

Dark Ages 471

Chapter 471 - Leaders out, the world is shocked, the world of contention is coming

A piece of news came from Shangjing. It was a stone that stirred up thousands of waves, and the world was shocked. All the survivor bases in Huaxia were shocked.

A group of people are discussing urgently in the highest conference room of Lancheng base.

“Chen Guodong wants to be a leader and lead Huaxia. What do you think?”

In the conference room, an old man said with a serious tone that he was the highest commander of the Lancheng base, the Mu family, and the general Mu Feng.

All the senior generals present here, or some strong men, were shocked by the sudden news from Shanghai.

“Admiral Mu Feng, Chen Guodong wants to take over, he can’t mobilize the major bases in Huaxia, how to take over?” Asked the general.

However, a young man said softly: “Grandpa, Chen Guodong wants to be a leader. I think the plans of Qin, Zhou and Xiao have completely failed. It may even be that the whole foreign secret hand in Shangjing has been cut off.”

“Mu Ye, you are wrong. I think Chen Guodong is a delusion. Now after the end, who would still like to obey the order of Shangjing? It is a question whether he can mobilize the major bases, let alone he will be the first in the end of China Leader. “Some people disagree.

The young man, named Mu Ye, is the youngest and strongest of the Mu family. He looked indifferent and smiled, “Don’t forget, everyone who dares to release this news has enough confidence, otherwise Chen Guodong would not make such a decision.”

“Mu Ye is right, Chen Guodong does not do things that he is not sure about. Since he is doing this, he is confident enough.” Father Mu Feng said.

However, he looked solemnly: “We are too far away from Shangjing, so we can’t get involved in Shangjing. Now, Chen Guodong wants to be a leader. What’s your opinion?”

There was a dead silence at the scene, and no one spoke, because he didn’t dare to speak rashly.

Mu Ye stood up and said earnestly: “Grandpa, I think Qin, Zhou, and Xiao failed, and Chen Guodong’s arrival as a leader is a foregone conclusion. Even opposition is useless, but will be crowned by a caring person as a split nation. The charges will be difficult at that time. “

“Then wait and see how much support voice he can get from the bases of all parties in Huaxia?” Admiral Mu Feng smiled lightly.

Not only the Lancheng base, but the various bases in Huaxia are boiling. Many people were shocked by the news from Shanghai, and urgently negotiated.

At the same time, at the Anxi City Base, all the senior generals gathered and looked at the old man on the subject seriously.

He is an old man of the Yi family. General Yi Zhong has been a horse for a lifetime and is full of a strong iron blood. His sword is not old.

“Water cold, Chen's family wants to be a leader. What's the matter?” Yi Zhong set his sights on a young strong man present.

He is Yi Shuihan, the most outstanding young generation master of the Yi family. He has risen all the way from the end and is also the strongest in the entire Anxi city.

Yi Shuihan had a calm expression. He stood up after hearing Yi Zhong's inquiries and thought out his thoughts and opinions.

“Grandpa, I think there must be someone behind Chen Guodong. The brother in Shangjing came with the news that the fathers Qin, Zhou and Xiao suddenly abdicated, forcing Chen Guodong to enlist their three younger juniors. There must be something nasty. “Yi Shuihan's words were surprising.

He blinked a strange light in his eyes, and then said, “I heard that after the end of the day, Chen Guodong and Shangjing's ministries seized a young general, who seemed to be called Qin Tiange. I guess most of this incident had something to do with him. Big relationship. “

“Oh?” Yi Zhong's face was dignified, he kept thinking, and finally clapped: “Wait a moment, now it's impossible to oppose it, otherwise it will be bad for us if it is used by people with heart, and it is already difficult to get involved in Kyoto. Let's first look at what Huaxia major bases say. “

Guangcheng is still besieged by the Great Shui. With the news from Shangjing, Lieutenant General Qi Shao looked at the news from Beijing and was surprised.

“Chen Guodong wants to be a leader?” Lieutenant General Qi Shao blinked and muttered to himself.

Then he thought of something, and chuckled: “The boy, Tian Ge, is indeed young and motivated, but he wants to push Chen Guodong to the top?”

...

In the south of Beijing, the news came and high-level shaking.

Admiral Mu Hua looked serious, staring at the news for half an hour, without saying a word, his face changed constantly.

“Good Admiral Qin, I have already made this preparation long ago, and push Chen Guodong to the top position to marry Chen Xi. No wonder I look down on my family Mu Xue. This is the case.” Mu Hua's complex face is more and more for Qin Tiange Appreciation but disappointment.

Appreciate that Qin Tiange has the ability, talent, and ambition to appetite him. But disappointed, the boy was so angry that he didn't look down on his granddaughter Mu Xue. Now it seems that Qin Tiange is going to push Chen Guodong to the throne and marry Chen Xi. This is a link and a link. It was already planned Understand.

“Grandpa, is Grandpa Chen really going to take the top position?” Mu Xue asked gently, a little airy and cold.

Above her shoulder, a shrinking version of the ice phoenix was lying on its face. This was the severely damaged ice phoenix she had accidentally encountered after entering the extreme cold secret.

Mu Hua’s eyes flickered slightly, and he suddenly issued an order: “Energize the country and support the Beijing Orthodox, let me make the first sound. I would like to see how many bases support Chen Guodong?”

As the news was sent from Beijing, a thousand-layer wave was stirred, and Huaxia was shaken internally. All parties had not sobered up from the shocking news, and received news from the base in Jingnan.

“The Jingnan base supports the orthodoxy of Shangjing and supports Shangjing Chendong to become the first leader of Huaxia!”

“Shenzhen base supports Shanghai Beijing Orthodox!”

“Guangcheng base supports Shanghai orthodoxy!”

One after another, like blockbuster bombs, major bases exploded directly. Many people were surprised that the end was the end and there was still support.

However, they did not wait for them to return to their hearts. Another news came out that the Sucheng base and the maritime base issued a statement in support of the orthodoxy of Shanghai and Chen Guodong as the first leader of Huaxia after the end.

At the same time, major bases near Shangjing announced at the same time that they support Shangjing orthodoxy.

Jincheng, Taicheng, Shicheng, Qicheng, and Shencheng also announced their support for Shanghai and recognized Chen Guodong as the leader.

No way, first of all, the Shen Qin family has lost its competitiveness. The Qin family resigned from his post and gave it to his younger generation.

Not only the Qin family in Shencheng and the Zhou family in Qicheng are the same, they have to announce their support for the orthodoxy of Beijing. Otherwise, they may not be able to get out of Beijing.

As for the three major bases in Jincheng, Taicheng, and Shicheng, in fact, they have been guarding Beijing. Most of the troops in the three cities support Chen Guodong.

Therefore, as soon as the news was conveyed from Shanghai, there were enough seven bases to support Shanghai, which has already given a clear and powerful voice to the major bases throughout China.

“Well ... there is a total loss of hatred for thousands of years, Qin, Zhou and Xiao’s family is not enough to fail, it is bad for me.”

In Lancheng, the Mu family was desperately dying. With the news of support, he knew that Chen Guodong's arrival as a leader was a foregone conclusion.

Although Chen Guodong was unable to order other large bases and forces beyond Shanghai, he already had the name of this leader. He was a leader in an orthodox sense. What he said must be obeyed by all parties on the bright side.

"Let's declare it. Support Shanghai. Someone has promoted this trend. Since it can't be changed, then we will be ready to compete!" The Mu Family Master resolutely popularized and announced the order directly.

Soon, Lancheng, a huge base that was not weaker than Shanghai, opened up and supported Shanghai orthodox.

Later, at the Anxi City base, the Yi family was also very poor-looking, anxious to kill Qin, Zhou and Xiao.

"The three old guys seem to be confused, not only for Chen Guodong to eliminate all the forces reaching into Shangjing by the assassination of Dongfeng, but also to skyrocket and reach the leader, it is really stupid." Yi Zhong A look of resentment.

He naturally did not have a good opinion of the three failed forces. Not only did they cause the relatively far-away forces to fail, but they were also led by their noses directly, creating a general trend that allowed Chen Guodong to land directly on the leader. Bit.

"That Qin Tiange, pay attention, everything is related to him, give me all his details."

As the major base forces have made their choices to support Shanghai, most of the bases support it, at least on the surface.

However, there are still many bases that have not spoken. It is unclear whether communication is blocked or ulterior motives.

Regarding these, neither Shanghai nor other large bases have paid much attention to it, because with the support of some major powers, Shanghai's orthodoxy has become as stable as Mount Tai.

"Father, it is a foregone conclusion that the leader will be there. I will leave next. At present, there are serious floods in various regions. I must go back and see."

Shangjing, above the tower, two people, one old and one young, quietly looked at the sunset.

The old man is Chen Guodong, and the young man is Qin Tiange himself. The young and old have been talking here for three hours.

Chen Guodong has a complex look. Looking at this young general who has been very calm around him, he directed the play in one hand, and he has been in a trend for a long time.

“Come on, I’ll block the storm from all sides for you, I just hope that you can keep your pace steady and lay the foundation for your own future plans.” Chen Guodong said this sentence suddenly.

He looked at the sunset in the distance and said earnestly: “I’m like the sunset at dusk. It won’t last long. Since you have the heart, then treat Chen Xi well. As for what you want to do in the future, I just don’t ask.”

After listening to these words, Qin Tiange was shocked in his heart, and sighed that Jiang was still old and spicy, and Chen Guodong had all these plans in his eyes and guessed.

“Also, I have already convened those people in the General Court you secretly, of course, only a small part of it. When you really stand on the stage of Shangjing one day, everything there will be fully open to you. “Chen Guodong’s solemn warning.

“Father, take care, remember to take eternal pills.”

Qin Tiange finished speaking softly The whole man rose into the sky and disappeared here, leaving only Chen Guodong with a complex complexion, looking at the figure leaving, thinking about everything that happened in the past few days.

First, he was assassinated, seriously injured and coma dying, then Qin Tiange and sister Chen Xi returned. Then, by being assassinated by Dongfeng Kuaidao, he was chaotic. Finally, Qin Tiange took the opportunity and directly counted the three fathers to give up on their own Admiral was eventually disqualified as a competitive leader.

“This boy, push me up to give you a storm. If it weren’t for Xiaoxi’s face, my old man would be too lazy to help you.”

Chen Guodong was unhappy and felt that he had been counted by Qin Tiange and was pushed up to the position of leader, but he knew in his heart that it was only a plan of Qin Tiange to confirm the legitimacy of Beijing and the other was to make him the old man Bangding the pressure from various bases.

The first leader appeared after the end of Huaxia, and the fate of the entire Huaxia and even the whole world was once again pushed hard by Qin Tiange to another unpredictable future.

When the leader comes out, the world is shocked. The world of great contention has arrived. The contention is not only for chance and strength, but now there is one more layer of competition. There is a contention for leaders.

Because everyone knows that Chen Guodong is old after all, that position cannot sit for too long. The future is the world of the strong, the world of young people. Therefore, many characters of the older generation will take their hands. Everything was lost to young people.

Of course, these are the leaders who asked Beijing to give them a seal. This is a cut-scene. If they support it, they must get what they want.

As the older generation had to be forced to retreat by the general trend, the faces of the younger generation began to be active at major bases, and even at various local levels.

Huaxia has entered a world where the stars are shining and the heroes are together.

Chapter 472 - Purple gas transpiration

The Shenzhen city base, within 30 kilometers of the circle, did not have any floods, and the flood had already discharged to the sea along the drainage channel.

Around the base, there are completely cultivated fields and golden rice paddies. At the time of another big harvest, many people are busy harvesting in the fields.

Viewed from a high altitude, the entire Shenshi base is surrounded by golden rice fields, leaving only four huge main channels leading to the four gates.

“Good ...”

At a high altitude, Qin Tiange was satisfied with the development and scale of the base. After returning from Shangjing, I saw that the base was so well developed and naturally feel comfortable.

The entire base is in a high-speed development stage. It is surprising that a strange aircraft flew out of the base.

These aircraft are like a speedboat, a new-generation floating craft newly developed and developed by the base military factory, which Qin Tiange ordered and produced earlier.

Now, with the flooding, thousands of floating boats produced in the base are immediately equipped, and three garrison groups set off to rescue survivors everywhere.

Huh?

As soon as he flew over the base, Qin Tiange's face was frozen, and suddenly he felt a blast of air rushing towards him, which drowned him instantly.

It was a blast of gas, with purple light, transpiration, and continually gathering and rolling over the base, looking extremely shocked.

Most people cannot see this mysterious gas at all. Qin Tiange saw these mysterious gases inexplicably in his left eye. The purple gas transpired and gathered into a kind of cloud-like coiled air over the base.

boom!

As soon as he stepped into the sky above the base, Qin Tiange was overwhelmed by this vast purple gas. The mysterious purple gas poured into his body, making him more mysterious.

“Purple gas?” Qin Tiange was startled, looking at the purple cormorant gas mist flowing around, and some of them entered his body inexplicably.

These purple qi is exactly the kind of mysterious purple qi that he discovered before. Didn't expect that such purple qi gathered over the base?

With the interlacing of purple air and integration into the body, Qin Tiange felt that the sea of his consciousness was more empty, his thoughts were faster, and even some aspects of his body had obtained some wonderful transformation.

“What a magic purple gas, what is it?” Qin Tiange was extremely surprised, wondering what these mysterious purple gas was.

Over the base, why is there such a transpiration of purple gas, is it related to the establishment of such a huge base?

Moreover, not only that, the lavender gas from all sides continuously gathered quickly, gathered above the base, and partly divided into his body.

With more and more purple gas entering the body, Qin Tiange's consciousness suddenly vibrated at a certain moment, and then he realized a wonderful message naturally.

"Originally, this is luck?" Qin Tiange was amazed and suddenly realized that a little mystery of these purple qi is luck.

Yes, the transpiration of purple gas gathered from all directions, separated a part into his body, and most of it was condensed and intertwined above the base, turning into a mysterious purple cloud.

Purple air is the symbol of air transport, and the purple clouds over the base represent the air transport of the entire base.

The translucent purple gas represents the prosperity of the base, and the prosperity of the base makes the military and civilians in the entire base different in spirit and energy.

"Gas luck is prosperous, and the cause will flourish. It turns out that this is the so-called air luck." Qin Tiange looked thoughtfully, watching the purple air luck permeating all around, and finally understood the secret.

The stronger the development of the base, the more magnificent the transport of air and the more vigorous the transport of air, representing the extremely good future development of the base.

Not only the base has the air fortune, but the individual also has the air fortune. For example, Qin Tiange himself has been getting this purple gas into his body, which means his air fortune has been increasing.

"I see ..." Qin Tiange suddenly gave a slight smile, bright and clear in his heart.

He has understood that the origin of luck is a kind of mysterious power, which in general cannot be seen at all, because of his left eye.

This makes him pay more attention to his left eye. It is not that simple. He has never developed and applied his left eye. It really seems that he picked a sesame and lost a big watermelon.

The purple gas comes to the east and condenses the sky, which is a kind of prosperous performance.

No matter it is the base, or Qin Tiange and everyone in the base, is affected by this luck, and continues to move forward and develop in a good direction.

After taking a look, Qin Tiange then landed, returned to the base conference room, and met the high-level of the base waiting here.

Except for those who were sent out, such as Li Zhi, Moda, Nie Teng, and other high-level generals, they were all genuine elites selected from the new army.

"General!"

Everyone brushed their salute together, his face was solemn, and there was a respect and support in his eyes, all from his heart.

In this group of seniors, Zhuo Tianfan and other elderly people were even more emotional, because news had already come from Shangjing, and Qin Tiange had also contacted them and conveyed his order.

Supporting the order of Shangjing immediately won the support of two million real soldiers throughout the base. Since then, his position in the army has been unshakable.

Not to mention the people's hearts, the base has sufficient food, and the opening of the exchange of monuments has accelerated the growth of survivors in the base. Over 99% of the survivors in the heart are extremely supportive of Qin Tiange's supreme general.

The military's heart and the people's heart are attached to it. This is a super base created by Qin Tiange. No one can shake it. Even the current China's first leader Chen Guodong cannot dismiss him.

"Everyone is working hard!"

Qin Tiange returned a gift, and was surprised to find that the top of these bases exudes a faint purple light, and it seems that purple fortune has landed on them, and everyone's energy and spirit have become more radiant.

The mystery of luck is not only that, but Qin Tiange has not yet understood and understood it.

Everyone entered the meeting room and started a high-level meeting at the base.

"How's the rescue work going?" Qin Tiange said directly into the subject.

I saw that Hu Yan held a document and handed it to Qin Tiange, and then a little wrist terminal opened a virtual light curtain.

"General, please see, this is the current situation of the rescue of our three troops." Hu Yan used his own control to control the scene of the rescue scene.

Qin Tiange saw that there were three troops on the screen, each equipped with 2,000 floating boats, and they launched rescue operations in Qingyuan, Shantou, Meizhou, Jiangmen, Yangjiang, Maoming and other places.

There are many survivors in these places. They had escaped the tide of corpses, but they could only hide in the corners and shivered, and did not expect another flood.

This time the flood caused many survivors to gather to die, but many survivors were rescued.

"General, currently there are three rescue corps in the base. So far, a total of 180,000 survivors have been rescued, and rescue operations are currently underway." Hu Yan sat down immediately after speaking.

Qin Tiange nodded his head slightly, watching the scene of the rescue on the screen, he said, "What happened to Guangcheng?"

I saw that my own figure appeared, wearing a military uniform, and looking at the heroine. She gave a serious and serious introduction: "General, Guangcheng is currently suffering from serious floods. We have contacted the Great Wall General Lieutenant General Qi Shao and reached a rescue agreement.”

“At present, we have sent 30 engineering mechs and excavated dozens of sufficiently large drainage channels around Guangcheng. The current water level has fallen. It is estimated that the flood in Guangcheng will be resolved in two days.” Ji Ji said seriously.

Moreover, as she shot back with her drone, thirty engineering mechas were digging flood drainage channels overnight.

Hundreds of meters of engineering mechs were dug in the floodwaters, but they were also attacked by some ferocious underwater creatures.

For example, crocodiles, such as some pythons. Of course, there is a floating boat around each of the mechs, and there is a newly developed magnetic cannon on it.

boom!

In the picture, a floating boat directly hit an electromagnetic beam of light, blasting a large wave of water, blasting a huge python hidden in the water.

“Yes, you are doing very well. I will ask the leaders for your credit.” Qin Tiange nodded with satisfaction, not only the rescue from all parties, but the flood in Guangcheng was also lifted.

These are the credits of the Shenzhen City Base, all of which are doing high-level credits, and must be credited.

Hearing this sentence, all high-level excitement, meritorious deeds, represent their abilities, but also represent being recognized. Of course, what is the future of everyone, of course, it is necessary to work hard to fight hard.

“General, at present our drone has been attacked and crashed by many mutant birds. This problem must be solved.” Jiji suddenly said this.

The new unmanned reconnaissance aircraft produced by the base was attacked by more and more mutant birds and crashed a lot, resulting in hindered reconnaissance.

After hearing this, Qin Tiange couldn’t help frowning and asked, “To what extent is the current plan for nanosatellites completed?”

“The assembly has been completed, but due to the current limited technology, we cannot send it to space, and the current small levitating propulsion system still cannot be produced.” Ji Ji said the news honestly.

The nanosatellite has been assembled, but there is no way to send it into space orbit. This is a problem because the technical core in the base is insufficient, and the propulsion system and anti-gravity technology are still incomplete.

“Is that so?” Qin Tiange thought for a moment finally decided that he must speed up the satellite lift-off plan, so that he could set up a skynet to cover the entire earth.

Qin Tiange said solemnly: “I just came back from Shangjing, and asked some scientific and technical personnel from the leader’s side to come back. When you meet Wu Lao, you can arrange to speed up the scientific research process and send the nanosatellite to space as soon as possible.”

“Also, to speed up the construction of new weapons, fighters, fighter armors, air and space warships, and even air and mother ships, we must complete the construction of the first generation of finished products within one year.” Qin Tiange made final orders and instructions to speed up Scientific and technological construction and production.

“Understand!” Fu Ji, the head of the arsenal, took the lead seriously.

Mr. Wu, the person in charge of the Ministry of Science and Technology, was very excited. The scientific and technical personnel from the General Hospital were rare treasures, and all of them were super top talents.

Unexpectedly, Qin Tiange actually wanted to return from Shangjing, which was amazing.

“Party!”

After speaking, Qin Tiange stood up, walked out of the conference room, and went directly to Lianhua Mountain.

Chapter 473 - The monster demonized, the Monkey King asked for help

Lianhua Mountain, where the gods are, Qin Tiange came here, and saw a lotus sprout out in the eyes, slender, but not blooming, only one leaf, transparent throughout, like jade.

It was a goblin and finally sprouted again, but the goblin is still in the growth stage and has not yet fully grown up.

With the strange effects of Divine Land and Divine Spring, the little fairy is like a nirvana reborn, starting to metamorphose from the seed. If it can grow up, then the talents are absolutely amazing.

“The little fairy is not awake yet.” Qin Tiange murmured, then looked around the **** earth.

Around the Divine Land, there are fascinating flowers that take root here and draw the mysterious energy of the Divine Land to transform. Gradually, all kinds of haze and mist are transpiration, covering this place.

A peach tree grows here, and the whole body is pink, as if carved with pink gemstones, and the huge trunk has become slim.

Yes, the original 100-meter-high peach tree has shrunk into a three-meter-high peach tree. The trunk and even the leaves are crystal clear, and there are red peaches hanging on it.

This is not degradation, but evolution. Although it seems that the trunk has become smaller and shorter, the interior has become stronger and higher, and the genes have evolved and evolved.

“The Peachtree Demon has evolved and become stronger.” Qin Tiange was surprised and nodded with a smile.

Then he saw the same with the old willows not far away. The tall willows also shrank a lot. They looked more mighty and strong, as if the old appearance that had been taken off became vibrant.

The whole willow tree is full of green and green, like jasper carving, exquisite to the extreme, and looks very imposing.

Qin Tiange mused and mumbled, “The oldest willow tree is the strongest. It is stronger than the peach tree essence and cherry blossom essence. It is indeed a thousand-year-old willow demon.”

He felt that the old willow was the most powerful, exuding a strong wave of demon power, and it might even come out of shape at any time and break away from the body.

“Peony, rose, and lily have all evolved and evolved in succession, and they all seem to be in a mysterious stage. Are they about to be transformed?” Qin Tiange secretly surprised and guessed.

He felt that the flower demon and the tree demon were in a certain mysterious stage, shining brightly throughout the body, puffing clouds and clouds, and diffusing the glow, looking like a fairyland.

There is a strong wave of demon power permeating here. As the demon draws the mysterious energy of the Divine Land and transforms itself, it has obtained a mysterious change and is about to change shape.

“Since it is about to be transformed, then I can help you.” Qin Tiange thought for a while, and finally decided to help.

I saw that he took out the **** spring water, and each one poured a full bottle of **** spring water, that is, the little fairies poured three bottles.

Uh ...

Sure enough, as Qin Tiange poured into the Shenquan water, those demon who were in the stage of metamorphosis immediately bloomed with immense amounts of light, and the sky began to rain and fall.

The fragrance is pervasive and refreshing. Peony, lily and rose are astounding. The flowers and bones of the three flower demon are expanding, colorful, and misty.

The demon power is boiling and the breath is sweeping, as if a demon is born, and the sky begins to show signs of dark clouds.

This phenomenon almost made Qin Tiange mistakenly think that the transformation would be thundered, but he actually thought too much.

With a click, as the three huge flowers of peony, lily, and rose opened, petals came out, revealing a hazy figure wrapped in flowers.

It was a figure, looming, in a wonderful state, as if a creature was born in the flower.

The peony was the first to open completely, and there was a burst of glowing rays. Among the flower cores, a hazy figure gradually became magically lazy, naked and naked.

“Peony, I’ve seen the boy!”

Suddenly, a beauty jumped out of the flowers and saluted gently. She is a peony flower demon, and finally came out of shape, but she was naked, making Qin Tiange twitch, but fortunately, she went directly into the flawless Bingxin.

I saw a stream of fiery red pollen converge and turned into a red dress, which covered the flawless body of the peony flower demon.

“Rose, I’ve seen him!”

The next moment, another beautiful and charming figure emerged and fell in front of him, his voice exuding a charming charm, a variety of styles, and a passionate spirit.

She is a rose demon, she successfully transformed into a naked body, flawless, but quickly turned into a black skirt.

“Lily, I’ve seen him!”

In the end, the Lily Flower Demon came out almost at the same time, and came to Qin Tiange’s salute, his face was immaculate, with a holy breath.

She was a Lily Fairy, and soon turned into a white dress to cover her proud body and flawless skin.

The three demon monsters stood in front of each other slenderly, exuding a seductive aroma all over their bodies, which was a unique floral fragrance, full of temptation and charm.

A man will be fascinated, but unfortunately, Qin Tiange has fallen into a state of immaculate heart, his complexion has always been very dull, his heart is cold, and all thoughts are frozen.

“Very good, they are all eight-stars. You are considered to have transformed.”
Qin Tiange nodded slightly, praising him.

The three demon monsters are all eight-star and successfully transformed. As for how powerful their true abilities are, Qin Tiange cannot guess and must know how to try.

But for him, the three flower demon can easily suppress it, so he didn’t pay much attention, but moved his eyes to the peach tree demon.

Uh ...

As soon as a rumbling came, I saw the peach blossoms pervading, gradually covering the whole peach tree, and then a dim figure appeared in the looming inside.

That was the Peach Blossom Demon. She successfully transformed into a pink dress, and Peach Blossom turned into two pink ribbons around her shoulders, constantly coiling, watching the wonder of wonder.

“Little peach, I’ve seen the boy.” The peach blossom demon stepped on the pink clouds and saluted gently.

Immediately afterwards, the cherry blossoms floated in the sky, and saw that the cherry tree had changed, surrounded by endless petals, and then turned into a beautiful figure.

The sakura morphed into a monster, came to the front, and gently touched it: "Sakura, see the boy."

"No need to be so polite." Qin Tiange nodded.

Then, he looked at the old willow, and saw that the old willow glowed with a turquoise green light, which became more and more prosperous, and the magic was boiling, and finally came out as a figure.

"Liu Sheng met the son." The old Liu Demon, with a white beard, a vicissitudes of his eyes, is a thousand-year-old willow tree.

However, he salutes Qin Tiange respectfully. There is no way, he just felt a horrible pressure from Qin Tiange just now, and he immediately saluted while secretly in his heart.

"Uncle Liu!"

Peony, Rose, Lily, Little Peach, and Little Sakura are all saluting to Liu Yao, who hurriedly responded in a hurry.

"Don't do it, old can't stand it, can't stand it." The old willow tree looked terrified and looked at Qin Tiange's face carefully.

He thought that these demon monsters were all Qin Tiange's maids, and if they were not treated carefully, they would really be worn with small shoes.

"My son, the little master hasn't woken up yet, I will be here to protect the little master." The old Liu Demon made a direct statement.

The little master in his mouth is actually a little fairy. The little fairy who has not yet woke up is taking root in the land of God and undergoing transformation.

Qin Tiange nodded and explained: "Divine soil is very important. You can cultivate here, but you must not disturb the little fairies."

"Yes, son!"

After the explanation, Qin Tiange turned and emptied directly, and came to the top of the lotus mountain. Here, a huge weird building was built, and the planter in front of him was a fiery red sycamore wood.

Alas ... As Qin Tiange arrived, the Indus wood trembled, feeling a little scared, but soon, a fire phoenix flew out of the room, cheerfully tweeting.

"Yeah, you're back." Fire Phoenix looked at Qin Tiange in surprise, swirling and dancing around him, rolling up flames.

Qin Tiange said with tears of laughter: "Okay, don't turn, I will faint again."

"Oh ..." Fire Phoenix stopped honestly, stood in front of Qin Tiange, lowered his head, and looked a little shy.

Looking at it like this, Qin Tiange was amused in his heart, saying, “You haven’t made much progress. You must intensify your time to cultivate and transform, and strive to awaken the full Phoenix power as soon as possible.

“Yes, I remember.” Huohuang took it seriously.

Later, Qin Tiange looked at the red sycamore tree and was surprised: “This is the sycamore tree you found?”

He didn’t expect that Fire Phoenix really found a sycamore tree that was wise, which is the best choice for the Phoenix to inhabit.

The Indus wood contains some peculiar qi, which allows the Phoenix to draw and obtain transformation and improvement. Perhaps it is the amazing origin of the Indus.

“Yeah, I managed to get it back.” Huohuang said proudly.

The sycamore tree shivered and looked very scared. Fortunately, Qin Tiange comforted him and gave it a little bit of **** spring water to easily get the sycamore tree spirit.

Didi ...

“Master, there is an urgent call for help.”

Just when Qin Tiange was about to say something, a voice of self-confidence from his wrists made his brows deepen.

Call for help? With doubt, Qin Tiange opened the signal from Jiji and connected to the past.

“General, help ...”

When a light curtain emerged, such a weak word came out, which made Qin Tiange falter.

In the picture, a blood-stained golden ape lies in a cave surrounded by a dense crowd of monkeys. This is the Monkey King Sun Wutian.

“What’s going on?” Qin Tiange’s face was condensed looking at the blood monkey Monkey King Sun Wutian.

He didn’t expect that the Monkey King actually sent for help, and from the light curtain, the Monkey King’s injury was extremely serious, and a black poisonous mist was eroding his heart.

The Monkey King gasped hard and issued a plea for help: “General, it’s a long story, but please ask the army to come and save me. I can’t support it for a day.”

It finished speaking, the whole body softened, and then went into a coma, causing a huge disturbance to the monkeys around it.

“I have something, leave for a while.” Qin Tiange said, he will leave, but the Phoenix must follow.

“Bring me all right, I can help you.” Huohuang was anxious.

He thought about it, and finally decided to take the Phoenix to the 100,000 Mountains and see what the Monkey King had encountered. He was seriously injured and dying.

“go!”

Quickly arranged things for the base, Qin Tiange jumped on the back of the Phoenix, turned into a gorgeous fire and disappeared in the base.

Chapter 474 - 5 poisonous dragons

One hundred thousand mountains is covered with ancient and huge primitive ancient forests everywhere. In the lush jungle, it is easy to give birth to some tree demon.

After the end, the forests are the most terrible, not only the mutated poisonous insects and beasts, but also the refined flowers and trees, and even the ancient vines become refined. Once they break in, they will become the nutrients of the tree monster.

call...

There was a ray of fire across the sky, and a closer look revealed that it was a fire phoenix with bright feathers all over the body and burning flames.

Qin Tiange stood on the back of Fire Phoenix, rushed from the base to the 100,000 Mountains, and finally came here. By positioning himself, he determined the location of the Monkey King.

It was a pristine jungle, the peaks were soaring, and a torrent of torrents fell from the cliffs, sending thunderous thunderous sounds.

“Over there!”

Soon after, Qin Tiange saw a few monkeys sending a whistle on a treetop in a valley, and immediately waved when he saw the phoenix.

Fire Phoenix swooped down and landed in the valley, only to see several monkeys wearing armor and holding weapons approaching.

“General, King is almost dead.”

Salute to a monkey, and then sadly uttered the news, the Monkey King was about to die.

Qin Tiangong was confused and scolded: “What panic, your king can’t die, hurry up and take me to see, it is estimated that I can’t really save it later.”

“Yes, the general is coming with the younger soon.” The three monkeys turned around immediately and took Qin Tiange and Fire Phoenix into a huge cave in the valley.

The hiding place here is very good. The cave is crowded with almost 100,000 monkeys, which are all powerful troops brought by the Monkey King.

In the cave, the monkeys were in a hurry, tossing and turning, looking extremely impatient and disturbed. After seeing the arrival of Qin Tiange, the army of 100,000 monkeys was much calmer, looking at Qin Tiange one by one, and saluting Qi.

They hoped that Qin Tiange would save the Monkey King. Under the watchful eyes of the monkeys, Qin Tiange came to the deepest part of the cave and saw the Monkey King lying on a stone.

At this time, the Monkey King was all black, and the golden hair was originally black and black, with a huge tooth mark on the chest, and the dark green toxin was destroying and eroding the Monkey King's body.

“Fortunately, I came in time ...” Qin Tiange looked dignified, relieved to see the Monkey King's injury.

He was fortunate to have arrived in time. If he took another step late, the Monkey King might have fallen into the cave.

Apart from that, Qin Tiange first took out the crescent water and carefully cleaned the hair of the Monkey King and the wounds were clear and clean.

Then he took out the liquid of life, two drops of it, stabilized the monkey's life fluctuations, then took out a bottle of **** spring water, poured a half bottle into the wound, and poured a half bottle into the monkey's mouth.

After a lot of work, it took a lot of spiritual treasures, which brought the Monkey King back to his life, and finally he was done.

call...

After a long time, the Monkey King exhaled softly, and slowly opened his eyes, but the golden light was dim.

It suffered too severe trauma, and it was only after Qin Tiange spent a lot of spiritual treasures that he could recover.

“Thank you, General!” The Monkey King supported his body and moved, except for some weakness, there were no major problems.

Qin Tiange shook his head gently and looked around, and found that three huge black apes were lying on one side, and looked at him with eyes staring, looking very alert.

“Is this what you conquered?” He looked at the three great apes in surprise.

It is a unique and rare species in the 100,000 Great Mountains. The ancient giant ape has a high level of wisdom. With the dark energy transformation after the end, the ancient ape gene was awakened and extremely powerful.

The Monkey King nodded and said, “Yes, general. These are the three ancient apes that I found in the 100,000 Mountain and took a lot of effort to conquer. They are the most powerful warriors in my hand.”

“Seven stars, the power of three thousand people, these three ancient apes have good genes, and they have cultivated a good warrior in the future.” Qin Tiange nodded in appreciation.

Immediately frowning, he looked at the three ancient apes and seemed to have suffered serious injuries. There was even a few perforations on one face door, and bones were deeply visible.

The flesh and fur of one of the arms was gone, as if it had been bitten, and the fur on the stomach of the last ancient ape was more than half open, revealing the intestines inside.

Three ten-meter-tall ancient apes, seven stars, were extremely powerful, and were injured like this, even the more powerful Monkey King was almost killed.

“Take these medicines to three ancient apes, and they will be fully recovered soon.” Qin Tiange took out some base medicine scientific research recovery medicines.

After watching the three ancient apes taking medicine, their injuries gradually recovered, Qin Tiange turned around and looked at the Monkey King seriously.

“Tell me what you have encountered, and you almost died for this.” Qin Tiange asked with a serious expression.

The face of the Monkey King changed slightly, and the eyes were flashing with fierce light. It said, “General, since I led the 100,000 monkey group to traverse the mountains to the 100,000 Mountains, it has started smoothly, but recently I encountered a strong enemy. “

“What strong enemy?” Qin Tiange asked, frowning slightly.

The Monkey King’s face was embarrassing, and he said in a verbal way: “It is my kind. He leads various types of monkeys in the 100,000 Mountains. They are extremely powerful, but because they do not have weapons and equipment, they are not our opponents at all.”

“I was about to defeat it, but at the critical moment, I killed a terrible five poisonous dragons, extremely powerful, and the poisonous gas melted a lot of my sons.” The Monkey King said that he gritted his teeth.

It was wounded this time, and everything was the five poisonous dragons, or the monkey king who dominated the mountains in the same way as it did.

“Another monkey king?” Qin Tiange stumbled, but didn’t care.

At 100,000 mountains, there are many monkeys and many types of monkeys. It is normal for one monkey king to appear, but I did not expect that the monkey king was defeated.

“How many monkeys does that monkey king have? How strong is it?” Qin Tiange couldn’t help asking.

The Monkey King then introduced: “I’m not clear about the specifics. I have fought a few times, and each time I rushed out of the mountains. The army I brought was enough to suppress them. I was defeated by the Monkey King. “

“What about the five poisonous dragons?” Qin Tiange frowned slightly and asked again.

Speaking of the five poisonous dragons, the Monkey King looked even more embarrassed. He scratched his head and said, “In fact, the five poisonous dragons are a terrible creature that I encountered when I first came to the 100,000 Mountains.”

The Monkey King talked a little bit and explained what happened after he came to the 100,000 Mountains. First, he encountered a terrible poisonous dragon that was entangled in the mountains and rivers. He had a dragon head, four snake heads, and five poisonous dragons.

It was all poisonous, especially that of the dragon head. The venom sprayed was the most violent, and even the Monkey King was hit.

“That is to say, you were brought down by a five poisonous dragon?” Qin Tiange looked speechless, looking at the embarrassing Monkey King and said nothing.

He originally thought that the Monkey King had encountered something terrible. He never thought that it would be a monkey king in the 100,000 mountain monkey group, and then five poisonous dragons.

Together, the two directly killed the Monkey King, who was under the consciousness, and almost died. What makes Qin Tiange even more speechless is that you can’t beat a monkey king even if you are equipped with a monkey king?

“A wild monkey king and five poisonous dragons can kill you seriously and dying?” Qin Tiange was not convinced.

The Monkey King, now is an eight-star mutant ape. The genes in the body are getting more ancient and terrible, the power is increased, and there are 5,000 people.

This is its unique talents. As for the common monkey population, its evolutionary talent and ability are actually no different from ordinary people.

The Monkey King’s face changed, and he shook his head and said, “Actually, it wasn’t the wild monkey king that killed me seriously, and it wasn’t five poisonous dragons.”

“What’s that?” Qin Tiange sat down and asked.

I saw the Monkey King falling into the memory, and then said, “At that time, I was fighting fiercely with that Monkey King and five poisonous dragons, and suddenly I was attacked and became seriously injured, not knowing where I broke into.”

“Huh? Is it the land of heaven?” Qin Tiange guessed instantly.

But he didn’t think much, but stood up and said, “It’s useless to say more. Since you don’t know what hurt you, then take me to see.”

“Okay!” The Monkey King was very straightforward. He directly picked up his metal stick and led Qin Tiange out of the cave.

Behind it, the army of 100,000 monkeys was vast and overwhelming. They jumped quickly in the woods and hurried toward the depths of 100,000 mountains.

Uh ...

The monkeys here just appeared, and immediately caught the attention of the five poisonous dragons, and they made a terrible roar in the mountain forest.

“It’s five poisonous dragons!” The Monkey King said unhappily.

As soon as it heard the call, it knew that it was the sound of five poisonous dragons, and when it heard the roar of Long Feilong, it immediately burst into anger.

“Let’s kill the five poisonous dragons first, and tonight I have a meal and a pot of poisonous dragon meat.” Qin Tiange looked at the mountains in the distance and smiled.

As the voice fell, Qin Tiange took the lead in flying, stepping on the back of the phoenix and heading there. The Monkey King rushed quickly behind, stepping on the treetop to keep up, not slow.

Soon, Qin Tiange came to a dark and corrupt forest, where trees were eroded and dead everywhere, and the dark swamp mud was smelling, the poisonous gas was oozing, the radon was transpiration, it was just a Jedi.

Ugh ... hiss!

Suddenly, the swamp exploded, and one after another the terrible snakeheads protruded out of the quagmire, rising high, vomiting a terrible core.

There are four huge snake heads, with a sharp and short horn growing. The thick head of the water tank is full of fangs, scarlet eyes, and fierce light Boom!

There was another loud noise, and the quagmire lifted tens of meters high, and saw a particularly huge head burst out from the quagmire, setting off a festering quagmire slurry.

It was the head of a dragon, like a dragon, with a dragon’s teeth, his eyes hanging like lanterns, revealing the cold, cruel and bloodthirsty fierce light.

“Is this five poisonous dragons?” Qin Tiange crooked his head and sneered.

“Fire Phoenix, fix it!”

The next moment, Qin Tiange gave a command, then stood up, stepped on a rotten tree, and quietly looked at the five terrible poisonous dragons in front of him.

This is a mutant gene-mutated heterogeneous poisonous snake, known as five poisonous dragons. If it can grow nine heads, and even each head becomes a dragon, then it is the true poisonous dragon king.

cry...

The phoenix cried fiercely, swept down with thousands of flames, and flung at the five poisonous dragons.

Chapter 475 - Unknown creature

The flames swept through the blast, and hundreds of meters wide turned into a sea of fire. The decayed trees were burned to ashes, and the mud was thirsty.

Hiss ... oh!

A burst of dragon roar came out, and in the sea of fire, the five poisonous dragons and their five heads danced together, and opened a mouthful of horrible venom. The mist was so foggy that it could extinguish the phoenix.

But unfortunately, the flame of Fire Phoenix is extremely powerful. Even if it is partially eliminated, it still burns, covering five poisonous dragons in the sea of fire.

“Well, eat grandpa grandson!”

Suddenly, as soon as Li Li heard it, a golden figure came out of the air, and a stick slammed on a snake head.

With a bang, the scales shattered, the bones burst, and the entire head was blasted with a stick.

The Monkey King was so angry that he was almost poisoned by the five poisonous dragons. His heart was anger and steaming, and he shot his head.

Alas ... the poisonous dragon roared, four heads roared, and the venom was sprayed together, but was blocked by the phoenix fire, and the gas disappeared after burning.

cry!

A phoenix came from the sky, the phoenix swooped down, rolled the flames, and banged on the body of the five poisonous dragons, holding its head with both claws.

There was a click, and the head was scratched on the spot, and the brain plasma burst out, mixed with blood and scattered around.

Five poisonous dragons were knocked out of two heads at once, suffered heavy injuries, and roared miserably. The biggest dragon bit his mouth first toward the Phoenix.

“Dare you dare to prestige?” The Monkey King was furious, and slammed the metal stick into the air.

With a rumbling sound, the entire quagmire was lifted within a few kilometers of the quagmire, and the billowing air was violent, blowing off the dead wood nearby.

Alas ... The poisonous dragon screamed and wailed, the head of the largest dragon was sagged, the horns were broken, the blood was stained, and the terrible dark green light was shining.

It was poisonous blood, five poisonous dragons, and they were extremely poisonous. Both flesh and blood contained extremely terrible toxins and could not be eaten.

“Let’s eat another grandson!” Li Xiao, the monkey king, smashed with a stick again, and his head exploded.

Five poisonous dragons were killed by both the Monkey King and the Fire Phoenix. Three of the five heads were smashed by the Monkey King and two were crushed by the Fire Phoenix’s paw.

The five powerful poisonous dragons should not be so inferior, but when they met the two monkey kings and the fire phoenix, they were killed in one fell swoop.

“Let’s take me to the place where you were hit hard.”

After solving five poisonous dragons, Qin Tiange Teng landed on the back of Fire Phoenix, and the Monkey King dug out five dark green mutant nuclei and threw them to Qin Tiange.

“This is the crystal nucleus of the poisonous dragon. It contains strong toxicity. I won’t eat it. You take it.” The Monkey King explained.

These vigilance contain terrible toxins. Once swallowed, you must deal with these toxins, otherwise you will be poisoned without digestion.

Qin Tiange nodded and didn't care. He collected the crystal nuclei, and under the leadership of the Monkey King, he soon came to a dark valley.

"That's it?" Qin Tiange looked down at the dark valley below, without a trace of life, and withered trees everywhere, as if burned.

Even more amazing is that a huge pit appeared in the valley, looking like a crater from a meteorite.

Inside the valley, there was a mysterious magnetic field everywhere, which made Qin Tiange feel something strange.

"Go, look inside."

Qin Tiange squinted his eyes and jumped directly into the back of the Phoenix, slowly falling into the valley, followed by the Phoenix and the Monkey King.

After entering the valley, Qin Tiange obviously felt that there was a trace of strange breath left here, as if it was a legacy of some unknown creature.

"General, I was hit hard here." The Monkey King looked dignified.

It was severely damaged here. At that time, it was fighting with another monkey king and five poisonous dragons. However, it was unexpectedly attacked by unknown creatures, causing serious injuries to the toxins of the five poisonous dragons.

Qin Tiange didn't say a word, walked up to the tens of meters in the valley and looked dignified and silent.

"What's that?" Fire Phoenix floated aside, his bright feathers burning with a strong flame, and he looked at some broken things in the large pit in surprise.

The large pit of hundreds of meters is like a crater, with some inexplicable fragments scattered inside, glittering all over the body, like some egg shells.

Huh!

Qin Tiange jumped into the big pit, and soon came to the bottom of the pit. He saw the silver fragments shattered from the ground, and looked really like an eggshell.

In some of the larger egg shells, there was still a trace of silvery mucus, exuding an unknown breath.

"This is some kind of energy liquid ..." Qin Tiange leaned over and touched a little silver liquid to check, and found that this was some kind of energy liquid.

The silver fragments scattered around it are like a huge egg when assembled, and the creatures inside have already come out.

“How did this thing come?” Qin Tiange frowned slightly and looked up at the crater that was more than ten meters deep and tens of meters wide above the big pit.

He guessed that these unknown silver fragments, as well as the unknown creatures inside, should come from outer space and fall here.

The Monkey King descended to the bottom of the pit, his face was dignified, and his pale gold eyes constantly looked at the silver shard egg shells scattered around.

It solemnly said, “General, I didn’t see what was attacking me at that time. I just felt a silver flash, and I was hit hard.”

“Then why does this creature only attack you, not the five poisonous dragons and the other monkey king?” Qin Tiange didn’t understand.

The Monkey King shook his head and said, “It’s not the case. At that time, I was suddenly hit by the attack and killed me. The five poisonous dragons and the Monkey King immediately ran out of sight.”

Qin Tiange understood, but was even more confused, and kept guessing in his heart what the creature of unknown origin was.

Moreover, being able to wreak havoc on the Monkey King has not yet been discovered, which has to be said to have attracted Qin Tiange’s attention.

“This creature is not simple. I’m going to look it up. As for the monkey king, I will give it to you. Phoenix, you leave to subsidize the monkey king. Be sure to collect the spiritual materials in the 100,000 mountains for me. Qin Tiange quickly made arrangements.

He wants to track down this unknown creature. As for Fire Phoenix, he plans to let her help the Monkey King complete the planned plan of the 100,000 Mountains.

The Monkey King nodded: “Understand, rest assured. Without this unknown creature and five poisonous dragons, the Monkey King is not my opponent.”

“Okay, I see.” Although Huohuang was unhappy, she agreed very seriously.

Qin Tiange’s arrangement, she had to obey, and could only honestly follow the Monkey King to help it complete its original plan and goals.

As for Qin Tiange himself, he took some unknown silver energy fluid and quickly traced along the breath of the unknown creature.

He always felt that this creature was not simple. It must have come from heaven, or even some kind of intelligent alien creature, which had to be taken seriously.

...

In front of the gate of the Fanggang Base, a figure came slowly, wearing silver armor and a stature, much taller than the average person.

In addition, the man's flowing silver hair, combined with his handsome face, caused many women to scream, and many men were jealous.

The man's face was very dull, and there was a sense of arrogance in his eyes, as if born a nobleman, attracting the eyes of countless women and men's jealousy.

"Who is this person?"

"very handsome!"

"If only I could be his girlfriend."

In the base, many women faced with peach blossoms, watching the handsome young man with silver hair flowing into the base, one by one.

And most men are jealous, and their eyes can't wait to kill this silver-haired man. You look too impersonal. Is there such a handsome and perfect man?

The unidentified young man walked straight through the crowd and walked expressionlessly into an alleyway, leaving many people in the crowd with a smile.

"Go, looks like a fat sheep, made him."

Someone quietly gestured. Immediately, dozens of burly men entered the crowd and entered the quiet alley.

Soon, the silver-haired young man was surrounded by dozens of burly Han Chinese, holding weapons in his hands, and had no good intentions on his face.

"Hey, boy, the obedient obediently bowed his head and let us search all your things, otherwise ..."

A leading man came up with a smirk, carrying a steel knife, and there was a clear murder in his words, obviously he did not do this kind of thing.

However, before he finished speaking, the whole man was inexplicably mentioned in the air and his neck was pinched tightly.

"Uh ... you ..." The burly man was terrified, and was silently pinched by the silver-haired young man's neck without reaction.

I saw that the silver-haired young man looked cold and crooked his head, and suddenly opened his mouth slowly. The next scene surprised dozens of big men around him.

Click ...

The silver-haired man's mouth grew up, a huge mouth that was half a meter wide, with tooth decay in it, and swallowed the big man's head directly.

"Ah ..." The big man screamed in horror, his body constantly struggling, his hands waving and beating, and soon he lost his voice.

In the end, the silver-haired young man returned to his original appearance, with traces of blood and brain plasma left in the corners of his mouth. Looking at the middle-aged man, the entire head was gone, the blood was gone, and the blood in the body was completely absorbed.

“Monster, he is not a human, a monster.”

Suddenly, dozens of people fry pans, staring at the silver-haired youth in horror, and some people turn and run.

However, as soon as he turned around and ran the first step, he felt that his heart was pierced by something. When he looked down, a silver tongue caught his heart and pulled it out.

“Go to and kill this monster.”

Someone was shouting, waving a steel knife, dozens of people responded, picked up their weapons and slashed them up to kill this man-eating monster who looked extremely terrifying.

He looked like a human, but he was a monster in human skin, and even swallowed a person’s head, sucked blood, and even a silvery tongue wrapped around a human heart and swallowed.

Uh ...

I saw that the silver-haired young man disappeared, and silver awns appeared around him. Then, dozens of people who had been killed came to a halt, his heart and his head disappeared.

“The taste of the human race is still so delicious ...”

The silver-haired young man enjoyed his face, ate the last heart, licked his lips, walked into the deep and narrow alley, leaving only a headless and unconscious body, and a bloodless body.

At the same time, Qin Tiange, who was tracked down from the 100,000 Mountains, came to the base of Fanggang and felt the breath of the unknown creature before entering the base.

Chapter 476 - Silver Star, hunting ceremony?

In the alley, Qin Tiange came here and saw the headless corpse on the ground, his heart was hollowed out, and his blood was already absorbed.

“This unknown creature must have some great similarities to human appearance. Now it is a trouble to integrate into the base.” Qin Tiange squatted down and examined these corpses carefully.

The head and heart were gone. Needless to say, it must have been eaten by the unknown creature.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange was about to stand up, but suddenly he saw a large group of people gathered around, all showing anger.

“Boy, how dare you kill our people?” A leading man looked at the corpse on the ground with anger.

He directly believed that this was done by Qin Tiange. After all, he was a living person here, and preconceived that he did it.

“These people were assassinated by unknown creatures. I’m investigating that unknown creature and let it go. I have no time to bother you.” Qin Tiange stepped forward, speaking calmly.

The big man standing in front felt an oppression, and his instinctual consciousness gave way, and when he came to his senses, Qin Tiange had already gone out.

“Stop, **** things” The big man burst into anger and snapped.

“Noise!” But before the words were heard, a figure flashed, and a loud muffled sound, and then the big man flew upside down, hit dozens of meters before stopping, lying there motionless, and passed out. .

Qi Qintian Goli ignored these people, but walked in along the alley, he always felt the breath of the unknown creature left in the air.

As for the group of people, they didn’t dare to move, and they didn’t dare to catch up. Standing there seemed a little awkward.

The alley was smoky in the alley, and there was stagnant water and **** everywhere. When he came here, Qin Tiange only smelled that stinky odor, and the smell of unknown creatures disappeared.

“Disappeared?” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, standing here carefully sensing, suddenly, a wave of fluctuations came from a nearby neighborhood to cause his alertness.

He jumped into the community in an instant, but saw the corpses all over the ground, one by one lost his head and heart, and even his whole body was drained dry.

Hundreds of human survivors were killed in the same way, and the intensifiers were all dead. The strongest one, Qin Tiange, speculated that it should have a five-star rating.

It’s a pity that this group of people were still killed, even the heart was eaten, the head was stung, and the blood was absorbed.

Humph!

Qin Tiange Lengheng, directly jumped out of the community, and quickly traced up along the residual breath, but every time he felt very close to each other, but he was still one step behind.

追 This chase was two days. Many people died in the base at once, which caused great confusion, attracted the attention of the high-level military in the base, and even caused the vigilance of some experts in the base.

“General Lu, thirty-eight others have died. Thousands have died in the past two days. It will definitely cause great confusion in the future.” A senior general said solemnly.

I was present, all the generals and masters looked dignified, because they could not find the trace of each other, and even the martial law search of the city did not find the murderer.

Don't say them anymore, even at this moment Qin Tiange couldn't help himself, because he had been here for two days and he didn't see each other.

“Those who died were missing their heads and hearts, and the blood disappeared inexplicably. It seems that our base was mixed with unknown creatures.”

年轻 A young major general stood up, looking serious, and ordered: “The army of the base was ordered, the special team prepared, and I searched one by one, we must find out the murderer.”

As the base military dispatched, a team patrolled the streets, searching day and night, and even door to door, every corner was searched carefully.

I watched the whole city enter martial law, but Qin Tiange stopped following the breath of the unknown creature, causing him to know that he was being led away by the other side.

“Just play with me, when I find you, you look good.” Qin Tiange snorted, rising directly into the air, floating on the clouds above the base.

He looked down at the base quietly, sharp eyes, constantly scanning every corner of the base, not letting any suspicious person pass.

When the base military searched from house to house, it finally alarmed the unknown creature hidden in the dark and was discovered by a search team soldier.

“Stop, stop in place, and be checked!”

Twenty-eight elite warriors came forward with their weapons and surrounded a silver-haired youth group. The captain ordered the other party to stop for inspection.

I looked at a group of human elite warriors who lived around him. The corners of the silver-haired young man's mouth were slightly tilted, and his eyes flashed with coldness.

“Dead” The silver-haired young man murmured, then disappeared, and turned into a silver mang through the heart of eighteen soldiers around him.

In just a blink of an eye, the eighteen soldiers fell down with their bodies together, their hearts were gone, but they saw what the silver-haired young man was chewing on, and the corners of his mouth were still overflowing with blood.

Ok?

At a high altitude, Qin Tiange hiding in the clouds moved his face and instantly captured the strange and unknown biological breath.

Almost instantly, Qin Tiange dived down from the sky, broke through the clouds, and finally saw the mysterious young man with silver hair.

He is the culprit of assassination and devouring human beings. He was eating a heart, but he felt the wind pressure and threat from above his head, and his pupils were bright.

“Human races are interesting, they come just right.”

The young silver-haired youth felt the powerful breath of diving down from the sky. Instead of being shocked, he showed an excited smile.

Yes, he was very excited. After feeling the breath that Qin Tiange rushed down, he couldn't help but feel a joy.

“Human races are all inferior, so use the blood of this young human race to celebrate my adulthood.” The silver-haired youth smiled coldly.

He stepped up into the air step by step, speeding up in an instant, and ushered in Qin Tiange who swooped down, his fists waved, and the immense amount of silver mang left.

Boom! The two figures collided swiftly, the void exploded, and the clouds collapsed and disappeared.

Qin Tiange had a collision with the silver object, and the first confrontational trial turned out to be a half-pounding result, which made each of them inexplicably surprised.

“Silver star family, nine stars, more than 10,000 people?” Qin Tiange looked at the silver-haired unknown creature in front of him in surprise, with a handsome appearance and a silver starlight.

生物 This creature comes from extraterrestrial creatures, the Silver Star family, which has appeared many times in previous lives, naturally making Qin Tiange extremely shocked.

“Human race, five-star, power of ten thousand people?” The relaxed expression of the silver-haired youth had disappeared. Instead, there was a hint of surprise and excitement.

He did not expect that even when he met a young human race master, and he was a talented human race master, the five-star rating had the power of 10,000 people.

“Hum, you are here!”

The young silver-haired creature showed a contemptuous smile, looked up and down Qin Tiange, his eyes were strange, as if looking at a dish.

I saw him licking the silvery tongue, and he smiled, “Human, please use your blood to wash and witness my adulthood.”

“Adult ceremony?” Qin Tiange looked cold, remembering a legend from previous lives, there was once a message that the major foreign invading races were actually minors.

At that time, it was reported that these alien races came to hunt and kill humans. As their adult rituals, only when they successfully hunted a sufficient number of strong humans with their own hands can they complete adult baptism and be considered a true adult alien creature. .

“Silver Star, want to hunt us humans as a gift of the year, are you really invincible?”

Qin Tiange hummed softly, stepped up step by step, a quaint halberd emerged in his hand, making a terrible noise buzzing.

“Water your body with me, use your bones to witness my adulthood!”

Yin Yinfu's youth was indifferent, and he flew in an instant, and Yin Mang gathered on his fist and hit Xeon.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange Li Xiao, rising into the air, waving the halberd, wrapped in endless chaotic flames to greet him.

Chapter 477 - Kill you like a dog

Bang!

A loud noise stunned the entire base, and several concrete buildings collapsed on the spot. There was a rumbling sound, and the ground was sunken into a ten-meter pit.

In the smoke and dust, the gravel wrapped in mud splashed through the air and screamed in the nearby crowd.

“what happened?”

“what happened?”

For a time, many survivors in the base were unknown. So, looking at the billowing smoke and dust, the rubble penetrated and fell.

There, it was exactly as if a missile had blown up. The terrible air waves rolled up in the sky, and soared a lot of people close by.

This huge movement immediately alarmed the high-ranking military bases and strong parties from all sides who had already dispatched, and immediately rushed over.

“General, find the target.”

A general looked dignified, and Major General Lu came to report the news. He was the base's highest official, Lu Shaoming.

Lu Shaoming arrived with a group of experts, looking dignified, looking at the two figures in the smoke and dust that were constantly flashing and colliding.

Uh ...

A fierce scourge came, the flames of the sparks were chaotic, the chaos flames roared and roared, and the area was covered by a kilometer.

In the flames, a silver figure was extremely fast, with violent strength, and his fists bombarded him. With the fist wind, he could break a building.

boom!

With a punch, the silver fist wind exploded a building. The horror of the silver star powerhouses greatly changed the faces of those watching the battle nearby, unconsciously backing back and back, the breath was too strong.

“Nine stars, so are you!”

In the smoke and dust, Qin Tiange and Xiao Xiao, the halberd slammed, and a loud noise came out, and saw the silver star powerhouse being beaten.

Tens of thousands of people broke out, even the nine-star Silver Star powerhouse could not be hard-wired. I can imagine how strong Qin Tiange is now.

I saw, Qin Tiange stepped away step by step, looking calm, eyes full of icy killings, soaring into the sky.

“You came out of the wormhole in time and space, and you should have suffered a lot. How much can the nine-star strength play?” Qin Tiange snorted, telling the current situation of the other party.

Yes, this young silver star powerhouse is considered a minor in their family and is a powerful nine-star powerhouse. Once he completes the ceremony, he can be promoted to ten-star power.

This is the power of the extraterrestrial race. The minors are generally five-star or higher, and the young silver star in front of them has a nine-star strength.

Of course, because he came out of the wormhole in time and space and landed on the earth, he was greatly affected, resulting in the inability of the nine-star power to reach its full potential.

“Even if affected and suppressed, I can easily kill you.” The silver star powerhouse is extremely confident and even conceited.

He was covered with silver armor, and suddenly a pair of silver wings emerged from the back. The flapping **** radiated a silver light plume.

“Look for death!” Qin Tiange snorted, the chaos flames boiling on his body, turning into a stream of light rain, and colliding with the sky light feathers.

Boom boom ...

A violent explosion came. Immediately afterwards, the light plume collapsed, the flames burned, and gradually extinguished, and both forces disappeared.

“Who are they?”

Nearby, everyone saw the two men in a fierce battle, all shocked, and they couldn't believe their terrible power.

One man waved with a spear, and chaos flames rolled, as if the rocks had melted. The silver-haired youth wearing silver armor on the opposite side was equally terrible, and a punch would inevitably cause horrible damage.

“That’s a nine-star powerhouse, where did it come from?” Some base master pointed solemnly.

The silver-haired young man turned out to be a nine-star master, and in the base, the strongest was the general Lu Shaoming, an eight-star, with the strength of 3,800 people.

However, Lu Shaoming is really not enough in front of the two powerful men fighting there. A mysterious nine-star powerhouse and one who has only five-star power can fight the nine-star powerhouse endlessly.

“Inferior race, do you have that ability?”

There was a violent drink from afar, and when Yin Mang penetrated, a click, Qin Tiange’s chest armor broke apart, flesh and blood splashed, but quickly recovered to completeness.

Qin Tiange was wounded, but expressionless, even without any fluctuation, as if it was not his body that was injured.

With his eyes brightened, he stared at the arrogant silver-haired youth on the opposite side, the silver star tribe teenager from outside the world, a nine-star, extremely powerful and terrible.

However, Qin Tiange showed a sneer and hummed: “Nine stars, you have even created a nucleus, and you dare to speak wildly. It seems that you are not affected by passing through the wormhole.”

As soon as this word came out, the silver-haired young man on the opposite side shrank his pupils and his heart beat. It was very surprising that Qin Tiange knew this, but he didn’t care.

“Even if it is affected, it is enough to kill your five-star dregs.” The silver-haired youth was confident and waved his fist.

With a bang, Qin Tiange fled away from his body, and a three-story building in the back was collapsed, setting off a billowing smoke.

Qin Tiange rose into the air and yelled, “Whoever kills is not necessarily, I am a five-star, but kill you like a dog.”

“Don’t believe it, you try it!”

As a result, Qin Tiange’s figure soared into the sky and rushed out of the base’s range. This is to lead away this young silver star master, and he does not want to let his hands and feet fight in the base.

That is bound to cause huge damage, and even survivors in many bases will be affected. As a Chinese general, how can it be ignored?

“I’m afraid you can’t do it?” The silver star celebrity yelled and turned into silver light to catch up.

The two rushed out of the base and reached the sea almost at the same time.

Looking at the silver star who was catching up, Qin Tiange sneered and stared at the other side, and his body gradually filled with a powerful and terrible breath.

“Let you see my full strength, Kirin changes!” With a low drink came, Qin Tiange’s body burst into an endless momentum.

With a bang, the sea was rolled up, and the endless wave slammed in the past, which drowned the silver star powerhouse directly.

The waves rolled, but unfortunately they were shattered by a stream of silver awns, scattered into the sky and fell into the sea, restoring peace.

In the sky, the two powerful men confronted each other, and the young silver star powerhouse looked dignified, and suddenly felt that Qin Tiange’s breath became more terrible.

“Increase mystery?” Lengheng of the Silver Star tribe sneered, “You just want to kill me with a myriad increase in mystery, which is just delusion, thinking that you have the secret?”

He believes that Qin Tiange used some kind of mystery to increase the combat effectiveness of human races. In fact, they are similar, but they are not.

There is a limit to mystery, but Qin Tiange’s unicorn has not changed, as if it is an inherent ability, there is no limit at all.

“Xinghai into the body!” Suddenly, the silver-haired young man sang loudly, and a cloud of nebula erupted all over his body, a little bit of starlight, turned into a body of Xinghai.

Suddenly, his breath skyrocketed, and the power of tens of thousands of people rushed upward, full of the strength of 15,000 people.

“kill!”

The two drank violently and pounced on each other at the same time. When the fist collided with the halberd, it burst into a brilliant spark.

Between them, a terrible breath swept out, squeezing the sponges into a large depression, and the sea water was rolled up dozens of meters high.

“Dominate the world!”

In the tsunami, when a violent drink came out, I saw a cloud of inflated shadows, holding a halberd, and the unmatched force split the sea surface ten meters deep, and the three-meter-wide crack maintained a full three breaths before recovering. come.

boom!

The light and shadow dispersed, and saw a silver figure vomiting blood and flying backwards, drawing a gorgeous silver arc, the young silver star master was wounded.

“King of heaven!”

“Silver Star shines!”

Two violent drinks came at almost the same time, and I saw a gray shadow standing on the sea, and a silver star rising up across it, like a silver moon.

The imaginary flame was burning with gray chaotic flames, and a halberd hit the silver stars in an instant. Suddenly, a crash of heaven and earth came and broke apart.

“Ah ...” A scream came, the silver star powerhouse was beaten up, the silver armor on his chest shattered, and an unbelievable sheen appeared on his face.

He didn’t believe that he was injured by the other party, and the five-star young ethnic masters injured him?

“I said, kill you like a dog!”

Qin Tiange’s figure was strong and he came step by step, holding the halberd, suddenly thrown into the air, and took out a purple gold bow.

With a quack, the purple gold god’s bow turned into a full moon, and a gray flame continually gathered and condensed into a sharp arrow.

call out...

A flash of black light flashed, and the youth of the Silver Star family suddenly became alarmed, and their bodies turned into a silver transparent liquid instantly.

I saw a gray arrow light piercing the heart of his body and piercing it directly, but the strange thing was that his body was intact.

“Huh? The body is transparent and blurred?” Qin Tiange froze and then sneered.

He stowed the purple gold bow, the moment the halberd on the sky did not fall, the figure flashed continuously and lost his trace.

After appearing again, he has quietly appeared in front of the silver-haired youth, and pulled out the ancient sword in the shocked eyes of the other party.

Huh!

The ancient sword came out of the sheath, and a horrible sharp edge crossed the void, splitting a vacuum zone, and the sharp edge fell severely on the head of the silver-haired youth.

Ding Ding’s two sounds, silver hair flying, even entangled the ancient sword, but unfortunately it was cut off instantly, and turned into silver hair that kept drifting away.

“Damn!” The youth of the Silver Star clan changed greatly, angered, and the body took the opportunity to retreat.

“You can die!” Just as he stepped back, before seeing Qin Tiange bullying him, Gu Jianyu again scabbed, and a faint sword fell off, with the breath of destroying everything.

“The Emperor’s Wrath!” Qin Tiange muttered to himself, wielding the third form of sword art, the Emperor’s Wrath.

The so-called emperor's anger, blood splattered thousands of miles, the sword light clip wrapped with the power of destruction, as if the anger from an emperor, instantly cut off the body of the young silver star.

Chapter 478 - 9 star true strength

He fluttered, Jian Mang fell, but did not imagine the silver-haired youth cut in half, but split on a ghost.

"Huh?" Qin Tiange murmured in his heart, just now a sword is already his current limit, both in speed and strength have reached a peak.

But such a mighty sword was actually hidden by the opponent, even he did not find the other to avoid it.

"It almost hurt me and I have to say that you are the most powerful tribe I have encountered here."

There was a word from the void above his head, a touch of contempt revealed in the faint words, and he looked up and found that the silver-haired young man crossed his hands and floated there.

There was an ominous hunch in Qin Tiange's heart. Sure enough, the silver-haired young man laughed and said, "Do you really think that with the five-star power, you can kill me?"

"I will tell you with the facts that after nine stars, strength cannot be measured by strength."

The words faded, the silver-haired youth gradually faded, and eventually disappeared. Before Qin Tiange reacted, he felt bombarded by a force behind him.

With a bang, his back was broken, his body was hit high, and Qin Tiange vomited blood, frightened.

The silver-haired young man appeared in front of Qin Tiange, scorned: "See? This is the real power of the nine-star. In front of me, you are a slightly bigger ant."

Immediately after the words were spoken, another muffled sound came. Qin Tiange only felt a hot pain in his chest, and then the force of terror poured into his body, knocking him down from high altitude.

With a bang, Qin Tiange smashed into the sea, setting off a billowing wave of blood, melting in the sea water.

Soon, the sea water broke open, Qin Tiange rushed out, and a palm print was sunken in his chest. Several ribs were broken, and blood was flowing from the corners of his mouth.

"This is the true power of Jiuxing?" Qin Tiange muttered to himself, his heart was extremely dignified.

He had never reached a nine-star level in his previous life, just an eight-star level, and never even knew the power of a nine-star level.

The only thing I know is that when I met a nine-star monster, the previous life was the tragic death on the nine-star wild animal.

Now, when encountering this nine-star alien race, Qin Tiange originally thought that he could fight against each other and even beheaded.

It's a pity that he was wrong. It was very wrong. At first it seemed that the other party couldn't lift his head. In fact, he hadn't really applied the real power of nine stars.

Nine stars, the strength of the body has condensed into a star core, the strength has been transformed, and the body is extraordinary.

boom!

After a flash of light and shadow, Qin Tiange had only had time to raise the halberd, and was bombarded by a huge force, and the force of the force poured into the body, destroying the internal organs.

Qin Tiange vomited blood and flew backwards. As a result, before he stopped, he felt a strong back bombarded the spine with a click, and the spine was interrupted on the spot.

The ice muscle jade bone, the powerful body, seemed so fragile at this moment, shattering the ego of Qin Tiange's heart.

Moreover, the silver-haired youth hit one blow after another, and the speed could not be captured at all. Qin Tiange could not see each other and was beaten repeatedly.

"Don't you say that killing me is like killing a dog?" The silver-haired young man quietly appeared in front of him, looking at Qin Tiange, who was vomiting blood, showing a hint of taunt.

boom!

Another punch in Qin Tiange's cheek was too fast and almost invisible. He broke his cheek on the spot, flesh and blood, extremely miserable.

Qin Tiange looked calm and went straight into the state of having no time to freeze his heart. The whole person became extremely calm and even indifferent, even ignoring his repeated wounds.

His body was severely wounded, and he recovered completely under the self-recovery of the undead in a blink of an eye. Time and time again, he could not capture how the silver-haired youth attacked him.

"Nine-star, already has a little ability to get involved in space, no wonder I was beaten at all without a fight."

Finally, once again being blasted into the sea, Qin Tiange spit blood, his chest exploded, revealing the beating heart.

This blow allowed him to capture the mysterious wave of the opponent's body, and the surrounding area turned into a vacuum, without any hindrance of power, faster and amazing.

This is the power of nine stars, and in Qin Tiange's induction, his body slowed down somehow, because he felt the gravity became greater and became extremely scary.

Gravity increased, and his body's response and speed became slower. He hadn't noticed at first, but thought about it in surprise.

"It is the power of the nucleus." The next moment, Qin Tiange understood.

That's the power of the star core. Like the planet, it has gravity and gravity. This kind of force field comes from the condensed star core in the silver-haired youth.

In the face of this very positive power of nine stars, Qin Tiange was beaten with no fighting power at all, the power of 20,000 was suppressed, and the speed was suppressed to the extreme, which was completely abused.

“Guardian of the earth!”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange gave a low drink, Kirin's auspicious power poured out, and an orange-yellow power enveloped the body, forming a guardian.

However, the silver-haired youth disdain: “Small soil element power, you think that by virtue of this can stop me, it is simply a lunatic dream.”

“Dead!”

As soon as the words fell, Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, only to feel that the power of Kirin's earth collapsed, and then his chest was strongly bombarded by Pran, so he captured the figure of the silver-haired young man and looked at him scornfully.

“I'm behind you ...” Suddenly, a taunting laugh came from behind, Qin Tiange's heart was cold, his back was hit with a punch, his flesh collapsed, his bones were broken one by one, and the whole person was beaten Out.

He vomited blood and flew out, but before he stopped, he saw a figure standing in front of him, his hair flying and his eyes full of contempt.

boom!

With a stinging kick, Qin Tiange flew out like a sandbag, marking a scar of blood, a little blood spilling into the void, extremely miserable.

His body was broken, his bones were almost broken, his chest and back were almost smashed, his heart was clearly visible, his cheeks were broken, and his frontal bone was cracked.

Fortunately, he had an immortal body, and soon recovered. He was repeatedly wounded and restored, and finally caught the attention of the silver-haired young man.

“Well, you can still recover, this is definitely not a secret method.” The silver-haired young man looked horrified, and looked at Qin Tiange who had recovered again.

His face changed, his eyes flickered, and he suddenly exclaimed: “It turns out that you have an immortal body, and no wonder you can recover after being wounded again and again.”

“Undead body, alas, it must taste delicious ...” said the silver-haired young man, licking the silver tongue, his eyes brightened.

He originally thought that he would kill Qin Tiange, and then use his head and heart as tribute to adulthood to dedicate to the ancestors of the clan to be promoted to adulthood.

But now he changed his mind, because Qin Tiange was immortal, which made him very excited. As long as he ate this guy, he would definitely get his immortality.

“Come, let me eat your hands and feet first.” The silver-haired young man licked his lips, revealing silvery white teeth.

He hesitantly sneered, the figure gradually faded and disappeared, and the radiation of continuous vacuum fluctuation spread, making Qin Tiange feel the unprecedented pressure on his body.

That is from the nucleus condensed after the nine-star star, like the earth’s center of the planet, exuding a strong attraction, releasing a huge vacuum magnetic field, directly suppressing Qin Tiange.

“The Phoenix changes!”

There was a sudden scream of thunder, and when the flames of chaos rose, the flames burned, Qin Tiange went directly to the Phoenix Transformation, and was so overwhelmed that he had to burst out.

Suddenly, Chaos Flame swept and rolled, turning into a sea of fire to completely cover Qin Tiange. However, something unexpected happened and the flames of Chaos went out inexplicably.

Ok? Qin Tiange froze, and before he figured out how the flames of Chaos went out on his own, he felt a cold mang coming from behind and his hairs standing upright.

Listening only to the “click”, the left arm was instantly cut off by a vacuum blade, and the blood spurted out, but quickly recovered.

“Hey hey, really immortal, contains extremely strong immortal power, delicious, it is simply delicious.”

A gloomy smile came, Qin Tiange Han turned his face and saw the silver-haired youth holding his left arm to eat there, yes, it was swallowing live.

In front of him, eating his left hand, this kind of thing has never been encountered before, so that Qin Tiange, who had no time in the heart of ice, couldn’t help but feel a little angry.

However, in the state of mind with no time for Bingxin, his thoughts were quickly frozen, but Qin Tiange was expressionless, watching his left arm cut, and the incision was extremely smooth. Fortunately, the tattooed secret on his arm was not cut. Flesh and blood were autonomously derived, and a brand new arm grew.

“It’s so delicious, kid. I didn’t expect that the immortal power in your body is so strong. If you eat it all, you will get this immortal power.” The silver-haired young man held Qin Tiange’s arm while hehe Sneer.

“Is it delicious?” Qin Tiange asked indifferently, his left eye flashed with an amazing silver awn, staggered with silver foxes, bursting out gorgeous silver awns.

Ok? The silver-haired young man who was eating Qin Tiange’s arm was stunned, and suddenly felt an unpredictable hunch, instinctively receding and dodging.

For a moment, the original position was swept by a strange silver light, and in an instant, everything around them became extremely slow.

“Be my face and eat my flesh, you are the first.”

A murky word came, Qin Tiange didn't know when he appeared behind the silver-haired youth, and Gu Jian crossed the other's head with a bright silver light.

With a click, the blood sprayed, but he avoided it. It was not his head flying, but a silver arm that soared and was caught by Qin Tiange.

“Damn, what kind of power is

The silver-haired young man was pale, his right arm was cut off, and Qin Tiange's left arm, which had just been eaten, was taken back by the other party.

What surprised him was that the inexplicable power just now made him unable to move, it was incredible.

“The power to kill you ...” Qin Tiange's pupils were silver and white, indifferent, and the broken left arm automatically melted into a **** energy and merged into the new left arm.

As for the silver-haired young man's right arm, he was burned to ashes with chaotic flames. The other side had no immortality, lost a right arm, and could not recover at all.

Unless he became a ten-star or had a medicine for restoring his limbs, sure enough, the silver-haired youth did not care, took out a silver potion, swallowed it directly, and the broken arm quickly grew back.

“Very well, this is more interesting ...” The silver-haired youth sneered, his voice just disappeared, and his body disappeared.

Around, a mysterious vacuum magnetic field was laid and shrouded, turning a square kilometer into a vacuum zone.

Chapter 479 - Battered, Undead Xiaoqiang

Huh!

A silver mang passed, the silver-haired young man slashed with a palm knife, a click, blood flew, and a fragment of bone burst out.

Qin Tiange was wounded, his chest was broken, his bones were broken with one palm, his heart was beating, and it was clearly visible.

“Under the eight stars, there are cricket ants.” The silver star strong silver hair flying, extremely confident, step by step empty, lost track of a moment.

Suddenly, he appeared behind Qin Tiange, punched in the back of his heart, and with a bang, his heart was almost beaten out.

puff!

Qin Tiange spurted blood and flew back, but he saw the silver-haired youth appearing in front of him again, with such a sneer of sneer, and slashing his sword in the door.

With a bang, flesh and blood flew, the frontal bone cracked out, exposing the brain inside, and clearly seeing the blood vessels.

“How does it feel to be abused?” The silver-haired young man sneered, catching up.

Qin Tiange was mistreated. Even after entering the Phoenix Transformation, he was still not an opponent. Instead, he was suppressed by the mysterious magnetic field emanating from the other person, and his body collapsed and cracked again and again.

Fortunately, he has an undead body, was beaten down again and again, but restored to ancient times again and again, becoming more and more powerful.

This is the self-evolution of the immortal.

“Can it recover?” The silver-haired youth was surprised, looking at Qin Tiange who replied again, a smile of excitement appeared on his face.

His figure disappeared and appeared on Qin Tiange’s back. His palm-shaped sword was wrapped around Yin Mang’s shoulder and he clicked. The terrorist force cut off Qin Tiange’s shoulder and his entire arm almost flew out.

The blood blew up, Qin Tiange was in a miserable condition, and he could not react at all. Even when he was doing a good counterattack, the silver-haired youth appeared again behind him and hit him hard.

boom! Bang bang bang ...

Above the sea, a figure was beaten flying again and again, but was hit back again, the blood dripped continuously in the air, broken bones penetrated the air, and blasted away.

Inside Qin Tiange’s body, the five internal organs and six internal organs ruptured again and again, flesh and blood mixed with visceral fragments ejected, and the bones were broken again and again.

He was like a sandstorm. After being blown out, he was beaten back again, so he was repeatedly tortured by silver-haired youth.

“Is it dead?” The silver-haired young man drank swiftly, split his palm knife, and brought a touch of flesh and blood, and broken bones flew out.

Qin Tiange vomited blood, but his face was extremely calm. He didn’t put his wounds in his eyes at all. The only thing he could see was the eyes that were calm and outrageous.

“Not dead yet?” Seeing Qin Tiange recovering again, the silver-haired young man looked dull.

How he felt, no matter how much damage Qin Tiange suffered, he could recover in the next second, as if he could not be killed at all.

Thinking of this, the silver-haired young man sneered, “When do you think you can recover?”

“kill!”

Finally, the silver-haired young man broke out, and the whole person turned into a shadow, as if every one was real.

boom!

A figure waved his fist, wrapped in Yinmang and hit Qin Tiange's vest. Then, a figure in front split a palm and cut off a flesh and bone.

On the left, another figure broke Qin Tiange's ribs at the same time, his chest was sunken, and his lungs exploded.

Bang bang bang bang ...

Qin Tiange's body hung above the sky, and he was constantly hit by silver figures, dozens of hits per second, hundreds of hits, and the entire body was broken.

His hands were broken, his feet were broken, his chest was completely exploded, his spine was interrupted, his head was continuously split into dozens of palms, and the whole cracked.

Dozens of figures played for ten minutes, and finally, Qin Tiange's body completely broke into pieces, and the immortal body could not be recovered.

"Come to death!" With a shout, dozens of figures quickly merged and turned into one person. It was the silver-haired youth.

His right arm bloomed with bright silver awns, and he turned it into a sky knife and split it into two halves from top to bottom.

Just hearing a click, Qin Tiange's body split into two halves. When the body cracked, a purple gas flowed from the heart position, instantly attracting the flesh and blood fragments that broke around.

With a few clicks, Qin Tiange's broken body was restored, as if he had not been hurt at all just now.

"Not dead yet?" The silver-haired young man looked shocked, staring at Qin Tiange who was recovering in front of him, a little stunned.

Immortal, is it so terrible? In fact, he didn't know that the undead had such a horrible effect, but there was no reason for it.

To say that, in fact, Qin Tiange not only has the ability of immortal body, but don't forget the nine undead blood that he once drank. This thing enhances the ability of immortal body.

After Qin Tiange recovered, he gently exhaled, and a calm smile appeared on his face.

"Thank you very much for helping me break the shackles of the immortal body. From then on, my immortal body will grow infinitely." Qin Tiange said this lightly.

The original puppet of the immortal body was broken, and it was broken by the powerful strength of this silver-haired young man.

He had already felt a kind of shackles and restrictions of the immortal body before the fight, and when his body was broken again and again, he suddenly found that the shackles were actually loose.

With a move in mind, Qin Tiange directly decided to use the hand of the silver-haired young man to break the shackles of his immortal body, break through obstacles, and achieve higher achievements.

Now it's finally done. The silver-haired youth helped him break the shackles of the immortal body. In the future, his immortal body will grow indefinitely and there will be no limit.

This is equivalent to the immortal being completely integrated into the genetic level of his body, and turned into a power of genetic instinct, rather than the ability obtained by taking immortal medicine.

The difference is huge. The immortal ability obtained by taking immortal medicine is limited and will disappear.

However, the immortal ability integrated into the genetic level is equal to his innate ability. There is no limit at all, and there is no danger of disappearance.

"It's impossible. Although there are not many undead races among the hundreds of stars, I have seen a lot, and even killed a few." The silver-haired youth looked somber and felt that he had been used.

In fact, to put it plainly, he wanted to eat Qin Tiange, and the other party used him to break the physical restrictions, completely integrate the immortal body into the gene, and turn it into his own genetic talent.

This is metamorphosis. There is great terror between life and death, but it also has great opportunities. Qin Tiange seized this opportunity and sought to make a breakthrough in the crisis.

Although the process was dangerous, an accident could be killed by life and death and become food that caused youth, but he clenched his teeth and persisted.

"I don't believe in killing you."

With a yell of anger, accompanied by the mighty silver mang, the surrounding magnetic field oscillated, directly suppressing Qin Tiange, as if it were suppressed by a vacuum.

I saw a flash of light, and the silver-haired youth split into a palm, right in the head of Qin Tiange.

Huh!

There was a clash of gold and iron, and a little spark came out from above the palm knife. Qin Tiange's head was cracked, but he recovered almost instantly.

If you do n't take a closer look, you might think that you have n't hurt at all. In fact, it 's the same as if you were n't hurt.

"Silver star shines and suppresses the starry sky!"

Suddenly, with a yell, a huge silver star rose slowly with a silvery sky, emitting a bright silver starlight.

It was a silver star, rumblingly crushed down, pressed down from Qin Tiange's head, and pressed him into the sea.

boom!

The tsunami shook the sky, huge stars pressed into the sea, and directly hit a pothole several hundred meters wide. The seawater around it was broken.

Qin Tiange stared at the huge stars with his hands, his face flushed, his muscles trembling, and he was cut and intertwined by the silver stars.

On the surface of the body, cracks were cut out, and the blood did not flow out, and the wound healed autonomously, but it was still cut by countless sharp silver sharp edges.

Moreover, the huge silver star above his head was too heavy, and his body almost collapsed. Fortunately, the immortal body had just made a breakthrough and insisted on it.

With a bang, the sea bottom was knocked out of a 100-meter pit, and endless seawater poured in, burying Qin Tiange on the spot.

In the sea water, many mutant biological fishes were shaken into flesh on the spot, and the terrible silver stars gradually extinguished and eventually disappeared.

“Did you die?” The silver-haired young man hesitated, staring at the broken sea, and a figure slowly rose up in the pit.

Qin Tiange’s body armor was completely broken. If he didn’t intentionally protect his lower body, the shorts could not be kept.

He looked a little bit embarrassed, but he didn’t seem to have any scars. He was immortal, and his recovery was terrible.

“kill!”

With a loud scream, along with Qin Tiange’s counterattack, the power of the limit broke out, but unfortunately he could not hit the silver-haired youth at all.

Instead, he was suppressed by the other party, and another pass was fiercely violent, which caused his body to crack and the blood burst out, but much better than before.

“Nine stars, really I can’t shake it now.” Qin Tiange was hurt again and again, and his heart sighed.

Recently, along the way, he feels that he has gone too smoothly, even to the point that he is a little flustered.

He felt that he couldn’t go on like this, and was always alert himself, admonishing himself not to be careless, and not to be complacent, but finally, he encountered a stubble.

After a savage meal, he was so violent that he had no power to fight back. The nine-star rating can no longer be described and measured by his strength.

He had never set foot on a nine-star level in the previous life, so he did not understand how powerful a nine-star level was and what its secrets were.

Now he finally understands why he did not hear that in the previous life, eight-star powerhouses could challenge nine-star powerhouses, but were crushed. This is the gap, the gap in strength.

Nine stars, star cores in the body, with incredible power, not comparable to people below eight stars.

boom!

Dozens of violent blows flew Qin Tiange out again, and this time, the silver-haired young man had a trace of exhaustion and wheezing as if exhausted.

Yes, he was exhausted, but Qin Tiange was still alive and jumping, watching nothing at all.

“Damn, the origin of the star core was too great, otherwise he would have been crushed into ashes. This is the consequence of passing through the wormhole of time and space earlier.” The silver-haired young man looked gloomy and looked at Qin Tiange, who could not die, and was depressed. Don’t mention it.

If he was in the heyday at this moment, he would definitely be able to smash Qin Tiange into scum, but now he can’t. His star core has been damaged and he has not recovered at all.

“You can’t kill me, but I can take you down.”

Qin Tiange looked calm and calm, and stepped forward step by step, put away the halberds, and waved a pair of fists to kill him.

“Human kid, you’re looking for death.” The silver-haired young man was extremely angry but turned around and lost his trace, leaving only a voice of resentment: “Hum, wait for me to recover the origin of the wound, then Cut you. “

After seeing the other person disappear, after a while, Qin Tiange was suddenly relieved, his face turned pale, his body fell from a high altitude, and plunged into the sea water.

In fact, he was just the end of the strong bow just now. The immortal body broke through, but now there is a limit to bear. If he fights again, he is estimated to be really killed by the other party.

Fortunately, the silver-haired young man was exhausted because of the damage to the source, so he gave up killing Qin Tiange and planned to return to the source and kill him.

After a slaughter and being abused many times, Qin Tiange finally retrieved a life, smiled secretly in his heart, after all he despised the world.

After experiencing this battle, Qin Tiange has deeply realized that in his previous life he was just a small person. There are many secrets that can not be touched and involved at all, cannot be careless, and can not be proud and complacent, otherwise he will not know how to die.

Qin Tiange’s growth has been so smooth that he has few enemies. After being tortured this time, it made him realize that there are people outside of heaven and people, which is probably a good thing.

Chapter 480 - Overweight water, breaking the limit of potential

The ocean is mysterious and unpredictable. In the deep sea, an undercurrent rushes, and a figure rushes into the deep sea.

It was a man who had fallen into a coma and was dragged into the deep sea by the undercurrent.

On the dark sea floor, various behemoths are passing by, huge mutant sharks, terrible killer whales, and even various ancient and terrible unknown creatures.

Since the battle with the Silver Stars, Qin Tiange has been brutally tortured. Although he broke the undead body's puppet with the help of the opponent's hand, due to extreme exhaustion, he planted it into the sea and was entangled in the undercurrent. Deep sea area.

Qin Tiange lay quietly in the undercurrent, and as he entered the deep sea, the pressure became more and more intense, and even a rattling sound came out of his body, as if to be crushed.

Under this powerful oppression, Qin Tiange, who was exhausted and unconscious, woke up and saw that he was in the deep sea, and was shocked.

“Oops, I was drawn into the deep-sea area by the undercurrent.” Qin Tiange woke up with this in mind, secretly.

The deep sea is mysterious and terrible, hiding all kinds of terrible mutant creatures. Fortunately, he was surrounded by undercurrents during his coma, and no mutant creatures attacked him.

If it was swallowed by some mutant marine life, it would be really funny. Fortunately, at the same time, he felt a little bad.

“Well, such a strong pressure, I can't move?” Qin Tiange suddenly changed his face, feeling terrible pressure, could not move.

He was secretly surprised that with the power of five stars now, he couldn't be moved, it was incredible.

What is even more incredible is that the water around it is not ordinary water, it is extremely heavy, and the bodies of various creatures are everywhere on the sea floor.

“Not good, this is overweight water ...” Qin Tiange trembled in his heart and said secretly.

He instantly realized that the sea water in this area was different, not ordinary water, but a kind of super heavy water with little interest.

In the deep ocean hidden by this kind of water, it is difficult to be found, and it is very small, extremely heavy, and surprisingly dense.

All living things can't survive in the heavy water environment. Qin Tiange is immortal, wrapped in super heavy water and unable to move at all.

He felt like a sea was pressing on his body, and the heavy pressure put his body under tremendous pressure, and a few cracks began to appear.

Fortunately, the undead body recovers itself, and gradually repairs itself and grows in this super heavy water environment.

Feeling that he was not in danger for the time being, Qin Tiange carefully looked at this deep-sea superheavy water area, and the bones of various marine life were scattered under the sea.

There is even a giant shark that is eighteen meters long, but it is dead. The dead body is lying quietly on the bottom of the sea, unable to float up, but was crushed to death by overweight water.

Soon, the shark corpse burst, flesh and blood flew, and finally the skeleton was crushed. Gradually, those skeletons were also crushed into debris powder.

hiss!

Seeing this, Qin Tiange couldn't help taking a sip of air-conditioning, holding his breath, and not letting himself inhale the super heavy water around him.

This water is extremely horrible. Once inhaled, it will inevitably cause terrible damage, and the internal organs will not be able to carry these overweight water.

Depressed, he didn't expect to be planted into the ocean, but was carried into the area of overweight water by an undercurrent, and was suppressed by Dong Dan.

Soon, as the undercurrent disappeared, the overweight water area fell into silence, and the water remained motionless because it was too heavy.

There are no living things here, only the scattered bones and corpses scattered on the bottom of the sea were killed by all kinds of marine fish invading by mistake. It is simply a restricted area for marine life.

Click ...

Suddenly, Qin Tiange's body heard a crisp sound, and it shattered like glass. The blood was flowing back before the blood flowed out, and the wound healed.

But soon, the body appeared cracks again and again, more and more, repeatedly cracked by the overweight water, and recovered again and again.

Watching his body pressed like this, Qin Tiange was anxious and quickly thought about how to escape from this dead zone in the deep sea.

“Tianxun, can you isolate the surrounding pressure with a secret place?”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange suddenly wondered whether he could temporarily isolate the surrounding heavy water with the power of a secret place?

Sure enough, as the tattoo on the left arm glowed, a secret force emerged, enveloping Qin Tiange's body, and the pressure of terror reduced to the lowest value, but it had not completely disappeared.

Grunt grunt ...

The pressure was reduced. Qin Tiange took out a bottle of Shenquan water and drank the whole thing without saying a word, and then all kinds of dark injuries and consumption in the body gradually came back.

At this time, Tianxun's anxious words came: “My son, the pressure is too great, after all, the secret realm has not really changed, and we can't bear it.”

Hearing this, Qin Tiange sighed, then gave up his intention to use the power of the hidden realm to isolate the overweight water, and directly dissipated the power of the hidden realm wrapped around him.

boom!

The power of the mystery disappeared, and the body was immediately subjected to the horrible blow of the overweight water, and it was oppressed instantly, causing great harm.

Qin Tiange gritted his teeth and endured great pain. The rattling sound of his body made him frightened.

Caught in a deep-sea death zone and trapped in an overweight water space, Qin Tiange was not in a hurry, but calmly thought about the way out of the trap.

“This overweight Jedi is a training place. If I can move freely in this environment, then ...” Qin Tiange suddenly thought of this problem.

He remembered his fierce battle with the silver-haired youth. The whole process was suppressed by the other party, regardless of strength or speed.

That is the power of the nucleus, a kind of force field, just like the force field of the planet can suppress the opponent. But look at the super heavy water space around him, and even he can't move, the gap is huge.

If we can adapt to the terrible pressure and influence of the overweight water space, then what else can suppress him?

boom...

As soon as he thought about it, Qin Tiange laboriously raised his arm, and the whole person was pressed down on the bottom of the sea, gradually exerting force on his back, as if he was carrying a mountain of ten million tons.

Being in the area of overweight water, I couldn't breathe at all, I could only switch to inner breathing, hold my breath, and stubbornly insisted on breathing with my immortal body.

At the beginning, Qin Tiange's body was crushed and even collapsed at any time, but as time passed, the undead body recovered after being injured again and again, and became more powerful.

Not only is the ability of the immortal to transform itself, but the defense of the physical instinct has also been greatly improved.

In the end, Qin Tiange's body was no longer cracked and injured, but the pressure was still huge and unmatched, and he couldn't move at all.

However, he was not discouraged, but was even more surprised, because he felt that the body's genetic level was evolving and changing itself when the body was oppressed again and again.

Under pressure, all aspects of the body are undergoing metamorphosis, whether it is flesh or bone, or even deeper genes are undergoing rapid metamorphosis.

“Get up!”

At a certain moment, Qin Tiange roared in his heart, and his strength swelled into the body. He just stood up slowly under tremendous pressure.

He finally managed to get up on the bottom of the sea, under terrible pressure, and the corners of his mouth kept bleeding, which was the result of terrible oppression and injuries to his internal organs.

After the injury, Qin Tiange used the power of the mystery to isolate the surrounding pressure at once, then quickly drank the spring of the spring, revoked the power of the mystery, and continued to bear the pressure of terror.

After repeating this cycle, Qin Tiange's physical body gradually became stronger and stronger after being injured and recovered.

The physical body is becoming stronger, the genes are being transformed, and even the level of life is under the threat of death again and again.

Yes, the limit of life is being broken. Qin Tiange was pleasantly surprised to find that under the pressure of the overweight water space, his body became stronger and his immortal body became stronger, which actually led to the improvement of his own level of life.

Gradually, Qin Tiange realized that his body seemed to be different, it seemed to be able to accommodate more power of limits, the potential of life was increasing, and the barriers of limits were being cut through a little bit.

“Break the limit of life, become stronger ...” Finally, Qin Tiange made up his mind to break the limit of his own life with the strange effect here.

He needs more power, enough to destroy the power that crushes all enemies.

Since being tortured by the young masters of the Yinxing clan, Qin Tiange's desire for strength has become stronger and stronger, and he even wondered if he could directly take drugs to break through the stars and reach the nine-star level?

But in the end, he gave up this seductive idea by gritting his teeth. In the early days, he was very powerful, but the accumulation of the foundation was insufficient, and the foundation was not strong. In the future, it will be difficult to continue to be promoted.

Qin Tiange looked firm and secretly said, “I can't beat the nine-star rating. That's because I'm not strong enough, and the power of 10,000 people is not enough. Then I'll raise it to 100,000 people. I do n't believe he can withstand that power. Bombardment. “

As the so-called one-strength breaking method, as long as the power is large enough, nothing can be beaten, even if the nine-star star has been transformed and the star core has been condensed, but as long as the power is sufficient, it can also blow the opponent.

With this idea Qin Tiange is full of motivation, so he is placed in the dead zone of overweight water, and he has been hardened to improve his life potential.

In this process, Qin Tiange's power limit was broken again and again, like a bottle's accommodation space, which was being expanded again and again.

With increasing strength, he began to climb slowly. With the restoration of the Shenquan, the self-healing evolution of the immortal body, and the breaking of the limit of life potential, Qin Tiange became more confident.

The power of 10,000 people has been broken. With the tremendous pressure and death threat, the self-growth and evolution of life potential is accelerating.

“I want to push the limits of my life, I need more power ...”

Qin Tiange snarled in the super-heavy water space area of the sea floor, stepping forward step by step, as if pressing ten million tons of mountains.

At each step, the thighs and even the calf muscles and blood vessels burst apart, and the blood and water stained the surrounding overweight water, but recovered under the repair of the undead body.

He is cultivating and sharpening, using the death threat environment here to break the limit of his own life potential.
