

THE DARK AGES

Chapter 5 - problem occurs?

Walking in the grass of a flowerbed, a figure silently lurked, his eyes staring at the two zombies not far ahead through the gap of flowers and plants, lying on a student and biting and eating.

When I came back from the football stadium, Qin Tiange had been lurking in the grass, watching the students who kept running, panicking and screaming, but ignored them.

He stared at the two zombies in the grass not far away, and began to move quietly little by little, holding the steel knife tightly, ready to launch an attack.

Huh!

Suddenly, Qin Tiange came out suddenly, two steps forward, raised his knife in both hands, and raised his knife and chopped the neck of one of the zombies.

The other party sensed danger at an instant, raised his hair and roared like a beast, and there was a section of colorful intestines hanging in his mouth, which was extremely disgusting.

He only heard a click, and this zombie was cut off of his head, rolled down in the flowers, and the other zombie stood up and roared, his claws fluttered and caught him.

Huh!

Yan Gang's knife blocked for a moment, and with a loud noise, Qin Tiange could not help but take a step back, but at this time, he drew his sword and slashed.

With a click, the steel knife fell into the zombie's neck, and the knife did not cut off the opponent's head, which made Qin Tiange startled.

I didn't have time to think about it, he drew a sigh of relief with his hands violently strangling and severing his head.

"These zombies are evolving so fast that they are almost catching up to the two stars." Qin Tiange thought secretly while digging the brain crystals inside the zombies' skull.

Zombies will evolve to a more powerful level after consuming enough flesh and blood. From the beginning of the sporadic to one star, and even two stars and so on, they have evolved through the continuous swallowing of biological flesh and blood.

He dug out his brain crystal. He glanced around. The campus was completely chaotic. There were frequent screams in the teaching building, and the wailing sound was screaming. The students in the middle school were screaming in fear and screaming.

学生 Some students ran to the school aisle and fled in panic, screaming because terrible zombies were behind them.

These zombies were originally their lovely classmates, and they also had their beloved teachers, but suddenly they became monsters who bit people everywhere.

的 Students who have seen biochemical movies know that these biting monsters are called zombies, and they flee in panic.

"Ah ... save me!"

“No!”

In the school aisle, the two students ran and suddenly fell, and before they got up, they were caught up by a group of zombies behind them, and they rushed directly to bite and eat.

The flesh and blood splashed, the intestines fluttered, and the scene was extremely * and horrible, which was incredible.

Such scenes even scared other students and teachers to panic and scream, and fled one by one.

At this time, Qin Tiange rushed out of the grass and was going back to the dormitory building where he was parking, just to see a group of zombies downstairs teaching lying on three students, eating and biting, and there were eight zombies.

Roar...

— As soon as he appeared, he immediately caught the attention of one of the zombies, raised his head and roared, and suddenly stood up and rushed at him.

That is a zombie formed by a male student, only one meter and six meters tall, which is too short compared to Qin Tiange's one meter and eighty-five.

扑哧!

He drew his sword from his hand, and the steel knife directly cut off the head of the zombie. The black blood was sprayed three feet, and he was chopped and killed in front of him.

Qin Tiange swept around, many students screamed and ran down the stairs frantically, some people were thrown to the ground, and then came a terrible scream.

He was digging out a brain crystal, and the two zombies on the other side suddenly looked up, gray eyes staring at him, grinning and growling.

Roar!

Soon, the other zombies looked up, grinned and growled, even standing up and rushing towards him.

Lame enough seven zombies, Qin Tiange side of the body, stepped back to avoid the claws of one of the zombies, and then the steel knife on his wrist suddenly swelled.

With a click, the entire chin of the zombie was cut off, and the knife edge cut off the opponent's head.

这个 At this time, the other zombies arrived, two of them were swinging their paws left and right and caught Qin Tiange, who suddenly crouched down and cut across.

Huh!

A zombie fell to the ground, his legs were cut off by Qi Gen, and the rest of his upper body was still crawling madly.

Qi Qin Tiange got up and raised his knife, and the knife tip ran towards the soft part of the chin of the right zombie. He fluttered through his head and died on the spot.

In the end, the zombie who was cut off by the foot was cut off by Qin Tiange's head and cut off his head. The whole process from cutting the foot to beheading took less than three seconds.

He also had four zombies, and at this moment he rushed in front of him with his teeth and claws, * and stinking.

“Dead!”

Qin Tiange gave a cold drink, the steel knife was raised flat, and Huer stabbed him in the middle, piercing a pair of zombies in the middle.

He drew a knife and leaned back. Qin Tiange avoided a zombie claw on the left, and then started off with a knife and chopped off the arm of the zombie, and then stepped forward into the opponent's mind.

Roar!

The remaining two zombies pounced on, and at the same time pounced on Qin Tiange's body from the right, his body fell short and rolled down to avoid the two zombies.

He stood up, raised his knife and chopped, and with a click, chopped off the head of a zombie that was rising.

Staring at the last zombie, Qin Tiange shot two cold lights in his eyes, holding the knife in both hands, suddenly accelerated three steps in a forward charge, and held the steel knife diagonally and chopped on the opponent's neck.

With a snap, black blood spurted, his head soared, and the last zombie was killed.

After killing the eight zombies, Qin Tiange did not stay, dug out the brain crystals of the zombies as quickly as possible, and then rushed to the dormitory building. UU Reading Book www. uukanshu. com

But when passing by a flowerbed downstairs, Qin Tiange's footsteps suddenly stopped, his eyes stared sharply into the flowers, blood flowing out, and the flowers and plants were turbulent.

He stepped forward two steps, the steel knife slammed into the flowers, listening only to the sound of flesh, and then a roar of zombies roared, looking miserable.

Then, a zombie stood up from the flowers, and it turned out that the hind hip was being pierced by a steel knife. Seeing this, Qin Tiange twitched his face, secretly embarrassed. He just felt that he should be piercing his head, but he didn't expect it to be wrong.

抽 Quickly drew his knife, and then chopped, with a click, the zombie was finally dead. Qin Tiange took a few steps forward, carefully glanced at the flower bushes. A female student was lying inside, her stomach was completely torn, her intestines were flowing to the ground, and a large black blood spewed from her mouth. She had not completely died.

I saw Qin Tiange appear and killed the zombie who bit her. The schoolgirl blinked her eyes, but unfortunately she was not saved.

“Thanks ... Thanks ...” Her mouth squirmed and spit out two faint words, and finally she twitched, letting Qin Tiange know that she was about to become a zombie.

“Sent you on the road ...” He sighed and watched the schoolgirl turn into a zombie to rise up to attack. How could Qin Tiange give her a chance, she just slashed her head.

He dug out the brain crystal, Qin Tiange no longer stayed, carefully all the way, escaped several groups of zombies, and safely returned to the dormitory downstairs.

He saw a black pickup truck parked downstairs in the dormitory. There was a lot of rice and other food on the ground, and there was a pool of blood. Only the trace of Chen Xi, a former emperor, had disappeared. Qin Tiange's heart sank.

“Something happened?” Qin Tiange looked cold and holding a steel knife, stepped inside this dormitory building.
