

Dark Ages 481

Chapter 481 - Breakthrough breakthrough, ancient seabed breakthrough! breakthrough! breakthrough!

Under the pressure of super heavy water, Qin Tiange's body was trembling, blood vessels were cracked, the skin was fleshed, and the bones were cracked.

However, under this threat of death, Qin Tiange's physical body is rapidly evolving, the genes are transmuting, and the immortal body is becoming more and more tyrannical.

Gradually, the potential of life in the body became more and more vigorous, like a volcano that had accumulated for millions of years, erupting.

Bang ...

A shock came, and the overweight water around was shocked and rippled, then it was broken, and the pressure was relieved a lot.

Qin Tiange felt a sudden lightness all over his body, the pressure seemed not so great, and he felt that the compression force of overweight water was rapidly decreasing.

In fact, it is not that the pressure of overweight water is reduced, but that his physical endurance limit is increasing, and the gene has been strengthened after the transmutation, and it can withstand greater pressure.

Life is throbbing, potential is exploding, the limits are broken again and again, and finally, it turns into a torrent of torrents, which is out of control.

“Break me!”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange roared, and the sound wave oscillated between the overweight water on the bottom of the sea, and the rumbling shoved the overweight water around him.

Finally, at this moment, Qin Tiange's gene has completed metamorphosis, the immortal body is more strengthened, the physical body is more perfect, and the power is more and more terrifying.

The limit of the power of ten thousand people has already been broken. Now, Qin Tiange's physical body contains a surge of mighty power.

This power is more concentrated, as if to become a substance, locked in the body, hidden in gene cells, waiting for the moment of the outbreak.

Not only that, under the pressure of super heavy water, Qin Tiange completed the breakthrough of the limit of life potential, but also completed the promotion of the power of the limit. After reaching a peak, he finally couldn't continue to improve.

There was a crisp sound, something broken in itself, it was a level barrier, and the five-star barrier broke naturally.

Suddenly, a more violent breath swept out, and the nebula swarmed out of the body, enveloping Qin Tiange as a whole, which seemed extremely mysterious.

“The limit of life has been broken. Since then, what else can stop my footsteps?”
Qin Tiange waved his arms, shaking the heavy water around him.

His face was dull, his heart was extremely peaceful, and he broke the limit of life potential, but he was unable to give birth to even a wave of waves, and he has achieved a state of peace.

Since being tortured by the nine-star powerhouse of the Silver Star family, Qin Tiange’s mind has become different, as stable as Taishan, as light as a flat mirror.

He went very smoothly along the way, without encountering a decent master, he just felt a smooth panic. This time, he was beaten, and he completely got rid of that panic.

Today, Qin Tiange has broken the limit of life potential, even broken the limit of strength in the body, and even completed the level breakthrough directly in the dead zone of overweight water.

In other words, he is now a six-star powerhouse, with a horrible strength and unmatched fighting power. Qin Tiange believes that he will not have the same resistance as before. .

Kaka ...

Outside the body, a cloud of nebula permeates, blocking the oppression of overweight water, allowing Qin Tiange to swim freely on the ocean floor.

The six-star power has far exceeded the power of 10,000 people, reaching a very scary level. From the five-star break the potential of life, the power of 10,000 people began to skyrocket. When it reached a limit, it finally broke through naturally. Six stars.

“The power of 50,000 people can break the mountain, and the palm can divide the sea ...”

Qin Tiange looked indifferent, suddenly waved a palm, and boomed, the overweight water in front of him was separated by an invisible force, and turned into an empty passage.

At this moment, the power in Qin Tiange’s body really broke the mountains and rivers, and divided the sea. The terrible power was simply beyond the imagination of outsiders.

However, Qin Tiange felt a little depressed, and murmured, “This time breaking the limit of life and promotion has consumed all my herbs and spirits. Fortunately, there is still a lot of magic spring water.”

This breakthrough and upgrade cost too much, and the homes that have been accumulated all the way are empty. Except for the Shenquan water, there are still a lot of other things, such as Qiongjiangyuyu and other spiritual materials.

There is a price to improve and break. Without these things, Qin Tiange wants to improve a little, not to mention the limit of life potential.

Qin Tiange looked around and muttered to himself, thinking about leaving the sea floor, but suddenly he looked at the center of the super heavy water area in front, and there was a faint light.

“Huh? Is there light?” Qin Tiange was surprised, thinking he was wrong.

The bottom of the sea is deep, and the sun's rays cannot be refracted at all. It is at least tens of thousands of meters deep from the surface of the sea. The area of overweight water is the dead zone in the sea. Any living creature will be crushed to death.

And in the dark sea floor in front, there was a slight light coming, which caught Qin Tiange's attention.

"Go and see." Qin Tiange almost didn't think, and went instinctively towards the silky light, faster and faster.

With the mysterious nebula permeating outside the body, blocking the oppression of overweight water, allowing Qin Tiange to move freely and freely in the sea.

Huh ... A figure broke through the barriers of heavy and heavy water, quickly swept across the sea floor, and constantly shuttled among the reefs, gradually approaching the ray of light in front.

Taking a closer look, Qin Tiange looked stunned, staring suspiciously at the increasingly visible light in front of him, an energy hood emitting a faint light.

"This is ... the energy magnetic field protection?" Qin Tiange looked horrified, stepped forward, and carefully looked at this radiating energy magnetic field protection layer.

This is a kind of magnetic field energy. The protective ring formed by itself completely blocks the outside of the heavy water from the outside. From the protective energy layer, you can clearly see the scene inside.

Inside the protective layer is a barren land, without a trace of seawater, it looks extremely desolate, and a huge building outline is faintly seen in the distance.

From Qin Tiange's eyes, you can see that it is an ancient city. In the superheavy water space of the sea, there is a barren land hidden, and even a mysterious ancient city?

"No, it landed from outside, it is a land of heaven." Soon, Qin Tiange understood that this world, which was isolated in the sea, was the land of heaven.

However, it was formed by falling into the ocean floor, just like the land where Qin Tiange had entered at first. It had inexplicable magnetic interference and even formed protection.

It's like the light energy protection in front of you, blocking the erosion of the seawater and forming the internal space, which is a land of heaven.

"An ancient city under the sea ..." Qin Tiange carefully recalled that in previous lives, he had never heard news that someone had entered the sea floor and found a place where the sky had fallen.

Of course, the bottom of the sea is mysterious and unpredictable. The hidden danger is even more terrible than that of land. It is not that no one has entered the bottom of the sea, but that many people have gone to the sea to find treasure, and most of them have gone back.

"Just right, look inside." Qin Tiange suddenly showed a smile and stepped directly into the light yellow energy layer in front.

Strange to say, this energy magnetic field can prevent seawater from flowing in, but it does not prevent people like Qin Tiange from entering.

Even the creatures in the sea did not stop. For example, Qin Tiange saw many marine creatures on the ground, all of them intruded in by mistake, and as a result, there was no water and he was thirsty.

“Well, this shark is really unlucky. Obviously it has a six-star strength. Unfortunately, breaking into here is a death.” Qin Tiange murmured to himself in front of a 19-meter-long mutant shark.

This shark came in by mistake. It may be that after breaking into the overweight water area, it was pushed down to the bottom of the sea, and it happened to break into this isolated world.

Unfortunately, there was no water here, sharks and other marine life fell in, and it was a natural death.

Ignoring the dead marine life here, Qin Tiange leaped directly into the air, leaping towards the outline of the ancient city in the distance.

What secrets are there in the mysterious ancient city under the sea? In these lands descending from the sky, there are opportunities as well as crises.

Just spent all his savings, Qin Tiange naturally enthusiastically sought treasure, and accumulated his own wealth, otherwise he would really become a poor ghost.

His practice is too costly. Most people have his family who have already broken through the nine-star and even ten-star standards, but Qin Tiange did not. He just broke through the six-star rating just now.

In fact, this is the difference between the strength of the foundation and the background. With his current six-star rating, it is enough to crush all the strong players below the nine-star rating, and he can even compete with the nine-star rating.

Of course, if you really want to kill the nine stars, or even crush the existence of the silver star powerhouse, you must make a breakthrough.

Huh!

A barren land quickly passed by a figure, and soon landed in front of a broken ancient city, but suddenly felt a pressure coming down, and Qin Tiange from the sky fell down instantly.

He looked horrified and stared quietly at this ancient city-state.

Qin Tiange looked from here frowning secretly, always feeling that there is a terrible atmosphere hidden in the broken ancient city, extremely vague and deep and unpredictable.

“There is some inexplicable power here, there is no way to fly, there must be something terrible, be careful.” Qin Tiange secretly guarded, surging strength, step by step towards the ancient city.

He stood in front of the broken city gate and looked up. Even if most of the gates collapsed, it was still hundreds of meters high. It is not difficult to see how majestic the complete ancient city is.

Walking past the collapsed city walls, the mottled walls, revealing the traces of time, telling the old days and prosperity.

Once, this ancient city was extremely prosperous, and I don't know why it fell into this field. What made Qin Tiange curious was, what race was this ancient city built in, is it an ancient and powerful human or other alien race?

With this question, Qin Tiange has been walking along the central avenue of the ancient city, and it can be seen faintly that in the center of the ancient city, there is a largest building towering there, and the solitary one is particularly conspicuous.

What is even more amazing is that at the top of the building that is thousands of meters high, there is a faint magical light coming out. What I saw on the bottom of the sea before is this hazy and mysterious light.

Chapter 482 - Humans of the First Age?

The broken ancient city and huge buildings can be seen faintly and prosperously.

On the ground, there was a thick layer of dust, like ashes, but it didn't seem to be. In short, it gave people a sense of dying silence.

Walking in the ruins of the ancient city, Qin Tiange felt more and more that there was a terrible atmosphere here, which caused him inexplicable pressure.

What he cared most about was the inexplicable light coming from a huge building 1,000 meters high in the center of the ancient city, which attracted his attention.

The entire ancient city was extremely huge, and he walked at his speed for ten hours before reaching the central location, in front of that huge building.

I came here only to find that this was a thousand-story tower, and weirdly, each floor was only one meter high, which made Qin Tiange surprised.

The tower is ten meters wide, but the first floor is only one meter high, which is a bit weird. What's even more weird is that the inner layer of the tower faintly emits a hazy light, radiating the entire ruins of the ancient city.

The closer he was to the millennium tower, the more he felt a terrible pressure. If he had not been ascended and transformed in the super heavy water outside, he might not be able to approach the tower.

Qin Tiange suddenly found that there was no door to enter this thousand-story tower, and there were only three small windows on each floor, and there was dust inside.

“Go up and see.” He thought about it and decided to go up and see why there was light above the tower.

Think of it this way, Qin Tiange used both hands and feet to climb up a little bit along the mezzanine tower. There is no way. There is an inexplicable force here, unable to fly, that is, the jump is pressed down for you instantly.

Fortunately, this tower is not impossible to climb. With Qin Tiange's current ability, climbing a thousand-story-kilometer-high tower is still more than rubbing.

One floor per meter, Qin Tiange quickly climbed to the center of the thousand-story tower. When he reached the 500th floor, he felt a great increase in pressure, as if watching a giant mountain climbing up.

The closer to the top of the tower, the more intense the pressure. When he climbed to the 900th floor, he felt that he might be pressed down again.

"Are you going to give up?" Qin Tiange held the outer eaves of the tower with his hands on the place where the 900-story building of the thousand-story tower was located.

He looked up hard, looking at the top of the tower above the thousand floors, where there was a dim light from the three windows, with terrible coercion.

This light seemed to be some kind of treasure, allowing Qin Tiange to clench his teeth and continued to climb up, approaching a thousand layers a little.

Finally, after spending a full hour, Qin Tiange climbed to the top of the millennium tower and looked in from that window.

"Well ... what's this?" Qin Tiange was shocked at the sight, and was taken aback by what he saw.

Looking in from this window of the tower, I saw that there was a person sitting inside, and there was a dim light all over his body.

This person sat cross-legged, naked, with some pieces of clothing scattered on the ground, looming treasure light, and his clothes had already been turned into ashes and scattered. I do n't know how many years it took for these clothes to emit light to be broken into ashes ?

"A man?" Qin Tiange's face changed slightly, his eyes flickered, staring at the figure sitting cross-legged there, a middle-aged man.

His body is extremely burly, and he looks extraordinarily magnificent when sitting cross-section, standing at least two and a half meters tall and very burly.

This man closed his eyes and sat there quietly, as if he was practicing, and as if he was sleeping, in fact, he had no life fluctuations.

In other words, this person is dead, a corpse, but it can remain immortal, like the immortality of the body under the erosion of time.

With great pressure, Qin Tiange drilled through the small window, and slowly walked to the lifelike body, staring quietly.

In front of the man sitting cross-legged, stood a monument, made of unknown materials, exuding a gleam of light, with densely carved ancient writings on it.

“This is some kind of ancient writing of human beings, which is even older than the Oracle inscriptions.” Qin Tiange looked dignified and his breathing was a little heavy.

He could see at a glance that the inscription on the monument was some kind of ancient script, which was even older than the Oracle inscriptions, and had never even been seen before.

Of course, he has passed on the pharmacist’s heritage, and it is exactly this ancient text recorded in it that he can understand the meaning of the inscription at first glance.

“My name is Qianyuan. In the fifth era, the tribal side is a wild guard. In this era, we have defeated. We have no face to see the clan emperor. , The people of the next generation can ... “

The incomplete text records a horrifying secret, ancient secrets, rushing towards the face with the vicissitudes of years, and putting them into that ancient era, experiencing the thrilling era battle.

“Fifth Age?” Qin Tiange was shocked, looking at the incomplete inscription, and was stunned by the mystery recorded above.

He suddenly remembered that there were rumors that the earth had gone through five epochs, and they are now in the sixth era.

Doesn’t it mean that the middle-aged man in front of him is a human of the last century?

How long is an epoch? Qin Tiange doesn’t know, but it is an epoch to lose a few hundred thousand millions of years.

The dead middle-aged man in front of him remains immortal, despite the years of erosion, still lifelike, as if he had never died.

This was enough to shock Qin Tiange, and he couldn’t calm down for a long time. He had to enter a state of immaculate mind, and then he seriously thought about the huge secret hidden in the content of these inscriptions.

Humans of the Fifth Age have experienced a terrible battle, but according to the content recorded in the inscription, that battle seems to have failed.

In the Fifth Age, the human race was defeated. On which opponent did it fall? Is it the star family who invaded the earth in the previous life and came to hunt on the earth?

Many secrets were not known to Qin Tiange in his previous life, because his identity and strength could not understand the high-level secrets involved, so he was not clear at all.

Then I realized that many things in the previous life may not be what he saw. Perhaps, many secrets are not visible to these little people.

For example, the secrets hidden in a country can never be known to ordinary people. Only when the identity level reaches a certain level can they be involved or learned.

Qin Tiange carefully wiped the dust on the inscription and found that in the middle of the inscription, a section has been completely weathered, only the front section and the back section are faintly visible.

“If the people of the later era see this inscription and they can still see my corpse, then I will take away a deliberate effort left by me and complete my last wish ... buried in my hometown, Kunlun. .. “

Seeing the last piece of information, Qin Tiange's complexion changed, his eyes twinkled with light, and he looked in horror at the immortal body that had remained for hundreds of thousands of years.

How arrogant is this body? Even the immortal body does not have this ability. What struck Qin Tiange most was the human of the last era called Qianyuan, whose corpse has remained immortal for hundreds of thousands of years or even millions of years.

Incredibly, how powerful is he? Also, how powerful were the humans of the last era, so why were they defeated?

One question after another emerged. Unfortunately, Qin Tiange couldn't get the answer, because he didn't understand these secrets at all, and he didn't even hear it in previous lives.

According to the last piece of information in the inscription, the human master of the last century was a defender who guarded the deserts of the human race. After the defeat, he cast a thousand-story tower and used the remains to suppress the alien creatures.

“Did it suppress a certain terrible creature in the ancient city?” Qin Tiange's face changed slightly, thinking of this question.

However, he was quickly attracted by another message, which was said above, and he could take away a deliberate effort left by him, which made Qin Tiange very emotional.

“Senior, your wish, I will help you complete, and will bring your body to Kunlun for burial.” Qin Tiange said this seriously.

The other party's last wish was obviously to bury his body in Kunlun. Is this Kunlun the Kunlun Mountain in Huaxia, a rumored wonderland?

Whether or not, Qin Tiange decided to take away this immortal body. This is the strong man of the last era. The physical body has not been decayed for hundreds of thousands of years. How shocking is that?

He thought, take it back to research with science and technology to see if genetic memory is still hidden in this body. If he can read this memory, he can even awaken the incomplete consciousness in this corpse, maybe he can resurrect this Human power of the last era.

Wow ...

The moment Qin Tiange made his promise, the flesh that had remained uncorrupted for hundreds of thousands of years suddenly disintegrated and turned into a ray of light.

“The epoch is changing, our era has been defeated, but our people continue to inherit, and future generations ... remember ... not ...”

An intermittent word came out from the light, which became weaker and weaker, and finally disappeared with the light, and the original immortal body also turned into a ash.

Qin Tiange was stunned, looking at the sudden change, a little at a loss, the immortal body spread out, and the light spot disappeared.

In the place where the corpse was originally, there was a fist-sized blood floating, extremely red, shining brightly, with terrible coercion coming out.

“Well ... senior, go all the way.” Qin Tiange sighed, watching a little dust scattered on the ground, the last dust of the body.

He carefully took out a jade box and collected the only ashes left in the space bracelet. Then he carefully looked at the strange blood in front of him.

That was a lot of hard work left over from the Qianyuan period, condensing his lifelong convictions and aspirations, and maintaining immortality in the years, it is simply incredible This is the hard work of the ancestors of the last era ... ” Qin Tiange’s face shook, and he sensed a majestic breath of energy, enough to burst his body.

With the hard work of this group of ancestors, Qin Tiange felt that if he took it, he would definitely break through the ten-star level, and it is not impossible to even win the king in one fell swoop, but there is another possibility, that is, he will be directly supported by that terrible energy before he breaks exploded.

“Store it first, keep it for promotion.” Qin Tiange thought a little, immediately made a decision, took it away and stored it, waiting for his promotion.

This thing must be used with care, and can not be taken all at once, otherwise the death of the bomber is his only end.

Just after collecting the hard work from the ancestors of the previous era, before Qin Tiange was too happy, he felt a great shock from the millennium tower, and the stone tablet broke apart.

boom...

“Huh? Is it the murderous repressed under the ancient city ...” Qin Tiange’s face made a guess, a huge shock came, and suddenly made him realize that it was not good, because he remembered the inscription on the inscription, there was a suppression here Only alien creatures.

Chapter 483 - 1 head, surging soul power

With a click, the high tower cracked open and cracked, eventually falling down like dust, and disappearing into dust.

Immediately afterwards, there was a rumbling sound, and the whole huge ancient city was trembling, and some huge buildings were completely shattered and turned into ashes.

In the center of the ancient city, a huge crack slowly emerged, splitting the entire city into two halves, exposing a bright red light inside.

boom!

With an explosion, the entire ancient city exploded, and Qin Tiange rushed out of the rubble of the sky, staring suspiciously at the huge crack that cracked.

The ancient city collapsed completely, the earth sagged down, and the inexplicable magnetic field even changed, as if it could no longer be maintained, and gradually extinguished.

The sea water outside is compressing in, the terrible overweight water is squeezing, the inexplicable magnetic field energy is getting smaller and smaller, and gradually shrinks as the ancient city collapses.

A ray of light rushed up, and the * light showed endless fierce vigor, as if a horrible monster was born under the ancient city.

As the corpse of the previous strong human power collapsed and the tower shattered, the ancient city was completely silent, revealing what was suppressed inside.

“That’s ...” Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, and he saw the ancient city that was sunken down, * and fierce.

In the blood of the sky, a huge head slowly emerged. The eight-meter-thick brain and bones were free of flesh. The top of the head was covered with dense blood-colored horns.

This skull is exactly the repressed killer. His head is eight meters thick. I can’t imagine how huge it was in its complete period.

What surprised Qin Tiange was that he couldn’t feel any fluctuation of life consciousness from this head. Although the fierce vibe emitted from him was extremely terrifying, he had no life.

In other words, this murderous creature, which has been suppressed for hundreds of thousands of years, was also obliterated by time and years, leaving only a brain bone that has not completely dissipated.

“Even such powerful creatures can’t bear the destruction of time and time?” Qin Tiange looked dignified and murmured to himself.

Before it was the strong man of the last era. The physical body has remained for hundreds of thousands of years without decaying. It is strong enough and horrible. Now this repressed alien creature can’t escape the annihilation, leaving only a skull. .

However, what surprised Qin Tiange was that in this skull, there was a constant fluctuation of soul power.

It was a wave of soul power, imposing, as if there was a sea of soul power hidden in the skull.

Rumble ...

In the skull, the soul is surging, and a horrible wave is constantly oscillating, like the fierce creature has not died, but the consciousness has been worn away by the years.

What remains is the surging soul power, extremely pure, without any impurities, as if all impurities have been washed away under the erosion of years.

“What a powerful soul force, how powerful is this alien creature?” Qin Tiange shook his face and felt the immense and immense soul power, surging constantly.

He always feels that this soul force may regenerate a consciousness. If a new consciousness is really born, it will be a powerful life form.

But unfortunately, being suppressed under the ancient city, the consciousness of the creature was worn away by the years, leaving only pure and flawless soul power, and there was no chance to reborn a new consciousness.

In other words, it was born, but it was obliterated again. This is the Qianyuan who was the strongest human being in the previous era.

“Soulless power, can I absorb it?” Qin Tiange soon showed a hint of excitement.

He blinked his eyes, staring at the huge head, and the fire of the surging soul burning in his eyes, he felt a tingling sensation from the soul when he stared at him.

That is the fluctuation of the soul power, which contains a strong oppressive force. The rank is not comparable to the soul level of this head. Therefore, Qin Tiange felt the sting of the soul.

There are rumors that when the soul is strong enough and the will is powerful, one idea can crush an opponent weaker than you.

Qin Tiange moved, quickly rushed to the huge skull, and looked at the constant trembling, but could not escape from an invisible repressive force.

The soul power in the skull is roaring, driven by instinct, so that it made the escape action, but unfortunately can not escape the suppression of the ancient city.

Although the ancient city was broken, the power contained here still held it down, so Qin Tiange only saw the head of this fierce creature and wanted to escape.

If you escape it, you may not be able to escape with a brand new fierce creature in the future.

“Want to run again?” Qin Tiange snorted, feeling that the consciousness of this fierce creature was completely obliterated by the years, leaving only pure soul power, which made his heart beat.

If such a mighty soul power is absorbed, it can definitely break through to a height unimaginable in previous lives, how can we let it go.

If the killer is not dead and his consciousness is still alive, with such a magnificent soul power, Qin Tiange would not say to stay, even if he cannot escape, he will be crushed and crushed by an idea of the other party.

Hum!

At this moment, Euphorbia suddenly issued a buzz, flying away from Qin Tiange’s hand autonomously, exuding a quaint light, showing the terror and pressing directly on the skull.

Immediately afterwards, a gurgling came from the waist, and the ancient sword automatically came out of the sheath and issued a light groan.

The two weapons actually moved on their own initiative. Qi Qi aimed at the head of this obliterated consciousness, and the surging soul power was revealed inside, even swallowed by the two weapons.

“Soul Eater?” Qin Tiange looked surprised, thinking about how to take away these surging soul forces, seeing that there was an idea in his heart.

Hum ... I saw him quickly take out the Zijin God Bow, and a purple gold arrow feather, both of them tossed forward, the bow and arrow are really drawing the soul power in the skull.

Qin Tiange was pleasantly surprised. This soul power was too majestic, and it was not something he could absorb, and there was nothing to store this super terrifying soul power.

Once you get rid of the repressive force here, you may be escaped. It will be impossible to recover at that time. The only way is to absorb it now.

Qin Tiange did not dare to absorb it easily. This soul force was too majestic, and although he consumed most of it under the erosion of endless years, he still looked extraordinarily majestic.

I want to absorb it, but it is dangerous. If I burst my soul, it will really disappear. Now that I have seen the ancient sword and halberd, Zijin Shen bow and Zijin arrow autonomously absorb the escaped soul power, I have a method in my heart.

“Tianji, come out and see if you can absorb this soul to strengthen yourself.” Then Qin Tiange gave a gentle command, and saw that the murals like the tattoo on the left arm were shining, and all the hazy figures appeared to him. Around, full of twelve.

This is the twelve-day girl, all of them came out, staring excitedly at the huge skull in front of them, which contained the terrifying soul power.

“Good majestic soul power, son, can we absorb it?” Tian Yan asked with an excited expression.

Yes, the Twelve Days Girl is a spirit body and naturally can absorb the soul power. Moreover, they * a ray of escaped soul power and make the body more solidified.

“Hurry up, you can devour as much as you can, but when you reach the limit, don’t get greedy, can you hear it?” Qin Tiange warned.

Then, instead of paying attention to the twelve heavenly girls, he went directly to the skull, opened his mouth and swallowed a large mouthful at the surging soul in his eyes.

Bang ...

A thick soul swallowed down, and suddenly a violent shock came from the entire consciousness of the sea, as if it opened up a world and chaos exploded.

Consciously hazy, Qin Tiange froze, feeling a burst of tears from his soul, and a kind of smooth and comfortable feeling.

He was horrified to find that it was just a small inhalation of soul power that actually made his soul get promoted in an instant. Yes, it directly improved a level.

“So terrifying soul power ...” Qin Tiange woke up and stared in shock at the huge skull in front of him. The soul power in his eyes was still surging, and it did not decrease at all.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange was excited. Regardless, he opened his mouth and swallowed these surging soul powers directly. The whole soul was boiling, and with the swallowing of this ancient and powerful soul power, he was rapidly improving.

The soul is very mysterious and contains many mysteries. As the soul grows, it drives the self-reinforcement and transformation of the true spirit.

Qin Tiange also found that the ancient sword became more and more clear and transparent, exuding a breath of vicissitudes of years, and the halberds became more and more simple and heavier.

The female body of the Twelve Days became more and more solid, as if it were a real body, but it was not, it was a spiritual body.

However, after absorbing this ancient majestic soul power, the Twelve Heavenly Girl is also rapidly improving herself. The twelve Heavenly Girl's ascension of soul has driven the transformation of the entire secret realm, and quickly transformed towards the real direction.

The soulless power, surging, roaring and roaring, as if unwilling to be swallowed, the head is trembling violently, trying to break the seal's power.

Unfortunately, the halberd pressed down from the top of the head, emitting a horrible blue light, and directly locked the skull with the force of the seal.

And the ancient sword glowed, swallowed its sharp edge, and directly inserted into the forehead and brows of this head, absorbing the endless majestic soul power.

The three large weapons were exhilarating, humming, and rushing into the skull, madly drawing the majestic soul power inside.

Qin Tiange swallowed these soul powers with a big mouth, melted into his own soul will, and hardly needed refining. He was burned into chaotic flames and turned into his own soul power.

Strong, the soul is growing rapidly, the will is rising madly, continually condensing, as if the strong will condensed from steel, gradually has the ability to crush everything directly.

Soon after, the twelve days of the girl Qi Qiba stopped, all of them faced with peach blossoms, and returned to the secret realm of Qin Tiange's left arm, digesting this time's harvest.

Uh ...

Finally, after a lot of time passed, Qin Tiange opened his mouth and hit a full mouth, his face flushed, and felt that his brain was about to be burst. A very saturated feeling came from his soul.

Yes, he's full, and he's full.

Watching just one tenth of the surging soul power consumed, Qin Tiange shook his face, and once again realized the domineering and terrible nature of this ancient evil creature.

Even if the consciousness is wiped out by the years, the remaining soul power is still so immense that it cannot be viewed with common sense.

Hum ...

In the end, Euphorbia was full, and flew back autonomously, buzzing and shaking, looking extra excited and happy.

At the same time, the ancient sword, the Zijin God Bow and the Zijin Arrow flew back one after another, and their breath became more and more simple and heavy, as if after absorbing the soul's soul power, they regained more powerful abilities.

“How to take it away?” Qin Tiange tangled this time, watching that 90% of the majestic soul power left naturally refused to let go.

After thinking about it, he finally took out the jade box that had been sealed with an eyeball and opened it, aiming at the huge skull in front.

Huh!

A mysterious rune of light poured out, instantly covering the skull of the ancient murderer, pulling it directly into the jade box and sealing it.

This process was too fast, and even Qin Tiange did not respond, and the skull was sucked into the jade box, which made him a little surprised.

He then realized how powerful the silver-white jade box that had been sealed was, and the head of the murderer was sucked into it and sealed.

As the skull was sucked away, the banning force of the entire ancient city collapsed in an instant, the mysterious magnetic field energy instantly disappeared, and endless overweight water swept in.

“time to go...”

Looking at the overweight water that swept up, Qin Tiange was calm on his face. After muttering, the figure flickered and passed directly through the overweight water, and the whole person lost his trace.

Chapter 484 - Fight again, hit the border

On the sea, an undercurrent raged and a huge wave set off tens of meters high, and a shadow rushed out from the bottom of the sea.

“Finally came out.”

At a high altitude, Qin Tiange floated there, looking down at the sea, his heart relaxed, and finally came out.

Looking around, I found that Wang Yang was on all sides, and I didn't understand where I had come from.

Qin Tiange looked down and thought, his eyes flickered, and he secretly said: “The silver star youth is a scourge to stay, so it is better to kill him while he doesn't recover.”

Together with this idea, Qin Tiange made a decision to find a way to kill him while the young star power of the Silver Star did not restore the origin of the star core.

Although he was tortured to death before, he gained tremendous opportunities, learned the secrets of the previous era, and even gained a patriarch's effort and a surging soul power.

With these two things, Qin Tiange is confident that he won't have to worry about promotion for a long time in the future, or even need to deliberately search for other spiritual medicines and refining.

"Six stars, how strong is the strength of 50,000 people, just use him to test ..."
Qin Tiange's eyes flickered with light, and he immediately took out an arm.

This arm was cut off from the silver star youth at the beginning, and was kept in the space bracelet by Qin Tiange at the moment. It was taken out to track the position of the opponent.

boom...

Strange to say, as soon as this arm appeared, it exploded voluntarily, turning into a ball of blood dripping and turning, emitting a faint silver light.

Suddenly, this group of blood flew away, surprised Qin Tiange secretly, and then a smile appeared.

"It's so good that I spent a lot of thoughts on being born." Qin Tiange sneered, his figure moved, and he kept up with the blood that flew by himself.

This is the essence of blood formed by the arm of the youth of the Silver Star, and apparently it was called back by the body to fly back, just in line with Qin Tiange's heart.

Above the sea, a faint silver light passed by, and the speed was fast, but the person following him was faster and closely followed the ball of blood in front.

Half an hour later, Qin Tiange flew out of the sea, returned to the land, and followed the group of blood to the mountains and rivers.

In a blink of an eye, the mass of blood flew into a cave in front, so that Qin Tiange who caught up felt the powerful breath in the cave.

"Sure enough here ..." Qin Tiange sneered, the figure flashed, and rushed directly into the cave.

At this moment, a figure was sitting cross-legged in the cave, silver hair was scattered, pieces of broken bones were scattered around, skulls were horrible, and flesh and blood had been eaten clean.

Ok?

The silver-haired young man moved his face, opened his eyes suddenly, and looked at a rush of blood that flew over him, reached out in surprise, and quickly integrated into his body.

"It's the arm I lost ..." The silver-haired youth frowned.

The next moment, he secretly said something bad, and suddenly felt a crisis coming, he didn't want to rush directly to the top of the cave.

Bang!

With a loud noise, the mountains collapsed, and the peaks where the caves smashed apart on the spot, and turned into countless gravel and sand.

The silver-haired young man rushed out, looking a little embarrassed, staring dumbly at a figure that appeared in front of him, and it was Qin Tiange.

“Is it you?” The silver-haired young man’s nose crooked.

When he saw Qin Tiange’s moment, his heart was irritated, his killing spirit was surging, his desire was boiling, and he was really angry.

It turned out that Qin Tiange rushed into the cave just now and blasted the whole cave with a single punch. The violent force broke out, that is, the whole mountain was broken.

In the dust, the rubble flew across the air, but was blocked by a burst of air emerging from Qin Tiange’s body.

“Sure enough, you can’t leave it!” Qin Tiange looked cold, looking at the blasted mountain, and there was a large pile of bones, all human bones.

Needless to say, these are what the silver-haired young man grabbed to eat, using human flesh and blood energy to restore his damaged origin.

This discovery strengthened Qin Tiange’s determination to slaughter him. If he goes on like this, more people will be eaten by him.

Humph!

The silver-haired young man sneered, twisted his neck, and sneered, “I was planning to find you. I didn’t expect you to come to the door. That’s fine. I will definitely recover more than 80% of my strength after I eat you.”

“Then you need to see if your teeth are sharp enough.” Qin Tiange hummed softly, his voice just falling, and a punch wrapped in endless wind pressure.

boom!

The two punched each other, and both of them retreated, and they were shocked inside each other. They felt that the other was stronger than before.

Qin Tiange’s eyes were cold and intertwined, guessing that the other party must have eaten a lot of talents to restore this power.

The opposite silver-haired youth was shocked: “Six stars, I didn’t expect you to be promoted, and your strength reached 50,000 people?”

He was horrified and unbelievable that a six-star star would have the power of 50,000 people, wouldn’t he say that a seven-star star would have the power of 100,000 people?

“Such an evil talent, you must not be left!” The silver-haired youth decided in an instant to kill Qin Tiange, a young human race, whose talent was too evil.

The killing of the two exploded, and a bang, and they collided again and again. This time, the two fists did not hit each other, but instead hit each other's chest.

With a snapping sound, the silver-haired young man's chest was hollow, his bones collapsed, and the corners of his mouth were bleeding. He was blasted out by violent forces.

Qin Tiange also had a chest punched in the same way, but he recovered in a blink of an eye, as if he had not been injured. This is the terrible aspect of the undead body.

"I see how you suppressed me this time?" Qin Tiange smiled, relaxed, and never felt the weird suppression.

Grinding from the space of super heavy water, he is no longer afraid of the suppression of the mysterious magnetic field of this silver-haired young star nucleus.

"kill!"

Qin Tiange drank violently, surging with murderous intentions, his fists roared, penetrated the air barrier, and blasted out a vacuum channel.

The powerful fist swept away, and the mountain below burst into a corner. The silver-haired young man avoided it, and was still hit by the terrible punch on the left rib, which broke a few ribs.

"How is that possible?" The silver-haired young man changed his face slightly, and looked at the violent Qin Tiange, even without being suppressed by his star magnetic field, it was incredible.

"Silver star shines and suppresses the starry sky!"

Suddenly, the silver-haired young man shouted fiercely, erupting to the limit, the endless silver starlight poured out of the star core, turned into a huge star, rumblingly crushed down.

The big star was down, and the air was rumbling. Qin Tiange looked at the star down from his head, his face was calm, and there was no fluctuation in his eyes.

"Good time, watch me break you!" Qin Tiange snorted, without using a weapon, and directly punched his fist with a severe punch.

collapse!

A slamming sound, like a muffled thunder rolling away, terrible air waves swept through the woods below, many huge trees were broken on the spot, and the rocks were flying away.

That punch contained the strength of 50,000 people, and it was super horrible. The punch penetrated the star and exploded directly above the sky.

A loud bang, the stars exploded, turned into endless starlight and energy sweeping through, flowers and trees within a few kilometers of the circle were rolled up, and boulder flew down like rain.

"Kill!" Qin Tiange drank violently, his fist penetrated the stars, and hit the chest of the silver-haired youth with a bang, and he flew out.

The silver-haired young man vomited blood, his chest was almost exploded, and the bones flew out mixed with flesh and blood fragments, marking a brilliant silver glow.

He was hit hard, and his shock was imaginable, but he was hit hard by the other party.

“I was hurt by you ...” The silver-haired young man with a somber face shrouded in Yinhui, the endless power burst, and the two collided.

Bang bang bang ...

Silhouettes crisscrossed, fists collided, creating a wave of explosive air that completely stirred up the mountain forest.

Qin Tiange waved his fists, the more the battle fought, the more 50,000 people erupted, the fists exploded, smashed the rocks, and cracked the giant peak.

boom!

A palm smashed a boulder that came on the face, Qin Tiange calmly, stepped over hundreds of meters, his fist banged in the face of the silver-haired youth, and the wind raged.

Just hearing a bang, flesh and blood flew, the silver-haired young man's cheek cracked, his teeth were broken a few, and even the entire face was cracked.

Qin Tiange was also wounded, his left face was shattered, his flesh splashed, but he came back and recovered in a blink of an eye.

The silver-haired young man was furious and growled, “This is impossible, why are you so powerful, and even the strength of 50,000 people would not be so powerful.”

The young silver-haired wolf howled dodging, quickly passing through the sky, and dared not continue to compete with Qin Tiange, because the power erupted by the other party was extremely terrible.

This power exceeds the performance that 50,000 people should have, as if it contains another powerful and mysterious power, which is the power of the soul's will.

“It turns out that you are not as powerful as I thought.”

Looking at the silver-haired youth who was easily suppressed by himself, Qin Tiange really realized that he was not strong enough, but he had not grown up yet.

Now that it has a six-star rating and a strength of 50,000 people, it is enough to shake up the strong players at all levels below the nine-star rating, and even face the young nine-star power of the silver star family.

However, he was very calm and had no pride, but felt a sense of stress, because he knew that the other party was still a minor alien race.

Yes, silver-haired youths are still underages. They came to the earth to hunt for the strong as a gift of maturity and to advance to the top ten stars.

Extraterrestrial races, the underdogs are so powerful, how strong are the adults?

“kill!”

Thinking of this, Qin Tiange's heart became more and more condensed, his face exposed to murderous power, and an outburst of evil spirits burst out to kill the silver star powerhouse.

"Damn, if you haven't recovered the star core in my body by less than 50%, would you dare to arrogantly in front of me? If I have recovered 60% of my strength, I will call you into fly ash." The silver-haired young man looked dumb, Li Xiao said.

He waved his fists against him, but was beaten to death, but with this power he turned and accelerated, turning into silver light and flying away.

Humph!

Qin Tiange sneered, chuckling: "Is it only you who can recover strength, and I can't improve it? Maybe, when you have recovered 60% of your strength, you must look at me at that time. "

He is confident that as long as he raises one level, it doesn't matter if this silver-haired young man recovers the damaged roots to 60% or even 70%.

In the promotion level, that is seven stars, and 100,000 people are enough to crush each other. This is Qin Tiange 's strong confidence and power.

boom!

The two figures collided again, and their fists hit each other. As a result, the young man's fist was fractured and bent, and the blood vessels of the arm were cracked.

"kill!"

The silver-haired young man yelled His eyes were flashing with mad killing, apparently he was irritated with madness, and he completely flicked his fists to kill him.

Qin Tiange looked calm, waved his fists and crushed them directly. The strength of the fist poured out, and the force of 50,000 people broke out, and the landslide broke.

Boom boom ...

The two fought fiercely, struck out of the mountains and rivers, hit the ground from above, and killed them from the ground.

The silver-haired young man retreated while fighting, thinking about getting rid of Qin Tiange's entanglement. Even if he can hit the other side seriously, what makes him fierce is the immortal body, which can be recovered instantly regardless of the multiple injuries.

On the other hand, even if there is a medicine to recover the injury, it is not as good as Qin Tiange's immortal body, and he will eventually be dragged down and even killed.

This battle lasted for a long time, you come and go, fight each other bloody, Qin Tiange is strong, silver-haired youth is not weak, after all, is a nine-star powerhouse.

Finally, after half a day of fierce fighting, the two broke out of the Huaxia border and killed in the territory of Vietnam ...

Chapter 485 - Leveled a city

At the Friendship Pass, the two figures collided quickly from above, the fists fought, the energy was raging, the fist swept away, the giant wood was broken, and the rocks were scattered and scattered.

“Dominate the world!”

Suddenly, a scream of thunder came from him, and he saw a man holding a halberd in his hand, turning it into a domineering phantom and slamming the silver-haired youth’s chest.

With a bang, Yinjia collapsed, blood and water surged, and the silver-haired young man was beaten into the mountains and rivers, deeply embedded in it.

“King of heaven!”

Another li Xiao came from high altitude, and saw that Qin Tiange’s body erupted a terrible aerosol, turning it into a huge virtual image, as if a king was looking down at the world.

He dived down with his halberds in his hands, and blasted directly into the mountain. In an instant, the landslide broke and the boulder flew into the air.

The dust raged, and a huge air wave spread out, breaking trees within a few kilometers of the circle, rolling through the boulder and slipping through the air, and a rumbling sound was heard.

“Ah ... I killed you!”

There was a scream in the smoke and dust, and when they saw the Yin Mang soaring into the sky, it turned into a silver figure. It was the young silver star master who looked extremely embarrassed.

His chest was cracked, and his head was cut open with a wound by Euphorbia. It turned out that he hadn’t died yet, and he hadn’t died two consecutive crit.

“Star sword, kill!” The silver-haired young man howled, a silver starlight rose from behind, turned into a sharp star sword, and quickly killed.

Faced with the assassination of thousands of stars, Qin Tiange calmly, Euphorbia swept and smashed, smashing all the assassination star swords.

He waved his halberd and broke open countless star swords, sharp and pointed, pointing at the silver-haired youth.

Ding!

With a crisp sound, the halberd was blocked, and the silver-haired youth held a brilliant star sword in his hand to block the blow.

He had silver hair flying all over, his face was somber and irony, and he hummed, “It’s your own death, then go to death.”

Uh ...

The two killed another group and collided constantly. There was a burst of rumbling sounds from Euphorbia and Xingjian, and the sparks spattered.

“Kirin changes!” Suddenly, a low drink came out, and Qin Tiange’s body suddenly rose, and a terror burst out.

He swept away with a halberd, shattering the surrounding star sword on the spot, and then the halberd swallowed sharply, piercing the silver-haired youth's heart instantly.

Just listening to the thump, the silver-haired young man was wounded, his mouth spit blood, and he backed away energetically, but escaped the fatal blow, but a huge opening was still made in his chest.

“Hundreds of thousands of people?” The silver-haired youth stunned and turned and ran.

There was no way to fight Qin Tiange all the way, I thought that the other party's 50,000 people's power was already the limit, but I never wanted to directly double it to 100,000 people's power.

This power has been able to kill him who has not recovered from the original source. If he did not run, he would be killed here. I did not expect Qin Tiange to hide to this day and suddenly erupted.

“Kill!” Behind him, Qin Tiange's speed soared, and Euphorbia smashed down with the strength of 100,000 people.

Just listening to the sound of Qi Long, the air burst first, and then the terror pressure blasted the mountain below.

However, they escaped, the two chased one after the other, fled into the territory of Vietnam, and soon came over the base of Liangshan.

“King of heaven!” There was a loud drink from high altitude, shaking all directions, attracting the attention of the entire Liangshan base, looking up one by one.

“what happened?”

“Where's the voice?”

“It seems to speak Chinese.”

The Liangshan base shook under the mountain, and groups of intensifiers rushed out, jumped into the house, and looked up at the sky, where there were two small figures fighting fiercely.

“No ... ah ...” The silver-haired youth screamed, flying across the air very fast, trying to dodge, but was caught up by Qin Tiange, and Yiji hit him behind him fiercely, screaming For days.

His body was bombarded from a height, like a comet, banging into the base of Liangshan.

There was a loud bang, and the entire Liangshan base vibrated for a while, causing a lot of chaos. With a burst of screams and exclamations, the dense crowd did not respond, and hundreds of people were smashed on the spot. died.

boom...

A huge explosion spread, and several houses collapsed on the spot. Rolling smoke and gravel wrapped in gravel hit the nearby crowds, frightening countless people and fleeing in panic, all of them dispersed.

In the dust, a large pit of several tens of meters appeared several meters deep. A broken figure was lying on the bottom of the pit, and the lower body was blasted a few steps.

But weirdly, the hundreds of people who were killed in the surroundings, the flesh and blood fragments of the corpse gathered toward the big pit, and gradually, the disabled man recovered.

“Dare to hurt me, you’re fine!”

The silver-haired youth came up from the big pit, looked up, and just saw Qin Tiange descending from the sky, staring at him gloomily, with a murderous tone in his tone.

He was beaten like this for the first time, it was a disgrace, and he was beaten by a six-star guy, and he couldn’t remain calm anyway.

The arrival of Qin Tiange, looking down at this base, should be the Liangshan base of Yueguo, with more than 200,000 survivors.

“Boy, you’re dead this time.”

With a somber face on his face, the silver-haired young man suddenly held his hands up, condensing a silver star, and threw it down to the ground.

Just listening to the boom, the entire Liangshan base shook, and everyone within a few kilometers of the explosion of the stars was shattered into flesh and blood, and the silver-haired young man opened his mouth and swallowed it.

“Look for death!” Watching the other side blasted and killed thousands of people in front of himself, but in front of him, but angered Qin Tiange.

Although he didn’t care about the life and death of these Vietnamese people, there must be many Chinese people here. As a Chinese general, how can he watch and watch?

“Everyone, run away!”

Qin Tiange and Li Xiao, the voice spread throughout the Liangshan base, making many Chinese people hidden in the base surprised.

They naturally understood the Huaxia language, so they heard Qin Tiange’s howl. Although many people didn’t understand why, they instinctively turned around and escaped the base.

As for the Vietnamese people who can’t listen to the Huaxia language, they are staring at the two figures floating in the air.

“Damn Chinese, you are slaughtering.”

Finally, the strong man at Liangshan Base arrived and saw the silver-haired young man kill and kill thousands of people and was immediately enraged.

And just hearing Qin Tiange’s sentence, they thought that both were Chinese, and they regarded them as enemies.

“Fire, fire, kill both of them!”

The person in charge of the Liangshan base snarled and ordered, and saw dozens of artillery in the base roaring together, and shells bombarded the two of them.

A loud bang came, and for a while, the ground shook and the fire shattered, and the roar continued, turning that area into a sea of fire.

“Kill!”

In the sea of fire, two loud drinks came out, and they saw two figures jumping out of the sea of fire, hitting them fiercely in the air.

A huge blast of air exploded, swept away from the center of the two, overturned nearby houses, set off a concrete plate and killed many people.

The two ignored the artillery fire and killed them directly, as if they did not care about the bombardment of the artillery.

Boom Boom Boom ...

A loud noise came, and the Liangshan base shook. As the two powerful men battled through, the house collapsed, the smoke billowed, and a huge air wave lifted all nearby people into the air.

These people were without exception, strangled by the energy of the fierce fighting between the two, and the minced meat was swallowed up by the silver-haired youth.

The more he fights, the more spirited he becomes. As the two men fight hard, the entire Liangshan base is completely in chaos, with countless deaths and injuries.

“Kill them, kill them.”

The person in charge of the Liangshan base looked sullen, and snarled again and again to kill the two men, but he did not wait for him to growl.

When I saw the silver-haired young man opened his mouth and swallowed it, he chewed it twice and ate it clean.

“Delicious ... the taste of the human race is refreshing.” The silver-haired youth enjoyed for a while, and there was a strong wave of energy pervading his body.

The more people swallowed, the more powerful his breath was, and he couldn't help getting excited: “Boy, thank you so much, otherwise I really don't dare to slaughter a city easily.”

Upon hearing this, Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, his eyes narrowed, and he thought about the meaning of the words secretly. The silver-haired young man is afraid to slaughter a human city easily, so what is he afraid of?

“Stone?” Qin Tiange soon understood that the silver-haired young man had intentionally or unconsciously swept across the center of Liangshan Base, where there were two stones.

One is a heritage stele, and the other is an assessment stele. Whether in China or abroad, as long as it is within the sphere of human influence, there are two steles.

“Now, if you take the initiative to fight with me, you can kill the war and just let me recover the humans who devour this base.”

“Hahahaha ...”

The silver-haired young man said with a mad laugh, his body turned into a light, condensing a silver star in his hand and slamming at Qin Tiange.

Qin Tiange was expressionless, staring at a silver star that slapped him. The trembling of Euphorbia stabbed him fiercely.

With a click, the silver stars broke apart, but the silver-haired youth showed a conspiracy smile.

“Burst!” A cold, low drink came, and I saw that the smashed stars turned into smaller ones that spread out towards the base of Liangshan.

Immediately afterwards, these scattered stars suddenly bloomed with immense starlight, and the scorching light almost made people unable to open their eyes.

Just listening to the loud sound of “Boom”, the scattered explosions of the stars spontaneously turned into endless energy and swept away. All humans in the place of the explosion are no exception, no matter whether it is a three-star or a four-star, were ruthlessly blasted into a ball of minced meat.

“Don’t ...”

The screams were intertwined into a film, and half of the people at Liangshan Base were killed on the spot, which made Qin Tiange look gloomy.

He did not expect that the silver-haired young man used his hand to kill the people in this base and devour their flesh to recover.

“Look for death!” Qin Tiange’s eyes were cold, his intentions surging, and he killed his spear.

The silver-haired young man sneered While attacking with a sword, he devoured the flesh and corpses scattered around him, his breath became stronger and stronger.

“All of these people were killed by you ...” The silver-haired youth sneered, retreated with his sword, but went to a crowded place.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange was more motivated to kill, and hummed, “You want to be restricted by the people in this base, so that I have some scruples?”

“If you think so, you’re wrong.”

When the words fell, Qin Tiange rose into the air, and there was a terrible fluctuation in the body, and a thick breath surrounded the halberd, which belonged to the power of the earth.

boom!

With a blast, the silver-haired youth was smashed into the ground, and the entire Liangshan base shook. Like a magnitude 9.0 earthquake, houses collapsed, the ground sunken and cracked, and huge shock waves killed many people in the base.

The collapse of Liangshan Base caused horrible damage, wailing and screaming. The Yueguolangshan Mountain Base, a large base with a population of over 200,000, was leveled by the aftermath of the fierce battle between Qin Tiange and Yinfa Youth.

Chapter 486 - Arrow out of spirits, head to Kunlun

Rumble ...

The huge base of Liangshan was turned upside down, the whole base was split in half from the middle, and countless houses collapsed, crushing a large number of survivors in Vietnam.

The screams of wailing shook the sky, and the screams, swears, and despair were intertwined into one piece, as if a doomsday tragedy.

Countless broken bodies were attracted by an inexplicable force, all immersed in the mouth of a silver-haired young man, devoured by him, and he was swallowed by more than 100,000 people.

“Hahaha ... I finally recovered 50% of my strength, boy, you are dead.” The silver-haired young man sneered and glowed.

He swallowed more than 100,000 survivors of the Liangshan base, his body was filled with strong blood, and he was refined into a source to repair his damaged star core, and 50% was restored.

Except for the survivors who fled at the beginning, there was no one living in the entire Liangshan base, and many people buried in the ruins were killed by the powerful power sent by the silver-haired youth.

Or it was killed by the aftermath of the fierce battle between the two, and finally swallowed up by the silver-haired youth to restore their original star core, and the power was stronger.

boom!

The two collided, a shock wave erupted from the center, and rumblingly rolled over the Quartet, completely destroying the already broken base.

In a collision, the two separated from each other, and they were evenly divided. Qin Tiange squinted his eyes, looked at the silver-haired young man with a cracked cheek on the opposite side, and touched his cheek. A bone collapsed, and flesh almost flew out.

However, he recovered in a blink of an eye, and the immortal body became more and more terrifying, that is, the young silver-haired people had to pay attention to this immortal force and was very annoyed.

“I hate your immortal body ...” The silver-haired youth snorted, and then said, “Now, I have recovered the five sources of cost. I have no time to waste time with you, let’s play slowly.”

“Want to go, how can it be so easy?” Qin Tiange snorted softly, his figure disappeared for a moment, and he reappeared before the silver-haired young man, and Euphorbia stabbed on top of his head.

At the moment, the star sword blocked the halberd, was sharp, and cut a lot of silver hair, but did not hurt him. Instead, the silver-haired youth flew back with this shock.

“Xingyao opens his way, vacuum!”

When I saw the silver-haired young man sneer and drank, the whole person bloomed countless starlight, dazzling, and then flashed the light and disappeared in front of him.

That speed was too fast, as if passing by in a vacuum, Qin Tiange was too late to chase, and could only watch the silver-haired youth escape.

“Want to leave, you left me alive.” Qin Tiange, expressionless, took out the Zijin Shen Bow and Zijin Arrow Feather to turn into a full moon, surrounded by a chaotic flame.

collapse!

The purple gold arrow penetrated the air and broke the air all the way. The chaotic flame wrapped the purple gold arrow and turned into a gray phoenix whistling along that vacuum channel, and quickly caught up with the fleeing silver-haired young man.

Feeling the murderous attack from behind, the silver-haired young man was shocked and turned back to look, his face was suddenly green.

“Miscellaneous account!” The silver-haired youth was furious, turning around and concentrating on a big star. The two collided with each other violently, bursting a terrifying air wave and blasting the vacuum channel.

Chaos Phoenix shouted the purple gold arrow, which was incomparable, directly pierced the big star, stabbed at the heart of the silver-haired youth, and pierced through.

A figure smashed from a height, a spit of blood spewed three feet high, his flesh was broken, his heart was pierced by a purple arrow, and the heart burst.

Dantian was even punched out of a blood hole, and there was a faint thing inside. It was a star nucleus.

“I ... will not be reconciled ...” The silver-haired young man looked grimace, made a final growl, his body twitched and he finally lost his voice.

He was originally damaged, he just devoured more than 100,000 people to recover himself, thinking of recovering after he escaped, and then came out again. As a result, his sudden attack directly broke his origin and killed him instantly.

Originally, he had recovered five sources of cost, and wanted to escape with mystery, and slowly recovered to the heyday. As a result, Qin Tiange added Zijin’s bow with Zijin arrows, and it took a second.

The poor Silver Star powerhouse has just landed on the earth not long before. It would have had the opportunity to hunt down enough young powerhouses directly, then make sacrifices and leave after completing the adulthood.

However, his heart was too big, and he was unlucky to run into Qin Tiange's monster, but this time he was chased and finally killed by the evolved Zijin God Bow and Zijin Arrow.

The silver-haired young man's face still remained reluctant, his eyes widened, and he could not squint. The corpse lay there motionlessly, exuding an air of resentment.

Huh!

Not long after, a figure quickly appeared, looking at everything that had been roasted by the chaos flames. The rocks were melting, the vegetation was gray, and a broken body was lying in the center. It was the silver-haired youth.

"Run, I see how do you run?" Qin Tiange snorted, stepped forward and determined that the silver-haired young man had finally died.

The silver-haired young man was eventually killed, and Qin Tiange used Zijin's bow with Zijin Arrow for a second. He had to say that the local luck was bad, and it was really bad luck to run into Qin Tiange.

However, Qin Tiange couldn't be happier, not only the first time he met and was tortured by the other party, but this time it was the silver-haired youth who killed a Vietnamese Liangshan base with the fierce battle with Qin Tiange. More than 100,000 people were swallowed up. Almost let the other side escape.

Looking at the body of the silver-haired youth, Qin Tiange leaned down and used an ancient sword to dig out a strange bead from the smashed Dantian position. This is the star core of the silver-haired youth.

"Is this the nucleus?" Qin Tiange muttered to himself, surprised, and suddenly realized that this nucleus was somewhat similar to the nucleus he had previously obtained.

He now understands that before that, he killed that extra-terrestrial creature in the land of heaven, and obtained a star core, which is actually the same thing as the current star core, which is the core of power condensed in the body.

"The star core contains immense power." Qin Tiange muttered, put away the star core, and quickly searched on the body of the silver-haired youth.

Soon, he found a necklace around the opponent's neck, exuding a slight space fluctuation, and determined that it was a space necklace, which he put away.

"Even if you die, I will use your waste. I do n't know if it can be cloned to see the secrets of some alien races." Qin Tiange murmured, directly collected the body of this silver-haired young man, and was ready to take it home. Research to see if you can extract information about each other's genes.

After leaving here, Qin Tiange returned to the base of Liangshan again, looking down at the completely collapsed base below. The originally huge base was completely turned into ruins.

In the air, a black-red gas permeated everywhere, showing coldness and resentment. It was a resentment that remained undisturbed.

Hundreds of thousands of people were killed, and their anger was so high that even Qin Tiange couldn't help frowning when he saw it. It was all because of him.

But he didn't care, he died. In such a dark and  age, weakness is a sin.

"What's the use of resentment? Even if you come back to me as a ghost, it's no use. I reminded you to run away. Unfortunately, this is the end." Qin Tiange walked down the ruins step by step, expressionless. Say this.

Around, the resentment roared, as if all grudges were roaring, unwilling to die, to curse Qin Tiange.

"Go!" With a scream, the resentment around was dissipated, and a horrible evil broke out from Qin Tiange's body. The evil spirit rolled directly around and crushed the resentment.

He went all the way, collecting things, such as storage equipment, and really found him a lot of storage equipment.

These were left in the hands of the dead at Liangshan Base. The corpses were gone, and they were swallowed up by the silver-haired youth, leaving only these things.

In the large base of more than 100,000 people, he has collected thousands of storage equipment, including rings, bracelets, necklaces, etc. Anyway, what can be sensed has been collected.

Finally, Qin Tiange stood in the middle of the ruins of the base and looked at the two steles, one large and one small. The big one is the assessment stone and the small one is the inheritance stone.

Wow ...

Suddenly, the assessment stone tablet was the first to change, and suddenly a bright light erupted, sweeping away the lingering resentment in the ruins of the base.

Then This assessment stone gradually disappeared into the ground with Qin Tiange's surprised look, and disappeared, followed by the heritage stone.

"Disappeared?" Qin Tiange frowned slightly, his pupils contracted, and stared at the place where the two steles were located. They were already empty and the steles disappeared.

This situation shocked his heart, a lot of speculation, and even caused some speculation and thinking of Qin Tiange.

With the collapse of Liangshan Base, the two stone monuments disappeared at the same time. This matter can be big or small, and it is definitely not a trivial matter in Qin Tiange's eyes.

At least he understood and determined that the stele was spiritual, and that was enough.

"You really have a spirit ..." Qin Tiange's face changed, and he muttered to himself, remembering that he had been refused to enter the assessment, and his heart was inevitable.

After thinking about it, Qin Tiange simply threw away these thoughts, his body emptied away, quickly disappeared into the void in the distance, left the border of Vietnam, and returned to China. He did not stop, but set off towards Kunlun, the famous mountain in China, and flew quickly to the legendary ancestor of Wanshan, the top of the mountains.

Chapter 487 - Yaochi, 6-tailed fox

The mighty Kunlun, known as the ancestor of Wanshan, the dragon veins, is the first mountain of Huaxia. Many legends and secrets are spread here, and there are more fabulous records.

It is rumored that the Queen Mother of the West lives on Kunshan Xianshan and Yaochi. Of course, this is only a myth, but the question Qin Tiange thought was whether the Queen Mother of the West was the previous era or a strong human being in an earlier era?

Soon, a figure crossed the sky and floated quietly on the Daxue Mountain, overlooking this vast mountain, Kunlun Mountain.

“The Queen Mother of the West, and perhaps other myths and legends, may be the strong man of the last era.” Qin Tiange contemplates this question secretly.

After seeing the remains of a strong man from the previous era and some relics, I have learned some secrets about the ancient times.

Of course, it’s just a one-sided thing, and even incomplete. It is impossible to understand more ancient secrets.

The last strong man named Qianyuan came from Kunlun. Does it mean that Kunlun had a prosperous world in the previous era?

Moreover, the legendary Queen Mother of the West here is also a master from the previous era, and many legends have become myths.

Is there a * in the world? Qin Tiange expressed disdain. The so-called * is actually a creature that is strong to a certain degree. No matter it is a person or other species, as long as it is strong enough, everyone can call it a god.

Just like him now, if it is put into the world before the end, it must be regarded as a fairy. This may be the origin of myth and legend.

“Is Yaochi over there?” When Qin Tiange looked from a high altitude, he saw a towering mountain peak half-waisted with a green lake like an emerald lake, which is the rumored Yaochi.

Yaochi, but there is no fairy peach, not to mention the fairy peach, there is no peach tree, many things are passed on by magpies.

As for the Queen Mother Xi bathing here, Qin Tiange just smiled and landed from a high altitude, quietly looking at this huge lake.

Yaochi, the green water of the pond is like emerald, crystal clear, giving people that this is not a lake, but a huge incomparable emerald.

The water in the pool is full of aura of aura. Perhaps the water of Yaochi is more precious and delicious than the top mineral water.

Grunt!

Qin Tiange took a bite of Yaochi spring water, which was cold and delicious, rich in energy minerals and a touch of aura, very unique.

Drinking this spiritual water all year round has great magical effects for human beings and creatures, and I have to say that it is the rumored Yaochi.

Qin Tiange gently tapped the lake, and the whole person flew up to the top of the snow-capped mountains, overlooking the Quartet. The towering mountains were unobstructed, and there was a wonderful feeling of seeing the small mountains.

“Fengshui is good here ...” Qin Tiange said, took out a jade box with a complex complexion, sighed, dug a hole on the top of the snow mountain, buried the jade box gently, and then cut it into a grave. .

Then he cut a icy giant rock from the side, cut a stone stele and stood in front of the grave, referring to what the knife depicts.

“Fifth-century human power, the tomb of Qianyuan ...” depicting these ancient texts, Qin Tiange silently looked at the tomb in front of him in silence.

It took a long time before he murmured: “Senior, here is Kunlun Mountain, I don’t know if it is what you call Kunlun, from here is Yaochi, the promise of the junior has been fulfilled, senior, rest in peace.”

After speaking, Qin Tiange turned around and jumped, like Dapeng spread his wings, jumped down from the top of the snow mountain, dived down quickly, rolled up a wave of snow and ice flying.

Huh?

Qin Tiange, who was diving downwards, looked stunned and looked in surprise at a section of Xueshan, where there was a wave of energy.

This fluctuation was very strong, at least a six-star biological energy fluctuation, so Qin Tiange could not help being curious, and directly turned to fly over.

It was a cliff, covered with snow and ice, but a vague cave was hidden above the cliff.

The breath came from inside, with curiosity, Qin Tiange stepped directly into the cave.

boom!

Just stepping into it, I immediately felt a huge frost sweeping over and was broken by Qin Tiange.

He looked surprised and looked at the cave in front. A white fox was staring at him vigilantly. This fox had just sent out the frost power.

“Six-tailed snow fox?” Qin Tiange said in surprise, his eyes lighted, and he looked at a snow-white fox in the cave in front of him, which was exactly a snow-fox.

Moreover, behind this snow fox, there are six flawless tails, with a trace of cold, frosty scrolling, is a six-star snow fox with six tails.

If the six-tailed snow fox is advanced to nine tails, it will be a powerful nine-star snow fox, and even break through the nine-star, grow the tenth tail after breaking the bloodline limit, that is the ten-star.

In the end, the ten tails are one, and the achievement of Fox King is a matter of minutes.

“Human, this is my home. You are not welcome here. Leave immediately.”

The six-tailed snow fox opened his mouth and uttered the words of warning, his clear and delicate voice, like a slim girl.

However, it is what the fox has always said, and I have to say that the courageous ordinary person must be dazed.

However, Qin Tiange showed a smile, looked at the six-tailed snow fox, and laughed: “I’m not malicious, but if you hit me again, I don’t mind killing you, and then use your snow fox skin to make clothing A. “

“You, bastard, shameless, demon ...” The six-tailed snow fox became furious when he heard it, and he directly spoke a series of shells, like an angry girl.

Qin Tiange shook his head and ignored the six-star Snow Fox, the other party did not pose a threat to him, and even Frost’s power could not hurt him at all.

Don’t forget that there is still an ice silkworm in his hair, all the cold and cold power is absorbed by it, let alone hurt Qin Tiange.

“You, damn!” Six-tailed Snow Fox looked angrily, but did not dare to act lightly, because the creature could have made her sense the horrible threat of Qin Tiange.

She had a feeling that once she shot again, she would usher in a fierce blow from Qin Tiange, and this induction could not be wrong.

Qin Tiange ignored the six-tailed snow fox, which did not mean that he was kind-hearted, but that he had a different perspective and saw things change.

For example, who cares about the existence of an ant before? Now Qin Tiange, this is actually the case with the six-tailed snow fox, not arrogance, but the real strength, which can slap this snow fox with a single slap. What is the difference from an ant?

What Qin Tiange was concerned about was that the strange breath coming from the cave caught his attention.

“Stop, don’t go there, there is danger.”

Seeing Qin Tiange ignoring her, Liuwei Xuehu was very angry, but when she saw Qin Tiange stepping into a certain passage of the cave, Xuehu’s expression changed immediately.

Looking at the snow fox in front of him, Qin Tiange looked poor and hummed: "Let 's go, I do n't want to hurt you, it does n't mean I wo n't kill you, it 's not easy to read your birth consciousness, and there is no human resentment lingering, prove you No one has eaten, spare your life. "

"You, I don't know how to deal with it!" Six-tailed Snow Fox was furious, and he let go directly, angrily staring at Qin Tiange who entered the front passage.

Her expression changed, thinking about gritting her teeth, shaking her six tails, curling up quickly with frost, and following Qin Tiange far behind.

"Hey, that human, you don't have to go any further. The inside is really dangerous." At the back, the six-tailed snow fox reminded from time to time, carefully, staring at the dark cave in front.

Her expression seemed to be very scared, as if there was something in it that made her afraid, and this situation caused Qin Tiange's curiosity even more.

He not only kept on, but accelerated into the front passage, and soon found that the passage actually led to the mountain.

Walking and walking, Qin Tiange felt wrong. This passage clearly leads to the location of Yaochi above the mountainside.

Although he is in the cave, his instinctual consciousness is not wrong. He is walking along the cave to Yaochi.

"Yeah!" Suddenly, the six-tailed snow fox in the back exclaimed, his hair exploded, and the six snow-white foxtails rolled in thick frost, staring in horror.

Ok?

Qin Tiange, who was walking in front, suddenly stopped, looked a little, felt a strong oppression, and was a little surprised.

This breath is full of ancient fierce air, as if there is an old and terrifying creature lying in front of it.

This is the cave at the bottom of Yaochi. Is there any fierce monster hidden under Yaochi? Qin Tiange was shocked, and walked along the location of the fierce gas.

In the back, the six-tailed snow fox stood there tremblingly, his expression changed, hesitating to follow?

In the end, the six-tailed snow fox clenched his teeth to make a decision, quickly followed Qin Tiange, and hung tightly not far behind.

The farther down, the cave becomes huge and empty, filled with a strong coercion, the smell is horrifying, making people feel a heart-beating feeling.

The six-tailed snow fox became more and more restless, and this time he dared not keep up with it, lying completely motionless there, shivering, his expression very frightened.

Qin Tiange ignored her, but looked at the huge space in front of him in surprise. It was a crystal cave of ice crystals, with bright and bright jade everywhere.

Yes, there are jade everywhere. Even if the walls of the cave are all jade, it is crystal clear and exudes a faint jade light.

Deep in the cave, above the thousands of jade stones, there is a splendid blue light that illuminates the entire cave, and a terrible breath is looming.

“This is ...” Qin Tiange blinked his eyes, stared at the green light, and finally saw a creature lying there lying through the blue mist of blue light.

It was a fierce bird, with a blue body and bright feathers. It was like a cast of green steel, showing a strong sense of power.

The entire venomous bird is about one hundred meters long and has a wingspan of at least two hundred meters. It is a behemoth. What is surprising is how can it hide in this underground cave?

Chapter 488 - Qingyu, Yaochi Temple

A blue venomous bird lay there quietly, motionless, as if dead, but the strong wave of life leaking from all over the body proved that it was not dead, and some jade eggshells were scattered around, and there was still a trace of liquid. It seems that Nirvana was just born.

“The bluebird Godbird born of Nirvana?” Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the blue godbird lying on a jade vein in front of him, turned out to be a greenbird.

It is rumored that the courier of the Queen Mother of the West is a green pheasant, extremely fierce and one of the five phoenixes. As to whether it is true, it is unknown.

But the green pheasant in front of him looked extremely fierce. Even when he was lying still, he still exuded terrible vigour. The six-star six-tailed snow fox was shaken.

Huh!

Suddenly, two beams of green awns penetrated, tearing the air, sharp eyes penetrated the heart, Qing Ye opened his eyes, and showed endless cold and fierce evil.

It stared straight at Qin Tiange, his eyes were full of fierceness, but he faintly revealed a doubt, as if he felt that he belonged to the same kind.

The green pimple slowly stood up, his green feathers trembled, and a golden iron pimple was emitted, deafening, and the sound of cricket killing was utterly fierce.

“Cry ...” Suddenly, Qingyou opened her mouth fiercely, and suddenly burst out a blue fire, which was burning and swept across.

The green flame of fire rolled surgingly, and the scorching air waves scared the six-tailed snow fox in the back and fled. The snow and ice disappeared in the sky.

Only Qin Tiange was left standing there, and even if the blue flames were burned, his face would not change, and he did not care about the burning flames.

However, he had chaos flames, and without fear of any flames, he was not afraid of a cyan spit fire sent out by Qing Ye, but felt very warm and comfortable.

“Stop, you are not my opponent.” Qin Tiange stood up in the sea of fire, and his words passed through the flames to Qingyao’s ears.

It looked uncertain, his eyes flashed fiercely, and he stared at Qin Tiange, very surprised that the other party was not afraid of its green magpie.

Crying ... The barnyard cries fiercely, with a thick warning, blocking the deep entrance of the jade veins, completely preventing Qin Tiange from stepping in or even approaching.

This even aroused Qin Tiange's curiosity. What is the reason why a newly born barnyard bird is guarding here?

Moreover, what it is guarding here, these questions filled the heart, making Qin Tiange more and more want to step into the veins to see what happened.

With a whistle, Qingyu's claws crushed a large piece of jade and stood in front of Qin Tiange, blocking his way.

It has a very strong breath, and it was an eight-star-old bird just after it was born, but it was unexpected that it could not speak yet and had not fully grown up.

However, he was eight-star just after he was born, and his talent is very high, but Qin Tiange really didn't pay attention to his eyes. Although this green pheasant has a very talented bloodline, the ancient green cricket gene power in his body is also strong, but he still backhand Can suppress it.

"I read that you have the gene of one of the five phoenixes. I don't want to kill you and let it go." Qin Tiange stepped forward and immediately caused a violent reaction from the crickets.

It strongly warned, flapping its blue iron wings, and rolled up the wind and howling, just because it didn't want Qin Tiange to step in, it seemed very nervous.

"Unlucky!" When Qin Tiange turned his face and saw a cold humming bird, Qin Tiange snorted, his figure flickered, and his palm fell on Qing Qin's neck.

Just listening to the bang, the huge force smashed the green cymbal to the ground, crushing a lot of jade, but still stubbornly climbed up, and did not let Qin Tiange step in.

cry!

The barnyard cried fiercely, waving its iron wings, with a violent wind sound, whistling like an iron knife across the air.

Qin Tiange snorted, raising his hand was a split with a palm, a slap, the iron wings cracked, and the blue feathers on the roots of the tree were directly blown out.

Qing Yan screamed and opened his mouth to spit fire, but unfortunately Cyan Tianhu had no effect at all, and Qin Tiange opened his mouth and swallowed it into the chaos flame.

Seeing that Shenhua was useless and the opponent was strong, Qing Ye realized that he could not stop Qin Tiange.

Qin Tiange was surprised when it uttered a wailing, showing its anger, burning the flames and slamming into one head, as if to die together.

“Is it necessary to die or live like this?” Qin Tiange said silently, watching the green pheasant bird that slammed into it, the 100-meter-long body came crashing into it, and the whole cave began to shake and the rubble fell.

Around the jade veins, the jade veins actually cracked, and pieces of crystal jade dropped down, and some were directly turned into powder and shattered on the spot.

Qin Tiange blocked the green pheasant bird that had hit him with one hand, soared into the air, stood on the back of the green pheasant, and patted it with one palm.

boom....

The cave trembled, the jade fluttered down, the green pheasant bird screamed, and his mouth and nose were bleeding.

In such a small space, the green pheasant bird couldn't perform at all, and 10% of its ability could not be achieved, let alone face a powerful enemy such as Qin Tiange.

Soon, it was beaten down, lying there weakly, with a trace of anger and unwillingness in his eyes, watching Qin Tiange step deep into the jade vein.

Qin Tiange was surprised to discover that the jade scattered along the way was filled with a strong jade atmosphere, even with some kind of precious light.

On the stone wall, the jade light flickers, and the treasure is full of energy. It seems that there is a baby hidden in it. In fact, it goes without saying that the treasure is naturally contained in the jade.

This caught Qin Tiange's attention, but instead of digging, he stepped into the deepest part of the jade vein with a curiosity.

There was a strange atmosphere that attracted him, making him unconsciously ignore the jade walls that were emitting light around him.

Walking and walking, the light in front was faint, the jade atmosphere was lingering like clouds and mists, turned a corner, and suddenly came to a huge space.

“This is, the bottom of Yaochi Lake?”

When Qin Tiange came here, he was surprised by the scene he saw at first sight. Above his head, there was a piece of blue lake water, like a jadeite.

Take a closer look, isn't this Yao Lake Xianhu? He did not expect that he actually walked out of the bottom of Yaochi Lake, and there was a transparent and invisible force here, which blocked the lake from entering and formed such a unique space.

Around it, a huge palace, jade light is shining, so powerful, it is exactly a jade fairy palace, as if it came to the fairy palace above nine days.

“Yaochi Temple?”

Above the Jade Hall, a plaque is erected, depicting four ancient characters, and revealing a ray of glow, it is Yaochi Tiangong.

Seeing these four ancient characters, Qin Tiange was shocked, because those four ancient characters were the ancient human characters of the last era.

“Is the Queen Mother of the West really a human of the last era?” Qin Tiange couldn’t help but speculate and question.

Originally, it was only speculation, but now it can be seen that the mother of the West will be a strong man of the last era. Otherwise, how can there be an ancient palace here?

The jade palace is extremely large, completely covering the area occupied by the Yaochi, as if the Yaochi above the head exists to cover the jade palace.

Qin Tiange looked horrified, looking at the huge jade palace in front of him, and felt a strange wave of breath in it, as if a living creature was sleeping inside.

“This breath, is Queen Mother West still alive?” He was startled by the thought himself.

There was a volatility in the breath coming from the jade palace, as if it were a life, and there seemed to be a living being inside.

He even speculated that Queen Mother Xi was still alive, but Qin Tiange quickly rejected this year. What a joke, how could it be that the strong in the last era lived in this era?

Shaking his head, Qin Tiange dispelled the thoughts in his heart, surrounded by a layer of chaotic flames, stepped on the jade steps step by step, and walked towards this mysterious and ancient Yaochi Temple.

At the ninety-nine-step jade steps, Qin Tiange felt that the pressure on his body had doubled with each step, as if there was a mysterious force acting on him.

However, this pressure had no effect on him at all. He stepped on the jade steps step by step, and quickly went up to ninety-nine steps under great pressure, standing in front of the gate of the jade palace.

At this time, looking back, Qin Tiange suddenly realized that the jade steps were missing. There was no situation like the ninety-nine floor just now. Instead, there were only nine steps, which looked extremely strange.

“Illusion, or ...” Qin Tiange frowned secretly, looking back at this mysterious ancient jade temple.

The whole is too grand. It seems to be more than just this scale. It seems to be compressed by some powerful force and even becomes a mustard space.

“It’s weird, it’s a bit like a secret place, but it’s not.” Qin Tiange shook his head, walked to the gate of the jade palace, and gently pushed it.

A loud rumbling came, and the gate of the huge jade palace was pushed open, and a cloud of mist poured out, the glow was diffused, and the fragrance was fragrant, as if there was a peerless beauty inside.

Qin Tiange was secretly vigilant, but did not dare to carelessly. This mysterious and ancient jade hall, I do not know what dangers are hidden, may accidentally get into the way.

When the door was completely retracted and the scene inside was exposed, the clouds were dazzling, and the ground could not be seen at all, as if it was void, with only endless clouds.

In the void, the rays of light are intertwined, turning into clouds, emitting seven colors of light, as if entering a nine-day wonderland, making people dreamlike.

Qin Tiange was extremely vigilant, because he had just sensed a whisper of crisis, which made him extra careful.

Carrying the halberd Qin Tiange stepped out of the jade palace, stepped on it, and felt that he stepped on the cloud of nothingness, and did not fall down the nothingness.

In the Jade Hall, it is completely another world, empty and empty. Only Wan Da Cai Xia surrounds the sky, and the clouds are diffuse, there is nothing at all.

Oh! Da da da...

Qin Tiange walked through the void step by step, stepping on the clouds, stepping on the glow, walking in this vast and empty space, looking extremely lonely.

In addition, every step will be heard inexplicable footsteps, extremely crisp, even Qin Tiange's extreme control can not weaken this footsteps.

"The breath is there ..." Qin Tiange looked serious, his eyes staring at the area where Wan Da Cai Xia was intertwined.

That strange wave came from there, as he walked step by step, passed through the colorful clouds and mist, and walked into an area covered by glow.

In the thousands of rays of light, a jade coffin was hung quietly there, exuding a dim fairy light, jade flowers were bright, and the treasure was transpiration.

Chapter 489 - Jade coffin, mysterious man

The jade coffin floated, and Wan Dao Xianguang shrouded it, exuding a sense of immortality, as if a fairy was sleeping in the jade coffin, revealing the ancient vicissitudes.

"Jade coffin?" Qin Tiange moved his face, staring at the huge jade coffin, a vague figure lying in it.

Unfortunately, blocked by an air of fairy tales, it is impossible to see clearly, let alone see through. The only thing that can be seen is a looming figure, guessing that it is a woman.

Looking carefully, a small peach tree was rooted above the jade coffin, looking at the crisp green, the leaves were sparse and clear, but there were several red peaches.

These peaches are not the same as the peaches produced by the Lotus Mountain Peach Blossom Essence. The energy fluctuations emitted are almost incomparable, one heaven and one earth.

"Is this the rumored Yaochi Xiantao?" Qin Tiange's face changed, his eyes flashed.

With strong thunder and curiosity, he wanted to see if the peach tree was a rumored Yaochi fairy peach, and approached carefully, guarding the boiling clouds and glowing clouds around him, and passing through it, came to the jade shrouded by Wandao. The coffin is not far.

However, at a distance of 100 meters from the jade coffin, he couldn't get through. There was an invisible force to stop him. He couldn't rely on the previous step. No matter how hard he tried, he couldn't pass.

“Strange ... who is buried in the jade coffin?” Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the jade coffin not far from him, hovering quietly.

Through the flawless jade coffin, you can see a looming figure inside, wearing a colorful cloud, just like a heavenly man, but unfortunately can't see clearly.

But it is certain that there is a woman lying inside, so Qin Tiange could not help but guess, would she be the mother of the West Queen Yaochi in mythology?

There is a jade coffin floating in the light of silence, with a small peach tree rooted on it, and nine bright red peaches hanging on it, as if experiencing countless years, a breath of eternity.

What is the identity of the person in the jade coffin, is it the legendary mother of the West King Yaochi, or is she really the strong man of the last century?

With a strong curiosity, Qin Tiange thought to see what happened, so he stretched out his palm to push the force, and 50,000 people broke out and pushed it.

boom!

Suddenly, a more violent reaction force came, shaking Qin Tiange's entire body and shaking his palms, which made him a little numb.

Qin Tiange's face changed slightly, and he looked at an invisible force in front of him, and even shocked him, leaving no room at all.

This discovery made him extra vigilant and solemn, and could not help trying again.

boom!

The result is still the same. Even if the power of the limit erupts, he still steps into the 100-meter range of the jade coffin, but is shaken by a mysterious force.

“Is the person in the jade coffin still alive?” Qin Tiange couldn't help frowning, wondering.

He always felt that the jade coffin was isolated from all the breath, and it was impossible to detect whether the person in the jade coffin was still alive or was a body inside?

In fact, he didn't care who was in the jade coffin. Instead, he cared about the jade coffin, the peach tree rooted on the jade coffin, and the nine suspected Yaochi fairy peaches, but he couldn't help his heart.

The peach tree is nine feet nine inches tall, rooted on a jade coffin, and its leaves are crystal clear. Each branch has a fist-sized peach hanging on it, which is transparent and faintly golden.

The strange and fragrant aromas permeated Qin Tiange's body cells, causing them to beat violently, and they seemed very excited, as if they wished to eat those peaches.

“This is probably the legendary Yaochi Xiantao. Is it true that the people in it are the West Queen Mother Yaochi?” Qin Tiange licked his lips and stared at the fruit on the peach tree very heartily.

But he was very helpless and couldn't get over, let alone pick those peaches. Obviously seeing a taobao fairy peach tree in the suspected rumor, but if you can't see it, the situation is just crazy.

“Try to find a way to taste ...” After staring for a long time, Qin Tiange couldn't bear to give up, and finally decided to try again.

Yaochi Xiantao, who doesn't want to eat? Moreover, no matter whether this peach tree is the Yaochi fairy peach or not, just the strong energy fluctuations emitted by those nine peaches are enough to make him feel good.

He feels that as long as he eats a peach, his life will inevitably undergo some kind of transformation, which is worth breaking the current boundary and being promoted to a higher level.

“Done!” Qin Tiange gritted his teeth, took out the halberd, gathered his strength, and even entered the Kirin Transformer, a force of auspiciousness poured into the halberd, and stabbed into an invisible wall in front.

A stinging sound made the Euphorbia blocked, and the sharpness of the halberd still couldn't break the invisible force in front, which made Qin Tiange's face change.

boom!

The next moment, a violent force surged from above the halberd, and it took him dozens of meters to bring him and his halberd, but fortunately this power did not hurt him.

This caused Qin Tiange to become more reconciled, thinking that he was not injured by the earthquake anyway, how to break this energy barrier and get Xiantao.

“King of heaven!”

Another shot is the most powerful halberd, a huge huge shadow emerges, holding the halberd to hit it in the past.

Just listening to the bang, the invisible waves radiated, a terrible air wave rolled over, shattered the huge virtual shadow, and saw Qin Tiange spit out blood.

“I'm going, so sharp?” Qin Tiange flew a hundred meters before stopping, stepping on Xiangyun, and gently wiped the blood on the corner of his mouth.

His face was shocked. The blow that had gathered the strength of his whole body, but still could not break the invisible force, but was injured by his own strength.

This situation was a little embarrassing. Qin Tiange came here again, looking at the jade coffin at a distance of 100 meters in front of him.

To see or not to eat, it was just torture. Qin Tiange looked speechless and scratched his head. He really didn't know how to break this invisible force.

“I said, giving a peach will not lose anything, as for this?” Qin Tiange could not help but spit.

As a result, the jade coffin in front trembled slightly, and the peach seemed to have a spirit, and it even made a slight humming, shaking the branches and dropping a peach with a click.

Uh ...

Seeing this, Qin Tiange was stunned and dumbfounded. He watched that the peach tree on the jade coffin trembled, then a peach fell down, brought out an invisible force, and flew to Qin Tiange.

He reached out instinctively, circling in his heart, and staring at a peach in his hand in a daze, that's it?

“You ...” Qin Tiange opened his mouth to say something, but the glow of the surrounding area surged, and he wrapped him around, then rushed out of the jade palace, and then left Yaochi.

With a bang, the Yaochi water exploded, and a ray of light soared into the sky, wrapped in a figure and thrown up into the sky. After a few somersaults, it stopped.

Qin Tiange was a little embarrassed, horrified, staring at Yaochi who rolled down and calmed down, colorful water under the water, misty mist, and gradually disappeared.

“I'm going, Mother Xi is still alive?” Qin Tiange was startled. The strength was really terrifying just now, and he was called out without any resistance.

Yes, in his opinion, it was the people in the jade coffin who invited him out, but it was inevitable that he was a little embarrassed because it was the first time he was invited out without resistance.

However, Qin Tiange looked weirdly at a fist-sized peach in his hand, scented his nose, and felt his body cheering when he took a sip.

“Xian Tao ...” Qin Tiange licked his lips and swallowed without saying a word, whether it was poisonous or not.

In fact, he is not afraid of poison. The immortal body is enough to expel all poisons, not to mention that Chaos Flame can burn all poisons.

Moreover, if anyone in the jade coffin wanted to harm him, why bother giving a fairy peach and killing him directly, there is no need to go to great lengths.

From the force just invited him out, it is enough to see that the people in the jade coffin have not died yet and are extremely powerful and terrifying.

Zizi ...

Qin Tiange served Xiantao, with a ray of glow around her body, and a fairy-like atmosphere, like a fairy in the middle.

He felt countless cells in the body cheering, devouring the power of the fairy peach frantically, and falling into some mysterious transformation.

Taking Xiantao, his strength did not increase at all, but his inner life potential was infinitely elevated at this moment, and he obtained a profound transformation.

puff!

Qin Tiange suddenly opened his mouth and spit out a black substance with a foul odor, which turned out to be a backlog of stubborn toxins and garbage. This time, he was completely removed.

At this moment, he just felt comfortable and unexcitable, as if the body had some kind of mysterious evolution and his life level was higher.

He blinked his eyes, looking at the calm Yaochi below, thinking about it, passing quickly, and reached the top of the original Xuefeng.

But when he searched again, he suddenly found that the cave above the cliff was gone, yes, it had disappeared.

“Where is the cave? Six-tailed snow fox? Why is it gone?” Qin Tiange looked horrified and searched again and again.

He even broke the original cave location and caused an avalanche, but he couldn’t find the cave anymore.

The cave and even the six-tailed snow fox inside disappeared mysteriously. Since being invited out, all this seems to have become a little blurred and dreamy, as if everything just experienced is illusory.

However, Qin Tiange was very sure that he had just taken a fairy peach, and he had truly transformed his life and could not do it.

“Yaochi Tiangong ...” Qin Tiange floated on the cliff, looking at the cave that had disappeared in front of him, and could not help but feel a chill. It seemed that everything that had happened before was like a dream. However, it is so real, and a fairy peach has entered, isn’t this a dream?

Qin Tiange shook his head, grinning bitterly, and muttered, “It seems that I am not welcomed by the man in the jade coffin, is it because I have hurt the guardian’s green cricket?”

After thinking about it, Qin Tiange simply didn’t want to, and he had already obtained a fairy peach anyway. As for the jade coffin and the people in the jade coffin in Yaochi Tiangong, it had nothing to do with him.

Qin Tiange came to the top of the Snow Mountain, worshipped the grave of the human strongman of the last era, and then Shi Shiran left Kunlun Yaochi.

Not long after he left, a group of glowing lights flew out of Yaochi, floating quietly in front of the tomb, and a faint jade coffin was visible.

“Qianyuan ... you really aren’t there ...” A murmur of a woman’s ethereal whisper came out from Xia Guang, echoing in the snow and ice, and it didn’t dissipate for a long time.

Who is this voice? She knew Qianyuan, but unfortunately Qin Tiange had already left, she didn't know it at all.

Chapter 490 - Demon Emperor? Sister, marry me.

With more and more survivors, Miaojiang Miles City has become a large base, with at least 200,000 survivors.

As the evolutionary wave became faster and faster, a large number of emerging powerhouses emerged, but Long Xiaoqian, a Miao Xinjiang witch sacrifice, still no one dared to mess with.

Add to that Xi Xi, a young girl who was rumored to be descended from son-in-law. Regardless of status, status, or strength, she is the top in Miao Xinjiang Mile City, and no one dares to mess with it.

But recently, Xi Xi has been very troubled because she went out a few days ago and brought back a little trouble.

“Miss, do you promise me?”

On the street, two wonderful women are carrying a young lady who is about twelve years old, and the three are shopping. The two women, naturally, are Wu Jilong Xiaoqian and Xi Xi.

As for the twelve-year-old Mrs. Xiao, who was behind him, the little face was so handsome that she was a teenage killer.

“I said Xiaodongli, what did you think all day long when you were young?” Long Xiaoqian stared at the young lady with a speechless expression.

His name was Dongli. Long Xiaoqian and Xun Xi met out a few days ago, but when the other side saw Xun Xi at first glance, they followed him dead.

Dong Li was serious and said like an adult, “This is a matter between me and my sister, and it has nothing to do with you, a witch.”

“What did you say? Say it again?” Long Xiaoqian looked cold and raised his hand to teach him a lesson.

“Sister Long forgets, after all, he is still young and ignorant.” Xi Xi stopped Long Xiaoqian.

Dong Li turned her head up and hummed, “Did I make a mistake? Miss, she was a witch.”

“Dong Li, apologize quickly.” Xi Xi was a little angry.

Dongli sighed proudly: “Why apologize? Miss Sister, the two of us are born with noble blood, she can't compare with us at all, I will definitely become a great person everyone fears and admires in the future, you still follow me Let's go. “

“In the future, I will raise you, younger sister, I am sincere to you. Only I am worthy of you, and you promise to marry me. I swear to marry you in this life.” Dong Li a serious assurance.

This remark made Long Xiaoqian angry. Not only did she say she was a witch in front of the street, but she also said that she was not worthy of being compared with him, and she was furious.

In this case, even Xi Xi felt overdone and yelled: "Dong Li, how do you say that, then you can get angry with my sister."

"Okay, do n't be angry with my sister. I wo n't say it. Time will prove everything. What I said is right. Look at the eyes of other people who look at us. It is simply disgust and contempt. The human world cannot bear us. "Dong Li said, touching his forehead, where there were two short horns growing.

These two horns made many people say that he is a monster, a monster, and has suffered countless eyes and discrimination, or even aversion.

It was just like Xi Xi. At the beginning, he was treated as a monster, and was almost used to make articles to burn him to death.

What this said makes Xun Xi's heart extremely complicated. In fact, he looked at the strange eyes of the crowd around him, in fact, he was still a little uncomfortable.

But after all, it was not really burned, and Qin Tiange was rescued. In the end, she instilled some knowledge that she is the son-in-law of the son-in-law, and even the news was recognized and liked by many people.

In Miao Xinjiang Mile City, Xi Xi has won a lot of fans, of course, there are many people with ulterior motives.

"Miss, please marry me, I will take you out of the human world, and I will give you a piece of paradise that belongs to us." Dong Li promised with a serious face.

Long Xiaoqian couldn't stand it anymore, and stopped Xi Xi behind him, staring at Dongli in front of her face.

She said, "You better apologize and take back what you just said. I think you are too young to care about you, but you are not letting you insult."

Dongli said that she was noble in blood, and Long Xiaoqian didn't deserve him to apologize, as if she was inferior, making her particularly angry.

"Did I make a mistake?" Dong Li looked disdainfully.

He raised his head and hummed, "I have ancient blood, and I was born noble. I told you so much already in the face of my sister, otherwise I would not bother to look at you, just you, even for me No qualifications. "

"Dong Li ... You disappointed me too much." Xi Xi stepped out, full of disappointment, and Dong Li's words completely shattered that feeling in her heart.

When I met Dong Li before, I unconsciously developed a good feeling, as if from a kind of kindness in the blood.

He was originally a young man, and he made no mistake, but he was so wronged that he was so arrogant that he had no one in sight, as if the whole world was his noblest.

“You go.” Xi Xi said with disappointment.

As soon as this word came out, Dong Li’s complexion changed, and he said angrily: “Miss, why, why don’t you just refuse to leave me? What is good about human beings is hypocrisy, contrition, arrogance, and bloodlines are all low of.”

“Who is this kid, so arrogant?”

“Isn’t he human? Degrading humans like this?”

For a while, the crowds on the streets were irritated by the words, and Dong Li’s words were all roaring out, which shocked many people nearby.

One by one in amazement, looking at the little lady, with a proud face, a king’s contempt in his eyes, as if he was born noble.

Long Xiaoqian’s face was frosty, and her hands were constantly condensing a wave of boiling energy fluctuations. A small head was drilled out of the sachet at the waist, which was the cheap daughter she had obtained.

“Children are not good at school at a young age, and their children should be brought back to discipline.” A middle-aged man said unhappily.

What Dong Li said was too harsh, it was simply a kind of contempt and humiliation, which offended many people at once.

But he didn’t care, instead he scorned and hummed, “Look, you are destined to be a group of dirty and low-level creatures. Human beings are hypocritical.”

“Arrogance!”

When a loud drink came, he saw a burly man coming out, carrying a big knife, looking cold, and staring sharply at Dongli.

He walked step by step, and said, “Just because I was so young, I hated humans, so how can you grow up?”

“Today I will teach you how to be a man for your parents.” The big man came to him and said angrily.

As a result, Dongli crooked her head, exposed two sharp little tiger teeth, and scorned: “I’m not you dirty humans. See, I’m a demon.”

He also pointed to the two horns of his forehead, looking proud, as if he was the highest, with contempt and contempt in his eyes.

“Hit!” Dahan screamed angrily, slap in front of him, and didn’t use a knife, because he felt the other party was a child, and it was enough to learn.

boom!

After a muffled sound, someone vomited blood and flew across the blood. It was the middle-aged big man who had to learn from the east. The entire chest was sunken.

“Trash, dare to do it to me. If it weren’t for the younger sister, I would crush you and inferior things with one hand.” Dong Li took out a handkerchief in disgust and wiped the blood on his hand.

There was a dead silence at the scene, everyone sounded, looking at the middle-aged man lying on the floor and vomiting blood, looking angry.

“Dongli, you, did you kill someone for no reason?” Xi Xiqian was furious and stared at Dongli, her heart full of disbelief.

The young lady who admired her face before, looked handsome and cute, but she did not expect that her mind was so twisted, and even her mentality became a little different.

“He wasn’t dead, I just gave him a lesson, and naturally recovered in three or five months.” Dong Li said indifferently.

He came up, ignoring everyone around him, and said to Xi Xi seriously: “Sister, come with me, I will give you everything you want, and I can even give you this world for you.”

“What a buzzword, what gives you this confidence?”

At this moment, a faint voice came from the crowd, and everyone turned around instinctively, and saw a young man step out of the crowd and came to the three.

“Brother?” Long Xiaoqian screamed in surprise.

Xi Xi looked at the person, and she did not speak, apparently did not expect that Qin Tiange was coming, and something in her heart was about to move.

“Who are you?” Dong Li said unhappily.

His eyes were cold and he looked at Qin Tiange who came up, but unfortunately the latter ignored him directly and instead came to Long Xiaoqian’s face and gently wiped the tears in the corner of her eyes.

“It’s a good progress, it’s already a seven-star, and it has a deep foundation that didn’t disappoint me.” Qin Tiange said this in his first sentence.

Long Xiaoqian was very happy listening to her heart, her eyes were almost closed.

“Hey, do you ignore me?” Dong Li was angry, roared, and a surging demon power poured out, the powerful momentum shook the crowd around him back and forth.

Unfortunately, this momentum is in front of Qin Tiange, nothing. He smiled and nodded to Xi Xi, comforted a few words, then turned his head to look at the little lady.

“Dongli ... the demon emperor of the previous life, the origin is unknown ...” Qin Tiange recalled something from the previous life. The one in front of him is the demon emperor who founded the semi-monster alliance.

There are rumors that Dongli is not a human being, nor is it a living creature on the earth. Qin Tiange used to be a joke.

But now it's different. At the first sight of Dong Li, he felt it. Perhaps the legend is true.

“You are not a human More than a creature on earth, you are from outer space?” Qin Tiange said suddenly.

As soon as this word came out, the crowds were in a rush, Long Xiaoqian and Xun Xi looked very different, staring at Dongli in front of them inconceivably.

After hearing this, Dongli hesitated for a moment, then chuckled, “It's interesting. I didn't expect that you could guess my origin. It seems that you can't keep it.”

“Nine stars ... I don't know which family you are from outside the world?” Qin Tiange asked expressionlessly.

Dong Li shrinks her pupils, feels a touch of pressure, and faintly smells a crisis from the human youth in front of her.

“For Ji Xi's sake, I'll spare you once, get out.”

Qin Tiange said, gently pulling the hands of the dazed Long Xiaoqian and Xun Xi, and walked directly from Dongli.

“Miscellaneous account, you're looking for death!” Seeing him holding Wan Xi's little hand, suddenly, Dongfeng centrifugal anger, roared a disregarding condensate a demon force bombarded Qin Tiange's heart.
