because once Chen Yun was killed, it would collapse with the physical body, so he would give up this originally perfect physical body and escape, but did not want exactly what Qin Tiange wanted to see.

"Damn, I was deceived by you, you count me ..." The figure growled sharply, and it was quite annoyed after waking up.

Unfortunately, it has been besieged by Chaos Flame There is no way to run.

"Let's die!" Qin Tiange snorted, without saying a word, and gently opened his mouth to spit out a more intense flame. The gray chaotic flame drowned the spirit in the painting instantly.

"Ah ... no, forgive me, forgive me, I don't want to die yet ..."

In the flames of chaos, the scream of the spirit in the painting came, and he kept begging for mercy, and wanted Qin Tiange to let it go.

Unfortunately, it was disappointed and even hopeless, because Qin Tiange didn't want to keep it at all, but practiced its true spirit.

The painting spirit was terrified and begged desperately: "Please, forgive me, I am willing to be your slave, forgive me, forgive me, ah ..."

The screams and begging sounds kept coming out, the chaos flames were boiling, and the soul was burned. The talented fire from Hell's fallen angel was merged, which had a wonderful effect on the burning of the soul.

"No ..." The spirit in the painting screamed for the last time, and finally was completely engulfed by Chaos Flame, melting the consciousness, refining the soul, smelting the true spirit, the process and its cruelty, burning the whole spirit in the painting into a ball Pure incomparable soul fluid.

Chapter 430 - Weird, soul exchange?

In the museum's ancient paintings exhibition hall, a strange ancient painting exudes a faint light, and the slightest flame permeates.

If you look closely, the ancient painting is a barren world. There are two looming figures on the gray earth, one man and one woman.

In the realm of the painting, Qin Tiange gazed at Chen Qi, and looked at the spirit in the painting, who was trained into a true liquid of the soul, and ignored his begging for mercy.

"This is what you asked for ..." Qin Tiange murmured to himself, instead of removing the chaotic flames, he continued to burn the inexplicable liquid the size of a human head.

This is the true liquid of the soul in the painting. It was smelted, and the chaos flames burned the impurities. Gradually, these soul liquids became crystal clear and the black gas was burned out.

"Ah ..." There was a faint sigh of sadness, which was the last true spirit of the spirit in the painting, and it was finally refined.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange sneered at the corner of his mouth and hummed, "You thought I would take care. If you are not sure that you have been completely smelted, how can you rest assured?"

With that said, he continued to burn for ten minutes with chaotic flames. When no trace of black gas rose and no foreign matter appeared, he knew that the spirit in the painting was completely dead.

call!

Opening his mouth, a brain swallowed the chaotic flames burning around him. Qin Tiange then held up the crystal clear liquid, which belongs to the true soul fluid of the spirit in the painting.

"Well, so powerful soul breath, good pure soul power, if you take it, it will definitely strengthen the soul and even grow the soul." Qin Tiange was surprised with a hint of surprise.

For the spirit in the painting, he will not keep the other person alive, the soul being refined is its only end, after all, Qin Tiange knows that the true spirit is hard to grow.

With a real soul fluid like the spirit in the painting, it is bound to increase the strength of a person's true spirit. It is said that the true spirit is strong to a certain degree, and the physical body turned into powder can be reunited.

Regardless of true or false, Qin Tiange expects his true spirit to grow. This is an opportunity right now.

But Qin Tiange did not swallow, but looked down and still fell into a coma, and her soul was locked in her own sea of knowledge.

In the painting, the soul consciousness was banned by Chen Ling. Qin Tiange felt tricky because he did not have the ability to help Chen Xi solve this problem.

The only way is to get the real soul fluid of the spirit in the painting into Chen Xi's sea of knowledge, let her soul consciously absorb these soul fluids, and then break the layer of imprisonment by herself.

“Take half of her first to avoid accidents ...” Qin Tiange thought for a moment, then pulled out the ancient sword and cut the real soul fluid in half.

Holding half of the soul, he opened his mouth and sipped his mouth, and poured it directly into her. The entrance of the true soul fluid of the spirit in half of the painting instantly turned into a powerful soul energy and rushed into the sea of consciousness.

This energy was pure and immaculate, without any threat at all, and was directly absorbed by Chen Yu's soul.

“Sure enough!” Qin Tiange looked slightly pleased, watching Chen Wan's pale complexion gradually become rosy, his breath became stronger and stronger, and finally she was OK.

And, it doesn't take long for Chen to wake up completely. The remaining half of the real soul fluid was swallowed by Qin Tiange without hesitation.

This thing is very precious, you can't necessarily come across it. Now that you have the opportunity, you can't miss it, and Chen Ye is all right, and he will wake up by breaking the ban on his own.

After swallowing the half of the real soul fluid, Qin Tiange only felt that his soul was burning, the transparent soul fire, with a little chaos color, burned himself and refined the impurities in the soul consciousness.

Immediately afterwards, the mysterious true spirit absorbed this power, and gradually grew stronger and stronger, very fast, although he could not see his true spirit.

However, Qin Tiange can clearly sense that his true spirit is really strong. If it is used as a metaphor, the former true spirit is like the size of an ant, and the true spirit has grown to the size of a thumb.

Of course, this is a metaphor, not really seeing his true spirit. Qin Tiange does not yet have the ability to see his true spirit.

As for the soul, it can be seen faintly and vaguely. The transparent flame, with the slightest chaotic character, belongs to the soul's talented fire and chaos flame.

For a long time, when Qin Tiange completely absorbed the energy of the true soul fluid, suddenly there was an inexplicable trace of magical induction, which belongs to soul induction.

“Sister, brother-in-law?”

Suddenly, such a clear inquiry came from the sea of consciousness, and Qin Tiange almost blasted instinctively.

Fortunately, this is his sea of consciousness, but it is because of his sea of consciousness that Qin Tiange was scared by this inexplicable voice.

Qin Tiange looked horrified, knowing the sea, his soul turned into a ghost image, and he looked at the entire conscious sea space with suspicion, but unfortunately there was nothing in it.

“Chen Ji?” Qin Tiange asked uncertainly.

As a result, Chen Xun's surprise word really came from nothing: “Brother-in-law, are you really my brother-in-law?”

“Brother-in-law, it's really you. I, I, I thought I was dreaming. I saw you coming to save me. I saw you slaying demons and ghosts. I thought it was dreaming.”

Chen Xun was so excited and incoherent that the panic heart finally settled. She sensed Qin Tiange and determined that this was her brother-in-law.

As for why it is so affirmed, the strange connection from the depths of the soul made the two strangely formed a strange connection between Chen Xi and Qin Tiange.

Yes, Qin Tiange found out that a strange extra sensation in the original soul was the soul connection, and a strange and mysterious connection was formed between the two.

“Is that the true soul fluid of the spirit in that group of paintings?” Qin Tiange guessed, perhaps because the two of them took half of the soul soul fluid each and got a wonderful change.

This kind of energy is very similar to the telepathy. More correctly, it is the soul communication.

Qin Tiange withdrew his consciousness, looked down, and found that Chen Zhen's cheeks were flushed, his eyes blurred at him, and he smiled stupidly.

“Chen Yun, wake up?” He asked with a smile.

The family was awakened by Chen Yun, her face turned redder, she bowed her head shyly, and did not dare to look at Qin Tiange, because they were somewhat ambiguous.

Qin Tiange smiled awkwardly, and gently let go of Chen Xun's waistline, smiling: “You're fine, do you know how worried your sister is?”

“Well, brother-in-law, I know I'm wrong.” Chen Yan bowed his head and whispered.

Seeing her like this, Qin Tiangeben swore the blame that came to her mouth, sighed inwardly, and didn't say it.

“Okay, it's safe now, but we are in the world in a painting at this moment. If we can think of a way out,” Qin Tiange glanced across the dark world around him. He felt in his heart that the exit was nearby.

At this point, Chen Yan quietly looked up at him, thinking secretly: “Will you wait to tell your brother-in-law so that he can stay here with me for a while.”

However, before she continued to think, Qin Tiange broke her fantasy with a word.

“Chen Yun, you absorbed half of the true soul fluid of the spirit in the painting. Can you control the painting?” Qin Tiange thought directly and asked Chen Yan directly.

When the latter heard it, her heart trembled fiercely, her face changed slightly, but she had to nod, indicating that she could really control the world in the painting.

Yes, the half that Chen Yun absorbed just had a way to control the painting, and half of the real spirit in the painting was able to do it, as if she was born to be her treasure.

But Qin Tiange didn't feel that way, because he didn't fuse the true spirit, but he swallowed it up.

It's like eating, digesting the contents, and completely turning into your own energy, which is different from Chen Xi's half of the true soul fluid. The two cannot be compared.

Therefore, Qin Tiange felt that he could not control the painting, and there was only a faint connection, and the world in the painting was not affected.

Chen Chen is different. She merges half of the spirit in the painting, which is equivalent to half of the spirit in the painting. The ancient painting is like her accompanying spiritual treasure. Anyway, it is not clear.

...

Wow!

Outside, the ancient painting suddenly lighted up, then two shadows came out, and stood quietly in front of the ancient painting.

The two were Qin Tiange and Chen Rong who came out of the painting world. Looking at the ancient scroll in front of them, they felt a little emotional for a while.

Ancient paintings can become spirits, so what else can't become spirits? In the last days, under the washing of dark energy, everything has spirit.

“Chen Yun, put away the ancient paintings and take them as your defense.”

It took a long time for Qin Tiange to speak faintly, and let Chen Yue collect the ancient paintings. This is the world in one painting, which means that Chen Yue has a small world.

Envious? Naturally, Qin Tiange also had some envy, but he could not control the ancient paintings, because he was not fused with the real spirit, but swallowed up and absorbed by his real spirit.

“Brother-in-law, thank you ...” Chen Xie looked at Qin Tiange and thanked with a happy face.

Qin Tiange shook his head and patted her head to train: “You little girl, ran out silently, causing your sister to worry for a few days, remember not to be so reckless in the future.”

“I know!” Chen Yan pouted in dissatisfaction, her face flushed with cuteness.

Seeing her like this, Qin Tiange reluctantly took out her silver gun and handed it to her, and then watched Chen Zhen put away the ancient painting.

Huh!

I was surprised to see that the ancient painting on the wall flew out suddenly, emitting a dim light, and then turned into a light and rushed into Chen Yan’s brows.

This ancient painting has since belonged to her treasures, and she is free to control and form a realm.

“This little Nizi, blushing to look better.” Qin Tiange smiled secretly in his heart, but forgot that he and Chen Yi had telepathy.

Sure enough, when this word came out, Chen Yan’s expression froze, and then his cheeks turned redder, like a ripe apple.

amount!

Realizing this Qin Tiange was awakened. Between him and Chen Yi, there was an inexplicable layer of strange induction, the ability to communicate with the soul.

Chen Ye heard his voice, which was not good. Qin Tiange frowned and felt uncomfortable, because he was spied on secretly.

Almost instinctively, a mysterious force pours out of the soul, and the violent atmosphere is directly enveloping the entire mind and soul, and even the true spirit is enveloped.

Suddenly, a sense of security swept up and down the whole body, Qin Tiange looked soothed, and finally relieved.

At this moment, Chen Yong was no longer able to hear Qin Tiange’s heart fluctuations, and could not even peep at anything.

Qin Tiange calmed down and laughed: “Chen Yun, let’s go back, your sister is waiting for me to take you back.”

“Yeah!” Xiao Nizi answered in a low voice, lowering her head, almost ashamed to be buried in her breast, her face as red as a ripe apple.

He smiled bitterly, walked to Chen Yan, and gently held her small waist, suddenly took her up into the air, flew over the sky, disappeared in a blink of an eye.
