

Dark Ages 46

Chapter 46 - Crazy hunt

The more than one hundred horsemen of Huang Ba's number one and one were honest, lowered their heads, and dared not look at Qin Tiange, for fear of being miserable by this evil star.

“see it?”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange took out a one-star quenching potion and chuckled: “This is a one-star quenching potion, which was exchanged from the heritage stone tablet.”

Everyone was attracted by his words, and they gathered up the courage to look up, one by one, showing strong desires, hoping to get such things.

They know that the powerful and inhuman power of Moda and others is the medicine from this small test tube.

“A potion is enough to improve a person's triple physical fitness, you listen well.” Qin Tiange's tone suddenly increased a bit.

He smiled hesitantly: “I have enough potions for each of you, but only if each of you must kill enough fifteen zombies.”

“Whoever kills fifteen zombies, I will give him one, not enough, no, or died halfway.” Qin Tiange's words will undoubtedly bring a huge shock to everyone.

Temptation, strong temptation, red fruit tempted them.

Murmur!

Some people couldn't help swallowing saliva, their eyes lighted, and they stared at the potion, their eyes seemed to let out fire.

“Now, take up the weapon and hunt the zombies. Whoever kills fifteen zombies first, I will give him the first one.”

Qi Qin Tiange showed a demon-like smile, and hehe smiled, “obedient, rewarded, disobedient, then die.”

“Kill, we kill zombies!”

Somebody couldn't help but roared immediately, and those red eyes proved that he had been ignited by the desire of his heart at this moment.

One, two, three, immediately led everyone, more than one hundred people immediately responded, and each one threatened that enough zombies could get this potion.

Even those women who had been juggled by Huang Ba showed a look of longing. Only they themselves knew how important it was to have power.

If they have power, they will not be bullied and imprisoned by Huang Ba. If they have power, they will be able to survive, live well, and live with dignity.

“Excuse me, can we do that too?” A 19-year-old girl stepped out and asked timidly.

Her face was very scared, I was really afraid that Qin Tiange would deny it, and even afraid that the next group of very powerful people would treat them like Huang Ba.

“Of course, anyone can kill zombies, no matter who they are, as long as they can kill fifteen zombies, I will give her one.” When Qin Tiange nodded and said this promise, the women went crazy.

“I want to kill zombies!”

“Kill the zombies!”

A group of women went crazy and suffered a huge blow to their hearts after being violated. Now they saw the opportunity to gain strength and immediately grasped it.

Zombie terrible? But is human being terrible?

I watched more than a hundred people holding weapons, and started to kill zombies, even those women, no exception. Seeing this, Liu Ye and others were in a mood and didn’t know how to describe it.

He only had a smile on the corner of Qin Tiange’s mouth. After being tempted by his intimidation, these people immediately became his wage earners and killed zombies for him.

One hardened body medicine, the exchange price is ten brain crystals, tell them to kill fifteen, that is to make five, and make no money.

As for not giving rewards, it’s actually OK, but these people are not convinced or even feared, so the benefits are greatly reduced, it is better to give a little sweetness and let them willingly kill the zombies.

In this way, the higher the efficiency, the greater the benefit is in line with Qin Tiange’s meaning.

“Start, kill the zombies!”

With the order of Qin Tiange, Moda and others also acted. Two teams, more than two hundred and nearly three hundred people, began a vigorous hunting and killing of zombies.

The people here at Moda are powerful, and those who have just been persuaded to kill zombies are much weaker, but they can’t hold back many people and their strong desires inside.

Under the outbreak of the two, it really produced incredible power. With the help of Moda and others on the side, the danger is much less.

After all, Qin Tiange wants them to help him hunt and kill the zombies as much as possible, instead of telling them to die, otherwise they will lose their own benefits and lose more.

Only when they squeeze out their benefits is Qin Tiange’s true idea. As for the Bailaizhi potion sent out, it is only a trivial loss, which is really incomparable to the harvest.

In this way, the huge team began a fierce and crazy hunting operation, one by one with red eyes, slamming the zombies with stubborn vigor, and even grabbing them.

Grabbing monsters, one after another scrambling, but being careful, even after Moda and others promised that Qin Tiange also had rewards, they all went crazy.

“Kill, kill!”

“Stop them!”

With a loud roar, a large number of zombies were smashed to death, and even some zombies were beaten to death by everyone, very crazy.

On this side, Liu Yan and others gathered brain crystals and withdrew the steel arrows while fighting, and more than two hundred lunatics in front of the followers started the Qing Dynasty.

The zombie riots were attracted by the breath of hundreds of living people here, and they swarmed from all directions, forming a tide of corpses that would drown these people.

Alas, under the frenzied killing of these people, these tide of zombies were still cleared a little bit, killing one after another, and everyone was jealous.

“Fourteen ...”

A burly man, wielding a machete, slashed a zombie, splashed with black blood, didn't care, his eyes glowed red, and he stared at a zombie not far away.

He rushed up in a stride, slashed with a slash, and clicked into the back of his head, but did not kill the zombie, and he was stuck trying to pull the knife.

At this time, the burly man went crazy, gave up the machete, and suddenly wrapped his arms around the neck of the zombie, holding it aside.

“Dead ...” This man yelled madly, his arms were so fierce that he severed the zombie's neck and killed the other.

“Fifteen, I've killed enough fifteen.” With a look of ecstasy, he turned and ran back, carefully approaching Qin Tiange, looking forward to him.

Qin Tiange didn't let him down. Throw a hardening potion directly to him, the other party drank without hesitation, and instantly felt tired and swept away, even his strength was crazy. Growth, doubled, and tripled.

The man looked excited, waving his arms, rushing forward madly, and punched up at a zombie.

With a bang, half of the head of the zombie was blasted. It was brutal, bloody, and extremely amazing. It was shocking.

“Kill!”

Seeing this, everyone was stimulated, one by one, the power of milking broke out and killed the killings, even women were no exception. With the best examples to prove, what else can they be uneasy about?

After the crowd went crazy, Qin Tiange smiled slightly and whispered in his heart, “It's still good for people to work hard.”

If there is interest, humans will desperately do it. If there is no interest, most people will definitely not have that kind of enthusiasm and madness.

This time, Qin Tiange was satisfied, paid a little bit of profit, and got a bunch of crazy people to help him kill the zombies, and the benefit was maximized.

Of course, some people are happy and some are sad. Naturally, the battle is full of dangers, and many people are killed in this crazy hunt.

There is no need to pay for strangling people. This is where Qin Tiange's savvy lies. After killing fourteen zombies and dying, then there is no need to pay, because everyone is dead.

And he earned fourteen brain crystals, which was the price he had to pay to get it.

It took several hours to kill everyone, from morning to afternoon, and finally, most of the new people had killed enough zombies and obtained a hardened potion.

Soon, at three in the afternoon, the killing stopped, not because they did not want to kill, but because Qin Tiange ordered the termination of work, because today is about to arrive.
