

Dark Ages 451

Chapter 451 - Blackened by a stele?

Leaving the place where the assessment stone was located, Qin Tiange walked out all the way, looking dull, and even directly entered the state of flawless Bingxin before freezing all the chaotic thoughts.

“Why exactly?”

Walking on the street, Qin Tiange looked calm, fell into thought, his thoughts fluttered quickly, one by one, speculations popped up, and he was quickly rejected.

The assessment of the stone stele turned him off from the assessment, which was a little sudden and left him a little confused.

Qin Tiange felt that the assessment of the stele was spiritual. From this sudden situation, it can be seen that the stele obviously did not want him to enter the assessment.

Why is this? He wasn't really clear in his heart, and even various speculations were not enough to convince himself. The only thing that puzzled him was that he didn't do anything, so why not let him enter the task assessment?

“Is that the first few missions I have slaughtered too many aliens?” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, then shook his head to veto.

Just kidding. If so, would it be better for him to complete the task, judge failure directly, and then die?

Since this is not the case, that is why he was not allowed to enter the assessment. It seems that the stele intentionally prevented him from entering the assessment this time.

Secretly suppressing this idea, Qin Tiange randomly found a park in the gathering place, quietly waiting for the night to fall.

He needs to understand clearly why the assessment stone was refused him to enter the task, only to wait for fewer people at night and try again.

Soon, the sunset was falling, and night was gradually coming down. In the gathering place, there was little or no light.

After the night fell, there were fewer pedestrians on the street, and they all went back to rest, because the night is the most dangerous, and many people are intercepted and tossed at night. This is normal.

In the last days, people's minds are unpredictable, and you may be walking at night, and you are suddenly attacked from behind, killing the corpse wilderness directly. No one knows who did it.

Even some people are so mad that they go directly into the room to commit assault, robberies and strength are common. This is the heart of the people after the doomsday.

On the street, Qin Tiange walked alone, and darkness couldn't stop his sight. He walked across the quiet street, and could still see, in the corners around him, from time to time he cast a gaze.

“Huh!” Feeling these unpleasant gazes, Qin Tiange looked cold and unhappy. If these people are not interested, then they are just killing.

Really, there are people who can't open their eyes. When Qin Tiange saw the night walk alone, he actually scrambled up from the front and back.

They are all burly, three big and five thick, and they are extremely strong, obviously this kind of interception has not been done.

“Go on, throw him away and take everything away.”

With a deep scream, the leading man, carrying a steel knife, wearing armor, directly ordered Qin Tiange to be separated.

Around them, eleven burly men came up with a smile, one rushed to the ground, the sword slashed directly at Qin Tiange's neck, and one leaned down and waved the sword at his legs.

The sloppy action, crisp and clear, often looks so dry, practice makes perfect.

“dead!”

Qin Tiange spit out a word gently, and Euphorbia hummed back and pierced through, banging, and the man who cut to his neck was pierced through his heart, and his body stopped.

His face was stunned, and his hair was still awkward, but unfortunately he couldn't cut it anymore, and his body fell straight.

Woo!

With a scream of horror, Euphorbia danced in a circle, slamming his head on the head of another man, banging, his head was broken like a watermelon, and half of his body was blown.

At this moment, the other guys in the surrounding area suddenly woke up, all of them changed greatly, especially the big man headed by him was most surprised.

“Hard idea, withdraw!”

He was very straightforward, left a sentence, and turned and ran without hesitation. It's a pity that he reacted quickly and even decisively, but how could he run away?

Qin Tiange sneered, his figure flashed, and he appeared like a ghost in front of the leading man.

“You ...” The big man was startled and opened his mouth to say something, but was pierced by a spear, and his head was smashed.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange was like a wolf like a tiger, and the halberds danced, slashing the scattered robbers, one by one, on the spot.

Eleven people, only three breaths since their appearance, have been killed by him.

“act recklessly!”

After killing these people, Qin Tiange didn't even look at it. He shook off the blood on the halberd, stepped into the darkness step by step, and disappeared here, leaving only the body with a strong smell of blood.

Some gangsters hidden in the dark often intercept those who have fallen into the order late at night, killing and seeing goods are often seen, and even forcibly entering the room to burn and plunder.

This is why there is no strong army to maintain law and order. Some large and small gathering places are the most chaotic. People's minds change. You kill me, I kill you.

Soon, Qin Tiange once again came to the site of the assessment stele, and saw that there was a huge firewood piled up there, and dozens of people held the guardian's heritage stele tightly.

Qin Tiange shook his head secretly, and didn't bother to pay any attention, but came to the huge assessment stone in front of the diameter, bypassed this side and stopped on the other side.

He stood here, and there were dozens of people guarding the stone stele over there.

"Why didn't you let me enter the assessment?"

Qin Tiange stared at the assessment stone, murmured to himself, and then stretched out a hand to touch the assessment stone.

Suddenly, a ray of light emerged, and Qin Tiange's hand was directly opened, and a situation during the day really refused him to enter the task.

Qin Tiange looked a little gloomy, staring at the stone monument and asking, "I know you must have a spirit, why refuse me?"

Unfortunately, there was no change in the assessment stone at all, not even a ray of light was revealed, but as long as he reached out and wanted to enter the assessment, he was inexplicably ejected.

boom!

Once after more than a dozen attempts, Qin Tiange was ejected three meters away, his complexion changed, and eventually he calmed down.

He blinked, staring at the stele without saying a word, wondering what was in his mind.

"Is it really like those people said that I was blackened by the stele?" Qin Tiange thought strangely in his heart.

He smiled silently and muttered, "It's a sad story. What did you do to prevent me from entering the assessment task?"

"Rejecting me without a hint makes it difficult for me. Can't you give a little hint?" Qin Tiange stood in front of the stone monument and said to himself.

He would like to know what the purpose of the evaluation of the stele was to reject him. It was really unsettling not to figure it out.

If he is not allowed to enter the assessment in this way, do he still have to continue the assessment? Is he promoted directly without the assessment?

Qin Tiange is very tangled, and I feel a little upset, I can refuse, but at least you give a reason for rejection, don't you?

Unfortunately, the assessment stone seems to be a weird stone, giving no hint at all. Even if he wants to enter the assessment, he is inexplicably bombarded, no matter how explosive his power is, he cannot stop that strength.

“Being inexplicably blackened, I feel really uncomfortable.” Qin Tiange muttered, looked at the stone monument still so, and finally chose to leave.

I tried it and tried it. He was really inexplicably rejected him, as if he was being blacklisted.

He didn't believe in evil, he just left the gathering place and went to the next gathering place, or looking for another assessment stone.

In the dark night, Qin Tiange swept across the void with a raging flame of chaos, flying all the way from Jiayuguan. An hour later, he finally saw a large gathering place in Jiuquan.

Moreover, looking down, he saw the huge assessment stone at first glance, and then he did not dive into the huge base.

Huh!

At night, a figure flashed down and landed somewhere in the base, Qin Tiange came out quietly.

He walked directly to the center of Jiuquan Base, where the stone monument was examined, where there was no one guarded day and night like the previous gathering place, it seemed to be open.

In addition, around the heritage stele and the assessment stele, the raging fire was lit, and many people sat there to rest, and many people came to exchange things at night, looking carefully.

His arrival has attracted a lot of people's attention, but after only a few glances, he no longer pays attention to him, and is busy with his own affairs.

“Let me see, haven't all the assessment stones been rejected by me?”

Standing in front of this huge assessment stone, Qin Tiange expressionless, gently stretched out a hand, and pressed on top of the stone.

Suddenly, a gush of light burst out and slammed him away. Qin Tiange was shaken back, his heart sank secretly, and his complexion was unpleasant, but they were all the same.

The appraisal stele in the last gathering place, like the stele in Jiuquan Base, also refused him to enter the assessment, indicating that all the appraisal steles are the same.

“Or refuse, it seems that you really pulled me black?” Qin Tiange crooked his head somewhat unhappy.

Somehow was rejected by the assessment stone, and may even be blackened, and he was not allowed to enter the assessment task, which made him extremely upset.

With a slight hum, Qin Tiange tried a few times, and still did so, and finally gave up.

“Forget it, even if I don't enter the assessment, I can still be a strong one.”

After taking a deep breath, Qin Tiange murmured to himself, freezing all the chaotic thoughts directly, restoring his calm mind.

He finally glanced at the appraisal stele and was about to leave, but suddenly turned and walked in front of the heritage stele, and curiously reached out and pressed it.

As a result, the stone stele did not pop him up, and dense exchange items appeared in it. Unfortunately, he had no psychological understanding, and took a long time to sigh and turned away.

“Little brother, wait.”

At this moment, a voice came from the fire, shouting Qin Tiange to leave, he turned and looked at it in surprise.

Chapter 452 - Weird, who manipulates behind

By the fire, a middle-aged man waved to Qin Tiange and motioned for him to pass.

Qin Tiange thought about it, turned directly to the fire, and sat down naturally. He looked at the middle-aged person across from him. From the point of view of breath, he was not very strong. He only had three stars, and saw that he could have a hundred people.

“Little brother, you’d better wait here until dawn before leaving.” The middle-aged man looked at him and said this.

Qin Tiange was somewhat surprised and asked, “Why is this?”

The middle-aged man glanced around and chuckled: “You look around yourself, but many people saw you just staying at the heritage stone for a while.”

After hearing this, Qin Tiange felt astonished, and thoughtfully looked at the crowd around the fire, many people were looking at him.

After seeing him look over, they pretended to be nothing but one, but the fool understood that these people must not be good intentions.

“Thank you for reminding, but is it safe to stay here until dawn?” Qin Tiange asked curiously.

For those who do not have good intentions, he didn’t care about it at all, and dare to come and destroy it directly, but most people don’t have his strength.

The meaning of the middle-aged man is to let him wait here all night, and then go safer at dawn, which makes him curious.

Just listening, the middle-aged person smiled and said, “You don’t know. The military in the base has clearly stipulated that it must not be operated within three kilometers of the stone tablet. Once someone does, it will be arrested immediately.”

Oh! Qin Tiange understands that there is a clear stipulation by the military that he cannot fight fiercely here, otherwise he will be arrested on the spot and the consequences of his arrest will not be known.

The middle-aged person looked around and said softly, "In the beginning, there were still people who didn't believe in evil, and even didn't put the military in their eyes. They thought they were strong enough to do whatever they wanted, but soon those people disappeared."

The meaning of this statement can be understood without saying clearly. All the troublemakers are missing, and needless to say they are dead.

Ugh!

The middle-aged man was talking and suddenly sighed. He shook his head and said, "Even with military suppression, there are still some power failures. The world has changed, beliefs have collapsed, and people's hearts have changed dramatically. Everyone today is unreasonable. , Burning and looting, do no evil, as if all were demon pretending to be adults. "

"After the end of the day, one by one tearing away the camouflage in his heart, all of them became murderous without blinking, as if they ignored life, ignored the same kind, and even pretended to be high, thinking that they are strong enough to do whatever they want."

The middle-aged man shook his head with a bitter smile and said, "You haven't seen it. I have met some young people, and I look like the world's first man all day long. It seems like the end of the day can be the king."

"Many people are cannibalistic, murderous, and strong. They don't ask them to contribute to the country or to the nation. It just suffices."

"But if you look at the hearts of the people in this world now, one by one, you can't wait for the collapse of the country, the collapse of your beliefs, and the demise of the nation. They only applaud. It seems that they are happy only when the country is destroyed. I really don't understand what these people think." People kept talking, like an angry youth.

But he was more than thirty years old and nearly forty years old, and even saying such things really surprised Qin Tiange.

His eyes were weird, looking at the chattering middle-aged man in front of him, and his heart was quite weird.

"This, cough, my brother is very reasonable. I haven't consulted your surname. My surname is Qin, and my brother called me Tian Ge." Qin Tian Ge suddenly interrupted the chatter of the other party.

He couldn't bear it. The middle-aged man was out of control as soon as he spoke. It was endless, and he even meant to say another two or three hours.

Er, the middle-aged man came to his senses, and smiled awkwardly: "Look at my memory, my surname is Meng, just call me Meng Fangning. Let Brother Qin listen to me for a long time, I'm really sorry."

“No problem, Brother Meng is right. After the end, many people feel that they can dominate the king and do whatever they want. They are just some jumping beam clowns who can’t get on the table. Sooner or later they will be cleaned up.” Ge smiled indifferently.

He didn’t even care about those who jumped up and down and did nothing evil, relying on nonsense during the last days, all are jumping beam clowns who can’t get on the table.

No matter how fierce they are, even if they kill as many people as they can, no matter how strong they are, they will not be able to stop the nation’s general progress. The only thing that stands in front of them is the ruthless crushing of the entire nation.

Those who think that after the end, the country will perish and the nation will not exist, will eventually find that in front of the entire nation, they really are nothing.

“I like to hear Brother Qin’s words. Come here. This is a good wine that my brother exchanged for me. How about you and me?” Meng Fangning took out two jars of wine.

These fine wines were all exchanged by him from the heritage stone stele. He has no other hobbies.

“Go!” Qin Tiange raised the altar with a smile, and the two were chatting and drinking next to the fire.

Strange to say, this middle-aged person seems to be hot from the beginning, seems to have opened the flower shelf, cracked like a machine gun, and said a lot, even the whole process was mostly talking to him.

Qin Tiange drank the wine and listened quietly, looking thoughtful, as if he understood something, and seemed to understand nothing.

At the beginning, middle-aged people talk about doomsday hearts, moral collapse, belief collapse, human hearts, human nature, and various ambitionists.

He seemed to understand everything, and even said everything to Qin Tiange, and even mentioned a lot of things that Qin Tiange hadn’t noticed before.

Speaking unintentionally and listening to intentions, Qin Tiange finally fell into contemplation, listening to the middle-aged person saying and whispering, while drawing on what was useful to him, gradually settling down.

There was a delusion in him, the middle-aged man in front of him was like a hidden sage, and he had a broader knowledge than him.

“If you want to achieve a great cause, you need not only strong strength, but also a steadfast heart, but also a strong will.”

The middle-aged man said, took a sip of wine, and continued: “Every emperor must go through many trials and tribulations, not only strength, wisdom, mind, mind, and consciousness.”

Qin Tiange drank wine, his eyes twinkled, staring at the middle-aged man in front of him. The words of the other person made him feel shocked.

“The emperor? Does he know?” Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes and stared at the middle-aged man, suddenly finding that the other person’s breath was a little different, and seemed to reveal a mysterious and strange.

What’s even more weird is that the other party was telling him something as the emperor’s way, which deeply and shocked him, and he felt a sudden and cheerful feeling.

Qin Tiange even wondered if this middle-aged man was a legendary master?

The more he guessed, the more shocked Qin Tiange felt, and then weirdly, the eyes of middle-aged people were a little different.

Because he suddenly felt that the middle-aged person suddenly changed from a moment ago to the strange appearance now.

“Uh-huh, what’s wrong with me?” The middle-aged man suddenly shook his head, as if the whole person had just woke up.

“Huh?” Qin Tiange stood up suddenly, and Euphorbia stabbed a halberd into the void, hissing, the air burst, and a weird breath disappeared.

He looked horrified, staring at a weird breath that spread out in front of him, and he was frightened, a little shuddering.

“What’s that?” Qin Tiange didn’t move, but he was horrified. He just felt a strange strangeness flashing in the middle-aged man. He instinctively shot a halberd, but only saw one. There is nothing strange in the strange weirdness.

At this time, the middle-aged person saw Qin Tiange as nervous and asked nervously: “What happened to the Qin brothers, are there any mutant mosquitoes or bats?”

“It doesn’t make sense, but here often spray insect repellent, generally there are no mutant insects.” The middle-aged man muttered.

Qin Tiange took back the halberd, and sat quietly in front of the middle-aged person, with a lot of each other up and down, the strange breath disappeared.

At this moment, the middle-aged man feels very ordinary, there is really nothing special. If he doesn’t think he is very lucky, the induction will not be wrong, and maybe he thought everything just now was an illusion.

“At that moment, what occupies this person’s body is very conscious?” Qin Tiange was solemn in his heart.

He suddenly realized that for a while, the middle-aged man in front of him was dominated by consciousness without any notice of him.

This feeling made Qin Tiange feel hairy, wondering what the strange breath was just now.

Even the middle-aged man’s words during his occupation made Qin Tiange extremely concerned and had to be taken seriously.

“Brother Meng, do you remember what you said just now?” Qin Tiange thought for a while and asked such a sentence.

Meng Fangning was stunned, and he felt a bit of a dull head, carefully recalled, and finally laughed: “I’m sorry, I just said that I fell asleep and let you see the joke.”

After hearing what he said, Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes, his face remained the same, but in his heart, he basically determined that the middle-aged man had been controlled by the quietly for a while.

“It’s dawning I should go too, take care of my brother, there will be a period later!” Qin Tiange stood up, looked at the sky and began to blur, and said goodbye directly.

“There will be a period later!” Meng Fangning stood up and watched Qin Tiange go away.

He lowered his head and frowned, and muttered, “Strange things, how could I suddenly fall asleep? Is it this young man named Qin who gave me medicine?”

The middle-aged man murmured very quietly, but was heard by Qin Tiange in the distance, and felt stranger in his heart.

“What the * is that?” Qin Tiange lowered his head, his eyes kept blinking, thinking about that weird breath, and those strange words.

It was like a reminder, more like a carry, and there seemed to be a mysterious force deliberately reminding him to make him progress.

Hiss ... bang!

At this moment, the ground suddenly exploded, and a black shadow opened his mouth and swallowed at Qin Tiange.

“Hum, look for death ...” Qin Tiange snorted coldly, and the halberd passed instinctively.

Chapter 453 - Dead insect wave, sand storm hit

With a click, the halberd swept past, cutting the dark shadow that came out and spraying a thick dark green liquid.

Hiss ...

The severed body was still writhing on the ground, roaring wildly, and full of fangs.

Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, and looking at the thing that was cut into two sections, it turned out to be a desert dead insect.

That’s right, the thing that suddenly came out in front of him turned out to be a dead worm living in the desert Gobi.

“Dead bug, why is there such a thing here?” Qin Tiange looked horrified, looking at the place where the dead bug drilled out. There was a cave in the mud and the thickness of the bucket.

The dead worm died quickly, and the body that had broken his head quickly retracted into the cave, which made Qin Tiange suddenly realize that something was not good.

This is the base of Jiuquan. It is not good that some dead bugs come out.

“what...”

“insect?”

At this moment, a scream came from all around, accompanied by a scream of sorrow, and then the sound ceased.

Qin Tiange’s face changed slightly, and he rushed towards a place where a voice came. It was a simple residential area. Inside, thick bugs got out of the ground and attacked the crowd.

“Run!”

The frypot was out of the crowd, and the sky was bright and bright. People just got up, but didn’t want to be bitten and eaten by the dead insects that suddenly came out of the ground.

“Dead bug, it’s the dead bug that broke into the base.”

“Quick, ring the alarm!”

At the same time, some patrol fighters were shocked and immediately realized that the matter was serious, and immediately sounded the sirens they carried.

For a moment, a sharp and screaming alarm sounded in Jiuquan base, which alarmed everyone in the base.

boom!

When the figure flashed, a spear was hit hard, and a loud bang was made, and a large dead insect was smashed on the spot.

Qin Tiange knocked a dead insect to death, watching the panic crowd around, the harsh alarm sound cut through the sky, and countless survivors ran out in panic.

As a result, more and more dead insects on the ground came out and attacked suddenly, biting a human and dragged directly into the underground cave.

“General, in an emergency, the base was quietly invaded by an unknown number of dead insects, and tunnels were dug into the base from the ground.”

At this time, in the center of Jiuquan Base, a group of senior generals stared at some scattered surveillance in the base and saw a scene of terror.

A horrible death worm jumped up from the ground, biting the frightened crowd and dragging it underground.

A middle-aged general, wearing armor and looking dignified, he is the highest person in charge of Jiuquan Base, a lieutenant-general officer.

“The tide of dead insects is coming. This time, the dead insects have learned to sneak into the base of our base from the ground. The situation is not good.”

The generals looked dignified, realizing that the problem was big, and the dead worms had learned to quietly burrow into the base to attack the crowd.

“Report general, emergency information!”

At this point, an intelligence officer hurried in and handed in an intelligence message.

The Lieutenant General took a look, his face changed slightly, and the information read that within ten kilometers of Jiuquan-based area, a sandstorm began to appear, and the sky was full of wild sand.

Moreover, among these sands, huge dead insects are hiding among them, rushing towards Jiuquan base.

“The tide of dead insects is here, and the troops are ordered to immediately enter the battle.”

“Order all troops to extinguish all dead insects that invade the base, evacuate the general population, and organize all forces to resist before the insect tide arrives.”

After finishing speaking, the general directly hung out, hurried out of the conference room with a huge battle, and led a group of powerful officers and generals to go around the base to start the battle.

The base was in chaos, and huge dead bugs emerged, killing the past crowds continuously, and some weak people were dragged to the ground on the spot.

Some powerful men wield weapons to resist and slash these sudden death bugs. For a time, all parts of the entire base were in turmoil and chaos.

Flutter!

Qin Tiange cut off the head of a dead worm, looked at the crowd roaring around, and looked at the growing number of dead worms, with an unpredictable feeling in his heart.

“The tide of dead insects is coming. Everyone, kill the dead insects in the base.”

At this time, in the direction of the base barracks, dozens of powerful troops were dispatched, strangling and killing the dead bugs that came out.

Moreover, these troops passed by, carrying a loudspeaker equipment to convey a message, the tide of death insects outside the base came.

“Insect tide?”

When everyone heard the news, their faces changed. Many people were afraid first, and then thought of running away.

More people think of more. Now they can't run away. The insect wave outside is approaching, and even the sand storm hits Jiuquan base.

In addition, the base of the base has an unknown number of dead worms attacking the inside and outside, and the situation is very urgent.

"It turned out to be a dead worm?"

Hearing this news, Qin Tiange was shocked, but soon calmed down, the most important thing at present would be to resolve these dead bugs hidden under the base.

Once the insect tide comes out, the inside and the outside should be closed, and the entire Jiuquan base will be completely submerged by countless dead insects.

"Chaos flame, burn!"

Suddenly, Qin Tiange made a move, waved his hand directly into a gray chaotic flame, and poured into the underground cave.

Just listen, there was a scream of screams from the ground, the trembling of the earth, as if there were a lot of terrible things rolling under the ground.

Chaos flames poured into the underground caves, and continued to burn, burning the numerous dead insects hidden inside.

Seeing that it was valid, Qin Tiange had a certain complexion, and suddenly jumped into a cave, his body burning with the blazing flames, extending along the path dug out by the dead insect.

Soon, he saw countless underground pipelines under the entire Jiuquan base, all of which were drilled by dead insects.

hiss!

A horrible death worm opened his mouth and roared, and rushed towards Qin Tiange frantically to tear up this human who entered the underground passage.

It is a pity that all the dead insects that pounced on them were burned to ashes by the terrible chaotic flame.

"No wonder the Jiuquan base did not exist in the previous life. It is just an abandoned desert. Numerous dead insects have appeared and turned out to have been captured."

Under the ground, Qin Tiange looked at the dense and dense passages, and the dead insects crawled and shuttled quickly, constantly drilling out from all corners of the base, biting humans and dragging into the ground.

He already understood why there was no such base in previous lives, because it was completely submerged and captured by the tide of dead insects.

If the situation continues to develop, the sandstorms sweeping from outside the base, and the countless dead insects hidden in the sandstorm, together with the densely packed dead insects underground, can instantly capture this base.

“kill!”

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange realized that this was the only opportunity to turn things around, blocking the tide of dead insects, and the Jiuquan base could stand here.

As for why you want to help this base, don't forget Qin Tiange's own identity. What position you are in, you have to think about something.

In his place, he will do his job!

Since becoming a general of the Chinese military, you must be responsible for your status and fulfill your duties as a general and a soldier.

boom!

Shocks came from under the ground, and the raging flames spread quickly, sweeping violently along the densely intertwined channels.

The flame of chaos was terrible, and most of the dead insects could not stop the flame from burning and turned into ashes on the spot.

And some powerful death worms are not only huge in size, they are even more brutal in strength and amazing in defense, which means that Chaos Flame is temporarily unnecessary.

However, over time, even the powerful dead worms were either burned alive or killed by Qin Tiange all the way.

His body turned into a ball of fire, and he flew past the densely crisscrossed tunnels, leaving a terrible flame along the way.

At this time, the people on the base suddenly found that many dead insects screamed inexplicably, retracted to the ground, and then there was no sound.

“Look, there is flame in the cave.”

Suddenly someone noticed that some caves were faintly flaming, but it was a pity that the flames of the chaos were gray and difficult to find in the dark caves.

Only some flickering flames made these people understand that an inexplicable flame appeared under the ground, burning a huge number of dead insects.

“General, there is something underground.”

At this point, the Lieutenant General who was slashing a dead insect at the corner of the base found that a gray flame had emerged from the passage where the dead insect had drilled out.

These flames seemed to be spiritual. They burned directly around the dead insects, turned into ashes and disappeared into the ground.

As for humans, it was weird and unburned. This situation surprised the senior base officer and the lieutenant general.

“Who is it?” The lieutenant’s first thought was to guess that someone was strangling the dead insects underground.

Watching fewer and fewer dead bugs come out, soon, those dead bugs that came up earlier were wiped out by the major forces in the base.

“Order, the troops go to the city wall, and of all the survivors, the evolutionists must participate in the war.”

The Lieutenant directly ordered no matter who killed the dead insects under the ground, this is a good thing for him and even the entire base.

At present, the most important thing is to set up combat missions and prepare for the next terror sandstorm and the countless dead insects hidden in the sandstorm.

The dead worms in the base were quickly wiped out with the help of Qin Tiange’s secret, but the real test has just begun.

Outside the Jiuquan base, four terrible sandstorms appeared at the same time in the four directions of southeast, northwest, and somehow came this way.

These sandstorms seem to be controlled by some force to rush to the base of Jiuquan. The wind and sand are diffused, and a large number of dead insects are hidden inside.

Sandstorms are driven by countless dead insects.

Rumble ...

The sky was shaking, the dust was spreading all over the sky, the terrible storm swept the endless dust, and the terrible rumbling sound came out, which was appalling. !!

Chapter 454 - Hundreds of thousands of people were buried

The sky was dark and sandstorms rolled up, flooding the entire base instantly.

“what...”

Strong winds swept through the base, and hundreds of thousands of people flew up in the base all of a sudden, spinning and dancing continuously in the air, and then dropped high, slamming, and even someone was directly killed.

The towering city walls couldn’t stop the terrible sand storm, the trees were uprooted, some huge things were rolled into the air, and the sky was completely blocked.

The black sand filled the sky, the sound of rumble was shaking, and tens of millions of tons of sand and dust directly poured into the base, and countless people screamed in horror.

Many people looked sad and looked at the endless sand and dust that poured into the base. The wind was rolling over the trees and rocks, and was flooded with the endless sand and dust.

In the base, numerous survivors were torn up by the wind, killed by megaliths, buried in the sand and dust, and even killed by the dead insects hiding in the sand storm.

For a while, screams came from the base, and then they were covered in the sand. Gradually, sand and dust piled up and buried the base.

hiss!

In the dust, black shadows rolled and rolled, opened their mouths, and swallowed up the survivors who were buried in the sand.

In the strong wind, Qin Tiange looked ugly, watching the crowd around him be rolled up, the house collapsed, and even buried, and the survivors inside were buried under the yellow sand without exception.

Except for some powerful fortifiers, which can block strong winds and dust, others are rolled up or buried.

A huge sandstorm drowned the Jiuquan base. In front of the natural disaster, the manpower seemed so small, even the strengthened humans were the same.

Not to mention the countless dead insects hidden in the sandstorm, these terrible desert ghosts are hiding in the sandstorm and constantly pouring into the base.

“The base is going to be buried.” Qin Tiange lit the flames and formed a tornado of fire under a powerful storm, and all the blasting sand was shaken away.

The death bugs that raided him were, invariably, cut and killed, but others were not so lucky.

Either rolled into the air by sandstorms, or buried by hundreds of thousands of tons of sand and dust brought by sandstorms, the entire base directly accumulated a few meters of sand and dust.

Huh ... boom ...

Sand and dust filled the sky, the houses inside the base were buried, and humans were severely hit. Although the sand storm came and went fast, the entire base was buried in Sha Shuo.

Among the yellow sand, black shadows are wandering, as if the ghost of death walking in the Gobi Desert is harvesting the survivors buried in Shashuo.

“God will die for me ...”

In the center of the base, the lieutenant general led an army to fight against the powerful storm, looking up at the sandstorm that was flooded by the rumble, with a sad expression.

No one expected that the power of the sandstorm would be so fierce that they would directly roll up the people on the city wall and even the base.

In addition, countless sand and dust trapped there buried the base on the spot, and many people were buried in Sha Shuo, being directly torn and devoured by the hidden dead insect inside.

The fleeing crowd, screaming in horror, both men and women, were particularly vulnerable to the sandstorm, and even some intensifiers could not stop this terrible sandstorm.

The general face with a trace of pain, looking at the endless sand and dust that rolled down the sky, his face was ashes, and he was drowned in the ground.

The sandstorm is nothing, the key is the countless dead insects hidden in the sandstorm, that is the terrible desert ghost.

Rumble ...

With the passing of huge sandstorms, hundreds of thousands of tons of sediment were directly filled into the base, which instantly turned it into a desert.

Soon, the base disappeared, and the city wall only showed a head. It was faintly visible that there used to be a huge base here.

Sand and dust swept across the sky, and the base was buried a little bit. Under Sha Shuo, something was rolling, and some people struggled to get up. As a result, they were bitten by the dead insects in Sha Shuo and taken off Sha Shao. Blood stained the sand soon.

Not long after, the sand storm gradually weakened, strong winds blew over the base, and swept away many survivors.

The original base turned into a desert, and the base was buried under the yellow sand.

“Ah, no...”

Some people in Sha Shuo were screaming and struggling. Both hands were constantly shaving Sha Shu to get up, but unfortunately the lower body was bitten by the dead insect and was dragged into the sand and stones, leaving only a pool of blood.

The horrible sandstorm brought hundreds of thousands of tons of sand and stone, flooded the base, and brought countless dead insects in the desert. After the base was buried, it killed the survivors buried in the sand.

boom!

A piece of sand and stone smashed, and a shadow rushed up, smashed a puppet of dead insects, and stood firmly on the sand.

Qin Tiange looked ugly, and looked around into a desert base. The large base with hundreds of thousands of people was buried in a sandstorm.

No matter how strong he is, in the face of this sandstorm, there is still no power to stop it. He cannot do anything to prevent the sandstorm from coming. He can only watch as the base is buried.

“Damn ...” Qin Tiange gritted his teeth and scolded, slamming under his feet, a loud bang, and a dead bug under Sha Shuo was shaken out.

Euphorbia swept away, chopped off the dead insect’s head, dark green blood spewed, and white smoke was continuously sprayed on Sha Shuo.

hiss...

Around, the terrible death worms struggling to rise, launched a violent attack directly, opened their mouths and bit down at Qin Tiange.

It’s just that these dead worms are without exception, killed by him, no matter how many come.

“help me...”

Over there, someone called for help, halfway into Sha Shuo, struggling and couldn't get up.

Qin Tiange's complexion changed slightly, and the halberd swept away, blasting a strong wind, and directly lifting a dead insect under the man.

boom!

The dead insect's head shattered and died, but the man had already lost his lower body, his body crawled on Sha Shuo, and his blood was stained with yellow sand.

Qin Tiange looked gloomy and looked at the man after he crawled a few times and died. He couldn't help but come over, unless it cost him the spirit.

But how many survivors were buried throughout the Jiuquan base? At least hundreds of thousands of people, this number is extremely alarming, making him extra heavy.

He witnessed a huge base with his own eyes, and was buried in the sand in such a way that he was powerless.

In this way, looking at a large base, it was completely buried under a sandstorm. Many of the buried survivors at the base were hunted and swallowed by a large number of death insects.

Bang bang bang ...

At this moment, it was raining dumplings in the sky, and the survivors who were rolled up one by one fell down and fell into Sha Shuo, only feeling dizzy and turning.

Many people were killed by being hit by megaliths in the air, and some died after being knocked down. At the time, more than 100,000 survivors were caught in the air.

Today, less than 10,000 people can survive, most of them are in a coma and seriously injured, and even some people are physically incomplete, and the situation is miserable.

“The base is gone ...” Some fortifiers got up, looking uncertain.

They looked at the base buried under the yellow sand, and the whole person could not calm down, especially when they saw the tumbled under Sha Shuo, and the dead insects tumbled and boiled below.

The dead insects are hiding under Sha Shuo, and they are constantly biting and gnawing at the survivors buried in the sand, even if they are as strong as Qin Tiange, they are unable to rescue them.

hiss...

Suddenly, Sha Shuoli rushed out a gigantic giant worm, opened his huge mouth and swallowed at those 10,000 survivors who had fallen and died.

“What are you doing, don't leave yet!”

They awakened the crowd with a scream of anger, one by one, looking wildly, watching the dead insects rushing around.

They felt the yellow sand rushing under their feet, as if something was about to rush out. The next moment, the yellow sand exploded, and death insects rushed out of Sha Shu, and swallowed the survivors with their mouths open.

“Run!”

At this moment, less than 10,000 survivors who survived blasted the pan, bursting out with maximum speed and strength one by one.

Frightened, they fled, fled, and did not dare to stay here.

The bases were buried, the army was gone, and most of the survivors were buried in sandstorms and killed in the mouth of the dead insect.

boom!

A gray flame swept across, burning hundreds of dead insects on the spot, and a layer of gray flames burned on the sand.

The emergence of these flames prevented the attack of the dead sandworms, allowing thousands of survivors to escape from the base area.

hiss!

The swarm of worms hissed, tumbling constantly in the sand, like a desert ghost, drilling into the sand.

They were very angry, disturbed by Qin Tiange, and thousands of survivors ran away. However, in his opinion thousands of people are just a fraction of the survivors in the entire Jiuquan base.

The large base with hundreds of thousands of people was destroyed in front of him. It was impossible to stop the sand storm. Numerous sand bugs rolled up the sand particles, pushed the quicksand to come, and flooded the base.

Rumble ...

The original base turned into a desert, and the sand shadows tumbling and rolling, the sand particles in the entire base are rolling and boiling, and a large black dead insects are creeping inside.

From a high altitude, Qin Tiange's face was gloomy and irony, and hundreds of thousands of people were thus destroyed.

He had never witnessed a base with hundreds of thousands of people before himself, and perished in front of him, even if he could not stop it.

“Human power, is it really impossible to defeat nature?” Qin Tiange muttered to himself.

He has a full face with a firm heart, thinking that manpower can overcome nature, but he is not strong enough now.

In the previous life, although every king-level strongman could not pick the stars by hand, he could definitely stop the river and hit a mountain with a single punch.

The Jiuquan base turned into a desert, leaving only a small section of the city wall faintly visible, as well as the assessment stone in the center of the base, which was submerged for a little while, and hundreds of thousands of people were buried under Shashuo.

Roar...

Qin Tiange sighed, waiting to turn around and leave here, and suddenly heard a looming roar in the sand, the wind and sand rolled suddenly, and suddenly a huge sand dust rolled up and turned into a storm.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange froze, his eyes burst into two cold mansions, and he watched a sandstorm just out of thin air.

“It turned out that you drove the dead worm to cause a sandstorm ...” Qin Tiange stared under the buried base, and found a huge creature.

This creature was wrapped in endless quicksand, surrounded by dense dead insects, and the continuous rolling of sand particles turned into a sandstorm.

Chapter 455 - Sandstorm maker, stele disappears

boom!

A sandstorm rolled up, and the sand particles were rolled, forming a huge sandstorm.

Under the sand, countless dead insects surrounded a huge and incomparable creature, with yellow body and scale armor, full of spikes.

It was a salon that looked like a dragon, but it wasn't, but a mutant creature that grew under the desert.

Roar!

Sharon growled, opened his mouth and sprayed a huge torrent, rolling endless Sha Shuo to form a huge sandstorm.

The huge body rolled up hundreds of thousands of tons of sand grains, of course, not that it could roll up such terrible sand grains.

Instead, scrolling by countless dead insects, this terrible scene was completed. The sandstorm, the culprit turned out to be this salon.

It drove countless dead insects to roll up a sandstorm, passing by, and the wind and sand were diffused, as if it were a moving desert, engulfing all living things.

Hiss ...

The dead worm hissed, kept rolling, and swallowed a wave of sand, which directly caused a horrible sandstorm, which once again rose to the ground.

In the air, watching the formation of sand storms, Qin Tiange's face was cold and cold. The hundreds of thousands of tons of sand particles that had been buried in the base were rolled up, exposing the original Jiuquan base.

Inside, the bones remained, leaving only dark red blood stains, and hundreds of thousands of people were swallowed up by these dead insects.

Qin Tiange was thus placed in the center of the sandstorm, looking down, the terrible salon, ten meters thick, 100 meters long, covered with yellow sand scales, with traces of thorns remaining Blood stains.

It should have swallowed many buried human beings. Seeing this, Qin Tiange understands that this salon is the culprit of this death tide.

Moreover, the sandstorm was rolled up by it, and the strength was so strong that Qin Tiange couldn't help narrowing his eyes.

"A seven-star salon, a desert mover, wants to go after swallowing hundreds of thousands of people?" Qin Tiange muttered to himself, killing more and more prosperous.

Sharon, drove countless dead insects to form insect tide, rolled hundreds of thousands of tons of sand to form sandstorms, and swallowed hundreds of thousands of people and wanted to leave?

"King of heaven!"

Suddenly, a loud drink came from the sky, accompanied by a huge rumbling crushing down, and Euphorbia slammed into Sharon's forehead.

With a bang, Sharon screamed, his forehead was punched out of a blood hole, his huge body was beaten up and down, and a large number of dead insects around him were killed on the spot.

Huh!

Sharon roared, raised his head, opened his mouth to spray a black wind, and swept across the sky with sand, flooding Qin Tiange.

The latter was holding a halberd, his body was not moving, the wind was raging, and the sandstorm was tumbling, but he could not shake his body.

"I want to run after eating hundreds of thousands of people. When you don't exist?" Qin Tiange screamed angrily, and an uncontrollable outburst broke out in his heart.

Seeing that hundreds of thousands of people were unable to save the base, they were buried in front of them by sandstorms, devoured by countless dead insects, and powerless.

Originally, anger could not be suppressed. Now when I see this salon, it is the culprit of sandstorms and death tide. After eating this base, hundreds of thousands of people want to run, how can it be so easy?

It is a sandstorm maker, a moving desert, and it can swallow up bases along the way. I do n't know how many bases and people are destroyed by it.

"kill!"

Under the fury, Qin Tiange waved his halberd, dived down directly, killed the sandstorm center, and slammed the salon.

He wants to slay the other side, and he must not allow this salon to continue its scourge. Otherwise, it is not clear how many bases are buried in the desert by the major bases here.

boom!

A loud noise, accompanied by the sandstorm trembling, countless sand dust soared into the sky, accompanied by a scream, the Sharon was injured.

Alas ... it screamed, the flowing sand grains turned into horrible sandstorms, swept through, as if thundering on the ground.

The dense number of dead sandworms tumbled and rolled endless storms, forming a terrible disaster, trying to drown Qin Tiange.

“Kirin changes!”

Qin Tiange Li Xiao, entered the Kirin Transformer, the whole person was filled with aura of energy, stepping on the auspicious cloud, the halberd swept away, and immediately lifted hundreds of dead insects.

He chased after the Sharon, slamming his opponent's body into pieces, the yellow-brown blood spewed out, and the blood was stained with yellow sand.

Roar! Qin Tiange snarled in the sky, a momentum soared, and the sand storms around him shook, accompanied by the light of the halberd, and wrapped in endless energy.

Just hearing a loud noise, Sharon screamed, his body was interrupted by bones, the scales were broken, blood and water were raging, and the situation was miserable.

The seven-star salon was inherently horrible, but in the face of Qin Tiange, a freak with the limit of 5,000 people, under the unicorn transformation, it has surged to 10,000.

The power of 10,000 people erupted. What was it like?

boom!

The sandstorm was crushed on the spot. Before the wind and sand of the horrible sandstorm formed, it was broken by Qin Tiange.

Euphorbia buzzed, swallowed three inches of sharp edge, pierced the scales of Sharon's neck, and pierced through it, piercing the opponent's throat.

Uh ... roar!

Sharon was miserable, his huge body rolled, and the wind and sand rolled up, and many dead insects around him were crushed to death.

Death bugs rioted and rushed towards Qin Tiange, but they couldn't reach the silhouettes walking in the air, but they were smashed by a strong wind.

“Kill!” Qin Tiange Li Xiao, wielded the halberd and dived down, and the whole person became extremely embarrassed and surging.

He slammed Sharon's head dozens of times in a row, and his entire head was broken. Blood and water mixed with sand particles scattered and scattered, Sharon screamed again and again.

It is very powerful, but it was a sand storm prepared in advance, and all the way up, it caused a horrible super sand storm, which flooded each base.

In the face of the super sandstorm that rolled up before him, Qin Tiange couldn't help it and couldn't save the fate of hundreds of thousands of people in the entire base.

Now, this Sharon wanted to continue to roll in sandstorms and form a horrible moving desert to move on, but he did not want to be caught by Qin Tiange's figure and directly launched a storm.

Ugh ... hiss!

Sharon was roaring, and the death swarm was sizzling. Under Sharon's order, countless death bugs came up, covering the salon densely, wrapping it in the swarm.

Seeing this, you don't need to understand that Sharon wants the most protection from dead insects. The densely packed dead insects constantly drill the ground in the sand, cover the salon and let the salon disappear.

"Want to run?" Qin Tiange snorted, put away the halberd, and suddenly took out a purple gold bow. A purple gold arrow was pulled away, sharp and pointed at the salon where the shadow was hidden.

collapse!

There was a blast, a sharp arrow broke through, and a rush of piercing through the dense dead insects, penetrated directly, and instantly penetrated into Sharon's head.

Suddenly, the swarm of dead insects exploded, Sharon snarled violently, his body rolled wildly, and the dead insects that rolled up were rumbling and fell, and hundreds of dead insects were crushed to death on the spot.

Soon, the swarm of dead insects spread out, revealing the salon that was wrapped in it, and his head was pierced through a blood hole, mourning in the sand.

Booming ... Sharon tumbling and struggling, crushed a lot of dead insects, eventually stopped, and finally stiffened on Sha Shuo.

As Sharon died, the sand storm that had been rolled up broke apart, lost its support, and immediately collapsed and dispersed.

Hiss ...

As soon as Sharon died, the countless dead insects that had been controlled suddenly caused riots, then scattered and fled, disappearing into the desert.

These dead worms were originally controlled by Sharon and driven by them to form a terrible mobile desert, which swallowed up many large and small bases.

Watching the tide of dead insects recede, Qin Tiange did not go after him, but landed and stood in front of the dead Sharon's body.

"Salon, the mobile desert maker." Qin Tiange muttered, feeling a sense of loss in his heart.

Because he was unable to rescue the base, he watched hundreds of thousands of people buried under the sand and devoured by countless dead insects.

Although the culprit, Sharon, was killed in the end, hundreds of thousands of people were buried in the desert after all, and there was naturally some discomfort in his heart.

Click!

Qin Tiange stepped forward and waved the halberd to cut off Sharon's head, then began to dig in Sharon's head with an ancient sword.

Soon, he found a turquoise bead in Sharon's head. It is a strange bead produced in Sharon's mutated body. It can also be called a dragon ball.

In fact, this is not a dragon ball, but more precisely, it is a wind bead.

"Wind beads can manipulate wind to form a storm. No wonder Sharon can make sand storms." Qin Tiange sighed.

Folding up the wind beads, and then packing up the body of this salon, Qin Tiango silently walked in the original base location, already buried in the desert.

As the dead insects receded, the sand particles of the base were not taken away, and the Jiuquan base was thus buried in the sand forever.

A large base, hundreds of thousands of survivors, soldiers and civilians, except for less than 10,000 people who were lucky to survive in the air, were buried here.

Of course also includes a large number of troops in the base, as well as the lieutenant general, who are buried under this desert.

Qin Tiange stood quietly on the wall buried by the wind and sand, and slowly poured a jar of wine with a wine jar in one hand.

"farewell!"

Qin Tiango was speechless, feeling the sorrow of the air over the base for a long time. He didn't speak, let alone ignore the sorrowful atmosphere, but left the jar of wine, rose into the air, and left the base buried in the sand.

The wind screamed, the dust was rolled up, and the remaining walls were gradually submerged. The Jiuquan base completely disappeared.

Wow ...

Suddenly, in the middle of the buried base, the towering huge assessment stone suddenly burst into an infinite amount of light, and the sorrowful air around him was absorbed instantly.

Next, the light dissipated. Strangely, the huge towering assessment stone disappeared. If you can see the scene under Sha Shuo, even the heritage stone will disappear mysteriously.

Chapter 456 - Second Doom, Flood

thunderbolt!

There was a thunder and lightning, a blue thunderbolt struck, and it instantly struck a silhouette flying at low altitude, causing a burst of sparks.

In the heavy rain, Qin Tiange was horrified by thunder and lightning. He was not injured, but looked a little embarrassed.

“The eighth time I was chopped.” Qin Tiange landed on a barren mountain, looking unhappy, watching the sky with thunder clouds rolling and lightning intertwined.

He flew at a low altitude and was split by lightning for eight times. Fortunately, he is currently strong enough, otherwise the lightning must fall off and he must hang the lottery.

It has been a week since the fall of Jiuquan and was buried by sand and dust. There have been sudden changes on the earth. Heavy rains have occurred on most of the land in China. With lightning storms sweeping through, it has not stopped for three days and three nights.

Bang ...

Suddenly, a landslide occurred at the foot of the mountain, and the rumbling slopes went down. A horrible mudslide formed as the torrents rushed to the low-lying areas.

Qin Tiange rises into the air, and people are in the air, looking down at the collapsed mountain below, surrounded by a torrent of torrents and swept across, and everything is destroyed.

“This is the second calamity at the end of the previous life, the precursor of the great flood ...” Qin Tiange looked dignified, remembering the second calamity at the end of the previous life.

The great flood was the second calamity after the end of the day. Not only Huaxia, but heavy rainfall storms all over the world, which caused various floods.

The most terrible thing is the flood. It is an unprecedented flood. The previous life is called the second calamity of the last days.

“My self, how is the base?”

On a stone mountain, Qin Tiange directly contacted his self and asked about the base.

Soon, the virtual projection emerged, with a serious tone of voice: “Master, three days ago, there was a sudden wind and rain, which caused the water level in the base area to rise hundreds of kilometers, the landslide appeared, and the flood began to flood. At present, Guangcheng has been flooded. . “

“What? Guangcheng was flooded?” Qin Tiange was startled, and he was relieved after careful inquiry, not what he thought.

Guangcheng was indeed flooded, but it was not destroyed by the flood, but was surrounded by the flood. Floods appeared in the city, and the deepest water level was already several meters deep.

The entire city of Guangcheng has now become a water city. Fortunately, there are towering reinforced concrete walls blocking the torrents outside, otherwise Guangcheng may no longer exist.

But the current situation is just as bad. Guangcheng is flooded, there is nothing in the city, it is much more terrible outside the city, and various underwater mutants are swimming in the water.

Once a creature falls into the water, it is immediately bitten by these underwater fierce mutants, including other land creatures.

“Master, the base has entered a state of emergency readiness. The harvest of grain was completed three days ago, and various new warships have been equipped.” Xi Jizhen said seriously.

Qin Tiange listened quietly and fell into thought. He had ordered the base to be fully prepared earlier, whether it was the grain reserve or the construction of various warships, in order to deal with this second doomsday.

“After all, the flood is ahead of schedule.” Qin Tiange sighed, watching the thunder and lightning constantly intertwined in the sky, thinking about the time when the previous great flood came.

In this life, the great flood appeared half a year earlier. This was an amazing change, which made Qin Tiange’s heart extremely heavy.

“Yanji, has the news been transmitted to Beijing?” Qin Tiange suddenly asked.

I nodded my head and said earnestly, “Master, as early as when you gave the order, you have secretly contacted the Beijing military, and the news has passed.”

“Furthermore, Beijing has already issued orders for flood prevention and flood prevention, and all major bases and military regions in Huaxia have made preparations.” Ji Ji said the news.

Qin Tiange nodded and said suddenly: “Send a drone to search and order the base units to prepare for rescue survivors.”

“Yes, master!”

Xie Ji accepted the order honestly, and then Qin Tiange said, “Also, we must do a good job in the defense of the base. I don’t want to see the base flooded with water, or even become an underwater city.”

“The master is assured that there will be no problems with the base.” Fu Ji said confidently.

She didn’t worry about the base being flooded by the flood. Just kidding, she controlled the defense facilities in the entire base, and she knew the strength of the base’s defense strength.

“Then I will rest assured, I can’t go back for the time being, just like this.” Qin Tiange nodded, and then cut off the connection.

Looking at the increasingly dreary sky, thunder bursts, thunder broke through the void, and thunder and lightning were intertwined. With the raging wind and torrential rain, the entire earth fell into the heavy rainfall stage.

This sudden change in climate is due to the dark energy that has eroded the center of the earth, leading to strange changes inside the earth.

With the Second Flood of Doomsday coming, Qin Tiange felt more and more urgent, feeling an unprecedented pressure.

He knew very well that the doomsday was not only one or two calamities, but several calamities followed, causing heavy losses to humans and other species on the planet.

“After the second calamity, the third calamity was the Ice Age, the fourth calamity came from the sky, the fifth calamity collided with the movement of the Earth’s plate, and the new continent constituted ...”

Qin Tiange thought quietly. He lived for fifteen years at the end of the previous life and experienced five full-time calamities. The second calamity was the flood. The third calamity was the Ice Age. The earth was still thick after his death Frost covered.

Since the third calamity, the competition for earth species has become increasingly fierce, many species have been eliminated and completely extinct, while some species have survived stubbornly and then evolved into more powerful new species.

Human beings are the stubbornly surviving populations in the competition of various species of the earth, but the human condition in the previous life and even the global humans were not very good.

Not only the competition of native species, but also the threat from outer space. Those species from the sky are the most terrible invading races.

“It’s time to go to Sucheng ...” Qin Tiange bowed his head and thought, and then decided to go to Sucheng to take a look to be relieved.

The base of Sioux City is surrounded by numerous waters. Once the flood comes, it will inevitably become a country in the water.

His own woman was the ruler of Sucheng. Qin Tiange could not sit idly by this, and only after asking about the situation at the Jijishen base, decided to go to Sucheng.

Huh!

After making a decision, Qin Tiange rose into the air and flew on his way. As a result, his body had just risen hundreds of meters high, and the strong magnetic field immediately attracted the entangled thunders in the sky.

Rumble ...

Lightning fell down and directly hit Qin Tiange’s body, which was vacated, with flashes of electricity and sparks splashing, looking extremely terrifying.

Qin Tiange was startled. Fortunately, his body was strong enough, and he had strong self-recovery and defense. He was not afraid of these thunder and lightning.

It was just a little embarrassed. It looked black and white smoke, but it was just a little skin trauma, and it was completely restored in a blink of an eye.

“The stronger a person is, the stronger the magnetic field of the body is, and it is easy to attract all kinds of super powerful natural energy to fight ...”

Shaking his body Qin Tiange looked at the dark clouds above his head, thundered and thundered, and looked extremely terrifying.

In the end, he had to give up flying, rushing directly on the ground and heading towards Sioux City.

On the way Qin Tiange rushed to Sucheng, a number of landslides and bankruptcies occurred in the Yellow River Basin. A super flood broke through the obstacles and followed the mudslides rolling out from the mountains into a terrible flood.

This torrent, known as the torrent of extinction, passed along the way and destroyed everything. Of course, the aquatic species are not included in this list, only the land creatures were destroyed.

Some abandoned cities were flooded on the spot, high-rise buildings were even washed down and collapsed, and towns, counties, and even some cities were completely submerged.

Not only the Yellow River Basin, but also the Yangtze River Basin, there were also major floods. The water level of the river soared, and torrential floods swept across.

Flash floods and mudslides are raging around the world, and humans and various land creatures continue to scream and scream, running away in terror.

The second calamity of the last days, the flood is here!

Chapter 457 - Yoko Ochi, Kirin's Power

Rumble ...

In the distance, a flash flood erupted, tilted down from within the mountains and rivers, surrounded by endless mud and rocks, forming a horrible mudslide, rumbling and crushing, and everything was destroyed.

In front of the mudslide, a small town was so dead, there was a lot of water on the streets, and some zombies were full of anxious growls.

There is a small gathering place in the town, where thousands of survivors gather, struggling to survive.

“A mudslide, a mudslide, run away!”

The next moment, the pot exploded in the gathering ground. Thousands of survivors were terrified, watching a landslide in the distance, creating a horrible mudslide, crushing over.

Seeing this scene, no one was shocked. Everyone in the entire gathering, regardless of age, gender, or gender, was scared, and turned and ran.

However, how can humans run through the mighty mudslides? Even those intensifiers are fast, but they are still caught up by mudslides.

“Mom saves me ...”

Outside the gathering place, the crowd was frightened to flee, and the mudslides that swept behind them drowned the gathering place, and those who did not have time to escape were buried in it.

The crowd who ran outside the gathering place was even more frightened. A little girl fell to the ground and cried with an uneasy expression. Unfortunately, her mother was already buried in the mudslide.

Rumble ...

Behind, a torrent of horror rushed across. The flood was mixed with red mud and rolled around with huge rocks, watching the little girl about to drown.

“Kirin changes!”

Suddenly, there was a scream of thunder in the sky, and the figure swooped down. He drove the auspicious cloud and crashed onto the torrent, instantly causing a big shock.

Suddenly, mud and stones were flying, the flood was rolled up, and it was crushed by an auspicious force, splitting directly into two streams and rushing to both sides.

“drink!”

Qin Tiange’s face was bleak, his strength surging and spraying out, turning into the strength of auspiciousness, he stood in front of the torrent.

His body kept receding, and when he retreated to the little girl, he grabbed her with one hand and straight up into the air.

Just after leaving, the strength of Xiangrui collapsed, was suddenly defeated by a terrible torrent, swept across a dozen miles and swallowed the survivors of thousands of people.

“Ah ...” The screams kept coming, but unfortunately it was drowned by the flood, and no one escaped.

Qin Tiange looked so dull that only one person was found, and everyone else was overwhelmed. There was a gloom in his heart, and he felt extremely uncomfortable, as if something was stuck in his throat and could not be vented.

It is not that he is too kind in heart, but that he realizes that he has limited abilities, and even with the strength of a unicorn, he cannot save thousands of people.

Even in the presence of horrible torrents, his power was so small that he had a doubt in his heart.

“Kirin comes out, Xiangrui is present, Kirin, Xiangrui? No one can save, what kind of auspicious?” Qin Tiange floated in the air carrying the scared little girl, muttering to himself.

He suddenly felt a little self-deprecating. It was rumored that Kirin came out and Xiangrui appeared, but even if he turned into a Kirin, even if he had a Xiangrui, he couldn’t stop the disaster, and he felt unconsciously sad.

Sorry not to come, rising from the bottom of my heart, it seems that it should not be like this, Kirin, as a Swiss beast, must appear in a peaceful place, not a disaster.

Roar!

Thinking about it, Qin Tiange's repressed inexplicable emotion became more and more surging, and eventually he couldn't bear it. He roared in the sky, and Qilin roared, shocking the world.

Suddenly, Qin Tiange turned into a unicorn, stepping on Xiangyun, and constantly running on the torrent, immersed in that weak emotion.

Why can't thousands of people be saved? There is a hidden place in the painting that can't save thousands of people, because it takes time to open the entrance to the hidden place, it needs a fixed place, and it can't do anything like the storage space, and the items disappear automatically.

If you want to save people with the mystery, you must open the gap. This was already thought of in Qin Tiange of Jiuquan Base, and it was originally planned.

But the sand storm directly flooded the Jiuquan base, which means that he couldn't do anything to save people. From that moment, he felt that there was something in his heart that was suppressing, and he wanted to break out of his heart.

It was an emotion, a mysterious power, like a kind of self-wake from the power of the unicorn, stimulated to wake up.

Roar!

A unicorn ran across, and where the four hoofs trampled, Xiangyun fell down, causing the torrential flood to be slow, and there was a feeling of disaster relief.

Qin Tiange's consciousness is a bit chaotic, as if he was controlled by the budding emotion, hating himself for being incompetent, why hate?

He himself was not clear. After being rejected by the assessment stone tablet, he saw that hundreds of thousands of people at the Jiuquan base were buried in the desert, and the feeling became stronger.

Nowadays, with the heavy rains and floods around the world, a terrible torrent has swept the earth and destroyed everything.

Now, seeing thousands more people being swallowed up by the torrent, Qin Tiange's heart finally couldn't be suppressed, and an autonomous explosion broke out.

"Roar ... " Qin Tiange turned into a unicorn, roaring to the sky, his voice was full of sadness, and the ancient and vicissitudes filled out. Instantly, heaven and earth landed a strange breath.

That is auspicious air, yes, there is auspicious air coming down from the sky.

"Kirin is out, Xiangrui is here!"

In consciousness, Qin Tiange murmured to himself, what he understood and understood, seemed to have a deeper understanding of the unicorn change.

Kirin, Rui Beast, there will be auspicious aura in the place where it appears, but what role does Kirin's auspicious power have?

"Get up!"

Suddenly, Qin Tiange's consciousness was sober from the obscurity, and he instinctively shouted, and saw a peaceful force pouring into the earth, and a loud noise came.

I was surprised to see that where the strength of Xiangrui passed, the ground was bulging, turning into a mountain, turning into a huge earth barrier, blocking the flood.

Bang!

The terrible torrent rushed into the wall of the tall mountains and stones that suddenly popped up. There was a loud noise, the mountains and rivers were shaken, and the earthquake in all directions was huge.

The horrible impact crushed the blocked earth walls, but the torrents slowed and their strength weakened.

"Originally, this is the power of the unicorn." Qin Tiange realized that the real secret of the power of the unicorn was finally realized by him.

The unicorn, the head of the beast, and the son of the earth, itself has the magical function of carrying thick soil, auspicious sky, and Fukuzawa Miles.

At this moment, Qin Tiange really realized the real power of Kirin, and the son of the earth should have the power of the earth.

"Little guy, sleep ..." Qin Tiange woke up and saw the little * her back, suddenly exhaling a peaceful breath, and immediately, the little girl fell asleep.

Changed back to the person, Qin Tiange put this sleeping little girl into the secret place in the painting on her arm. She is the only one among thousands of survivors who was successfully saved by him.

"Kirin, walking around the earth, feeling the power of the earth, this is the power of Kirin."

Qin Tiange said landing, stepping on the torrent, walking step by step, and suddenly waved his hand, the land in front of it bulged and erected erected, while a huge wall was formed, blocking the torrent that swept forward.

Although he was quickly defeated, he didn't care, because it was just realized that the true strength of the unicorn, the thick soil, the auspiciousness of heaven, and the power belonging to the earth were gradually awakening.

The unicorn, even the son of the earth, must be auspicious wherever it goes, and the disaster recedes. This is the real unicorn.

Rumble ...

Finally, after the flood flooded thousands of miles, the earth wall finally gathered by a stream of mud stopped the castration and gradually subsided.

Standing on the tall mound, Qin Tiange looked expressionless and looked at the world turned into a sea, the town was completely submerged.

The zombies roared in the water, struggling to get up. Although these zombies were not dead, they were soon devoured by huge mutant creatures hidden in the torrent.

“If you can understand the real strength of the unicorn at Jiuquan base, will you be able to stop the sandstorm from flooding the Jiuquan base?” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, a loss flashed in his heart.

Realizing the real power of the son of the earth, Kirin, but he couldn't be happy, because the cost was too high, hundreds of thousands of people were swallowed up by him in ruthless burial and could not help.

That kind of stimulus led to Qin Tiange's ultimate self-germination in the heart, stimulating the real power that belongs to Kirin, and being able to understand the power of the son of the earth, Kirin.

“The cycle of life and death, disaster is fickle, in the last days, who can be sure that he will live forever?”

Immediately afterwards, Qin Tiange cleared his mood and did not dwell on the previous experience, but instead threw away these burdens gently.

What counted hundreds of thousands of dead? He asked himself what he could do. If he could n't save it, he could n't save it. He was ashamed, so why blame him?

Who can not die in the last days? How many people die every day? Therefore, Qin Tiange didn't have much self-stress in his heart, but was just stimulated by that sense of weakness.

Now, realizing the real power of being a unicorn is a kind of self-stimulation and awakening.

“The flood, how many people will be buried in the second doomsday?”

Qin Tiange turned around, stepping on the auspicious clouds, walking step by step in the mountains and river basins, feeling the breath of the mountains and realizing the power of thick soil.

The earth, vast and vast, deep and great, nourishes all things, and it is a kind of great profoundness, silent and imposing.

Along the way, Qin Tiange saw cities flooded by floods. Some people went upstairs, and only zombies mourned in the flood.

Some bases were established, but they were also destroyed under the relentless impact of the flood. He saved a lot of bases and used the power of the learned unicorn to prevent the destruction of some gathering places, but many bases were still ruthlessly destroyed by the big water. Already.

“Take care of her ...”

In a small base Qin Tiange just blocked a torrent for this place. The surrounding waters were gradually receding, and thousands of people gathered on the roof.

With the rapid retreat of the flood, this small base was finally kept, and Qin Tiange released the little girl who was rescued at the beginning and gave it to the leader of the base, a retired soldier.

“Rest assured, she will be my daughter in the future.” The middle-aged man gave a serious assurance.

He looked at Qin Tiange with excitement. The self-proclaimed admiral was able to stop a flood with his own strength.

In their opinion, Qin Tiange was powerful and terrifying, but in Qin Tiange's view, the floods encountered in this small gathering place were not large enough to stop them.

However, he himself knew that if there was too much flood, he would be powerless.

Under the excitement and gratitude of a group of survivors, Qin Tiange rose into the air, stepped on the auspicious clouds, quickly passed the distance, and disappeared into the eyes of these people.

Chapter 458 - Purple gas in the body, siege of crocodile

The gloomy sky was covered with thunderclouds and lightnings. Thunders converged together in one place. Looking closely, we saw a person floating in the clouds and bathed in thousands of thunder and lightning.

thunderbolt!

Rumble ...

Thunders and thunders continued to strike the figure, but what struck me was that the man was unscathed.

In the sky, Qin Tiange was bathed in thousands of thunder and lightning, and allowed countless thunder and lightning to smash his body, and even tempered his body with thunder and lightning.

There was a terrifying electric arc on the surface of the body. Lightning smashed into the body, hitting the skin with a scorching dark yellow, but still persisted tenaciously.

Along the way, Qin Tiange saw floods in some large and small gathering places, and helped when he saw what he could help. The next time was to use the thunder and lightning above the thunderclouds to temper the flesh.

He suddenly wondered if he could use thunder and lightning to temper his body. After trying it, he was surprised and found that it really had an effect, and the effect was huge.

boom!

Suddenly, a blue-violet lightning splattered on his body, and the terrifying force hit him into the sky, as if the heavens were angry.

Falling from a high altitude, Qin Tiange's hair was a little black, and white smoke erupted, sparks of sparks were beating, but he soon recovered.

"Huh ... cool!" Qin Tiange exhaled a black breath, only feeling comfortable, stretched a lazy waist, a crackling sound of fried beans came out in his body, his muscles and bones rang.

The thunderbolt body, which he dare to do, has an immortal body, and naturally there is not much problem. As the thunder destroys the body, it becomes more powerful and terrible after the reply.

On the surface, it seems that the strength has not improved, but as the physical body becomes more and more domineering, Qin Tiange feels that his explosive power and lethality can be greatly improved.

Ok?

Qin Tiange was stretching his bones, suddenly his face was frozen, he suddenly looked up, and saw a faint drop of strange gas falling into the void into his body.

These gases are very mysterious and almost invisible. If his vision and induction were not sharp enough, he would not have been able to capture this mysterious gas.

“Purple Qi?” Qin Tiange looked surprised and looked at the purple Qi descending from the sky. Mysteriously, he suddenly appeared above his head, and then shrouded his body.

The purple air was very thin, and the interweaving continued to come, as if from various places, making him inexplicable.

The purple gas came to the east and gathered in the body. For a moment, Qin Tiange felt that there was something unclear in his body, that is, those purple gas.

He was shocked and thoughtfully: “Strange things, where do these purple qi come from?”

Qin Tiange was surprised because the purple gas was the same as the purple gas he obtained after completing the task twice in the task space.

The inexplicable purple air emerged from the sky, and the strands merged into his body, making him feel a little unusual, and even gradually felt that his body had something more.

What made Qin Tiange curious was, where did the mysterious purple gas come from?

He tried hard to sense and distinguished carefully, but unfortunately, these purple qi came fast and disappeared quickly. He blinked into the body and disappeared.

“Purple gas seems to contain some mysterious power. Is it about saving some gathering places along the way ...” Qin Tiange’s eyes brightened, and suddenly he made bold guesses.

These purple stilts are directly integrated into the body, the origin is unknown, but now appear at this time, which proves to be related to what he has done before.

What he did, naturally, he could save many small and medium-sized gathering places within his ability, and save many gathering places from the fate of flooding and destruction.

Perhaps this is the origin of Ziqi, which has caused Qin Tiange’s bold speculation. Is Ziqi a certain belief?

For example, the incense belief, after saving people, is grateful to be rescued, maybe it is a kind of belief or belief.

But Qin Tiange thought for a while and thought it was not. The power of faith he had felt on some transformed idols, it was not the same.

“It’s not belief. Is it some kind of power that I don’t know?” Qin Tiange thought secretly, feeling the purple air coming from all directions, although it was very small and weak, but he was absolutely real.

Purple gas entered the body, making Qin Tiange feel that his body has become different, but it is unknown what is different.

He sensed a mysterious change, a deep-seated change, that is, he couldn't understand exactly where the change happened.

“Forget it, one day will understand the mystery of the purple gas.” Unable to think of it, Qin Tiange no longer thought about it in the end.

He firmly believes that he can clarify these mysterious forces in the future. As of now, he dimly understands how he gathers mysterious purple gas.

“The reckless world, who will rise and fall, the road of the king depends not only on strength, but also in various aspects, such as human heart and luck ...” Qin Tiange suddenly realized that his mind was empty.

At this moment, he had a deeper understanding of the path of the king and had a clearer understanding, as if he knew how to preach to become a king in the future.

A king needs not only strength, but also human heart and luck. The so-called common mind, heaven and earth move, to achieve this, he is a generation of monarchs, supreme king.

“Su City, it's coming ...” Soon, Qin Tiange realized that he was about to arrive in Su City, and Taihu Lake was not far ahead.

He flew over quickly, and in a blink of an eye, came to the sky above Taihu Lake. Looking down from a high altitude, we can see that the entire Taihu Lake is like the ocean, the waves are rough, and the undercurrent is surging.

The water level of Taihu Lake soared, forming a terrible undercurrent that surged towards the gaps of all parties.

“Fortunately, Chen Xi is well-prepared, otherwise Taihu Lake's skyrocketing will be enough to flood the entire Sucheng base.”

Seeing that Taihu Lake has huge flood vents in all directions, Qin Tiange finally felt relieved. This was a flood vent that had been dug out by Chen Xi before his reminder.

The turbid water, rushing and rushing, swept across, and many large trees were rolled up and surging, rolling and surging in the water.

With the approach of the great flood, various floods and disasters have been encountered in various places, whether it is mountain floods or mudslides. It is still a terrible disaster for human beings.

Boom ... Boom Boom ...

Suddenly, the sound of gunfire roaring in the direction of the base of Sucheng was deafening, and Qin Tiange, who had just arrived, was shocked.

Looking up, outside the base of Sucheng City, several huge moats surround it. The rapids are surging and surging, but they flow to the sea along the excavated spillway.

The Sucheng base is currently safe for the time being, and the drainage channels that have been dug for the flood have been successfully diverted without being submerged.

However, there are huge dangers hidden in the several huge moats at the base of Sioux City, and huge black shadows are swimming in the water.

“Sister, there are more and more underwater crocodiles. After the flood, many crocodiles descended downstream and gathered in Taihu Lake.”

On the wall of the base, two pretty figures stood proudly, looking out at a large area of ocean water outside the base. The flood was turbulent and extremely turbid.

The two were Chen Xi and Chen Chen. Since the outbreak of floods, the entire city of Sioux has entered the emergency preparedness stage.

Fortunately, Qin Tiange reminded him that Chen Xi trusted his man, so he was fully prepared, and he was not overwhelmed by the flood of Taihu Lake.

However, the current situation is still not optimistic. Thunderstorms and heavy rains are lingering. There is no sign of stopping.

Moreover, the most important thing is that the number of crocodiles in Taihu Lake has surged, with more than 100,000 huge mutant crocodiles in recent days.

Originally there were tens of thousands of crocodiles in Taihu Yangzi Crocodile Village. After the end of the day, there will be collective mutations, and they will be transformed into even larger and scarier crocodiles.

Now, with the outbreak of floods, the number of crocodiles has soared, and the number is roughly estimated to be at least 100,000. I do n’t know where they came from.

These crocodiles swam in the flood waters around Sioux City, surrounding the entire Sioux City group.

“Sister, the horrible emperor who hurt the black cricket yesterday, we don’t know where to hide it, we can’t help it.” Chen Yan Qiao said with a dignified face.

Yesterday, the blackbird hunted the crocodile in the flood outside the city. As a result, it encountered a terrible emperor crocodile, and it hit the six-star blackbird.

If Chen Xi had not arrived in time, the black cricket might have been eaten by the emperor crocodile, which caused Chen Xi’s vigilance and shock.

She vaguely understood that there were suddenly a huge number of crocodile here, which had a lot to do with the terrible king crocodile, maybe even the crocodile group it brought.

“If only my brother-in-law was here, the emperor crocodile would surely have been killed.” Chen Yan muttered with a gloomy expression.

Chen Xi heard her cry and smiled and shook her head. Why didn’t she know that Qin Tiange was powerful, but at present, the floods are severe and floods are everywhere, and whether Qin Tiange can come is still a problem.

“Well, look at my sister?” Suddenly, Chen Yan’s face moved, and there was a familiar throb in his soul instinct, as if he felt something.

She looked up, suddenly pointing at the distant sky in surprise, in the direction of Taihu Lake, a dark shadow was flying fast.

Chen Xi and Chen Xuan looked at each other. As the shadow was getting closer, soon, it became clear that it was a person, and it was Qin Tiange who was thinking about them.

Chen Xi smiled and looked at the figure that flew over Taihu Lake and landed directly. It was her man, Qin Tiange himself.

Qin Tiange came, the figure fell on the city wall, looking at the two sisters Chen Xi coming up, a smile appeared on his face.

“Brother-in-law!”

Chen Xi came up with a smile, followed by a small tyrannosaurus. This emperor tyrannosaurus was getting stronger and stronger, half a meter tall, fierce, and fangs crooked, looking very scary.

“You’re here.” Chen Xi smiled quietly, as if Qin Tiange had arrived, even when the sky fell, she couldn’t move her, and her mind was stable.

“Fortunately, I’m relieved to see that Su Cheng is okay.” Qin Tiange smiled, patted Chen Yuxiang’s shoulder gently, and nodded.

Then he was holding Chen Xi’s little waist, and the three came to the wall and looked at the torrent of the ocean outside the base.

“Brother-in-law, you happened to be here. Hei was almost eaten by a crocodile yesterday.” Chen Yan said angrily.

“Yeah.” Chen Xi also nodded and said, “Tian Ge, although at present Su City is not submerged by the flood, there are more than 100,000 mutant crocodiles hidden in the flood around the base, which surrounds the entire Su City.”

Qin Tiange nodded slightly, in fact, needless to say, when they came, they found out that there were a huge number of crocodiles in Taihu Lake.

At this time, a few meters deep, or even a few ten meters deep in the torrent, hidden a terrible dark shadows, surfaced from time to time, quietly wandering outside the Sucheng base.

Huh!

Suddenly, a terrifying roar came from the direction of Taihu, and Long Yin burst into bursts of violence.

“It’s the blackbird’s cry, did the emperor crocodile appear again?” Chen Xi’s face changed slightly, looking at the direction of the roar, which was her pet blackbird.

Chapter 459 - Emperor Crocodile, Chen Xi defeated

The Taihu Lake is flooding and tumbling.

Uh ...

Suddenly, a roar came, the water waves shot up, and a blast blew up a curtain of water. A huge black cormorant broke through the water and burst into rage.

It was Chen Xi's pet, the black dragon, and the six-star black dragon exuding horror. His eyes stared at the water in front of him like a lantern.

boom!

The water there exploded, and a horrible shadow opened his mouth to bite, but was quickly avoided by the blackbird, setting off waves of stormy waves.

Looking from a distance, I was surprised to see a huge crocodile floating on the water, with a long mouth full of sharp fangs, dense spines on the back, and covered with horrible hard black shells.

Roar!

With a loud roar, the earth-shattering is the recently emerged emperor crocodile, whose body 20 meters long rolled in the water, setting off a huge wave.

The black crickets roared, and the two fought fiercely in the water, agitating most of the Taihu Lake, the giant wolves surging, and rumbling up ten meters high.

Emperor crocodile, ancient mutant species, seven-star, much more powerful than the blackbird, soon defeated the blackbird.

“Blackbird defeated ...” On the city wall, Qin Tiange looked in the direction of Taihu Lake and looked at the horrible emperor crocodile, knowing that Blackbird lost.

Sure enough, with the bite of the emperor crocodile, the black scorpion scales shattered, blood and water spewed, and the body struggled hard to escape.

Roar!

The crocodile roared out a loud roar, and the rumbling chased up, setting off a billowing wave, and countless crocodiles surfaced one after another.

On the city wall, many people watched the horror crocodile chasing and killing the blackbird, one by one looking wild and terrified.

Even more frightening is that with the emergence of the emperor crocodile, a variety of crocodile hidden in the flood emerged one after another, and constantly wandering around the base of the Sioux City.

“Oh my God, it's this emperor crocodile again.”

“Hundreds of thousands of crocodile alligators around the base. Is this an offense?”

Many survivors on the city wall were panicked, especially some soldiers who had seen the emperor crocodiles.

They knew that the black cormorant was Chen Xi's pet mount. They had fought once before, and were almost killed. Today, the emperor crocodile appeared again.

This time, the black cricket was traumatized by the emperor crocodile. He watched it come and kill him. Once the emperor crocodile was killed and entered the base, who could stop it?

“Tiange, I’ll work it out.”

On the city wall, Chen Xi’s face was so calm. He took a few steps forward with the silver gun, his body suddenly jumped, spanned hundreds of meters, and fell directly into the flood outside the base. Up her body.

“kill!”

Chen Xi pointed at the silver gun and drove the blackbird back to kill the king crocodile. She is extremely powerful, with 3,000 people at five stars, and she has to say that she has greatly improved after taking immortal pills and magic pills.

However, in Qin Tiange’s view, Chen Xi’s current strength is not yet an opponent of the emperor crocodile. From the breath he sensed, this emperor crocodile was at the key to the evolution of the eight-star star. He wanted to devour the blackbird and Chen Xi to evolve.

The seven-star emperor crocodile has an amazing power, which definitely surpasses Chen Xi, and the power increase in water is even greater.

“Brother-in-law, go and help my sister.” Chen Yan Qiao looked anxious.

She saw her sister killing the emperor crocodile once yesterday, but she almost couldn’t come back. Now she saw her sister again and was anxious, and she called Qin Tiange directly.

However, Qin Tiange shook his head. He said: “The emperor crocodile is very strong, but your sister and the black cricket may not be able to fight, this is a grind.”

“Rest assured, I will shoot if there is danger.” Qin Tiange comforted.

He blinked his eyes, looked at the huge emperor crocodile, and looked at Chen Xi, who was standing on the top of the black cricket, and raised and killed, not worried at all.

Bang!

Suddenly, the water surface burst open, setting off a huge wave ten meters high, and the blackbird opened his mouth and sprayed a horrible water column to bombard the king crocodiles, causing a huge shock.

Unfortunately, the emperor crocodile was okay at all, and suddenly jumped out of the water to bite at the black cormorant.

“Drink!” With a tender drink, the blackbird and the crocodile both collided with each other with a silver gun.

With a bang, the water curtain was soaring, and a wave of spray sprayed down, faintly seen that the black cricket was shaken back and forth. On the contrary, the emperor crocodile just stopped for a moment.

A white mark appeared on his forehead, which was shot by Chen Xi, but he could not break the thick armor on his body.

Roar! The crocodile made a roar, and his scarlet eyes showed brutal murderous power, and his body jumped out of the water, and opened his mouth to swallow at Chen Xi.

The black cormorant screamed, watching the imperial crocodile rushing to death. The speed was extremely fast, and he had to open his mouth to spray a huge water column and bombard the imperial crocodile's head.

“Water curtain Tianhua, hidden kill!”

Suddenly, as soon as the Jiao drink came, Chen Xi swelled an air of qi, and the surrounding water vapor transpired, turning into a curtain of water, covering a square kilometer.

I was surprised to see that there was a burst of urn in the water curtain, accompanied by the roar of the sky, the water waves rolled, and rolled up ten meters high.

“Is this the battle technique Chen Xi learned or was it exchanged for?” Qin Tiange secretly surprised, looking at the water vapor transpiration.

Did Chen Xi realize this kind of combat technique herself, or did she exchange it from a stone tablet?

boom!

The water curtain exploded, and he was surprised to see the black cricket retreating. Over his head, Chen Xi was flushed, his body was steaming, and the silver gun was buzzing and shaking.

Opposite her, the Emperor Crocodile opened a wound in his head, his blood was moored and he was wounded.

Roar!

The crocodile roar of the emperor croaker, even more terrible after being injured, bit a mutant crocodile next to it and swallowed it on the spot.

As a result, the wound recovered at the next moment and was repaired perfectly. Many people were horrified when they saw this place.

“The emperor crocodile swallowed the same kind to recover the injury. How can this be fought?”

Someone looked pale, staring at the restored emperor crocodile. Emperor crocodiles can devour similar wounds to repair their wounds. How do you kill hundreds of thousands of mutant crocodiles here?

Chen Xi looked dignified, and saw the emperor crocodile recover again, with some pressure in her heart, but she knew that another person behind her must be watching her, and would not put her in danger.

“Kill!” With the presence of Qin Tiange, Chen Xi settled down and devoted himself to fighting power, urging the black puppet to * and kill.

The water surface broke open, and the black cricket was extremely fast. Like a black train hitting it, the huge horns were matched with Chen Xi's war gun. The two forces worked together to compete with the emperor crocodile.

After the second evolution, the emperor crocodile was even more terrible. The seven-star star evolved the ancient ancestor gene. Chen Xi can compete with it at the five-star star, which is already a great improvement.

Qin Tiange took a look and realized that Chen Xi was not an opponent and could not kill the emperor crocodile. She would be completely defeated soon.

“After all, it still takes a lot of sharpening.” Qin Tiange murmured secretly.

He stared at Chen Xi during the slaughter. Although he had wounded the emperor crocodile a few times, it was only a little skin trauma, which was useless for the terrible defense of the emperor crocodile.

Instead, she was swept by the tail of the emperor crocodile several times, the silver armor was broken, and the black crickets were beaten up and bloody.

boom!

Surprised, the crocodile turned abruptly, with a black tail with a stabbing spike, and slammed down on the black owl and Chen Xi.

The black owl roared fiercely, and the horns pushed up fiercely, Chen Xi on his head waved the silver gun, and the power of the erupting limit hit him.

With a bang, the water curtain was astounding, and the waves were scattered, and the waves rolled up and swept away.

With a scream, the black cricket was beaten for more than a dozen meters and fell into the water, while Chen Xi was shocked and flew dozens of meters away, just before falling into the torrential flood.

Below, a long crowd of crocodiles opened their mouths and waited for Chen Xi to fall, and they would be bitten into pieces.

“Sister ...” Chen Yanqian blushed and exclaimed.

I saw, there was a residual image flashing around, Qin Tiange moved, and came to the back of Chen Xi in an instant, gently catching her body.

“Is it okay?” He asked softly, took out a potion and drank her.

Chen Xi drank the potion, shook her head gently, and sighed, “I’m fine, but I can’t beat the emperor crocodile.”

Uh ...!

The blackbird emerged from the water, letting Qin Tiange and Chen Xi fall on top of it, looking at the scarred blackbird, Qin Tiange shook his head secretly.

He was a little dissatisfied: “As a dragon, you are actually bullied by a crocodile like this. You really have the reputation of a dragon.”

Heiyue bowed his head in shame and didn’t dare to say a word, because he knew Qin Tiange’s mighty horror, so he didn’t dare to say a word when he was taught.

Roar!

It didn't make a noise, and the emperor crocodile there was angry, with a loud roar, a violent slamming and slamming up, the huge mouth opened, and its teeth gnawed.

Watching the emperor crocodile come out, Qin Tiange looked very calm. He gently let go of Chen Xi, and the sound of Euphorbia hummed along with his body.

when!

A golden iron attack came, and the body of the emperor crocodile stopped, then slammed and set off a billowing wave.

Looking at Qin Tiange again, his body was motionless, and he stepped on the flood in this way. He took the halberd and walked up step by step.

“Oh my God, who is that?”

“Did you repel the King Crocodile?”

Qin Tiange shot, shocked thousands of people on the city wall, and looked at him in shock.

Many people guess who is who he is, and he can repel the emperor crocodiles, and it looks like he is very powerful. It seems that he is much more powerful than Chen Xi, who is in power at the base.

The main thing is that he and Chen Xi seem to know each other. Some people know that Qin Tiange is the man beside Chen Xi, and he was surprised when he saw him.

Roar!

The crocodile roared, rolled up the turbulent waves, his body submerged in the flood, and quietly killed him.

It was angry and wanted to swallow Qin Tiange, but the latter seemed to be unaware, step by step over the flood, walking on the waves.

boom!

Suddenly, the flood in front exploded, and a fishy mouth bite down severely, swallowing Qin Tiange directly into his mouth, and closing it.

“Tian Ge be careful!”

Not far from Chen Xi's face changed, he exclaimed, watching the emperor crocodile's mouth was about to bite, and Qin Tiange was in its mouth.

Chapter 460 - Open mouth

The water was soaring, and there was a huge mouthful of fishy bite.

With a click, the emperor croak made a scream, instinctively stopped biting, and was surprised to see a huge halberd standing in its mouth.

The halberd's sharp edge almost penetrated into its upper jaw, the blood was flowing, and it was almost inserted into the pair. Fortunately, it stopped at the key moment, otherwise it would kill it.

“Wow, so dangerous!”

There was an uproar on the city wall, and many people breathed a sigh of relief, watching Qin Tiange not be swallowed up, inexplicable.

Someone was surprised: "Who is that man? It looks terrific."

"You don't even know that?"

Many people cast a scornful light, and a young man explained: "That man heard that it was Chen Chen's good looks."

"Look, the crocodile is soaring." Someone exclaimed.

I was surprised to see that the water curtain was so dazzling that the waves crashed and set off a rancid mud. It was faintly visible that the giant crocodile twirled his tail in the water and slammed the water.

"court death!"

Inside the crocodile's mouth, Qin Tiange looked cold and hummed, looking at a large blood vessel at the soft meat of the upper jaw, sticking out his five fingers and inserting it into the soft meat of the upper jaw. Large blood vessels.

Uh ...

The giant crocodile turned upside down, jumped a dozen meters high, and then fell down fiercely, surprised by the huge waves, the sound of rumbling sounded.

It was traumatized, a blood vessel in the upper jaw of the mouth was pulled out by Qin Tiange, and the blood spewed.

The king crocodile shook his head, trying to shake out the prey in his mouth, and was disappointed, and the halberd stood in its mouth and stuck in the flesh.

"Dead to me!"

Suddenly, a loud drink came from the mouth of the crocodile, and the head of the giant crocodile was slammed high, and then the whole body was blasted into the sky by a force, and it was severely dropped after flying up to dozens of meters.

Qin Tiange rushed out of the crocodile's mouth, then turned and swooped down with an accelerating speed, curled up with a whirling wind, and stepped on the giant crocodile's head.

Bang!

The emperor crocodile fell, the whole head was stepped into the sand, and the sewage several meters deep was lifted open, exposing the mud pit underneath.

I saw that the giant crocodile's mouth was closed with a huge force, just passing through the erected halberd inside, blood was flowing, and the sand was red.

hiss!

"So scary?"

Many people on the wall were shocked, and they couldn't believe it when they saw that the seven-star king crocodiles had been abused like this.

Don't talk about them, it's Chen Xi's complexion, and secretly marveled that his man's strength is truly extraordinary.

“Brother-in-law is amazing!”

Chen Xi was standing on the edge of the city wall, her face full of excitement, and seeing Qin Tiange beating the emperor crocodiles, he thundered and shot the emperor tyrannosaurus aside.

The poor little Tyrannosaurus was beaten dozens of times by his master, and he felt wronged, but did not dare to show it.

“Hmm ...” The crocodile screamed, it was struggling hard, its huge body kept rolling and jumping, its claws were waving wildly, its tail hit hard, and Qin Tiange's body was taken straight.

Huh!

A whisper came, and after the croaked crunch, a tail of black paint flew up, dripping a little blood, and the giant crocodile's tail was cut off.

Qin Tiange carried the ancient sword in his hand and bullied him. The ancient sword swept across flatly, bringing up a sharp edge in the middle of the crocodile.

With a jingle, the sharp crocodile's claws shattered, and then the entire crocodile's claws were cut into two with the belt bones and dropped into the water.

The severe pain caused the giant crocodile to open his mouth miserably, but was injured twice by Euphorbia, and the wound was torn and pulled more. The crescent moon could not be pulled out of the bone, but opened a huge wound.

It was painful, violently tumbling, its huge body raised a curtain of mud and water, and it was scattered, and the stones and rotten wood in the water crushed it.

“Not dead yet?” Qin Tiange snorted coldly, rising to his feet, like a phoenix slamming into the air, standing on top of the giant crocodile's forehead, holding the ancient sword straight into the heavenly spirit.

Just hearing a click, blood and water spurted, and the giant crocodilian's forehead was penetrated. The heavy blow made his body tremble, his limbs danced wildly, and the mud was cut open.

It was frightened, trying to escape, twisting his injured body into the mud, and trying to escape into the flood, but how could Qin Tiange run away?

Hum!

Seen by surprise, Qin Tiange grabbed the halberd to vacate the air, rolled over and dived down, and the halberd emitted a ray of light, plopping through the neck of the giant crocodile.

He held the halberd in both hands and crescent crest. As he dragged the halberd all the way to the tail, the thick armor on the back was cut open by a huge mouth, and the flesh was turned out.

Alas ... The giant crocodile was miserable, and his body rolled over a few times to shake Qin Tiange away, but unfortunately it just turned over, and Qin Tiange just emptied saw his abdomen.

The giant crocodile turned over, and the water was shocking, but it revealed its white belly.

“Dead!” The Qin Tiange people turned in the air, and the halberd swarmed sharply, and a speeding dive came through the crocodilian’s abdomen.

Not over yet ...

I was surprised to see that the Euphorbia crescent, which had been inserted into the belly, was pulled by Qin Tiange along the neck of the giant crocodile, opening it up and breaking his belly.

The giant crocodile made a wailing noise, and rolled a few times without any sound. The powerful seven-star emperor crocodile died, the internal organs shed, the blood was stained with mud.

Qin Tiange stepped on the neck of the giant crocodile, and gently pulled out the halberd. The giant crocodile lay on the huge mud corpse, motionless, and the blood and water stained a large swath of mud.

“died?”

The walls were quiet, everyone was dazed, and watching the battle was resolved, it felt a little too fast.

Yes, in their opinion, the fierce battle between Qin Tiange and the emperor crocodile was too fast. Even before they reflected it, the giant crocodile was opened.

“Can we really be as strong as him?”

Some young evolutionaries have dull eyes and murmured with longing for eagerness. They are eager to have such powerful strength as Qin Tiange.

In the doomsday, strength is respect, and strong ones are dominant. With strength, you can live with confidence.

“This person is strong, no wonder General Chen Xi will look after him.”

Some people have complex expressions, low hearts, and feel empty, as sad as they have lost something.

In fact, it’s normal. Chen Xi and even Chen Chen’s sisters are celebrities in the base. Chen Xi is the authority of the entire Sioux City base.

In the base, many young strong men secretly regarded Chen Xi and Chen Xi as their dream lover, secretly like it, but unfortunately it is just unrequited love.

Chen Xi, regardless of beauty, identity, status, or even strength, is the most powerful person in the entire Sucheng base. Such women are not what they can get.

Now that I have seen Qin Tiange’s strength, I finally realize that only such a strong person can be worthy of Chen Xi, or in other words, only a peerless woman like Chen Xi can be worthy of the strong person.

“This is the strong!”

Everyone flashed this thought in their hearts, and suddenly there was a hint of awe in their hearts, and they were also a little jealous.

“Brother-in-law is mighty!”

Look, at the edge of the wall over there, Chen Xiao, this little Nizi, is dancing, her cheek is very tempting.

Her cheers made many young talents tickle, anxious to go forward and confess to the pursuit of such a small beauty.

But thinking of the identity of the other side, there is a sister who is in power in the base of Sucheng, and a brother who is so powerful and terrible. It is really difficult to pursue her.

“Are you OK?”

Chen Xi urged the blackbird to come quickly and pass by along the way. All mutant crocodiles evaded, and even actively dived into the water and left far away.

Qin Tiange nodded with a smile and comforted: “It’s okay, an emperor crocodile can’t hurt me unless it’s a dragon that has awakened the dragon gene.”

The dragon he said, but the true dragon, the gene in the body is completely replaced by the ancient dragon gene, and become a true dragon, that is the most terrible creature.

As for this emperor crocodile, although the ancestor’s genes were awakened, the strength has not yet fully grown, so it is normal for him to be slaughtered beyond his rank.

Although Qin Tiange currently only has four stars, his strength is enough for 5,000 people. Once he enters the Kirin Transformation, it is 10,000 people.

Just now, he was in the Kirin Transform and directly killed the seven-star giant crocodile. It looks very easy, but it is not easy.

As the emperor crocodile was killed, more than a hundred thousand mutant crocodiles wandering nearby became messed up, and the leader’s emperor crocodile was lost.

These mutant crocodiles were under the command of the emperor crocodile. Now that the giant crocodile is dead, other mutant crocodiles have sensed the terrorist threat from Qin Tiange, and the animals could have let them run independently.

“This is for your pets. I hope to successfully advance to seven stars and become a real blackbird.”

Soon, Qin Tiange dug a basketball-sized crystal nucleus from the emperor crocodile’s brain, which was a seven-star mutant crystal nucleus, which was directly thrown to Chen Xi.

Chen Xi Qiao blushed slightly and accepted it with a smile, but did not refuse, and there was no word of thanks, because the courage between each other did not need these extra polite words.

Hey ... Heihe looks very excited However, Qin Tiange was glared at the next moment and immediately lowered his head to be honest.

“If you can’t advance to the seven-star level, you don’t need to be Chen Xi’s pet. I will wash a big pot and prepare other herbs to wait for a pot of braised dragon meat.”

Qin Tiange’s words caused the black body to tremble constantly, shivering, his eyes looked at him pitifully, and he did not cry.

“Okay, don’t scare it.” Chen Xi couldn’t help crying and laughing, but she had some warmth in her heart, knowing that this was her man helping her pet to advance.

Qin Tiange smiled, glanced around, and saw the tens of thousands of crocodiles gradually disappearing, knowing that the Sucheng crisis had been temporarily lifted.

“Go, kill some crocodiles, go back and cook a pot of emperor crocodile meat, take some fat and tender crocodile meat, and give the army a meal.”

After he laughed and laughed, the whole man rose into the air, holding a halberd towards the crocodiles who were about to retreat, and started * hunting.

“Okay!” Chen Xi smiled, and drove the blackbird to keep up quickly, and the couple worked together to kill a mutant crocodile in the torrential flood.
