

Dark Ages 531

Chapter 531 - 3 Artifact Destroyed

Inside the East Palace, a figure looked gloomily outside, his eyes were cold, he held a weird long sword, and his breath was strong and weird.

“Baga ... Damn Chinese!”

This person is the only prince of the Dongluo royal family. He has a strong breath and is definitely an eight-star close to a nine-star existence.

He was originally hidden in the palace, silently accumulating strength, looking forward to the day when he can rule Dongzhang again.

When you fought for me at the four major families in Tokyo, he stood by and looked at it with a smile.

However, Qin Tiange's appearance broke his plans and fantasies and helped the Qianhe family wipe out the other three families.

Finally he couldn't sit still. He wanted to go out and stop, but soon he was shocked to find that this Chinese man even killed the masters of the three major families, which scared him.

Now, Qian He came with Qin Tiange, just outside the palace, which caused the anger of the East Emperor, his face gloomy.

“Qianhe, you betrayed the Yamato people, the gods will not let you go.” Prince Toshiro said coldly.

He looked at the two figures coming in from the outside, a man and a woman, the man was Qin Tiange, and the woman was of course Qianhe.

The two walked in, each looking at the East Emperor Prince in front of each other. Qian He looked surprised and shocked, because the East Emperor royalty who had not been cut in her eyes was stronger than her, even more than the four major families. Strong.

This made Qianhe very shocked, and then he realized that someone from the Donglu royal family was hiding behind the scenes and waiting for the opportunity.

“The strong are respected, the royal family is a mascot, why do you jump out?” Qian He said lightly.

This angered the prince of East Rong. The breath was boiling and his eyes almost burst into flames. He gave Qianhe a glance before he locked his eyes on Qin Tiange. This Chinese strong man was terrible.

“Huaxia strongman, do you intervene in my Dongluo matter, is this a bit out of bounds?” The prince of Dongluo began to question Qin Tiange.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange only looked at him twice, and finally looked at a weird long sword in his hand.

Qin Tiange laughed suddenly: “Presumably, this sword in your hand is rumored to be one of the three artifacts in the Middle East?”

“Yes, now that you know it is one of the three major artifacts of my Yamato people, how far away do you have to roll out of the sphere of influence of the East?”

The prince of Dongluo was arrogant. He stared at Qin Tiange and hummed softly: “This is something inside our Dongluo. Your Excellency will attract the hostility of my entire Dongluo.”

“There is so much nonsense.” Qin Tiange sneered and stepped forward step by step, and the ancient sword on his waist uttered a sword groan.

He calmly said, “Let me teach one of the three artifacts of the East God, how powerful is Tian Cong Yun Jian, is it as powerful as rumored?”

“Since you want to die under the artifact, then I will complete you.” Said the East Prince, slowly drawing his sword, a dark light revealed faintly.

With a short sigh, Tiancong Yunjian emerged from the sheath, exuding a breath of extreme evil, and the endless bloodthirsty desire was issued, as if to devour the soul.

This is one of the three artifacts of the Dongzhang. The ancient sword has incredible power, but it is not seen in Qin Tiange’s eyes.

The corner of his mouth slightly tilted, standing less than ten meters in front of the East Prince, gently pulling out the ancient sword, and his terrible evil spirits rose up in his body.

“kill!”

Almost at the same time, the two broke out and stabbed each other.

I saw a jingle, the ancient sword and Tiancong Yunjian attacked each other, and a dazzling spark of fire was emitted from the sword’s tip.

Along with an ancient sword groan, Qin Tiange’s ancient sword struck the opponent’s Tiancong Yunjian, and it crossed the neck of the East Prince in an instant.

With a splash, the blood splattered, and a slit was made in the neck of the East Prince, and the blood could not stop flowing.

He stepped back quickly, his face changed dramatically, covering his neck with blood stains, but quickly took out a bottle of medicine to drink, and the wound recovered immediately.

“Baga ...” The prince of East Ran was furious, looking at the trembling Tiancong Yunjian, and uttered a trace of wailing.

“Three artifacts, Tiancong Yunjian, but that’s it. Watch me chop it.”

Opposite, Qin Tiange faced with a touch of disappointment. In fact, this so-called artifact was not an artifact at all, but an ancient sword with good power.

Thinking of this, he lost his interest, the figure flashed, the ancient sword split in the air, with an unstoppable sword edge.

Huh!

As soon as a clear impact came, he saw Prince Dongying kneeling on both feet and sinking into the floor. He held up the Tian Cong Yun Sword, but he could not stop the power of the sword.

The heavy pressure made him almost three, and the eight-star master couldn't catch Qin Tiange's sword and knelt directly on the ground.

"Ah ..." At the critical moment, the prince of East Rong yelled, his body was full of blue muscles, and black gas poured out.

"The power of eight disparities ..." He shouted sharply, and a black gas spewed out from his body, and Qin Tiange stepped back as he lifted his sword.

Watching Tian Cong Yun Jian wrapped in black flames, Qin Tian Ge's face was calm, and the ancient sword buzzed, and instantly split into this East Sword of Excalibur.

Listening only to the sound of "click", Tian Cong Yun Jian issued an extremely sharp wailing sound, which was broken into two parts on the spot and completely destroyed.

One of the three artifacts of the East Rim, Tian Cong Yun Jian, was actually chopped up by the ancient sword in Qin Tiange's hand. At the moment when the artifact was broken, a mist poured out and turned into a fierce thing. .

This is the sword spirit, but was engulfed by a ray of light from the ancient sword, and quickly ate clean.

"My artifact ..." The East Prince retreated by the moment the artifact was destroyed, looking sorrowfully at the broken Tiancun Yunjian, bleeding in his heart.

His artifact, the powerful Tiancong Yunjian, and the symbol of the royal family of the East, were cut off in this way, it was incredible.

Qin Tiange said with a sneer, "The so-called Three Artifacts, is this able?"

In his view, the artifact is definitely not like this. Some powerful weapons, called artifacts, are definitely difficult to be chopped, but the Tian Cong Yun Jian in front of them was split by the ancient sword, which made him a little disappointed. .

"Come on!" Tian Congyun was chopped, Qin Tiange had no intention of continuing to play, and went directly to the East Prince with a sword.

The other side was terrified, roaring with fury, surging with black gas, and turned into a ghost of a serpent in the back, with his mouth open and roaring, terrifying.

"Yaqi serpent?" In the distance, Qianhe saw here, his face changed, and exclaimed: "Be careful, that is the ghost of the ancient scourge of Hagi, the old monster."

Humph!

Watching the imaginary shadow of the eight-variable serpent rushing into anger, Qin Tiange snorted, and the ancient sword did not stay, and split directly from the phantom of the eight-variable serpent.

With a thump, the eight-dimensional snake wailed, and the eight heads rumbled in unison, but unfortunately was slain by the ancient sword, and even a little aura was swallowed up.

After breaking the ghostly shadow of the Hachichi snake, the ancient sword broke into the air, and the sharp edge pointed directly at the heart of the Emperor Dongzhang, seeing that he was about to die through his forehead.

Hum!

At a critical moment, a jade pendant hanging on the neck of the Emperor Dongyu suddenly trembled, emitting a ray of radiant light, dark gas faint, releasing a powerful air hood, blocking the sword.

Although it was soon broken down, Hidden Prince East took advantage of this opportunity to successfully avoid the sword and retreated from a distance.

“One of the three artifacts, eight-foot Qiong Gouyu?” Qin Tiange was surprised, and then knew.

Sure enough, the emperor’s neck is hanging on the neck, which is one of the three artifacts of the legendary Middle East, the eight-foot Qiong Gouyu.

Unexpectedly, a prince in the east, there are two artifacts of the legend of the east, which has to be surprising. No wonder he can become a great power in the previous life.

It seems that there should be a powerful existence behind it, perhaps the evil creature Yachiki serpent in the legends of the East.

“What about the three artifacts? I’ll chop you down.”

Qin Tiange Teng came, the ancient sword was buzzing, and a horrible sword light was emitted, which was a sword to the East Prince.

Clicking crunching, a vacuum blade split in the head, and the prince of the East was beating heartily, his face changed greatly, and he was horrified.

The vacuum blade even shattered the defense strength of Baqi Qiong Gouyu, and slashed directly into his head, watching that it would be split in half by the ancient sword.

“Within the horizon ...” At this critical moment, a crisp, soft drink came from deep in the palace.

When I saw a mysterious light rushing, I moved the Emperor Dongsheng Shengsheng across ten meters in an instant, avoiding Qin Tiange’s slaying sword.

The ancient sword broke into the ground, and a score of tens of meters was cut out on the ground.

“Finally made it up?” Qin Tiange sneered, his eyes suddenly turned, locking a breath deep in the palace.

In fact, he had long felt that there was still a breath hidden here, and it was this breath that made him notice.

Otherwise, with his strength, the East Prince has been killed for a long time, but to draw out a breath still hidden inside.

Sure enough, seeing this, Qin Tiange Lengheng: "I've been guarding you early, since it comes out, then die."

"Sword of the Overlord!"

As soon as the words fell, I saw an overbearing Jianmang piercing the depths of the palace, passing by, and the ground was plowed with a huge sword mark.

Just listening to the exclamation from the palace, and then a loud bang, the entire palace collapsed.

In the ruins, a flamboyant figure quickly jumped and jumped, holding a cracked ancient mirror in both hands, exuding strange black light, wrapped around her and disappeared directly.

"Want to run?" Qin Tiange looked cold and was about to be hunted down, but saw the East Emperor Prince taking the opportunity to run away, then gave up hunting down the hidden man, and took out the purple gold bow to shoot two arrows.

A straight arrow took the hidden strongman, but the strange thing was that the cracked ancient mirror on the opponent's hand appeared a black light, which even distorted the space, and then brought the person into it and disappeared.

Flutter!

On the other side, the fledgling East Prince was stiff and looked down, his heart was broken by a sharp arrow hole, and the sharp arrow turned his head again and pierced into his eyebrow.

"Private kangan じません (I am not willing) ..."

"ヤマタノオロチ .... 八奇大蛇 Save me ..."

The last scream of the Emperor Dongsong made a black light on his brows, and then the eight-foot Qiong Gouyu on his neck broke completely.

His body slammed to the ground, and the black light was gone, disappearing.

The three artifacts of Japan, the heavenly sword, the eight-foot Qionggou jade, and even the close-up mirror carried by the hidden strongman were all shattered by Qin Tiange.

It's a pity that he couldn't kill the hidden person, but he didn't care, and ran away. If he dared to appear again, it would be too late to kill.

"Not good, this black gas ..."

The rushing Qianhe just saw the dark air flying away, his face changed greatly, as if he remembered something terrible.

“Interesting, the Eight-Big Snake?” Qin Tiange looked with a touch of excitement and looked at the black air that was vacated, not stopping, but staring at the direction it was flying.

There, it is Higashi-Higashi-God Mountain, Mount Fuji.

Chapter 532 - 8-Dig Snake

With the killing of the East Prince, the three artifacts were chopped up by Qin Tiange, and an inexplicable force inside it suddenly broke.

This power, as if it were the power of an ancient seal, was directly destroyed, causing a dark air that rumbled the Quartet.

“Senior, it’s Mount Fuji ...”

Qianhe looked pale, and his expression was somewhat frightened, saying, “In the ancient books of our Qianhe family, there has been a terrible fierce creature in the east, the Hachichi snake.”

The eight-dimensional snake, a symbol of evil, is rumored to be from the kingdom of heaven and extremely powerful. It came to the world to kill the Quartet and caused countless disasters.

In Dongbei, several ancient families joined forces to resist the Yagi Great Serpent. Later, they did not know why they descended from the sky into three powerful artifacts. This is the Dongbei three artifacts.

Tian Cong Yun Jian, Ba Chi Qiu Gouyu, and Hachio Mirror, with the combination of three artifacts, finally sealed the eight-variable serpent at Mount Fuji in Japan.

Regarding this rumor, Qin Tiange ignored it at all, his eyes flickered with excitement, staring at the direction of Mt. Fuji, where the dark air stirred the air and stirred all directions.

You can feel the terrible atmosphere from here, and Qin Tiange has heard about the previous snakes that were sealed under Mount Fuji.

In the previous life, the Great Emperor of Dongbei released this seal of an ancient monster, and wanted to use it to attack Huaxia.

I heard that in the past life, as soon as the birth of the Yachi serpent, it swallowed many masters of the East, even swallowed a king, and finally entered the Huaxia area.

As a result, the Hachichi snake was miserable, and was beaten by five emperor-level strong men, crying and crying, and was finally photographed by a Emperor Master who just passed by.

Yes, that powerful Yagi snake was patted into a flesh by a master of the first emperor of China.

Bang ...

As I was thinking, a violent vibration came from afar, and the whole of Mount Fuji shook. The fire was soaring into the sky, and magma rushed hundreds of meters high.

Mount Fuji was originally an active volcano. At this moment, it was under the influence of inexplicable forces from the ground. Magma spewed up, black smoke billowed into the sky.

“Go and see!”

Qin Tiange flew into the sky with a smile and flew directly to Mount Fuji. Qianhe looked hesitant, but kept up quickly.

Even the distant Qianlu heard the sound and drove over Xuanwu, rushing away, and rushing towards Mount Fuji.

“That’s, Seal of Six Mounts!”

Just after arriving at a high altitude not far from Mount Fuji, Qianhe’s complexion changed slightly, and she exclaimed, and she saw a bright light coming from under the whole Mount Fuji.

It was a six-pointed star pattern, extremely huge, covering the whole body of Mount Fuji, as if something terrible was sealed there.

A breath of blood filled out, and the seal was constantly struck, which surprised Qin Tiange when he arrived.

“Very strong evil spirit, how strong is this Yagi snake?” Qin Tiange couldn’t help but wonder, this Yagi snake that was severely beaten by the five emperors in the previous life and shot dead by the Emperor level. What level is it.

I saw that the snow and ice on the top of Mount Fuji melted, and a stream of hot magma spewed hundreds of meters high, scattered all over the place, igniting flowers and trees, forming a monstrous fire.

Within ten kilometers of Mount Fuji, it was submerged by the endless gushing magma. The entire Mount Fuji melted into the magma and turned into a lava lake.

boom...

Under the lava, a violent shock came, and the huge six-pointed star suddenly fainted for a few moments, and was shaken by an evil spirit.

Qin Tiange knew that the seal of Liumangxing was about to be broken. Soon, the big snake in it was about to come out.

“Qianhe, you step back, don’t get near here.” Qin Tiange suddenly gave a command, his tone seemed a little solemn.

When Qian He heard the trembling in his heart, he turned without hesitation and pushed away, just meeting with the Qian Lu who arrived, and the two were one kilometer away.

Xuanwu continued to spray black ice, freezing the rolling magma around it, and gradually accumulating a huge iceberg, looking at the scene from a kilometer away.

“Sister, what is the host doing there?” Qian Lu just arrived and saw Qin Tiange floating there quietly, unable to help worrying.

Qianhe shook his head gently, with a dignified expression: “The predecessor should wait for the Yagi snake that was rumored to be sealed.”

“Yaqi snake?” Qianlu was startled.

But soon, both of them were awakened by a terrible shock. They looked up and saw the six-horse star's seal suddenly burst into a heinous anger.

With a bang, the entire six-horse star collapsed instantly, disappearing into glory and disappearing, leaving only a blast of evil air that stirred the turmoil in all directions.

The heavens and the earth darkened, as if the entire sky was covered by dark clouds, and the evil atmosphere permeated the entire Tokyo area.

“what happened?”

“How is this going?”

For a while, countless people were panicking in the entire Tokyo base, and they were at a loss as they looked at such a weird and terrifying phenomenon.

Even more frightening is that a black gas distant from the distance came with endless oppressive radiation, and many people were fainted on the spot.

Even some people were so frightened that they knelt on their knees, looking horrified, and trembled there as if trembling from the soul.

Uh ...

A roar, fierce and brutal, spread endlessly with the meaning of endless evil.

The area where Mount Fuji was originally located has long been turned into a magma lake, and the boiling and roaring magma is constantly rolling.

Then, a terrible wave came from the ground, accompanied by the magma being rolled up thousands of meters high, and then it fell down, forming a gorgeous magma rain.

Qin Tiange's eyes stared at the magma, and the evil spirit that was expanding intensified, his face became more dignified.

“Ochichi snake ... Is it a creature from an alien?” Qin Tiange couldn't help muttering, the evil spirit was too strong.

He did not believe at all that the ancient Dongbei had the ability to seal this terrible evil, which might be the strong one from outside the sky.

boom!

With a loud noise, the lava lake exploded, and a large dark shadow slowly emerged, constantly rising from the magma underground.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange's pupils shrank, and finally he saw the true face of the Yachi snake.

Alas ... A huge head rose, breaking through the magma, roaring upward, the sound was deafening, and even some collapsed houses three kilometers away were shattered on the spot.

Qin Tiange bears the brunt of it, but he doesn't change his face. He uses his ancient sword to quietly look at this huge monster that slowly emerges, the Yaqi serpent.

A head followed by a head emerged from the magma, slowly raised, eight pairs of eyes flashed with evil and murderous light, staring at Qin Tiange.

“Eight-star?” Qin Tiange froze, feeling the breath of the Eight-Discused Serpent, and found a strange phenomenon, that is, the Eight-Distance Serpent in front of him, looking at the mighty horror, but it was only eight stars level.

This made Qin Tiange unbelievable. How did he say that this monster had entered Huaxia in the past life, although he was violently beaten by five emperors and then shot dead by the Emperor.

But those are the five emperor and first emperor. How do you say that this eight-dimensional snake is at least an emperor in order to resist the five emperors?

However, what made him unbelievable was that the eight-disc serpent only looked like an eight-star star. Yes, he didn't sense the error.

The big snake, eight stars, but Qin Tiange knows that it is more terrible than the nine stars, and can even easily kill the nine stars.

Soon, Qin Tiange had two huge fractures on and above the body of the Baqi serpent. Although healed, he could still see that there were originally two heads there.

“That's it ...” Qin Tiange understood, and said suddenly: “This Hachichi snake has been injured and has two heads cut off. It should be a strong man above the king level.”

hiss!

Suddenly, one of the snakes snarled and opened his mouth, roaring at Qin Tiange, as if full of endless anger.

The Yagi snake was angry and growled, “Humans, do you dare to undermine this plan?”

Qin Tiange was surprised when he heard the Baqi serpent opening his mouth and roaring, and then understood the meaning of this remark.

“Why, I let you out, shouldn't you kneel your head and thank you, then crying and begging me to be my pet?” Qin Tiange said this calmly.

In the distance, Qianhe and Qianlu stared at each other, and Qin Tiange's remarks fell to Lei, almost biting his tongue.

Both of them were shocked that Qin Tiange dared to say this, not to mention the mighty and fierce Hachichi snake, which was almost mad by these words.

“Huh ... humans, you're looking for death!” The Eight-Big Snake opened his mouth and whistled, without hesitation, a spit of melanin sprayed up.

Heiyan rolled in, overwhelming Qin Tiange's figure, but soon the Bachi serpent was surprised to find that Heiyan sprayed out disappeared.

I saw that Qin Tiange opened his mouth and swallowed the black inflammation around him. He also took a full slam, and looked at the Yaki snake with dissatisfaction.

“Dare to take action on your life-saving benefactor. It seems that you don’t want to be my pet, then kill you and slowly cook it.”

Speaking, Qin Tiange drew his sword, and the world was dim, leaving only a horrible swordman torn down and straight to take a head of the Hachigi snake.

Huh!

The Baqi serpent was screaming, eight heads were dancing wildly, and a mouthful of black flames were sprayed out of the mouth. Then, a head swallowed towards Qin Tiange.

“Kingdom!”

With a swift drink Along with the collapse of the black flames, a hazy phantom emerged, holding a sword and slicing to a head of the Eight-Big Snake.

Qin Tiange’s shot was a powerful sword, a brilliant sword, and an emperor’s majesty.

Jianmang was cut off, and there was a click, blood and water spewed several feet high.

Uh ...

With a scream, one of the heads of the Hachichi snake was chopped, the scale armor collapsed, and a huge sword mark was chopped on the forehead. The bones were deeply visible, and the head was almost chopped off.

“Human, you are looking for death!”

The eight-headed serpent growled wildly, with eight heads coiled together, and then eight tails entangled.

Immediately afterwards, the huge body burst out of the magma, releasing an endless black flame, completely covering itself inside.

Gradually, the Yaki snake in Heiyan disappeared, replacing a hazy figure.

Chapter 533 - Space vs time

A figure slowly walked out of Hei Yan, reached out and pulled it, hula, and the sky was turned down into a black long sword, the sharp edge pointed at Qin Tiange.

“Tian Congyun?” Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the dark sword, just like a magic sword that he just chopped.

However, the figure in front of him turned out to be a black sword condensed with black flames, revealing endless evil.

Qin Tiange looked at the person in front of him. He had long gray hair and no wind dancing, a handsome and eccentric look, his eyes were cold and arrogant, and there was a trace of evil killing. He was naked, with a sun on his chest. He’s the black veins, and he’s exactly the Hachichi snake.

“Human, you must die!” He took a step forward, his body turned into black particles disappeared, and then appeared again, came up before him, raised the black sword and waved gently, the click sound came, the black silk line was facing Qin Tiange’s head was cut off.

Feeling the terrible sharpness, as if everything had been cut off, Qin Tiange's pupils could not help shrinking, secretly stunned, and surely could not underestimate any creature.

“Imperial Wrath!”

Qin Tiange drank lowly, and a whole body of anger was raised, turning into a virtual shadow of the emperor, holding a sword and chopping.

Two swordsman flashed, snorted, intertwined into the air, burst out terrible sparks.

Just hearing a whistle, the black long sword collapsed and dispersed on the spot, and disappeared into a blossoming black flame.

The snake looked down, watching a shallow sword mark on his chest, his eyes were cold, and the black particles continued to boil.

“Strangling in space!” Suddenly, Bachi snake raised a finger gently and pointed at Qin Tiange.

With a bang, the space is broken like a mirror, turning into a sharp and terrifying space blade.

Looking at the sharp pieces of space pierced by the rapid, shining dark and deep light, as if to be able to cut nothing and devour everything.

“The power of space?” Qin Tiange's heart tightened suddenly, inexplicably inexplicable. He didn't expect that the eight-dimensional snake had the power of space.

This was absolutely beyond his expectation. He was surprised because he didn't expect it, but he was not afraid of the power of this space.

In the face of the space strangulation of the Yaqi snake, although Qin Tiange was not surprised, he raised his hand and pointed it out, and he saw a group of bright silver awns passing through, and the space was frozen wherever he passed.

Wow ...

As Yin Mang passed, all sharp space blades were instantly stopped, and then smashed into a wave to be smoothed by the surrounding space, as if never appeared.

“Huh?” The Baqi serpent looked in horror and looked at Qin Tiange, but he did not expect the other party to easily break his space for strangulation.

This trick is absolutely strong. Most people can't hide it, and can't even stop the strangulation of the sharp blade in the broken space, but it was easily smoothed by Qin Tiange.

“What kind of power is that?” The serpent's eyes were cold, black light faint, staring at Qin Tiange and paying attention to this human for the first time.

Looking at the flattened space blade, Qin Tiange chuckled: “Baqi, I'm curious, are you a native creature of the earth or are you from outer space?”

laugh!

“Hahahahahaha ...”

After hearing this, the Hachichi serpent laughed suddenly, and the more he laughed, the more he became mad, and the sound came out, causing the boundless magma to boil and rolling up a pillar of fire.

Within a kilometer of Mount Fuji, violent vibrations occurred, and the magma was continuously rolled up by inexplicable forces, thrown at high altitude, and dropped.

Laughing and smiling, the serpent gradually converged, his face was cold, and two thick black awns were revealed in his eyes, as if he could devour his heart.

He glanced at Qin Tiange and scorned: "Stupid human, I am from heaven, but the gods of heaven, can you and other humble human beings understand?"

"It's just a snake, but a few more heads. Are you really a god? In my eyes, you are a dish to be cooked." Qin Tiange dismissed, sharply irritating the other side.

As a result, the serpent was angry and hummed, "Human, let you see the power of God."

Click!

As soon as the voice fell, the snake's body turned into a black particle and disappeared. Qin Tiange suddenly felt that there was some fluctuation in the space behind him.

With a flutter, he saw the disappearing serpent appearing behind him, and a hand pierced his back heart, as if to take out his heart.

"No!" Snake's pupils shrank, and it felt that it was not the human body that penetrated into the air, but Qin Tiange's figure faded and then disappeared. This was an afterimage.

Sure enough, Qin Tiange's figure quietly appeared behind the serpent. The ancient sword swallowed a three-inch sharp edge and pierced the serpent's heart.

A flutter, a drop of black blood splattered, a strange breath, and the heart of the snake was almost penetrated. Fortunately, at the critical moment, he transformed into a black particle to escape the fatal blow.

Even so, his back muscles were cut through a deep visible bone, and black particles poured out, and the wound soon healed.

"Immortal body?" Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the restored snake, and was surprised that he had no immortal body.

The serpent's face was cold and chilly: "Human, you are very good. For thousands of years, you who can hurt me are still the first."

"Space prison!"

At first glance, the snake pointed out, and saw the space around it suddenly freeze, and then turned into a cage-like thing, imprisoned Qin Tiange there.

Space cages can confine anything in the area, and even kill all creatures with space sharp blades, which is very scary.

Qin Tiange's body was imprisoned, and inexplicable power acted on him, as if the space around him had turned into power and locked him.

"Dead!" The serpent turned into a black particle and quietly appeared in front of Qin Tiange, a hand piercing his heart fiercely.

"Forbidden field, open!" At a critical moment, Qin Tiange opened the forbidden field, a force of taboo burst out, breaking open the locked space around him, and shifting his body to the right by three minutes.

With a thump, the left rib was cut off, and Da snake's hand almost pierced his heart. Fortunately, he shifted by three points at a critical moment to avoid the deadly threat.

boom!

Almost at the same time, the two threw a punch at each other, both of them were shaken away, and a scary ripple came from the surrounding space.

Qin Tiange looked cold and looked down at his broken left rib, his bones repaired himself, and the wound recovered in a blink of an eye.

Opposite, the serpent saw here, wondering, "This is, immortal body, how is it possible?"

He was shocked, watching Qin Tiange's wounds recover suddenly, even three points faster than him, and couldn't believe his eyes.

The serpent looked horrified and said coldly: "Human, why do you have an immortal body? This is the ability of the gods of heaven."

"Stupid!" Qin Tiange sneered, sarcastically: "Are you foolishly sealed by the seal? Among the stars of the sky, there is more than just the so-called heaven gods who have immortality.

"I even suspect that you are not a creature in the Starry Hundreds. Seeing you so stupid is really worrying about the race behind you." Qin Tiange said with a mocking smile.

"court death!"

The Yaki snake was so angry that he was stimulated by these words, and he almost ran away. Fortunately, he knew that he must calm down.

This human is very weird and has inexplicable power. He has to be cautious. He has lived for thousands of years or even longer, and he is naturally smart.

"Humans, talk fast, watch me kill you."

The serpent raised a finger and nodded elegantly. A black ripple rippled. Instantly, the space within two kilometers of the two people was immediately fixed.

It was a prison cage of space again. Feeling the inexplicable power locked him, Qin Tiange snorted, and the taboo field broke out, which directly drove the captive force of this space.

The two forces are struggling, and they are indistinguishable from each other. Qin Tiange cannot be defeated in space cage, but Qin Tiange cannot defeat this force.

“Strangling in space!” The serpent drank indifferently, again pointing at the void in front of him, and snoring, as if a broken plate of a mirror, a piece of sharp space fragmentation turned into a sharp blade.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange put away the ancient sword and directly countered it with the force of taboo. With a single finger, the bright silver awn appeared in front of him.

“Time is still!”

With a low sip, I saw that everything around me was stationary for a while, that is, the sharp blade of space that was whistling was stopped.

Then, a ray of silver radiated, the sharp blade of space was smoothed and disappeared, and the force of the fixed space was smoothed one by one, as if it had never appeared.

“Space particles ...”

The next moment, a icy word came across from the other side, and he saw the snake crossed his chest with his hands, and a black light burst from the sun’s black lines on his chest converged on his head, turning into a black sun.

Then, the black sun bloomed with endless black particles, sweeping in all directions, wherever there were break marks in the space.

Black particles, called space particles, are terrifying.

“Time is back!”

Qin Tiange frowned a little, his eyes flickered with two beams of horrible silver awns, and he immediately raised his hand and gently stroked the black particles sweeping in front of him.

Those violent black space particles backed up on the spot, then quickly turned back, and everything around them flowed back in an instant.

“Space particles ...”

Time went back to the moment when the serpent launched the space particles he shouted this again, and the black sun above his head bloomed with countless black particles, swarming towards all directions.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange looked weird, and then stroked it again, the silver ripples rippled out, and everything within a thousand kilometers of the space returned to what it was just five seconds ago.

“Space ... uh ...” Da snake just shouted this sentence, suddenly felt something wrong, he seemed to shout twice.

For a moment, the big snake was full of hair, his eyes burst into two horrible black awns, staring directly at Qin Tiange, his face became more and more shocked.

“You ... how can you possibly have the taboo power of time?” Da snake exclaimed, apparently surprised by this recognition.

Just now, he vaguely remembered that he had exploded two super killing techniques, space particle waves, but returned back, which made him feel a little hairy.

The power of time is the most mysterious and forbidden power. Even if he has the power of space, he is a bit frightened, from the instinctive fear of time.

Chapter 534 - Cut the serpent, turbulent space

“Isn’t it fun to go back in time?” Qin Tiange sneered, looking at the Yaqi serpent with a suspicious expression in front of him.

The opponent just put the space particles three times in a row, and the results were all reversed back, and then put again, it felt as if they were tricked.

The Yaqi serpent had a cold face, his eyes shining with an evil luster, and hummed, “Even if you have the taboo power of time, you cannot completely control it. Even if you have just awakened this power, I am naturally not afraid. . “ “Really, then you try it?” Qin Tiange smiled convergently, looking indifferently at the Baqi snake.

I saw that the two figures disappeared in the same place at the same time, the snake’s body turned into a black particle and disappeared, but Qin Tiange’s body gradually faded and lost his trace.

Bang bang bang ...

Above the magma, a violent sound of fighting came suddenly, the two shadows were almost invisible, and they continued to stagger and collide with each other, causing the magma to roll straight into the sky.

“Space prison!”

“Time is still!”

Two loud drinks came, and they saw that the space was frozen, time was still, and the two taboo forces were intertwined and collided, and they didn’t want each other.

The Bachi snake became more and more gloomy during the Vietnam War. The water almost dripped from his face. Pointing out, the sharp edge of the space shouted.

However, all these sharp blades of space were smoothed out by a force of taboos and failed to play any role at all.

Instead, Qin Tiange used the power of time to stop, making the body of the Baqi snake a moment’s pause. At this moment, Qin Tiange caught a large piece of blood on the chest of the snake.

The two separated, and the Yaqi serpent looked cold and gloomy, looking down at the scratches on the chest, and a piece of flesh was caught.

The flesh and blood that Qin Tiange was holding in his hand, with black blood, revealing the horrible power, was the flesh and blood of the serpent.

He chuckled a little, earning space bracelets, which made the eyes of Baqi Serpent even colder, and the killing was almost condensed into substance.

“Very well, you succeeded in angering me.” Serpent laughed angrily.

“Black particle shock!”

With a cold drink, accompanied by the explosion of immense black light, Qin Tiange suddenly felt a terrible wave of particles flowing below.

With a bang, the endless black particles turned into a beam of light, rising from the magma and hitting Qin Tiange’s body.

“Hell thousand soul hands!”

At the moment of being hit, the figure of the eight-dimensional snake turned into black particles and appeared under Qin Tiange’s body. He reached out a hand and pierced Qin Tiange’s heart into a thousand residual shadows.

With a splash, blood splattered, and the snake grabbed Qin Tiange’s heart and was about to dig it out.

“Time is back!”

But at this moment, a mysterious force radiated, everything was flowing backwards, and then returned to the moment when the serpent appeared quietly.

“Asshole!” Ba Qi angered and saw that Qin Tiange had already retreated, this time the raid was considered a failure, and fell under the backward flow of time.

But he was not discouraged. Instead, he fought more and more bravely, turning his hands into shadows, as if thousands of hands attacked Qin Tiange.

Bang bang ...

The two instantly struck together, punching each other and hitting each other’s body, causing huge shocks and wounds, flesh and blood, and the situation was a bit horrible.

The most shocking thing is that the two were injured, and they could recover in a moment, as if they could not kill each other.

Both Qin Tiange and the Eight-Big Snake have immortal bodies, so that Qin Tian-ge gradually understands why the previous generations of the Eight-Big Snake can compete with the five Emperor-level strong one by one, and was finally shot dead by the Emperor.

It turns out that he has an immortal body, which is one of the reasons why he can stand up with the five great masters, and another is that he has the power of space.

Huh!

The serpent lost his trace, his body turned into black particles, and the space rippled. He appeared on the left side of Qin Tiange and raised his hand to point.

With a click, the space shattered like a mirror. Qin Tiange’s body was cut by the broken blade of space, flesh and blood, and looked extremely miserable.

One kilometer away, Qian He and Qian Lu sisters looked dignified. Looking at the fierce fighting there, their figures appeared from time to time.

As the fighting intensified, the space there fell into chaos, broken space blades, solid space cages, and roaring space particles.

In addition, a mysterious time, constantly healing the chaotic space forces around, the black torrent, still to be healed in front of time.

The confrontation between space and time has caused Qin Tiange to fall into a disadvantage. In fact, this taboo power has just awakened for a long time and is rarely used.

This makes the power unavoidably a little unfamiliar, and, unlike the Yachi serpent, the control of the power of space is extremely deep.

“Finger, broken!”

The serpent grew more confident, shattered the space, turned it into an endless blade, and then waved a black particle with both hands, drowning towards Qin Tiange.

Regarding the power of space, he applied it as pure fire. In contrast, Qin Tiange, although blocking these attacks, seemed a bit stiff.

“Time, you can stop everything, you can change everything.”

During the fierce battle, Qin Tiange’s eyes almost turned into a silvery white, completely occupied by silver arcs, and a huge network of time in his mind continued to flash.

For the realization and application of the power of time, in the fierce battle, Qin Tiange became more and more proficient, the more excited he became.

With such a master duel, but also a powerful creature with the power of space, it is of great benefit to him to prove his talent and time to realize the power of taboos.

Just as now, the space power of the serpent is constantly bombarding, space sharp blades, space prison cages, space black particles, all of them are exposed to the danger of death.

In such a crisis environment, Qin Tiange became more and more familiar with the understanding and application of time.

“Space particles ...” The snake crossed his hands, screaming in the air.

An endless stream of black particles swept through, the space was cut apart, and the surrounding magma and rocks were twisted into powder one by one.

In the face of such a terrible attack, Qin Tiange calmly raised a finger, and elegantly indifferently emptied in front of him.

boom!

Suddenly, the endless black particles were still, and then there was a muffled sound, which scattered and disappeared without a trace.

The eight-headed serpent was gloomy and more and more irritable. It was the first time that the power of space could not help each other.

“Space Blade!”

In the fury, he directly reached out and condensed the two sharp blades of space, his body turned into black particles and disappeared, and then killed Qin Tiange.

“kill!”

Qin Tiange drank swiftly, his fists fluttered, and silver arcs wrapped around his fists, forming a terrible protective force, directly hitting the serpent’s sharp blade.

With a bang, the two forces collided, and the sound of the golden iron and iron attacked.

Bang ...

The bodies of the two were staggered, and fierce fighting continued to kill them. Qin Tiange became more and more brave in battle, and his strength became stronger and stronger.

The results are self-evident, the eight-dimensional snake was caught off guard by Qin Tiange’s sudden outbreak of fighting power, and his body was frustrated.

“Phoenix changes!” A long howl, accompanied by Qin Tiange’s strength once again, his fist blasted the blade of space and struck the chest of the Yaqi serpent.

With a click, the sun’s dark streaks collapsed, and the fist struck directly into his chest, penetrating from behind.

“Space Spirit Breaker!”

The Baqi snake was cold and unaffected by the heavy injuries. Instead, it lifted its right hand and stabbed Qin Tiange’s heart severely, stabbing into it.

Five fingers stretched slightly, holding a heart, a sneer appeared on the face of the big snake, and looked up at Qin Tiange slightly.

The two were exquisite in the void, Qin Tiange’s fist banged into the snake’s chest, and his five fingers clasped the snake’s beating heart. At the same time, his own heart was held by the snake’s fingers, and each other grasped each other’s heart.

“Human beings, you have to say, you are strong, but you still have to die in front of me.” The Eight-Big Snake sneered, eyes cold.

With five fingers, he was about to dig out Qin Tiange’s heart, but the next moment his smile froze, and he looked at Qin Tiange’s faint figure gradually.

“Surprised?” Qin Tiange’s figure quietly appeared behind the Eight-Big Snake, a hand pierced into his back, slowly pulled out, grasping a beating heart in his palm.

It was a dark heart, showing endless evil power. It was the heart of the Eight-Big Snake, which was strangely caught by Qin Tiange.

“You, why ...” The Yaqi serpent turned slowly and looked at Qin Tiange in disbelief. He had clearly grasped the other side’s heart just now.

Qin Tiange sneered, and put away the heart of the Eight-Big Snake, then his body became dim, and finally he disappeared.

Flutter!

I saw that a hand protruded from the chest of the Yachi snake, and another black heart was dug out, still beating fiercely.

Qin Tiange once again pulled out a heart from the body of the Yagi snake.

“Ah ...” The fierce pain made Baqi serpent screaming.

His body was severely wounded, two hearts were dug out in a row, and his strength violently fluctuated.

The Great Huge Snake has not only eight heads and eight tails, but eight hearts hidden in the body. As long as one exists, it can remain immortal.

In other words, in fact, he had eight lives and dug out one heart and seven. Now Qin Tiange has taken out two hearts in a row and has been hit hard.

“You can die!”

Qin Tiange’s face was cold, his pupils were silver and white, expressionless, the ancient sword came out of the sheath, and thumped through the back of the eight-headed snake Jian Feng penetrated from his forehead.

“I am immortal and cannot be killed. As long as there is evil in the world, I am immortal.” The Eight-Discused Snake made a screaming roar, and the void shattered.

He saw that a horrible black particle burst out of his body, swept away as a torrent, and completely collapsed within a few kilometers.

“Space particles, burst!”

With a roar, the Bachi snake made a final counterattack, detonating the space particles, directly causing a space turbulence, and drowning him with Qin Tiange Qiqi.

“Time is still!”

In a critical moment, Qin Tiange used his time to stand still. For an instant, he stirred the ancient sword, and an endless swallowing force swallowed the soul of the Baqi serpent into the ancient sword.

boom!

“Not good!” Qin Tiange’s face changed slightly, and just after killing the Baqi serpent, he saw the turbulent space around it that was still violently violent, lost repression, and swallowed Qin Tiange.

Chapter 535 - Consume and understand the black particles of space

A black particle erupted, causing the space to collapse and form a turbulent stream, which directly caught Qin Tiange and the snake’s body disappearing here.

In a blink of an eye, Qin Tiange was caught in the endless terrifying space mezzanine, with terrible cracks and violent space turbulence everywhere.

boom...

There was a sudden loud noise in the dark and chaotic space, and a huge and horrible corpse appeared here, allowing the space to scramble.

It was the corpse of the Hachichi serpent, exuding a strong breath, even if it died. On the corpse, a little figure was standing against the terrible turbulence surrounding it.

Uh ...

Qin Tiange looked dignified, watching the clothes on his body shattered, and was split into molecules by a stream of inexplicable black particles.

He was naked, and fissures surfaced inexplicably. He was cut by every black silk thread, even an immortal body could not bear it.

“Space is turbulent, and this is troublesome ...” Qin Tiange looked dignified, looking at the dark and chaotic world around him.

Here, the space mezzanine is filled with boundless and violent space power. It is extremely chaotic and can kill anything.

What surprised him was that the corpse of the Hachichi serpent was not cut off by these chaotic black particle space energy. It should be because of its own space power.

This made Qin Tiange very surprised. He was washed away by the terrible chaotic space flow around him, his body continued to crack, and flesh flew away from his body, turning into powder and disappearing.

If he had n’t recovered from the immortal body, he might have died as soon as he came in, but now the situation is also very bad. Once he is immortal, he ca n’t recover, or his energy is exhausted when he dies.

As the body was cut by the turbulence of the surrounding space, and his body was continuously cut and crushed, Qin Tiange felt that his strength was being consumed quickly.

The energy required to recover the immortal body is extremely huge. Now feeling this, Qin Tiange knows that he must find a way to get out of this chaotic space.

The energy consumption was too great, Qin Tiange had to take out many potions and spirits to replenish his energy recovery, but this could not last long.

It didn’t take long for him to run out of potions and spirits, and his body was getting weaker and weaker.

“I ate the Hachichi snake ...” Qin Tiange blinked, staring at the huge body of the Hachichi snake.

First, he took out the two hearts that had been dug out before, both of which are the hearts of the Yaki snakes, which contained huge and rich energy inside.

One bite at a time, Qin Tiange swallowed the hearts of two octopus snakes directly, and immediately mobilized the energy in the body to digest, and gradually a majestic energy melted in the body.

The hearts of the two octopus snakes contain huge energy, allowing his lost energy to return to the peak directly.

But it didn't take long for the turbulence in the surrounding space to become even more violent, a stream of terrible black particles of energy flowing towards him, his body shattered and shattered.

“Eat!” Qin Tiange's complexion changed slightly, and he didn't hesitate a lot to start eating directly.

On the huge corpse of the Bachi snake, Qin Tiange cut the flesh and blood of the Bachi snake with an ancient sword to eat, swallowed it, and refined it into his own energy supplement.

I don't know how long in the past, when the whole body of the Bachi snake was eaten up, Qin Tiange felt that there was a trace of inexplicable energy in his body.

This energy is very strange, with immortality, it actually strengthens the current immortality and crosses a level.

He was secretly surprised, guessing that it should be the undead power of the Yaki snake, which had strengthened his immortal body.

Next, it was the other hearts of the Eight-Big Snake. He had eaten all six huge hearts, and then refined them into his own energy.

Powerful energy fills every corner of the body, every cell is cheering, and the immortal body becomes stronger.

After eating flesh and blood, Qin Tiange rushed directly into the body of the Yaji snake, and a chaotic flame covered the remains of the Yaqi snake, which was incinerated and devoured on the spot.

Gradually, the remains of the Hachichi serpent were melted into chaotic flames by Qin Tiange and swallowed into the stomach.

As the corpse of the Hachichi snake was swallowed up, a black torrent of horrible black flood swept over him.

Space cracks and bursts of black particles caused Qin Tiange's face to change wildly, and he was about to make a defense, but unexpectedly found that eight mysterious beads floating in front blocked these violent space forces.

Even these eight mysterious black beads also instinctively absorbed the energy of the space particles around them, and saw Qin Tiange's astonishment.

“This is the nucleus of the Hachichi serpent, which contains the power of space.” Qin Tiange looked excited and grabbed the eight black paint beads directly.

Sure enough, under his careful observation, these eight star cores really contain powerful and mysterious space power.

“Should you swallow it?” Qin Tiange’s eyes flickered, hesitant to stare at the star nucleus in his hand.

He was hesitating. Should he swallow these nucleus to gain energy, maybe he could understand the power of space particles?

After thinking about it, Qin Tiange gritted his teeth and began to burn the core of the star directly, extracting the power absorption in it, and seeing if he could understand the power of space.

This is an opportunity. Once you understand the power of space, it will definitely be a great benefit and improvement for Qin Tiange.

Qin Tiange opened his mouth and swallowed a black star nucleus. At the moment, chaos flames boiled, enveloping the star nucleus in the body, and quickly burned.

I mobilized all the power to refine the star nucleus. I do n’t know if it was damaged because of the nucleus itself. Refining was particularly easy. Not long after, the first star nucleus was absorbed by Qin Tiange.

boom!

Inside the body, a burst of black energy burst, causing the internal organs to rupture on the spot, and the terrible black particles tore up the body, causing destruction from the inside.

As a last resort, Qin Tiange directly mobilized the power of time to suppress, and finally gradually healed this violent energy and absorbed it one by one.

Just absorbing the energy of this black space particle, Qin Tiange suddenly felt a different energy. It seems that the turbulent flow around the space is no longer so terrible.

Uh ...

Instinctively, Qin Tiange lifted a finger, and the black particles surrounded the fingertips, exuding the terrible smell of black paint, which could destroy everything.

This is the energy of the space black particles, which he actually obtained. Qin Tiange himself did not expect to obtain the energy of the space black particles so easily.

“Continue ...” Qin Tiange faced with excitement and continued to devour and refine other star nuclei.

Soon, the eight nucleus of the Eight-Big Snake were burned clean one by one, and turned into infinite energy that swept the whole body.

This energy was too violent, Qin Tiange had to absorb it as an undead body, and strengthen the strength of the flesh and bones, pushing the flesh into a more terrifying realm.

During this period, the mysterious energy belonging to the force of space was absorbed by Qin Tiange, gradually grew in the body, and realized a brand new energy.

“space...”

Qin Tiange lay in the turbulent space, suddenly gave up his resistance, and let him be drowned by endless destruction.

Space sharp blades, space particles, space cracks, and so on, one after another terrible power to cut and destroy his body a little bit.

But weirdly, after a trace of black particles emerged from the body, Qin Tiange's body was no longer injured by the destructive power of the turbulent space.

He is comprehending the power of space, a brand-new taboo force, swallowing the Yagi serpent and gaining the undead body and the power of space.

This power seems to come from the level of talent. After the entire Eight-Big Snake was devoured, this talent ability was gradually absorbed by Qin Tiange and transformed into his own power.

Genes are undergoing metamorphosis, the body is rapidly becoming stronger, and life potential is undergoing metamorphosis. With the understanding of the power of space, Qin Tiange's body has undergone tremendous changes both inside and outside.

Although his level has not been improved, the internal combat power has been improved a lot, especially the promotion of the undead body, as well as the power of understanding the new space, which are extremely terrifying and frightening abilities.

“what...”

Suddenly, Qin Tiange, who was quietly lying there, suddenly opened his mouth and made a scream, and the endless black particles around him suddenly became violent and poured into his body.

The flesh broke, the flesh was cut into pieces, but it was quickly repairing itself. The surrounding space boiled, black particles were violent, cracks were cut, space debris pierced into the body, and various forces full of destruction exploded into Qin Tiange's body.

Click!

After hearing only a crisp sound, a certain restriction in the body was broken. Qin Tiange suddenly opened his eyes, and his eyes were dark and utterly pale.

He glanced over, and the torrent of turbulent space around him immediately subsided, as if becoming very docile, and even poured into his body autonomously, becoming his strength.

“This is the power of black particles in space?” Qin Tiange looked surprised and muttered to himself, instinctively raising a finger slightly.

Suddenly, the black particles within a kilometer of space were instantly violent turned into a torrent and swept over his fingers, emitting terrifying energy waves, full of destruction.

Yin ...

I saw that Qin Tiange took out the ancient sword, moved his mind directly into the ancient sword, and drew out a huge amount of energy.

This is the power of the soul, which survives after being consumed by the ancient sword, refined, and refined, for the master Qin Tiange to absorb and raise the level of the soul.

Along with the huge force of the soul, Qin Tiange swallowed and absorbed quickly, accompanied by a huge flow of memories, which was the memory that he killed by killing various lives and devouring the soul.

One of the memories was the memory of the Hachichi snake, which made him look excited and immersed directly in this mammoth piece of memory.

Gradually, Qin Tiange found a lot of useful things from these memory fragments, such as some ancient secrets, such as the use of space and the experience of understanding, so that the power of space he had just realized suddenly improved a lot .

In this way, Qin Tiange, while comprehending the power of space, was looking for an exit in the turbulence of space and trying to find a way out.

Chapter 536 - Space Strangling, Live

Snow was flying, outside the base of Han Guo's Beast Ears, a team of thirty men stopped there.

Beside them, there were a dozen corpses lying, and the blood flow was red with Bai Xue, apparently just killed.

"Captain, these Chinese people are really weak, and died a few times." A team member looked at the corpse on the ground with a disdainful expression.

He speaks Korean. These people are from Han Kingdom, and the bodies on the ground turned out to be Huaxia people. This place is 10 kilometers away from the Han Kingdom animal ear base. These are Han Kingdom sticks.

"Captain Kim Jong, there are a lot of Huaxia people in the base. We still have to be careful not to provoke the masters of Huaxia."

In the team, a man carefully reminded the captain headed in Korean, but the latter looked disdainful.

His name is Kim Jong and he is the captain of this squad. They come from Han Guo. Hearing this team member's words, he looked disdainfully: "Fear what, the whole earth and the universe are our Dahan people, and one day we will rule this universe."

"Yes, Chinese people are garbage."

"Look at them all crying and crying to lick our stars of the Korean nation, what are they afraid of?"

"Yes, our country is number one in the world, and the universe is invincible."

Many people in the team immediately echoed, holding the title of No. 1 in the world, and the universe was invincible. It felt as if they were really invincible.

"Captain Kim Jong is so handsome, my heart is about to disappear ..." There are two women in the team, who look pretty, one of them admiring the captain of Kim Jong.

"Hurry up, put away the bodies of these Chinese people, we'll wait to bake and eat, there's not much food left." Jin Zheng said calmly.

In this team, more than thirty people are all excited, and don't think there is anything wrong with eating people.

Some even laughed: "Captain, these Huaxia people are low-level two-legged sheep, they only kneel and lick our stars of the Korean nation and deserve to be our food."

"I'm thinking about rushing into the Huaxia Massacre and killing some people, and I will definitely admire countless people when I go back."

"Yes, yes!" A woman in the team exclaimed, "Captain, why don't we find a time to go to Huaxia, find a few survivors to gather and slaughter a few bases, and then go back?"

"Well, we will slaughter a few Huaxia bases and come back the next day." Jin Zheng agreed proudly.

In his view, the Huaxia people are weak chickens. As long as they appear there and say they are Korean stars, there must be countless people crying and crying.

"By the way, these Chinese people who just killed seemed to have said that there are thousands of ginsengs here. If they can be found, they will be developed." Jin Zheng said with a look of excitement, looking at the forest in front of him.

They came here to actually kill these Chinese people who went out looking for ginseng spirits. They could improve their strength and even rumored to be fine ginseng, which would make people immortal after eating.

Talking, a group of people began to pack up these corpses, ready to enter the mountains, looking for the legendary millennium ginseng.

"Captain, look, what's that?"

Suddenly, a woman in the team exclaimed, pointing to the front, panicked and panicked, arousing everyone's alertness.

Jin Zheng and others looked up, and suddenly saw that there was a strange wave in the space not far away, with black cracks spreading, exhaling the breath of everything.

It was a crack in space, and the cracks spread across and were opened by inexplicable forces.

"Look, someone inside?" A member exclaimed in shock.

Sure enough, in those cracks, he saw a handsome man with a bare upper body coming out of the cracks in the space.

The person who came was Qin Tiange. He realized the power of space in the chaos of space, and finally broke through the interlayer of chaos in space and returned to the real world.

But I did not expect to see a group of thirty-nine people staring at him with wide eyes as soon as he came out, as if he had seen a ghost.

"Korean?" Qin Tiange glanced to understand that these people were Koreans, which made him speculate whether this country was Han?

But soon, he found out that this is Han Guo, and it seems that it is outside the Han Guo Beast Ear Base, and behind it is the Beast Ear Base.

“Huaxia people?” Over there, Jin Zheng and others looked at Qin Tiange, heard his muttering, and spoke Huahua, and were immediately shocked.

Qin Tiange glanced over and looked at a dozen corpses on the ground. The characteristics were obviously Huaxia people. They should be the Huaxia people who had been in the Kingdom of Han before the last day. One by one, they died here.

“You killed these people?” Qin Tiange looked cold, his gaze revealing a few lines of murder.

As soon as this word came out, the opposite Kim Jong was furious. The strong man of the Korean nation was questioned by this Chinese man, and he was just trying to die.

“Yes, we killed it, and we need to bake it later. Do you dare to speak to the great Korean national strongman, are you looking for death?” Kim Jong took a step forward and his nostril was up in the sky.

Behind him, more than thirty people were all proud, with their heads raised, their nostrils facing the sky, as if they were pulled two by five.

“Huaxia boy, when you meet our super strong Han nationality, the big star, don’t hurry up and come to kneel and lick. Maybe we can give you a noble status of the Korean nation and let you emigrate.”

A South Korean woman spoke, but this remark made Qin Tiange sick.

“Noise!” Qin Tiange was disgusted with a look on his face, and gently pointed out, seeing a black particle covering the woman’s body instantly.

With a flutter, the woman’s body was stiff and her face was still.

“What do you mean by that Chinese boy, hurry up to kneel and lick, and then take us to find the millennium ginseng essence, otherwise it will make you die.” At this time, there was a young man in the team talking, with a look of dissatisfaction.

“Hurry up, can you hear me?”

A bunch of Han Guo sticks are here and there, exhaling a strong breath, especially the captain Jin Zheng, the breath is five-star.

With a look of pride, he said, “You have to be clear. I am one of the 100 most powerful people in the Korean nation. You have the best knowledge. I can take the lead and lead you to become a noble member of our invincible Korean. And, of course, you are still inferior to us. “

Qin Tiange was expressionless, his eyes were grimly cold, and his body was so clear that he swept away directly towards a group of Han Guo sticks across from him.

“what...”

A frightened scream came, and I saw the stiff woman. The body suddenly fell and fell into a pile of mud, scaring the female companions around her to scream.

The team exploded immediately, the woman's paralysis softened to the ground, her face horrified, and cold sweat left behind, washing away the thick foundation on her face.

“what happened?”

The other men were as scared and horrified, and suddenly felt a kind of thriller from the heart and soul.

“It's him. It was the Chinese who killed Cui Yun.” The woman screamed at Qin Tiange in horror.

Suddenly, Jin Zheng and others turned around and looked at each other, and saw Qin Tiange Han's face, gently pointing in the void, the space shattered, and turned into sharp blades of space rushing towards these people.

Seeing this, everyone was frightened, even the captain Jin Zheng was no exception, his legs trembled, and then he turned and ran.

“Run ...”

Immediately afterwards, more than thirty people yelled, turned around and ran away, trying to escape.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange was sneer looking at these fleeing people, one by one being cut by the dense space blade.

There was a gurgling noise, flesh and blood flew, the three Han Guo sticks were cut off instantly, and only a skeleton was still running instinctively.

But running, the internal organs of the body suddenly fell, and the intestines of Lala Lala, the three Han Guo sticks felt the boundless pain overwhelmed their consciousness and died.

“Ah ... Demon, don't kill me, I'm from the Korean nation ...”

The last woman was terrified and snarled sharply. As a result, a wave of space particles ushered in and turned into a pile of meat on the spot.

Everyone else saw here, looking horrified, horrified, and anxious to run out with a few more legs, this Chinese man was terrible.

“what...”

Unfortunately, these people are destined to run away. The dense space of sharp blades across their bodies cuts all the flesh and blood, leaving only a pair of white and red skeletons to fall to the ground after a few runs and die. Already.

“No no, don't kill me, please, don't kill me, I'll be your slave ...”

More than thirty Han Guo sticks, in the end, only Jin Zheng did not die, fell to the ground, and looked in horror at the dense space of sharp blades quietly staying three centimeters away from the body.

I saw, Qin Tiange step by step, surrounded by black particles around his body, coiled around him as if spiritual.

As Qin Tiange walked by, those space-blades gave up on their own initiative, came to the front of Jin, and looked down at him condescendingly.

“Don’t kill me, I surrender, I’ll be your slave ...” Jin Zhengxue begged for mercy, and he knelt down directly.

It is a pity that was greeted by sharp blades of space, which cut off all the flesh and blood of his body.

“Ah ... no, I don’t want to die, don’t die ...” Jin Zheng screamed, and Qin Tiange’s flesh was cut off piece by piece.

He was beaten alive by Qin Tiange, and more than thirty of the Han Guo sticks were all alive by his use of a space knife. In the end, a skeleton was left, and he had not completely died.

Qin Tiange looked at the remaining skeleton Jin Zheng, expressionless, raised his foot on the other’s head, clicked, his brain collapsed, and the result of this Han Guo stick.

“Han Guo, it seems that they have to teach them a lesson.”

After doing this, Qin Tiange looked up and looked at the looming huge base in the distance, which was the beast-ear base.

Looking at it, Qin Tiange’s mouth suddenly evoked a ***** cold smile, and then saw his body move, turned into a black particle disappeared.

This is a space particle, and he has fully realized the power of space, turning all the powers of the Hachichi serpent into his own power.

Chapter 537 - Traitor, oh!

The Beast Ear Base, a huge base established after the end, gathers more than a million survivors, many of them foreigners.

For example, for the Huaxia people, some things originally settled in the city of Beast Ears, and some came to travel. After the last day, there were more than 10,000 Huaxia compatriots gathered in the Beast Ear Base to survive.

However, foreigners are not to be seen here, especially to the Huaxia people. These Han Guo sticks are extremely proud, look at everything, and look down on the Huaxia people.

At this time, the beast-ear base Huaxia survivor concentration area, a group of Han Guo sticks are holding weapons to surround this residential area.

These people are densely packed and numerous. At least tens of thousands of people move around and surround this area, clamoring to drive away all Chinese people.

“Huaxia people are maggots, and we should waste all the food in our animal ear base.”

“Yes, get out!”

“The animal ears don’t welcome Chinese people.”

Groups of Han nationality clubs wielded weapons and shouted loudly, all looking down, looking at the Huaxia people in the settlements full of disgust and contempt.

Faced with tens of thousands of Han Guo sticks, in the settlement, more than 10,000 Chinese compatriots gathered, picked up weapons, and watched Han Guo sticks vigilantly outside.

“Fuck it, these sticks are in the wrong medicine. Why did they suddenly come and kill us?”

Among the Chinese survivors, some people looked upset and scolded, watching the tens of thousands of Han Guo sticks rushing inward, and couldn’t help it.

Among these survivors, a middle-aged man headed by him was gloomy and looked at Han Guozi with a heavy heart.

He knew that most of this time, some people must have deliberately instigated the Han Guo sticks in the beast ear base to get rid of these Chinese survivors.

“Some people want to get rid of us. It seems that the beast-eared Han Guo stick can’t tolerate us.” The middle-aged man said solemnly.

He had a sword in his hand, his armor was shiny, and his breath was strong. At least he was a six-star powerhouse, and he was considered a master in the beast base.

“Head, let’s kill it.”

“Yes, kill it, we’re going back to Huaxia!”

Some compatriots looked firm and threatened to kill them and return to their homeland in China. This is the base of the beast ears of the Han Kingdom, and the Han Guo sticks simply cannot tolerate them.

Seeing that their group of Chinese survivors is getting stronger and stronger, the senior members of the Han Guo Beast Base are unable to sit still, and they think that the Chinese are a threat.

At this moment, tens of thousands of Han Guo sticks came to besiege, all of them are intensifiers, needless to say, the high-level of the animal ear base is about to start.

“Kill a fart!”

Just then, a scold was heard from the survivors, and a young man came out quickly, looking dull.

He pointed at everyone and yelled: “Your group of people have rusted their brains, they can obviously be integrated into the Kingdom of Han, and they stubbornly don’t want to abandon Huaxia’s identity, they are simply humiliating themselves.”

“Zhao Ye, what do you want?” Someone scolded, glaring at the young man.

I saw Zhao Yan sneer: “You stupid pigs, I want to die, I will not accompany you to die, I love Han country, love everyone, since I was a child, I thought I was a Han country, I was born the wrong place, now It’s time to return to the Kingdom of John. “ “Whoever wants to join the Great Han Kingdom, come out, I will take you out. The Great Han Kingdom Smida is very friendly, and we are very welcome to join the Great Han Kingdom family.” Zhao Yan said, immediately causing a commotion among the Chinese survivors here. .

Most of them showed anger, but at this time, it was a shame that someone jumped out, or their compatriots inside.

“I, I want to rely on John.”

“And me, I also like Han Guoxing the most. Joining Han Guo, I will definitely find a Han Guoxing as my wife.”

One after another, the young survivors stood up with excitement, as if dreaming of the happy life after joining the Kingdom of Han.

Even more, a lot of women are even more stubborn and come out with a foolish look.

“I love Han Guo Simida. I want to marry Han Guo’s husband.”

“Han Guoxing is the handsomest. I want to marry Han Guo.”

Dozens of young women ran out quickly, and Qi Qi stood behind Zhao Yan, making many Chinese angry.

“Hurry up, Smida outside can’t wait, hurry up, we’re leaving.”

With Zhao Yan’s words, there were three of them. Suddenly, hundreds of people gathered behind Zhao Yan. With his proud expression, he turned around and took the group out, and he had to trust outside Han Guo Simida.

“Damn!”

The middle-aged man headed with a blue complexion and trembling with anger, did not expect that at a critical moment, his compatriots had betrayed.

“As a Huaxia child, I did something like betrayal and forget the ancestors.” At this moment, a cold voice came from nothing, echoing in everyone’s ears.

“Every Chinese son and daughter in China has the obligation and responsibility to defend the dignity of the Chinese nation, betrayers!”

As soon as the 诛 word fell, tens of thousands of people saw a ripple of black waves, and then saw that there was a black ripple in the void above the heads of people, and a figure came out from it. It was Qin Tiange.

In fact, he came here long ago, and wanted to see how many Chinese surviving compatriots were here, but he did not expect that there were only more than 10,000 people.

Moreover, under the siege of tens of thousands of Han country batons, some people jumped out to betray, which annoyed Qin Tiange. Fortunately, most people have their own dignity as Chinese children.

“who are you?”

Zhao Yan looked somber and scolded: “This is our business. Which onion are you, dare to take care of our business?”

“I love whoever I trust, I trust. I want to be a rebel. Can you manage it?” Zhao Yan looked at Qin Tiange with a sneer.

The latter scanned hundreds of people, and they were more lazy to talk about nonsense, and directly stretched out a finger and gently.

With a bang, the area where hundreds of people, such as Zhao Kun, was located, the space immediately shattered inexplicably, like countless pieces.

Hundreds of people there didn’t even have a chance to respond and scream, their bodies shattered into pieces and fell down.

hiss!

Seeing this, the tens of thousands of Huaxia compatriots in the back turned wild and took a sigh of air, apparently frightened by this scene.

“Good kill!” The middle-aged man shouted loudly. Although he was shocked and killed hundreds of people with one finger, he was still very happy.

This kind of traitor is everyone’s favor.

“You are very good, at least you have not lost the face of our Chinese ancestors.” Qin Tiange nodded with a smile, and at the same time said his identity as a Chinese.

This sentence is enough to dispel the fear and abstinence of all the fellow people, looking at him with excitement one by one, but did not expect to be a strong man from his own tribe.

“Stop that, I ask you, are all the compatriots in the beast ear base here?” Qin Tiange asked with a serious look.

The middle-aged man was shocked, nodded solemnly and said, “Yes, this is already all our survivors at the beast-ear base in China.”

“Originally there were more than 30,000 people, but they have been oppressed and bullied by Han Guozi after the last days. After several protests, we are left alone.” The middle-aged man said, his face was bleak, and 30,000 people died. More than 20,000 people.

Listening to this, Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes and hummed coldly: “It seems that these Korean sticks are intended to destroy you all.”

“Yes, there are tens of thousands of Han Guo sticks from the outside. They are all intensifiers. At a glance, you know that it means the top of the beast base. I want to get rid of our Chinese power.” The middle-aged man nodded in approval and said himself Guessing.

Qin Tiange glanced at the crowded Han Guo sticks outside the dwelling area, swarming, wielding weapons, smashing the wall and trying to rush in.

Seeing that tens of thousands of Han Guo sticks are about to come in, the tens of thousands of Huaxia survivors here are nervous, but they do not show a weak expression.

Doom can make a person weak, but it can also make a person stronger. This is the case with thousands of fellow citizens.

“Rush in and grab all the Chinese people and feed them as food.”

“The beast ears belong only to the Korean nation.”

“Kill!”

With a loud noise, the wall collapsed, and the protective wall was demolished by tens of thousands of Han Guozi, flowing directly in like a tide.

The excited tens of thousands of Han Guo sticks yelled, as if they saw the Chinese people being slaughtered here.

These people, and even some people want to catch all Huaxia people as pigs to kill and eat, this is enough for Qin Tiange to announce their end.

Qin Tiange smiled softly, exposing a mouthful of white teeth, the coldness in his eyes, and even the middle-aged people not far away from the cold, could not help but take a nap.

I saw that Qin Tiange’s body suddenly turned into a black particle and disappeared in situ. Tens of thousands of compatriots looked at the disappeared figure, and some couldn’t believe it.

“Smecta...”

Suddenly, the tens of thousands of Han Guo sticks coming in from the outside were chaotic, and screams kept coming, waking up the tens of thousands of Chinese survivors here.

Their faces changed slightly, they picked up their weapons and rushed to kill them.

“This ...” The middle-aged man stared, staring at the horror scene ahead.

I saw that Qin Tiange, who had disappeared, reappeared, and walked step by step, walking towards the incoming Han Guo sticks, surrounded by a horrible black particles.

There are even sharp blades of space, whistling in all directions, and cutting off the heads of Korean sticks.

For a while, it was revealed that rolling, black light shone, and space cracks crossed, and hundreds and thousands of people were intercepted on the spot.

Qin Tiange walked leisurely between tens of thousands of Han Guo sticks, cutting through the cracks in space, and the black particles around him continued to roar and swept away, engulfing the Han sticks, leaving no residue .

“No, devil, you are the devil!”

The last two six-star Han Guo sticks were frightened and kept back, frightened by Qin Tiange’s cruel and terrible means.

He was like a **** of death from hell, reaping the lives of the Han Guo sticks, and in an instant, tens of thousands of Han Guo sticks rushed in were killed.

Huh!

Qin Tiange pointed out gently, and countless black particles swept past. The two feared six-star strong men of the Kingdom of China also disappeared after the black particles disappeared, leaving only a little cloth and blood stains to prove that There are two people there.

Tens of thousands of people, one without being killed, the corpses and skulls all over the ground, all looked embarrassed, no one believed that they had been slaughtered by one person before his death.

Tens of thousands of compatriots in the settlement were stunned and looked at the slaughter on the side. They were all killed by Qin Tiange alone.

“All of you stay here ...”

I saw that after Qin Tiange said this sentence, he suddenly rose into the air, hovering over the beast’s ear base, overlooking the huge base of millions of people.

Chapter 538 - 10,000 people slaughtered

boom...

A violent shock came, which alarmed the entire beast base, and countless Han Guo sticks panicked and looked around in panic.

“Smida, what happened?”

“Is the earthquake?”

The entire base was boiling, and millions of people panicked. They all ran to the open space and looked around in shock, feeling like an earthquake had come.

At this moment, many Han Guozi found the strangeness in the air, looked up, and saw a figure floating in the sky.

“Look, there is someone on your head!”

“Who is that?”

When I saw someone in the void, many Han Guozis were shocked and inexplicable. The man was able to fly and was still floating in the air.

Only an eight-star can barely fly, can this person fly? Doesn't it mean that he is an eight-star strong?

At a high altitude, Qin Tiange quietly looked down at the entire base. Millions of Han Guo sticks were awakened by this shock. They ran out one by one and saw Qin Tiange at high altitude.

I saw his hands held up, and a stream of black particles continued to emerge, converging above his head, and converging into a huge black sphere.

This sphere is made up of numerous black particles condensing and condensing. It is full of the power of destruction. It is a combination of space particles.

This is Qin Tiange's transformation based on the abilities of the Eight-Big Snake, directly condensing a black space particle ball.

"No, what is he trying to do?"

At this time, the strong man with the base found something wrong, and a sense of crisis filled all people's hearts, and it felt bad.

Several seven-star powerhouses rushed into the sky and rushed directly to Qin Tiange, because they realized that Qin Tiange's comer was not good and seemed to want to attack the base.

"Who are you that broke into our Korean animal ear base?"

A seven-star stick came into the air, looking cold and arrogantly looking at Qin Tiange, but with an unpredictable feeling in his heart.

"Stop him!"

The other three seven-star powerhouses shouted and rushed up, surrounded Qin Tiange, and waved their weapons at him.

Watching the killing of four seven-star masters, Qin Tiange sneered at the corner of his mouth, and a black particle swept across his body, covering the four seven-star powerhouses.

"what..."

Four screams came, and black particles swept across, leaving only pieces of flesh and blood, and the four seven-star powerhouses were thus wiped out.

Seeing four seven-star powerhouses being wiped out, millions of people in the base were frightened, staring at Qin Tiange in the sky with disbelief for a while, and stopped.

"stop!"

In the center of the base, a person rushed out of a huge building, with a strong breath, which emptied directly. It was an eight-star powerhouse and the only eight-star master in the entire beast base.

The entire base was under his control. Now, when I saw Qin Tiange, a mysterious man suddenly appeared over the gathering place of Chinese survivors, and killed four seven-star masters at once, it immediately felt bad, and immediately came prevent.

Unfortunately, he was late, Qin Tiange smiled at him, and then, in the horrified look of the eight-star powerhouse, he blasted the base into the base with the huge black particle ball. Among millions.

Just listening to the loud noise, the black particle ball exploded suddenly, turning into an endless black torrent, swept away in all directions, engulfing numerous survivors.

No matter it was a person or a building, at this moment, it was completely turned into powder under the shock of black particles, and even the screams were too late. Hundreds of thousands of people were killed on the spot and turned into ashes.

The space particles exploded, shattered the space completely, and turned it into cracks and cut them in all directions. Wherever they passed, flesh flew, and no one could survive under the blade of space.

“Do not...”

Watching hundreds of thousands of people on the spot wiped out by the explosion of space particles, the eight-star master issued an angry roar, furious, unable to believe everything he saw.

This person actually wiped out hundreds of thousands of lives and showed no mercy. Regardless of his age, men, women and children, he died directly under the explosion of space particles.

Rumble ...

The terrible black particles swept continuously, the space rippled and the cracks spread, devouring everything.

The entire beast ear base was immediately overturned, countless buildings collapsed and shattered, the city walls were collapsed by earthquakes, and many survivors were buried on the spot in the ruins.

The black particle shock wave generated by the terrible explosion wiped out all the people within three kilometers into a powder, and the dead can't die anymore.

Hundreds of thousands of people at the outskirts of the base were shaken to the ground, looking horrified and screaming in despair.

“what....”

“Demon, demon!”

“He is a demon!”

Hundreds of thousands of survivors in the base were scared one by one, constantly roaring and screaming, crawling among the ruins, or running, and were soon strangled by fragments of black particles into fragments.

The killing was still underway. Qin Tiange was expressionless, waving a wave of black particles, twisting a group of Han Guo sticks into powder.

As for the impact of the explosion of black particles, in his current situation, the survivors of Wanhuaxia were not affected in any way, but they were shocked by the huge shock and looked at the bombed base dully.

“I will kill you!”

A roar awakened them, and saw that the eight-star master flying into the air was crazy, and burst into an extreme power, and suddenly, there was almost nine-star energy.

He wields a large gun, slams into Qin Tiange fiercely, and the air is about to be blown into a vacuum.

Unfortunately, Qin Tiange just stretched out a finger, tapped it slightly, clicked, and broke apart. Under the action of a black particle, the body of the eight-star master was split into pieces of meat on the spot. Scattered.

An eight-star master was just killed by Qin Tiange and had no ability to resist, which made people inexplicable.

“Demon, demon ...”

“He is a demon from Huaxia!”

“I curse you!”

“Demon, you must die!”

In the ruins, hundreds of thousands of surviving Han Guo sticks, most of them lay lamented in the ruins, roaring and screaming in horror, cursing the demon Qin Tiange.

They believed that Qin Tiange was a demon and killed hundreds of thousands of people at once, which was hard to believe that such a thing would happen.

“Run!”

Hundreds of thousands of people were frightened, turned around and fled, crawled out of the ruins, and ran out of this base madly, trying to escape this terrible demon.

Watching hundreds of thousands of surviving Han Guo sticks fled, Qin Tiange sneered, humming: “I want to run in front of me, naive!”

As he said, with a little of his hands, he saw the black particles rushing wildly, as if turning into a black sphere of light, and blasted directly into the fleeing hundreds of thousands of Han Guo sticks.

Bang!

There was another violent explosion, endless black particles split the space, flesh and blood flew, and everything was extinct. At once, more than 100,000 people who fled were wiped out.

At high altitude, the Qin Tiange people turned into black particles and disappeared. They appeared on the heads of the fleeing Han Guo sticks, and the surrounding terrible black particles poured out, strangling the Han Guo sticks into meat sludge.

A slaughter was staged, and Qin Tiange, like a demon from hell, started the killing directly, wrapped in endless black particles mercilessly, killing all the Han Guo sticks collapsed.

Someone was even scared to death on the spot, his liver and gall shattered to death, and he was scared to death by such means.

Not to mention these Han Guo sticks, it is the fear of more than 10,000 Chinese survivors, looking at the huge beast ear base, which was completely destroyed in Qin Tiange's hands.

Millions of people were killed in an instant and hundreds of thousands of people were slaughtered. This statistic is still increasing. For a time, there were sorrows, screams, curses flying and resentment.

In the end, there were fewer than 10,000 people who could escape. In the entire beast ear base, more than one million people were slaughtered by Qin Tiangesheng.

He wandered through the ruins of the base, ignoring the majestic sky-high resentment, and collected pieces of storage equipment, corpses, blood flowing into the river, and the earth red.

Millions of people were slaughtered by him alone, and his anger was so terrifying that even endless fierce resentment came to him.

Qin Tiange looked at the fierceness and resentment gathered in the sky, he didn't care, but stared at the towering assessment stone in the ruins.

I saw that the appraisal stone emitted a dim light, then gradually disappeared into the earth, mysteriously disappeared, and Qin Tiange couldn't catch how to disappear.

"Mysterious, weird!" Qin Tiange muttered, and then ignored him.

"There are thirty thousand Han Guo women here. They are all young and beautiful. I left them for you."

At this point, Qin Tiange returned to the place where the survivors of Huaxia were, and it was dumbfounded to say these words to tens of thousands of compatriots.

In the entire beast ear base, in addition to the more than 10,000 people who ran too far, there were only 30,000 young and beautiful Han Guo women who he had intentionally left behind.

Grunt ...

In front, 10,000 Huaxia survivors swallowed drooling, one by one, deterred by the fierce evil from Qin Tiange, his body trembling, his complexion turned pale, and nobody even dared to speak, even dared not look at Qin Tiange.

Because they have just witnessed a horrific massacre, and one person has slaughtered millions of people, which is simply shocking.

The massacre of millions has never been heard before, but now they have witnessed it all, and the million survivors of the kingdom of Han on the beast ear base were killed by him.

As for the more than 30,000 young and beautiful Han Guo women sitting in the ruins, this was left by Qin Tiange.

“The woman of more than 30,000 Han Dynasty, I left it to you specifically, is to give you a difficult task, I don’t know if you can complete it?” Qin Tiange looked at the silent companions of Wanhuaxia and asked gently .

This remark awakened everyone. The middle-aged man, headed by him, changed his face, stubbornly rose up, and respectfully arched, “Please tell us, we will do well.”

“In fact, it’s nothing. This base was slaughtered by me. I intentionally left 30,000 young Han Guo women. I mean, I’ll give these women to you.” Qin Tiange said in a calm tone.

At the scene, all surviving Chinese men looked strangely, and looked at Qin Tiange’s eyes strangely.

“You mean ...” the middle-aged asked cautiously.

Just listen to Qin Tiange’s strange smile: “These women have given you, your task is to live hard.”

Give birth vigorously give birth, they are not fools, naturally have children.

The middle-aged man froze, his face was awkward, and his heart was extremely weird. Looking at Qin Tiange, a powerful and horrible compatriot, slaughtering millions of Han Guo sticks, leaving 30,000 Han women to let them give birth to children?

“Okay, you should quickly pack up the supplies here, then leave here and find a safe place to open branches for our Huaxia overseas, or you can find a way to return to your own country. At present, Huaxia is still stable.”

After Qin Tiange finished speaking, regardless of these people, he rose into the air and disappeared into the body as a black particle before his compatriots of tens of thousands of Huaxia.

The entire beast-ear base was turned into ruins, leaving only more than 10,000 Chinese survivors stunned. In the ruins, young women of Han Guo sat silly in the ruins, and they were frightened.

“Millions of people ... said Tu was killed, but fortunately, he is our Huaxia!”

The middle-aged man looked dull, looking at the corpse on the ground, blood was flowing into the river, thinking of that terrible figure, everyone couldn’t help fighting a cold war, and then very happy, Qin Tiange was the same Huaxia as them people.

Chapter 539 - Ginseng doll

Changbai Mountain, with dense ancient forests and strange beasts, horrified roar from time to time.

Haw

Inside the mountain forest, a golden pangolin is digging a thick ginseng, as thick as an adult’s arm.

“Delicious” pangolin sighed while eating.

It is full of golden scales, and you can see the dazzling golden light from a distance, holding this large ginseng willing to eat Zhengxiang.

Eating and eating, a faint golden mist filled the body.

“I’m finally going to change shape” The pangolin looked excited and swallowed the ginseng.

Subsequently, it was covered with an increasingly dense golden haze, covering it completely.

The golden rime transpired, and turned into a cloud floating above it, and I saw a faint golden arc appearing in the golden cloud and mist floating over its head.

Immediately afterwards, golden arcs struck quickly. Some hairs were the same thickness, and some chopsticks were generally the same thickness. They were all hit on the golden pangolin, and it was completely wrapped up and down.

“Ah,” a painful scream came out. The pangolin was very painful, but soon it was found that a shadow was looming in the golden clouds.

A bang, a golden cloud and mist suddenly poured into the figure. At that moment, an infinite amount of golden light bloomed, and then slowly dispersed, revealing a young man wearing gold armor.

“Haha, my golden armor is finally transformed.” Golden armor, which was the pangolin of the golden scale armor.

He transformed, wearing a set of gold scale armor, looking at the majestic, black hair dancing without wind, the breath is extremely powerful.

boom!

I saw him lift his feet, and suddenly a blast of mud exploded ten meters away in front of him, accompanied by a huge ginseng plant that was shaken and let him hold it in his hands.

With a bite of bite, the juice was plump, crunchy and delicious, and it was called fragrant.

“It’s wonderful. I didn’t expect that there are so many ginsengs here, so that I can be transformed so soon.” Jin Jia muttered excitedly.

He didn’t notice it at all. On the treetop behind him, a figure was standing, watching him transform throughout.

“Interesting pangolin.” A murmur came, and the panic was so cold.

He turned abruptly, a pair of pale gold pupils staring at the figure on the treetop, his face turned wild, almost scared.

“You, who are you?” Jin Jia almost turned and ran away.

However, he had a feeling that this man was extremely dangerous, and as long as he turned and ran, he would receive a terrible blow. The creature instinctively told him that he could not move.

Qin Tiange looked at this transformed pangolin with interest. In fact, he had come to Changbai Mountain long ago, and he was refining and converging in this terrible fierceness and resentment.

“Help me find some ginseng, and I will let you go.” After a long while, Qin Tiange finally spoke.

His face was calm, with mysterious black particles flashing from time to time in his eyes, which gave Jin Jia a threat of death, which was terrifying.

Hearing now, the other side wanted some ginseng, which relieved him. Jin Jia cautiously said, "Respectable strong human race, there are ginseng everywhere. I need to dig it as much as you need."

"I want refined ginseng, do you know where it is?" Qin Tiange's body turned into a black particle before Jin Jia, scaring the other person to collapse.

The black particles exuded a sense of destruction that scared him.

"I, I know, there is a tens of thousands of elderly ginseng here, and I will take you there." Jin Jia said carefully and looked at Qin Tiange.

After seeing the other nodded, he immediately turned around and took him to shuttle quickly in the mountains and hurried toward a valley in front.

On the way, Jin Jia carefully reminded: "This strong man, that ten-year-old ginseng essence method is not simple, and is very careful, it is difficult to catch it."

"Anyway, you just take me there." Qin Tiange nodded slightly, indicating that he knew.

Then, Jin Jia pointed at the misty valley in front of him and said, "That 10,000-year-old ginseng essence is in the valley. I dare not go in because there is a terrible energy in the valley. There are dangers hidden everywhere. Die inside. "

"Oh?" Qin Tiange was surprised, looking at the valley not far ahead, the mist was shrouded, and the transpiration was cloud-like, which obscured the internal conditions of the entire valley.

Vaguely, Qin Tiange sensed a strange wave of breath, and an inexplicable magnetic field surged there, constantly spreading out.

Seeing this, Qin Tiange flashed his eyes and secretly said: "This fluctuation is a fluctuation of the atmosphere of space. There seems to be a space entrance. Is it a secret?"

With this question in mind, Qin Tiange dropped Jin Jia directly, and walked alone into the misty valley.

Seeing him walking into the valley, Jin Jia was slumped, and he felt a little worried.

"Finally gone, that person is terrible." Jin Jia looked bitter and looked at Qin Tiange who walked into the valley, and naturally recognized the breath of this person.

The breath of this person was the breath that was chased by the violent fire phoenix at first, and finally the fire phoenix did not catch up, and almost burned the golden armor.

"This man is too dangerous, so go away quickly." Jin Jia Ma Liu climbed up, turned around and stunned, disappeared into the ground.

He ran away and left Changbai Mountain directly, afraid to stay here. Although I said that I was reluctant to leave this treasure of ginseng everywhere, but I still felt that my life was important and I ran away.

For this transformed pangolin, Qin Tiange ignored it at all, but was very interested in the possible secret in the valley.

When he came to Changbai Mountain, Qin Tiange was unexpectedly surprised by the fierce resentment and boundless resentment of refining himself.

Millions of real humans have been slaughtered. At this point, Qin Tiange did not expect that the resentment would be so strong, and it took three days and nights to complete it.

In the valley, the mist shrouded, and the strange waves constantly spread out, allowing Qin Tiange to easily capture it. This is the fluctuation of space.

Qin Tiange, who understands the black particles in space, is naturally familiar with the power of space, so he hastened his pace and rushed towards the east where the space fluctuated violently.

Not long after, Qin Tiange came to the deepest part of the valley, just to see the scene that surprised him.

“Yeah yeah”

In the depths of the valley, little dolls with heights of nine inches and small bellybands hanging around their chests were playing there, alas, they looked extremely cute.

At first glance, Qin Tiange saw that these little dolls were not human, but ginseng dolls. Yes, there are even a group of ginseng dolls. There are nine ginseng dolls.

“Hundreds of years old ginseng essence?” I saw that the group of ginseng dolls was surrounded by a one-foot-tall old man with a white beard, a smile and a amiable smile, which was formed by a ten-year-old man.

Suddenly, the old ginseng’s complexion suddenly changed greatly, and he looked up sharply, and when he saw Qin Tiange’s arrival, he was astonished.

“Dolls run away!” The old ginseng exclaimed, greeting the nine ginseng dolls and spreading out, and the panicked would dig into the ground.

“Space prison, set!” Qin Tiange directly pointed out, and saw a dark prison cage in front of him directly trapped the group of ginseng dolls, including the elderly ginseng essence.

He walked step by step, looking at the group of imprisoned ginseng dolls and elderly ginseng in amazement, which looked nothing like the products of the earth.

“Forgiveness, forgiveness, please, please let go of these little guys, I can let you eat.” The elderly ginseng noodles with frightened color, begging for mercy directly.

His hair is messy, with a few leaves growing, and a white beard, which is actually a ginseng beard, and he is a special strain of old ginseng.

“Oh yeah,” the ginseng dolls shouted in horror, and they couldn’t speak, all looking at Qin Tiange in horror.

After listening to this old man’s ginseng essence, Qin Tiange ignored the nine ginseng dolls, and suddenly felt that they were all the same kind of breath, and they were of the same origin, which surprised him. .

“Honestly tell me what these ginseng dolls are, they are definitely not ginseng.” Qin Tiange stared at his eyes, and glared at the elderly ginseng finely.

The latter had a pale face and contracted pupils, apparently seen by Qin Tiange. These ginseng dolls were not made of ginseng.

“They, they are, they are ginseng fruits.” The old ginseng essence finally said this answer under Qin Tiange’s sharp eyes.

After hearing this, Qin Tiange’s pupils shrank, his heart could not help but jumped. No wonder these ginseng dolls were full of intense energy fluctuations, which were huge.

“Become a refined ginseng fruit?” Qin Tiange’s voice stretched, his breathing inevitably a little hastily, staring at the nine ginseng dolls.

“Don’t kill them, please. I tell you where the ginseng fruit trees are. Please don’t kill these dolls.” The old ginseng spooked Qin Tiange’s eyes and immediately panicked, asking for mercy.

He eagerly said: “Dear strong man, I can tell you where the ginseng fruit tree is, just ask you not to hurt these dolls, they are not easy to be born.”

“Really?” Qin Tiange thoughtfully, looking at the nine inexplicable ginseng dolls, and it was not easy to give birth to conscious ginseng fruit.

The old ginseng essence made Qin Tiange even more surprised, and looked at each other up and down soon felt a majestic energy from his old body.

There is also a breath of vicissitudes of time. This old ginseng extract is not simple, but it has not only grown for 10,000 years.

“How many years have you lived?” Qin Tiange asked directly.

The old ginseng had a pale complexion, gritted his teeth, and said his age: “With the first half of my life without the awareness of birth, I have lived for 100,000 years.”

100,000 years, this is enough to make people scary. A ginseng plant has lived for 100,000 years, which is absolutely shocking.

10,000 years of ginseng can be shocking, not to mention the old ginseng essence that has lived for 100,000 years, this old ginseng is definitely a treasure.

Once he eats him, he will definitely get great benefits, but Qin Tiange has not done so because he no longer needs the energy of this old ginseng essence to enhance his strength.

“Tell me where the ginseng fruit tree is and spare your life.”

After thinking about it, Qin Tiange finally did not erase the consciousness of this old ginseng essence, but instead asked about the related ginseng fruit trees, which was the focus.

Chapter 540 - 9 dead trees, ancient memories

“The ginseng fruit tree is inside ...”

At the end of the valley, the elderly ginseng brought Qin Tiange here, stood in front of a secret entrance, and pointed out that the ginseng fruit tree was inside the secret territory.

Qin Tiange’s eyes flickered and he smiled and said, “Old ginseng, you lead the way. I want to meet the master behind you.”

“Yes, please come with me.” The old ginseng’s complexion changed slightly, his heart was stunned.

He didn’t expect Qin Tiange to guess, without hesitation, he took Qin Tiange into the secret place.

Qin Tiange smiled, took nine ginseng dolls into the secret place, and entered this mysterious place.

...

After passing through the passage, Qin Tiange entered a strange fantasy, surrounded by mists, diffused rays of light, and strange flowers and grasses competing to open, like a fairyland.

This is the mystery. As for what mystery is, Qin Tiange does not understand it, because he has not entered in the previous life and has not come in this life. He naturally does not understand it.

“Yeah ...”

At the moment of entering the mysterious state, the nine ginseng dolls were immediately excited, yelling unceasingly, as if returning home.

Qin Tiange smiled, and let go of the nine ginseng dolls directly, no longer restricting them, and saw the nine ginseng dolls hurry and flew away happily.

Their immature faces are still a little scared, and they are a little scared when they look at Qin Tiange’s eyes, and they dare not come by hiding around the old ginseng essence.

“Dear strong man, the master has asked.” The old ginseng’s gaze flashed, and he arched his hand to lead the way.

Sure enough, Qin Tiange guessed quite well. This old ginseng fine was taken out to play with nine ginseng dolls. He was more like a servant.

As for the owner behind it, the source of the nine ginseng dolls is probably the ginseng fruit tree in his mouth.

With a hint of curiosity, Qin Tiange followed the old ginseng essence in front of him, and passed through a valley covered by glow, and saw a huge fruit tree.

“Ginseng fruit tree!” Qin Tiange narrowed his eyes and looked at the ninety-foot-tall fruit tree with sparse branches and leaves, but with strange fruits hanging like a baby.

This is the ginseng fruit tree!

“Master, old slave is back.”

The old ginseng came to the ginseng fruit tree and worshiped gently. Nine ginseng dolls cheered and flew up, dancing quickly between the treetops, looking very happy.

At this time, Qin Tiange looked cautiously, staring directly at the huge ginseng fruit tree, and felt a strong wave of energy.

“The ginseng fruit tree blossomed in three thousand years, three thousand years of fruition, and three thousand years of maturity, known as an immortal tree ...” Qin Tiange muttered, with a little curiosity in his eyes, looking at the fruits on the tree, a full 36.

Some fruits are three inches tall, with exquisite features, like little dolls. This is a ginseng fruit that has just formed. It is three thousand years old and immature. Some six-inch-tall, equally delicate, have stronger energy fluctuations and have matured.

There are one or two nine inches tall, with a very strong energy breath, as if they were living babies. A wave of consciousness has been born inside, which may turn into a real creature. It has been nine thousand years and seems to evolve towards the creature.

“Little friend, go inside.”

Suddenly, a bland old voice came from the ginseng fruit tree, and a trunk was opened on the trunk, green and radiant, exuding an endless breath of life.

Huh!

The nine ginseng dolls cheered immediately and rushed directly into the portal. Then, the old ginseng stood in front of the portal, bowed gently, and made a pleased action.

Qin Tiange smiled indifferently, walked up, stepped into the portal, disappeared here, leaving only the old ginseng fine to keep quietly outside.

In the trunk, there is no hole in the sky. It turned out to be a small world, which surprised and surprised Qin Tiange. A fruit tree formed a small world in his body, which was shocking enough.

This small world, the size of three football fields, is filled with a rich turquoise mist everywhere, and one breath can make people sick and prolong their lives.

This is the vitality of life, so strong and shocking that even Qin Tiange can't help but be surprised.

“Sister, please sit ...”

A white-haired old man sat in front of a wooden house and nodded kindly at him. Nine ginseng dolls happily danced around the old man, yelling constantly.

Qin Tiange didn't hesitate. He sat opposite the old man, and they looked at each other like this, each of them surprised.

The old man was horrified: "This son has the emperor's purple gas and the luck of the people. It seems to be one of the candidates of the people's clan in this era."

At the moment, Qin Tiange secretly said, "This old man has no breath and can not sense any energy fluctuations. It is extremely scary. He is the ancient creature formed by the ginseng fruit tree?"

They both speculated that the atmosphere of silence was a little depressed for a while, but Qin Tiange and the old man didn't care, and Youyou drank tea.

Than patience, Qin Tiange was not afraid of anyone, his face calmly, drinking a cup of turquoise tea, contains a strong vitality.

"Little friend's blessing is deep ..." the old man said this lightly.

Qin Tiange chuckled and replied: "The old gentleman is amazing. He can live from the previous period to the present. It is indeed a ginseng fruit tree known as one of the nine undead trees in the world."

Huh?

The old man was surprised, and looked up and down Qin Tiange, even more shocked. He didn't expect Qin Tiange to know some secrets of the First Era. He actually originated from the last one who survived, one of the nine undead trees, the ginseng fruit tree.

I only heard him sigh and said, "Where did the little friend know the secrets of Aki?"

"Kunlun, immortal peach tree, Qianyuan ..." Qin Tiange drank a few words, drinking tea.

As the words came out, the old man's pupils shrank, his eyes shone, and he suddenly laughed: "I never thought that Xiaoyou actually knew Qianyuan, and it seemed that he had taken undead peach?"

In this regard, Qin Tiange nodded and admitted that there was nothing to hide. He naturally took a piece of undead Peach, which is a peach tree rooted on a jade coffin, known as the Undead Peach, one of the nine undead trees in the world.

Immortal peach can raise Qin Tiange's physical life level, break the limits, and even increase the potential of the immortal body.

In this regard, the immortal peach is enough to make people fascinated. Qin Tiange can eat one, indicating that the blessing is deep.

"Little friend, thank you for not embarrassing my old servant and these nine little guys. It can be considered a fate to come here, and this 9,000-year-old ginseng fruit that naturally fell off will be given to my little friend ..."

The old man said, turning his palms, a ray of light flashed, and then a crystal clear fruit appeared in front of him.

This is a nine-thousand-year-old ginseng fruit, naturally falling off, nine inches tall, exquisite features, exuding strong energy fluctuations, and even a hint of immortality. The ginseng fruit of the nine thousand years has a mysterious effect, especially the immortal immortality, which is most valued by Qin Tiange.

Before taking the undead peach, I actually sensed it, but I have not been able to comprehend the immortality.

Now I saw that the old man even took out a ginseng fruit to entertain him. This was beyond Qin Tiange's expectations, but he was not surprised.

Ginseng fruit contains great energy, but it is not very useful for him to improve his strength. The only thing that is useful is the immortality.

"Thank you!" Qin Tiange bowed his thanks, took the ginseng fruit, but did not eat it in front of the old man and the nine ginseng dolls.

This is not good at all. Take a look at the nine cheering ginseng dolls and eat the ginseng fruit in front of them. That will lead to their malice.

"Mr. Old, can you tell me something about the secrets of the previous period?" After receiving the ginseng fruit, Qin Tiange asked directly.

This is what he always wanted to know. Some of the secrets of the last era were just that no one could know.

Looking at it now, there is actually an undead ginseng fruit tree that survived the previous era. Naturally, this opportunity will not be missed.

The old man bowed his head after listening, and fell into a long silence, as if recalling the previous era, the ancient and cruel era, with a trace of nostalgia and sadness on his face.

"You want to know the mysteries of the previous period. In fact, this is not difficult, but understanding these may not be of any benefit to you at all, but it will hurt you." The old man persuaded softly.

However, after turning his voice, he said, "But there is still something to tell you. Since you want to know, I can tell you anyway."

"Little friend, you are optimistic, feel it yourself."

The old man's breath changed, and he had no breath fluctuations suddenly burst into a boundless momentum, his fingers flashed at Qin Tiange's eyebrow.

Suddenly, Qin Tiange almost broke out, and the force of time and space almost instinctively counterattacked. Fortunately, he could not sense the crisis, and suppressed the two forces.

Uh ...

With a flash of light, Qin Tiange's consciousness suddenly flickered, and then the whole person entered a strange fantasy.

“Here it is ...” Qin Tiange looked stunned looked around blankly, an ancient and broad breath came to his face.

An ancient scroll, countless ancient secrets, many secrets about the last era were finally revealed one by one in front of Qin Tiange.

This is the memory of the old man, which directly allowed Qin Tiange to experience and feel for himself. The reckless ancient era, countless characters, and various major events emerged as if he had personally experienced the ancient era.

As the memory of the old man drifted, Qin Tiange was completely shocked by the scene he saw. Since then, he has taken the initiative to blend in with him and feel the ancient and vast atmosphere.

Vaguely, Qin Tiange’s understanding of time is accelerating a little bit, as if in a long memory, he has gained a kind of insight, extremely deep and mysterious perception.

This is an opportunity. I didn’t expect that the old man directly gave him this ancient memory, and I have to say that Qin Tiange was shocked.

In the long memory of the old man, Qin Tiange saw a lot of secrets that he did not understand, and even did not know. Even in this majestic and long memory, Qin Tiange’s own life perception is growing rapidly and his heart is quiet. A mysterious transformation has taken place.
