

Dark Ages 45

Chapter 45 - Disobedient end

In the market, a large group of people gathered there, and a group of people were brought down. As for the others, they were Moda and others wearing armor.

In front of everyone, Qin Tiange brushed everyone expressionlessly. There was no trace of temperature in those eyes, and his eyes gave him a cold feeling.

“I once said that obedience is rewarded, but not obedient ...” Qin Tiange said a pause.

Everyone at the scene was cold, his back was numb, and his hands and feet were cold. They felt a cold-hearted killing from Qin Tiange, a powerful and terrible young man.

Especially the two boys and two female teachers in the crowd, the four of them had pale faces. Naturally, Qin Tiange said what he meant, and he said it at school.

“Morda, bring a few people to catch only the zombies.”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange spoke such a word, scaring many people in the room with anxious expression, eyes widened and looking at him inconceivably.

Caught a zombie back? Don't mention them, Moda froze for a moment, but he responded quickly and turned away with a dozen people at the sound.

It didn't take long for them to return and bring back a living zombie. This was the zombie **** by an iron chain, and the two boys were strangled to death, so he carried it back.

Hiss!

When I saw this, many of Huang Ba's men immediately became frightened, wondering if Qin Tiange wanted to torture them with zombies?

I was most afraid of the two boys. At this time, when I saw Moda and others grabbing the zombies and returning, the whole person was paralyzed.

“Qin Brother spares his life!”

Suddenly, as soon as a pleading came, he saw two boys crawling out quickly, one holding Qin Tiange's foot and begging for mercy.

The two of them looked in fear, a snot and a tear, and crying was sad and desperate, needless to say they were scared to cry.

“I gave you a chance and warned you, but unfortunately, you didn't take it seriously.” Qin Tiange looked indifferently, looking down at the two boys under his feet.

The two men, who had followed the team well, did not take Qin Tiange's words seriously and took his warning as a joke.

The temptation of the two female teachers in Qiuqu District fascinated them, and soon followed the two female teachers to leave the team and directly defected.

I actually said that the mutiny was a little overdone, but at least Qin Tiange said that as long as they obeyed the command arrangement and worked for him for five days, not only to ensure their safety, but also to give them strength and teach them the ability to survive.

“Seriously, I’m wondering!” Qin Tiange crooked his head and sneered: “You two should both improve your physical fitness twice, you should know the benefits, but why you do n’t want to be patient, it ’s bad. That would be five days. “

“Help me do things for five days, listen to my command, not only get the food, use, and even give you the strength and methods to survive, isn’t this satisfactory?” He was a little cold.

Suddenly kicked away two boys, he chirped: “I have given you a chance, but unfortunately you do not listen, I will never tolerate those who are not obedient.”

“Morda, interrupt their hands and feet, and then throw the four of them to the zombies ...” Qin Tiange waved his hands and turned away, not seeing the two boys begging hard.

I knew it today, why was it? Qin Tiange has long been clear that obedient people have rewards and benefits, and disobedient people are thrown to zombies.

“No ... you can’t do this, you’re breaking the law.” A female teacher screamed in horror.

She turned and ran like crazy. As for the other female teacher, she was even more mad, she took out a gun and aimed at Qin Tiange.

“Damn, **** damn damn, you give me death ...”

Bang bang bang ...

女 The female teacher suddenly pulled out her gun and shot it so that everyone was caught by surprise. No one expected that she had hidden a gun, even Qin Tiange was a little surprised.

He wasn’t afraid, but his body was hit by bullets on his chest armor, and a sound of crisp sounds came out, and the bullet’s head landed on the ground.

Clicking ...

After a long while, the female teacher’s bullets were all out. She had ten bullets and hit only five bullets. She still hit her chest armor, but she was shot open.

The one-star armor is extremely defensive. Ordinary pistols cannot break this defense at all, and are bombed.

“Damn!” Moda woke up and whistled. She stepped forward and kicked the female teacher, kicking it for more than twenty meters before falling, her anger was imagined.

Qi Qin Tiange, but the boss he identified, was shot with a gun in front of him, it was simply unforgivable.

“Catch them and throw them into the room.” Qin Tiange gently wiped the white dots on the chest armor and ordered lightly.

Soon, the two female teachers were arrested and thrown into a box. Inside, Moda threw the zombies he had retrieved and released one arm.

Suddenly, a terrifying scream came from the box, which made people feel cold.

Over there, Long Xiaoya’s face was so pale that she wanted to say something. After all, she was a teacher and colleague of the same school.

“Don’t say anything!” But she didn’t say anything, and she was immediately caught by Liu Yan next to her.

She whispered a warning: “Don’t be impulsive, this man is getting angry on your head. If you stand out and plead with them, then you are finished.”

“However, they are teachers after all ...” What Long Xiaoya wanted to say, Qin Tiange felt too domineering and cruel and cold-blooded.

Is n’t he not here to help him kill the zombies? If you need to torture like this, you are not a human, but a demon.

“You are wrong!” Liu Ye shook his head slightly and smiled bitterly: “If he didn’t show up, you thought we would have the power we have now?”

“Don’t be stupid. I started to have opinions about him, but since I got such a powerful power, since I saw my students being bullied, I have secretly vowed in my heart that I must be strong and strong to others. I can’t bully you. “Her words were a bit ethereal, but she was the truest thought in her heart.

No matter how cold-blooded and cruel Qin Tianguo is, after all, he really fulfilled his promise, an obedient individual gained strength, and even in the hunting and killing of zombies, they taught them how to survive in the end time Ability.

These are all the benefits Qin Tiange gives them, the benefits of obedient help, each taking what he needs.

These people are obedient, helps him to do things, kill zombies, dig brain crystals, although he is said to be forced to be used, but at least there is no gain?

“Brother Qin, forgive me, I never dare ...”

“Fat ... I don’t dare!”

The two boys were terrified and kept begging for mercy. Unfortunately, Moda severely interrupted her legs and hands, and threw them into the box together.

Soon, there was a mournful sorrow, a zombie, after biting two female teachers first, both were infected with the zombie virus, and soon became zombies, beginning to bite the two who were thrown in Schoolboy.

After everyone opened the box, the scene inside made everyone embarrassed, and his face was pale and pale.

Misery, too miserable!

The scene was too miserable, many girls couldn't bear to watch it, but fortunately they were used to this scene, so did not hesitate to shoot a steel arrow to kill the three zombies inside, and two boys were eaten and left only Two heads, their mouths opened and closed, making a horrible cry.

Moda stepped forward, crushed their heads, dug out the brain crystals, and gave them to Qin Tiange, a hairy young man.

Everyone, at this moment, Qin Tiange's eyes are different, especially those of Huang Ba's subordinates, which are honestly unbearable.

I am not honest. This young man is even more ruthless than his previous boss Huang Ba. He does not kill, but he will never be a good person.

The words spoken are bound to be executed. If there is a reward for being obedient, everyone will be rewarded. There is punishment for not being obedient. Sure enough, the punishment is now here.

“This is the price of disobedience.”

There was a kind of sadness in the rabbit's dead fox, and he sighed secretly, looking at Qin Tiange's eyes with inexplicable meaning, very strange.
