

Dark Ages 501

Chapter 501 - Born as Huaxia, die as Huaxia soul

When Qin Tiange connected to Beijing and spoke with Supreme Leader Chen Guodong, a huge virtual screen suddenly appeared in front of a shop in major bases in Huaxia.

Not only that, countless people who have purchased personal terminals have received a picture message and appear in front of them autonomously.

“what happened?”

In the Shenzhen City Base, a virtual screen suddenly popped up on everyone’s personal terminal. The above shows the live broadcast of Taigu Overseas Chinese Base.

I saw the densely packed overseas Chinese gathered on the reinforced concrete wall of the base, one by one, looking dignified, watching countless zombies coming out of the base.

This is a tide of corpses, which leaks the water around the entire base. Many conscious super zombies are hidden inside the group, controlling the tide to launch an attack.

“Which base is this?”

In the south of Beijing, Guangcheng, Sucheng, and so on, the high-level and even the major forces in the major bases are holding back, watching the picture of the personal terminal emerging.

That base is very strange, but the broken five-star red flag hanging on the wall of the base is extremely eye-catching, needless to say that this is a base belonging to the Chinese people.

Soon, someone recognized the location of this base, and there was an iconic building, that is, the Kingdom of Taigu.

“Dear compatriots, this is an overseas Chinese gathering place in Taigu. They are experiencing a crisis of destruction.”

With such a word coming out of the virtual screen, countless Chinese people were shocked, and then understood that this was the situation where someone could actually shoot live overseas bases.

“A good Qin Tiange, even if he has such a method, does he have a satellite that can do such a detection?” Xiao Hai, the eldest son of the Xiao family, looked cold and stared at the virtual picture in front of the sea base.

At each base, as long as there are shops opened by the Ministry of Commerce set up by Qin Tiange, a large virtual light curtain appears in the bases of all major forces and broadcasts this live broadcast.

Countless survivors gathered intentionally or unintentionally. Looking at this virtual live broadcast picture, one after another was shocked. Someone who saw it showed something.

“Good boy, this is building momentum.” Jingnan, Admiral Mu Hua looked seriously at the virtual screen in front of him.

Guangcheng, Lieutenant General Qi Shao looked dignified, staring at the base on the screen and the figure on the city wall. He knew that it was the ambassador who was stationed before the end of Huaxia.

"It is Ambassador Wu ..." Lieutenant General Qi Shao looked dignified, stood up, and walked back and forth.

He realized in his heart that Qin Tiange was trying to build momentum for himself. Not only that, but he also had more deep meaning in it.

Shang Jing ended his secret conversation with Qin Tiange. Chen Guodong looked dignified and looked at the screen of his personal terminal, his eyes kept flashing.

"Leader, the meaning of Admiral Qin's action this time ..." Lieutenant General Xia Ming looked extremely serious, but did not say clearly.

Chen Guodong added for him: "Do you want to say that this boy wants to build momentum for himself?"

"Yes, I think that's what he meant." Lieutenant General Xia Ming was a little worried.

But Chen Guodong lamented: "Lao Xia, we are all old. Look at how many new stars have risen in the major bases of Hua Xia. From now on, it will be the world of young people and the world of the strong."

"I have seen that Qin Tiange is trying to build momentum for himself. He is paving the way for his future plans." Chen Guodong saw Qin Tiange's motivation at a glance.

"He wants ... upper position?" Xia Ming muttered, startled by himself.

Lieutenant General Chen Wu had a complex expression. Looking at the overseas base on the screen, he didn't know what he was thinking, but he still believed that he had read the right person.

With the emergence of virtual light curtains around China, more and more people understand that the picture is an overseas Chinese gathering place.

"That's Taiguo, oh my god, why is there a scene of being too foreign, is this our gathering place overseas?"

"Taiguo Manchester City Chinese Base?"

As this picture jumped out, countless survivors of Huaxia's natives were boiling.

But then, the base in the picture was flooded by countless zombies, and the corpse tide launched a fierce attack.

"My fellows!"

On the walls of overseas bases, Ambassador Wu looked serious and screamed loudly: “Dear fellow Chinese, the crisis is coming. As Chinese children, you can’t lose the face of our Chinese ancestors whether they are here or not.

“I will fight with you to the end!”

“Life is Huaxia, die Huahua soul!”

“Battle! Battle! Battle!”

A roar, full of passion, passion and blood, ignited the inner blood and blood of countless Chinese children.

Regardless of overseas bases or the numerous Chinese people who saw this picture in China, all of them were ignited by that sentence.

A broken five-star red flag was waving in the wind in a foreign country. Hundreds of thousands of overseas Chinese were holding arms and resisting.

“kill!”

The  battle broke out, the tide came, and countless zombies were extremely powerful, that is, the zombies that have evolved now have a simple consciousness and are extremely terrible.

In the face of a large number of corpse waves, this base is like a small boat fluttering in the wind and rain, and it will be subverted and sunk at any time.

The corpses roared, swarmed up the city walls, and for a time, the shouting and killing sounded so loud that people seemed to be back to the last days, watching a zombie science fiction movie.

But they know that this is not a movie, but a real scene. There are hundreds of thousands of Huaxia people living abroad, facing the danger of engulfing countless zombies.

“Ah ... born as Huaxia, die as Huaxia soul!”

Someone snarled, flung a giant zombie on his body, tore one hand off, stepped off his legs, spit blood, and made a final shout. The remaining hand pierced the sword into the zombie’s mouth, perish together.

Many people roared, rushed forward to fight, and fought against the corpses that rushed to the wall. The  killing was spreading, and the wall was about to be broken.

“Brothers, we can’t go back to our motherland, but we would rather stand dead than live on our knees!”

“We China, there is no such thing!”

“Kill!”

The roar, the shouting and killing sounds were intertwined, and a group of fierce and fearless soldiers rushed to withstand the attacks of the tide of corpses, recaptured the city walls, and were breached again.

In the battles over and over again, the city walls were filled with corpses, and in the end, the city walls still fell.

“Hold on, hold on!”

“Hold on, kill, kill!”

In the major bases of Huaxia, many  Huaxia people are anxious, one by one, with red ears and red roars, can't wait to plunge directly into the picture to kill the zombies.

Unfortunately, they couldn't do it, they just watched this overseas base drowned by the tide of corpses and the city walls fell.

“What about our Chinese military support?”

“Yes, since you have the ability to detect these, you must be able to support them.”

“What about our reinforcements?”

For a time, the survivors in various parts of China were in a mixed mood, and they all started shouting that the military would send reinforcements. Even the survivors in some bases formed groups and asked the major base forces to send reinforcements.

This can ruin those forces and want to turn off those virtual screens, but unfortunately that's just extravagance. Who dares to turn off at this time?

Even if they dare, they will not be able to shut down, because many people have purchased personal terminals and connected to the huge network world they have built.

Throughout Huaxia, at least tens of millions of people already have personal terminals, and even this number is still rising. This is an extremely horrible thing.

At the headquarters in Beijing, Supreme Leader Chen Guodong fetched a portable precision suitcase to open, entered the password, fingerprint, and directly picked up the communicator and gave the order.

As far away as an underground missile base in Huaxia, the No. 1 silo was filled with a terrorist warhead, and it was ready to launch. Only waiting for the last command, the missile would be launched.

At this moment, countless zombies poured into the base on the screen, which could not be resisted at all. Terrorist corpses attacked in all directions and the base fell.

Seeing this, many Chinese survivors have dull eyes and feel a kind of sadness in their hearts, feeling sad and empty.

Looking at the countless overseas people who were cruelly torn and eaten, their hearts were dripping with blood, and they could not help the anger rising from their hearts.

“Why is there no reinforcements?”

“What about our Chinese army?”

For a while, countless survivors in major bases were roaring. Since they were shown such a picture, but they were unable to help, wasn't this a deliberate blow to them?

It would be better if you did n't play it, but you did n't have the ability to help, but you could n't see it, but you could n't help it. It felt crazy.

Just as countless people were angry and roaring, suddenly, there was a change in the picture. I saw a laser beam from afar and bombarded the dense tide of corpses, causing huge casualties.

That was a laser cannon. Then, dozens of strangely shaped fighters flew in the sky, and howling at low altitude, two laser cannons kept roaring and smashing one zombies.

Of course, they are ordinary two-star zombies. As for the powerful zombies, the laser cannons can't kill each other. This is no way out.

“That is, our Huaxia fighter?”

Seeing this, everyone was boiling. Five-star red flags were engraved on the fighter planes, as well as the special military logo. They immediately realized that this was their Huaxia fighter plane.

Dozens of new unmanned fighters arrived above this overseas base and joined the battle directly, bombarding the tide of corpses, causing great confusion and reducing the pressure on the base.

“Ambassador Wu, look, is that our Huaxia fighter?”

At the base, the Chinese people who were struggling to fight suddenly found that more than thirty weird fighters appeared in the sky, and laser cannons constantly bombarded the corpses.

Especially when they saw the imprinted five-star red flag, everyone was excited.

“It's our fighter, it's our fighter.”

“Comrades, the motherland reinforcements are here!”

Ambassador Wu burst into tears and almost burst into tears. He was really excited. At this most desperate time, he was naturally excited when he saw the fighter from Huaxia.

Everyone had tears in their eyes, and their hearts were warm at this moment. A boiling blood was raging, and they kept roaring.

“Brothers, the motherland has come to save us.”

Ambassador Wu gave a roar with tears, and immediately the shocked base guards collapsed. The morale skyrocketed, countless people shouted wildly, hacked them up, and even killed the zombies that poured into the base.

“Look at what is it?”

“Oh my god!”

The next moment, both the Chinese survivors in overseas bases and the survivors in various parts of Huaxia itself were stunned by the scenes appearing on the screen.

Two huge air battleships hurriedly flew, and dozens of fighter jets swooped away, launching an attack directly on a large number of flying corpses in the sky.

Bang!

Two beams of horrific beams of light burst through, flying directly through the flying beasts in the sky, instantly annihilating a large group, that is, the corpses on the ground, were torn apart by two of them.

Sudden changes, whether humans or zombies, stopped for a while, staring blankly at the two huge warships flying in the sky.

“The motherland reinforcements have arrived ...”

At the overseas base, everyone saw the two air battleships and couldn't help tearing up, especially the bright five-star red flag. At this moment, the hearts of hundreds of thousands of Chinese people inside the base were melted.

Chapter 502 - Nuclear explosion, deterring 8 parties

The reinforcements arrived, and two huge aerial battleships appeared on the battlefield, which instantly burst into the enthusiasm of countless people. All the Chinese people watching the live broadcast were inexplicably inexplicable.

“Air battleship!”

“It's an air battleship!”

There was a scream, and many people in the major bases were excited. Looking at the two huge warships, they were floating and flying, not to mention the air warships.

战 Each battleship is 250 meters long and 39 meters wide, equipped with two giant electromagnetic energy cannons, plus 20 laser turrets, all roaring, and beams of light whistled away.

Bang bang bang

All of a sudden, the corpses outside the base were blown up, and numerous pieces of minced meat flew down like rain. The scene was extremely spectacular and shocking.

Within Huaxia, the top leaders of the major bases were shocked, and then remained silent. Some interested people looked at the two huge air battleships, each one dignified, feeling the inexplicable pressure.

“It turned out to be an air warship. Where did Qin Tiange's * come from?” Xiao Fei's face was dark and cloudy.

He looked at the two aerial battleships on the screen and rushed directly into the battlefield. The laser fortifications roared and the electromagnetic guns roared, killing a bunch of zombies.

Twenty-nine new fighter jets circled over the sky, guarding two air warships, and destroying the chaotic flying corpse in the sky.

“First team, land, destroy the corpse.”

At this time, behind the two battleships, followed by dense new tanks, they landed quickly under the open airships, and rushed down from the tanks in a group of soldiers wearing super armor.

This is the first city defense regiment in Shenzhen City. It was directly mobilized by Qin Tiange to participate in this overseas rescue battle.

“Everyone followed me, defeated the corpses and rescued the trapped compatriots.”

I saw a man jumping down from a chariot. He was a burly man with a huge ice crystal in his hand. His breath was so strong that he was a seven-star powerhouse.

人 This person is named Wu Feng. He is a new general and major general who stands out from the elites of the army.

An elite army of 50,000 people appeared after the corpse and rushed directly. There were warships and fighters bombing on the sky, and chariots on the ground opened the road. The army rolled all the way and broke the corpse on the east.

At this moment, Huaxia Qicheng, the new young general Zhou Zhou of the Zhou family, looked surprised and kept mumbling.

“Qin Tiange, it’s really interesting, I don’t know what expression the Qin family will see here?” Zhou Jian thought and couldn’t help but chuckled.

“Qin Tiange, you really surprised me”

Shen Cheng’s Qin family, the new general, Qin Feng, looks cold and gazes at the two air warships on the screen, showing an impulse.

He already understood that this is Qin Tiange’s family, but he did not expect that Qin Tiange, who was his age, had such a terrible family.

Li Guangcheng, Lieutenant General Qi Shao, surprised by the two air battleships.

“Good guy, even the sky battleship has been made, your boy, there is a set.” Lieutenant General Qi Shao was excited.

A very large air battleship. This is the first time that it has appeared in front of the major forces inside China. It directly shocked many major forces.

“Hahaha, okay, kid, come back and blackmail him. I have to get a few air warships from him.” Admiral Mu Hua laughed and laughed.

Beside him, the Snow Woman looked at it quietly, her icy eyes continued to shine with a faint light, her eyes glowing.

When he went to Beijing, Chen Guodong’s leader smiled bitterly and cursed: “This boy is really not authentic. Hiding such a powerful force, no wonder he asked me for the group of people in the General Hospital.”

“No, when he comes back, we must pull out a few air battleships. How can we go to Beijing as the capital of China, can we not have a family member?”

I trembled all over China. At the same time when the forces on all sides were shocked, many big forces with intentions began to be stimulated.

“Get out of here, I can’t get an air battleship. Don’t eat.”

“No matter what method you use, get me the air warships and new fighters, exchange them, make them, and you can’t get them back. You don’t need to come back.”

Within each force, the major leaders roared and issued the strongest voice, apparently stimulated by Qin Tiange’s air battleship this time.

Huaxia’s major bases have begun a round of arms race, not only the evolution of individuals, but also the strength of armaments and weapons, and the comprehensive strength must be strong enough.

Howling!

The corpse roared and roared constantly, but was bombarded by two huge aerial battleships all the way, and then crushed by ground forces.

The roaring fighter jets finally released the crisis to the east of the base, and two huge warships also came over the base, hovering over the heads of hundreds of thousands of people.

A laser gun fired a roar, which exploded continuously in the corpse, shattering countless zombies and setting off a wave of blood and rain.

Roar!

At the moment when the air-space battleship disrupted the tide of corpses, a terrifying roar came from the center of the corpse, shaking the earth with endless fierceness.

“Eight-star corpse collar?”

On the battleship, when he heard this roaring Qin Tiange, he immediately judged from the breath that it was an eight-star gangster.

Sure enough, looking through the window, in the center of the corpse, a huge zombie stood there, ten meters high, the whole body was like gold casting, like a King Kong.

The most terrible thing is this golden zombie, with eight giant claws, and a pair of golden wings behind it, with sharp spikes, like the eight-armed diamond.

“The eight-star King Kong corpse has a trace of evil Buddha nature.” Qin Tiange murmured blandly.

Even an eight-star mighty Vajra corpse, he didn’t take it to heart. A small eight-star Vajra corpse is really not enough in Qin Tiange’s eyes.

主人 “Master, there are too many corpses, and the current number of fighters cannot effectively kill them. After all, the current laser cannon is still the first-generation test product, and it is not powerful.”

I have a serious reminder on the side that the number of corpses here is too large, and it is roughly estimated that there are at least millions of zombies.

的 The two air warships led by Qin Tiange, ninety unmanned fighters, and the fifty thousand elite army, are still in the water, unless he does it himself.

But Qin Tiange is not ready to do it himself. This time, the purpose is very clear. That is to establish a strong military image to stimulate the arms race within China and improve its overall strength.

Another is deterrence, how to deterrence, and who?

“Contact Beijing and ask for leadership support.”

With a faint smile on his face, Qin Tiange instructed his wife to connect to Beijing and ask Beijing for military support.

He said that this was weird, but Jiji executed it meticulously and passed the request to Shang Jing and sent it to the leader of Chen Guodong.

“Is this boy unknown to the prophet?” Chen Guodong looked at the request, amazed.

I saw that the request stated that Shanghai should provide long-range strike support. Isn't it expected that Shanghai would be able to support it here?

When the three veteran generals looked at each other, Xia Ming said suddenly, “Lao Chen, I don't think there is any fuss about General Qin, don't forget who built the new network system.”

“Artificial intelligence!” Chen Guodong understood.

没有 He didn't hesitate and directly ordered: “Order Well No. 1 to lock in the target area and send a courier to the compatriots in other countries.”

“Launch!”

With a roar, a blaze of light suddenly rose in Huaxia, a huge intercontinental missile whistled away, straight into the sky.

Jaina is Oriental Express from the motherland of China. As the so-called Oriental Express, its mission must be fulfilled.

导弹 This missile carrier carried a million-ton equivalent hydrogen bomb, which directly penetrated the atmosphere and whistled away from space orbit towards the target at a predetermined location.

Under the guidance of nanosatellites and under the guidance of his own secret calculations, the missile finally swooped down from its new space orbit.

“Open the electromagnetic energy wall and protect it from explosions!”

On the battleship, Qin Tiango watched the huge missile whistling down from the sky silently. Many people saw it.

Dozens of fighter planes flew back, stopped floating around the warship, and gradually emitted an electromagnetic aperture intertwined into one piece, turned into a magnetic light curtain covering the south direction of the base.

I hadn't waited for hundreds of thousands of overseas survivors to understand what was going on, and saw a missile in the sky whistling with a long tail flame.

强烈 A strong light explodes, as if a huge sun is falling, the intense light is extremely dazzling, making people dare not look directly.

After the strong light passed, it was an extremely horrible explosion, banging loudly, as if the sky was falling apart, causing the ears of countless people in the base to ache.

The world is deaf, countless people are dumbfounded, staring blankly at the huge bright light cluster, like a blue sun, extremely scorching.

“Nuclear nuclear explosion?”

In Huaxia, countless people were uproaring, gazing at the huge mushroom cloud on the virtual screen, and stunned by the shock wave of terror.

Even in the center of the explosion, the scorching heat directly melted all the zombies there, and the terrible power destroyed all the corpses within three kilometers.

The corpses three centimeters away were hit to varying degrees. Some corpses were blown up, while others were smashed into pieces on the spot.

Some of the zombies were burned into coke by the high temperature. For a time, the densely packed corpses stopped attacking, staring blankly at the huge mushroom cloud, and the sound of rumbling was oscillating for a long time.

“I, my god”

At the base, many people swallowed and looked at the huge mushroom cloud, feeling the horrible shock wave and rolling heat waves, one after another.

If it were not blocked by an electromagnetic energy wall in front, maybe this base would be swept into ruins by powerful shock waves, and many people would even be injured by huge shocks.

“Nuclear bomb, who dropped the bomb?”

At this moment, the entire interior of Huaxia was boiling, and countless people exclaimed. Looking at the huge mushroom cloud that was vacated, the fool knew that it was the scene of a nuclear explosion.

I didn't expect that even if there was a nuclear explosion, they could see the scene of the nuclear explosion, it was incredible.

For ordinary people, this is exciting news, but it is undoubtedly a gimmick for major and powerful forces.

This time the nuclear explosion formed a deterrent, which deterred all major forces within China, and made many people who were tempted to die immediately.

These caring people are not stupid. When you see this, you still do n't understand. It is the hydrogen bomb that was directly ordered by the Shangjing. The purpose is to use this live broadcast to form a shock and strengthen the status of Shangjing.

“Send a message to support the Beijing Orthodox.”

When the scene of the nuclear explosion appeared, there were more than a dozen large and small bases in the entire territory of China immediately announced their support for Beijing.

Regarding these voices, no matter whether it was Shangjing or Qin Tiange, he did not care. His intention has been reached. A nuclear explosion has formed a deterrent to internal forces. This is enough.

As long as you are not a fool, you will weigh your actions. Otherwise, once you anger Shanghai, it will be a disaster. Although it is impossible to use these big killers internally, there is always a deterrent?

Although it is said that as the wave of evolution accelerates, eight-star and even nine-star powerhouses can already be immune to the threat of nuclear bombs, but at least most people cannot.

“One nuclear bomb is not enough. Oneself, ordered three unmanned fighters to drop one super-concentrated small hydrogen bomb on the east, one on the west, and one on the north.”

On the battleship, Qin Tiange was expressionless, and issued an amazing command. He saw three drones suddenly take off and dropped a bomb on each of the other three sides of the base.

That is three small super-concentrated hydrogen bombs, which were dismantled from engineering robots, as a pollution-free super-concentrated hydrogen bomb made after research and improvement.

Bang bang bang

I haven't waited for countless people to wake up from the shock of the nuclear explosion, three strong rays of light from the three directions of the base once again, the endless high temperature engulfed a large number of corpses.

Suddenly, hundreds of thousands of people in the entire overseas base and even Huaxia's countless people watching the live broadcast crashed, and the scene blew up.

Chapter 503 - Moving world

Three blazing little sun erupted, the endless high temperature engulfed the corpse tide, and melted Sha Shuo, and the terrible shock wave blew the things within a few kilometers around.

Humans lost their voices, and many people in the base were overwhelmed by the terrible heat wave. After climbing up, they looked at the three mushroom clouds in a daze.

Huh! Roar

The corpse screamed, and many zombies were snored by a sudden explosion. The hydrogen bomb exploded, causing some newly born zombies to have fear.

“A nuclear explosion again?”

All of a sudden, people watching the live broadcast inside Huaxia were frightened. A large-capacity hydrogen bomb explosion was just scary enough.

At a glance, three hydrogen bombs exploded. Although the power seemed much smaller, the mushroom cloud produced by the explosion was not small.

Even the high temperature generated by the explosion was even more violent. For a moment, countless people collectively lost their voices, and the major forces were generally silent.

Everyone looked at the three violent light balls, as if three little suns exploded, and then the mushroom cloud emptied for a long time.

With the explosion of four hydrogen bombs on his face, countless survivors of the Kingdom of the Kingdom were stupefied at the base of Manchester City, fifteen kilometers away, looking at the terrible mushroom cloud, all looking scared.

“Long live the motherland!”

Suddenly, I didn’t know who was snarling, and it awakened countless people. Hundreds of thousands of survivors in the base were frantic and excited.

的 The support from the motherland Huaxia not only sent two brand-new air warships and dozens of new fighter aircraft, but also powerful nuclear strike support.

This is enough to make hundreds of thousands of overseas ethnic people burst into tears, nuclear bombs, for the sake of these overseas ethnic people, they actually used nuclear bombs.

“Long live the motherland!”

“Long live the motherland!”

For a while, hundreds of thousands of people in the base shouted in unison, the waves were rolling, the waves were higher than the waves, and they shook the world with endless joy.

Not only overseas bases, but also in China, countless people who watched live broadcasts boiled without exception, cheering loudly.

Why did you cheer? Because the nuclear explosion has brought countless Chinese people a strong confidence, with hundreds of thousands of compatriots supporting overseas bases, even using nuclear bombs, that is a strong sense of security.

For the hundreds of thousands of ethnic groups, the current Chinese leader has directly used a nuclear bomb, so it will give a strong voice to the outside world. For the sake of the nation and the ethnic group, Huaxia will use super weapons to protect the safety of all people.

From the moment the nuclear bomb exploded, the orthodoxy of Shangjing has become an irreversible fact, and the hearts of the people who fell to the bottom after the end are reunited at this moment.

Looking at the cheering crowds in various bases, many powerful men and those in power fell into a long silence.

They all know that the Huaxia nation has once again reunited together from the last days, and once someone dares to do things that split the nation, they will be torn apart by countless excited and crowded people.

Sound of wailing

The mushroom cloud gradually dissipated, and there was a mournful sorrow from the explosion center, where there were still zombies that had not died.

Yes, the nuclear explosion center, although killed numerous zombies, still has a small number of zombies survived from it.

For example, some high-level zombies, although the number of loss of more than six stars is very small, but after all, it has evolved to this point, the power of nuclear bombs is much weaker.

The corpse tsunami was completely dissipated, causing chaos, and being bombed by a nuclear bomb like this was no longer a significant threat.

“Comrades, pluck up your weapons and kill the zombies!”

“Motherland, be with us!”

“Kill!”

At this moment, hundreds of thousands of Chinese compatriots who had soberly erupted. Everyone picked up their weapons and roared loudly, and a hot blood in their heart continued to surge.

Many people are in tears, and the motherland has used a nuclear bomb for them, which is enough to move the hearts of these hundreds of thousands of overseas compatriots.

Who saw the nuclear explosion before the last day? No, no one has seen a nuclear bomb exploded since the end of the day.

But today, they saw that in order to support them, the motherland used a full four nuclear bombs to support overseas compatriots and directly disrupted the tide of corpses.

Hundreds of thousands of people counter-killed and slashed all the zombies rushed into the base, driving the chaotic corpses out of the city walls and regaining the lost city walls.

Everyone looked at the corpse that was blown up in the outside, suddenly couldn't help cheering, and some people were so excited to cry on the knees facing Dongfang.

That was tears of excitement. The assistance from the motherland deeply touched the hearts of every overseas ethnic group. The anxious heart was melted.

Huh!

At this time, a terrible roar came from the chaotic corpses outside the base, and a super zombie roared, and the chaotic corpses once again gathered.

I saw a ten-meter-tall Vajra corpse slowly came out, one of the eight giant claws was blown up, and his body was full of gold-moulded, covered with blood spots.

This is an eight-star King Kong corpse, the highest corpse leader of the entire corpse tide. He was bombed by a nuclear bomb and has not died. He has just suffered some injuries.

It's powerful, shocking, and even more frightening is that there are three seven-star super zombie generals who follow King Kong.

“Eight-star zombies, nuclear bombs will never die, oh my god.”

Many overseas compatriots were shocked on the wall of the city, causing a little anxiety, but soon settled down, because there were two huge aerial warships hovering above their heads.

There are powerful reinforcements sent by the motherland. They don't need to be afraid. They just need to pick up the blood of the Huaxia people, wave their weapons, and kill all enemies.

“Sure enough, the nuclear bomb will be eliminated in the end.”

On the battleship, Qin Tiange looked at the indestructible eight-star King Kong corpse, and three seven-star super zombies, plus dozens of six-star zombies, were not killed.

What is chaotic is the gradual assembly of the group, once again turning into a dense tide of corpses, at the same time gathered together, under the leadership of the eight-star King Kong corpse, it seems to be attacking again.

The King Kong's corpse roared, and the roaring sound was shocking. The remaining seven giant claws waved fiercely, and they rushed towards the side of the collapsed city wall.

It's fast, it jumped to the city wall in a blink of an eye, the giant claw slammed hard, and a bang, dozens of people were beaten out on the spot.

“Look for death!”

I screamed loudly, and with the sound of whispering sounds, there was a sharp breaking sound, and I saw a huge war halber severely chopping Vajra's brain.

Standing on the city wall, the eight-star King Kong corpse roared to the sky, and the breath of terror shocked many people to death. Seven giant claws hit the sky high.

Huh!

The terrible clash of gold and iron came, and then the waves rolled, the city walls crashed down, and the smoke and dust that rolled up the sky plummeted hundreds of meters high.

The eight-star King Kong corpse was roaring, and was punched into the ruins by a halberd. Half of the body was buried in it, and the exposed upper body was dazzling with gold, muscles agitated, and giant claws waving.

“Dead!” I was surprised to see that a person fell in the sky and chopped a large halberd with a click, then cut off a giant claw, and then the halberd turned, stabbing sharply at the brows of King Kong.

Sound of wailing

The King Kong’s corpse shouted, looking extremely terrified, and his huge claws waved to resist it. Unfortunately, the eyebrows were pierced by the halberds and pierced.

The Qin Tiange halberd smashed, smashed the head of King Kong’s corpse, collected three eight-star zombies that rushed up after facing the eight-star corpse crystal.

“Sister, look, brother-in-law really!”

At the Sucheng base, Chen Xi and Chen Yan stared at the virtual light curtain in front of each other. When they saw Qin Tiange jumping from the sky, he killed the eight-star King Kong corpse in a single shot, and both eyes were illuminated. , Excited.

“Brother-in-law is mighty!” Chen Ye even danced and waved her pink fist cheering: “Sister, I know it must be brother-in-law, do you really think it is my brother-in-law?”

Xi Chenxi smiled, looked at the virtual light curtain quietly, and stared at Qin Tiange’s figure momentarily.

“First Team, kill me!”

I saw that Qin Tiange gave a violent drink, and Wu Feng immediately led a 50,000 elite army to kill him. After following Qin Tiange, he blocked the surge of corpses.

Many people were shocked, watching King Kong’s zombies lying in the rubble, their heads were smashed, and they were beheaded and killed on the spot.

Eight stars, everyone was shocked, not only the hundreds of thousands of compatriots in overseas bases were shocked, but also the people who were watching the live broadcast in China.

In particular, Qin Tiange’s hands-on moment, he has consciously directly controlled the satellite, and the whole city, shooting Qin Tiange in an all-round way, every action, even every expression is extremely clear.

海 “Qin Tiange” Xiao Family in the maritime market, Xiao Fei squealing with his fists, looking blue, looking at Qin Tiange’s powerful bombardment of the eight-star King Kong corpse, he felt a heart-beating feeling.

The eight-star King Kong corpse was bombarded in this way. Xiao Fei was only seven-star. Although he was confident that he could also kill the eight-star King Kong corpse, he could never do so easily.

boom!

“Asshole, why didn’t you die, why did you show up?”

At the Qin family in Shencheng, Qin Feng smashed the steel table in front of him. He looked somber and wanted to drip water, growling in a low voice, like a beast.

With the appearance of Qin Tiange, the neat and clean military uniform, the shining star, surprised countless Chinese people.

“The immense Tianzun, his strength is more terrible”

Among the crowd at the base, a Taoist priest looked at Qin Tiange on the screen with a bitter smile. He was an unscrupulous Taoist.

“Amitabha”

某 In a gathering place in Dunhuang, a handsome young monk with the Buddha number looked at the figure on the virtual light curtain, his body was boiling, and his eyes were full of surprise.

“This guy has grown to such an extent?” In a city in northern China, a young man looked at the person on the virtual light curtain, exuding intense fire all over his body.

“Interesting person, don’t know how many stars he is now?”

The appearance of Qin Tiange attracted the attention of the rising stars in Huaxia, and many people began to pay attention to him.

This is Qin Tiange’s first high-profile appearance. He officially stepped onto the doomsday stage and became famous in the First World War.

After this overseas rescue battle, Qin Tiange’s big name spreads all over the country, and countless people know him as a young Chinese general, a powerful master, with an air battleship and even a nuclear bomb.

“Brother Qin, you are still so powerful”

At a corner of a mountain, a figure shrouded in a black robe stretched out a slender little hand and gently stroked Qin Tiange’s resolute and handsome face on the terminal light curtain.

At the same time, in a special area where a corpse is everywhere, a jade corpse is playing with his personal terminal, looking at the person on the screen, with a pink face.

“Hee hee, good brother, my sister is getting more and more like you. I haven’t seen you for a long time, but my sister misses you so much.” Jade Corpse lay lazily on a jade chair, squinting his eyes, smiling at the corner of his mouth
Looking at Qin Tiange on the light curtain.

She was next to her, and Ziyi’s face was excited and murmured, “Father, Ziyi misses you”

This is Zi Jia, the cheap daughter of Jade Armor and Qin Tiange. Both have personal terminals and naturally saw Qin Tiange’s performance.

“Check the origin of this person!”

“Find out all his information” With Qin Tiange’s appearance in front of the world, he officially stepped on the stage of the doomsday and immediately became a bright star in the rise of the whole China.

He said nothing else, but said that he was the first young man to be named admiral. In addition to holding heavy soldiers, he had a background and strength unimaginable to outsiders.

boom!

I heard only a muffled sound coming from the virtual light curtain, everyone’s heart jumped, and saw Qin Tiange waving his halberd to smash a seven-star zombie’s head.

Then, his left hand turned into a fist, and he punched to the right with a click, and penetrated a seven-star zombie’s head.

“Dead!” He whispered, his body emptied, and Euphorbia swept across the neck of the last seven-star zombie in front of him, and a cricket head flew up into the air.

Twenty-three seven-star zombies were directly hacked and killed by him, and even killed without reaction or resistance.

At this moment, the corpses were in chaos, and the remaining six-star super zombies were directly hidden into the corpse tide, fighting for control of the corpses, leading the corpses back one by one.

“So strong!”

“Qin Tiange, the youngest general!”

“He’s my man, don’t rob anyone of me.”

Many women are crazy, seeing Qin Tiange’s strength, handsome, handsome, chic, this is the man that countless women like.

In Huaxia, countless people who watched without exception were shocked by Qin Tiange’s strength. At this moment, Qin Tiange’s name spread throughout the north and south of the river, and his name moved the world.

I became famous in World War I!

Chapter 504 - Promote the trend, irreversible

The tide of corpses receded, and the crisis at overseas bases was lifted, leaving only sores and countless corpses on the ground, and many zombies were not dead, and were screaming and wailing. m. The most traffic-saving site for mobile phones without ads.

“Victory!”

“We have won!”

All of a sudden, hundreds of thousands of Chinese compatriots in overseas bases cheered, and many people cried in excitement, venting their inner feelings of joy.

Yes, they won. I thought this time was over. In the most desperate situation, they ushered in the powerful reinforcements of the motherland, defeated the corpse wave, and won.

“Long live the motherland!”

“Long live the motherland!”

The waves of cheers rose higher than waves. No matter hundreds of thousands of overseas bases or survivors in major bases in Huaxia, they were infected by this excitement, surging and exciting.

This is an ancient sentiment of the Huaxia nation. Any disaster and strength cannot be annihilated. Huaxia is not the strongest, but Huaxia is constantly getting stronger.

Amidst the cheers of countless people, Qin Tiange led a 50,000 elite army to sweep the battlefield, slash all the zombies that did not die, and lift any source of danger.

When the cheers stopped, people discovered that the young admiral who led the army to support his compatriots overseas stepped into the base neatly with a 50,000 army.

In the sky, two air warships circled, and dozens of fighter planes flew back and forth around the base, alerting to any danger from outside.

At the base, hundreds of thousands of survivors gathered to welcome this mighty Chinese army.

“Comrades, salute the strong army of the motherland and salute the children of Huaxia!”

Before meeting the hundreds of thousands of survivors, Ambassador Wu looked excited and hissed with his tears, solemnly and seriously saluting the struggling Chinese army.

Countless people are excited and excited, and their followers, Ambassador Wu, are saluting, this is a kind of gratitude and respect to this army who came to support them.

“Dear overseas compatriots, you have suffered. The motherland has not forgotten you, let alone any overseas ethnic group.”

Qin Tiange came back, saluting, saying this sentence seriously. He came to Ambassador Wu and stretched out his hands, the two clasped tightly together.

Ambassador Wu was so excited that he couldn't help taking off his glasses and wiping his tears. He had been really bitter for more than a year.

“Ambassador Wu, you have worked hard.” Qin Tiange smiled, holding his body trembling, Ambassador Wu was about to kneel.

The latter's mood at this moment can't really be expressed in words, 哆嗦 said: “I, I know, I will always believe that our motherland will not forget our children who are homeless.”

“Yes, the motherland will not forget any Chinese children.” Qin Tiange shouted solemnly.

“Comrades, we in China are now watching tens of millions of people, and countless comrades are watching this fierce battle. Although they cannot come, they have sent their own expectations.”

As soon as Qin Tiange's remarks came down, I saw him waving his hand gently, and a series of virtual light curtains were immediately cast on the sky. The above shows exactly the crowd gathered in the bases.

They were all excited, cheering each other, celebrating the rebirth of overseas bases, and survived this difficult time.

“Compatriots overseas, come on!”

“Zombies are not terrible!”

“Don't panic!”

“We are Chinese, and the motherland will always be your backing!”

On the screen, the Chinese survivors in the bases waved and shouted, and words of blessing and encouragement passed to the ears of hundreds of thousands of people at this overseas base, and everyone cried.

They watched their compatriots watch in the whole city, watching them, those people who live in other countries. It turns out that not only the motherland has not forgotten, but even other compatriots in the motherland have not forgotten them, and even support them.

各位 “Everyone, the Supreme Leader of the Motherland, is paying close attention to the situation here. Now, I have invited Supreme Leader Chen Guodong to speak!”

Su Qin Tiange suddenly said this aloud, and the voice spread throughout the base, and it was seen that the two aerial warships in the sky projected a larger virtual screen.

Immediately afterwards, a group of people appeared on the screen, headed by the first leader of Huaxia, the supreme leader of Huaxia.

“I'm Chen Guodong, every overseas compatriot, and people, everyone has suffered.”

Yan Chen Guodong's face was serious, he bowed gently, his voice came slowly and powerfully, revealing a majesty, but also a kind of kindness, giving a kind of approachable intimacy.

“Salute to the Supreme Leader!”

Qin Tiange drank, first of all the solemn salute, the uniform salute of 50,000 troops, dozens of drones stopped together, and everyone was quiet.

With this loud shout, hundreds of thousands of overseas ethnic people instinctively followed, saluting the old man who appeared on the virtual light curtain in the sky.

Hit him, that is the current Supreme Leader of China, General Chen Guodong. Not only survivors from overseas bases saw it, but also survivors from major bases saw it.

领袖 “Leader!” Ambassador Wu salutes with excitement. Huaxia has not changed. Although he replaced a leader, the last day did not destroy the entire Chinese nation.

“All the soldiers at all levels of expedition overseas assistance, you have worked hard!”

Yun Chen Guodong salutes silently, looking at the handsome, resolute young admiral, with a lot of emotion in his heart.

His current identity was pushed up by Qin Tiange Sheng, and once again saw him lead his troops to support overseas, and even made this live broadcast show, not only for the name correction of Beijing, but also for his leader Voice of support from countless people.

As a nuclear bomb explodes, the status of Shanghai is unshakable. If you want to advance, you must still be in the name of orthodoxy. In the future, you will rely on your own ability to compete. As for those who want to be independent, they must dispel this idea.

“Comrades, people!” Chen Guodong said slowly, “Although the last day put us in trouble and heavy losses, but as long as our Chinese people are united, we will be reborn in the last day, and China will be resurrected. The nation is flourishing!”

“Those who commit me against China will be stubborn!”

At this juncture, Qin Tiange shouted his arms, and instantly ignited the hearts of countless people. Tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands, millions and even tens of millions of people shouted.

This sentence can be described as stimulating the hearts and minds of the Chinese people. After the doomsday disaster, people’s hearts were scattered, and at this moment they were suddenly reunited with an invisible force.

The Huaxia nation has never been afraid of any challenge, even if it is a doomsday disaster. It cannot defeat this ancient and stubborn and powerful nation. Instead, it is formed by an invisible force.

一切 All of this was created by Qin Tiange. He directed this huge overseas aid operation, and a series of methods have deterred China and abroad, and went silent.

“Long live the motherland!”

“Long live the leader!”

With a loud cry, he reverberated above the empty land in the summer of China, and it has not subsided for a long time. At this moment, no one dared to jump out.

This is the overall cohesiveness of the Chinese people. It was promoted by Qin Tiange and directly created an irreversible trend of life and cohesion. In the future, the Chinese people will grow stronger and stronger as long as they do not die.

“Next, everything will be left to Admiral Qin Tiange to handle the aftermath, and the motherland welcomes you home at any time.”

Yun Chen Guodong said with a smile on his face, nodded to the virtual screen, and cut off the connection comfortably, what he should have done, completed Qin Tiange’s scene, it was a successful ending.

The next thing will be arranged by Qin Tiange himself, how to handle the affairs of this overseas base, Chen Guodong does not want to ask.

Because it was Qin Tiange who led the troops to support him, even if he wanted to intervene, it was thrown directly to him, which was what he did.

“You, I want to go home later and I will take you back.” Qin Tiange said this with a smile, reassuring countless people.

But his voice turned, and his expression was distressed and solemn: “However, everyone should know that there are still tens of millions of overseas compatriots in Huaxia who are still living in foreign countries.”

“Even in Taiguo, there are still many compatriots in deep water, so I think this overseas base is a best haven.”

“General Qin, what do you mean?” Ambassador Wu asked in a surprised expression.

Qin Tiange swept over hundreds of thousands of surviving overseas survivors in front of him, solemnly saying: “The leader decided to open an overseas base here to gather the Chinese people who live in the country. Those who are willing to stay will stay, and those who will not stay You can follow the battleship back to China. “

“In order to rescue more overseas ethnic people, I decided to station the 50,000 elite troops brought here this time at the base the most powerful force to protect overseas ethnic people.” Qin Tiange said here And everything is clear.

He wants to build a huge overseas base here as a base point to gather more overseas compatriots to come and rescue more overseas ethnic people.

In fact, deep meaning, many people understand, but no one said, no one is a fool, just look at this powerful army to know.

“I’m willing to stay!” Ambassador Wu immediately stated and wanted to stay directly.

He knows very well that it might be the same to go back, but maybe there are more opportunities to stay here?

Seeing him directly expressing his attitude, Qin Tiange couldn’t help but secretly praised him. Just as he was about to continue to say something, two huge legions ushered in the base ten kilometers away.

“General, I found an unknown army approaching us.”

A message from Xunji Xing surprised Qin Tiange, and then investigated the monitoring screen. Everyone saw it. The two huge armies were approaching quickly.

Soon, Ambassador Wu saw that the two armies were the main forces of Manchester City base more than ten kilometers away, and they did not expect to come.

In fact, plutonium is also normal. Four consecutive nuclear explosions will inevitably shock the forces of Manchester City, but it is strange to take a look.

“Things that have forgotten their ancestors brought Manchester City’s army.”

Somebody screamed at the virtual screen, attracting countless people’s attention. Everyone looked at it and found that the front of the army was displayed on the monitoring screen.

Chapter 505 - Those who commit me against Huaxia, though strong, must die

“Nuclear explosion, really nuclear explosion ...”

At this time, ten kilometers outside the overseas base, two armies arrived, dozens of tanks, and hundreds of armored vehicles took the lead. Updates are fast without ads.

In the area bombarded by nuclear bombs, I saw the sores on the ground, flowers and trees turned to ashes, the land was blackened, and even the ice crystal-like Shashu appeared in the center of the explosion.

“General Akka, this is undoubtedly a nuclear bomb explosion.”

A powerful Taiguo general has a solemn expression, and said this sentence seriously to a woman wearing a red battle armor around him.

叫 Her name is Akagilina, one of Manchester ’s largest armed forces. She has an elite army of 200,000 people. This time she arrived with a 100,000 army to inspect the nuclear explosion.

卡 Akagilina was serious, standing on an armored car, looking at everything that turned into ashes with a serious look.

“General, a lot of zombies, should we collect them?” Some generals made this exciting proposal.

Because the ground is full of scattered zombies and corpses, crystal nuclei are everywhere, and they have not been collected, which makes people tempted.

However, Akagilin raised her hand to stop it, and warned solemnly: “The people below are ordered not to move a crystal nucleus violently, and the offender will be executed on the spot.”

She speaks Tai language, not Huaxia language, and warns her staff not to move these things, because she thinks this nuclear explosion is not easy.

Will the power of plutonium be weak? She said in her heart that it was definitely not easy. Once they collected the spoils of others, they would be able to cause endless trouble.

The 100,000 troops on this side did not move, and were ordered not to move these scattered nuclei, while on the other side, an army of 100,000 also arrived.

Dozens of tanks and hundreds of armored vehicles opened together. Seeing the scars on the ground, although shocked, they were more ecstatic because no one collected them.

“Hurry up, collect the nuclei, this is our booty!”

In front of the team, Li Qing was excited, and directly ordered the collection of crystal nuclei, digging the crystal nuclei of the zombies all the way, the number was amazing.

Behind the scene, more than 100,000 troops hulah rushed into the battlefield. Regardless of the radiation and high temperature emitted from the air, they even happily collected the crystal nuclei regardless of the flying dust.

As for a middle-aged general headed by Manchester City, it is the first person in Manchester City’s military and one of the two largest and most powerful Manchester City forces.

“General Oman, we are rich.”

清 Li Qing stepped forward with excitement and flattering, talking about the matter with a smile, holding several four-star brain crystals in his hand.

中 The middle-aged general, named Oman, is the highest general of the Manchester City military. At this time, he was also excited and ordered his men to collect brain crystals.

“Go forward, clean up the battlefield, this is our trophy.” General Oman was so angry that he seemed to have forgotten the nuclear bomb that exploded here and seemed to think that they had thrown the nuclear bomb.

Seeing the actions of Manchester City’s first force here, Gilina showed a sneer, and her charming face flashed a hint of irony.

“Stupid guy, if you don’t figure out who threw a nuclear bomb, even dare to move these spoils, you are just looking for death.” Gilina dismissed this.

This kind of mental disability is not seen in her eyes at all. If the other army is stronger than this, the entire city of Manchester will be under her control.

As a seven-star intensifier, Gilina has this confidence and can even overpower General Oman in the near future and lead the entire city.

I just worries her that this nuclear explosion came too suddenly, I do n’t know where it came from. Is it the overseas Chinese gathering place in front?

“A group of assholes, robbed us of China’s booty?”

At this moment, the Manchester City military forces who collected the brain crystals are still unclear, and what they are doing is broadcast live.

Numerous Chinese people looked at the righteous indignation and wished to cut off these jerk, even dare to * their loot.

In the eyes of many Huaxia people, the nuclear bomb was thrown by Huaxia, and the zombies were killed by their Huaxia army, which naturally belonged to them.

I didn't expect that a wolf came and snatched the spoils that belonged to Huaxia, which suddenly angered many Chinese people watching.

At this time, two air warships and dozens of fighter aircraft over the overseas bases all lifted off into the clouds.

“Just come here, then you have a surgery!”

On the broken city wall, Qin Tiange stood proudly and looked at the Manchester City army who was constantly digging for brains on the virtual surveillance screen. The corner of his mouth could not help but evoke a smile.

做法 The actions of these people are exactly what he wanted. I was thinking about how to make excuses for a dozen fights. Now, some people come to grab the loot, which is enough.

“Did the people in the city die?”

“Don't die soon enough to meet General Oman?”

Soon, the 100,000 army gathered brain crystals all the way, and before they finally arrived at the base, dozens of tanks and hundreds of armored vehicles roared and stopped outside.

The 100,000-strong army was in a terrible situation. It was extremely scary to watch the black pressure prevail, but the more than 300,000 Chinese survivors on the city wall were all cold.

“This is our booty. Hand it over. I haven't seen anything happen.”

I saw, Qin Tiange's tone was calm, and every word spoken was clearly transmitted to the ears of the 100,000 army who came outside, shocking people.

“So strong!”

Jilina, who had just arrived, had a dignified complexion, staring at Qin Tiange on the city wall for a moment, surprised by the exhaled breath.

She has a kind of intuition. This Chinese is very strong and so terrifying. She secretly feels glad that she just managed to resist the temptation and never touched those crystal nuclei, otherwise it will be difficult now.

As for General Oman, when he heard this, he suddenly became furious. This place is Taiguo, but these Chinese people are so outspoken?

“Listen, come out and surrender immediately, or you will kill all your Chinese people.”

General Oman was angry and snarled these words, immediately angering more than 300,000 Chinese compatriots on the base, all angry.

Even the numerous survivors in Huaxia, seeing the words of General Oman on the screen, could not help but be frustrated.

“The king and the eight lambs, aren’t they talking?”

“Don’t he know who lost the bomb just now?”

For a short time, countless survivors of Huaxia were furious, anxious to kill the past, and played against those arrogant Taigu people to make them understand that Huaxia was not bullied.

“Yes, come out soon. Only by abandoning Huaxia’s identity and joining the Taigu military can you survive here.”

清 Li Qing jumped out again. The thing that forgot his ancestors jumped up and down outside the city. The sound was annoying, and many people were anxious to chop this guy.

When the tide came, he ran directly with some people. Now the tide has passed, and when he was defeated, he brought the Manchester City army.

“This guy * it!”

“Forget your ancestors, and kill them!”

“Kill him!”

Many people are so angry, they are very angry. Such an  who forgot his ancestors is a shame for the Chinese people.

Regardless of the more than 300,000 Chinese compatriots on the base, or the Chinese people watching the live broadcast at this moment, they are angered.

“Want us to surrender the surrender of our ancestors and forget our ancestors, it was a dream!” Qin Tiange suddenly shouted loudly, deafening.

I saw him, his face was serious, and his voice shouted loudly: “We, Huaxia, have never surrendered to a foreigner and said that we should live as a Huaxia and die as a Huaxia soul!”

“Better to die!”

“Only the Chinese soul who died in battle, no Chinese who kneel!”

A loud scream slammed in all directions, countless people shouted, the sound billowed, and the dust diffused in the sky.

Outside, Akagilina’s complexion changed slightly, and she felt the blood that erupted from the hundreds of thousands of Chinese people, showing an indomitable, as if there were no difficulties to stop the power of the Chinese people.

“Give us our loot now!”

Qin Tiange warned sternly and made an ultimatum, but General Oman outside was mad at his words.

Here is Taiguo. This group of Huaxia people say so, isn't it humiliating? Thinking about this, General Oman didn't even have to provoke Li Qing, directly waving his arm and issuing an order that he could not regret.

"Fire, kill the Chinese ghosts!"

With an order, dozens of tanks fired at the same time, the artillery fire roared, and a round of artillery shells exploded directly on the wall, which really caused a lot of chaos.

However, Qin Tiange, who had been prepared for it, naturally took precautions. The people here are all strong and have the protection of a super armor. It is all right.

Seeing their hands, Qin Tiange smiled, revealing his  eyes, and unfolding his sharp fangs.

"Those who commit me against China will be stubborn!"

Suddenly a word came, awakening countless dazed Chinese survivors, one after another burst into endless anger, and the followers roared.

"Kill! Kill! Kill!"

Hundreds of thousands of people roared, and then, the rolling dust and dark clouds suddenly dispersed, two huge aerial warships dived down, and dozens of fighters opened fire.

After a blast of explosions, dozens of tanks were turned into scrap iron by laser cannons on the spot. Dozens of armored vehicles did not respond, and they were bombarded by a beam of light falling from the sky.

"what..."

"Enemy attack!"

"Fight back, fire, fight back!"

General Oman roared and roared back to counterattack. The 100,000 troops would fight back in a panic, but unfortunately it was bombarded by a sweep of fighter jets descending from the sky.

A beam of light bombarded down The 100,000 army was unable to lift their heads, and even scratched their heads, crying and crying, they were defeated for a while.

"Team fights, destroy the enemy!"

"Kill them all!"

Qi Qin Tian Gehan with a face on his face, a wave of halberds, 50,000 elite troops rushed out immediately, like a raptor into the Manchester City army outside the base.

Suddenly, swords and swords flew, flesh and blood flew, and all the Manchester City troops were slashed on the spot. Before waking up from shock and fear, they saw a black wave coming forward. The sword saw the blood and the head rolled down.

The screams of horror and the roar of horror were intertwined, and Manchester City's 100,000 troops were beaten by surprise and were directly divided by 50,000 elite troops and massacred.

"Back!"

Gilina turned pale, and ordered her army to retreat immediately. There was a trace of panic in her eyes, and she looked at the huge air battleship that suddenly appeared above the sky, depicting the five-star red flag.

“This is the Huaxia military, oh my God, does Huaxia have an air battleship?”

Seeing this, Gilina looked horrified and frightened. What’s more terrible is that the strength of the 50,000 elite troops is just a one-sided massacre.

The cricket was too scary. One hundred thousand Manchester City military forces were beaten up in an instant, and many people surrendered directly on their knees, that is, the powerful intensifiers were cut and killed.

Some of the five-star and six-star powerhouses were directly bombarded and killed by the powerhouses on the Chinese side. The situation happened so suddenly that it caught people off guard.

Seeing this massacre, all talents understand that this troop supporting overseas compatriots is so outrageous?

Chapter 506 - Kill 7 stars like killing chickens

In a massacre, the military forces from Manchester City were defeated. Except for Gina, who had resigned early and strictly guarded against the spoils, all the troops brought by Oman were killed and lost their helmets.

“Run!”

I don’t know who shouted, but the army that had collapsed immediately collapsed, and the pan froze suddenly. Many people turned and ran.

Not to mention ordinary soldiers, even those intensifiers were frightened, and they turned around one by one, daring not to stay at all, hate to have more legs.

“General Oman, run, run”

Li Qing was frightened, and turned around and pulled the dazed General Amman and ran away. Although both were seven-star intensifiers, they were both promoted with drugs.

In Qin Tiange’s view, these two seven-stars are weak chickens. Even if he doesn’t do anything, Wu Feng, a strong man in the army, has the same ability to overwhelm them.

But seeing that these two guys are going to run, Qin Tiange naturally can’t sit and watch the other side run away, then the battle will lose most of its meaning.

In the battlefield, Li Qing and General Oman, two seven-stars, told them that they were fast and fled through the chaotic army.

General Oman looked somber and irony, and yelled, “Asshole, * Chinese, you wait for me, and I must pay you the price of blood.”

“It’s all you, is that you say that the Chinese people here are weak chickens, now it’s okay, my 100,000 troops have been broken up, I killed you.”

Looking at the slaughtered army, General Oman was resentful, but pushed all the blame on Li Qing.

Because he instigated General Oman to lead troops, now it’s okay, the army was defeated in one fell swoop and brutally slaughtered, how could it not be angry.

“General Oman, it’s none of my business. I also hate the Huaxia people, but I’m a serious Taiguo. I’m your most sincere man.” Li Qing looked away in fear and explained.

But General Oman was so determined to kill him, wielding a large knife, and slicing directly into Li Qing’s head.

Both of them were seven-stars, but Li Qing was a lot weaker, and was quickly suppressed, and was accidentally beaten by General Oman to the ground.

“It’s all up to you, you can die.” Oman looked blankly, and lifted his sword to cut off Li Qing’s head.

The sword screamed, but there was a burst of shivering, and a strong anti-seismic force drove General Oman a few steps away, only to find that someone had blocked his attack.

“It’s you?” Oman looked wild, but exclaimed, “Isn’t this man damn, he betrayed you Huaxia, why did you save him?”

The visitor was Qin Tiange, which directly blocked the attack by General Oman to kill Li Qing. This was very surprising. Many Chinese people who watched the live broadcast show suddenly did not understand why Qin Tiange wanted to save this ancestor. Zong stuff.

“Who said that I could save him?” Li Qing, who was already happy, suddenly heard this, and her heart sank to the bottom of the valley. Sure enough, Qin Tiange’s words broke him into the abyss.

I saw, Qin Tiange hummed expressionlessly: “What this man says is a traitor to my Huaxia nation, and no outsider has the right to deal with it. Even if he forgets his ancestors, he still has to handle it with us. When is your turn to deal with outsiders? “

As soon as Li Qing heard it, he panicked and explained: “No, no, the general is letting go. I do n’t really want to forget the ancestors. I just pretend, yes, I pretend. I am in Cao Yingxin and Han. . “

“Shameless man!”

“Don’t kill!”

“Cut him!”

Listening to Li Qing’s sophistry, many people in China who are watching are exasperated, and there is such a shameless villain.

When the matter came to an end, he also quibbled, saying that he was pretending, joking, the eyes of the masses were bright and clear, and his previous actions were clearly seen.

“Sophistication is useless!” Qin Tiange shook his head gently, looking at Li Qing kneeling for mercy, saying, “Because he forgot his ancestors, betrayed his kinsmen, and killed his compatriots.

“No I don’t want to die, you die!”

Li Qing looked pale, suddenly violently, condensing a seven-star strength to split a knife towards Qin Tiange, sharp whistling.

In the face of this swift knife, Qin Tiange looked calm and patted it with a single palm. With a bang, the sword broke apart and scattered on the ground.

He smashed the sword with his bare hands, and then slapped Li Qing’s head in the palm of his hand, clicking with a crisp sound, Li Qing’s brain was shaken into a paste, Qiqiao bleeding, kneeling straight on the ground, his head slowly Drooped down and died.

Li Qing, a man who has forgotten his ancestors, knelt before his death just in the direction of Eastern China, as if a sinner was repenting to his own nation.

“Good kill!”

“Brother-in-law is mighty!”

At the base of Su Su City, when seeing Qin Tiange killing this guy, Chen Yan’s little face was excited, and he waved the little pink fist constantly shouting loudly, very excited.

Not only her, but many Chinese people who watched it, without exception, felt shame and resentment towards this kind of ancestor and forgotten ancestors, killing nature’s happiness.

For a while, Qin Tiange’s popularity continued to rise in the territory of Huaxia, and countless girls secretly promised that some people even said that he would not marry.

“Admiral Qin is so good!”

“This is my youngest, most powerful and handsome general in China.”

Countless women screamed, beautiful and ugly were crazy, anyway, they were all conquered by Qin Tiange’s mighty, handsome, and powerful.

“It’s your turn!” Qin Tiange’s face was calm, and he looked up at General Oman, who had escaped, and the latter was intimidated.

Oman roared in his heart: “His mother, the six-star star actually killed a seven-star master. Is this the Chinese people going against the sky?”

Huh!

在 At this moment, a figure suddenly appeared in front of him, blocking his way, scaring Oman’s instinct to slash the knife, and a vigorous bombardment passed by.

With a short slap, the knife was firmly grasped by one hand, and it was seized immovably. Oman was shocked or even dumbfounded, staring blankly at the young man who grabbed his six-star sword with his bare hands, unbelievable.

I don't mention him, that is, many strong people watching through virtual screens can't help shrinking their pupils, and are horrified. Obviously, this hand has caused a huge impact on many Chinese strong ones.

"No, you can't kill me, I'm the first person in the Taiman Army's Man City Base." General Oman snarled and was extremely scared.

However, Qin Tiange said blandly: "Those who commit Chinese crimes, be a scum, no matter who you are or who you are, you have to pay the price."

Click!

When the words of the words fell, they heard a crisp sound, and then General Oman's sword was crushed apart, and then he smashed into his face.

With a bang, Oman's head was smashed like a watermelon, and his brain was mixed with blood splatter, and it fell around. The headless body fell straight to the ground, and it didn't move after twitching.

Seven-star powerhouses are slaughtered like killing chickens, as if seven-star powers were not masters at all, which made many Chinese star-cool masters chill.

"I'm going, so fierce?"

"Killing seven stars is like killing chickens, is there a mistake?"

"Are the seven stars we evolved fake?"

Looking at Qin Tiange's strong appearance, many seven-star masters inside Huaxia have begun to doubt life, one by one with bitterness and a bit of a cold heart.

Two seven-star powerhouses were slaughtered in this way, as simple and clear as killing two chickens, and even recalled the eight-star King Kong corpse killed before, and they suddenly realized that the youngest general in China was really scary, Fearful thinking.

"I surrender, surrender"

With the killing of Oman, finally, those fleeing deserters were frightened, surrendering kneeling down, and begging to pass a life.

This is the end of a massacre. Except for those who were slaughtered in the beginning, the remaining thousands are surrendering on their knees, holding up their weapons, all with fear.

I was killed without surrendering, less than five fingers who could run out, only one or two six-star powerhouses ran out of sight immediately.

Ignoring Qin Tiange for these people, I frowned a bit, watching the thousands of people kneeling for mercy, inevitably a little upset.

I originally planned to kill all these people, but kneeling down for mercy was tantamount to captives who surrendered. Killing thousands of captives in the presence of countless Chinese people always had some bad effects.

“Akagilina, met General Huaxia.”

As he pondered, a beautiful figure came over there, and he crossed the battlefield by himself and came to Qin Tiange without any weapons.

She is the leader of another army, the head of a ruthless Taigu armed force, Akagilina.

“Akagilina, one of the five king-level masters of the previous Tai Kingdom” Qin Tiange turned in surprise and looked at the Akagilina standing in front of the pretty student her name Qin Tiange I have heard that it is one of the more famous kings of the previous Tai Kingdom. The only female king-level power in the Tai Kingdom can be described as a household name in the Tai Kingdom.

“Speak your intentions.” Qin Tiange nodded, without despising each other. After all, this is Taigu, secretly telling Jiji to turn off all the virtual light curtains in Huaxia.

When I saw the disappearing virtual light curtain, many people were disappointed, but still immersed in the passion of this vast overseas aid war.

At this time, Gilina felt that Qin Tiange was not murderous, relieved, and explained with a smile: “Yes, I represent the Manchester City base and want to discuss the alliance agreement with you. I don’t know what the general’s intention is?”

“Oh?” Qin Tiange’s eyes narrowed, and he suddenly smiled: “Leave this aside, come to me three days later. If you have nothing to do, take someone away, and take these people along.”

“Thank you General for your success, Jillina thanks!”

卡 Akagilina faced with surprise, bowed and thanked and turned, leaving thousands of surrendered people to join their troops directly, left here, and returned to Manchester City.

As for why these captives were taken away by her, Qin Tiange had his own ideas. With thousands of people, hundreds of thousands of troops were killed, and there were only a few thousand people. This was enough.

Another one, if he wants to be based overseas, he must be assisted by local forces, and the appearance of Akagilina is exactly in line with Qin Tiange’s plan.

“Clean the battlefield, clear the loot, and celebrate in three days!”

With the order of Qin Tiange, the war ended, the next step was to clean the battlefield, clean up the trophies, dispose of the corpses, and then celebrate the party.

Chapter 507 - Blood deed

In the evening three days later, hundreds of thousands of people in the overseas bases piled up and started a post-war celebration feast. All the food was brought by Qin Tiange.

“Comrades!”

I saw, in the huge square that was cleared, Qin Tiange stood on the high platform, holding a wine glass, looking calm, with a temperament, and had a convincing temperament.

His eyes calmly looked at hundreds of thousands of people here, he could not see at a glance, but his words passed into everyone’s ears clearly.

He only listened to him slowly and said, “This victory is a victory that you all worked together to fight together.”

“Dear fellows!”

“Respect, our great motherland!”

“Be strong for Huaxia, toast!”

As soon as the words fell, countless people stood up and screamed, raised their glasses with excitement, or raised their bowls and drank directly, and they were all excited.

At this moment, hundreds of thousands of overseas compatriots have formed their cities, and their morale is high. They have truly restored their self-confidence and enthusiasm. The Chinese nation will never give in to any disaster.

Rolling sounds and waves, shaking the sky, even the mutant beasts that appeared at night were frightened by this huge sound and fled.

On the high platform, several senior Manchester City generals who were invited to come, as well as the armed leader who has completely unified Manchester City, Akagilina.

These people have complex expressions. Looking at the hundreds of thousands of boiling Chinese people at the scene, only the 50,000 elite troops remained calm and raised their glasses silently, but only drank a glass, and sat down to eat without talking.

This is truly elite. No matter whether it ’s a meal, the weapon stays with you, and you never even relax your vigilance, even if it ’s a feast.

“A good army, it is indeed the Huaxia military elite.” Akagilina looked moved, watching the fifty thousand elite army neatly buried to eat, and even maintained enough vigilance.

This has to move people, if not for Qin Tiange to make them have to drink a glass of each person, they will not even drink.

“Admiral Qin, I don’t know what you are thinking about my proposal?”

When Qin Tiange came back to sit down, Gilina couldn’t help speaking. Her proposal was to become an alliance with Huaxia and even help Huaxia build a Chinese base here.

Qin Tiange said nothing about her proposal and laughed: “General Aka, don’t let the eyebrows be raised. There are not many female generals like you in China.”

“General Qin is ridiculous. I really like this ancient country of China. The culture of China is vast and fascinating. I have always loved the culture of China since I was a kid.” Akagilina spoke fluent Chinese.

She really likes Huaxia culture, otherwise she wouldn't learn Chinese and learn so well. It is because she understands the profound ancient culture of Huaxia that she has a kind of heart to rely on after seeing the force that Qin Tiange showed.

She is relying on her. She believes that Qin Tiange is currently the strongest group of people in China and has an absolute right to speak. As for what is happening inside China, she doesn't understand.

“Do you represent yourself, but represent the entire Manchester City base?” Qin Tiange chuckled, and looked at Akagilina calmly.

♀ This female general is not so tender and charming on the surface, but she is cruel and cruel and she is definitely a dangerous person.

In previous lives, there were rumors that she was the largest armed force leader in the entire Tai Kingdom, and once ruled the survivor base of more than half of the Tai Kingdom.

Qin Tiange attaches great importance to such characters, but he doesn't pay much attention. At his current height, he can easily crush the other person.

“Dear General Qin, I sincerely want to form an alliance with you.” Akagilina said seriously.

I saw her waving her hand, and several senior generals and personal guards stood up and left immediately. The next conversation will involve some secrets, which should not be known to outsiders, even to those around them.

“Let's go out of the way ...” Ambassador Wu and the seven-star master at the overseas base also took the initiative to get up, took the wine glass and left, and went to the crowd below laughing and laughing.

Looking at her movements, Qin Tiange's eyes flashed and secretly said, “This woman is very savvy. She wants to rely on my strength to help her with other forces in Taigu. It's a good abacus.”

“General Qin, I am willing to be you or Huaxia's overseas ally and can do anything for you.”

Everyone else left, leaving only Qin Tiange and Akagilina, she then seriously and seriously expressed her thoughts.

She has great ambitions, and she will even become the most powerful force in the whole Tai Kingdom, and rule the whole Tai Kingdom after the last days, but she knows that she needs a strong backing.

When she saw Qin Tiange's appearance, she buried this seed in her heart, and saw a hope, that is, using Qin Tiange's strength to realize her ambition.

It was natural, and she knew very well that Taiguo could not be compared with the ancient Huaxia at all, and it was enough to see from Qin Tiange alone.

Even if she ruled Taiguo in the future, she still did not dare to have any bad feelings towards Huaxia or Qin Tiange.

Of course, if she was strong enough to crush Qin Tiange, this would not be accurate.

“How do I believe you?” Qin Tiange asked with a smile.

“General, if you don’t believe me, you and I can sign this contract.” Akagilina didn’t say much, but took out a simple leather scroll.

Qin Tiange took a look, his pupils shrunk, and the ancient symbol was written on it, but he understood the meaning clearly.

The blood deed is very binding. Akagilina believes that as long as this contract is signed, it can become a trusted alliance partner in the future. This is an equality contract.

Qin Tiange took a closer look at this blood deed, and it was really an equality contract. I did not expect that the ambitious foreign woman already had a plan in order to achieve the goal.

If you want to get it, you have to pay the price. Does Qin Tiange speak so well? Just kidding and helping others rule this land. When that time, her wings hardened. What should I do if she wanted to solo or even bite back?

It’s different now. With this contract, you can’t violate it after signing it. Qin Tiange thinks it is feasible after thinking about it. There is nothing wrong with the above contract information, that is, you can’t do anything to hurt each other.

“Yes” Qin Tiange nodded in agreement, with a smile on his lips, and a kind of strong self-confidence in his hands.

“Thank you, General!” Akagilina looked surprised.

As long as the two signed, she could not betray Qin Tiange in the future, and she could not do anything against Qin Tiange. The blood deed was clearly stated, and neither party who signed the blood deed could take the initiative to make it. Things that hurt each other.

Akagilina wants security, but Qin Tiange also needs a layer of restrictions, a lock that traps this ambitious woman, and then becomes a huge force abroad.

Huh!

As each of them drips a drop of blood, the blood deed is formed instantly, and the blood light is divided into two parts, and they are directly rushed into the sea of each other’s eyebrows and integrated into the soul.

Ok? Qin Tiange thought, and suddenly found that the blood that rushed into his own knowledge of the sea was suddenly worn away by an inexplicable force.

Yes, that’s the power of time’s taboo. It wiped out the power of this blood deed on the spot, so that he was not affected by the blood deed.

In contrast, Akagilina, the soul was absorbed by this blood, and she must be subject to Qin Tiange himself. Although it seems fair, in fact, now Qin Tiange is not affected by the power of the contract at all.

This means that he can kill Akagilina at will, and he will not be bound by the contract. Even no matter what he does, Akagilina cannot resist.

既然 “Since you and I have signed a blood deed, then Manchester City and the overseas base I set up here will form an offensive and defensive alliance, and I will help you rule this land.” Qin Tiange made this commitment directly.

When I heard this, Akagilina let out a sigh of relief, her charming eyes flashed a little joy, could not help drinking three glasses of wine, her face floated into a charming blush, which was particularly seductive.

Foreign girl, except Qin Tiange, who has n’t touched anyone else. As for this girl, it is clear that she is a natural woman, not artificial transgender.

“General Qin, I’m a little drunk” Akagilina suddenly held her forehead, and stood up sloppy, her cheeks red and charming.

As soon as this word came out, Qin Tiange understood it and laughed secretly: “This chick wants to seduce brother?”

I saw a scent of incense, and Akagilina snuggled softly in his arms, her flirtatious face, showing an exotic atmosphere.

不 Does the meat delivered to the mouth eat? Qin Tiange is not stupid. Although he really wanted to eat this tender piece of meat, he did not do so.

“Your general is drunk, take her to rest ...” Qin Tiange beckoned, called the two female soldiers over there to guard him, and supported the drunk Akagilina to rest, leaving a group of faces nearby. Manchester City senior general.

Qi Qin Tiange picked up the wine glass and came to the crowd to celebrate this victory with his compatriots overseas.

Overnight, the next day, Akagilina announced on behalf of Manchester City Base reached an alliance agreement with Huaxia Overseas Base 1.

“General Qin, I will leave first!”

Outside of the base, Akagilina looked very red, and looked at the handsome and powerful Chinese general in front of her pretty, wondering if she was ashamed of remembering that she wanted to seduce Qin Tiange last night.

“Take care!” Qin Tiange nodded with a smile, watching the exotic beauty lead his men to leave and go back to arrange alliance matters.

Qin Tiange didn't see what happened last night and didn't take it to heart.

Watching Akagilina leaving, Qin Tiange suddenly said softly: "Wu Feng, the First Corps will stay here and establish an overseas base to guard this side. I will order the headquarters base to help you build a strong overseas Military base. "

"Yes, general!" Wu Feng commanded with solemn expression, meticulous.

He was very excited and able to defend overseas bases, which is a kind of honor. It is very likely that he will build greater achievements and achieve higher achievements here.

Looking at Wu Feng's eyes full of fighting spirit, Qin Tiange nodded with satisfaction and smiled: "Remember, this is our first overseas base, and we must guarantee the safety here."

"I will arrange for someone to build a larger military base when I go back, and I will leave it to you."

After saying that, Qin Tiange turned away and set foot on the air battleship, leaving Wu Feng's legion guard here, with some overseas compatriots who wanted to return to Huaxia, set out on the way home.

After a round of overseas support, the foreign aid overseas base was a fruitful one. Not only did he become famous in the First World War, but also established his position and great fame in China.

Chapter 508 - Fame, luck, day and night

Shenzhen City Base, returning here again, Qin Tiange has an illusion that the base has become different.

"Human hearts, fame, luck ..."

Over the base, the two huge air warships slowly entered, which caused the entire base to cheer for millions of people, one wave higher than the other.

With Qin Tiange's triumphant return, the prestige in the base reached the highest point, a mysterious atmosphere from all sides gathered.

That was a kind of hard-to-see, but mysterious, luck that continually gathered from the parties in Huaxia over the base. The moment he returned, it boiled, and a large stream came towards him.

Ziqi comes to the east and converges into the sea. This is a huge luck, like a day in the sky.

At this moment, Qin Tiange basically determined that Qi Yun represents a kind of popular recognition, as well as personal reputation.

After this overseas aid, Qin Tiange's fame inside Huaxia has surpassed countless young rising stars and even overcame many older generation characters.

Such invisible things as people's hearts and fame, but it really affects their future achievements.

On the battleship, Qin Tiange closed his eyes and enjoyed the purple gas entering the body. A part of the vast purple gas divided into his body.

The six-star barrier gradually loosened. I felt that as long as I practiced for a period of time, I would naturally break through the seven-star.

“Fortune, it’s really amazing ...” Qin Tiange lamented that he still didn’t know enough about the role of luck.

I only know that this wonderful power can affect the arrival of a person, and even affect the growth of a person’s strength or even the growth of a force or a nation.

“Congratulations on your triumphant return!”

The battleship had just anchored on the aerial platform. Qin Tiange walked down and immediately heard a neat cry. The front of the base stood in a row to salute, and the densely packed army around him greeted the general who returned from a triumphant overseas.

“Everyone’s hard work, let’s all go away.” After Qin Tiange returned the gift, he asked the others to go away.

At this time, the two sisters Liu Yan, Long Xiaoya, Long Xiaoqian, and Xi Xi, the four beauties stood there, watching Qin Tiange return triumphantly very happy.

了 Since she has been in the Shenzhen city base, Long Xiaoqian finally got together with her sister. These two beautiful women with almost identical looks make outsiders think they are the same person.

“Liu Ye, how is the progress of opening branches in other bases?” Qin Tiange stepped forward and asked directly about this matter.

There is a huge college built in the base, with Liu Yan as the dean. As for the question he asked, the population in the base has skyrocketed, and a college cannot accommodate so many children.

Tamariowa replied earnestly: “General, four branch hospitals have been established in the four directions of the base, southeast, northwest, and northwest, respectively. They have been completed and can be put into use.”

“In this case, Long Xiaoya, you are in charge of one of the branches, and the remaining two branches ...” Qin Tiange thought for a while, and suddenly looked at Long Xiaoqian and Xun Xi.

He was agitated and laughed: “Xiao Qian and Xi Xi, are you two interested in helping me manage the other two branches?”

“Ah?” Long Xiaoqian was startled, exclaimed before covering her mouth, whispering: “Ah ... um, general, can I really do that?”

She was very excited. Qin Tiange asked her to run an academy. This is a great recognition. Just look at her sister to know.

As for Xi Xi, he was so stupid that Qin Tiange could not laugh or cry. He said: “If you two have this heart, I will arrange someone to help you manage these branches.”

“Yes, willing!” Long Xiaoqian immediately nodded and agreed.

As for Xi Xi, I thought about it and said: “General, I don’t have this ability. Let me follow Xiao Qian and help her.”

“It’s okay.” Qin Tiange didn’t say much, and these things came to an end. He said, “Everyone go back, I have some things to deal with.”

Xu said he turned and left, and Liu Ye, Long Xiaoya, Long Xiaoqian, and Xi Xi left the aerial platform with some disappointment.

As for the other high-level executives, they have already left and they are busy.

Qi Qin Tiange was alone, came to a large dock built on the aerial platform, and saw a behemoth that was being built inside.

That is an airborne mothership, with a total length of 550 meters and a width of 300 meters, like a terrible aerial fortress.

Nowadays, the production workshops in military factories are all automated and operated by intelligent machines controlled by ourselves.

“My dear, how long can the spacecraft carrier be completed?” Qin Tiange looked at the huge aircraft carrier built in the dock in front of him and couldn’t help asking.

I saw my own self emerged, and answered seriously: “Master, at the current progress, at least three months can be completed, and even a series of tests will be required after completion, and it will take at least five months to be completely delivered.”

Qi Qin Tiange nodded, and suddenly asked, “What is the current production capacity of the air warship production line in our military factory?”

Xiji waved his hand gently, and the situation of the air battleship production line immediately appeared on the virtual screen. There were nine huge air-space battleships in the assembly stage.

“Master, our current technology and capabilities can only build nine ships at the same time, and each ship is built at a speed of one year.” Qin Tian’s words made Qin Tiange very satisfied.

Only by using artificial intelligence to calculate calculations and even controlling fully automatic machines to achieve this level, it can be said that nine air warships can be produced in a year.

There are various huge production lines in the Junjun factory, such as fighter aircraft production lines, weapon armor production lines, and various new weapon production lines.

There are also various new weapon research workshops, which have been developed little by little, which was not expected by Qin Tiange himself.

“People called the Ministry of Science and Technology to speed up research and understand all the core technology, then began to study space warships and space fortress technology and various space combat weapons technology research and development.” Qin Tiange said this expression seriously.

At present, it is time to study and discuss space warships. With air warships as models and technical support, it won't be long before space warships can be realized.

Jiji suddenly said excitedly: "Master, another nanosatellite successfully entered space orbit yesterday. At present, we can achieve two-way monitoring in the southern and northern hemispheres. As long as two more nanosatellites are available, it will be sufficient to achieve global comprehensive monitoring."

Qin Tiange nodded after hearing, not paying attention, but said: "To speed up the progress of the natural punishment plan, we need the support of the natural punishment weapon system in the future."

"Understand, my master!"

Xunji responded solemnly, and then smiled flatteringly: "Good master, Xunji's physical body is under construction, and recently, Xunji's research on the soul has made breakthroughs. It seems that Xunji's intelligent consciousness has evolved a lot. "

"Really?" Qin Tiange flashed his eyes and laughed inwardly, not worried at all whether he was completing physical production, or even producing a soul, would he betray him?

In fact, Qin Tiange had long thought about this. In his own programming, there were more than just dense instructions loyal to him.

Once she becomes a real life and has a new soul, these instructions will turn into a soul contract, binding her self.

"Master, 姐 I really want to hug you ..." 姐 Ji looked ashamed, and looked at Qin Tiange watery, as if he could melt a person.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange couldn't help crying, and wasn't angry: "Okay, okay, I know you miss me, hurry up, I want to talk to the leader."

"Yes, master!" Ji Ji muttered unhappily, and connected the communication signal of Chen Guodong from Shanghai.

Qi Qin Tiange came to the secret room, connected to a virtual call with Shangjing, and Chen Guodong's virtual projection appeared in front of him.

"Leader, overseas assistance is a complete success!" Qin Tiange seriously saluted and reported the news.

Wu Chen Guodong nodded with satisfaction, then smiled: "Okay, what's your kid looking for me, not just to report it?"

There was a hint of embarrassment on Qin Tiange's face, but he still said cheekily, "Master, I've been short of people recently. See if you can transfer me another group from the General Hospital?"

"You * boy, want to dig into my corner again?" Chen Guodong laughed and cursed, there was an urge to violently beat this boy.

I came to dig into his corner again. The group of talents in the general hospital is definitely the top group of scientific and technological personnel in front of China.

Except for those who have taken brain-domain development medicines here, the people at the General Hospital are a group of crazy top scientists.

Qi Qin Tiange coveted these people for a long time. The last time he came back from Shangjing, dozens of people came back, but that was just one of the less than 10,000 people in the General Hospital.

“Your boy, if you want people, you can exchange air battleships for one hundred people ...” Chen Guodong said this with a smile.

Qin Tiange’s eyes flashed, hehe laughed: “Master, there are too few hundred people. If a battleship is replaced by a thousand people, I will change it.”

“Okay, it’s done.” Chen Guodong agreed to it without thinking.

Actually, he also understands why Qin Tiange repeatedly asked him for the talents in the General Hospital. Just look at the air battleships he has assembled so far.

Seeing Chen Guodong’s agreement, Qin Tiange smiled and said, “Thank you Father, but are there 10,000 people in the hospital? If so, I will send you ten air warships in a while.”

“Ten ships?” Chen Guodong was shocked, his face was a little serious, and he looked at Qin Tiange’s boy in surprise, and even said that he was ten ships.

However, he did not refuse, and laughed: “Rest assured that the General Academy contains top scientific and technological talents from all walks of life. You also know that there are not only thousands of nuclear research and production personnel alone, but also various rockets. There are more than 10,000 researchers in missiles, lasers and other new fields of military research, and even talents in many fields such as biological genetic engineering.”

When he heard this, Qin Tiange put his eyes out, but soon realized that he asked, “Father, since there are so many people in the General Hospital, why did Shanghai Shangjing not develop new weapons and equipment?”

Bian Chenguo faced with bitterness and shook his head. “I also think that there is not enough time. In fact, I only got in touch with the people at the general hospital. Soon after, the area where the general hospital is located will be closed.”

I heard that Qin Tiange understood that, as the China Highest General Technology Institute, it is not difficult to see the secret level. After the end of the day, an emergency plan was launched, which directly closed the entrance and exit of the general hospital.

If Chen Guodong remembered and contacted the general hospital, maybe the people inside had not had a chance to come out, but it was in the mind of Qin Tiange.

“Master, all parties sent a congratulatory message, and said that they sent a delegation to discuss cooperation projects.”

I ended the call to Beijing. Qin Tiange was surprised to hear the news that I had said. Representatives from all parties not only sent congratulations via the Internet, but also expressed that they had sent a delegation to discuss cooperation.

“It’s all about wanting an air battleship ...” Qin Tiange smiled slightly, not paying attention to the representatives of these parties.

But he noticed that General Qi Shao of Guangcheng came in person, and General Mu Hua from the south of Beijing also came in person. To his surprise, Chen Xi and Chen Ye of Su Cheng also passed on the message. Give him and say it’s coming soon.

As for going to Beijing, he also sent someone. Actually, he sent someone before he came back, and he is on the road now.

Chapter 509 - Shocking representatives

“Wow, sister, is this the base that brother-in-law created?”

Over the base of Shenshen city, a suspended chariot flew in. The two beautiful women in the car were Chen Xi and Chen Chen sisters.

The two looked at the huge towering super base, looked shocked, and stared blankly at such a huge base.

“Floating base?” Chen Kun exclaimed, his mouth opened wide, and his eyes were almost staring out.

She saw a huge platform floating in the center of the base, which is a huge base platform completely floating in the air.

The dense suspension of chariots shuttled in and out, as well as a large air dock, and the outline of an air warship being built was faintly visible inside.

“Oh my God, this is the Shenzhen City Base?”

He was not only Chen Xi and Chen He. With Qin Tiange’s appearance in the World War I, representatives of various forces and spies have come to Shenzhen City to find out.

When I came here, I was shocked to discover that everything here had shocked them too much. The huge city walls of hundreds of meters high were made of super ice crystals.

The huge base is more than enough to accommodate tens of millions of people. Even the periphery is continuously reclaiming and expanding countless good fields, and the vast golden rice fields are attracting attention.

After the flood, cleaning up the silt and re-cultivating the fields to grow food is the top priority of the entire base. Looking at the millions of people in the base in the fierce reclamation and planting food, many people from all sides came shocked.

“Oh, welcome, welcome!”

In a suspended chariot parking lot at the base, a beautifully dressed gentle man was receiving representatives of all parties.

He is An An, who turned out to be the main person in charge of receiving foreign guests at the base. That soft voice, fair-skinned face, wearing a cheongsam, and stepping on hate sky, can scare the representatives of all parties who came. Goosebumps all fell to the ground.

“Where am I going, shemale?” Someone trembled and murmured.

I watched Xie An come to entertain them, and the representatives from all these parties were embarrassed, and hated Qin Tiange why he used such people to entertain them?

“Come and come, follow me, General Qin has been waiting for you for a long time.”

Xie An winked at the representatives of many parties and laughed again and again, leading everyone to the base’s reception hall.

“Sister, this guy is so fun!” Chen Yan whispered with a smile.

觉得 She thinks Xie An is very fun, even wearing tight-fitting cheongsam, and stepping on hate sky high, the more coquettish looks, the more coquettish, so that many young delegates who can not help but vomit.

They couldn’t stand it, they all looked constipated, they were hard to see, and they were all stimulated by this daddy Xie An.

呜 “Woo ... I can’t stand it!” Someone couldn’t help crying.

Xie An didn’t care about other people’s eyes, took everyone to the reception hall, arranged good food, and laughed softly: “Everyone eat something, and General Qin will come to meet you later.”

After saying that, he twisted Xiaoman’s waist, stepped on the hate sky high and twisted away, leaving a group of guests facing each other, almost did not spit out.

I looked at the rich meals on the table, but the representatives of the parties had no intention to eat. Instead, they felt very full, and they were obviously sickened by Xie An.

Among these people, there is Lieutenant General Qi Shao of Guangcheng, Admiral Mu Hua of Jingnan, with the Snow Girl, and Chen Xi and Chen Chen sisters of Su Cheng.

The new general, Xiao Fei, from Erhai City, also sent representatives. These people came with a complex mood and were shocked by the sheer size and strength here.

Anyone who has been here is, without exception, stunned by the huge platform floating in the center of the base. The aerial platform is built with an air dock, and various suspended combat vehicles shuttle back and forth in the sky, whistling away.

Qi Qicheng, Shencheng and even Kyoto sent people, and some came in person, such as Guangcheng and Jingnan. The two veterans went directly to the Shenzhen city base in person.

After they came to Shenzhen, they fully understood why Qin Tiange could have an air warship in his hands. Look at the huge aerial platform, the huge dock production center, and various floating combat vehicles, and then suddenly realized that Too much to surpass other bases.

Moreover, when everyone came, they saw the vast fields and golden rice fields outside the base. After the flood, they cleared the silt and planted golden rice to obtain a great harvest.

“Shenzhen, Qin Tiange ... this kid is a mystery.” Lieutenant General Qi Shao muttered to himself, looking at the floating platform over the base outside the window.

Next to him is General Mu Hua of Jingnan, who chuckled: “Lao Qi, I agree with you, the kid Qin Tiange really surprised us. Look at this super base, you said What made those walls? “

说 He said, reached for a glass of wine and drank, thinking that it was not reinforced concrete, but a kind of black crystals that looked at the crystal clear, and felt a little cold.

“I heard that it was a super ice crystal. The entire base was made of this super ice crystal. It was too extravagant. It was simply a defeat.” Qi Shao murmured in a depressed face.

接着 He continued: “Most of the tanks, fighters, warships, and even the standard weapons and equipment in this base are made of this super ice crystal.”

“No, when we see him next time, we must make a good deal.” General Mu Hua said more and more excited, waiting for Qin Tiange to come back immediately.

Of course, they received news that Qin Tiange has led the aid troops to return from triumph overseas. This attracted the attention of all parties, and it was better to send someone immediately to explore the details here, and even to buy some new battleships to go back.

It has been a full month since Qin Tiange went to Taigu support to this day, and he naturally knew that the representatives of all parties had come.

“Oh, it's really lively.”

Outside the gate, Qin Tiange walked in lightly, and at a glance he saw a group of representatives and guests waiting for him. Chen Xi and Chen Ye first came into his sight.

After all, she is her own woman. Naturally, she was the first to discover that she had some warmth in her heart. I did not expect that the two sisters came.

“Congratulations, General Triumph!”

I saw everyone coming, everyone stood up and sent their congratulations, countless humane congratulations, congratulations to Qin Tiange on his triumphant return.

“You have a lot of time to work, and you are not entertained, please forgive me!” Qin Tiange entered the reception hall with a smile, and met with representatives of all parties.

I came from these people. Most of them had already guessed. All they wanted was to see if they could buy air warships.

“Admiral Qin, we come here on behalf of Admiral Xiao Fei. One is to congratulate General Qin on his triumph, and the other is to discuss with the General. Can I order several air and space warships?”

As soon as Qin Tiange just sat down, before he was still seated, someone couldn't wait to stand up and opened his mouth to express his intentions. The words of this man had just fallen, and immediately attracted the anger of many people.

Some people hate and scold: “Is this guy's brain rusty? They just came here, the stool didn't sit hot, and you didn't even have to drink a sip of tea, you just opened the door and saw the mountain.”

Listening to this person, Qin Tiange nodded politely and smiled: “For the maritime market, you can go back and tell General Xiao Fei. If you want to order, please get the personal instructions of the leaders in Shanghai.”

Throw it over, the representative's complexion turned red, so he didn't vomit blood. Qin Tiange's remarks are interesting. Who knows that the bases of all parties are under the rule of Shangjing on the surface, but they are doing their own thing, and they are not subject to the orders of Shangjing at all.

“Admiral Qin, I came on behalf of the Zhou family of Qi Cheng, and wanted to discuss the food trading project with your base.”

Another representative stood up, but this person was very clever, and instead of mentioning the purchase orders for arms such as air warships, he went directly and asked for food.

Yes, food, this person's vision is very accurate, and it is incredible to see that this base is planted with a brand new food.

“Yes, we came here to cooperate with your base and buy a batch of food. It would be better if there were seeds of that kind of golden rice for sale.”

Representatives from various forces have said that they did not come to buy any air warships, but to come for food.

I actually saw that the representative of the maritime base had eaten me, and then I temporarily changed my mind. Do n't think about things like warships. No one is stupid. How can such things be sold?

Therefore, the representatives of all parties temporarily changed their minds and immediately changed their strategies. To buy food, it is best to get the seeds of these special rice back.

Because they have eaten the golden rice here in the past few days, the taste can hardly be described by words.

“Of course, all food matters, please discuss with Zhuo Tianfan, the head of the internal affairs of our base, he is fully responsible for this.” Qin Tiange threw the ball directly to Zhuo Tianfan.

A large group of representatives of the forces came and immediately looked at Zhuo Tianfan next to him, making the latter smile a lot, but had to pull up a smiley face and take the group down to discuss.

Some people have no hope of the sky and space warships, but those new fighters and chariots should have a little hope?

“General Qin, I’m from Shencheng. We in Shencheng hope to reach an agreement with your base to order new fighters and chariots A middle-aged person stands up and expresses his interest.

Qin Tiange was lost in thought, his brain was thinking quickly, and then he said, “At present, our base is not enough to support the production of large quantities of fighters and chariots. If you can wait, you can place an order and then pay a deposit.”

“Everyone, let me be clear here. At present, we do not have the ability to manufacture large-scale warships, and the materials and resources are insufficient. However, those suspended combat vehicles and unmanned fighters can be sold outside. Representatives of interested parties can follow me Hu Yong, the secretary, is negotiating the order. “

Qin Tiange threw a ball again, and let Hu Yan who was sitting beside him roll his eyes secretly. When did he become his secretary?

However, she still saluted seriously, and then took the representatives of many parties who wanted to place an order to leave and went to the next meeting room to discuss the order.

At the scene, only General Cheng Shao of Guangcheng, General Mu Hua and granddaughter Mu Xue of Jingnan, and General Chen Wu of Shang Jing, plus Chen Xi and Chen Chen sisters of Su Cheng were left.

These people didn’t leave, and they didn’t talk. Qin Tiange stood up with a smile after watching those people leave.

欢迎 “Welcome Chen Lao to return home ...” Qin Tiange stood up to Chen Wu, extended his hand enthusiastically, and shook hands with the veteran general.

Chen Wu’s face was filled with emotion, and he did not expect that he was determined to leave to go to the capital, so that Qin Tiange could let it go. It was such a shocking scene that he did not expect to return.

The original small base has become the largest and even the most powerful base in the whole of China. What really shocked him was the high-tech that Qin Tiange tinkered with.

Chapter 510 - Brother-in-law, you bastard

For General Chen Wu, Qin Tiange still respects him. At the beginning, he rose at the end of Wei and just made his debut. Without Chen Wu’s trust and referral, he might miss the best opportunity.

For him, Chen Wu was his first guide. He introduced Qin Tiange into the Beijing military system and became a general.

Qin Tiange laughed: "At the time, I had the help of Chen Lao, and I have achieved what I am today. I have always remembered this kindness."

"I really did not read the wrong person." Lieutenant General Chen Wu smiled, and this sentence represented his inner recognition at the moment.

Qin Tiange smiled even more humbly and said, "Chen Lao is praised. Without your generosity and trust, I would not have achieved today. Thank you, Chen."

He said, Qin Tiange bowed down in sincere gratitude, thanking Chen Wu as a junior. If he hadn't given up his right here, he would give it all to Qin Tiange.

Otherwise, if Chen Wu doesn't recognize him and make troubles, let alone this huge base, that is, whether the millions of soldiers will recognize Qin Tiange is a question.

"You have good intentions." Chen Wu smiled broadly, then converged his smile, saluting solemnly.

He looked serious and said, "General Qin Tiange, I came on behalf of the leader of Shangjing, and wanted to ask you, are there any extra warships and other weapons and equipment sold to Shangjing?"

When it comes to business, they both put aside their friendship, and Qin Tiange said earnestly: "General Chen, let's do business on a business-by-business basis. I have talked to the leaders personally."

"That's good, I just want to come to the cut, just want to come back and see." Chen Wu said with a smile.

At this time, Lieutenant General Qi Shao said with a dismayed face: "I said that General Qin, did I look down on my old bones, and even left me here for so long, and I came here for the battleship this time, don't hit me sloppy. "

"General Qi rest assured, I will give you a satisfactory answer later." Qin Tiange answered with a smile, making Qi Shao satisfied.

On this side, Admiral Mu Hua was upset, and he said: "Old man Qi, you quickly hurry up. We in Jingnan are currently in a crisis stage and urgently need air battleships to install troops."

"Two veteran generals, be calm and restless, this place is not the place to speak. Everyone follows me. How will I discuss with the two in detail later?" Qin Tiange offered this suggestion with a smile.

"it is good!"

The two veterans were just satisfied, and everyone followed Qin Tiange out of the reception hall and went directly to a huge house at the base. This is Qin Tiange's residence and rarely returns.

A few people followed him to enter here, Chen Xi and Chen Xi have been very quiet, while the snow girl who followed Mu Hua looked at Qin Tiange and Chen Xi from time to time, and there was an inexplicable gleam in the cold eyes.

"Wow, brother-in-law, is this your place?"

When Chen entered, Chen Xuan couldn't help but exclaim, looking around like a curious baby, this brother-in-law could surprise the three old people.

General Mu Muhua took a look at Qin Tiange, and then looked at Chen Xi, who was shy, and understood.

"Xiao Xi, it turns out that you are the sweetheart of General Qin." Mu Hua said with emotion, no wonder his granddaughter.

Wu Chenxi's face was red and shouted politely: "Grandpa Mu, Grandpa Qi and Grandpa Chen, Xiaoxi is polite!"

"You're welcome!" Chen Wu nodded with a smile.

As for Lieutenant General Qi Shao, looking at Qin Tiange's expression was weird. It was so weird. "So old Chen is so good. He gave birth to a good granddaughter. My grandmother doesn't have a granddaughter?"

Huh!

As soon as this remark came out, let Mu Hua, who was drinking tea, spit out a cup of tea, his face turned extremely red, obviously giving the remarks air.

Doesn't this mean that Chen Guodong's granddaughter is better than his granddaughter Mu Xue?

"Xiao Xi, go and prepare a few home-cooked dishes, I will accompany the three generals to have a good chat." Qin Tiange came to the living room, took off his hat, and then instructed Chen Xi to prepare meals.

As soon as this word came out, Chen Xi's face was more delicate and moving, Hongxia was full, her smile was sweet, and her heart seemed to eat honey.

Isn't this a direct admission that she is the hostess here? Chen Xi enters the kitchen with a cheerful mood to prepare meals, while Chen Yun turns her eyes and bones, staring at a delicate bird on Mu Xue's shoulder.

"Sister Mu Xue, what is your pet?" Chen Yun could not help but asked curiously.

I heard her say, Qin Tiange turned his head and saw that Mu Xue's shoulder was lying there with a whole body of shining ice crystal bird.

"Ice Phoenix?" Qin Tiange said in astonishment, but made Mu Xue's eyes shine, and looked at him strangely.

In fact, Qin Tiange has noticed this bird long ago, but he didn't care about it. Now, look, isn't this the one he encountered in the extreme cold secret?

"Do you recognize this ice phoenix?" Snow Girl opened her mouth coldly, looking at Qin Tiange with a kind of speculation in her heart.

Sure enough, as Qin Tiange smiled and nodded, his eyes flickered, explaining: "I encountered an ice phoenix in a secret place at first, but then I ran away."

Speaking of this, Xue Nu understands that, but she remembered that Qin Tiange had entered the secret place at first, and it seems that the injured Ice Phoenix was injured by Qin Tiange.

Thinking this way, Snow Maiden's expression was a little weird, her eyes flickered, but she didn't talk much anymore, and looked very cold.

"Xiao Xue, come and help me, I can't do it alone." Chen Xi's crisp words came from the kitchen.

Wu Muxue and Chen Xi, in fact, the two knew each other since childhood, and because of the more communication between each other's family, naturally the relationship is good.

"I'm going too!" Chen Yan's eyes rolled around, holding Mu Xue's arm, and smiling: "Sister Mu Xue, I also have a pet, but the Emperor Tyrannosaurus, we have more time to come than to see who's pet good or not?"

I watched Chen Chen entangled with Snow Woman and wanted to compare her to pets. Qin Tiange felt a sense of crying and laughing, shook his head and didn't say much.

来 "Come, I admire the three old generals."

Qi Qin Tiange pours wine, fills a glass, raises up and respects the three old generals in front of him. These three have helped Qin Tiange a lot along the way, and Lieutenant General Qi Shao of Guangcheng and General Mu Hua of Jingnan have the best relationship with Chen Guodong of Shangjing.

After three rounds of drinking, Qin Tiange said: "Qi Lao, Guangcheng is the closest to me, and the first air route in the near future will be opened. The two cities will be connected at that time. As for the battleships, I can only give you Two ships need brain crystals to buy. As for other arms purchase programs, Hu Ye and Zhuo Tianfan are responsible. "

"No problem!" Lieutenant General Qi Shao looked slightly pleased and nodded directly without any opinion. Getting two air battleships is already the biggest gain, because he thinks it is impossible to have.

However, Qin Tiange was more generous than he expected, and he promised two ships, and it did not count the next plan for ordering weapons and equipment such as chariots and fighters.

"What about mine?" Admiral Mu Hua blinked, staring at Qin Tiange, and suddenly said, "Well, I'll leave Xiaoxue here for you, and you will give me five air battleships."

Huh!

After listening to a sip of old wine, Qin Tiange coughed twice, embarrassingly, "Mu Lao, don't be kidding, I don't have any stock here, just the two battleships tested in the first battle.

"I don't care, don't think that the old man, I don't know, you must have promised great benefits over Chen Guodong, no less than ten, right?" Mu Hua looked at Qin Tiange with a treacherous look, your boy. Don't be honest.

Qin Tiange smiled gently and said, "Of course, I will not hide everyone. I just discussed with the Beijing leader to complete it. I will exchange ten air battleships for 10,000 scientific and technological personnel in the headquarters. If you have such a side Talents can also trade with me, the more the better. "

"His ... ten thousand scientific and technological personnel of the General Hospital?" Mu Hua took a sigh of air-conditioning, startled.

He then looked dignified and murmured: "Chen Guodong seems to have lost his blood, and he really treats you as his granddaughter."

"No, you have to give me at least five ships, big deal, I'll match Xiaoxue to you." Admiral Mu Hua couldn't sit still.

When I saw him like this, Qin Tiange couldn't help crying and looked at the three graceful figures busy in the kitchen, and he was speechless for a while.

"I said Lao Mu, didn't you bully me for not having a granddaughter?" Lieutenant General Qi Shao was extremely dissatisfied and scolded.

He said, "You are teaching and destroying the harmony of Admiral Qin's family."

"I'm willing, how?" Mu Hua echoed back.

"Okay, the two stop and stop!" Qin Tiange had a big head and had to stop the quarrel between the two generals.

笑 He smiled bitterly and thought for a while and finally decided: "Two veteran generals, why not? I will temporarily order two for you in advance, and it will not be too late for me to place an order when my military factory expands."

"Okay!"

"Yes!"

Wu Muhua and Qi Shao, two veteran generals, finally agreed. Next, a few people gathered at a table and had a common meal.

During this time, Chen Ye had been eating in silence, without saying a word, it seemed to become very quiet at once It was really a change of nature, Mu Xue even said nothing, it was so cold that it was hard to get close to, a meal After eating, the last three veteran generals left.

I ca n't help it, they have a lot of things to deal with. This time I came here to see how the Shenzhen city, which was built by General Qin Tiange, was in the first hand.

Now I 've seen it and talked about it. Naturally I do n't want to stay any longer, just waiting for the order to be delivered to your door.

As soon as they left, Chen Yan, who had been stretched his face, was finally relieved, and the whole man was slumped on the seat, his face depressed.

“Really, it is uncomfortable to eat with Grandpa Qi, Grandpa Chen, and Grandpa Mu.” Chen Yan said easily.

Qi Qin Tian Ge smiled and ignored the little aunt, but came to Chen Xi and gently held her small waist, and found that Chen Xi was more charming and moving.

“Did you miss me?” He whispered.

Wu Chenxi’s face was blushing, and she lowered her head and didn’t speak, but she nodded slightly and answered Qin Tiange to make the latter smile.

“Chen Yun, you first play around the Shenzhen city base for a while, I have something to do with your sister first.”

After he finished speaking, Qin Tiange didn’t wait for Chen Yi to react, directly holding the shameful Chen Xi, he flashed out of the living room and disappeared here.

“Hey ... asshole, brother-in-law, you asshole!”

Wu Chenxian had a furious face and yelled furiously with her fists: “Sister-in-law, bad brother-in-law, knowing that you left me alone, you know you want to do bad things with your sister, it’s awful, it’s awful.

With an angry mood, she ran out of the living room angrily, wandering aimlessly around the base, and soon walked towards the central Lianhua Mountain.
