

Dark Ages 43

Chapter 43 - killed boom!

There was a loud noise, and the door was opened directly. The two guards inside were smashed into the ground by the flying iron door before they could react.

“who!”

“what happened?”

The doorway was moved, and dozens of people left behind were immediately vigilant. They picked up the steel pipes one by one, rushed up with a machete.

As soon as these people rushed over, they saw the iron gate was opened, and then a group of mermaids in armor came in. A young man, headed by him, could not see the appearance, but a tang knife in his hand was dripping with blood. Coming down, it was sharp and shivering.

The two suppressed Hans were stabbed by the neck by Qin Tiange, his body twitched twice, and his voice disappeared.

This scene happened to be seen by a group of my brothers who came to see my brother, one by one, his face turned wild.

“who are you?”

He is the first big bald man who looks like a small head with blue dragons on his upper body. He looks extremely horrible and holds a machete.

He stared at Qin Tiange and others with a fierce look, and asked, a group of big men carrying steel pipes and machetes immediately approached and forced Qin Tiange and others.

But the next moment, they did not dare to move, because several of Moda drew a gun and aimed at the bald group of people.

Forty-seven puppies stopped immediately, and they didn't dare to move one by one, their faces were a little pale, everyone was afraid of death, and they immediately withered when they saw their opponents took out their guns.

“This, this elder brother, misunderstanding, misunderstanding.” The bald face changed dramatically, immediately changed his smile, and even the machete was lowered, but the hand hidden behind him quietly held the gun.

He laughed and walked up in two steps, explaining: “We are the Eighth Brothers, all brothers on the Road. Do you have any misunderstandings? How can we discuss when the Eighth Brothers come back?”

“I hate bald heads like you!” There was a flash of murder in Qin Tiange's eyes. As soon as his words fell, a gunshot came from him.

With a bang, the crowd at the scene throbbed, and the other group of horses slapped their arms and squatted down, their faces pale.

The bald head was stunned, standing there blankly, there was a blood hole in his forehead, and the slightest blood was flowing down slowly. He didn't understand the death. Why did Qin Tiange start shooting him?

I just hate bald? But because Qin Tiange saw the bald head, he couldn't help remembering the scene of his abduction. At that time, a bald man pointed his gun at his brain and was  after a good fight. Naturally there was a shadow in his heart. , Seeing the bald head can not help but be disgusted, and, in front of this bald head quietly holding a gun, thought he did not know?

He just said, "I hate bald heads!" Moda immediately shot and killed the bald head. It can be said that he was really Qin Tiange's men.

In Moda's opinion, since the boss said that he didn't like bald heads, then he exploded his head. This is all right. After seeing the praise on Qin Tiange's face, Moda was glad.

"He killed with a weapon in hand." Qin Tiange walked up and walked with a fluttering sentence, scaring a dozen horses with steel pipes and machetes, and immediately dropped his weapon and crouched down.

"Don't kill me, don't kill me!"

A group of more than 40 puppies were terrified. Looking at this group of people wearing armor, they shot and killed their bald heads when they met. This can scare them.

These people, usually bully the honest people, and follow my elder brother's right and wrong, the whole town is their final decision, collect protection fees, cut people, and force the good to do no evil.

But when faced with death threats, he is equally afraid of death, and he must admit it. No, when I saw that the bald head was shot by a gun, everyone immediately knelt down and didn't dare to move. If Qin Tiange passed by them, no one would dare to take up a weapon to attack.

"Tie them." Entering Diba Hall, Qin Tiange instructed Moda and others to directly tie the group of puppies.

Later, he asked Moda to take a group of people to check the boxes one by one, and saw that someone pulled them out and concentrated them under control.

Most of them are the puppies of that mynah, and a small part of them were people who came to play at Diba at that time. Men and women were controlled by mynah, especially the most miserable women.

"Brother Qin, come and see."

Over there, in front of a box door, Moda looked a little hesitant, closed the door and called out to Qin Tiange.

The latter frowned slightly after hearing it, got up and walked over, opened the box for a look, and his eyes narrowed into a seam.

In the box, a group of white women were naked and blindfolded, as if being tortured into an adult.

Inside this box, some girls are only fifteen or sixteen years old. They seem to have just been in middle school. Needless to say, it must be the good thing that my elder brother did.

“Tell Liu Yan to come over to deal with them, first gather together, and stunned disobediently.”

I gave a command, Qin Tiange left, completely ignored the group of young and beautiful women in the box, as if to ignore.

This made Moda and others admire. Admiration and recognition of the boss, at least the boss did not play with the woman like the myna.

Qin is not that Qin Tiange is not interested in women, but that he is not interested in these ordinary women. To say women, are n't Liu Ye and Long Xiaoya two beautiful teachers? With a  body and a pretty face, most people are absolutely obsessed with it, not to mention a large group of female students.

It is a pity that he knew his own affairs. In the last days, women are the least valuable. It is not that he disparages women, but that women are always disadvantaged groups. In the last days, women are the most powerful. Women are the most vulnerable to bullying and abuse.

For example, this is the case. Liu Ye and Long Xiaoya came with a group of girls and saw a scene in the box. The anger in the heart can be imagined. As women, they know how much the damage is and can't wait to kill the person. Mynah.

“Brother Qin, found something good.”

At this time, another boy hurriedly came up, pulled up his helmet and said excitedly.

Qin Tiange accompanied the boy to a room, which should be Di Bo's boss office, or bedroom. It is very spacious, there are a lot of gold and silver jewelry, even stacks. Red banknotes, at least millions of dollars.

Qi Qin Tiange didn't look at these things at all, but stared at something in a box, which was a whole box of crystal nuclei.

This is a one-star brain crystal. There are eight brain crystals here. It seems that there are at least thousands of brain crystals.

This discovery made him quite surprised. He didn't expect that the starling could collect so many brain crystals, and it seemed that he hadn't killed a few zombies.

He waved his hand, put away all the brain crystals, and rummaged here. After not seeing anything valuable to him, Qin Tiange turned and left.

Along the way, he saw many men and women locked in boxes, a lot of them, adding up to at least a hundred people.

These are the people who come here often in the town. After the doomsday comes, they are controlled by Myna, and even some beautiful young women are forcibly arrested and played with.

Looking at these people, Qin Tiange shook his head slightly and ignored it. As soon as he returned to the Diba Hall, he saw Moda come with a serious look.

“Brother Qin, then Huang Ba is back, with more than a hundred people, including two female teachers and the two boys who fled.” He said, his face showing a strong murderous power.

I heard him say that Qin Tiange smiled, a cold smile on his mouth.

He sat on the sofa in the lobby with a big gold knife and laughed, “Be prepared to see what tricks this Huang Ba can play. If he is able to use it, if he is not, then send him to see him die. son.”

Downstairs to Didi Bar, Huang Ba and others came back here. As a result, they saw blood on the stairs and the big iron door was opened.

Seeing this, Huang Ba felt a little stunned in his heart, something went wrong.
